Petitions are being circulated in Wayne, Mich. to make that village a city with an area four times as great as at present. In this respect, the Wayne plan is similar to the one which Northville rejected last spring. The outstanding difference is that the Wayne Village Council has unanimously gone on record as endorsing the move to become a city, whereas the Northville Village Commission refused to either endorse or condemn the proposal. This fact alone probably contributed not a little to the defeat here.

Meanwhile, the Legislature amended the racing law this spring to double the State's "take" from pari-mutuel betting. This action would give Northville, if it were a city, from $140,000 to $150,000 this summer as its share of the State's revenue from Northville Downs. This is double the amount claimed by proponents of the move to make Northville a city, and is approximately equal to the Village's entire budget for the year. IT IS TWICE AS MUCH AS THE VILLAGE RAISES FROM PROPERTY TAXES!

Like every other village in the state except Northville and Livonia, the arguments for making Wayne a city are only those concerned with simplification of government functions and the opportunity to provide for more efficient handling of village affairs. Here, there was the additional fact that enough revenue could be gained from racing at the Downs to enable the Village to double or triple the pace of its public improvement program—streets, water, 7 Mile cut-off, parking, etc.

If there is any lesson to be learned from this country's predicament in Korea, and Russia's troubles in East Germany, it is that this business of policing the world is much easier said than done. It should bring about a re-examination of some of our popular notions about America's responsibility to the world and our relations with the nations now friendly toward us. The following excerpt from a recent Wall Street Journal editorial sums up the situation perfectly.

"For the past decade we have too glibly accepted the notion that we can—and should—undertake to police the world and put things the way we think they ought to be. One result of this grandiose notion is the very mess we now are trying to clean up. Another result is that, by glibly assuming that the way we want to act now is the way every one else ought to act, we find ourselves with as much difficulty 'policing' our friends as we do our foes.

"It is not just Korea. To a lesser degree we are finding it as difficult to convince the British, the French, the Italians, the West Germans. The difficulty is that all of these peoples have their own ideas of what they think the dangers are and what they think ought to be done about them.

"The truth of the matter is that for all the talk about power and responsibility we are learning that we cannot police the world solely by our own lights unless we police our friends too. And when we do that then our friends may cease to be.

"This may seem discouraging. There are those who say if we do not force our allies to do what we think they ought to, then the West will fall apart and eventually fall to the foe.

"But this is not so. For the pointed lesson also pierces the Iron Curtain. The Russians are finding that even half of the world is more than a handful. We should be grateful for the reminder that the world is too great to succumb to any one nation's sense of its constabulary duty."

ELECTED STATE PRESIDENT

Mrs. Leon Gagner to Lead Michigan V.F.W. Auxiliary

A Northville woman, Mrs. Leon Gagner, has been elected to the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary's highest office in Michigan.

Mrs. Gagner, 41810 East Seven Mile Rd., was named president of the Auxiliary at a state convention in Port Huron Sunday, June 21. She will serve for one year.

Elevation to the high office culminated many years of service in other Auxiliary offices on local district and state levels.

Career began in 1941

She originally joined Wolverine Auxiliary 171 in 1941, and organized the Northville Auxiliary in October of 1945. She has been president, trustee, treasurer, conductress and color bearer of her unit, and was treasurer in District Four for four years, in addition to serving as aide to many other auxiliaries.

Her first appointment in the Department of Michigan was as assistant guard in 1944. Since then she has held a large number of state offices. She was color bearer, service officer, junior and senior vice-president, and hospital chairman for two years for Maybury Sanatorium and for the Veterans Administration in Detroit.

She has been chairman for the national president's official visits to Michigan and was national page for Dorothy Mann when she was national president.

Also honored from the local unit at the 34th Annual Encampment at Port Huron was Mrs. Meta Myers, who was appointed color bearer for the Michigan Department by Mrs. Gagner.

Representing the Northville Auxiliary at the encampment were Margaret Rager, president; Florence Russell, senior vice-president, and Mrs. Myers, who acted as page for Mrs. Gagner.

Representing the V.F.W. post were Wilfred Troop and Art Asch, senior vice commander. Joseph Ritzheim, of Saginaw, was elected Michigan Commander of the V.F.W.

Highlight of the four-day encampment, attended by 500 persons, was the huge parade Saturday, led by Gov. G. Mennen Williams. The encampment also contributed more than $600 for relief in the Flint disaster area.

Hastings to Open New Riding Stable

Clarence Hastings, manager for several years of the Northville Riding Academy on Seven Mile Rd., has resigned to open his own riding stable on a 140-acre farm in Jackson, Mich.

New manager of the Academy will be John Wallace, who previously operated his own riding school, the Wallace School of Horsemanship on Eight Mile Rd.

FACTORIES MOVING TO NOVI

3 New Plants Mark Growth of This Area

With three new factories now under construction, and industrial buyers on the look-out for additional plant sites, Novi today is typical of the present trend toward industrial decentralization that is sweeping the country.

This erstwhile country community, which still operates under a township form of government, is beginning to reflect the growth that is inevitable for all communities situated on main arterial roads leading out of Detroit. While the "town" itself is largely unchanged, the plants now being constructed and the houses that are being erected on every road near the town indicate in a small way what lies ahead for the area.

Filter Co. Is Largest

Largest of the three factories now being built is that of Standard Filters, which may employ as many as 50 persons when it gets into its new location on Grand River just west of town and has an opportunity to expand. This company makes several different kinds of filters.

The Novi Tool & Machine Co. is now building a small plant on Novi Rd. just south of the town hall to manufacture tools, dies and special machines. It is an outgrowth of a business started about 18 months ago at 40,250 Grand River by Andrew and Ora McCollum of Novi and Paul McCollum of Northville. The original quarters have been outgrown, making imperative the move into new and larger quarters now under construction. About 15 persons are employed.

Valve Plant

The newest plant to be started is being built by Glendon H. Roberts of Detroit, to manufacture a new type of refrigeration valve. It is understood to have no connection with the Detroit Stamping Co., of which Mr. Roberts is president. The Roberts building is to cost about $50,000. Because of the nature of the product to be manufactured, the building will be air conditioned to provide temperature control and eliminate all dust and dirt.

Frank Watzka, realtor, of 40,250 Grand River, handled the purchase of property by both Novi Tool & Machine Co. and Mr. Roberts.

Optimists Hear "Lie" Expert

Speaker at last week's Optimist Club meeting was Alex Gregory, one of the foremost experts in the use of a "lie detector" and a member of the famous "court of last resort" which provides free legal and technical assistance to persons believed to have been unjustly imprisoned and who are without funds to appeal their conviction.

Gregory explained that the Keeler polygraph, popularly called a lie detector, does not actually tell when a person is lying. Instead, it measures his nervous reaction to certain questions as indicated by blood pressure, perspiration and respiration. Such physiological changes, when studied by a skilled polygraph operator, offer positive evidence as to the truth or falsity of statements being made by a witness.

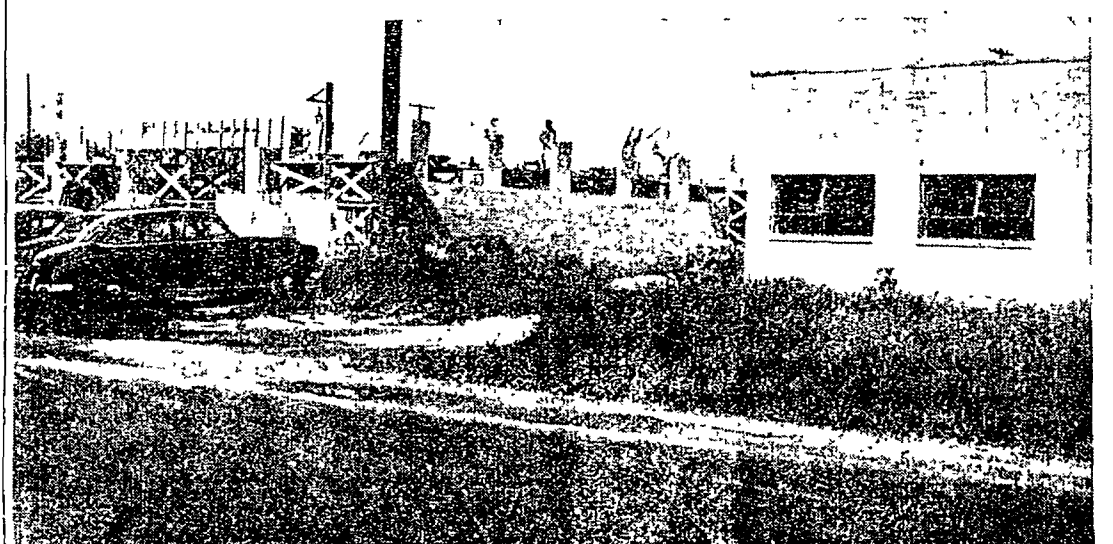

He also emphasized that the "lie detector" should be regarded as an instrument for protecting innocent parties who may be under suspicion of having committed crimes.

Board of Education Elects New Officers

An organizational meeting of the Northville School Board Wednesday night, June 17, elected Robert Coolman president.

Other officers elected were Nelson C. Schrader, vice-president; Eural Clark, treasurer, and Donald B. Severance, secretary. Eliza Wagenschütz, newly-elected board member, was named trustee.

Terms of office for the board members will begin July 1.

New factories in the booming Novi area are (bottom) the Novi Tool and Machine Co., and a (top) Standard Filters, located near the viaduct plant being built by Glendon Roberts, Detroit, on Grand River Ave. at the edge of Novi, and which are located side by side on Novi Rd.

Union Services to Begin July 5

For the 27th year, the First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches of Northville will hold union services on Sundays from July 5 through Sept. 6.

New this year will be the earlier hour of worship. Services will be held at 9 a.m. instead of 11 a.m. so more people may attend the services in the cool hours of the morning during the warm summer months. Church schools will convene at the usual hour, 10 a.m.

Combined services will be held in the Methodist Church July 5 through Aug. 2, with the Rev. Dr. Harold F. Fredsell preaching. The Rev. Ivan E. Hodgson will conduct services in the Presbyterian Church from Aug. 9 through Sept. 6.

Red Wing Hockey Player, Announcer to Appear Here

Boy Scouts of Troop N-5 will be host to other Scouts, Cubs and Girl Scouts on Tuesday, June 30 when sports broadcaster Budd Lynch and Red Wing hockey player Ted Lindsay will show film highlights of Stanley Cup playoff games and talk about other interesting sidelights of hockey.

The program, to begin at 7:30 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church House, is presented through the cooperation of a Detroit company, and is designed to enlighten sport enthusiasts about "the world's fastest game."

Lindsay, captain of the Detroit Red Wings, has been named an all-star in four of the last five seasons. The fiery player has chalked up a record as the highest scoring Red Wing in the club's history. He has been with the team for nine seasons, after making the long jump to the Red

Budd Lynch

Ted Lindsay

Wings directly from amateur hockey.

Lynch, active in radio and TV for the past 15 years, has handled hockey sportscasts for three seasons. He was a captain with the Essex Scottish Regiment in World War II and served with the British Broadcasting System before returning to the United States.

The most notable thing about his career, however, is the fact that he is alive. He survived a direct hit by a mortar shell in World War II.

J. F. Page is chairman in charge of arrangements for the program Tuesday.

140 Boys and Girls Treated in Dental Fluoride Program

More than one hundred forty boys and girls will have a better chance for good teeth when the dental fluoride program ends June 30.

That many have asked for, and are receiving, the series of four applications called for in the fluoride treatment, said Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., school nurse.

229 First Week

Two hundred and twenty-nine treatments were given the first week, and the schedule rolls smoothly on, due to prompt appearance of children at the times assigned.

"The first week was slow," said Miss Knapp, "since the dental hygienist, Miss Norma Champaigne, must first clean and prepare the teeth for applications." Only an average of four children an hour are handled the first week, but with preliminary work out of the way, the number per hour jumps to eight to twelve.

Equipment for the program is furnished by the State Health Department. Miss Champaigne is loaned by the University of Michigan dental school. The number of children given treatments last year, 55,000, will be almost doubled this summer.

Protects New Teeth

Only Northville children in the second, fifth and eighth grades have been cared for to date, said Miss Knapp, because new teeth appear at those ages, but present plans call for expansion next year to include pre-school youngsters.

Several mothers belonging to the Mothers Club have helped carry out the program, Miss Knapp said. Among them is Mrs. Jay Reynolds, past president of the club, who prepared the treatment schedule so well that it functions smoothly.

An aid in speeding up the program was the discovery that the period between applications need not be a week or more, as was thought. Successive applications now are made about every second day.

Grade School boys and girls who asked for treatment in the dental fluoride program wait their turn as Miss Norma Champaigne, University of Michigan dental technician, makes one of the last applications to teeth of a young patient.

Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., school nurse (at rear), who supervises the program, is at hand to keep the schedule functioning smoothly. The equipment set up in the teachers' room at the school is furnished by the Michigan Department of Health.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Fellow dropped in this Studebaker Sales Mart of ours the other day because he heard tell we handle the finest car on the American road. Naturally he wants one and naturally we're here to please. Before driving away he tells us he has trouble with his laundry, being a single type of bachelor and needs must send various articles of clothing out for a bit of rejuvenation. The laundry succeeds in shrinking his shirts, in spite of protests, so one day he includes a bigish type of nail, a spike that carpenters use to hold wooden girders together, and on this spike he attaches a note, "bet you can't shrink it!"

So the laundry comes back with a little thumb tack in a piece of paper that says, "how's this?"

Oh yeah, we almost forgot to mention that we asked the laundry shrinking bachelor how come he didn't get married and do the shrinking at home. "Cut out the middle man," we told him. "Not me," he said, "every time I've run into one of these sugar and spice sort of girls it turns out she has a dill pickle tongue."

Well, there's nothing like a bit of variety we always say, and right now we imagine that car of yours would like a bit of variety in its diet, such as new oil to chew on. Why not give it a touch of spring "sulphur and molasses" in the shape of a complete lubrication tune-up to help it run better? You've no idea how the car will like such a treatment and how much better it will perform afterwards.

That's that, but a young housewife told us that just about the time she thinks she can make both ends meet, someone walks off with the rope.

YOURS.

Bees working with plastic combs are not likely to lose their wax-making instinct; for they must still put wax caps over the honey-filled cells and be ready to build any additions they feel necessary.

Bees-Wax Unaffected
 Nor is the bees-wax market likely to suffer a shortage. Most industries which formerly used natural wax have already switched to cheaper synthetics. Beekeepers will always need some natural wax to treat and seal the plastic sections together.

Comb cells must be angled downward slightly from the entrance to the rear so that honey will not run out before the cell is capped by the bee. Cells must also be of exact depth. If cells are too deep, bees will put in the usual amount of honey and place the cap below the surface of the comb where the slicing knife cannot reach it. If cells are too shallow, bees will build an extension that will be cut in half by the slicing knife, causing loss of honey.

Two sections of plastic comb are sealed back to back with a thin layer of natural wax, called a "foundation". The bee merely has to fill each cell through its open end and cap it.

Northville Fathers, Sons Join in Sport of Building, Flying Model Airplanes

The popularity and fun of model airplane building is drawing many Northville fathers into a new club called the "Aeroneers", sponsored by the Northville Exchange Club under the direction of Alvin Skow.

The "Aeroneers" have been meeting on Thursday evenings at the Scout building, but now will meet at the site of flight tests in a field at the corner of East Seven Mile Rd. and Newburg Rd. opposite the Northville Golf Club. Members will show up early, about 5 p.m., to fly their model planes before a discussion meeting begins.

Ideal Hobby
 The building of miniature planes is an ideal way for adults and boys to get together in common projects, Mr. Skow reports. The fun of construction and flying the completed planes—powered by rubber strands or by small gasoline engines—is attractive to young and old. "And you can't beat model planes as a hobby for building up companionship between fathers and sons," Mr. Skow pointed out.

A local contest, concentrating on performance and flight endurance, is planned for July 12, and a Northville area meet, to include Plymouth, Farmington, Livonia, Brighton and other areas, is planned for July 26.

U-Control Popular
 Most popular among the planes are the U-Control, which means gasoline powered planes which fly at the end of a wire or string, controlled from the ground. The club also includes, however, rubber band powered and radio-controlled planes.

All members of the local club also belong to the AMA, the American Model Aeronautics Association. This is handy, said Mr. Skow, for recovering planes which frequently fly out of sight and would be lost. Identification on the planes pointing out membership in the AMA has been responsible for the return of hundreds of model planes all over the country.

Mr. Skow recalled that two years ago, in Columbus, O., a plane flown by his son, Delano, was caught in a thermal and wadded up and away, out of sight. It was returned by State Police patrolmen who found it 12 miles away.

Anyone interested in building and flying model planes, especially father and son teams, are welcome to join the club and participate in the hobby, said Mr. Skow. Most of the members work on their planes at home and bring them on Thursdays to the club meeting.

Even though it may seem just a short time since spring fertilizer was applied, the grass may need another booster now. If your grass isn't dark green and growing rapidly, one pound of 12-6-6 or 10-6-4 per 100 square feet will help, according to James Tyson, a Michigan State College soil science specialist in turf grasses.

He advises applying fertilized evenly over an area of 200-500 square feet at a time. The grass should be watered immediately after application of the fertilizer to prevent burning. If the lawn is shady, Tyson recommends that the fertilizer should be added once a month during the growing season. Here are some of his recommendations: Mowing is important to good lawn care. If you have a one-inch lawn, it shouldn't grow to more than one and a half inches before it is mowed.

Kentucky bluegrass and red fescue lawns should be kept at about one and one-half inches on sunny lawns and from two to three inches in shady areas. Water grass only when it needs it. Water when the leaves are slightly wilted and one good soaking is enough until the grass starts wilting again.

Village Awards Two Contracts

Work on installing curbs and gutters and surfacing the parking lot at the corner of E. Main and Hutton is scheduled to start shortly and should be substantially completed by the latter part of July, following acceptance of bids for the two construction projects this week by the Village Commission.

The low bid for approximately 3,100 square feet of asphaltic concrete surfacing on the parking lot, together with a concrete retaining wall, concrete gutters and other miscellaneous work, was $13,407. It was submitted by the Detroit Concrete Products Corp.

Low bidder for the curb and gutter job was the Tony Angelo Cement Construction Co., Hazel Park, at a cost of $7555 for approximately 2,718 linear feet of concrete curb and gutter. The work is to be done on Novi Ave. from Baseline to Lake; on Oakland from Baseline to Rouge; and on Rouge from Novi to Oakland.

Following the awarding of contracts for the jobs, Commissioner Claude N. Ely asked Commission approval for retaining George Jerome & Co., civil engineers, to act as inspectors while the work is in progress. The firm is on retainer by the Village for a variety of construction work. Ely recalled the criticism that followed disclosure by Mr. Jerome last summer that the contractor doing curb and gutter work at that time did not adhere to specifications set forth in its bid. Later tests indicated that although speed-

Some Chevrolet advantages worth considering when you're ready to choose a car...

Next to a new house, a car is probably your most important purchase. Here are some facts to help you make up your mind about which make to buy.

Don't you agree that it's well worthwhile to weigh all the factors carefully before you buy any new car? Let's consider the major reasons why people choose one make over another and see how the 1953 Chevrolet stands in those respects.

Styling You Can Stay Proud Of

Styling, of course, is a matter of personal taste. Because we think Chevrolet is the best-looking car in its field, doesn't necessarily mean you'll think so, too. But we can tell you that the majority of our showroom visitors prefer Chevrolet styling and compare its appearance most favorably with cars costing a great deal more.

And you might consider this: Chevrolet styling is the newest in its field. It's the kind of styling that stays new, too. For it is based, not on fads or extremes, but on the fundamentals of good, modern design.

The One Automobile Body Almost Everybody Knows

It's not really surprising that so many people prefer Chevrolet's appearance. For Chevrolet is the only low-priced car with Body by Fisher. And Fisher, as you know, is the only automobile body manufacturer with a world-wide reputation for styling, craftsmanship and quality.

The Many Benefits of High-Compression Power

When you drive a new Chevrolet (and we hope you'll do that soon), you'll notice these things: faster acceleration from a standing start; greater passing ability in traffic and on the highway; the new ease with which you climb steep hills.

These are just some of the benefits of Chevrolet's new high-compression power. In gearshift models, there is an advanced 108-h.p. "Thrifty-King" engine with a 7.1 to 1 compression ratio. Teamed with the new Powerglide automatic transmission* is an entirely new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine with 7.5 to 1 compression ratio. It is the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field.

A Great Gain in Gasoline Economy

Along with remarkable new performance, Chevrolet's advanced engines give you far greater gasoline mileage. In fact, this year marks the most important gain in economy in Chevrolet history. And that includes substantial savings on over-all upkeep, as well as on gasoline.

New Getaway in the New Powerglide*

The new Powerglide automatically drops into "Low" range for starting and for passing in city traffic. Then, as you glide along, it slips smoothly and almost imperceptibly into cruising range. The results are much faster and more positive acceleration, and much lower fuel consumption.

The First Power Steering in a Low-Priced Car

This year's Chevrolet is the only car in its field to offer you the extra ease and convenience of Power Steering, optional at extra cost. With it, you can spin the wheel with the strength of one finger. You can seewas in and out of tight parking places without the slightest strain. You get an additional cushion against road shocks and jars. Driving is easier, safer.

A Smoother and a Safer Ride

Chevrolet is the heaviest low-priced car. Model for model, a Chevrolet will weigh as much as 200 pounds more than the other makes. You often hear people say they buy high-priced cars because they're heavier, hold the road better and ride better. Well, isn't it logical, then, that Chevrolet's extra weight (which comes from extra strength of body and frame) would result in a better ride?

Chevrolet is the Lowest-Priced Line

Certainly, price is one of the most important factors of all. We're glad to be able to tell you that Chevrolet is the lowest-priced line in its field.

Now, you might well ask, "How can Chevrolet offer me more and still cost less?" There is a simple, logical answer to that.

Remember that Chevrolet builds more cars than any other manufacturer. Chevrolet, along with General Motors, has greater facilities for research, for engineering and production. So, isn't it reasonable that these greater facilities bring manufacturing advantages and economies which Chevrolet can pass on to you in terms of higher quality at lower price?

An Endorsement Given No Other Car

Again this year, more people are buying Chevrolets than any other car. Obviously that wouldn't be true unless people liked Chevrolet better. Unless Chevrolet offered more things people want—more value.

So, when you're ready to choose your new car, wouldn't you agree that Chevrolet merits your careful consideration? We welcome your visit at any time, so that you can look the car over yourself and try it out on the road.

*Combination of 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine and Powerglide automatic transmission optional on "Two-Ten" and Bel Air models at extra cost.

How to Plan Your Family Vacation

Top: Mother has a thrill taking part in an Indian Pow Wow. Left below: A youngster meets a new pet—a baby fawn. Right below: Dad brings in a big muskellunge.

Planning on a wonderful vacation this year? This needn't be a matter of sheer guess. A little planning will find the right spot, where the whole family can have fun.

First decide which way you want to head. Then write to the state recreational sections to find which region is best for you. Supposing you decide on Wisconsin. Send a postal to the Recreation Section, Wisconsin Conservation Department, State Office Building, Madison, Wisconsin. They will supply you with free literature, giving highway maps, lists of regional vacation organizations from which you can get further information, and a fishing regulation pamphlet. These regional organizations, in turn, will help you find the type of accommodations you desire. Specify whether you want American resort plan (rate includes meals), housekeeping cottage, motel, hotel, trailer or camping facilities, and ask what facilities are covered by the rate. Other states have similar sources for information.

They will direct you to places where fishing, riding, golf or tennis are included, if this is what you desire. They will tell you whether Mother, too, can enjoy a vacation because the children are safely supervised at play.

Make a reservation well in advance, and be sure to state the number in your group, your time of arrival and the inclusive dates of your stay. Prepare for your trip. Make a check list of the things you will need, and you won't go away without the essentials. Knowing where you are going and what to expect when you get there will mean a truly wonderful vacation . . . in the right spot where all can have fun!

protected building and last, a small unprotected building.

If you have to stay out of doors, keep away from small sheds and shelters—if they are in an exposed location. Also, keep away from isolated trees, wire fences, hill-tops and wide open spaces.

It's a good idea to seek a shelter in a cave, a depression in the ground, a deep valley or canyon, the foot of a steep overhanging cliff, dense woods or a grove of trees.

If you are in an automobile with an all-metal body, you're practically safe from lightning.

Rev. and Mrs. Ivan E. Hodgson of Dunlap St. are attending the World Methodist Convocation of Evangelism in Philadelphia June 26-28. They will also visit his brother and family, Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Hodgson at Westminster, Md. and plan to visit the United Nations Building in New York City on the return trip.

14 Girls Attend Scout Camp-Out at State Park

Fourteen members of Mrs. Alex Lawrence's Girl Scout Troop No. 8 spent four days of last week camping out in pup-tents in the Lakeport State Park, ten miles north of Port Huron, on the shore of Lake Huron. The group left Northville at 8:30 Tuesday morning, June 16, returning about 5:30 p.m., Friday, June 19.

Assisting Mrs. Lawrence as co-leaders were Mrs. George Weiss and Mrs. Charles Yahné, with Barbara Prunty and Winifred Welch acting as junior aides. Barbara Prunty served as lifeguard during the swimming periods.

Swimming and sunbathing were the main activities, with cooking and eating a close second. Friday morning, the park supervisor conducted the girls on a nature hike. Storm-warnings Tuesday evening, followed by thunderstorms, failed to mar the fun, as the sun shone constantly thereafter. Thanks to the presence of Orlow Owens' pick-up truck, which had been loaned for the occasion, the 17 girls also made a brief tour of the tornado-damaged section around Jeddo, a few miles northwest of their camp.

Maids Wear Mint Tulle at Bloom-Williams Nuptials

Mrs. Robert G. Williams

An old-fashioned waltz length gown of nylon tulle was worn by Celia Anne Bloom on Friday, afternoon, June 19, when she became the bride of Robert G. Williams. Celia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Harold Bloom and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Williams of Detroit.

The Rev. Dr. Harold F. Fredsell solemnized the nuptials in a three o'clock ceremony at the Northville First Presbyterian Church. Palms and baskets of white gladioli, white asters and daisies graced the chancel and white tapers gleamed in candelabra on the altar.

Organ music, preceding the rites and during the marriage service, was presented by Mrs. Gerald V. Harrison who played Schubert's "Serenade", "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach, and "On Wings of Song" by Mendelssohn. Celia approached the altar escorted by her father wearing a waltz length gown of nylon tulle with a billowing skirt nipped into a molded bodice of finely tucked tulle. Her shoulder length veil of illusion cascaded from a circlet of matching tulle and stephanotis and she carried a white Bible adorned with a single white orchid, Fleur d'Amour and stephanotis.

Celia's honor attendant was Barbara Couse of West Seven Mile Rd., gowned in a waltz length frock of mint green tulle. Over the strapless bodice of her gown she wore a short sleeved jacket of matching green tulle. A wreath of daisies circled her hair and she carried a cascade bouquet of white daisies.

The bridesmaids included Mary Jean Woodruff of Northville, Marjorie Fairman of Big Rapids, the bride's college roommate, and the bride's sister, Martha Bloom. The trio of attendants wore mint green frocks identical to that of the maid of honor.

James Williams of Detroit, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and seating the guests were Harry Demirian, Benjamin Moon, David Seese, all of Detroit, and Charles Ely of Northville.

A white printed afternoon dress of silk shantung was selected by Mrs. Bloom for her daughter's wedding. She wore white accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations.

Mrs. Williams, mother of the bridegroom, was dressed in black and white silk and she pinned a corsage of white carnations to her shoulder. A reception for 250 guests was held on the lawn of the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Presiding at the silver service were the bride's great-aunt, Mrs. Jane Melow, of Plymouth, and her aunt, Mrs. Charles Ely, of Northville.

When the new Mr. and Mrs. Williams left for a week's honeymoon trip through Canada, Celia was wearing a green and white summer suit with white accessories. The young couple will make their home in Detroit where the bridegroom has been teaching as he continues his studies at Wayne University from which he will receive his degree in January. Celia was graduated from Northville High School and attended the University of Michigan.

Mrs. Stanton Schafer of Northville entertained several friends with Celia as honor guest at a luncheon Wednesday, June 17, to conclude a series of pre-nuptial parties given to complement her approaching marriage.

The rehearsal dinner for members of the wedding party was given at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Charles Ely, of West St. Thursday evening.

Vacation School Achievement Night

Boys and girls of the junior and primary departments of the Vacation Church School will show their parents and friends various projects and skits in an Achievement Night program this evening, Thursday, at 7 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church.

Youngsters of the First Methodist and First Presbyterian churches participated in the vacation school. Another will be held in August at the Methodist Church, using the Bible as the theme, and all children of the community will be welcome to attend.

The primary department under Miss Margery Boyd will give a skit in tonight's program, and a junior department class under Mrs. Charles Logeman, Mrs. Robert Beasley and Mrs. Ray Soule, will present a choral reading of the 23rd Psalm and show hand puppets in a Bible story play.

A skit on Bible characters will be presented by Mrs. Harold Hartley's junior class. Frank Muller, Lou Ann Comer, June Ann Ashby and Helen LaRose, members of the junior high class, will have charge of the concluding worship service.

The Rev. Dr. Harold F. Fredsell will show slides of mission work with the Navajo Indians at a mission in Arizona.

Presentation of certificates of recognition will be made to the children by the church school director, Miss Ann Katzenmeyer.

'Weed Tree' Can Help Feed Deer

Michigan's former "weed tree", the aspen, can provide a partial solution to the state's acute problem of food shortages for deer, a University of Michigan study reveals.

Conducted by Casey Westell Jr., research assistant in the U-M School of Natural Resources, as part of the Michigan Memorial-Phoenix project, the study shows that each acre of aspen wooded area can provide 100 to 150 "deer days." These are the numbers of days feed for one deer provided by each area over a three-year period, Westell says.

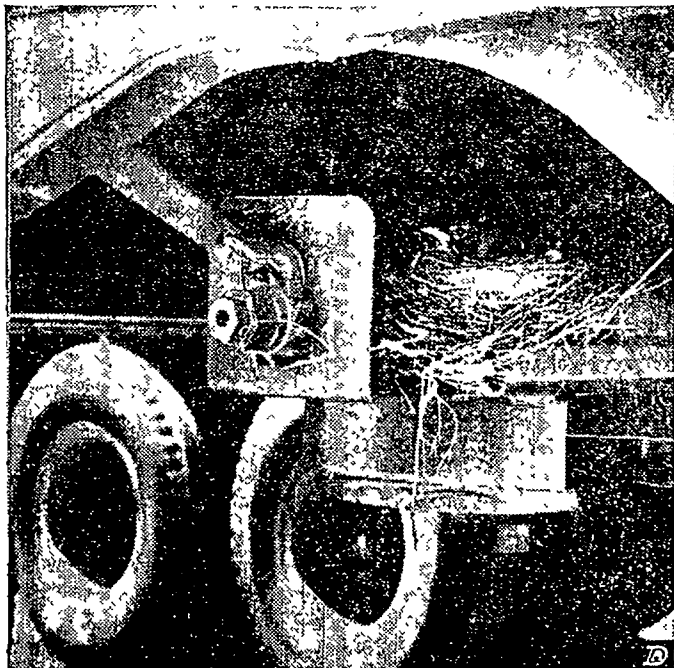

Since a large part of the deer's diet consists of the stems and leaves of young aspen trees, Westell explains that the best feed areas are those recently cut-over or logged.

This cutting-over, he continues, permits the sun to reach areas where new trees "suckers" rise through the ground from the parent tree's wandering lateral roots.

Over 500 aspen stands and cut-over areas in the northern part of the Lower Peninsula were sampled, he says. With a chart based on the amount of browsing or feeding found, wildlife managers can plan their forest cuttings so as to create a continuous supply of aspen shoots, thus helping solve the deer's acute food shortage, Westell points out.

Robin Defies Eviction From Trailer Home

A sassy robin who defied eviction from her home in a Fruehauf trailer really "gummed up the works" at the Toronto sales branch of the trailer company this spring.

The trailer was bought by Huat Transport of Toronto. This company hauls fruit and bought this used red "gravity-tandem" Fruehauf a short while ago. But, when Huat went to take delivery, to the consternation of both the Fruehauf and Huat companies they found this robin busily engaged in hatching a new brood under the trailer.

Just to show that trucks live up to their reputation for kindness and perhaps superstition, delivery was delayed until this big 32-foot unit capable of carry 20 tons was freed of its feathered boarder.

Bernadette Eggers Wed In Sunday Afternoon Ceremony

Masses of mock orange blossoms banked the fireplace of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall Sunday afternoon when Bernadette Marguerite Eggers exchanged nuptial vows with Frederick Lemmon in a double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Mathilda Eggers is the mother of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Seth Lemmon of Cady St. are parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. E. E. Rossow performed the marriage ceremony before the fireplace graced by a mantle centerpiece and tall white tapers and candelabra stood on either side of the improvised altar.

Presented in marriage by her brother, Walter Eggers, the bride wore a formal gown of ice white bridal satin with a voluminous overskirt of tulle. Pointe d'Esprit lace covered the molded satin bodice and matching lace outlined the illusion neckline. Pointe d'Esprit lace also fashioned her formal length mitts which ended in points over the wrists. A satin coronet crested with seed pearls and rhinestones held her triple tiered fingertip veil which was first worn by the bride's sister and she carried a cascade bouquet of shattered white carnations.

Honor matron was Mrs. Russell Penberthy of Wayne, sister of the bride. Her gown of mauve tulle over satin was styled with a deep decolletage and a wide cummerbund of matching satin. The pink shattered carnations entwined in the circle of braided pink satin which she wore in her hair, matched those in her cascade bouquet.

As flower girl, the bride's niece, Sharon Spear of Wayne, was demure in a hoop-skirted gown of ice pink tulle over satin. She carried a tiny flower basket showered with matching pink ribbon and filled with pink rosebuds which were also tucked into her headpiece of braided pink satin ribbon.

For the reception held immediately following the ceremony, Mrs. Eggers, mother of the bride, received more than 150 guests in an afternoon dress of open blue net over taffeta with a flowered demi-hat and a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mo-

Cowbird, Nature's Biggest Success at Shirking, Is Bird Kingdom's Hobo

Feathered gossips probably have more nasty things to say about Cowbirds than any other bird-world citizen, except, perhaps, cannibal types like the owl and hawk.

Cowbirds are not called Cowbirds because they have horns or give milk or eat grass. In fact, they were once known as "buffalo birds", back in the days of the great bison herds of the West.

Both of these names came from the Cowbird habit of loitering around cattle or buffalo. They do this because they see no reason to wear down their claws stirring insects out of the ground when bovine hooves can do it for them.

Perhaps this line of reasoning, or instinct, to be more accurate, led them to their most spectacular and distinctive trait: they never build a nest; they never hatch their own eggs; and they never feed their young.

This irresponsible behavior, one might suppose, should wipe out the species in a few generations. But, on the contrary, there are probably more cowbirds now than ever before, records maintained at Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills, Mich., and elsewhere, reveal.

It would not be fair to call cowbirds lazy, for they are often very busy—laying eggs in the nests of other birds. And strange as it may seem, almost half the birds so imposed upon actually do rear young Cowbirds.

Cowbird success would be very nearly absolute if they just bothered to be more careful in selecting foster-parents for their offspring. Robins and Catbirds, for instance, are usually just as persistent in tossing strange eggs from their nests as the Cowbirds are in putting them there. To make things more confusing, the Cowbird often removes the eggs of the host bird before laying its own. And sometimes will take out eggs of other Cowbirds, or even its own egg of a previous laying.

The Yellow-breasted Chat usually solves the problem by simply deserting its nest if a Cowbird lays in it. And the Yellow Warbler sometimes builds a new floor in its nest to cover any strange eggs before laying its own.

While Mourning Doves often hatch Cowbird eggs, they never rear the young because of different feeding habits. Little Mourning Doves reach into the crop of the parents for their food; but young Cowbirds require that food be placed directly in their open mouths, as one might have guessed.

The Cowbird has found that the baby-sitters for its offspring are the tyrant flycatchers, the sparrows, the vireos, and the warblers. Although double duty parent-hood is a strain on some individual birds or families, the overall effect on bird population seems to be small. The species which do the most work for Cowbirds remain among the ranks of the most common nesting birds.

Luck follows the Cowbird in other respects, too. Irrigation in the West has opened wider areas for cattle grazing; and, consequently, more feeding grounds for Cowbirds and about fifty species of birds who build nests for them.

So it is that moralists find no comfort in the Cowbird—one of nature's most successful shirkers.

Strawberry growers putting in an irrigation system may find it pays to extend the system enough to make it into a frost-fighter, too, suggests Ernest H. Kidder, Michigan State College agricultural engineer.

CANADA CALLS

Michigan's neighbor, Canada, and more specifically Ontario, is calling all fishermen at this season of the year. Some of us go for the "bush" country above the straits in a big way—and for good reason. Thousands of lakes are all but unexplored. Most of them are accessible only by air, and many more only by long portages with a canoe across the shoulders. But the area is so close to Michigan itself that more and more people venture across the border for a big adventure every year.

Eastern Lakes Popular

Only 66 miles east of Sault Ste. Marie on Canadian Highway 17 you'll find a typical wilderness lake to which you may easily and comfortably drive. On the maps it's called "Wakewick," but the natives call it Big Basswood Lake. A very satisfactory lodge known as Melwell's is located on the east shore, and the lake itself is truly a thing of beauty. Tall birch trees mingled with pines line the shore. Precipitous rock cliffs emerge from the blue waters to tower hundreds of feet into the sky, reminders of vast glacial upheavals that swept the continent ages ago.

In this lake and scores of others around it, deep trolling brings up good sized lake trout known as "grays" in Ontario. The average goes around five pounds, although 15 to 20 pound specimens are not too rare. The limit of five per day per person is often easily caught—and for eating, these fish are near the top for wonderful flavor.

From Big Basswood Lake a ten-minute drive gets you to the Mississagi River, tumbling thru picturesque rapids. Here casting for walleye pike ranging up to 10 pounds is fine sport. Great Northern are caught in the same water—and a northern in fast running water can put up a real scrap.

Brook Trout Grow Fat

During the past ten years many of the lakes—particularly the small, deep ones, have been planted with brook trout. They've grown fat and big as the years go by—and a single week end recently gave us a chance to film the taking of a 5-pound brook trout—an event that is definitely in the "once-in-a-lifetime" class!

The best of these brook trout lakes are too small for sirrafs, and have no roads reaching them. They probably account for the good fishing. Only access is by portage, but there are plenty of guides available who know the trails and who know how to pack a canoe into the toughest bush. If you're interested in this country write to the Department of Lands and Forests at Ontario for general information or for specific data on the area just described address Weldon Moore, Thessalon, Ontario. A visit will convince you that our northern neighbor is worthy of consideration to all who love Michigan Outdoors!

Mort Neff's "Michigan Outdoors" television show can be seen every Thursday over WWJ-TV, Channel 4, in a thrilling full half-hour show—10:00 till 10:30 p.m. DON'T MISS IT!

Fish Predators of Some Benefit, U-M Prof Says

The most peaceful pond or stream quite often is the scene of killing warfare between Michigan's fish and their natural enemies, a University of Michigan professor states.

But there is some benefit in this bitter strife, according to Prof. Karl F. Lagler, chairman of the U-M Department of Fisheries. Without these enemies, the game fish population might grow to such an extent that soon Michigan ponds and lakes would become choked with stunted, starving and dead fish, he says.

There are two groups of these predators: (1) the coldblooded fishes, amphibians and reptiles, and (2) the warmblooded birds and mammals.

Most easily distinguished of the fish predators is the gar, with its bill-like jaws equipped with strong, sharp teeth. Predominately a fish-eater, it is found in warm lakes and slow, meandering streams. It's usually lazy-like, but is capable of swift, killing movements.

Real sport can be found in catching a gar. Archery and night spearing are the means gaining greatest popularity in the state.

Another enemy of game fish is the bowfin, which has an extremely long dorsal (back) fin extending over most of its length. It's most often found in slow-moving rivers and weedy, warmwater lakes, Dr. Lagler reports. Also a great fish-eater, it is a scrappy fighter when taken on tackle, and it is caught frequently by anglers fishing for bass or pike.

Even as gars and bowfin are regarded with disdain by fishermen, so also is the carp often blamed for a normal, cyclic decline in fishing. Professor Lagler, faculty member of the U-M School of Natural Resources, which celebrates its 50th anniversary this year, explains that carp may be quite abundant in warmer lakes that have muddy bottoms and in slow-moving streams.

Tough, the fish is able to exist under extremes of temperature, pollution and other conditions which tend to kill off native fishes. It lives on a combined meat and vegetable diet and makes many fine dishes for the table.

Three other common fish predators are the bullfrog, water-snake and garter snake, but their effect on the fish populations is not great enough to warrant anglers' concern, he explains. However, workers at state fish hatcheries or at private bait-minnow ponds must be constantly on the alert regarding the potential damage which these "critters" can do.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 13

Girl Scout Troop 13 met at Cass Benton Park on June 12 at 6 p.m. for a family pot-luck picnic. After supper the Cub Scout Pack 75 of Newton School, Asbury Park, invited us to watch their Indian Powwow dances and display of fireworks. All had a wonderful time at the troop's last meeting until fall.

Storing of Crops May Pay This Fall

A Michigan State College agricultural economist says there's a good chance that farmers will profit this year by storing their corn, oats, wheat, barley and rye. L. L. Boger says that prices for these crops likely will be below support levels at harvest time.

The economist asserts there are many times when it will pay a farmer to store his grain and wait for a more favorable price than that offered at harvest time. He believes a farmer can help himself by several hundred dollars a year by knowing seasonal price changes, keeping up to date on the price outlook, paying attention to U.S. production figures and taking advantage of government price supports.

Common Sense Is Best Safeguard Against Polio

"CC" — common sense — not "GG" gamma globulin — will be every family's safeguard against polio this summer, the state health department says in urging parents to be on the alert as usual to guard their youngsters against the disease.

The polio "season" usually gets under way in Michigan about the middle of June and reaches its peak late in August. A few common-sense precautions will help to protect your youngsters during the coming weeks:

1. Don't get panicky. Remember that even though the number of cases of polio may be high, the number of persons paralyzed is usually low. Half of those who are diagnosed as having polio recover completely—most recover without being seriously handicapped.

2. Don't isolate your youngsters—let them play with their usual playmates, but don't let them mix with new groups.

3. Try to get the youngsters to rest or at least play quiet, sitting-down games part of the day. Don't let them swim to the point of becoming chilled, or to become chilled in any way. If they should have the polio virus in their bodies, being over-tired or chilled may result in more serious infection.

4. Keep the youngsters clean—be sure they wash their hands thoroughly before eating. Cleanliness is of utmost importance because polio may be transmitted through contaminated food and other contaminated substances, as well as through close personal contact with a carrier.

5. Consult your doctor at the first sign of illness, particularly if these symptoms appear: headache, fever, sore throat, upset stomach, stiff neck or back.

Trout Studies

During recent years, conservation department fisheries workers have been actively engaged in trout population studies on certain streams of the state. Here, two men are censusing Hunt Creek, one of the special streams being used in the continuous study. Trout are easily captured after being momentarily stunned by means of an electrical "shocker." After being weighed and measured, the fish are released where taken. Information gained from such studies helps develop better fishing in Michigan.

V.F.W. Ball Team Still Undefeated

The Veterans of Foreign Wars softball team kept its victory streak intact Tuesday night by banging out a 10 to 4 win over the Walled Lake Door team in a game at Ford Field. The triumph was the fifth for the V.F.W. against no losses.

The American Legion team jumped on Bloom's Insurance 11 to 3 in another game Tuesday night, after the Optimists edged Clarenceville 6 to 5 and Cy Owens beat the Mayors 5 to 2 Monday night.

The Mayors and the Cy Owens team will race each other tonight, Thursday, at 7 p.m. in a single game. The V.F.W. will play Bloom's Monday night, with the Mayors and Walled Lake matched in a second game. It'll be the Optimists and the Legion taking the diamond in the first game Tuesday night and Clarenceville and the Cy Owens team following in the nightcap.

Local Baseball Team Wins 7th Game in Inter-County League

The Northville baseball team ran its string of victories to seven last Sunday by swarming over the Redford Lions 12 to 4 at Cass Benton Park.

The victory kept Northville firmly entrenched in second place behind undefeated Auto Club in the Michigan Inter-County Baseball League. All other teams in the league have lost three or more games and trail the leaders.

Tie Separates Leaders

What keeps Northville out of a tie for first place with the Auto Club is a tied game early in the season in a game called on the time limit rule. Northville has won seven games and tied one. Auto Club has won eight, as against no losses.

The Northville team, sponsored by the Cy Owens Ford dealership and by the S. L. Brader Department Store, will play Wyandotte at Alkali Field in the Downriver city on Sunday, June 28 at 2:30 p.m. On July 4, Northville will tackle Plymouth, there, and on Sunday, July 5, will take on Wayne in an away game.

Harter's Hits Homer

Northville pushed across runs in the second, fourth, fifth, seventh and eighth innings to outdistance Redford last Sunday. The two runs in the fourth were the result of Ray Harter's long home run into the woods in deep left field with one man on.

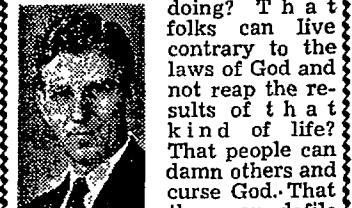

Northville had 12 runs on 12 hits, with no errors. The Lions got four runs on ten hits, and committed three miscues.

The Northville team swamped Walled Lake the previous Sunday by a score of 18 to 0, with Rudy Zeppa going the distance, and striking out nine batters.

DO YOU SUPPOSE?

That God will let people go on in their sinfulness without being punished for their wrong doing? That a t folks can live contrary to the laws of God and not reap the results of that kind of life? That people can damn others and curse God. That they can defile their bodies? That they can forsake their wives, their husbands, their children and be allowed to go free? That they can steal and be dishonest and commit fraud and yet never be brought to court? That men can murder, kidnap and injure others and never be imprisoned for it? That men can mock Jesus Christ, live as if He never died for them, utterly rejecting His offer of salvation and yet go unpunished? God would not be just if He allowed the sinner to go unpunished for this reason—"It is appointed unto man once to die and after this judgement." For this reason, God created hell as a prison house for unrepentant, unsaved sinners. Hear it from God's Word—Rev. 21:8, "But the fearful, and the unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone; which is the second death." II Cor. 5:21 tells us of a way of escape for the guilty.

-RACING-

Sport of Kings

OR

Breeder of Labor Rackets?

The recent hearings before a Congressional Committee unearthed some food for thought. TEAMSTER BOSS, HOFFA, testified under oath that he ordered Buffalino and Juke Box Local 985 to raid and attempt to seize our Union. In this Buffalino and Hoffa had the connivance and assistance of one Wm. McFetridge of the Building Service Employees International Union, A. F. of L.

WHY???

Officials of Michigan Racing Association, Northville Downs and Hazel Park Harness Raceway appeared before the Congressional Committee and gave testimony under the guise of neutrality, which indicated a willingness to submit to or go along with this raiding technique, of Hoffa, Buffalino and McFetridge, admittedly designed to deprive Race Track Workers of their lawful right to REPRESENTATION of their OWN CHOOSING?

WHY???

Can a softer DEAL be made with these disruptionists to the loss and detriment of the RACE TRACK EMPLOYEES?

Can the RACE TRACK OPERATORS afford to adopt conditions of the Juke Box business, as brought out by the CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE hearings, in the RACING INDUSTRY?

Does this calloused disregard for the LEGAL RIGHTS of their EMPLOYEES give any indication that the PUBLIC RIGHT would be properly protected?

The CITIZENS OF MICHIGAN should have these questions answered when the petition for a REFERENDUM VOTE on the question of CONTINUING or OUTLAWING PARI-MUTUEL BETTING is presented to the VOTERS.

Pay more? What for?

You don't have to pay costly-car prices for costly-car comforts. Ford brings you everything [and we mean everything] you've ever wanted in a car, at a price that's well within your reach! And according to recent surveys, a Ford returns more of its original cost when sold than any other car at any price!

Here are a few of the "Worth More" advantages you'll find in the '53 Ford:

1. A V-8 engine—powerful and smooth!

Ford's famous high-compression V-8 is a leader in quiet, flexible, economical performance. Ford, remember, has built more V-8's than all other makers combined—over 13 million!

2. America's most economical Six engine!

If it's a Six you want, Ford offers you the high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker... the engine which, with optional Overdrive, won't over all other cars in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run!

3. America's finest and most versatile automatic drive!

Fordomatic Drive is the "automatic" which gives you both the get-up-and-go of automatic gears and the smoothness of a fluid torque converter.

4. Automatic gas savings!

Ford's Automatic Power Pilot (on Six and V-8) meters just the right amount of gas, times ignition precisely, burns fuel evenly and completely.

5. America's newest and finest power steering!

Ford's Master-Guide power steering gives you new ease, stability and safety in guiding your car on smooth roads or rough. Steering is up to 75% easier.

6. Largest choice of models in the low-price field!

Ford alone gives you a choice of 18 different models... a SIX or V-8... Fordomatic, Conventional or Overdrive... the widest variety of body, color and upholstery combinations.

7. A body that's the style-setter!

Only Ford in its field gives you the advantages of a full-tight Crestmark Body... the trend-maker in design and beauty. Ford's body is the longest and Ford's trunk, the largest.

8. New driving conveniences!

Ford's first in its field with "Worth More" features like... easier-acting, suspended pedals that eliminate floor holes... foam rubber cushions on front and rear seats in all models... and convenient Center-Fill Fueling.

9. An automatically controlled ride!

The wide front tread (widest in the low-price field) takes tilt out of turns... gives you a more level ride. With new "balanced suspension," new spring and shock absorber action and new rubber compression bumpers, road shock in the front end alone is reduced up to 80%.

10. It's worth more when you sell it!

An impartial survey of used car prices proved that Fords return a greater proportion of their original cost than any other cars in America.

But don't take our word for it. Stop in and Test Drive this Ford for yourself. We predict you'll be sold before you're in second! It was true last year and it's even truer this year: you can pay more, but you can't buy better than Ford.

WORTH MORE WHEN YOU BUY IT...
WORTH MORE WHEN YOU SELL IT...

Michigan Mirror

by Gene Alleman

"Psychological warfare" is the newest weapon in Michigan's battle to reduce its mounting highway death and accident record. It became available last week when the governor signed into law a bill revising state driver licensing organization. Important provisions of the law are:

1. Centralization of authority with the Secretary of State for issuing drivers licenses.
2. Permits a training program for licensing officers in which they will be made conscious of their responsibility to issue licenses only to qualified drivers.
3. Requires a state central file showing accident and violation records of Michigan drivers.

Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary, who will direct administration of the new law, believes that every driver will soon become conscious of this file and make constant efforts to keep it clean. If a driver's right to hold a license is ever questioned, the information is immediately available with evidence of his ability.

Marked improvement in highway safety is expected to result when machinery to administer the new law grinds into action in October. Claims that it might reduce traffic fatalities by 30% were made by its supporters when the bill was under consideration by the Legislature. "Revocation or suspension of driving privileges can be ordered as soon as accident-prone or habitual violators are identified," says Secretary Cleary. It will reduce traffic tragedy, sharply, he added, but he is unable to predict exactly how great the reduction will be.

Our Great America

An important function of the new law is the training of licensing examiners to recognize poor driving risks. Experts from Northwestern University's Traffic Institute and the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators are now working out a training program for local officers and new qualification tests for applicant drivers.

The new department is now being organized. It is headed by Lee C. Richardson, present director of the motor vehicle division. His staff will include about 52 people. Fourteen will be trained as supervisory examiners to work in various districts of the State. The others are needed to maintain the master file for Michigan's 3,162,000 drivers and for routine clerical work.

Initial appropriation for the department is $260,000. All jobs from director down are under civil service, thus removing dangers of politics creeping into administration.

Most apparent effect on average Michigan driver is the change in the expiration date on the license he now holds. The new law makes license expiration coincide with the driver's birthday at three year intervals. This reminding device eliminates the need for sending notices from Lansing — a savings of $30,000 each year.

Cost of license renewals will go from $1.25 to $1.50. A driver applying for his first license in Michigan must pay $3, the added amount to cover expense of road tests.

Local licensing agencies will receive from the state $2 of each $3 collected and 50 cents for each renewal to help finance their operations.

More comprehensive tests face beginning drivers, including a demonstration by actual driving, that they are qualified for a license. With evidence from the central file available to courts of the state, Secretary Cleary expects judges to clamp down on habitually reckless drivers; revoke or suspend more licenses than previously.

These are the two mechanisms expected to raise standards for drivers on Michigan highways. A major change in public attitude is hoped for by traffic safety experts. They want people to feel that the possession of a driver's license is a privilege (for those who have proven themselves physically and emotionally capable) rather than a right for anyone who requests it. They hope the public will realize the new regulations are designed for everyone's safety and protection, not as a means of further tormenting a driver with the "tough luck" to have a series of accidents and traffic arrests.

An appeal board is also set up by the new law. Any applicant who considers he is treated unfairly by an examining officer can appear with evidence to support his case. The board has the power to reverse, affirm, or modify the original decision.

"The opening wedge," Secretary Cleary termed the new law. "It's the first step," he said, "in what we hope will be a long series of improvements in Michigan's highway traffic problems." He and Mr. Richardson, who is now devoting full time to organizing the new department, indicated that they expect little trouble getting under way.

Personnel must be selected and trained; local officers must then learn the new system. They are receiving, they say, the finest cooperation from Michigan State Police and from sheriffs and police chiefs, all of whom are involved in the new plan. Once things are organized, the department expects to function smoothly.

"My main effort while in office," said Secretary Cleary, "will be dedicated to reducing as much as possible the loss of life and money from automobile accidents in Michigan." This goal, he added, is one requiring much thought and understanding on the part of every citizen of the state.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Andries G. Keller who passed away June 22, 1953:
He has left us a beautiful memory
And a sorrow too great to be told
But to those who loved him and lost him
His memory will never grow old
His pleasant smile and cheerful ways
Are happy memories of bygone days.
Sadly missed by the family of Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Keller

Northville Girls Elected to Offices

Three of the five girls attending Wolverine Girls' State at the University of Michigan were elected to political offices in the mythical 49th State.

Nancy Dewsbury, 537 Grace St., was elected City Mayor; Carol Ann Sparling, 324 N. Main, was elected County Clerk, and Jo Anna Wiesmyer, 18801 Sheldon Rd., was named prosecuting attorney.

The June 16-24 session was attended by 300 high school girls from the state, chosen for their leadership ability. They lived and worked at Stockwell, U-M women's residence hall. The citizenship program, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, was established to develop and train outstanding young women in the workings and philosophy of our government on the city, county and state levels.

From early flag raisings to late lights out, their schedules were filled with city meetings, with lectures on the functions of officials and political parties, and with state party conventions to draft their party platforms and to nominate their legislative leaders.

Booklet Describes Michigan Angling

"Fishing in Michigan", a 32-page booklet covering all aspects of Michigan angling, may be obtained free by writing either the Michigan Tourist Council or the conservation department in Lansing.

The booklet was published jointly by the two state agencies to present a pocket-sized summary of fish types, fish cookery, boats, camping, and stream, lake, "deep sea" and ice fishing as carried on in Michigan.

Text of the three-color, glossy finished, 6x9 inch booklet was written by department fish specialists.

Detailed drawing of each fish type will give anglers a ready identification key for use while fishing.

A central two-page fishing map indicates location of fish types by regions as found within the state, and types of baits generally used in taking the fish are listed in the text.

Sixty boys and girls and teachers and helpers were present Monday morning for the opening of Bible School. If your children like handwork, singing, and want Another game is to be played Thursday evening at Milford with the West Highland Baptist Church team as opponents of the Salem Federated team. If you wish to go to this game, meet at the church at 7:00.

Next Sunday evening following our evening service there will be a singingspiration with several churches of this area. There will be special music from each church and also a girls' quartet from the King's College.

Flowers for last Sunday services at the Federated Church were donated by Phil Barnes in memory of his mother who passed away last week.

FIRE HALL ISSUE

In order that there be no misunderstanding about last week's article concerning the building of a fire hall, I was requested to put a copy of the November ballot in this week's news column. The ballot reads as follows, and this reporter hopes this article will not put her in the midst of a political battle:

FIRE HALL PROPOSITION BALLOT

General Election of November 4, 1952

Operation Sharptail

Trapping sharptailed grouse takes lots of patience, as biologist Tony Peterle, working with the conservation department on a grouse research project, well knows. The birds are captured for examination and banding at winter feeding grounds or at concentration points in the spring. Here Peterle holds one of the reluctant birds after capture in a net trap in the upper peninsula.

Maybe you can spare a little of that vacation time to start a basement or attic project. These are "Do it yourself days".

Some knotty pine paneling. Celotex ceiling tile and a little trim with a new window or two will change that waste space into good living quarters. Let's do a little figuring.

Health Council Helping Michigan Find Doctors

All areas of Michigan now find it easier to secure a doctor of medicine as a result of the extensive M.D. placement program being operated by Michigan Health Council.

According to an announcement released by H.B. Zemmer, M.D., Lapeer, president of the organization, "the Michigan Health Council has been developing the state-wide plan during the past two months and already is in contact with more than ninety doctors seeking locations in Michigan". Sixty-four Michigan communities already have registered a desire to cooperate. Dr. Zemmer further pointed out that "numerous important health groups are cooperating with the council. These include the Michigan State Medical Society, Michigan Hospital Association, Medical Schools, Veterans Administration, Community Health Councils and others".

Through the plan, any Michigan community in need of an M.D. may contact the Council and secure help. "We are confident," Dr. Zemmer pointed out, "that Michigan affords a number of community opportunities for young men entering the profession and our work so far indicates that such a service as we now are providing will attract those men from other states as well as from our own medical schools and training centers".

The Council is a non-profit organization supported by 31 state-level health groups, and is able to provide this service free to the communities and to doctors of medicine.

Any Michigan community in need of an M.D. is urged to contact the Michigan Health Council at its headquarters office at 706 N. Washington Ave., Lansing.
