for the Record

by G. H. C.

If there have been times when Northville appeared to be "just a sleepy little village", as it was called last spring by the Plymouth Mail, this certainly is not true at the moment. Almost everywhere down town are to be seen evidences that things are "perking up". In its way, and in its own good time, the "sleepy little village" is becoming more awake. Its pulse has quickened in keeping with the faster tempo of industrial and residential growth that is going on hereabouts.

For example, see what has happened to the retail district in just the past two years. Roy Stone's Gamble Store has moved across the street into much larger quarters, which are now being remodeled and further improved. The village has a new post office building, constructed last summer by Nelson Schrader under a long-term lease arrangement with Uncle Sam. Presently, Schrader is engaged in a major remodeling program to completely modernize his furniture store inside and outside. When completed later this month it will be a credit to a community much larger than Northville.

Next door, George Clark's hardware store has been rearranged inside this summer to make it Michigan's first "serv-self" hardware. This is in line with the latest trend in hardware merchandising. It encourages customers to pick out their own merchandise, and to a considerable extent does away with waiting to be served.

The corner where the old Northville Hardware Store was located for years is now occupied by the Record, which completely remodeled the first floor and basement last winter to meet its need for larger quarters. The old Record building across the street has been sold by Mrs. Cansfield to Gerald Woodworth, who has recently leased it to the Tuffy Products Co. for use in manufacturing toys.

Cy Owens' Ford sales office is currently being remodeled and modernized, while across the street the Hill real estate building has been given a fresh coat of paint. Further down the street, the Old Mill Restaurant has moved into more commodious space formerly occupied by the Gamble Store.

Over in the northeast part of the village things have been happening too. Novels Lumber has doubled the size of its office and show room and Warren Products has enlarged its office building. South of town, near the intersection of Northville and Seven Mile roads, two large commercial buildings have been erected. The first of these was built by Ken Rathbun so his Chevrolet Sales and Service might have more adequate space for used cars and better quarters for new car sales and service. Last spring, Glenn Long started construction of his new plumbing supply building, which is as modern and up-to-date as can be found in the entire area around Northville. Long has taken on the Westinghouse franchise for household appliances and will hold his formal "opening" very shortly.

While the merchants have been bestirring themselves, the Village Fathers have also responded to the urge of the times. After long delay, ground was broken for the new Community Building on Sept. 18, and the foundations are now being laid. And, spurred by a surprise offer from Northville Township to stand part of the cost of putting through the much-needed Seven Mile road cut-off, the Village Commission has agreed to stand its share of the expense and the cut-off is to be built next spring.

Also, the Village has completed a well conceived and much needed off-street parking and alley project on the south side of Main St. At the moment, it is surfacing and improving the vacant lots at the southwest corner of Main and Center streets to provide additional metered parking space downtown. On the agenda for next year is a large parking lot just west of the Village Fire Hall and extending from Main to Cady street. This will be for all-day parking necessary for persons employed down town.

With all these signs that Northville is awakening to the trend of the times, this week's special meeting of the Northville Retail Merchants Association to consider a plan for raising $16,000 to purchase additional parking and alley space on the north side of Main St., to be deeded to the village as a gift, was not too surprising. The plan has been talked privately for several months. It is simply a move for private business interests to step up to a situation which forward looking merchants know is beyond the village's present financial capacity. Too, they know that while good parking facilities down town are an asset to the entire community, they are of primary monetary value to the retail stores. Therefore, every business in the village is to be asked to contribute toward the $16,000 fund. The word "contribution" is not to be used in the solicitation, however, because it is universally recognized that money put up for this cause is simply an investment which will pay dividends for many years.

It is not too far-fetched to say that the response of Northville business men to this $16,000 parking lot fund campaign will afford a good basis for forecasting the village's future as a progressive shopping center.

Presbyterian Church Gives Helping Hand to 2 Jamaican Girls

The First Presbyterian Church of Northville has demonstrated once again that acts of Christian charity know no color lines or geographical boundaries.

The church, headed by the Rev. Dr. Harold F. Fredsell, has extended a helping hand to thousands of residents on the far-off island of Jamaica in the West Indies.

Several months ago, the Presbyterian Mission Church asked for help in sending two young Jamaican women to the United States for training as missionary-nurses.

The Northville church responded quickly. Its members promised to do all they could to provide the tuition and living expenses for the girls while they are in training.

The two students—18-year old Gloria Peart and 20-year old Kathleen Ferguson—arrived several weeks ago and are now in nurses training at Deaconess Hospital and Wayne University in Detroit.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES
Both girls are graduates of Folk High School at Lucky Hill, Jamaica—the only high school in an area where 14,000 children of secondary school age reside.

Most of the residents of the area are farmers, many of them owning only an acre or two. Medical facilities are very inadequate. The parents of both girls are poor but hard-working and the opportunity for Miss Peart and Miss Ferguson could not have come had it not been for the church here.

Miss Ferguson is one of 10 children while Miss Peart has one sister. Both girls had to work to supplement the family income but they managed to compile an outstanding academic record in high school.

WILL RETURN

At the completion of their training here, they will return to their homeland to minister to the thousands of persons in need of medical and spiritual help there.

The girls spend their week in Detroit at the hospital but spend week ends with Rev. Fredsell and his family. They are members of the same class at the hospital as Miss Judith Tetzlaff, a recent Northville High School graduate who has lived for the past five years with the Fredsells.

Northville will have a chance to meet both girls at a Family Church Night on Wednesday, Oct. 7. A brief presentation of life in Jamaica will be given and color pictures will be shown.

Woman's Club to Meet in Ann Arbor

Members of the Northville Woman's Club and guests will hold their first meeting of the 1953-54 season on Friday, Oct. 2 at the Michigan League Building, 227 South Ingalls St., Ann Arbor.

The meeting is to start with a luncheon at 12:30. This will be followed by a talk on the subject "Women's Responsibilities Today" to be given by Thelma G. James, associate professor of English at Wayne University. Miss James is known as an able speaker. She has promised to intersperse her talk "with sufficient humor to make it palatable".

The coming season will be the 61st for the Northville Woman's Club.

Tomorrow Deadline for Return of Inoculation Forms

Miss Ruth Knapp, school nurse, reminded Village parents this week that application forms for toxoid shots and vaccinations for their children should be returned to her office in the elementary school by tomorrow at the latest.

Dates for the program are Oct. 7 and 28 and Nov. 18.

Miss Knapp said children usually get toxoid shots at the age of six months and when they enter school. They should have boosters every three years until they reach the age of 10.

THREE ANTIGENS

The toxoid shots contain antigens to battle whooping cough, diphtheria and tetanus.

Vaccinations for small pox should be taken each five to seven years, she said.

Notices have been sent to parents whose children, according to school records, need either a vaccination or booster shot.

HIGH SCHOOL VACCINATION

High school students will be given vaccination blanks before Nov. 18, when the shots will be given. Miss Knapp said all blanks should be signed by parents whether or not they want shots for their children and returned to her office by Friday. There will be a charge of 50 cents a dose.

Children from the nursery school and from Our Lady of Victory School have been invited to participate. Miss Knapp also said any pre-school children may be given doses.

Shots will be given by local doctors. The program is sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association and the Mother's Club.

Man Wanted Here Held in Ann Arbor

A Pinckney, Mich. man wanted here on bad check charges was arrested in Ann Arbor last week, Village Police Chief Joe Denton reported.

The suspect, Charles Heath, is charged with writing four checks totalling $261.39 and having them cashed at four Northville business establishments last October.

The checks, ostensibly payroll checks from a "Heath Plastering Co." in Pinckney, were drawn on an Ann Arbor bank and proved worthless.

At the present time, Heath is held in Ann Arbor on other charges. However, as soon as Ann Arbor authorities are finished with him, he will be brought here for arraignment on charges of uttering and publishing, Chief Denton said.

Village Street Names Honor First Settlers

Northville street names provide a daily reminder of many of the pioneers who years ago helped shape the Village's future.

The memory of many of the area's early settlers is perpetuated by such street names as Horton, Griswold, Hutton, Dunlap, Cady, Randolph, Dubuar and Yerkes.

Old issues of the Record tell of the origin of some street names. Some of the Village's older citizens remember how other streets got their names.

Randolph and Dunlap streets are named for two men generally considered "founders" of Northville.

FROM NEW YORK

William Dunlap and Merritt Randolph came to this area from Northville, New York, and gave the village the name of their old home town.

Randolph operated the Park House and Exchange hotel in the early days. He died about 1870. Merritt Randolph's son, Asa, was a prominent civic leader here and some think the street may have been named for him.

Cady St. got its name from Daniel Cady, who at one time owned all the land now in the city limits south of Cady and east of Center streets. Cady died 87 years ago.

Hutton St. drew its name from Lewis Hutton, who worked as a blacksmith here for some 40 years, according to Tom Carrington. Carrington said Hutton died in the early 1900's.

TWO OTHER NAMES

Carrington said Hutton St. once was known as "Wheelbarrow Avenue"—for no particular reason—and also bore the name of Atwater Ave. at one time.

Horton St. was named for Edward Horton, one-time postmaster here and a partner with Atty. W. P. Yerkes in a subdivision. The Yerkes St. in the southeast part of town is named for the attorney.

Rayson St., in the north part of town, is named for George Rayson, an English shoemaker who was active in Village affairs. This street also at one time bore the Yerkes name, in honor of Charles Yerkes.

Grace St. is named for Charles Yerkes' daughter.

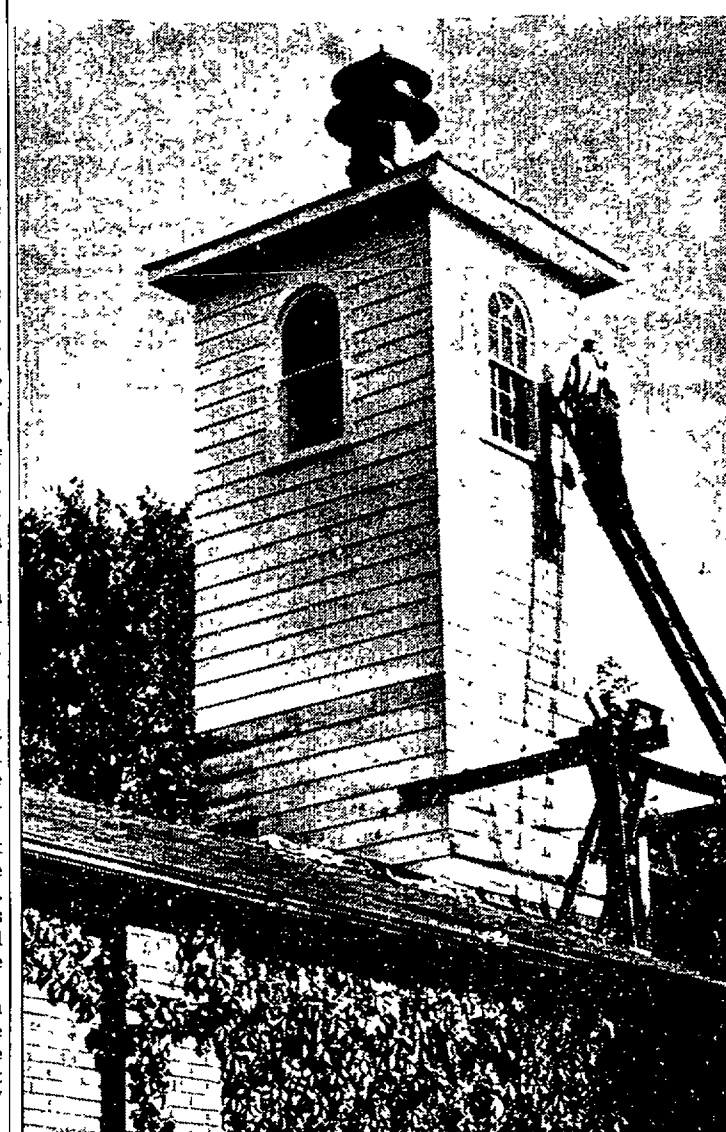

Griswold St. honors Clark Griswold, a well known farmer in the early days while Thayer Blvd. is named in honor of William Thayer, who served for many years as superintendent of the Northville fish hatchery.

DUBUAR STREET

There is some dispute as to the origin of Dubuar St. Some feel the street was named for Rev. James Dubuar, who for 20 years

The New Look

Custodian Arnold Teschka puts a coat of much-needed paint on the fire-hall tower as the Village "Civic Center" takes on a new look. The Village Hall was painted last month. Right next to the fire hall, construction workers are making rapid progress on the new Community Building. You'll hardly know that section of town by next spring.

Fire Causes $3,000 Damage to Dwelling

Fire swept part of the second floor of a home at 110 Rayson St. late Tuesday afternoon, causing damage estimated in excess of $3,000.

The fire, which started under the eaves of the frame home, owned by Gerat Wilder, was discovered by S. B. Stevenson, who operates a gas station at the corner of Rayson and North Center streets.

He notified Wilder, who was sitting in the living room of the home, unaware that the second floor was on fire.

Wilder was on fire. He tried to keep the fire under control until the Northville Fire Department arrived shortly after 4:15.

2 ROOMS BADLY DAMAGED

The flames burned through the roof of the home and destroyed portions of two bedrooms. Extensive water damage was caused to other portions of the building. The fire department was at the scene for more than an hour.

However, firemen succeeded in preventing the flames from spreading to other parts of the house.

Fire Chief Bill McGee set a preliminary damage estimate of between $3,000 and $4,000.

Wilder was uncertain as to the cause of the fire. However, he said he had burned some papers in the furnace about 30 minutes before the flames were discovered.

McGee said the flames appeared

Parking Meters Big Business

Those pennies, nickles—and sometimes dimes—dropped into Northville parking meters may be small change to the motorist but they add up to a healthy bundle of revenue for the Village treasury.

This fact was made clear by figures supplied this week by Village Clerk Mary Alexander and Police Chief Joe Denton, both experts in the care and feeding of the curbside sentinals.

Mrs. Alexander says the 152 meters in town yield an average of $180 each week—or approximately $9,360 each year.

The money goes into the fund for maintenance of parking lots and alleys.

MOSTLY PENNIES

Usually about $100 of the weekly take is in pennies and the rest

SLUG COUNT LOW

Surprisingly enough, Chief Denton reports that he finds an average of only two "slugs" in the meters each week, indicating that Village residents are either honest or haven't found many serviceable slugs. The Chief thinks they're honest.

One small problem he has is chewing gum shoved into the coin openings, presumably by youngsters.

"Sort of gums up the works, you might say," the Chief quipped.

Parking revenue is due to be swelled in the near future by the installation of 65 meters in the new East Main St. lot and alley. Judging from present figures, these will yield more than $60 weekly.

Hope to Raise $16,000 to Buy Downtown Sites

Plan to Turn Over Park Lots to Village

The Northville Retail Merchants Association voted at a special meeting Monday evening to raise $16,000 to purchase parking lots for the Village.

The sites to be purchased are in the rear of the Spagnuolo, C. F. Smith, Gamble, Sally Bell, Merritt and Depositors State Bank properties, and the former Des-Autel property at 118 East Dunlap which now is owned by the Northville Record.

The $16,000 estimated purchase price is to be raised by voluntary contributions of Northville merchants and business property owners, who stand to benefit from any enlargement of off-street parking areas downtown.

SPACE FOR 82 CARS

Altogether, the sites to be purchased, plus those in the rear of Brader's Department Store and the A. & P. Market, which are to be blacktopped by the owners, will provide parking space for 82 cars. It will make possible the construction of rear entrances to the stores for customer use and should stimulate trading in Northville.

Nelson Schrader, president of the Retail Merchants Association, described the plan as a protective move against impending competition of the new J. L. Hudson "Northland" shopping center which is to open next spring, and the new shopping center at Farmington and Plymouth roads, which will be open this fall. Both shopping centers are within easy driving distance of Northville, he said, and inevitably will attract business away from the Village unless local stores and business firms cooperate to make shopping here easier.

NO VILLAGE FUNDS

"The Village treasury is depleted by commitments for construction of the Community Building and the 7-Mile cut-off, and consequently no important off-street parking projects can be undertaken until at least 1955," he said. "Also, merchants in Plymouth, Wayne, and other Michigan cities have assisted financially in purchasing parking lots, on the theory that they are direct beneficiaries of improved parking. The same should be done here in self interest as an investment."

The plan calls for deeding the

Chief Denton Warns Night Bike Riders

Police Chief Joe Denton warned this week that Village youngsters may have their bicycles impounded for a week or two if they're caught riding at night without reflectors.

Denton appealed to parents to make sure their children's bicycles are properly outfitted for night-time driving before they're permitted on the streets.

"It's a real safety hazard to have youngsters scooting in and out of traffic at night without reflectors on their bicycles," Denton said. "I certainly don't want to deprive any child of his or her bicycle for a time but that's what we'll have to do if reflectors or lights are not installed."

New Library Hours

A new schedule is in effect at the Northville Library.

The library will be opened from 11:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday and will be closed all day Friday.

Saturday hours are 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Well we were busily engaged, the other day in wondering where the next customer was going to come from, when one walked in. Turned out to be the owner of a local beauty shop and business was so good she had decided to get a new car and of course the car had to be a Studebaker. "Yes," said she, "business is good and I'm glad I own this beauty shop. You hear about women growing old gracefully, but for every one that does, there are ten that go down fighting."

Now she was a most sensible woman as we will be the first to admit, because we hardly had to sell her at all. She was sold before she walked in the place having already discovered the greater merits of the '53 Studebaker. She wanted power, she wanted comfort, she wanted beauty and she wanted economy. She got them all too, in one compact package, this Studebaker we sell and service. You'll like the car too and all it takes is a demonstration to convince you. Why not drop around this week end!

Then there was the fellow, this confirmed bachelor friend of ours, that dropped around the other day to have his car serviced and lubricated for the cold weather we hear is just around the corner. We told him it was about time he broke down and got married, seeing that, from all reports, the winter was going to be long and cold. "Not me," he retorted, "I've studied the matter from every angle and have decided it's cheaper to buy an electric blanket."

Be that as it may, winter is still at hand and there's a crisp touch to the air the moment you put your nose out of doors these mornings. We think that it would be a most excellent idea if you were to get that car of yours in our shop with utmost rapidity and have it thoroughly winterized. It will give you a most comfortable feeling some morning to wake up and discover the thermometer has zippered down the chute and there is ice in the air. You'll know dogsone well that there is none in your motor. Better do it now.

That's that, but did we tell you of the fellow that was thinking of divorcing his wife? Seems she told him to pull in his stomach and he already had.

Yours,
BILL & WILL PETZ

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

LOOK FOR A SERIES of appointments to state positions. And look for quick, concentrated criticism from Republican leaders wherever there is room for the charge of "politics".

A compromise-minded governor is less likely to encounter trouble in making appointments which must be confirmed by the senate. There is a natural conflict between the administrative and legislative branches. If leading senators can pressure the governor into appointing their choices, naturally there is no trouble in legislative confirmation.

A strong governor is more apt to appoint his personal selections and try to force senate acceptance.

The conflict exists even when both branches of government are dominated by one party. But when the governor belongs to a party which does not dominate the senate, the battle becomes more intense.

Currently some 30 appointments are in the process of being made at Lansing. Some have long been considered "hot spots"—six openings on the Corrections Commission, one on Social Welfare, one on Mental Health. Toughest from a replacement standpoint is State Controller. Dr. Robert Steadman, a Wayne University professor, resigned effective Sept. 30 to return to the classroom.

"The Governor is very careful in making selections," says his press secretary, Paul Weber. "He likes to discuss the job with the person involved before an appointment is made." Mr. Weber explained, "and this sometimes means waiting for an opportune moment."

It would not be practical, he explained, for the governor to call prospective appointees to Lansing because alert reporters could be expected to draw conclusions resulting in "speculative" stories.

Republican critics agree that Gov. Williams is careful in making his selection. But they charge that he takes care to find people whose appointments benefit him politically.

So they sometimes exercise their right to withhold confirmation or, in other instances, to reject the governor's appointees.

This makes it more difficult to appoint well qualified people, according to Mr. Weber. He explains that the highest caliber people usually have full-time vocations and must make sacrifices of time and effort to serve on a commission—often at no pay. The result is that many are reluctant to attempt to make a civic contribution when they consider the treatment they get from the legislature.

A battle has raged for years over interpretation of a term in laws which create these positions. The governor makes the appointment "with the advice and consent" of the senate. Senators think that means they should do more advising before they are requested to do any consenting; governors (Williams and his predecessors) work on the basis that they receive less direct advice. And they also think they have some Attorney General opinions to support them.

There's little chance of the general situation changing very much. This is another of democracy's "check and balance" systems. And while it might complicate the plight of governor's in filling state appointments, it also makes it more difficult for him to pack state offices with his political henchman.

South Lyon Cow Completes Test

With 16,704 pounds of milk and 594 pounds of butterfat to her credit, Wacots Larrol Acres King Bessie, a registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by R. M. Brengle, South Lyon, Mich., has completed a 365-day production test in official Herd Improvement Registry.

She was milked two times daily and was five years, one month of age when she began her testing period.

Her record averages approximately 21 quarts of milk daily for the period covered by her test.

Testing was supervised by Michigan State College, in cooperation with The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Carrington Issues Reminder on New Used Car Tax

Northville residents were reminded of new tax regulations concerning the sale of used cars by Tom Carrington, manager of the local Secretary of State's license bureau.

If you buy a used car after Oct. 2 from a dealer, you will pay the three per cent sales tax as in the past. If you buy from anyone who is not a licensed dealer, you will have to pay a three per cent use tax figured at three per cent of the amount you pay for the car.

Carrington said both taxes are collected by him at the time transfer of title is applied for. He reminds all persons contemplating the purchase of a use car from anyone who is not a dealer that the use tax is a new tax and that under the law transfer of title and license plate cannot be made until the tax is paid.

The only exemptions from the new use tax are:

- 1) Gifts that may be proven as bona fide.
- 2) Gifts to a beneficiary in the administration of an estate.
- 3) On titles issued to a lienholder upon repossession of an automobile.
- 4) Sales by a public official in the administration of law. Automobiles involved in a trade when no actual money is exchanged are sales under the new law and the three per cent use tax must be paid on each automobile involved in a trade. The tax in such cases is based on the fair cash value and persons acquiring an automobile in this manner who do not know the fair cash value should ask a licensed automobile dealer.

Johnson and her children, Hannah and Don, of Clarita Ave., were all Wednesday luncheon guests of Mrs. Arthur Gotts, in Northville.

At the Nickles home on Merimian, the W.S.C.S. of the Livonia M. E. Church held an all-day meeting, Thursday. Most of the time was spent in sewing for the coming fall bazaar, but it was also the occasion for revealing identities of the W.S.C.S. Secret Pals. Needless to say, this get-together was a most enjoyable affair.

Mr. and Mrs. William Soos and their son and daughter, Helen and Walter, who spent the summer visiting relatives in Germany, arrived back at their home on Shadyside Ave., Thursday evening. Helen and Walter promptly started to school again Friday morning. All comment: "There's no place like home."

A. R. Oldham, Farmington Rd., is reported on the sick list.

ATTENDS DETROIT MEETING

Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong, Mayfield Ave., was in attendance Thursday at a large missionary get-together held in the Covenant Baptist Church, Detroit.

After a five-day visit with his parents, on Bretton Rd., Don Jones, of the U. S. Army has returned to his camp in Missouri.

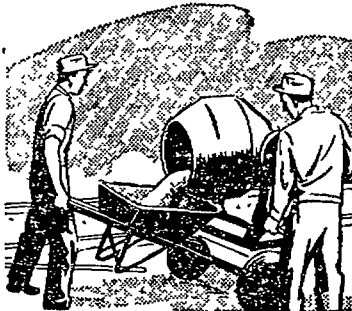

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Miner, of St. Petersburg, Fla., have been visiting in Detroit and vicinity for several weeks and have contacted old friends in this community. Mrs. Miner is the former Hazel Whipple, who lived in the West Point Park section for a number of years.

Little Robert Diehle, from Northville, spent Thursday with his grandmother, Mrs. Robert Diehle, on Shadyside Ave.

2500 needless steps

EVERY WASHDAY

TAKE IT EASY with an ELECTRIC DRYER!

Ever stop to count the steps you take to do the wash? The average woman takes 625 steps from the washer, up the stairs, into the yard, and back again—that's 2500 steps for four loads! An electric clothes dryer eliminates all those extra steps. It also eliminates lugging baskets of heavy, wet clothes... bending, stretching... pulling, tugging, tightening lines. Too, a dryer's gentle action fluffs and softens clothes... tosses wrinkles out so that ironing's easier. But find out for yourself. Buy an electric clothes dryer now, during "Dryer Days."

A FLIP OF A SWITCH DOES THE WORK

Put a load of wash in your dryer, set the controls and your wash is dry in a matter of minutes.

DRY BLANKETS, PILLOWS, STUFFED TOYS—MOST ANYTHING

Ninety-six percent of your washables can be dried in your electric dryer... and you get hygienically clean clothes every time.

FLUFFY, SOFT, SWEET-SMELLING CLOTHES

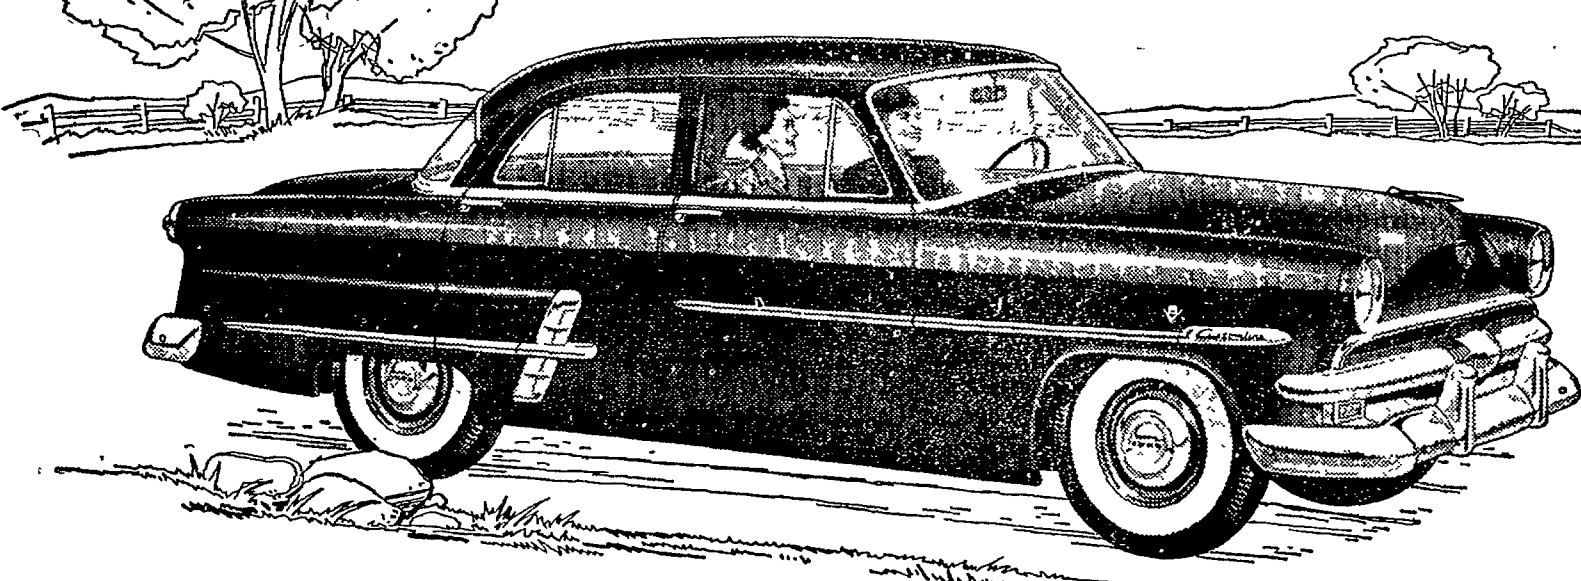

You'll notice a wonderful difference in your first dryer load. Blankets, towels, chenilles, diapers—all your laundry feels softer, fluffier, smells fresher.

THE FINE CAR at half the fine car price

Duplicating America's costliest cars, feature after feature, Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it!

A FEW MINUTES on the telephone calling the dealers who sell America's finest cars will reveal there are at least eleven models among four makes with price tags over $4,000!

Now the interesting thing is that in feature after feature the Ford duplicates each of these fine cars, and for less than half the fine car price!

Look under the hood of the most expensive cars and what do you find?

A V-8 Engine!
Well, the Ford car has a V-8, too. In fact, it has had a V-8 since 1932, and since that time Ford has built more V-8's—by millions—than all other manufacturers combined. And there's no other builder in Ford's price range that's seen fit to offer one yet!

But the engine, as fine as it is, is only one of many things that make a fine car fine.

Automatic shifting, for example. All the fine cars offer it in one form or another because it's one of the things that make a fine car fine. But if you've never driven a Ford with Fordomatic you've missed one of the finer things of life. This amazing transmission not only does away with clutching and shifting forever—it gives you exactly the amount of power you want, when you want it—automatically.

Fine car power steering, too. The big, heavy costly cars offer it for the same reason they offer power brakes. It's a man-sized job for a 120 pound woman to handle a car weighing two tons or more without it—especially when parking. Our "Master-Guide" has two distinct benefits.

First, it gives a hydraulic power assist right down at the wheels and just enough to take out the work. You don't relinquish one particle of control—rather your control is more complete and far easier.

Second, being hydraulic, "Master-Guide" power steering absorbs those fatiguing steering wheel tremors caused by ruts and roads in bad repair. And you don't pay a fine car price for "Master-Guide."

But there is another fine car feature—the Ford ride. Books have been written on the subject of riding quality in an automobile, but the payoff comes on the pavement—or lack of it! Many people associate a comfortable ride with excess weight, but it's not weight alone that makes for comfort. If it were, those big five-ton trucks which you see every day would be the most comfortable vehicles on the road.

Without being technical we can tell you that what's been done with the suspension and springing system gives the Ford a softer ride, a smoother ride than many cars which tip the scales at better than an added half ton.

What about room? Here's an interesting point. If you've felt that only a costly car offered enough room, you just ought to sit down in a Ford even if you're out-size and six feet four! The so-called big car is bigger on the outside, but unless you buy a limousine with those little jump seats, it's not one passenger bigger inside.

Visibility is another fine car Ford feature. We say Ford cars offer "full-circle" visibility because they all have huge, curved one-piece windshields and a huge rear window to match... plus side windows that mean every passenger gets room with a view!

How beautiful is a Ford? A great English poet, John Keats, once wrote "Beauty is Truth, Truth Beauty"—well, he could have been writing about our car for its beauty comes from honest, clean lines in every dimension. In fact, we think most people agree—even our competitors —that the appearance of a Ford Car leaves very little to be desired. It is "at home" wherever it goes and it goes everywhere.

But what about Ford quality? Does it too match the fine car? Is the sheet metal of the body panels as thick? Is the finish as good? How about the trim and things like that? Well, as far as we can determine, the sheet metal is identical in thickness in practically all instances. As to finish—we believe Ford's baked-on enamel has no equal in any car. Ford upholstery fabrics and trim are less costly, but they're less delicate, too, and if anything, more durable.

How then is it possible to give you this fine car at half the fine car price?

Part of the answer lies in Ford manufacturing skills and knowledge as evidenced by the V-8 engine. Part of it comes from the ever increasing numbers of cars Ford produces and the economies they make possible. And, part of it comes from Ford's willingness to give greater values than might be expected in cars selling in Ford's price range. And that's the Ford idea.

Northville Opens League Campaign Tomorrow With Milford

Beat South Lyon For Second Win

Head Coach Al Jones talking on the bus ride back from South Lyon last Friday night:

"Sure, we've won two games and looked good at times. But wait until we have to play some of the league teams."

That wait ends tomorrow night at 8 p.m. when the Mustangs tangle with their first Wayne-Oakland County League opponent—Milford. It may be their first real test.

After looking sharp in their opening 21-0 win over Plymouth, the local squad showed the effects of over-confidence in last Friday's 33-7 win over South Lyon.

The Mustangs were feeble during all of the first quarter and most of the second. When they finally started scoring it was a toss-up as to whether it was their own ability or South Lyon's ineptness that produced five touchdowns.

NASH, IFVERSEN STAR

There were outstanding performances, to be sure. End Eddie Nash played a fine game as did Co-captain Al Iversen. Halfback Bob Scheffer starred and Lamar Nally ran and passed well.

But the whole squad seemed to lack the overall sharpness they'd shown on opening night, both offensively and defensively.

South Lyon, undermanned and outweighed, was game but hardly high calibre. They fumbled frequently and two of their bobbles set up Northville touchdowns.

However, the home team had no premium on fumbling. Northville did its share.

Neither team could get going during the first quarter and it wasn't until the later half of the second period that Northville connected.

Eddie Nash started things rolling by returning a South Lyon punt 27 yards to mid-field. A penalty and two runs by Arland Lovett, who ran well most of the evening, put the ball on the 15. Nally then carried to the one yard line scored on the next play. His extra point try was no good.

SOUTH LYON FUMBLES

On the next kickoff, South Lyon fumbled at mid-field and Northville recovered. A pass from Nally to Ed Nash carried to the 12 and Burgess lugged to the one-foot line. Gene Rebitzke then scored on a quarterback sneak. Glenn Howarth kicked the extra point to give Northville a 13-0 half-time lead.

Northville received to open the second half and marched straight down the field for a touchdown.

Joe Girardin climaxed the drive by scoring from the five yard line, with Nally converting to make it 20-0.

Girardin also scored the next touchdown after Northville regained possession of the ball on a beautiful interception by Bob Scheffer.

Girardin's second TD was from the one yard line. It was set up by a ten yard plunge by Lamar Nally, who converted to make the score 27-0.

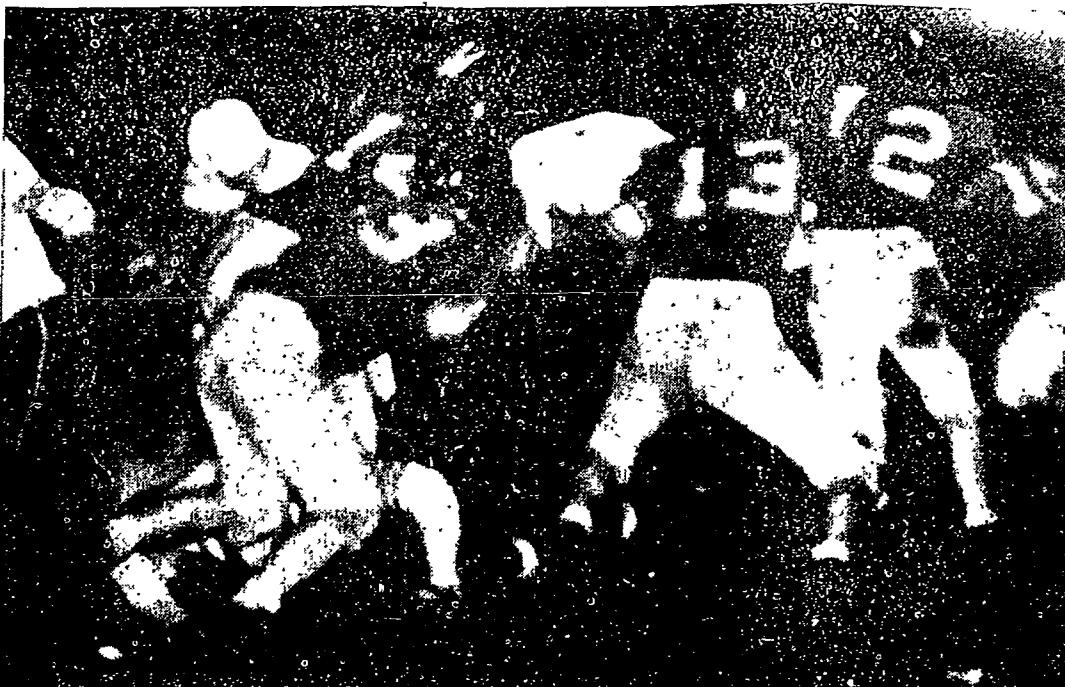

Northville's last touchdown came after they recovered a South Lyon fumble on the home team's five yard line. Buddy Bell chalked up this six pointer.

South Lyon's only touchdown came in the closing minutes of the game on a 60-yard desperation pass.

Harbert Signs New Five-Year Contract

Chick Harbert will be the pro at Meadowbrook Country Club for at least five more years.

The long-driving golf star last week signed a pact which assures him a job at the Northville club until 1958.

The signing was announced Wednesday night at a testimonial dinner for Harbert, who was honored for winning the state's triple golf crown—the Michigan Open, Michigan PGA and the Michigan Pro-Am.

The banquet was attended by some 200 persons, including Harbert's father, E. W. Harbert, who came from Sarasota, Fla.

Martinez Meets Vinny D'Andrea in Friday Bout

Vince Martinez, a smashing 2-handed belter from Paterson, N.J., runs up against rugged Vinny D'Andrea from the Sidewalks of New York in a 10-round middleweight match to be nationally televised and broadcast from St. Nicholas Arena Friday night, Oct. 2 on the Cavalcade of Sports.

The bout, which promises to be a lively scrap, goes on the air at 10 p.m. New York time over the NBC television network and the ABC radio network.

Martinez, always aggressive, throws punches equally well with either hand. His record shows 27 wins, only 2 losses and 16 knockouts. Among his victims are Red DeFazio, Tough Tony Pellone, Sam Giuliani and Don Williams.

D'Andrea, with fewer fights, nearly all of them in the welterweight division, has won 19, lost 5 and scored 9 kayoes. He has beaten Joey Atria, Tony Amato and Phil Rizzo. For his bout he is moving up a weight class.

Jimmy Powers will do the commentary on the TV end, with veteran Don Dunphy doing the radio blow-by-blow, and Win Elliott doing the color.

WILD LIFE NOTES...

WORMS OR FLIES?

Here's a bit of bad news for the angling fraternity that feels worm-fishing is the best way to angle for trout.

It is also good news for the fly fishing clan, which will now have some actual experimental evidence to throw around in their eternal rivalry with the worm fishermen.

Fisheries workers report that hooks used in worm fishing cause significantly greater death and injury to trout than do the hooks used in fly fishing.

This was the conclusion of Drs. L. N. Allison and David S. Shetter, who conducted a series of experiments during the last three years on a number of northern lower peninsula streams and at the Hunt Creek fisheries experiment station.

In three experiments involving brook trout, fly hookings in each case caused death to less than four percent of all hooked fish, while three similar worm-fishing tests showed an average of more than 37 percent mortality. More than 700 brook trout were hooked by each of the two types of lures.

Similar experiments on brown trout showed no deaths among 69 fly-hooked fish while about 20 percent of a nearly equal number of browns taken on worms died a short time later.

With rainbows, the case was about the same; 11 percent of fly-hooked fish died as against 35 percent of those taken on worms.

Trout flies generally contain the tiny No. 12 and 14 hooks. While worm fishermen generally use the larger No. 2, 4, 6 and 8 hooks. Of all hooks used, the medium-sized No. 8 showed to be most physically damaging to fish.

DEER TESTS

Conservation Department workers plan to pen a number of deer in western Upper Peninsula areas this winter in an attempt to learn more about how much and what types of food white tails need to stay alive.

In the wintertime, deer gather in swampy, low areas for protection from storms and remain there until spring. These confined "deeryards" must then provide food for all the animals that in summer months can range over larger areas.

Naturally, food growths in deer yards undergo gross overeating during the cold months and game men for years have been gathering information that is helping now in developing the deer management program.

The present experiments will use one-acre pens set up in recognized deeryards of a type common in the western upper peninsula, yards containing hemlock-hardwood types of deer food. A number of deer will be placed in each of the pens and watched carefully during the winter for malnutrition or exhaustive overuse of range foods.

The work is being carried on from Cusino wildlife experiment station near Shingleton.

LONG-TIME HUNTER

When October 1 rolls around, Ray P. Chatfield of Bay City will shoulder his shotgun and go out to a nearby favorite marsh for the opening day of duck season.

It will be, for Chatfield, the 60th time he has taken part in the opening day of Michigan's waterfowl season.

He first started duck hunting near Quiniassee in 1893 when he was eight years old. In those days, the season opened September 1 and stayed open until May 1. There was no limit on the number of birds that could be taken and such birds as mallards, black ducks, "bluebills" and teal were so numerous they weren't even protected.

Rebitzke, Scheffer Doubtful Starters

Quarterback Gene Rebitzke and quarterback-halfback Bob Scheffer may be on the sidelines tomorrow night when Northville opens its league campaign against Milford, Al Jones, coach, reported.

Rebitzke injured his ankle for the second time in as many weeks during last Friday evening's Northville-South Lyon game. While he ran through signal drills late this week, it was not known whether the ankle will be in first class shape by game time.

Scheffer has been out most of the week with a bad cold.

One piece of good news, however, Karl Hofmann, the Mustangs' extra point specialist, will be back in uniform tomorrow night after missing the South Lyon game due to a bad cold.

Recreation Board Tells Fall Plans

The Plymouth High School Recreation Committee has announced its swimming schedule for this winter. All swimming sessions will last from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m.

Pat Lamontage Becomes Bride of Oscar Leaser

Patricia Marie Lamontage became the bride of Oscar LaShore Leaser in a candlelight ceremony performed at the Methodist Church in Walled Lake, Saturday evening. Rev. C. F. Oliver officiated at the single ring service.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Lamontage of Walled Lake are the parents of the bride, and here husband is the son of Mrs. Velma Bentley, also of Walled Lake.

Candelabra and baskets of white chrysanthemums and ferns were used to decorate the altar for the 8:00 p. m. service.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of white satin, with a net overskirt and net trim at the yoke. A fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a rhinestone-sprinkled tiara. A white orchid surrounded by roses formed the bridal bouquet.

Lois Mitchell, of Novi, was the maid of honor, and the bridesmaid was Mrs. Rita White of Detroit. Lois was attired in a floor-length dress of pale pink net over satin and wore a dainty cap of nine green carnations woven into pale pink satin ribbons. She carried a white lace fan decorated with a spray of green carnations.

TV Series on Mental Health Ends Sunday

The final program of the series, "Our Modern Mind", a report to the people of Michigan on their mental health program, will be seen on WJBK-TV, Channel 2, Sunday, Oct. 2 at 12 noon.

Appearing on the program will be Gov. G. Mennen Williams; Charles Wagg, director of the Michigan Department of Mental Health; Dr. Philip N. Brown, medical superintendent of Ypsilanti State Hospital; Dr. O. R. Yoder, medical superintendent of Pontiac State Hospital.

The panel will discuss what constitutes an effective mental health program and what Michigan is actually doing in this field. Emphasized will be the mental health clinics, community education, professional training and research.

The series "Our Modern Mind" was originally scheduled for 13 programs. Because of public interest and response, five more programs were added. Last Sunday, Mrs. Arthur Verschaeve of Northville, appeared on the program, "The Patient's Contribution to the Community", as an employer of day-work patients and a hospital volunteer. Also appearing on a previous program was Merritt Meaker of Northville High School who discussed the hospital's contribution to the community in the area of mental health education.

The entire series of 18 programs was presented by WJBK-TV as a public service feature in cooperation with the Michigan Department of Mental Health and directed by Clyde Salisbury. The final five programs were written by A. Brickner and Mrs. Carolyn Seefeldt of the Northville State Hospital Social Service Department.

Child Authority to Speak Before Pre-School Group

The Northville Co-operative Pre-School Committee is planning its first meeting for Monday, Oct. 5 at 8 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church.

Dr. Helen McCall Tewes will be the guest speaker at the group's

Dr. Helen McCall Tewes first three meetings, scheduled for the first Monday in October, November and December.

The topic for her first talk will be "Special Pre-School Behaviour Problems".

Following her talk, there will be an open discussion with the audience participating. From this discussion will be derived the material for the two succeeding talks.

Dr. Tewes, a specialist on the young school child, has taught in rural and urban school systems. She is a graduate of Kent State University in Kent, O. holds her master's degree from Columbia University and the doctor's degree in education from the University of Michigan.

She has served as chairman of the Home and Family Living Committee of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers,

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Curtis Honeymoon in Northern Mich.

Tulane German, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. German, Jr., of Northville, and Ray R. Curtis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Curtis of Princeton, Iowa, were married Saturday, Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. in the First Methodist Church.

The Rev. William Richards performed the candlelight ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Ivan Hodgson. Rev. Richards had married the bride's parents 28 years previously.

Candelabra with palm background, woodwardia ferns and vases of large chrysanthemums and white gladioli decorated the church. Mrs. Richard Somers was the organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of embossed ivory satin, fashioned princess style with long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. The gown featured a deep pointed neckline with fitted bodice and a full train. A finger-tip veil of white tulle with scalloped embroidered scroll edge was held in place with a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white fugue mums.

Mrs. Pankow Maid-of-Honor Mrs. Kenneth Pankow served as maid-of-honor, and Katie Kampf and Donna Schnute were the bridesmaids. Their identical dresses were waltz-length aqua shantung with scalloped necklines and hoop skirts. The maid-of-honor carried a bouquet of bronze fugue mums, and the bridesmaids carried yellow mums.

Kenneth Pankow, of Northville, was best man, and seating the guests were Ben and Ralph Curtis, brothers of the bridegroom. David German was ring-bearer, and Gail Nixder was flower girl.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 150 guests was held in the home of the bride's parents. When the couple left on a wedding trip to northern Michigan, was a member of the Governor's Committee on Home and Family Living, and attended the White House Conference on Family Life in Washington, D. C. as a delegate from Michigan.

Interested parents are invited to attend this meeting.

the bride was attired with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis plan to make their home in Iowa.

Bride N.H.S. Graduate

The bride was graduated from Northville High School and has been employed by the Wayne County Training School. Her husband, a graduate of DeWitt High School in Iowa, served two years with the Army and is presently employed by the Farm Service Company in Iowa.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were from Plymouth, Royal Oak, Rochester, Clarkston, Carleton, Wyandotte, Belding, Livonia and Bay City, Michigan, and Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio.

Mother's Club to Hold Rummage Sale

The Mother's Club of Our Lady of Victory Church has scheduled a rummage sale Oct. 13 and 14 to be held at the former quarters of the Old Mill Restaurant at 144 East Main St.

Anyone wishing to donate articles for the sale is asked to call Mrs. Marshall Huff at Northville 1237-J1. The sale will start at 10 a.m. and end at 5:30.

The club also plans a luncheon at 1 p.m. Nov. 3 at the American Legion Hall. The luncheon will be followed by sales of baked goods and fancywork. Door prizes will be awarded. All Village women are invited.

The next regular meeting of the Mother's Club will be held in the Church Hall Oct. 6.

The Turnbull's to Vacation in West

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Turnbull of Fairbrook Ave. left recently on a seven-week vacation trip in the West.

They flew from Willow Run to Spokane, and after a short visit there traveled to Idaho, where they will spend a week with Mrs. Turnbull's brother, Burt Hodges.

Stopping next at Long Beach, Calif., where they plan to spend four or five weeks, they will be the guests of another of Mrs. Turnbull's brothers, Russell Hodges.

They will return in November via Northwestern Airlines.

Mrs. Richard Lewis Hackett

Grosse Pointe Church Scene of Hackett-Holden Rites

Richard Lewis Hackett claimed Camilla Gaylord Holden as his bride in a ceremony solemnized at St. Paul's Church in Grosse Pointe on Saturday, Sept. 26 at 12:00 noon. The double ring ceremony united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Holden of West Main St., Northville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hackett of Jackson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gownned in candlelight silk tulle over satin. Alencon lace bordered the off-shoulder neckline and extended in princess lines into the skirt. Her veil was held in place by a lace applique cap. Glamelias, fleurs d'amour and calladium leaves formed her bridal bouquet.

A champagne gold gown of silk organza and net was worn by Nancy Hackett, honor maid and sister of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Joseph Hartigan of Chicago, Shirley Hainline of Battle Creek, Joyce Strain of Grand Rapids, and Peggy Hackett, the bridegroom's sister, wore similar dresses in seafoam green. The attendants carried brown and gold chrysanthemums and wheat.

Serving as best man was John O. Gilbert II, of Jackson, and seating the guests were Eldridge and Harold Drury, cousins of the bride, Robert L. Joseph, Roger Lyons, Thomas Dorfman and Frank French.

Mrs. Holden attended her daughter's wedding in a suit of French blue silk shantung with navy accessories, and Mrs. Hackett chose teal blue taffeta with navy accessories. Each mother was presented with a white orchid.

Following the ceremony, there was a reception for 300 guests at the Detroit Boat Club.

After a honeymoon in the East the couple plan to make their home in Jackson.

Plymouth Dancers Start New Season

The Plymouth Square Dance Club started its 1953-54 season last Thursday, Sept. 24, at the Plymouth High School gymnasium.

The square dance sessions were switched from the Bird School gymnasium to the high school because the upper school gym is larger and more centrally located.

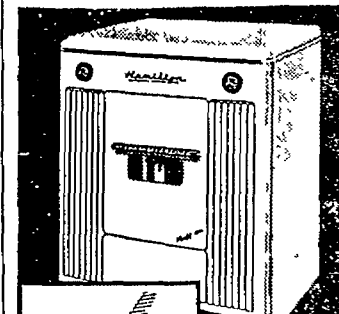

A record crowd danced 11 sets last Thursday evening to the calling of Dave Palmer.

The next dance will be held Thursday, Oct. 8 at 8 p.m. The club provides coffee, cream and sugar if guests care to bring an intermission snack.

Nuptial Rites Held at Novi Methodist Church Saturday

Candelabra and large baskets of chrysanthemums and ferns flanked the altar of the Novi First Methodist Church Saturday night, Sept. 26, when Gertrude Robena Joslin and Kenneth Elmer Bernstrom exchanged marriage vows.

Gertrude's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. Lyman Joslin of South Lyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bernstrom of Northville are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. E. J. McLucas of Novi performed the double ring ceremony at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. McLucas accompanied Mrs. Russell Button as she sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of Chantilly lace over nylon net and satin. The dress featured a fitted jacket of lace, with long sleeves terminating in a point at the wrist. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a lace cap etched with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible crowned with an orchid and streamers of stephanotis.

A color scheme of green and gold was carried out in the attire of the bridal attendants. Shirley Carroll, cousin of the bride and maid of honor, was gownned in a gold net dress with a fitted jacket of Chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of bronze mums. The bridesmaid, Barbara Hirth of Northville, wore a dress of green net with a lace cape, and carried gold mums.

David Hood, of Brighton, served as best man and the guests were seated by William Goodale of Livonia and Robert Kanikowski of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Joslin chose a porcelain blue

Universalists to Convene at Farmington

Universalists from Northville and all parts of the state and nation will gather in Farmington Oct. 2-4 to pay tribute to Dr.

Frank D. Adams, who is retiring after more than 50 years in the ministry.

The program honoring Dr. Adams, one of the church's most prominent leaders, coincides with two other events, the Annual State Convention of Universalists and the celebration by the Farmington Church of its 100th anniversary.

Dr. Adams, now pastor of the Farmington Church, has held Michigan pastorates in Detroit and Lansing and is widely known for having been long time president of the State Convention. He served two terms as president of the National Convention and was a trustee for 12 years. He has also held pastorates in Avon, Urbana, Elgin and Oak Park, Illinois, as well as in Spokane and Indianapolis.

The high point of the convention will be the banquet on Oct. 3, at which the principal speaker will be Dr. Stanley Manning of Galesburg, Ill., classmate and lifelong friend of Dr. Adams. Other distinguished speakers at the convention will be Miss Alice M. Harrison, director of Young Peoples' activities of the Universalist Church of America, and Dr. Emerson Hugh Lalone, editor of the "Universalist Leader."

The convention will close with the Sunday service on Oct. 4, following which Dr. Adams will become Pastor Emeritus of the Farmington Church.

Among those from this community who will attend the convention are Mr. and Mrs. F. Alden Shaw and Miss Elizabeth Eitz.

Laymen's League Has Sixth Anniversary

The Lutheran Laymen's League of Northville Lutheran Church will celebrate its sixth anniversary next Sunday, Oct. 4.

The anniversary program will begin at 7:30 p.m. with a special Sunday Evening Vespers. The "Lutheran Chorales" of Detroit, directed by Gerald List, will sing at the Vespers.

A social hour will be held in the Parish Hall immediately following the service with members of the Men's Club serving refreshments. All are cordially invited to attend.

Rev. Edwin E. Rossow is pastor of the church.

Ladywood Mother's Club The Ladywood Mother's Club will meet Monday, Oct. 5 at 7:45 p.m. Rev. Father Joseph DeMarchi, who recently returned from a visit to Portugal and Palestine, will speak and show slides. The Father's Club will meet at the same time.

SAVE time, SAVE work. SAVE money, SAVE space. SAVE yourself. Get an Automatic GAS CLOTHES DRYER

Only Gas dries clothes so fast... costs so little to run

HERE'S WHAT AN AUTOMATIC GAS CLOTHES DRYER DOES!

1. Makes clothes last longer. No line-whipping or clothespin rips. Gentle tumble action dries clothes in minutes.

2. Cuts down on ironing. Until you actually see it work, it's hard to believe how wrinkle-free your clothes are when they come out of an automatic gas dryer.

3. Lets you dry any time — day or night, rain or shine, fast as the clothes come from the washer.

4. Frees you for more important things. A gas dryer is fully automatic — shuts itself off at "damp dry" or "storage dry" — wherever you set the dial.

5. Gives you sweeter-smelling wash — actually sunshine-sweet.

Events of the Past in Northville

News Items Taken From the Files of the Record

One Year Ago—

Mrs. Jay Leavenworth of Beal St. won the $1,000 Grand Prize as the month long "Parade of Progress" came to an end.

Little Rhoda Thurman, 6, escaped with minor bruises when she tumbled from a car driven by her mother.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams spoke at the dedication of the Northville State Hospital.

Florence McCluskie became the bride of Edward Erickson in a ceremony performed at the First Presbyterian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace, Gerald F. Taft, Jack Appling and Frances Malley, all of Northville, entered horses in the Second Michigan International Horse show in Detroit.

Five Years Ago—

A. Russell Clarke was appointed chairman of the Sister Kenny polio fund drive in the Village.

Myrtle Labbitt, well-known radio personality, addressed the opening meeting of the Women's Club at Botsford Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey completed their 22nd year as ballroom and tap dancing teachers in the community.

Dorothy Dietz of East St. and Paul Biddle of Gardner Avenue were united in marriage at St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Mrs. Edward C. Langfield of Fairbrook Rd. observed her 78th birthday with an open house for her many acquaintances.

Ten Years Ago—

Northville surpassed its quota in the Third War Loan Drive by approximately 30 percent. More than $160,000 worth of government securities were sold in the drive.

The Detroit Symphony gave a concert in the high school gymnasium.

Douglas Slessor was elected

Council while Joanne Kitchen was chosen secretary and Winston Erlingson, treasurer.

Service notes: Ensign Charles Pink came home to visit friends and former students. Lawrence Lyke, a staff sergeant in a bombing squadron, was reported serving overseas, probably in the Pacific area. John C. Willis was promoted from corporal to sergeant at Camp McCain, Miss. Sgt. Marvin Breitmeyer was on duty in England.

A group of friends arranged a pot-luck dinner at the Carl Bryan residence in honor of Mrs. P. A. Hauser, a former Northville resident who was then living in Madison, Wisconsin.

Twenty Years Ago—

Redemption of approximately $400 in scrip was announced by school authorities.

Mrs. Charles F. Murphy, delegate from the 17th Congressional district, left for Chicago with several other Northville couples for the American Legion convention.

E. Roscoe Reed, one-time editor of the Northville Record, died at the Old People's home of the Methodist Church in Chelsea. He was 86 years old.

Dr. Bruce Douglas and Frank Snipes announced their resignations as president and third vice-president respectively of the Northville Exchange Club.

Charles R. Ely and Miss Margaret Tank were married Oct. 1 at the bride's home in Rogers City.

Thirty Years Ago—

Hoyt Wilhelm, deputy state treasurer, of Lansing, attended the fair and visited old friends in Northville.

Mrs. E. M. Bogart and children returned home after spending a week with relatives in Grand Rapids.

Miss Geraldine Young and Meritt Young, students at Ferris Institute at Big Rapids, came home to attend the fair.

Mrs. Stewart Montgomery held the lucky number which drew the Royal Electric cleaner and set of attachments given away by the Shafer Electric Shop during the fair.

Loyewells to Take Part in School Debate Clinic

Lucien and Mary Lovewell of 148 East Main St., will take part in a debate clinic at Central Michigan College, Mt. Pleasant, next Saturday, Oct. 3.

The brother and sister team, will uphold the negative side on the question "Resolved: That the President of the United States Be Elected By Direct Vote of The People".

Their opponents will be Hershel Rosensweig and Jim Perkins of Grand Rapids.

The Lovewells, students at Northville High School, attended a special speech institute at Michigan State College this summer.

Purpose of the clinic at Central Michigan is to provide other high school students with a knowledge of debating technique.

The Lovewells will be accompanied on the trip by Miss Florence Panatoni, head of the Northville High School Speech Department and advisor to the Debating Club.

Porath Enters Cattle in Chicago Show

Edward W. Porath of West Six Mile Rd. will exhibit purebred Brown Swiss Cattle at the first International Dairy Show at Chicago, Oct. 10-17, show officials announced this week.

The show will be held in the International Amphitheatre.

Northville Students Eligible for Ford Motor Scholarships

Sons and daughters of Ford Motor Co. employees, in Northville are eligible to compete for four-year college scholarships set up by the auto firm, it was announced this week by William C. Pine, scholarship director of the Ford Motor Co. fund.

"As in the first three years of the program, the scholarships will provide full tuition and partial living costs at any approved American college or university a winner may select," Pine said.

"The Fund will also contribute an annual $500 cost-of-education grant to privately endowed colleges or universities for each scholarship winner in attendance."

70 SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED

Approximately 70 scholarships are awarded annually. The 1951, 1952, and 1953 classes of award winners now are attending 78 different colleges and universities.

Under terms of the scholarship grants, the Fund makes a contribution to the college selected by a winner. The amount is sufficient to cover general tuition and academic fees and the cost of room and board for the normal academic year—to the extent of $300 in the case of a student living at home, or to the extent of 80 percent of the reasonable cost of room and board to the maximum of $750 in the case of a student not living at home.

High school seniors who are sons or daughters of full-time Ford employees in the United States and who finish high school or its equivalent between Sept. 1, 1953 and Aug. 31, 1954, with a scholarship standing in the top third of the class are eligible to apply for a scholarship.

The parent must be on the Ford payroll on Dec. 31, 1953, with continuous service since Jan. 1, 1952. However, if a parent of a scholarship winner leaves the company after the scholarship has been awarded, the scholarship will not be interrupted for that reason.

In addition, the sons and daughters of former Ford employees, now deceased or retired, are eligible under certain conditions.

DEADLINE DEC. 15

Applications from eligible candidates must be received by the Ford Fund scholarship office in Dearborn not later than Dec. 15.

Those applying will take the Scholastic Aptitude Test given by the College Entrance Examination Board on Jan. 9, 1954. The examinations will be held in major cities throughout the country so that no applicant will have to travel more than 75 miles.

Candidates will be reviewed by the Ford Motor Company Fund Scholarship Board which will determine the award winners on the basis of test scores, class standing, recommendations of high school principals and senior counselors, and other factors.

Results will be announced in the spring of 1954.

Village Nature Group Takes Trip

Fourteen Northville nature lovers spent last Saturday canoeing down the Huron River through the Proud Lake Recreation area near Milford taking a census of birds and flowers in the region.

The group was led by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hammond and Rev. Harold Fredsell. The rest of the group was composed of members of the Junior Audubon Society, including the Hammond's son, Chris, Jr., and Rev. Fredsell's daughter.

The area abounds with all species of birds and wildlife, Mrs. Hartley reported this week. She said the group spotted such rare birds as the Wilson snipe and the Long Billed Marsh Wren and seldom-found flowers such as fringed and closed gentians.

The canoeists left Milford at 10 a.m. Saturday morning and finished their trip late that afternoon.

The Eisenhower Administration pruned the Federal payroll by 50,000 persons during its first three months in power, the Civil Service Administration estimated. Most of the cuts were made in the Defense Department and the Economic Stabilization Agency.

The Forgotten Man

Many churches have been exceedingly thrilled at the apparent religious trend in our country. Church membership is now at an all time high. Articles on prayer, man's relation to God are frequently found in our best publications. The name of God is heard more frequently by public officials in their speeches. BUT THERE IS NOTICEABLY MISSING NOTE IN ALL OF IT—that is the person and place of Jesus Christ as the mediator between God and man. From Timothy 1:5 we quote, "For there is one God and ONE MEDIATOR between God and man, the man Christ Jesus." A mediator is one who acts as a peacemaker between two parties who have become estranged. Man's crimes against God (for that is what all sin is) has separated man from his Creator. Unless the matter of his sin is taken care of God will not pay any attention to his praying (Isaiah 59:2) and he is without hope and without God in this world. (Eph. 2:12). The only way sinful man can be reconciled to the righteous God is through the mediatorial work of Christ upon the cross and his present High Priestly ministry at the right hand of God. All religious revival that leaves out Jesus Christ is false and is not Christian.

Saturday Concerts Set by Symphony

A series entitled The World of Music, four concerts tailored to the tastes of Detroit's young people and their parents, will be an important part of the musical fare offered by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra this coming winter.

Conducted by Valter Poole, each concert will feature Miss Lauretine Collins, director of School-Community Relations for the Board of Education, who will act as commentator. The four programs are scheduled at 11 a.m. the Saturday mornings of Oct. 31, Nov. 28, Feb. 20 and March 6.

"The emphasis is on entertainment this year," conductor Valter Poole announced. "We want to present a liberal education in music in an interesting manner to our young concert-goers."

Themes for each concert will differ, ranging from a program devoted to classical and modern dance to one dedicated to music from foreign lands. The orchestra and its members take the spotlight at one concert, another will feature soloists. Music is the watchword for The World of Music series and will be developed at each concert in all its varied moods and colors.

Season tickets for the series are $6.50, $4 and $2.50 at the symphony office.

Nutrition experts have expressed concern over the decline in sweet potato production from 61,000 bushels in 1946 to 28,000 bushels in 1952. They say that of 28 common fresh vegetables, sweet potatoes contain the lowest percentage of carbohydrates and the largest number of calories per pound.

Novi Amvet Auxiliary Holds Charter Dinner

The Auxiliary of Perry Kenner Post No. 76, Novi Amvets, held its fifth annual charter dinner at Highland Manor, Wednesday evening, Sept. 23.

Mrs. Helen Rogers, newly elected state auxiliary president, and Mrs. Gladys Zink, state junior vice-president, were guest speakers.

A special presentation was given to Mrs. Mary Louise Taylor for her work in connection with the auxiliary's child welfare program. Mrs. Taylor is an honorary member of the group and is a donor mother for the Cub Scouts, which is sponsored by the auxiliary.

The next meeting of the auxiliary is Oct. 6 and Visitation Day at Dearborn Veterans' Hospital is Oct. 9.

N.H.S. Notes . . .

Notes from Northville High:

Willard Renard, industrial arts teacher, returned to his job this week after being absent since the start of school because of an eye infection. His place had been taken by Rev. Asa Compton of Whitmore Lake.

Miss Florence Panattoni spent last Thursday at Michigan State College in East Lansing attending a state-wide meeting of high school debate teachers. Mrs. Sally Britton substituted for Miss Panattoni.

Next Wednesday night, Principal Elroy Ellison and students Mary Lou Ware and Jim Mitchell will go to Waterford Township High School for a meeting of the committee planning the "College Night" program Nov. 18. The program, to be held at Waterford High, provides seniors in the area a chance to talk to college representatives and better plan their future education. Representatives of more than 20 colleges and universities are expected to be present.

The general fall assembly of the Wayne - Oakland County League will be held at Keego Harbor High School Wednesday, Oct. 7. More than 15 Northville High School teachers—representing boys athletics, band, forensics, etc.—are expected to attend. Principal Elroy Ellison is secretary of the league.

Northville High School Homecoming night will be held Oct. 16 this year at the Northville-Centerline football game. The 1953 Homecoming Queen will be crowned that evening. Dad's Night is scheduled Oct. 23 at the Clarkston-N.H.S. game.

Wilson Clark Heads for Home After Army Service in Korea

Sgt. Wilson E. Clark, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson J. Clark, 340 East Cady St., is returning to the U.S. after 11 months in Korea with the 2d Infantry Division.

The 2d Division took part in two of the Korean conflict's most historic battles. It captured "Heartbreak Ridge" after weeks of bitter fighting in October 1951 and took "Old Baldy" in July 1952.

Sgt. Clark, who was a squad leader in Battery B of the 82d Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battalion, entered the Army in March 1952 and took basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

He is a graduate of Northville High School.

Bruce Felker Is Elected President of Senior Class

Bruce Felker was elected president of the senior class of Northville High School in an election held last Monday.

Other senior class officers for the 1953-54 school year are Ed Nash, vice-president; Ila Newton, secretary, and Viktoria Schmidt, treasurer.

Senior class sponsors are Ed Mollena and Charles Yahn.

Officers of the junior Student Council also were elected Monday.

They include: president, Dick Biery; vice-president, Robert Baker; secretary, Janet Malott, and treasurer, Clayton Pethers.

The junior Student Council represents students in the seventh and eighth grades. Advisor is Mrs. Ida B. Cooke.

Officers of the senior Student Council were elected earlier. They include Eugene Rebitzke, mayor; Jean Nieuwkoop, secretary, and Walter Palmer, treasurer.

Home room alternates this year include Bruce Felker and Lucien Lovewell, 12th grade; Peggy Hammond, Paul Schulz and Leanna Doeksen, 11th grade; James Allen, Kathleen Heatley and Janice Owens, 10th grade; Robert Wagenschutz, Bernhard Muller and Giannine Bertoni, 9th grade; Dick Biery, Sandra Strasen and Norman Tibble, eighth grade, and Harold Searfoss, Julie Older and Barbara Mapes, seventh grade.

Parking . . .

property to the Village in return for its commitment to construct an alley, black-top the surface and install 2-hour parking meters. It would insure permanent parking under Village ownership in the area.

Also discussed at the meeting was a plan under which individual property owners might undertake to develop the vacant property in the rear of their stores privately for parking. It was pointed out, however, that private parties cannot enforce parking limits legally, nor have they been able to work out a satisfactory alley approach to their business properties. Also, during the winter and spring months the area directly back of the stores is muddy and unattractive to shoppers.

CARRINGTON REPORTS

Tom Carrington, chairman of the Village Planning Commission, described the various steps which the Commission has advocated as partial solutions to Village parking problems. He said the Village Commission has promised to construct an all day parking lot just west of the fire hall between West Main St. and Cady St. if the merchants go through with their undertaking. This would provide parking space for those persons who are employed down town and now park in the area proposed for purchase.

Solicitation of contributions is to start immediately, by a fund raising committee consisting of Nelson Schrader, Essie Nirder, manager of the D. & C. Store, and Harry Himmelstein, owner of the S. L. Brader Department Store.

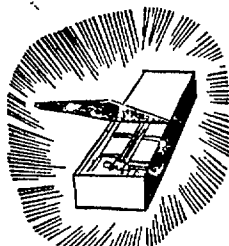

Our gifts and attainments are not only to be light and warmth in our own dwellings, but are to shine through the window, into the dark night, to guide and cheer bewildered travellers on the road.

CHURCH NEWS

The Sunday morning service at 10:30 will be Pastor Stroh's farewell service. Rev. Edward Byron will lead the singing and assist in the service. Rev. and Mrs. Byron expect to carry on the work here and Rev. Stroh will fill her new pulpit in the New Haven Congregational Church.

Federated Church

There will be a pot-luck buffet supper at the church Tuesday, Oct. 16. Everything will be furnished except a pot-luck dish to be passed. There will be a program following. All are invited to attend.

The Ladies' Missionary Circle will meet at the parsonage Tuesday, Oct. 6 at 1:30.

Monday, Oct. 5 will be a special meeting for the young people at the Arnold home.

Thursday, Oct. 8 will be young people's prayer and Bible study. Monday, Oct. 12 will begin the fall roller skating parties with other churches.

FARM BUREAU

A public meeting will be held at the Salem Town Hall October 6 at 8:30 p.m. to be sponsored by the three farm bureau clubs and the Farmer's Club. It will be the first in a series of six educational meetings. The speaker will be Paul Miller from Michigan State College, who will talk on "Conditions in Your Community". Entertainment will be furnished by the Extension Office in Ann Arbor. Refreshments will be furnished after the meeting.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heintz and son spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stacey.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson took their son, Robert, to Michigan State College Sunday where he is enrolled as a student.

Mrs. George Stien of Detroit spent Friday evening with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sutton and their three daughters of Tontogov, O., visited at the Frank Buer's home Sunday.

The Birekelbaw Construction has started work on the new Salem fire hall.

Lecture Series Set by Audobon Group

The Washtenaw Audubon Society this week announced the 1953-54 schedule for a series of lectures and motion pictures on natural history.

The programs, co-sponsored by the Ann Arbor Public Schools Adult Education Department, will be held at the Ann Arbor High School Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Price for the six-part series is $2. Tickets may be obtained at Slater's Book Store or at the home of Mrs. Carl Schwenkmeyer at 2565 West Ellsworth Rd., RFD 4, Ann Arbor, telephone number is 28000.

The schedule:
Oct. 3—Karl Maslowski with "Beneath Buckeye Skies". This will be on birds and animals of Ohio.

Oct. 24—Allan Cruickshank with his "Santa Lucia Sea Cliffs", a picture-story of one of the wildest coastal areas.

Nov. 28—Robert Hermes bringing "Bonaventure Diary", showing unusual colonies of sea birds and other wildlife on the island of Bonaventure, off the Gaspé coast.

Jan. 16—Alfred Bailey with "High Country". This takes you to the Colorado Rockies for big game—elk, mule deer, mountain sheep and distinctive birds.

Feb. 20—Dick Bird will show "Newfoundland", a picture of humor and unusual excitement in a rugged land of picturesque charm and rich abundance, with moose, caribou, beaver, water birds, song birds and others.

Mar. 6—Laurel Reynolds in "Western Discovery". This explores the Pacific coast from Mexico to Puget Sound, showing elephant seals, killer whales, auklets, shorebirds, wild geese and ducks, etc.

Village Streets . . .

ently were caused by an overheated or blocked chimney. The flames apparently first broke out at the junction of the chimney and the wood shingle roof.

Wilder, a former resident of Farmington, said he bought the home less than a month ago. He said it was covered by insurance.

He was home with his three-year old daughter, Doreen, when the fire broke out. Neither was injured.

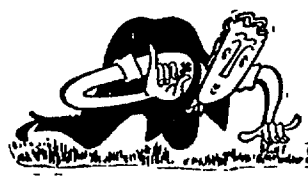

Mother's Club Is Host to Teachers

The Northville Mother's Club began its 17th year with a dinner party for the grade and high school teachers on Monday evening, Sept. 28, at the home of Mrs. Fred Collins. Thirty teachers and 30 members enjoyed an evening of canasta.

The Mother's Club was organized in 1936 with an active membership of 35. One of the club's main activities has been to furnish milk to children needing extra nourishment. An average of $150 is spent for milk each year. In addition, the club has bought equipment for the school. This includes furnishing the teacher's rooms in both school buildings, and supplying playground equipment, record players and library books.

Officers this year are: Mrs. Rano Papini, president; Mrs. Clifford Rollings, vice-president; Mrs. Stuart Campbell, secretary, and Mrs. Richard Juday, treasurer.
