

Ideas on Community Building Traded at Combined Meeting

A combined meeting of the Northville Board of Education and two members of the Village Commission exchanged ideas and agreed on a tentative plan of action concerning the proposed Northville Community Building last Thursday night, April 24.

Both groups will wait for an opinion from the Walter L. Cousc Co. regarding a proposed plan to centralize the heating plant for the Community Building and two school buildings before proceeding further.

Results of the idea exchange are that the village of Northville should bond for the amount necessary to complete the Community Building over and above the approximately $160,000 in the fund at present; that the Board of Education should be responsible for maintenance of the building in return for its use for certain school functions, and that, if a combined gymnasium and auditorium is incorporated in the building, plans for more seating than are shown on present drawings should be made.

W. E. McCarthy, who was present to explain building plans to the meeting, and to help with building information was asked to check the feasibility of centralizing the heating plant in either the present grade school, or in an outside building, to provide heat for all three buildings, and to return a opinion to Village Commissioner Alton Peters, who suggested the idea.

Peters said that present plans for the building would have to be changed if council and village offices were to be located in the Community building, and the possibility of adding 800 to 1000 seats to the proposed 800 seats in the gymnasium-auditorium was discussed.

Also under discussion was the possibility of full-scale excavation under the building to provide more space, possibly for a recreation room. Present plans call for only partial excavation.

The Board of Education will discuss the ideas at its next meeting and Commissioner Peters will report to the Village Commission when it meets.

Eural F. Clark, George L. C. Donald, and Severance and Robert Coolman were the members of the School Board present at the meeting, along with Schools Superintendent Russell H. Amerman and High School Principal Elroy V. Ellison. The commission was represented by the Community Building Committee, Commissioners Peters and A. Malcolm Allen.

Northville winner of the 17th Annual National Essay Contest sponsored by the local Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4012 was Walter Newton, eleventh grade student at Northville High School and son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Newton of West Seven Mile Rd.

By winning the local contest, Walter's essay on "America is Everybody's Business" enters the state contest, which is to be judged prior to June 15. State winners are entitled to enter the V. F. Twelve essays by local boys and girls were submitted for final judging in Northville. Second place was awarded to Sally Davis, third to Ruth Pullen, fourth to Gay Duerson and fifth to Barbara Bayless.

The V. F. W. contest is conducted to promote sound thinking on the obligations of American citizenship by high school boys and girls. Each year the contest has grown in importance and in the number of students entering its competition throughout the country.

Prizes by the local auxiliary, V. F. W., are $15 for first place, $10 for second place, and $6, $5 and $4 for third, fourth and fifth places respectively.

Walter's essay is printed on Page 2, and is worthy of the attention of very reader.

Baseline District to Vote May 3 on Joining Northville

Petitions calling for a special election in Baseline School District 11, Fractional to vote upon a proposal for annexation to Northville were filed with the Baseline district school board Wednesday, April 23 following a disputed vote at a meeting held the same day. The election is set for Saturday, May 3.

The April 23 meeting was the second held in the district to vote on annexation, the first having been called at an earlier date through petitions which were found to be faulty. The April 23 meeting, according to Mrs. J. Philip Anderson, district moderator, was to determine sentiment for and against annexation. It resulted in a vote of 42 "yes", including one late vote, and 43 "no", including two votes challenged on the basis of non-residence.

Proponents of the annexation proposal circulated new petitions on the spot calling for the special election next Saturday.

District Chairman

Mrs. Douglas Heads BPW District No. 2

Mrs. Marcella Douglas was elected as the new chairman of District No. 2 of the Business and Professional Women at their meeting on Saturday, April 26, in Plymouth.

Mrs. Douglas, a member of the Northville BPW since its origination, and president of the group in 1951, served last year as vice-chairman of the district.

Nineteen members of the Northville Club attended the meeting held at the Mayflower Hotel, Plymouth. A workshop was conducted in the afternoon on Saturday by Mrs. Houston Whipple on parliamentary procedure. At the dinner meeting, a paper on the history of Plymouth was read.

Irene Wick, daughter of Mrs. Doris Wick of Seven Mile Rd., entertained at a picnic at her home on Tuesday evening, April 29.

Carl Johnson, of Orchard Dr., spent part of Monday and Tuesday in East Tawas, due to the illness of his mother, Mrs. C. A. Johnson.

Plans Commission Considering New Areas For Parking

The Northville Planning Commission will meet Tuesday evening, May 6, to consider parking areas which might be acquired by the Village to round-out its program for providing off-street parking in the downtown area, according to Thomas R. Carrington, commission chairman.

The meeting is being held in compliance with the Village Commission's request that the Planning Commission develop a definite plan for acquisition of parking areas. Mr. Carrington indicated that the Planning Commission will concentrate on developing such a plan quickly, but that several meetings probably will be necessary to arrive at a concrete proposal.

"One of the basic considerations in any over-all Village parking program is the development of one or more locations for all-day parking by individuals who are employed downtown," Mr. Carrington said. "At present, such persons use the space in the rear of stores on North Center St. and East Main St., and the lot at the southwest corner of Main and Center streets, both of which could be made available for customer parking if they were surfaced and metered."

As an alternative which the Planning Commission will consider, Mr. Carrington suggests the area west of the Village fire hall for all-day parking so the above areas, and others which the Planning Commission may suggest, may be acquired for metered off-street parking.

Junior Class Play Slated for May 8-9

The junior class of Northville High School will present "Cheaper by the Dozen" at two performances Thursday and Friday nights, May 8 and 9, in the high school auditorium. The curtain will rise at 8 p.m. each night.

The three-act comedy, written by Frank Gilbreth, Jr., and Earnestine Gilbreth Carey, portrays the homelife of the Gilbreth family and traces the joys and sorrows of raising a large family. The book by the same name, was a best-seller, and a movie taken from the book was popular with audiences. The play is dramatized by Perry Clark.

Principal characters in the play will be Walter Newton and Pat Heibert as "Dad"; Barbara Cousc and Catherine Rambeau as "Mother"; Leland Brown and James Lapham as "Frank"; Pat Baskins and Theresa Duchesneau as "Earnestine"; and Roberta Malott and Lillian Dickinson as "Anne". Most parts in the play will be acted by two students, one for each of the two performances.

Miss Florence Panattoni, high school speech and forensics teacher, is director of the play.

Windows Smashed in Two Cottages

Two cottages and a house trailer at 20144 Beck Rd. were broken into and windows were smashed last week, said Northville Police Chief Joseph Denton.

Miss Nvart Hampikian, of 5757 Cass Ave., Detroit, owner of the cottages and trailer, said that she discovered the smashed windows, and that dishes and personal property had been broken and thrown outside the buildings when she visited the property Sunday, April 26, according to Denton. The property had been intact the previous Sunday, she said, when she was there to check the buildings, which are used primarily during the summer months.

Other cases of vandalism have been reported in the past few weeks, among them the smashing of windows in the new Catholic Parochial School now under construction on Orchard Dr.

The Hampikian case was turned over to the Wayne County Sheriff Department, which has jurisdiction over the area.

School Board Post Open For Election

An election for a three-year term on the Northville School Board will be held at the Annual School Meeting June 9, said Superintendent of Schools Russell H. Amerman. The term of Eural F. Clark, now president of the board, will expire June 30, 1952.

Candidates for the post must be nominated by an official petition bearing the signatures of not less than 50 nor more than 75 registered and qualified electors of the school district. The deadline for filing petitions is 4 p.m. Saturday, May 10, with the secretary of the school board, George L. Clark, 849 West Main St.

Candidates and persons signing petitions must reside in the Northville School District, own property in the district and have their names on the assessment rolls. If property is owned jointly, both owners are eligible to vote, regardless of the name under which the property is listed. A new school law this year states that electors must be registered with the clerks of the townships in which they reside, regardless of previous registrations.

In order to register, voters must have resided in the school district for 30 days, in the state for six months, and be citizens of the United States.

Supt. Amerman warns prospective candidates to observe the number of petition signatures carefully. Act 199, Public Acts of 1951 of the School Code, states that less than 50 or more than 75 signatures makes the petition illegal. The law was passed, said Amerman, to prevent the cornering of signatures in small school districts, since electors may sign only the number of petitions equal to the number of vacancies on the board to be filled, or one, in this election.

Petitions may be obtained from Superintendent Amerman at the Northville Grade School office, and only the petitions obtained there are legal.

Consumers Power Company has been granted permission to supply natural gas to 15,000 new house heating customers in Michigan during 1952, said George Mayhew, manager of the Consumers Power West Wayne District. Permission was granted by the Michigan Public Service Commission and the Detroit Administration for Defense.

The West Wayne District, which includes Northville, will be allocated 755 permits. Letters informing eligible applicants were mailed Monday, Mayhew said.

Applicants included in the drawing Oct. 10, 1951, and not released, will have first choice in the new allocation. Applications filed after Oct. 10 will be approved in the order in which they were filed.

Variety of Entertainment Offered by P. T. A. Carnival at 2 Northville Schools May 2

A full evening of fun and entertainment for all age groups will be offered Friday night, May 2, when the third annual P.T.A. Proceeds from the carnival are earmarked for the P. T. A. scholarship awarded each year to some worthy senior student who intends to follow the teaching profession and for items needed in the schools.

Movies will include a feature, "The Outlaw Stallion", and short subjects with W. C. Fields and Abbott and Costello. Films of the 500-mile race at Indianapolis, Ind., fishermen of Gloucester, and American Indians will be shown, sponsored by the Ford Motor Co.

Other features will include a white elephant sale, for which items have been collected during the past two weeks, and a candy sale featuring home-made candy furnished by the Mothers' Club. The Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 4012, will manage the Gypsy Tea Room, complete with fortune tellers and a cake walk, and the Auxiliary of Lloyd H. Green Post 147, the American Legion, will sponsor a doll show. Mrs. Ruth King and Mrs. Matilda Westphal will manage these activities, with Miss June King assisting with the doll show.

Many booths, including the sale of hot dogs, ice cream and cake, and pop corn, will be open at 6:30 p.m. for the hundreds of customers expected at the carnival which will be in full swing by 7 p.m.

The general admission price of $1.00 gives the customer a dollar's worth of tickets good anywhere in the two school buildings.

Band Gets "Two" Rating in Finals

The Northville High School band received a rating of "two" in the state finals competition at Lansing last Saturday, said Leslie G. Lee, High school music director. Oxford High School, which played immediately before Northville, was given a "one" rating. Northville was one of 20 Class B bands to compete in the finals.

Competition began at 9 a.m. at Jennison Field House at Michigan State College and ended at 6:30 p.m. The Northville band played at 5 p.m. and was rated "one" in sight reading and "three" in concert for the average score of "two".

The band, competing in its first year in Class B, qualified for the finals by receiving four ratings of "one" at the District Band Festival at Ypsilanti March 15.

Third Bad Check For $120 Cashed

Burt Robinson, proprietor of the Cavalcade Inn on Northville-Plymouth Rd., is the second victim of a $120 bad check bearing the business name of "Stephen LaGrant and Sylvan T. Cain, Carpenters and Contractors", said Police Chief Joseph Denton.

John Poulos, proprietor of the Northville Restaurant, cashed two checks bearing the same business name, each for $120, on April 4. All three were drawn on the Farmington State Bank, which, at one time, had an account in the name of LaGrant and Cain. The account is now closed out, a bank official said.

Let Us Have Faith in the Future

The sun shines brightly outside our window as we start our editorial stint this week. Flowers are blooming in the woods, and shrubs are in flower along the roadside as we drive to the office. A wren has started to build her nest in a tree by the kitchen door and a flock of starlings has taken over our martin (?) house. Spring—with the promise of long, happy days ahead—has finally arrived.

Amidst all of the beauty of this Northville countryside it is difficult to realize that the good things of life which are commonplace to us are by no means universal in the world. War in Korea, starvation in China and India, the armed tension in Eastern and Western Europe, are strangely foreign to the peaceful beauty that envelops our small community.

All of which gives us an excuse to relate a very stimulating experience over the past week-end—one which gives us renewed faith in the ability of the human race ultimately to overcome the frailties which are the root of most of its troubles today.

As a judge in the essay contest sponsored by the Northville Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars among high school students, it became our duty to read the twelve best essays submitted locally. Thousands of similar essays written by high school students in other cities and villages throughout the country have been entered in a national contest sponsored by the V.F.W. to choose the best paper on the subject "America Is Everybody's Business".

Let no one say that the youth of this generation is lacking in potential leaders who probably will do a better job guiding the destinies of our country than their elders are doing today. Nor that the teachers in our schools are not doing a superb job teaching today's youth to think clearly on fundamentally important matters that are at the root of most of the world's present evils.

Judging by the twelve essays written by local boys and girls, any such characterization of either teachers or students simply would not be in accordance with the facts. In our judgment, the V.F.W. contest has demonstrated conclusively that Northville's teachers have made a major contribution to this community by instilling in their pupils the ability to distinguish truth from "isms", and to view the world about them with both realism and hope for the future.

We feel that all of the boys and girls who entered the essay contest are to be commended highly for their effort, and for their character which enabled them to write with penetrating thought upon so broad a subject. Unfortunately, there can be only one "best" essay in any contest of this nature. That one was written by Walter Newton, who is in the eleventh grade. It is reprinted in full on this page and is well worth reading.

Congratulations to the winner, to the other contestants, and to the teachers who have contributed more perhaps than they realize toward the development of tomorrow's leaders in America.

America is Everybody's Business

by Walter Newton

Last night I had a dream. I had been reading about the hearings on un-American activities, when I fell asleep. I suddenly found myself in a courtroom filled with people from all over the world—a peasant from China, a Hindu from India, a farmer from Italy, a fugitive from Russia, a miner from Germany, a businessman from Britain, but none from America. Wondering, I looked to see who was on trial to bring all these people together. There stood America before the bar, with Almighty God, the judge, asking her, "Have you anything to say in your defense before judgment shall be passed upon you?" And America argued:

"I have expanded from an insignificant colony on the Atlantic to a powerful nation covering half a continent. I have developed a democratic government. I have developed a constitution which has promoted justice, equality and domestic tranquility and which gives my people freedom of religion, of speech and press, and of home and property. I have used my natural resources to develop a strong economy, giving to my people the highest living standard in the world. I have produced beyond even my fondest expectations. With but one sixteenth of the world's population I have produced seven sixteenths of its wealth. I have conquered disease and saved many lives. I have done all this and defended it with an army undefeated in two world wars. I have expanded, developed, produced, and defended."

A feeling of pride came over me. My America had really accomplished something. But the man sitting next to me said, "It sounds good, but other nations have done this and failed. America will also fail unless she does something more." Before I could reply, the Lord began to speak:

"Yes, America, you have done all these things, but you have forsaken me. You have freedom of religion, but your churches are only half filled. You profess to be a Christian nation, but your people don't practice Christianity."

"You have freedom of home, but you have no homes. In America, home no longer consists of a family, devout and righteous, but has become only a place to eat and sleep. It is no longer a place of love and understanding. Marriage has become an experiment—if it fails, it is cleared at Reno and tried again. Why is it, America, that your people have failed to maintain a home?"

"You have produced and made the almighty dollar a false god. You have pushed the material ahead of the spiritual, the temporal ahead of the eternal. You have saved lives, yet lost the purpose of living. You feast in wealth while nations across the sea starve in their poverty. You say you have promoted domestic tranquility, but the material has over-ridden any peace of mind, leaving your people seeking an escape. The joys of this world are not peace, only temporary escapes.

"You pride yourself on your democratic government, but your people have let it reek of five per centers, mink coats, and deep freezes. You have sacrificed moral values for expedience in obtaining votes. Why have you let your government be captured by money mongers and thieves?"

"You say you have promoted justice, but you have no justice. Where is your justice when minorities are kept out of schools and churches? Where is your justice when minorities are segregated and ostracized from society? Your constitution has not failed to promote justice but your people have. Because your people have failed to make it their business you America will also fail!"

Stunned by the truth of the verdict I awoke. As I lay there thinking I realized for the first time that it is I who am on trial. The guilt is mine because I am an American citizen and America is every citizen's business. We must awake to our responsibilities and solve the problem.

We can clean up the government by using our vote intelligently. We can do this only if we study the candidate, his record, and his qualifications. I, as a student, can prepare myself in school to be a good citizen and an intelligent voter. I must earn the respect of my fellow students and teachers by obeying the rules of the school. I must take seriously my student government and my classes in United States History, Economics, and American Government. Not only must we be intelligent voters, we must also be active participants in the government. It is true that we can't all be leaders but neither can we all be followers. Each of us should assume his share of responsibility. Our attitudes, too, are important. We can't have honest government if we, ourselves, are dishonest—if we think the end justifies the means. We must place integrity above expediency.

Through understanding others, we have removed many of our prejudices. To establish justice we must treat every man as we would have him treat us. That means respect for other men and their ideas and rights. That means good will among all. That means defending another's rights when they are threatened. That means love and understanding for each other. Then and only then will we have established justice.

In order to maintain a home, we must be at home more often, even if it means giving up some outside activities. When we are at home we should work together for the common good. We must loyally assist each other in solving problems. We must be dutiful and loving to our parents, family and God. Then we will make our house a home.

If we are to survive, we must recognize that America is everybody's business. We, her citizens, are on trial before the world. The sun peeping through my window marks a new day. I am ready. I know that we, her citizens, with the guidance of God and awaking to our responsibilities we will win the trial.

Green Thumb

by Paul Newton

Flowering trees which add beauty to the garden in spring are best planted in April or early May. If they are comparatively small—under five feet in height—and still dormant, they can be planted bare-root. Most nurseries will guarantee them for one growing season if their roots are balled and burlapped, which permits planting after they have started to emerge from the dormant stage.

While most flowering trees require from two to four years for growth before they bloom, in the long run they afford a maximum of enjoyment with minimum effort, for their beauty increases year after year as they increase in size.

Early-Blooming Trees

One of the earliest bloomers is amelanchier, or shadblow, which flowers in late April with racemes of white flowers which open in advance of the leaves. The leaf buds which have a covering of white woolly hairs, have a silvery appearance which is especially attractive. This is a common New England tree.

Another of the very early flowering trees is the cornelian cherry, whose pale yellow flowers come in March and April. Its scarlet fruits in August make wonderful preserves. This tree grows well in slight shade.

The flowering plum (prunus triloba) blooms just after the forsythia. Its double, bright pink flowers come before the leaves and cover the branches so completely that no wood is visible. Prunus pissardi rosea has deep shaded foliage which lasts throughout the summer and makes a beautiful color against the gray-green foliage of the Russian olive.

Flowering Crab Apples

Among the best of the flowering crab apple trees are Siberian crab (malus baccata), Sargent's crab (malus sargentii), Arnold crab (malus arnoldiana), and Japanese crab (malus floribunda). The cut-leaf crab malus toxioides is more prized for its rosy-cheeked fruits than for its blossoms. One of the latest to bloom, but the most beautiful, is the Bechtel crab, which has the disadvantages of being relished by the Japanese beetle and of being subject to cedar apple rust.

Also to be considered seriously is the malus eleyii crab, which is especially showy and beautiful. Dr. H. L. R. Chapman, Michigan State College extension specialist in horticulture, recommends this variety above all others if garden size limits planting to only one variety.

Flowering Cherries

Among the flowering cherries is the prunus autumnalis which blooms in spring and again in the fall. The hawthorns dot the hill-sides in May, with the Washington thorn having the finest flowers and an abundance of red berries later.

Next come the redbud and flowering dogwood, with blossoms that beautify the landscape.

The goldrain tree, which flowers into July, has become increasingly popular for this reason. It has a picturesque flat top, while its small yellow flowers form in upright panicles that give the effect of golden rain drops.

In planting trees it is well to remember that a five dollar tree requires a fifteen dollar hole if it is to thrive and grow rapidly. The hole must be LARGE ENOUGH to allow the roots to spread out horizontally, rather than to be cramped so they curve upward. The earth should be soft so the feeder roots can start their growth immediately. Never put fertilizer next to the bare roots. Put it in the bottom of the hole, and cover it with a layer of earth. After the tree is planted, soak the ground with water and keep it mulched and watered throughout the dry and hot weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Breitmeyer, of West St. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Smith, of Farmington, Beverly Farm and Wilson Schratz of Livonia, attended the Big Barn Frolic in Detroit Saturday night.

Naturally the cost of a pool is tremendous but other towns have met the needs of their community problems by donation buildings. By that I mean actually selling the bricks, tiles, windows etc. Surely the children in the schools would work hard selling such items by grades, the P. T. A. would back it, also the Mothers club and all the other organizations that show such an active interest in our town.

Chrysler V-8 Saratoga Sedan, gasoline economy winner in Class "F". Entered and driven in the 1952 Mobil Oil Gas Economy Run by Chrysler Dealer McI Alsbury, Hollywood, It was one of three Chrysler FirePower V-8's to win in their respective classes.

180 HP CHRYSLER V-8 FIRST IN 3 CLASSES IN ECONOMY RUN!

Here is truly dramatic proof that Chrysler's great new FirePower 180 HP V-8 engine design sets an entirely new standard of efficiency among American passenger car engines!

In this annual economy test, rigidly supervised, and limited strictly to stock car entrants, cars competing are divided, by price and size, into 11 standard classes. The route, from Los Angeles to San Valley, covered 1,415 miles of every possible kind of driving. Average speed for all cars was just under 41 miles per hour.

And in 3 of the 11 classes, the Chrysler V-8 engine was best for gasoline mileage.

In Class "F", this magnificent new engine won first place for a Saratoga 6-passenger sedan (125 1/4-inch wheelbase, 4010 pounds). In Class "H", it won first honors for a Saratoga model 8-passenger sedan (139 1/4-inch wheelbase, 4510 pounds). And in the top price and size, Class "I", it was again first, in a Chrysler Crown Imperial Sedan (145 1/4-inch wheelbase, 5360 pounds).

To travel these substantial cars at this speed under these conditions gives additional proof, we believe, that here in the FirePower V-8 engine is the finest and most efficient engine ever put into an American passenger car!

WE INVITE YOU TO DRIVE THIS ENGINE, YOURSELF...

The same engine which has just scored these remarkable accomplishments is no farther from you than your own Chrysler Dealer. He will welcome the chance to let you take the wheel and feel for yourself what Chrysler has done... not only in engine performance, but in power steering, power brakes, new shock absorbers, passenger comfort... to deserve the title: "Finest Car America Has Yet Produced!"

He is survived by his wife, Agnes, who lives at 624 Elizabeth St., Milford, and one daughter, Pearl Jane. Five brothers and three sisters also survive. They are: Glenn and Howard of Flint, Jack of Northville, Clyde of Walpole Lake, John of Detroit, and Harold of California, as well as Mesdames Clarence King of Northville, Charles Baird and Harry Lipstrow of Flint.

Schwab Funeral Held Wednesday

Funeral services were conducted for Mrs. Georgiana Schwab, wife of Clarence Schwab, of 515 River St., on Wednesday, April 30. Mrs. Schwab died on Monday, April 28, at Atchison Memorial Hospital at the age of 58.

The Rev. Mr. Peter Nieuwkoop officiated at the service which was arranged through the Casterline Funeral Home. Burial was in Rural Hill Cemetery.

She is survived by two brothers, Wilson C. and James C. Sim, of Detroit; one sister, Mrs. Jane Whitehead, of St. Clair Shores, and her husband, Clarence.

Rolling Down The River

Well, all we know is what we hear in this spot or another and the other day someone tells us a man and a boy dropped in a barber shop recently. The man says he has an appointment in the neighborhood, so he'll have his hair cut first, which he does. He then places the lad in the chair, tells him to sit quietly and departs.

After a bit the barber finishes cutting the hair of the youngster and so the man hasn't yet returned, consoles the boy saying, "Don't worry fella, your Father will be back soon."

"But," yelps the startled small fry. "He isn't my father. He just comes up to me on the street and says, 'what say son, let's both go get a free haircut!'"

Now we're right glad that our customers aren't like that, because we couldn't afford to sell too many Studebakers at such bargain prices. But then again a '52 Studebaker is a bargain no matter what. And when you discover all that extra comfort, extra performance and extra economy, that you didn't believe possible, it is like getting the car for free anyway. With all this lovely weather why not drop in for a demonstration? Besides our doctor says we should get out in the fresh air on occasion.

A traveler from N. Y. was telling us of being on the ground floor of a double decker bus. So when the bus stops at a corner a young mother hurries down the steps from the deck, with a child in her arms. Placing the child in the aisle she hurried back for another and then a third. When she brings the fourth child down the stairs, some joker, trying to catch up on last week's sleep grumbles, "What does she have up there, a nest?"

Well, life is like that and we'd be most happy if you'd let your car carry you around to our shop every 1500 miles for the new grease and oil it needs. Then along about every 5000 miles have one of our expert mechanics give the motor a tune-up. You'll be glad you did, because of the extra performance your car will deliver... and we'll be glad because we've seen you again.

That's that, but a fellow says he overheard a couple of subteen boys discussing girls. Finally the kid in the cowboy hat declaims, "Aw nuts, girls are a dime a dozen." And with that, the third "man about 10" exclaims prayerfully, "Doggone, and all this time I've been buying cracker jack!"

Villagers Hear Aims of Minute Women

Patriotic Northville women were extended an invitation to become members of the Minute Women of the United States of America, Inc., by Mrs. Fred Black, Oakland County chairman of the group, at a morning meeting in the village library on Thursday, April 24.

Mrs. Black spoke briefly on the aims and purposes of the group. "Basically," she said, "The Minute Women promise that they will vote in every election . . . town, state and national." Women belonging to the organization look to the Constitution of the United States for the foundation of all laws, Mrs. Black stated. The organization urges the women of America to observe the American principle on which our country was founded: the freedom to vote.

The Minute Women is a non-partisan organization, united to combat Communism, Socialism, Fascism or collectivism in any form. Members of the group act as individuals, never as a pressure group, she said.

To become a full-fledged Minute Woman, prospective members are asked to enlist five new members for the group, said Mrs. Black, who resides in Orchard Lake Village.

Five-Play Drama Season Will Begin May 13 at U-M Mendelssohn Theatre

Three new plays and two recent Broadway hits plus such theatrical Big Wigs as Constance Bennett, Joan Blondell, Burgess Meredith, Sylvia Sidney, Betty Field, Edward Ashley and Margaret Phillips make up the 1952 drama season in Ann Arbor which this year, for the first time, is under the banner of the University of Michigan as a regularly constituted University activity.

The Lydia Mendelssohn Theatre in Ann Arbor will offer from May 13 to June 14 Christopher Fry's "Venus Observed" and

"The Four Poster," by Jan De Hartog, both currently playing on Broadway and "A Date with April," which opens in New York in the fall. "Goodbye, My Fancy" and "Come Back, Little Sheba," complete the five-play roster.

Sylvia Sidney in Play
Sylvia Sidney, a familiar and popular star of stage, screen and television, will star in "Goodbye, My Fancy," which opens the run May 13. The plot of this comedy is laid in a typical college town and the situations and witty dialog should find great favor with local audiences.

Listed among the ten best plays of 1950, "Come Back, Little Sheba" will be done on tour this spring by Joan Blondell. Miss Blondell is especially fond of the role of the slovenly wife, a role which has won her acclaim from critics in Philadelphia and the Southern cities where she took the play last fall. "Come Back, Little Sheba" will open May 20.

"The Four Poster" of the season is the release, to Ann Arbor alone, of the current success, "The Four Poster." This new work by Jan De Hartog recently won the Antoinette Award as the best play of the year and it is playing to capacity houses on Broadway now. Betty Field and Burgess Meredith will star in the Jose Ferrer production, opening at the Mendelssohn May 26 for a full week's run. Miss Field and Mr. Meredith leave for New York immediately after the Ann Arbor performance to take over the leads on Broadway, roles presently being played by Jessica Tandy and Hume Cronin.

The week of June 2 heralds another "first," as Constance Bennett brings her new, smart and colorful comedy, "A Date with April" to the boards of the Mendelssohn prior to opening in New York next fall. It is said that her gorgeous wardrobe in this play is the envy of all women and the despair of the males.

"Venus Observed," by the brilliant Christopher Fry, has been obtained for the fifth and final week of the season. One of the conditions of the release was that the bright young actor, Edward Ashley, would act the leading role, with Margaret Phillips starring with him. Miss Phillips is no stranger to Ann Arbor, as she will be remembered for her outstanding work in "The Heiress" three years ago. "Venus Observed" has just been given the Drama Critics Award as the best foreign play of the year.

Patrons are advised that folders on the plays will reach them within a few days to make it possible for mail orders, if desired. Counter sale of season tickets will open Wednesday, April 30. For mail orders address Garden Room, Michigan League, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Yerkes, Bogart Aid Safety Campaign

Edmund P. Yerkes, justice of Novi Township, and E. M. Bogart, Northville Township justice, announced that the Novi and Northville courts are cooperating with the Michigan State Safety Commission in the April-May Campaign against traffic accidents caused by dangerous turns.

According to Judge Bogart, the driver who turns either right or left at an intersection has a greater responsibility to be careful than a driver who goes straight through the intersection. This is because the turning driver cuts across the legal paths of other motorists and pedestrians, he added.

Judge Yerkes said, "A motorist brought into my court charged with making an illegal turn leaves the court no alternative but to impose a penalty if the facts are correct. No driver can get a driver's license without knowing the law on turns and passing an examination. Furthermore, the newspapers and radio stations are cooperating on the program and practically all motorists know about this safety program."

The judges pointed out that the process of reducing traffic accidents follows the sequence of public education, followed by the police apprehending those who will not cooperate, followed by the court assessing a penalty on violators as a forceful reminder not to violate in the future.

Spring Trash Fires Can Become Costly

State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, who is also state fire marshal, warns Michigan residents that spring cleaning may turn out to be a costly choice if special care is not taken when burning trash.

"Our fire loss reports show that local fire departments throughout the state are called more than 10,000 times each year when trash fires ignite buildings and surrounding property," Leonard said. "At least 1,000 buildings are destroyed or damaged. Such waste can be prevented if a few simple precautionary steps are taken."

"One of the most dangerous practices is starting trash fires on windy days. Wait for a calm day when the fire can be controlled more easily and there will not be so much danger of it spreading. Remember, too, fire has no respect for property lines."

"It is always best to burn trash away from buildings and use a properly screened trash burner. After lighting the fire, stay close by, don't leave it unattended. Keep a shovel or rake and water handy. When the fire appears to be out, make sure it is out by sprinkling dirt or water over the ashes."

"Avoid needless trouble and expense for yourself, your neighbor and your fire department. Be especially careful with trash fires."

Paint woodwork to match the walls and you will "increase" the size of your room, say Michigan State College authorities.

WHO FORMED THE EAR?

Whittaker Chambers, former Communist, made a very interesting statement in his recent serial in the Saturday Evening Post entitled, "I Was A Witness". He points out that "Communism is the vision of man without God". There is no God for the Communist, and to this atheistic creed Mr. Chambers was a subscriber. But one day, while sitting in his apartment in Baltimore, he was watching his little daughter in her high chair eating her porridge. Here are his thoughts "My eye came to rest on the delicate convolutions of the ear—those intricate, perfect ears. The thought passed through my mind, 'No, those ears were not created by chance coming together of atoms in nature (the communistic view). They could have been created only by immense design'. The thought was involuntary and unwanted. I crowded it out of my mind." Mr. Chambers would not allow himself to follow through on that thought because he knew that "design presupposes God". This was the first seed of doubt in his heart. Friend, the best, the most reasonable explanation of the creation of all things is found in the very first line of your Bible. It will be well worth your while to read your Bible to discover who God is and your relationship to Him.
