Merchants Association To Give Scholarship

Some deserving boy or girl graduate of Northville High School will be aided financially each year in pursuing an advanced course of study to fit them for some trade or business occupation through a scholarship established this week by members of the Northville Retail Merchants Association.

Roy Stone, Association president, announced establishment of a $100 annual scholarship fund for this purpose, with nominations of several boys and girls to be made by High School authorities, and final selection of the lucky applicant to be made by a committee from the Retail Merchants Association before the end of the present school year.

Northville boys and girls who wish to apply for the 1952 scholarship should contact either Russell H. Amerman, superintendent of schools, or E. V. Ellison, high school principal, Mr. Stone said. Specific information concerning eligibility of applicants will be provided by the Association immediately, he said. George L. Clark, chairman of the Association's scholarship committee, pointed out that the Association's scholarship will help fill the need for funds to assist boys and girls who are desirous of entering various trades and other occupations that do not require a college education. Among such occupations he listed secretarial training, accounting, nursing, mechanical and automotive trades. Among the institutions offering the latter type of training he listed Cass Technical High School in Detroit, General Motors Trade School in Flint, Chrysler Institute in Detroit and Wolverine Trade School in Detroit.

"Applicants for the Retail Merchants scholarship need not necessarily have been outstandingly brilliant high school students, although their grades naturally will be a factor in the final selection," Mr. Clark said. "Other considerations such as character, financial need, and the nature of the advanced studies they desire to pursue will have equal weight with the committee," he stated.

Parochial School to Have Open House

The new Our Lady of Victory School on Orchard Drive will be the scene of an open house Sunday, May 18, from noon until 5 p.m., when visitors may inspect the facilities of the Parochial School, said the Rev. Mr. Bernard J. Dominick, first assistant administrator of Our Lady of Victory Parish.

An enrollment of approximately one hundred and ten students is expected at the school when the fall term begins, said the Rev. Dominick.

Possible Site for Weber Co. Viewed

Members of the Northville Retail Merchants Association expressed concern at their meeting this week over the possibility that the Weber Machine Tool Co. may be forced to build a new plant elsewhere because of the lack of availability of any suitable industrial plant site in or near the Village.

It was pointed out that the only suitable industrial land adjacent to the Village is the triangular piece of property in the rear of the Warren Products plant. This fronts on Novi Road with the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad running along the rear. It is owned by an estate, the various parties to which are said to be divided in their desire to make it available for purchase.

After considerable discussion, Association members delegated Nelson C. Schrader, Jr., to meet with the various owners of the property and urge them to consider seriously the desirability from a civic standpoint of making the property available for industrial use.

Northville Talent in Men's Club Show

A Talent Night featuring singing and dancing by Northville performers will be presented by the Presbyterian Men's Club Monday, May 19, at 8 p.m., at the First Presbyterian Church House. Six acts are planned for the evening of entertainment, which the public is encouraged to attend. There will be no admission charge.

Glenn Schultz, George Bennett and Richard Drew will lead off the program as the "Boy Troubadours," followed by a flute trio, consisting of Marilyn Funk, Arlene Jerome and Gloria Clark, accompanied by Marlene Weiss.

Dancers from the Jordan Dance Studio will present three numbers, "The Syncopated Horse," "The Syncopated Tappers," and "Modern Rhythm." Marlene Weiss will play an obnoxious solo following the dance performance.

Robert Hart, accompanied by Fred Lupke at the piano, will sing a tenor solo, and a barber shop quartet composed of Charles Strautz, Ralph Bogart, Donald Robinson and Kalin Johnson will sing numbers.

Applications Ready for School Election Absentee Ballots

Electors who plan to use absentee voters' ballots in the Northville School Board election June 9, 1952, have until 2 p.m. on June 7 to apply for the ballots, said School Board Secretary George L. Clark.

One post on the board, for a three-year term ending June 30, 1955, is to be filled by the election of Eural F. Clark, whose term expires June 30, is the only candidate to file petitions for the post. Clark is now president of the board.

Official application forms for absentee ballots may be secured through Board Secretary Clark at the Board of Education office at the Northville Grade School. These applications are to be filled out according to attached directions and mailed to, or left at, the Board office. Ballots will be forwarded when ready.

Ballots, to be counted in the election, must be in the hands of the election board before 8 p.m. on election day, June 9. Voters must be registered with their township clerks to vote in the election, said Secretary Clark. Those electors in doubt should check with their township clerks, as registration with the school board is no longer valid.

An absent voter, as defined in the Michigan Election Law, is any qualified and registered elector who, on account of physical disability, is unable, without another's assistance, to attend the polls, or any qualified elector who expects to be absent from the school district during the period the polls will be open.

Church Banquets to Honor Village Mothers, Daughters

Mothers and daughters will be honored at two banquets tomorrow night, May 16. The women of the First Presbyterian Church and the First Methodist Church of Northville have both set their banquets for that evening with dinner starting at 6:30 p.m. in their respective church houses.

The Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service has asked Mrs. C. A. Rydmark, recording secretary of the North Central Jurisdiction, to be its

Contributions of Ties, Magazines No Longer Needed

When contributions of neckties and stockings were asked a few months ago for rehabilitation work in the women's division of the Detroit House of Correction, the resultant stream of ties and socks was startling to both the Northville Record staff and House of Correction officials. Later, contributions of magazines and books were asked for the State Mental Hospital on Seven Mile Road, and the response of Northville area residents was so enthusiastic that Record employees were forced, at times, to phone two or three times a week for trucks to carry the reading material away.

The job has been well done, and contributions are no longer needed. Readers of the Record have more than fulfilled the greatest expectations of heads of both the House of Correction and the State Hospital, who extend their thanks for Northville's generosity.

New Village Trees Must Be Watered

The new trees planted on Northville streets must have water if they are to survive, said John M. Miller, of Green Ridge Nursery, who supervised planting of the trees for the Village of Northville.

Residents who have new trees planted on their property are asked to see that the trees are watered frequently.

Eural F. Clark Is Only School Board Candidate

Inspection of petition signatures certified Eural F. Clark (right) to be a candidate for the June 9 election to the Northville School Board. Certification was done by Superintendent of Schools Russell H. Amerman (left) and School Board Member Donald B. Severance (center), as Clark watched. Clark, now president of the school board, is the only candidate for the new term of office, June 30, 1952 to June 30, 1955.

James Rambeau Named Winner of Optimist Contest

Five judges named James Rambeau winner of the fourth annual Optimist Oratorical Contest held at the Optimist meeting Wednesday night, May 7. He will represent the Northville club at the district Optimist convention May 24 at Adrian. The winner of that contest will compete at the International Convention at Louisville, Ky. in June against other district winners from the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Six members of the Optimist-sponsored Northville Forensics Club competed in last week's contest. Bruce Felker, Donald Birtles, Lynn Matson, Robert Gregory and Guy Brandt spoke before Optimist members and their wives, and were commended by Dr. Waldo Johnson for their orations in a close contest.

James and the two runners-up, Bruce Felker and Guy Brandt, were presented gold cups by the club. Miss Florence Panatoni, high school teacher, was given special recognition for her work with the Forensics Club, and was presented with a framed "Optimist Creed" by Adrian Willis. The Northville "Hill Billy Band," composed of Glenn Schultz, Richard Drew and George Bennett, surprised club members with musical entertainment.

Blood Bank Drive Scheduled June 17

The Northville Rotary Club will spearhead a blood drive scheduled for June 17, said Rotary President Charles F. Cairington. Another drive was held in Northville Jan. 18 of this year when residents donated 128 pints of blood.

Northville has been called on for the second drive because of the great need for whole blood and plasma occasioned by the continuing Korean conflict and national disasters, said Mr. Cairington.

A meeting of representatives of various Northville organizations cooperating in the drive will be held at the Veterans Memorial Hall Monday, May 19, at 8 p.m.

Post and Auxiliary members of the Lloyd H. Green Post 147, of the American Legion, and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4012 will cooperate in the village-wide sale of poppies on May 22, 23 and 24. Principal day of sale will be Friday, May 23, when Legion and V.F.W. sellers will be on the streets at 8 a.m.

To avoid duplication and to promote cooperation, poppy salesmen will alternate visits to plants and institutions in the area on a yearly basis. Both the VFW

Girls' State Representatives Named by 3 Organizations

Theresa Duchesneau and Marlene Weiss, both members of the Northville High School junior class, were chosen to attend Wolverine Girls' State at Ann Arbor June 17 to 25.

Theresa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Duchesneau, of Plymouth Ave., and Marlene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss, of Grace Ave.

Chosen as alternates were Patrice Baskins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Baskins, of Franklin Rd., and Barbara Bayless, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bayless, of W. Eight Mile Rd.

The girls will be sent to Girls' State by the Northville American Legion Auxiliary, Lloyd H. Green Post 147, the Northville Woman's Club, and the Northville Mothers' Club.

VFW Organizing "Dads" Auxiliary

The Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4012 is organizing a fathers' auxiliary to the post, said Floyd Kupsky, Senior Vice Commander, to be called "Dads" of Foreign Service Veterans. The auxiliary is a national organization.

Membership is limited to fathers of Foreign Service veterans of any war, both men and women. Mr. Kupsky said it is not necessary that fathers be veterans themselves, or that veteran sons or daughters be members of any of the VFW units. Fathers of foreign service veterans wishing to join should make contact with Mr. Kupsky at the VFW Hall on Northville Rd., Friday, May 16, after 6 p.m., or any time Saturday or Sunday.

The "Dads" of Foreign Service Veterans, said Mr. Kupsky, seeks to foster and perpetuate a spirit of comradeship among the fathers of all foreign service veterans, to safeguard the rights of their sons and daughters at home and abroad, to add an organized voice to that of all foreign service organizations and others working for their best interests, and to promote legislation in an effort to secure the rights and benefits guaranteed veterans under the constitution and laws of the nation.

by side, but maintain separate sales. Donald B. Severance is poppy chairman for the American Legion Post and Mrs. George Simmons is chairman for the Legion Auxiliary. For the V.F.W., Floyd Kupsky is chairman, and Mrs. Floyd Kupsky has chairmanship of V.F.W. Auxiliary sales.

Mrs. Simmons stressed that all money acquired from poppy sales is used for hospitalized veterans and for veterans rehabilitation work on a national scale.

Mrs. James Green, representing the Auxiliary; Mrs. John Kellogg, representing the Woman's Club, and Mrs. Orson Atchinson, representing the Mother's Club, met at the Veterans' Memorial Building May 6 to make the selection from high school junior girls.

Selection was based on outstanding leadership, character, courage, honesty, scholarship, cooperation and physical fitness, said Mrs. Charles A. Schultz. Three-hundred Michigan girls are expected to attend the sessions to be held in the Alice Crocker Lloyd Hall at the university.

Andrea Owen, representative of the Auxiliary in 1951, was elected Wolverine Girls' State governor last year, and has been invited to address the 1952 session inaugural ceremony at the Woman's League on the university campus.

The Girls' State program is designed to provide citizenship training through actual performance of the duties of a citizen. The non-partisan, non-political program is one of the American Legion Auxiliary's most vital projects, said Mrs. Schultz.

Novi Amvets Plan Memorial Dedication

Members of Perry Kenner Amvets Post 76, of Novi, are completing plans for a memorial dedicated to the veterans of all wars to be presented by the people of Novi Township.

The presentation and dedication will be at 8:45 a.m. on Memorial Day, May 30, at the new Novi Township Community Building. A parade, with the Walled Lake High School band playing, and a memorial service will follow the dedication. Governor G. Mennen Williams said that he will be on hand for the dedication.

Heading planning are Carroll Baker, commander of the Amvets Post, which has 75 members; Charles Trickey, Jr., who is Junior Vice-Commander; William MacDermid, Kenneth Rippey, and Township Supervisor Frank D. Clark, who has given close cooperation, said Gerald F. Trotter of the Amvets Post.

The band was founded 25 years ago after the late E. C. Langfield, at that time a member of the Board of Education, was impressed by performances of bands in Denver, Colo., and wondered why Northville could not also have such an organization, said Mr. Lee. Mr. Langfield was instrumental in fostering the band's beginning, and the Village, along with the Northville Fair Association, combined to help with financing.

Band members are selling "donation tickets" to help support the band, although there is no admission charge for the concert, Mr. Lee said.

Members of both organizations work on a voluntary basis. The poppy is the memorial flower for the war dead throughout the English-speaking world since World War I. The custom of wearing a poppy in honor of the war dead was inspired by the poem "In Flanders Fields" written by the Canadian doctor-poet, Col. John McCrae.

The poppies are made and assembled by disabled veterans who have worked for months in hospitals and convalescent workrooms throughout the nation.

Proposal May Be Ready for Special Election In August

Dr. L. W. Snow was named this week by Village President Conrad E. Langfield as permanent chairman of the Committee on City Incorporation which he appointed last Jan. 23. This committee held two meetings early in February, but has been inactive since then due to pressure of other business.

Proponents of the proposal to incorporate the Village of Northville as a city, who have been impatient at the delay in carrying on the committee's work, expressed gratification over Dr. Snow's appointment. They hope that with a broadened committee under his energetic leadership the proposition can be submitted to voters by late summer, and that if approved at that time, a new charter can be adopted and new city officers elected at the fall election.

Optimist Club Plans Annual Jr. Horse Show for June 1

Prize lists and entry blanks are in the mail for the 4th annual Northville Junior Horse Show to be held at the Northville Downs Track, Sunday, June 1, said J. P. Malley, general chairman of the event, sponsored by the Northville Optimist Club.

The junior event is expected to be large this year, said Mr. Malley, and will feature, for the first time in Michigan, the beginning of junior Olympic Equestrian Team competition. Teams entered in the event will ride over a modified Olympic jumping course and compete for the Optimist Club's "Junior Equestrian Team Challenge Trophy."

Teams are expected from Northville, Jackson, Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Outland Stables. Representing Northville will be the team composed of Franny Malley, Jo Ann Wallace, Ann Jenen and Gail Lawrence. "The team is ably coached by John Wallace," said Mr. Malley, "and will be favored to win the inaugural honors of this competition." The Birmingham team, coached by Frank Duffy, is expected to be a close contender for first position.

The prize list shows 30 classes, divided among saddle horses, western horses, ponies, hunters and jumpers. Equitation classes are for all types of riders and horses.

Along with Mr. Malley as general chairman, the show committee is composed of Dr. Waldo Johnson, tickets; Dr. L. W. Snow, trophies; Gerald Taft, program advertising; Alex Lawrence, displays and concessions, and Mr. Wallace, grounds. Mrs. Franklin C. Beeks is show secretary and Mrs. Robert Haas is chairman of the entertainment committee.

The show will begin at 11 a.m. and continue to 8:30 p.m., said Mr. Malley.

Concert to Mark Band's 25th Year

The 25th anniversary of the founding of the Northville High School and Community Band will be celebrated at a band concert Friday, May 23, at 8 p.m., said Leslie G. Lee, high school director of music.

Edwin Head, who was the first director of the band, will be at the concert, to be held in the high school gymnasium, to direct several numbers. Michigan State College music students will also present solo and ensemble numbers, Mr. Lee said.

The band was founded 25 years ago after the late E. C. Langfield, at that time a member of the Board of Education, was impressed by performances of bands in Denver, Colo., and wondered why Northville could not also have such an organization, said Mr. Lee. Mr. Langfield was instrumental in fostering the band's beginning, and the Village, along with the Northville Fair Association, combined to help with financing.

Band members are selling "donation tickets" to help support the band, although there is no admission charge for the concert, Mr. Lee said.

Members of both organizations work on a voluntary basis. The poppy is the memorial flower for the war dead throughout the English-speaking world since World War I. The custom of wearing a poppy in honor of the war dead was inspired by the poem "In Flanders Fields" written by the Canadian doctor-poet, Col. John McCrae.

Committee to be Enlarged

Immediately after accepting Village President Langfield's appointment, Dr. Snow announced his intention of enlarging the committee to include representatives of all established civic and other organizations in Northville, as well as the committee's original members. He is asking the presidents and other top executive officers of the following organizations to name one of their members as a committee member: Rotary, Exchange and Optimist clubs; Veterans of Foreign Wars; American Legion; Women's Club; Business and Professional Women's Club; United Automobile Workers-CIO, Board of Education and King's Daughters.

Dr. Snow expressed the hope that these appointments can be made quickly so the committee can hold its first meeting next week. Discussion at this meeting will center upon the reasons why the Village should consider incorporating a city, the steps that are necessary to do so, and the boundaries of the area which should be included in the city limits.

After these matters have been decided, the Committee's next step will be to present a petition to the Village Commission, signed by one per cent of the registered voters in the area to be incorporated, asking that a date be set for a special election to vote upon incorporation as a city. This petition must remain on file with Village Clerk Mary Alexander for 30 days before it can be acted upon by the Village Commission.

The Village Commission then must call a special election not sooner than 40 days later. During this interval a copy of the original petition and a copy of the Village Commission's resolution setting the date for the election must be on file with the secretary of state and the county clerks of Wayne and Oakland counties.

Vote May Come in August

Dr. Snow points out that according to this time table, even if petitions are presented to the Village Commission at its June 7 meeting, the matter cannot be put to a vote until around the middle of August.

If voters approve the proposal at that time, the next step is to file petitions with the Village Commission asking for the election of a City Charter Commission of nine members. It would be the job of such a City Charter Commission to draw up a new city charter to replace the present Village charter. This charter probably could be submitted to voters for approval at the regular fall election, Dr. Snow believes. That would be the last formality in changing over to city form of government.

Marilyn J. Funk and Mary Jean Woodruff are among the 722 graduating seniors in Michigan high schools to receive Regents-Alumni Honor Awards at the University of Michigan, said E. A. Walter, dean of students and chairman of the committee on University Scholarships.

Rolling Down The River

Once when we were young, there lived a farmer with a most amazing horse. Now this horse, though blind, was of super muscle and went busily around the place, plowing the fields, pulling the cultivator, hauling wood and doing numerous other things that horses are expected to do on a well run farm. An uncle of ours was walking along the country road one time, for no really good reason, except he didn't own a Studebaker in those days. He heard this farmer plowing his field and shouting to his horses, "No Pat, get up Mike, gee Pete, get along Bill." So our uncle looked up and was somewhat surprised to find that instead of four horses there was but one horse, one farmer and a two-team gang plow.

So over to the farmer he goes and asks, how come all that noise and all those horses, when it was plain to see there was only one horse and a plow much too big.

"Not so loud," said the farmer, "Bill here is blind and so powerful he doesn't know his own strength. The plow is nothing for him to handle as long as he figures he has three helpers."

Now the reason we tell this story is that in some ways it reminds us of the '52 V-8 Studebaker Commander, the car that doesn't know its own strength. The longer you drive it, the more you'll be amazed at the surging power to be found under the hood. Quick as a wink too, yet with absolute comfort and truly surprising economy. You'll have to come in for a demonstration and convince yourself that the '52 Studebaker is the finest car on the road today.

Lots of people around and about are selling tickets on practically everything. Just a straight cash outlay as far as we're concerned, because we've never won anything in our life. As a matter of fact, we were out doing some target practice with twenty-two rifles the other day and after several shots at the target, a friend offered to bet a dollar that we couldn't hit the side of a barn. Lost the bet, too, because after we got in the barn and carefully shut the door, the doggone bullet went through a knot-hole.

No shop commercial this week, but if you're smart, you'll bring the car in for a complete lubrication and motor tune-up, now that hot weather is about to arrive. Really got to take care of your car when the temperature gets up in the nineties.

Lady customer of ours was telling us her husband is the most gentle, most patient, most easy-going soul on earth. We figure the guy is just too

Let Us Beware of Mental Rigor Mortis

Two weeks ago we printed on this page the very fine critical essay on "America is Everybody's Business", with which Walter Newton, a student in the 11th Grade at Northville High School, won first place in the annual essay contest sponsored locally by the Northville Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars. We were proud that a boy of Walter's years had displayed the ability to see and recite the many things which together have made this one of the greatest nations in history, while at the same time distinguishing clearly some of the fundamental weaknesses in our national character which threaten to undermine the basic economic and ethical philosophy upon which the nation's foundation rests. And we concluded after reading Walter's essay that his thinking and writing must reflect a very fine home background as well as some excellent guidance by his high school teachers.

Last week, too late for publication, we received from Mrs. A. C. Carlson a copy of a letter which she had written to Walter as a reply to the thoughts expressed in his essay. It is printed in an adjoining column. Because this letter was sent to us for publication, we take the liberty of discussing it editorially.

It appears to us, Mrs. Carlson, that in reading Walter's essay you have failed to distinguish the trees from the underbrush, and that his main point has largely escaped your attention. This point, as we interpret it, is that although America is a great nation, its people have certain faults or shortcomings which are a potential threat to its greatness. Among these faults he lists the current low state of morals in public life as evidenced by "the reek of five percenters, mink coats and deep freezers" and "the sacrifice of moral values for expedience in obtaining votes". As part of this phenomena and a contributing factor, he cites our half-filled churches, the decline of the American home as a strong influence on family life, diminishing respect for the institution of marriage, prejudice against racial and other minority groups, and the placing of financial gain ahead of spiritual values.

Don't let anyone tell you that your convictions are wrong, Walter, or that you should not speak out in protest against conditions that you believe should be corrected. Nothing is more important to your own and your country's welfare than that mental rigor mortis not be allowed to dull the intellectual and moral perception of our people. Nations, like individuals, can lull themselves into a false sense of security if they fall into the habit of reflecting only upon their strength and disregarding their weaknesses.

Because we believe so firmly that this nation's strength is merely a reflection of the eternal vigilance of a majority of its citizens in combatting the aims of selfish minority groups, we are inclined to cheer for those individuals who turn the spotlight of publicity on conditions which they believe should be corrected.

And we commend especially Walter's healthy interpretation of how he, as an American citizen, can exert an influence for betterment. We quote from his essay:

"We can clean up the government by using our vote intelligently. . . . I, as a student, can prepare myself in school to be a good citizen and an intelligent voter. I must earn the respect of my fellow students and teachers by obeying the rules of the school. I must take seriously my student government and my classes in United States history, economics, and American government. . . . Our attitudes, too, are important. We can't have an honest government if we, ourselves, are dishonest—if we think the end justifies the means. We must place integrity above expediency. . . . To establish justice, we must treat every man as we would have him treat us. That means respect for other men and their ideas and rights. That means defending another's rights when they are threatened. That means love and understanding for each other. Then, and only then, will we have established justice."

In contrast, we quote from Mrs. Carlson's letter: " . . . instead of writing about all the faults of our country and its people, start writing about the good things and you won't have time to even think of the mistakes being made by a minority. . . ."

" . . . it's time someone woke you up to the fact that America is the greatest country in the world. Young man, start counting your blessings and praising America, use that fine writing ability to build up our wonderful country, not tear her down."

Our personal feeling is that Walter's critical approach to accepting the responsibilities of citizenship if followed by others of his generation, offers more assurance of building up and maintaining America's greatness, than if he were to follow the suggestion which Mrs. Carlson makes.

Dear Walter:

I read your essay with interest and am glad you started out that it was only a dream. Dreams usually are contrary to truth. Webster says, "To have ideas or images in the mind while asleep. To let the mind run on in idle reverie, to give oneself over to effortless thought, especially of a fanciful nature, etc."

America did expand under Christian leaders, but there were rascals then as well as now. Our country became a Republic, not a democracy. Nowhere in the Constitution do you find the word democracy. This is the most abused word, democracy, today and it's time our history teachers told the truth. Just say the pledge of allegiance to the flag and you won't say democracy.

About the churches being half empty, well it's not entirely because people have forgotten God, but take a look at the men in the pulpits, many are preachers, not Ministers. You go to church for spiritual food but too often get a political lecture or something similar. There are many fine sermons on television today that give you more food for thought than you can get from your own preacher and lots of folks do just that.

About home life and marriage, look up and down your street, if its like mine it's full of homes, happy ones where marriage is sacred, where children are loved and husbands do not beat their wives.

Maybe it seems like the dollar is a false god, but the demands on every one are greater today than ever before and you must be dollar conscious in order to pay the outrageous taxes our social planners dream up and for rehabilitation all over the world which would not be necessary if other countries stirred up a little ambition and got to work, there is no need of them being in the condition they are in. Why if your mother took care of the bills of all you neighbors and decided to bring up their living standards to yours it wouldn't be long before you wouldn't have a home and that is what is happening in this country, it's time we mended our own business.

Your ideas on moral standards are fine and if you look around you you will find most of your fellow citizens practice them, so instead of writing about all the faults of our country and its people start writing about the good things and you won't have time to even think of the mistakes being made by a minority.

If America is on trial before the world she will win because there is no country in the world, in spite of some poor leaders, that has done so much for mankind. Her son's blood is spilled uselessly all over the world which proves it's the rest of the world that is on trial and I am not afraid of God's judgment on our great land. America is not everybody's business just every American's business and its time foreign countries stopped trying to run it.

I hope this does not shatter your DREAM too much, but its time someone woke you up to the fact that AMERICA is the greatest country in the world. Young man start counting your blessings and praising America, use that fine writing ability to build up our wonderful country, not tear her down.

Sincerely,
Mrs. A. C. Carlson.

Green Thumb

by Paul Newton

The moving of shrubs and trees should be timed and handled very carefully. A forsythia in bloom or a birch in full leaf may look just right for a certain spot in the garden but these stages are not the best time to move woody plants. This is especially true of the shrub moved on one's own property or dug from the wild land in the neighborhood.

The nursery-grown shrub or tree has a more compact root system because its roots have been pruned from time to time during growth to keep them compact. Roots of shrubs or trees in your yard are more spreading or scattered, and thus are more subject to harm in moving.

Best Planting Time

The most favorable time for transplanting is early spring, just as growth begins, or in autumn when growth has slowed and the demands of the roots for moisture and food is less pressing. A tree that requires a good sized ball of roots and soil is best handled by a professional nurseryman. At no time during moving should roots be exposed to sun and air. Instead, they should be covered with wet burlap as the digging proceeds. Delicate feeding roots dry out if they are exposed, and throw upon the plant the burden of making a whole new root system.

A hole much larger than the root spread must be dug. After the trees or shrub is set in position soft earth should be sifted over the roots and then settled with plenty of water so there are no air pockets left.

Cut Away Top Growth

Since some roots are bound to be lost in transplanting the balance between root and top growth should be cut back. If this is not done, part of the shrub may die in an effort to restore the balance. On evergreens only the tips are cut; not the older growth.

Some deciduous shrubs can be dug after the leaves open in spring, but greater care is necessary. Shrubs at this stage should be dug with a ball of earth and burlaped. The ball is kept soaked with water for ten days and the top should be sprayed with water daily. The object is to keep the plant tissues filled with water so the shock of transplanting will not be too great. It is most important that the shrub be watered regularly after planting. If it is not hot or windy the tops should be sprayed several times a day.

Any measure that will help the plant to establish itself quickly in its new environment lessens the shock of transplanting.

The use of liquid fertilizers of the high analysis type has proved valuable until the roots can extract food from the soil. Liquid fertilizer can be applied in a weak dosage on top of the ground about a foot out from the base after the shrub is set out; then twice later at two-week intervals. Peat moss mixed with the soil before it is put around the roots has a stimulating effect, as well as assisting in retaining moisture.

Ma & Pa Kettle, James Stewart Movie Head Week's Billing at P & A Theatre

The latest of the Kettle comedies, "Ma and Pa Kettle at the Fair," a top historical western starring James Stewart, and the return of one of the great horse pictures head the list of shows at the Northville Penniman-Alten Theatre for this week.

This Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 15, 16 and 17, theatre goers will watch the Kettles become involved in several county fair contests, including a sulky race with their broken-down horse in "Ma and Pa Kettle at the Fair."

"Band of the River," with James Stewart, Julia Adams and Arthur Kennedy, will play on Sunday and Monday, May 18 and 19. The combination of technical color photography, good direction and fine characterizations makes this a top-notch outdoor pioneer melodrama. James Stewart turns in an authentic performance as a reformed Missouri border-raider who leads a wagon-train of Missouri settlers to the Oregon country and later defeats attempts by gold prospectors to steal the food needed by the settlers.

Another "Bomba" melodrama, "Elephant Stampede" with Johnny Sheffield, is slated for the Wednesday only show on May 21. Whip Wilson in "Wanted: Dead or Alive" is also slated. The first showing begins at 6:45 p.m. and the second at 9 p.m.

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 22, 23 and 24, a re-issue of "Thunderhead, Son of Flika" is scheduled for the local theatre. Roddy McDowell, Preston Foster and Rita Johnson are the stars.

(Continuation of standard equipment and trim illustrated is dependent on availability of material.)

Stack up what you get for what you pay . . . and join the nation's largest group of truck users by choosing Chevrolet

By far the biggest number of truck users today are Chevrolet owners . . .
and for good hard-headed reasons.
Because what they get is this:
Low Cost—in purchase price and in upkeep. A truck that gets the job done. A truck that's rugged, long lasting.
Take a look at the four facts below . . . and see why you, too, will be money ahead with a Chevrolet truck. Come in and see us about it!

FACT NO. 1

Save money on purchase price
Stack up a Chevrolet truck against any other truck with comparable specifications. You'll find the Chevrolet truck lists for less.

FACT NO. 2

Save money on operating costs
Hundreds of thousands of truck users have proved to their own satisfaction that Chevrolet costs the least of all to own and maintain.

matched to your payload requirements. You don't buy "too much or too little truck."

FACT NO. 4

Save money on low depreciation
Records show that Chevrolet trucks traditionally bring more money at resale than any other make which costs about the same new.

Supt. Herman Hartner reported that Gilbert Jerome, Engineer, had been in Northville to go over curb and gutter work which the Village contemplates doing on Grace Ave., as well as sewer installation work on Dubur St., and that he would submit his plans in the very near future; also that the sidewalk situation was receiving attention and figures would soon be available.

Moved by Woodward, supported by Allen, that these reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

Comm. Peters reported that he and Comm. Allen had met with the School Board in regard to the Community Bldg. project to discuss what financial aid they could contribute to this undertaking. As it was contemplated at the time the architect's plans for the proposed Community building were submitted that same could be heated by the same heating plant that took care of the schools, no plans for heating are included; therefore it was decided that it would be necessary to look into this matter thoroughly to determine whether or not the present boiler room could be used to house the additional equipment required for heating the Community Building, or if it would be necessary to build a new boiler room. Until this information is available, no further action will be taken.

Mr. Stoffer, Engineer, presented his revised plans for parking lot specifications and the prepared advertisement for bids to be published in the Northville Record and the Michigan Contractor & Builder, bids to be opened at the next regular meeting May 19, 1952, at 8:00 P.M.

Petition was read by Comm. Stubenvoll signed by a number of property owners facing on Horton St. regarding the zoning ordinance violation existing at the corner of Horton & Base Line Rd., where a business is being conducted in a one-family residential district, requesting that the Village Commission take action to have the violation corrected. The matter was turned over to Atty. Littell with instructions to take the necessary steps to get this matter straightened out.

Health Comm. Chabut gave his report for the months of March and April, as well as a statistical report for the year ending Apr. 30th, 1952, which was accepted and placed on file. The water problem was also discussed, and Supt. Hartner reported that all reports he had received covering the many water samples that have recently been tested show "No evidence of dangerous contamination". However, the State Geologist has not yet been in Northville to investigate the situation, but it is expected he will be here some time soon.

At the request of T. R. Carrington, Chairman of Village Planning Commission, Pres. Langfield recommended the appointment of E. W. Ebert, Jr., to replace Charles Murphy (who has resigned) on the Northwest Planning Council, and also that George Zerbe be appointed as alternate for Gerald Woodward on this Council. Moved by Stubenvoll, supported by Allen, that these appointments be confirmed.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned. Carried.

(Signed) Mary Alexander, Clerk.

Parents to Enroll
Kindergarteners

Registration and orientation in the Northville Grade School Kindergarten has been set for Thursday and Friday, May 22 and 23. Parents who have children of eligible age will receive a letter of invitation this week, said Miss Grace Pollock, teacher.

To be eligible for kindergarten, children must have been five years old before November 30. Children need not accompany their parents for the registration at 1 p.m. on Thursday, said Miss Pollock. They must bring a certificate of birth, she said.

On Friday, the new kindergarteners will bring their parents to school for orientation. Here the parents will learn how the class is conducted. The parents will be told of the time for orientation at the Thursday session.

Miss Pollock stated that grade school authorities have estimated an enrollment of approximately 115 children in the class next year. If there are eligible children in the community whose parents do not receive letters, they are invited to attend the registration and orientation.

Mothers Observe
Tenth Anniversary

In accord with a nation-wide anniversary observance, the Blue Star Mothers, Chapter 47, of Novi, honored their past presidents at their tenth anniversary banquet on Monday, May 12. The banquet was held at the Rosewood.

The Novi chapter was founded in October, 1942, with Mrs. Luther Rix as their first president. Mrs. Fred Lee has been treasurer of the organization since its beginning 10 years ago. Other past presidents honored were Mrs. Arthur Hiller, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. Clare Lockwood and Mrs. Paul Ginstle who has served as president for the past two years.

The Novi chapter has as its direct veteran hospital connection, the William H. Maybury Sanatorium, where they supply the veterans with many of their personal needs, said Mrs. Ginstle. Four delegates from the Novi group, Mesdames Ginstle, Russell Race, Lockwood and R. E. Ward, will attend the state convention in Grand Rapids which opens on May 18.

Reports of the year's work was given at the last meeting of the Northville Parent-Teachers Association. After the business meeting, Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., school nurse, gave a summary of the work of a school nurse. She also introduced Miss Ruth Rogers, dental hygienist with the State Department of Health, who explained the sodium fluoride program planned for the local school.

During the past year, the PTA has contributed to the scoreboard on Henry Ford Field, installed a telephone in the teacher's room of the Northville Grade School, purchased pictures for the grade school as well as contributing to the public address system in the high school. Included was the report of the scholarship granted to James Whipple last year. This scholarship is also being offered to a senior this year.

Northville Library Offers New Books

The Northville Branch of the Wayne County Library, 107 South Wing St., now offers nine new books in the fiction and biographic departments, as well as a wide selection of pocket books.

Lady Unafrad, by J. Raleigh Nelson. In 1862 at the age of 17 Rebecca Francis began a year as a missionary teacher in an Indian village in the Lake Superior country. Her experiences, which included a canoe trip down Keweenaw Bay in a fierce storm and the suspense of a threatening tribal war, are heightened by the fact that they actually happened.

The Pillar, by David Walker. Thrown together by the chances of war are six men of widely varying character and station in life in this tale of a German prison camp of World War II. Whatever their personal prejudices at first, they are eventually united by their common lot of days of boredom punctuated by the excitement of attempted escapes.

The Saracen Blade, by Frank Yerby. The crusades of the thirteenth century form a colorful background for the adventures of Pietro di Donato, who rises from serfdom to high estate through his own efforts and powerful friends. Italy, France, and the Holy Land are scenes of his wanderings.

Dance to the Piper, by Agnes de Mille, tells of the struggle of the American dancer and creator of the ballet "Rodeo" to achieve her desired career against her family's wishes. Many notables of the entertainment world appear in her account.

Generosity invents even a cause for giving.
—Sir Isaac Pitman

N.H.S. Thinclads Win Third Place in League Meef

Northville High School's track team, coached by Charles Yahne, ended third in a tight, three-way battle for first place in the Wayne-Oakland County league track meet at Ypsilanti Wednesday, May 7, won by Holly High School, with a total of 47 1/5 points.

Northville's small team—only seven men—accumulated 40 2/5 points for third and second-place Clarkston had 42 7/10 points. Clarenceville gained fourth position with 28 points and Milford accumulated 16. Keego Harbor and Brighton, new additions to the league this year, placed sixth and seventh, with 13 7/10 and 7 points, respectively.

Ron Grissom gained places in three events, winning the 220-yard dash in 23.8 seconds, and taking the broad jump with a leap of 17 ft. 2 inches. He also placed third in the 100-yard dash, won by Wood, of Brighton, in 10.6 seconds.

Chuck Dickinson placed second behind Grissom in the broad jump; added a fifth place in high jump, which was won by Groven, of Clarkston, at a height of 5 ft. 8 3/4 inches, and placed third in the 220.

Bob Burgess won second place in the pole vault, finishing behind Hoy, of Holly, who won at 9 ft. 8 inches. Burgess also won fourth place in the high jump.

Howie Meyer placed fourth in the shot put, won by Collins, of Keego Harbor, who heaved the weight 42 ft. 4 inches, and won third in the quarter-mile run behind Madar, of Holly, who ticked off the 440-yard distance in 54 seconds.

Dick Somers won the 180-yard low hurdles event in 21.9 seconds to add Northville's other points. Bob Scheffer and Fred Wehe placed sixth and seventh in the half-mile, won by Lee, of Clarkston, in 2:11.8.

In other events, Young, of Holly, won the 120-yard high hurdles in 17.9 seconds; Holly won the medley relay in 2:45.9, and Jackman, of Milford, led the pack home in the mile run in 5:05.8.

The Northville half-mile relay team, with Grissom, Somers, Dickinson and Meyer running 220-yards each, placed second behind Holly.

FIRE AND FLOOD

While Michigan residents along the Great Lakes shoreline battle the ever-increasing threat of flood, natives of our vast jack pine sections in the north have had the driest spring in years with extremely high fire hazard.

More land has been burned over so far this year than during the entire twelve months of 1951! Yet the loss per fire is amazingly low thanks to the efficiency of our Conservation Department in forest fire control.

Huge Network Alerted

During conditions of "high hazard"—after a prolonged dry spell, with low humidity, high temperatures and a fresh breeze—the entire field organization of the department is on its toes, with crack teams trained in fire detection. Once fire breaks out other squads schooled in controlling the spread of flame get there fast. Well-directed manpower combined with modern forest fire-fighting machinery keep the loss per fire "way-down. Up thru the first week in May 298 fires burned a total of 1250 acres. That's less than 5 acres per fire! With tinker-dry conditions and any kind of a wind blowing fire can destroy 5 acres in a hurry. Every second counts, and the first wisp of smoke throws the entire organization into gear.

Radio Network Active

Radio communication is the most important single factor in the system. The Department has more than 350 radio transmitters in its network in which are included 100 fire towers, 130 Conservation Officer cars, and miscellaneous back-pack sets and mobile units. Fire towers spot the first curl of smoke, take a compass bearing, radio another tower within range of the fire, and thru coordination of their readings they pinpoint the blaze on a map.

Tractors, plows and power wagons are dispatched to the scene with adequate manpower. Overhead a department plane may circle reporting the progress of the flames, directing the equipment to the most strategic spot, and pointing out the quickest route to remote sections.

Radio central at regional or district headquarters crackles constantly with terse directives. Huge wall maps are studded with squares of paper carrying the up-to-the-minute history of each fire—where and when it started, what manpower and equipment is on the job, estimated cause, time it is brought under control, and acreage burned.

Impressive Results

The efficiency of the system is nothing short of spectacular to watch in action. And the results speak for themselves! Hails off to our Conservation Department for a job well done—the job of standing guard against fire everywhere in Michigan Outdoors!

Mort Neff's "Michigan Outdoors" television show may be seen every Thursday at 10:15 p.m. on stations WWJ-TV, Detroit and WJIM-TV, Lansing.

Northville Wins 2nd Inter-County Game

The Northville baseball team won its second game in the Inter-County baseball league Sunday, defeating Teamsters Local 247, of Detroit, 6 to 2 at Plymouth. The Northville team is sponsored by Cy Owens Ford Sales and S. L. Biader's Department Store.

Behind the 5-hit pitching of John Cullen, of Detroit, the Northville team pushed across a run in the first inning, three in the sixth and two in the eighth to clinch the game getting eight hits themselves. Jim LaRue, of Northville, was catcher.

The Northville nine will play the Ypsilanti team at 1 p.m. in Cass Benton Park Sunday, May 25, in the third league game of the season.

Extension Leaders to Meet Here

Ways in which a protective diet may help add years to life will be discussed at a meeting for leaders of Home Economics Extension groups on Friday, May 23, at the Northville Library. The meeting will be held at the center from 9:30 to 3 p.m.

Miss Emma DuBord, Wayne County Home Demonstration agent, will lead the discussion. Later, the leaders taking the training will relay the discussion material to local clubs and at the same time distribute leaflets and recipes to all group members and interested friends.

A meal-planning checker game will be part of the day's entertainment. Features of the meeting will be pointers on proteins and encouraging cooperative digestions.

Anyone interested in joining or organizing a new extension group call Emma DuBord, Wayne 2360.

Doubles Tourney to Start May 20 for Clubs, Veterans

Members of Northville's three service clubs and two veterans organizations will join off next week in the third annual doubles bowling tournament to be conducted May 20 through 25 at Royal Recreation.

The tourney was conducted among members of the Rotary, Exchange and Optimist Clubs in 1950 and 1951, but Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4012 have been invited to participate this year to round out competition.

Keglers should choose partners within the organizations to which they belong, said Bruce Turnbull, who heads the tourney which is sponsored by the Exchange Club, but a man may bowl more than once with more than one partner if he desires.

Hours for bowling at Royal Recreation are from 9 to 12 p.m. May 20 through May 23, and from 1 p.m. to midnight May 24-25. Arrangements should be made with Joe Alessi, proprietor of Royal Recreation.

The Exchange Club trophy, kept for a year by the winning organization, was won for the Optimists by Jim Green and Dr. L. W. Snow in 1950 and by Bruce Turnbull and Joe Alessi for the Exchange Club in 1951.

Well arranged time is the surest mark of a well arranged mind.

Adventures in Two Worlds, by Dr. A. J. Cronin. Before his outstanding success as author of such books as "The Citadel" and "The Keys of the Kingdom," A. J. Cronin was a practicing physician. In this autobiography he relates experiences of those years which prove again that truth indeed can be stranger than fiction.

The Quiet Gentleman, by George Heyer. Gervase Frant, Lord St. Erth, survives the Napoleonic wars only to find on his arrival home in England that he is much resented as heir to a great estate and that someone prefers to have him die by a means more sudden than old age. How he outwits his enemies makes an entertaining suspense story.

The Earthbreakers, by Ernest Haycox. The Oregon Territory of 1845 saw more and more of the wagon train and the settler and less of the roaming hunter and trapper. Both the triumphs and hardships of the homesteader as well as the reactions of mountain men who felt trapped by even a rough civilization are found in this drama of the Old West.

Two Sofas in the Parlor, by David Cornwell DeJong describes the fortunes of the Kegel family who migrate to Grand Rapids from Holland in 1913. Their New World home proves to be ramshackle but it contains two plush sofas left by a former tenant. Such a contradictory situation was the first of many for the Kegels in strange and delightful America.

WHY BE LOST?

There is no reason why anyone should be lost for eternity. If the merits of Jesus Christ were limited, if His arm were shortened that its reach could not include you, if He died for a few, then there would be every reason for you to despair of eternity. But when Hebrews 7:25 says, "Wherefore He is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him (Jesus Christ), seeing He (Jesus Christ) ever liveth to make intercession for them," then there is no reason for you to be lost. For you to be lost is like a starving man sitting at a table loaded with good food, or a man dying of thirst amidst bubbling fountains and streams flowing all around him, or like a man dying with a disease while medicine which would restore his health sits beside him. If a man dies in this condition, who is to blame? If a man goes to hell from a land where the Gospel is preached so freely as ours, whose fault is it? Certainly that person will never have anyone to blame but himself. What is the condition laid down for salvation in the verse above? "To come unto God BY Jesus Christ." Will you trust Him today?

Studebaker Tops in Economy Run

The performance of the 1952 Studebaker Champion and Commander in actual miles per gallon of gasoline was the best among the 23 automobiles entered in standard classifications of the Mobilgas Economy Run, according to Wilbert J. Petz, of the Northville Studebaker dealership.

The Champion, Mr. Petz said, averaged 27.82 miles per gallon, the best mark among all six and eight-cylinder cars entered in the event. The V-8 Commander topped all other eight- and all sixes, except the Champion—with an average of 25.59 actual miles per gallon. The Studebaker Land Cruiser followed closely with a 25.38 mpg average.

The contest covered 1,415 miles from Los Angeles to Sun Valley, Idaho, and required three days to complete. It was conducted under the supervision of the American Automobile Association. Like most of the competing cars, the Studebaker entries were equipped with over-drive transmissions and used regular gasoline.

Jehovah's Witnesses to Convene in Pontiac

Jehovah's Witnesses have selected Pontiac for their semi-annual circuit assembly to be held May 16 through 18. All meetings are being held in the Pontiac Senior High School beginning Friday at 7:00 p.m. and are open to the public.

J. R. Benson, circuit minister for Michigan Circuit No. 2, advises that attendance is expected to reach 1900 on Sunday at 3:00 p.m. when C. W. Barber, district minister from Brooklyn, New York, climaxes the meeting with the lecture, "What Religion will Survive the World Crisis?" Mr. Barber, a student of world affairs, has a background of 35 years in the ministry.

Come on In . . . the Water's Fine

And it's pumped electrically in this up-to-date farm home. With two small children to keep clean and healthy, Mrs. Vern Whims, Oakland County, says water under pressure is a real help around the clock.

There's no lifting or lugging. And no need to skimp. Electricity puts water where you want it—when you want it.

A well-planned electric water system helps farm folks in other ways, too. More milk, eggs and meat; fewer hours of hard labor; extra fire protection.

Get in touch with your Edison Farm Service Advisor. He is an expert on farm water systems, proper size pumps and motors. No charge or obligation—but plenty of good, practical advice.

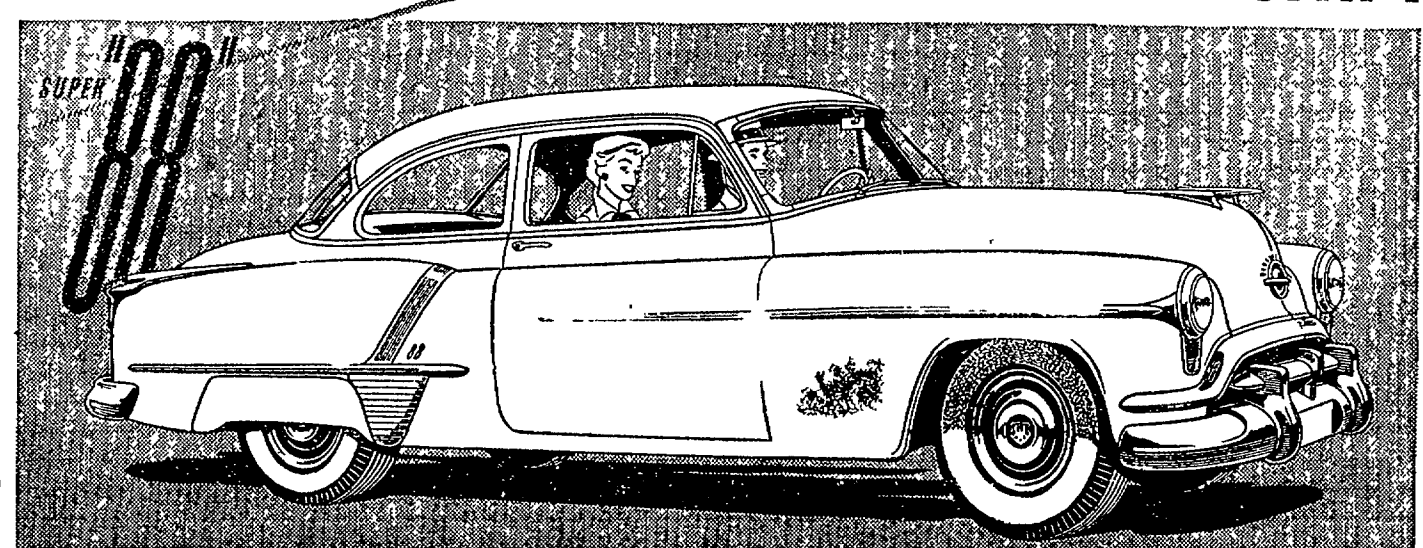

"Running water means better health, better living, better production."
