1397 Residents Cast Ballots In Important Primary Election

Northville Township electors smashed all voting records in Tuesday's primary election by casting 1,397 ballots at the two voting places in the village.

Engineer Resigns Parking Lot Job

Frederick R. Storer, consulting engineer in charge of design and construction of retaining walls and curbing for the village parking lot adjacent to the First Presbyterian Church and along the alley running west to Center St., resigned this week with disclaimer of "any responsibility whatsoever for the stability or suitability of work constructed differently than the plans indicate."

Counting of ballots in Precinct No. 2 placed Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr. one vote ahead of Donald S. Leonard in the race for the Republican nomination for governor, 165 to 164.

Clarence A. Reid appeared to have won the GOP nomination as Lieutenant Governor with a good margin in both precincts and Congressman Charles E. Potter had an imposing lead in the contest for United States Senator for both the full term and the vacancy.

Governor G. Mennen Williams was unopposed for the Democratic governor's nomination and Blair Moody was far out in front for the Senatorial nomination for both the full term and to fill the vacancy.

Final results of the primary election are posted in the window of the Northville Record on sample ballots.

Two crews of ladies worked all night from 9 p.m. Tuesday until Wednesday afternoon counting the large number of candidates on the huge "bedsheet" ballots.

They sat in groups at the Village Hall and at the Boy Scout Building and called off the numbers opposite candidates' names while others recorded and double-checked the lists.

The two precinct chairwomen, Mrs. E. Jane Wagenschutz and Mrs. Ross Bush, were on the job from the beginning of balloting Tuesday at 7 a.m. until Wednesday afternoon.

Downs Season Will End Saturday

The Governor G. Mennen Williams Feature Trot Friday night will climax the last week of harness racing at Northville Downs.

Governor Williams will attend the $5,000 feature and present a blanket and trophy to the winner of the week's most important race, Downs officials said.

The 54-night program closes Saturday night, Aug. 9 after setting new records in attendance and wagering at the half-mile oval. Only one night of racing has been rained out.

Records Broken Features of the season were the breaking of two records "My Volo" paced the mile in 2:02 2/5, cracking the previous record of 2:03 1/5 set in the 1951 Michigan Pacing Derby. Later, "H. D. Hanover" erased by a full second "Royal Man's" mile and a sixteenth pace record of 2:12 set in 1948.

A trickle of horsemen have already begun to move their trailers and pacers to the Wolverine Raceway at Middlebelt and Schoolcraft Rds. for the forthcoming 54 nights of racing there beginning Aug. 11.

Experts trace the increased interest at Northville and at other of the nation's tracks to the "growing up" of pari-mutuel harness racing as a sport. Year after year more and more racing fans have adopted the harness sport.

Northville Downs is the pioneer track in the Midwest although in operation only nine years. It became the first Michigan track to use the new daily-double ticket machines which match the speed of the regular ticket-printing machines this season.

The ballot counting crew at Precinct No. 1, the Village Hall, dig into the all-night job of sorting and recording votes in Tuesday's primary election. Reading clockwise, they are: Mrs. L. Chute, Mrs. Marguerite Harner, Mrs. Gladys Clark, Mrs. Marge Coleman, Mrs. Yvonne Rollings, Clerk Fred W. Lyke, Stephanie Bird and Mrs. E. Jane Wagenschutz, chairman. The crew at Precinct No. 2 consisted of Mrs. Lee Heaton, Mrs. Harold Wagenschutz, Mrs. Ernie Ebert, Mrs. Russell Bingley, Mrs. Elmer DeKay, Mrs. Harold Tuck and Mrs. Ross Bush, chairman. They stayed up all night, too.

Cy Owens Team Leads In Softball Play Offs

By this time the smoke has cleared away a little in the fight for the crown in the Northville Softball League play-offs. The Cy Owens Ford Service team jumped into an early lead, winning two games on two nights to qualify for the finals to be held next week.

Legal Ruling on City in Ten Days

Further action toward incorporation of Northville as a city will be delayed until Attorney General Frank Millard rules on procedure to be followed by a village located in two counties.

James E. Littell, village attorney, reported to the Village Commission Monday evening that he and Dr. L. W. Snow, chairman of the committee on city incorporation, had met with Millard last Friday and presented the village's position and desire for legal advice.

A new legal opinion has been promised within ten days to bring up-to-date a ruling by a Detroit attorney general in 1945 that a village located in two counties could not become a city.

The new opinion may also clear up certain legal ambiguities in the law governing establishment of a city form of government.

Consumers Power Tax Is Too Large

Due to a mix-up in the transfer of records by former village assessor E. E. Perrin to Edward M. Bogart, present assessor, when he took office this spring, Consumers Power Company is paying a village property tax this month on a $38,000 valuation of personal property inside the village whereas the correct valuation should be $30,000.

This situation was called to the village commission's attention this week by a letter from Mr. Bogart, which stated that he did not receive from Mr. Perrin a declaration of personal tax valuation which George Mayhew, district manager for Consumers Power, said he filed with Perrin Feb. 16. Bogart's letter said that, lacking the Consumers declaration, he estimated the value of the company's property in the village at $500 less than Consumers had valued its property at in the township. Actually, he said, the value of Consumers' underground mains running through the township to the village account for the greater share of its property.

The village commission decided after considerable discussion that because of the late date that the error was called to its attention, nothing could be done about the 1952 personal property assessment. Although its members expressed sympathy for the company and indicated a desire to adjust the assessment next year to offset the present over-assessment, they felt that it would be improper to formally signify such an intent at this time.

Stubenvoll Looking for New Dog Pound

John F. Stubenvoll was designated by the Village Commission Monday evening to investigate the possible need for a new dog pound as a result of the removal of Dr. E. B. Cavell from his former home on Griswold St. to a new location where the commission foresaw zoning restrictions which might prevent maintenance of a pond.

Dr. Cavell has operated the dog pound for many years, but recently sold the property on which it was located.

LaVerne Anderson Wins New Ford - With Taxes Paid - in Free Drawing

LaVerne Anderson hit the jackpot last Wednesday, July 30, but it wasn't on the horses. He won a new Ford Crestline Victoria with Fordomatic drive in a free drawing.

The drawing was part of a "Get Together" held for wholesale customers by the Ford Dealers of Metropolitan Detroit, Mr. Anderson sells Ford parts through his Mobilgas service station.

What made the gift even more welcome was that taxes and other annoying charges had already been taken care of by the sponsoring organization. Only a gift tax of twenty or thirty dollars has to be paid and Mr. Anderson was more than willing to pay it.

The winning ticket for the black and ivory car was given to Mr. Anderson by Cy Owens, of Cy Owens Ford Sales and Service.

What apparently impressed Mr. Anderson almost as much as winning the car in the "get together" were the huge sandwiches served at the meeting. "They were mammoth," he said "I just can't get over how big they were."

Approval Delayed on Mill View Plat

Approval of a new plat of the Mill View subdivision, bounded by Griswold, Butler and Pennell, formerly known as the Dr. Cavell property, was delayed by the Village Commission Monday evening because of lack of the signatures of all parties having an interest in the property.

The plat will be approved when it carries the proper signatures. Refusal of the commission to act at this time was based upon the finding of James E. Littell, village attorney, that the plat, as submitted, carried only the signatures of Dr. Edwin B. Cavell and Izetta Cavell, his wife, as of July 8, 1952, whereas the property had been conveyed on June 3, 1952 to Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Johnson.

Littell indicated that the dedication must carry the signatures of the Johnsons as well as the Cavells. He also said that the Village zoning board of appeals has decided to waive the minimum square foot area of lots in the Mill View subdivision, which is slightly less than the zoning ordinance specifies.

Band Will Play State Fair Concert

The 60-member Northville High School and Community Band, under the direction of Leslie G. Lee, will play a half-hour concert in the Music Shell on Monday, Sept. 1 at the Michigan State Fair.

More than 50 bands representing every section of Michigan will participate in a musical program at the Fair grounds Aug. 29 through Sept. 7, according to Graham T. Overgard, musical director.

Each band coming to the Fair will perform in the Music Shell and members of the organizations will be guests of General Manager James M. Hare and the board members at many of the Fair's special attractions.

Dr. Howard Called 'Much Improved'

Condition of Dr. W. Leonard Howard is so much improved that he will be moved from Maybury Sanatorium to his home on W Seven Mile Rd. this week, said Mrs. Howard.

Dr. Howard was hospitalized by a heart attack recently at the sanatorium while attending to his duties there as medical superintendent.

Optimist Club Alters Program in August

To give the ladies of the Lutheran Church a month's respite from serving dinners each Wednesday evening, the Northville Optimist Club is holding its four August meetings elsewhere.

Wednesday evening this week Club members and their wives were guests of Northville Downs, with Pat Malley and Gerry Taft, who are reputed to know all about horses, slated to pass out hot tips on prospective winners.

The Aug. 13 meeting is to be a family picnic at the Malley farm (John Wallace Riding Academy) at 4620 W 8 Mile Rd. On Aug. 20 club members are to be guests of Mr. Charles Henry, superintendent of Boys Republic, at 9 Mile and Inkster roads, with dinner served promptly at 6 o'clock. Following the meal, an impromptu ball team of Optimist members has been challenged to a softball game by the Boys Republic team.

The evening will conclude with attendance at a "kangaroo court" which the boys will hold to show Optimists how justice is meted out in Boys Republic. All infractions of the rules for the previous two weeks will be passed upon at the session.

A golf outing is to be held the afternoon of Aug. 28 with the Exchanges and Rotarians at the Plymouth Golf Club, followed by dinner in the evening.

Regular Wednesday evening meetings will be resumed at the Lutheran Church House the first week in September.

The Detroit Free Press last Sunday printed an excellent article about Northville. The writer, Louis Cook, interpreted our Village's situation as it appears to an impartial outsider. Although some of our readers may have seen his story, we reprint it below for the benefit of those who did not.

NORTHVILLE—It would be nice if Northville could remain just as it is for another 100 years. It's quiet here. There are maple-shaded streets, big old homes set back behind sweeps of lawn.

The old crystal spring still splashes at the edge of town, Northville's own Fountain of Youth.

A day-long procession of householders files past to fill gallon jugs with the famous water. A Jig in very Swig, people here proudly state.

But the advance troops of the Big City are pressing down Seven Mile Road toward Northville. Squads of brick-layers. Platoons of carpenters. Plumbers. Roofers. Plasterers.

Just over the horizon is a growing rumble of bulldozers roughing out basement excavations and trucks hauling in concrete. Northville is right in their path.

So far, the changes in Northville have been slight. There is a growing number of what the old hands here call "the sleepers"—people who live here but work in Detroit and other communities. Northville is 26 miles from Detroit's City Hall.

The sleepers are still a small group. Northville had 3,032 people in 1940 and in 1950 the total had reached only 3,221. Veterans of Northville don't believe there is much room left for newcomers.

But Berkley, a City on the Rim of only 2.4 square miles, now has 23,000 residents. Northville has an area of 19 square miles.

Northville is a little different from many of the new communities on the edge of Detroit. It has deep roots. Northville's first settlers came in 1825.

Much of its business district dates back to the turn of the century.

Northville's biggest industry probably is Northville Downs, a large harness-racing enterprise which has been located here many years.

Northville Downs is big business. It brings nightly crowds of 10,000 race fans. Betting has gone as high as a third of a million dollars one evening.

The Ford valve plant employs 1,000 workers when it's running wide open. Ford came here in 1919 and the present plant was built in 1935.

It's a pretty place with a water wheel fed by the old mill pond and still turning out a modest amount of electrical power. It was one of Henry Ford's hobbies. Behind the home of Mayor Conrad Langfield is his spotless Northville Laboratories one of the largest producers of vanilla extract in the country.

Vanilla pods come in sealed tin boxes from far-off Madagascar to feed Langfield's percolators.

There has been a quiet infiltration of new industries like the Michigan Powdered Metal Products Co., which presses out gears for light machinery.

Big institutions help Northville's prosperity, too. Nearby are the Detroit House of Correction, the Maybury Sanatorium, the Wayne County Training School and St. John's Catholic Seminary.

The new Northville State Hospital is still under construction just east of town. East Lawn Sanatorium is within the village limits.

Authority on Northville's history is former Postmaster Tom R. Carrington, born here in 1887. "When I was a boy there were still men here, men with long beards who had pioneered the place. We used to call Northville the Switzerland of Wayne County, then."

"I don't know what's going to happen here. There'll be changes I guess."

The changes are coming from restless young Northvillians like big Nelson Schrader, operator of a furniture store and funeral parlor.

Schrader is one of the supporters of a struggling enterprise to incorporate Northville from a village into a city.

The issue has precipitated a lively discussion, between the older residents and the younger generation, with most of the elders opposed to cityhood.

Korean War Veterans Display Desire for Training Under New G. I. Bill

Michigan veterans have flooded the Detroit Veterans Administration Regional Office with requests for training information under the new Korean GI Bill, said Guy F. Palmer, manager of the office.

He advises these veterans to be patient for a few days, when all their questions will be answered. The nation's 48 State governors have been formally requested by Carl R. Gray, Jr., Administrator of Veteran Affairs, to appoint agencies within their states to handle approval of schools and business establishments for training eligible veterans.

Must Have Approval

The new law specifies that the schools and training establishments must have State approval before they may offer training to veterans who served since the outbreak of Korean hostilities. This requirement also was a part of the original GI Bill for World War II veterans.

Mr. Gray requested "early receipt" of the lists of state approving agencies, so that the Veterans Administration can start handling veterans' applications before Aug. 20—the date the new training program goes into effect.

Can Use Same Agencies

He suggested to the Governors that the same approving agency may be designated for the Korean GI Bill that already has been doing the job under the earlier World War II Act. He pointed out that a State may have either one agency to handle all types of approvals, or separate agencies to approve various types of training—classroom, on-the-farm, apprenticeship or on-the-job.

The Governors were reminded that the law allows VA to reimburse State approving agencies "for reasonable and necessary expenses of salary and travel incurred in rendering necessary services under this Act." Once an approving agency is appointed, he said, it will be sent a contract proposal for reimbursement of expenses.

He emphasized that approval granted to schools and training establishments must be respectful of World War II GI Bill does not carry over for training under the new Korean Act. Schools and establishments must be reinspected and reapproved for Korean GI Bill training, since in many cases they must meet different standards than those required under the earlier law.

To make certain that post-Korean veterans will be able to enroll in training without delay, Mr. Gray urged the States to approve first those courses which are accredited, since they do not demand extensive investigation.

The new Korean GI Bill provides up to 36 months of training to veterans who were on active duty on or after June 27, 1950—the date of the outbreak of fighting in Korea—regardless of where they served. While in training, they may receive an allowance from the Government to cover part of their expenses.

No allowance may be paid for any training taken prior to August 20, the law states.

Agricultural Library Opens in Rome

The largest agricultural library in Europe was opened in Rome during June by the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization. It is called the David Lubin Memorial Library in honor of the American of Polish origin who established the International Institute of Agriculture, the first international organization for the improvement of agriculture, and the forerunner of FAO.

Green Thumb

by Paul Newton

If you are a gardener who likes to change the location of plants each spring or fall, don't let the urge for something new lead you to move your peonies too often. When they are moved or divided every two or three years they never get a chance to produce a really satisfactory crop of typical blooms so if you yield to the temptation to move a larvae established peony clump it will not be the same again for several seasons.

This is not to say that peonies can't be moved. They can, but it is a real job which involves careful digging and balling of a sizable amount of earth around the roots. Not just a cubic foot or so of dirt, but as much as 200 to 300 pounds, which makes it a bigger job than to move the usual small shrub or tree.

Free of Disease

Peony foliage stays green all summer and is extremely free of disease. The plants can be used at a corner or for accent. Place them in groups of three or five at a spot far enough away from trees or shrubs so their roots will not interfere with growth. They can take lots of sun and are plants you will enjoy if placed at the entrance of your porch or along a pathway curve.

Flamingo has a semi-double bloom with a gold center. As its name indicates, it is a striking color. It flowers early, the leaves start at the ground level, and the blooms open at one time to give a striking effect.

John Howard Wigell is a dwarf plant which produces a vast number of watermelon pink blooms having a beautiful petal formation. Another peony in the "accent" group is Mattie LaFuze. A single plant of this variety, with large full double flowers of a sort of a soft blush pink, is a show in itself.

Cherry Hill peonies provide a bright splash of brilliant red which can be seen from a distance. They grow tall and large so must be planted in the background and given plenty of space. Two red peonies of equal brilliance of the dwarf variety for foreground planting are Rosedale and Rose Marie.

In a large space it is much more effective to plant several peonies of a single variety in a group. Some of the new semi-double white peonies are Ave Maria and Miss America. Mildred May flowers are milk white, small and in clusters. Gay Faree is a vivacious pink classed as a fancy Japanese. It is classed with Mildred May (a white) as the most decorative of all peonies.

Mr. & Mrs. Gotts to Give Lessons in Canoe Paddling

Lessons in canoe paddling will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gotts, of Meade Rd., on the mill pond to youngsters who are interested, said Wilson Funk, Recreation Director. Mr. and Mrs. Gotts won first place in the couples' division of the "Paddle Push" race at Kensington Metropolitan Park in June sponsored by the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority.

The Recreation Department's new 17-ft. aluminum canoe has been popular with both parents and children. It was added to the department's equipment July 7.

At least two father and son teams have used the canoe for trips down the Huron River and four girls are planning to use it this coming week end for a similar trip.

Mr. Funk said that any father and son combination is welcome to use of the canoe and its car-top carrier. After Aug. 18 and through September, the canoe will be available for two to four day periods.

Air Show Slated for Aug. 30-Sept. 1

The Fifth Annual International Aviation Exposition will be held Aug. 30-Sept. 1 at the Detroit-Wayne Major Airport on Middlebelt Rd. at the Expressway, sponsored by the Aero Club of Michigan.

The three-day aerial show, largest of its kind in the country this year, will feature the Continental Motors Trophy Race. Full participation by all branches of military aviation has been assured by the Department of Defense. Special features will include the famous "Blue Angels," U. S. Navy jet acrobatic team, and the "Sky Blazers," U. S. Air Force jet acrobatic team. A ground exhibition of military, commercial and utility aircraft will cover more than a million square feet.

Tickets for the exposition are available at the Aero Club of Michigan, 936 Book Bldg.; J. L. Hudson Co., Ernest Kern Co.; at all Shell gasoline stations in Wayne County; at Automobile Club of Michigan branch offices and at Detroit City Airport. Telephone inquiries can be directed to Woodward 5-2494 and 5-2495.

DeHoCo Crew Joins Operation Skywatch

After completing three months of practice alert runs, 34 prisoners at the Detroit House of Correction are cooperating with the U. S. Air Force in the 24-hour air alert, "Operation Skywatch."

The observer crew takes its post in the new observation tower built on top of the garage of the institution. Ed Gollinger and Harry Hunter head the crew with Superintendent of the institution, Blake Gillies, as supervisor.

Before the skywatch was started, the men were instructed in aircraft identification using textbooks supplied by the air force. Now, after their instruction and practice runs, the station is an official air listening and identification center with oddities reported to the Air Filter Center in Grand Rapids.

The prisoners record and report the location, direction of flight and type of aircraft to the center in less than one minute. The largest number reported by the crew in one 24-hour period was 29 aircraft which included jet planes but excludes single-engine ships.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

We sort of suppose this story may be a bit overworked, but until a vacationist friend tells us the tale, we never hear it. This fellow comes in for a spot of lubrication and oil change, an exceptionally smart idea, especially after a vacation trip. He says he goes west and spends some time in the Zion National Park, located in Utah, a state with not too many delegates even when counted in half votes.

The view is tremendous and of especial interest is the canyons of solid rock and tremendous depth, at the bottom of which is a little river, that a sign proclaims is the Virgin River.

"Goodness," says his wife as she peers at this river, "do you mean to tell me that this tremendous gorge has been carved to such a depth by that little Virgin river?"

"Sure do, lady," speaks an old native son, seated nearby. Just goes to prove the truth of that old saying, "hell hath no fury like a woman scorned."

Well, so much for that, we've got a bit of advertising to do. It's been some time since we've mentioned the exceptionally fine motor car, built by Studebaker. A whole week at least, and there are still some of you natives that haven't come around to give it a trial drive. We hope you get in soon, because until you do, you'll never appreciate the superb qualities of this car of ours. Power, speed, comfort, economy and most beautiful styling. You'll never truly experience a real driving thrill until you try the Studebaker V-8 for '52.

One of the fellows in the back shop was bragging about his vacation trip in the mountains. "The echoes," he says, "are wonderful. Very strong and clear."

"So what," says a customer. "Up in Minnesota where I was born, whenever you yelled, 'hey, Olson,' thousands of echoes bounce back asking, 'vich Olson you vant?'"

Now in this spot, we pause a bit to ask you, have you had that car of yours greased and tuned lately? Nothing quite so important to this getting here and there as a car in perfect mechanical shape. It just so happens, too, that our mechanics know that car of yours most thoroughly, know just what adjustments it needs to keep it operating day after day in its most proficient manner. Be sort of a good idea, we think, if you brought it in for a general check-up before and after that vacation jaunt.

That's that, but a fellow tells us the difference between a wife and a sweetheart at today's prices is about $8.50 per meal.

Yours,

BILL and WILL PETZ.

SHARPEN THAT SHOOTING EYE

Bird hunters looking forward to more shooting with our longer seasons next fall will do well to sharpen their shooting eyes this summer. Most sportsmen's clubs have facilities for trap or skeet shooting—and regardless of how good a shot you think you are, a few practice rounds, especially at skeet, won't hurt a bit!

On the other hand, if you grew a little disgusted with your shooting last fall—if you were looking for alibis when the birds didn't drop—you can learn plenty and improve your shooting on a skeet range.

Don't Try Too Hard!

Most shooters actually try too hard. And when the effort is too great it's impossible to relax. Nerves and muscles can't coordinate when they're taut. In skeet shooting—and trap, too—you'll learn to bring that gun up with an ease and rhythm that gives you freedom of movement, with no cramped or awkward feeling. The stock will nestle in your shoulder with that feeling of a perfect fit. Your cheek will lie along the stock just right, with the eye automatically aligned with the sights.

In the hunting field you just don't get enough shooting to feel completely relaxed and natural with the gun at your shoulder. And for the first couple of days you'll probably be flinching when that gun goes off—although you may not realize it. Another common fault in the field comes from raising the head to get a better view of your flying bird while the gun is at the shoulder. This will throw off your aim every time, and causes a surprising number of misses you can't account for.

Practice Makes Perfect

These things can't be perfected without some practice, either at trap or skeet. So, if you want to bring home limit bags of Michigan game birds next fall take steps now to use the nearest practice facilities. Skeet will be most helpful, especially to the partridge hunter faced with a fast flying target in heavy cover. Nobody can ever predict the direction of flight on a partridge. It may be straight-away, straight at you, or at absolute right angles and going a mile a minute. You may have less than 2 seconds to aim and fire. That's where skeet simulates the sport, teaching you the proper lead to allow for various angles.

But best of all, skeet or trap makes shooting as easy and natural as pointing your finger. So don't wait until the bird season opens next fall. Get old Betsy out right now, and insure more satisfaction in your shooting to feel completely relaxed and natural

Shower of Meteors Due This Month

With many parts of the nation already seeing strange objects in the skies perhaps it's wise to report now that August will bring with it the annual shower of meteors.

Hazel M. Losh, associate professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan, reports that the Perseid shower of meteors will reach its peak around the evenings of August 10 or 11.

Flashes of Light

"The flashes of light from these shooting stars may be seen in any direction of the sky during the peak period," she points out. "But when you trace back their paths, the meteors seem to follow trails that intersect in the northeastern part of the sky where the constellation Perseus rises about 10 p.m. This fact has accounted for the name of this annual display."

The shower of meteors takes place each year when the earth encounters the swarm of shooting stars as each is making its year-long swing around the sun. Entering the earth's atmosphere at a high rate of speed, the bits of iron and stone that make up a meteor are slowed up and the resulting friction sets them burning at such a high temperature that a brilliant flash is produced in the sky.

Burn Out Fast

Most of these meteors burn themselves out when they enter the earth's atmosphere, although a few frequently fall to the ground.

The bright planet rising in the east around 11 p.m. will be Jupiter. This planet will far outshine all other objects in the sky and will remain conspicuous in the evening sky for the next few months, Prof. Losh asserts.

"Coming over the horizon at about the same time at a little to the left of Jupiter is the star cluster of the Pleiades," she reports. "Fashioned in the form of a small dipper, six stars are easily seen but if you have exceptionally keen eyesight you may be able to pick up seven or more."

Hospital to Be Host to Area Officials in Tour of Facilities

Village President Conrad E. Langfield and Police Chief Joseph Denton have been invited to tour the Northville State Hospital on Aug. 13 as part of a group. Following the survey, guests will have dinner in the dining room used by patients and employees and an opportunity will be provided to ask questions and make suggestions.

The tour is part of a program initiated by Michigan's newest and most modern mental hospital for showing and explaining its resources in an effort to keep officials concerned with the welfare of their constituents up to date.

Also included in the group are officials from Farmington, Livonia, Plymouth, South Lyon, Salem, Wayne, Wayne County, Garden City and Inkster.

Dr. Philip N. Brown, medical superintendent, and the hospital staff will be hosts at the reception.

Sows fed trace minerals weaned nearly one more pig per litter in recent feeding tests conducted at a midwest agricultural experiment station. Figured on this basis, the added profit on 2 sows would be almost $300.

Police Collect $1,073 in Fines

The 158 calls answered by the Northville Police Department during the month of July resulted in the collection of $1,073 in fines, stated Police Chief Joseph Denton, in his monthly report before the Village Council.

Traffic violations, numbering 62, were recorded by the department while six accidents were investigated and 58 summons issued.

Two cases of grand larceny and two cases of petty larceny were worked on by the police. Two prowler calls were investigated. Only one of the two missing persons were recovered and one of the three automobiles stolen is still on the missing list, as is one of the bicycles stolen.

The 23 arrests during the month resulted in 23 court cases; 13 teletype messages were sent out and the night watchman found five doors in the Northville business district unlocked, while six windows were found open and unsecured.

Dr. E. B. Cavell destroyed 14 dogs turned over to him by the police and two dogs taken to Dr. Cavell were reclaimed and the owners fined.

County Agent Invited to Tour by Milk Producers

P. R. Biebesheimer, County Agricultural Agent of Wayne County, was invited by the Michigan Milk Producers Association for an all-day tour arranged by the Extension Service staff of Michigan State College to study milk producing and processing facilities and be given first-hand information concerning the operation of the Federal milk marketing order in the Detroit market, on Friday, July 25.

Arrangements for the tour were made by Mr. B. D. Kuhn, State Leader Agricultural Programs, Michigan State College.

The tour began at 10:00 a.m. at Imlay City, Michigan, in the Michigan Milk Producers Association milk manufacturing plant, where F. C. Ewbank, Supervisor of Stations, explained its operation. The guests also inspected the adjoining maintenance garage with Emerson Teal outlining milk transportation problems. They returned to Detroit after lunch.

The first stop in Detroit was at the offices of the Michigan Milk Producers Association. On hand to explain the operations of the Association was I. K. Maystead, president; R. F. Simmons, secretary-manager; Wm. Bristow, treasurer; department heads and members of the board of directors.

The guests then visited the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture milk market administrator's office. Explanation was made of the pricing of milk, the Federal order, and the check testing of milk by that office.

The Michigan Milk Producers Association entertained the guests at dinner and took them to the night ball game between the Boston Red Sox and the Detroit Tigers.

2 New Teachers to Double as Coaches

Two new full-time teachers who will also be able to help Northville High School's athletic department by assuming extra-curricular coaching duties will join the high school faculty when school opens in September.

Stanley Johnson, who has taught at Lake Orion, will have charge of physical education and mathematics classes and also coach reserve basketball and reserve baseball this year. He may also serve as a scout for the football team.

Football Coach Al Jones, who formerly handled physical education, is concentrating on high school social studies, although he will continue to teach the health class.

Ron Schipper will teach senior and junior high mathematics and coach reserve football. He also plans to organize a tennis team in the spring. Schipper is a former Zeeland High School athlete who played when Jones was coach at the school.

Schipper was voted most valuable player last year on the Hope College grid team, which won the MIAA championship.

Said Coach Jones, "The two fellows will carry a full teaching load in the school system. We're just lucky that they're also former athletes and inclined to help with coaching."

Where Do We Go From Here, Coach?

With a tough nine-game football schedule facing them, Dick Kay, assistant coach (left), and Al Jones, head coach, ponder ways and means of filling the shoes of ten first-string gridders graduated last June. To make matters worse, nine substitutes and defensive platoon players were also graduated. The only holdover is team captain Al Iversen, represented in picture by small figure at the guard position.

Football Coaches Start Beating Bushes for Potential Grid Talent

August is still too young and baseball and other summer sports too much in the limelight for anyone to get excited about football and the chill weather which accompanies it.

Anyone, that is, except football coaches. For them, August is an unhappy month, especially if they're faced with the prospect of rebuilding a grid team that has been riddled by graduation or other natural or unnatural causes.

That's what Northville High School Coaches Al Jones and Dick Kay have to contend with this year. Graduation last June swept 19 veterans off the grid roster, leaving Jones and Kay with a single player to build a team around. The lone holdover is guard and team captain Al Iversen, a rugged offensive and defensive player who is in the peculiar position of having no visible team—as yet—to lead.

Song Is Traditional
 It's traditional for coaches to "sing the blues" about their prospects when football season rolls around. The "blues" theme dilutes over-optimism among the team's followers and tends to water-down the "we can handle anything" attitude that might cause premature relaxation on the part of any of the players. The "blues" also provides a sort of cushion for the coach if the team happens to have a poor season.

which will begin in early September.

"Only one thing is sure," said Jones. "None of the boys can complain this year that all the positions are held down by returning veterans. There aren't any returning veterans. Any boy can have any job just by showing he's good enough to have it."

Among players with the team last year who saw limited service, and on whom the mantle of hope falls this year, are Bruce Felker, Joe Girardin, Gene Rebitzke, Larry Meyer, Doug Bennett, Jerry Graham, Bill Bailey, Judd Green, Bill Sullivan, Bruce Rose, Bob Engel, Jack Waterloo, Ron Grissom and Don Johnson.

The Sad Truth
 A quick look at last year's roster is all the proof that's needed to bolster Jones' contention. With the exception of Iversen, all positions on the team are noticeably vacant.

Gone from the end slots are Jerry Freydl, Ken Rowe, Bob Clark and Tom Stanford. Absent at tackle are Howie Meyer, Stan Dahlager, Per Iversen and Don Blar. The center position has been vacated by Marion Kwasek, and Dick Sands, Jim Clark and Bob Heard are no longer around to play at guard.

Backfield Riddled
 The backfield, once feared by all opponents, is also kaput. Don Maclean is a graduated quarterback. Bill Bingley is gone from left halfback; Denny Curl and Bill Gaab are ex-right halfbacks, and Leon Holman, Clancy Ely and Tom Moshmer are no longer available at fullback.

The only faint ray of light, according to Coach Kay, is that the defensive backfield has had a year or so of experience. Iversen and Bob Scheffer are both good line backers and Lamar Nalley and Bob Burgess can handle the halfback spots, if Burgess' knee holds up. A big hole, however, looms in the outfield where the safety man roams as the last ditch defense. "A man like Leon Holman," Coach Kay understated simply, "is very hard to replace."

"T" and Single Wing
 The Mustangs will run from a basic "T" formation again this year, with single wing plays mixed in. The emphasis will depend on how material for the various positions shapes up in practice,

Mustangs' 1952 Football Schedule

Northville will play a nine-game football schedule in the 1952 season, re-opening the rivalry with Plymouth High School cancelled last year because of mutual scheduling difficulties.

The only Wayne-Oakland County team not represented in the schedule is Keego Haurbo, a team which joined the league, along with Brighton, only last year, too late for scheduling Brighton had been on the Northville schedule in previous years.

SAVE MORE CORN : : : PREVENT SPOILAGE with an ELECTRIC CORN DRYER

Bad weather never bothers Fred Ott. He picks his corn when the weather is right and lets electricity dry it to safe keeping quality. In his drying setup, he uses slatted A-frames, a hay dryer fan and motor. He has found that moving one portable electric motor and fan from job to job reduces his equipment cost. Other electric-powered equipment includes a barn gutter cleaner and a milk house water heater. And recently, a third electric hay dryer was installed. Mr. Ott is enthusiastic about the use of electricity, says it reduces farm operating costs and increases production. You, too, will find it profitable to give more jobs to this "wired hand." Michigan voters who practiced at the polls Tuesday will have an even bigger job in November. For Michigan is a key state in the strategy of both the Republican and Democratic camps. The Eisenhower forces plan to win the Presidential election by carrying the states that went for Dewey in 1948 and the extra ones that now have Republican governors. Michigan lined up in the 16 Dewey states to give the Michigan-born governor 186 electoral votes. The states that didn't go for Dewey but did elect GOP governors in the last state elections have 102 electoral votes. Add those two groups together and you get 288 electoral votes. Two hundred sixty-six mean election.

Michigan figures in the Democratic strategy as one of the eight states where big city labor strength is dominant. Those states they figure will give Stevenson 199 electoral votes.

The rock-ribbed South—which the Dixiecrat revolt failed to crack—and the border states should yield 80 electoral votes for a total of 279, 13 more than are needed. So they figure.

That Michigan has a Democratic governor is heralded as a good omen by Adlai's advisors, too.

Obviously there's some overlapping there.

Both parties need Michigan. California, Wisconsin, New York and Maryland to carry out their master plan.

For insurance, Ike-men will try to crack the South and aim for shaky Democratic states. The Democrats will try to woo back states-rights areas Truman lost and to retain eight Western states where they've won five consecutive times but whose electoral votes aren't plentiful enough to give them key positions.

Michigan personalities are sure to figure prominently in the campaign, too.

Flint's Arthur E. Summerfield, as chairman of the Republican National Committee, will direct General Ike's overall campaign. Arthur H. Vandenberg, Jr. taught the lore of the political arena by his late father, the illustrious Senator, is Eisenhower's executive assistant.

Both were pre-bandwagon Ike supporters, a status that adds to their influence.

Two Michigan men were often in the spotlight at the Democratic convention. They were Governor Williams and Senator Blair Moody.

Williams' polka-dot bow tie was familiar long before the demonstration that greeted his favorite-son nomination. Moody practically took over the temporary chairman's job during the opening debate on the "loyalty pledge" rule. In fact, it became known as the "Moody amendment".

That pledge was in part nullified when the convention allowed Virginia, South Carolina and Louisiana delegates to participate despite their firm refusal to sign on the dotted line.

Whether Michigan jumped from Kefauver to Stevenson early enough is something for which no stop-watch has been invented. Whether the ire Moody aroused among several of his Southern Senatorial colleagues will continue to smolder is not apparent now. Record Office
Closed Saturdays
Because of a normal slow-down of business transactions during the summer, the Record office will be closed Saturdays during July and August.
Weekday hours will remain the same: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Answers to those questions may determine the influence the Michigan duo will have in and after the campaign.

But there's no question that their names are familiar in and out of Democratic circles.

And there's no question about the importance of the decision Michigan voters must make in November.

Michigan business is contributing to a campaign which will be launched this fall to bring new industry into the state. The Survey Research Center at the University of Michigan spent a year in analyzing opinions of Michigan manufacturers on the assets and liabilities of the state as a location for industry as a basis for the drive.

Dixie is drawing industry from Northern states. But there's going to be another war between the Blue and the Gray, this one fought out on sales talks to affected industry. The Northerners will use three big weapons: Privately-financed development corporations to augment work done by state agencies such as the Michigan Department of Economic Development; More intensive promotion, including greater efforts to develop industry from within; A new atmosphere of cooperation with industry in many Northern industrial centers.

Defeat of the proposed 2% industrial processing tax in the closing days of the Legislature in June removed a threat that might have kept many an industry from coming into Michigan or expanding facilities already here.

Probably the most active parade-participant in Michigan this summer is the colorful float used by all branches of the state's dairy industry. It shows a golden cow on a mound of brilliant green grass and there is an ornate throne on which the community's fairest lassies ride. It was built by the June Dairy Month committee of the American Dairy Association of Michigan and has already been seen by scores of thousands.

Unemployment Pay
Effective in October
for Korean Vets

Veterans of the Korean conflict will be paid Federal unemployment compensation after discharge from the armed forces similar to the Servicemen's Readjustment Allowance paid World War II veterans.

The payments will not begin until after Oct. 14, said Clarence Jetter, manager of the Plymouth office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission. There have been dozens of queries daily in branch offices of the commission throughout the state, he said.

$26 a Week
Payments will amount to $26 a week for not more than 26 weeks, and are paid by the Federal government through the M.E.S.C.'s claims division. To be eligible, a veteran must have service in the armed forces after June 26, 1950, and must have a discharge other than dishonorable.

The amount of mustering-out pay received by a veteran has a bearing on when the veteran can begin to collect unemployment benefits, said Mr. Jetter. The veteran isn't eligible for 31 days after discharge if he got $100 in mustering-out pay, for 61 days if he received $200 and not for 91 days if he got $300.

Matches Mustering-Out Pay
This provision is inserted because $100 in mustering-out pay is given veterans with less than 90 days service; $200 to veterans with more than 90 days service in the United States, and $300 for overseas veterans with more than 90 days of service.

There will be a one-week waiting period after the claim is filed, said Mr. Jetter. Veterans will be eligible for compensation in the second week, if still unemployed, but they must be able to work and available for work. The veteran must claim other benefits under state unemployment insurance programs or under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act before he files for Federal unemployment compensation.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan E. Hodgson returned last week from a trip to Lake Forest, Ill., where they attended the World Institute of Missions for five days. They heard outstanding missionaries from Africa and leading inter-denominational preachers.

A highlight of the conference, said the Rev. Hodgson, was a report by Dr. Fey, associate editor of the Christian Century, of his trip to Korea and the Koje Island prison. He told of the great strength and growth of Christianity during the past war years.

The Hodgsons returned to Northville by way of the Upper Peninsula, visiting the Wisconsin Dells, Porcupine Mountains and the Copper Country.

The Rev. Hodgson is District Secretary of the Board of Missions, sponsored by the Missionary Educational Council of Churches.

Safety Program Aimed at Curbing Dangerous Passing

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announced this week the opening of the August state-wide safety program aimed at reducing traffic accidents which are the result of unlawful and dangerous passing.

The campaign, sponsored by the State Safety Commission, is using two slogans: "Don't Cross the Yellow Line" for drivers using the highways, and "Keep in Line—Don't Cut In" for drivers using city streets.

Passing on hills and curves is one of the most dangerous things a motorist can do, according to Commissioner Ziegler. In commenting on these hazards he said, "The State Highway Department has painted yellow lines on hills and curves where the visibility is reduced to a point where it is dangerous to pass. These yellow lines are provided as a safety service to motorists. Since they are placed by careful engineering survey they are in accordance with the law and it is not only dangerous, but unlawful, to cross the yellow line."

As a further warning to motorists the State Highway Department has erected 150 safety poster boards at strategic places along the highway system. These boards carry the slogan "Don't Cross the Yellow Line."

The Safety Commission has prepared radio platters in cooperation with the Michigan Broadcasters Association and motion picture trailers for use throughout the state in an all-out effort to urge motorists to drive more safely.

Carl Denton Named to Bakers Review Monthly Who's Who

Featured in the July "Bakers Review", the national monthly magazine of the baking industry, is Carl G. Denton, son of Chief of Police and Mrs. Joseph A. Denton.

Carl, who is the chairman of the Wholesale Cake Branch, American Bakers Association, was named to the magazine's "Who's Who in the Baking Industry" for the month.

He is general superintendent of baking for the Farm Crest Bakeries, Inc., which has headquarters in Detroit. Carl started work with the Farm Crest Bakeries after graduation from Plymouth High School in 1930 and has "gone through the mill" at Farm Crest. His present position gives him complete charge of research, product development and baking supervision, including products control of the Columbus and Chicago plants.

Carl is a graduate of the Siebel Institute and the American Institute of Baking and also a member of the National Association of Bakery Sanitarians. Serving in the army during World War II in the European theatre, he returned to civilian life as a Major of Artillery. He is a graduate of the Army's Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth and a member of the Reserve Officers Association.

Besides Mrs. Denton, Carl's family consists of two little daughters, eight and four years of age.

Monday night at Northville Downs was a "winning night" for Tommy Winn, who scored a triple for the second time in four nights.

The veteran isn't eligible for 31 days after discharge if he got $100 in mustering-out pay, for 61 days if he received $200 and not for 91 days if he got $300.

Matches Mustering-Out Pay
This provision is inserted because $100 in mustering-out pay is given veterans with less than 90 days service; $200 to veterans with more than 90 days service in the United States, and $300 for overseas veterans with more than 90 days of service.

There will be a one-week waiting period after the claim is filed, said Mr. Jetter. Veterans will be eligible for compensation in the second week, if still unemployed, but they must be able to work and available for work. The veteran must claim other benefits under state unemployment insurance programs or under the Railroad Unemployment Insurance Act before he files for Federal unemployment compensation.

Hodgsons Attend Missions Institute

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan E. Hodgson returned last week from a trip to Lake Forest, Ill., where they attended the World Institute of Missions for five days. They heard outstanding missionaries from Africa and leading inter-denominational preachers.

The Hodgsons returned to Northville by way of the Upper Peninsula, visiting the Wisconsin Dells, Porcupine Mountains and the Copper Country. The Rev. Hodgson is District Secretary of the Board of Missions, sponsored by the Missionary Educational Council of the National Council of Churches.

Health Commissioner

Safety Program Aimed at Curbing Dangerous Passing

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announced this week the opening of the August state-wide safety program aimed at reducing traffic accidents which are the result of unlawful and dangerous passing.

The campaign, sponsored by the State Safety Commission, is using two slogans: "Don't Cross the Yellow Line" for drivers using the highways, and "Keep in Line—Don't Cut In" for drivers using city streets.

Passing on hills and curves is one of the most dangerous things a motorist can do, according to Commissioner Ziegler. In commenting on these hazards he said, "The State Highway Department has painted yellow lines on hills and curves where the visibility is reduced to a point where it is dangerous to pass. These yellow lines are provided as a safety service to motorists. Since they are placed by careful engineering survey they are in accordance with the law and it is not only dangerous, but unlawful, to cross the yellow line."

As a further warning to motorists the State Highway Department has erected 150 safety poster boards at strategic places along the highway system. These boards carry the slogan "Don't Cross the Yellow Line."

The Safety Commission has prepared radio platters in cooperation with the Michigan Broadcasters Association and motion picture trailers for use throughout the state in an all-out effort to urge motorists to drive more safely.

The shower was given by Mrs. Norman Gedig at her home in Detroit. Twenty-five friends and relatives attended.

The couple will be married in the Clarenceville Methodist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault of Brentwood Ave., West Point Park.

Nancy Holmes SUGGESTS

A SIMPLE snack tray is a gracious gesture of hospitality which makes any visitor feel especially welcome. In summer, refreshments that are dainty and create an appearance of coolness are most enticing. This tempting tray offers small Date-Nut Sandwiches, Ham Pinwheels and Cheese-Frosted Ginger Snaps. The sandwiches, in addition to being mighty tasty, have the added appeal that the fillings can be made and stored in the refrigerator for at least two weeks. To this attractive snack tray, Nancy Holmes of the Best Foods consumer test kitchens suggests you add your favorite ice-cold beverage.

Date-Nut Filling
Mix 1/2 cup finely chopped dates, 1/2 cup chopped nuts and 1/2 cup real mayonnaise. Moisten with a few drops of lemon juice. Keeps two weeks in the refrigerator.

Ham Filling
Blend 1 cup ground cooked ham with 1/2 cup real mayonnaise and 1 tablespoon orange marmalade mixed with 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard. Keeps two weeks in the refrigerator.

To make pinwheels: Trim crusts from a loaf of (day old) unsliced bread and cut in four thin lengthwise slices. Spread slices with desired filling and roll like a jelly roll. Wrap in waxed paper, cover with a damp towel and chill thoroughly. Slice just before serving.

Cheese-Ginger Snaps
Blend one 3-ounce package cream cheese with 1/2 cup real mayonnaise. Season with salt and a few drops of Tobasco sauce. Decorate ginger snaps with cream cheese forced through a pastry tube.

In a precious moment of relaxation, a young infantryman bathes his weary feet in his steel helmet. With the aid of an American magazine, an American cigaret, he snatches a few brief dreams of home and peace. Soon he'll be back at his job in defense of the way of life he's left for a while.

You can do a vitally important job for defense, too—and easily! All you have to do is start buying U. S. Defense Bonds regularly. Why is this important? Because America's defense begins at home! When you are financially independent and your family is secure, our country's economy is strong. That strength backs up our armed strength—and it takes both to keep America at peace. For today, peace is only for the strong!

So go to the pay office where you work and sign up for the Payroll Savings Plan, or join the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. But do it today. Your savings can save America!

The U. S. Defense Bonds you buy give you personal financial independence

Don't forget that bonds are now a better buy than ever. Because now every Series E Bond you own can automatically go on earning interest every year for 20 years from date of purchase instead of 10 as before! This means that the bond you bought for $18.75 can return you not just $25—but as much as $33.33! A $37.50 bond pays $66.66. And so on. For your security, and your country's too, buy U. S. Defense Bonds now! Bankers recommend them as one of the safest forms of investment.

Peace is for the strong...
Buy U. S. Defense Bonds regularly!

Christian Science Churches It is interesting and helpful to learn that the Bible has many references to Spirit as a term for God. Spirit is the topic of the Lesson—Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, Aug. 10. The Golden Text is from I John (4:13): "We are of God; ... Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit." Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Rom 8:14): "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God."

JIMMIE FIDDLER SAYS—

HOLLYWOOD. A Larence, Kans., lady scanning the theatrical pages of that University town's daily papers has compiled a list of "catch lines" used to advertise recent movies. Among them are the following: "Caught in the rip-tide of love"; "embracing the man who had shamed her"; "She was heedless of tomorrow, forgetful of yesterday, as she lived today to the full with a bold handsome rogue"; "Shooting his way into trouble again with a gun in his fist, a dame in his arms and a tough little mug in his hair"; "Astounding shock drama! It starts with love and ends with murder!"; "See how she used an empire of corruption"; "They live dangerously! They love defiantly! They kill quickly!" "I'm going to love my life and love men my way"; "Yes, American movies have become real educational," says Fidler. "If you'll scan the nation's crime record and note the steady increase in juvenile delinquency, you can see that a lot of pupils are making good in this world". This above article was written by a Hollywood columnist, not by a preacher. What a sad commentary upon the heart of people who demand such wickedness to entertain them.

Village Gets $2155 from Highway Fund

The Village of Northville will receive $2,155.23 from the State Motor Vehicle Highway Fund for the second quarter of 1952, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler said today.

Payments to the counties and cities from the fund, which was started in June, 1951, are based on estimated road and street mileage. The money now being distributed to the State Highway Department, the counties, cities and incorporated villages is provided for in Act 51, Section 12, Public Acts of 1951.

Under the 1951 act, which revises the methods of distributing weight and tax monies, the state receives 44 percent of the money from the fund, the counties received 19 percent and the cities and incorporated villages 17 percent. A considerable portion of the state's share is spent on roads in city areas, said Mr. Ziegler.

The fund money collected during the April 1-June 30 period came from the gasoline, tax, diesel fuel tax, resident weight tax and non-resident weight tax.

The City of Livonia will receive $27,007.47 and the City of Plymouth will get $4,456.72. The County of Wayne will get $2,125,088.30 while Oakland County will receive $434,664.01.

Village to Lay New Sidewalk on E. Main

Flooding of property at 410 and 422 E. Main St. after heavy rains by water running off the street prompted the Village Commission to decide this week to lay new sidewalk at a higher level if the owners will fill in their lots to a proper grade.

The discussion arose from an offer by Chancey Shoebidge, 422 E. Main, and Ross Whitehead, 410 E. Main, to have their lot level raised to make the sidewalk possible.

Schedule of Events at Michigan State Fair Will Help You Decide When to Go

When to go to the State Fair? That may be a hard question for many people of Michigan to answer.

The 1952 Michigan State Fair, to be held in Detroit Aug. 29 through Sept. 7, will be so chock full of exhibits, special events and entertainment that it's going to be difficult to choose any one time for a visit.

Of course, most of the agriculture, livestock and general exhibits are open during the entire Fair, but there are many special judgments, entertainment and other events which will be held on special days.

The program of days, as announced by General Manager James M. Hare, will be as follows:

Program Schedule

Friday, Aug. 29, Grand Opening Day; Saturday, Aug. 30, Upper Peninsula Day; Sunday, Aug. 31, Young America Day; Monday, Sept. 1, Labor Day; Tuesday, Sept. 2, Junior Exhibitor's Day; Wednesday, Sept. 3, Governor's Day; Thursday, Sept. 4, Farmers', Old Timers' and Farm Products Day; Friday, Sept. 5, Science and Industry Day; Saturday, Sept. 6, Veterans' Day, and Sunday, Sept. 7, International Day.

Annual 4-H Fair Set for Aug. 12-17

The sixth annual Wayne County 4-H Fair will be held from Aug. 12 through 17 at their fairgrounds on Quirk Rd. just off the Expressway north of Belleville.

This agricultural fair in a metropolitan county has been conceived and built entirely on volunteer labor and cooperation of 4-H club members, their parents and friends.

This year you will see on the grounds two additional buildings: a swine barn donated by the Plymouth Rotary Club and a new public toilet donated by Detroit Kiwanis Clubs; also a new water system donated by the Wayne County Farm Bureau, in addition to the previously constructed club exhibit building and home demonstration restaurant.

Exhibits, Competition
At this fair the 4-H Club members of Wayne County exhibit their workmanship and produce in competitive exhibition, consisting of saddle horses, dairy cattle, beef cattle, swine, poultry, garden exhibits, clothing, canning, handicraft, electrical, and all phases of 4-H Club program in Wayne County which includes 4,300 project members throughout the metropolitan and rural areas in this community. An attractive, clean midway will provide rides and shows for entertainment.

Horse Opera
On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings the show in front of the grandstand will be the "Horse Opera" including well trained high school horses and other trick acts. A community band will be present each evening. Acts of amateur nature by good performers will also be on the grandstand program. On Saturday and Sunday the acts will include 2 sets of mounted square dancers. A flowing contest, tractor operation contest and tug-of-war between township teams will also add to the attractions.

This year it is expected that the farm implement exhibition will be even larger than previous years. This machinery exhibit has been an outstanding feature of this fair. More farm equipment is on exhibition here than at any other fair in Michigan. The auto dealers of Western Wayne County will exhibit the latest models in their 200' tent. Many merchants will have displays.

The attendance at the grounds is free. A donation is accepted for parking your car. The fair will close on Sunday night with the burning of the mortgage.
