

Announcement that Mr. Glenn Long has purchased a new site for his plumbing business on Seven Mile Rd. just east of the C. & O. railroad should ease the tensions that have arisen out of his violation of the village zoning ordinance by conducting his business from his home on Baseline Rd. Even though Village Attorney James E. Littell has already taken court action against Mr. Long, it would seem in order to defer further action to give him a chance to move his business during the next few weeks.

The entire affair has been badly handled from the start of Mr. Long's violation four years ago and should be an object lesson to those village officials whose duty it is to enforce the local zoning ordinance. While the Record does not condone Mr. Long's violation, the conclusion is inescapable that village officials have not been blameless in the matter. Under the circumstances, it seems not unfair to call a halt to the legal proceedings, temporarily at least.

To the Lady Who Wrote the Anonymous Letter Signed "An Observer".

Until your letter was received we did not know the conditions to which you refer existed. Since then, we have made a brief inquiry and have been told that what you say is true. However, there is little point in washing dirty linen in public and there is the additional grave danger of libel in doing so. Under the circumstances, we have turned your letter over to the proper village officials in the belief that an immediate investigation will be made and that this investigation may put an end to the situation. Concerning the man whom you hold to be ultimately responsible, we have the highest regard for his integrity and his efforts to do the best he can under certain handicaps with which you probably are not familiar.

Northville ladies who would like to make a million dollars should have attended the Monday evening meeting of the Northville branch, Women's National Farm and Garden Association, to hear Mr. Stanley Norton of Ypsilanti tell how one orchid grower did it by developing a new variety of white orchid. See story elsewhere on this page.

A friend returned from New York this week to report that Down East the comment is being made that this is an election full of paradoxes, the strangest of which is that national issues are being debated currently by a college president and an educated man.

Progressive Plymouth last week staged a joint educational program for its school teachers and local business and industrial leaders that merits serious consideration by the same interests in Northville. It is called Business-Industry-Education Day, and all school teachers take a vacation from their regular work to be the guests of various industries and businesses in the area so they may learn more about the economics of operating successful business enterprises from the men in charge. Plymouth is one of a considerable number of cities in Michigan which have been holding B.I.E. days for the past four or five years.

For the past five years the writer has been responsible for presenting economic facts governing operations of Continental Motors Corporation of Muskegon to about 100 teachers from that area. It is a stimulating project, both from the standpoint of industry, and also from the teachers' viewpoint. If we can judge from the enthusiasm and interest which the teachers always display, there is no question but that it promotes better teaching of the economic fundamentals of life which are the subject of a vast amount of misinformation. Last year, the Muskegon schools reversed the procedure and played host to business and industrial leaders to bring about a better understanding of the problems which confront the schools. To say that it opened the eyes of a great many Muskegon business men would be an understatement of fact.

Not only do such joint educational endeavors serve a useful purpose in bringing better understanding between business men and teachers; they also may affect indirectly the thinking of the children now in school who in a few years will take their places in the adult life of the community.

Township Registrations Break Previous Records

The rush of Northville Township electors to get registered by the deadline Oct. 6 reflected the nation-wide attitude of voters who are expected to shatter all balloting records in the Nov. 4 general election.

Township Clerk Fred Lyke reported that an additional 220

Name 8-Man Board for Nursery School

Members of a new advisory board of the Northville Cooperative Nursery School were announced this week by the board's chairman, Mrs. Howard Meyer.

New board members are: Dr. V. George Chabut, village health commissioner; Clifton D. Hill, attorney; Joseph Denton, Northville chief of police; the Rev. Dr. Harold F. Fredsell, pastor of the Northville First Presbyterian Church; Russell H. Amerman, superintendent of schools; Mrs. William S. Milne, Parent-Teachers association secretary, and Carl Johnson, representing the Retail Merchants association.

The Northville Cooperative group has risen in stature in its six-year history and is represented on the 14-member executive board of the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nursery Schools by Mrs. Meyer, who is one of three such members from Wayne and Oakland counties.

Blood Bank Here Has Only 7 Pints

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Northville again on Dec. 5 in an attempt to bolster depleted supplies locally and on a national scale.

Dr. V. George Chabut, village health commissioner, reported to the village commission Oct. 6 that the supply of blood in village hospitals has slipped to the dangerously low point of seven pints.

With the supply that low, any kind of sudden demand locally for blood would wipe out reserves and necessitate bringing blood from another source.

Dr. Chabut pointed out this week that two recent cases needed 12 pints and 17 pints each. Both patients are now living, but might not have survived if the blood had not been available.

Large quantities of blood are used in disaster areas in the United States and a large share of the blood donated in local communities is designated for use in Korea.

Constant appeals for blood donors have been broadcast, televised and printed, and supplies must be increased.

Football Team After Fourth Victory in Game at Centerline Tomorrow Night

The Northville High School football team will attempt to weave another victory into its winning pattern when it faces Centerline High School in an away game Friday night at 8:00 o'clock.

V.F.W. Has Formal Officer Installation

Officers of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4012 were formally installed at the Post's Oct. 7 meeting. Installing officer was Fourth District Commander Alfred O. Knoch, of Detroit.

New officers in the post are Floyd Kupsky, commander; Glenn Gerrard, senior vice-commander; Arthur Ash, Jr., junior vice commander; Barnaby Bird, chaplain, and Robert Dearing, adjutant.

The ladies auxiliary of the post has begun its drive to increase membership. The two-armed campaign will concentrate on resigning members in good standing and gaining new members. The auxiliary meets at the V.F.W. Hall the first and third Wednesday evenings of each month.

registrants since the Aug. 4 primary election had swelled the former township record from 2,992 to a new high of 3,212 eligible voters.

Of the 2,992 electors eligible to vote in the primary, only 1397 or about 46 percent, actually cast ballots. But the 1848 voters who exercised their franchise in the 1948 presidential election represented almost 76 percent of those eligible.

Other Area Records

Electors turned out to register in record numbers in Farmington and Plymouth, too. Farmington Township Clerk Harry Cracken stated that a total of 730 new registrations have been recorded since the primary election and added that the total now is approximately 5,950. More than three hundred registered on Oct. 6, the last day.

The new total list for the City of Farmington reached 1,706 as approximately two hundred new registrations were recorded since the primary. Harry Moore, city clerk, said that about 86 persons signed up the final day.

In the City of Plymouth, a new high of 4,584 persons signed the register, 537 of them new registrants. One hundred seventy-five came in the last day. Accounting for 30 specially deputized clerks who helped to handle the eleventh-hour rush to become eligible to vote.

Expect Record Detroit Vote

A record-shattering turnout of 1,200,000 voters in Detroit and Wayne County for the Nov. 4 election was predicted by City Clerk Thomas D. Leadbetter, chairman of the Detroit Election Commission, and County Clerk Edgar M. Branigin, secretary of the County Board of Election Commissioners.

They based their estimates on an expected participation Nov. 4 of 90 percent of all registered voters in Detroit and Wayne County. The total Wayne County registration is listed at 1,328,605.

Boy Scouts have joined the American Legion, the Minute Women and other organizations in their drive to get voters to the polls on Nov. 4. Boy Scouts will place hangers, decorated with attractive replicas of the Liberty Bell, on doorknobs urging electors to vote. Thirty million of these hangers have been made available by the Freedom Foundation, Inc., of Valley Forge, to Boy Scouts all over America.

Mrs. J. P. Malley has been appointed to head a committee to organize the Minute Women as sitters for children and as drivers on election day. They'll meet again on Monday, Oct. 27 at 7:30 p.m. in the lower room of the Northville Branch of the Wayne County Library to complete plans.

Rossow on Institutions Board

A new member of the County Board of Institutions which battles mental illness in Wayne County is the Rev. E. E. Rossow, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Northville.

He was elected to the board by a supervisor's vote of 54 to 23, said Mrs. Mollie Lawrence,

Woman's Club to Hear Play Reviews

Valentine B. Windt, director of play production and associate professor of speech at the University of Michigan, will speak at the meeting of the Northville Woman's Club to be held Friday, Oct. 17, at the Village library beginning at 3:30. His subject will be "Review of Broadway Plays."

Thousands of Michigan students know Prof. Windt directly or indirectly for his work in play production, for in the years since he joined the University faculty in 1928, he has not only taught play production and acting but has directed the many student plays given on the campus. In addition, he has directed the plays in the annual dramatic series in Ann Arbor, which have featured such stars as Ruth Chatterton, Ruth Gordon, Madge Evans, Hiram Sherman, Louis Calhern and Whitfield Kane.

At the last meeting of the Woman's Club it was erroneously reported that Mrs. Hattie Catternole, a former president, had been added to the "Afterglow."

Simmons Appointed Boys' State Official

Another two-year appointment to the Wolverine Boys' State Commission has been given George R. Simmons of West Ten Mile Rd. by the American Legion, Department of Michigan.

Mr. Simmons, a past commander of the Northville Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the Legion and active in Legion affairs on a state-wide basis, had just completed his second two-year appointment to the commission.

60-Passenger Bus Bought for Schools

A bid of $6,224.32 by G. E. Miller Sales and Service to provide Northville schools with a 60-passenger Dodge bus was accepted by the Northville Board of Education at its meeting last week.

The bus was the second bought from the Miller company this year by the board. The purchase followed realization early in the school year that the abnormal number of pupils riding to and from school was seriously overcrowding the buses already owned.

Cannon Appointed Packard Dealer

Announcement has been made that Clifford Cannon, owner of Cannon's Motor Sales in Plymouth, has been appointed Plymouth dealer for the Packard motor car.

Northville Township supervisor, who praised Rev. Rossow's untiring efforts in the past and his dedication to such work along with his pastoral duties at his church. He will join the county board Dec. 1.

He has been a chaplain and institutional advisor for several years at the Detroit House of Correction near Plymouth and the William H. Maybury Sanatorium on Seven Mile Rd.

An article in Sunday's Detroit News said that Mr. Rossow does not pretend to be an authority on mental disease, but he lauded the work of psychiatrists, as well as clergymen, in bringing solace and help to the mentally afflicted. Years of visiting patients in mental hospitals have taught him admiration and respect for the professionals in the field of psychiatry and an awareness of their problems.

"The psychiatrist who tries to restore the mental faculties of a human being does God's work equally as much as the clergyman who tends to his spiritual needs," Mr. Rossow said.

The 57-year old minister will have no trouble finding his way around the huge Wayne County General Hospital (Eloise) near Wayne, which is run by the board, because he has made countless visits to patients there in the last 20 years.

Garden Club Hears Ypsi Orchid Grower

Hybridization of orchids as a hobby for home gardeners and as a business venture for florists was described to members of the Northville branch, Women's National Farm and Garden Association, Monday evening, Oct. 13 by Mr. Stanley Norton of Ypsilanti. Mr. Norton has personally developed approximately fifty different varieties of orchids over the past 15 years, four of which he will exhibit at the National Orchid Show in Washington late this month.

Mrs. F. J. Collins presided as chairman at the meeting and Mr. Norton was introduced by Mrs. Merner Eilber, first vice-president and program chairman for the current year.

Mrs. Paul Schulz reported to the members on the conservation conference of the Federated Garden Clubs, which she attended in September with Mrs. Roy Matheson, Mrs. M. L. Hoysradt, and Mrs. R. D. Merriam. The Northville branch of the association was recognized by the Federated Garden Clubs this year for the first time, she said.

Illustrated With Slides

Mr. Norton's talk was illustrated with colored slides showing orchids growing in their native habitat in Mexico on rock ledges and branches of trees. He also showed slides of the varieties he has developed in his own greenhouse in Ypsilanti.

The growing of orchids can be a most interesting hobby for individuals, but should only be taken up by those who have great patience. Mr. Norton explained. This is because those grown from seed require from nine to ten months for germination and six to seven years after that before they bloom.

For professional growers, the development of new varieties can be a rewarding project if "Lady Luck" smiles upon their efforts, he said. As an example, he cited the 11-year effort of one hybridizer in developing a variety of white orchids which he sold for $1,000,000. This is still the most popular white orchid grown, Mr. Norton said.

An invitation was extended to all members of the Northville group and their friends by Mr. Norton to visit his greenhouse around the Easter season next spring when his orchids will be at the height of their blooming season.

The meeting this week was a joint affair for both members and their husbands.

NO HUNTING AND NO TRESPASSING SIGNS ARE ON SALE NOW AT THE RECORD OFFICE.

Rev. E. E. Rossow

He said that he is looking forward, eagerly, however, to his first official inspection of the Wayne County Mental Clinic in Detroit, which also is run by the board and offers psychotherapy on an out-patient basis to victims of neurosis.

Mr. Rossow was born in Fowler, Mich., and organized the parish of Pilgrim Lutheran church, Quincy and Chalfonte, in 1923, and became its pastor, serving there for 14 years before moving to Northville.

He and his wife, Leila, had just returned from a tour of visits with their six children last week when he was notified of his election to the policy-making job by the Board of Supervisors.

Student Council, Teachers to Aid With Vaccinations

The student council and home room teachers at Northville High School are helping the local doctors and School Nurse Ruth Knapp, R.N., with the annual vaccination program now in progress against smallpox.

A request blank authorizing vaccination was given each student Wednesday, which should be signed by parents and returned to the school by Friday, Oct. 17. The blank reads: "I would like (or would not like) to have (child's name) vaccinated." A charge of fifty cents is made for vaccination.

Parents are advised that children should be vaccinated before entering school and every five to seven years thereafter.

Sixty children in the grade school have been vaccinated so far this year. Ninety-five were given toxoid injections and seven pre-school children were given protective doses of toxoid for diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus. Eighteen children will receive a second dose of the series on Oct. 22, and 22 will receive booster shots. Forty-six grade school children will be vaccinated.

Student Council Votes Funds to Install Public Address Speakers in Gymnasium

The High School gymnasium will have two new public address system speakers as the result of a vote by the student council to supply money to buy them, said High School Principal Elroy V. Ellison. The speakers will cost about a hundred dollars.

Also under consideration by the student council is the possibility of raising money to provide more lights at Ford Field, generally admitted to be inadequately lighted for football, softball and other games and activities.

General thought is that one to two thousand dollars would be needed to add more lights because only the poles and reflectors would be salvagable for the addition. The present wiring will not carry a heavier load and would have to be replaced, and more reflectors hung on the poles.

Members of the student council will form a committee to make contact with Superintendent of Schools Russell H. Amerman and the School Board to arrange for a survey of the lighting problem by Detroit Edison engineers. The survey should determine what equipment is needed and how much it will cost. The addition would then depend on the possibility of raising the necessary money.

The council went to Clarkston High School Wednesday evening to discuss and plan for the year's work and plan elections for the student council section of the Wayne-Oakland County league.

Those who represented Northville at the meeting were Mitchell Rackow, mayor of the high school student body; Theresa Duchesneau; Priscilla Older; David DeJohn; Walter Newton, and Jurgen Bonnet and Ursula Hamacher, the two German students studying this year at the high school.

County to Resurface 7-Mile from Middlebelt to Village

Northville may benefit very greatly this year from the Wayne County Road Commission's plans to spend $10,835,000 on highway improvements in Detroit and the out-County area starting Dec. 1.

Definitely, Seven Mile Rd. is to be resurfaced from Northville-Plymouth Road east to Middlebelt (7 1/4 miles) and from Westbrook east to Grand River (2 miles). This job will cost an estimated $412,500. It is the most ambitious of any re-surfacing program to be undertaken during the coming year.

Glenn Long Buys New Business Site

Purchase of a piece of vacant property at the southwest corner of Gerald Ave. and Seven Mile Rd. as a site for the Glenn Long plumbing business was announced this week by Philip Ogilvie, attorney for Mr. Long. Ogilvie said Mr. Long plans to erect a fence around the property and move his plumbing supplies there as quickly as possible.

This move by Mr. Long will end the zoning violation at 411 Baseline Rd. which prompted the Village Commission at its last meeting to instruct Village Attorney James E. Littell to ask for a court restraining order. Littell, on Monday, Oct. 13 filed with the Oakland County circuit court a bill of complaint and an order to show cause why a temporary injunction against Long should not be issued. Hearing in the matter is set for Oct. 20.

Mr. Ogilvie stated that Mr. Long plans immediate construction of a building on the property to house all of his plumbing supplies.

Villagers Asked to Burn Leaves on Own Property

The heavy fall of leaves with the arrival of autumn and cool weather creates problems for both village residents and the streets department supervised by Herman Hartner, Jr.

Mrs. Mary Alexander, village clerk, said this week that the ordinance on the village books forbids burning of leaves "on village pavements, streets, alleys or on village property."

Many residents, said Mrs. Alexander, prefer to rake the leaves into piles along street gutters for village pickup. That creates a problem because the leaves all come down at once, and it's almost impossible for Mr. Hartner's crews to clean up all the leaves in the village.

Therefore, residents are requested, as much as possible, to dispose of their own leaves by burning them on their property.

Not definite, but at least a prospect, is construction of a cut-off around Northville from Seven Mile Rd. to Edward Hines Drive. This would eliminate the great majority of truck traffic through the Village by opening a direct route along the south border of the village from the present end of Seven Mile at Northville Rd. to the east end of Seven Mile where it is joined by the Edward Hines Drive.

3-Way Financing

A spokesman for the Wayne County Road Commission told the Record this week that a three-way financing deal has been discussed between the Road Commission, the Village of Northville and Northville Downs. The Road Commission already has appropriated approximately $55,000 to defray its share of the cost and this money is available at any time the Village and Northville Downs work out their end of the deal.

The status of Northville and the Downs is not entirely clear at this time but it is known that village officials have been in contact with the Road Commission and are endeavoring to work out their end of the financing. Village President Conrad E. Langfield and other local leaders are especially interested in bringing the cut-off project to a stage where construction can be started during the coming year.

Northville Road Surfaced

The road commission has already completed resurfacing of the Northville-Plymouth Rd. from the Seven Mile entrance to Northville to the edge of Plymouth, a road which now furnishes a smooth driving surface in contrast to the fire-damaging, chopped-up surface of the past.

President Langfield told the village commission at its Oct. 6 meeting that he would talk with road commission officials to determine if a cost-sharing deal could be made to install adequate gutters and storm sewers on S. Center St. The present sewers will not handle heavy rainfall, which washes down the sloping street and onto property along both sides.

The surfacing of Clement Rd. was shared by the road commission and Northville Township, according to a statement by Supervisor Mrs. Mollie Lawrence, who has requested the surfacing many times during her tenure of office. Total cost of the job is $19,500.

Adult Typing Class Will Begin Oct. 22

Typing classes in the Adult Recreation Program will begin Wednesday, Oct. 22, said Director Wilson Funk. The classes will be held in the commercial room at the high school, on the second floor, and will be instructed by Miss Kathryn Giltner, once a week for ten weeks at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. Funk said that 11 persons are enrolled at present, but that there is room for a few more.

The Leather class meets Wednesday evenings at 8 p.m. at the Recreation building on Dunlap St.

Payoff on TV Program

A New York holiday turned into a profitable venture Tuesday for Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Wetterstrom.

They appeared on "The Big Payoff" program on Channel 4, WWJ-TV, at 3 p.m. Tuesday and won several gifts of clothing when they answered questions on the quiz program correctly.

Dr. Wetterstrom is associated with the Atchison Memorial Hospital in the village.

Mustangs on Rampage, Stomp Milford 14 to 0

The Northville Mustangs got rough last Friday night. They ran right over the Milford High School football team in a game which Milford had been strongly favored to win. The Northville gridders rocked the Redskins back on their heels from the beginning. Then they kept the Milford eleven off balance all night while they ground out two touchdowns the hard way and won 14 to 0.

Victory Joyful

The victory fulfilled the fondest hopes of the team's coaches and the fans who follow the games. It established conclusively the fact that smart coaching, determined playing and loyal support can combine to overcome lack of experience. The large crowd rushed onto the field to congratulate the players as the game ended.

The Mustangs simply went out into the dust clouds of the Huron Valley Memorial stadium at Milford and took the game away from the Redskins.

The pattern of the two touchdowns was the pattern of the game. The first score came in the second quarter as the climax of a 43-yard drive on the ground, a series of short gains accomplished by driving ball-carriers and serious, effective blocking. The touchdown came on a short pass in the left flat from Halfback Bob Burgess to Quarterback Bob Scheffer, who struggled through the Redskin secondary and dived over the goal line.

Second TD

The Mustangs got their second touchdown in the third quarter after forcing a poor Milford punt and taking over on the Redskin 28-yard line. Halfback Don Johnson reeled off nine yards and Fullback Lamar Nalley plunged to the 14 on two plays, then went up the middle on the next play to score behind sharp blocking.

Don Johnson added both extra points with placement kicks that the crowd knew were perfect from the second the ball left his toe.

Force Breaks

The Mustangs forced their breaks all the way. They recovered the ball on the Milford 32 when a Redskin back fumbled Nalley's punt in the opening minutes of the contest. Northville couldn't move against the rangy Milford line and lost the ball on downs, but Gerry Graham recovered the ball again on the 20-yard line when the Redskins' first play was broken up. The Mustangs got as far as the 16 but again had to surrender the ball on downs.

No Letdown

After the drive exhibited in the first half, a letdown was expected after the 20-minute rest period, but the Mustangs were, if anything, more determined than ever in the third quarter. They headed for the Milford goal line as soon as they got the ball, losing finally on the Milford seven on a fumble, but getting it back on the 28-yard line, from where they drove to their second touchdown.

Milford opened up with an aerial attack in the second half to make up the 14-point deficit, but the rangy quarterback and ends couldn't manage a sustained drive. A final drive by the Redskins following a blocked Northville punt on the Northville 45-yard line was stopped cold by the hard-charging Mustang line.

The victory was the third of the season for Northville as against one loss, and the second win in the Wayne - Oakland County league. Northville still must face Holly, Clarkston and Brighton in conference play, and Centerline and Oxford in non-league games.

The 1952 schedule of the Northville High School Mustangs:

- Sept. 19—Plymouth (35)—Northville (0), there.
 - Sept. 26—South Lyon (7)—Northville (13), home.
 - Oct. 3—Clarenceville* (6)—Northville (20), home.
 - Oct. 10—Milford (0)—Northville (14), there.
 - Oct. 17—Centerline, there.
 - Oct. 24—Holly*, home.
 - Oct. 31—Clarkston*, there.
 - Nov. 7—Oxford, home.
 - Nov. 14—Brighton, home.
- * Wayne-Oakland County league games.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Come a hundred years ago this month, a couple of brothers, Studebaker by name, figured there should be easier means of riding behind the live horse power of the day so they went out and built it themselves. They built phaetons and buggies, covered wagons and station wagons and all in all did a much better job of providing people with true riding comfort than any other builder in business at that time. Later on the gasoline motor came into being and any number of characters came up with one version or another, which they installed in the carriages of that day. Somehow, we've an overpowering suspicion that many an early motor-maker installed his brainchild in a Studebaker conveyor.

So here, a hundred years later, we're celebrating the centennial of the Studebaker Brothers, who now produce a most excellent motor vehicle, complete with a powerful, fast motor; streamlined design; superb riding comfort and ease of handling. We're rather proud that we are associated with Studebaker. After all it isn't every automobile firm that can point back to 100 years of uninterrupted service to the community and even though it has been only the last fifty years that Studebaker has built the horseless variety of carriage. Their products have stood the test of time.

We hear rumors to the effect that business is now on the upgrade. We weren't really sure that other lines were showing improvement until a friend of ours, a salesman, complained that the carefully cultivated shine of his blue serge suit, due to unusual activity, is now only a disgustingly dull glow.

Of course, we must remember, anniversaries, elections or other distractions to the contrary, old father time has a habit of stepping right along and right about now, is time to winterize that car of yours. It needs a shot of anti-freeze in the radiator as it never was designed to be a deep freeze unit; it needs special oils and greases for easier starting and greater motor protection; and if no doubt needs a motor tune-up, now that the thermometer has returned to the low-lands. Better let our expert mechanics see you soon.

That's that, but we heard recently, that a fellow was caught selling horse meat as beef. It would have got by too, except the cook forgot to take the hairness off.

Yours,

BILL and WILL PETZ.

JEAN BOYER

When the line went dead, the Kalamazoo operator knew she had to act fast. A woman had been placing a call to a doctor in Chicago, then—sudden silence.

Quickly the operator summoned Service Assistant Jean Boyer. In an emergency like this, a life may depend on quick thinking and quick acting. Jean had a testman trace the interrupted call and help was dispatched to the woman who had fainted at her telephone.

The woman was Mrs. J. Ralph Adams of Kalamazoo. She was calling her Chicago doctor when stricken. Having been ill for two years, Mrs. Adams said the telephone became the most important article in their home. Before returning to the hospital for further surgery, Mrs. Adams graciously took the time and trouble to write Michigan Bell: "I have never seen such outstanding service."

Mrs. Adams' tribute to Service Assistant Jean Boyer is a tribute to all the people who make service like that a tradition in the telephone family.

SCIENCE OF SHOTGUNNING

Lots of books have been written on shotguns and their effectiveness against upland birds and game. Before you bought your gun you probably pondered the matter at great length—wondered if you were choosing the right gauge, the best choke, the right length barrel, the most effective choke for the type of hunting you planned to do.

Chances are your choice worked out pretty well, because most hunters can become good shots with any gun, providing they use it often enough to get thoroughly used to it.

In my book the choice of shot is a more important factor, plus the knowledge that tells you when to pull that trigger. Too many hunters buy shells loaded with No. 4 pellets when they should be using No. 6 or even 7 1/2's. Your shells with No. 4 shot have 135 pellets to the ounce while a No. 7 1/2 load carries 350 pellets for the same weight. You may argue that the killing power of heavier shot is greater, but you can't deny that in numbers there is strength, too. And if you're inclined to reach out for your birds or game beyond the 40 yard mark, your pattern begins to break up, and you desperately need those extra pellets to fill the holes.

Choice of Choke
Closely related to your choice of loads is the choke of your gun. Most duck hunters use a full choke, with which they know they can reach out as much as 80 yards and still have about 50% of their shot inside a 30-inch circle. Wide open or "improved cylinder" chokes give you the same number of shot in a 30-inch circle at only 30 yards. Beyond this range an open choke just wastes ammunition most of the time. So it all depends on the game you're after, and how close you're going to get to it. My choice for all bird hunting, except ducks, is an improved cylinder. I firmly believe that too many hunters miss their game because a full or modified choke has kept the target completely out of the cone of fire!

The Matter of Lead
Of course, failure to lead may cause the same amount of misses. It takes an average .065 seconds from the time you see your game, raise your gun and pull the trigger until the shotgun pellets reach a point 20 yards from you. In that time a canvasback will fly as much as 65 feet! How much should you lead? That depends on your distance from the target—and the best answer is found from experience. Plan to spend more hunting hours in the field. Miss a few and hit a lot more! The only difference between you and a crack shot is a little more time at the sport. Take it this year—in Michigan Outdoors! It's later than you think!

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cole Honeymoon in the South

Wed at Methodist Church

Mrs. Robert Cole

Two hundred guests witnessed the wedding ceremony Saturday night which united Ruth Irene Fulkerson and Robert James Cole in marriage. The double ring service took place at the Northville Methodist Church and was performed by Rev. Dale Frye of Detroit at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fulkerson of Six Mile Rd. are the parents of the bride and Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Cole of South Center St.

Palms, candelabra and bouquets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums formed the background for the candlelight ceremony. Mrs. Richard Somers played the organ and accompanied Mrs. Betty Hay as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Ruth was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she chose a gown of white lace over satin. The scalloped neckline was edged with seed pearls and the front panel of the skirt was inset with accordeon pleats of net. The long sleeves of lace ended in points over the wrists. A cap with a rolled brim held her fingertip veil in place and she carried a bouquet of fugi mums and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Jane Fulkerson attended as her sister's maid of honor and she wore a shrimp colored gown. Mrs. James Fulkerson of South Lyon and Mrs. David Fulkerson of Detroit, sisters-in-law of the bride, were the bridesmaids and they wore identical gowns of mint green. Picture hats matching the colors of their gowns were worn by the attendants and each girl carried a cascade bouquet of bronze fugi mums.

The bridegroom chose his cousin, Dewey Lyke, Jr., of South Lyon as his best man, and seating the guests were David Fulkerson of Detroit, brother of the bride, and William Meyers and Norwood Dalco of Northville.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Fulkerson chose a toast colored dress with brown and shrimp accessories. Mrs. Cole wore a blue dress with pink accessories, and each mother pinned a corsage of white rosebuds to her shoulder. Immediately following the service a reception was held in the church house. Mrs. Rose Cole of Flint, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Ruth Fox of Rock Falls, Ill., aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Kenneth Stead, poured.

After the reception the newlyweds left on a trip south for two weeks. Her going away outfit was a plum colored suit with black accessories and the orchid center from her bouquet completed her outfit. Upon their return they will make their home on Scott Ave., Northville.

The new Mrs. Cole graduated from Northville High School last June and is employed by the offices of Gibson, Raymond and Barnes. Her husband graduated from N.H.S. with the class of '51 and is employed by his father as a carpenter.

Among the guests attending the wedding from out-of-town were Mrs. Ruth Fox of Rock Falls, Ill.; John Stonebracker, Deergrove, Ill., and Mrs. Mary Bullington of Walnut, Ill.

Thursday night preceding the wedding, a dinner was served to the members of the wedding party at the Stremich dining room.

Methodist Circles to Meet Thursday

Atchinson Sees Chrysler Preview

Orson Atchinson, of Atchinson Motor Sales, Northville, returned this week from Detroit where he attended one of a series of 25 nation-wide meetings being held by Chrysler Division of Chrysler Corp. to preview the 1953 Chrysler.

"The new cars are the most beautiful Chryslers ever designed," Atchinson reported. "They feature entirely new and beautiful body styling with long, low lines emphasizing the length and width of the cars."

Among the many new features incorporated in the 1953 Chrysler are the 180-horsepower V-8 Fire-Power engine, full-time power steering, fluid torque drive, power brakes and Oriflow.

Atchinson thinks the new Chrysler will set the highway fashion for 1953. "They are the most luxurious cars Chrysler has ever produced and incorporate improvements which assure that they will be 'America's first family of fine cars'."

An announcement of the first showing of the new car will appear in this newspaper at a later date.

Handy Hints

Farmers lose 55 Million Dollars every year because of bruised livestock that reaches the market. Most injuries are caused by boards or heavy sticks while driving them. But, here's an effective "persuader," or slapper, that drives them by frightening them—but won't hurt them.

You can make it with a three or four-foot section of an old inner-tube, and an old paint brush handle. If you have no old paint brush, then whittle out a handle from a soft board. Just slip the handle into the tube, as shown in the sketch, and tack it on.

Goodwill Industry Antiques Show Is Slated Oct. 26-29

The fifth annual Antique Show and Sale sponsored by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries for the benefit of the physically handicapped will be held Oct. 26, 27, 28 and 29, at the main Goodwill Industries building, 6522 Brush near East Grand Blvd. in Detroit.

More than thirty dealers from Michigan and out-of-state will have exhibits at this year's show. Favorite dealers of former years, plus many who have never before shown their collections in Detroit, have reserved both space in the "Quality Show of the Midwest". As usual, furniture, china, silver, jewelry, dolls, pictures and prints plus collection of rare items will be displayed and sold by the dealers.

The Antiques Show and Sale is one of several events conducted annually by the Junior Group in behalf of Goodwill Industries. Members of the group contribute liberally of their time and energy, and all proceeds of the show and sale are turned over to Goodwill Industries to aid the program of employment and rehabilitation of physically handicapped men and women. Much of the machinery and equipment of the Goodwill Industries workshops have been purchased by funds raised in this manner.

Adding space to the show will be the French sidewalk Cafe operated by the Junior Group itself. Light refreshments will be served at the Cafe which will feature a canopied front and tables decorated in typical Parisian fashion.

The Juniors will also operate a quaint old "Country Store". Here will be found many of the old and treasured items that are now but memories of long ago. Cracker barrels, captains' chairs, spice and spool containers will lend atmosphere to the setting. The Junior Group plans to sell apples, cheese and candy in the booth.

The show will be open on Sunday from 2 p.m. to 10 p.m. and Monday through Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

ASK THE FARMER FIRST

The Michigan hunter who ASKS THE FARMER FIRST not only is practicing first order decency but he is doing his proper bit to encourage a welcome for his fellow sportsman. That it is actually unlawful to hunt on private property without owner permission is emphasized by the conservation department on the new hunting licenses.

Card of Introduction Given by Hunters Breaks Down Distrust of Farmers

A simple card of introduction is promoting better relationship between the hunters who swarm Michigan's fields and the farmers who own them.

The plan, fostered by the Wayne County Sportsman's Club, calls for hunters to present cards to farmers which assure the land owners that the hunters understand hunting laws and that they will conduct themselves as sportsmen and gentlemen. The club also promises to compensate the farmer for any damage, up to $100.

Members of the WCSB have handed out 30,000 cards, and one farmer has lodged a damage claim, according to an article in Pathfinder magazine.

Under the slogan "Ask the Farmer First", the club's plan is directed at breaking down the long-standing feud between sportsmen and farmers, which is serious, with 12 million hunters taking to the woods and fields this fall.

Stark Explains Results Daniel J. Stark, assistant Northville postmaster and chairman of the club's Farmer-Hunter Relations Committee, explains in the Pathfinder Magazine:

"We've found that the plan goes a long way toward softening up the farmers. They really appreciate the courtesy of a hunter who asks permission to shoot. Not only that, it's probably cutting down on the illegal game kill. A hunter doesn't like to sneak out a hen pheasant under his coat when he has to come back through the barnyard!"

Indicative of the farmers' attitude toward hunters, Pathfinder said, is the familiar complaints: "They shoot up and haul away my livestock. They tear down or deliberately cut my fences. They let their dogs run loose through my chickens. They throw beer cans and trash around my property, and toss lighted cigarettes into my dry fields. And they help themselves to wild game I've been feeding all year—all without ever bothering to introduce themselves."

Rules to Follow

To insure that the card plan works, club president William L. Ross recommends these simple courtesies:

Drive your car into the farmer's yard, where it won't hamper him, and explain what you want.

Don't bring in too many hunters (You can imagine his reaction when six guys and a couple of dogs pile out of a car—it looks like Coxe's Army!)

Ask the farmer about crops that might be damaged or livestock to be avoided.

Keep your dog on a leash while talking to the farmer.

Don't load your gun until you're well away from farm buildings. Be careful crossing fences; if necessary to climb one, do it at a fencepost.

Give the farmer some of the game you shoot. (Even if your party has only two pheasants, he's entitled to one of them if he wants it.)

Card's Information

The card which is helping to overcome farmers' distrust reads, in part:

"May the Wayne County Sportsman's Club introduce to you a member . . . dedicated to the cause of conservation and sportsmanship. We ask you to allow him to hunt . . . with the understanding that he will observe all laws and conduct himself as a gentleman and a sportsman . . . If after he has finished hunting . . . you find that he has injured your property or livestock in any way . . . upon proper showing of proof you will be compensated for the damage done not to exceed $100. As a member of the WCSB he has the good name of his fellow sportsmen in his hands and we do not contemplate that he will dishonor it."

Community Bldg. Fund Now $180,000

The Village Improvement Fund, better known as the Community Building Fund, was raised to an approximate $180,000 when the village commission voted Oct. 6 to transfer enough of the $26,500 given by Northville Downs to raise the fund to that amount.

Police protection for the Downs cost the village $5,184 during the race meet, a higher sum than previously. Water and sewage expenses were also higher this year, so Commissioner John Stubenvoll suggested that, to stay in line with the village budget, about $16,000 be put into the Improvement Fund, and that the remaining $10,500 go into the general fund to defray Downs expenses. The commission voted unanimously for the suggestion.

A breakdown of the fund shows that, up to the 1952 season, the fund totalled $159,000 in securities and about $4,500 in cash. The $16,000 added this year, plus about $500 in interest coming due in November will bring the total to $180,000.

Michigan Mirror:

Reapportionment Fight Gets More Explanation

by Gene Alleman

An old Ozark preacher once attributed the amazing success of his sermons to the manner in which he delivered them.

"Fust Ah tells the congegation what Ah is gonna tell 'em."
"Then Ah tells 'em."
"Then Ah tells 'em what Ah tol' 'em".

On that basis, that it takes more than one telling to clarify a situation as confusing as the one facing Michigan voters on constitutional amendment proposals, leaders throughout the state are "tellin' the voters what they told 'em".

Business and professional organizations and farm groups throughout out-state Michigan are repeating this theme in the closing weeks of the campaign:

"Proposal No. 2 would place control of both houses of the Legislature in the hands of 26% of the voters".

That's a broad and alarming statement.

To people outside the Wayne-Macomb-Oakland area that prospect becomes more alarming when they are reminded, again and again, that 26% of Michigan's voters represents a bloc which is apparently well under control of CIO labor bosses.

It hasn't been until recently that such domination of both the Senate and the House was possible.

In 1900, for instance, it took 24 counties to account for 51% of the state population. These represented both industrial and agricultural sections from Detroit factories to Thumb farms to Ionia shops.

The House of Representatives, elected on a population basis, could therefore never become lopsided in reflecting the welfare of a small segment of Michigan.

The Senate, based on area, made representation even more thoroughly reflective of the whole state.

Under two state constitutions—those adopted in 1835 and in 1850—the plan worked satisfactorily.

Under the present, 1908, constitution there have been rumblings of dissatisfaction. Because, by constitutional provision, senatorial districts have to be redrawn in every year ending in 3, labor bosses see the November election as an excellent way to prepare for reapportionment next year, '53.

They noted that Wayne, Macomb, Oakland and Genesee counties now have 51.6% of the state's 6,371 million population.

They are also well aware that tightly-controlled unions can swing those four counties.

Thus, by scrapping the Federal ideal of representation in the lower house by population and in the upper house by area the labor bosses would obtain the same hail-brother reception in the Legislature they now enjoy from the Governor's office.

If the CIO Plan 2 were in effect, there would be no reason for two houses in the Legislature, say out-state opponents. The reason we have two houses in Washington and in most states is to give equitable representation to areas whose interests are vital to the general welfare but whose population would make them important minorities on a per-population basis alone.

Farmers, especially, are gravely concerned and, though the Michigan and local Farm Bureaus, are fighting to defeat the CIO plan.

In 1900, 60.7% of the state's inhabitants lived in rural areas. Today, 64.3% live in urban areas, incorporated places of 2,500 or more.

Part of the shift was the merger of industry as the biggest economic factor in the state. Part was due to mechanization of farm work so that fewer and fewer farmers could feed more and more city cousins.

There are four methods of determining representation. Population only, the plan the CIO sponsors, which is used by five states; Voting participation, with representation determined by turnouts at the poll, which is not used by any state; Functional representation, with occupational or economic interest grouping determining legislature makeup, which is used only by Arizona; and geographical only, a plan used nowhere in the United States.

Thirty-three of the 47 states which have two houses use a combination, a different base for each house. This is the present Michigan set-up which is threatened by the CIO attack.

Amendment No. 3 maintains the current system, has the House chosen by population and the Senate by areas. The only difference between Plan No. 3 and the present plan is minor. It would raise the House from 100 to 107 Representatives and provide 34 instead of 32 Senators.

So, the outstate battle-cry is "No on No. 2; Yes on No. 3".

Privately, some leaders would be very content if both questions were defeated. "It's better to carry the slight handicap of the present system than to have to whole state under the thumb of Walter Reuther", they philosophize.

With two strong groups fighting over two questions on the ballot, it's good for the peace of mind of the average voter to know that everyone agrees on Question No. 1.

Without any recorder dissent, all parties are agreed that passage of No. 1 will strengthen the law in its fight against narcotic mobsters. It revises rules of evidence so that the scum that pushes dope to teenagers will find fewer loopholes to escape their just desserts.

Michigan had its first snowfall last week.

There wasn't enough to whiten the landscape but there was enough to start state officials speeding up their cold-weather planning. Highways, police, conservation and parks are affected by weather.

Plans were started before last winter's snow had melted. Now comes last-minute detailing. Execution depends on when the weatherman really cuts loose.

Shades of Paul Revere!

A Michigan city has a chain-telephone-call system that alerts merchants against bad-check passers. In the first 90 days of operation the alarmers went into action four times... and since then not a bad check has been passed.

While the community is proud of that record, it isn't taken any public bows. It isn't giving advance warning to any slick crook by revealing its identity.

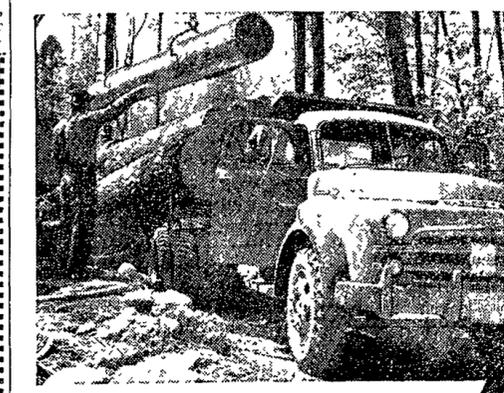

"I've Left My Money at Home"

But don't worry! If you can write a check you're never out of funds. Fact is, you're mighty sensible to carry a checkbook instead of cash when accurate records are so important for working out the family budget or figuring your income tax.

"HELP WANTED"

Walking down the main street, one often sees a sign in store windows asking for someone to come and help them. We would probably laugh at a person who would walk down the street with a "Help Wanted" sign hanging around his neck. Yet, if the truth were known there are many people who are in need of help. They are confused, perplexed and troubled by events in their lives and in the world. If only they could find someone that they could tell their problems to and receive a true answer! Americans spend $125,000,000 annually for advice and information from fortune tellers. What are they doing? Simply this: trying to find an answer to this complex life. Now if you are in need of help, dear reader, allow me to introduce you to Jesus Christ. He is interested in you. He loves you and can solve every problem of your life. Go to Him with your burden of sin, make a full confession before Him and trust in His mercy to forgive you and cleanse you as you believe in Him. As your Saviour, He will take the tangled strands of your life and set them straight. He will give you a purpose for living and new hope for the future.
