for the Record

If evidence is needed to substantiate the optimism of those in our community who believe the area in which Northville is located is destined to grow rapidly, it may be found in the current efforts by both the National Bank of Detroit and the Manufacturers National Bank to purchase the two Plymouth banks. Such negotiations are in progress, we understand, and are likely to be successful. The Detroit banks apparently realize that the Plymouth, Livonia, Northville area is worthy of consideration as a potential source of banking business from industries locating here.

An interesting sidelight on the move to make Northville a city, somewhat along the "man bites dog" line, came to light this week as Del Hahn raised the question: "Why didn't the committee include my lots in the Bloom subdivision instead of leaving me in the township?" Hahn's lots adjoin the rear end of lots fronting on W. Main St. that have been included in the proposed city boundaries. There appears to be no physical reason for not including them and the committee probably will grant his wish to be included. In contrast to the objections by some individuals to being included, Hahn says he wants his family to have police protection promptly if needed rather than have to wait for the county road patrol. Also, he feels it is an advantage to be a resident of the city rather than to be on the outside its boundaries.

Analysis of the Northville Township annual report for last year and the year before reveals the interesting fact that township has been paying all of its expenses out of monies received from the state as a rebate on sales, liquor and intangibles taxes. This "free ride" on the state makes it possible for township residents to pay the insignificant property tax of only one mill on an assessed valuation of $5,683,690. (The writer lives in the township.) Actually, the township's surplus over its operating expenses was $10,776 last year and $5,304 the year before. Its total surplus arising from an excess of receipts over expenses over the past several years stood at $64,538 at the end of last year.

Fortunate folks, we township residents!

Novi township assessed no property tax against its residents this year or last year, and Frank Clark, supervisor, states in a letter to the Record on page 12 that he sees no reason to levy one in the foreseeable future.

Charlie Carrington, chairman of the American Legion's "Get out the Vote Committee," is saying some very nice things about the local Minute Women's drive to get everyone in the community to register so they can vote in the important elections this fall. "They've compiled a list of everyone who isn't registered and are really getting out and making a house-to-house campaign, offering transportation and 'baby-sitting' services to make registration easy. And they are taking their job more seriously than is possible for men who have their regular jobs to do," he says.

We feel that Township Clerk Fred W. Lyke also is to be commended for his cooperation in extending his office hours for accepting registrations.

We understand that Village President Langfield plans to name a citizens' committee next week to re-study the possibility of going ahead with a Northville Community Building on a less elaborate scale than contemplated heretofore. Such a committee can perform a real service for the Village. Its recommendations with respect to disposition of the approximately $180,000 that will be on hand for this purpose when the current race meet closes also will take the Village Commission off what might be a "hot spot" if it had to assume full responsibility for deciding what to do with this money.

4th of July Celebration Plans Nearly Complete

Balloting for the Fourth of July Celebration Parade Queen picked up last Saturday and Monday and ended Tuesday night, too late for the Record to get an official tally for announcing her name. The hundreds of votes were cast for a large number of candidates, assuring a close race for the Parade Queen title.

As the holiday nears, Al Smith, general chairman for the V.F.W.-sponsored all-day celebration, announced that final plans were nearly complete, and outlined the parade route to be taken by the units which will participate in the parade.

Band to Lead Parade

The band will form in front of the Veterans Memorial Hall at the corner of Dunlap and Center at 11:30 a.m. then march west on Dunlap past Wing, High, West and Linden Sts., picking up the other units of the parade which are to form on the north side of the intersections of the streets. The parade will turn south on Rogers St., then east on Main St., and march the full length of Main to Griswold St., where it will turn north to Ford Field.

Boy Scout units should form just north of the intersection of W. Dunlap and Wing; automobiles north of the High St. intersection; horses north on West St. and bicycles on Linden St. Children and other units and marchers will form at the high school and join the parade as it passes.

Bicycle Race

All boys and girls wishing to enter the bicycle race at 10:30 a.m. should contact Myron Utley, telephone 963-W2. Pals to be entered in the show judging at 9:30 a.m. should be at the grade school grounds at 9 a.m., Mr. Smith said.

Beginning during the noon hour on Friday, and continuing in the afternoon, boat rides on the mill pond adjoining Ford Field will be offered to children.

Jumping Exhibitions

The horsemanship events scheduled about noon at Ford Field will consist of jumping exhibitions by

Garden Club Alters Guest Day Plans

The guest day plans in connection with the picnic which the Northville Branch, Woman's Farm and Garden Club, has scheduled for July 14, have been postponed to a later date, it was announced this week.

The picnic will be held on July 14 as originally scheduled, but the place has been changed from the home of Mrs. M. L. Housard to that of Mrs. T. G. Hegge, 43575 Phoenix Road.

Stores to Stay Open Thursday Evening

All stores in Northville, belonging to the Retail Merchants Association, will remain open Thursday night, July 3, until 9 p.m. to accommodate late shoppers before the July 4th holiday, announced Roy Stone, president of the association.

July 7 Is Last Date For Registering

You can't vote if you don't register, and you can't register after July 7.

That's the deadline, the end of your opportunity to qualify for voting in the August 5 primary election and the general election in November.

You can register with either Northville Township Clerk Fred Lyke or Novi Township Clerk Earl Banks by appearing at their residences, or by seeing them during special hours set aside for registering.

Other pages in this issue carry large advertisements telling you the hours.

John Wortman, proprietor of the Northville Hardware, can testify to the value of advertising in the Record as a result of the crowds which were attracted to his close-out sale last week-end.

members of the Northville Junior Equestrian team, under the direction of Mrs. John Wallace, who will substitute as coach of the team. Mrs. Wallace, recognized as a top rider of hunters and jumpers in show rings and horse shows, will give a jumping exhibition, riding her horse "Mountain Breeze."

Prizes will be awarded for the best western outfits among the western riders in the parade.

Horsemen and women wishing to ride in the parade are asked to contact John Wallace, telephone 939, and furnish him with information concerning equipment and type of horse to be ridden.

The schedule for the July 4th celebration:

9 a.m.—Pet show, Grade School grounds.

10 a.m.—Children's games, Grade school grounds.

10:30 a.m.—Bicycle race. Start at V.F.W. hall on Northville Rd., up Main St., end at High School.

11:30 a.m.—Parade with band, horses, bicycles, cars.

July 7 Is Deadline for Registrations

With less than a week of registration remaining, and various groups cooperating to enroll every qualified resident, the roster of voters in Northville and Northville Township seems headed for an all-time high.

The registration period closes officially at 8:00 p.m., Monday, July 7. Between now and that time, the American Legion, its Auxiliary, and the recently-organized Minute Women of the U.S.A., Inc. plan to contact all area residents whose names are not on the rolls, and urge them to register and preserve their right to vote.

Special plans have been made to furnish free transportation to and from Northville for registration purposes, and also to provide sitters for those whom young children would keep at home. Arrangements for these services, it was announced, may be made by phoning C. F. Carrington of the Legion committee, at Northville 284.

Fred W. Lyke, township clerk, is cooperating fully in the drive. Mr. Lyke, who volunteered to spend four extra days at the Village Hall to handle the 11th-hour rush, was on duty there Tuesday from 8 to 5, and Wednesday from 8 to 8. He will maintain the latter schedule on Saturday, July 5, and on Monday, the final day.

Union Services Begin for Churches

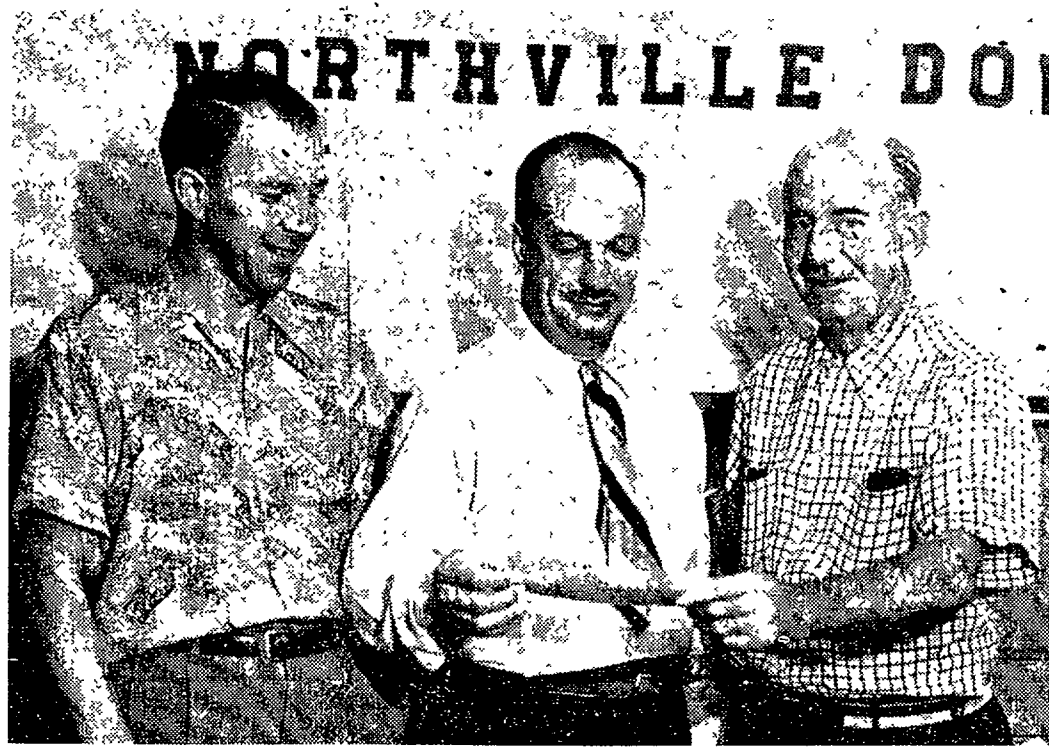

Summer union services will begin for the Northville First Methodist and First Presbyterian Churches Sunday, July 6 at the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Mr. Ivan E. Hodgson preaching.

The schedule for the summer services, arranged by the joint committees on church cooperation, calls for the first five services in the First Presbyterian Church on the Sundays in July and the first Sunday in August. Services will be in the First Methodist Church on the Sundays from Aug. 10 through Sept. 7.

The committee on church cooperation is chairmaned by Ray Van Valkenburg. Lay members of the committee from the Methodist Church are Russell H. Amerman, H. B. Smith and Oliver Collins. Serving from the Presbyterian Church are Mr. Van Valkenburg, Dr. C. E. Woodruff and Levi Eaton.

The Rev. Mr. Ivan E. Hodgson is the First Methodist Church pastor, and the Rev. Dr. Harold F. Fredsell is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Northville Downs Gift Swells Boy Scout Treasury

Record Office to Close Saturdays

The Northville Record office will be closed on Saturday mornings during the months of July and August. Business transactions normally slow down on Saturdays during those months and can usually be cared for during the week without inconvenience on the part of either customers or members of the Record staff. Weekday hours will remain the same: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Dr. Waldo Johnson Made President of Optimist Club

Dr. L. W. Snow, founder and first president of the Northville Optimist Club, officiated at the Wednesday, June 25, installation of officers for the coming year.

Dr. Waldo Johnson will serve as president of the club with Dr. Ken Eastland as first vice-president and Alex Lawrence as second vice-president.

Willis McCarthy will hold the position of treasurer and Donald B. Severance will be secretary. Sergeant at arms is Robert Coolman with the Rev. E. E. Rossow serving as chaplain.

Two-year directors are K. H. Babbitt, James Huff and Pat Malley. E. A. Chapman, Ade Willis and William Milne will serve as directors for one year.

Following the installation, Dr. Johnson presented Mr. Babbitt with a creed in token of his three years of service as treasurer of the organization. New members were also given copies of the creed by George Zerbel, past president.

Commemoration for three years of perfect service was given to Mr. Babbitt, Dr. Snow and Mr. Zerbel, while Dr. Johnson received a service pin for two years. Recipients of a pin for one year of service were Mr. Milne, Dr. Eastland, Mr. Coolman, Mr. Lawrence, Glenn Long, Mr. Huff, Emmett Wirth and James Spagnuolo.

During the Ladies' Night program, which was attended by approximately 70 persons, a memorial service for the late E. J. Willis and the late Wallace Reid, was read by Rev. Rossow. Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Emma Reid were guests of the club for the evening.

The Northville High School dance band, composed of Nancy Littell, Marlene Weiss, Ila Newton, Walter Newton, Lucien Lovewell and Bruce Felker, presented the music for the evening.

Dr. Karl Freeman and P. C. Worgess, both past presidents of the Battle Creek Exchange Club, attended the meeting of the Northville Club last Wednesday on invitation by Dr. W. L. Howard.

Boy Scouts Ready for Summer Camp After Optimist, Northville Downs Gifts

A gift in the form of a check for $200 from the Northville Downs will help make the Boy Scout Summer Camp fund healthy again.

The check was presented to Ernie Ebert, committee chairman of Troop N-1, by H. B. Dennison, Northville Downs secretary, and Orlow G. Owen, Downs operational manager, last Saturday.

The troop's treasury, built up during the last year by paper drives, a spaghetti dinner and other money-raising projects, began to run low when summer camp time rolled around and expenses for the camp became due.

Optimist Club Gift

The Optimist Club helped out by volunteering to pay the approximately $300 necessary to charter a bus to take the 55 boys who couldn't afford the $20 each for the July 7 through 21 session.

"The gift from Northville Downs will help the treasury a lot," said Troop N-1 Scoutmaster Monroe Weston, "and the Optimist Club has been wonderful. It costs a small fortune to take 55 boys to the camp; we can't earn all the money necessary, and we can use any gifts at all, especially when we get back and start all over again with almost no money to operate on."

The summer camp at the East Tawas Coast Guard Station will be directed by Scoutmaster Weston, with assistance from Mel Mitchell and Garnett Hawes. Bill Tierney, Allen Maltby, Dick Gussell and Robert Freydl will be junior officers.

How Camp Started

The summer camp had its origin in 1931 when Mr. Owen reorganized Troop N-1 after it had been inactive for some time. Scoutmaster Weston was one of the boys in the troop. Headquarters at that time, and for many years thereafter, were at Mr. Owen's winter camp. Now, with the large number of boys attending, the site has been moved further along the shore.

Mr. Owen recalled that the first trip north was nothing like the trip planned this year. "That first year," he said, "we rode the flat bed of Abe Barber's Model 'T' truck at about 20 miles an hour. It took us from 5 a.m. until 7 or 8 that night to get there."

Good Citizens in Group

"Many good citizens came out of those groups," Mr. Owen added. "I've had letters during the second World War from some of the boys who became good soldiers, sailors and marines." They said that their earlier training as scouts made it easier for them to face the hardships of wartime.

Mr. Owen pointed out that the summer camp in the early years was uncomplicated, except by the boys. "We didn't have much equipment then; we set up a camp area, maintained discipline and figured out activities without benefit of facilities for recreation. We and the boys were just on our own."

Horse, Rider Miss Grand Championship by Coin Flip

The flip of a coin and half a point kept John Wallace's horse, "Mountain Breeze," from being Grand Champion Junior in the Detroit Horse Show at Bloomfield Open Hunt Club, held Thursday through Sunday, June 26-29.

"Mountain Breeze" was edged out primarily because the winner, "Happy Day" and his rider could compete in an amateur jumper event for which Mr. Wallace, as a professional, wasn't eligible.

"Happy Days" Wins

Bert Firstone rode "Happy Day" in the amateur event and emerged with a perfect score of no faults. Then he rode his own horse, "Golden Chance," and duplicated the feat. The flip of a coin put "Happy Day" in first place, and the two points won, together with points in other events, raised the total to half a point more than Mr. Wallace and "Mountain Breeze" had gathered.

In most of the events "Happy Day" was ridden by Dorothy MacLeod, of Chicago.

The difference between an amateur rider and a professional depends on whether the rider earns his living through horses. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace operate the Wallace School of Horsemanship on West Eight Mile Rd.

City-Village Issues Center Around Possible Cost Increase

Issues upon which Northville voters will decide whether or not to adopt a city form of government have shaped up rapidly during the past two weeks. Mainly they are concerned with the cost of municipal administration under a city charter and fears that the character of the community would be changed under a city government.

All-Stars to Play Softball Tonight

Using the best players from their respective leagues, the Northville All-Stars and Plymouth All-Stars will face each other on the Ford Field softball diamond at 8:30 tonight. The Cy Owens Ford team and the Optics Owens will play the first game at 7:00 p.m.

Township Group Is Against City Plan

The current move to make Northville a city was discussed by Don Hicks, president of the Northville Township Improvement Association at a meeting last week in the V.F.W. hall.

Mr. Hicks pointed out that a change to a city form of government would not lower taxes, and took exception to the contention by Dr. L. W. Snow, chairman of the Committee on City Incorporation, that taxes should not increase under a city government. He contended that quite possibly taxes should not increase but said that experience proves that generally an increase in taxes follows change-over to city government.

Mr. Hicks said the township improvement Association is against Northville becoming a city, but that its meetings are open to the general public.

Board of Education Names Officers

Eural F. Clark was named president of the Northville Board of Education at a special meeting following the Annual School Meeting at the high school Monday, June 9.

Nelson C. Schrader, Jr., will be vice-president; George L. Clark, secretary, and Robert F. Coolman, treasurer, for the year beginning July 1, 1952.

All of the officers served in the same capacities last year, along with the board trustee, Donald B. Severance.

V.F.W. Schedules Picnic for July 13

A picnic for members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4012, the Post Auxiliary and their families will be held Sunday, July 13 at the Willows in Cass Benton Park, from 9 a.m. until late afternoon or evening.

Reserve Champion

"Mountain Breeze" was Reserve Champion of the Detroit Horse Show, and was Reserve Champion Hunter and Reserve Champion at Grand Rapids.

The Northville Junior Equestrian team, Ann Jensen, Franny Pat Malley and Jo Ann Wallace, lost the Challenge Trophy they had won in the June 1 Optimist Junior Horse Show at Northville to the Bloomfield Beavers, captained by Frank Duffy. The Beavers had placed second to Northville in the June 1 show.

Wallace School of Horsemanship pupils also came in for a share of junior honors. Mimi McLoughlin placed second in the horsemanship event for juniors under 12 years; Barbara Groom placed third in the Palomino parade class, and Franny Malley was fourth, with "Rainmaker," in the open broad jump.

Also exhibiting from Northville were Patty Hass and Gail Lawrence.

J. P. Malley was general manager of the show, and Mrs. Malley was a show official. Mrs. Franklin Beeks and Miss Vera Broad served on committees as assistant secretaries of the show.

Discussion of the relative merits of city and village government has been stimulated by "letters to the editor" on the subject and by the statement two weeks ago by the Committee on City Incorporation as to why it believes Northville should become a city. The Northville Township Improvement Association has held two meetings devoted to anti-city arguments.

This week, in response to an invitation by the Record to discuss the city incorporation plans, Supervisors Mollie Lawrence and Frank Clark, Supervisors of Northville and Novi townships respectively, have written letters which appear on Pages 2 and 12. Mrs. Lawrence fears that Village residents will have to pay higher taxes if Northville becomes a city, while Mr. Clark feels that if a majority of the qualified electors of the Village believe that a change to a city form of government is advantageous there is no legitimate reason for objection.

Mr. Clark's opinion was expressed as an individual, rather than as supervisor. He does object, however, to the present state law which provides that in the incorporation of a city it is the vote of the majority of the residents in the entire area affected that decides the matter. He feels that it would be fairer if those in the outside area to be annexed could also determine by majority vote if they wish to be included in the city limits.

Dr. L. W. Snow, chairman of the Committee on City Incorporation, also issued a statement at the Record's request on the subject of taxes under a city form of government. He pointed out that there is no reason for anticipating any higher taxes if Northville becomes a city than if it remains a Village. To the contrary, he said, there is every reason to anticipate that the approximately $70,000 extra revenue from racing, which is obtainable under a city form of government, should permit city taxes to remain at present levels and support an accelerated program of public improvements. Dr. Snow's statement follows:

"There is a mistaken fear of the word 'city' and the incorrect thought that it implies higher expenditures. This fear is unfounded when it is realized that the only difference between a city and a village is that the city provides the township services. The Michigan Municipal League did a study of 1944 tax rates of 19 villages between 1,000 and 2,000 population and 19 cities having an aggregate population substantially the same. The average tax rate for the 19 villages was $14.52; the average for the 19 cities was $15.16 or approximately one-half mill difference. This is an insignificant difference, and when it is realized that the village taxpayers had to pay township taxes in addition to the village tax, the economy of city government is clear."

"Some individuals who have been objecting to Northville becoming a city have made exaggerated claims that this will raise taxes, and have cited Detroit as an example. Detroit has experienced an enormous growth over the past several decades and its property values have increased very greatly. We have no illusions that Northville as a city is going to experience any such proportionate growth as Detroit has, nor will there be the great need for expanded municipal services here, even with the new areas which it is planned to bring into the city limits. It has been the great expansion of such municipal services in Detroit that has been responsible for higher taxes there and is no legitimate basis for comparing what is likely to happen in Northville with what has happened in Detroit."

"Another misconception has arisen locally as a result of inclusion of two areas for industrial use within the proposed city limits. Anti-city groups are claiming on the one hand that this will transform Northville into an industrial community, and on the other (Continued on Page 6)

To the Editor:

Replying to your letter suggesting that an opinion from Township officials, individually or collectively, would be of public interest at this time, I wish to state my honest opinion.

First, I have personally contacted one of the best Tax Experts in the State of Michigan, a man of unquestioned reputation, in fact who is now President of the National Association of Assessors, and he stated that City Government cannot be administered as economically as Village Government and that it had been proven in Wayne County and throughout the State.

I believe in Progress and Industry, but Northville has always been a village of homes, and there is very little room within the proposed City limits for expansion of industry, in fact very little property left for new homes. A goodly number of the home owners are widows and retired people living on a fixed income and with present day conditions, any more taxes would certainly be a burden.

It has been brought to my attention that a public statement was made that the Township would not spend any money, but it is a matter of public record that the Township contributes $2000 a year to the Recreation Program, that one-half of the Fire Fighting equipment which was approximately $8000 was paid by the Township. Also $1100 toward the repairs on the Fire Hall, and a yearly rent of $1172 for housing the Tank Truck purchased by the Township at a cost of $1700. We pay the required hourly rate for the firemen left in the village, when others are called outside the village. We appreciate this service, and it has always been very satisfactory.

The welfare load is also paid by the Township, which would have to be assumed by a city. Two-thirds of the cost of paving W. Main St., was paid to the County. We also contribute to the high school band each year.

Another valuable asset to the entire community is our Public Library. It is operated by the Wayne Co. Library System, but the building is owned and maintained by the Township. The remodeling of the building, with new heating system and extensive repairs was paid for by the Township, and we are now asking for bids on a paint job for the exterior.

Make no mistake in thinking that I am excluding the Village from any part of these activities, as my interest has always been the entire Township. I have been Supervisor the past ten years, and Treasurer for seven years previous to 1942. In that length of time, one should learn many things, and one of them certainly was that there should be more economy in Government consistent with the needs of the people.

When I took over the books as Treasurer, there was $59,000 in delinquent taxes. When the State set up the ten-year plan for payment of delinquent taxes, I immediately set up a program for all the people in the Township, whereby I could handle the payments for them, saving them trips to the County Treasurer in Detroit. And from that time on, my aim has been service to the people, keeping their assessments down as much as possible, to conform with county equalization. In regard to Gerald Ave., I

It's a sort of a hot day and we're sitting around this establishment, which we hope you remember is designed for the sale and service of Studebakers. About all we can think of is a tall glass of lemonade or a swim in the lake, when in walks an oldish sort of a guy. This fellow has the temerity to not own a Studebaker and on top of that, wants to sell US something.

"Insurance," says he, "which is something mighty useful in your old age, besides which, I read that last column of yours and you may not have as much margin as you figure."

Well one thing leads to another and when we get around to asking him how he wants to finance the lovely new Studebaker, he tells us he'll pay cash. "It just so happens," he says, "I happen to have plenty of these long green notes and the only reason I work a bit is to get out of the house whenever my wife goes on the war-path. The trouble is, once she gets on this war-path, she stays there so long, she drives me into the high income tax brackets."

Of course we'll be the first to admit that owning a brand new '52 Studebaker will not put you in the high income tax brackets, but the wonderful economy of the car will make it much easier to pay whatever taxes you may have cluttering up the place. Then, too, if you've never driven this amazing V-8 Commander of ours, we urge that you make all possible haste to do so. Such a thrill shouldn't be delayed too long, so drop around. We'll be glad to give you a demonstration.

A lug we know, recently back from his vacation, dropped around to tell us of a small town in which he spent the night. Having nothing to do, he tried to go to the movies, a bowling alley and even a pool-room, only to discover the town had no such amusement places. "What," he asks the hotel clerk, "do you do for amusement?" "Oh, we get by," says the town constable, who was sitting in the only easy chair. "Right now, we drop in at the drug store. They've got a college freshman, home for the summer."

Just in case you happen to be going on your vacation in the very near future, we urgently request that you get that car of yours in for a bit of motor-tune-up, lubrication, and new oil change. It's most important that your car give satisfactory service at all times, when on the road and is most advisable to take care of it before, not during the trip.

That's that, but a lady tells us her husband has quit smoking. "He'd never have made it," she says, "except for a strong willpower . . . mine."

Yours,
BILL and WILL PETZ.

One of the narrowest escapes from instant death ever recorded in our local history was that of four Northville residents last Sunday afternoon at the Pere Marquette crossing on Novi Rd. W. J. Lanning and wife and their party has sold its property here son, Robert and wife were enroute to Novi. At the crossing Mr. Lanning was obliged to turn out for another car coming from the north. As is well known the planking between the tracks at that point is not wide enough for the cars to pass on it, consequently the front wheel of Mr. Lanning's car slipped off the end of the planks causing it to turn back on the track and be held there by the rail. At the instant the automobile stopped, the afternoon southbound fast train appeared. The occupants of the auto jumped for their lives, just an instant before the engine struck the machine, reducing it almost to atoms.

Police in State Are Concentrating on Speed Control

Northville Chief of Police, Joseph E. Denton, this week called upon motorists to take part in the special safety campaign to check the number one traffic killer—excessive speed.

"Speeding is the leading cause of traffic deaths," Chief Denton said. "It is involved in two out of every five fatal traffic accidents and is a contributing factor in a large percentage of all personal injury and property damage accidents."

"The Northville Police Department, along with other police and sheriffs' departments throughout Michigan, is taking part in a campaign sponsored by the State Safety Commission to emphasize the dangers of excessive speed. The slogan is 'Now, Take It Easy' and the objective is to impress upon every motorist the necessity of practicing speed control."

Driver Has Obligation
"Every driver in Michigan is obligated by law to maintain a safe speed at all times. But many fail to do so and help to build up out accident toll.

"Weather, visibility and traffic volume are examples of constantly changing conditions for which drivers must make allowances. In other words, a safe speed when traffic is light could be hazardous when traffic is heavy. The basic principle of speed control is as simple as that. It is pure common sense."

"In addition, posted speed limits designate speeds allowed under normal conditions. When conditions are not normal, it is a driver's responsibility to stay within the limits of safety."

Thousands Hurt
Reports crossing the desks of police departments throughout the state show that traffic casualties on Michigan streets and highways—are now nearly a thousand persons a week. A large percentage of these are victims of fast driving.

Trying to save five minutes in reaching a destination is a reckless gamble with life, Chief Denton pointed out. "Moreover, the speeder is a menace to everyone also on the road. We're urging the use of more common sense to help reduce our terrific accident toll. We want drivers to voluntarily take it easy."

Now! Your only chance this year as an individual...

(with your family, if married)

to get Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection against hospital and surgical bills without enrolling through a group!

The chances are now 1 in 3 that you or a member of your family will face hospital bills this year! You don't have to risk your savings! You can get Michigan's most widely-used hospital and surgical protection sponsored by Michigan hospitals and doctors, if you act NOW!

WHERE WOULD the money come from, if an accident or sickness put you, or a member of your family in the hospital?

The time to do something about protection against hospital bills is NOW: while your family has its health. It's too late, after an accident or illness strikes. And strike it will, to put someone from one out of every three Michigan families in the hospital this year.

Over 2½ million in Michigan enjoy Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection! There is a proved and practical way to protect yourself and your family against unexpected hospital bills.

Some years ago, Michigan hospitals and doctors started the famous Blue Cross - Blue Shield Plans. Today these plans provide protection for over 2½ million people in Michigan. They have provided benefits worth over 222 million dollars in the last thirteen years.

FOR LIMITED TIME ONLY... enrollment opened to everyone in Michigan under age 65! Most members joined Blue Cross - Blue Shield through group enrollment. However, to approach its goal of protection for everyone in Michigan, Blue Cross - Blue Shield provides this special non-group enrollment opportunity. Now, anyone under age 65 can enroll themselves and their families without belonging to a group.

Why non-group enrollment is for a limited time only!
If non-group enrollment was kept open indefinitely, many people would put off joining until they had to go to the hospital. That would increase the cost of Blue Cross - Blue Shield to everyone. Mass enrollment over a limited time, however, "spreads the risk," keeps cost low. That's why you must inquire before July 12th... during this special campaign. No physical examination, no health statement is necessary. You don't even have to be employed to get Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection now!

The cost of Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection is low for the benefits provided!
Blue Cross - Blue Shield rates vary somewhat according to the type of protection you select. For a single person costs go as low as 13 cents a day. Protection for husband and wife can be yours for as little as 33¢ a day. To enroll your whole family costs only a few pennies more.

Send no money!
Just fill out and mail the coupon below. This puts you under no obligation nor will it make you a member.
We will send you literature and an application blank. No one will call on you. Fill in the application form and return it to us—only then will we mail you Blue Cross - Blue Shield certificates and identification cards.

THIS COUPON MUST BE MAILED NO LATER THAN JULY 12th

This could be one of the most important decisions you have ever made in your life! Don't put it off for another minute! Accident and sickness strike suddenly. Protect your family by dropping this coupon in the mail now! Pass the coupon along to a friend, if you already have this protection.

Guidance Expert Would Transfer Children to Kitchen

Mature chefs who pride themselves on their Vichyssoise, Shashlik, and Pate de foie gras, had better look to their culinary laurels. Competition is moving in on them rapidly in the form of the four-year-old.

The art of cooking, commonly associated with the kitchen, has been transferred to the nursery by a child guidance expert who points out that "few persons realize the scientific value that cooking experiences have for little children."

She is Marguerita Rudolph, a member of the Writers' Laboratory of The Bank Street College of Education in New York City and Head Teacher of The Fresh Meadows Nursery School of Fresh Meadows, New York.

Mrs. Rudolph points out in the July 1952 issue of "The Book House for Children" magazine that "cooking gives little children a chance to find out many things they are ready to learn. Through cooking they find out by watching, touching, stirring, combining, tasting, and, of course smelling what happens."

"They find out that a fire under smooth and stationary water causes bubbles to arise, steam to emerge, and a curious, hissing sound to issue forth. They find out when they mix flour, sugar, cinnamon, etc., that these ingredients are no longer distinguishable after mixing."

"At this early age children show great interest in numbers, quantities, and sizes. Cooking provides the perfect opportunity for immediate consideration of quantity, especially in measuring materials in different physical states, which is a basic scientific requirement."

Having explored the various possibilities for the child to learn through the experiences of cooking, Mrs. Rudolph admits, however, that she will probably have more success with the simpler concoctions, such as chocolate fudge or plain muffins or fudge squares. And she concedes that the very young chef is as likely to break an egg on the floor as in the bowl, because: "Gee, whiz, how can I help it when it's so slippery, Mom!"

MONSTER TANK CARRIER TRIES TEST ROAD—This 200,000-pound Army tank retriever was one of the heavy vehicles used on the Maryland Test Road by highway engineers in an experiment which proved that pavement built on gravel will carry weights far greater than the heaviest commercial trucks permitted anywhere.

Motorists today drive smoothly at 50 mph over the site of the road test, despite earlier unofficial reports the road was "ruined" by the specially heavy test trucks which were shuttled back and forth 24 hours a day for six months.

The Highway Research Board's official findings, just released in Washington, D. C., describe how the engineers withheld normal road maintenance so that washouts of clay beneath the pavement would permit cracking they could measure against various weights.

The report shows that the 28 concrete slabs on good soil didn't crack, and the tank retriever was run over this part of the highway to confirm that a properly-built road can support heavy loads.

The inadequate Choptank clay under 85 percent of the test road, it was said, exists nowhere except in a few parts of Maryland and Delaware, but the engineers' findings indicate that pavements built anywhere on poor soils, without adding gravel, require faithful maintenance if rain and weathering are not to weaken them so they cannot bear even ordinary traffic.

The Maryland Test Road was reopened to public use after the state highway department spent $9,918 on it, mostly to fix shoulders and drainage found faulty before the test.

Highway designers and builders are hopeful that the Maryland test and others in prospect will point the way to better highway construction and care. They have learned that a good foundation is a good start, for any road.

Firemen in Last Century Played Large Role in Fourth of July Celebration

When the Fourth of July is celebrated throughout Michigan this year, it's a safe bet that fire departments won't play the same role they once fulfilled at all such celebrations.

Reports in Michigan newspapers of the 1850's on file in the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan show that the activities of the volunteer fire departments were the major part of the event in those days.

Shantly drilled fire companies took part in the big parade and later exhibited their skill in handling ladders, laying hose and similar fire fighting efforts. And the fire hall was frequently the center of the big dinner that was a traditional part of Fourth of July.

Visiting Firemen
If there were any visiting fire companies, and usually there were, competition between towns would develop. Most of the competition, however, was reserved for the Firemen's Tournament—held somewhere in the state on each Fourth of July.

In 1857, the tournament was held in Kalamazoo and Alert No. 1 of Albion won first prize—a silver trumpet. The following year, Albion was host to the tournament and Protection No. 1 of Jackson triumphed by throwing a stream of water 200 feet, 7 inches. Protection No. 1 of Battle Creek won first place on quantity by pumping 41½ barrels in three minutes.

Decision Disputed
But everybody wasn't satisfied with the judges' decisions at Albion that year. The Adrian Daily Watchtower of July 6, 1858, contained a letter signed "L" that strongly intimates Protection No. 1 of Adrian deserved a better fate. "Barefaced dishonesty," is what Mr. L. believes took place at Albion, and he was equally convinced there was premeditation that no such machine, such as the pump used by Adrian, should carry off a prize.

The newspapers of the 1850's all contain mention of another aspect of the Fourth of July which is largely absent today—the arrival of throngs of persons by train.

The Hillsdale Standard of July 7, 1857, reports that, "at nine o'clock in the morning (of the Fourth), trains from east and west came in loaded with citizens from Sturgis, Coldwater, Quincy, Jonesville, Hudson and other places."

Firemen's Tournament
The firemen's tournaments drew crowds from a wide area. The editor of the Marshall Statesman, in reporting about the 1858 celebration, tells of taking the 5 a.m. train to Albion and finding himself "in company with the Kalamazoo and Battle Creek fire departments besides a host of citizens." Then at 9 a.m., he reports the arrival of a train from Detroit with 13 passenger cars and several freight cars jammed full of riders.

At Saginaw there were trains, too, but Bay City firemen (at least in 1859 and 1862) came down the river by boat, according to accounts in the Saginaw Enterprise.

One who desires to excel should endeavor it in those things that are in themselves most excellent.

Let all your views in life be directed to a solid, however, moderate, independence; without it no man can be happy, nor even honest.

Army, Air Force Recruiters at Plymouth City Hall

Army and Air Force recruiters are accepting enlistment recruits at Plymouth City Hall every Tuesday and Thursday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Representatives from the Army, including the WAC and WAF, are available at that time to advise and accept enlistee applicants.

Sgt. Delbert Dean, stationed in Ann Arbor, says that persons about to be drafted into the armed forces may enlist in either the Army or Air Force within 120 days of their pre-draft physical examinations.

He states that persons who have received their induction notices are no longer eligible for enlistment.

"Enlistees," Sgt. Dean states, "do not have complete choice of the service or specialties the Army offers."

"We are only authorized to accept high school graduates for the Army Security Agency or Army Airborne Units."

The Army recruiting service set up quotas of 70,000 enlistees to be filled by June 30, but only about 20 per cent of that number enlisted, leaving a 56,000 deficit to be signed up.

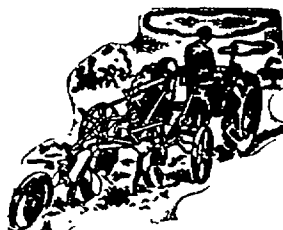

Predict Bumper Crop of Babies

Michigan may have a bumper crop of babies again this year, the state health department reported this week.

The number of live births recorded during the first four months this year already tops that of the corresponding period last year by over 2,200. Last year, the number of live births in Michigan broke all records, soaring to 171,568 as compared to 160,275 recorded in 1947, the previous high.

WJR Initiates "Third Dimension" Broadcasts With Symphony Concerts

Binaural reception, the new utilized an AM microphone and third dimension in listening enjoyment, became available to WJR listeners every Wednesday, 9:00 to 9:30 p.m. and Friday, 9:00 to 10 p.m., starting Friday, June 27, announced Worth Kramer, WJR vice-president and general manager.

The Detroit Symphony Pop Concerts Wednesday and Friday evenings are broadcast simultaneously over separate FM and AM facilities. The Symphony broadcasts became the first programs in Michigan and probably the first regularly scheduled programs in the nation to bring listeners the added fidelity and richness of binaural reception.

How to Receive

To receive the new third dimension in radio reception, listeners must have AM and FM receivers in the same room and receive station WJR (Dial 760 kc) and WJR-FM (Dial 98.3 mc) at the same time. The AM and FM sets should be placed three to ten feet apart with the FM set on the left.

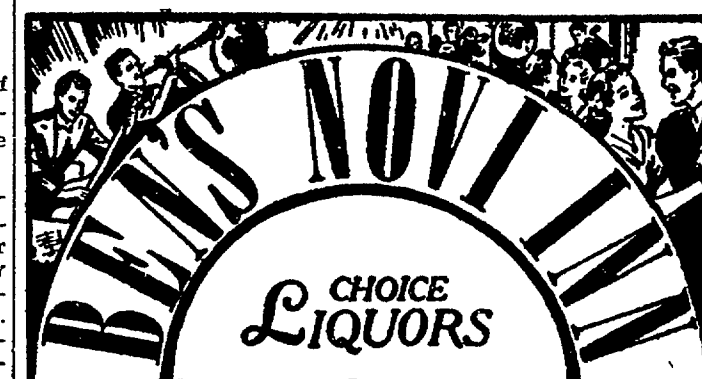

Listeners should next turn the sets slightly toward each other and adjust volumes and tone controls in each set to the same hearing levels. Then they should seat themselves between the sets so that the listeners form the top of a triangle about as far from the receivers as the sets are apart so that both ears hear the program simultaneously.

Listeners are now ready to sit back and enjoy the fine tuning and superb sound reproduction of binaural broadcasting.

Girls' Staters Learn Governmental Procedures, Favor Seaway Project

The workings of a city, county and state government in the mythical Girls' State held June 18-26 on the campus at the University of Michigan, were experienced by Northville delegates Marlene Weiss and Theresa Duchesneau. Marlene participated as a state senator as well as district attorney for her city.

Voting Machines Used

The first major step was the organization of cities with 20 girls in each. Ten represented the Nationalist party and ten the Federalist party. A total of fifteen cities were formed. Then came the organization of five counties with three cities to a county.

On the second night the party caucuses were held to nominate candidates for state officers. Campaigning, with parades, songs, cheers, slogans, posters and skits, preceded the elections to stimulate interest. On Friday both state and county elections were held. During the state elections, the girls used voting machines.

With the inauguration of the state officers the following night, the officials took over the entire government of the state.

Favor Seaway Project

The outstanding resolution by the girls concerned the St. Lawrence Seaway project. In answer to a telegram to Congressman Homer Ferguson favoring the project the following telegram was received:

WOLVERINE GIRLS' STATE
"Retel 19th. Will support motion to reconsider St. Lawrence Seaway project. Very much in favor of approval."

Homer Ferguson USS

Other resolutions passed concerned non-Communists oaths, lower voting age, FEPC, rehabilitation for prisoners and improvements for next year's Girls' State.

Dr. Harlan Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan; the Honorable John B. Martin, Jr., Auditor General of Michigan, and Governor G. Mennen Williams were among the prominent speakers during the week.

Though the schedule was filled with many governmental matters, many social and cultural functions were given. Marlene participated in the band concert while Theresa sang in the choir. A talent show was given, a gay ninety luncheon, a costume dinner and a pajama dinner, sponsored by the Monroe Ladies' Auxiliary. Lectures were given on careers, sculpturing, poetry and music appreciation.

Girls Express Gratitude

"In our opinion," said Marlene and Theresa, "the purpose of Girls' State, to acquaint today's girls with procedures, problems and the necessity of good government, was accomplished. We would like to express our gratitude to our sponsors, the American Legion Auxiliary Lloyd H. Green Post 147, the Mother's Club and the Women's Club, for giving us the opportunity of sharing this enlightening experience with other girls from all over Michigan."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the O.E.S., Orient Chapter 77, for the beautiful plant and our friends and neighbors for their kind thoughts and sympathy shown during our recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamill and Family.

City-Village

other hand that inclusion of such areas is useless because industry won't move here anyway.

"The facts are that the Committee on City Incorporation does not believe that the character of Northville as an ideal residential village will be changed in the least by inclusion of these so-called industrial areas. The Committee does know, however, that the inflationary trends which have raised the cost of living of every Northville resident are also increasing the cost of every municipal service, whether it is performed by a village or a city. There is need for encouragement of both residential and industrial construction by whatever means is most effective so taxes can be held down as much as possible by being spread over a broader base of assessed property values otherwise, the Village or city will find itself in a financial straight jacket which will force assessment of local property on a higher basis than at present. This is the reason for inclusion of new areas for both industrial and residential construction within the proposed city boundaries.

While Northville probably will not become the home of any large industries like those building up along the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad in Livonia, it is a suitable location for certain types of light manufacturing plants.

These can be attracted by providing a "climate" which is at least favorable to them building here, but not if the community by its attitude opposes their coming here."

Mrs. Willis Gives June Cancer Report

During the month of June materials for cancer pads were furnished by Mrs. Allan Breese, Mrs. Frank Balden, Mrs. Lawrence LeFevre, W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church, Novi; Mrs. George Waite, of Novi; Miss Edith Harrington, Mrs. Charles Logeman, Miss Sophie Timoskevich and the House of Cottons.

Dressings and bed jackets were completed by the King's Daughters, Past Matrons, Miss H. Angell, Mrs. William Aston's Episcopal group, Circles of the Methodist Church, Novi; the Novi Methodist Church and the Afternoon Club.

Mrs. E. J. Willis wants all cancer patients to know that supplies may be picked up free of charge at headquarters, 119 Raymond and that the supply is plentiful at the present time, therefore patients need not worry about taking too many.

Go to New England, and visit the domestic firesides, if you would see the secret of American Independence—Religion has made them what they are.

The people's safety is in the law of God.

A single soul is richer than all the worlds.

HISTORY LESSON-1952

Seeing is believing! And what these GI's see, tells them that the age of atomic warfare is irrevocably here. An eye-witness history lesson they'll never forget!

But this history lesson is yours, too. For these tactical A-Bomb tests conducted at Frenchman Flat in Nevada, mean that your country is determined to defend you and all of the things you hold dear.

That's why it's so important to know that you can help keep the peace by buying U. S. Defense Bonds. For your bonds help build America's strength. And we now know that peace is for the strong!

And remember, when you buy Defense Bonds you're not only helping build the great economic strength that backs up our armed forces. You're also making one of the soundest investments in the world today. For Defense Bonds are as safe as America!

The U. S. Defense Bonds you buy give you personal financial independence

Don't forget that bonds are now a better buy than ever. Because now every Series E Bond you own can automatically go on earning interest every year for 20 years from date of purchase instead of 10 as before! This means that the bond you bought for $18.75 can return you not just $25—but as much as $33.33! A $37.50 bond pays $66.66. And so on. For your security, and your country's too, buy United States Defense Bonds now!

Peace is for the strong...
Buy U.S. Defense Bonds regularly!

Jacks in Box" Take Part in Jordan Dance Recital

Jordan Dance Studio Has Recital
 Many nationalities and periods of time in history were represented when the pupils of the Jordan Dance Studio presented their annual dance recital Saturday, June 14, at the Bentley High School auditorium.
 Boys and girls from Livonia, Farmington, Detroit, South Lyon, Plymouth, Milford and Novi took part.
 The recital, based on a toy shop fantasy, opened with the striking of the "witching hour" of midnight, at which time all the toys in the shop came to life.
 Dolls and Toys
 Dolls of all nations were represented as well as other nursery toys which included a horse addicted to "boogie-woogie", some "pussy footing" leopards, sick chickens, strutting penguins and hopping rabbits.
 Even the alphabet blocks were affected by the spell and did a lively dance. A petite doll proceeded to do her ironing on a toy ironing board, and true to feminine ways, talked too long on the telephone, scorching her ironing. She rushed to the board in time to save the work, finish her job and end with a dance.
 Many Nationalities
 Among the characters taking part in the fantasy were an Irish

DETROIT EDISON CO. Sets Up Department for Studying Atomic Energy as Heat
 Setting up of a new department of The Detroit Edison Company—to be known as the Nuclear Power Development Department—has been announced.
 Walker L. Cislir, Edison president and general manager, named Harvey A. Wagner, assistant chief engineer of the company's Engineering Department, to head the new unit as coordinator. He also announced the appointment of Edward L. Nugent, assistant supervising engineer of Construction Engineering, as assistant coordinator. The assignments are in addition to the appointees' present duties.
 Atom Fuel for Heat
 Cislir explained that for several years The Detroit Edison Company has been following closely the possibilities of using atomic fuel as a heat source in industry instead of present fuels like gas, petroleum, and coal. More recently, he said, the Dow Chemical Company of Midland and The Detroit Edison Company have been cooperating under a joint contract with the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission. The joint project is aimed at working out a basic engineering design for a nuclear heat power reactor of commercial usefulness.
 Cislir emphasized that the project is still in a study stage, with possibilities of a practical application probably some years in the future. He said there are at present no plans for any "atomic power plants" in Michigan.
 Activity Coordination
 Function of Edison's new Nuclear Power Development Department will be to coordinate the company's various activities in the joint project. General coordination of the project with AEC, Dow Chemical, and other participants will continue to be the responsibility of consultant Alton P. Donnell, retained because of his extensive background of experience in this field.
 Wagner, head of the new Edison department, is 47 years old and lives at 12900 E. Outer Drive, Detroit. He has been with the company since 1928. Nugent, 54, also is a Detroit. His home is at 19650 Spencer Avenue and he has been with Detroit Edison 27 years.

RECORD MICHIGAN FISH

Every now and then Michigan fishermen get into an argument about big fish caught in the state, and frequent disputes arise as to who holds the record for various species.

To calm the troubled waters here's a complete list of current records on file with our Conservation Department—a list that you may want to clip for ready reference:

Let's begin with Northern Pike. Albert Kobe caught a pike that weighed 32 lbs. and was 44" long, in Gratiot Lake, Keweenaw County, in 1944. It stands as the record pike to date.

In the Walleyed Pike or Pickerel class a new record was set in 1951 by George Fadley of Yorktown, Indiana. His fish weighed 17 lbs. 4 oz., and was caught in the Manistee River above Tippecanoe, Ind. It was 37" long.

The biggest Michigan Muskegon was a 62 1/2 lb. 59" fish caught by Percy Haver in Lake St. Clair in 1940. The largest Bluegill came from Silver Lake in Cheboygan County in 1945, and was caught by Ferd Brockie. It weighed 2 lbs., 10 ozs., and was 12" long.

The Yellow Perch record is held by Eugene Jezinski, caught in Independence Lake in Marquette County, and ran the scale to 3 lbs., 12 oz.

A 3 lbs., 5 oz Rock Bass from Lake Cadillac at Cadillac holds the record for that fish, and the best Catfish on the books weighed 4 lbs., 2 oz. It came from Lincoln Lake in Kent County.

In the bass family the record Smallmouth Bass hit the 9 1/4 lb. mark and was 27" long. It was caught way back in 1908 by W. F. Shoemaker, in Long Lake, Cheboygan County. The best Largemouth Bass ever taken in Michigan came from Big Pine Lake in Kent County, and weighed 11 lbs., 15 oz. It was caught by Bill Maloney of Grand Rapids on the opening day of the season in 1934.

Michigan's Biggest Trout The largest Lake Trout didn't come from Lake Superior as you might expect, but from Lake Michigan near Grand Haven. It was caught in 1884 and weighed 88 lbs. That's one record that probably will never be topped.

Rainbow Trout record for Michigan stands at 21 lbs., 7 oz. and was caught in the Manistee River in November, 1947, by Gorman Labadie.

Brook Trout fishermen out for a record have to shoot at a 6 lb., 1 oz. fish caught at White Fish Bay in 1934 by George Shipman of Flint.

The Michigan record for Brown Trout stands at 15 lbs., 6 oz., and is held by Burrell High, of Niles. The whopper came from Downagac Creek in Berrien County in 1940.

Michigan's largest fish is the Sturgeon, one specimen of which was hit by a steamer propeller near Benton Harbor, was captured and weighed in at 310 lbs. And believe it or not, a 47 lb. Catfish holds the record for Elmer Raymer of Ionia. The giant cat came from the Maple River in 1937. So, if you're out for a record fish in Michigan this year, there's your competition! Good luck—and you'll need it!

Aquatic Meets Scheduled in July for Boy Scouts

Increasing each year in popularity and participation, Detroit Area Boy Scout Council-sponsored annual aquatic meets will again be held for all of the nine districts which make up the council's territory. All nine district meets and the council finals will be held during July—which gives thousands of stay-at-home Scouts opportunity to see some excellent competition and enjoy some fun and fellowship.

Scouts with no swimming ability whatsoever may participate as several events are for the novice, such as the apple balancing relay for non-swimmers only.

Contest Schedules

Wednesday evening at 7:00 o'clock, July 9, is the time and date for Districts One and Two—the former at Royal Oak High and the latter at the Denby Pool. District Seven semi-finals will be held at Ford Motor Pool, 10:00 o'clock, Saturday morning, July 12. At the same time, Down River contestants (District Nine) will compete in the Trenton High pool.

Districts Three and Four meet at 7:00 o'clock Wednesday evening, July 16—the former at Denby High and the latter at Northern High.

On Saturday morning, July 19, District Eight's affair is scheduled at the Ford Motor Pool from 10 a.m. to 12 o'clock noon.

Districts Five and Six will hold their meets on Wednesday evening, July 23—the former at Kel-sey Field Recreation Pool and the latter at Cooley High.

Winners to Compete

Winners of the nine district meets will compete for top honors in the council finals at Patton Pool on Wednesday evening, July 30. This year's program is again being sponsored by members of Scouting's Life Saving Corps No. 5 in cooperation with the American Red Cross, Detroit's Department of Recreation and others.

The public is cordially invited to witness all meets. There are no admission fees. Scouts, Leaders and parents are urged to attend to "root" for their contestants.

Detroit Firm Gets Curb. Gutter Job

The Northville Village Commission at a special meeting Monday evening accepted a bid of $13,230 by Ministrell Brothers, Detroit, for construction of curb and gutters on Grace Ave between Baseline and Rayson; Lake Ave. between N Center and Horton, and Rayson from Hutton to N Center St.

Work on the project is to start within two weeks.

Letters to the Editor:-

Novi, Mich.
June 30, 1952

The Northville Record,
Northville, Mich.

Dear Mr. Cummings:
I thank you for your invitation to present my views on the proposed incorporation of Northville as a city either as supervisor of Novi Township or as spokesman for the Novi Township Board.

Inasmuch as the Novi Township Board will not be in session in time to meet your date of publication, the following opinions are my own, expressed individually.

As supervisor of Novi Township I do not like to see a portion of the township entirely cut off, although from an economic standpoint Novi township will gain if Oakwood subdivision becomes a part of a city, as we receive no revenues from it at present.

The Village of Northville now receives the portion of sales tax, intangible tax and weight and gas tax allocated according to the population of that portion of the village.

Novi township has spread no township tax in 1952 or 1953 and I see no reason to spread one in the foreseeable future.

However, I believe in majority rule and self-determination in so far as it does not interfere with the rights of others.

If a majority of the qualified electors of the Village of Northville believe that a change to a city form of government is advantageous I see no legitimate reason for objection.

However, if adjoining areas are annexed or included against the wishes of a majority of the electors and taxpayers in the area affected, I feel it is an injustice.

When adjoining territory is forcibly annexed or included against the will of a majority of the electors and taxpayers in said territory, whether it be by ballot, or force of arms, we are wandering far from the ideals of our forefathers.

Even if not unconstitutional, I believe it violates our American way of life and that at the present time we are supporting a POLICE ACTION to suppress a similar attempt in another part of the world.

Why not be fair to the less populated areas and include only those where a majority of the voters approve annexation.

Yours very truly,

Frank D. Clark.

Editor, Northville Record:

WHY WILL NORTHVILLE, AS A CITY, BE ENTICING TO INDUSTRY

For one reason or another, during the past many years, Northville, as a village, has elected to remain a village. As such, it has deliberately frowned upon having industry within its limits. The righteousness of this decision is not challenged but now, we are told, with the prospect of Northville becoming a city, there will be a change in philosophy and every effort will be made to entice industry to Northville as industry will be a great revenue developing project. The general areas sited and zones for light industry are definitely limited and much of the area is privately owned and still must be placed on the market for resale. Whether this will be done is very questionable.

What facilities can the new city offer to industry. Will it be unlimited water supply? Will it be unlimited sewage? Will this land be given to industry tax free?

Most industries today are leaving cities and moving to suburban areas to avoid taxes and they are doing this knowing full well that they will have to pay premium wages because of the distance from the local labor market. Industries today are cold, calculating concerns who are wise to pitfalls of taxes and assessments and limitations of space and as a city how can we truthfully believe that industry will rush to our doors. We are given to believe that the new revenues from industry will definitely help establish our city.

MICHIGAN MIRROR NON-PARTISAN NEWS LETTER

"Is this a private fight," asked the proverbial Irishman, "or can anybody get in it?"

That might have been the question asked by Michigan businessmen and manufacturers as they waded into the Governor Williams-State Legislature Donnellybrook in the closing days of the legislative session.

Faced with the prospects of going $11 million farther in the red, the House general taxation committee considered a 2% processing tax as a last-minute attempt to take up the losses in revenue which had been brought about by the governor's vetoes of several tax measures.

The tax would have levied a 2% tax on everything that goes into industrial processing or manufacture.

All the tools an auto maker buys to change models, all the tin cans a packer uses to package the season's crop of fruits and vegetables, all the machinery a print shop buys to replace worn-out equipment or to expand would be taxed.

The bill would have wiped out the industrial processing exemptions in the sales tax law. But, not being a "sales tax," the tax wouldn't be subject to the split-up with local governmental units and schools.

It was a sweltering afternoon when Rep. Louis Anderson, of Charlevoix, chairman of the tax committee, rapped for the public hearing to come to order.

But, more telling than the weatherman's efforts, was the heat generated under the collars of the scores of citizens who crowded around the speaker's rostrum in the House.

Although they showed such restraint in their presentation that Rep. Anderson was moved to compliment the witnesses on it, spokesmen for Michigan business groups used incisive phrases to convey their complete disapproval of the proposed law.

Joseph Creighton, representing the Michigan Manufacturers Association, charged flatly: "Michigan's problem is a political one more than a financial one. Business is willing to go along on a long-range taxation program; it made no objection to the increase in corporate franchise taxes. But we refuse to be the sacrificial goat on the political altar of a governor who refuses to admit that a tax on industry is a tax on the consumer."

But the witnesses had more than verbal stilettes to throw at the governor. They had bludgeons of facts to swing at the committee.

Detroit industrialists protested that they must compete with firms outside Michigan who wouldn't have to add such tax to production costs. "With this extra handicap, we won't be competitive. And if we're not competitive, our workers won't get the paycheck they get now."

They warned of the danger of industry having to price itself out of the market. "There is an erroneous belief that profits effect prices. Actually, prices determine profits and prices are set by competition."

Steel spokesmen pointed out that their products were selling well below ceiling prices. "Competition brings prices down, not the OPS," they said.

The pyramiding effect of the tax came in for strong criticism. Two per cent levies at each step of production would mean a sizeable tax on the finished product. For, no matter what any politician says, the ultimate person paying any tax is the ultimate consumer.

A Grand Rapids spokesman pointed out another danger. An out-of-state firm, planning a $10 million plant in his area, had halted all planning until the fate of the bill was settled. The 2% levy would have raised the price of that plant beyond reason.

"It is foolish for the State to finance the Department of Economic Development to attract new industry here if the Legislature is going to scare it away by an unfriendly attitude toward business," they said.

Other industrialists pointed out that the increased franchise tax, reassessed property valuation and extra real estate taxes to pay off local bond issues was already raising taxes by dangerous amounts.

"Why, this tax would cost more than the proposed State income tax," protested Creighton.

It took little deliberation by the committee later that evening to kill the proposal.

Committeemen's private opinion was that it's better to forego the golden egg rather than to kill the goose that lays it.

Michigan may make a President this year.

At least it's in a key position to make a Republican nominee.

When the GOP band wagon starts rolling in Chicago Monday, Michigan delegates may well be in the driver's seat.

They go ostensibly unpledged and—also—ostensibly—in perfect harmony. The result is that Michigan can make a swift jump when its leaders detect that the moment has come to start the parade for Taft or Eisenhower.

The state that makes the first break to developing a landslide is never forgotten when the successful candidate remembers his friends in the traditional political manner patronage and prestige.

The delegation is probably sharpening its parliamentary procedure these last few days before the convention. It was a parliamentary move that kept Michigan off the Dewey bandwagon four years ago.

Michigan went into the convention waving the banners for the late Sen. Arthur Vandenberg. The senator wasn't very interested in the Presidential nomination; he was deep in his important work on the bipartisan foreign policy. So his campaign never caught fire.

On the second ballot the tide turned for Dewey. Former Gov. Kim Sigler was chairman of the delegation and sensed the shift. He wanted to swing his pivotal votes. At the end of the second roll-call, Sigler asked Congressman Joseph Martin for two minutes to "correct" Michigan's vote. That meant to hold a hurried caucus to swing the bloc to Dewey.

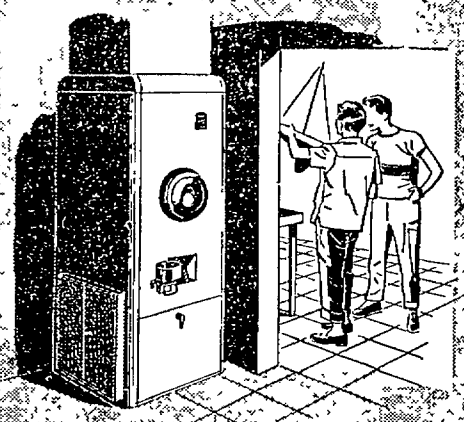

Martin called Sigler out of order and Michigan missed its try.
