Friday Is the Time to Give Blood

Pledges for blood donations are still about one hundred short of the 350 goal as the drive neared its end this week, said Charles F. Carrington.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the First Presbyterian Church House Friday, Dec. 5, from 2:00 to 8:00 p.m., instead of at the First Methodist Church House, where donations have been received in the past.

GOAL IS 350

The goal of 350 pledges was set to insure at least 175 pints of blood, since Red Cross figures show that only about fifty percent of pledges actually result in donations because of illness, forgetfulness or turn downs. The Northville average, said Mr. Carrington, of donations is slightly higher.

Despite constant advertising in newspapers, magazines, on the radio and television donations of blood are not easy to get. Much of the lax attitude is attributed to the fact that the drives become "old hat" through constant repetition.

NEED CONTINUES

"But the need for blood is stronger now than at any time since the end of World War II," said Mr. Carrington. The Korean War, now in its 30th month, has drained and keeps on draining the supply, and the need for plasma will continue.

Anyone interested in pledging can do so by phoning Mr. Carrington at Northville 384 today or Friday morning, or by showing up at blood headquarters at the Presbyterian Church Friday afternoon.

Dino Politz Ends Studies for Degree

Dino Politz recently completed studies for his Bachelor's degree in chemical engineering at the University of Detroit. The degree will be formally presented at graduation exercises to be held at the university of June.

Mr. Politz is now employed with Army Ordnance in conjunction with Chrysler Corp. at the Detroit Arsenal in Centerline, Mich. He was graduated from Northville High School with the class of 1947.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Politz of 820 Spring Dr., Northville.

James Puff Joins Village Police Force

Newest addition to the Northville Police force is James Puff, of West Seven Mile Rd. The 27-year old veteran of four years in the Navy began Sunday on a probationary period.

He is married and the father of a six-year old boy and a five-year old girl.

Volunteer Santas Are Still Needed, Says Mrs. Chabut

Mrs. V. George Chabut outlined her work as a "clearing house" for letters to Santa Claus from bed-ridden and crippled children in a talk before the Northville Rotary Club, Tuesday.

She began seeking 200 volunteer Santas last week in the village to answer requests from the children in the Farmington Children's Convalescent Home and in Maybury Sanatorium.

She lauded the generous attitude of Rotarians and villagers in the Christmas project, saying that the people here have phoned in asking for letters in large numbers in the past. "The demand is usually more than the supply of letters," she said, "and I hope the situation doesn't change this year."

READS LETTERS

Mrs. Chabut read some of the letters, which usually ask for simple, inexpensive gifts, but said that three television sets were requested last year, which caused her great concern. "The Santas I'm looking for are purely voluntary," she said, "and I didn't know where I'd ever find three TV sets. But villagers came forward, and the sets were even installed free. There's no imagining the pleasure they gave the youngsters."

She brought two of the letters to the Record office, samples of the youngsters' requests. One little girl, who has been hospitalized for four years, said:

Dear Santa Claus: My name is Helen Jean Isbell and I'm 11 years old, and I've been out here three years and a half. In Dec. 3 I will be out here 4 years. My sister and brother were out here before, they have gone home now. My sister is 9 and my brother is 6. Dear Santa I would like a few things for Xmas and this is what I would like. A tiny tears doll, a piano with 18 keys, and a xyphone and that is all thank you very much.

Another little girl at Maybury Sanatorium said:

Dear Santa Claus My name is Dorothy Lee Brown I want a doll with hair, a suitcase and clothes and a telephone. With love, Dorothy Lee Brown.

Volunteer Santas may get letters by telephoning Mrs. Chabut at Northville 131 and asking for them.

Presents requested by the children should be wrapped in colorful Christmas paper and then wrapped again with heavier plain paper to protect them until they reach the hospitals. All packages should be delivered to the Northville postoffice by Dec. 15, addressed to the children and signed "Santa Claus."

Highpoint of the dedication of the Our Lady of Victory parochial school was the hanging of a crucifix in one of the school rooms by the Rev. Fr. Anthony J. Heraty (center). Celebrant of the dedication was Edward Cardinal Mooney (second from right), Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Others in the picture are (left to right) Altarboys Philip Loranger, Thomas McGuire and Ray Hood. Third from right is the Rev. Fr. Joseph Schram and far right is the Rev. Fr. Lorenzo E. Woods.

Livonia Now Has Own Mail Address

The City of Livonia finally has a mailing address.

A new Livonia Branch of the Detroit Postoffice opened for business Monday in a building at Auburndale and Plymouth Rds. In the past the approximately 25,000 residents of the fast-growing community had received their mail addressed, variously, to Farmington, Northville, Garden City, Plymouth and Detroit zones 19 and 23.

Now the mailing address is just Livonia, Mich.

NORTHVILLE BENEFITS

Addition of the branch will cut some mileage from the routes of Northville postmen, who had gone far out the various Mile Roads to deliver mail to Livonia residents.

Livonia civic leaders had opposed the original plan to make the Livonia office a branch of Plymouth. They really wanted an independent office, but were willing to settle for a Detroit branch.

Plymouth, they pointed out, has two square miles of area and 7,500 people; Livonia, with 36 square miles, will have 30,000 residents next year.

This, they contended, was a case of the "tail wagging the dog."

Our Lady of Victory Parochial School Is Dedicated in Religious Ceremony Sunday

The new Our Lady of Victory parochial school on Orchard Drive was dedicated and blessed in religious ceremonies Sunday afternoon with Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Detroit, as celebrant.

The dedication Sunday completed the full circle which began with its conception as an idea several years ago, a groundbreaking ceremony on Sept. 30, 1951, and active use as an elementary school for 116 pupils in September of this year.

Among those assisting in the 3 p.m. ceremonies Sunday were the Rev. Fr. Anthony J. Heraty, present pastor of the O.L.V. Parish, and the Rev. Fr. Lorenzo E. Woods, a Deacon of honor and former pastor who carried the burden of organizational work which made the school a reality.

Another Deacon of honor was the Rev. Fr. Joseph Schram, a former pastor of the parish. The Rev. Fr. Joseph Schuler, founder and first pastor of the parish, was Preacher in the ceremony.

Deacon and Subdeacon of the Benediction were the Rev. Fr. Thomas Beaken of Farmington, and the Rev. Fr. Francis Wojcik of Maybury Sanatorium.

Also participating in the dedication were the Rev. Fr. Lyman Fenn, president of St. John's Seminary; the Rev. Fr. Charles Kerin, of the Seminary faculty; the Rev. Fr. William Mooney, of Plymouth; the Rev. Fr. Matthew Blake, of Highland Park; the Rev. Fr. Lawrence Graves, of Walled Lake; the Rev. Fr. James Dolan, of Hazel Park; the Rev. Fr. Howard Hungerford, of Calleton; the Rev. Fr. Frederick Borek, of Maize, and the Rev. Fr. Joseph Brienbeck, secretary to the Cardinal.

The service began in the O.L.V. Church, after which the procession moved and moved to the school. A benediction followed later in the church.

High point of the ceremony was the hanging of a crucifix in one of the classrooms by the Rev. Heraty as Cardinal Mooney completed blessing of the school. Women of the Altar Society, under the direction of Mrs. Bernadette Jentgen, entertained the priests at a dinner following the dedication.

The school, taught by three Dominican Sisters, is a one-story ranch-type building designed to harmonize with the residential atmosphere of the neighborhood and incorporates four classrooms, an office and a teachers' rest room. Facilities are available to add four more classrooms in the future.

The Village Commission agreed Monday night to give the Northville Recreation Committee $200 to round out its budget for the year.

Northville Township had already agreed to give the Committee an additional $100, which represents its proportionate share of the amount the Committee needed to fulfill its obligations.

2-Hour Parking Voted for 3 Northville Lots

Parking in three downtown Northville lots will be limited to two hours in the future, and an additional lot behind the fire hall on West Main St. will be added.

That was the decision of the Village Commission Monday night after submission of a daily report conducted over a span of two weeks which showed that an average of forty cars a day clogged the three lots from morning to night, preventing effective use by Northville shoppers.

The lots on which two-hour parking will become effective are the new lot next to the First Presbyterian Church on East Main St., the lot at the corner of Main and Center Sts. and the lot at the corner of North Center and Dunlap Sts.

All day parking will be permitted in the spaces provided in the new alley and parking area behind business places on the south side of East Main St.

50 CARS IN NEW LOT

A new lot, which will provide parking for approximately fifty cars, will be cleared behind the fire hall and the building on its west side.

A two-week license-plate check, conducted daily by the police department, showed that about fifteen cars have been standing all day in the lot near the Presbyterian Church, about 15 in the Main and Center lot and an average of ten in the Center and Dunlap lot.

Part of these cars, according to Chief Joseph Denton, apparently belong to drivers who share rides to out-of-town employment and park their cars in the lots until they return at night. The remainder of the automobiles were identified as belonging mostly to businessmen and their clerks.

NOT ENOUGH SPACE

The trouble, the Commission agreed, is that there just aren't enough places in town for everyone to park for any length of time.

A suggestion by Commissioner A. Malcolm Allen that Ford officials might be agreeable to some sort of arrangement in sharing the little-used Ford lot near the plant on Griswold St. was dropped after it was generally agreed that shoppers wouldn't care to climb the hill to get to the business section.

The mental search for more space and a solution led to the suggestion for fixing up the space behind the fire hall. The idea was then incorporated in a resolution sponsored by Commissioner John Stubenvoll, which also included the two-hour parking limitation on the three municipal lots.

Begin Hanging of Christmas Lights

The hanging of Christmas decorations on Northville's streets began Sunday in cold weather which hampered workers and business men who turned out to get the job done.

Members of the Northville Retail Merchants Association, which foots the bill along with donations from the Village and professional men, wired greens to the light stringers and attached them to both sides of the streets.

Seen in the afternoon working on the project were Bruce Turnbull, Carl Johnson, Alfred Sibbey, Monte Ellis, Leland V. Smith, Harvey and Dick Ritchie, and Roy Stone and his four young sons.

The greens cost about $175 this year, and four deer to be placed at the main four corners intersection amounted to about $200.

Mark Mailboxes With Names to Insure Correct Delivery During Holiday Rush

Northville Postmaster Leland V. Smith warned this week that all mailboxes must be identified with the names of patrons if correct delivery of mail is expected during the holiday rush season.

Substitute carriers not familiar with houses or routes cannot efficiently deliver the great bulk of packages, Christmas cards and other mail unless mailboxes are marked, he said.

Because of the great amount of mail during this rush season, clerks at the postoffice will not give information about incoming letters, cards or parcel post until after the holidays are over, Mr. Smith stated.

B.P.W. Sponsors Thanksgiving Party

Serving, above (l. to r.) are: Miss Evelyn Ware, president; Mrs. Fred Clark, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Etz, and Mrs. Mabel Cooley, vice-president.

Oil paintings and watercolors of the 15 students will be open for public inspection from 3 to 5 p.m. on the day of exhibition.

Featured in the exhibit will be scenes of Sheldon Road and Pontiac Trail and portraits.

Recreation Fund Gets Additional $300

The Village Commission agreed Monday night to give the Northville Recreation Committee $200 to round out its budget for the year.

Northville Township had already agreed to give the Committee an additional $100, which represents its proportionate share of the amount the Committee needed to fulfill its obligations.

Fire burned out the interior of a house at 436 Butler on Wednesday, Nov. 26, belonging to Mrs. Martha Strange. The fire was extinguished by the Northville Fire Department.

Occupants of the house, who rent from Mrs. Strange, were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lawson. They escaped injury, although household goods belonging to Mrs. Strange were destroyed.

Club's Rural-Urban Banquet Is Dec. 9

The Northville Rotary Club's annual Rural-Urban banquet will be held at the First Presbyterian Church house Tuesday, Dec. 9, at 6:45 p.m., with the principal address to be delivered by Dr. O. R. Yoder, medical superintendent of Ypsilanti State Hospital.

Invitations have been extended to attend by the Rural-Urban committee, James J. Brummel, chairman; J. Martin Miller, Roy M. Terrill, John A. Boyce and Dr. Philip N. Brown.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Fellow we know, the father of four children and a Studebaker owner (says with four kids he needs an economical car) dropped in the garage the other day. Informs us that he was feeling a bit on the side of extra good, and knowing the character, we asked how come. So he says as follows, "On my way to work this morning, happened to encounter my four-year old daughter in the yard. For some reason, she loves to call me and her mother by our first names, so she greets me with hello, Jim!"

"So I hello right back, so one of the two of the little boys that are also playing in the yard, pipes up with, 'now I know your name, it's Jim' and the second small fry really makes me feel good when he refers to my two sons, saying, 'I know your two kid brothers, Jerry and David.'"

Personally we think that the kids were being a bit on the extra smart side and were making a strong play for the two-bits he should have given them for such a remark. Owning a Studebaker he's saved much more than that, and if he gets around to trading the car he's now driving for a brand-new up-and-at-em Studebaker, he'll get such an extra large trade-in, he'll save a lot more. Be a good idea for you to drop around this way in a bit of a rush too. We're being extra liberal with our allowance this month and there's no good reason why you shouldn't be one of those to take advantage of it and us. You'll get a wonderful car too. One so full of power, so beautiful, so economical, you'll wonder why you didn't get one months and months ago.

Well, here it comes—Christmas, then New Year's Eve and of course after that comes March 15th, which we don't think that even the new Republican Administration will affect too much this year. Some one once asked Joe Louis, who hit him the hardest during the years he was champion and Joe answers, "The Collector of Internal Revenue."

Now that's not too good a paragraph to put right there, as we sort of like to lead from a paragraph of chit-chat to a paragraph of advertising and how we go about a lead from such a dead-end street as income taxes, we'll never know. All we know is what the boys in the shop tell us, and that is... if you don't change the oil, get new grease and have the motor of your car checked at regular intervals, well you're in for trouble. Better have these mechanics of ours give your car the once over right away and be all set for the winter ahead.

That's that, but we'd like to report a conversation we overheard. One woman tells another that she, "doesn't worry about her husband chasing other women. He's too mature."

"What do you mean, mature," says her friend.

To which the first woman answers, "too old"

Yours,

BILL and WILL PETZ.

Moved by Woodworth, supported by Peters, that these bills be paid. Carried.

Communications were read from the Retail Merchants' Ass'n. and from John W. Clarke. A letter was also read from the Wayne Co. Rd. Comm. regarding the improvement of Center St. from Main St. southerly to Edw. Hines Drive, in which they stated that the village share of this improvement would be at least $28,781.50, but that no funds were available for them to do this work in 1953, and it would probably have to be delayed until 1954.

Geo. Mayhew, of Consumer's Power Co. and Mr. Weller, in charge of construction, were present to acquaint the Village Commission with their program of proposed replacements for the Northville area, and it was moved by Stubenvoll, supported by Peters, that Clerk be instructed to grant a permit to the Consumer's Power Co. to proceed with this work. Carried.

L. V. Smith, representing the Retail Merchant's Ass'n. requested financial assistance from the Village to help with Christmas Street decorations. Moved by Stubenvoll, supported by Allen, that $100.00 be donated by the Village for this purpose. Carried.

The Village attorney was instructed to draw a rough draft of a revised trailer ordinance, contemplating the revision of the present one.

Chief Denton was instructed to check the number of cars parking all day in the parking area south of Main St. as it is felt by the Village Commission that a great deal of the usefulness of the lot is being lost because of this problem.

Moved by Stubenvoll, supported by Woodworth, that $20,000 of the Public Imp. Fund be invested in the purchase of U. S. Treas. Certificates—2 1/4s—9-15-56/59 at market prices; also that the $20,000 Certificate of Deposit at Depositors State Bank presently maturing be re-invested in one-year 2% Certificate of Deposit. Carried.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned.

Signed: A. R. CLARKE,

Acting Clerk.

How Much

Is Comfort Worth?

Is 'Comfort' worth a dollar? Two dollars? Five? It depends on the kind of comfort, doesn't it?

Well, then, how much is it worth to have your clothes washed clean, dried to soft fluffiness—all without puddling around in a damp basement, sloshing through snow and cold to hang up wash? And all this at a very low cost.

Trips to Moon Are Old Stuff, Claims U-M Publication

All this modern talk about trips to the moon actually is old stuff, according to the current issue of the Classical Courier, published by the University of Michigan Department of Classical Studies. One of the first recorded flights to the moon was made many centuries ago, it says.

Lucian, an ancient Greek writer, made a totally unplanned voyage when his ship suddenly was caught in a whirlwind and carried into the air. A gentle breeze filled the sails of the vessel and in seven days he found himself on the moon.

POUCHES FOR YOUNG

Lucien's account claimed that "the moon folk are marsupials, carrying their young about in pouches like kangaroos. Their ears are of wood or of the leaves of trees. They have eyes which they can remove or insert at will."

"Complete social justice, it seems, has not been attained, because the rich own more such eyes than the poor, and they wear soft robes of glass, while the poor go about clothed in woven bronze. All drink a dew-like beverage made by squeezing air into a cup, and for more solid nourishment they roast flying frogs and inhale the smoke."

SEE WORLD THRU MIRROR

"On the moon", Lucian goes on to say, "there is a shallow well covered with a mirror. If you step down into the well you can hear everything that is being said on earth, while by looking into the mirror you can see all of its cities and peoples."

Lucien ends by saying, "Whoever doubts that these are the facts will find, if he goes there himself, that I am telling the truth."

The publication reminds its readers that they may get more information on the flight by consulting Lucian's "True History", a piece of Greek science-fiction written in the second century but no less inventive than today's science-fiction stories.

Ruttan-Faas Pledge Marriage Vows

Mrs. John Faas

Barbara Jean Ruttan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ruttan of Grace Ave. exchanged marriage vows Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church with John E. Faas, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Faas of Central Lake, Mich.

Rev. Dr. Harold F. Fredsell read the double ring ceremony before an altar adorned with baskets of white chrysanthemums and daisies against a background of palms and candelabra.

A prelude of organ music was presented by Mrs. Gerald V. Haf-rison at the console and preceding the ceremony Edwin Bauman, soloist, sang "Because."

Escorted down the aisle by her father, Barbara appeared in a strapless waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The fitted lace jacket fastened with tiny self-covered buttons down the front. A high rolled collar distinguished the neckline and the long fitted sleeves ended in points over the wrists. Her finger-tip veil of French illusion was secured by a Juliet cap of white satin. Barbara's uniquely styled bouquet was in the form of a bow knot consisting of white roses and shattered mums. A double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, was her only jewelry.

Helen Meaker, wearing a waltz-length gown of Nile green slipper satin and matching elbow-length mitts, was Barbara's only attendant. The bronze and gold baby mums in her bouquet were repeated on her small headdress which was fashioned of satin matching her gown.

Conrad Beyer of Cheboygan, Wisc., was John's best man, and seating the guests were Calvin Timmins of Detroit and Mark Wiltse of East Lansing.

Mrs. Ruttan, the mother of the bride, chose a street-length dress of steel blue faille complemented by accessories of ice pink and a corsage of shattered mums. A suit of pine cone green accented by rust colored accessories was Mrs. Faas' choice for her son's wedding. Her corsage was of lemon yellow mums.

Etta Christine Ruttan, young sister of the bride wearing a gold taffeta dress, joined her parents and other members of the wedding party in the receiving line to greet over one hundred relatives and friends at the reception held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

Barbara asked Bernice Timmins of Detroit to be in charge of the record book and Delores Bell and Gail Bemish presided at the punch bowls. Lynn Mathewson of Grosse Pointe, a former college roommate of the bride, and three of the bride's aunts, Mrs. Irvin Ruttan of Detroit, Mrs. John Needham and Mrs. Robert L. Needham of Corunna, Ont., Canada, alternated at the coffee services.

Present to receive congratulations on the marriage of her granddaughter, Mrs. Robert Needham, Sr. of Canada was attired in a blue crepe dress with decorative beading at the neckline. A corsage of white mums were her flowers.

The young couple left for a motor trip through the southern states with plans to spend the

Birthday Tea Honors Mrs. E. Thayer

Mrs. Carl Bryan entertained at a tea Saturday afternoon at her newly completed home on West Main St. in honor of the 87th birthday of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Thayer.

Forty guests were present to congratulate Mrs. Thayer and to enjoy an open house in the Bryan's new residence.

The hostess asked Miss Florence Keith of the Village and Mrs. John Higginson of Detroit to pour. Among the guests were several of Mrs. Thayer's family friends, Miss Mary Helen Holmes of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Haskell of Detroit and Mrs. Leslie Conger also of Detroit—who remained as house guest for the week-end.

majority of their time in Biloxi, Miss.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Faas chose a suit of salt and pepper nubby tweed with black accessories and she pinned a corsage of red rosebuds to her lapel.

A Northville High School graduate, Barbara attended Michigan State College and was employed by the Carrington Insurance Agency.

The bridegroom is a veteran of military service in Korea and last year was graduated from Michigan State College with a Bachelor of Science degree. His affiliation is Alpha Phi Omega and he is a member of the National Food Technologists Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Faas will make their home in Central Lake, Mich. where Jack is associated with his father in the food processing plant, 'Faas Foods'.

Mrs. Sober to Talk at Christmas Tea

The women of the First Presbyterian Women's Union will entertain at a Tea of Christmastime, Dec. 10 in the Church House at 1:00 p.m. A cordial welcome is extended to all friends in Northville.

Preceding the tea, the group will hear Mrs. Marion E. Sober lecture on "Art and Art Objects."

Her many art activities include portraits of children in pastels and she is now teaching art classes in her own studio at her home on Sheldon Rd. She is a member of the J. L. Hudson Company Speaker's Bureau.

Mrs. D. Andrew Howie, organist of the Brighton Presbyterian Church, will entertain the group with Christmas selections at the piano.

The Christmas devotionals on "The Art of Giving" will be presented by Mrs. N. K. Pattison and tea arrangements are being made by the Nellie Yerkes Circle. Mrs. T. R. Carrington and Mrs. Ralph Hay, Sr., will act on the reception committee.

Christian Science Churches

That man is the highest creation of God is shown in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God The Only Cause and Creator" to be read in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, Dec. 7.

The Golden Text is from Psalms
(86:9,10): "All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things:
thou art God alone."

Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Ps. 25:10): "All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "God is Mind: all that Mund, God is, (or hath made, is good, and He made all." (p. 311)

Crisis in Public Schools Predicted

A Michigan State College sociologist has predicted a 37 per cent increase in the already bulging Michigan public school enrollments during the next five years.

Dr. John F. Thaden, population expert of the Michigan State department of sociology and anthropology, said that a record total of 172,451 babies were born last year in Michigan. This total, 12,000 more than in 1950, will be reflected in further increases in public school enrollments beginning with kindergarten in 1956.

Enrollments in the Michigan public schools will continue to rise rapidly for many years and are expected to reach 1,465,000 by the fall term in 1958, Dr. Thaden said. This is 37 per cent higher than the 1,067,434 recorded in the spring of 1951.

This potential increase points to an immediate need of about 13,000 new public school classrooms and as many additional teachers, the Michigan State sociologist added.

Dr. Thaden warned that this is not a temporary situation. He said that Michigan's public school enrollment will probably remain over the 1,500,000 mark for many years.

The rapidly growing suburban areas will probably be hit the hardest, by the need for new classrooms and teachers.

Michigan Mirror:

Says Schools Brought On Own Money Problem

by Gene Alleman

The cold dank wind of debt is fluttering up the bed clothes of Michigan schools.

It's an uncomfortable bed the schools have made for themselves but, as the saying goes, they'll have to sleep in it.

In 1946 the sales tax diversion amendment was pushed through by the school lobby. Every teacher became a one-man pressure group, flooding the mails with beseechings to vote for the amendment and "save our schools".

The amendment was passed.

Now John B. Martin, Jr., auditor general, predicts that Michigan schools will have to close in the next six months unless they can borrow money to stay open.

What has happened? There just isn't enough cash in the general fund to make this mandatory quarterly payment to the schools—$25,000,000 too little cash.

Before the sales tax amendment was passed the legislature appropriated money for the schools in accordance with the amount expected to be on hand. Now it is bound by law to appropriate from the general fund an amount equal to 44 percent of the total sales tax collection of the previous year. This year it must come up with $94,000,000.

It is bound by the constitution to do this—but the general fund of the state is as empty as a copy boy's pocket.

Four years ago the general fund boasted a $34,000,000 surplus. Now it is $65,000,000 in the red.

Sponsors of the sales tax diversion amendment, of course, had no way of knowing such a situation would prevail. But it does.

In addition to the general fund appropriation, the state also kicks back one-half cent of the three-cent sales tax to the schools. This, of course, will be done—the state acts only as a collection agent for the schools in this.

One-half cent also is returned to the villages, townships and cities on a per-capita basis. Townships have very small operating expenses. Thus in many cases the small units of government have more money than they know what to do with while the state general fund is strapped.

Attempts to divert some of township money into the general fund by renaming the earmarked funds have been stymied by Gov. Williams' veto.

The state deficit is old hat in Michigan these days. Mr. Martin resignedly suggests that the schools be authorized to borrow money to keep open until such a time as the state's long-range program can be effected.

Long-range program? That boils down to: The state can shave and save and cut operating expenses and/or the state can collect more taxes.

This could mean the corporation profits tax, nuisance taxes on soft drinks, tourist accommodations, etc. There even are whispers of a state income tax.

Why not a constitutional convention to revise the state's taxing setup? The legislature in 1952 approved such a convention; Governor Williams vetoed the bill.

Practical result: A stalemate at Lansing.

"We have reached a point where the deficit can't go on increasing," the scholarly auditor general says. "I have scraped and gathered up every nickel I can find. We've cut down on expenses, capital outlay—everything. We are right down now where we can't find any more."

Some of our lawmakers were surprised recently when they learned they had passed a law ordering the corrections commissioner to establish a psychiatric clinic at Jackson prison. They neglected to put any money for it. When the omission was brought to their attention, several were surprised to find such a law on the books.

Half-dozen or so schoolmen are casting eyes at the chair of the superintendent of public instruction, now seating Dr. Lee M.

Thurston. Dr. Thurston leaves office June 30.

The University of Michigan is encouraging students from small cities and rural areas to enroll in its medical school on the theory that those reared in small communities are likely to return to their own or similar areas to practice after graduation and that is where the state is shortest of physicians.

MYSTERY OF THE MISSING DUCKS

Something happened to our ducks in Michigan this year—something both unpredictable and unfortunate for a record number of hunters! We cheered the news of a 55-day season opening October 1st and running 'til November 24th. We expected only fair shooting of so-called "local" ducks for the first couple of weeks before the big flights came down. Thereafter, we looked forward to good gunning right up to the last day. But our plans got twisted somewhere along the line.

Fine Opening
On October 1st a whopping big blow swept Michigan—a gale that continued thru the second day of the season, bringing in tremendous numbers of red heads, bluebills and canvasbacks to Saginaw Bay, and also to waters along the western side of the State. These flights were a full two weeks ahead of normal schedule. Enormous numbers of ducks remained in about the same spots where they landed with the storm of the year. This season they came early—about the first week of November, and still lived up to their traditional place at the tail end of the parade.

Big Storm on 19th
On October 19th, day before the pheasant season opened in southern Michigan, a cold northwester howled across the State, bringing snow to many sections including Saginaw Bay. Hundreds of thousands of ducks took off and headed south, landing in huge rafts on Lake St. Clair and Lake Erie. Geese flooded the skyways in such concentrations that the Cleveland Air-port warned all planes to beware of low-flying flocks. Collisions between geese and planes can be very fatal to both!

Southern Hunting Holiday
Now southern Michigan hunters had their fling. Conservation department investigators reported one flock of canvasbacks on Lake St. Clair numbering close to 25,000! From October 20th until November 4th these ducks fed and rested in the southern area affording fine shooting. Then a light blow from the north warned of colder weather on the way, and suddenly, as if by a stroke of a magic wand, the ducks disappeared! From November 4th 'til the 24th duck hunting luck was on a definite decline. Optimists still looked for black ducks, long overdue. They never arrived. Mergansers, or fish ducks, are usually the last to come through, spots where they landed with the storm of the year. This season they came early—about the first week of November, and still lived up to their traditional place at the tail end of the parade.
