

The many friends of Dr. Leonard Howard will be delighted to know that he returned to active duty as superintendent of Maybury Sanatorium this week. Dr. Howard has been off duty for several weeks following a heart attack last summer but is now fully recovered and able to resume direction of the hospital which he so ably directs.

We read in the Free Press that Democratic Headquarters in Detroit sent out 9,000 announcements last week which erroneously stated that Gov. Adlai Stevenson, presidential aspirant, was to speak there on Oct. 8 instead of Oct. 7. Looks like the Republicans may have adopted Communist tactics and infiltrated Democratic Headquarters in Michigan like the Commies have worked themselves into high positions in Washington.

Should inflation continue in this country it may be necessary to become a nation of self-hypnotists. The London papers report this week that Jack Wafer, a New York hypnotist, has fasted since July 26 in London, subsisting solely on soda water and cigarettes. When hunger becomes unendurable, he simply hypnotizes himself into feeling that he has just finished off a big juicy steak. Is this perhaps a new way of enjoying steaks without having to pay the price?

This joke is on the Record. During the past two weeks four different parties came in to have us print bowling league schedules for them. Said schedules were duly printed and picked up by the customers, but upon going through our job tickets we find that we didn't write down the name of a single person to bill for the work. Usually our trouble is in failing to credit an occasional customer with having paid a bill, which is something we sincerely regret, because it results in annoyance to that person when we send a new bill for an account that has already been paid. The shoe is on the other foot in billing the bowling program. Poetic justice we must admit.

Paging Mr. Gilbert Jerome! The Village Fathers here in Northville are somewhat upset at your failure as Village consulting engineer to attend either of the last two meetings of the Village Commission. You were requested by President Conrad E. Langfield to attend the Commission's Sept. 15 meeting to advise its members on the quality of the curb and gutter work done in August by Ministrelli Brothers of Dearborn. When you failed to appear at that meeting, and neglected to inform the Commission that you would be unable to attend, the Commission voted to hold up payment of your current bill until you had met with them. They had expected you to come to the meeting last Monday evening, although they had not formally notified you to attend. Now, Clerk Mary Alexander is to notify you officially to attend the next meeting Oct. 20.

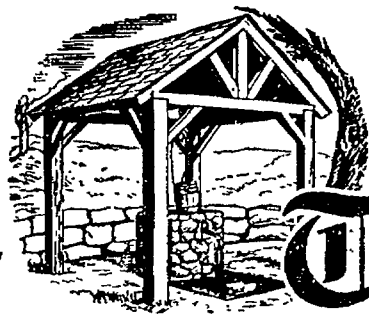

It is with a (very tiny) tinge of regret that we note the blight that frost has laid on the flowers that have made so many Northville gardens a delight this past summer. No longer is it necessary to traipse out in the yard at midnight with a bundle of old sheets and newspapers to cover those last blooms of fall so they may retain their beauty for another day. After going through this ritual faithfully for the past week, once in our pajamas at 1 a.m. because we forgot, Mrs. C. finally gave up Tuesday night. Now we can look forward to another year without worry about what frost may do to the garden.

The dance will be open to both adults and boys and girls of high school age. Costumes will be optional, but prizes will be awarded for the best individual female and male costume and for the best decorated couple. Cider and donuts will be served.

The music or dancing will be provided by Ted Simms and his Radio Entertainers, of Detroit, a well-known and well-liked band which has played other engagements in Northville.

Commission Votes for 'Stop' Order on Long Violation

After a split vote by the Village Commission at its meeting last Monday evening, President Conrad E. Langfield instructed Village Attorney James E. Littell to ask the Oakland County circuit court immediately for an order restraining Glenn Long, plumber, from using the premises at 411 Baseline Rd. for commercial purposes.

This step followed receipt by the Commission of a formal report from Thomas R. Carrington, chairman of the Planning and Zoning Commission, that it had unanimously rejected Mr. Long's petition to have his property rezoned for commercial use.

New District Head for Michigan Bell

Dean A. Sipson, former assistant manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone company's Ann Arbor office, became manager of the Plymouth area this week.

His assignment to Plymouth followed the transfer of George P. Hartrick, Michigan Bell's former manager at Plymouth, to special duties in the company's Fort vision, as part of the personnel shift announced by J. F. Healy, division commercial superintendent. Mr. Hartrick had been in charge of the Plymouth office since May, 1951.

Following graduation from Springfield College in Massachusetts, Mr. Sipson joined Michigan Bell's commercial department in 1948. After assignments as outside representative in Royal Oak and on the company's directory staff in Detroit, he was named assistant manager in Ann Arbor.

Mr. Sipson was an Army infantryman in World War II for almost three years.

Woman's Club Hears Travel Talk

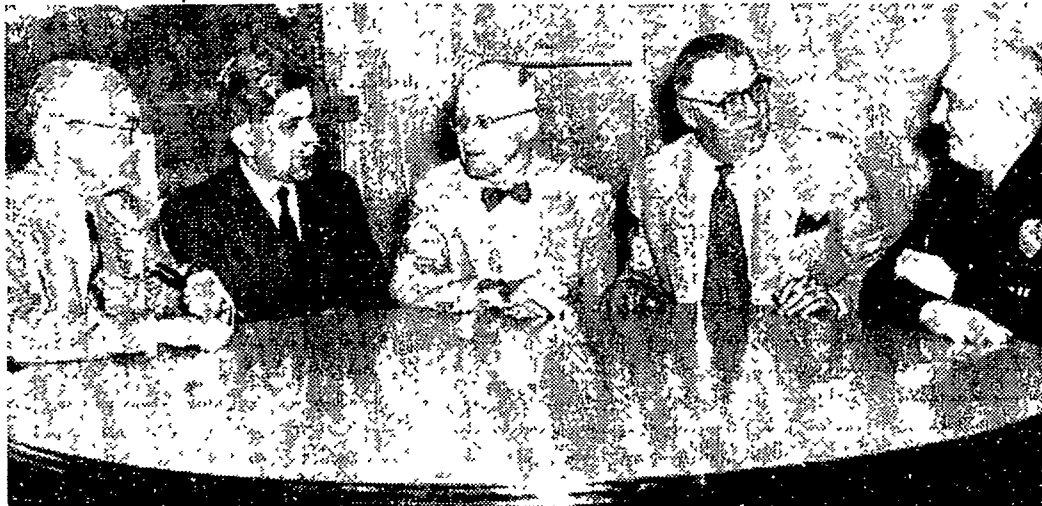

Mrs. Fred Van Atta, new president of the Northville Woman's Club, welcomed one hundred twenty members and guests to the opening meeting for the 1952-53 season at Meadowbrook Country Club last Friday, Oct. 3.

The program which followed the luncheon featured a travel lecture by Mrs. Francis von Schon, of Ferndale, and three solo numbers by Robert Kearns, a junior at the University of Michigan. Mr. Kearns was ably accompanied by Josephine Votupka on the piano. At the conclusion of his songs, Mr. Kearns sang as an encore "Some Enchanted Evening" to round out his program.

Mrs. von Schon's humorous and entertaining talk "Round the World Tour" brought many laughs as she described various amusing incidents connected with her journey. It was taken by members as evidence that Mrs. George Kohs and her program committee have arranged an interesting series of meetings for the coming season.

Mrs. Ethelwyn Lapham, a former president of the Woman's Club, called the roll of past presidents. Those answering were Madames Ruth Johnson, Vera Bunn, Ruth Chase, Ruth Starkweather, Josephine Hahn and Louise Canfield. Two of the group of past presidents, Flora Babbitt and Hattie Cattermole, were added to the "Afterglow."

Visitors at Dedication of State Hospital

Registrations Lag for Adult Classes

Unless more adults register for the fall classes offered by the Northville Recreation Committee, only leathercraft can be offered according to Wilson Funk.

So far, two persons have registered for typing, two for archery, six for woodworking, one for computer tooling, 11 for leathercraft and no one for ceramics.

Swimming cannot be offered until 25 ladies register and to date only one third that number have shown interest.

The deadline is Monday, Oct. 13 at 5:00 p.m. Anyone interested in joining a class should mail a postcard to Recreation, Village Hall, Northville, giving name and address, plus the class they are interested in joining.

The leathercraft class will meet Friday night, Oct. 11, at 8 o'clock at the Scout Building. The evening for future meetings will be selected and an outline given of the ten-week program.

Garden Club Slates Husbands' Night

Husbands' Night will be observed at next week's meeting of the Northville Branch, Women's National Farm and Garden Association, to be held in the Methodist Church House at 7:45 p.m., Oct. 13. Mrs. F. J. Collins, chairman of the hostess committee, and her committee members, will serve refreshments following the evening's feature event, a talk on "The Culture of Orchids" by Stanley Norton, well known greenhouse man and orchid specialist of Ypsilanti.

Gov. Williams said in his speech: this hospital means "that we the people of Michigan have finally broken with the ancient and cruel tradition of the past which regarded mental illness as something reprehensible, for which the patient was to be blamed, or at least segregated from human contact."

Village's U.N. Flag Is on Missing List

Northville's United Nations flag has turned up missing, and Village Clerk Mary Alexander would like to know where it is.

She said it was borrowed some time ago by a local organization, but that trace of the flag ends at that point. Mrs. Alexander isn't worried about it. She just asks that it be returned to the village hall.

Mustangs at Crossroad in Milford Contest

The blue chips go on the line for the Northville High School football team Friday night, Oct. 10, at Milford in a game which will probably decide the Mustangs' fate in Wayne-Oakland County league competition this season.

The Redskins of Milford are the toughest opponent the Mustangs will face this year in the league, and a victory for the Northville team would set it up as the leading contender for the loop championship.

Northville's chances, however, appear slim. Coaches Al Jones, Dick Kay and Ron Schipper have been working a jig-saw puzzle every week in their search for a strong starting team, and have come up with three different teams in three games. The inexperience of the squad showed in their 35 to 0 loss at the hands of Plymouth, and the 13 to 7 victory over South Lyon was not convincing. Northville began to show signs of strength last week in its 20 to 6 defeat of Clarenceville, the first league game.

Considering the circumstances, Northville has a better record than was expected before the season started. The team is almost entirely green, with practically no game experience previous to the 1952 season. It's to the coaches' and players' credit that they've managed as well as they have.

But that's part of the rub. Milford will field a comparatively seasoned squad which Northville tripped by a slim 13 to 7 margin last year. If the Mustangs are going to turn the Redskins back this year, they will have to perform the trick largely with nerve and a kind of super-aggressiveness. Northville's drive kept Clarenceville on its heels in the first half of last week's game and forced breaks on which the local eleven capitalized to pile up an early, demoralizing lead. Exactly the same kind of enthusiasm is called for tomorrow night if the Mustangs are to have a chance. The Mustangs will just have to convince themselves that if they want to win, Friday they'll have to go out and literally take the game away from Milford, a team which shared the title with Northville last year and which wants undisputed possession this year.

Even if Milford is defeated Friday, Holly, Clarkston and Brighton remain on the league list, but they don't have quite the Redskins' stature.

What is surprising is that the Mustangs, rated at the bottom of the heap in pre-season estimates, could make a large name for themselves by tripping Milford and the others in the league. It's not probable, but it could happen, with enough determination.

Court Ruling Bars Justices as Township Board Members

The Michigan Supreme Court Monday upset a 106-year old law making justices of the peace members of township boards. In doing so, it created some problems that probably will have to be solved by new legislation changing the membership of township boards to include, in addition to the present supervisor, clerk and treasurer, at least two members-at-large.

Since 1846 township boards have been the governing body in all townships throughout the state. Such township boards, in townships of less than 5,000 population, include the supervisor, clerk, treasurer and two justices of the peace whose terms are nearest to expiring. In larger townships, all four justices of the peace have been members.

Sgt. Baum Resigns From Police Force

A written resignation from the Northville Police force was submitted to Chief Joseph Denton by Sgt. Clarence J. Baum Wednesday, effective Friday, Oct. 10.

Sgt. Baum said that he is resigning to devote more time to his field, radio and television. He had been on the force for five years, two of them as a sergeant when the post was opened by the village commission in 1950. He had been a sheriff's deputy in Cuyahoga County, Ohio, in 1936, and was a member of the U.S. Marine Corps from 1937 to 1945, when he came to Northville.

Chief Denton said Wednesday that the commission of sergeant will remain vacant for the present, but that Frank Heintz, 23, of Horton St., has been hired as a patrolman. Mr. Heintz has no previous experience in police work, but has had army service. He will be on the customary 90-day probation period.

Council Acts on Center St. Curbing

The village commission discussed the possibility of sharing expenses with Wayne County to install new curbing, gutter and storm sewer on South Center St. at its meeting Monday night.

It was pointed out that the present sewer is inadequate when there is any heavy fall of rain. The steep slope of S. Center as it crosses Main St. and the slope of Cady St. on both sides of S. Center channel the rain down S. Center toward Northville Downs.

Since the present sewer and gutters can't dispose of the water, it floods the whole area south of Main.

Village President Conrad E. Langfield said he would make contact with Wayne County Road Commission authorities and find out if they are willing to negotiate an agreement for curbing the problem.

Traffic in Snarl at Hutton and Main

Commissioner John Stubenvoll was assigned by Village President Conrad E. Langfield to investigate the traffic snarl at the village parking lot next to the Presbyterian Church.

The jam apparently results when auto drivers, trying to use the narrow inlet to the lot as both an exit and entrance, stack up behind each other while waiting for traffic to clear. The situation is aggravated because the traffic signal at the corner of Hutton and Main streets stops other traffic.

It was pointed out at the village commission meeting Monday night that the lot was designed for angle parking, and that the entrance from Main street should not be used as an exit. Cars are supposed to exit at the alley on South Center St.

The commission discussed the possibility of widening the entrance from Main street and placing conspicuous signs, overhead if necessary, designating "entrance" and "exit."

Commissioner Stubenvoll was then asked to bring suggestions for alleviating the situation to the next commission meeting Oct. 20.

Northville Members

Members of the Northville Township Board under this old law are Mrs. Leo Lawrence, supervisor, Fred Lyke, clerk, Roy M. Terrill, treasurer, and Ralph Hav and Del Campbell, justices of the peace.

The Supreme Court ruling arose out of a dispute in Dearborn Township, which came under the seven-man board system in 1947. The voters there ordered a return to the five-man board in 1951 to save expenses. Dearborn Township Clerk Glenn E. Dail refused to accept votes from the two additional justices, who in turn sued to retain their places on the board.

Wayne County Circuit Judge Miles Culehan first handed down a decision in this case about six months ago which held that for justices to sit as members of an administrative and legislative board was contrary to the State's constitutional separation of powers between the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government.

Supreme Court Decision

The case was then carried to the State Supreme Court, which now has upheld Judge Culehan's opinion that justices of the peace, being judicial officers, cannot legally perform the legislative and administrative duties required of township boards.

Township Attorney James E. Littell pointed out after the Supreme Court ruling that since the Culehan decision several months ago the two Northville justices, Ralph Hay and Del Campbell, have been attending board meetings but have abstained from voting.

"The decision now leaves the Northville Township Board composed only of Mrs. Lawrence, chairman, and Messrs. Lyke and Terrill as members. Customarily, the chairman does not vote except in instances of a tie.

"From a broad standpoint throughout the state, this situation could result in inability of a township board to function in case one of the members would not record a motion by the other. Customarily, the chairman of the three-man board could not 'second' a motion by one of its members and hence a stalemate could easily arise if there were disagreement between the two other members.

Littell foresees the necessity for new legislation to increase membership of township boards to avoid the possibility of such situations arising.

Hammond Visits Children's Home

Oscar Hammond paid his official visit to the American Legion's Children's Bilet at Otter Lake, Mich., last week as commander of the 17th Legion District. He accompanied Department Commander Eugene Houck, of Lansing.

The bilet, which was started about 1923, cares for children from broken homes or children of veterans who are disabled and not able to care for their families. Majority of the children at the home now are between two and 11 years of age. They attend public school at Otter Lake, but live at the bilet. It's considered one of the outstanding children's homes in the country, said Mr. Hammond. About one hundred twenty children live there now.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Come this month, we discover, the Studebaker people have been in the transportation business for 100 years, which is quite a number of years, no matter how you happen to look at it, what you taxes and all. But, that being the case, we figure that we should proclaim the matter to the world and ask you to watch for a few special features that we have in mind. After all it isn't every automobile company that has been in business for a hundred years and though we must admit that Studebaker's early transportation items were of one or two horse-power, live horse-power at that, the carriage itself was famous for the comfort and durability that has remained a standard up to the present day.

Incidentally our Paris department boss says that this beautiful country, a hundred years ago, was referred to as "the land of promise", and, he adds, somewhat dourly, "what with this being an election year and with all the politicians scattered through the land, it still is!"

Oh well, he hasn't anything on this obstinate bachelor friend of ours who comments occasionally on modern day marriage, children and other incidentals. "Can't really blame today's kids for their forceful aggressiveness," he says, "after all, how can they learn good manners without a chance to observe any?"

Of course, the good manners of your car depend on how you happen to treat it, and if you've been a bit backward in providing grease and oils in sufficient quantities and qualities to keep it happy, how can you blame it for grumbling a bit? Wouldn't hurt, either, to give that motor a bit of the extra tune-up the boys in our shop can provide, to be sure of fine motoring during the long beautiful autumn days ahead.

That's that, but why is it, that when ever someone has an hour "to spend" he usually spends it with some one that hasn't?

Yours,

BILL and WILL PETZ.

Fires Reduced, But Losses Increase

Increased property values caused Michigan's fire loss to reach a new high in 1951, but the downward trend in the total number of fires continued for the third consecutive year, according to the annual loss report just released by the fire marshal division of the Michigan State Police.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs, who is also state fire marshal, pointed to the reduction as reflecting, in part at least, the emphasis placed on the annual observance of Fire Prevention Week, which this year begins Sunday, Oct. 5.

The report shows that 50,677 fires resulted in a loss of $29,769,609 in 1951. The previous high was $29,618,534 in 1948, when there were 95,958 fires.

Childs said, however, that 297 persons, including 81 children perished in fires last year, which was second only to the all-time high of 257 in 1950. The monetary loss in 1950 was $24,964,345.

One of the 35 members of the well-known Alma College Kiltie band this year is Joyce Howarth of Northville. John Kinner, of Livonia, and Jim Lester, of Plymouth, are also members.

The band, dressed in traditional Scots kilts and costumes, is the official musical organization of the college, which has nicknamed its athletic teams the Alma Scots. The band presents an unusual and colorful spectacle as it marches slowly in parades and at football games. Its harpists skirling and its drums thumping.

POWER STEERING 1 on the Roadmaster and Wildcat

You'll discover this about a Buick:

The more you drive it, the more you like it; the longer your trip, the louder your praise. That's what people tell us. And we'll tell you why.

You can drive a Buick three, four, five hundred miles in a single day, and feel fresh enough to keep right on going.

You can ramp up high hills, cruise straight, ease through traffic-tangled towns, clock off hour after hour of relaxed and pleasurable driving—and be no more tired than a neighborhood jaunt would make you.

How come this comfort-rich ground-covering ability in a Buick?

There's the ease of deep, soft seats for one thing—and plenty of move-about room for arms, legs, shoulders.

There's Dynaflo Drive* taking all the chore out of driving, and giving your whole ride a satiny smoothness without trace of jerkiness or driving tension.

There's a hooftful of thrilling, tireless power from a high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball 8 Engine that whips out miles like a tarpon reels off line.

There's the soft, steady, solid, swerve-free going of a coil-spring-cushioned ride that's well worth the million-plus dollars it cost to engineer.

There's all this and more—much more—that makes your heart grow fonder of this trim and thrifty traveler.

But words can't do justice to a Buick in motion. Only you can.

When will you come sample this experience yourself?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. †Optional at extra cost.

'Parade' Balloons Still Coming Back

The gas that filled the ticket-bearing balloons released during the Parade of Progress must have been potent.

A letter from Walter J. Kuchenneister, of New Haven, Mich. said that on Sept. 21 he found a balloon and ticket in his corn field bearing ticket number 866-900. New Haven is north of Mt. Clemens and a few miles west of New Baltimore.

Another balloon was found south of Cleveland by a man who said he looked all over an Ohio map for "Northville" and finally turned to a Michigan map, on which he located our village.

A third balloon was reported two weeks ago by a resident of Mooretown, Ontario, Canada, 90 miles from Northville.

Mustangs Strike Early in Easy 20-6 Victory Over Clarenceville

The Northville High School Mustangs capitalized on three lapses by Clarenceville on Friday's football game at Ford Field and pushed across three early touchdowns to outdistance the Trojans 20 to 6.

Clarenceville's lone score late in the third quarter was also set up by miscues in the nature of a 15-yard penalty against Northville and a poor Mustang punt.

Fast 20 Points

The Northville TD's all came in the first 15 minutes of play, two in the first period and one early in the second quarter, as the Mustangs made it clear from the outset that they wanted this game. It was the first game in regular Wayne-Oakland County league competition this season for Northville.

The initial pass plays were contributed on a pass play in the right flat when Halfback Bill Sullivan connected with End Gary Hix from nine yards out.

The second score came on a quick-action play through the center when Freshman Fullback Arland Lovett found a hole, then shot to the left behind perfect blocking to score from the 23-yard line.

Six-Inch Run

The third touchdown was a six-inch effort by Bob Scheffer on a quarterback dive after Bill Sullivan had carried from the five-yard line to the inside edge of the line-marked goal line.

Right Halfback Don Johnson kicked the second and third extra points after missing the first. Quarterback Glen Reed punched over from the one-yard marker to score Clarenceville's only touchdown in the third quarter. The conversion attempt failed.

Team Determined

The Mustangs displayed their own brand of determination from the opening kickoff, an enthusiasm made necessary by the squad's lack of experience. Drive and spirit are the only real weapons possessed by the team as a whole, but they resulted in quick capitalization on the mistakes made by the Trojans and an early, disheartening 20-point lead.

The original Trojan series of downs netted only six yards and resulted in a punt to Northville. The Mustangs moved from their own 32 to the 44-yard line, but an offside penalty stalled the attack and they surrendered the ball on the Trojan 48.

A Clarenceville back bobbled the ball on the first play and Pat Herbert, Northville guard, charged in fast to cover the fumble. In his haste he accidentally kicked the ball to the Trojan 38-yard line, where Captain Al Iversen recovered for Northville.

First TD

Northville Fullback Lovett carried from the 38 to the 12 in two plays, then plunged to the nine-yard line. Bill Sullivan's pass to Hix fell incomplete in the end zone, but the second pass to Hix connected almost on the out-of-bounds line on the corner of the end zone.

The second Northville break came immediately after the first touchdown. Bill Sullivan's kickoff was short and Iversen recovered the on-side kick on the Trojan 44. Scheffer broke loose to the 23 and Lovett then broke into the clear on a play perfectly executed by the whole team to score the second TD.

Drive Fails

A third Northville drive failed when Joe Girardin dropped the ball on the Trojan seven-yard line after a hard gang tackle. Clarenceville couldn't move and punted to the Northville 29-yard marker. Northville stalled and punted out of bounds on the Trojan seven. On the third Clarenceville play, Dick Somers intercepted a pass on the 20 and ran it back to the Trojan five before being chased out of bounds. Bob Burgess slipped incomplete to Lamar Nalley and Sullivan carried to the six-inch line from where Scheffer plunged over for the third touchdown.

Substitute Freely

With a 20-point lead, Coaches Al Jones, Dick Kay and Ron Schipper relaxed a little and began free substitution to give the inexperienced players as much field time as possible. Consequently, the Northville attack slowed down the remainder of the game.

A Northville 15-yard penalty and a short punt put the Mustangs in an unfavorable position in the third quarter and the Trojans drove over to score on five plays.

Northville's starting team, a lineup which has changed every week, was:

LE Paul Schultz
LT Allan Maltby
LG Al Iversen (Capt.)
C Bruce Felker
RG Pat Herbert
RT Jim Mitchell
RE Lamar Nalley
QB Bob Scheffer
LB Bob Burgess
RH Don Johnson
FB Arland Lovett

Korean GI Bill Veterans Advised That School Payments Lag 2 Months

Veterans with service since the start of the Korean Campaign who are planning to go to school under the Korean GI Bill were advised today by Guy F. Palmer, manager of the Veterans Administration regional office in Detroit, to take along enough money of their own to tide them over for about two months.

The reason, Palmer explained, is that under the law, GI education and training allowances can't be paid until sometime after a veteran actually completes a month of training, therefore, one month of the delay will be caused by the veteran completing his initial month of training.

Certification Needed

The law also required that both the veteran and his school or training establishment submit a certification to VA—after the end of the month—to the effect that the veteran actually was enrolled in training during that period.

This, too, takes time, so Palmer urged schools and establishments to get the certifications in as quickly as possible after the end of the month to keep the time at a minimum.

Finally, after VA receives the certification, it must compute how much GI allowance each veteran is entitled to, and must mail out the payments. This process, Palmer said, normally will be kept down to 20 days from the date VA receives the certification.

Two Month Lapse

Because of all these factors, post-Korean veterans would be wise to allow two months before they can expect a check from the government, Palmer emphasized. Afterwards, of course, checks will come regularly each month, so long as veterans remain in training and their certifications are in order.

A veteran who starts GI training after the 20th of a month will

Christian Science Churches
Is there a sure remedy for every kind of disease? That question is answered in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, Oct. 12, under the title "Are Sin, Disease and Death Real?"
The Golden Text is from Psalms (103:2-4): "Bless the Lord O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction."
Among the Bible citations in this passage, (Ps. 107:13): "they cried unto the Lord in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses."

In the meantime, the Minute Women have decided to continue with their original plan to get as many as possible of the registered voters of the community to the polls on November 4.

New Revised Bible Version Celebrated for Its Clarity, Exactness, Meaning

The Revised Standard Version of the Bible, called by its publishers the "greatest Bible news in 341 years," was greeted across the nation with community-wide celebrations at Bible Observation services Sept. 30.

The service for this area was held at the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth and marked the acceptance of the latest of many forms in which the Holy Book has been transmitted.

The revision was made to clarify many obscure passages and put them in a language more readily understood by the layman. It will foster reading and could mean the beginning of a spiritual renaissance in religion in our time, according to ministers.

The first Bible—and the first complete book printed with movable type—was done by Johann Gutenberg and Johann Fust in Mainz, Germany, from 1450 to 1455.

It was followed in 1611 by the famous King James Version that has held sway in many churches for 341 years.

Some versions of the Bible are unknown to most modern laymen. In existence are editions of the Bishop's Bible authorized by the Church of England in 1568. It is a facsimile of the Tyndale Bible of 1525 for which its translator was burned at the stake for heresy.

The Cloverdale version of this same period gives eight parallel translations in eight columns including Hebrew, Latin, Greek, Arabic and Chaldean.

Long before the turn of the fifteenth century the Bible was copied over and over by hand by monks throughout the centuries. While most such manuscript copies were in Greek or Latin, one was done in Anglo-Saxon in the seventh century by Caedmon, a lay monk.

Caedmon put portions of the Old Testament, life of Christ and teachings of the apostles in metrical form and the verses were sung to the people, who memorized them and passed them on from generation to generation, much as folk songs were transmitted through time.

Men have always grasped for the true words or meanings behind the Bible, and many early transmissions of the Book have been found in handwritten scrolls. Many valuable papyrus manuscripts and a recently discovered leaf from the Epistles of St. Paul, make up the known records of the growth of the Bible to its present day form.

The leaf from St. Paul, the most recent discovery, was found in an Egyptian market in the early 1930's. Several leaves are now among other rare biblical finds owned by the University of Michigan and by the British Museum.

In addition to the English translation, the Bible is now in a thousand different tongues. It has run the gauntlet of numerous translations, the most famous of which is the King James Version.

Revised and modernized as recently as 1833 by Noah Webster, this latter version has been a guidepost to religious thinking of many millions of English reading people.

Webster, publisher of a dictionary by that name, said he called for revision of the Bible to free it from words and expressions that became obsolete from errors in grammar and from expressions "repugnant to modern taste."

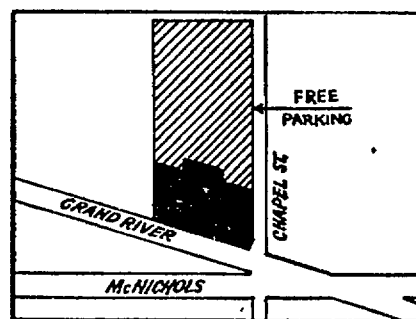

This newest version, officially becoming the biblical and religious property of all nations, was made for clarity. In part, it was a move by 32 of America's ablest biblical scholars under the sponsorship of 40 Protestant denominations to restore the Bible more nearly to its original form by comparison of recent manuscript discoveries such as the Leaf from the Epistles of St. Paul.

Symphony Group Seeks $4,300 in 1952 Fund Drive

The Plymouth Symphony Society's $4,300 fund-raising drive has entered its third week with a large gap remaining to be filled to meet its 1952-53 operating budget.

Seeking area and city-wide support of the 62-member symphonic group, fund raisers point out that Plymouth is just one of 20 other communities its size in the nation that has a concert orchestral group owned and supported by its people.

In past years the symphony has received whole-hearted support and local acclaim for its concert offerings.

Again this year it is sending out an urgent appeal to "patrons of the arts" to help endow the orchestral group that begins its concert season in Plymouth Oct. 26.

Highlighting a growing cultural influence the symphony exerts over Plymouth, many of the symphony members are donating their talents and efforts to encourage musical appreciation by youth and adults.

The society also provides a fertile field aiding worthy musicians in their efforts to obtain musical training, education and experience.

Contributors to the fund drive are not without benefit from their subscriptions. Five regularly scheduled concerts and the yearly offering of the Messiah, open to the public without charge, mark this concert season's agenda.

Eleven vocal and instrumental artists, known in Ann Arbor, Detroit and Plymouth for their artistry will highlight each concert.

Subscriptions, which entitle donors to all publications of the Symphony Society, may be mailed to: Plymouth Symphony Society, Box 99, Plymouth.

Cigarette Buyers Warned of Violation

Retailers and individuals purchasing cigarettes from sources outside the state in an attempt to avoid the state tax on cigarettes of 30 cents per carton are subject to prosecution and both fine and imprisonment. This warning was issued this week by Clarence W. Lock, deputy state revenue commissioner.

The warning was issued as a result of the flooding of the state with circulars offering cigarettes at a savings of approximately the amount of the state tax. According to Mr. Lock, the offer originates with a concern known as the Purchasing Corporation of America, having offices in Missouri, North Carolina and Virginia. Three states which do not have a state cigarette tax. This corporation has been charged with violation of the Jenkins Act, a federal statute, and the case is now before the United States Supreme Court, Mr. Lock stated.

"If the position of the government is upheld in this case," said Mr. Lock, "the P.C.A. corporation will be required to turn over to state taxing authorities a list of all persons in the state to whom they have shipped cigarettes. We will then be in a position, not only to assess the tax with 100 per cent penalty against such persons, but also to bring criminal action for violation of the state cigarette tax."

Livonia Will Have $30,000 Center for City Young People

Livonia is going to have a $30,000 youth center if Livonia Club efforts mean anything.

Club officials revealed last week the beginning of a fund raising campaign that will net some lucky ticket buyer a $15,000 to $20,000 house, probably at the cost of less than a dollar.

The 56 Rotarians kicked off a third yearly drive two weeks ago to make the teen-age gathering spot a reality, illustrating the service which can be given by an organization closely allied in its interests with the community.

New Era

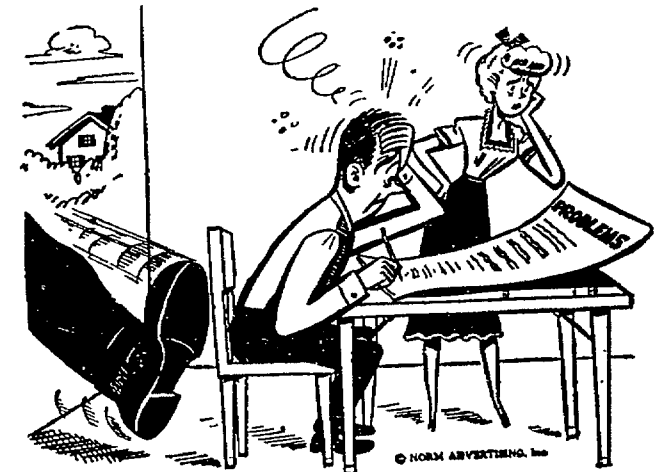

Some enthusiasts point out that the projected Youth Center Foundation marks a new era in community cooperation.

Long sought after as a means of curtailing teen-age crime juvenile delinquency, community organizations banded together in previous years to put $22,000 in coffers earmarked for the modernistic gathering place for juveniles and teen agers.

This latest drive is anticipated to raise the remaining $8,000 necessary to get construction of the youth center underway after the house now under construction goes on the "block" during the Carnival and Exposition, to be held sometime next spring.

Tentative plans for the "free" house call for construction of a three bedroom structure, including basement, breezeway, garage and two fireplaces.

Modernistic in every detail, it will be a ranch type dwelling located on a 100 by 160 ft. lot in Coventry Gardens.

Voters to Choose 1 of 2 Amendments to Reapportion Michigan Legislature

Two constitutional amendments calling for reapportionment of the Michigan State Legislature in different ways face voters going to the polls Nov. 4.

One of the amendments will appear on the ballot as "Amendment No. 2" and the other as "Amendment No. 3".

No. 2 calls for both the Senate and House to be elected on a population basis. The state would be divided into 33 districts, each having a given population. No district could be more than 15 per cent above nor more than 15 per cent below the given population. Each district would elect one

State Senator and three Representatives, making a total of 33 senators and 99 representatives.

Amendment No. 3 proposes to keep the Senate substantially the same as it is now except for addition of two seats for fast growing counties adjoining Wayne. House membership could go as high as 110 to balance the 34-member senate.

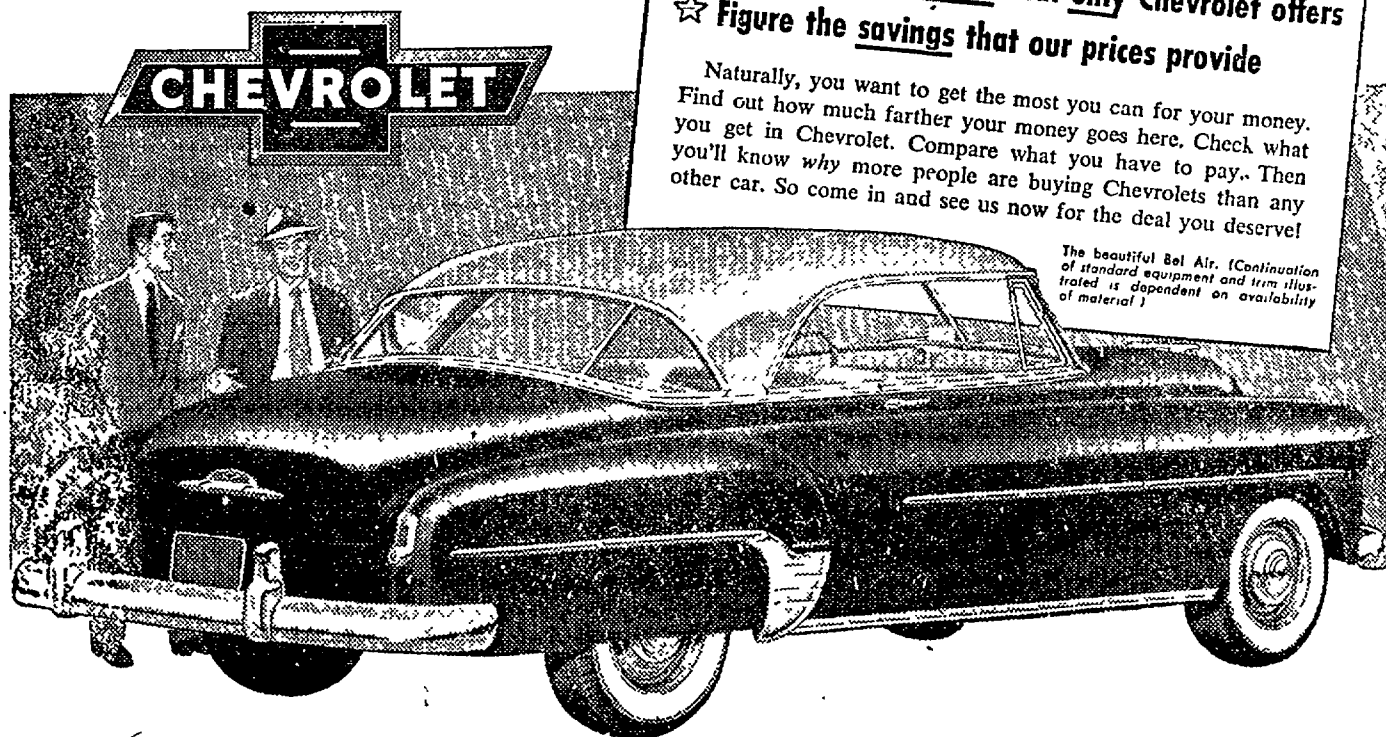

Critics of Amendment No. 2 protest that if both houses of the Legislature were selected on the same population, it would be equivalent to only a single house. It would, they claim, make it possible for only four heavily populated counties to control the whole state.

But under Amendment No. 3, a county or a group of counties having a population of just half the given average population is entitled to a representative. The present apportionment of senators would remain the same with House membership rising as high as 110 to offset population discrepancies in lightly populated areas.

Forestalling possible legal entanglements, State Attorney General Frank G. Millard has ruled that the greater number of "yes" votes will determine which amendment will be used as a guidepost to reapportionment.

Michigan Mirror: Fight for Reapportionment Control

by Gene Alleman

Battle lines are being drawn over who is to control the Michigan Legislature—CIO labor leaders of four counties or the citizens of Michigan in 24 counties.

And if you don't think the CIO is wheeling big guns into the fight, look at the battle-plans the labor bosses have charted in Muskegon County alone.

They've earmarked $9,000 to be spent in that county—in fact, mainly in only 17 precincts within the cities of Muskegon and Muskegon Heights!

In as detailed plans as a general has on D-minus-1, the CIO has drawn up its field strategy.

They'll spend $2,400 for workers in those 17 precincts in the final "three days of registration for the general election. On election day they'll hire seven crews to distribute campaign literature, with supervisors getting $16 per day and boys hired at $5 a day.

On election day they'll hire 180 field workers for $2,880 to haul voters to the polls and will spend over $300 just to pass out campaign literature.

That's just one county.

Figure out for yourself—by comparing Muskegon County to Wayne, Oakland, Genesee and Kent—just how much money the CIO is willing to spend in this, their golden opportunity to capture the Legislature as they've captured the governor's post.

Here's how the labor bosses plan to take over.

On November 4, Michigan voters will choose between two amendments setting up a new system for allocating the seats in the State Legislature.

The CIO thinks the plan is swell. They'd like to have the lawmaking body sit up to their whistle.

The CIO's Walter Reuther demonstrated his power this summer when he turned down Alben Barkley as a presidential possibility and approved the draft that made Adlai Stevenson the Democratic standard bearer.

He wouldn't be human if he didn't savor the taste of such power in national circles; he wouldn't see his control of the governor go for naught because he can't control the Legislature the same way.

The Republicans position, as outlined by Alger, is: "The Legislature should function for all citizens, all sections—not for any special class or area."

Any plan which would make 79 of Michigan's counties controlled or organized minority groups in four counties just couldn't give the state a Legislature that could equitably represent the best interests of Michigan as a whole.

Michigan's rural counties would be stepchildren of the auto workers under Plan 3. So it's natural that the Michigan Farm Bureau should get into the fight. And it's a plenty hard fight facing out-state Michigan.

According to the Constitution the seats of the House and Senate must be reapportioned every 10 years. That has to happen in 1953.

There must be some revision—everyone agrees to that.

The traditional solution of voting no to a puzzling amendment would be a mighty bad way out of the present situation.

The outstate voter must vote NO on Proposal 2 and YES on Proposal 3 to protect himself from UAW-CIO domination and assure reapportionment on a basis accepted as equitable through all Michigan's history.

Because it is such a complicated issue, backers of Plan No. 3 will hit on a few major points such as: four Lower Peninsula Counties would have only two Senators; Fifteen areas will be "gerrymandered"; that is, their boundaries will waver and wobble all over the map to make labor unions dominate each voting area.

The plan would destroy the basic American principle that the lower house should be set up to represent population and the upper house to represent areas; By giving labor the majority voice in the Legislature, union bosses could rewrite the Constitution to suit themselves. Delegates to a Constitutional convention which the Legislature could call, would be selected on the same basis as State Senators are . . . again with the majority under union domination.

There are only three weeks before the election. Can backers of Plan No. 3 sell the voters on: "Vote No on No. 2; Vote Yes on No. 3" program in those short days?

On their success or failure rides the future of Michigan.

ARCHERS' HOLIDAY

An estimated 25,000 bow and arrow hunters will be roaming the Michigan woods this fall. Their quarry: a white-tailed deer—buck, doe or fawn, it doesn't matter except in Menominee or Chippewa county where only an antlered deer is legal.

The Robin Hood enjoy a long season—October 1st to November 5th, yet their kill of deer is not likely to exceed the 2000 mark. Simple arithmetic proves that their chance of filling their license is pretty slim. Nevertheless it's hard to find an unhappy archer! The joy of the sport for them is the chase. Virtually all of them will see plenty of deer because Michigan's herd is large and well scattered. At least half of them will have one or more shots at deer, BUT there's many a slip!

The beginner — and many a veteran — is almost sure to suffer the shakes as he, or she, draws on the first deer. Getting buck fever, or in this case deer fever, is even worse with a bow and arrow than it is with a gun. Accuracy is impossible. Your muscles refuse to obey. Most of the time under such circumstances one just eases back the bow string and watches the deer wander off into the woods!

Best Approach

The best approach to the problem of getting your deer with bow and arrow is to let the deer approach you! Underhanded, stalking thru the forest Indian style is lots of fun. You may be able to sneak up on a deer, but these animals do not have big ears for nothing! Furthermore their sense of smell is astoundingly keen. So the best technique is to study the terrain carefully, find yourself a well-used deer run, get down wind from it and in a position from which you can get a commanding view for some distance.

Then arrange a few branches on the ground, built up about waist high. This will be your blind. Get a box or camp stool, sit down, and wait. It's always a good idea to get into a spot like this before daylight, sit there until about 9 o'clock, and if you haven't had a shot by then go back to camp for some shuteye. Deer won't move much except in early morning and late afternoon. Get back in the blind by 4 o'clock and wait it out until dark. You'll see the deer—you can bet on that—and if they don't see you, hear you, or scent you chances are you'll get a shot or get the shakes. Either way it's another chapter in your book of adventure in Michigan Outdoors!

NEW FALL TIME

Mort Neff's "Michigan Outdoors" television show may be seen every Thursday at 7:00 p.m. on stations WJW-TV, Detroit and WJIM-TV, Lansing.

Exchange Club to Hear Candidates

Members of the Northville Exchange Club will have an added political diet along with their regular luncheons at meetings this month.

They were scheduled to hear Mrs. Martha Griffiths, member of the Michigan State Legislature and Democratic candidate for Congress from the 17th District at their meeting yesterday, Oct. 8. Charles G. Oakman, now a member of Detroit's common council and Mrs. Griffith's opponent on the Republican ticket, will speak before the club on Oct. 15.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams is slated to appear at the club's meeting Oct. 29.

A movie, "The Story of Research", provided by the DuPont Co., will be shown at the Oct. 22 meeting. D. J. Stark, assistant postmaster for Northville, has arranged the month's programs.

The club members who worked the popcorn machine at the Friday night "Parade of Progress" drawings netted about eighty dollars for their treasury, which has been allocated to the Exchange Club Scholarship Fund. The money will be used in directly assisting efforts of local students in obtaining college educations.

SHIBBOLETH

Can you pronounce it? It is a word used by the Gileadites on one occasion to distinguish the Ephraimites from other Israelites who pronounced it Sib-bo-leth. Yes, our speech of ten betrays us. Samuel Smith, a missionary in South America, writes of meeting a Bishop from a certain church. "It does not take long to know where a man stands in regard to the great doctrines of the Bible. He spoke the language of those great men who seem to be fast disappearing from the earth. Those old fashioned standards of morals, equity, religion, truth, sincerity, faithfulness, promptness, punctuality, frankness, and graciousness cropped out all over him. They were part of the fiber of his being and were as natural to him as sin is to the world." Now since we preachers are called upon to speak so often, we are really in glass showcases. You do not need to hear very many sermons before you know whether the preacher you are listening to believes in the fundamentals of the faith. If he believes in salvation by faith through grace, you will hear him speak often of it. If he loves the return of the Lord, he will mention that often, too. He will bring to you the deep and rich things from the Word of God.
