"The birds don't sing for me. They just wake me up in the morning."

This remark is attributed to a Northville resident who has gained some notoriety locally by virtue of being a chronic complainer. We hope it will not some day be applied to the editor of the Northville Record because of our persistent urge to encourage some changes which we feel might be of benefit to the entire community.

We accidentally ran into a situation this week that should interest a considerable segment of our community. It relates to the Northville High School Band, which last Monday evening held its fourth annual banquet to wind up a year in which the sixty members have contributed liberally of their time and effort to make a great many civic events more enjoyable for hundreds of Northville people.

What interested us most about the band's annual banquet was that the members put on the affair with their own private funds. Wouldn't it be appropriate for some representative organization in the community to sponsor an annual dinner to honor these boys and girls who do so much during the year to provide music for many local events? Such a dinner could be financed at little or no cost by selling tickets to the public, and if properly publicized, would draw a large crowd of friends and admirers of the young folk. Even so, it would be little enough recognition of the part they play each year in community activities.

This week's Record is issue No. 1 of Volume 83, indicating that it is the first issue in the 83rd year of publication. However, the first issue, which hangs on the wall in the Record office, carries the date July 15, 1869. According to this, the paper lacks only 41 days of being 84 years old. Sometime in years long forgotten, our numbering system must have got fouled up a bit for we'll be celebrating our 84th birthday in another six weeks.

In reading the first "editor's column" written by the hopeful publisher, Mr. Samuel H. Little, we note that he showed a tendency toward viewing Northville's future with optimism. He said then:

"With this, the first number of the 'Wayne County Record', we present you with a new feature in the history of our village; and have added another step to the march of improvement. Gradually our town is becoming a place of importance—having educational advantages that cannot be surpassed in the state; and as good manufacturing facilities as can be asked for anywhere. With the certainty of railroad communication with the enterprising towns of Monroe on the south, and Holly on the north, besides intermediate towns of but little less renown, we are certainly sure of a space on the list of 'fast towns' and 'gay places'. We know of no reason why our beautiful village may not, with proper attention to enterprise and unfettered, free invitation to strangers, of either capital or trade to make their home with us, become one of the largest towns in the State.

"Already within a year or two past many new buildings have made their appearance on every side—new streets laid out, new walks put down in nearly every direction; and such variety of new and different objects of interest, that a person who might have left the town ten years ago could scarcely recognize this as the same place.—And what has occasioned all this? Simply enterprise! And if such is the fact, is it not best to aid and countenance every movement that will be of help to the growth of the place?"

Apparently editors have one trait in common—a desire to see changes that will benefit the community. Mr. Little's vision of Northville's future has hardly been realized in the form he foresaw, nor has our village become "one of the largest towns in the state". Nevertheless, it has continued over the years to be a pleasant place in which to live, and if it has not become the bustling manufacturing and business center that he envisioned perhaps this is not to the community's discredit.

We admire his philosophical attitude toward public criticism, which agrees pretty much with our own feeling in this respect. Said he in 1869:

"We know conclusively that we cannot please everyone, and therefore will but act in the best possible manner for the good of the community; chronicling all objects of interest, commending the worthy and condemning those deserving of censure."

High School Band Has Award Dinner

Sixty members of the Northville High School Band and guests held their fourth annual banquet in the Lutheran Church Hall on Monday evening, June 2. Afterward the band adjourned to the high school for a practice session under the direction of Dr. William Revelli, director of bands of the University of Michigan, and the honor guest of the evening. This was the high point for the evening and for the year, so far as most members of the band were concerned.

Awards Are Given

bers by Director Leslie G. Lee. Juniors and seniors who have played in the band for more than two years were given recognition certificates to supplement the letters which they received at the end of their second year. Other special awards also were given out to members.

Present as guests for the affair were members of the school board and their wives, Superintendent and Mrs. R. H. Amerman, Principal and Mrs. E. V. Ellison, Mayor and Mrs. Conrad E. Langfield and Dr. and Mrs. Revelli of Ann Arbor, and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Renard.

Veterans' Memorial Plot Dedicated

THE MEMORIAL PARADE HALTS FOR DEDICATION OF MEMORIAL PLOT.

V.F.W. and American Legion Posts Join in Memorial Day Ceremony

Veterans Memorial Plot, a final resting place in Rural Hill Cemetery for Northville's honored war veterans, was dedicated Memorial Day in a brief but stirring ceremony.

The new plot, carved out of the brown earth by hand over a year's period by American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars members is not yet covered by the grass which will grow there, but the level brown expanse gave away nothing in dignity of purpose at the time of the solemn dedication.

Former comrades in arms bearing the nation's colors, flanked by Army and Navy firing squads, stood in the central circle where Lloyd Green, first Northville serviceman to die in World War I, is buried. They faced the halted and hushed parade as four village clergymen re-enacted the dramatic incident of the sinking of the troopship "Dorchester" in January of 1943.

Four chaplains aboard the ship had given away their life belts to enlisted men aboard the stricken ship and united in a common prayer as they perished. The scene, re-enacted at the suggestion of Legionnaire Charles F. Murphy, was based on the book, "Sea of Glory," by Fr. Francis B. Thornton.

The Rev. Fr. Anthony Heraty used a Latin collect "... ego te absolve" and the Rev. Ivan E. Hodgson and the Rev. E. E. Rosow used two portions of the Lord's Prayer as the Rev. Harold F. Fredsell spoke a prayer from the Jewish Yigdal. These corresponded to the prayers of the four heroic chaplains, John P. Washington, George Lansing Fox, Alexander D. Goode and Clark V. Palling.

Previously, Conrad Springer, American Legion Commander, had called on the Rev. Dr. Fredsell, convener of the clergy, who told briefly the story of the Dorchester sinking.

The original idea for the Veterans Memorial Plot came from two members of the Legion, and received enthusiastic support of the veterans organizations, the Village Commission, Northville Township officials and the Rural

Softball League Opens Season

Tuesday night, Bloom's nudged Walled Lake Door 11 to 10 and the American Legion edged out the Mayors 6 to 5.

The eight-team league, with Doug Slessor in charge, will play games on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday nights at Ford Field. Teams in the league are V.F.W., Clarenceville, Cy Owens, Optimists, American Legion, Bloom's Insurance, Walled Lake Door and the Mayors team.

Village Valuation Higher This Year

The Northville Village Commission this week approved the 1953 assessment roll as submitted by Assessor E. M. Bogart and the Board of Review. It shows a total assessed valuation of $5,069,890 for the current year compared with $4,577,600 a year ago.

The tax levy for the general fund this year, based upon a rate of $14.90 per $1,000 valuation, will total $75,528. This compared with a total levy of $74,622 in 1952, of which $66,565 was for the general fund and $8,057 was for interest and retirement of Village bonds then outstanding. All bonds have not been retired so the entire tax collection this year is available for general purposes.

Assessments this year reflect an across-the-board increase of 6% in all valuations, together with a number of individual increases based upon careful study by the assessor and the board of review.

There also were some reductions which reflect special circumstances wherein property has depreciated in value.

Tax bills will go in the mail on or about July 1, according to a Russell Clarke, village treasurer.

4 Hurt in Auto Crash on Novi Rd.

Four persons were sent to Sessions Hospital last Saturday following an automobile crash on Novi Rd. just north of 10-Mile Rd. The injured, all of whom had been riding in a car owned by Floyd Tibbitts, a Plymouth City Commissioner, were Tibbitts and his wife, Florence, and their son-in-law and daughter, Charles and Rita Ryder.

The other car was owned by Chester Spencer of Walled Lake, who told Novi Township police investigating the accident that the car had been taken by some unknown person several hours before the accident occurred.

Floyd Tibbitts has sworn out a warrant for the arrest of the driver and Novi Township Police Officer Vern C. Loeffler is conducting an investigation to ascertain his identity.

According to Tibbitts, the car which struck him crossed the white line coming toward Northville and then continued bearing down on the wrong side of the road until the cars collided. Both cars were traveling at an estimated speed of 35 to 40 miles per hour, Tibbitts said.

Tibbitts suffered several fractured ribs, while his wife had a cut leg and other lacerations. The son-in-law, Charles Ryder, suffered cuts on his forehead and chin and his wife, Rita, sustained a fractured ankle.

Dale Schultz, 9, Struck By Car

Nine year old Dale Schultz received minor injuries in an accident Wednesday morning, May 27, occurring on West Seven Mile road.

Young Dale, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schultz of 48564 West Seven Mile road, was riding his bicycle on the way to school when he suddenly swerved to the center of the road into the path of a car driven by Kenneth L. Graham of 9830 West Seven Mile road.

The lad was released from Atchison Memorial Hospital following treatment for bruises. The driver was not held.

Garbage Disposal Problem Settled

Garbage collections will continue in Northville on the same cost basis as in the past, and by the same garbage collector, it was disclosed at the Village Commission's meeting Monday evening.

This report followed a temporary flurry of confused negotiations two weeks ago when it became evident that local garbage could no longer be fed to hogs because of a new state law forbidding this practice. At that time, Mr. George Sawyer, who has the collection contract locally, told the Commission that it would cost an extra $700 to $800 annually to lease an abandoned gravel pit for dumping.

It appears now that Mr. Sawyer has found a different place for garbage disposal that will entail no additional cost.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

A certain lady dropped around the other day for the first check-up on her ever so new '53 Studebaker. She told us she was in love with the car, in love with life and that things were pretty good in general, including her kids. The four-year old though, she told us, "has become a dyed in the wool cowboy fan, via the television set. Thinking that she might be spending too much of her time, viewing westerns that were old when I was young, I told her she should spend more time with other things."

"The little girl thought the matter over a moment and, as her mother reports, turned, put her arms around her mother's neck and consoled, "never mind Mommy, I love you even more than I do the wide open spaces."

And how you'll love the wide open spaces, once you're newly installed in one of these ever so fine Studebakers for '53. More beauty, more power, more economy than you've a right to expect, plus absolute driving comfort whether the trip be five miles or five thousand. And for sleek, out and out beauty, you'll find it hard to beat the "hard-top" convertible Studebaker offers this year. Drop around, try it, drive it, you'll be convinced!

Before the season gets too late, we must tell you of a conversation we had with a state fire warden recently. He's one of those fellows that spends the spring, summer and fall in one of those lonely towers, watching for the fires that you and I in a moment of carelessness may set. After listening to his experiences, we finally asked what he missed most during his long season. Without hesitation he replied, "temptation!"

Well the vacation season is almost at hand and how is that car of yours performing? Have you had a complete lubrication recently or is the bettered, tired grease of last winter still trying to do yeoman's service? And does that motor purr when you step on the starter, or is there a skip or a flutter here and there? No question about it, what it needs most at this instant is the expert attention of these mechanics of ours. Why not hurry over and have a really fine car in your service?

YOURS,

BILL and WILL PETZ.

GREAT LAKES BASS

Sometimes it takes the non-resident sportsman to find out where the best fishing in Michigan is available. Such is the case with Great Lakes bass—both small and large mouth. During the first two weeks of the season which opens June 20th you'll find Ohio anglers galore along certain shore lines of certain Great Lakes, wading and floating in what usually amounts to a most successful search for black bass. To be sure you'll meet Michigan fishermen there, too, but they'll be outnumbered!

Boats Available

While there are a few boat livers scattered along the shore it's best to carry your own or plan to wade. "Whisky Harbor" east of the coast guard light at Port Hope has one livery, with cabin accommodations, too, and there are others near Port Austin.

May Use Fly Rods

Spinning tackle is most deadly because of its distance casting possibilities, but fly rod fishermen, using tiny spinners or plugs take their limits, too. Moving west of Port Austin down the Bay shoreline to Caseville one finds bass fishing reefs in somewhat deeper water, requiring boat fishing.

In the Sebawaing area, around the huge bullrush islands, prime bass waters await you. Here you'll find the large-mouth variety close to shore. Boat livers are much easier to find in this section, too.

In any event, you bass fishermen will do well to explore Great Lakes waters this season in your quest for battling bass! It's another fishing thrill for you in Michigan Outdoors.

Choice Spots

There are rocky reefs for those who can find them in Lake Erie between Monroe and Toledo. Water lies no more than 3 to 4 feet-deep over these shoals this year, and with warmer water temperatures in this shallower lake bass will have completed spawning, and will be "on the feed."

But better fishing is to the north. From Harbor Beach around to Caseville the shoreline of the Thumb is home sweet home to hordes of big bass—almost all small-mouth in that area. To be specific about "where to go," there's a rock and shale formation just off Port Hope which always attracts the fish during the early part of the season. Crawfish scampers along to hide beneath the crumbling shale. During the scampers a goodly number are gobbled up by bass, moving into

Season Is Here When Speed Ups Accident Rate

With the arrival of the summer months, speed, the No. 1 public enemy on the highways, is increasing its harvest and wise motorists anxious to save their lives will keep this in mind by driving with the utmost safety, according to Sergeant Henry P. Kozowicz, commanding officer of the Detroit post of the Michigan State Police.

"Figures just revealed show that last year 48 per cent of the traffic violations reported in fatal accidents were for driving too fast, the highest percentage in the history of the state," Sgt. Kozowicz said. "Driving too fast doesn't just mean getting everything out of the car that you can, but going too fast for conditions such as traffic, weather and visibility."

Police agencies throughout the state are now cooperating in a campaign to urge drivers to control speed, Sgt. Kozowicz reported.

"Safety appeals are not just idle talk," Sgt. Kozowicz stated. "The record shows just how foolish it is to drive faster than you should. During 1952, for example, there were 160,829 accidents as compared to 176,587 in 1951, a reduction of 15,758. But even with fewer accidents, more people were killed or injured last year than during the year previously, or 50,837 casualties in 1952 and 50,058 in 1951. The answer was that cars were being driven too fast and hit with greater impact with more serious results."

"The law does not set a specific maximum speed limit, but it does require that cars be driven at a speed that is safe according to conditions. Sometimes this is higher and sometimes lower. But a driver who is anxious to save his life will not only drive cautiously, but watch out for the other fellow who isn't. And this is the season of the year for more accidents."

G.A.L.

Last September, much to the surprise and delight of Miss Markham, a record crowd of girls turned out for speedball. This was just the beginning of a new enthusiasm on the part of the girls of N.H.S. The attitude continued, and participation had to be limited in a few sports. Even so, the groups became so large it became necessary to have assistants to help carry on Miss Markham's work. The G.A.L. and Miss Markham were most grateful for the assistance of Mrs. Schipper, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. McCarthy.

This year three speedball playdays, two volleyball playdays and five basketball playdays were held. A baseball playday was planned at Cass Benton Park, but it was called off because of rain. For the first time, the G.A.L. is sending a girl to Girls State. Also, all four girls going to Girls State this year are active members of G.A.L. This is also the first year that a G.A.L. Banquet will be held. At this banquet, a Sportsmanship trophy will be presented to some deserving Senior. Also, the revised constitution will be presented and 36 new members will officially become active members. Due to the increased enthusiasm for sports more awards than ever before are being handed out.

The G.A.L. was happy to see Ursula Hammacher come out for all sports, and win a letter in the process.

Last Week the baseball and tennis equipment was put away for the last time until next September.

The 74 active members and 36 new members would like to thank Miss Markham for helping them to a greater understanding and knowledge of sports.

FOOTBALL

The 1952 football season got off to a rough start with Plymouth scheduled for the first game. Many of the Mustang players were new on the squad and had no experience under fire and fell to the well coordinated Plymouth Rocks with a score of 35 to 0. This game was a help to the Mustangs for it gave them experience under fire and showed the weaker spots.

With this experience the Mustangs went forth fighting and came out with a pretty good season. You probably all remember how close and exciting the games were. The two captains for next year are Al Iverson and Bob Burgess.

BASEBALL

At the start of the 1953 baseball season the Northville Mustangs had high hopes of capturing the Wayne-Oakland league baseball title. Their first league game was against the Brighton Bulldogs who squeaked out a 9 to 8 victory. The Mustangs then traveled to Milford and Lamar Nalley defeated them by a score of 3 to 2. The following two games against Clarkston and Holly were lost mainly because of errors. Nalley then came back to beat Brighton by a score of 10 to 4. Returning from the senior trip, the Mustangs lost to Claranceville by a score of 4 to 3. In their most recent games, Otto Wendt shut out the Milford varsity by a score of 7 to 0.

If the Mustangs win the remaining three games against Holly, Clarkston and Claranceville, they will end the season near the top of the league.

Coach Jones believes the boys have vastly improved since their first game and considers this year's squad a well balanced team. The boys who contributed to the success of this year's team are (according to position): Outfielders: Bill Sullivan, Bill Mosher, Judd Green, Joe Gordin; infielders: Paul Schoultz, Al Iverson, Dick Somers, Gene Rebitzke, Mike Rackov, John Hayes; pitchers: Lamar Nalley, Arland Lovett, and Otto Wendt; and Gary Hix as catcher.

We wish all the luck in the world to this year's team in their remaining games and to the future baseball teams of Northville High School!

TENNIS

For the first time in the history of Northville High School a tennis team was formed and coached by Mr. Schipper. When the beginning 20 boys met none expected any wins in their matches with schools like Bentley and Plymouth, and they were right. Northville's tennis team got beaten by Plymouth twice 6 to 1, and by Bentley 7 to 0. Roger Nieuwkoop and Bob Scheffer won a game each. The tennis team also participated in the regionals where they lost in the first round. It was good experience for the three participating boys. From the twenty boys who started out there are only seven left: Roger Nieuwkoop, Bob Scheffer, John Fisher, Jurgen Bonnet, James Rambeau, John Clark and Greig Chapman. The remaining boys enjoyed their learning and playing under Mr. Schipper and would like to thank him for his work and hope that they will have more success during the next season.

BASKETBALL

This year's basketball season offered many exciting games with many close scores. Scores like Northville 61, Plymouth 60; Northville 62, Keego Harbor 60. Another, and one of the most exciting games of the year, was Northville 50, Brighton 46. This game was really something to cheer about.

Out of 18 games played, only four were defeats. Each team was played twice and first on schedule was Plymouth. The Mustangs were very fortunate to be the first visiting team to play in Plymouth's new gym. They defeated the Rocks by a score of 47-42. The second game with Plymouth was even more thrilling than the first, going into an overtime. Garry Rix sank the winning basket, making the score 61-60.

The Mustangs defeated the Milford Redskins by about eight points in the first game, but were defeated by 10 points on Milford's own floor.

South Lyon was defeated by Northville by scores of 69-55 and 67-40.

The Brighton games gave us a victory, 50-46, and one defeat 53-55. These two games kept the spectators in suspense throughout.

The biggest upset of the season was when Holly, who hadn't won a game, defeated Northville 49-50.

Claranceville was defeated twice which gave another close game, 44-42.

The Mustangs also defeated Clarkston in both contests.

The Mustangs had a very good season, but it didn't stop there. They journeyed to Walled Lake to enter into the tournaments. Their first game was with Milford and they came out victorious by the score of 48-44. Howell was our next opponent. Dick Somers sank the winning point at the free throw line, the score being 43-42. This game won Northville the District Championship for Class "B".

Farewell From the Senior Class

As we take a short look back through the year, we suddenly realize that we, the class of '53, will soon end our days at N.H.S. These have been some of the best years of our lives. Within a few weeks, the graduates will be scattered miles apart. Some will join the Armed Forces, some will further their education, some will find employment. Some of them we may never see again. In leaving Northville it is the hope of each senior to always remember our school as tops. And to keep Northville on top is up to you Seniors of '54. Each member is responsible for keeping this school colors flying high.

We wish to remember and appreciate the effective teachers and administrators who have struggled to help us complete our schooling.

Our farewell wouldn't be complete if we didn't mention the privilege we have had being the head of the student body. We are now leaving this job to you, class of '54. May you have all the fun, success, and luck in your senior year as we have had in ours.

With the Classes

JUNIOR HIGH

The Junior High has had a busy time this year. They have ended the year with $398.00 in the bank. To help raise this money they have sold pop corn after school and at the games they sold milk during the lunch hours, and sold seeds.

Some of the Junior High classes have sent clothes to the needy people in Germany. One of the families showed their gratitude with a letter of appreciation.

Junior High president is Mark Bell; the secretary, Janet Mallott and the treasurer, Ardis Atwood.

THE SOPHOMORES

With Mr. Sherrard and Miss Panattoni as their sponsors and Eddie Mollema, Lynn Matzen, Mary Lovewell and John Clark as their officers, the Sophomore class has done a lot during the past year.

During the year, two bake sales and three dances occurred, pen and pencil sets were sold, envelopes were addressed for the Northville Downs, and after much work, the Sophomores reached and passed their $500 goal.

However, not all their time was spent in work. The Sophomore English classes journeyed to Detroit to see the play "Hamlet."

A bake sale is being planned by these people for June 6th at the bank.

THE FRESHMEN

The first meeting of the Freshman class was on Sept. 19, a which time they elected David Hartner president and Janice Owens vice-president. Then on Sept. 26 they finished electing their officers, choosing Pat White as secretary and Pat Hix for treasurer. Their sponsors were Mr. Page and Mr. Schipper.

The Freshman class had a lot of projects planned, but it seemed that there was always something coming up so they couldn't complete them. They now have $43.50 in their treasury.

JUNIOR CLASS NEWS

Let's look back at some of the activities the Juniors indulged in. The boys competed with the girls in trying to sell the most magazines, 'way back in September. The girls won so the boys gave a class party. Ruth Pullen won a radio for earning the most money.

The J-Hop was Nov. 28. The theme was "Wish You Were Here." Do you recall those exotic decorations? The stone wishing well with the trees and grass along the end, the comfortable rustic furniture, and the flower bound trellises? Who was your date?

The Juniors made considerable money on their bake sales and dances given after the games. And just recently their colossal play, "Our Miss Brooks," which presented many happenings unforgettable to our Juniors; their heavy, long practices, practically every night; their wrong entrances, and Miss Pan's demonstrations and loud commands "give, give!"

The Juniors earned $1,000 this year and wish to give their thanks to the faculty, especially Mr. Yahne and Mr. Mollema, for making their projects successful.

SENIOR YEAR

Don't Ever Forget When:

... We had our first class meeting and elected Dick Somers Dave DeJohn, Sally Davis and Lil Dickinson to lead us through our Senior year. Of course, we had Mr. Jones and Miss Lance to sponsor us. We chose the best.

... Then we put on our "Pep-sodent smiles," combed and re-combed our hair, and wore our best clothes for our senior pictures. And those ego-boosting autographs that everyone so willingly signed.

... Then "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was chosen for our last bit of acting. The feeling you got when the curtain went down and we knew it was our last time to go through the experience of having Miss Pan saying, "Give, kids, give!"

... When we broke the tradition of gray caps and gowns and chose that beautiful color of royal blue for graduation.

... The senior parties; the surprise ones, the pajama ones, coke tails, the ones after the play, and all the great times we had at them.

... The prom, "Rhapsody in Blue," Ray LaBarre, the pillars blue crepe paper, silver paint, the bird cages, and all the fun and work we had putting it together.

... 6:15, May 16th, when we all boarded the "C. and O." for Washington, the Annapolis Hotel, Bill the bus driver, the Cadillac, the hubba hubba man, and all the crazy pictures that were taken.

To sum it all up, don't ever forget our senior year at Northville High School.

Teachers Have
Summer Plans Too

When MR. YAHNE was asked what his plans for the summer were he said "nothing," but on second thought, said he would plan to go to summer school.

MR. SCOW will be resting until Aug. 1, when he will journey to Seattle, Wash., where he will go to a Curricular Workshop.

MISS PANATTONI will be going to New York and Cape Cod where she will be spending her time leisurely watching plays and going fishing.

When MISS GILTNER was asked what her plans would be for the summer, she answered, "A little of this and a little of that." An ideal vacation. All rest.

MISS LANCE and MISS SOURS will be going to Europe this summer. Maybe they'll say hello to Queen Elizabeth for us if they happen to see her.

MR. SHERRARD will be going to summer school at the U. of M. to obtain his Master's Degree. Just between you and me he told me he would be doing a little baby sitting this summer, too.

MRS. COOKE will be traveling to West Canada and British Columbia this summer.

MISS PALMER will be home most of the summer, but hopes to travel to Washington with MISS KNAPP.

MISS COWLING hasn't made up her mind as to whether she will go to Mississippi or to Michigan State.

You're out of luck, girls! MR. SCHIPPER, after spending six weeks at U. of M., will travel out west for his vacation.

Looks like our teachers are going to have a full summer.

Music Department
Reports . . .

The band has been a very active organization during this past year. Starting last summer the band presented about four concerts in the park. Then on Labor Day, they played at the state fair and received a beautiful trophy for it. With the arrival of football season they began their hard marching practices. They put on shows and played for all home games. You probably noticed that they also played at all pep rallies.

Next came the district band festival. Soon after that they gave their winter concert. In May the band gave their spring concert which was the last concert for the graduating members. May was a busy month for the band, for they also played at the teacher's institute, marched at Greenfield Village, marched in the Memorial Day parade, and played for the horse show. This summer they are planning to march in the American Legion parade in Detroit.

This being the last year for Mr. Page, the students wish to thank him for his guidance during the past two years. May the band continue its good work in the future.

Our eyes were upon the choir this year for there were only five returning members and only sixteen boys. But that didn't hold back the choir, for many say it was the best we've had in years.

They have had two fine concerts and have given several appearances around town. Their specialties are a number of American folk songs and Negro spirituals, and "All In An April Evening," has been their favorite selection.

With the able direction of Mr. Lee we're sure the choir will continue to improve as it did this year.

Pep Club

The Pep club was newly organized this year. The purpose of this club is to promote school spirit and plan skits for the pep meetings. Sweaters for football season were purchased from the profits of two dances.

The stands and goal posts at football games were decorated by the Pep Club. Also a section was roped off with orange and black crepe paper during the basketball season at our home games.

There was much school spirit during football and basketball seasons and the Pep Club deserves congratulations for work well done.

At this time, on behalf of the Pep Club, we would like to express our sincere appreciation to Mr. Skow who made it possible to organize such an active club. We hope it is as successful next year.

Fads and Fashions
Through the Year

The fashions and fads of the year have really been going to extremes.

At the beginning of the year some of the girls started the fad of wearing rings. They liked the big class rings which had to be taped, and it seems that it was one fad that lasted all year.

We all can remember those dirty looks we got when we stepped on those sharp white bucks, which was the next fad.

Because of the cold winter the girls all started wearing dog collars around their ankles. Now that spring is here the girls with long hair have been tying their hair with a flower into a style that's known as a "Pony Tail."

Some of the boys really looked sharp with those boogie cuts, or a Princeton. Grey flannel trousers and blue suede shoes seem to be the rage also.

The girls have been making the headlines with their fashions. During the winter quite a lot of grey was worn, and then light after Christmas the girls were wearing cashmere sweaters and long knee socks. The shoes were saddle oxfords and always a scarf or medallion around the neck. As for the boys—Levis or slacks with white or flannel shirts. But did you notice the green pants that were worn around St. Patrick's day? (The girls' answer to the green pants were flannel shirts and bells on the shoes, remember?) This summer you'll be seeing the girls wearing a lot of Terry Cloth, Denim and Indian Head material.

Forensic Club

At their last meeting for the year, the Forensic Club elected their next year's officers. Jean Nieuwkoop was elected president; Mary Lovewell, secretary; Marcia Doeksen, treasurer; and Jackie Keyes and John Funk, co-chairmen of the program committee.

During the year the club, led by President Arlene Nelson, assisted by Nancy Dewsbury, Lucien Lovewell, and guided by Miss Panattoni, has done a number of things. To start their activities the club attended a play, "The Birds," at the University of Michigan. The debate team began with many victories over schools in our league. Our team, then undefeated, entered the semi-final contest where they fell to Flint Northern.

After the debate season had ended, some of the members began preparation for the spring contests. Northville was host to the league for the state contests and won four first places and three second places. In the regionals they took two first places and three second places.

Each member of the club appreciates the effort put forth by Miss Panattoni in making the success of the club this year. The remaining members thank the graduating members for their help in making the club what it is.

Library Club

On September 16 the Library Club held their first meeting. They elected Ardena Leavenworth, president; Mary Lou Ware, vice-president; Betty Stevens, secretary, and Elaine Butler, treasurer. Penny Niece has been in charge of the decorations during the year. The bookworm members bought black and orange pin to wear. Feb. 6, the club sponsored a dance that netted $33.30. On Feb. 11 they put on a Valentine Tea for the high school teachers. Besides these events, the club had the daily task of taking care of the library, issuing books, keeping them straight, and many other jobs that must be done by someone who is interested in helping the students find books suitable for them.

An election has been held and the officers for next year are: Mary Lou Ware, president; Elaine Butler, vice-president; Marilyn Drey, secretary, and Mary Pal-

German Students

Nine months ago we entered Northville High for the first time. We were wondering what this time would be like—we were frightened. Now we know that these months at Northville High have been wonderful for us. Even after the first day in school we didn't feel lonesome anymore.

We took part in almost all the things you enjoyed. We saw our first football game, went to the first party, went to the basketball games, and finally on the Senior trip. We did all this together with you, our friends, who have been wonderful friends to us.

In a few days we will sit in our classrooms for the last time, will see many of you for the last time.

We want to thank all of you for the love and friendliness you have given us, which made Northville and the United States dear to us.

We say goodbye to you now, our friends—we would rather say: "Auf Wiedersehen," because it means "goodbye, till we meet again," and it is our sincere hope to see you again some day.

We wish you God's blessings, success, and luck in your lives.

Always yours,
Jurgen and Ursula

The year came to a close with a picnic at the park Saturday afternoon, May 23.

Assured that its business receipts tax bill will become law, the Michigan Legislature returned to Lansing this week.

Final adjournment was on the legislators' schedule.

In deciding he would permit the bill to become a law without his signature, Governor G. Mennen Williams raised a question of the measure's constitutionality. He declared the bill "is full of inequities and obscurities. Some of its language is positively ungrammatical and other section may be unconstitutional."

A Supreme Court test, if prolonged for months, would toss a monkey-wrench into prospects of immediate tax relief. The act becomes effective July 1.

Governor Williams' political barrage that the bill was "conceived in secrecy, drafted in haste, and adopted in ignorance" drew immediate answers from Republican legislative leaders.

Senator George N. Higgins, chairman of the Senate Taxation committee which sprung the bill at the 11th hour, said "it was the fairest tax bill presented to the Legislature." Senator Carlton H. Morris of Kalamazoo, Republican floor leader, and House Speaker Wade Van Valkenburg defended the bill staunchly and derided the governor's criticism.

Republicans did not defend the 11th hour methods employed to get the bill through the House. Suspension of rules, explanation of the bill by lobbyists on the floor, and application of gag restrictions.

In fact Senator Higgins said that if changes in the law were needed, "I am sure the majority of the Legislature will stand ready to make needed corrections."

The active part played by representatives of the Ford Motor Company and General Motors Corporation in drafting the bill drew editorial criticism from the three Detroit daily newspapers. Ford and General Motors are "Detroit-centered manufacturing companies."

The Detroit News charged: "It is not denied that representatives of two very large taxpayers played leading roles in the drafting, if not the conception of the measure. Indeed, when it reached the House, which up to then had not had the chance to examine a printed copy of it, these two were the only authorities deemed capable of explaining, in a closed session of the body, what the bill contained."

The Detroit Times commented "The speed with which this bill was jammed through the House and Senate, naturally leads to suspicion. Most legislators confess they don't understand it. They voted to pass the measure only because lobbyists for powerful manufacturers had approved it."

"The action of the House in inviting these lobbyists to try and explain the confusing provisions on the floor of the chamber, and in preventing debate before the roll call, was an unforgivable exhibition of incompetence."

The Detroit Free Press declared the bill "was written by lobbyists representing some of the state's biggest corporate interests. It was rushed through both houses in three days without debate. So bewildered were the members that it was necessary to call two lobbyists onto the floor of the House, in secret session, to tell the legislators what they had adopted. This whole procedure has been without precedent in the history of this state."

The editorial criticisms indicate the legislators' methods presented more of a target than the bill itself. Unfortunately for the Republicans the facts about the tax blitz cannot be denied. The bill was drafted by automobile manufacturers engaged in interstate business. It was rushed through the legislature in a matter of days.

Like all other issues which become involved in politics, lines are formed along party lines. Republicans defend, Democrats criticize.

If the Supreme Court rules the law to be unconstitutional, Governor Williams will have another feather in his hat. And he will not be reluctant to display it with another election day already nearing in 1954.

There is a group of taxpayers in Michigan who feel that economy, not more taxes, should have been the solution to the state's deficit.

Here is editorial comment from the South Haven Daily Tribune: "The ways to achieve economy in state government are too numerous to mention. Savings on the payroll is one opportunity. Last year there were 43,069 on Michigan's state payroll—second highest number of the nine midwestern states. . . . There is no business organization of 100 people where 90 can't do the job if it's necessary. They do at vacation times."

And so it goes—a ready-made issue for the hot stove league next winter.

It is easy to criticize. It is not easy to criticize and also offer a constructive solution. Other than declare the legislature should economize, critics have been slow to suggest a practical alternate to the business receipts tax which will affect only 75,000 taxpayers.

A state income tax, paid by both business firms and individual taxpayers, would have revived the old arguments leading to four rejections at ballot referendums. Four times in the past the voters of Michigan have turned down a state income tax. It would have affected many, many more taxpayers than the business receipts bill. The legislators must be elected and re-elected to stay in office.

Because of obvious differences prevailing between the House and Senate leaders Senator Higgins' strategy proved to be effective. He waited until the 11th hour. His committee ditched the carefully prepared state in-

You'll be the elite next year. What can one say about the senior year that hasn't been said already? Yes—it's true. It's going to be the most happy, glorious and joy-abounding year of all—the last fling! You'll actually grow fond of the school.

You'll be looked upon with respect by the sophs and juniors. And the freshmen will actually stand in awe of you. And, of course, they all experience that slight twinge of envy and wish they were in your shoes.

You'll be the "big wheels." You'll have your play, your senior projects, your picnics, your senior trip, and many other good times. Yes, it'll be your last year and somehow it seems it always is the best. But even so, you'll be concentrating on the future—thinking of college, work marriage.

Yes, it's your best year and probably your toughest one. But in the meantime—don't forget to have fun.

One short footnote to remember—that age old adage turned around—"All play and no work makes Jack a dull boy." All the fun in the world isn't going to get you any place if you don't do the work.

Oh, no! . . . exams? Last minute preparations for graduation? Two little nails in a teacher's desk? Chewing tobacco? The big blow up at the senior play?

YES, THERE'S A LOT TO REMEMBER ABOUT THIS YEAR!

Track Team Notes

The small, but determined, Mustang track team wound up the 1953 season last week Wednesday against Clarenceville and Brighton, winning 20 points against two much larger squads. Leading point winners this spring were Bob Burgess, Ed Nash and George Rambeau. The other members of the team who are going to be back next season are Val Fuoco, Jim Mitchell, Darwin Teshka and Ron Weber. Congratulations, track team.

Some tax bill that was drafted by experts at the University of Michigan at legislators' request. The business receipts bill was popped out. A revised bill was then produced during the final week of deliberation. It was either this or nothing.

RECORD-BREAKING GAS MILEAGE

for the driving YOU do!

This year's Chevrolet brings you the most important gain in economy in Chevrolet history. And it's the kind of everyday economy that saves you money wherever and however you drive!

Inch along through heavy traffic. Roll up the miles in steady highway cruising. Long trips or short errands, byroads or boulevards, you get far more miles per gallon in this great new Chevrolet.

New high-compression power is the reason. Both the new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine in Powerglide* models—and the advanced 108-h.p. "Thrifty-King" engine in gearshift models—deliver more power on less gasoline. Acceleration and hill-climbing ability are greater, fuel consumption is lower!

This is the kind of economy that counts the most—important gasoline savings for the driving you do, together with lower over-all costs of upkeep. And along with it, you enjoy all the other advantages that only the new Chevrolet offers you. Come in and see for yourself!

*Combination of 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine and Powerglide automatic transmission available on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models only.

Blueberry Marble Pie

Blueberry Marble Pie—mellow as the first summer day—flavorful and fine like the best ice cream—is a perfect dessert for the first hot day!

Step 1. Combine and blend 1 1/2 cups crushed vanilla wafer crumbs 1/4 cup sugar and 1/4 cup melted butter. Press onto bottom and sides of 9-inch pie plate.

Step 2. Force 2 cups plump flavor-laden cultivated blueberries through sieve or food mill. Stir in 1/2 cup sugar.

Step 3. Combine 1 cup heavy cream and 1/2 cup light corn syrup. Beat fiercely until mixture holds its shape in smooth mounds. Gently shape into crumbly crust.

Step 4. Carefully pour blueberry mixture in a thin stream over cream, swirling with spoon to create marbled effect. Freeze until firm. To serve, cut in wedges and garnish with large juicy fresh cultivated blueberries.

Cultivated blueberries bursting with the luscious scents of summer, swirl about in a creamy mixture to bring the first cool bright taste of the season. Fresh cultivated blueberries are available in most parts of the country throughout the summer. They are delightful, too, in either canned or frozen form.

Girl Scouts Hold Investiture Rites

Girls of Scout Troop 12 met with their leaders and special guests Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian Church House for their most solemn ceremony—the Investiture Service, which made them full-fledged girl scouts. The ceremony was the concluding ritual after their recent "Fly-Up" ceremony in which the girls, then Brownies, became Girl Scouts.

Preceding the Investiture program, the girls and their guests enjoyed a cooperative dinner, with the scouts setting tables, preparing and serving the dinner to demonstrate part of their training. Setting of the tables was done by girls of Patrol 1, under the direction of their patrol leader, Margaret Ann Fredsell. Peggy Dresselhouse, leader of Patrol 2, supervised preparing of the dinner and Carolyn Langtry's Patrol 3 served tables.

Following an informal program of songs and games, Mrs. Riley Allen, retiring Brownie leader, presented the new troop numerals as a parting gift. The girls were then pinned alternately by their co-leaders, Mrs. Edwin Langtry and Mrs. Herman Dresselhouse.

To conclude the ceremony, girls of Mrs. Maxwell Austin's Troop 1 joined Troop 12 for a Court of Awards.

The new scouts invited as their special guests for the evening their new troop committee and Mrs. Alfred Parmenter, S. president of the Woman's Union of the First Presbyterian Church which sponsors the organization.

Baseball Team Wins 3rd, 4th

The Northville baseball team stayed in the thick of the Inter-County league race last weekend by squeezing out a 1 to 0 victory over Plymouth on Memorial Day, and trimming Lincoln Cubs, of Detroit, on Sunday, 10 to 0.

The victories gave the team a four won, one tie record, and rank the team just behind the Auto Club powerhouse (5 and 0) and along with Teamsters (4 and 1).

Northville will play Teamsters on Sunday at Cass Benton Park, with George Tracey slated to take the mound with Levio Venditti, Ezio Bonaldi and Rudy Zappa in the bullpen.

Northville's winning run against Plymouth came in the fifth inning when Ray Hartner singled to left field, advanced to second on an error and came home on a safety by Leonard Sulianski. Tracey went the route for Northville, shacking Plymouth with four scattered hits, to hang up his third win against no losses.

Northville deluged the Lincoln Cubs, Sunday, with three runs in the first stanza, three in the third inning and four in the fifth to post the 10 to 0 win. Venditti pitched all the way, allowing only three hits.

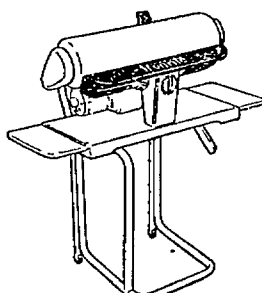

dance the familiar American round and square dances.

The festival is under the direction of Mrs. Keith Burton grade school music teacher with the cooperation of the classroom teachers. Mrs. Robert Black, art instructor of Northville Schools designed with accurate detailing the costumes which were made by mothers of the school children

Two-Hour Parking for Village Lots

A two-hour parking limit will be established for cars in the village parking lots at East Main and Hutton streets and at the corner of Main and Center streets as soon as the necessary signs are ready, it was disclosed by Commissioner Claude Ely at the Village Commission meeting Monday evening.

This move is intended to provide additional parking space for shoppers by making it impossible for persons who work down town to use the lots for all-day parking, as has been the custom until now. Those who must park for longer periods will be able to use the alley from S. Center St. to the parking lot at Main and Hutton, and other locations where the length of time allowed for parking is not restricted.

Oakwood Cemetery To Get Repairs

The Northville Village Commission transacted one piece of business in haste at its meeting Monday evening. It consisted of acceptance of an offer by Commissioner A. Malcolm Allen to straighten up and repair the headstones and markers in the old Oakwood cemetery on Cady street for $200.

This price, according to Commissioners who have inspected the condition of the cemetery and the number of monuments that need repair, represents a savings of at least $500 for the Village over what it would have to pay if it hired an outsider to do the work.

Village President Conrad E. Langfield reported to the Commission that the cemetery is badly run down, with many monuments fallen or cracked, several graves in need of filling and shrubs requiring trimming and removal. Commissioner Ely termed its condition "worse than ever before," and said it is up to the community to maintain the cemetery in better shape than it is now.

At Commissioner John F. Stubbenvoll's suggestion, the gates are to be kept locked in the future, with a sign on them notifying anyone desiring to enter that the key can be obtained from the

Village Would Like Parking Lot Lease

Village Attorney Philip Ogilvie was instructed by the Village Commission this week to endeavor to work out a definite lease arrangement on the parking lot at the southwest corner of Center and Main streets with the two owners, M. C. Gunsell and Harry Himmelfest.

If such an arrangement can be made for two or three years, the Village could surface the lot and install parking meters to provide needed offstreet parking for shoppers, the commissioners agreed.

As an inducement to the owners to enter into a short-term lease the Village might put down a new sidewalk to replace the present one which is badly in need of repair, the Commission pointed out. Presently the Village is remitting taxes on the corner property as compensation to the owners for its use.

Surviving the deceased are four sons: Ward, of Northville, John, of Wilkes Barre, Penn., Frank, of Fremont, Ohio, and Clare, of Detroit; and one daughter, Mrs. Jessie Thomasson of Northville.

Old Mill in New Location; Harry's Lunch Re-Opens

Two Northville restaurants figured in the week's news when the Old Mill Restaurant opened in a new location on Main St., and Harry's Lunch re-opened after remodeling on North Center St.

The Old Mill, formerly located at 144 E. Main, is now at 126-130 E. Main, next to the former Bean Pot, which has been absorbed by the new restaurant.

Agnes and Howard Mitchell ran the Bean Pot and the Old Mill while the building next to the Bean Pot was undergoing extensive alterations to fit it out as a first class restaurant. It opened Wednesday, June 3. The new restaurant concentrates on booth and table service and the former Bean Pot will offer counter service. A large archedway connects the two. A central kitchen services both sides, and an air conditioning unit will keep both sides cool during the hot summer and fall months.

The new restaurant is decorated with soft-toned green and a subdued red. The green-tinted walls pick up the green in the new tile floor. Booths lining both walls are covered with a new type of soft red plastic material which simulates fabric.

Harry's Lunch has been completely redecorated and several feet have been added to the rear to accommodate tables. Rearrangement of machines and fixtures has provided more floor space and improved appearance of the restaurant. White and pastel blue ceiling and walls reflect more light than formerly.

Mr. James Paddock and his sister, Mildred, who will be 85 years old this month were severely startled Saturday evening during the electrical storm when the transformer in front of their home on W. Six Mile Rd., east of Salem, was struck by lightning about 7:30 p.m., throwing their rooms into darkness and stopping the operation of refrigerator, radio, stove, water system, etc., also not only their home but at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sokolovich and the Roy Kenners, which are also furnished with electricity from the transformer which was hit.

The Paddocks said that at the time it happened, they were sitting in the living room when there was an awful clap of thunder, after which there was a shower of radiating sparks over much of the room and of course the lightning bolt turned off the television program they were watching.

Emergency crews from Detroit arrived in Ann Arbor worked from 2:30 a.m. to 5 a.m. Sunday trying without success to restore service; another crew came about 9:30 and finally got electric power back to normal for the three families affected, at noon on Sunday.

Health Dept. and of the Michigan Dept. of Health were present to report to the Village Commission their findings regarding the water supply from the Bernhardt and Hill Springs. Mr. Vandervele, of the Michigan Dept. of Health, acting as spokesman, stated that they found hydrogen sulfide and iron bacteria in this water supply in excessive amounts and told the Commission how same could be controlled. He felt this source of supply should not be abandoned, as it has proven to be one that could be depended upon for production for a long period of time, and with proper chlorination and cleaning of the sand in the filter beds he believed this water could be made palatable. He stated he would put these recommendations in writing and mail them to the Village Clerk at an early date.

The immediate problem of garbage disposal was then discussed and several solutions were presented, but no definite steps were taken at this time.

Comm. Elv reported on a meeting which he attended at Eloise on May 14th, regarding the problem of garbage and rubbish disposal, and stated that the final conclusion of those present was that a competent engineer should be hired to make a study of this problem and to make recommendations to the individual communities included in the group, as well as for the territory as a whole, on the best method for handling same.

Atty. Ogilvie read the contract which he had drawn up between the Village of Northville and Walter Anicka regarding the architectural work and supervision of the construction of the community building, but no action was taken on same until some questions which arose were cleared up.

It was decided that the tenants now residing in the houses belonging to the Village should receive a thirty day notice to vacate, on June 1st, 1953.

Moved by Elv, supported by Stubbenvoll, that the delinquent taxes outstanding in the Debt Service Fund be transferred to the General Fund, to take care of the advance made by the General Fund for the retirement of the last $10,000.00 of Refunding Bonds due Apr. 1st, 1953.

Moved by Elv, supported by Woodworth, that the Village advertise for bids for painting the Village Hall with two coats of good quality white house paint, same to include the Fire Hall steeple. Bids to be opened Monday, June 1st, 1953 at 8:00 P.M.

There being no further business to come before the meeting, same was adjourned at 11:40 P.M.

Proper Planting of Roses Gives Best Results

Attention to a few suggestions on how to plant roses should make your garden yield a fine display of fragrant, colorful blooms, according to a University of Michigan professor of landscape architecture.

Roses like a soil of clay loam with large quantities of well rotted manure or decayed leaves and straw enriched with chemical fertilizer, says Prof. Harlow O. Whittemore.

The beds should be one and one-half to two feet deep and, if the soil is heavy clay, should have drainage at the bottom consisting of an additional six inches of coarse gravel or broken stone or bricks. Sod upside down on these will keep the soil from plugging up this drainage pit.

The layout of a rose bed, if properly done, makes the garden more attractive and more easily cared for. Rose beds for hybrid teas should be about four feet wide, containing two rows of plants accessible from paths. The distance apart, therefore, will be about two and one-half feet on the diagonal, he indicates.

To plant the rose bush, dig a hole large enough to accommodate the width and depth of the root. Build up a cone of dirt in the center of the hole. This mound under the base of the bush as you plant it, will help to spread the roots in proper position. Set the rose bush down on the cone of dirt and press in. Then fill the hole with good soil and press down by tramping on the soil. This will leave a basin which should be filled with a pail of water that is allowed to soak away before loose dry dirt is placed over the basin to act as a mulch. When roses are planted, they should be pruned to balance the loss of roots. Cutting back to three eyes will give you three stems with large flowers for show or cutting. Roses also should be trimmed to make the plant more bushy and shapely.

In using insecticides and fungicides, a mixed operation is the most labor saving. But guard against excessive use of insecticides or fungicide poisons. These have a bad effect on the soil in curtailing desirable bacterial and animal activity.

What's Wrong At Prisons To Cause So Many Inmate Riots?

A continuation of the wave of prison riots which swept the country last year—like the one at Jackson, Michigan, the worst in U. S. history—is likely because the conditions which produced them still prevail.

John Bartlow Martin expresses this opinion in the current (June 6th) issue of The Saturday Evening Post, where the first of four installments of "Why Did It Happen: The Riot at Jackson Prison" projects the Michigan uprising as a carefully-detailed case history of what is wrong at our penal institutions.

Jackson Riot Analyzed
The author finds that the prisoner mutinies across the nation were connected. He says they constituted a chain reaction. And the end of the chain is not in sight.

It is explained that the pressure within prisons is enormous. Prisoners are molested by homosexuals, stool pigeons get them in trouble, they are badgered by guards, other inmates steal from them and the fear of death at the hands of another convict is always there. So is the fear of going mad and "so many men do go mad in prison."

Jackson Prison is found to be bigger than any other in this country, but not much different from the rest in other respects.

When the April 20-24, 1952, riot developed there, during which thirteen guards became hostages and fifteen prisoners were wounded, Jackson was so overcrowded that more than 100 men slept on cots in the halls, Martin reports.

Prison Was Crowded

The state mental hospital and the reformatory, both over-filled, had been using the prison as a dumping ground and there were at least 1,000 men there who never should have been in prison at all.

Its wide assortment of inmates included 547 lifers, 307 men who could just as well have gone to a county jail and sixty per cent of the men sent there in 1951 had no previous records. But others had been in prison half a dozen times. There were blind men, crippled men in wheel chairs, diabetics and asthmatics. "The difficulties of running a place like this are almost unimaginable," the article states. "There were 859 sex offenders and 126 sexual psychopaths—men not convicted of any crime, but, rather committed to the state hospital for treatment." But there was no psychiatrist at the prison.

Warden's Job

The warden of "this madhouse," the man who had been given the all but impossible task of managing it, was Julian N. Frisbie, a retired Marine Corps general, whose only previous penology experience was fifteen months in charge of a marine disciplinary barrack at Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

It is reported that Frisbie was criticized for trying to run Jackson as one runs an army and he saved money—$65,000 the first year. One of his economies, Martin says, was the elimination of target practice for guards, something he regretted when the riot broke out.

The article reports that Frisbie felt he succeeded in tightening up discipline at Jackson, but the observation is made that it was a good deal looser than at such a tightly-run prison as Stateville Penitentiary, in Illinois. The men ran protection rackets and robbed one another. They gambled

I DON'T AGREE

Any man that has been in the ministry very long will be accustomed to hear of people who say they cannot agree with him on certain issues. They often believe that their opinion is as good as the preacher's, so what? They will believe as they please! Natural man is often very conceited to his own hurt. It makes little difference to a real gospel preacher if anyone agrees with him as long as he brings God's message. It is not our agreement or disagreement that really counts. It is what God has spoken that really counts. And too, getting rid of the preacher or to abuse him by our slander does not change God's Word either. The wisest thing to do is to learn to check your minister's messages directly from the Bible as he preaches. Read the passages for yourself and be convinced that the Word of God is true. Now will you agree with what God says about your condition? Eph. 2:12 tells us that to be without Christ is to be without hope and without God in this world. In John 3:36 the wrath of God is upon you and John 3:18 you are already condemned. Then agree further with God's Word which tells you you need a Saviour, then turn to Jesus Christ and be saved.

The Golden Text is from Jeremiah (10:10, 12): "The Lord is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion."

Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Ps. 104:24 to 29): "O Lord, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all."
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "The point for each one to decide is, whether it is mortal mind or immortal Mind that is causative. We should forsake the basis of matter for metaphysical Science and its divine Principle." (p. 195)
