AN OPEN LETTER TO OUR VILLAGE PRESIDENT

Hon. Conrad E. Langfield, President
Village of Northville
Northville, Michigan

Dear Mr. President:

We, and many other of your friends, are sorry to learn that you have been a patient at the Henry Ford Hospital following your return from Florida recently, and that you have had to be absent from the fourth consecutive meeting of the Village Commission. Not only must it be distressing to you personally, but it also must be a matter of regret to you that your leadership as chairman of the Village Commission has not been available to that body since Jan. 5, especially in view of the importance of certain matters that have come up for consideration during your absence.

We, and many of your constituents in the Village, hope that you will have recovered sufficiently to attend the Village Commission meeting next Monday evening. There will be at least three important matters that deserve your attention, as well as that of the other commissioners. One of these will be the proposed change in zoning in Novi Township that will permit the opening of another gravel pit at the southwest corner of Center St. and Eight Mile Road, right in the middle of the area occupied by the Village. The second will be reconsideration by the Commission, we hope, of its refusal to take a stand either for or against incorporation of Northville as a city. The third will be to decide if the Village should join the City Incorporation Committee in combating any legal effort to stop the election.

We know, Mr. President, that despite your rather long absence from meetings of the Village Commission, you do have a very real interest in Northville's civic progress. We know, too, that you have been interested personally in accomplishing several objectives for the good of the Village, among them the 7 Mile Rd. cut-off that would eliminate heavy gravel truck traffic through the downtown streets, the proposed city incorporation, better paving and other things that are badly needed here.

Our reason for hoping that you will be able to attend the next Village Commission meeting is simply that we believe Northville voters must make a very important decision at the special village election April 6. We do not feel, however, that the men who have been elected to the highest positions of honor and responsibility that the Village can bestow, which includes you, Mr. President, and the several members of the Village Commission, have stepped up to the responsibility that their election implies by letting the voters know whether they feel the proposal to become a city should be ratified or rejected.

No one should know better than you, Mr. Village President, and the Commissioners, whether Northville needs better paved streets, curbs and gutters to carry off surface drainage, improvements in its water and sewer system, AND A BUSINESS-LIKE ADMINISTRATION OF ITS AFFAIRS. You and the Village Commission are entirely familiar with the inadequacy of the approximately $25,000 that is taken out of the tax budget for such purposes each year. You know the Village isn't getting the public improvements that its residents would like to have, and you know that the reason is simply a matter of not wanting to pay higher taxes that will be necessary to provide them under our present Village form of government.

And, Mr. President, you know, and so do the other commissioners, that our local voters have it in their power to gain for Northville nearly three times as much money each year for public improvements as they have had from their taxes in the past—if they vote to become a city. It will be made available through a cut in the state's revenue from pari-mutuel betting. Had Northville been a city in 1952, its receipts from racing would have been about $70,000. That is as much as the current tax levy for 1953 will be. It is self-evident that Villagers right now would have the very good possibility of paying lower taxes this year if Northville had been a city in 1952, with the prospect also of improved streets and other Village benefits in greater abundance than ever before.

Therefore, we urge you, Mr. President, to stand up at the next Village Commission meeting and exert your leadership to get the commission to go on record and tell their constituents whether they believe city incorporation will be a good thing for Northville. If they think it is for the Village's best interests, urge them to say so publicly so local voters may be guided by the opinion of the men at the head of their local government. And if they don't think it is good for the Village, urge them to say so. The election is important enough so those who head the Village government should stand up and be counted so the voters may know the position of each member at the next election.

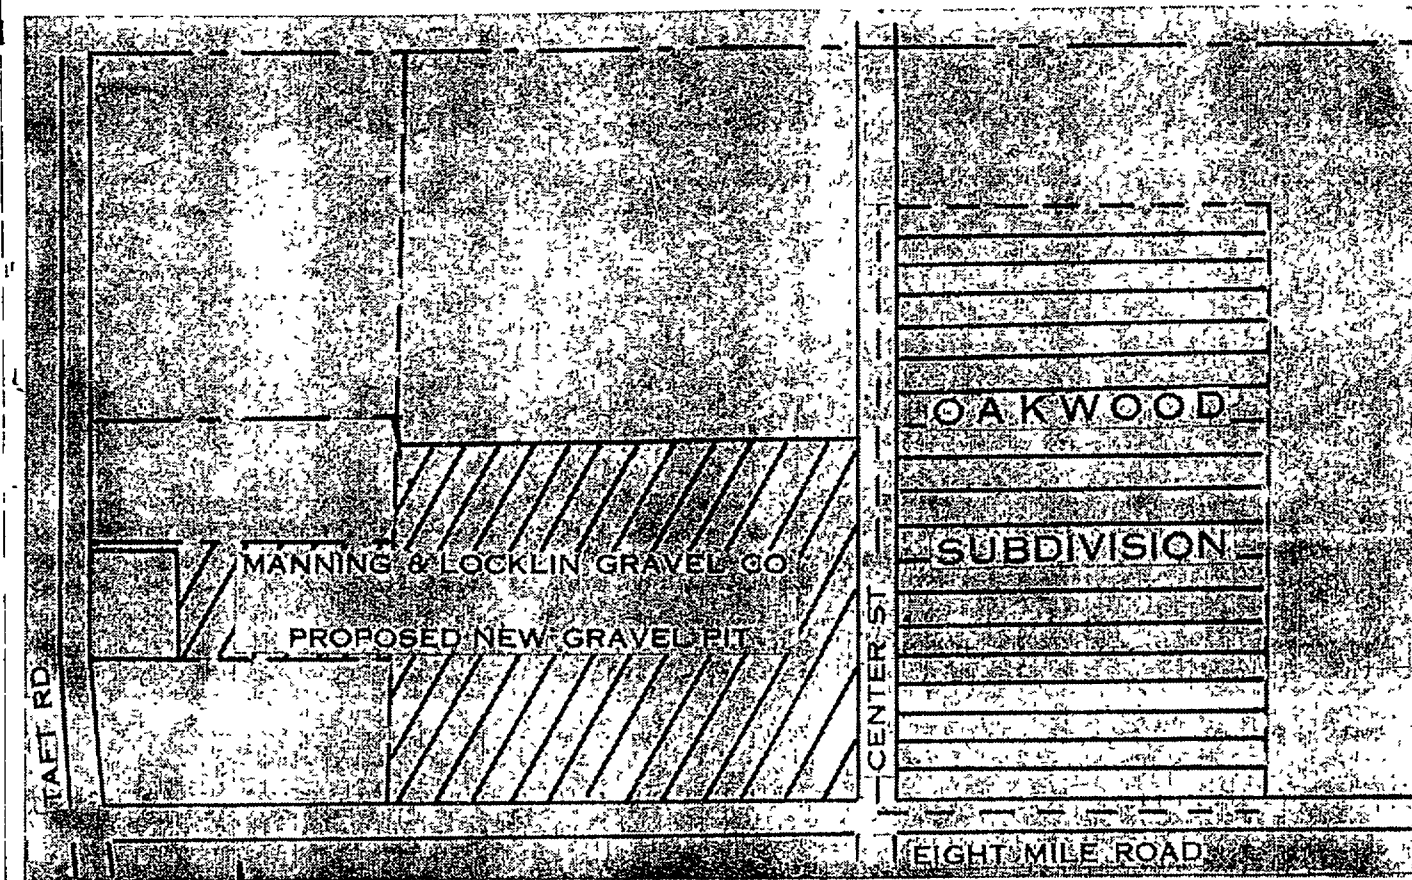

With best wishes for your speedy recovery and continuous attendance at future meetings of the Village Commission this year, I am

Very truly yours

New Gravel Pit

SEEN AS THREAT TO VILLAGE

Diagonal lines in the map above show the property owned by the Manning & Locklin Gravel Co. which would be excavated for gravel if the company's request for re-zoning is approved by Novi Township. The property is included in the limits of the proposed new City of Northville, and would be taken in if the city proposal passes in the April election.

Manning & Locklin Ask to Open 55 Acres Adjoining West Edge of Village Near Oakwood Sub.

Unless the Novi Township Zoning Appeal Board decides against it, a new gravel pit is to be opened at the southwest corner of Center St. and Baseline Rd., virtually inside the Village of Northville although technically in Novi Township outside the village limits. It would cover a 55-acre area along the south side of Center St. and extend south at one point nearly to Taft Rd.

The land is owned by Manning & Locklin Gravel Co. and it is this firm that has filed a petition with the Novi Township Zoning Appeal Board to have the property re-

Maybury "San" Develops Cure for Tuberculosis

There is cause for happiness among the staff of doctors and nurses at Maybury Sanatorium these days, and for the 800 patients who have come there to be cured of tuberculosis there is a very definite promise that almost every one will go home to live a normal life with their families.

This is the plain and cheering implication of a report just made by Maybury's medical superintendent, Dr. L. W. Howard. In simplest words, Dr. Howard announces that there were only 65 deaths from tuberculosis at the "San" last year. This was exactly one-third as many as in 1945.

Remarkable Decline in Deaths

Offering even more hope for further gains is the fact that only four patients died in January, 1953, and three in February, 1953.

This remarkable decline in the death rate from tuberculosis is attributable to two drugs, streptomycin and para-aminosalicylic acid, and diligent research by Maybury physicians to discover the most effective means for their use.

Research has been under way since streptomycin first became available in 1947. It has been a long, and at times discouraging road for Maybury researchers, but today they are enthused with the thought that perhaps the greatest future problem may be to educate the public to have routine chest X-ray examinations so any incipient tuberculosis may be positively that no city zoning

Hearing Is Tonight

Notification of the Manning & Locklin petition, together with an invitation to village authorities to appear at the hearing, was received this week by Village Clerk Mary Alexander from Frank D. Clark, acting chairman of the Novi Township Zoning Appeal Board. The property is now zoned for residential use.

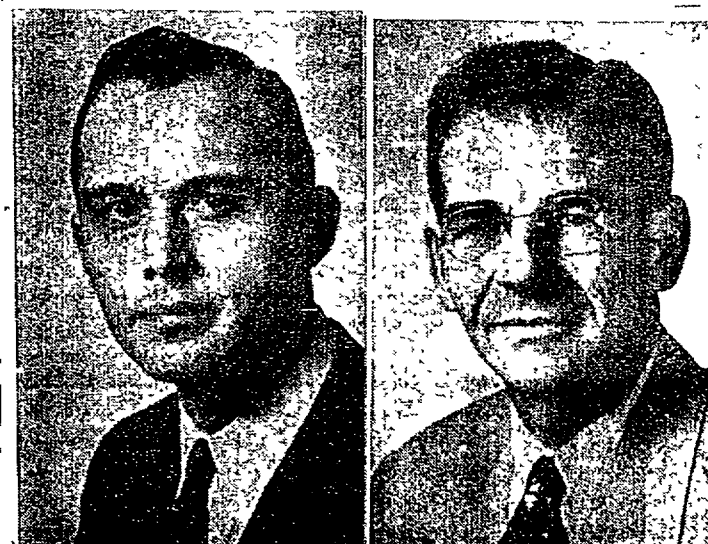

The request by Manning & Locklin for the zoning change is accompanied by a tentative contract which provides for putting the land back in good shape after the gravel is taken out, and for the deposit of money in an escrow account at the Depositors State Bank to guarantee performance under this contract. The property would be re-graded according to a contour map filed with Novi township officials.

Some village officials see in the Manning & Locklin petition an attempt to get Novi township to change its zoning restrictions before the vote is taken April 6 on Northville becoming a city. They reason that the area which the gravel company wants to develop as a gravel pit is included in the small portion of Novi township which will become a part of the proposed city of Northville and that Manning & Locklin, knowing that the city would not permit another gravel pit to be opened within its boundaries, is now seeking to get the zoning restrictions changed while there is yet time.

Advocates of the plan to make Northville a city, while stating so any incipient tuberculosis may be positively that no city zoning

Bahnmler-Phillips Buy Schrader Funeral Home

Charles W. Bahnmler

Forrest F. Phillips

After 46 years of operation by the family, the Schrader Funeral Home on West Main St. changed hands Tuesday, Mar. 10.

New owners of the home are Charles W. Bahnmler, of Ypsilanti, and Forrest F. Phillips, owner of the Phillips Funeral Home in South Lyon.

Nelson C. Schrader, Jr., said sale of the property to the Bahnmler-Phillips partnership was made so he could devote full time to operation of the Schrader Furniture Store on North Center St.

Mr. Bahnmler, who will live at the funeral home with his wife, Mary, and two young daughters, has assumed active charge of the business.

A native of Chelsea, Mich., he was graduated from Wayne University before service in the Marine Corps from 1942 to 1945. He was with the Geer Funeral Home in Ypsilanti until 1947, and returned there as director after a period with the Wm. R. Hamilton Funeral Home in Detroit.

Mr. Phillips has operated the Phillips Funeral Home in South Lyon for 25 years and will continue its operation, along with spending a large share of his time in Northville. He is married and has a married daughter. A

Youthful Art Class to Exhibit Work

An exhibition of painting by children in a class taught by Hilda Sands will be shown at the Drake Older home on South Rogers St. Sunday, Mar. 22.

The class is made up of children between the ages of six and 12, who meet once a week for instruction and supervision by Mrs. Sands, well known in art circles locally and in Detroit.

A member of the Palette and Brush Club of Detroit, she presently has a still life hanging in the Scarab Club exhibition.

The exhibition Mar. 22 will be open to the public from 3 to 5 p.m. An adult class began weekly sessions under Mrs. Sands' direction Tuesday night at the Village Hall.

Proposed Gravel Pit in Area, Seen as Deciding Factor

Proponents of the move to make Northville a city became more confident this week of a favorable vote by residents of the small area in Novi township that is proposed for inclusion in the new city boundaries. This area has heretofore been regarded as doubtful.

The reason why a favorable vote is now anticipated is that Manning & Locklin Gravel Co. is petitioning the Novi Township Zoning Appeal Board for permission to open a gravel pit on a 55-acre area lying north of Baseline Rd. between N. Center St. and Taft Rd. Should the Novi Township Zoning Appeal Board permit this, it is argued that it would destroy property values in the rest of the adjacent area, as well as in a large part of that portion of Northville known as the Oakwood Subdivision. (See map.)

Confident of City Vote

Dr. L. W. Snow, chairman of the City Incorporation Committee, upon learning of the gravel company's request that Novi boundaries this threat will be removed forever," he said.

"The effect of opening a gravel pit in this particular location would be to cut off those residents of the area immediately to the north with an unsightly hole

The date for holding a "Town Hall" meeting to debate the issues of city incorporation will be announced in next week's Northville Record. The meeting will be under auspices of the Retail Merchants Association.

Burkman Seeks to Stop City Election Apr. 6

The Novi Township Board and Novi Township Clerk Earl Banks were served March 10 with an order to show cause why an injunction should not be issued by the Oakland County Circuit Court against proceeding in Novi Township with the election April 6, on incorporation of the proposed City of Northville.

Plaintiff in the case is John C. Burkman, 535 E. Eight Mile Rd., Northville, who alleges deficiencies in the initiative petitions for the election. Hearing on the show cause order has been set by Circuit Judge Frank L. Doty for 9:30 a.m. Monday, March 16.

township change its zoning restrictions pointed out that no city administration would dare tolerate the wrath of city residents if the Manning & Locklin property were zoned to permit a gravel pit. "If Manning & Locklin want to open a gravel pit right on the edge of Northville, this will always be a threat to property values as long as the land lies in Novi Township, whereas if it is brought inside the new city

Plans Educational Program Concurrently with its mounting optimism over a favorable vote in Novi township, the City Incorporation Committee went ahead with plans for a vigorous educational program between now and Apr. 6 to sell the advantages of city incorporation to every voter in the area to be included. These plans, which were developed at a meeting Tuesday evening, include a town hall type of meeting in the High School Auditorium to debate the issues with representatives of the Northville Township Improvement Association, a second mass meeting (minors debate) a week before the election, a direct mail campaign to be sent to every voter, and Marlene Weiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss of 925 Grace street, has been named valedictorian of the Class of 1953 of Northville High School. Eva White, daughter of Mrs. Victoria and the late Mr. White, of 1910 Austin drive, Walled Lake, has been awarded second honor, salutatorian.

Eva White

In making the announcement this week, Principal E. V. Ellison singled out the scholastic achievements of Miss Weiss, who tallied a higher average than any previous valedictorian of the High School in the last four years. Miss Weiss has been active in school activities throughout her four years including participation in the band and choir and student council work. She was cast in the junior play and was

DeJohn Absolved of Accident Blame

David DeJohn, 17637 Beck Rd., was cleared of blame following an accident in which John W. Ronk, 14, of Farmington, was struck by DeJohn's car at the intersection of Main and Center streets Feb. 27.

Crossed Against Signal

Both the injured boy and witnesses absolved DeJohn, a Northville High School senior, of blame in the accident. The police report stated that the Ronk boy was crossing Main St. against the traffic signal. DeJohn's vision was obscured to the left by two cars which had waited for the light and had not yet started to move. The Ronk boy suffered abrasions and bruises in the accident.

Thieves Break Into Service Station

The Anderson Service Station at 19091 Northville Rd. was broken into late Monday or early Tuesday, with a loss of more than $50 in cash and material.

Entry was made through a window in the southeast corner of the building. Stolen, according to the station's owner, were a generator, valued at about $60; ten one-quart cans of oil, valued at $4; $15 in currency and $10 in quarters; four cartons of cigarettes, and a British Bulldog revolver.

OLV Parishioners to Hold Pot-Luck

Families of Our Lady of Victory Parish will meet for a co-operative dinner Tuesday, Mar. 17.

The St. Patrick's Day dinner will be held at 6 p.m. in the basement of the church.

It's HERE! The fabulously beautiful '53 Studebaker Hardtop 'convertible'... America's most exciting car of the year. Superbly styled, it's the car you will most want to test, to drive and to own. Come on in, see for yourself why Studebaker is truly the style leader of all automobile manufacturers. You'll thrill at the exciting new lines, marvel at the power of the V-8 engine and really get excited when you discover the great economy of the Champion line.

As a matter of fact, a fellow was in the other day, asking when we were going to show this great new Studebaker he had been hearing so much about. Had his two and a half-year old daughter along. Told us he had tried to leave her home, but she child wouldn't agree. The mother in an attempt to arouse her daughter's sympathy and keep her at home said, "but Honey, you wouldn't want Mommy to stay home all alone would you?" The girl, with her two and a half years of modern day wisdom behind her, just answered, "maybe Daddy will get you a Mommy Sitter."

Since the government took the 'freeze' off meat prices, many a packer no longer grades his beef. Makes buying rather interesting and a bit of a gamble at times. Piece of meat we had the other night had us puzzled. We weren't sure whether we were eating the cow or the halter.

It's sort of hard, thinking of service for the old, when we have all these exciting new cars in the showroom, but just the same, we'd be most derelict in our duty if we didn't remind you that your car needs grease and oil at all times, and if such ingredients are lacking you are apt to be most unfortunate indeed. What with the weather as variable as it is, better bring the car in for a complete lubrication at once. And if it so happens that you have driven six or seven thousand miles or more since we last saw you, have these expert mechanics of ours tune the motor. You'll be surprised at the difference it makes.

That's that, but here the first of another month has come and gone and the new administration still hasn't done anything about the sort of mail delivery we've been getting. It's all out of proportion, about four bills to every check.

Phonograph, Brainchild of Thomas Edison, Was Invented 75 Years Ago

A nursery rhyme impressed on a heavy strip of tinfoil more than three-quarters of a century ago became the world's first recording. Thomas Edison's phonograph was born.

An exact replica of the original instrument, which received its patent 75 years ago, in 1878, is on permanent display in Edison's restored Menlo Park Laboratory in Greenfield Village. Thomas Edison's voice, the first ever recorded, was picked up by the little machine as it intoned the familiar rhyme, "Mary had a little lamb..."

Buildings Moved

The entire group of Edison buildings, in which the great inventor developed and perfected many of his most significant scientific gifts to civilization, were removed from the Orange, N.J. site by Henry Ford and restored with remarkable authenticity in Greenfield Village. The accuracy of the reconstruction prompted the great inventor to confide to Ford that "the only thing missing is the dirt".

The most unusual side of the patent grant story is that Edison's instrument was absolutely unique. Not a single "reference", or previous description of a machine even remotely similar, was found by patent office examiners; the search took less than two months.

Events leading up to Edison's discovery that he could reproduce human speech were not unfamiliar in the annals of scientific progress.

Working on Telegraphy

Edison was working on telegraphy with no thought of recording sound. He sought a method to automatically pick up messages from outlying districts in a central office and transmit them to their destination.

The difficulty had been that a central office operator could send scarcely 35 or 40 words per minute and during busy periods would get many hours behind on his message transmissions.

The prototype machine, which he called a "repeater", was similar to a modern phonograph. It consisted of a revolving disc and an electromagnet with an embossing point. As the message was tapped out in a remote office, the circuit in the central office would be intermittently opened and closed, causing the embossing point on the electromagnet to go up and down as the disc revolved. Each time the point went down, it left an impression on the disc which could be translated into dots and dashes. By reversing the process, messages could be sent out at almost any speed over another line.

Musical Tone

Edison tested the device at many speeds and noticed that when the disc revolved rapidly, a musical tone was produced by the embossing point. It was vibrating like a tuning fork!

With farsighted imagination, he immediately grasped the significance of the new discovery. After several minutes of experimentation, he penned in an emotionless hand in his notebook:

"Just tried experiment with diaphragm having an embossing point held against paraffin paper moving rapidly. The speaking vibrations are indented nicely and there's no doubt that I shall be able to reproduce automatically at any future time the human voice perfectly."

With calm purpose, Edison drew up a rough sketch of a phonograph and commanded one of his workers to make it.

Workers Skeptical

The great inventor's own workers, familiar with their boss' many successes, were equally attuned to his eccentricities. They were frankly skeptical at what they considered folly.

A few days later Edison took the completed instrument and shouted experimentally into the mouthpiece the now prophetic nursery rhyme:

Mary had a little lamb,
A little lamb, LAMB, LAMB...
As the men joked and laughed Edison returned the cylinder to its starting place and the needle began its travel. The electrical wizard expected a few fragmentary words which would be sufficient to prove his theory but even he was surprised and just a little frightened when the familiar words came back to the stunned group without a syllable missing!

The rest of the story is history.

Goodwill Truck in Village Today

The familiar red Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks will be in Northville on Thursday, March 19, to collect usable household materials to provide jobs and training for the 330 physically handicapped men and women employed in the Goodwill Workshops in Detroit. Contributions of materials to the rehabilitation program may be made by phoning Mrs. W. E. Forney at 353-M or by addressing a postcard to Goodwill Industries, 6522 Brush St., Detroit 2, Mich.

Last year's party dress, an outgrown snowsuit, a broken doll or an unused table when sent to Goodwill Industries will help provide a job with wages and training for disabled adults. Clothing, shoes, toys, hats, small appliances, furniture and other household items are the raw materials which were used to provide jobs paying over a half-million dollars to handicapped men and women during 1952.

In order to make "Not Charity but a Chance" a reality to a greater number of physically handicapped persons this year, Goodwill Industries is asking for greater contributions of material than ever from the housewives of this area.

SCHRADER'S FUNERAL HOME

PHONE NORTHVILLE 48 NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN

March 10, 1953

Dear Friends:

It would please me indeed if I could write to each of you individually and tell you how much your business friendship has meant to me through the years here in Northville.

But there are a great many of you, and because I do not want to miss anyone, I am using this newspaper space instead of individual letters.

The time has come for me to devote my full time to the operation of the furniture store. This makes it necessary to pass on the responsibilities and cares of the Schrader Funeral Home on March 10, 1953. Fortunately for my own peace of mind I am able to turn them over to two funeral directors who will operate as a partnership. Mr. Forrest Phillips of South Lyon, who has successfully conducted the operation of the Phillips Funeral Home for the past twenty-five years, and Mr. Charles Bahnmler who has been employed, since his discharge from the marine corps in 1945, by the William R. Hamilton Co. of Detroit and the Geer Funeral Home of Ypsilanti. Mr. Bahnmler will live with his wife and two children at the funeral home and become a resident of our community.

I know these gentlemen to be thoroughly capable of carrying on the traditions of service established by the Schrader Funeral Home over a period of the last forty-six years.

I am sure that you will find them equally worthy of your business friendship. I believe they will serve you well. At the Schrader Funeral Home the change on March 10th will be only in ownership and personnel and not in policy nor in the quality of service given.

When a man moves into a new community to engage in a profession which requires so much public confidence and goodwill, he needs the advice and counsel of old residents. For this reason I will remain associated with the firm as a counselor and to assist in any way that I can and for as long as my services may be needed.

I hope that they can also depend upon you for your continued business friendship.

Sincerely yours,

Nelson C. Schrader

Turn Back Milford, Howell to Qualify for Regional Play

by Otto Wendt

As a result of their twin victories over Milford and Howell at the District Tournament at Walled Lake, the Northville Mustangs are now Pontiac bound for the regional tournament.

Milford was the Mustangs' first victims of the district tournament as they were whipped by a score of 48 to 44.

The first quarter was all Northville as the Mustangs sank three field goals while holding the Indians from the Milford reservation to two lowly foul shots. The Indians didn't hit the hoop for a field goal until halfway through the second quarter. They then snapped out of their field goal famine to go on a rampage. After the war smoke had cleared the Indians had outscored the Mustangs by one basket. However, the Mustangs were still in the lead by a score of 22 to 20. The third quarter ended with the Mustangs holding a slim two point lead. The fourth and final quarter, however, was an entirely different story as the Mustangs whipped up steam and galloped off to a 48 to 44 victory.

NASH HIGH SCORER

High scorer for the night was Eddie Nash with six field goals and one foul shot for a grand total of thirteen points. The entire starting team of Howarth, Nash, Nally, Graham and Somers played throughout the game until Graham fouled out with one minute and fourteen seconds to play. Gary Hix took his place and played the rest of the way.

The summary:

	fg	ft	tp
Eddie Nash	6	1	13
Glenn Howarth	4	4	12
Lamar Nally	5	1	11
Gerry Graham	3	1	7
Dick Somers	1	2	4

Quarter Scores

Milford	2	20	31	44

HOWELL GAME

By the narrow margin of one point the Northville Mustangs accomplished three important factors Saturday night: (1) by one point they beat Howell 43 to 42, (2) by one point they took back to Mustang town the district tournament trophy, and (3) by one point they are now in the regional tourney at Pontiac.

That one vital point also provided Northville with the most thrilling game of the season. With the score board clock reading 0:00 minutes left to play Dick Somers calmly whipped the cords with a foul shot to win the game and the tournament for Northville much to the approval of every Mustang fan in Walled Lake's spacious gymnasium in the final game Saturday.

The game started with each team feeling the other out, much in the manner of a championship prizefight. The first quarter ended with Northville on the short end of an 8 to 6 score. Glenn Howarth posted half of the Mustangs' points with one field goal and one foul shot. The second quarter was just the opposite, however, as Graham and Howarth combined to score most of the buckets to give the Mustangs an 18 to 17 edge.

The teams again got under way after the half and Howell started to hit consistently. Nally and Nash led the scoring for the Mustangs in the third quarter but it wasn't enough as Howell outshot the Mustangs to post a 32 to 30 lead going into the final eight minutes of play. With approximately five minutes left in the game, Northville trailed by a score of 39 to 32. The Mustangs then got down to business as they proceeded to play not only brilliant offensive ball but fashioned a strong defense as well which kept the Howell quintet completely bottled up throughout the rest of the game.

A Nally conversion of a foul shot with two minutes left to go made the score board read

HOWELL—41
NORTHVILLE—39

With eight seconds left to play and the score tied 41 to 41 a double foul was called. Howell shot first and connected, putting them ahead by one point. However, their lead soon faded away as the Mustang's rangy center, Glenn Howarth, stepped up to the foul line to sink the shot which tied up the game at 42 points each.

Seconds later, as Somers was going up for a shot, he was fouled by a Howell forward which proved to be the end for Howell as Somers netted the point, the game, and the tournament.

Lamar Nally and Glenn Howarth shared scoring honors with identical records on the court. Both Nally and Howarth pumped in four field goals while connecting with two more foul shots for totals of ten.

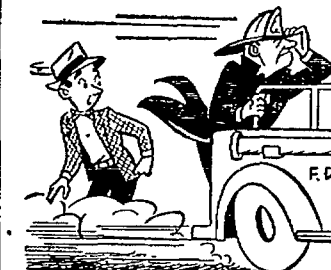

The foul line proved to be the element that broke the backs of Howell as 44% of the points scored by the Mustangs in the final half were the result of foul shots.

The summary:

Lamar Nally	4	2	10
Glenn Howarth	4	2	10

Volunteer Workers Needed In Girl Scout Organization

Leisure time offers unlimited possibilities in volunteer scouting assistance even for the busiest woman who will find the change of pace both stimulating and relaxing.

Troop leaders in established Girl Scout and Brownie troops are finding themselves handicapped by a shortage of volunteer helpers who are willing to assist with special programs such as day trips, nature studies, camping, handicraft, etc.

According to Mrs. C. W. McLoughlin, organizational chairman, the need is for women who feel they cannot assume responsibility on a weekly basis but who would like to spend some time with the girls occasionally.

In an effort to present a well-rounded scouting program, special parties, hikes, handicraft projects are planned. Each of these activities which are in addition to the regular meeting programs require the assistance of one or more helpers to work with the leaders. The plan is to establish a roster of volunteer women who may be called upon to assist with a chosen activity. In this way, help is readily available with a minimum amount of effort on the part of the volunteers.

Any Northville women willing to answer this appeal are urged to contact the organizational chairman, Mrs. C. W. McLoughlin at Northville 1265-W.

C. A. Smiths Move to Village Friday

New faces in the community this week are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith who moved from Detroit Friday into their newly completed ranch-type home at 43043 Nine Mile Rd.

Mr. Smith is building superintendent of the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium, Detroit, and is a very active member in the Detroit Council of Churches. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith are members of the Central Woodward Christian Church, Detroit.

Their daughter, Jeanne, and her husband, Mr. Laurence H. Wood, of Detroit, plan to move soon into their home now under construction adjacent to the Smiths'. The young couple have two small sons, Larry and Bobby.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith also have two married daughters in Yakima, Wash. and in Painted Post, N.Y. A son, Arthur, resides in Detroit.

Radio station WCAR, Pontiac, is planning an overseas broadcast on Mothers' Day, May 10, to enable service families throughout the WCAR listening area to broadcast greetings to their servicemen stationed overseas.

Northville wives and mothers have been invited to take part in this broadcast. These greetings will be transcribed in the Pontiac High school auditorium Sunday, Mar. 29, at 2:30 p.m. Anyone interested in participating is urged to call Mrs. Robin Corey, Northville 509-R as soon as possible as the time element of the broadcast limits the number of messages acceptable.

Colored Slides Accompany Talk on 'Preview of Spring'

"Preview of Spring" was the subject of the talk given by Mrs. Harold B. Putnam to members of the Northville Branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, at its meeting Monday, Mar. 9 at the home of Mrs. Glenn H. Cummings. Mrs. John C. Burkman, Mrs. H. A. Grunshaw, Mrs. Charles Neal, Mrs. Charles Walker and Mrs. N. W. Hopkins were assistant hostesses.

The spring theme was carried out in the tea table with its yellow cloth and its centerpiece of yellow daffodils and iris. Forty-six members responded to roll call.

Mrs. R. D. Merriam, president, reminded the members of the Interclub Luncheon to be held Apr. 23 in Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church. Reservations may be made through Mrs. N. K. Pattison. Mrs. Paul Schulz and Mrs. M. L. Hoysradt, who with Mrs. Merriam and Mrs. George L. Alexander attended the recent council meeting of the Michigan Division, reported on the subjects of Conservation and Education, respectively.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Putnam gave an informative talk on the planting, growing, and characteristics of many varieties of lilies, accompanied with colored slides. Many of these were from the collection of Jan de Graaf of Oregon, one of the best-known growers of lilies. Slides of the Putnam garden, a beautiful combination of wild-flowers with many tulips, lilies and peonies, also were shown.

STYLE SHOW SET FOR MARCH 19

Fashion Show Rises Out Of Welter of Models, Clothes

by Carol Richards

As the fashion experts will tell you, no fashion show is worth its salt unless it springs from a flurry of excitement—exhausting fittings, and a round of decorating problems.

Members of the Auxilliary to the American Legion Post 147 are all astir, drawing together loose ends for their fashion show scheduled for Thursday, March 19, at the Veterans' Memorial Hall.

Some are applying creative skill to the task of decorating the hall with spring blossoms provided through the courtesy of the Jones Floral company and Apple Crest Farms. Other committee members are working with food chairman Mrs. Charles Westphall, planning and preparing a delectable dessert luncheon to go along with the fashion show. More ladies are busy with Mrs. Merrill Sweet at their heels, selling tickets and collecting card tables for the bridge sessions to follow the show.

Recruited as very special models for this spring showing of local styles are sixteen Northville ladies, who for weeks have been pressing straight backs against the wall and balancing books on their heads for that "professional touch." Mrs. Garrett Barry and Mrs. Jim Green have carefully selected more than thirty complete spring-into-summer costumes from the stock of the Freydl's Ladies Store, and as fitters, are spending most of their time knee high, boosting up hemlines, tucking in crinolines. (We can happily report our local belles passed the "small-waisted" hurdle with flying colors.)

The very newest in accessories will compliment the outfits, says Mrs. Freydl, growing more enthusiastic as the pace quickens.

Complimenting the fashions with their charm and poise as models will be: Mrs. Russell Atchison, Mrs. Charles Carrington, Mrs. Merrill Sweet, Mrs. Del Hahn, Mrs. John Chedrick, Mrs. Robert Wetterstrom and Mrs. Claude Ely.

The list of the modeling belles continues with: Mrs. Frederick Collins, Mrs. Albert Kalin, Mrs. C. M. Goodrich, Mrs. James Littell and Mrs. Stanton Schaeffer. Representing the high school set will be Marianne and Carolyn Ratliff, Nancy Dewsbury and Sally Wagenschutz.

Next Thursday, when the big day is over, one fact will be clearly confirmed: Northville witnessed its most spectacular fashion show in years. The fittings, rehearsals and preparations only point up that fact. For sheer oomph, this fashion show has it!

Forty-seven members of the Northwest Suburban Alumni Club of Michigan State College turned out Saturday to watch their team defeat the University of Michigan basketball squad 55 to 52 at Jannison Field House. The group chartered a bus for the trip. A part of the group above are (second row) Mr. and Mrs. Don Robinson, Mrs. Charles Strautz, all of Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Adair, of Plymouth. Front row (left to right) are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Angove, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bayless, all of Northville, and Art Jenkins and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Eckert, of Livonia. The mystery of the picture is: Where is Charles Strautz? If you can't find him, that's his arm holding the Northville sign aloft, but the arm is all you see.

History Expert to Sneak at Local DAR Meeting March 16

Mr. Carlton Storm, director of the Clements Library in Ann Arbor, will relate incidents in the history of the Continental Army under General Washington from "Lexington to Fallen Timbers" at the next meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution Monday, March 16. Mrs. Carl H. Bryan will be hostess to the one o'clock meeting at her home on West Main St.

Mr. Storm, who has been director of the Clements Library at the University of Michigan for the past eleven years, is an authority on the "fascinating side of American history". The study of history is more than a series of names, dates and specific data, according to Mr. Storm; it has fascinating, human interest appeal.

A cordial welcome to attend the meeting is extended to anyone interested in either the historical topic to be discussed or the chapter as an organization.

Shirlynn Ellison Has Birthday Party

Three R's Ride The Rails In Canada

UP IN the northern Ontario bush country, students do go to school, but the Canadian National Railways also brings the school to the pupils. Converted CNR railway cars are the classrooms. Hauled from town to town by CNR freight trains, the school cars bring elementary education to hundreds in sparsely settled northern Ontario.

One of the cars contains living quarters for Teacher Fred Sloman, his wife and five children, and a schoolroom with books, desks, maps and a reading library. CNR's highballing classroom is uncoupled for a week at a time near their settlements. Here, Sloman keeps school daily for pupils from six to 18, gives them home work to last six weeks when the car rolls around again. With classes of three to 16 pupils, Sloman gives individual attention to scores of students each year. Sloman graduates have become doctors, nurses, mine and mill foremen. The school itself—started in 1926—has proved so successful that Canadian National now has a school car system for isolated children in a number of outlying places. The activities of the pupils in the rail schools are not confined to book study alone. Teacher Sloman, who pioneered the rural rail classes, arranges enthusiastic songfests and takes part in the recess periods.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 4012, is sponsoring its annual essay contest, which is open to all juniors and seniors at Northville High School. This year's topic is "Democracy Is What We Make It."

All entries must be turned in by March 15. Judges for the local contest are Rev. E. E. Rossow, L. C. Sullivan and Paul Schulz. Final results will be announced as soon as they are known by Margaret Rager, Americanism chairman for the auxiliary.

Local winners will receive cash awards and the top winner may enter the state contest. The essay winning first honors in the state contest is eligible for presentation to the final judges and first prize in the national contest is $1000 and a gold medal.

Girl Scout Fair Set for Saturday

The Girl Scout and Brownie troops of Northville are joining troops throughout America this week in observing the 41st anniversary of their founding. In commemoration of this event, a Girl Scout Fair will be presented from 2-4 p.m. on Saturday, Mar. 14 at the Presbyterian Church House.

Parents and friends of 235 scouts and brownies are invited to attend the exhibition of handicrafts, camping equipment and projects the girls completed during the past years.

The 14 active troops in Northville are guided by 29 leaders and co-leaders who have volunteered much time and effort in maintaining a well-rounded program. The Fair is presented in an effort to show what the various projects involve and to explain more clearly the aims and ultimate benefits of the scouting program as presented here in Northville.

Bed Lamps Sought for Maybury Men

The Ladies Aid of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will welcome donations of bed lamps to help them in caring for the 47 patients in the men's ward at Maybury Sanatorium.

Lamps will be picked up if donors will telephone Mrs. Lawrence LeFevre at Northville 17, or Mrs. Charles Elwell at Northville 67-W.

Nothing can be truly great which is not right.

Funeral Services Held Wednesday for Mrs. Martino

Mrs. Rose Martino died at her home, 127 East Main St., Monday, Mar. 9 after a brief illness. She had been a resident of Northville for the past forty years.

Rosary services were conducted Tuesday evening at the Schrader Funeral Home and Rev. Anthony J. Heraty officiated at the funeral mass Wednesday morning at Our Lady of Victory Church. Interment was in Rural Hill Cemetery.

Mrs. Martino was born 76 years ago in Conza, Italy, the daughter of Joseph and Mary Ann Spagnuolo. With her husband, the late Antonio, she came to Northville forty years ago and made her home near or at her present address throughout the years. Prior to his death in 1943, Mr. Martino was in partnership with Mr. James Spagnuolo in a confectionary store on East Main St. Her granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reda make their home with Mrs. Martino.

Surviving the deceased are: one son, Paul, of California; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Fabiano of Holland, Mich., Mrs. Virginia Turco of Fenton and Mrs. Julia Pennio of Lansing; one brother, James Spagnuolo of Northville, and a sister, Mary Spagnuolo in Italy.

Also surviving are 22 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, numerous cousins and a host of friends.

The Nathan McClellans, the Carl Blochs and the Lester Hammons of Detroit were entertained for dinner at the Don Severance home Friday evening.

The student council of Northville High School attended a student council league meeting Tuesday evening at Brighton High School.

Presbyterians Plan Banquet Monday

Sponsored by the Men's Club of the First Presbyterian Church, a Father and Child banquet is planned for Monday, Mar. 16. The 6:30 p.m. dinner will be held in the Church House.

Toastmaster for the banquet will be Joseph Petrock, vice-president of the Men's Club. The toast to the sons will be given by Alvin Skow of the high school faculty and the toast to the fathers by Bob Burgess, president of Westminster Fellowship.

Waldo Hostetter, the gospel magician, plans to present "Lessons in Magic", and William G. Williams will lead in group singing.

Tickets may be secured from William Davis, Men's Club treasurer; Harrison L. Rainey at Gussell's Drug Store, and Charles F. Carrington at the Carrington Agency.

OLV Altar Society Entertained Wed.

Mrs. J. W. Cheatham entertained the ladies of Our Lady of Victory Altar Society at a one o'clock luncheon at her home on West Main St. Wednesday.

Co-hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Claude Grusec and Mrs. Roy Terrill.

Pollen Is Clue to Michigan History,

Ever wonder what Michigan was like thousands of years ago? The find was made while conducting an analysis of pollen remains found in sediments in the George Reserve, University forestry and wildlife experimental area near Pinckney.

Well, University of Michigan research has literally uncovered this information in working with North America's first complete record of vegetation dating from glacial times.

Pollen Is Clue

Explaining the sediments, Dr. Stanley A. Cain points out that pollen fills the air and scatters and settles throughout the area when vegetation blossoms each year. In suitable places, such as ponds and lakes, the pollen settles in mud, eventually accumulating in yearly layers.

Prof. Cain, chairman of the U-M conservation department in the School of Natural Resources, conducted the work. He was assisted by Sven Andersen of Copenhagen, an American-Scandinavian Foundation Fellow from the Danish National Museum.

Examination of sediment samples makes it possible to determine the type of vegetation abundant in a certain time period and the climatic conditions prevailing then, because vegetation is primarily controlled by climate.

The importance of the find is that the sediments follow right through Southern Michigan history from the ice to the agricultural period. This is the first such discovery made in North America, Dr. Cain indicates.

Tundra Was First

Pollen at the bottom of the mud layer shows that the earliest vegetation was northern tundra, which indicates a bare, pre-forest region.

This was followed by a rather long period during which the prevailing vegetation and climate were characteristic of Canadian spruce and fir forests.

The next interval was dominated by pines, with the climate remaining cool but becoming definitely drier. After this pine period, there was a warm-moist time in which a rich mixture of hardwoods covered the landscape.

Then came oak-hickory, dominant vegetation until arrival of the white man.

Finally, Dr. Cain points out, the pollen analysis indicates agricultural activities for a century or more, because of the addition of stray pollen of corn and abundant traces of weeds.

4-H Square Dance

A square dance sponsored by the Wayne County 4-H Fair Board and Service Club will be held Saturday, March 14 from 8:30 to 12:30 p.m. at the Masonic Temple in Plymouth.

Cliff Busha and his orchestra will furnish the music and calling.

Judges Name 27 Winners In Bird House Competition

Close competition which required long deliberation on the part of two judges resulted finally in the awarding of 27 prizes to birdhouses built by schoolboys in grades eight and nine at Northville Junior High School Monday.

Judges Robert Sherrard and Harold Hartley wandered among the 55 entries for almost two hours before making their decisions at judging Monday in the Grade School lunch room.

Emerging as triple winners were Allan Cockin and Clarence Patterson. Allan's prizes were second in the wren division, first in the martin division and first in the bluebird division. Clarence's martin house won a second place, his bluebird house won third, and his feeder won a first place.

There were three double winners. Walter Palmer placed first with his wren house and second with a feeder. James Allen's entries, carried off two honorable mention prizes. Leo Campbell won a first with his chickadee house and honorable mention with his bluebird house.

The other winners and classifications of their entries were: Wren houses: Larry Greene; third; William Frost, honorable mention. Martin houses: James Earl, first, Larry Graham, third. Bluebird houses: Max Hollis first; Roger Nieuwkoop (ninth grade) second; Richard Mitchell, (eighth grade); third, and Leo Campbell and Richard Miller, honorable mention.

Feeder: Thomas Heatley, first; Brody Humphries; second, Don Wimmer, third and David Banks, honorable mention.

Fritz Smith won second in the double wren section and Michael Batt won third.

The contest was sponsored by the Northville Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association, with Mrs. George Alexander as chairman.

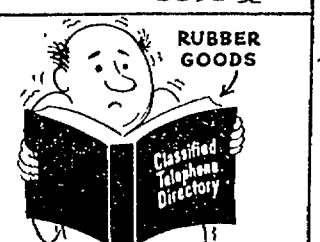

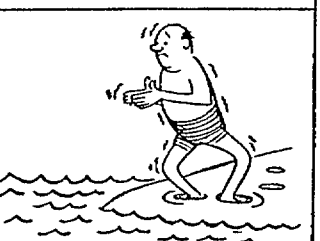

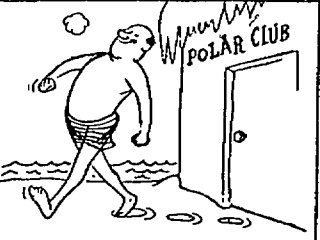

Following rules specified by the Detroit News, the boys built their houses and feeders under the supervision of Willard Renard, high school manual training teacher.

Mr. Hartley and Mr. Sherrard in judging the houses, commented on the difficulty they had in making their selections and remarked that "it's too bad they can't all be winners," but that they were forced to make their choices.

Holdups, Robberies Are Often Result of Thoughtlessness

Each year more than a hundred thousand men and women are the victims of holdups.

However, the chances are that it won't happen to you if you remember this simple rule: "Don't ask for it."

According to the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, the majority of holdups at gunpoint, "muggings", and similar robberies of individuals occur because the victim has been thoughtless enough to leave himself vulnerable.

The Institute suggest the following specific ways of avoiding exposure to holdups, burglars and thugs.

1. Do not walk alone on dark or deserted streets at night unless necessary. Then walk briskly, keep to best lighted areas, and avoid dark alleys and side entrances. Keep out of parks. Don't take short cuts on untraveled routes.
2. Do not take a stranger's good intentions for granted when he accosts you on the street or in public places. Don't let him lead you into a "trap".
3. Do not display money or jewelry in public, or draw undue attention to yourself.

4. Keep car doors locked and windows rolled up when driving alone at night and of course do not pick up strangers.
5. Keep doors locked at night. Use safety catches on windows.
6. Never admit a stranger to your home until after proper identification.
7. Storekeepers and small business operators in unprotected locations should have more than one person on duty if possible, and should keep a minimum of cash on the premises at all times.

The Institute estimates that failure to observe one or more of these precautions accounts for two out of every three armed assaults.

Baptist Missionary to Speak Sunday

Miss Mae Forseth, one of the missionaries supported by the Northville First Baptist Church, is home on furlough and will be the guest speaker in the Morning Worship service at 11 a.m. next Sunday. She serves under the African Inland Mission in Kenya Colony.

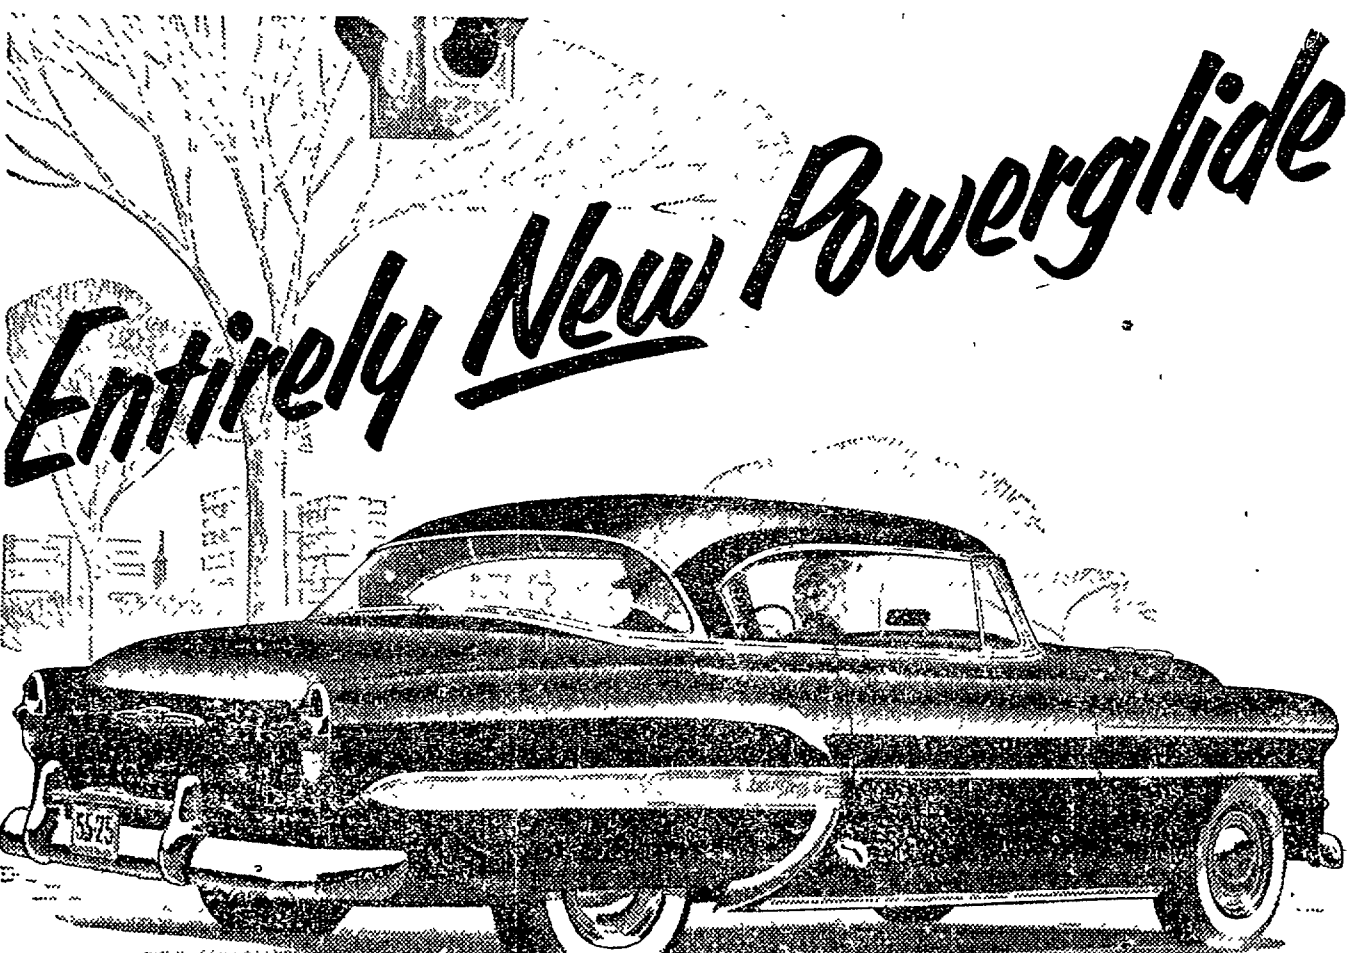

Kenya Colony has been troubled of late with the subversive Mau Mau movement whose objective it is to oust the British government from Kenya. The Missions in Kenya have become the target of the Mau Mau revolutionists because of their teaching that one should obey the established government.

Miss Forseth will be telling more concerning these conditions in her message to the Church next Sunday morning.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP NO. 1

We met in front of the grade school at 1:15 Wednesday and went to the Cranbrook Museum of Science. Among the many interesting things we saw were insects, stones, shells and a display of Indian lore. Some of the things in the astronomy display were a globe with all the planets on it and pictures of stars, planets and the prehistoric world. We would like to thank Mrs. Willing, Mrs. Beeks and Mrs. Austin for driving us.

Maybury "San" Develops Cure

be detected in its early stages. If that is done, successful treatment will no longer be the major problem that it has been in the past.

Dr. Howard's Thrill

Dr. Howard, speaking for the entire Maybury staff, tells us that the greatest thrill he has had from Maybury's success came when he reported to the Detroit Common Council a few days ago on the results which have been made possible by the Council's action two years ago in increasing the San's budget for research and medical treatment. "It was the announcement of a new era in the treatment of tuberculosis, backed up by a record of only 65 deaths out of 1582 patients treated in 1952," he said. "These figures offer hope to any one suffering from tuberculosis."

FOR SALE - 84c

What can you buy for 84c? Dr. Charles H. Mayo tells us in the Northwestern Health Journal, "The ingredients of the human body might be commercially figured as follows: he has enough potassium for 1 shot of a toy pistol; a product value of seven bars of soap; enough iron for an eight penny nail; enough sulphur to keep fleas off a dog; enough lime to whitewash a chicken coop; enough magnesia to make single dose for a person with sour stomach; and enough phosphorus to cover 2,200 matches." Not worth very much is it? And besides all this, even with the best of care our bodies grow old and die. Man's real worth is not to be found in his material body. It is to be found in his possession of an everliving soul. The value placed upon that soul by the "Lord Jesus" can be seen from His words in Mark 8:36, "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?" The facts of redemption tell us that Christ came all the way from heaven's glory to satisfy the justice of God in order that your soul might be freed from its guilt and condemnation. He died that your soul might live forever in heaven.

stages, the story of Maybury research over the past six years is one of an up-and-down battle to find an ideal course of treatment. When streptomycin was hailed in 1947 as a "miracle drug" developed by Parke, Davis & Co. it was used extensively by Maybury physicians, and with considerable success. Only 116 deaths were recorded at the San in 1948, compared with 198 in 1945 and 196 in 1946. But this success proved to be short-lived, for the high dosage of streptomycin that was necessary for recovery proved poisonous to many patients. Also, t.b. germs developed resistance to streptomycin, to a point where it became ineffective in many cases.

"Because of its high toxic effect, its use was cut down, and again the death rate increased. This was the situation until October, 1951, when the present course of treatment was started. This consists of a combination of streptomycin and para-amino-salicylic acid, the latter being another "wonder drug" introduced in 1949. "PAS," as it is called, was able to prevent t.b. germs from developing resistance to streptomycin. It also permitted reducing the dosage of streptomycin below the poisonous level.

The first "course" of treatment using both drugs, consisted of daily or tri-weekly doses of streptomycin, and daily doses of "PAS." This treatment was used for more than a year, but without especially noteworthy results as the number of deaths continued at about 145 per year. Surgery was used in a greatly increased number of cases during this period.

Successful New Method

In the fall of 1950 the Maybury staff adopted a new technique that proved successful. Instead of just one course of treatment with streptomycin and "PAS," repeat courses of treatment were administered, with remarkable results. Many patients improved with the second and third course after only one course of treatment had proved ineffective. By November, 1951, the longer treatment was accepted as standard. It is this technique that has brought new hope to Maybury patients and gives promise of recovery for those who in the future may become afflicted with tuberculosis.

Open Letter to Village: Red Cross Chairman Asks Support In Drive

TO ALL NORTHVILLE CITIZENS:

As in former years the month of March is Red Cross Drive month. This year the need is greater than before and Northville volunteer workers are ready to help fill the local quota of $1700.

Recently the local branch was re-activated in order to have a staff ready to meet the ever-increasing emergencies. Everyone cannot give of their time to help the servicemen and their families, provide life-giving blood for a wounded soldier, a mother in childbirth, an injured workman, aid disaster victims and help them back to normal living, or bring new hope and comfort to bedridden war veterans, but through the generous contributions of everyone the Red Cross program can be carried out.

In the few short weeks your new chairman has been in office, calls from local servicemen are coming in and its most gratifying to be able to help, believing you are behind us who have dedicated our services for the entire year.

Recent experiments have given mankind a powerful new weapon against the paralyzing effect of poliomyelitis—gamma globulin, a derivative of blood and the office of Defense Mobilization requested the Red Cross to expand its defense blood collections. In order that children may be spared a lifetime of handicap the Red Cross has entered into the project. This year alone it will cost Red Cross $7,000,000 above its other budgetary requirements. The 1953 fund goal is $93,000,000.

This is the appeal of your local branch. Volunteers will call on you during this month, won't you "Answer the Call?"

board would conceivably permit a gravel pit to be opened within the city limits, are jubilant that the Manning & Locklin petition has come in just before the election. They point out that if the petition were to be granted by Novi Township, it would without doubt hurt all property values in the Oakwood Subdivision, and in the area to the west of the proposed gravel pit that is proposed for annexation. Whereas there has been some opposition to being brought into the proposed city by the residents to the west of the Manning & Locklin property, it is felt that they are quite likely now to vote for becoming a part of the city to prevent destruction of the value of their own property.

That residents in the area adjoining the proposed gravel pit, will be against the Manning & Locklin plan is indicated by their comments to the Record:

Mrs. Earl Walker, 894 N. Center St.: "I am definitely against having a gravel pit across the street from my home. The first we knew about the project was in a letter received from Novi Township March 5 I think it would reduce the value of our home, which we have just remodeled quite extensively."

"I don't look forward to the prospect of looking out my large picture window at a pit and I object to the dust that will be raised."

Mrs. Earl Chappell, 816 N. Center St.: "I am very disturbed by the idea but will save any definite opinions until after I attend the meeting tonight at Novi. I want to hear all the explanations first."

George Price, 766 N. Center St.: "I have lived in Northville fourteen years, six-and-a-half at our present location. In all that time I have seen the gaping hole on Griswold Street, which has never been filled, which is practically an eye sore to the community. I can't help but think, regardless of promises in regards to leveling off, it will probably never be done."

"In my opinion Northville's expansion has to take place in this section and they can't expand over a gravel pit."

Dog Training Class Open for Enrollment

The annual Dog Training class got underway last week with 18 dogs registered. The class is still open for enrollment, says Mr. Funk, director of the Northville Recreation committee which sponsors the annual event. Classes are held each Thursday evening, in the gymnasium of the high school.

Registration may be made by mailing a card to "Recreation, Village Hall, Northville," stating name, address, telephone number and breed of dog to be entered in the class.

Co-instructors are Mr. Allen, of Grosse Pointe, and Mr. Averill, of Birmingham, top trainers of the Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club. Mr. Funk reported this week that 20% of fees collected is allocated to the promotion of a training program of leader dogs for the blind.

Play School Council Completes State By Laws March 10

The quarterly meeting of the Michigan Council of Cooperative Nursery Schools was held at the Merrill Palmer Nursery School, Detroit, Tuesday, March 10.

The constitution of the state council, which was outlined at a previous meeting held at the home of Mrs. Howard Meyer Feb. 25 was completed.

Final arrangements were made for the program at the annual meeting of the council to be held May 12 at the Kellogg Institute, East Lansing. Mrs. Katharine Whiteside-Taylor, a well known educator, has been engaged as speaker of the convocation.

Mrs. Howard Meyer of Eight Mile road was appointed hospitality chairman for the day-long sessions.

First Regional Game Thursday

The Northville Mustangs could not have asked for a better arrangement in drawings for positions in the Regional basketball tournament at Pontiac this week. The Northville quintet, which gained the District Championship Saturday, will play Thursday night, March 12, against the winner of the Utica-Roseville clash scheduled for last night.

Lake Orion and St. Clair Shores teams will take the court Friday night. If the Mustangs win Thursday, they will take on the Friday night winner in the final game for the Regional crown, on Saturday.

The great advantage of the Northville position in the tournament is that the team will go into the Thursday game fresh, against a team which played the night before. The same situation will prevail on Saturday.

The Wednesday, Thursday and Friday games will be played at 9 p.m., but the Saturday game will begin at 8:30 p.m. at Pontiac High School, located on Huron St. west of Williams.

The 2500-seat gymnasium can be reached by following the Orchard Lake road to Pontiac, turning left on Williams, then turning left on Huron.

BOSTON, MASS.—All the specialized skills of some of the finest craftsmen of New England have been combined to create this life-size copy in wood of the famous painting "The Last Supper" by Leonardo da Vinci.

More than a year was used in preparing the great carving—18½ feet long and 8½ feet wide. The figures, of limewood, are delicately tinted to give a feeling of lifelike reality, and a giant frame of contrasting walnut gives it depth. The carving will be the point of central interest in The Upper Room, chapel, now nearing completion in Nashville. It is expected that visitors who view the carving will be moved to spend a few moments in prayer and meditation in keeping with the purpose of The Upper Room—a devotional guide issued in 17 languages and used round the world. The chapel itself is part of the headquarters building for The Upper Room, the world's most widely used devotional guide. It is believed that it will become a devotional shrine and point of interest for visitors of the Midsouth.

The picture shows W. D. Irving, of Irving and Casson, New York and Boston, who have produced wood carvings for some of America's greatest churches and cathedrals. The wood carving was done from a model created by Earnest Pelligrini.

personal selling by members of the committee. Present at this meeting in addition to members of the City Incorporation Committee, were candidates for election to the charter commission.

Will Emphasize These Points
The following are among the arguments that the City Incorporation Committee plans to emphasize prior to the election:

1. Incorporation as a city will not mean higher taxes. Instead, they can be lowered if the voters so desire, with the new city still able to spend two or three times as much as in the past on public improvements.
2. Streets without curbs and gutters to carry away surface drainage can be improved rapidly and a broad paving program can be started with the additional funds that will become available. The rapidity with which these things can be accomplished will be simply a matter of balancing the demand of voters for lower taxes against the demand for improvements at a faster pace.
3. The Committee will present accurate figures to show exactly how much money Northville HAS NOT RECEIVED from the state as compensation for racing at Northville Downs during the years the track has been in operation. Its failure to collect this sum, the Committee plans to show, was due to lack of foresight and planning that has persisted throughout this entire period when, if Northville had been a city, its residents could have been paying lower taxes and still proceeding with a program of public improvements at a rate which would have been seen them practically accomplished by now.
4. To those who argue that racing may not last, the Committee will reply that even without racing revenue as a clinching argument, more than 50 other villages have become cities during the past 20 years solely to secure the other advantages that cities have over villages. These include competent administration of business matters by a city manager trained for the job and working in a full time basis, an improved court system, direct representation on the county board of supervisors, simplification of registration and voting procedures, single property assessment and tax collection.

Miss White, salutatorian, came to Northville High in her freshman year from Novi Elementary School. An outstanding gymnast, she received the Gym Award at two consecutive Honors assemblies. She was on the cheer-leading squad throughout her high school career and co-captain in her senior year. She has also held an elective office in G.A.L. and participated in both the Junior and Senior plays. Artistic ability won for her the Art award in her freshman year.

College plans are still indefinite, says Miss White, but she is especially interested in a career in nursing or medical research.

Approximately sixty Northville students will climax their schooling at graduating exercises, which this year will take place on Thursday, June 11.

Tabasco's Tang Helps Bland Eggs

This time of year eggs are budget-priced, which means that you will want to use them often. Besides, they're one of our most nutritious foods—provide lots of protein, iron and calcium and everyone should have at least one a day. Omelets are filling and versatile enough to be served at breakfast, lunch or dinner. Boosting the additional reinforcement and seasoning of milk, butter, salt and Tabasco for that little lift on which gourmets insist, the whole family will find omelets one of their favorite foods. Tabasco of course goes well with all egg dishes; Britishers (and plenty of Americans) refuse boiled eggs without a few drops of the famous old southern hot sauce; Tabasco scrambled eggs are becoming increasingly popular. Now see what a big help a little of this pungent flavoring is to an omelet.

For breakfast, serve with bacon, sausage or jelly. For lunch, a Creole sauce is in order, and for dinner, an omelet can take over main-course duties when served with tender canned mushrooms.

Fluffy Omelet
6 eggs, separated ½ teaspoon salt
6 tablespoons water ¼ teaspoon Tabasco
2 tablespoons butter

Beat egg whites until stiff, but not dry. Without rinsing beater quickly beat egg yolks with water, salt and Tabasco. Fold into beaten egg whites. Melt butter in a heavy frying pan. Add mixture and cook over low heat, until omelet is slightly brown underneath. Place in a moderate oven (350°F.) about 10 minutes, until dry on top. Cut part way through center. Fold and slip from pan on plate or platter. YIELD: 6 servings.

League Students to Exchange Talent Acts March 25

by David DeJohn

The Assembly Committee of the Wayne-Oakland League Student Council is planning to send talented students to league schools to put on an entertaining program for the students on March 25.

Brighton and Clarenceville are going to send their talent here on the afternoon of March 25. This program should prove to be very entertaining.

Mr. Burton Returns to School Faculty

N.H.S. teachers and students recently welcomed Mr. Keith Burton back to our faculty after two years' service with the Army. Most of his time was spent with the Sixth Army Band.

In line with the Northville Board of Education's policy of restoring returning servicemen to their previous positions, Mr. Burton will assume his old duties next fall. At present he is helping out in general science, English and music.

G.A.L. to Form Second Group

by Carolyn Miller

Last Monday, the G.A.L. held a special meeting, in which they decided to form a club made up of girls who have earned their letters. This group, consisting of 28 members, would be able to participate in several more activities a year than regular G.A.L. members, who have become so numerous that it is necessary to form two groups.

The club also decided to sponsor sending a girl to Girls' State.

Debate Squad to Enter State Finals

by C. Rambeau

Last week the Northville debate squad traveled to Farmington for a very important debate—one which would determine the district champion. The result? Northville came out with top honors, of course. The debaters thereby proved that all the long hard hours spent on their material was well worth while. Northville will be one of the six schools competing in the state finals.

Flint Northern will meet Northville in a debate on or before March 25. If the local squad wins this one, Northville will have a high rating in the state finals.

Gov't. Controls on Building Ends

"Democracy Is What We Make It"

Profits Make $500 Goal Easy for Sophs

Last Saturday the sophomores had a bake sale with a profit of $86.75, and are planning another one for next month.

Their next project will be selling fountain pen and pencil sets. March 13 they are planning to have a combination square-and-round all evening dance. At this rate the sophomores will have no trouble in reaching their $500.00 goal this year.

For the first time in more than ten years anyone in Wayne County can build or modernize a home and other building without having to worry about either material shortages or government controls, according to Harold C. Church of the Nowels Lumber & Coal Company, local lumber and building materials dealer and member of the Public Affairs Committee of the National Retail Lumber Dealers Association.

"As of March 1, anyone can construct any type of building and can use any desired types of materials without securing permission from the Federal Government, provided the necessary materials can be obtained without priority assistance," Mr. Church said.

"Inasmuch as all types of lumber and other building products are available in full supply, this means that everyone is free to start building without fear of delay due to scarcities or governmental red tape.

"Some controls still remain over critical metals used in manufacturing certain building products, but even so the output will be sufficient to meet all foreseeable demand.

"Lumber and most other building materials have been controlled by OPS, and average prices of building products are below the ceilings formerly in effect. No important increases are expected.

"An adequate supply of mortgage funds for home owners and others also is anticipated locally, although difficulty in arranging FHA and VA housing loans is reported in some areas owing to the fact that the government has kept interest rates on those loans at a level which makes them unattractive to lenders."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
That real substance is Spirit and not matter is shown in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, March 15, entitled "Substance".
The Golden Text is from Ecclesiastes (3:14): "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it."
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (1 Chron. 29:12, 13): "Both riches and honor come of thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thine hand is power and might; and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all. Now therefore, our God we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name."
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include: "There is nothing in Spirit out of which matter could be made, for, as the Bible declares without the Logos, the Aeons or Word of God, 'was not anything made that was made.'" (P. 335)

Events of the Past in Northville

News Items Taken From the Files of the Record

ONE YEAR AGO—

Arthur Schnute was appointed chairman of the Northville drive for sustaining membership in the Sunset District of the Boy Scouts of America.

A. Malcolm Allen was elected to the two year unexpired term of commissioner and Edward M. Bogart was elected to the two year post of assessor in the general municipal election held in Northville.

Solicitations began for the 1952 Red Cross fund campaign under the leadership of C. Harold Bloom, President Conrad E. Langfield, Clerk Mary Alexander, Treasurer A. Russell Clarke and Commissioners Claude N. Ely and F. Alton Peters, all unopposed, were re-elected to Northville village governmental offices in the light balloting at the election.

Three Northville boys were inducted into the armed services. They were Harry Earehart, Terry Chappell and James Thompson.

The officers of the three official boards of the Northville First Presbyterian Church announced plans for making repairs to the foundation under the church proper and replacing the old hand hewn logs with steel and concrete supports.

FIVE YEARS AGO—

The Northville Mustangs became District Champions in basketball at Farmington by defeating the Clarenceville team. It was the first time since 1943 that the Northville team had taken a district championship.

Seven hundred and fifty-two voters polled their choice of candidates in the village election, favoring Con Langfield for president by a majority of 123 votes over Forrest Doren, incumbent.

Sylvia Hollis, Carolyn Miller, Arlene Jerome and Edward Mollema were the spelling bee winners in the contest held to discover the best grade school spellers.

Eighty-three charter members signed the original charter of the Northville Business and Professional Women's Club at their organizational meeting. Mrs. Beatrice Carlson was elected president.

TEN YEARS AGO—

Plans for a state-wide rural scrap collection drive in April were launched at a meeting in Lansing.

Mrs. Rolland Morris, the former Katherine Duguid, was fatally injured in an automobile accident.

Mrs. Delbert Westcott, nee Nellie Thankfull Pilbeam, died at Sessions Hospital.

Margaret Elizabeth Tuck of Northville and Lieut. Darold Cline of Plymouth were united in marriage at the Presbyterian Church.

Wanita Miller became the bride of Donald Waterman at a ceremony at the Methodist Church.

Lieut. Cloyce Meyers has been assigned to a base in California for nine weeks training in aerial torpedoing.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lyke and Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Deal were hosts at a dinner party at the Deal residence.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO—

The first remodeling loan reported in Northville under the newly amended Federal Housing Act was made for a client of the Nowels Lumber and Coal Co., according to Harold Church, manager.

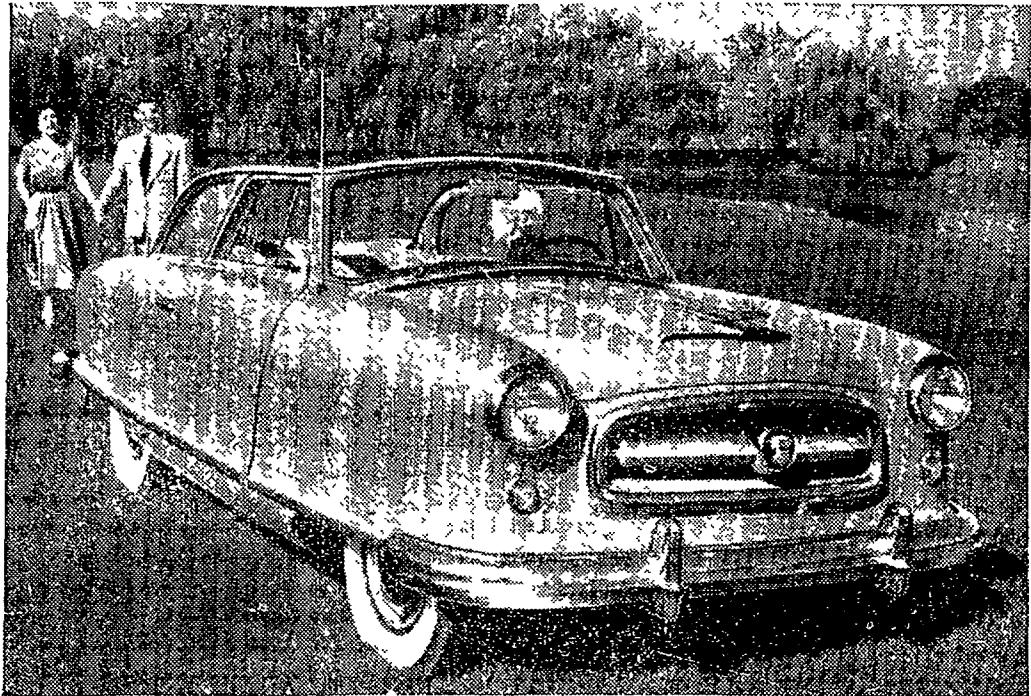

Twenty-seven young Northville girls organized themselves into the Junior Circle of the King's Daughters, with Mrs. E. B. Cavell as leader and Mrs. H. R. Richardson, as assistant. Their officers were Doris Hubbard, leader; Dorothy Congo, vice-leader; Jane Ely, secretary, and Betty Barry, treasurer.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—

A. C. Balden closed the Palace Meat Market which he had owned and operated for thirty-three years.

THE NEW 1953 NASH RAMBLER CONVERTIBLE

The new 1953 Nash Rambler custom convertible features continental design combined with American passenger comfort. Styled by Pinin Farina, leading European custom body designer, the Rambler series also includes three station wagon models and the Country Club hardtop convertible. The Rambler convertible affords much of the safety of a sedan with the advantages of an open car. The new Rambler features a continental rear tire mount as standard equipment, an improved Super Flying Scot engine, a larger one-piece curved windshield, new exterior color selections and new interior upholstery and trim combinations. For the first time, Dual-Range Hydra-Matic transmission is optional equipment on the Nash Rambler.

Committee Urges Transfer of Driver License Authority

The permanent legislative committee representing the state associations of circuit judges, prosecutors, sheriffs and chiefs of police, the attorney general and the state police has adopted a resolution endorsing centralization of driver license administration in one agency, but vigorously urges that the agency be the Michigan State Police and not the office of Secretary of State has been proposed.

The committee made known its views as the result of action taken by the state safety commission in support of proposed legislation not yet introduced that would consolidate the administration in the office of the secretary of state. The administration is now shared by the state police commissioner and the secretary of state.

The committee took the position that driver license examining and enforcement is a police problem and that it would be more economical, more efficient and contribute more to safety to centralize the administration in the state police with the chiefs of police and the sheriffs cooperating.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO—

Northville was caught in the fringe of the Ohio tornado with great damage to telephone and power wires. The village was without lights for an evening, the movie was closed and the flagstaff on the city hall was broken off and the flag thrown to the ground.

Mrs. W. A. Parmenter served a chicken pie dinner to a group of Genevieve's friends in celebration of her fifteenth birthday.

Betty Greer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Greer, celebrated her twelfth birthday by taking her birthday cake and refreshments to Bates school for the pleasure of her schoolmates.

Alexander Sanislow completed a 50 by 23 foot addition to his greenhouse.

The TVA is becoming an increasingly important consumer of coal, with the steam plants at Colbert and Widows Creek, Alabama, each scheduled to consume about two million tons annually, and the plant at Wilson Dam already using in excess of 120,000 tons per year.

Consumers Power Gets Authorization to Provide Gas to Additional 20,000

The Michigan Public Service Commission has authorized Consumers Power Co. to provide natural gas space heating service for 20,000 additional customers, according to George Mayhew, Plymouth area manager.

The company filed a petition Jan. 28 asking such authority and a hearing was held before the Commission Feb. 16.

The 20,000 customers to be connected for space heating service will be chosen on a priority basis determined by the chronological order in which applications are or have been received from waiting lists containing the names of about 40,000 applicants.

Consumers officials said the company will send a letter to each of the 40,000 applicants for space heating service within the next few days asking if they still wish to obtain gas heating service. Those who reply, within three weeks, that they do will receive a certificate of approval if they stand high enough on the priority list to be included among the 20,000.

"Only 20,000 customers can be connected under this authorization," said Dan E. Karn, president of Consumers, "and under the Commission's order we must select these customers in accordance with the priority of their applications. Space heating service remains restricted, and we will not be able to provide this service for any customer except those who receive a certificate of approval from the Company."

Applicants who receive certificates of approval will have 90 days in which to install gas space heating equipment. If in this period the customer does not arrange for the installation of such equipment, his name will be dropped from the approved list and a new applicant chosen from the priority list, Mr. Karn said.

Commenting on Mr. Karn's statement, David L. Brown, Division Manager of the Southeast Division, stated, "All applicants in this Division will be notified in the order of their seniority. The Division covers large areas in West Wayne, South Macomb and South Oakland counties, together with the Pontiac District including the City of Pontiac. It will not be possible to issue permits to everyone presently on the list; however, more than 800 will be issued to those in the West Wayne District."

Coal Is New Rubber Source

American chemists are acclaiming a new synthetic rubber called Vulcolan, made from coal tar and natural gas, perfected in West Germany and tested in the U.S., as "so good we don't have to look and further for a rubber that will outlast the normal life expectancy of an automobile."

THE WARY WIN BLUEGILL

The erratic feeding habits of fish are often puzzling during the warm summer months, and it often takes considerable study on the part of the angler to learn when these feeding periods may be. Come winter and a coating of ice on the lakes, fish feeding timetables are still more confusing. And the most sought-after fish, the tasty little bluegill, causes the most exasperation of all!

During the winter months all fish apparently have greatly reduced appetites. Some species don't feed at all, remaining semi-dormant in the muddy bottom. But the bluegill moves around, getting just enough exercise to keep his appetite mildly on edge. He is rarely voracious in his feeding, approaching all food with a wary eye, and completely ignoring much that is offered.

The Best Technique

Years of watching those quiet anglers who set forth in the early morn returning at dusk with limit catches of bluegills has taught this reporter a few tricks that generally prove productive, and we pass them along now with the hope that you, too, may get your share of winter-caught bluegills while there's still time this season.

Equip yourself with a very slender and limber rod not over three feet long. Some of the new glass rods are excellent—and quite inexpensive. The "reel" may be nothing but two angled pieces of metal attached to the handle, around which the monofilament, almost invisible nylon line is wound. Don't use anything larger than two pound test line. You'll get even better results with the spider-webby one pound test line.

Get hold of a few ice flies with white rubbery legs extending near the eye of the hook. The body color and material is unimportant—black as good as anything, and this, too, may be of rubber. At the bend in the hook a very small split shot should be affixed to weight the lure.

Adding Live Bait

A "mousey" grub, wax-worm or corn-borer should be used on the tip of the small hook, and the entire concoction lowered to within one foot of the bottom as measured with a clip-on depth finder. Attach the bobber to float the fly at this point, make sure the bobber is barely large enough to float the weight beneath. Thus it will be most sensitive to relay the tiniest nibble.

Now "shimmy" the wrist just enough to raise the bobber off the water a half inch or so. The action will be imparted to the ice-fly, and will definitely attract bluegills. Let it set only a few seconds, watching for action, then "shimmy" again. Don't fish in shanties. Stick to open holes, and move around frequently if you don't get action.

Bluegill fishing like this is work—but it pays off day after day when the other fellow goes home empty-handed!

Michigan Outdoors will return to the air on March 19th over WWJ-TV, Channel 4 with a thrilling half-hour show from 7:00 p.m. till 7:30 p.m. DON'T MISS IT!

Spring Grass Fires Are Often Costly

The pungent odor of burning grass, rubbish and brush drifts standing by to lend assistance if through nearly every suburban community in the country during low fire months. But, according to the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, more than 700,000 of these fires get beyond control, endangering lives and destroying property running into millions of dollars annually.

Moreover, they all but drive the local fire departments crazy, and cost town governments thousands of dollars in unnecessary fire protection costs. These costs come directly out of taxpayers' pockets.

The Institute says that burning over grass and brush areas may be beneficial spring clean-up of your property, but urges that you know how to do the job properly and safely before you start. The following pointers will help you to remain on friendly terms with your neighbors as well as the fire department and may save you the cost of a fine or a lawsuit.

Collect the proper tools for effective grass fire control. These include a heavy shovel, wet brooms, and a portable pump tank extinguisher if possible.

Lay out lengths of garden hose equipped with a nozzle and connected to a good water supply if the area to be burned is near buildings. Transport barrels or tanks of water to areas where water lines are not available.

New York Comedy
Coming to Detroit

Richard W. Krakeur and Fred Finklenhoff, two of Broadway's foremost theatrical producers will bring the New York stage hit "Affairs of State" to the Cass Theatre beginning March 16.

"Affairs of State," a sparkling comedy about love and political Wednesday at the Novi Methodist Church for their March business session. Pot-luck at noon.

The Blue Star Mothers Chapter 47 met with Mrs. Luther Rix on First St. Monday evening with a record crowd of 23 present. Three new members were initiated. Mrs. Helen Fesler, Mrs. Mary Stephens and Mrs. Belle LeMay, all of Walled Lake. The Mothers, with Mrs. John Klasner as chairman, planned a luncheon and card party for Friday, April 10 at the Novi Community Hall, beginning at one o'clock. Assisting Mrs. Klasner are Mesdames Tuck, Mandilek, Ward, Smith, Ludwig, Sharkins and Lamontagne.

maneuvering in Washington, D.C. inner circles, will star George Brent of Hollywood film fame, Haila Stoddard, Donald Woods and Irene Hervey. Top supporting roles will be played by Harry Bannister and Leonard Carey.

"Affairs of State" played for two solid years on Broadway, 17 weeks in Los Angeles, 5 weeks in San Francisco and is currently in its 9th month in London.

Detroit and Cincinnati are the only other cities that "Affairs of State" will play before settling down for a long run in Chicago beginning April 6.

Co-star George Brent is as well known to motion picture fans as he is to the stage, having played in 300 motion pictures as leading man for nearly every top feminine star, from Ruth Chatterton to Barbara Stanwyck, Lucille Ball, Dorothy McGuire and Joan Fontaine. Brent recently completed a far role in the motion picture, "Tangier Incident."

Louis Verneuil, noted French author, wrote the gay script of "Affairs of State." At one time he had seven plays running simultaneously in seven Parisian theatres.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set.

Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

Michigan Mirror:

Money Needed to Forestall Riots At Prison

By GENE ALLEMAN

New prison riots can be expected at Jackson unless the legislature acts immediately to appropriate $13,000,000 for new prison facilities.

This was the dramatic report voiced by Austin H. McCormick, national penal authority, before the Michigan Legislature.

The compelling circumstances of the state deficit are already exerting terrific pressure on legislators to impose new taxes. Senator George N. Higgins suggested that public schools bring suit against the state for some $35 million back payments. This move, he hopes, would force Democrats to drop their insistence for a corporate profits tax.

But the plight of state solons who have 76% of the budget automatically earmarked for various departments is neither pleasant nor simple when a report the nature of Mr. McCormick's comes along to threaten great expenses unless immediate expenditures are made. The only answer is more tax money—but the big question remains who will pay it and how soon will the decision be made.

The situation of Jackson Prison was bound to explode—with officials licked before they started, said Crime Expert McCormick. He referred with great emphasis to the unbelievable mixing of all types of inmates necessitated by overcrowding. Highest on his list of recommendations to bring the prison situation under control is a new "intermediate" sized prison for 1,200 inmates. Suggested location for this is Ionia, completely separate from the mental institution there.

This will cost about $13 million today. It could have been built, he said for $3½ million in 1934 or $10 million in 1940. Without this new prison, or some other means of creating room at Jackson, the unrest which has existed among prisoners since April might break out into rioting at any time.

On the day of the big riot about 5,000 prisoners were inside the walls. 1,200 is considered the top ideal number in one penal institution. All sections of the prison had been crowded for so long a period that segregation was impossible. This lack was considered the primary single reason for the riots. Criminal psychopaths were freely mixed with other inmates; sexual perverts could be found in every cell block, free to molest many of the younger prisoners.

Lifers and other hardened criminals were mixed with inmates whose crimes were of such mild varieties as failure to pay alimony, unlawful use of automobiles, contempt of court, game law violators. The mixture of sane and insane, old and young, perverts and mild lawbreakers led Penologist McCormick to describe the situation as the "worst of mixture of prisoners I have ever seen."

Other important but lesser reasons listed were the excessive size of the prison. Its 57.6 acres are too big to be properly supervised. Low grade personnel including guards, most of whom had separate jobs and some of whom slept on duty was also considered. The present parole system, according to the criminologist, left much to be desired.

Claiming that other conditions were so far overshadowed by the lack of segregation that they could wait, Mr. McCormick put a new prison alone at the top of the list of things that must be corrected. All efforts should be expanded to secure that, he said, and once it is accomplished it would be proper to consider other solutions, like improving prison administration, raising the level of personnel and changing the parole system and methods.

A bill to control excessive speed of motor boats was unanimously approved by the state senate and little trouble is expected to prevent the measure from becoming law. Cottagers and resorts have been plagued for years with "would-be water wizards" cavorting too close to fishing boats, docks and shores. No clear cut law to enforce careful conduct on the water existed, so local law enforcement officers were faced with a difficult problem. Since the proposed bill gives control to local boards of supervisors, it will be much more simple to regulate and control speed boating.

Another bill introduced in the house of representatives, would require that conservation prison camps be fenced and the grounds lighted. Inmates at the camps would be required to wear special identifying stencils on their trousers. The sending of sex criminals to the camps could also be prohibited by judges, under the proposed law.

Construction will start this spring at Mackinac Island on a memorial to Dr. William Beaumont, the physician who made great contributions to science by studying a patient with a hole in his stomach.

The project is financed by the Michigan State Medical Society, which has as its aim, a contribution from every medical doctor in the state. This fund already amounts to $22,428.90 plus a grant of $10,000 by Parke Davis & Co., a Detroit pharmaceutical firm, and leaves a balance of $13,500 yet to be raised.

Michigan industries have added 157,000 workers to their payrolls since January 1952 says the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

The marked employment rise, almost 15% in 12 months, resulted from increased defense production and increased consumer spending.

In its short term outlook, the agency said, Michigan manufacturing plants plan to hire 25,000 new workers by March 15 while other industries may let out about 2,000.

Unemployment in Michigan was listed at 60,000 with 25,000 of these workers in the Detroit area.

The Japanese expect to increase coal production by 7 million tons in the next 5 years at a cost of 50 billion Yen ($140 million).

State Police Set New Safety Theme

"You can't go wrong if you follow the advice given in the theme of the new national traffic safety campaign, 'Know and obey the traffic laws,'" according to Sgt. Henry P. Kozowicz, commander of the Detroit post of the Michigan State Police.

"That's the title selected by the National Safety Council and a good one it is," said Sergeant Kozowicz. "And the campaign slogan fits right in. Don't learn traffic rules by accident."

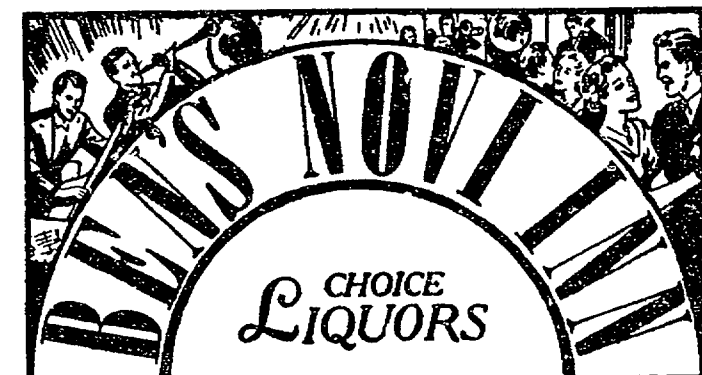

In Michigan the campaign is sponsored by the State Safety

Commission, with municipal, county and state police cooperating as well as safety organizations and others.

"Just knowing the traffic rules is not enough," Sgt. Kozowicz stated. "You've got to obey them. Even the unintentional and thoughtless violator causes just as bad a smashup as does the deliberate, reckless driver. And seven out of every 10 fatal accidents are the result of violations on the part of one or more drivers."

"Last year 49,000 persons were killed or injured on Michigan streets and highways. That's equal to the population of a good sized city. There were 165,000 accidents. "The only sure way we have at present to reduce this terrible toll is by drivers themselves being more faithful in obeying the rules of the road. If every driver practiced courtesy, caution and common sense we wouldn't have these accidents. He should not only know his job, but keep his mind on doing it the right way. That's his best guarantee of staying out of trouble."

Ann's new hat

"That's a darling hat on you, Ann."

"I like it, too—and it's the first thing I'm buying out of my first pay check."

"You're pretty lucky to get a good job with such good pay at the telephone company, Ann—and without experience, too."

"And it's interesting, Peggy, being a telephone operator. It's a thrill handling telephone calls for so many people. And that good pay keeps getting better with frequent raises."

"Wouldn't you enjoy an important job like mine... in attractive surroundings, among friendly young people? Sound good? Then see us about it soon!"
