Teacher Helps Honor Pupil

The time is different, but the scene's the same as eighty-seven year old Harry McCracken (left) listens to an explanation by Carl Ely (right). Mr. McCracken was Mr. Ely's teacher more than six decades ago, and came to Saratoga Farms restaurant in Novi last Friday to honor Mr. Ely on his seventy-second birthday and announcement of his retirement, along with more than sixty other young and old friends who attended the surprise party.

Surprise Party for Carl Ely Grows and Grows

Carl Ely is still amazed at the surprise party his sons and friends staged for him last Friday. The event, was Mr. Ely's seventy-second birthday, and the day he decided to retire from active management of the C. R. Ely & Sons coal and fuel oil business. It seems as though this double event would call for some sort of party—as it did—but Mr. Ely was the last to know.

60 Friends Present
More than sixty young and old friends spanning more than six decades came from Northville, Farmington and other places in the state to honor Carl.

As Charles Ely, Carl's son, puts it, "The party started out to be a small family affair, but as his friends got wind of it, the list just grew and grew." Ivan Ely, the second son, gives Charles most of the credit for organizing the party, but grinned broadly when he told how hard it had been to keep Mr. Ely, who was at the office most of the day, away from phones and people who knew about the surprise.

"Retirement" Minimized
The friends were all happy to honor Mr. Ely on his birthday, but no one seemed to take this "retirement" business seriously. "The principle is fine," someone remarked "Carl has delegated the responsibility to Chuck and Ivan, but about all retirement means for Carl is that maybe he'll come to work a half hour later, and leave earlier if he wants to, but that's about all it means." As old friends, business acquaintances and school mates rose one at a time to remark on the past and congratulate Mr. Ely, the life-long friendship between Mr. McCracken, the teacher, and Mr. Ely, the pupil, became apparent. Mr. Ely moved to Farmington at 15, and later operated a Ford agency there from 1912 to 1918. In 1920 he bought the present C. R. Ely & Sons business after the former owner, Claude McCann, died.

"It was just a little coal business then," Mr. Ely remembered, "and I guess we've grown a little." First expansion was after a

Gaab, Frid Called for Army Service

Two Northville young men will be among 26 called by Selective Service Board 102 for Army service. The group will leave June 23.

The Northville men are William A. Gaab, Jr., 105 Fairbrook, and Norman J. Frid, 374 North Rogers. Seven of the group are from Plymouth, and one of the group is a South Lyon resident, J. R. Asher.

Pulmotor Fails; to Buy New One

Because the Village's antiquated pulmotor failed to operate in an emergency at Atchison Memorial Hospital a few days ago, the Village Commission this week instructed Dr. V. George Chabut, health commissioner, to purchase a new one. It also decided that certain specified members of the fire and police departments must be instructed in its use, and that it be kept in the Village's possession except in case of emergency.

The piece of equipment that failed to operate has been owned by the Village for more than ten years, according to Dr. Chabut, and is believed to have been purchased second-hand then. For years it was kept at Sessions Hospital, which about two years ago purchased a new piece of equipment. The old one was recently returned to the Village Hall.

The emergency which brought its inadequacy to light was a heart attack suffered by a patient from the Wayne County Training School. When the Village equipment failed to work, Atchison Hospital borrowed a modern pulmotor from Plymouth.

Bloodmobile in Plymouth Monday

Northville area residents who were not able to donate blood in the May 4 drive here will have an opportunity to make donations when the Red Cross Bloodmobile sets up shop in Plymouth Monday, June 22.

The unit will be at the Knights of Columbus Hall at 200 Union St. from 3 to 9 p.m. Monday. Donors have the option of earmarking their donations for servicemen in Korea or for any other collecting agency of their choice.

For further information about donations, telephone Frank Walsh at Plymouth 2227-W or Art Heslip, Northville 991-J2.

Local Boys Leave Today for Mythical 49th State

Five Northville boys will be among a group of 1,000 attending the 16th annual Wolverine Boys' State in Lansing June 18-25.

The boys, and the organizations sponsoring them, are Ronald Bertles, Exchange Club; Bruce Pelker, F. & A. M. Lodge; Lucien Lovewell, Rotary Club; Arthur Carlson, Jr., Optimist Club, and George Rameau, Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion. The boys left Plymouth Thursday morning by train for the trip to the Michigan State College campus. George R. Simmons, of Ten Mile Rd., a Wolverine commissioner, arrived at MSC Tuesday to help organize beginning of the session.

Legion Sponsored
The annual event, sponsored by the Michigan Department of the American Legion, is designed to teach the principles of good, sound government. The high school boys chosen for their qualities of leadership and good citizenship, will form into two political parties upon their arrival at the campus. They will set up city and county groups and establish a mythical state patterned after Michigan's constitutional form of government.

Governor to Speak
Governor G. Mennen Williams; Michigan State College President Dr. John Hannah; State Legion Commander Eugene N. Houck of Lansing, and leading government officials will open Boys' State with brief addresses.

Swimming Program Off to Fine Start
The Summer of Fun swimming program got off to a fine start this week with 292 youngsters taking part the first two days.

Swimming sessions are held daily Monday through Friday, and each day the bus leaves the school at 1 o'clock. The bus will leave Baseline and Horton each day at 1:10 so that the northside youth can board there instead of making the trip downtown.

Tuesday and Thursday nights each week the bus leaves the school at 6:30 for Whitmore Lake.

Northville Delegates to Girls' State

F.O.E. Auxiliary Installs Officers

The F.O.E. Ladies Auxiliary, Aerie 2504, installed Mrs. Ethel Bulson as president for the coming year Thursday, June 11. Mrs. Helen Robertson will serve as vice president, Mrs. Marge Cook, secretary and Mrs. Vivian Aldrich, treasurer.

Other officers are: Mrs. Gertrude Starr, junior past president; Mrs. Vivian Seden, conductor; Mrs. Ella Holmes, chaplain; Mrs. Viola Laney, inside guard and Mrs. Flo Schillinski, outside guard. The three trustees for next year are Mrs. Mildred Robinson, Mrs. Ruth Girardin and Mrs. Esther Pollock.

Mrs. Sally Peresnell of Garden City is a new member.

The ladies will have a regular meeting June 25 at 8 o'clock at their lodge hall on Main St.

Five Attending Wolverine Girls' State at U-M Campus

Five Northville High School girls are representing the community at Wolverine Girls' State on the University of Michigan campus for an eight-day period which began June 16.

The girls selected to attend the session are JoAnn Wiesmyer, Carol Ann Sparling, Lila Lea Skow and Nancy Dewsbury. Ursula Hamacher, German Exchange student, will attend as guest of the Legion Auxiliary's 17th District.

Mrs. Donald E. Severance, a member of the Lloyd H. Green unit, has been selected by the Department of Michigan Girls' State board to attend the convocation as a counselor. She left June 15 for a preparatory period of orientation.

The girls were chosen by the American Legion Auxiliary and sponsored by local organizations to the mythical 49th state. Wolverine Girls' State was organized in 1941 as a means of encouraging an interest in governmental law for girls who show qualities of leadership. The program for the eight-day session is carefully arranged and planned to provide a working schedule for the youngsters to begin living and participating in the actual operation of the State as voting citizens.

Self-Government
General assembly follows soon after health-check and assignment of rooms. Each girl is placed in quarters designated as a "town" where self-government prevails. Elections for "town" officers are held, followed by polls to choose (Continued on Page 10)

Hodgson, McLucas Are Reappointed to Methodist Churches

Northville and Novi Methodist ministers were reappointed to their churches for a year at the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Church in Albion last week.

The Rev. Ivan E. Hodgson was reappointed to the First Methodist Church of Northville for the second year, and the Rev. J. M. McLucas was reappointed minister of the Novi Methodist Church for the tenth consecutive year.

Rev. Hodgson was elected to serve the conference as vice-president of the Conference Board of Missions, was appointed Missionary Secretary of the Ann Arbor district and is to serve on a special committee to raise $450,000 for Church Extension within the confines of the conference.

He is a member of the Conference Historical Society and continues to serve on the Conference Board of Education.

Public Hearing Scheduled on Phone Rate Increase

Northville customers of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. will have the opportunity on July 6 to question company representatives about the proposed increase in telephone rates.

They also can inquire why telephone subscribers in Plymouth, Walled Lake and South Lyon are able to call from twice to nearly four times as many other numbers as Northville customers can, at only 25 cents to 50 cents per month greater cost.

Violence Flares at Race Track

Violence flared into the open at Northville Downs last Sunday in the current dispute between Ray Carroll's independent race track employees union and Local 79, Building Service Employees Union (AFL), which was headed by Carroll until he was suspended by the International some weeks ago.

The dispute is over whether Carroll's new union, or the old AFL union which he formerly headed, should be recognized by the operators of race tracks in Michigan. To date, the track operators have ignored Carroll's new union and have dealt with the old AFL union, in whose name the present contract stands. James Murphy, a Carroll partisan, was beaten when he appeared at the Northville Downs track Sunday to apply for a parimutuels job. Witnesses said Murphy was pinned to the wall and beaten by four men.

Carroll said Murphy was one of five men who brought suit against five Michigan race tracks, as workers, to prohibit the International union from interfering with their jobs. The suit is pending. Carroll has appealed to the Attorney General and the Wayne County prosecutor to investigate the beating.

Village Asks Two Traffic Surveys

The Village Commission voted this week to ask the Wayne County Road Commission to conduct a traffic survey at the corner of E Main and Hutton and E Main and Griswold streets to see if traffic conditions can be improved.

The Main-Griswold intersection has become increasingly difficult for pedestrians to cross when traffic is heavy, according to Commissioner A. Malcolm Allen. Similarly, the present traffic light at the corner of Main and Hutton is not set to signal pedestrian traffic crossing from the south to the north side of Main St., it was said.

Amvets, Auxiliary in Joint Installation

Public Hearing

The opportunity of local residents to inquire about, and an opportunity for the telephone company to "sell" its present and proposed rate system, will be afforded at a public hearing on the proposed rate increase which the Northville Village Commission has set for its meeting on July 6 at 8 p.m.

Claude N. Ely, acting village president at the Commission's meeting this week, invited all local customers of the telephone company to come to the meeting in the Village Hall July 6. A similar invitation was extended to the telephone company, and accepted for the company by Mr. Dean Simpson, manager of the local office.

Merchants Ask Intervention

Discussion of the proposed higher telephone rates was touched off Monday evening by Mr. Leonard V. Smith, who asked the Commission to instruct Village Attorney Philip Ogilvie to intervene in behalf of the Village in the hearings that will be held by the Michigan Public Service Commission. Mr. Smith appeared before the Commission as a representative of the Northville Retail Merchants Association "to protest the inequities of present rates." He said he was referring to the variation in the number of calls which local customers can make in comparison with neighboring communities as published in the Northville Record last week.

Mr. Simpson replied that the new rates which the telephone company seeks, and the number of local calls that can be made for the monthly service fee are unrelated matters. He promised, however, to be prepared to discuss both subjects at the hearing on July 6.

Asks More Increases

Other higher charges for service in addition to those announced last week are revealed by Michigan Bell in a pamphlet mailed to subscribers with their current phone bills. Other types of service that will be raised include temporary suspension of residence service, additional business listings, signals, auxiliary receivers, private branch exchange systems, key cabinets, foreign zone mileage, mileage associated with tie lines, private lines and off premises extensions, central office and secretarial transfer equipment.

Other items for which higher rates are sought are booths, loud speaker sets, order turrets, special reverse charge toll service messages and listings, tie lines, and other associated equipment items generally provided business customers.

Needs Investors' Money

The pamphlet states that since 1945 the company has erected 110 new buildings or additions, brought dial service to 50 more communities, and added thousands of long distance lines. This has required doubling the company's investment and calling upon investors for $190 million. Nearly 90% of all telephones are dial, it states. (Northville is not scheduled to go to the dial system for five or six years.)

The phone company points out that many service improvements lie ahead—more dial service, fewer customers on rural lines, more operator dialing of toll calls.

"To do the job, more money must come from investors," it states. "And the ability to 'sell' investors on putting their money in the telephone business depends on a fair profit for them."

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Fellow in the garage the other day, told us this story and of course we'd feel we were neglecting our duty if we didn't pass it on. Seems a fellow joined a particular service club and at the first dinner meeting was much surprised to hear a member call out "number 79" upon which the members burst into gales of laughter. A short time later another member called out "number 26" and again the club roared. Much mystified he asked the man seated next to him, the cause of all the mirth, to which the fellow replied, "Oh, we save time that way. We all have a joke book, in which every joke is numbered, so instead of telling the whole thing, all we have to do is call the number."

So the new member went forth, got himself one of the books and was all set for the next weekly meeting, wherein, shortly after the members were seated, he called forth, "number 17" and was greeted with a dead silence. Puzzled by the reception to his joke, he again asked the man, what had happened that no one laughed. "Oh, that's easy," he was told, "we heard, via a grapevine when you were first admitted to the club, that you were a lousy story teller."

Well, we're sort of a lousy story teller too, when it comes to describing all the finer points of the Studebaker for 1953. Trouble is, there are so many of them, we forget most and can only remember to say for sheer beauty, absolute dependability, downright comfort and out and out economy, you can't beat the Studebaker. We should know, we've driven one for thousands of miles, but more than that we know what our customers tell us of the car. They think it's wonderful and when you get right down to cases, it's their opinions that count the most. Come on in and drive one, you'll be truly surprised at the car you've missed all these years.

Now a certain lady that takes particular care of her car was in the shop today for a periodic check-up and while here stopped to tell us of the first out-door movie their little 5-year-old had seen. The picture was a bit dull and lifeless and filled in spots with love, which didn't appeal to the cow-boy characteristics of the child. Finally, when the picture neared its half-way point she turned to her mother and said "Mommy, do you really care for this channel?"

Seems to us, that Hollywood is going to have to look to its laurels to please the coming generation and by the same token, you're going to have to look to the boys in our shop to please that car of yours. Especially if you haven't given it that spring and summer lubrication it so richly deserves. A bit of a tune-up will help too, in keeping the motor, fresh, youthful and healthy, capable of miles and miles of vacation driving. Better do it at once. That's that, but we heard of a tourist in Detroit that asked a man on the street the way to Briggs Stadium. "Straight down," said the disgruntled fan, "the Tigers have gone to the devil."

America's Greatest Opportunity

The essay printed below was judged first place winner in the E. C. Stephenson scholarship contest, and was written by Richard W. Burton, of 48000 Eleven Mile Rd., a senior who graduated with the Northville High School Class of 1953.

The respect, admiration, and democratization of the Eastern world with its 1,288,000,000 people and vast industrial and agricultural potentials should be the ultimate goal of America and the free Western world. We must, and indeed we are, the only ones who can gather together the cords of unity and mutual affection which will bind the East and West into an inseparable unit of democracy.

There is only one feasible way in which the complete transposition of Asiatics and Asiatic countries to Western ideals and democracy may be accomplished. We must convince those countries not now under Communist control that democracy is the way of life which recognizes and develops the individual. In the past we have tried literally to force the modus vivendi of the West down the throats of Asiatics. Our propaganda corps has sent men to teach Western philosophies to Asiatics in such a manner as to be over the heads of these uneducated people. We have sent to the interior regions, American-made films displaying our towering skyscrapers, gigantic machinery, tractors, automobiles, and refrigerators. Our purpose was to display our power and wealth and to show them what capitalism can do for the individual if they are willing to accept it. But, can we really expect these downtrodden people who have not yet recovered from the wounds of our past imperialism to cheer our great power and wealth and to welcome us to Asia with open arms? Do we think that showing them our beautiful fields of golden Kansas wheat will produce a good psychological effect? These people are now starving! We must win them over with deeds; not words.

Agrarian reform is first in importance because they must first be fed before other gains can be made. We must teach them to reclaim areas of land which has through war and erosion become untillable. To do this we will need to provide them with heavy equipment.

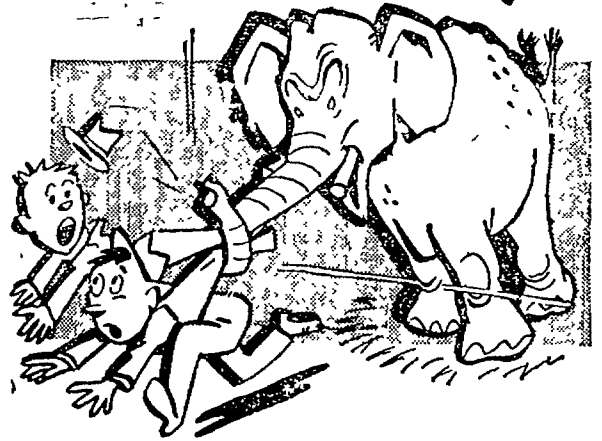

We must send a corps of native teachers to mingle with the people and to educate them as to agricultural reforms. Then too, they must have tools with which to work — hoes, shovels, and tractors with equipment.

Through the offering of technical assistance we will promote industrial reform. Proof that industrial reform can be accomplished is the case of Faridabad which borrowed 5 million dollars from the central government and turned a rural area outside of New Delhi into a booming industrial area in four years. Who says capitalism can't work in Asia?

Democracy must be placed on a testing ground with Communism. Then and only then can Asiatics see clearly the truths of capitalism as pitted against the false promises of Communism.

America holds in her grasp the greatest chance of any nation in the history of mankind to win to democracy a great mass of people. By the Grace of God we have been able to maintain our strength and are now the only bulwark left against communism. We must not fail, America, in this our greatest opportunity.

Letters to the Editor

The Record welcomes letters to the editor about matters of community interest. Anonymous communications will not be published, but in instances where the writer does not wish his or her name to appear, it will be held confidential.

(The letter below was written to the Northville Village Commission and read in meeting Monday night. The Record feels that it is of interest to many people of the community, and is deserving of reprinting in these columns. Ed. Note)

June 9, 1953

Gentlemen:

Please be kind enough to leave the Oakwood Cemetery gates unlocked. We parents on this side of the cemetery have always felt much safer with our children walking through the cemetery than completely around the block while on their way to school.

Naturally, the children have been instructed on the proper conduct in such a place and in all the years I have lived by the cemetery, never have I seen the neighborhood children damage any cemetery property.

I was quite surprised to read in the Record that the cemetery is used as a playground by boys and girls from the neighboring school. I have been wondering when this is done as I have never seen it so used, and, as you well know, our property gives us a pretty complete view of the cemetery.

Naturally, I was very pleased that you intend seeing that the cemetery is cleaned up, as it has long been in need of attention, but I, personally, have thought that there were more pressing matters.

But, please, on behalf of the peace of mind of a few mothers who feel more secure about their young children when they can watch them almost to the school's back door, do not lock the cemetery gates.

Very truly yours,
Robert J. Handorf

Pamphlet Explains Gamma Globulin Effect on Polio

More than half a million vacation bound girls and boys from parochial, public and private schools are carrying home a leaflet, Polio Message to Parents, Gamma Globulin — 1953, Donald W. Barton, administrator of the Wayne County Chapter of the March of Dimes, said today.

Written in popular question and answer form, the leaflet explains the facts about GG, the blood fraction proved by March of Dimes field tests to be a temporary preventative of paralytic polio.

The tenth question: If we can't get GG, what can we do to protect our children? is answered by the good health rules and precautions recommended by health authorities and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

1. Don't let children mix with new groups
2. Or get overtired
3. Or get chilled
4. But DO keep them clean. And consult your doctor if these symptoms appear—headache, fever, sore throat, upset stomach, stiff neck or back.

Barton urged that parents keep and study the leaflet when their children bring it home from school as a handy reference during the polio season.

"Throughout the 16 years of its existence the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, supported by the American people through the March of Dimes, has been fighting polio by caring for patients, underwriting research, and through professional and public education," he said. "Through this education, familiarity with the symptoms of infantile paralysis, prompt diagnosis and treatment have had dramatic results. While the long hoped for vaccine is undergoing stringent tests to determine its complete effectiveness before being made available, children and adults alike should observe the precautions recommended."

— RACING —

ITS THREE PRIME NEEDS!

A committee of the United States Congress conducted hearings on the RACING SITUATION in Michigan last week, and the findings, SO FAR, have been enlightening.

James Hoffa, TEAMSTER BOSS, testified under oath that he "ordered Wm. Buffalino and Juke Box Drivers Local 985, of the Teamsters Union, to raid and seize the jurisdiction over race track workers." He was aided and abetted in this SCHEME by one William L. McFetridge, general president of the Building Service Employees INTERNATIONAL Union.

* * *

Hoffa testified under oath that this action was taken because HE DID NOT FEEL that the race track employees were being properly represented by their OWN UNION.

* * *

DID HOFFA, BUFFALINO AND MCFETRIDGE FEEL THE BENEFITS THAT THE WORKERS HAD BUILT UP IN THE LAST 4 YEARS SHOULD BE GOING INTO SOMEONE ELSE'S COFFERS?

Were WAGES and WORKING CONDITIONS admittedly equal to or better than any in the United States TOO GOOD for these WORKERS in the eyes of Hoffa, McFetridge and Buffalino?

Racing Has Three Prime Immediate Needs . . .

I. A GRAND JURY investigation into its connections and apparent willingness to tie up with or submit to elements obviously violating both STATE and FEDERAL LAWS as revealed by last week's hearings by a Congressional Committee.

* * *

II. An ELECTION to determine whom the EMPLOYEES wish to represent them in COLLECTIVE BARGAINING.

* * *

III. A REFERENDUM by the VOTERS of the STATE OF MICHIGAN to approve or disapprove a continuation of PARI-MUTUEL BETTING.

Home Economics Teachers Scarce

Cupid is doing better by Michigan State College home economics graduates than by high school superintendents seeking teachers.

Proof of this comes from the M.S.C. office of home economics education where statistics show that 30 of this school year's 54 graduates in home economics education will probably be married by the end of the summer.

Most of this year's married graduates will have families by the end of summer, according to figures. Two other married graduates had their children with them while completing their training.

Most of the prospective husbands are M.S.C. men—either classmates or men who have graduated. A few of the women will marry young men waiting in their home towns.

Miss Mary Lee Hurt, chairman of home economics education, says the high school demand for teachers in that field is three times the supply of graduates. About 140 vacancies were listed for "home ec" teaching positions. Only about 30 of these have been filled. From Sept., 1952, to May 15, 1953, the M.S.C. placement bureau found posts for 21 home economics teachers without experience and one experienced teacher.

Other Michigan colleges also have a shortage of home economics graduates to fill teaching positions, Miss Hurt adds.

5 Women Receive Secretarial Degrees

Five Northville women will receive their secretarial diplomas at commencement exercises in Ypsilanti, Saturday, June 20 at 2:00 p.m., announces the registrar of Cleary College. Dr. Owen J. Cleary, president of the college will award the diplomas.

The women are Miss Elaine Benjamin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Benjamin, 510 Yerkes street; Miss Betty Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wilson, 723 Grace street; Miss Barbara Jean Busch, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Busch, 280 South Center street; Miss Joan Toussaint, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Toussaint, 528 Horton street; and Miss Mazera Shamee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shamee, 245 South Wing street.

Roscoe Bonisteel, Ann Arbor attorney and Regent of the University of Michigan, will deliver the commencement address. Following the exercises, a reception will be held by the trustees and faculty in the Alumni Room of the college for the graduates, their families and friends.

WCTS Cow Adds to Milk Record

BRATTLEBORO, VT.—Wacots Dixie Sylvia, a registered Holstein cow in the herd owned by Wayne County Training School, has further added to her outstanding lifetime production of more than 100,000 pounds of milk. Her production records are officially recorded by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America. (100,000 lbs. of milk is the equivalent of approximately 47,500 quarts, four times the production of the average U. S. cow.)

In nine milking periods, covering a total of 2,973 days, this cow has produced a total of 116,206 pounds of milk and 3,786 pounds of butterfat. Her highest single record was made at the age of five years, five months when she produced 17,404 pounds of milk and 577 pounds of butterfat on three milking daily.

Michigan Mirror

by Gene Alleman

"Michigan has a 'one disaster' police force."

These are the words of State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs, an amiable man whose appearance resembles President El-senhower. It is Childs' task to direct operations of the Michigan State Police Department. He reached his conclusion about the department's limitation a few days after the Flint tornado—a disaster which required all troopers available. Fact: 142 officers, more than twice the usual number, were in the Upper Peninsula pursuing the last of seven escaped convicts.

Difficulties experienced during these two emergencies in two peninsulas are responsible for some concern by several state officials and many citizens.

Michigan's present authorized police strength is 678. Only 670 are now in uniform. In addition the department employs about 217 civilians at district posts and at state headquarters in East Lansing. The latter group includes radio operators, mechanics, clerks, custodians and secretarial workers.

Commissioner Childs admits that 678 sounds like a big number until the figure is analyzed. "Remember," he said, "there are 24 hours each day when state police are on duty." Central headquarters requires 67 men, mostly specialists. They include fire, racket, training, fingerprint laboratory experts and administration officers.

"Not one car was on patrol in the Lower Peninsula the days following the Flint tornado," said the chief police official. "And only two or three men were left at each post."

"Our present force," says Commissioner Childs, "is not sufficient to give the service we would like to give."

Michigan's police department has not kept pace with the growth of the state's population in the past 10 years. There are 57,022 square miles of land in the state, with 107,000 miles of road to be covered. An average of 64 million miles are driven daily by three million drivers in two and a half million vehicles. The total is much larger on week ends and holidays. And the total is much, much higher than it was in previous years.

"We need about 1,250 men on the state police force," estimated Commissioner Childs.

This is an aim to be hoped for over a period of years. The only way for this increase to come about, he added, is by a realization on the part of the public that the increase is badly needed. Funds for the state police department are appropriated each year by the Legislature. "The Legislature understands our problems," said the Commissioner, "but they have been unable to increase our funds materially because of the financial problems which still exist."

"Esprit de corps is high among police officers," said the Commissioner. "We have a very low turnover of men."

This surprises many people who consider salary schedules and working conditions for state police officers. Beginning patrolmen are paid $229 per month. Pay is increased to $250 when training is complete; stepped up over the next five years to $350. It usually takes 10 years before the next promotion. Uniforms are furnished; $3 per day is allowed for expenses.

Average work day is 9.3 hours; eight of patrol, the rest for routine reports. Officers are subject to emergency call 24 hours each of six days a week and must register their whereabouts during off duty periods. They are sometimes called back from the seventh, their "off" day; if they can be located.

Vacations and passes were cancelled when the Flint disaster hit. Men there and in the U.P. worked a seven day week 14 hours a day. For this they receive no extra pay. State police officers get 12 days a year vacation plus eight more to make up for usual holidays—when they work extra long and hard.

When an emergency strikes, a pre-arranged plan can take ef-

SEA LAMPREY CRISIS

The Congress of the United States is apparently working in the interests of conservation with a reverse twist. Those mystifying legislators may actually, 'ho unconsciously, help the perpetuation of the dreaded sea lamprey in the Great Lakes. They have just cut the operating budget for the control project from a needed $614,000 to $104,000, leaving barely enough to keep a skeleton organization going, and nothing at all for the construction of sorely needed new lamprey control devices.

Spawning Run Now On

In hundreds of clear, cold streams emptying into the Great Lakes—most of them in Michigan—the blood-sucking sea lamprey is now making its annual spawning run. The adult male and female, having fed and fattened on our finest Great Lakes fish for the past single year of their mature life, have far up a carefully selected gravel-bottomed section of the river where they will spawn and die, their life cycle completed. Thousands of tiny lamprey will hatch, squirm deep into the mud along the river banks remaining buried there for four years of immature life as larvae. They'll grow about 5" in that time, and will then drift down into the Great Lakes for a one-year feeding spree, attaching themselves to fish, grinding thru scales and skin, and sucking away the blood of life.

Trout Exterminated

The sea lamprey is held responsible for the disappearance of the lake trout in Lake Huron and Lake Michigan—an economic loss placed at more than three million dollars annually. Whitefish, too, are disappearing, not to mention the once-prevalent walleye pike, steelhead trout, and other species. Despite the positive evidence that the blame for the rapid decline of our commercial fisheries can be placed on the sea lamprey, those in control of our national budget refuse to allocate funds desperately needed to help exterminate this predator. Our U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service has made rapid strides toward striking at the lamprey at the one point where they are vulnerable: during the spawning run. Electric fences stretched across spawning streams effectively block the run, and the lampreys die in a futile effort to spawn. Now, with all spawning streams identified, and all plans ready for the final strategy of fencing the waters to block lamprey while permitting the runs of valuable fish, the federal government refuses necessary funds.

Write Your Congressman!

You and I may be able to help in this crisis affecting every kind of fishing in Michigan. Sit down and write your Congressman. If you don't know his name write Senator Ferguson or Potter. Ask for emergency funds to beat the Sea Lamprey in the Great Lakes before this terrifying vampire takes over our inland waters, destroying sports fishing in the Michigan Outdoors we love so well.

Mort Neff's "Michigan Outdoors" television show can be seen every Thursday over WWJ-TV, Channel 4, in a thrilling full half-hour show—10:00 till 10:30 p.m. DON'T MISS IT!

fect. Squads of seven men and one non-commissioned officer move into an area. Working alone or in teams of two to four, and with three way radio communication, they tackle their problem.

In Flint the department's communication system permitted officers to play an important part co-ordinating efforts of the many agencies that responded to the disaster.

Compared with other states, Michigan's police department seems average in size. Some, like Pennsylvania with 1,800 officers, have larger forces; other states departments concern themselves only with highway problems.

Michigan's patrolmen however, deal with everything from trespassing to murder. Its policemen must be experts in many fields.

Officers are trained to decide whether a ticket or a warning will bring the best result. Records show a growing number of traffic arrests; 137% more than in 1940; about 72,000 in 1952.

"An increasing need for a bigger state police force will be felt as the rapid development of non-metropolitan areas continues," said the Commissioner. "About 71% of state traffic deaths occurred in rural areas last year—the highest percentage on record."

When the Legislature is able to increase the size of the state police department, people of Michigan will get the quality of police service they need.

Order is a lovely nymph, the child of beauty and wisdom; her attendants are comfort, neatness, and activity; her abode is the valley of happiness.

Mrs. Freida L. Malosh of Omer, Mich., was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Ruth Emery of Lansing and Nancy Wolfram of Detroit.

Unique Collection of Gold, Silver Coins on Display at Depositors State Bank

A unique collection of silver dollars dating from 1486, and United States gold coins, are on display in the lobby of Depositors State Bank until June 26.

These coins, owned by the National City Bank of New York, are on display for educational purposes. The 336 silver dollars reflect historically important events of 173 countries during the past five centuries.

Gold coins were ordered withdrawn from circulation by executive order of President Franklin D. Roosevelt in March, 1933.

The Act of April 2, 1792, established a mint, and authorized, among others, the following coins: Gold eagles (each of the value of ten units or dollars), half-eagles and quarter-eagles; Silver dollars, half-dollars, quarter dollars, dimes and half-dimes. This was the first attempt of any nation to adopt by law a bimetallic standard with free and unlimited coinage of both metals, each having full power as legal tender. Coinage of silver was begun in 1794, and of gold in 1795.

One of the small gold eagles of 1795, the first issue of gold coins bearing the name of the United States of America, is included in the National City display, and all subsequent issues of varying denominations, such as the double eagle, the three dollar and one dollar pieces, are also represented in the collection. Through this exhibit a section of our nation's history, the life span of gold coinage in the United States, has been brought to life for those who otherwise might only read of it in the pages of a history book.

As part of the educational feature, the importance of compound interest savings is shown. If the silver dollars, worth about $336 when made, could have been placed in a bank drawing compound interest at the time they were minted, they would have today a value to their owners of billions upon billions of dollars.

In Tyrol, under the reign of King Maximilian I, in 1486, the first dollar was struck. This dollar is among the valuable collection.

Others listed include: early Spanish pieces, famous Venetian crowns, Naples coins, Argentinian reals, Chinese Fung-Tiens, Cyprus piastres, Ecuador sucres, French francs, German thalers, Guatemalan reals, Hayti gourdes, Italian Luccas, Russian rubles, and West Indian reals.

Six American dollars are displayed. The first dollar minted in

Given in marriage by her brother, James Deaton, the bride appeared in a lovely gown of nylon lace and net. The underdress of satin was covered with an overdress of nylon lace appliqued with roses and inset with rhinestones. Her sheer scoop neckline was offset with a Peter Pan collar and nylon appliqued lace formed the long sleeves. A crown tiara inset with rhinestones held her nylon net veil in place. ## Girls' State state and county offices and general representatives.

After spending eight days in governmental instruction, and learning to govern themselves by democratic procedure and practice, two girls will be selected to represent Michigan at Girls' Nation in Washington, D.C., where they will be taught how a free nation is governed.

State Auxiliary president, Mrs. Bernice Collins, Lansing, said: "It is the aim and hope of the Legion Auxiliary that girls attending Girls' State will return to their communities and accept an active citizenship in our Nation, and feel keenly the relationship of home, church, school and government."

Taught to be constantly on the alert for signs which menace the American way of life, the youngsters are encouraged to shoulder the responsibility in adult fashion of protecting the State and the Nation from possible internal and external aggression.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dearest husband and father, Irving Gaffield, whom God called to his side one year ago, June 21, 1952. He didn't know when leaving home

That he would not return
And he in death so soon would sleep

And leave us all to mourn.
God gave us strength to bear it,
And courage to heal the blow
But what it meant to lose him
No one will ever know.

Sadly missed by his loving wife, Earlene Gaffield and children, Carol and Irving, Jr.

WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE?

What do you believe regarding the life to come? Regarding the way to heaven? Many folks are so busy with this life that they have not taken time to consider their eternal destiny. Will you pause long enough now to think or perhaps even jot down what you believe about God, about Jesus Christ and about eternal life? Having done this, let me ask you this question: "How do you know that what you believe is true? What is true belief based on?" We have learned by experience that we cannot always trust what others tell us; we have learned that we too have been wrong even when we thought we were right. Does God permit everyone to be saved on their own ideas of right and wrong or their own way of salvation? What confusion there would be if this were true! No, we cannot trust our own opinions and ideas, for the Bible says, "There is a way that seemeth right unto man but the end thereof are the ways of death". In dealing with eternal issues it is wisdom to see what God says about it in the Word and then to believe what He says. Let His Word be a lamp to your feet and a light for your path.

Fred Van Gilder, Livingston County, knows extra value when he sees it. That's why he has an electric water heater in his home and another in his milk house. This combination entitles him to a special rate that's a real money-saver. 30 gallons of 160 degree water daily in the milk house costs him only about 4c a day. And there's no work, no worry, no flame to fuss with.

Ask your Edison Farm Service Advisor about our combination rate. You too will agree it's the best deal for hot water.

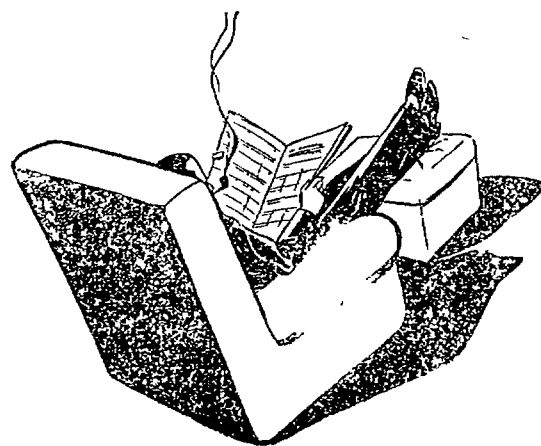

IN THE HOME, this electric water heater for dishes, baths, laundry and other household asks. Real convenience!

IN THE MILK HOUSE, a 30 gal. electric water heater keeps utensils sparkling clean, bacteria count low, milk checks high.

SOFTBALL SCORES

The Salem Federated Church softball team won its first game last Thursday when they defeated the Milford Presbyterian Church team 11-3 in an exhibition game at Milford. Mrs. Clemens immediately rushed her husband to Sessions Hospital in Northville where X-rays showed that there was no skull fracture or damage to the eardrum, although his head has been so heavily bandaged that Mr. Clemens cannot tell so far whether or not the hearing has been impaired in that ear. Let's remember him with cards, visits and prayers.

Police Chief Offers Tips for Driving

Chief Joseph Denton offers the following 13 safety tips — likely ways to have trouble, he calls them — concerning driving in conjunction with the current traffic safety campaign. Slogan is "Keep in Lane — Don't Be A Road Hog".

The major causes of traffic trouble, says Chief Denton, are: Not enough time to complete pass. Passing on hills and curves hiding traffic.

Pulling in front of a driver who is passing.

Passing at intersections hiding traffic.

Speeding up when another car tries to pass you.

Cutting in on the car you are passing.

Straddling two lanes, making it harder for others.

Passing on the right, interfering with traffic.

Passing several cars at the same time.

Crossing centerline of four-lane roadway.

Passing in third lane of three-lane highway.

Following so closely cars behind can't pass.

Following a car ahead which is passing.

The Chief says that, if motorists will remember these tips, there will be fewer accidents.

There's only one answer...

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

Fleet operators, farmers, independent truckers—truck users everywhere—buy more Chevrolets than any other make. There can be only one reason for that: Chevrolet trucks offer more of what you want.

As the official registration figures keep rolling in, they keep telling the same positive story about truck popularity and truck value: Again in 1953, for the twelfth straight production year, truck buyers show a clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks.

If you're a truck user, this fact is mighty important to you. Why? Well, as you know, trucks are built and bought for just one reason—to do a job. So isn't it logical then that since Chevrolet trucks outsell all others, they must do a better job at lower cost?

That's why it will pay you to stop in and see us before you buy your next truck.

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!
