We are publishing below a letter addressed to the Mayor and Council of the Village of Northville. It is signed by C. Don Hicks as president of the Northville Township Improvement Association and it is a criticism of the Northville Record's editorial policy and its handling of news concerning the move to make Northville a city.

We publish the letter for two reasons. First, it was an official communication to the Village, and under our policy of handling such matters, it is news that our readers should know. Second, its obvious inaccuracies and misstatements of truth should, in our opinion, be made known to the public at large so it may judge the amount of credence that should be placed in previous official statements by Mr. Hicks in behalf of the Northville Township Improvement Association. Fortunately, Mr. Hicks has misstated the facts so baldly that it can be disproved in a manner that can leave no doubt in anyone's mind.

We print below the most pertinent and offensive (to us) part of Mr. Hicks' letter:

"While we subscribe to the principles of a free press, we do not take this to mean unbridled license to influence legislation in the council chambers; nor to slant the news in such manner as to inflame the people against their representatives, nor to twist every related fact so as to interpret it in a light most favorable to itself.

"As an example of this type of journalism, we refer to the kind of reporting given the legal action taken by the Northville Township Improvement Association in its appeal to the circuit court. THE PUBLISHED REPORT IN THE NORTHVILLE RECORD OF MARCH 12, 1953, REFERS ONLY TO THE LEGAL ACTION TAKEN BY MR. JOHN C. BURKMAN OF EIGHT MILE ROAD, WHEREAS THE ENTIRE MEMBERSHIP OF THE TOWNSHIP IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION JOINED IN THIS ACTION.

"We, therefore, submit that on the evidence of its own statements this newspaper has disqualified itself as an impartial leader of public opinion, but appears rather as a partisan purveyor of propaganda favorable to its cause."

Mr. Hicks, if you will examine the picture at the bottom of this column which shows the March 10th court order served on Mr. Earl Banks, Clerk of Novi Township, you will see that ONLY MR. BURKMAN'S NAME APPEARED AS PLAINTIFF at the time the Record's story was written, and that the Record's story was therefore accurate. Either you deliberately misstated the true facts to the Mayor and Village Council, or you erred honestly, as we all do at times. If the latter is the case, we submit that you should write another letter to the village authorities to correct your "error" so any future statements you may make in behalf of the Township Improvement Association will not be suspected of the bias with which you charge us.

For the information of the general public, we point out now that it was not until Wednesday, Mar. 11, after the Record had gone

ARGUMENT ON GRAVEL PIT

LEGAL MOVES AGAINST CITY

Oakland Co. Court Action Now Includes Village and Northville-Novi Townships

Arguments waxed hotter this week in the city versus village controversy to be voted on at the Apr. 6 election, with speculation regarding whether a vote in favor of becoming a city would prevent or delay the opening of a 55-acre gravel pit at the northwest corner of Center St. and Baseline Rd. overshadowing interest in legal efforts to block holding the election.

Highlights of the past week's legal developments included:

1. John C. Burkman, the original plaintiff in the legal action instituted Mar. 10 in Oakland County Circuit Court to block the election, filed a petition on Mar. 12 to amend his original bill of complaint to include also Northville township and the Village of Northville as defendants. Burkman's original bill of complaint dealt mostly with alleged deficiencies in the initiatory petitions circulated by the City Incorporation Committee to bring about the election. His petition was granted Mar. 16.

2. The Northville Township Improvement Association on Wednesday, Mar. 11, (after the Record had gone to press) petitioned the Oakland County Circuit Court for permission to intervene in Mr. Burkman's court action. This permission was granted by the court on Monday, Mar. 16.

3. A petition was filed Monday, Mar. 16 by Philip Ogilvie, attorney for the City Incorporation Committee for permission for Dr. L. W. Snow to intervene as co-defendant with village and township officials in the defense against Mr. Burkman's suit. Such permission was granted by the court.

4. The State Supreme Court has set Mar. 24 as the date for hearing on a mandamus action brought against the Secretary of State by Burkman, A. E. Northup and the Northville Township Improvement Association before the court action was instituted in Oakland County. This action petitions the Supreme Court to review the action of the Secretary of State in certifying initiatory petitions filed by the City Incorporation Committee and to determine the validity of such petitions.

5. The date of Mar. 25 was set for a hearing on the case in Oakland County Circuit Court.

Langfield Writes Letter

The city vs. village controversy overflowed into the Village Commission meeting Monday evening, Mar. 16. At that time a letter from Village President Conrad E. Langfield, written from the Henry Ford Hospital, was presented to the Commission. After reviewing the background of Dr. Snow's appointment to head the City Incorporation Committee and calling attention to the fact that the Village Commission has previously accepted several reports from this

A. Malcolm Allen Favors City Govt.

Commissioner A. Malcolm Allen told the Northville Record this week that he personally believes incorporation of Northville as a city would be beneficial, although he has not felt that in his official capacity he should endorse the City Incorporation Committee's plan.

Mr. Allen pointed out that he believes the division of opinion among village residents on the subject of becoming a city makes it difficult for the Village Commission to take sides officially, even though its members may realize the shortcomings of village government and the difficulty of handling the village's business affairs efficiently.

Community Bldg. Report Next Week

The Northville Village Commission will hold a special meeting next Thursday, Mar. 26, to receive and study a report which is to be submitted by the committee which has been developing plans for a local Community Building.

This committee is headed by Mr. Wilson Funk, village recreational director, and has for members several Northville residents who are interested in planning wisely for projects that will be in the interest of the village and adjacent areas.

City Could Have Had $330,146 From Track

Had Northville been a city for the past six years it would have received $330,146 in revenue from racing at Northville Downs. This would represent the 20% rebate which cities receive from the state's income from racing.

This figure was given to the Northville Record by State Racing Commissioner James H. Inglis this week in response to a request for a breakdown of the state's "take" from racing at Northville Downs over the past six years.

Mr. Inglis' figures, taken from records of the Racing Commission, are shown below:

	State's Revenue from Northville Downs	Northville's 20% Share If It Had Been a City
1947	$216,911	$43,382
1948	326,790	65,358
1949	238,879	47,776
1950	233,026	46,605
1951	294,721	58,944
1952	340,408	68,081
Total	$1,650,735	$330,146

Could City Oppose Gravel Pit Better Than Village?

What advantage, if any, would Northville have as a city in opposing the opening of a new gravel pit at the northwest corner of Center St. and Baseline Rd.?

Village Attorney James E. Littell was asked this question at the Village Commission meeting last Monday evening. Mr. Littell's reply was that a city would have no more authority to stop the opening of a pit than a village or township IF EACH GOVERNMENTAL UNIT HAS A ZONING ORDINANCE.

Each case where it is desired to open a gravel pit in contravention of existing zoning restrictions will be decided by the courts on its individual merits. Mr. Littell stated, with the important consideration being whether such a pit would constitute an injury to public safety and welfare. He expressed some doubt as to whether it could be proved in court that the proposed new Manning & Locklin pit would be viewed by the courts as contrary to public safety and welfare, basing his opinion of the recent adverse decision against Northville Township's efforts to block the Northville

Village Commission on Record as Opposed to New Gravel Pit

How can Northville prevent Manning & Locklin from opening a new gravel pit on the 55-acre tract of land in Novi township which adjoins the village's boundary along the north side of Baseline Rd. and the west side of Center St.?

This question occupied the attention of the Village Commission for a major portion of its session Monday evening, Mar. 16, with no definite answer forthcoming at the moment. The Commission indicated, however, that it is greatly concerned over the prospect of another unsightly hole in the ground immediately

Parking Problems Receive Attention

Northville's parking problems are to be taken up seriously by the Village Commission after the election and the 1953 budget have been settled. This was made known by Commissioners John S. Stubenvoll and Gerald C. Woodworth at the Commission meeting Monday night.

Pressure of other village business and personal responsibilities have combined to delay following through on recommendations for more adequate off-street parking space which were made last summer by the Village Planning Board, the commissioners reported.

Consideration will be given next month to finding ways and means to carry out the Planning Board's program, which it is believed can be handled without cost to taxpayers through a revenue bond issue to be repaid from parking meter receipts.

(This method, which is commonly used by other cities in Michigan and throughout the country, was suggested by the Record a year ago.)

The commission decided informally to invite Matthew B. Carey, of Detroit, who specializes in planning and working out the details of this type of financing, to meet with it during the latter part of April. Such a meeting could result in placing Mr. Carey on a retainer to work out Northville's parking problems and assist in financing that may be necessary.

Commission Opposes Gravel Pit

As evidence of this, the Commission adopted a resolution placing itself on record as opposing the gravel pit and asking the Novi Township Zoning Board of Appeals not to grant a permit to Manning & Locklin to open such a pit.

Discussion by Village Commission members and spectators revolved for some time around whether the proposed city of Northville might combat the gravel pit more successfully than could the present Village. Among the considerations bearing on this point was the fact that if the city were incorporated the major part of the 55 acres owned by Manning & Locklin would be brought within its boundaries.

City Favored to Wage Fight

There were some who argued that a city government would be more alert and aggressive in defending the interests of its residents against the encroachment of a gravel pit within its boundaries than would Novi township, which would be affected to a lesser extent as a whole, although certain of its voters living in Oakwood subdivision would be immediately affected adversely.

Whether legal steps taken by either Novi township or the proposed city of Northville can ultimately be successful if Manning & Locklin carries its case into court was described by Village Attorney James E. Littell as "doubtful".

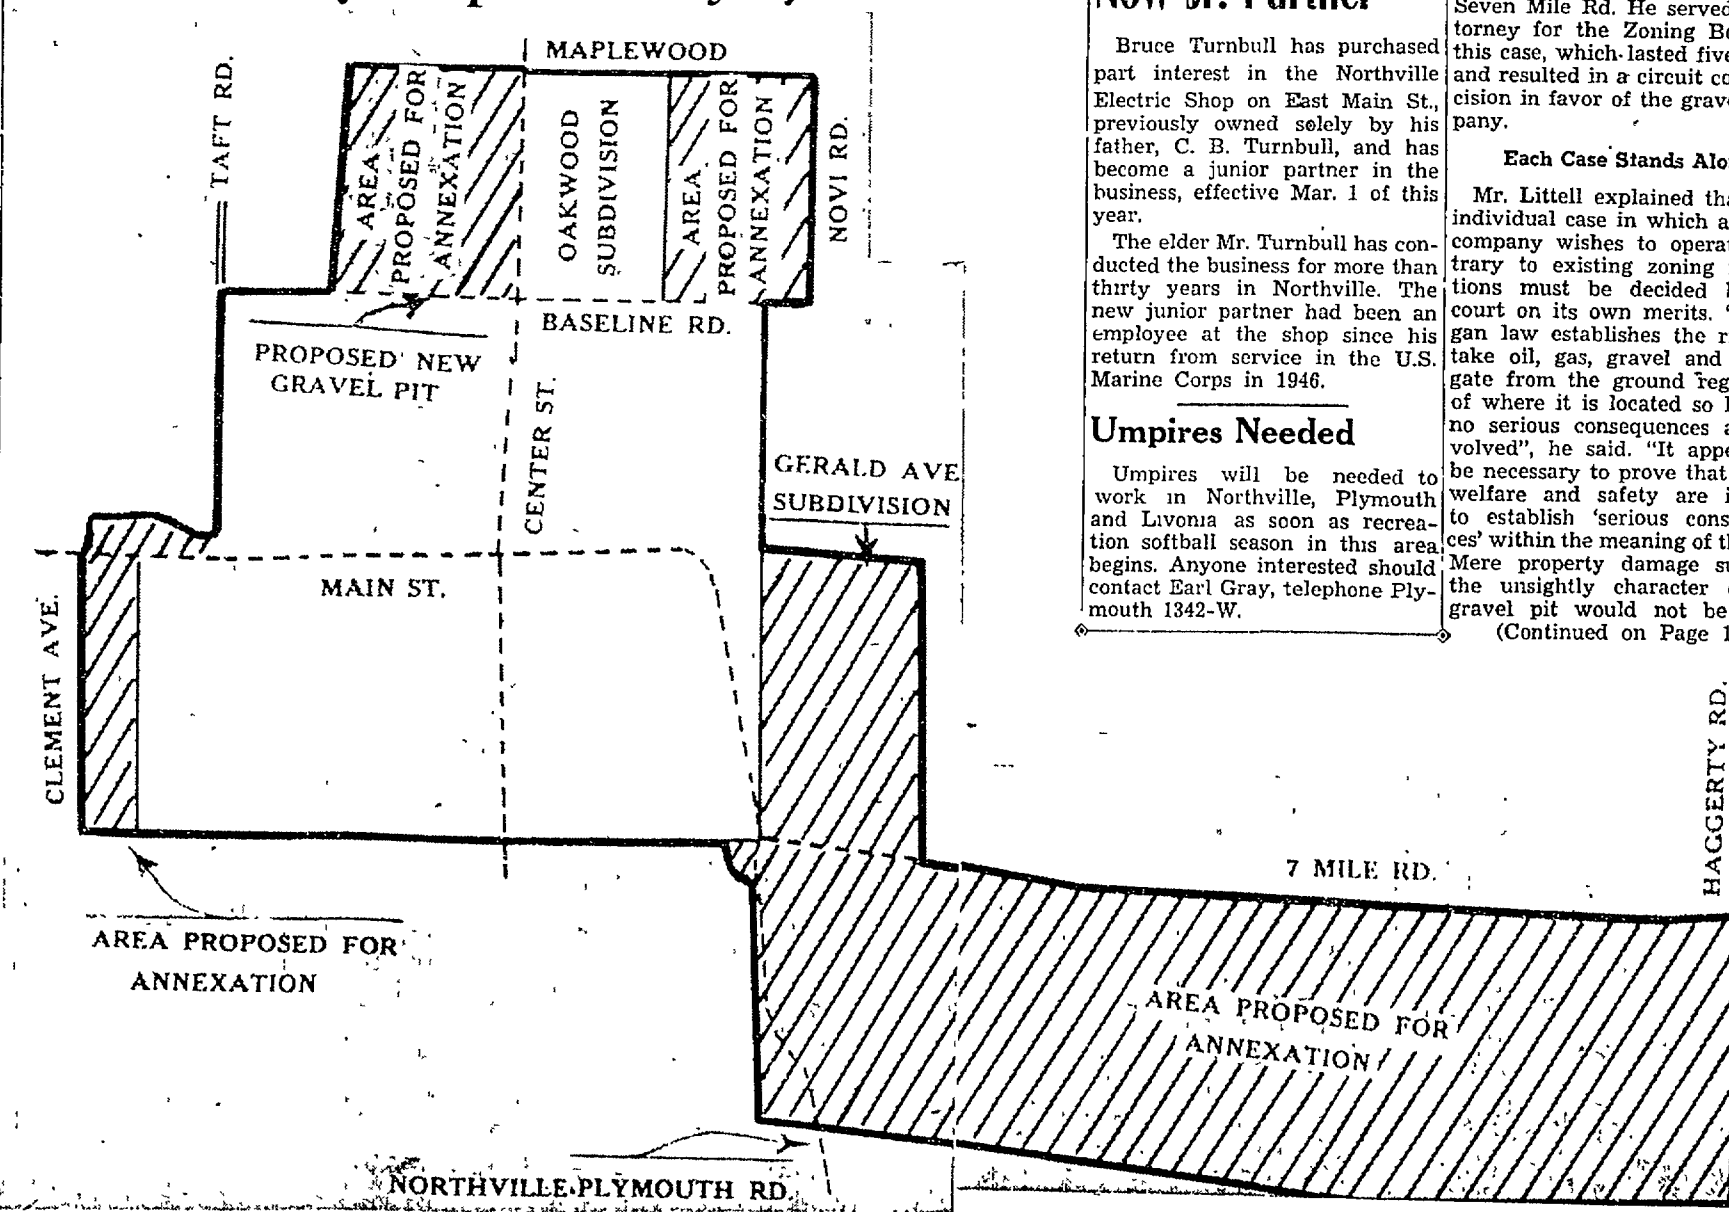

Mr. Littell's opinion was based upon the unsuccessful effort of the Northville Township Zoning Board to prevent the Northville Sand and Gravel Co. from opening a new gravel pit east of Beek Rd. and south of Seven Mile Rd. He served as attorney for the Zoning Board in this case, which lasted five years, and resulted in a circuit court decision in favor of the gravel company.

Each Case Stands Alone

Mr. Littell explained that each individual case in which a gravel company wishes to operate contrary to existing zoning restrictions must be decided by the court on its own merits. "Michigan law establishes the right to take oil, gas, gravel and aggregate from the ground regardless of where it is located so long as no serious consequences are involved", he said. "It appears to be necessary to prove that public welfare and safety are injured to establish 'serious consequences' within the meaning of the law. Mere property damage such as the unsightly character of the gravel pit would not be sufficient."

by the PETZ BROS.

We had just read of the opening of various golf courses when an expert golfer we know, came zipping into this show room of ours, because somehow the word had got around that Studebaker had come up with the smartest car of the '53 season, bar nothing. So he admired the cars and especially did he admire this Starliner "hard-top" of ours with its sweeping continental lines, and no doubt he'll be driving one every time he isn't driving a golf ball some place or another. Paused, during his inspection though, to tell us that golf was much like earning a living, "Same principle," said he, "no matter how hard you try to reach the green, you usually wind up in the hole."

Of course if you drop in to pay us a visit, you'll most likely wind up owning a new Studebaker and it won't really make any difference whether the color is green, blue, red or a host of others. It's the car itself that counts and how it does count. Smart, sleek in appearance, rugged, powerful in performance, it has everything that you want most in the car you own personally. It's the car that has other manufacturers wondering why their designers left their designs on the drawing board instead of putting them in the factory. Of course, to fully appreciate this ever-so-smart Studebaker you must see and drive it. We'd like to have you drop around this week-end.

They tell us of a certain fellow in this town that certainly isn't very fast with a buck and is a most frugal entertainer. He had company the other night and just before the guests left he finally paid the kitchen a visit. While wondering whether the folks will leave peacefully he discovered a bag on the kitchen table which on investigation proved to be full of water. Attached to the bag is a note that read "Dear Al: here we are, twenty little ice cubes that have waited hours for you to try us in a beverage of sorts. Boy are we pooped!"

Now we know the car you drive isn't ice cubes, but towards the end of a long winter it can be in much the same condition. We respectfully suggest that you bring it in, that our expert mechanics can tune the motor, give the car a thorough check-up and provide it with vital new oils and greases. You'll truly be surprised at the finer performance the car will provide.

That's that, but a fellow named Jones tells us that "trying to keep up with the Joneses" isn't half as tough as being a Jones.

The Record welcomes letters to the editor about matters of community interest. Anonymous communications will not be published, but in instances where the writer does not wish his or her name to appear, it will be held confidential.

Through the Editor, To the Women Only in Northville:
I think it's about time we women did a little thinking and talking about the matter of Northville becoming a city.

If you let your family run your home without any supervision from you, how would your budget come out? Would you be able to make the improvements or buy new appliances etc? Or do you feel you have more intelligence, (or let's call it know how) and time to run your household than the family that's away all day and aren't the experienced cook, dressmaker, etc. that you are? Your village government is part of your home, in a sense, and the way it is handled and what it accomplishes and what it COULD accomplish in the way of improvements is very much YOUR business.

First, if your husband had a chance for more earning power, would you turn it down? Would you be so sentimental about the dear old company and your antiquated furniture that you wouldn't make the change? That's the way some folks look at the city situation. They know, or should know after all these years, that there isn't enough money to pave streets, put in ample drainage systems, make new parking lots and all the things necessary to keep up with the progress that's right on top of us. Yet they are willing to let $100,000 a year pass right by. Think what a model city we could be. Look at us now, are you satisfied?

Second — How much housework, baking, etc. would get done if the family did it when they got home at night after a full day at school and work? Maybe there would be a good cleaning-up every two weeks. That's how the village government has to do it. They work all day at their various businesses, come home tired at night and legislate twice a month. Wouldn't it be much better to have a manager on the job all day long getting everything ready for the council when it meets? Now they meet to decide to check things up and get a report two weeks later and maybe two weeks or month after that. No real business runs that way. If they did they would never expand and make money to satisfy the stockholders in our community affairs? With the extra $100,000 we can afford a manager. No reflection on our present city officials personally they don't even have an up-to-date charter to work with.

Another thing, would you want your husband supporting another household? That's what our tax dollars are doing, supporting two governments when we need only one as we have everything to do with, city hall, fire department police force, etc.

Some of the appliances in our municipal household are adequate. We need not add more investment such as the fire department. It can act as it always has. We do not need to have firemen sitting around playing checkers waiting for fires.

Enlarge our police force. With more funds we can enlarge our force. In fact, we need a bigger force right now.

Special assessments. Ah, there's one, one that we will surely get if we want improvements and don't dig up the extra revenue, or we can go on waiting for new pavements and more of everything indefinitely.

There are many more items of which there can be a discussion and questions asked and if you will attend the town hall meeting that will be sponsored by the Merchants Association you will have the chance to hear the facts and have your questions answered. Write them down and bring them with you. That's the way to find out if it's good for ALL of us that Northville become a city.

To the Editor:

Too many times our "flowers" for good friends arrive too late to brighten the recipient's life. We have a good citizen in this community whom we believe deserves some "flowers" now. All we know of this man is good. We will mention just a few instances of his goodness.

The good health of this community was, and is, his primary aim. He has devoted a long and useful career to just this. It is incidental, if in the course of following this career, he has managed a good life for his family.

A more loyal supporter of our schools would be difficult to find, extending over a period of a quarter century or more. This support has been both moral and financial. When the football and basketball teams were in need of equipment—blankets, jackets, etc., they were donated by Dr. L. W. Snow, and when underprivileged school children needed attention—glasses and tonsillectomies, Dr. Snow gave of his time and services gratis. A solid pillar of local government, an ex-president of your Village, respected for his accomplishments in and out of offices. With a foresight for a good future for our children.

He has been instrumental in stimulating businesses in this community well beyond anyone's expectations. He has been a leader in social and fraternal organizations which have benefited by his knowledge, experience and clear thinking. Youth scholarships and recreation programs are interests he has promoted. He extended a helping hand during the depression years by arranging for a community garden on Eight Mile Road and assisted personally in planting and harvesting the crops. He personally sponsored and carried to most successful financial completion a number of sporting events, the entire proceeds of which were given to welfare organizations.

Being a true friend he has never rested on his laurels, plaques and mementos, but is continuing to strive for a better Northville. We have never known him to enter upon any community project with personal gain in mind.

He must have loved Northville to adapt it as his chosen home, giving so liberally of his time, energies and devotion to bettering this community.

There are too few of us who will do so much for so little. We have only touched upon the surface.

If we were called upon to introduce Dr. Linwood W. Snow, this is the way we would like to do it.

Dear Mr. Springer and Friends:

Your letter of 12 Feb. was very encouraging to so many of us who at times feel that we are the forgotten men. I have written to Francis Kearney in the name of the men who will share in the use of the candles.

I wish to express my sincere gratitude to you for your kindness and thoughtfulness. We believe that every candle will come as the result of some sacrifice and this alone makes us feel that our stay here is not in vain.

Utica Eliminates Mustangs from Regional Tourney

What was probably the most grueling and hectic basketball season in several years came to an end last Thursday night at Pontiac for the Northville Mustangs.

After winning the District Tournament title at Walled Lake, the Northville quintet was eliminated from the Regional tourney by Utica High School, which won 55 to 35, then went on Saturday night to claim the Regional title.

Glenn Howarth, returning to mid-season form, collected 15 points for the Mustangs.

It was the second quarter which proved the crusher for the Northville team. With the score tied 6 to 6 at the end of the first period, Utica hammered the hoop for 17 points while Northville was settling for three.

From then on, the Mustangs never caught up, even though they maintained their share of scoring.

Kurt Ely Called 'Envoy' for Florida

Kurt Ely, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard A. Ely, of Dania, Fla., was regarded as Broward County's ambassador to Michigan Mar. 10 by county chambers of commerce, according to an article in the Ft. Lauderdale Daily News.

The Michigan State College freshman presented a term paper Mar. 11 on South Florida to State's combined English grammar classes. The article stressed Broward County in Florida.

The paper was presented to Ely's professor, who thought the article was so superior that he called a special session of all English students.

Along with the reading of the article, Florida oranges were distributed to each student. The oranges were shipped to Michigan by Ely's parents. The Broward County ambassador also got telegrams from the secretary of the Dania Chamber of Commerce, and the secretary-manager of the Hollywood Chamber.

Ely attended Northville schools and lived most of his life here.

Underground Water Leak Fixed by Crew

Water streaming into the basement of Marlene Shops forced a Northville streets department crew to dig through the pavement just north of the intersection of Main and Center streets, on Center St., early this week.

The crew, under the supervision of Superintendent Herman Hartner, Jr., had to use a pump to draw away the water which streamed into the hole as workers dug down more than six feet to get at the leak in a small pipe.

FIVE YEARS AGO—

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carlson of Northville were scheduled to appear on the "Hi Neighbor" program over radio station CKLW from the Fox Theatre. The Carlsons were chosen to appear on the program because of the work they were doing for the youth of the community to prevent juvenile delinquency.

Roy M. Terrill, treasurer of Northville Township, reported that 96 percent of the township taxes were paid. The total roll was $98,432.62.

The valedictorian and salutatorian of Northville High School for the class of 1948 were announced as Patricia Johnston and Edward Lanning.

Chick Harbert, golf pro at Meadowbrook Country Club, came up with his first tournament victory of the winter golf season at Jacksonvile, Florida.

Patsy Mulligan and nine of her little friends celebrated her fourth birthday with a party at her home on Eight Mile Road.

TEN YEARS AGO—

A large crowd of interested bowlers watched the Ely League of Bowlers beat Billy Rogells Tigers by 226 points at the Center Street Recreation Hall. All proceeds of the match went to the Red Cross War Fund campaign.

Northville came through with a registration of 204 donors for the blood bank, which gave Northville the privilege of making an appointment with the Mobile Blood Bank motorized Unit to come out here.

Coach LeCronier was to take Northville High's basketball team to Ypsilanti for their first engagement for the season in the annual State Basketball Tournament.

Mr. and Mrs. L. VanValkenburg who lived 49 of their 50 years of married life on their farm on Beck Road, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their home near Chelsea, where they had moved about a year ago.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO—

Justice Arthur S. Nichols was elected president of the Village Council.

A dinner dance at the Northville Riding and Hunt Club marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cassie. Of their 65 guests, 18 had been present at the wedding 25 years ago.

TWENTY YEARS AGO—

Village employees were paid in scrip.

Mrs. Ralph Hay, assisted by Mrs. H. A. Boyden, entertained twenty officers of Orient Chapter O.E.S. in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Dean Griswold and Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston.

The "bank holiday" continued to be the main topic of discussion.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO—

Bob Power was chairman of a committee in charge of a benefit dance for the baseball team sponsored by the Student Council.

William E. Ambler announced the reopening of the Park House. Miss June Filkins entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Carrie Fizzelle.

Ford Rotunda to Re-Open in June

The Ford Rotunda, Detroit's biggest tourist attraction and gateway to the famous Rouge plant, will be reopened about June 1 as part of Ford Motor Company's 50th anniversary observance.

Thereafter, it will be open to the public seven days a week, including holidays, from 9 a. m. until 10 p. m.

With an accent on the future, artists, designers and architects have completely remodeled the 110-foot-tall gear-shaped structure which was built for the Chicago World's Fair in 1934 and later moved to its present location in Dearborn, Mich.

Animated displays, sculptures, murals and dioramas in the air conditioned building will tell the story of progress in the automotive industry—how science and manufacturing skills have been combined to produce a better way of life, and what they hold for the future.

The exhibits will portray the conversion of raw materials into finished products; the effect of industrial advancement on standards of living; the role of research and engineering in automotive production, and the potentialities of a modern industrial organization.

A renovated theater, with a seating capacity of 385 persons, will present film programs daily. The W. B. Ford Design Corporation has developed a scale-model "city of the future" to show what life will be like in years to come.

Marshall Fredericks, the sculptor, has fashioned 16 massive reliefs to depict the contribution of basic industries to the making of the automobile.

R. Buckminster Fuller, structural theorist and designer, has developed a geodesic dome that will cover the circular inner court of the Rotunda.

On the grounds, a half-mile roadway will contain sections of different road surfaces that have evolved with highway transportation over the world.

More than five million persons visited the Rotunda in Dearborn before World War II, when its display areas were converted to office space.

YOU need it every day...

How many times each day do you use such a common thing as a chair? Can you imagine trying to get along without it?

It's the same with your telephone. You rely on it constantly. And it serves you for only pennies a day. The telephone is one of your biggest bargains. And it isn't up in price nearly as much as most things you buy.

Worth a lot more than it costs

Michigan Bell
telephone Company

79 Million Phones Used by World

Recent statistics released by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company show that the present number of telephones in the world exceeds 79,000,000.

There were nearly 5,000,000 telephones added to the global network during 1951, to bring the world total to 79,400,000. AT&T explained that it takes more than a year to gather information for its annual world telephone count, hence all of its figures quoted are as of Jan. 1, 1952.

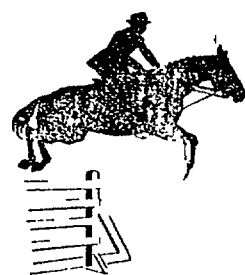

More than half the increase in telephones was in the United States, which has only six per cent of the world's inhabitants. The U.S. tabulation shows one telephone for every three persons in the country, compared with average of only one in every 68 persons in other countries.

New York City, with 3,349,323 telephones, had more than any other city in the world. Among the foreign cities, London, with 1,710,000 telephones ranked first. Washington, D.C., had the greatest density of telephones per population with about 64 for every 100 persons. Atlantic City was second with nearly 55, and San Francisco was third with about 54. The foreign city reporting the greatest telephone saturation was Stockholm with almost 50 telephones per 100 persons.

Canadians averaged 378 telephone conversations per person for the year, the highest per capita calling rate reported. The United States ranks second in this respect with approximately 376 conversations, and Sweden was third with about 309.

Besides the Bell System, telephone service in the United States was provided by nearly 5,500 other privately-owned telephone companies as of January 1, 1952.

WHEN TIME IS MONEY
... A GOOD FARM WORKSHOP PAYS FOR ITSELF OVER and OVER

Equipment breakdowns during the busy season can really cost money. That's why so many folks now have complete workshops right on the farm.

With electricity powering welders, saws, drills, grinders and similar tools, you can get back in the field quickly—and at very low cost. Off-season, you can repair equipment that's not in use and also build many labor-saving devices yourself.

Your Edison Farm Service Advisor will gladly help you plan an efficient workshop and recommend the proper wiring. Call or visit any Edison office. There is no obligation whatsoever.

J. R. Keys and son Leon working in the well-equipped shop on their Sanilac Co. farm. Mr. Keys says: "I couldn't farm without my shop. The welder alone has paid for itself over and over again."

Shown using an electric saw, Percy Rader of Huron Co. reports: "The shop is one of my farm's biggest assets. Power tools make it possible for me to do nearly all my own repair work."

Phillipine Students In Need of Books

by Ursula Hamacher

Recently the Student Council received a letter from Ifuago Academy, Kiang, Philippines, where we had sent a one year subscription of "The National Geographic". In this letter the school thanked us and told us something about themselves, their country and their people.

In the course of this letter, they mentioned the need for some good books to supplement their limited school library. The Student Council, at their last meeting, decided to buy some books for this school. Unfortunately, however, books are expensive. So if you have any books that you are willing to send, please bring them to the school. The Student Council will collect them and send them to the Philippines.

Mr. Meaker's sixth hour sociology class was fortunate enough to hear an excellent talk given by Mr. Bruce Marshall, of Walden, Ontario. Mr. Marshall, who is a member of the Detroit Round Table, an organization of Christians and Jews, spoke on prejudice—and how to fight it. Judging from the student reactions, his talk was very well received.

"The Sophomore Swing", sponsored by who else, was held in the gymnasium Friday night, Mar. 13. The high school orchestra played, except for the square dances, in which records were

Contributions to Easter Seal Drive Help Handicapped People to Earn Living

Homecraft arts are hobbies to most abled bodied people but to homebound handicaps it's the only means of livelihood.

To enable the unfortunate individuals to use their hands and fingers actively so that they can do such simple things as dress and feed themselves long periods of occupational therapy treatments are required before they can make homecraft articles.

This is a service that your Easter Seal contributions to the Wayne Out-County Chapter, Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, brought about three years ago and has enabled them to continue.

"Sixty-two persons received occupational therapy in the area this year. One third of them are under 21 years of age, whereas the average age for my entire case load is thirty-four years," said Miss Millah Graves, Occupational Therapist, for the chapter.

When asked how these homebound cripples sold their merchandise, Miss Graves said, "A permanent sales outlet was established in Wayne County Health Dept. lobby, last year. Then special sales are held in busy shopping centers in various communities during the year."

Miss Graves, will appear on the Pat 'n' Johnny program WXYZ-TV, March 19, to tell the television audience of her work with handicapped children and adults serviced by the Wayne Out-County Chapter.

Every year more services are added for the benefit of cripples by Easter Seal donations but more funds are needed to carry on. To continue the Chapter's month-long summer day camp it is essential that special transportation equipment be purchased. Recreational activity is needed for the teenager and young adults.

Crippled children outgrow their crutches, braces and wheelchairs. This equipment eventually wears out and must be replaced with new. You cannot take a crippling disability away from a person, you can only treat and teach them to use that which they have unaffected.

For those who contribute to the Easter Seal drive by check and are perplexed by the long name of the Wayne Out-County Chapter for Crippled Children, you can make your donation out to "Easter Seal Society" and mail to the Chapter, Eloise, Mich.

This month-long drive ends April 5.

Rene Angell Dies Suddenly Feb. 26

Villagers will be saddened to learn of the death of Rene M. Angell, who passed away suddenly on Feb. 26 in San Diego, Calif.

Mr. Angell, a former Northville resident, was 55.

A funeral service was held Mar. 2, with burial at Greenwood Memorial Park in San Diego.

Mr. Angell was born in Northville and graduated by Northville High School in the class of 1916. He attended the University of Michigan and later taught school for three years before employment in the offices of the Pere Marquette Railroad in Detroit.

After 26 years with the company, he retired and moved his family to California. He was the owner of a gift and card shop there at the time of his death.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth and two daughters, Mrs. Lois Kramer, and Mrs. Elizabeth Greenlee, both of San Diego. There are two grandchildren.

Other survivors include three sisters: Mrs. Irene McKinney, of Livonia; Mrs. Georgia Waterman, of Manassas, Mich.; and Mrs. Gladys Rossman, of Grosse Ile, Mich. A brother, Almerion, lives in Northville, and several nieces and nephews live in several Michigan communities.

COMING: "THE PROMISED LAND"

Across the narrow Straits of Mackinac lies a land of glorious natural beauty, abounding in scenic grandeur, reaching into the north and west for three hundred miles in a long and lovely peninsula. While it is part and parcel of Michigan Outdoors, many a lower peninsula resident has never looked upon the "land of Hiawatha" largely because of a single factor of distance: lack of highway connection.

The narrow waters of the Straits must now be traversed by ferry—and while the boat trip is attractive to the tourist, the unavoidable delay is often annoying and discouraging to travel.

Now, with the promise of a bridge as the connecting link, the economic history of the upper peninsula is surely facing an abrupt upward swing. Travel for pleasure and commerce will increase by leaps and bounds with the completion of the long bridge sometime in 1955.

"Gold Rush" On The Way

New money will pour across the Straits. New resort property will find ready customers. The rocks and rills of the Porcupine Mountains will thrill the eyes of countless new visitors. The majesty of Tahquamenon's falls will inspire thousands of amateur photographers, and the rugged, incomparable beauties of Lake Superior's shore will add to the most memorable of all vacations.

But there's more—much more to be gained by the advent of this iron link across the Straits. Industry will eye the advantages of producing in the Upper Peninsula... and there are many. Employment will mushroom, and with the increase in payrolls buying power will rise. Business can look for boom years ahead.

Closer Unity Established

Politically the coming bridge will forge a link long needed to bring the two peninsulas in closer relationship. In close geographical contact with Wisconsin on the west, there are many residents of the upper peninsula who find it hard to believe that their capital city is Lansing so many, many miles and a boat ride away. The bridge will work both ways, and residents of the Keweenaw copper country will drive southward to see how "the other half" lives. Chances are they'll get homesick, too, for the way of life above the Straits is wholesome, healthful and satisfying the whole year round—with a big back yard of top attractions in Michigan Outdoors!

Jr. Police Favor Drill Program

Northville's Junior Police had a full morning at their meeting Saturday, Mar. 14, at the Boy Scout Building.

They accepted, as a program, they want to develop, an outline of a drill program presented by Patrolman Gil Glasson. The drill program would insure representation of members in all future parades in the village.

Robert Lyke introduced a motion to send an open letter to the ladies who sponsored the bake sale to raise funds for the Junior Police. After a second by Karl Karg, Jr., the motion was approved.

A total of 44 members answered the roll call when the meeting was opened by Junior Police First Lt. Mike Baggott.

Members decided they would have a nature hike Mar. 28, Saturday. They will leave at 10 a.m. sharp and return home at noon. A camp-out in May was discussed, as well as a bird house building program. A motion made by Mike Eastland favored another camp-out for the next business meeting, which will be Apr. 11. Members agreed to the date.

All 44 members present received Junior Police identification cards before the meeting was adjourned five minutes before noon.

Village Labeled as Unable to Handle Sudden Disaster

Northville Red Cross committee chair-women heard Northville labeled as "far behind other communities in this area in disaster preparedness" by the Wayne Out-County Branch chairman of the Red Cross at their meeting Monday night.

Explaining that disaster preparedness by Red Cross members is completely separate from Civil Defense activities, the county chairman said that an atomic bombing in Detroit would probably mean that five to ten thousand city residents would pour into Northville in a matter of two or three hours. To be unprepared for such an influx of bombing refugees would be disastrous, he said.

As part of a preparedness program, classes in home nursing and first aid will be organized by committee heads, Mrs. Robert Deering and Mrs. Hugh Godfrey, respectively. Any women interested in joining the classes should contact them.

Another phase of the Red Cross program will be given attention when the mobile blood unit makes another visit to the village May 5. Mrs. W. C. Forney, chairman of this group, states that in addition to the need for blood donations for servicemen in Korea, the need of the local bank is also great. It should be maintained at 150 pints, but has dropped to 57. Seventy-one pints have been withdrawn for local use in recent weeks, and must be replaced, she said.

Committee heads of the recently reorganized Northville Branch of the Red Cross are Mrs. A. C. Carlson, branch chairman; Mrs. W. C. Forney, blood bank; Mrs. John Gibson, volunteer service; Mrs. Sidney Junod, secretary; Mrs. C. Harold Bloom, treasurer; Mr. Arthur Carlson, co-chairman for disaster; Mrs. Hugh Godfrey, first aid; Mrs. Robert Deering, home nursing; Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., Junior Red Cross; Mrs. Louise Cansfield, home service, and Mrs. Alton Deuster, entertainment and instruction.

Movie Illustrates Easter Seal Work to Rotary Club

A colored movie which graphically illustrated the use of money collected in the Easter Seal drive, currently in progress, was shown at the Rotary Club meeting Tuesday. The first part of the movie was narrated by Percy Angove, a Northville Rotarian who is Executive Secretary of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

After the movie, Rotarians stuffed envelopes with letters, Easter Seals and return envelopes while Mrs. Herma Taylor, R.N., Executive Secretary of the Wayne Out-County Chapter, told of the first crippled children's day camp at Plymouth last year, and explained plans for another camp this summer.

Villagers will receive the envelopes containing letters and seals and will be asked to contribute as much as possible to the important fund for helping crippled children and adults.

The movie, "Easter Seals at Work," showed how 1500 home-bound crippled children and adults have, through occupational therapy, been taught to help themselves to such an extent that many of them have learned home trades which enable them to earn at least a partial living.

Wayne Out-County board member Russell Amerman, in commenting on the work of the society, emphasized that rehabilitation work done by the society is not regarded as charity, but a way of giving the handicapped a chance to regain their self-respect through their own efforts. Local drive chairman John M. Miller had charge of the program, introduced Mrs. Taylor and supervised the envelope stuffing project.

Local Artists Display Work at Exhibit Sunday

More than one hundred friends and visitors viewed oil paintings and water colors done by the 23 students of Mrs. Marion Sober at a public exhibition held last Sunday afternoon at her Sheldon road studio.

Expressing appreciation of the still-life showings of Marge Owens and Mildred Walker, Mrs. Lila Humphries of Plymouth selected the pictures for display in the Creative Show to be held in Plymouth some time in April.

Marjorie Owens showed a delicately colored still-life of an antique perfume bottle and an exciting, rich-toned still-life of driftwood, starfish and shells, was Mildred Walker's contribution.

Margaret Kappen's still-life showed ivy and candles done in soft tones and Ann Mae Proger's composition centered around a realistically painted African violet. The poetic coloring technique of Marie Keen exhibited in her still-life of fruit and ivy was among the best shown.

A still-life of a vase painted in tones reflecting an Oriental feeling was Mary Hollis' work. JoAnne VanAken exhibited a portrait of her fiancé and Gladys Weiss offered an interpretive portrait of her daughter, Marlene. A dramatically colored picture, "Treasure Under the Sea" was Betty Proder's painting and Catherine Hartley's unique portrait consisted solely of symbols representing her model.

Virginia Proder's outstanding picture was of an African bird against a striking aqua and pink background. Childhood memories of the Lake Michigan dunes provided Alice Maas with subject matter for her painting.

Janice Whyte's charcoal of Early American items was charming—a picture demonstrating rhythmic technique and a vividly colored tropical composition was Cy Frid's exhibition.

A delightful oil painting of spring flowers and a brass teapot was shown by Ellen Clarke and Dorothy Frid offered a quaint picture of a table set for tea.

Nancy Wistert's oil painting showed a still-life with coloring varying from intense dark to light, and a well done, vividly colored still-life in oils was Viola Groeneweg's contribution.

Spring classes in ceramics and painting will begin April 20 at the studio at 19061 Sheldon road, Mrs. Sober said.

Girl Scout Fair Hailed Success

On Saturday, Mar. 14, in conjunction with the observance of the 41st anniversary of the founding by Juliet Low of the Girl Scout movement in the United States, Girl Scout and Brownie troops of Northville presented their annual fair in the Presbyterian Church House.

Approximately 250 girls participated in an exhibit of their work and the presentation of a varied program of songs, dances and dramatic skits. Troop leaders and co-leaders under the direction of Mrs. Francis Jennings assisted the girls in their ambitious undertaking, while a musical background was provided by Mrs. George Weiss and Mrs. William Williams. A large and most appreciative audience, including representatives from most of the sponsoring groups, evidenced the growing interest of the community in the Girl Scout movement.

The talent and high degree of craftsmanship developed among the troops clearly demonstrates the value of a year of good, wholesome fun and activities ranging from camping, homemaking and service projects to training in grooming and poise.

The giving of birthday pennies to the Juliet Low Memorial Fund brought the afternoon's entertainment to a close, after which Troop No. 1, directed by Mrs. Drake Older, served refreshments to the girls and their guests.

State Juggles Tax Collection Date, Helps School Problem Temporarily

by Gene Alekman

Lack of state funds won't cause state schools to close—not yet, at least.

The legislature last week finally agreed to move forward to May 15 the due date for corporation franchise taxes. This will permit the early collection of $35,000,000 which can be passed on to schools. Since many large corporations previously indicated they would not object to paying the shot now instead of Aug. 31, the move is expected to bring in $15,000,000 at once. Penalty provisions for late payment were substantially softened so that corporations would not be unnecessarily pinched by the date change.

In the third month of sessions and with little accomplished to date, members have an eye on adjournment and how they can plan their strategies to take advantage of remaining time. Bills have been introduced in both houses to set May 22 for the final session. Under the present system, all bills must be submitted 69 days earlier to allow time for printing and study. Exceptions are revenue and appropriation proposals or new bills that have general consent.

Main reason little has been done about new tax rates, observers say, is the approach of spring elections. Both Republicans and Democrats, while anxious to clean up the state's financial troubles, are even more concerned with political implications.

Neither party wants to give the other any political advantage by taking action which, though sound from a legislative standpoint, might antagonize segments of the voting population and give opponents an opportunity to cash in with votes.

A good example of such thinking is the now nearly forgotten Princeton tax report, disclosed Feb. 16 after six months of hard work by nationally known tax experts. The recommendations called for no new taxes, but a redistribution of present monies and constitutional reduction of the present earmarking of funds. Many legislators agree that the program is sound. They will also tell you it hasn't a chance, except possibly as a long range goal.

For one thing, the present distribution provides many rural areas with big slices of state funds. For example, differences exist as great as 100% in state aid payment to counties of similar wealth; one city receives 90% of its total receipts, while three get less than 10%.

Republican rural legislators would be in the position of favoring a plan that would result in less state aid for their home areas. The most idealistic politician would think many times before he put himself in this position.

Democrats, on the other hand, cannot afford to be put in a spot where people think they prefer to capitalize on the deficit than help to solve it. They finally decided to ease financial pressures by agreeing to early collection of the corporation franchise tax.

Taxation committees this week were grooming, as alternate sources of new revenue, three bills: (1) Corporation profits tax; (2) manufacturer and wholesaler gross proceeds tax, and (3) business income tax. One of these bills is likely to emerge from the legislature, after the April election, as the solution to the state treasury deficit.

In the meantime, the corporation franchise payments will permit Auditor General John Martin to O.K. checks to local school systems for $23,000,000 this month. This is the total of expected corporate fees plus current shares of sales taxes. Mr. Martin figures the state will owe school systems $24,000,000 by the end of the fiscal year, June 30. This amount he hopes to offset early in July with an advance distribution of $28,000,000 to schools.

The state still faces, however, a deficit of some $55,000,000 and sooner or later, probably later, must find a way to return to solvency.

Among other bills and proposals in various stages of consideration by the legislature is one which would eliminate indeterminate sentences where a man is given 10-15 years. These were listed by Jackson prisoners as an important contributing cause in recent riots. Prison authority Austin H. McCormick states in a report of the situation that the indeterminate sentence, though annoying to prisoners, is scientifically sound because it tends to permit officials to hold a man until he is considered ready to be returned to society.

Another bill would alter the Hutchinson Act to require a fact finding mediation panel to handle labor disputes. Present law prohibits strikes by employees in public service and labor officials think it only fair to counterbalance the right to strike by providing some other recourse.

Approved by the House is a bill which boosts from $2,500 to $10,000 the maximum fine for gambling conspiracies. This was increased because the highest fine sometimes did not take the profit out of such enterprise—one defendant was fined $2,500 and $50,000 court costs, not an ideal way to prove that crime does not pay.

Investigations into the operations of Eloise or Wayne County Hospital were demanded in the legislature last week to find the truth about charges that mental patients are manhandled and to see if Civil Service officials are backing employees in jobs at the cost of discipline. Requests for investigation have also been made to check into charges that

Easter Bunny Comes In Style Pulling An Ice Cream Cart

What fun for the family to make an Easter egg cart out of ice cream, drawn by a team of bright-eyed bunny cookies! A perfect cart is the block-shaped carton of pre-packaged ice cream so conveniently available in your grocery or drug store. Buy either a pint or half-gallon of your favorite flavor, depending on your family's size and appetite.

To make the Easter bunny cookies, follow directions for your favorite sugar cookie recipe. Cut half the dough with a bunny cookie cutter, and remaining half with a round cutter. After baking, place bunnies upright on base in small mound of confectioners' sugar frosting. Place block-shaped ice cream on serving platter. Mound shredded coconut on top of ice cream to resemble Easter nest; fill nest with jelly beans. Place chocolate mint patties on sides for wheels, and put bunnies in front. For individual carts, cut each pint of ice cream into 3 or 4 blocks, use two mint patties for wheels.

Village Commission Against Gravel Co.

cient to uphold a zoning law. Neither would the traffic problem which gravel trucks would constitute for Northville be a sufficient reason because the courts hold that traffic can be controlled and regulated."

Littell Suggests Resolution

It was upon Mr. Littell's suggestion that the Village Commission adopted the resolution opposing the new gravel pit. He also suggested that the Village Commission delegate one or two of its members to consult with Novi township officials about the extent to which opposition has developed in Northville and try to decide upon a course of action to be pursued in opposing the gravel company's plan. No action was taken to comply with the latter suggestion.

"BANDWAGON RELIGION"

In some sections of professing Protestantism today there are those that are beating the drum loudly for church union. They have the mistaken notion that sectarianism is our only trouble, and if we can present a united front to the world we will recapture a place of respect and influence. They tell us we must agree to dissolve our differences, suppress the right to individual interpretation, and combine into one great Protestant organization. The result is that we have church bodies which are miles apart in matters of orthodox convictions, trying to fool the world into believing that we are essentially one. The man or the church that refuses to join church union for honest reasons of conviction are being labeled as "old fashioned", "uncooperative", and held up to public ridicule by religious leaders. How long will it be before people realize that such mergers, in which they must water down their conceptions of truth, leads to spiritual anemia. We should make sure that what we hold to is based upon the facts taught in the inspired Word. We should be able to prove by use of the Scriptures what we believe to be true. We should stand ready to defend this truth without compromise. These things we must do if we will be consistent.

WILL YOU COME?

Village Commission followed by four days a stormy hearing by the Novi Township Zoning Appeal Board held Thursday evening, Mar. 12. This meeting was called by Frank D. Clark, acting chairman of the Zoning Appeal Board, to consider Manning & Locklin's petition for a permit to open the 55-acre gravel pit.

More than 70 persons, mostly from the Oakwood subdivision area of Northville and generally hostile to the gravel pit plan, overflowed from the upstairs meeting room of the Novi Township Hall into the hallway. Question after question was shot at Mr. Clark, members of the Appeal Board, and John Johnson, an engineer who had drawn up contour maps of the proposed gravel pit area and handled other engineering aspects of the proposal.

Engineer Is Criticized

The crowd became especially vociferous when a question by Elmer Balko, of 744 Horton St., Northville, revealed that Mr. Johnson has been working in an engineering capacity for both Novi Township and Manning & Locklin, and is being paid by the gravel company as well as the township.

After a stormy session that lasted for more than three hours, the meeting was adjourned until all members of the Zoning Appeal Board can be present. Only one regular member of the Appeal Board, Kenneth Farley, was present at the meeting. Its permanent chairman, James Erwin, was out of town. Harry Watson, a substitute member appointed by Mr. Erwin, also sat in at the meeting.

The Manning & Locklin proposal provided for the deposit of one-tenth cent per yard of gravel excavated in an escrow fund with the Depositors State Bank over a maximum period of 18 years which would be allowed to work the pit. This fund ultimately would be used to grade and rehabilitate the property to make it suitable for residential development.

Pit Would Injure Property

Oakwood residents took the position that the land would be defaced over the 18-year period, resulting in noise, dust and an unsightly hole across the street from the homes on North Center St.

They also contended that the pit would lower the value of their homes and property, create a hazard for their children, and possibly never be returned to a condition that would be tolerable to the people of the area.

It was further argued that even though the gravel trucks were to use an exit to Taft Rd., they would through necessity have to pass through the Village of Northville. This, it was contended would constitute an additional traffic hazard and further complicate the village's already serious traffic problems.

The audience objected strenuously to a proposal by Mr. Clark that the full Appeal Board would make its decision later. It was then that those present insisted on a second public hearing with all members of the Appeal Board present. Said Sid Frid, of Grace St.: "You won't be able to tell the other members who are absent tonight how we feel the same way we're telling you now."

When asked what the people of the subdivision should do if the township decided to give Manning & Locklin a permit to dig gravel Mr. Clark recommended that they see an attorney. Several of those present then immediately offered sums varying from $100 to $1,000 to carry the case as far as the State Supreme Court if it should become necessary.

For The Record

to press and a full day after Mr. Burkman's action was filed, that the Township Improvement Association intervened in court as co-plaintiff with Mr. Burkman. The story on this intervention appears on Page 1. Had Mr. Hicks wished this information published it would only have been necessary for him to inform us a couple of hours in advance of publication.

Before printing the balance of Mr. Hicks' letter below, we would like to call attention to the Record's policies in handling news concerning the move to make Northville a city. First, we have sought to give both sides an opportunity to state their arguments for and against the move in the Record. We have not attempted to edit or censor what either side has said, although there have been instances when we disagreed with statements that were made. In our editorial column, however, we have stated the Record's position on city incorporation clearly and have advanced our arguments to support our opinion. This is our editorial right, and we make no apology for exercising it in a matter which we believe to be of vital interest to the Village of Northville.

But we also understand and appreciate that those who do not agree with us likewise have the right to express their own opinion. To deny them that right would be manifestly unfair on our part. We are, therefore, publishing below the other parts of Mr. Hicks' letter. It reads as follows:

To The Honorable Mayor & Council,
Village of Northville, Michigan.

Gentlemen:

The Northville Record of March 5, 1953, expressed editorially a point of view that is of vital concern to every citizen in the Northville community and students of good government everywhere.

We refer to the article of this date which publicly berates the Village Commission for its failure to give official endorsement to the Citizen's committee on City Incorporation in these headlines: "VILLAGE COMMISSION ALIBIS ITS UNWILLINGNESS TO GO ON RECORD FOR OR AGAINST MOVE".

In an adjoining column the Editor intimates that the committee on City Incorporation may indeed be acting illegally but that it was acting on the advice of the Michigan Municipal League which advice is in conflict with the decision of the Circuit Court in the Walled Lake Case; And that if the committee had only had the benefit of the legal advice of Mr. Littell, who was fully aware of this court ruling, it might not have pursued a course of such doubtful legality.

In other words, the City Commission is taken to task for its failure to concur in an Act which has been declared illegal in the parallel Walled Lake Case and may be inferred to be illegal in this.

It seems to us therefore, that this criticism is undeserved and highly improper since there is also raised the propriety of how the Village Commission could endorse a city movement since it had not been elected on a platform calling for incorporation of Northville as a City, as pointed out by Mr. Littell. It would likewise appear that since Mr. Littell's opinion is so highly valued in the matter of City Incorporation, that it should be equally valued in advising against an action which conceivably could have far reaching legal consequences both to the Village as a whole and to the Commissioners individually.

It appears to us in the final analysis that the Village Commission is answerable to no one, but to the people who elected it, at the polls. And it is abhorrent to us that the deliberations of a legislative body anywhere and any place should be subjected to attacks by pressure groups of whatsoever nature, who seek to influence its decisions by the pressure of public opinion against it.

We regard this attack upon the people's representatives to be in effect an attack upon the people themselves and now feel that the issues are more clearly defined. They are: WHETHER THE NORTHVILLE COMMUNITY IS TO BE GOVERNED BY THE ELECTED REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PEOPLE THEMSELVES; OR IS TO BE GOVERNED BY AN INVISIBLE GOVERNMENT WHICH ENLISTS EVERY KNOWN DEVICE OF PRESS AGENCY TO PERPETUATE ITS POWER.

committee, President Langfield voiced the opinion that the commission had erred at its previous meeting in refusing to take any action on the Committee's final report which was submitted at that time.

Commissioner Claude N. Ely, presiding in the absence of President Langfield, concurred with the latter's statement that the commission had erred in not acting on the Snow report and, upon a motion by Commissioner John S. Stubenvoll, seconded by Commissioner Gerald C. Woodworth, the commission voted unanimously to accept the Snow report "with thanks".

Standing Room Only

Attendance at the Village Commission meeting was so large that every available seat was occupied and several persons had to stand in the hallway. The reason appeared to be universal concern over Manning & Locklin's petition to Novi township for permission to open a new gravel pit, and a desire to ascertain what legal steps might be taken to prevent this from occurring. Several spectators, and especially those who have been actively associated with the Northville Township Improvement Association's efforts to combat Northville's becoming a city, endeavored to elicit an expression of opinion from Village Attorney James E. Littell concerning whether by becoming a city Northville might be in a better position to oppose the proposed gravel pit operation. (For details see special story on Page One.)

That matter is found to be unstable in human experience is shown in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, Mar. 22, under the subject of "Matter".
The Golden Text is from I John (5:21): "Little children, keep yourselves from idols."
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Isa. 43:12): "I have declared, and have saved, and I have showed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God."
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include: "The human mind has been an idolater from the beginning, having other gods and believing in more than the one Mind." (P. 186.)

Church Playground Area Improved
The problem of poor drainage on the playground at the First Presbyterian Church was attacked last week when several men covered the area with mason sand donated by the Northville Cooperative Play Group.
The covering of sand will filter water, to the soil underneath, which will carry the water away.
Among the Play Group's activities last week was a birthday party Friday for Mary Jo Arnold. The group later visited the fire house on West Main St. to inspect the village fire equipment and have it explained to them.

News About Salem

CHURCH NEWS

A youth group is being organized in the Federated Church beginning with the age of 14 years. Our first meeting will be announced later.

We offer our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Pauline Merritt and the other relatives of the late Clyde Merritt, whose funeral was held Monday, Mar. 16 from the Casteline Funeral Home.

Women of the Missionary Circle of Salem Federated Church met at the home of Mrs. Glen Renwick on Tuesday afternoon, Mar. 17, to pack their missionary boxes so that the clothing could reach its destination as quickly as possible.

We are glad to hear that the four children of the Edwin Hamilton family should be safely over their long siege of chicken pox so that they can be back in Sunday School next Sunday.

SALEM UNION SCHOOL NEWS

Lower Room

Mrs. Faidherbe, teacher of the lower room, was sick Monday, so the children of her room had no school. We hope she will recover quickly so that she can be back again.

Several members of the beginners' class of the lower room attended the birthday party of Mary Beth Birkelbaw who was six years old Monday, Mar. 16. They enjoyed several games including a grab bag, during which each received a small gift. They then had a good time eating typical birthday party food. Mary Beth received several nice gifts.

Upper Room

Grade champions for the Detroit News Metropolitan Spelling Bee were as follows: fifth grade, Raymond Dahl; sixth grade, Arthur Sulkowski; seventh grade, Bonnie Burnham; eighth grade, David Dahl. Runners-up in the respective grades were Mary Ann Bock, Janice Nagel, Sandra Mooney and Margaret Smyth. The school champion contest will be held on Thursday, Mar. 26.

The fifth grade are preparing a puppet show for the story, "The Spanish Magician". Bobby Hillton, Eldon Raymer and Raymond Dahl are the members of the scenery committee. Joan Wilson, Mary Ann Bock, Virginia Burpo and Sharon Dolan will make the puppets. The announcer is to be Lynn Gates.

The school annual staff, composed of Murray Lyke, Bonnie Burnham, George Hawes, Priscilla Hilton, Margaret Dix and Sandra Mooney, have been working diligently after school to complete the material which has to be sent to the National Publishing Co., Kansas City, Mo. We are discovering some real art students as George Hawes and Priscilla Hilton do our title pages. The entire school is very grateful to Mrs. Myrland Lyke for doing the necessary typing.

OUR BOYS IN SERVICE

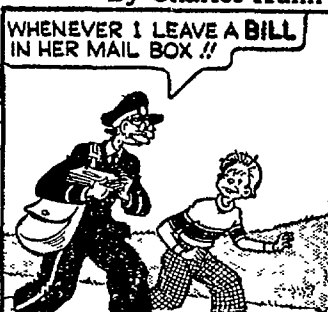

David Fulkerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fulkerson of Angle Rd., left early Tuesday morning, Mar. 10 for induction into the army at Ypsilanti, and is now at Ft. Custer. His wife visited him at camp Sunday, Mar. 15.

Ned Hardesty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Hardesty of Whitmore Lake, and brother of Carlton Hardesty of Salem, was honored at a farewell dinner at his home Sunday, Mar. 15, in the evening. Ned reported at Ann Arbor Monday, Mar. 16 for induction into the army. The families who were present also celebrated the 17th birthday of Frank Skiver, who stays at the Holly Opdyke home. Thirty-three relatives were present.

Gas CLOTHES DRYER

SAVE TIME! Install a modern automatic clothes dryer and dry your laundry fluffy-soft in minutes—day or night—rain or shine.

SAVE WORK! Throw away your clothes pins, lines and baskets. Simply toss rinsed laundry in your automatic clothes dryer, set the control, remove lint-free, bone-dry laundry minutes later. No sprinkling necessary when you set control for damp-dry.

SAVE CLOTHES! Dust, rain, sleet, snow, smoke and fog, all are enemies of your clean, white wash. Freezing weather and high wind, too, damage fabrics, shrink woollens and even break fibers of fabrics when they are removed from clotheslines in frozen condition.

Put an END to clothes drying chores and weather worries

They will visit Mrs. Wheeler's parents for a three weeks' stay, and are expected to arrive in England at 8 a.m. Monday, London time. What wonderful modes of travel are available to us today. Imagine being in England less than 24 hours after leaving Michigan. James Wheeler is a son of Will Wheeler of Holly, Mich. and also resides in Holly.

SOCIAL LIFE

Mrs. Dorothy Mantyk of Detroit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stacey, was a dinner guest of her parents on Sunday, Mar. 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Pahrer of Ann Arbor were Sunday dinner guests of Rev. Lucia M. Stroh. We are glad to report that missionaries, Rev. and Mrs. Ward Clark and children of Sanders, Ariz., are doing splendid work there with good results in reaching the Navajo Indians in that region.

Mrs. Gertrude Heintz had supper and spent Saturday evening with her daughter, Mrs. Carleton Hardesty.

Mr. and Mrs. Cloyd Hardesty and Mrs. Holly Opdyke spent Thursday in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pond were visited last Sunday by a niece, Mrs. Raymond Barnes, and sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway of Highland Park.

Mrs. William Bock and daughter, Mary Ann, attended the annual Girl Scouts' Fair in Northville Saturday, Mar. 14.

MISCELLANEOUS

The Salem Farm Bureau will April 7—Federated Missionary meet next Thursday, Mar. 19 at 8 p.m. at the home of William Scheel.

I'm happy to report that Mrs. Arthur Wheeler saw a robin last Thursday morning. Spring can't be far away.

Arthur Walker, who is digging up several of the drainage ditches in Salem in order to locate drainage trouble, found some small hair roots had grown through the tile on Six Mile Rd. in the business district, thus causing a stoppage there. We hope he will be able to locate some of the other drainage trouble too as these spring rains are causing a lot of big puddles in yards. We know Beth Buehrs will be glad to see the drainage ditch Arthur is digging for them.

George Roberts and Grant Taylor attended the funeral of their cousin, Clyde Merritt, at Northville Monday afternoon.

There is a definite swing to wood siding shingles for both old and new jobs. They are already coated in a good choice of colors and make a clean cut, neat job. They cost less than wood siding after painting and are a little more than asbestos or insulated asphalt siding. Their appearance is enough better, in our opinion, than the cheaper sidings to warrant their serious consideration.

IMPORTANT IN THE LIFE OF A BOY

The two Grand Rapids telephone men demonstrating signaling here are typical of hundreds of telephone employees throughout Michigan Bell who give generously of their time and their talents working with Boy Scouts.

Several of these telephone men, including three in Grand Rapids, have been honored with the national Boy Scouts' Silver Beaver Award for "distinguished service to boyhood." Fellow townsmen recommended the awards.

Telephone scouts work with boys in countless ways—on camping trips, on committees, teaching first aid and artificial respiration, and on many community projects. Why do they do it? One man explained:

"A hundred years from now it will not matter what my bank account was, or what sort of house I lived in. But the world may be different because I was important in the life of a boy."

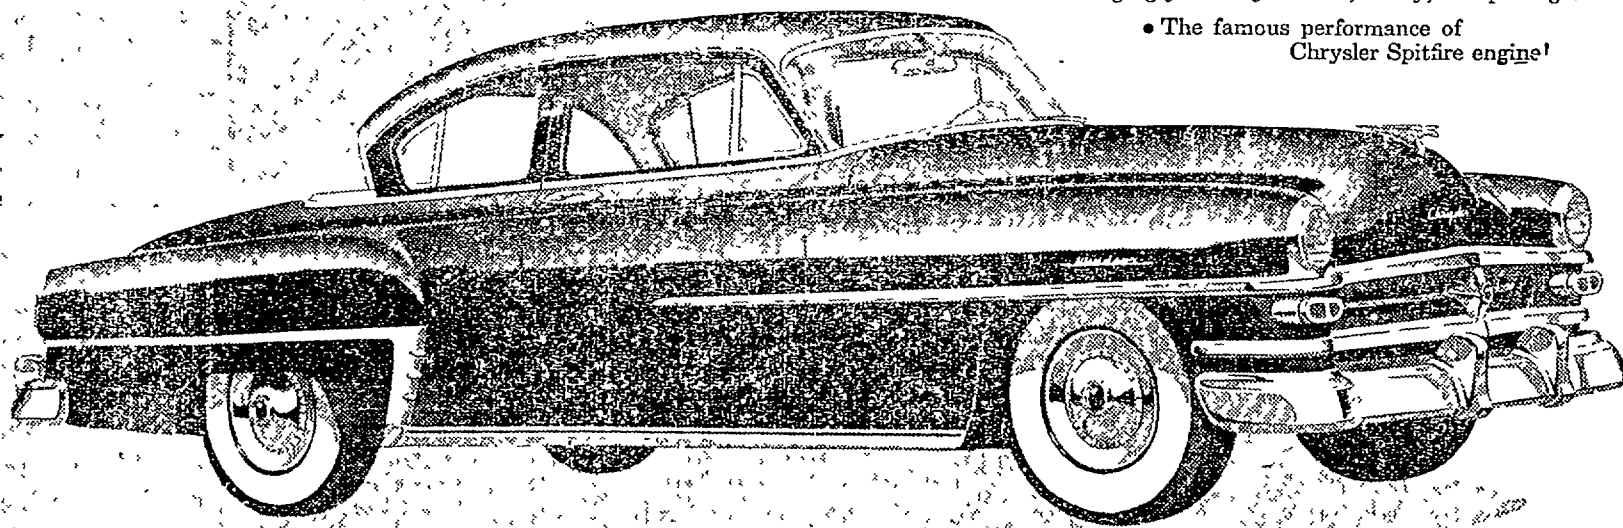

As good citizens and good neighbors, these telephone folks are trying to make their community a better place in which to live. This same spirit of service is reflected in the efficient, friendly and courteous telephone service they bring you every day.

It's people who make telephone service good
