for the Record

by G. H. C.

So much has been said and written in the past few days about bingo and lotteries run for charitable and non-profit purposes that for us to pontificate on the subject is like carrying coal to Newcastle.

Nevertheless, when we reflect upon the fact that Police Chief Joe Denton, acting under orders from the Wayne County prosecutor, has banned the local V.F.W.'s Saturday night bingo game "until further notice" we are reminded of the old expression "strain at a gnat and swallow a camel", which is what Northville appears to be doing in dealing with a bingo game that deals in pennies in comparison with the thousands of dollars that are bet each week at Northville Downs.

Let our position on bingo and racing not be confused. So long as pari-mutuel betting is legal under Michigan law, we can only assume that this is the wish of the voters. We are not criticizing the fact that a lot of money is bet under the law.

Likewise, so long as the State law bans bingo, lotteries and other games of chance, even though they are conducted for charitable purposes, we must agree with the present policy of enforcement officials. The solution to the problem is to amend the law if the people of the state wish such games of chance to operate. Vigorous enforcement probably is the most effective method of bringing about such revision. We can see no reason why the law cannot be amended quite easily if those who favor such games of chance unite in support of a change. Certainly a State which has swallowed a camel in legalizing pari-mutuel betting on the ponies should not strain at swallowing a gnat in the form of bingo and lotteries for charitable purposes.

Normally we like a good argument for two reasons. One is simply that we like to argue on some subjects. Another is that we may pick up a couple of new subscriptions. For the past week, however, we have been arguing with Mrs. C. about the fact that on July 22 we became grandparents for the first time. Since then Mrs. C. has been asserting, with undue force, we feel, that this fact should be blazoned forth in the Record's news columns on Page 1. Our own feeling has been in favor of a more modest approach, on the premise that although we both are mighty pleased about the event after waiting four years for it to happen, a lot of other grandparents have achieved this state ahead of us. Also, we have told her repeatedly that if we announce Wendy Lee's birth in the news columns on Page 1, and that we are heading for Tacoma to see her, and Rosanne and Tom in the near future, we are laying the Record wide open for every subscriber, to insist on equally prominent mention being given to their attainment of the status of grandparents.

To the hour of going to press, we remain winner of the argument, for the item is NOT in the news columns. We hope that Mrs. C. will accept her defeat gracefully and that henceforth she will not try to influence the editor's policy on news.

Perhaps it was the hot weather that made us especially aware of the pleasant ride from Muskegon to Grand Haven, Tuesday, in an air-conditioned Greyhound bus. Under each window, but placed so the cooling draft of air was not objectionable, was a grilled air outlet from the compressor under the bus floor. Temperature throughout the bus was entirely comfortable, and in sharp contrast with that of the automobile which brought us from Grand Haven to Northville.

While in Muskegon we ran into Matthew B. Carey, the Detroit financial expert who attended a special meeting of the Village Commission more than two months ago to advise the Commission on how to arrive at a solution to the Village's need for better parking in the business center. Mr. Carey's advice then was that the first step should be to hire a competent traffic engineer to survey the Village's need and set up a definite program based on this need. To his question this week: "Has the Village Commission done anything about parking since the special meeting?" we could only reply: "Absolutely nothing."

Carey's question served to recall another objective of the Commission a couple of months ago—to erect 2-hour parking signs in the Village parking lot adjoining the Presbyterian Church and in the lot at the corner of Main and Center streets. These lots are now used extensively for all-day parking, whereas if there was a limit on the length of time they could be used, they could materially improve the congestion on heavy shopping days.

One of the commissioners stated two months ago that 2-hour parking limit signs would be erected in both lots as soon as they could be purchased. Two months seems a lot of time to wait for signs.

Ball Team Wins First Playoff Game

The Northville baseball team survived the first round of Inter-County league playoffs Sunday by nipping River Rouge, 6 to 5, in the eleventh inning in a game at Cass Benton Park.

Pvt. Jack Andrews 'Missing in Action'

Pvt. Jack Andrews has been reported missing in action in Korea, according to word received July 26, by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Andrews, who recently moved to Detroit from their West Main street address.

Pvt. Andrews, 21, was listed "missing" July 12 in one of the last big pushes in Korea. He had served 14 months in Korea before coming home last fall. He re-enlisted for six years in October, 1952, and was sent back to Korea in November.

A brother, James, is serving with the Air Force in Texas. Another brother, William, is with the Marines in San Diego, Calif.

The team will be idle this Sunday as the other eight teams go on to eliminate two teams and push two others close to the edge of elimination. Each team must be defeated twice to be pushed out of the playoffs.

Win in Eleventh

The Northville team, sponsored by the Cy Owens Ford dealer and S. L. Brader Department store, had a two run lead going into the ninth inning, but River Rouge knotted the score at 5-5. After a scoreless tenth inning, Leonard Sullenski pounded out an extra-base hit with two men on and two out to score the winning run. Although both men crossed the plate and Sullenski was still rounding the bases while fielders chased the ball, only the first run across was necessary to establish the victory in the record book.

In other games Sunday, Plymouth beat Faris, 10 to 5; Team-mouth beat Faris, 10 to 5; Team-mouth beat Faris, 10 to 5; Team-mouth beat Faris, 10 to 5.

Goodbye to United States - - Hello, Germany!

Yerkes street. Jurgen's foster parents were Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Smith, 411 North Center street. Next to Jurgen is Colvin C. Hoffman, Commercial attaché of the German Consulate in Detroit. At extreme left in second row is Mrs. Rachel Andresen, executive secretary of the Ann Arbor Council of Churches and director of the exchange program. Only 14 of the 20 students appear in this picture. Others had already begun the trip to New York. Their boat was scheduled to leave at noon, July 30.

But What About the Pigeons?

"It's about time they fixed it." "It has a nice white face." "The bell wakes me up at night."

"Where are the pigeons going to roost now?" Those were some of the reactions of pedestrians this week to the repair of the "village clock" in the steeple of the First Methodist church.

The Village Commission had authorized the repairs some time ago, but parts were slow arriving, and the repair work itself was slow getting started.

Almost everyone is happy that the clock is back in action. Even the man who said the banging keeps him awake. He admitted it woke him up only once. Hasn't heard it since.

But many people will continue to be startled when the bell breaks the silence. Especially in the dead of night. It had been silent for so long.

The pigeons? They'll just have to get used to the noise or move on to Cadillac Square in Detroit with the rest of their relatives.

Exchange Students Given Farewell Banquet by Rotary Club Tuesday

Twenty German Exchange students will board a boat in New York today, Thursday, and head for home after a year in Michigan homes during which they absorbed a true picture of what America is like. Fourteen of them were in Northville Tuesday night with their foster parents at a farewell banquet sponsored by the Northville Rotary Club at the First Presbyterian Church house. Two of them, Ursula Hamacher and Jurgen Bonnet, have lived in our village for a year.

Four others lived here with foster parents and attended the Northville High School the year before, establishing in the minds of most people the fact that the "experiment" in democratic education is a sound method of sending ambassadors of good will back to their homes with a clear mental picture of the United States as it really is, in its working clothes.

The original program was sponsored in 1951-52 by Rotary International and the State Department. The past year's program was handled by the Ann Arbor Council of Churches and the State (Continued on Page 10)

Clock Is Back in Action

The town clock, atop the First Methodist Church, is back in action again after a long, long rest, during which most townsmen have lost the habit of glancing skyward for the time. Now the habit can be re-established, and the booming notes which mark each passing hour will remind everyone that the clock is working again.

Register Now for Citizenship Banquet

The first call went out this week for registration of all Northville residents who will be guests of honor at the annual Citizenship banquet to be sponsored by the Coordinating Council in October. Honor guests will be all young people who reach voting age this year, veterans who have reached 21 and who have not voted yet, and naturalized citizens who will vote for the first time.

Mrs. Samuel Geraci, chairman for the "21ers" banquet, asks that township residents register with Clerk Fred W. Lyke at 430 East Main street, and that village residents register with Clerk Mrs. Mary Alexander at the village hall.

Airman Earl Davis Killed in Korea

Airman 2/c Earl Davis, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davis of Wixom, was killed July 7 when the plane in which he was returning from a mission crash landed in South Korea, according to word received by his parents.

A graduate of Walled Lake high school, Davis had served two years with the Air Force. He will be returned to the United States for burial.

He is survived by his wife, Marilyn, a three-weeks old daughter, Lynn Sharon, and by his parents.

3 Boys Injured in Grand River Crash

Three 17-year-old Northville High School athletes miraculously escaped death last Friday night, July 24, when their car ploughed into the rear of another which had swung into their path at Beck and Grand River roads.

Injured were Alfred Iversen, 437 North Center, driver of the car, and Eddie Nash, Beal street, both of Northville, and James Mitchell 26019 Whipple, of Novi. Iversen and Nash were cut about the face, and sustained other bruises. Mitchell, thrown almost through the windshield, was cut on the forehead and nose. All were taken to Redford Receiving Hospital and later transferred to Mt. Carmel.

All Released

Iversen and Nash were held at Mt. Carmel for observation and released Sunday. Mitchell was transferred to Acheson Memorial Hospital in Northville and released Tuesday. It was thought at first that his skull had been fractured.

The boys were headed northwest on Grand River toward New Hudson at the time of the accident. A second car pulled out from a store at the intersection, according to Mrs. Diana Ward, 25275 Novi road, and crossed Grand River in the path of the Iversen car. Mrs. Ward was seated in a parked car near the store.

Traveling at 65 m.p.h.

The Iversen car was travelling at about 65 miles per hour at the time, according to the report of State Police Troopers Dufort and Kepler, who were on patrol and appeared at the accident scene shortly after it happened.

The Iversen car struck the Presser auto in the rear, said Mrs. Ward. The impact drove the Presser car into a third auto, driven by a Mr. Woodrow, of Beck road, which had come to a stop on Beck waiting for Grand River traffic to clear.

Damage to the Iversen car was estimated at $600 but is thought to be a total loss. The Presser car was damaged to the extent of about $300. Damage to the Woodrow car was estimated at $75.

Approve Gunnison Home Construction

Gunnison home construction in Northville got the nod of approval this week when an informal opinion by Village Attorney Philip R. Ogilvie declared that the building inspector has discretionary powers in approving new types of construction.

In a statement to a Record reporter Wednesday morning, Mr. Ogilvie said that Section 5.09 of Article V, of the Building Code, on "General Engineering Requirements," instructs the building inspector to revise the code to include new materials which appear, and to exclude old materials as they go out of use.

Rafters Under Fire

The controversy over Gunnison home construction centered on a charge by Sid Frid, of Grace street, that six inch rafters and joists were not being used in a Gunnison house under construction on Rayson street. Gunnison engineers, at a commission meeting July 20, pointed out that they used laminated two-by-fours because weight distribution of the roof was different from conventional construction in that weight rested primarily on the four walls rather than on the rafters.

Accept Bids On School Properties

High bid of $3,000 for the Baseline school and property on West Eight Mile road was accepted by the Northville Board of Education at a special meeting this week. The bid was submitted by R. C. Hopper, of West Seven Mile road. Nine bids were opened, ranging from $550 to $3,000.

A bid of $1,250 for the Thayer school on West Six Mile by Mrs. Carl Bryan was accepted by the board of education. Mrs. Bryan's bid was the only one submitted. The property on which the school is located was not included in the bid.

Both schools were acquired by Northville School District Fr. No. 2 by annexation. Permission to dispose of the properties was granted to the school board at the annual meeting in June.

Michigan American Legion Convention Begins Today

An estimated ten thousand American Legionnaires, Auxiliary members and families will join 15,000 Detroit Legionnaires today for the opening of the 35th Annual State American Legion Convention.

Among them will be delegates from the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of Northville: Donald B. Severance, Paul Burnham, David MacDougall, George Simmons, Ray Altenberg and C. Oscar Hammond, outgoing commander of the 17th district.

Auxiliary delegates are Mrs. Robin Corey and Mrs. Merrill Sweet, with Mrs. C. O. Hammond and Mrs. Hazel Severance as alternates.

Survey Village Trees for Dutch Elm Disease

A search in Northville for Dutch Elm disease, a tree-destroying fungus, began yesterday and will end today, July 30.

Representatives of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, aided by John Miller, of the Green Ridge Nursery, are conducting the survey as part of a state wide attempt to stop the disease in communities before it can become firmly rooted.

Homeowners are asked to cooperate with the program to the extent of allowing the inspectors access to their property for tree inspection.

Such cooperation was denied by a community north of Detroit, and the tree disease now is so firmly established that thousands of trees in the area have been destroyed.

The disease is hard to detect, according to Mr. Miller, and samples of suspect trees are sent away for laboratory analysis. Infected trees are usually removed, sprayed with DDT to prevent spores from travelling in the air, and burned.

The disease originated in the Eastern United States and caused destruction of elm trees on a wide scale. It seems to have made entry to Michigan through Canada, Mr. Miller said.

"The disease is under control now in the east," according to Miller. "The Department of Agriculture in Michigan is trying to catch the fungus before it becomes wide-spread in our state."

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Well, a lady who owns four children and a '50 Studebaker dropped in this emporium of ours and announced she wanted the car tuned, greased and generally made road-worthy. "It's a fine car," she said, "and you're always telling us we should take care of it. Besides we're taking a trip."

Naturally we make all haste to satisfy her every requirement and even throw in a bit of a pitch on trading for a new car, but she tells us we'll have to wait till fall as a new car at the moment would cancel the vacation trip, and she's going to have that trip, what with four youngsters in the house to get away from, even though it's only as far as the front seat.

"Not bad kids, really," she told us. "Just a bit wearing in spots. As a matter of fact the 8-year-old daughter will make a diplomat when she grows up and discovers there is politics in this worrisome world. The other day she looked over the jewelry box of her 'career-woman' aunt and remarked, 'Mother, isn't Aunt Marim lucky to have so much beautiful jewelry?' Then realizing I didn't have such a selection, she added, 'But you're lucky too, mommy, after all, you have four lovely children!'"

We're glad she has four children because they'll all grow up and be Studebaker owners, having such a selective sort of a mother, besides the car runs like a fully jeweled watch. You'll find everything you've wanted in a fine motor car in the '53 Studebaker. Power, comfort, ruggedness, dependability, beauty and economy. In fact, we could use reams of paper in describing each and every finer point, but the quickest way is for you to drop in and discover them yourself. We have a car waiting just to give you a demonstration. Make it this week, won't you?

Along about here we ought to mention overhearing a young fellow kid his dad about his mustache. "How come, pop," he said, "you're so grey on top and have such a red lip ornament?" Son," said the old man, "that's because I used my head twenty years before I started using my lip!"

Don't exactly know how to tie that paragraph with this so we'll just use our lip in telling you to get that car of yours in our shop for a check-up and lubrication that you may take full advantage of the long lazy August days and you use your head by doing exactly that.

Well, that's that, but a fellow told us he gets his biggest thrill these days out of parking on what's left of the other fellow's nickel.

Yours,

HOW TO SAVE LIVES HUNTER SAFETY EDUCATION

For the first time on a national basis, a hunter safety education program is outdoor sportsmen. The course is education program is available to outdoor sportsmen. The course is offered, on a volunteer basis, to all communities in the country through the facilities of the National Rifle association.

When compared to the huge numbers of hunters, the number of gun accidents is small, but this does not lessen the tragedy of deaths and maiming of hunters through careless accidents.

Research has shown that the vast majority of hunting accidents are the result of carelessness, or ignorance of proper gun handling. The NRA therefore, has taken on the job of attempting to educate both novice and experienced hunters in proper gun technique.

The application of hunter safety education began in New York State in 1949, when the state legislature passed a law which required all young hunters to receive instruction in gun safety before being issued their first hunting licenses. Courses were given the first year under the supervision of State Game protectors, but these additional duties cut into their time for adequate law enforcement.

In 1950, then, the National Rifle Association was designated to give the instruction and issue the required certificates. During 1952, the NRA had 1,162 instructors in the state who certified 19,611 students. And the number of hunting accidents was considerably reduced.

The NRA, in cooperation with the National Education Association, has now revised the entire four-hour course and prepared new manuals and aids for instructors. It breaks down the four hours of instruction into specific periods covering gun operation, proper gun-handling, techniques of shooting and the responsibilities of the hunter in the field. It is designed to benefit inexperienced hunters regardless of age.

The course may be conducted by any qualified adult instructor who is certified by the National Rifle Association on the basis of experience and a written examination. The course may be given indoors, but out-of-doors instruction is preferred because it affords the student an opportunity to apply safety rules under the same conditions he will find in the fields or woods.

Full details are available from the National Rifle Association, 1600 Rhode Island Ave., N. W., Washington, D.C.

Could this be a worthwhile project for one of Northville's men's organizations, or perhaps a hunter who might be sufficiently interested to worry about the upcoming youngsters who will be hunting next fall?

Honoring the third birthday of their son Don, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson gave a small dinner party at their home on Clarita Ave., on Friday evening. Relatives made up the guest list.

There was another collision of cars at Mayfield and Norfolk on Friday. No one was injured but cars were somewhat damaged.

This is a residential district but many children walk up and down Norfolk Ave., at most any hour of the day, and at the corner mentioned a sign is badly needed to warn against the constant speeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Galloway, of Garden City, were Thursday night guests of Mrs. Walter Rehahn, on Mayfield. On Saturday Mrs. Rehahn and the Galloways spent the day in Detroit.

SAND DUNE COUNTRY

Along the Lake Michigan shoreline of our State is a collection of sand dunes unique to this part of the nation. Many of them are worthy tourist attractions. Many more are shifting to such an extent that they are poor gambles for real estate development and may well remain in their completely wild state for years to come.

State Park Sand Paradise

At Grand Haven the State maintains a park with a bathing beach on Lake Michigan second to none. It's one of the most popular of all of the some 60 State Parks, mainly because of the attraction of acres and acres of glorious sand along the water's edge. In our more than 3,000 miles of shoreline on the Great Lakes the stretch along Lake Michigan has the best of sand beaches, plus the awesome magnificence of the dunes towering above the shoreline.

At Glen Arbor is the famous Sleeping Bear Sand dune—the largest shifting dune in the country. At the top of the dune towering 600 feet above the lake two huge mounds reach into the sky. According to early Indian legend a mother bear and her cub were asleep at the top of the dune when a raging wind-storm covered them with sand. Their outlines are still visible, surrounded by a forest of slowly petrifying spires of trees extending above the drifting sands.

Sand Skiing

On a portion of the same dune as it faces eastward to Glenn Lake, sand skiing is frequently attempted. So fine is the sand that it offers but little resistance to wooden skis, and the steep face of the dune offers a new thrill to summer fun-seekers in Michigan Outdoors.

Back in 1915 some 200 acres of the dune disappeared into Lake Michigan during a severe storm, but now the sands seem to have settled somewhat, and the prevailing westerly winds move the huge mountain a mere six feet per year toward the lovely green waters of Glenn Lake.

'Married Housing' Under Construction at Michigan State

Construction has begun on three apartment buildings designed for married students at Michigan State college, officials have announced.

The three brick-vener buildings, each costing approximately $100,000 and containing 12 apartments, are scheduled for occupancy sometime next autumn.

The buildings will be "pilot" models in the college's over-all program to replace M.S.C.'s "trailer village." Each apartment will contain a built-in range and refrigerator. Rent will be about $60 a month.

Beverly, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Skow, Mayfield Ave., is ill.

Mrs. Brow and her son Harry, also her son-in-law, Mr. Douglas, with his wife, Mrs. Douglas and daughter Lois, have left for a sightseeing vacation in Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and their three children, of Hubbard Ave., left Friday night for a vacation stay with relatives and friends in northern Michigan and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunter and their daughter Mary, of Detroit, are enjoying a vacation stay at a cabin in northern Michigan. This is the Robert Hunter who so frequently visits with his mother, Mrs. M. E. Ault, and other relatives in this vicinity.

The Emerson Aults left last weekend for a vacation trip, during which they will visit friends and relatives in Michigan, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

Who likes to cook during hot summer weather?

I don't imagine there are many ladies that like cooking on a hot summer day. But I can show you plenty of homemakers who find summer cooking easier and much more pleasant since they started using an automatic gas range. They read all about the new easier, faster cooking features such as spacious ovens, smokeless broiling, accurate top burner controls, convenient electric outlets, smart styling, and easy-to-clean porcelain finishes. But what really sold them was the automatic clock controls that enabled them to bake and roast complete dinners automatically. Hiring, firing and handling of personnel is seldom a simple matter.

The task of operating of Michigan's business to the satisfaction of its taxpayers and keeping its 23,000 employees happy at the same time falls into the hands of the Civil Service Commission.

"Our first responsibility," says Arthur G. Rasch, director of Michigan's Civil Service, "is to secure and retain competent employees so that service can be efficiently administered."

Study shows the responsibility is, no small one. Regulating all conditions of state employees means working with many interested groups and finding a policy acceptable to all of them.

When asked why Michigan's Civil Service Commission is considered one of the finest in the country, Director Rasch answered, "One reason we enjoy this reputation is because of the wisdom of the law which governs us. We have broad Constitutional powers and we are guaranteed by law enough money to do a good, complete job." He then explained, "The Legislature must allocate for our operation each year a sum equal to at least one per cent of the state payroll."

How does it work? Civil Service vice does these things: classifies jobs, fixes salaries, devises tests to select the best qualified candidates, supervises the testing, makes personnel rules, controls working conditions and checks all payrolls.

A good example of the commission's operation is the way it is working to fill personnel needs for a new department in the Secretary of State's office. October 1 a law takes effect which calls for a central file of all traffic violators and accident reports, and for better supervision of driver licensing examinations.

Civil service was consulted and is now busy preparing tests, deciding on salaries and recruiting likely candidates.

"We have good cooperation in most cases," stated Mr. Rasch. He referred particularly to Secretary of State Owen J. Cleary and Lee C. Richardson, who will head the new licensing department. "They are so anxious to get the right people, they have worked very closely with us from the start."

"When a job opening exists, Civil Service is notified," explained Director Rasch. "After testing available candidates and on the basis of merit alone, we supply the three highest scoring applicants. The official can interview the three and must select one of them."

Do state administrators like Civil Service selecting employees for them? "Yes," says Civil Service. Director Rasch backed up his opinion by pointing out that there are two unclassified (not under Civil Service) positions for each administrative office. "When the Little Hoover report recommended that elected officials have more—as many as five—unclassified positions under them, we did some checking," he related. "We found that many officials had never bothered to fill the present unclassified openings. Of 174 jobs, only 93 were filled."

"Race, color or creed" are not taken into consideration—we are only interested in ability," he stated.

Employees like Civil Service, too, the director indicated. "This system guarantees an employee certain prescribed rights and frees him from work about losing his job for political reasons," said Mr. Rasch. He also said that his department works with representatives of employee organizations as well as managerial groups. "We meet with people from the CIO, the AFL, United Public Workers and the Michigan State Employees Association," he stated. "And we invite them in to discuss with us proposed rule changes. We feel these groups have contributions to make toward a more smoothly running administration," the director concluded.

Most common complaint against Civil Service is that workers under its protection become so independent that they lose the desire to do a good job. Civil Service disagrees with this thinking. The director points to the 1952 record which shows that 369 people were dismissed. A fired employee can appeal his case and possibly win reinstatement. But of the dismissed groups, only 22 appealed; only six were reinstated.

Director Rasch realizes that the concept of civil service tends to be controversial but feels much of the criticism stems from misunderstanding.

"Unfair treatment by state employees need not be tolerated by the public," he insisted. "A citizen has a Constitutional right to file complaints any time he is dissatisfied with a state employee," he continued. "We at the Commission recommend that complaints be registered with department heads—but if satisfaction is not forthcoming, we are glad to investigate."

Constant research is carried on at the commission. It covers such subjects as salary levels, test valuation and new methods of administration.

At present an effort to develop better tests for personality traits is underway. Civil Service figures show that dismissal in 75 per cent of the cases is due to inability of an employee to adjust to the personality requirements of a job rather than inability to perform. (The department also maintains a large staff to study and prepare training programs.)

Four commissioners, who serve without salary, head Civil Service. Two are Democrats, one is a Republican and one an independent. The Constitution provides that no more than two members from any one political party may serve at any one time. Present members are Lester S. Moll and Sarah Robinson, of Detroit; Milton Mueller, Lansing, and James M. Moses, Marshall.

Julie Porath at Honolulu School

Honolulu, Hawaii... Miss Julie Anna Porath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Porath of 65000 West 6 Mile Road, is among the more than 3000 students attending the six weeks' summer session at the University of Hawaii. A member of the Howard Tour, Miss Porath is staying at Wilcox Hall.

The University of Hawaii is a fully accredited institution of higher learning, and credits earned by summer students are transferable to mainland colleges according to nationally accepted practices. The main university campus, located in the beautiful Mana Valley, is not far from some of the island's finest beaches, making it possible for students, after a morning of classes and study, to take advantage of the sunshine, sand, and surf in the afternoon.

Many activities, in the community and on campus, are planned for the summer session students so that at the end of six weeks they can take home more than the accumulation of college credits.

Miss Porath, a senior at Michigan State, is majoring in English. For her summer study, she has enrolled in Literature of the Pacific, a survey of the literature of the Pacific islands and Australia.

She is making her first visit to Hawaii.

Fund Campaign to Finance St. Mary's Hospital; Eaton is General Chairman

Sterling Eaton, publisher of the Plymouth Mail, has been appointed general chairman of the St. Mary Hospital building fund campaign, it was announced by Mother Mary Annuncia, C.S.S.F., of the Felician Sisters, O.S.F. The campaign will be conducted in the areas of Farmington, Livonia, Northville, Plymouth and Redford.

When Mr. Eaton accepted this position, he stated that he considered it a privilege to be connected with a campaign which will help solve the acute hospital shortage problem in the areas concerned. He said, "It has been our dream for many years to build a hospital, and many efforts have been made in the past to fulfill these needs. However, when the Felician Sisters indicated that they had sufficient trained technicians to staff a hospital, and that they would donate $50,000 and 20 acres of their property to this project, I could see our dream materializing. I am sure that everyone will be as enthused as

I, and will pitch in and help make his community a better and healthier place in which to live."

The proposed modern 120 bed general hospital, the cost of which is estimated at $2,000,000, will be located at Five Mile and Levan roads in Livonia. This central location will provide convenient and readily-available service to all individuals in the above named communities regardless of race or creed.

Mr. Eaton is past president of the Plymouth School Board and head of the Plymouth Rotary Committee, which established the high school athletic field. He is widely known and is active in such organizations as the Masons, Rotary Club, Michigan Press Association, National Editorial Association, Director of Michigan Chapter of National Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, Michigan Retailers Association, and National Education Association. He is also a trustee of Madonna College.

Spacemen, Cowboys Battle It Out as Children's Television Favorites

Ask any kid who his newest hero is and he'll most likely mention a space man! Cowboys may not be riding their last range yet but they're finding the wide open spaces have a new dimension now—and the airborne heroes are definitely king-pins there! There's ample evidence of this avid interest in space activity almost anywhere you look or listen!

Radio and TV have their Captain Video and Space Patrol shows with audiences almost as astronomical as their subjects! Scores of comic books devoted to space are rocketing off the presses and on to the newsstands. Cartoonists, comedians and gag-writers have added "space" sections to their gag files. Besides the ever-increasing number of science-fiction magazines specially created for adult space-enthusiasts, countless general interest magazines indicate the scope of interplanetary activity by the tremendous amount of space they are devoting to it.

Not to be left earthbound, women's service magazines are taking a very practical look into space! For example, directions for making out-of-this-world space equipment out of down-to-earth materials is a feature of the August issue of Woman's Day. "Four Flight Tested Helmets You Can Make" demonstrates how to use simple, every-day items such as colanders and cheese boxes, corset stays and faucet sprays to make "make-believe" space helmets that are every bit as realistic-looking as their counterparts on Space Patrol and Captain Video. In fact, the designs shown in Woman's Day were developed for these popular radio and TV space programs. The helmets will be featured in action on the Space Patrol Shows, Aug. 1, over ABC Radio and TV networks, and on the Captain Video TV Shows over the DuMont network in late July and early August. This is the first time that such programs have featured equipment that can easily be duplicated at home from simple household materials.

And women's service magazines extend their practical view of space a step farther! They recognize that parents of space-minded youngsters are besieged with questions that prod them into defining the difference between the comics and the cosmos—and they supply them with down-to-earth data for answering them!

Photos Join Art in Annual Show

The work of Michigan photographers will be exhibited alongside that of painters and sculptors in the 44th Annual Exhibition for Michigan Artists opening Nov. 17 at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

This is the first time that photographic work ever has been admitted to the exhibition.

A special graphic arts section will be devoted to photographs, prints and drawings.

State Fair to Have Large Exhibit of Farm Machinery

The Michigan State Fair this year will present the largest exhibition of farm machinery of the past 20 years. The dates are Sept. 4 through 13.

For a number of years the State Fair has been trying to build up this annual exhibit but the war and other problems interfered. Now James M. Hare, general manager, reports that farm machinery and equipment manufacturers are lending their support and assistance.

Spearheading the work for this year's machinery exhibit is W. E. Grover, of Saginaw, who has become the first director of farm machinery. He has a background of 29 years with the International Harvester company. Harry H. Wright, of Lawrence, Michigan, is the board member in charge.

"Visitors to the Fair this year will be treated to a very fine exhibit of farm machinery and implements," promises Grover. "Of special interest to small estate owners and 'little farms' will be the section devoted to garden tractors and the smaller farming tools."

The inclusion of photographs in the Michigan Artists' show will replace the Annual showing in the Institute of the Detroit International Salon of Photography.

By including photographic work in the Michigan Artists' exhibition, the Institute hopes to encourage entries from many of the best Michigan photographers who did not contribute to the Detroit International Salon.

Entries in the graphic arts field need only be matted whereas all oils and water colors must be framed. Michigan artists, including those living out of the state, are eligible to send not more than three entries.

August Good for Planting Perennials

Early August is a good time to sow seeds of many hardy perennials, reminds N. A. Smith, assistant county agricultural agent.

Smith suggests a partly shaded location as the site for erecting a cheese cloth over the seedbed. Seeds of pansies, violas, forget-me-not and English daisies can be sown and young plants transplanted in September. Other perennial plants which can be started at this time include canterbury bells, aquilegia, delphinium, foxglove, anchusa, carnation, centaurea, coreopsis, shasta daisy and heliopsis.

The soil should be prepared carefully in order to grow the plants from seed. Mix either leaf mold or peat thoroughly with the top four or five inches of soil. The material should be 20 to 30 percent of the amount of the soil. The purpose is to hold moisture and boost strong rapid growth of the seedlings.

The soil should be watered enough to give good germination of the seeds and healthy growth of the seedlings. Many growers cover the soil with burlap immediately after sowing. The burlap is kept damp by spraying with water two or three times a day.

But the burlap must be removed as soon as the young plants start to crack through the soil.

Lt. Felker Claims Bride In Recent Evening Rites

An account was received this week of the wedding in Standish, Mich., which united Janet Corrine Malcolm, of Sterling, and Lt. Joseph Earl Felber in marriage. The double ring service took place recently at the Community Methodist church.

Miss Malcolm is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Julian Malcolm, of Sterling, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Stephens, of Orchard drive, Northville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin and lace. The molded bodice of Chantilly lace was designed with long sleeves which tapered over the bride's wrists and buttoned down the back. The illusion neckline was joined to the scalloped edge of the yoke giving an off the shoulder effect and was gathered at the neck with tiny pearls. The bouffant skirt of nylon net and tulle extended into a train and had applied petals of lace from the bodice to the hip-line.

A Juliet lace cap secured her fingertip veil which matched her gown and she carried a bouquet of cream colored roses centered with an orchid.

Dolores Malcolm, of Ypsilanti, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore an orchid colored organza gown of ballerina length and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses.

Crack Down on Unlicensed Boats

With nearly three-fourths of the owners of boats 16 feet or more in length having failed to pay the annual state license tax, warning has been given that beginning Aug. 10 enforcement action will be taken against the delinquents.

At the request of the state waterways commission, the State Police will, on that date, start to check resort and other marine areas and issue tickets for unlicensed boats much in the same manner as they are given to those owners whose cars are without proper plates. The violation is a misdemeanor calling for appearance of the delinquent in Justice Court.

The yearly licenses are issued in marine areas by branch offices of the secretary of state and some dealers, but the revenue goes to the waterways commission to be used solely for the building and improvement of navigational facilities and waterways.

Up to July 17 of this year only 5,057 licenses had been issued, whereas it is estimated there may be as many as 20,000 boats subject to the tax. The peak license year was in 1951, when 6,317 were sold, most owners never having paid the tax since it was first collected in 1948.

The license, which was established by the marine code law enacted in 1947, applies to watercraft having an overall length of 16 feet or more and owned by a resident of Michigan or hailing from any port within the state.

Exempted from the tax are commercial fishing boats licensed by the department of conservation, commercial passenger and freight vessels paying the state tonnage tax, vessels having an overall length less than 16 feet and vessels propelled solely by muscular power or detachable outboard motors.

The tax ranges from $5 for boats from 16 to 20 feet in length up to $1.00 per foot plus $100 for each registered gross ton for vessels more than 65 feet long.

★ Try The Want Ads

Though still a youngster, about the size of a short turnip, this baby screech owl already exhibits the courage of his breed, standing up to the conservation department photographer without apparent fear. Screech owls are the most common type in Michigan and when this little fellow grows up, he'll give farmers in his home area considerable help by eating rats, mice, insects, and ground lizards. His call is not really a screech, being more a plaintive wail. Don't look at him too long, those eyes have a hypnotic effect.

Why FORD'S your best buy!

"Best buy" where you ride! Ford's foam-rubber cushioned seats, front and rear, are sofa-wide and sofa-soft. Interior fabrics, color-keyed to Ford's smart outside colors, would be a credit to any car at any price.

"Best buy" where you drive! Ford's suspended pedals operate more easily... eliminate dusty, drafty floor holes. And Ford drivers have a choice of Fordomatic Drive, Overdrive or Conventional transmission.

"Best buy" at the gas pump! When you need to "fill 'er up", you do it the modern Ford way with Center-Fill Fueling. And Ford's Automatic Power Pilot gives you power to spare on a lean diet of regular gas.

"Best buy" on the road! The rougher the road the better your Ford likes it because Ford's new "ride" cuts front end road shock alone up to 80%... babies you over the bumps... and cuts sideways on turns.

"WORTH MORE" IS THE ANSWER... IT COSTS SO LITTLE TO BUY... SO LITTLE TO RUN... AND HAS SUCH HIGH RESALE VALUE!

The best buy in an automobile usually means the amount of pleasure and satisfaction the owner gets from his original investment, plus low day-to-day running costs, plus the amount of value he recovers when he sells his car.

What is it that makes Ford your best buy? Is it the fine styling and craftsmanship of its Crestmark Body... or its new "ride" with curve-hugging and bump-leveling qualities never before known in low-priced cars? Or is it Ford's famous V-8 or Mileage Maker Six? Maybe it's the easy way the car handles with Fordomatic Drive, or Ford's Master-Guide power steering! Perhaps it's Ford's suspended pedals, or Center-Fill Fueling or Full-Circle Visibility!

Actually, it's not just any one or two of these fine things that make Ford your best buy. It's all of Ford's "Worth More" features combined... features which make Ford worth more when you buy it... and worth more when you sell it!

"Best buy" in engine power! Only Ford in its field offers you a choice of V-8 or Six. Ford has built more V-8's—over 13,000,000—than all other makers combined. And Ford's Six—the most modern in the industry—with Overdrive, won the Mobilgas Economy Run Grand Sweepstakes!

"Best buy" in power steering! Ford's Master-Guide (available on all V-8 models) supplies hydraulic "muscles"—automatically whenever you need them—to do the work of steering for you. All you do is guide the car. Makes all driving easier, and safer. And parking's so easy!

'Screen Guild,' Manager Fined

Howard Roberts, manager of the "Professional Screen Guild, Inc." was convicted of obtaining money under false pretenses in Detroit Recorder's Court, June 18, according to "The Factfinder," publication of the Better Business Bureau of Detroit.

Complaining witnesses in this case were a Detroit couple with seven children who testified they had paid the "Guild" a $35 "membership fee" because of promises that their five-year old son would receive immediate employment as a model. The job never materialized.

The "Guild" was fined $100 and Roberts was placed on two years' probation—the first two months to be served in the Detroit House of Correction.

This "membership" selling scheme has been flooding the Detroit area with mailings from Hollywood, Calif., addressed to parents of children up to 21 years of age. The self-styled "Guild," according to "The Factfinder," is just a camouflaged California corporation which publishes what it calls the "Official Directory of the Professional Screen Guild, Inc., containing some two thousand and photographs of juveniles whose parents have been willing to part with $35.

A summer sandwich you make almost as quick as a wink is this one: Spread slices of fresh whole-wheat bread with sandwich spread, then with flaked tuna. Simple, yes! But very, very good.

Melon, juicy and ice cold, makes an exceptionally enticing summer dessert. A sherbert glass of melon balls, half honeydew and half cantaloupe, topped with Frosted Mayonnaise Squares is a favorite of mine.

second spot in the 17th district parade Saturday, Aug. 1, at 3:30 p.m. Commander Hammond will be at the point of the parade. The band will then participate in a concert at the Civic Center on Saturday evening.

During the four-day convention, more than 30 resolutions are scheduled to come up before the 1,999 official delegates for an expression of opinions, covering everything from the Veterans Trust Fund to allowing private industry to acquire and use atomic energy plants and equipment.

Among them will be a resolution which will urge that Congress and properly designated officials investigate the source of excess funds raised in the defense of the late atomic spies, Anna and Julius Rosenberg.

Featured this year during the Legion activities will be the 40 et 8 Legionnaires and their colorful French-style locomotives and boxcars which are generally associated with noise, hilarious fun-making and general convention atmosphere.

This year, however, along with the fun-making, the 40 et 8 members will perform a serious function. The Grand Voiture, led by Detroit's Voiture 102, will underwrite a program of visitation and entertainment for children of Detroit's orphanages and city hospitals.

Friday evening will be highlighted with the annual "Cavalcade of Rhythm," which includes the Legion-sponsored drum and bugle corps contest. Also featured will be the nationally famed Jackson American Legion Zouaves, fancy stepping drill team which represented the State of Michigan in the presidential inaugural parade.

The full dress parade Saturday will include bands, drum and bugle corps, majorettes, drill teams and the Zouaves.

TIME MARCHES ON!

In the office of a Christian publication the clock hanging on the wall is bound by a border upon which is printed these words in large letters, "ONE OF THESE HOURS MY LORD WILL COME." Thus each employee is silently reminded of the coming of the Lord each time they look at the clock. Perhaps it would be a good thing if all of us were constantly reminded of the imminent return of the Lord Jesus. In John 14:3 Jesus said, "And if I go and prepare a place for you, I WILL COME AGAIN, and receive you unto myself." Students of the Holy Scriptures will tell you of the swift fulfillment of the prophetic scriptures which indicate that His return may be very near. Perhaps the foremost fulfillment of these prophetic scriptures is the re-establishing of an Israel state. After 2400 years of being scattered over the face of the earth and in almost impossible world conditions these descendants of Abraham again have a government. This is exactly according to prophetic plan which the Scriptures declare will take place in the latter days. To those who have acknowledged their sinfulness and accepted Jesus Christ as their Saviour, the coming of the Lord will be a happy event, to others—Judgment. Which will it mean for you?

"STATE OF THE UNION"—GOOD!

Lovely Joan Kelly, named "Miss Welcome to Long Beach" for the Miss Universe contest held in that California city each year, models her official "State of the Union" bathing suit which shows that every state will be represented by its loveliest girl. The suit is made up of car window stickers of the type that tourists pick up at service stations to show where they have been. Joan is 19, has a 34" bust, 24" waist and 34" hips. The Union seems to be in pretty good shape! Despite what people say.

Department, with local service clubs participating.

Miss Hamacher lived with Mr. and Mrs. Leland V. Smith this last year. Jurgen became part of the Harry B. Smith family.

Other Michigan communities participating in the program included Ann Arbor, Brighton, Bronson, Coldwater, Detroit, Kalamazoo, Milford, Owosso, Pontiac, Port Huron, Quincy, Saginaw, Saline, South Lyon, Waterford Township and Whitmore Lake.

As the group of 20 young people return to their homeland, another group will arrive in New York harbor on a sister ship. At least two of them are scheduled for Northville.

More than 200 people attended the banquet Tuesday night. There was a panel on "Teen Age Exchange," with Mrs. Rachel Andersen, executive secretary of the Ann Arbor Council of Churches, as moderator.

The group heard from Mrs. Glenn Barnett and Mr. Leland Smith, host parents, and other speakers, then from some of the students. Among the speakers was David Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lee, of 607 Fairbrook, who studied in Germany last year. Remarks were made also by Colvin C. Hoffman, commercial attaché of the German Consulate in Detroit.

Furniture Drive Nets Truckload For Tornado Victims

Community residents, always ready to respond where help is needed, ransacked their closets last week to the tune of a jammed truckload of used furniture and household goods for victims of the recent Flint tornado disaster.

George Simmons and Merrill Sweet of the Lloyd H. Green Post, 147, American Legion, which sponsored the drive, delivered the contributions Sunday morning to the Flint Fire department where they were distributed to qualified victims of the disaster area.

In acknowledgement of the villagers' generosity, Conrad Springer, post commander, and C. Oscar Hammond, drive chairman, have asked the Record to relay their appreciation to all citizens of the community who so generously donated of their own personal belongings.

"Many of the tornado victims are beginning to rebuild their homes," Hammond said, "and to help meet the ever-increasing demand for household furnishings, legionnaires are planning another drive in the village soon." Anyone having articles to contribute is urged to call Merrill Sweet or Oscar Hammond for pickup arrangements.

A tip to teen-agers! Did you know your sneakers can be dyed to match your favorite sports ensembles? Just make an all-purpose dye solution of the desired color and apply with a small brush or sponge. Many of the younger set have several pairs dyed in their favorite shades. And occasionally I've seen them wearing two colors.

Publication Lists Proposed Changes in Constitution

A summary of "Proposed Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, Jan. 3, 1947-Jan. 3, 1953," has been compiled by Everett S. Brown, University of Michigan professor of political science.

Now available in book stores, it includes those amendments introduced in Congress from the 80th to the 82nd sessions.

Professor Brown points out that while the Constitution has been amended only 22 times, some 4,484 proposed amendments have been introduced.

In addition to the summary of proposed amendments, the book includes a list of proposals and indexes of amendment subjects and persons sponsoring the changes.

Excessive Speed Hit by Police

Michigan's No. 1 traffic killer, too much speed, continues to be the subject of emphasis by the law enforcement agencies throughout the state, according to Chief Joseph E. Denton.

As the program enters its sixth week more and more drivers who fail to cooperate with the safety program are discovering "that there is a speed law in Michigan" and that the police are apprehending traffic violators who exceed the posted speed limits or drive too fast for conditions.

Chief Denton cautioned all motorists to watch out for the illusion which takes place when a motorist traveling at highway speed reaches the edge of a city or town. "It doesn't take very many miles at highway speed for a motorist to become 'velocityated,'" he said. "This means that a driver slows to 40 miles per hour but feels like he has slowed to 25. Thus when entering a built up area it is an especially good time to take another look at the speedometer," he added.

Check-Your-Speed, the safety tip posted on signboards is a part of the state-wide program sponsored by the State Safety Commission and the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police. "Most motorists are cooperating on the program," the Chief said. "It is only a small minority that fail to obey the law and make it necessary for our officers to check their speed for them," the Chief concluded.

MSC's TV Station On the Air in '54

WKAR-TV, Michigan State college's television station, is scheduled to be on the air with regular programs early in 1954, college officials have announced.

The station will operate on ultra-high frequency channel 66 with an approximate 65-mile fringe area of reception, according to W. H. Tomlinson, director of research and promotion of M.S.C.'s television development program.

About three months will be required for erection of the 1,000-foot transmitter tower, on top of which will be placed a 34-foot television antenna. Following erection of the building and tower and installation of equipment, WKAR-TV's test pattern is scheduled to go on the air in November or December.

International Horse Show at Northville Downs Aug. 20-23

Northville Downs will be the site of the Third International Horse Show, Aug. 20-23 when more than 300 of the nation's most outstanding horses, as well as entrants from other countries participate.

Co-chairmen of the show are Keith N. White, of Ortonville, the president, and Gerald F. Taft, of West Eight Mile road, who is treasurer.

Prize competition includes the following classes: Five- and three-gaited saddle horses; fine harness; walking horses; junior division judging on equitation and horsemanship over jumps; Morgan horses; conformation hunter division; working hunter division; jumpers and western horses.

Officials say the entries, competing for a prize list of $10,000 in cash and trophies, will set a new record for the show.

Deer kill figures from the regular and "any deer" seasons held in the northern lower peninsula last fall were recently assembled from a number of poll and survey sources and put together in the above map. After seeing the results, conservation department game men pointed out that, happily enough, the two areas of heaviest kill as shown by the map were also the areas that needed the most thinning. Tree and shrub growths in the two areas have been heavily over-eaten during recent winters and proper herd management, starting with the any deer season last fall, is aimed at correcting this situation.

Rodeo Replaced by Circus Acts at 1953 Mich. State Fair

The Cavalcade of Thrills — a giant program of circus acts—will replace the traditional rodeo as the major grandstand entertainment at this year's Michigan State Fair, Sept. 4 through 13.

As usual, there will be an auto thrill show before the grandstand and this year it will be the Congress of Canadian Daredevils appearing in Michigan for the first time. Featured will be the shooting of a convertible automobile from a cannon.

Also before the grandstand will be a 250-mile stock car race. There will be a mammoth nightly display of fireworks.

The Canadian Daredevils will begin the ten-day grandstand entertainment with matinee and evening performances on the first two days of the State Fair, Sept. 4 and 5.

Then for seven afternoons and evenings, Sept. 6 through 12, the Cavalcade of Thrills will present a great outdoor circus show including such outstanding performances as the Zaccinini Human Cannonball act; Terrell Jacob's Jungle Beasts; The Great Telesco, sway pole artist; Ullaine Malley, high trapeze; two elephant acts; the Juggling Jewels; Florida, a pedestal unicycle act; Nelson's Trained Pigs and many other sensational acts.

Climaxing the grandstand program will be the 250-mile stock car race on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 13.

New Fire Station for Livonia

LIVONIA—Breaking of ground for a new $69,000 fire station will begin Saturday, Aug. 1, on the east side of Farmington road about 600 feet south of Plymouth road.

Fire Chief Calvin Roberts said the modern new structure should be ready for occupancy by Dec. 1.

It will be designated as Fire Station No. 2 and will replace the present Fire Station No. 1, located on Merriman road near Plymouth.

The new installation will serve the city's most heavily populated area—a total of 12 square miles—bounded by Schoolcraft on the north, Inkster road on the east, Joy road on the south, and Eckles road on the west.

Site of Fire Station No. 2 is in the rear of the major shopping center now under construction on Plymouth at Farmington roads.

The building will be 70 feet long and 67 feet wide. The apparatus room, capable of housing three major vehicles, will be 52 feet long and 33 feet wide. A dormitory, with a 10-bed capacity, will be 25 feet long and 29 feet wide.

The building also will include a lounge, a kitchen, a watch room, a boiler room, and a storage room.

Fire Station No. 2 will be equipped with two 1,000-gallon pumps built by the American LaFrance Co. of Elmira, N. Y. There also will be an emergency panel truck, carrying two resuscitators and other tools for rescue work.

Chief Roberts said the new station and its vehicles would be completely radio-controlled.

If Junior's careless with his lemonade glass and spots your best table, here is how to remove the white ring. Moisten a cloth with a few drops of ammonia or spirits of camphor and rub the spot.

Velvet accessories are in the fashion spotlight. The softness and luster of velvet blend beautifully with lighter fabrics, such as chiffon, satin — even cotton and straw.

Now that beef prices have dipped, we can dig into a big juicy steak more often. Next time you cook one try this: In a saucepan melt vitaminized margarine, then stir into it a bit of dry mustard, a dash of salt, pepper and Worcestershire sauce. Pour into the steak platter or chop plate. When steak is broiled, quickly coat it with the margarine sauce, first on one side then the other. Utterly delicious!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

To love and be loved is the earnest desire of everyone. How to accomplish this is explained in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, Aug. 2, on the subject of "Love."

The Golden Text, from II Corinthians (13:11): "Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you."
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (I John 4:7): "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love." (p. 275.)

Disease...the Soldier's Other Enemy

1 When Napoleon invaded Russia, typhus proved as deadly as enemy troops.
2 Typhoid fever took a greater toll than battle wounds in the Civil War!
3 Japanese and American forces fought malaria as well as each other in the Pacific jungles during World War II!
4 In Korea, dysentery was a major problem until an antibiotic knocked it out!

by Science Features

Disease has been a silent but deadly third party in all the wars of history, and Korea has been no exception. In that war-torn land both sides fought a score of diseases and the degree to which the diseases were overcome played a large role in the military picture.
One of the most serious has been dysentery, a painful intestinal disease which is caused by both ameba and bacteria. The threat of bacterial dysentery, the more dangerous of the two, is present whenever persons live in close association, such as soldiers must do. Amebic dysentery, on the other hand, is common at all times and in any population group exposed to unsanitary conditions. Even in the United States, it has been estimated that from five to ten per cent of the population is infected with this germ, although the symptoms of amebic dysentery may not appear.
The dysentery problem is not a new one in warfare. In the Fourth Century, B.C., the historian Herodotus attributed the defeat of the Persian army to this disease.
In Korea a serious epidemic of bacterial dysentery broke out recently in the South Korean prison camps, adding to the multiple military and political problems already involved. Sulfu drugs were rushed in but with little success. Other drugs were tried, including the antibiotics. A week later all prisoners who had been given terramycin were free of the disease.
Amebic dysentery also appeared in Korea, but again terramycin proved the answer, knocking out the disease in all of 104 patients with only six relapses. Dysentery is one disease that may never have another chance to change the course of history.

Candy Sundae . . . Treat of the Month

For a very special treat, serve this Whipped Cream Candy Sundae. It's rich and sweet-tasting yet uses only two flavor-giving ingredients: whipped cream and Milky Way candy bars. But that's the trick. For in each Milky Way there are a number of sweet flavors: milk chocolate, malted milk, cocoa, corn syrup and sugar. Melt and pour over the whipped cream and you have a "sundae" to compete with the best served at the local ice cream parlor.

WHIPPED CREAM CANDY SUNDAE

1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup hot water
2 tablespoons unflavored gelatin
2 cups heavy cream
2 tablespoons powdered sugar
2 cups heavy cream
2 tablespoons powdered sugar
2 cups heavy cream
2 tablespoons powdered sugar

Soften gelatin in milk. When softened, add hot water; set aside until gelatin dissolves. Melt candy bars in top of double boiler. Whip cream until stiff. Add powdered sugar and vanilla. Then add 1/2 gelatin mixture to cream; other half to melted candy. Place in 1 quart in a dessert dish. Top with a cherry. Makes 3 or 4 servings

"Courtesy is every day"

writes Mrs. J. B. Dellinger
formerly of Ann Arbor, Michigan

WE WERE very pleased to receive a letter from Mrs. J. B. Dellinger shortly before she moved to Maryland. Her letter regarding her telephone service included the following comments:

"A few years ago when an employee of your company had showed us what we thought was an unusual courtesy we remarked upon it to Mr. Prakken, your manager in Ann Arbor.

"Since then, however, we have discovered on many occasions that Michigan Bell courtesy is 'every day' and not at all unusual. Your slogan of 'The Voice with a Smile' is most appropriate. We thank you for a most pleasant association."

And we thank you, Mrs. Dellinger, for putting into words sentiments which we hope are shared by Michigan Bell customers everywhere.
