City vs. Village Arguments

For City

Committee for Incorporation Says Township Gets Surplus from State

By Dr. L. W. Snow, Chairman, Committee on City Incorporation

Last week's article on the advantages of becoming a city made these points:

1. Village residents are now taxed to support both village and township officials and activities.
2. If Northville were to become a city, the township tax would be saved forever by those who live in the city.
3. The city assessor and city treasurer would assess and collect the taxes now being assessed and collected by township officials, thus eliminating duplicating expense.
4. City incorporation would not change the character of the community, or the conduct of its schools and social welfare.
5. Becoming a city would involve writing a new and more modern charter to provide a more workable and more efficient government than is possible under the present village charter.
6. The new city would share in township assets in proportion to the assessed valuation of city and township property.

The foregoing six points were among the advantages listed by Village Attorney James E. Littell a year ago after he made an impartial analysis of the pros and cons of city government for the Village Commission.

Effect of City on Township
Since last week's article appeared, I have heard several comments by residents of Northville township implying that if Northville were to become a city it would ruin the township financially.

Northville Township Finances
This claim is best answered by examination of Northville Township finances as shown by its latest financial statement. This covers the fiscal year from March 16, 1951 to March 18, 1952. It will be seen from the following tabulation published in the Record April 3, 1952, listing the township's income for this period, that all but $3,377.45 of the total came to the township in the form of rebates from the state on sales tax and intangibles tax. In other words, the township's financial report indicates that 91% of its income for the year came from the state and only 9% from taxes levied against its residents, permits and miscellaneous other sources.

INCOME
1950 taxes	$1,632.89
Building permits	348.00
Delinquent taxes collected	437.89
Land sales	86.36
Liquor Control Commission	252.45
Interest on Investments	342.86
Wayne county election expense	27.00
Village of Northville	250.00
Total local income	$3,377.45
Mich. state sales tax	27,192.15
Intangible tax	7,739.34
Income from state	$35,931.49

Total income 39,308.94
% of local income to total 9%
% of state income to total 91%
Township had $10,776 Surplus
Against this $39,308.94 income for the year, the township paid expenses of $28,532.66 for the same period, leaving it with a net surplus of $10,776.28 for the year. This was three times as much as its total income from its local taxes and all other sources except its revenue from the state. Thus, the township financed itself entirely by use of rebated revenue from the state and still had a surplus of $10,776.28 left over.

Village Also Received Rebates
In fairness, it should be pointed out that the Village of Northville also receives revenue from the state in the form of rebates of sales and intangible taxes. Such funds are used to help defray the cost of running the village, just as they are used by the township for running expenses. But, whereas the village uses all of such funds PLUS A SUBSTANTIAL

Against City

Improvement Ass'n. Fears Impairment of Twp. Finances

by Don Hicks, President of Northville Township Improvement Ass'n.

Since you invite comment on the proposed city form of government, we present herewith some of the factual reasons why the City proposal is unacceptable to the Township.

The Northville Township Improvement Association was formed to further the interests of the Township and the interests of each individual tax payer within its borders.

The Township Improvement Association does not believe it to be either in the interests of the Township or its residents that it permit itself to be dismembered; its cash assets confiscated; its revenues diverted; its solvency threatened; its citizens disfranchised.

Indeed the residents of the Township would be interested to know how they could be expected to acquiesce in the invasion of their civil rights and the exploitation of their resources.

Steps That Affect Township
To be more explicit we would point in turn to each of the following contemplated steps as they affect the Township.

1. The seizure of 4/5 of the cash assets of the Township which in the present state of the Township Treasury would amount to some $40,000 and
2. The diversion of $35,000 in tax revenue as represented by the State Hospital - from the Township Treasury to which it rightfully and geographically belongs - to the City Treasury, and
3. The partition of the Township along the lines indicated whereby most of the Township would remain intact while depriving it of its operating revenue. At this point we may well ask what private business could lose $85,000 from its capital structure and accounts receivable, as well as a large number of its contributing stockholders without seriously impairing its ability to furnish its essential services to its customers at the old prices?

Tax Exempt Land
To this must be added the fact that the revenues of the Township are further severely curtailed by the increase in the number of its tax exempt institutions. In one year alone and at one stroke some 600 acres of taxable property was removed from the Township tax rolls by the State Hospital. More is in imminent prospect of being taken. It is this same tax revenue taken from the Township and restored to it again in the form of a tax rebate to which the proposed City lays claim. On what ground does it make such claim?
From these considerations, it must be apparent that the dismemberment of the Township would seriously impair its financial structure to such an extent that it might well be forced into a City Form of Government by default by the very interests which are now trying to keep it out while embracing its assets.

In the event that the exploitation of the Township would force it into a City Form of Government via bankruptcy, we do not believe the proposed city would be in a position to furnish municipal services to the outlying portions of the Township either now or in the foreseeable future.
Village tax payers should give thought to the possibility that if by their actions the Township would be forced to join up with a

TOTAL AMOUNT OF RECEIPTS FROM VILLAGE TAXES, THE TOWNSHIP'S EXPENSES HAVE BEEN SO SMALL THAT IT HAS NOT NEEDED ALL OF THE MONEY IT HAS RECEIVED.

Township Rebates to Continue
It should also be understood that the township will continue to receive rebates from the state of sales tax and intangibles tax collections based upon its population, which is constantly growing, whereas population growth in the present village is virtually at a standstill because of lack of available building lots.

city form of Government they may eventually be financing City improvements on outlying farm property.

Call City Plan Unjust
Furthermore, the proposed city plan is distinctly unjust and un-American in that the Township voters, or so it would appear, are deprived of the right of franchise, nor do they have representation by any Township official on the proposed City Board.

We believe it may be stated as a general principle that the law, whatsoever it may appear to say was not meant to be oppressive nor discriminatory and the constitutionality of these procedures will, if necessary, be determined in a Court of Equity.

Turning now to the report of the City Planning Commission given by Dr. Snow et al as published in the Northville Record of February 5th, 1953. In this report, Dr. Snow publishes a lengthy list of names and Organizations to which they belong and attempts to create the impression that his is an official committee which is legally authorized and directly sponsored by the local Northville Government.

In the interests of accuracy it should be stated that Dr. Snow did indeed secure the approval of the Mayor and Council to inquire into a City form of Government.

This study group made its recommendations in due order but no official action was taken by the Mayor and Council on the matter. In July 1952 Dr. Snow again tried to secure an appropriation to initiate steps looking toward a City form of Government and was again refused. Thereupon Dr. Snow and his study committee decided to go ahead with their plans anyway but without official sanction or approval.

Petitions Presented to Council
On January 5, 1953 a petition was presented to the Mayor and Council by the Township Improvement Association asking that the circulation of the City Petitions be halted on the grounds that: "... such plans would not contribute to the happiness of well being of the people; nor the enjoyment of their rights under the Constitution, but was based on repressive measures of seizure, taxation and exploitation of the residents of the Township." This petition, by the way, was not published in the Northville Record.

This petition to the local Village Government did not indeed halt these city petitions but it accomplished one very important thing. The Mayor and Council in session, upon presentation of these grievances, officially disavowed any connection with any group circulating petitions. Thus Dr. Snow and his committee members are strictly an orphan committee without official standing or a sponsor. Their views on the proposed City are precisely those of a group of individuals whose motives must be scrutinized in the light of their own self interest.

The Snow Study Group makes much of the "factual" studies of Mr. Littell on the matter of city incorporation which makes it appear to support the city form of Government. It might, therefore, be pertinent to refer to Mr. Littell's factual article in the Record of December 1951, under the sub-heading "City Revenues", quote, "There are some to whom the revenue from the race-track and the State Hospital is a persuasive reason for forming a city form of Government."

City Would Get Racing Revenue
There is a state law which provides that cities shall receive annually from the State of Michigan, 20% of all revenue received by the State of Michigan for the operation of pari-mutuel racing meets within the boundaries of these cities: "... To many these situations have been persuasive arguments in favor of incorporation.

Here indeed is the crux of the matter. Actually it is no secret except to those who suffer from a mild form of hallucination that the motivation for a City form of Government proceeds directly from the desire to secure the kickback in revenue from the State and Mental Hospital.

Guessing at the number of pins in a glass jar won a television set for Mrs. Kenneth D. Conley (above, center) in a contest held by Marlene Shops in Northville. She guessed 4,984 pins, and the jar held 4,983. Above, congratulating her, are Ronald Galperin (left), secretary and treasurer of Marlene Shops, Inc., as Joseph B. Kramer, general manager of the company, looks on. In front of Mr. Kramer is little Susan Conley, and at right are Mr. Conley, a science teacher at the high school, and Mike, the contest for the 17-inch R.C.A. set was held Dec. 10, opening date of the store in Northville, to Jan. 31.

Candles Mailed to Soldiers in Korea

American Legion Commander Conrad Springer shipped 184 pounds of candles to infantrymen in Korea last Saturday, bringing to a close the drive for collection of candles in the village.
A request in last week's Record for postage money for sending the candles brought in $12.10. Ten dollars was given by Mrs. Robert Scott of Seven Mile Rd., a dollar each by Mrs. Donald Nutten of West Seven Mile, and Mrs. Shirley Wagner, of Dodge St., Plymouth. The ten-cent donation was given by Pat and Mike Cayley, who are about tall enough to see over the desk in the Record's lobby.
The Record project began Jan. 15 when Pvt. Francis Kearney, just returned from Korean duty, asked if candles could be obtained to light bunkers of infantrymen in Korea at night.
Veterans Memorial Hall became the temporary storehouse of 891 candles, collected mostly by children at Northville Grade School. Commander Springer then offered to wrap the candles and see that they were mailed.
Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion offered to donate $6.37 in postage when it was determined that was the amount needed to finish the job, and a representative of Redford Township Post 271 wanted to donate two dollars for his post.

Four Boys Given Eagle Scout Rank

Four Northville Boy Scouts were awarded the Eagle Scout Badge, Scouting's highest award, in a ceremony at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday morning.
The new Eagle Scouts are Donald Atwood, James Lapham, James Weston and Lance Moller. Their badges were pinned on them by their mothers.
The new president announced that all boys over 14 interested in becoming charter members of the club should contact Otto Wendt before Feb. 16, the date of the next meeting at the Scout Building at 8 p.m. After that time, membership will be by invitation only, as in the senior club.

Joyce Stark to Join Husband in France

If everything goes well, it will be a wonderful week end for Mr. and Mrs. John Stark.
They are to be reunited in Fontainebleau, near Paris, France, on Sunday or Monday.
John, a private first class with the Army, is stationed there now, having arrived Jan. 30. Joyce got a telegram last Wednesday from her husband, and will fly the Atlantic Saturday, with plans to arrive at Fontainebleau Feb. 15.

Health Studio Moves

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carlson have closed their Carlson Health Studios in Plymouth and will do massage and physiotherapy work on a full time basis at 201 Fairbrook Rd., west of the race track in Northville.

Local Aid Sought to Relieve Disaster In Netherlands

Although shortage of warehouse space has necessitated a request that further gifts of blankets, clothing and other articles for Netherlands Disaster Relief be withheld for the time being, money contributions are still urgently needed, and are being received and transmitted by the National Bank of Detroit.
In the hope of augmenting the flow of needed cash for medical and other supplies, Mrs. Pieter Schipper of Bradner Rd., Northville Township, is sponsoring a sale of baked goods, to be held at the Northville Record office, Main and Center streets, Northville, all day Friday, Feb. 20. Mrs. Schipper's sister, Mrs. Betsy Stoorvogel of Rotterdam, who was a visitor here last year, has written

Boys Form Junior Optimist Club

Seventeen boys between the ages of 14 and 17 have formed a Junior Optimist Club and elected temporary officers under the sponsorship of the Northville Optimist Club.
Temporary officers named by the boys are Jim Hollis, president; Gene Rebitzke, vice-president; Otto Wendt, secretary; Joe Girardin, treasurer, and Douglas Bennett, sergeant-at-arms.

Purpose of the club is basically the same as the senior organization: service to the community and promotion of community projects. The club will hold its own meetings and choose its own projects and programs. Senior Optimists with the same interests as the boys will help when their help is needed.
The new president announced that all boys over 14 interested in becoming charter members of the club should contact Otto Wendt before Feb. 16, the date of the next meeting at the Scout Building at 8 p.m. After that time, membership will be by invitation only, as in the senior club.

Judge O'Hara Is Rotary Speaker

Wayne County Circuit Judge Chester P. O'Hara outlined the circuit court's contribution to democratic government in a talk before the Northville Rotary Club Tuesday noon.
He explained the origin of the pre-trial system in Wayne County Circuit Courts which has spread in popularity to many other courts in the nation. The pre-trial, a meeting at which attorneys, litigants and the judge iron out possible time-consuming argument of legal points, has spread up actual trials, and in many cases, resulted in settlement without trials expensive to the State.

Judge O'Hara pointed out that the number of Circuit Judges was increased to 18 in 1929, and that Wayne County population has doubled since then. Judges still manage to keep their dockets fairly well on schedule, he said, despite the increased load.

Re-Activation of Red Cross Branch to Get Underway

The first step in re-activation of the Northville Branch of the American Red Cross was taken last week when letters were mailed to 31 village organizations urging their presidents to appoint representatives to attend a meeting on Monday, Feb. 16.

Mrs. A. C. Carlson, Northville Branch chairman, said that special speakers from Detroit will be at the meeting to explain the part Northville will play in the area set-up to tie in with a complete disaster program to work closely with civil defense and to cope with natural and man-made disasters.

Petitions Are Filed to Get City Vote

Petitions asking for a vote on incorporating Northville and certain contiguous areas as a city were filed with the Secretary of State at Lansing on Feb. 5 by representatives of the Committee on City Incorporation.

Other nominating petitions for a nine-man charter commission to draw a new city charter if the vote for a city form of government is favorable were filed at the County building this week. Any person desiring to file a petition may obtain one from Attorney Philip R. Ogilvie, but filing deadline is Monday, Feb. 16, at 4 p.m. at the County building.

Since the filing of petitions with the Secretary of State, Township Attorney James E. Littell has been asked by the Northville Township Board to check the validity of signatures on the petitions. Mr. Littell has visited the Secretary of State's office twice to do this for the Township Board.

Northville's moves to become a city pose distinctly new legal problems that have never arisen in Michigan before. This is because the present village is located in two counties. No Michigan village similarly situated has ever become a city. The filing procedure for petitions is different than in instances where a village lies entirely in one county, as are also the requirements for signatures to such petitions.

Trickey Elected to Top Amvets Post

Charles Trickey, Jr.

Election to the top office of Michigan AMVETS at the veteran organization's mid-winter rally last week resulted in an announcement by Charles Trickey, Jr. that he is no longer a candidate for Trustee in the Feb. 16 Novi Township primary election.
The national constitution of the organization does not allow State Commanders to hold elective office, he said.
Mr. Trickey, elected State Senior Vice Commander last July, succeeded Alvin M. Keller, of Mt. Clemens, who resigned as Commander of Michigan AMVETS to become program director of the group in Washington, D. C.

Feb. 27 Last Day for Township Taxes

All Northville Township taxes not paid by the final collection day, Feb. 27, will be assessed a 4 1/2% penalty when paid at the County Building after March 1, said Township Treasurer Roy M. Terrill this week.
Friday, Feb. 27, is the last day Mr. Terrill will be at Depositors State Bank for collection of taxes. He said that about $111,000 of the total roll of $142,000 has been collected as of Feb. 7.

Play Group to Have Rummage Sale

A request for contributions of items for a rummage sale to be conducted in March or April was made this week by the Northville Cooperative Play Group. Anyone wishing to contribute should telephone Mrs. Carl Clendenning at Northville 900-M11.
There is a vacancy now for a child in the 2 1/2 to 5 year age group, said Mrs. Clifton D. Hill, president of the group. The group meets Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 to 11:30 a.m. with Mrs. Mildred Madigan as teacher.

Word Received of Van Hove Death

The many friends of the D. H. Van Hove family, formerly of Northville, were saddened to hear of the death of Mr. Van Hove at the Community Hospital at Riverside, Calif. Feb. 8. The Van Hoves moved to California about three years ago.
He was a member of Northville Lodge 188 F. & A. M. and the Rotary Club.

Mr. Van Hove is survived by his wife, Minnie, a son, Austin, and a daughter, Mrs. Dayton Deal, all of California. Five grandchildren, two brothers, two sisters, and several nieces and nephews also survive.

National Heroes' Birthdays Honored February 12, 22

The two great national leaders whose birthdays we celebrate this month—Lincoln's on the 12th and Washington's on the 22nd—faced essentially the same problems during their careers, although they lived years apart.

Both were leaders of a country torn by internal strife and defended by troops weakened by hunger and disease, and both had difficult decisions on discipline and training to make, according to Colton Storm, assistant director of Colton Storms Library at the University of Michigan.

A military man through and through, Washington was a strict, but fair, disciplinarian who always demanded the facts behind the case. This is easily evident in a Clements Library letter in which the general mentions the court martial of a John Derrick and requests that the case information be forwarded to him.

Washington was not content to have discipline solely in his hands, though, for in February, 1778, he welcomed to our shores Baron Frederick von Steuben, who arrived at Valley Forge with a mission to accomplish. His was to be the job of lending broken spirits, changing lethargy to military precision and developing amateurs into top-notch army men.

Led by officers who had tried to do what they could with learning gleaned from translation of continental military treatises and British books, the American troops up to then had been trained by theory and little practical experience, according to Storm.

But that situation did not exist long after von Steuben arrived. Teaching the finer points of military techniques, he gave the men the well-known Prussian training and drilling and whipped them into a strong and spirited army. True it was small, but so well trained that, with the coming of spring and its new recruits, there would be a hard core on which to base an increasing force of men.

Von Steuben even drew up a Manual for Troops, used as the accepted training text for the United States Army until the founding of West Point in 1802. A copy of this manual is also on display at the Clements Library.

On the other hand, Abraham Lincoln took quite a different attitude toward discipline. Always fair and not one to shirk punishment when needed, Lincoln became known as a lenient disciplinarian who would rarely permit a man to be shot, preferring to discharge him from the army. It was established belief that appeal to the President usually brought pardon from the death sentence.

Thus, different as they were in their execution of discipline, Washington and Lincoln were yet alike in their application of it.

Ford Museum Adds Rare Clock to Its Collection

A rare clock, invented by Theodore Timby, designer of the revolving turret first used on the famous Civil War ironclad ship "Monitor", has been acquired by The Henry Ford Museum.

The unique shelf clock, one of five known to be in existence, will be added to the Museum's collection of 3,600 antique clocks and watches, one of Henry Ford's greatest interests. Time-pieces range in age from the sixteenth century to the present day.

John Erickson, builder of the "Monitor", never gave credit to Timby, who also patented in his day a turbine waterwheel, a barometer, a gun carriage and a coastal defense system in which guns were fired by electrical impulses. Erickson maintained that the principle Timby used predated the nineteenth century and was, therefore, in the public domain.

Timby's Globe Clock, as it was called, was patented in 1863 and was the inventor's sole entry in the clock field. It was manufactured in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., which at the time was a favorite resort for the wealthy. According to experts, the unique Timby clock was offered as a novelty to visitors at the Springs.

A globe attached to the clockworks revolves under a fixed pointer "Illustrating the Diurnal Revolution of the Earth and serving as a GEOGRAPHICAL EDUCATOR for the SCHOOL ROOM and the FAMILY. Ornamental in the Parlor and Useful everywhere," in the words of the manufacturer. The hour is shown on a sector above the globe and the minutes appear on a separate dial inside a glass-in opening at the bottom of the case.

The Museum's collection of clocks and watches contains many examples of the early American clockmaking art, including fine specimens of Willards, Thomas Harland and the Pennsylvania Chippendale case makers.

Dear Sir:

Thirty eight days have passed since the new year began. I believe it should be brought to the attention of the Village of Northville that it's "slip is showing." In other words the festive lights that brightened our holidays and brought joy to all have overstayed their visit.

When are they going to be taken down? But MAINLY—how are they costing? They are almost as pretty as they were when they were in November—but!—who is paying for them?

Don't leave it to "Ike" to cut down the cost of everything. How about a council meeting or something?

Sincerely,
 Jerry Gilmore

Michigan Bell Expands Facilities

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company has reported that it has spent more than $51,000,000 for Company has reported that it has in its facilities in 1952.

In a year highlighted by the installation of its 2,000,000th, the telephone company made rapid strides toward its early objective of 100 per cent dial operation.

In addition to one exchange in Detroit, dial service was inaugurated in 12 communities, including the two new exchanges of Hartland and Cornell. Other conversions to dial operations were at Wyandotte, Charlevoix, Big Beaver, Boyne City, East Jordan, Grand Blanc, Lexington, Oscoda, Akron and Fairgrove.

Conversions which the company has thus far scheduled for 1953 completion include Algonac, Beaverton, Cadillac, Crystal Falls, Fountain, Frossil, Gladwin, Lapeer, Lowell, Midland, Reed City, Sault Ste. Marie, Caledonia and Middleville.

The Detroit conversion was in the city's old Garfield office, the last remaining manual exchange in the city, and its changeover to dial placed Detroit among the few major cities in the nation to have complete dial telephone service.

As a result of the expansion program, 89 per cent of the telephones in the company's territory are now operated by dial compared with less than 80 per cent for the country as a whole, D. A. Sipson, Michigan Bell manager, said.

Mr. Sipson reported that the company spent $15,350 in the Northville exchange. Among the projects cited here were central office and outside cable facilities.

The bulk of Michigan Bell's outlay for 1952 went for new buildings, building additions, central office facilities, and the improvement of its existing plant facilities.

The company reported expenditures of $4,000,000 on defense projects since the start of the Korean war. They included facilities for military establishments as well as those serving expanding industries in the state. The newly developed "Bell and Lights" air raid warning system has been made available by Michigan Bell. Several Michigan cities have installed the network, which operates through telephone facilities.

Now a lot of people must read Time Magazine in these parts, because so many eager characters have come around demanding to see the ever so beautiful Studebaker for '53 this past week. Seems that the magazine carried quite an article about the car and the company that makes it, which we certainly recommend as first class reading and hope that the Time company recognizes this unprecedented plug by awarding us a life's subscription. (That reminds us, Life Magazine had a Studebaker story also.) The reason so many people come around looking for the '53 Studebaker is that Time makes a slight mistake by saying the car will be on display this week, and how we wish it were. But don't go away, it will be here very shortly and you'll be ever so glad you waited . . . note to Time and Life: our mailing address is at the bottom of the column.

Well, like the guy says, it's no crime to be broke, just a little inconvenient along about income tax time. We just tossed in that remark to ask you a question: what do you want in this column? We've been writing it for over three and a half years during which we received comments both good and bad, but we'd like a majority opinion. We try to make this thing funny (at times), clean (always), and do a bit of selling. Like the guy on TV says, "let's face it, these are the jokes," and how we bust our noggin each week searching for something we hope will be new to you. Well, let's go, drop us a line. If you like the column, tell us what; if you don't like it, tell us why; if you'd like it changed, tell us how. The address on the bottom will work for you to send with a new administration, the post office would like a little new business. Try it on us!

Speaking of TV, as we just did (barely), a fellow in the shop is of the opinion that many a guy on the ether today would be much better under it!

The weather has been having its ups and downs and you've no doubt noticed. We suspect that the motor of your car has been acting much the same way. Especially for those of you who haven't been around since early last fall. Why not finish the winter in driving ease and comfort by having our expert mechanics give the car a thorough check-up. We rather suspect it's about time for a lubrication and an oil change too.

That's that, but a young fellow we know observed that experience is sometimes mistaken for the knowing how to do a lot of things you shouldn't.

BROWNIE TROOP NO. 14

Thanks to Mr. Ivan Ely, our Brownie Troop spent a wonderful afternoon at the Shrine Circus. We all left school at 1 p.m. Thursday and were in our seats in plenty of time for the opening parade. We couldn't decide if we liked the animals, clowns, or trapeze girls best, but we all had popcorn, peanuts and ice cream. Then, one the way out, Mr. Ely bought us each a balloon. Such a happy day!

CHERRY TREES

Oriental flowering cherry trees are no longer imported because of the danger of bringing in disease which might harm American stone fruits. However, the original and subsequent importations have provided a source of beautiful trees which may be found flowering throughout the United States. In the same spirit that prompted Tokyo's gift 40 years ago, Washington has just sent 55 cuttings to Japan from the 11 trees still living of the original Tidal Basin planting.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
The realization that Soul is immortal, destroys the fear of death. The Lesson-Sermon under this subject will be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, Feb. 15.
The Golden Text is from Psalms (130:6): "My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning."
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Isa. 55:6): "Seek ye the Lord while he may be found, call ye upon him while he is near."
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "When the understanding changes the standpoints of life and intelligence from a material to a spiritual basis, we shall gain the reality of Life, the control of Soul over sense, and we shall perceive Christianity, or Truth, in its divine Principle." Esch-Sutton Vows Pledged In Candlelight Ceremony

A gown of slipper satin and Chantilly lace was chosen by Betty Jane Esch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reynold Esch, when she became the bride of Robert J. Sutton in ceremonies Saturday, Jan. 31. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John Sutton of Dearborn and the late John Sutton.

The nuptials were solemnized by the Reverend Carl Schultz in an eight o'clock candlelight ceremony at the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church of Farmington.

Proceeding the rites and during the marriage service, organ music was presented by Mrs. Addington of Farmington, with Mrs. Harry Esch singing "Because", "O Promise Me" and "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her father, Betty wore a gown of lustrous ice-white satin styled with a molded bodice of all-over Chantilly lace. Lace scalloped panels of the illusion yoke to form a drop shoulder effect and the long lace sleeves tapered to points over the wrists.

The skirt, moderately straight in front, was accented by flowing scalloped panels of lace dotted with rhinestones, and in the back, fell full from a nipped in waist to a sweeping cathedral train. A cathedral veil of fine illusion edged in matching Chantilly lace, cascaded from a halo of nylon rusching crested with seed pearls, orange blossoms and rhinestones. She carried a crescent bouquet of orange blossoms, stephanotis and lemon leaves centered by white shattered carnations and Fleur D'Amour. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Gowned in delphinium blue satin, Mrs. Aaron Lewis, sister of the bridegroom, was honor attendant. Her illusion neckline was outlined by a double fold of the satin bodice which gave an off-the-shoulder effect and the bouffant skirt fell over a hoop. A black velvet headband secured a pearl tiara and she wore matching gauntlets. Daffodils, shattered yellow carnations and acacia centered with blue iris formed her bridesmaid bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Jeane Brockmiller of Millford and Mrs. Jerome Kulick of Lincoln Park. Sharon Lewis was junior bridesmaid and flower girl was little Gail Lewis.

The bridesmaids were gowned in colonial frocks of gold, shrimp and moss green satin, yellow and lavender tulle, respectively. Tiny satin Peter Pan collars topped the illusion necklines of the bridesmaids' gowns which were fashioned with fitted bodices and brief puffed sleeves. Three tiered panniers accented the full, colonial type skirts, and they wore white wrist length gloves and pearl headbands wrapped in pearls. The attendants carried crescent bouquets similar to that of the maid of honor's, and the flower girl held her flowers in a diminutive lavender velvet purse. Adrian Farris of Dearborn was best man, and seating the guests were Aaron Lewis of Dearborn.

Geraci's Return From Mexican Holiday Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Geraci of Clement Rd. returned Sunday from a three weeks' trip which took them through eight states and Mexico.

While staying at Acapulco, Mr. Geraci went deep sea fishing, landing a seven foot, four-inch sailfish.

The Geraci's also visited Hacienda Vista Hermosa, near Mexico City; Xochimilco Gardens, south of Mexico City; the Palace Arena where they attended a bull fight, and Texcoco, commonly known as Little Spain.

Building in Texcoco, is restricted and all new structures must be built to conform with the architecture of the Fifteenth Century, to preserve the quaint aspect of the city, says Mrs. Geraci.

Miss Peeke Married in Home Ceremony

Wearing an eggshell taffeta gown, Miss Eleanor Peeke became the bride of Keith Lewis Burton, son of Mrs. Ned VanValkenburg of Kalamazoo and Orlando, Fla. and the late N. E. Burton.

The Reverend William Malcolm performed the double ring ceremony at 2:30 Friday, Feb. 6 in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Peeke of Three Rivers, Mich. before forty-five guests.

The waltz length frock chosen by Miss Peeke featured a portrait neckline appliqued with matching lace. With this she wore a long sleeved tuxedo jacket and a matching cloche brocaded in gold and she carried a white orchid corsage.

As matron of honor, Mrs. E. Paul Scott of Bay City, wore a waltz length gown of champagne taffeta faille and a powder blue profile hat with matching blue slippers. Her flowers were pink camillas.

Donald G. Stevenson of Kalamazoo, college friend of the bridegroom, served as best man and Paul Scott of Bay City seated the guests.

Marriage vows were spoken before a picture window flanked by candelabra and white bookcases filled with greens. Bouquets of white calla lilies, snapdragons and gladioli filled the window and bouquets of pink azaleas were used throughout the room.

Traditional wedding music was presented on the grand piano by Mary Elizabeth Anders of Berea College, Ky.

The bride's mother wore a Christian Dior suit of antique blue silk taffeta and a corsage of pink roses.

Following a reception at the home, Mr. and Mrs. Burton left for Chicago for a brief honeymoon. The bride's travel costume was a light blue textured wool suit with black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Three Rivers High School and the Chicago Musical College. Her husband was graduated from Kalamazoo Central High School and Michigan State College. Prior to discharge two weeks ago, Mr. Burton served with the 8th Army Military Band in Korea.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Burton are on the faculty of the Northville Public Schools.

Kitchen Shower Fetes Constance VanBonn

Constance VanBonn of South Lyon, who became the bride of James Mundinger Saturday, Feb. 7, was guest of honor at a kitchen shower Tuesday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Arthur Lyke on South Rogers St.

Twenty guests who were present for the occasion enjoyed an evening of games and refreshments. An arrangement of spring flowers centered the buffet table and a yellow umbrella was suspended over the table with streamers leading to the gifts. The hostess chose her color scheme of yellow, green and pink from the shades of the frocks of Connie's bridal attendants.

Birthday Parties Head Week's Social Activities Program

Perhaps no occasion is quite so special to a child as a birthday party. And, happily enough for Northville boys and girls, this week saw birthday festivities in a stellar role in the social activities program.

Mrs. George Muller and her daughter, Christine, of Dunlap St., served a four candle cake in honor of her son, Philippe, Monday afternoon. Enjoying the party games were Mary Lou Langtry, Linda Steencken, Susan and Laura Page, Russell Ciarke, John and Mimi McLaughlin and Daniel Wortman.

When Mrs. George Alexander

enjoyed on the occasion of her son's tenth birthday last Saturday, nine of John's boy friends enjoyed games and refreshments at his home on Spring Dr., and later, a movie at the local theatre. Guests were Rickie and Roger Atchinson, Tucker Williams, John Archer, Karl Karg, Robby Lyka, Steve Willis, David Stillson and Charles Woodruff. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Orson Atchinson.

John McLaughlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McLaughlin, celebrated his fourth birthday with a party at his home on Dunlap

St. Thursday afternoon. His guest list included Philippe Muller, Roxanne Atchinson, Susan and Laura Page, Cindy Kay, Billy Wilcox and his older sister, Mimi. Also giving him birthday wishes were friends from Birmingham. Sharon Wick celebrated her eleventh birthday Wednesday, Feb. 4 by inviting Janet and Clarice Wick, JoAnne Malik, Marjorie Baker and Carla Sarver to a party at her home on West Seven Mile Rd. In the evening, her mother, Mrs. Doris Wick, entertained at a dinner party in her honor.

Scouts Plan Third National Jamboree

The Boy Scouts of America, now observing its 43rd birthday during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7 to 13, is planning its Third National Jamboree for this summer as part of its Three Year Program known as "Forward on Liberty's Team".

It will be a "once-in-a-lifetime" experience for 50,000 Boy Scouts, Explorers and Scout Leaders of all races and creeds who will live in a democratic tent city that will rise on a real western ranch near the Pacific Ocean.

The owners of Irvine Ranch in the Newport Harbor area in Southern California, about forty miles southeast of Los Angeles, have loaned a 3,000-acre site to the Boy Scouts of America. Here will spring up, literally overnight, a city of 30,000 tents, with its own electricity, water supply, sanitation, telephone system, food supply, doctors, fire protection; in fact, all essentials found in a community of this size.

Boys from all walks of life, of all races and creeds will live together, including about 200 Scouts from other countries around the world. Here in the youthful city they will exchange skills, home-town products and learn about the customs and traditions of many sections of the nation.

There will be pageants and ceremonies, campfires and music, demonstrations of campcraft and Scoutcraft, friendship-making and the opportunity of meeting some of America's outstanding citizens.

Dr. Arthur A. Schuck, Chief Scout executive, sees the Jamboree as a "top experience in the life of a boy." Any Scout or Explorer who wants to attend will undoubtedly use all his Scout ingenuity to make the trip possible.

Brighton Reserves Easy for Colts

After a slow start, the Colts, Northville's basketball reserve team, pulled away fast to a 46 to 22 rout of Brighton's reserves last Friday night on the Northville court.

Darwin Teszka's 24-point effort was the best performance of the night as the tall center pushed in ten field goals and four free throws.

Six other teammates shared in the scoring as just about everyone on the team got into the game sooner or later.

Coach Stan Johnston's squad was tied 7-7 with Brighton at the first quarter mark, but had more than doubled the score on the Bulldog reserves by half-time, 26 to 12.

Northville Cagers Rise Up, Smack Down First-Place Brighton, 50 to 46

A fired-up Northville basketball quintet knocked Brighton High School out of the Wayne-Oakland County League Friday night, downing the Bulldogs 50 to 46 on the Northville court.

The Mustang victory, along with a Milford win over Holly the same night, pushed Milford, Northville and Brighton into a three-way tie for first place with 5-2 records.

Glenn Howarth, rangy Northville center, pumped in 26 points in leading the Mustangs to the important victory. Twenty of his points came in the first half as the Mustangs pulled away to an 11-point lead.

Brighton's highly-touted Tom Evenson got 19 points despite a defense blanket spread on him in the first half and four first-half fouls which forced him into cautious play in the second two quarters. He was held to eight points before the intermission, but got 11 from long range in the second half.

Howarth's sharp-shooting opened up the gap in the early minutes of the game as he popped in three field goals from the side as Ed Nash, Gerry Graham and Lamar Nally also hit to out-distance the Bulldogs.

With two minutes left in the third quarter, Brighton switched from man-to-man guarding to a zone defense in an effort to halt Northville scoring.

Coach Dick Kay, knowing the effectiveness of a zone defense on a court as small as Northville's, countered the move by ordering the Northville quintet to hold the ball. With a lead, the Mustangs weren't inclined to shoot from long range with probability of losing the ball on rebounds. The Brighton coach abandoned the zone in the last quarter, sending his team out to play a man-to-man defense again.

Northville led all the way in the contest with five to 11-point margins, but Brighton threatened to break through at any time, hitting on a high percentage of long shots.

The Wayne-Oakland County league basketball race is all knotted up again with three teams—Northville, Brighton and Milford—in a triple-tie for first place.

Brighton had been on top of the heap for one week with only one loss chalked against the team, but Northville's victory over the Bulldogs Friday night plummeted them into the same ratings held by Northville and Milford—five wins and two losses.

Milford stayed even Friday night by downing Holly, and Clarenceville knocked Clarkston out of title contention—apparently, at least—by winning the same night.

How the hotly-contested race for the league crown will end is anybody's guess. The best estimate is that the team which wins its remaining games will at least share the title. Northville must face Holly, Clarenceville and Clarkston, all temporarily out of the race, but all capable of defeating the Mustangs.

The big lever in the title chase is the match between Brighton and Milford, last on the schedule. Northville could share the crown with whichever team wins, provided that the Mustangs keep winning, and the Brighton-Milford victor wins the rest of the way.

Losses in the right places could push any of the three teams into undisputed championship of the league.

My aim is good but someone keeps changing the target.

40 DETROIT WOMEN TELL THEIR PERSONAL BELIEFS

ADRIAN FULLER
Detroit Free Press Religious Editor

FORTY DETROIT WOMEN of all faiths, have written for The Detroit Free Press their own unrevised, uncensored convictions of and testimony to the power of religion in their daily lives. This series, identical to last year's when 39 Detroit men told their own personal beliefs, brings together in a common cause, women in all walks of life, Catholics, Jews and Protestants. In these articles you will see how your own neighbors have discovered how their religion helps them to build peace, confidence, inspiration. movement and convenience to the tax payers is just so much window dressing intended to divert attention from the main issues. How else can one explain the absurdity of a city boundary line running along one side of a main thoroughfare — the 7-Mile Road, so as to include the State Hospital.

Surely such an amateurish approach to the problems of City planning raise a serious question as to the fitness of the study group to serve in the capacity of City planners.

The proponents of the City plan are equally vague in how they expect to distribute the thousands of dollars which they expect to exact from the Township Treasury and the State, except that one of the committee members was heard to say he expects, "To pave the streets of Northville with gold."

We cannot believe that other citizens of the State of Michigan or members of the Legislature who are being called upon to find $40 million dollars to avert bankruptcy, will appreciate the diversion of their funds to make a Roman Holiday in Northville. We cannot believe that such a milking operation can long continue without drying up the source.

We do not believe any public spirited citizen who puts his State and Country above his own self interest can be insensible to the financial dilemma of his State. Nowhere has this been better expressed than in the series of Articles on State finances which appeared in early January in the Detroit News on the Tax Muddle. On January 13th, it said in part, "The State is in the red because so much of what it takes in is dedicated according to law and Constitutional Amendment to various units of local Government". And on January 15th, it said in part, "The State Government is insolvent while collecting revenues twice what it spends. Many of its expenditures are imbedded beyond reach of economical management by the allocation of particular taxes to particular purposes. But the great bulk of its revenues are earmarked for diversion to local self governments, where the flow of free cash undermines local self reliance and encourages waste. The waste may be taken for granted. An official will ordinarily use care with funds he must get from and justify to his local tax payers. He will not be quite so careful with money that falls like manna from Lancing and Washington and really need not be justified in its expenditures to anybody." End of quote.

tarly toward self sufficiency in Government, action will be taken for them in increased state taxes of every form.

In these days when the hand of Government lays heavy on every tax payer, the Township Government continues to provide its essential services with the minimum interference and regulation. It enjoys the distinction unique among Governments of having no funded debt, and having moreover, a comfortable surplus. The Northville Improvement Association prefers, therefore, to see the Township adjust its finances to its present scale of income and expansion and will vigorously oppose any encroachments upon it.

Road to Riches

The Country of Israel is building a 48 mile road between Beersheba and Sodum, located on the Dead Sea. This new $4,500,000 highway will give access to the rich Dead Sea phosphate mines, isolated since partitioning of Palestine in 1948. This commercial fertilizer will be used to revitalize the depleted soil of Judea. This is but one miracle in the rebirth of a nation which for 2,400 years did not exist. Latest figures show by the end of 1953 there will be 1,800,000 Jews back in Palestine. The reason for calling your attention to this is to show the rebuilding of the Jewish nation is prophesied in the Bible. A few years ago, these prophecies seemed impossible. Few people believed that a land so desolate would again be inhabited. But now if you will read more of Israel's future learn Ezekiel 38-39, which tells of the coming invasion of Palestine by Russia as prophesied by the Jewish Prophet Ezekiel some 2,540 years ago. It is apparent that the state is now being set for the final stages of human history. My friend, if you are not a Christian, this ought to make you stop to think! A Book so right about prophecy is worth investigation about the matters of your personal salvation.

Tryouts Held in Search for Talent

by Catharine Rambeau

Tryouts for the annual League Talent show were held last week in the high school auditorium. Of the students participating, five will be chosen to be in the school Talent Show, and of these, three will take part in the League show.

Students trying out were Jenny Laney, who sang and played her own composition, "Hot Ukelele". A trio, composed of Julie Hammond, piano; Guy Brandt, drums, and Jim Hollis on guitar, played "Cold, Cold Heart". A duet with Marlene Weiss playing the clarinet and Arlene Jerome on piano played "Flight of the Bumblebee" and two tap-dancers, Donna Frisbee and Racina Bailey, performed.

Other contestants were pianists Ursula Hamacher and Bill Bake; accordionist Glenn Schultz; Janice Morgan, who sang "Why Don't You Believe Me", and a take-off on old-time vaudeville by Jackie Keys, Arlene Nelson, Julie Hammond, Guy Brandt and Jim Hollis. The actual talent show will be held later on this month.

Air Force Band Plays in Assembly

by Larry Gots

Northville High School students felt fortunate to have the Army Air Force Band from Selfridge Field entertain them Friday, Feb. 6, with an hour-long program of music.

Marches, such as "Stars and Stripes Forever", were played, along with classical and popular music by the 42-piece band. A few of the men who have sung together since their high school days sang some very entertaining songs, one of which, "Sophomore Philosophy", was dedicated to Northville's sophomores.

An unusually fine trumpet trio played two fast and exciting numbers and a woodwind quartet provided some interesting and unusual music. "Night Beat", a band number, was popular with students.

After the assembly, the Air Force Band performed with the school band for an hour, during which the clarinet soloist gave good advice to Northville's clarinet players.

Student reaction to the assembly was very favorable. The usual comment was, "I could have listened to that music all day."

School Has Own News Network

by Carolyn Miller

Every Thursday morning, the students of N.H.S. sit back and relax for 15 minutes while a summary of the week's news is delivered to them by the first or second hour speech class. The news, written and delivered by the students, consists of sports, class and club news, senior spotlights, and other current news of interest to the student body.

The broadcast originates in "Studio X" which was recently set up in Miss Panattoni's room. These broadcasts have a multiple purpose. First, they present the weekly news to the students; second, they give the speech classes experience in gathering and editing news; third, they give the speech classes experience in behind-the-scene preparations and actual presentations of radio programs. These broadcasts are a definite educational asset to the school.

Child war victims in Korea, Finland, France, Greece, Austria, Germany, Italy and Lebanon will be overseas beneficiaries. In America, clothing is distributed in a carefully planned self-help program in needy rural areas of eight Southern states in which the Federation operates its school sponsorship program.

Many children in the American areas served some from families with cash incomes of less than $400 a year. If it were not for Save-The Children Bundle Week clothing collections, many of these children would not be able to attend school in bad weather. Clothing is distributed to needy families on Indian reservations and to children both in and out of school. Clothing in Korea will be distributed through the Unified Command.

Superintendent Amerman said, "Northville Public Schools will do their share in meeting the state quota", adding, "we are happy to take part in this humanitarian cause which serves not only the child victims of war abroad but helps so many needy children in our own country. Leaflets will be given to all children in the school system to take home during the week, stating the purpose of the drive and asking the cooperation of parents."

'Book Worms' Are of Active Variety

by Nancy Dewsbury

Those ambitious members of the Northville High School Library Club, better known as the "Book Worms", are once more busy with their annual activities. Last Friday, Feb. 6, they sponsored a dance in the High School gym called the "Book Worm Crawl". All the proceeds from this dance will go towards new books, club pins, and other badly needed equipment for the comforts of the students. The girls haven't stopped with just the dance but are planning a Valentine tea for the faculty on Wednesday, Feb. 11.

We other students of Northville High would like to express our sincere thanks to the Library Club girls for their help in making the library more pleasant and useful for the rest of us.

IMPORTANT IN THE LIFE OF A BOY

The two Grand Rapids telephone men demonstrating signaling here are typical of hundreds of telephone employees throughout Michigan Bell who give generously of their time and their talents working with Boy Scouts.

Several of these telephone men, including three in Grand Rapids, have been honored with the national Boy Scouts' Silver Beaver Award for "distinguished service to boyhood." Fellow townsmen recommended the awards.

Telephone scouts work with boys in countless ways—on camping trips, on committees, teaching first aid and artificial respiration, and on many community projects. Why do they do it? One man explained:

"A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, or what sort of house I lived in. But the world may be different because I was important in the life of a boy."

As good citizens and good neighbors, these telephone folks are trying to make their community a better place in which to live. This same spirit of service is reflected in the efficient, friendly and courteous telephone service they bring you every day.

It's people who make telephone service good

Michigan Mirror:

State Tinkers With One of Favorite Hobbies

By GENE ALLEMAN

The weight of a financial crisis and the more than normal press of business hasn't deterred the legislature from one of its favorite hobbies—tinkering with Michigan's 140 million dollar a year liquor industry.

The liquor control commission set-up—which is referred to by its enemies as the state's monopolistic whiskey business—is complicated, to be sure, but probably not so complex that it couldn't do with a little less experimenting.

George Burke, Jr., chairman of the three-man commission since 1950, has been recognized by many as a bright young man quite capable of handling the many-faceted liquor business.

He won a skirmish with the Republicans last year over the inventories. The G.O.P. decided that Gov. Williams was juggling the liquor inventory to suit his political purposes.

By that they meant that if he wanted to show how he piled up money in the general fund he merely cut down the inventory. Or, vice-versa, he could show good figures if necessary that Republicans had muffed the ball by ordering the inventory increased and draining off excess money.

Such charges never were proved—or even very seriously considered by most, but the G.O.P.

tried to boost through a bill which would put a ceiling on the inventory.

But they couldn't manage it. And so they went to Burke and asked in a gentlemanly manner to keep the liquor stock down to $12 million. And Mr. Burke allowed as how he would try. But then the legislature passed a bill requiring all specially designated dealers to carry a given amount of stock which required Burke to jump his inventory again.

He finally got the legislature to allow him to carry up to $15 million. Look as they might, the inquiring legislators could find nothing to criticize Mr. Burke for. In the last two months liquor sales in Michigan have gone up about 25 percent. The legislature has asked Burke to keep his inventory at from $17 to $18 million, please.

The legislature now is planning to build a $2 million warehouse in Detroit—although this doesn't exactly come under the heading of "tinkering".

This warehouse would replace three wholesale storage places and one retail warehouse, all of which now are being rented. Burke figures the state can save $200,000 in rentals and another $100,000 in savings on transportation and the normal drop in expenses for a more unified command.

Burke also has been holding off on election of a site for the building—power given him by the senate liquor controls committee—until they investigate the possibility of putting up a building on some obscure corner of the state fairgrounds in Detroit. This, if found possible, would save another $100,000.

There is also a proposal in the mill to expand the liquor control commission from a three-man to a five-man group and eliminate the present two hearing examiners. Present complaint is that after the examiners hear a case, the licensee immediately appeals to the commission and the commissioners must hear it anyway. Licensees would prefer a plan where they would have their hearings conducted by members of the commission.

It would at least save a lot of time on appeals.

Now Senator Blondy has introduced a resolution asking that no new liquor licensees be issued until a replacement for Commissioner Kozaren is appointed and approved. Says it would "just open the door to blackmail."

Incidentally, there are 400 SDD licenses open in the state. Also, there are 460 applicants.

But the issuance of the liquor take-out permits won't be as simple as just weeding out 60 applicants. The legislature will get into the act.

With the liquor control commission they always do.
