City vs. Village Arguments

For City

by Philip R. Ogilvie

Recent articles on this question of city incorporation have dealt with the differences between village and city forms of government and have pointed out the advantages of the latter system. There have also been articles and pamphlets published which have outlined some so-called disadvantages arising out of the incorporation as a city. It is with these claims that I wish to deal today.

Will Not Bankrupt Township

First, there is the claim that the incorporation of the proposed area as a city would tend to bankrupt the township. THIS IS NOT SO, as can be shown by an examination of the present sources of the township's revenues. Northville Township, in common with all other townships in the State of Michigan, obtains very little of its operating revenue by direct taxation of its citizens. This is because the state rebates a large portion of the state sales and intangible taxes which it collects to the local governmental units. As a matter of fact, many of the out-state townships are completely free of local taxes. In the case of Northville Township, over 90% of its operating revenue comes from such rebates from the state, which are made on a capita basis. Only 100 to 150 township inhabitants will be brought into the city's boundaries if incorporation is approved. On the basis of last year's rebates, this would cost Northville Township only about $1,100 per year, or less than 3% of present rebates from the state.

That this $1,100 diversion of sales and intangible tax rebates would not "break" the township was shown by last week's articles pointing out that Northville had a surplus of $10,776 for the fiscal year ended March 18, 1952.

Sharing of Township Assets

Second, as to the so-called "seizure" by the city of 4/5ths of the assets of the township, it need only be pointed out that this is a far cry from being a seizure: it is only a sharing or division of the township assets between the new city and the township in direct proportion to the assessed valuation of the property lying within each unit. Since between two-thirds and four-fifths of the assessed valuation of the entire township lies within the proposed city limits, and since levies are based on assessed valuation, it seems only fair that when a portion of the township withdraws from same that it should be entitled to share in the assets in the same proportion that taxes are levied and IN THE SAME PROPORTION THAT IT WOULD HAVE TO ASSUME of the township's debt, if any. This division of assets is laid out by statute and applies in every instance where action such as is here proposed takes place.

Revenue from State Hospital

Third, it is claimed that some $35,000 is to be diverted from Northville Township by reason of inclusion of the new State Hospital in the proposed city limits. It is difficult to see how you can divert something from the Township which it has never had. It is true that the patients of the hospital are considered to be citizens of the governmental unit wherein the hospital lies, for the purpose of the tax diversion, but to date the Township has never received any funds by reason of the existence of the hospital since it just lately came into being. There has been no complaint by the opponents of incorporation about including the "Gerald Ave. Subdivision" in the new City. This area is an admitted liability, but was included because it was felt that if it were brought into the city conditions in the area could be more easily improved. The additional revenue that ultimately will be received through the inclusion of the State Hospital will go a long way toward defraying the cost of said improvements.

Incorporation Is Under State Law

Fourth, it is claimed that this incorporation plan is unjust and un-American since the township voters do not get to vote on whether

Against City

To the Editor:

In the Northville Record of February 12 there appeared an article under the name of Dr. Snow, listing the so called advantages of City Government and attempting to prove that by reason of its rebate from the sales and intangible tax, the Township could lose 4/5 of its cash assets; $35,000 of its annual revenue, and a substantial part of its taxable property and tax-paying citizens and still remain in liquid condition.

Space limitations do not permit publication this week of an excellently written letter from Mrs. Ruth M. Chase. Her letter will be printed next week.

We propose to show the fallacies behind this kind of thinking. This list of so called advantages, such as, "dealing with but one group of officials instead of two; the eliminating of duplicating expense resulting in an increase in efficiency, etc." may look pretty good on paper until you analyze it. But just how much would the savings in dollars and cents amount to?

Whether such an arrangement would result in more efficient government or less is a point we are not inclined to argue. Like all such sweeping statements unaccompanied by proof, it would appear that the savings to the taxpayer in the final analysis would be determined by the amount of the budget and the size and extent of the city payroll.

If, for instance, the City merely added to its payroll employees equal in number to those it would replace on the Township Board, obviously there would be no savings to the taxpayers.

they they want the proposed area to form a city and thus withdraw from the township, and also because the township would have no representation on the city council. The statute under which this incorporation is being done clearly states that only those within the area proposed to be incorporated shall vote on whether or not a city shall be formed. This statute was duly passed by our legislature and the group seeking to form this city must, of course, follow the statute. Any changes made with respect to this matter must be made through the legislature. As to the township not having representation on the city council, since both the township and city are primary governmental units, independent of each other, it is clearly not logical to expect that one should continue to have jurisdiction over the other. Even under the village set-up, the township did not have representation on the village council.

Race Track Revenue

Fifth, as to the charge that the sole motivation for the formation of a city is the fact that by so doing the city can "milk" the State treasury of thousands of dollars, via sharing in the race track tax revenues, I feel that previous articles outlining the many advantages to be gained through incorporation are an effective answer. As a matter of fact, there is considerably more justification for a local governmental unit sharing in taxes raised through the operation of an enterprise within its boundaries than there is in the sharing of all governmental units in the sales and intangible taxes. I feel that the community of Northville is entitled to a greater share of the taxes raised through the operation of the race track here than some community in the Upper Peninsula, yet that is not the case under the present set-up. It ill behooves any group, which is presently enjoying a very low tax rate by reason of its receiving money from the State, without regard to need or justification, to complain that the City of Northville should receive a portion of the tax monies raised within its boundaries.

I have purposely refrained from commenting on charges of self-interest, which have been so freely made by opponents of incorporation since such charges (Continued on Back Page)

Most any city of any pretensions to size, would be more likely to have more department heads than the number of officials on the Township Board. A comparison of the combined tax rate of Northville Township and Village as against the single tax rate of half a dozen representative cities in the United States, beginning with Detroit, might make interesting reading. Or to put it another way, wouldn't two small taxes be better than one big one?

However, from the standpoint of the Township, efficiency in Government is not the issue.

The issue is whether the political institutions which have served the Northville community for many years are to be radically altered or eliminated with the consent, approval, and at the direct instigation of the people themselves, or by the vested interest without their consent.

Until very recent times, political forms of government were initiated by the people themselves to meet their specific needs. Of these, the most powerful, inspiring, and representative of all, is the Government of the United States. Nowhere does history tell us that our nation was a concept of efficiency experts. On the contrary, it was "conceived in liberty," and so highly do people esteem liberty of choice, they are willing to tolerate inefficiency in government in order that they may remain politically free.

The resentment in the Township over the signing of petitions by those who themselves are not affected or bound, but which would affect or bind others is odious because it would deny to the people, in the affected area, the freedom of choice. We are also informed it is illegal. Indeed, if a city is such a fine thing, Dr. Snow, why are you and your committee so determined to prevent the people in the affected area from voting on it? Can it be that you fear the outcome?

The Snow article gives an incomplete picture of Northville Township finances by omitting some of the most pertinent facts. For example, no mention is made of $3,000 spent on welfare by the Township. It is interesting to note, by the way, all these welfare cases came from the Village. It is true, of course, that the Township, like the village, gets a rebate on Sales and Intangible Tax. Roy Terrill, Township Treasurer, recently predicted that if the Township were to lose its rebate from the Sales and Intangible Tax, it would then have no choice but to petition to be taken into either Northville or Plymouth. There would then exist a situation exactly analogous to the situation with the schools. The Township school districts being unable to provide adequate facilities, had no choice but to vote to go into the Northville District.

If these fears appear groundless, I would refer you to a news dispatch from Lansing under the date line of February 12. The Detroit News, which refers to the revamping of the tax structure and consideration to a repeal of the Sales and Intangible Tax and substitution of a State Income Tax.

Here then is added proof of the precarious condition in which the Township might be placed by the Legislature. The confiscation of its assets and the diversion of its revenue by the City, would then be the final straw. If by its acts the City would precipitate the Township into bankruptcy, it might well have quite the opposite effect the City planners had in mind. A bankrupt and insolvent Township would then be in the position of having no choice but to petition for admission into the City and it is hard to see how Northville could refuse to accept it. But even though the Committee members might still have visions of "paving the streets of Northville with gold," the rest of the Township newly forced into a City might be expected to be more modest in its demands. As City taxpayers in the outlying districts, all they would probably require would be miles of concrete, miles of sewers and water mains and municipal services of every kind. And who would pay for all this?

Bake Sale Friday to Aid in Netherlands Disaster

Tomorrow - Friday - Northville takes its turn at plugging the dikes.

The entire cash proceeds of a bake sale to be held at the Record office throughout the day will be turned over to the Netherlands Disaster Relief to alleviate the suffering in Holland, where more than 1,300 persons are dead and millions in property lost, in the wake of storms which breached the dikes and flooded vast areas of land.

Mrs. Pieter Schipper of Northville Township, in charge of the relief work in Northville and Plymouth, expects a generous response to the appeal, not only for contributions of foodstuffs to be sold, but for buyers of the items contributed. The list of acceptable items, Mrs. Schipper said, is not limited to breads and pastries, but may include baked beans, candies of various kinds, and almost anything else not requiring refrigeration.

Persons desiring to contribute but unable to deliver their offerings may arrange for pickup, by phoning Mrs. Schipper at Plymouth 628-R.

In a letter received this week, Mrs. Schipper's sister Mrs. Betsy Stoorvogel voiced her countrymen's gratitude for the all-out help received from peoples of all nationalities. Mrs. Stoorvogel described one method of repairing breaches in the dikes. Temporary bridges are being thrown across such gaps, she said, after which large blocks of basalt are flown in and dropped on and around the bridges. When a sufficient quantity has been accumulated, the bridges are dynamited, to make them collapse and settle into the water with their contents, forming a solid barrier against the sea.

Already, Mrs. Stoorvogel said, pumping operations have been started in some sections. But it will be many months before the effects of salt water submersion can be removed from the soil, making it useful again.

Service to Mark Church Sanctuary 3rd Anniversary

Rev. H. R. Wacker

Guest speaker at the St. Paul's Lutheran Church service at 10 a.m. Sunday, Feb. 22, will be the Rev. H. R. Wacker, pastor of the Covenant Lutheran Church of Detroit.

The service will mark the third anniversary of dedication of the new sanctuary. The choir of the Redeemer Lutheran Church of Detroit will sing at the 7:30 p.m. service at the church. The choir is directed by Clarence Luchman, of Northville. Rev. Wacker will speak at the morning service only.

Dog Training Class Planned for March

A dog training class, under the sponsorship of the Northville Recreation Committee and the Southern Michigan Dog Obedience Training Club, is now in the planning stage, to begin the first week in March, if enough interest is shown.

Registration may be made by mailing a card to "Recreation, Village Hall, Northville," containing name, address, telephone number and the breed or type of dog to be entered in the class.

Men's Club to Hear Talk on Pyramids

Pieter W. Schipper of Bradner Rd. will speak on "The Pyramids, a Lesson of History", at the monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Men's Club on Monday, Feb. 23. The pyramids have been his hobby for many years.

Mr. Schipper, a native of the Netherlands, served as an engineer in Australia before moving to the Detroit area. A question and answer period will follow the talk.

Presiding in the absence of William B. Crump will be Vice-President Robert E. Sechrest. Reservations for the supper meeting should be made with the secretary, Paul H. Steenken, or the treasurer, John W. Blackburn.

Coordinating Council to Meet Thursday

The Coordinating Council will meet Thursday, Feb. 19, at the Village Hall at 8 p.m.

All members are asked to be present at this important meeting, which will be devoted to discussion of the pros and cons of the proposed Northville community building.

Girl Scouts Benefit from Card Party Thursday Night

The fourth annual Girl Scout benefit card party will be given tonight, Thursday, in an effort to raise funds for the support of the activities program of the Northville council. The benefit, beginning at 8 p.m., will be held at the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall on Plymouth Ave.

Tables of bridge, canasta and pinocle may be arranged and more than 50 door and table prizes have been donated by Northville merchants.

Proceeds of the party defray expenses of the Girl Scout Council for the coming year's activities. Girl Scout and Brownie troops are given skilled leadership as a result of the council's leader training courses and may take part in the summer Day Camp program supported by the proceeds of the party.

The council furnishes camping supplies and has purchased most of the equipment used by the girls on their week end camps, says Mrs. W. E. McCarthy, council publicity chairman.

General Chairman is Mrs. Del W. Hahn.

Trophies Awarded at Optimist Dinner

Approximately 150 persons attended the annual Horseshow dinner given by the Northville Optimist club on Wednesday, Feb. 11 as an occasion for awarding trophies to individual and team winners of the Junior Olympic competition last summer.

J. P. Malley, general chairman of the Northville Junior Horseshow, served as toastmaster. He presented the Northville Optimist Club's Junior Equestrian Challenge Trophy to the Outland Junior Olympic team of Birmingham, captured by Joan Lilly. Other recipients of individual trophies for low scores of the season were Frank Duffy, captain of the Bloomfield Beavers, and Ann Jensen, captain of the Northville Equestrian team, who tied for the honor.

Members of the winning Outland team, in addition to Capt. Joan Lilly, were Sonia Marcus, "Skip" Dowd and Nancy Fisher.

Malley pointed out that the Northville team had the distinction last summer of being the only team to win first place medals twice during the season. The trophy goes to the team with the aggregate low score for the entire competition, however, and Northville did not qualify in this respect. Members of the Northville team, in addition to Capt. Ann Jensen, were Franny Malley, Jo Ann Wallace and Gail Lawrence. The Bloomfield team included Frank Duffy, captain, Patty Bugas, Jan Schaffer and Kitty Procter.

Honored guests at the dinner included Mrs. Frank Beeks, Mrs. and Mrs. Don Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Menendez, Mrs. Frank Duffy, Dr. A. B. Curtice, Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grant, Mr. Zelma Outland and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Jensen.

The concluding feature of the evening was the showing of colored movies taken during the Horse Show last summer by Dr. Eastland and Wick Reng.

P.T.A. to Hear Student Panel

The Feb. 26 meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association will hear a panel discussion by Miss Florence Panattoni's speech class on the subject, "Is Homework a Necessary Part of the Grade and High School Curriculum?"

The panel will consist of Jean Nieuwkoop, acting chairman; Nancy Dewsbury, Linwood Fritz, Ursula Hamacher, Jurgen Bonnet, David DeJohn, David Severance and Winifred Welch.

Depositors Bank to Close Feb. 23

By State order, Depositors State Bank, and all Michigan banks, will be closed on Monday, Feb. 23 in observance of George Washington's birthday, although the actual date of Washington's birth is Sunday, Feb. 22.

New Community Building Committee Named by Council

A new eight-man committee was appointed Monday night by the Village Commission to guide the fortunes of the proposed community building.

Named to the committee were: Wilson Funk, recreation director, as chairman; Robert Coolman, member of the board of education; Alton Peters, village commissioner; Mrs. William Milne; Harry B. Smith, high school athletic director; Lynn Sullivan George Kohs and Del W. Hahn.

The first six were names proposed by Commissioner John Stubbenvoll; Mr. Kohs and Mr. Hahn were proposed by Walter L. Couse. The Commission had asked at its Feb. 2 meeting that commissioners and those interested in the community building suggest names of people who would be interested in serving on such a committee.

The village, according to a Department of Education interpretation of two Michigan statutes, could work along with the Northville school district in financing of the building, if that should be desired, said Mr. Couse.

The new committee will be asked to hold a preliminary meeting at the "earliest possible date" to get started on restudying the building project, which currently has funds in excess of $180,000.

Ogilvie to Head Rotary in '53-'54

Philip R. Ogilvie was named Tuesday as new president of the Northville Rotary Club by its board of directors. Named to serve with him for a one-year term to begin later in the year were Harry B. Smith, vice-president; Arthur Schnute, treasurer;

Philip R. Ogilvie

El M. Bogart, secretary, and Clyde Dethloff, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Schnute and Mr. Dethloff will be serving their second consecutive terms. Mr. Bogart has been the club's annual choice as secretary for many years.

The officers were named by the club's board of directors, elected by popular ballot the week before. Directors are A. Malcolm Allen, Dr. Walter Belasco, Cy Frid, Gary Niece, Mr. Ogilvie and Mr. Smith.

March of Dimes Results Totalled

Final tabulation of March of Dimes collections showed that a grand total of $1,548 had been contributed in Northville and $1,026 in the Novi Township drive.

The Northville total, said Drive Chairman Leland V. Smith, breaks down into $282 in contributions from schools; $374 from card-board coin collectors and $891 from the Mothers' March held Jan. 29, headed by Mrs. Eldon Biery.

The Novi Township drive, headed by Mrs. Frazier Staman, brought in $561 from coin collectors and individual contributions; $180 from the Mothers' March; and $285 from a card party in Novi, with Mrs. George Waite as chairman.

Bake Sale to Aid Junior Police

A group of Northville women have decided that Police Chief Joseph Denton can use some help with his favorite hobby the Northville Junior Police who number more than a hundred.

They've formed a finance committee which will raise funds for whatever future activities the boys engage in that demand small cash outlays. In the past, Chief Denton has quietly dug into his own pocket for some of the money, and other people and groups have helped with sponsoring.

The finance committee will begin with a bake sale to be held Saturday, Feb. 28, at the Record office, and everyone is invited to buy good home-made baked goods and help the Junior Police at the same time.

The finance committee is composed of Mrs. Russell Atchison, Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. W. Leonard Howard, Mrs. Frederick Collins and Mrs. Howard Meyer, chairman.

Local Red Cross Branch Undergoes Reorganization

The Northville Branch of the American Red Cross was rebuilt from the ground up Monday evening at a meeting attended by more than twenty-five representatives of local organizations. The many ladies who have served in volunteer capacities for many years were honored for their unswerving loyalty in Red Cross work.

The group, headed by Branch Chairman Mrs. Arthur Carlson, is now augmented by elected and appointed heads of committees which will care for the many services on what is hoped to be a much more efficient and organized basis than was possible with purely volunteer help.

TWO SPEAKERS

The group, which met at the Grade School, heard two Red Cross representatives — one a chairman of the 21 out-county branches, the other connected with civil defense and disaster preparedness — explain the many functions of Red Cross which dovetail to form the complete, well-rounded organization.

Named as chairmen of various functions were: Mrs. John Gibson, volunteer service; Mrs. Sidney Junod, secretary and publicity; Mrs. Harold Bloom, treasurer and Red Cross Drive; Mrs. Dewey Horning, production; Mrs. William Forney, blood bank; Mrs. Louise Cansfield, home service; Roy Stone and Arthur Carlson, disaster; Mrs. Jean Deuster, entertainment and instruction; Mrs. Hugh Godfrey, first aid, and Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., Junior Red Cross.

TO WRITE CHARTER

The board of directors is composed of Mrs. Samuel Geraci, Miss Bea Ware and Mrs. Hugh Babbitt. A meeting of the board and officers will be held in the near future to write a charter for the group.

Mrs. Carlson, in assuming the chairmanship of the branch, praised the work of Mrs. William Forney, who has served as Northville chairman and is now stepping down, and the many women who have served with her.

One of them echoed the sentiments of the volunteers who have served since the beginning of World War II and before, when she said the time has come for "younger ladies of the community to take over the work of Red Cross while we sit back and rest for a while."

Men's Bible Class Breakfast Planned

The Men's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church will hold a breakfast on the occasion of the annual Men's Day at the church on Feb. 22 at 9:30 a.m. Robert L. Hart, teacher of the class, has asked Ed C. Welch and Clyde Williams to be in charge. Each member of the class has been asked to bring a guest.

Letters to the Editor

The Record welcomes letters to the editor about matters of community interest. Anonymous communications will not be published, but in instances where the writer does not wish his or her name to appear, it will be held confidential.

To the Editor:

In answer to a letter printed in last week's Record, which intrigued me very much, I would like to present the following facts. The expression that "Northville's slip was showing" and "how about a Council meeting" only shows that the writer, Mr. Jerry Gilmore, does not attend the Council meetings nor read the Northville Record.

First: The Christmas decorations are not the property of the Village nor the Village Council but the property of the Northville Retail Merchants Association. The present value of the strings of wire, deer and bulbs is over three thousand dollars. Each year the merchants of Northville donate the money for Christmas lights. This year, $1,165 and several days of hard work, erecting and taking down these decorations, were spent.

Second: At the first Council meeting of Jan. 1, I, as chairman of the Christmas Decoration Committee, asked that the Council permit us to change the colored bulbs so that our Village might have better lighting for our streets. This request was granted for sixty days or until the last of this month.

The street lights of Northville are far inadequate at the present time. Many of us will recall that during the depression, half of our street lights were taken out. The merchants changed most of the strings from colored to white bulbs on a day when the slight rain froze on our hands and we finally gave up, leaving four or five colored strings, for which I beg your pardon, Mr. Gilmore.

Third: In answer to your second question, "the cost". The strings of lights cost approximately thirty dollars per month, or about one dollar per night. This is the only cost paid by TAXPAYERS ONLY. The Northville Retail Merchants Association members, with real and personal taxes, are the largest tax payers within the Village and Township and are striving daily to improve conditions in Northville.

Holly Knocks Mustangs Out of First, 50 to 49

A single point tumbled Northville High School out of a tie for first place in the Wayne-Oakland League basketball race Friday night.

It was Holly, beaten seven times previously in the league, which did the tumbling to gain its first victory at the Mustangs' expense, 50 to 49.

The three-way tie for first place between Brighton, Northville and Milford was further resolved when fast-rising Clarenceville stunned Milford with a 42 to 37 defeat Friday. A Brighton victory over Clarkston, 66 to 52, established the Bulldogs all alone in first, with Milford and Northville now tied for second.

COULD SHARE TITLE

Northville could still gain a share of the title, but it must rely on either Holly or Milford to do the hatchet work. Brighton faces Holly Friday, Feb. 20, and Milford on Friday, Feb. 27. A Bulldog defeat in either game would tie it up all over again—provided, of course, that Northville gets by Clarenceville Friday here, and Clarkston the next Friday (there).

The ideal situation, insofar as the Mustangs are concerned, would be for both Milford and Brighton to lose Friday, then for Milford to turn back Brighton the following week while Northville keeps on winning, but that is probably the biggest pipe dream of the season.

The standings in the league at present are this way:

	W	L
Brighton	6	2
Northville	5	3
Milford	5	3
Clarkston	4	4
Clarenceville	3	5
Holly	1	7

HOLLY GAME

The Mustangs led Holly on the Bronchos' court 15 to 12 at the end of the first quarter Friday, but it was the second quarter, which proved the wrecker for Northville. The Mustangs garnered only six points in the period while Holly was getting 14 to forge ahead 26 to 21.

Northville settled down in the third quarter to almost make up the deficit, trailing 37 to 36, but could not gain a substantial lead.

The lead saw-sawed back and forth with each team gaining two more than a two-point advantage until Ed Nash and Lamar Nally hit on successive shots to give the Mustangs a 49-46 advantage with less than a minute left.

That last minute was a heart-breaker for the Mustangs. They lost the ball on a rebound and Holly's center hit for two points. Then a Holly guard stole the ball as the Mustangs were coming down the floor, raced the length to score again in the last seconds.

HOPES DROWNED

Spectators thought Northville was going to be pulled out of the soup when the official called a foul on a Holly player, which would have given Gerry Graham two free throws and the chance to tie the score or toss in the winning point.

The hope was smothered, however, when the official conferred with the timer, who ruled that the buzzer ending the game came before the officials had blown the whistle on the foul.

Lamar Nally was high scorer for both teams with a 16-point total on six baskets and four foul shots.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

We would like to extend a personal invitation to each and every one of you to come in this Studebaker Mart to view America's finest motor car for the 1953 season. You'll find the beautiful new Commanders, Land Cruisers and the thrifty economical Champions waiting your visit . . . and approval. The one fly in our ointment is, due to circumstances beyond our control, we are unable to display the startlingly beautiful "Star-liner" this week. But, golly, what a car!

Perhaps the city will buy a certain employee a Studebaker, because of it's gasoline economy. Seems that this character called around at a neighbor of ours, the other day, with a couple of traffic tickets this neighbor had overlooked. The wife answered the knock on the door and enquired his business. When informed of the writ or summons, she inquired, "do you get mileage on this job of yours?" to which the long arm of the law replied, "sure do!"
 "Well, isn't you lucky," says the ever-loving wife, "you'll find him in Korea."

Now not having anything else to do at the moment, we might as well tell you of a visit we had from a young matron, in search of a bit of lubrication for her car. She told of a disgruntled 11-year-old who was discussing the belated arrival of her only brother. "They tell me," the child said, "that he has mother's eyes and daddy's chin." She paused for a moment and observed darkly, "and he'll also have Grandpa's teeth pretty soon, if Grandpa doesn't stop leaning over that crib."

Seeing as how you've waited so long for a new car, may we suggest that you see that the one you're driving is properly protected from the elements with a bit of fresh lubrication and new oil. A motor tune-up will help in getting more dollars when you get around to trading.

See these mechanics of ours today for the best of service . . . for a better running car.

Well, that's that, but what a rough life a moth leads. Spends the summer in a fur coat and the long cold winter in a bathing suit.

YOURS,

BILL and WILL PETZ.

Mothers' March on Polio, hour-long porchlight campaign which took place Thursday evening, Jan. 29, from 7 to 8 p.m., as a climax of the March of Dimes realized a total of approximately $321,534 in Wayne County, it was disclosed by William R. Bernard, 1953 March of Dimes chairman for Wayne County.

"On behalf of all polio victims we extend our sincere thanks for this splendid showing," Mr. Bernard said. "It once again presents outstanding evidence that the citizens of Wayne County are solidly with us in the fight against infantile paralysis.

A Matter of Necessity
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. — About 95 percent of all trips made by passenger cars are for necessity—work, business, school and church. More of these trips are being made at night as evidenced by increasing after dark traffic activity, reports the National Street and Traffic Safety Lighting Bureau. Unless the nation's inadequate street lighting systems are improved to give drivers better visibility, more than 20,000 persons will die in night traffic.

Goodwill Trucks in Village Today

Goodwill Industries trucks will be in Northville today, Feb. 19, to pick up household discards such as clothing, shoes, hats, books, dishes, toys and small appliances. These items provide the raw materials to operate the Goodwill workshops where handicapped employees repair and renovate them for sale in one of three Goodwill stores.

Household discards literally are turned into time cards at Goodwill Industries of Detroit. The 32-year-old organization which provides training, rehabilitation and employment for physically handicapped men and women now has the largest payroll in its history. Over a half million dollars in Opportunity Wages were paid in 1952. To keep employment at a high level and to provide training and productive jobs for an even larger number of disabled adults, Goodwill Industries is appealing for household discards in greater quantities.

Housewives are invited to support the Goodwill program of rehabilitation and employment and also help themselves by disposing of unwanted articles which would otherwise clutter up closets and other storage spaces while creating confusion and fire hazards.

A local phone call to Mrs. W. E. Forney at Northville 353-M or a post card addressed to Goodwill Industries, 6522 Brush, Detroit 2, is all that is necessary to arrange for a pickup by a Goodwill truck and to start turning discards into time cards.

Plan Recreation Ping Pong Tourney

Ping pong play has developed with so much enthusiasm that the Recreation Department is going to sponsor a two-day doubles tournament in March, said William Funk, director.

Boys who want to participate in the tourney should sharpen up their eyes to get keen competition going, Mr. Funk said. They can practice daily at the Boy Scout Building.

A gift of $150 was given to the Northville Boys Club by Village President Conrad E. Langfield to be used for rebuilding their present recreation equipment, such as pool tables, ping pong table and punching bag.

This equipment is used daily by a large group of high school students, said Mr. Funk, during lunch hours, and gets further use.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The Bible has much to say about Mind. The understanding of God as the real source of all intelligence is explained in the Lesson-Sermon to be read Sunday,
Feb. 22, in all Christian Science churches under the subject of "Mind".
The Golden Text is from Psalms (147:5): "Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is infinite".
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Rom 8:5,6): "For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The expression mortal mind is really a solecism, for the Mind is immortal, and Truth for the error of mortality as a meeting will follow. All are invited."
(P. 210)

Constance VanBonn Becomes Bride of James Mundinger

Constance VanBonn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin VanBonn of Dixboro Rd. and James Mundinger pledged marriage vows before the Reverend Fr. D. I. Foley in a nuptial mass read at St. Joseph's Church, South Lyon, Saturday morning. Mr. and Mrs. James Mundinger of West Ten Mile Rd. are the parents of the bridegroom.

A Chantilly lace yoke and long, fitted sleeves of lace distinguished the bride's satin ballerina length gown. The full skirt of satin was overlaid with bouffant tiers of nylon tulle and a Juliet cap crested with sequins and veils pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of white roses and hyacinth flowerettes.

The bride's sister, Joann, was honor maid and Janet Mundinger, sister of the bridegroom, attended as bridesmaid. Flower girl was the bride's young sister, Patricia. James asked his brother, Albert to assist him as best man, and William Goodrich of South Lyon seated the guests.

Committee Asks for Support from Friends of Scouting

A drive for Sustaining Members of the Boy Scout program became especially prominent last week during the celebration of Scouting's 43rd birthday, even though it has been in effect for some time. Friends of Scouting, according to local chairman, Philip Ogilvie, are all people who feel they would like to make a contribution of money to more or less match the hours of service the volunteers are giving to their son, their neighbor's son, or just the boy on any street in Northville.

Cecil L. Hershey, of Garden City, is heading the campaign for Sustaining Members in the Sunset District, of which Northville is a part. Mr. Ogilvie and his committee are making calls to enlist support. Anyone wishing to help, or to become a Sustaining Member, should contact any member of the committee: the Rev. Harold F. Fredsell, M. C. Gussell, Douglas Lorenz, Charles F. Carrington, A. Russell Clarke, K. H. Babbitt or Arthur Schnute.

1953 is the half way mark of a three-year campaign launched last year, known as "Forward on Liberty's Team." Emphasis this year is on the "Scouting Family," including the interests of three age groups: Cubbing, for boys 8, 9 and 10; Scouting for boys 11, 12 and 13; and Exploring for young men 14 or older. Men and women volunteer leaders are striving to make Scouting and all its marvelous advantages available to all boys. They can do this with the help of Friends of Scouting.

Lenten Services

During the Lenten season, Wednesday night services will be conducted at the First Presbyterian Church. Prominent religious leaders will assist each week presenting some of the great needs of people and how these needs can be met through Christianity. Prayer, the Christian home, the Bible and Religion and Health, are some of the subjects to be presented.

A family fellowship supper will be held each evening at 6:30 p.m. to which folks are asked to bring a passing dish and their table service. The circles of the Women's Union will supplement the dinner by providing coffee, milk and meat dishes. ## Priebe-Huff Vows Pledged Saturday

Margaret G. Priebe of Plymouth became the bride of Francis Huff in a quiet five o'clock ceremony solemnized by the Rev. E. E. Rossow Saturday, Feb. 14 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Mrs. Huff is the daughter of Mrs. Minnie Rehm of Dearborn and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. James Huff, Sr. and the late Mr. Huff of Northville.

A dusty rose street-length dress of pebble crepe was the bride's choice for her wedding. Tiny seed pearls dotted the veil of her royal blue cloche and she carried a colonial nosegay of yellow rosebuds and stellanotis with yellow streamers.

Her only attendant was Mrs. James Huff, a sister-in-law of the bridegroom, who wore a tan dressmaker suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of red sweetheart roses.

A reception for the bridal party and the immediate family was held following the ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's mother. On Sunday, an open house for friends and relatives of the couple was held at the home of the bride's parents in Dearborn.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Huff are making their home in an apartment at 631 Wing St., Plymouth.

Deer Repellent Tests

Hungry deer cause much damage to Michigan's fruit and grain crops each year and many attempts have been made to halt this loss. To date, none has been very effective. The conservation department, seeking an answer to this problem, is running deer feeding tests at the Houghton Lake wildlife experiment station. Penned deer are fed a normal diet, half of which is sprayed with various chemical repellents. An inexpensive repellent would mean much saving to Michigan's farmers and orchard owners. Here Ted Herman, aide at the station, offers a fawn a bushel of the feed.

In a South Georgia town, a group of men discussing tobacco on a street corner were joined by a South Carolinian who owned one of the local warehouses. "Abel," one of the men asked a farmer, "you know Bob Morgan, don't you?" "Well," replied Abel extending a hand, "we've howled but we ain't shook."

Social Studies In Grade School Are Discussed

by Carolyn Miller

The fifth and sixth grades were visited recently by Mr. Coykendall, a representative of The Follett Publishing Co. As this company publishes the fifth and sixth grade social studies books, the purpose of Mr. Coykendall's visit was to answer questions concerning the books and to get the children's opinions of the books.

The significance of this visit is brought out by the program of study and discipline used by Miss Margaret DeKett in her classes. She bases her entire class program on a background of social studies by working geography, history, math and reading into a correlative pattern. Discipline is achieved through the children's interest in the common social experiences shared in this manner.

Excellent examples of these experiences are the plane trip which was taken by Miss DeKett's fifth grade class last year, and a similar trip being planned for this year.

What the Classes Are Doing

by Larry Goits

SENIORS

The senior announcement cards for graduation were picked out by the announcement committee Friday, Feb. 13. Measurements for caps and gowns will be taken very soon. This year the seniors will don navy blue caps and gowns for the graduation ceremonies. It won't be long now before those seniors will say goodbye to their happy high school days and venture into the world to seek their fortunes.

JUNIORS

The junior class is looking forward to a lot of money saved for their senior trip. Their bake sale Saturday, Feb. 7 was very profitable and netted over $30. That makes them only a couple hundred dollars short of $1,000. With a dance planned for the near future, the selling of felt letters, and the annual junior play, they should easily reach the $1,000 mark this year.

SOPHOMORES

Another successful dance and a delicious bake sale are planned by the sophomores. There is no definite date set for the bake sale, but March 13 is reserved for the dance.

Vaudeville Quintet Wins Talent Show

by Catharine Rambeau

Winner of the recent Talent Show at Northville High School was a vaudeville quintet, with tap dancer Donna Frisbie as runner-up. The winner and runner-up were chosen by audience ballot, and will now go on to the Wayne-Oakland County League talent show.

The show got off to a quick start with 7th grader Glenn Schultz playing a fast number on his accordion. Following Glenn, Racine Bailey did a fine tap number, accompanied by her mother. Ninth grader William Bake did a fine job in "Prelude in C Minor" by Rachmaninoff. The audience at this point started to show extra enthusiasm which continued throughout the show. Donna Frisbie then gave a soft-shoe and a fast tap number which generated more enthusiasm, and Marlene Weiss displayed real talent with her clarinet rendition of "Flight of the Bumblebee".

The winning act was a take-off on old-time vaudeville (or present day television) presented by Jackie Keys and Arlene Nelson accompanied by Jim Hollis on guitar, Guy Brandt on drums, and Julie Hammond playing the piano. This act wound up with the audience joining the contestants in a couple of choruses of "I've Got A Lovely Bunch of Coconuts".

Special mention should go to Walter Newton, who, as emcee, did a fine job of keeping the show moving.

Trigger Adapter Foils Frostbite

The combat-inspired invention of John V. Polonsky, Michigan State College freshman from Cleveland, O., is helping to keep the hands of American troops warm in sub-freezing Korean weather.

The 22-year-old mechanical engineering student was a Marine sergeant in Korea during the winter of 1950. He found that a rifle or carbine couldn't be fired while wearing heavy gloves. And, if gloves were taken off in weather 30 below zero, frostbite struck, often times disabling the fingers permanently.

MAKES ADAPTER

When winter came in 1951, Polonsky was ready. He had made a device from a discarded canteen cup handle which enabled him to work the trigger of his rifle without removing his gloves. His adapter was considered so important that most front-line troops were using a modification of it by January, 1952.

The Marine Corps, after studying several ideas for adapters, came up with its own version. The "Bell Crank" as it is now called, is standard cold weather equipment in the Marine Corps.

Polonsky's invention was a spring-lever which could be squeezed by a gloved hand, firing the trigger. The Marine Corps adaptation is a cam-like device attached to the rear of the trigger guard with a roller operating on the trigger.

Minor Repairs to Increase on Michigan Highways

By GENE ALLEMAN

Michigan highways will soon receive heavy travel of outstate vacationers.

According to Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, the coming construction season will see more detour signs than in recent years as a mark of progress.

Here's the prospect:

The state treasury expects to collect a trifle more money in 1953 for highway building and maintenance than the $125 million which it received last year. Revenue comes from state gasoline tax (average in all states is now 6 cents) from a graduated weight tax on commercial vehicles weighing 8,000 pounds or more, and from Federal aid to the tune of $16 million.

Of this amount the state highway department will get 44 per cent.

Michigan, the tax collector for local governments, will return 56 per cent back to counties and cities. The 83 county road commissions will get 37 per cent, and the 488 cities and villages are counting on 19 per cent.

Commissioner Ziegler expects to spend about $19 million maintaining Michigan's 9,318 miles of state roads. About $28 million will be set aside for construction of new roads and bridges; $2½ million will be earmarked to retire bond issues on Detroit expressways and another million and a half for bonds on the Detroit-Toledo expressway.

There are 5,073 miles of state concrete highways, 3,085 of bituminous surfaced roads and 1,160 of gravel.

Two big question marks in the highway department for next year are toll roads in Michigan and the bridge across the Mackinac Straits. Commissioner Ziegler's view on toll roads is a "middle of the road" stand: improved roads are needed so badly that any legal method is better than no attempt to raise funds. Although he favors a free highway system, he would not oppose the creation of a tax road authority.

Ziegler said he favors the Mackinac bridge idea after making sure of two factors. One was that the project was practical from an engineering standpoint—this has been established by technical authorities. The second is that it is financially sound. This seems satisfactory also, for there is indication that bonding companies will be ready to finance the venture. Present schedules call for work to begin on the bridge in the spring of '54 with completion for the fall of '56.

Another big problem is that of safety. The first 11 months of 1952 recorded 1,541 fatalities on Michigan highways, an increase of 34 over the same period in 1951. Economic loss resulting from personal injuries and property damage in the state from January through November in 1952 amounted to $145 million.

The commissioner was recently elected chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission. This body is responsible under law for highway safety programs. Seminars have been held and other methods are being used to analyze Michigan's problems so that legislative and administrative reforms designed to lead to greater safety can be recommended.

ed. The press has cooperated with these activities.

Other activities for 1953 include studies to determine improved and more economic road design and the possible uses of radioactive materials to improve testing and research procedures.

In 1953 we can look for the biggest year in our highway department's 48 years of existence with something more than $50 million being sent to maintain or build new roads and bridges, as well as the installation of warning, directional, distance and other safety signals along our roads. Commissioner Ziegler is a little proud of the Bureau of Public Roads report which shows Michigan is building comparable units of highway construction costing at least 15 per cent less than surrounding states.

While oldsters follow the birds to the south, Michigan youth are becoming winter-wise. Sport centers in North Michigan and the Upper Peninsula are attracting thousands to the North each weekend. Select one for a visit next week end; you'll be surprised.

We stopped at Cadillac's Caber-fae, in the Manistee national forest, on the occasion of its sixth annual interclub meet. The place was jammed with young men and women, all attired in gay sports clothing of the ski world. Contestants included skiers from Aspen, Colo.; Hartford, Conn.; New Jersey Ski Club and such Michigan clubs in Detroit, Dearborn, Saginaw, Rochester, Pontiac, Albion and Midland.

How to replace state funds which are now diverted by constitutional amendment to local governments, schools, cities and townships is still the A-1 problem before the Michigan state legislature.

Deficits have accumulated to a total of $90,000,000.

Governor Williams and the legislature have been in a deadlock for two years over a proposed corporation profits tax. The governor insists the tax would be paid by corporations, not by consumers. The legislature's attempts to enact other levies have been blocked, in part, by the governor's vetoes. A stalemate now exists.

The governor is now seeking some agreement with legislative leaders on a tax solution. The Higgins tax study commission's report was unveiled Monday, Feb. 16. Rep. Lewis Christman (R-Ann Arbor) proposes a five per cent state income tax, repeal of the present three per cent state sales

Safety Patrollers Visit Shrine Circus

Fifty grade school Safety Patrol members enjoyed an afternoon at the Shrine Circus in Detroit through the generosity of the Cecil Rogers family, who provided tickets, and Orson Atchinson, who provided free bus transportation.

The trip was arranged by James Madigan, teacher and supervisor of the Safety Patrol organization. Miss Margaret DeKett, fifth grade teacher, assisted by Mr. Madigan in supervising the children on the trip.

"The boys and girls have earned the recognition," said Mr. Madigan, "with the fine work they are doing in helping students to practice safe behavior while on the way to and from school."

The Gray Ladies at Northville State Hospital sponsored a trip to the circus for a group of 40 patients at the hospital Feb. 3. Mrs.

Isabel Partridge, of W. Eight Mile Rd., a member of the Gray Ladies, made arrangements for the trip to the Detroit Fairgrounds.

For City

should not be dignified by an answer. The committee working toward city incorporation has spent a great deal of time, without compensation or hope thereof, first studying the proposition and later taking the necessary steps to place the matter before the voters for their decision. I sincerely hope that personalities can be eliminated from this controversy and that the question can be decided strictly on its merits. I have friends who are opposed to incorporation, and while I do not agree with them I respect their right to their own opinion. I wish to further state that the fact that this incorporation is being sought is not intended in any way to be a reflection upon our present township officials. By reason of my profession, I have perhaps more occasion to deal with them than does the average citizen, and they have, without exception, been at all times most cooperative, even to the extent of furnishing courtesies to me when they knew I was working on city incorporation matters. The only reason that I feel the way I do is that I sincerely feel that the incorporation of Northville into a city is for the best interests of its citizens.

Against City

be in a position to enforce its demands for municipal services. The village, by its own admission, has no more room to expand. Its population is in the vicinity of 3100. The population of Northville Township, by the way, is 4184 as of the present moment and its real expansion has hardly begun.

One does not need to be a seer or prophet to see that the ballooning tax rate of an enlarged City of Northville, covering many square miles and furnishing city services to all its inhabitants throughout this area, is a very distinct possibility and conceivably far greater in magnitude than anything the City planners had in mind.

The high tax rate would compel owners of small farms and garden plots to break them up into small city lots resulting in greater congestion and adding a multiplicity of problems inherent in city living to the taxpayers' burden. Take one example alone. In 1950 there was allotted $3,000 for welfare relief in the Township and Village. In 1953 this figure is $7,911.00.

The refugees from the congested City, and high taxes, would then have no place to hide because they would create the very conditions from which they seek relief.

TOO LATE — BEYOND HOPE

A good friend of mine once asked me if I would preach his funeral sermon when he died. I told him that I would grant his request but that I would like to know something about where he stood with God so that I might know what I could say at the funeral. He told me he was not a Christian and was not right with God. I said to him, calling him by name, "This is the most important matter of your life, what I shall say over your casket will not help you — You will be beyond the realm of help. Why not accept Jesus Christ as your Saviour right now and be saved?" I'm sorry that he didn't do it. Dear reader, let me plead with you even now to "Prepare to meet thy God" by repenting of your sins and calling upon Jesus Christ to become your Saviour before it is too late! You will have no difficulty in getting a minister to speak at your funeral. The services will be very much the same as those of a Christian. But let me warn you just now — the words spoken at your funeral will not change the destiny of your soul. Arrangements with God must be made prior to your death!

Speaker Cites Subversive Texts

Women who attended the 18th annual conference of the National Security Council in Detroit were warned to examine the text books their children are using.

Arthur L. Conrad told his listeners that theirs was the type of organization that could save freedom in the United States, and that young people must be "in-doctrinated with Americanism" immediately.

Using as his text, "Are We Indoctrinating or Educating Our Children?" he demonstrated both the negative and positive approaches to the problem.

From one schoolbook—not used in Detroit—he read passages that were dangerous because of their omissions. He pointed out that the book could not be attacked as subversive but said it lists only the faults in our economic system, while referring to all the good things in the Russian system.

Northville Downs Awarded 48-Day Harness Season

Harness racing at Northville Downs will begin June 15 and continue 48 days through Aug. 4, according to an order issued by Racing Commissioner James H. Inglis Sunday. The Northville season thus will be six days shorter than it was last year, when it was 54 days.

The Inglis order gave the new Hazel Park Harness Raceway at 10 Mile Rd. and Dequindre the opening dates of the 1953 season. Hazel Park was awarded 33 days beginning May 7 and extending through June 13.

WOLVERINE GETS 36

The Wolverine Raceway, which conducted a 54-day meeting at the Detroit Race Course last season, will operate for only 36 days this year, beginning on Aug. 10 and extending through Sept. 19. It was also granted permission to run races on Monday, Sept. 21 in the event of a rainout during the Grand Circuit races the previous week.

The Jackson Raceway, which had a 32-day season last year, was given 36 days next season, opening Sept. 21 and ending Oct. 31.

Concurrent with announcement of racing dates, Commissioner Inglis ordered the Northville Downs Trotting Association to improve the facilities at Northville Downs if it hopes to be given good racing dates next season and in the future.

$250,000 ANNUALLY

Although his orders were issued to the operators of the track, they seemed to be aimed particularly at the Northville Driving Club, which owns it. This group, according to The Detroit Times, is reported to have taken $250,000 annually out of the track since it was opened in 1944 after making an investment of only $40,000.

Inglis said he wished to point out that of the three present and proposed harness tracks in the Detroit area, the facilities at Northville fall far short of the quality of the facilities at the Wolverine and Hazel Park tracks.

He also said it was the intention of the commission to require that the structures and grounds at Northville be brought up to the standard of the other tracks within a reasonable number of years. He said the association and the driving club were jointly responsible for conditions and suggested that the two organizations get together regarding the allocation of costs for the suggested improvements.

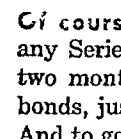

In Buffalo, John DeCarlo, head of the Northville Downs Association, said he was in thorough agreement with the improvement program. He said the track expects to spend $89,000 on improvements this year and that work on some of them had been started long before the commissioner acted.
