Junior Horse Show June 1 Draws Contestants from All Over State

Ten days hence, on Sunday, June 1, Northville will stage its fourth annual Junior Horse Show, an event which will attract youthful contestants from all over the state and from neighboring states. It is an occasion in the Village's community life that attracts horse lovers and followers of the ancient sport of horsemanship, and is symbolic of one phase of the charm that is to be found in Northville's history.

Emphasizing the long background of horse shows that have become a part of Northville tradition, the Junior Horse Show this year will have as contestants the grandchildren of men who years ago carried the reputation of Northville horse shows to great heights in the realm of equine competition. Among these grandchildren will be Patty and Sally Haas, grandchildren of the late Phil Grennan, nationally known polo player; Janet Porath, granddaughter of the late Julius Porath, and Sandy McCullough, granddaughter of William McCullough. They will be competing for the same honors—a blue ribbon at the Northville Horse Show.

Early Horse Shows

Horse shows in Northville date back thirty-six years, to 1916, when the first Northville Horse Show and Fair was held. From that time to the present, Northville's reputation as a "horse town" has become so firmly established that its name symbolizes horses to all devotees of equine activities in the Middle West.

This year, a new type of competition is in the making. Patterned after the Olympic International competition, Northville will begin the Junior Equestrian Team competition, which will continue throughout the season. The team with the greatest number of points, gathered in the season's shows, will be crowned Junior Equestrian Teams champion for the whole year's competition.

In keeping with the tradition of equine activities in Northville the first team entered in the 4th annual Northville Junior Horse Show team competition is the Northville Equestrian Team. Captained by Ann Jensen, the team is composed of Jo Ann Wallace, Fran Malley and Gail Lawrence. This team is ably coached by John Wallace and will be after the honors of this competition as only a Northville group can be.

Champions Return

Returning for a repeat performance will be the champions of last year, Ann Jensen, champion jumper; Janet Porath, Western champion, and Joyce McManus, champion of the saddle horse equitation and winner of the Harry B. Clark Memorial Challenge Trophy. These former champions will be contested by Marie Jo DeWitt of Grand Rapids, Michigan equitation champion; Frank Duffy of Birmingham, Michigan jumper champion, and Katie Kolb of Holland, Michigan hunter champion.

Early entrants in the Northville Junior Horse Show at Northville Downs June 1 are Gail Lawrence, 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Lawrence, astride Midnight, and 9-year-old Susie Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace, on Sugar.

Twelve-year-old Julie Andree, Port Huron, who has never been defeated in an equitation class, will also be on hand to try to upset the older riders. Julie was reserve champion last year for the Harry B. Clark Challenge Trophy.

Birmingham Enters

Other riders in the inaugural jumping team competition will be the Outland Equestrian Team composed of Skip Dowd, Joan Lilly, Nancy Fisher and Sonia

Marcus of Birmingham. The Bloomfield Beavers Equestrian Team is made up of Frank Duffy, Patty Bugas, Kitty Proctor and Jan Schaffer of Bloomfield Hills.

Last year's entry of more than 200 is expected to be passed when the first of the 30 classes is started. Competition is divided into six divisions: Horsemanship, Saddle Horses, Western, Ponies and Trail Horses, Hunters and Jumpers. The championships are divided into the three types of horsemanship: Horsemanship over jumps, Western Equitation, and English Equitation.

Merritt Meaker Named as Director for Summer Recreation Program

Recreation Director Wilson Funk submitted an outline of the summer recreation program, to be directed by Merritt Meaker, to the Village Commission Monday night.

Mr. Funk said that emphasis will be placed on swimming, as much as five days a week if possible, although other phases of the program will continue as in the past.

Arrangements have been made for use of a school bus to leave at 9:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. each day with swimming groups, during hot weather, and to return at noon and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Hikes with picnic lunches will be scheduled for cold days, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. The Boys' Club at the Boy Scout Building will be open on rainy days.

Groups such as Girl Scouts, Brownies and others can participate in the swimming as group activities, said Mr. Funk. Members of the Mother's Club will be chaperones for the younger children one day each week.

In addition to swimming, 14- and 16-year old baseball teams will be organized for the intercity league to play two games each week. An adult softball league of six teams will play evenings throughout the summer.

Day camp for Junior Police, Cub Scouts and Boys' Club will be held one day each week.

Court Reverses Previous Conviction

A verdict of "not guilty" was returned by Circuit Court Judge John V. Brennan May 8 on a charge of reckless driving against Robert G. McMullen, of Inkster. The verdict reversed McMullen's conviction by a six-man jury in the court of Justice of the Peace Edward M. Bogart. Attorney John L. Crandell defended Mr. McMullen in both courts.

Amvets to Conduct White Clover Sale

Perry Kenner Amvet Post 76 will conduct its second annual White Clover sale in Novi today and tomorrow, May 22 and 23, said Charles Trickey, Jr., a member of the post and State Junior Vice-Commander. Proceeds of the sale are used entirely for welfare and veterans work.

Mr. Trickey explained that the white clover is a replica of the clover which grew in profusion in the fields of Normandy when American troops landed in the D-Day invasion on June 6, 1944.

He quoted from Amvet literature: "When the Amvets emerged from that bloody war as the representatives of World War II veterans, they selected the small flower as their memorial symbolizing the sacrifice of the American youth as the poppy of Flanders Field has come to be known as the symbol of the first great conflict."

Dan Olson has been named as assistant advertising manager of the Evans Products Co., Plymouth.

Bid Error Causes Contract Delay

Because one bidder for the contract covering construction of retaining walls, storm water sewer and woven wire fencing for the Village parking lot on the south side of East Main St. was erroneously given an incorrect set of specifications upon which to base his bid, the Village is re-advertising for bids this week.

Dewey M. Burrell was the recipient of the incorrect specifications. The error was discovered when his bid was opened at the commission meeting. Oscar Hammond's bid had previously been opened and read. The other contractors whose identities were not disclosed also had submitted bids.

Upon a motion by Commissioner Claude Ely, the Commission instructed Village Clerk Mary Alexander to return all bids to be opened at the next Commission meeting June 2.

Commission Acts on Zoning Violation

The Northville Village Commission at its meeting this week instructed James E. Littell, Village attorney, to draft a letter to Glenn C. Long, plumbing and heating contractor at 411 Baseline Rd., informing him that in conducting his business at that address he is in violation of the Village zoning ordinance and instructing him to petition the Northville Planning Commission for a change in zoning regulations within ten days or two weeks.

The Commission's action resulted from a petition signed by several of Mr. Long's neighbors and presented at its previous meeting May 5. They asked the Commission to enforce existing zoning restrictions which Mr. Long is said to be violating.

Mr. Littell explained that the Planning Commission must call a public hearing if Mr. Long petitions for a change in the present zoning ordinance and that property owners in Mr. Long's area may appear in opposition if they desire to do so. After hearing all parties for and against a zoning change the Planning Commission must decide whether to change the zoning restrictions or maintain the status quo.

Should the latter decision be made it presumably would be the duty of the Village Commission to order Mr. Long to cease using his present location for business purposes.

Early Copy

Early copy and advertising are requested for the next issue of the Record, which will be delivered on Wednesday, May 28, instead of Thursday, because of the Memorial Day holiday on Friday.

The deadline for all news items, display advertising and classified advertising will be 3 p.m. on Monday, May 26.

Planning Commission Submits Parking Recommendations for Consideration

In response to a request by the Northville Village Commission, the Northville Planning Commission this week submitted seven recommendations for off-street parking areas that would do much to eliminate the Village's downtown traffic problems.

The Commission took the plan under advisement until its next meeting June 2, when it is to be voted on, either as a whole or in part.

Thomas R. Carrington, Planning Commission chairman, pointed out that his committee has spent considerable time analyzing the local parking facilities and planning certain property acquisitions that would be beneficial. George Zerbel, a member of the Planning Commission, joined Mr. Carrington in presenting the complete program to the Village Commission.

Seven Point Plan
The Planning Commission's proposals call for:

Clearing House on Incorporation

The Record believes that a wise decision by Northville voters on the proposal to incorporate the Village as a city is a matter of great importance to the community's future.

It believes, too, that the possible advantages or disadvantages of incorporation as a city cannot be weighed properly by the average voter at this time because he lacks information upon which to make an intelligent decision.

Dr. Snow's Committee on City Incorporation plans a series of meetings with various community groups to inform them about all aspects of the proposed change in government, with perhaps a large "town meeting" in the High School to give everyone an opportunity to ask questions. With characteristic vigor and enthusiasm, Dr. Snow has been developing a large amount of information on all phases of the matter for presentation at such public meetings.

To supplement the work of the committee, the Northville Record will undertake to act as a clearing house for questions and answers on all aspects of the city incorporation proposal. While we do not profess to know all the answers ourselves, we shall devote whatever time and space is needed to get sound and unbiased answers to any questions our readers may wish to ask. These answers will be presented weekly.

Questions should be addressed to the Editor, Northville Record.

Believe One Plant Can Heat Schools, Community Building

A single heating plant located in the Northville Grade School can serve needs of that building, the high school and the proposed Northville Community Building, Walter L. Couse, of Walter L. Couse & Co., told the Village Commission at its meeting this week. Steam lines from the grade school to the other two buildings would make it unnecessary to construct a separate new power house and stack for the Community Building, Mr. Couse said.

The present heating system in the grade school would have to be enlarged to do this, Mr. Couse said, but this expense would be small in comparison with that of constructing a new power house and stack for the Community Building alone.

Expert Engineering Opinion
Mr. Couse's report was in response to a request by the Northville School Board and Commissioner Alton Peters for an expert engineering opinion on the feasibility of heating the three buildings from one central plant.

Couse explained that it would be more satisfactory in the long run to remove the present grade school boiler and install two new boilers of sufficient capacity to heat the three buildings. The present boiler which Mr. Couse said is in excellent condition, could be stored by the school system until it can be used in a new school that will be necessary in a few years.

Replying to inquiries from several members of the commission as to the cost of a new two-boiler installation, Mr. Couse said this cannot be determined until their size has been decided. This, in turn, depends upon how large a Community Building is constructed and this will not be known until final plans have approved.

Commissioner Peters stated that Mr. Couse's report will enable him to discuss again with the School Board the feasibility of tying in the construction and use of the proposed community building with the need of the Northville schools for some of the facilities the community building would provide. He will try to meet with the School Board at an early date he said.

Village to Ask for New Traffic Control

The Northville Village Commission decided at its meeting this week to ask the Wayne County Road Commission for permission to substitute manual for automatic control of the traffic light at Main and Center streets each evening during the racing season.

Commissioner Claude Ely suggested if the light were controlled manually during the hour that the crowd is leaving Northville Downs, the extreme traffic congestion which always exists at this time could be materially lessened.

The Commission instructed Village Clerk Mary Alexander to write a formal request to the Wayne County Road Commission that the Village be authorized to install a manual control for the light. Police Chief Joseph Denton is to make the same request of the Wayne County road signal department and Village President Conrad E. Langfield will contact other Wayne County officials.

City Incorporation Committee Maps Plans for Proposal

The enlarged and rejuvenated Committee on City Incorporation under the chairmanship of Dr. L. W. Snow, met Wednesday evening at the Northville High School to map plans for submitting a proposal for adoption of a city form of government to Northville voters at an early date.

It was the first meeting of the committee since Dr. Snow accepted an appointment by Village President Conrad E. Langfield as permanent chairman. As now constituted, the committee comprises a group of outstanding citizens representing a broad cross-section of community interests. To accomplish this, Dr. Snow asked each of the various civic organizations to name a representative on the committee. Those appointed to date are: Cyril Frid (Rotary), Essie Nirider, (Exchange), George W. Kohs (Optimist), Arthur C. Carlson (VFW), Mrs. Arthur C. Carlson (Business and Professional Women's Club), Charles Freydl (Retail Merchants Ass'n.), Robert Coolman (Board of Education), Mrs. James Green (King's Daughters), and Mrs. Orson Atchinson (Women's Club).

Repair Village Hall

Commissioners Claude N. Ely and Gerald C. Woodworth were delegated by the Village Commission this week to proceed with letting contracts for repairing eave troughs, painting and necessary carpenter work on the Village Hall.

Dies Tuesday

Deane Herrick

Deane Herrick, of 116 E. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, passed away at his home Tuesday night. Cause of death is undetermined.

Mr. Herrick was well known to residents of Plymouth and Northville. He was the owner of jewelry stores in Plymouth, South Lyon and Northville.

Original Director to Conduct Numbers at Band Concert

Memories of the first band at Northville High School will be stirred tomorrow night, May 23, when Edwin Head directs the High School and Community Band as guest conductor.

The concert, to begin at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium, will celebrate the 25th anniversary of the band's founding. Mr. Head was its first director, succeeded by Leslie G. Lee, who has been director for 18 years.

A visit with Charles F. Carrington to the basement of the Carrington Agency produced an early edition of the "Palladium," the high school annual, which contained a picture of the original band. Members were dressed in red capes, donated by the Northville Fair. Mr. Carrington said the band donned white duck capes for marching.

Nineteen members of the original band were pictured and identified by Mr. Carrington with the names by which he knew them: Meryl Fraser, tuba; Lewis Campbell, saxophone; Marjorie Schoultz, trombone; Herbert Berendt, baritone; Foster Van Atta, bass drum; Al Altman, snare drum; Martin Sommers, Russell Knight and Otis Tewksbury, french horn; Harry Cassie, Ray Westphall, Art Sessions and John Brunyanski, trumpets, and Tom Carrington, Lillian Cassie, Charles Carrington, Edna Martens, Meryl Bolton and Don Moproe, clarinet.

The building is to be designed by a registered architect and plans will be submitted to the Cemetery Board for approval before construction is started. It would provide ample space for chapel services and a basement of sufficient size to keep the cemetery equipment workshop and tools. An automatic oil or gas furnace would provide heat for services in the winter.

UAW-CIO Invited

An invitation also was extended by Dr. Snow to the UAW-CIO to appoint a representative to the committee but up to the time this was written (Wednesday morning) no appointment had been made.

Other committee members include those originally appointed last January, as follows: John S. Canterbury and Commissioners John F. Stubenvoll, Gerald C. Woodworth and Alton Peters.

Dr. Snow stated today if any community organization which would like to have a representative on the committee has been overlooked, the oversight has been unintentional. "We want the committee to be as broadly representative of the community as possible and will welcome additional members," he said.

Explanation of Steps

First on the agenda at the committee meeting Wednesday evening was a detailed explanation by Dr. Snow of the various steps that will be necessary before any proposal to incorporate Northville as a city can be submitted to voters. He then outlined the various arguments in favor of the proposal. This was followed by preliminary discussion of boundaries of the area which should be included in the proposed city.

After the committee decides on boundaries, it must present a petition to the Village Commission asking that a date be set for a special election to vote upon incorporation as a city. Such petitions must be signed by one percent of the registered voters in the area. The petition cannot be acted on for 30 days, at the expiration of which the Village Commission must call a special election not sooner than 40 days later.

Mausoleum Option Referred to Board

The Village Commission this week referred the request of Raymond Bachelder of Plymouth for an option on a mausoleum site in Rural Hill Cemetery to the Cemetery Board. Bachelder's request was contained in a formal proposal to the Village Commission covering construction of a community mausoleum of not less than 200 crypts.

He said the proposed building would be constructed of reinforced steel with Indiana limestone walls on the outside, polished marble crypt fronts, and inside walls similar to those in the Plymouth and Mt. Clemens mausoleums.

The building is to be designed by a registered architect and plans will be submitted to the Cemetery Board for approval before construction is started. It would provide ample space for chapel services and a basement of sufficient size to keep the cemetery equipment workshop and tools. An automatic oil or gas furnace would provide heat for services in the winter.

Guests at Reception for Gen. MacArthur

Village President Conrad E. Langfield and Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow were guests of Dearborn Mayor Orville Hubbard at the reception for General Douglas MacArthur in Dearborn last Friday morning.

Rolling Down The River

Now we're sitting here this day, hoping for a story to happen, so we can get this column over with, when in drives a man with a new '52 Studebaker. All he wants to do is brag about the car, so we listen and for some reason or other we find ourselves in complete agreement.

He then tells us about a pot-luck dinner... only at the moment he doesn't know it's a pot-luck dinner... so following a precedent of seven years standing, he praises his wife's cooking, except for a lemon pie that makes its appearance. Over the years he accumulates a stock of jokes about his ever loving wife's lemon pies and proceeds to tell every one of them, in spite of a sudden chill that invades the dining room.

When the guests go, his wife says as follows: "For many years I've put up with your alleged jokes about my lemon pies, though there is many a time I've been tempted to wrap the dish around your noggin. But I think that such jokes will now be a thing of the past, especially as the lemon pie was at dinner was not baked by me, but by Mrs. Cummings. And I hope you don't sleep tonight." As Mrs. Cummings happens to be married to the guy that signs his pay checks, he didn't.

We never make slurring remarks about cooking as we have no desire to find ourselves in front of a kitchen stove wondering how long you boil a 3-minute egg. We never make slurring remarks about the Studebaker for 1952 either, because such remarks would be gross libel. The only way to describe the Studebaker is get a selection of the finest adjectives obtainable and use them all. Speed, power, beauty, economy, comfort all in one compact bundle. All it takes is a bit of a drive to convince yourself it's the car for you... for your family.

Oh yes, a guy tells us that with all this foreign aid we're handling out if there ever again is a "shot heard 'round the world" the chances are some American taxpayer buys the bullet.

We see by the papers that in spite of everything, you're still driving your car and if you're still driving your car, you need a bit of lubrication to keep it running smoothly. It just so happens that these mechanics of ours are especially expert at things like that and really want to help you keep your car on the road. For a serviceable car, we not get the finest of car service. Just bring it around... you'll be glad you did.

That's that, but with June so close at hand many a young fellow hopes his bride-to-be will be a gal that knows how to cook the beans... not spill them.

Yours,
BILL and WILL PETZ.

Vote at the School Election June 9

The second Monday in June and the second Monday in July will be important days in Michigan, although too few voters are likely to recognize this fact. On those dates almost 5,000 school board members throughout the state will be elected. Upon the character and background of these 5,000 board members will depend to an important degree the quality and kind of the educational opportunities afforded to Michigan youth.

Superintendent of Public Instruction Lee M. Thurston points out that in the United States for more than 100 years school elections have been held separately from elections covering other governmental offices, whether they be local, state or national. In American cities and other local units of government the people are willing to have their police and fire departments, their streets and municipal affairs in general administered under the city government, but in matters of education they prefer a board separately elected and functioning independently of other governmental authority.

Why this separate educational system has developed in America should be quite obvious. It is because the American people, beginning with the founding fathers, have felt that their schools are a very personal institution dealing with the lives and well-being of their children. The American people have not wanted their schools controlled by any political party or by any central government agency. They have felt that by placing schools under separate boards they would have the greatest protection. This is the reason for separation of all school elections from other local, state and national elections.

In Northville we have only one vacancy on the Board of Education to be filled at our election June 9. Eural F. Clark, president of the board, is a candidate to succeed himself for another three-year term. It is hoped that although Mr. Clark is the only candidate for election, there will be a good turn-out of voters who realize that the opportunity to vote in a free election is a privilege that is by no means universal throughout the world.

Dear Mr. Editor:

I fear I am one of those history teachers Mrs. Carlson accuses of not telling the truth. She states that "our country became a Republic and not a democracy," and "its time our history teachers told the truth." (Mrs. Carlson's capitalization of Republic, I assume, for the purpose of emphasis.) For many years I have labored under the impression (and have so taught) that our country is both a republic and a democracy—a republic in its national and state representative governments; a democracy in those communities which still have the town meeting, which, of course, is a pure democracy.

Very truly,
F. Alden Shaw

TO THE EDITOR:

I was quite pleased to find that I made your Editorial column in last week's Record. Thanks very much.

I also have discovered that you were one of the judges of the essay contest and if my article hurt your sense of judgment, I am sorry.

In your editorial you say I have failed to distinguish the trees from the brush. Mr. Editor, it's the underbrush that I am concerned about. You are a stranger in town, sir, and there are certain facts known to some of us that if known to you you'd be careful about doing a Walter Winchell in the Record.

In the first place I disagree with the title of the essay "America is everybody's business." I maintain that too many foreign countries are trying to run our business, and only last week when General MacArthur was in Lansing he said practically the same thing and I can assure you I did not have an advance copy of his speech. I grant you America is every American's business not everybody's.

Walter wrote an essay that was applied to America as a whole and it is not the truth, had it been applied to a minority particularly Political it would have been truth.

If our country is in the condition he portrays we hadn't better let the German students now in Northville remain and learn our way of life. However, educators must believe we are a good example or they wouldn't advocate foreign students being in this country a year at a time and business men from other lands wouldn't come over here to learn our know how.

Walter's ideas on what he can do to be a good citizen are perfect, but he continues about justice as though it doesn't exist in America when

NOWHERE is man treated as you or I would want to be treated better than in AMERICA.

NOWHERE are rights of men respected more than in AMERICA.

NOWHERE are other's rights defended more than in AMERICA.

NOWHERE is there love for our fellowmen greater than in AMERICA.

NOWHERE is there more justice than in AMERICA.

No, America is not perfect, no more than a husband (or a wife for that matter) but a good wife does not go around telling the whole neighborhood about it, she handles it within the confines of her own home, even if the method is a rolling pin, and in these times when students from foreign lands are in our midst, better to point out the greatness and minimize the faults because its faults and shortcomings that socialists and communists feast on to tear down our American way of life. It's alright to point out weaknesses but let's not stress them to the point that not only the world will lose confidence in us but we ourselves are liable to.

Sincerely,
Mrs. A. C. Carlson

Mrs. Carlson—Your "discovery" that we were one of the judges in the essay contest is predicated, we hope, on our announcement of this fact in the May 1 Northville Record. Your disagreement with the essay's title, "America is Everybody's Business," should be taken up with the VFW Auxiliary, which chose this title for all essays. Walter merely wrote on the assigned subject. We, too, think America is a great country, but we heartily disagree with your suggestion that we handle imperfect husbands with rolling pins. This might become another fad to sweep the nation, like the college "party raids" that have been making headlines recently, or swallowing goldfish, which was a fad ten years ago.

Talent Abounds in Monday Musical

The talent of many young Northville musicians was discovered by the villagers attending the Presbyterian Men's Club sponsored Talent Night Monday evening, said William G. Williams, who had charge of the affair.

"Cassius," "Sagebrush" and "Skipalong," the cowboys who made up the "Boy Troubadours" opened the program. The cowboys identity was revealed as Glenn Schultz, George Bennett accompanied by Richard Drew at the piano.

A fine example of the musical opportunities being offered in the Northville High School was seen in the performance of the flute trio, composed of Marilyn Flute, Ariene Jerome and Gloria Clark, as well as in the oboe solo by Marlene Weiss. The "Lanny Ross of Northville," Robert Hart, was accompanied by Fred Lupke, Mr. Williams reports.

The dance selections by students of the Jordan Dance Studio included "Syncopated Horse" by Joan Baskins and Ardith Robertson. Bonnie Jordan revealed herself as "Modern Rhythm" with the four syncopated tappers, Judy Nighy, Cynthia Mellen, Elminor Bishop and Joanne Lenway. The program closed with selections by the Northville barber-shop quartet composed of Charles Strantz, Ralph Bogart, Donald Robinson and Kalin Johnson.

Green Thumb

by Paul Newton

Tulip time always inspires me to be a better gardener next year. When I see a clump of purple tulips that were very special when purchased three years ago and are now just ordinary or small, I realize that they must be dug and divided every third year if they are to retain their original size and beauty.

Tulips should be dug while there still is a little green in the stems and lower leaves. If left in the ground until the foliage becomes dry and brittle they are apt to break off, making it difficult to locate the bulb. Early digging also develops better skins on the bulbs.

To keep the different varieties separated after they are dug, it is well to lay the bulbs in piles on several newspapers with the color and name written on the edge. They should be dried in the shade until the stem can be removed easily. The root base should be left on until the bulb is dry and the new bulblets have been removed. The roots can then be pried off smoothly. Avoid any damage to the root base when removing the dried roots.

Dry stems, foliage and roots should be burned to prevent botrytis, a characteristic gray mold.

Plant Bulblets in Separate Bed
The very tiny bulblets should be planted in a separate bed in the fall and their buds picked off the first year, leaving as much of the stem and leaves as possible for storage of energy for the second year's blossoms.

Bulbs should be stored in a cool, airy place until they are replanted in October or November. Basements may be so damp they encourage mold. The attic may be too warm. The garage generally is an ideal spot for storage. Some gardeners use discarded nylon stockings to form several small bags for bulbs, separating each variety by tying a string around the stocking to separate each group.

Tulip bulbs can be planted until the ground freezes in the fall, but mid-October is the best time. Dig bone meal into the bottom of the hole and cover with an inch of soil. Then place the bulb in clumps of three to five about six inches apart.

Garden Pictures for Next Year
One of the nicest effects we have seen was in a Northville garden where white tulips were planted in clumps of five with a ground cover of blue forget-me-nots and soft mauve tulips were planted with phlox canadensis.

Tulips are much more interesting and showy when planted in clumps—yellow with purple, red with white, etc. Try a clump of yellow tulips with a covering of cerise tomentosum (Snow-in-Summer) at their feet. These are next spring garden pictures that will reward you for your work now and next fall.

Anyone interested in new selections for next year will be well rewarded by a visit to the E. M. Rucker gardens at 36075 W. Seven Mile Rd. where the newer varieties are grouped and named.

Minstrel Show Raises Money for Class Visit to Lansing

The minstrel show staged by Miss Margaret DeKett's fifth grade class in March was the class's last enterprise in earning $458 to finance its trip to Lansing today and tomorrow. The 27 boys and girls will visit Michigan's capital city on Capital Airlines flights from Willow Run in two groups on the two days.

Grade School Youngsters Finance Own Airplane Trip

Long hours of hard work by the pupils of Miss Margaret DeKett's fifth grade class of Northville Grade School will culminate today and tomorrow, Thursday and Friday, in a goal toward which the boys and girls have been working—an airplane trip to Lansing.

The twenty-seven children will go in two groups in Capital Airlines planes, leaving Willow Run Airport at 8:15 a.m. Thirteen will go today, and the remaining 14 will make the trip tomorrow. The first group will be accompanied by Miss DeKett and Mrs. James Cowie, the class room-mother. The second group will be supervised by Miss DeKett and Miss Eleanor Peeke, of the Grade school faculty.

The children are financing the trip themselves, with $458 earned over a year's period with two pop-corn sales, a bazaar, a bake sale and a minstrel show.

"We didn't plan the Lansing trip in the beginning," said Miss DeKett. "We had in mind a short plane flight or some other excursion which the group would enjoy. The possibility of the Lansing trip developed early this year."

At Lansing, the groups will visit the capitol building in the morning and eat lunch. In the afternoon, a visit is planned to the museum five blocks away, where most of the afternoon will be spent, and a visit will be made by bus to a State Police Post. At 6:02 p.m. the groups will again board the plane and return to Willow Run, arriving at 6:35 p.m. Miss Marge Lovely, of Capital Airlines, will conduct the tours.

The groups visited Willow Run last Friday, May 16, to inspect the planes and facilities, in a kind of "rehearsal" for the trips, said Miss DeKett. The children were driven to the airport by Mrs. John Kellogg, Mrs. William Krauger, Mrs. Robert Niemi, Gerald Bowers and Virgil McKiddie.

Mrs. William Walker and Mrs. A. Malcolm Allen drove the children to the airport today, and Mrs. Harold Searfoss and Miss Peeke will take the second group tomorrow.

In today's group of children are Joyce Alkire, Sharon Allen, Jack Bailey, James Cowie, Becky Kellogg, Cherie Krauter, Barbara Mapes, Janice McKinney, Bob Niemi, David Ryder, Roger Smith, Laura Sutherland and William Walker.

Tomorrow's group will include Brenda Adcox, Allen Anderson, Myrna Boyer, Richard Drew, Norma Gornall, Talbot Hopper, Joan Lower, James Maxfield, Sarah McKiddie, Julie Older, Harold Searfoss, Leilani Shoebridge, Bill Smith and James Strange.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

NON-PARTISAN NEWS LETTER

MacArthur has come and gone, leaving a ripple of approval. The legislature has convened, causing a wave of dissent. It still can't get along with our governor.

The General in his famous style of delivery spoke softly and struck sharply at Communism and Socialism in Michigan.

In Detroit he blasted the "inroads made by collectivism" and said we need a "high level of statesmanship dedicated to the common purpose of advancing a liberal and unexploited labor movement and industrial economy sufficiently free from government controls to maintain a reasonable profit potential."

"We must resist," he said, "the spendthrift policies of government which may bring us to the brink of economic chaos and are forcing upon us an irresponsible economy apparently to avoid the political impact of a return to the long range protection of frugality and reason."

"They (labor) must establish strong bulwarks against the pressures upon the free labor movement by Communism, whose initial objective upon ascendancy to political power has ever been the worker's enslavement," the powerful speaker said.

The general's words are no longer news. But this thought is worthy of consideration—the general, despite his untimely suspension, has not been wrong yet.

LAKE MICHIGAN AND HER sister great lakes are slaughtering our beaches.

The rising waters of the lakes have caused millions of dollars in damage and pushed real estate values along the shore line down to nothing.

In 1946 the waters on the western shore of Lake Michigan gouged out a few expensive basements—but those were the expensive basements. The water receded and the entire state sat back and waited for the 20-year cycle to set in, but it didn't.

In 1952, new records were set for the total destruction. Entire tourist areas are being wiped out and the beachline along the west coast virtually has vanished.

The situation has reached the point where it has caught the ear of our August congress which is doing little.

The St. Lawrence Seaway got (or has so far) short shrift, although it hasn't been shelved yet. Assistance to the owners of beach property has been dignified by offering them loans through the RFC.

But mostly Congress is waiting for the cycle to turn the pounding waves back to the low water levels they have maintained the last few years.

And don't think the waters haven't turned Frankenstein on the state. Blue Lake Michigan, which for so many years has pulled tourists from all over the nation, has turned on the resorters who have been exploiting it.

Poetic justice, perhaps, but the tourist business in Michigan still ranks with the automobile industry and farming and Michigan can't afford to lose the revenue it brings in.

With the water level at a new high Lake Michigan and Lake Superior are hammering at the doorsteps of cottages and pulling mile upon mile of beach back into the waters.

Sailors on the lakes complain that even their largest navigational checkpoints are vanishing under the bubbling onslaught.

Will the waters recede next year? They must. They can go no farther without inundating the entire peninsula.

DONALD C. LEONARD, former state police commissioner, has decided to take a whack at the gubernatorial chair.

While speculation ran rife as to what his political aspirations were, the political observers in the state were whacked back on their heels with the degree to which he aspired.

Few if any expected the successful police official to put his sights on such a difficult target.

He enters the field against such seasoned campaigners as Fred M. Alger, Jr., secretary of the state; Bill Vandenberg, lieutenant governor now, and Eugene Keyes, doctor-dentist-lawyer who plays in politics because "he has a fever."

Present hopes seem to center around the fact that he will take a passel of votes away from Detroit, where Williams and Alger will be jostling for all but the Hamtramck ballot—which is already Williams!

Selfish men may possess the earth; it is the meek only who inherit it from the Heavenly Father, free from all defilements and perplexities of unrighteousness.

HEART - METER

"If you tell me that to which your heart responds, then I can tell what you are like." If a person is tender hearted then he is easily moved to sympathy and tears. If he is mechanically minded then he will be very much interested in mechanical things. If a person is a natural born musician he will respond to music. Perhaps some of you who read this column have wondered why you have never been interested nor concerned about spiritual things. Perhaps you have tried to read the Bible and you wonder why anyone could enjoy reading a book like that. Or, you have gone to church and heard a sermon that to you was very dull and dry, and yet as you looked around you saw others who were interested and hanging on to every word. Wherein lies the difference? Just this—your heart does not love the things of God by nature, you need to experience a change of heart from above before you ever will enjoy spiritual things. I Cor. 2:14 says, "The Natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him," but when one is saved it is no longer foolishness but rather "the power of God" (I Cor. 1:18).

Plymouth Twp.
Lifts Rent Control

Supervisor Charles Rathbun of Plymouth township has announced that rent control has been lifted in Plymouth township effective immediately.

Hearings for the lifting of the control were held sometime ago, only one person having been reported as present at the meeting to protest the proposed recommendation of the township board.

The board after hearing all of the arguments that township residents desired to make, passed a resolution asking that the rent control of the township be lifted.

Township officials have just been advised that the federal rent control officials in Washington have complied with their request. Rent controls in Northville and other nearby townships were lifted about a year ago.

Mausoleum Option

price for lots less the present endowment fund of $30 on each lot.

Members of the Cemetery Board told the Village Commission at its meeting May 5 that they believe construction of a modern mausoleum in Rural Hill Cemetery will stimulate the sale of cemetery lots and would be desirable from a community standpoint. As a result of the Commission's referral of Bachelder's letter to the Cemetery Board for action it will now work out final details with him. Bachelder stated that construction will not start until approximately one-half of the crypts have been sold. No money is paid by purchasers until ground is broken he said.

Mud Blinds Driver
So Horse Takes
Charge and Wins

Gene Navarre, veteran Ecoise Mich., harness race driver, is convinced once more that the 'rotters and pacers are pretty smart out there on the track.

Gene had his Queen At Law in front in the second race at Jackson Raceway last Saturday night when, with an eighth of a mile to go, a gob of mud struck him in the eyes and blinded him.

He said afterwards he couldn't see a thing for several minutes. He just sat tight and let the nine-year old mare take over. She never let up until she passed the finish line a winner, then she eased herself up.

Navarre required treatment from a doctor but incurred no permanent damage to the eyes.

It was Queen At Law's first victory in five starts this spring.

Softball Managers to Meet Sunday

Merritt Meaker, director of the Northville Softball League for the summer, has called a meeting of team managers on Sunday, May 25, at the Boy Scout Building at 4 p.m.

To date, five of the six teams in the league have full rosters, but the C. Harold Bloom insurance team needs players from Northville to bring it to full strength. The first game is scheduled for Wednesday, June 4, at 7 p.m.

The six teams in the league are sponsored by the Optimist Club, C. Harold Bloom, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Stone's Gamble Store, Mayor Conrad E. Langfield and Cy Owens.

Chance Letter Reunites Sisters

Reunited after 41 years, these sisters plan the trip they will take to California June 8. Mrs. Phyllis Gute, in Salvation Army uniform, came from Switzerland for a reunion with Mrs. Mary Greavu, of Plymouth Ave., when a chance letter re-established contact between them.

Letter Backed Only by Faith Finds
Mark in Switzerland, Reunites Sisters

The letter Mrs. Mary Greavu sent off to Europe was written with hope and sealed with a prayer. It found its mark, although it was addressed only to Mrs. Phyllis Gute, Zurich, Switzerland, a city of 340,000.

As a result, the two sisters are reunited at Mrs. Greavu's home, 428 Plymouth Ave., after 41 years of separation.

Born in Sapartoc, Romania, the sisters were separated when Mrs. Gute went to Switzerland and Mrs. Greavu came to America in 1913 at the age of 15. The young girl eventually married Cornell Greavu and Mrs. Gute married a German, erasing their family ties during World War II.

Mrs. Greavu heard through relatives that her sister might be in Switzerland and wrote the letter. "I asked God to find her, and He did," she said. She answered like out of a dream.

Mrs. Gute, a Salvation Army worker, arrived last Thursday on her 67th birthday, after making the ocean voyage on the Queen Mary.

She praised the kindness of the people on the ship and the consideration of Americans and said that she is very pleased with the country. "Except for my relatives and family," she said. "I would not want to return."

The Greavu family and Mrs. Gute plan to attend the graduation of Mrs. Greavu's son, Cornell Greavu, Jr., who will receive an M.D. degree from the White Memorial Hospital at Los Angeles, Calif., on June 8. They will be there a month and return to Northville for a family reunion.

Mrs. Gute has 14 grandchildren, and Mrs. Greavu, who is 55, has eight grandchildren.

lots fronting on the south side of East Dunlap St. with some commissioners expressing concern at the cost of acquiring part of the present Spagnuolo garage which now occupies a portion of the property, and a house that now stands on the strip of land. Mr. Zerbelt explained that use of this strip of land for an alley would permit laying out a better parking lot on the adjacent vacant property. Lots would still be approximately 110 feet deep along Dunlap St., which is ample for normal business use, he said.

Mr. Carrington explained that the Planning Commission has sought to develop a tentative parking program that would stay within the approximately $100,000 cost limit suggested by Commissioners John F. Stubenvoll and Gerald C. Woodworth. It is believed that the Village can issue parking revenue bonds in this amount to finance acquisition and surfacing of new parking lots. These bonds would be repaid from receipts of parking meters on downtown streets and in the metered lots without cost to Northville taxpayers.

Novi Hardware
Burglarized; Part of Loot Recovered

Burglars, frightened by flashing lights and burglar alarm, fled after breaking into the Novi Hardware about 1 a.m. last Friday morning, but took with them a complete rack of 12 guns, metal shells, sporting goods and precision tools valued at about $1,000, said Jerome Mazel, proprietor of the store.

Eleven of the shotguns and rifles, wrapped in an army blanket, were recovered Monday by a ditch near Ewell Rd. in Sumpter Township, near Belleville. State Police, with the cooperation of the Wayne County Sheriff's Road Patrol, have charge of the case. Also recovered was a heavy tackle box full of ammunition.

The burglars entered the store through a rear window, but left through the front door when the alarm began to ring. Two guns were left on the floor and three were thrown out the window but forgotten.

Still missing are several hunting knives, flashlights, micrometers and other precision tools, according to Mr. Mazel's estimate.

Northville Thinclads
Compete in Regional

Charles Dickinson placed fourth in the finals of the 180-yard low hurdles at the Michigan High School Athletic Association Regional meet at Ann Arbor last Saturday out of a field of 18 entries.

Ron Grissom was fifth in the 220-yard dash finals in a field of 19. Charles Yahne, coach of the Northville track and field squad, took only Dickinson and Grissom to the meet, which included competition among 11 Class "B" schools.

The meet scheduled between Northville and the Walled Lake reserves for Tuesday was rained out and re-scheduled tentatively for yesterday if weather permitted.

A rich man cannot enjoy a sound mind nor a sound body without exercise and abstinence; and yet these are truly the worst ingredients of poverty.

Revised Sewage System Rules for Township Start June 1

Rules revised by the Wayne County Board of Health governing the installation and construction of sewage disposal systems will go into effect June 1 of this year, said Northville Township Building Inspector Donald D. Nutten.

The revisions require, in new systems and those which are to be replaced in the future, the use of a 750-gallon concrete septic tank instead of the previously required 500-gallon tank, and a disposal field with a minimum of 225 feet of tile instead of the 150 feet requirement now on the books.

Many new homes have been built in the township during the past year, Mr. Nutten said, and many more are in the process of construction. This, plus the popularity with home owners of garbage disposal units and automatic washers has created a new sanitary emergency which is responsible for these new restrictions by the Wayne County Board of Health.

Explains "Percolation Test"
Mr. Nutten explained the "percolation test," by which home owners can determine the number of feet of tile necessary for the disposal field.

To use the test, Mr. Nutten said, dig or bore a hole 24-inches deep in the area where the tile field is to be laid. Fill the hole with water and let it pour in enough water to bring the level up to six inches and check the time required for the water to fall one inch. If ten minutes or less is required, 225-feet of tile is necessary; 15 minutes, 250 feet; 20 minutes, 275 feet; 25 minutes, 300 feet; and 30 minutes, 325 feet.

Mr. Nutten said that he will issue permits if builders will call at 46528 West Seven Mile Road, or telephone 446-J after 4 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Permits Required
A septic tank permit should be obtained before the building permit is issued, Mr. Nutten said, and before installing a septic tank or tile field. The permit must be posted at the site of installation.

There should be no sharp bends in the line from house to tank, and the slope of this line should be at least 1/4-inch per foot. Adequate access for inspection and sludge removal is to be provided by a manhole or removable cover.

The line joining the septic tank to the tile field header should have a slope of 1/8 inch per foot, Mr. Nutten said. This line should join the header near the center at a 90-degree angle and must be offset from tile lines.

3 Line Minimum
A minimum of three lines of tile are required in the tile field, and if more than six lines are used, a special header is required. Tile line trenches must be 18-inches wide, and no individual tile line can be more than 100-feet long.

Gravel used must be clean, hard and free of dust, and none of the gravel is to be smaller than 1/4-inch in size or larger than 1 1/2 inches. Inspection is required after gravel is in place, but before septic tank cover or tile lines are backfilled. The tile field must be level and not deeper than 20 inches before the final finished grade.

72 Northville Junior Policemen Invade Strawberry Lake for Camp-Out Friday

The Northville Junior Police staged a minor invasion of the Strawberry Lake area, near Ann Arbor, when 72 of the boys, all in the sub-teen age group, accompanied by ten adults and ten Boy Scouts went on an overnight camp-out at the cottage of Ivan Ely last Friday night, May 16.

The boys participated in a campfire program Friday evening, ate 14-dozen eggs and ten pounds of bacon in the morning, looked over select fishing spots from boats provided by neighbors, explored parts of the Huron River, visited several lakes in the chain and came through the entire camp-out without mishap, except for a slight rope-burn, which was treated by Dr. Morris D. Klopfenstein.

South Lyon Accepts Housing Project Bid

Bids were opened Thursday, May 8, for the new South Lyon 20-unit housing project. Joseph Comiskey, president of the South Lyon Housing Commission announced that they ranged from $138,000 to $234,000.

The housing commission did not act immediately on the bids due to the wide variation in quotations. The commission met again Friday, May 2, and accepted the bid of H. T. Woodbridge of Detroit, after going over the specifications in detail.

On Friday afternoon, May 9, the South Lyon city council met in special session to approve action taken by the housing commission.

"The boys did a wonderful job of public relations for the Junior Police," said Recreation Director Wilson Funk. "At the campfire, neighbors near Ivan Ely's cottage came over and asked George Bennett and Glen Schulz, who were playing guitar and accordion for the boys, to play their favorite numbers."

Transportation to the lake was furnished by Cy Owens, Howard Alwood, Robert Freydl, M. P. Mitchell and Herman Hartner Jr. when the boys left Northville Friday afternoon. Police Chief and Mrs. Joseph Denton, who supplied the eggs and bacon for breakfast, arrived in time for dinner with the boys and stayed for the campfire, which was directed by Scoutmaster Monroe Weston and ten Boy Scouts.

The Boy Scouts had charge of the clean-up job the next day and were guests Saturday night, returning to Northville on Sunday afternoon.

Friday night, the boys were supervised by George Kohs, Daniel Singer, Dr. Klopfenstein, Clarence Jerome, Monroe Weston, Marvin Lemmon and Mr. Funk, all of whom stayed overnight. Mr. Jerome and Mr. Lemmon had the job of serving breakfast to the boys. George Kohs supplied the milk and ice cream for the entire group and the boys paid for their evening meal.

At the campfire, the boys were entertained by a story called "The Wolf," told by Scoutmaster Weston. All the boys were enthusiastic and asked to be placed on the preferred list to attend another overnight camp-out to be held in June, said Mr. Funk.

CHRYSLER SARATOGA 6-PASSENGER SEDAN

ITS NEW KIND OF HORSEPOWER IS SOMETHING TO FEEL!

With its 180 HP V-8 engine, on 125 1/2 inches of wheelbase, many people think the Saratoga is the best Chrysler car of all.

We invite you to take the wheel and feel what happens! There's a new sense of easy power, of reserve power that make driving a new experience.

Its revolutionary combustion chamber develops more of the power in each charge of fuel than other engines can do. One result is performance, even on non-premium fuel, such as you have never felt. Another result is new economy. It's an engine that scarcely forms carbon at all. It creates less heat. It will last much longer, stay younger on the way!

And with Chrysler full-time Power Steering*, you steer with one-fifth the usual effort... drive with five times the usual control! With Power Brakes you need up to two-thirds less foot pressure... and still stop in many feet less than other cars can do.

Yes, behind Chrysler's new engine you'll find a new kind of car. Won't you come in and feel what we mean?

*NOTE: Power Steering standard on Crown Imperial. Available, extra, on any new Chrysler.

Just Watch Your Garden Grow!

New thrills in home gardening, with visible results in less than two weeks, are due for the homemaker this season, thanks to a new completely soluble plant food that takes the guesswork out of gardening. Garden drudgery is banished as well by the new plant food, which is extremely convenient to use. You simply mix the contents of a small packet in two gallons of water, and apply to plants, garden, or lawn, with hose, sprinker, or watering can.

Scientists at Battelle Memorial Institute, non-profit research organization, developed the new product, aptly named Nurish. Plants and lawns flourish as never before when fertilized with the new food, and there is no heavy package to carry around the yard. The concentrated food is odorless and stainless, won't harm skin or clothing, and a quart costs less than a penny.

The liquid fertilizer takes advantage of the fact that plants take their nourishment by liquid, which is Nature's method. The new 20-20-20 formula—20 per cent each of nitrogen, potassium, and phosphorus—is augmented by essential micro-nutrients never before combined in plant food.

Specialized Journalism Study Course Now Offered by University of Michigan

A new graduate program in journalism offering two years of specialized study followed by a year's internship on selected newspapers has been announced by the University of Michigan after five years of testing.

The program has been organized on both the domestic and international levels and includes preparation for foreign correspondence as well as for domestic newspaper administration. It extends the formal education of journalists to seven and eight years and permits study that can cut across the entire educational offerings of the university. Professor Wesley H. Maurer, chairman of the faculty in journalism, will direct the program.

Internships have already been completed at the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, the Cleveland News and the Detroit Times. Foreign internships in Tokyo and in Santiago, Chile, are now under way, according to the announcement. Internships are now in progress on the Detroit Free Press and Port Huron Times-Herald.

The degree of Master of Arts is conferred for the two-year study and a certificate, signed by both University officials and the managing editor in charge, is awarded the intern if his work is creditable.

The domestic program is designed for the metropolitan and small city daily as well as for the weekly newspaper. The intern receives current beginning salaries and is given a year of training as broad as the supervising staff can provide. All interns are enrolled in the University and are required to make progress reports. Election to internships depends upon meeting scholastic and professional requirements.

Strong endorsement has been given the new program by the editors who have completed the first stage of testing the internships.

No 'Mumbo Jumbo', But Dog Comes Home Same Day 'Lost' Ad Appears

Thousands of satisfied users of Northville Record classified ads will testify that the little "lines" are powerful salesman but some sort of sixth-sense hocus-pocus seems to be involved in the May 15 issue.

Mrs. Maxwell F. Austin's dog, a six-month-old female Basenji, wandered away on Monday, May 19, and Mrs. Austin placed a "lost" ad with the Record. "She has a curly tail and ears that stick straight up," said Mrs. Austin, "and she's still young enough to dislike crowds and be confused away from home."

Publication day for the Record is Thursday and on Thursday afternoon, the little dog came trotting home. "Of course," Mrs. Austin chuckled when she phoned the Record, "it's just coincidence."

Naturally, everyone knows dogs can't read. But Mrs. Austin isn't complaining about the service.

Another example of out-of-the-ordinary pulling power of Record ads occurred about two years ago, but this one involved a delayed-action punch.

Clarence Hastings had advertised for a man to work at the Northville Riding Academy, which he manages, on Seven Mile Rd. Within a week, he'd hired his man.

Exactly a year later, another fellow stood in front of the Record office reading the year-old copy of the Record displayed in the window. On the back page of the year-old Record he noticed, in the "too-late-to-classify" column, the ad Hastings had run. He was out of a job and phoned the Riding Academy on a hunch.

If you guessed that the original fellow hired by Hastings had gone, and that Hastings was looking for another man, you're right. He got the job too.

Things happen so fast in some books that you wonder where you've been all your life.

Engineering is one of the most promising career fields open to capable young men today, according to Engineering Dean Lorin G. Miller, of Michigan State College. A big factor in this is the current shortage of engineers.

FASTEST GROWING SPORT

Bow hunting—the sport of taking game, and fish, with bow and arrow is growing by leaps and bounds in Michigan. Local archery clubs are springing up everywhere. Sportsmen's clubs are building field archery courses to sharpen the eye of would-be hunters. Liberalized hunting regulations for Michigan Robin Hoods have spurred the sport to unprecedented heights. This fall may see as many as 25,000 archers licensed to shoot deer! Thousands more engage in target tournaments all summer.

Bow Fishing Now Popular

This year for the first time carp and garfish may be taken with a bow and arrow, and manufacturers are having a hard time keeping up with the demand for special equipment needed for the pursuit of this sport. Bowfishing requires a reel mounted on the bow, with the line attached to the head of the arrow. The most widely used type of arrow has a special expanding barb and detachable head. When the arrow strikes the fish the shaft floats free, and the archer proceeds to land his prize either hand over hand, or by playing the fish from the special reel.

Carp Now Plentiful

All along the marshy shores of the Great Lakes and tributary waters carp are now rolling and thrashing in shallow areas. In many instances archers prefer to wade, watching for the dorsal fin above water, or locating a big fish as he rolls. Carp running up to 40 pounds in weight are not unusual, and they'll put up a battle royal when hit with an arrow.

Point Mouille State Game area is a favorite spot in southeastern Michigan, with some 2,000 acres of marsh. Near Sebewaing high lake waters have flooded cornfields, now said to be happy hunting grounds for bow fishermen. Countless shallow rivers offer excellent chances to test your skill in Michigan's newest sport, too.

And for a tasty treat, bring home your carp and have them smoked properly. Despite the presence of numerous small bones you'll agree that smoked carp is a real delicacy with flavor not unlike that of smoked trout. But first you have to hit the carp—a neat trick that's a real challenge to the novice archer—and the newest thrill available to the sportsman in Michigan Outdoors!

Mort Neff's "Michigan Outdoors" television show may be seen every Thursday at 10:15 p.m. on stations WWJ-TV, Detroit and WJIM-TV, Lansing.

Expect 200 to Enter Canoe Paddle Push

Fifty canoes are already entered in the eight-mile Paddle Push slated for Sunday, June 8, on the Huron River between Milford and Kensington Metropolitan Park and at least 50 more entries are expected by June 1.

Paul Richmond, member of the board of Detroit Council of American Youth Hostels and chairman of the canoe race said he expected 200 or more canoeists of all ages to compete in teams of two. The race is the largest scale canoeing event ever to be staged in southern Michigan.

Maps of the course, showing vantage points with parking facilities for spectators and giving full details of the race rules are available at the American Youth Hostels office, 51 West Warren, and at the office of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, 150 Guardian Building, Richmond said.

The race will start at 2 p.m. at Milford and finish between 5 and 6 p.m. at the Boat Docks in Kent Lake in Kensington Park.

Prizes for the eight classifications scaled to all ages and degrees of experience will be awarded at a supper at Walker House, one of the Metropolitan Park's two lodges, at 6 p.m. Spectators as well as canoeists may attend by paying the $1.00 fee in advance.

The Paddle Push is sponsored by American Youth Hostels in cooperation with the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority to call attention to the safe and easy canoeing available within 40 miles of Detroit and the special facilities, including canoe camps along the Huron River and Canoe Island.

Roberts, Mrs. Vernon Newton, Mrs. Frank Balen, Mrs. Horace Boyden, Mrs. Julius Feole, Mrs. Harold Hartley, Mrs. John King, Miss Edith Harrington, the Eagles Auxiliary, House of Cottons, Mrs. Russell Walker, of Plymouth, and the Northville Cub Scouts.

Aston's Episcopal group. The list continues with the circles of the Northville First Methodist Church, Mrs. Harriet Angel, Mrs. Charles Tibble, Women's Union of the First Presbyterian Church, and the Rebekahs of Novi.

Mrs. Willis announces that all cancer victims will be served during the summer period and supplies may be obtained at headquarters, 119 Rayson St.

The art of using moderate abilities to advantage wins praise, and often acquires more reputation than actual brilliancy.
