"ATTEMPTS TO KILL LABOR QUIZ BARED — 'PRESURING FROM ABOVE' IS TOLD (The Detroit News)"

This was the headline over a Page 1 story in last Sunday's Detroit News. It was an excellent story, neither anti-union nor pro-management, which should be read by every member of a labor union and every employer. And by the general public too, because it contains charges by presumably responsible public officials concerning abuse of power by labor leaders and abdication of responsibility by employers.

Such charges are of a nature that should compel further examination to determine their truth or falsity, and if need be to serve as a basis for national legislation to correct abuses that have developed in the labor field.

Space does not permit reprinting the article in full but pertinent excerpts appear below:

"Terrific pressure is being exerted on congressmen investigating labor racketeering to abandon their investigation and dissolve the special subcommittee.

"This pressure is so strong, and its sources so highly placed, that members of the House Committee on Labor and Education who were in Detroit last week feared to name names for publication.

The foregoing was a summarization of the story written by Robert S. Ball, an able and conscientious reporter for the Detroit News. Ball quotes Rep. Wint Smith (R-Kan.), chairman of the subcommittee as saying:

"The pressure comes from way up there (pointing skyward) and I just can't talk about it any more specifically than that."

Why is pressure being exerted to kill the inquiry? Let Rep. Smith's statement, issued at the conclusion of the Detroit hearing suggest possible reasons. Said he:

"It becomes amply clear that Congress has a grave duty, because it is under the protection of federal law that unions have grown to power. It is through deliberate abuse of that power that some unions . . . are under the personal domination of officials bent on private gain.

" . . . It has been made tragically clear . . . that some employers are so lacking in courage and morality that they enter collusive agreements with union officials under which the funds of their workers are dissipated.

Apparently these employers, like the late Prime Minister Chamberlain, are thinking of peace at any price. May I remind them that the price of 'peace at any price' will always be too high for a free man when it really amounts to the sale of freedom on the installment plan.

"I am convinced there could be no greater abuse of power or no greater display of arrogance than the testimony we have received here of men forced to pay tribute to private organizations in order to do business.

"I am also convinced our American system could not be degraded more than it has been in those cases where union officials through economic pressure force a man out of business, then take over his enterprise for their personal profit through dummy corporations headed by their own wives and relatives.

"Unless these abuses of union power are regulated, then American workers and American business will become the private game preserve of brigands out hunting with a federal license."

What Rep. Smith said about abuses of power by labor union bosses has been said in equally strong words on previous occasions about abuses in other fields. Abuses in Wall Street in the 1920's, which led to enactment of the Securities and Exchange Act in 1933, were of a similar nature because the men who perpetrated them displayed the same willingness to profit personally at the expense of the public that many labor union officials are displaying today. Today there is little argument against SEC control. It is generally a good thing for the securities business which it regulates, as well as for the public.

Nor can it be denied that abuses by management in its relations with its employees back in the pre-depression years were directly responsible for the Wagner Act, which has been labor's Magna Charta in rising to the powerful position it now holds in America. It was to the Wagner Act that Mr. Smith referred when he spoke about "brigands out hunting with a federal license."

Mr. Smith's summarization of today's situation shows that some of the abuses which have crept into the labor union movement are being brought to light. Similar abuses are being uncovered elsewhere. There will come a time, we believe, when the public becomes alert to the situation and demands from its representatives in Washington legislation that will bring about their elimination.

Mr. Ball and the Detroit News have performed an important public service in revealing locally the political pressure that is being exerted at a national level to keep the facts hidden.

First Trial of Mrs. Flynn Ends in Hung Jury

Mrs. Catherine Flynn, Northville housewife accused of shooting her husband in their home here last Aug. 19, remained in Wayne County jail this week after a Circuit Court jury failed to reach a verdict in her case.

The jury was dismissed last Tuesday by Circuit Court Judge Robert M. Toms after hours of deliberation. Further disposition of the case has been postponed.

Mrs. Flynn, 43, was charged with killing her husband, Walter, 49, with a single shot from a .22 calibre rifle. The shooting occurred in the Flynn home at 116 North Rogers St.

Mrs. Flynn confessed the murder on the day of the shooting. Later, she pleaded innocent because of temporary insanity.

She said she had become unbalanced because of her husband's alleged love affair with another woman, identified as Mrs. Phyllis Turner, 28, of Detroit.

Mrs. Turner denied the trial that she had had any illicit relations with the murder victim.

Council Requests Gifts for Adult Patients at Maybury

The Northville Coordinating Council is taking steps to insure that hundreds of adult patients at Maybury Sanatorium have some little reminder that Christmas still exists.

Mrs. Marge Owens, director of occupational therapy at Maybury, told a recent meeting of the Council that more than 200 men and women at the institution face the prospect of spending Christmas alone and forgotten.

They have no family or friends. In many cases, no one save fellow patients and hospital personnel know they exist.

The patients need everything we can give—pajamas, slippers, T-shirts and other clothing, cigarettes, tobacco, razor blades, shaving soap, tooth paste, shoes and women's toilet articles. Most of them have no money with which to buy the things they need.

The names of the needy patients can be had by calling Mrs. Samuel Geraci at 168. Mrs. Geraci's home will also serve as the collecting point for gifts given to the patients.

Mrs. Owens emphasized that the needs of the patients go beyond the Christmas season.

Many of them are completely destitute," she said. "They need anything which might help make their stay at the hospital a little more comfortable."

Band Concert

The Northville High School and Community Band will present a Christmas concert at 8 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 16, in the high school gym.

Bingaman, Trosko to Speak at Grid Dinner

Les Bingaman of the Detroit Lions and Fred Trosko, head football coach at Michigan Normal College in Ypsilanti, will be the featured speakers at the annual Northville High School football banquet next Wednesday, Dec. 9.

The banquet, sponsored by the Exchange Club, will start at 6:30 at the Methodist Church House. Attorney Cliff Hill will be toastmaster.

Next year's co-captains and the "Most Valuable Player" for 1953 will be revealed at the dinner.

Contrary to the report last week players' fathers are invited to attend as guests of the Exchange Club—not as paying guests.

ANOTHER LION

Besides Bingaman, it is hoped to have another Lion star on hand for the evening, Hill said.

Bingaman played his collegiate football at the University of Illinois and has been a star with the Lions for several years.

He's also the biggest man in pro football, weighing over 300 pounds.

Trosko is a former University of Michigan player and one of the best small college coaches in the business.

Progress Shown in T.B. Fight

Maybury Admits No. 20,000

On Dec. 19, 1921, a 15-year old Detroit girl named Eleanor Anderson entered Maybury Sanatorium, suffering from an advanced case of tuberculosis.

She was the first patient admitted to the sprawling institution on Seven Mile Rd.

Last week, 32 years later, Maybury admitted its 20,000th victim of T.B.—James Fleming, 37, of 19226 Five Points, Detroit.

Like Miss Anderson, Fleming, a truck-driver, is an advanced tuberculosis case.

But there the similarity ends. Miss Anderson clung to life for less than six months and died at the Sanatorium on May 5, 1922. The best efforts of medical science had failed to save her.

Fleming, on the other hand, stands a good chance of leaving Maybury after a year's treatment—alive. After treatment, he will be able to resume a relatively normal life.

DRAMATIC ADVANCES

The cases of patient No. 1 and patient No. 20,000 demonstrate the dramatic advances which have been made in the battle against tuberculosis, one of the nation's most dread diseases.

The main skirmishes of this battle have been won during the last ten years. The battlegrounds have been research laboratories and hospitals where three drugs have been developed, tested and proved to be the most effective means found so far to arrest tuberculosis.

The drugs are streptomycin, P.A.S. and I.N.A.H.

Streptomycin and the two sets of initials (the words they represent carry little meaning for we laymen) attack directly the tubercle bacilli in a patient's lungs. They eventually reduce the disease to a "residual" which may be insignificant or contain a cavity which may call for removal by surgery.

Dr. W. L. Howard, medical superintendent at Maybury, explained this week what the use of the new drugs has meant in the fight against T.B.

EARLY TREATMENT

In the early days—in Eleanor Anderson's time—the treatment of tuberculosis patients consisted mainly of complete rest and symptomatic relief.

The next developments centered around the use of light—both sun and artificial—in an attempt to arrest the disease. Then came "lung collapses" and thorax treatments, all designed to take the pressure off the affected areas.

Through this period, different drugs were tried—but none very successfully.

Then in 1947, streptomycin was brought into play. Later, P.A.S. joined the fight.

STARTLING RESULTS

The drug therapy treatment—

first used for a 42-day period—produced startling results.

Consider:

There were 181 tuberculosis deaths at Maybury the year before the drugs were used. Two years after doctors had started the drug treatment, the death rate dropped to 114.

By 1949-50 the Maybury T.B. death rate climbed back to 135—principally because doctors were not yet aware of the benefits which could be derived from leaving patients on the drug treatment for longer than 42 days.

In 1952, with the long drug course in effect and I.N.A.H. added to the two drugs already in use, the death rate dropped to 65.

ONLY 45 DEATHS

During the 12 month period ending Oct. 31, Dr. Howard said, only 45 deaths were reported. Twenty-three of these were terminal cases—in other words, the patient was brought to Maybury with almost no hope for survival. The progress made in battling T.B. is further demonstrated by these statistics:

The Wayne County tuberculosis death rate in 1929 was 95-100 persons out of 100,000 each year. In 1940, that percentage stood at 45.5 persons per 100,000.

In 1952, with the widespread use of drugs, the rate stood at 17.5 per 100,000.

"It's too early to tell how effective the drug is percentage-wise in curing patients," Dr. Howard said. "However, there is evidence to indicate that the percentage of cured patients now discharged from Maybury is twice that of 1945-46."

CUTS TREATMENT PERIOD

The use of drugs also has cut the average treatment period from 23 months per patient in 1930 to 10 1/2 months last year.

The use of drugs has resulted in another new concept of treatment.

Dr. Howard and his staff are investigating a program in which patients would be discharged after their cases had been arrested and then sent home where they would continue their drug treatments on their own, much as a diabetic does.

Some former Maybury patients are under this program. However, much investigation still must be done before plan is extended.

HIGHLY TOXIC

For one thing, since the three drugs are highly toxic it is a difficult job to settle on the correct dosage. Also, it must be determined beyond a shadow of a doubt that a patient can maintain his health under the out-patient program.

Junior Police Reveal Plans for Weekly Movie

The movies are coming back to Northville.

The Junior Police Club has announced plans for a series of weekly showings for both youths and adults.

The movies will be shown at the Methodist Church House on Dunlap St., near Center.

On Saturday, Dec. 12, the feature will be "Here Come the Cods" with Abbott and Costello. Two short subjects are planned—"A Surprise From Santa" and chapter one of "Don Winslow of the Coast Guard."

"BIRTH OF A NATION"

On Tuesday, Dec. 29, a re-issue of one of the most famous movies of all time, "Birth of a Nation," will be shown along with "Spotlight On Sports" and chapter two of the Winslow serial.

The feature Jan. 2 will be "Destination Moon".

On all three dates, there will be a 2:30 p.m. showing for youngsters and a 7 p.m. show for teenagers and adults.

FURNISH PROJECTOR

Chief Joe Denton and Sergeant Gil Glasson are on the movie selection committee while the Northville Optimist Club and the Board of Education are furnishing the projector for the first three movies.

There will be no admission charge. However, a collection box will be placed at the door with the proceeds going to get films.

Anyone wishing to make a contribution to the movie fund should contact Mrs. Howard Meyer at 48120 Eight Mile Rd. or Wilson Funk, recreation director.

Dondero to Speak at Novi Dinner

Rep. George Dondero will be the featured speaker at the Novi Board of Commerce dinner tonight (Thursday).

The dinner starts at 7:15 at the Novi Community Hall.

Introducing . . .

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Batzer and family—Jon, 11; Elise, 8, and Laurie, 3—formerly of Wayne and now living at 711 N. Center St. in Northville. Their new home was purchased from Manning & Locklin Co. through Northville Realty. Batzer works with United Air Lines at Willow Run.

The Northville School Board will meet Monday night to formally adopt the resolution calling for a bond issue to finance a new elementary school building.

The resolution is being drawn up by Fred Thrun, Lansing bond attorney. It will list the amount of the bond issue, date of the election and other particulars.

ELECTION NEXT MONTH

It is expected that the bond issue will be in the neighborhood of $300,000. The resolution will be submitted to voters next month.

Meanwhile, it was reported that negotiations are nearly complete on the purchase of a site for the proposed school.

A two-man committee of board members Eural Clark and Nelson Schrader is in the final stages of dickering for a ten-acre piece of land on the west side of North Center St., between Carlyle and Hill. The site has a three-acre front on North Center.

NINE CLASSROOMS

The land is owned by Manning & Locklin Gravel Co.

Although plans for the building are not complete, it is expected to accommodate more than 250 children in grades one through six. It will contain about nine classrooms.

Plan Meetings on Civil Defense

Northville Civil Defense leaders plan a series of meetings after the first of the year in an attempt to re-vitalize the Village C.D. program.

Civil Defense Director Philip Ogilvie said initial plans for the meetings were discussed last week with Assistant Civil Defense Director Conrad Springer and Oscar Hammond, Civil Defense Director for the Michigan Department of the American Legion.

Ogilvie said it is planned to review the present C.D. set-up and devise ways to strengthen the organization.

1954 Auto Licenses on Sale Here

Automobile licenses for 1954 went on sale at the Carrington Agency on North Center St., which is the local Secretary of State's office.

The licenses are maize and blue in color and bear the newly-chosen slogan—"Water Wonderland".

More than 140 members of the Northville Lodge No. 186, F. & A. M. gathered at a banquet last week to honor the lodge's four oldest members. Three are pictured above—Willard E. Ely, C. Ray Van Valkenburgh and Fred Lyke. Ely didn't feel quite up to attending the dinner so

Van Valkenburgh and Lyke dropped by his home on Linden St. to talk over old times and present him with a 50-year pin. Van Valkenburgh and Lyke also are 50-year members. The fourth half-century veteran, William Edwards, now lives in Ovid, and was unable to attend.

Owners Note: Time Running Out for 2 Stray Dogs

Time is rapidly running out for two dogs held by the Northville police department.

The dogs, a red female Irish Setter and a male sable Collie, were picked up Tuesday morning.

The setter was found wandering loose on Grace St. The collie was spotted in the alley in the rear of the Record building by Sgt. Gil Glasson.

Neither carried a license or any other form of identification.

A city ordinance permits the police to hold stray dogs for 48 hours. Then, if they aren't claimed, they must be destroyed.

The 48-hour period is up Tuesday morning.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

So the past week we announced we had the style making Studebaker for '54 on hand and right away ever so many of you rushed over to take a peek at this finer type merchandise. One fellow paused right in the middle of signing an order to ask us what the legal season was on taking pot shots at punsters. Seemed a friend of his told him he spent his vacations at the seashore with a pocket full of rocks as he believed that "no term should go unstoned!"

We sort of hesitated in telling him when to shoot, because for all we know, we might be next and we'd much rather be around to sell you the most beautiful of fine motor cars for the '54 season. We're talking of the Studebaker of course as you'd easily recognize if you were among those who have already seen this motoring masterpiece. Sleek, lovely, futuristic, here is the car other manufacturers will be copying tomorrow. A brand new world of color too, with two-tone interiors in harmony with exterior color schemes. Then, of course, to round things out, there is rugged power, extra comfort and amazing economy to satisfy your every whim and need. See it today!

A certain lady came in our motor mart, not to buy a new Studebaker, but to have the old one serviced. Of course she stopped in to look over this extra beautiful line and managed to tell us how glad she was that fall and frost was again with us. "Not," said she, "because of the cool, crisp air, which is truly delicious, but because for the first time in months the front lawn is no longer a duty, a hobby, or a test of my husband's character."

That's the trouble with this shop of ours, too much character. We'd, maybe, sell more cars if they didn't insist on trying to make every repair job that comes in our doors as good as new, almost. But, of course, that's all to your advantage and if there is anyone in this wide world we want to satisfy, it's you. These mechanics are especially expert at making those minor adjustments that keep the car from a major break-down. If you're going to drive your present car another year, better have the lads give it their personal okay!

Dorothy Duckert is the answer to a variation of an old riddle: "To what woman do all other women take off their hats?"

Dorothy, known professionally as Doris, operates a beauty salon in the rear of Don Merritt's Insurance agency on Main St.

Born in Detroit, Miss Duckert and her family moved to Northville when she was six. Several years later, the family moved to Jackson, where Miss Duckert attended school.

After high school, she worked at an Ann Arbor factory and in 1944, joined the Women's Air Force. Following basic training at Ft. Oglethorpe, Georgia, she drove staff cars at Bradley Field, Connecticut and Selfridge Field.

It wasn't until 1946 that Miss Duckert began her career as a hair stylist. Using her rights under the G.I. Bill, she received training at the Michigan College of Beauty Culture in Mt. Clemens and for five years operated her own beauty salon there. She transferred her business to Northville in March of 1952.

To the Editor:

It won't be long until Christmas is here, even if, this year, it has "crept up on us."

"Let's put Christ back in Christmas," we hear these days, but Christ never left—it was we, the readers, who have tried to remove Him in our activities.

Rather then, let us KEEP CHRIST in CHRISTMAS, a CHRISTIAN holiday. Let it be so—the true Christmas spirit of giving gifts and receiving them. Too many would transform the CHRISTMAS into something cheap and tawdry that will sell more items etc.

Let us keep Christ in Christmas. Let us bar the hint of cheapness and mockery.

Let's have CHRIST in CHRISTMAS!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

That man is the highest creation of God is shown in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Only Cause and Creator" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, Dec. 6.
The Golden Text is from Psalms (75:1): "Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare."

Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Jer. 10:12): "He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion."
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, Love." (p. 275)

Film to be Shown at First Baptist Church

"Lookit me, Mom!" This baby fairy film of Midway Island tests his tiny wings, being careful at the same time to keep a firm grip on the limb of the tree. This little fellow is only two days old, but in a few months those wings will be strong enough for him to soar over the Pacific, hunting for fish. This is a sequence from the newest Moody Institute of Science film, "Prior Claim", sixth in the "Sermons from Science" series.

The film will be shown at the First Baptist Church of Northville, 217 North Wing St., Dec. 10 at 7:30 p.m.

With refreshing originality and persistent curiosity the camera also ferrets out such intriguing facts of nature as the elephant seal which suffers from stomach ulcers, a diving spider which makes its own diving bell, a bird which flies like a helicopter.

"Prior Claim", which runs about 50 minutes, is in full color and is accompanied by intelligent commentary. It is the sixth in the "Sermons from Science" series of gospel-science films produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon of the Moody Institute of Science, Los Angeles, a branch of Moody Bible Institute, Chicago. These films, with sound tracks in 14 languages, are shown all over the world.

Harry C. Browne to Lecture on Christian Science

Harry C. Browne of Boston, Mass., a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, will give a free lecture in Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, 5240 West Chicago Blvd., near Grand River Ave., on Tuesday, Dec. 8.

Browne, in his lecture entitled, "Christian Science: 'God's Word of Eternal Life'", will discuss how the Bible truths—the Word of God, can overcome fear, sin, disease and death.

After touring the United States and Canada for 25 years in association with many of the foremost theatrical producers and managers, Browne left the theatre in 1926, and in 1931, resigned as production director and announcer for the Columbia Broadcasting System to devote his entire time to the public practice of Christian Science healing.

This lecture is on Tuesday evening, Dec. 8 at 8 p.m. All are welcome.

Miss Palmer To Tell Club of European Trip

Miss B. Ione Palmer, Northville High School librarian, will give an illustrated talk on her European trip at a meeting of the Northville Woman's Club at 2 p.m., tomorrow, (Friday) at the Library Building.

Miss Palmer made her trip through Europe as a member of the Wayne University Tour in Comparative Education, conducted by Dr. William Reitz.

The group visited schools, colleges and universities in Scotland, England, France, Italy, Germany, Switzerland, Belgium and Holland.

Miss Palmer went to England by plane and then travelled on the continent by bus.

The Woman's Club Sextette plans to sing folk songs of the countries through which Miss Palmer traveled.

Nancy Dewsbury, Lila Lea Skow, JoAnn Weismeyer and Carol Ann Sparling, who attended Girls' State at Ann Arbor last summer, will give the Woman's Club a report on the event.

The girls were sent to the Ann Arbor meeting by the American Legion Auxiliary, Optimist Club, Woman's Club and Mother's Club.

Members are reminded that Woman's Club meetings will in the future start at 2 p.m. instead of 2:30.

Stout Women Should Avoid Dainty Fabrics

How does the stout woman achieve the well dressed appearance she desires?

She concentrates on choosing flattering textures, colors and lines, says Evelyn Mansfield of the clothing and textiles department at Michigan State College.

In choosing textures, she'll choose firm weaves in woolsens rather than the loose spongy woolen weaves. She selects these with a dull and soft surface rather than a shiny one. Soft pliable textures suit her better than wiry ones.

MAGNIFY OVERWEIGHT
Transparent materials such as chiffon act like a magnifying glass over fleshy arms and shoulders, so she resists them. Dainty materials like dotted Swiss or nets are out of key with the large person, too.

When selecting colors, she aims for figure flattery as well as for personal coloring flattery. She may wear black if it happens to be becoming to her, but she does not feel limited to it. Harsh bright tones in any hue are not happy choices. She more wisely chooses colors grayed enough to be subtle—whether light or dark.

MATCHED ENSEMBLES
She will avoid pronounced dark and light contrast in her ensembles. Costumes are planned so that there is a feeling of "oneness." Jackets and skirts must match.

She may use a contrast near the face in collar or scarf or on the hat but she never scatters such accents over her costume. This would only emphasize the bulkiness of the figure, Miss Mansfield points out.

In silhouettes the straight line is her happiest choice. Swaggers extend her size and closely fitted lines reveal over-rounded curves.

No. 5: You Have to See in Time to Stop in Time

Sportsmen know how hard it is to see game birds or deer in the woods. Their "protective coloring" blends almost perfectly with the background. Unfortunately a pedestrian wearing a grey suit and walking on grey pavement at night in the rain is almost as hard to see. His "camouflage" doesn't turn out to be "protective coloring." It may well result in his being killed in a traffic accident.

Don't rely on pedestrians staying on the highway shoulder off the pavement. That mud puddle looks much less attractive than the smooth blacktop. Smart drivers slow down at night—especially in the rain—and keep in the extreme left of their lane while watching for pedestrians. Smart pedestrians wear white at night.

Appearance of Northern Cross Is One December Astronomical Event

The Northern Cross, arrival of winter and lengthening of daylight hours are just a few of December's astronomical events, according to Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate professor of astronomy.

An impressive symbol of the Christmas season, the Northern Cross (Cygnus) will move across the December sky from the zenith to the northwest, gradually assuming more and more of a vertical position, Professor Losh says. By Christmas Eve the long bar of the cross will be outlined upright against the sky.

Winter will arrive officially at 10:32 p.m. on Dec. 21, the professor explains. At this time the sun reaches the winter solstice, the most southerly point of its apparent yearly journey around the earth.

DAYS BECOME LONGER

On Dec. 21, she continues, "the sun rises and sets about 30 degrees south of the east and west points respectively, reaching its lowest altitude of the whole year at noon." From then on days become longer and nights shorter.

Professor Losh points out that any one of December's bright planets, or a configuration of them, easily could have been the Christmas sign. She states that Jupiter dominates the night sky, rising soon after sunset and reaching its meridian around midnight, continuing to attract through the rest of the night.

"As Jupiter is setting in the northwest in the morning sky," the professor explains, "Venus is rising in the southeast about one hour before the sun." Saturn, located below the bright star Spica, rises around 4 a.m. this month.

CONSTELLATION

Also featured in the December skies will be the constellation

Auriga, a large five-sided figure, ruled by the bright yellow star Capella and rising soon after sunset. Professor Losh says that The Pleiades, followed by the rest of the constellation Taurus, rises at the same time as Capella. Taurus is symbolized by the letter "V", with the orange star Aldebaran at its lower point.

According to the professor, "Orion, followed by Canis Major, his faithful dog, is next over the horizon." She says that "this group contains Sirius, the brightest star in the entire heavens." On old star maps, the dog usually is depicted as standing on its hind feet and watching the Hare, which crouches close to Orion's feet.

The "Star of the East", pointed to by the "three Wise Men", Sirius was a favorite of the Egyptians, who built temples in its honor. Its appearance announced the time of the Nile's inundation. Professor Losh states that the star is 8.6 light years away and 27 times more luminous than our sun.

Driving SAFE
with Amazing

Saftee-Seal

The NEW PUNCTURE-PROOF DISCOVERY

The life you save may be your own... or that of your loved ones! Now you can say goodbye to the dangers and worries of blow-outs... the headaches of punctures and flat tires.

SAFTEE-SEAL — an amazing, new puncture-proof discovery—instantly stops tube leaks caused by nails, spikes and glass. SAFTEE-SEAL was developed and used successfully by the Allied Forces to instantly stop leaks in bullet-punctured airplane and truck gasoline tanks and tires.

SAFTEE-SEAL is a non-corrosive, non-inflammable compound (not a liquid rubber). Does not affect tire patches. After your tires are SAFTEE-SEALED, you need only drive 25 miles, and the inner walls of your tubes are thoroughly coated and your tires protected.

With SAFTEE-SEAL, you can enjoy safety in driving for a fraction of the high cost of puncture-proof or tubeless tires. SAFTEE-SEAL protects all 4 of your tires for only $7.95. And one application lasts the life of your tube.

WHY TAKE CHANCES?

One out of eight fatal accidents resulting from some form of mechanical failure is caused by tire troubles. You can avoid this easily and economically by protecting your tubes with SAFTEE-SEAL now.

It's easy to apply SAFTEE-SEAL: Your service station has an easy-to-use caulking gun with special nozzle and—in a matter of minutes—will SAFTEE-SEAL your tires for a slight extra charge. Or, if you prefer to apply SAFTEE-SEAL yourself, the applicator may be purchased at the special price of $2.00.

SAFTEE-SEAL IS GUARANTEED! Unless you are absolutely satisfied with the protection SAFTEE-SEAL gives, your money will be refunded.

Take time to be safe with SAFTEE-SEAL. See your service station or dealer today... and tomorrow, that life you save may be your own!

RECORD-SIZE BEAR

The 640-pound male black bear shot recently by Leo Kovisto, Sault Ste Marie, is a live-weight record for Michigan, conservation department records show.
The bear was weighed twice, before witnesses, after Kovisto shot it with a bow and arrow south of Dryburg in Chippewa County last month.

His record supercedes the record 632-pound bear shot by Dean Loveless of Hamtramck in 1950. Loveless also used a bow and arrow for his kill, made in Luce County.

Third largest taken in Michigan and reported to the conservation department was a 628-pound bear shot by Carl Johnson of Cadillac in 1934 in Manistee County.

According to the records, Milton Fahling of Conklin holds fourth place with a bear shot in 1948 and estimated at "over 600 pounds", live weight. Dressed weight was 540 pounds.

Other big bears include one of 597 pounds shot by Louis Karmes of Hastings near Rudyard in 1948 and another of "about 600 pounds" trapped by Art Jackson of Houghton Lake in the Dead Stream Swamp in 1941.

Louis Oien of Gwinn, so far as is known, ranks seventh with a 575-pound bear shot in the Escanaba River tract in 1939.

All those bears measured from six to eight feet in length, from snout to tail.

Coach Dick Kay talks strategy with six of the seven returning varsity men who will form the core of this season's Northville High School basketball team. Missing is Bruce Felker. Irish Battle S.M.U. in Final TV Game of Week

The Irish of Notre Dame—one of college football's great teams—will close their 1953 season in Notre Dame stadium here Saturday afternoon, Dec. 5, against the Mustangs of Southern Methodist University in a game that will be seen by millions across the nation as the TV Football Game of the Week.

The 90-station, nationwide NBC network will carry the telecast starting at 1:45 p.m. (CST). Game time will be 2 p.m. (CST).

The Notre Dame-SMU clash will bring to a close the 1953 TV Game of the Week series.

While Coach Frank Leahy's Irish are favored to win Saturday's game, the wide open style of play featured by the Mustangs from Dallas, Tex., holds the possibility of an upset. An SMU victory would be one of 1953's greatest football achievements and Coach Chalmers Woodward is sure to have his charges fired up for a peak effort in this, their last game of the season.

Gets His Buck

The latest Northville hunter to report bagging his 1953 deer is John Kellogg, 310 Orchard Dr. Kellogg shot an eight point 185-pound buck northeast of Iron Mountain on opening day.

Letters to Editor

To the Editor,
So that your readers may not be under a misconception of fact the undersigned wish to correct a notation appearing in your issue of Nov. 25 wherein you mention that "Attorney John Flannery and Ernest Pitchford" were appointed to a committee to examine the local police needs of Novi Township.

First, John Flannery is not an attorney in that he has not been admitted to practice by the Michigan State Bar Association. Second, your article stating the appointments to a committee was the first knowledge the undersigned had of such appointments or of the existence of such a committee.

Third, as residents of Novi Township the undersigned are always interested in local problems and are always ready to express themselves on those problems as private individuals. However, we feel that we can not speak as representative of a group unless properly delegated by that group to do so.

John B. Flannery
Ernest C. Pitchford

Editor's Note: The above letter refers to a story on the front page of last week's Record, headlined: "Novi Twp. Residents Ask Additional Police Protection." Flannery and Pitchford object to a paragraph stating: "Attorney John Flannery and Ernest Pitchford were named to form a citizens committee to work with the Township Board in solving the problem." The Record got its information on the meeting from a Novi businessman who attended. In reference to the first point made by Messrs. Flannery and Pitchford's first point, they are correct in taking the Record to task for identifying Flannery as an attorney. Although he possesses a law degree and is associated with a law firm, Flannery has not taken the State Bar Association exam and says he is not interested in practicing law as such. In answer to the second point, the Record's informant came away from the meeting with the impression that Flannery and Pitchford had been chosen by mutual consent of the persons at the meeting to head the efforts of citizens to resolve township problems. This impression apparently grew from the fact that Flannery was responsible for calling the meeting in the first place. He arranged for the hall and helped alert interested citizens. In reference again to the second point and to the third, Flannery explained to the Record this week that the purpose of the meeting was to aid residents of various parts of the township in setting up committees to work toward a solution of Township problems. He said it was felt that while a group in one section of the township might be interested primarily in drainage problems and another section in the police question, some effort should be made to coordinate the efforts of the various groups. In reference again to the second point, the story did not say Flannery and Pitchford had been appointed to a committee but did state that they were named to form a committee. This was the impression our informant carried from the meeting.)

Racing Film Available at Livonia Track
Filmed in rich outdoor color, a new sound motion picture about thoroughbred horse racing has been completed by the Detroit Race Course and is available without charge for showing to any club or organization in Michigan.

The movie is titled "The Michigan Mile" and runs 18 minutes. It explains the background of America's largest spectator sport as it is conducted at the Detroit Race Course, touching on such subjects as thoroughbred farms, film patrol, and saliva tests. Included are films of the actual running of the 1953 Michigan Mile, the state's richest race. Photography is by Tony Mazmanian and commentary by Budd Lynch. Paul Chandler or Don Gardner of the Detroit Race Course staff will show the picture to any organized group or club in Detroit and Michigan. Requests for dates should be addressed to Paul Chandler, 1505 National Bank Building, Detroit 26, Mich. WO. 1-2339.

"The Michigan Mile" also is available from the Detroit Public Library film loan service.

Recreation Basketball Program Under Way

The Recreation Department basketball program got under way Wednesday night at the high school gymnasium. Boys of high school age will compete in a league which will play Wednesday and Thursday nights from 7-10. On Saturday morning, there will be a basketball class for boys of grades six, seven, eight and nine. Junior high school boys will play in an Intra-Mural league on Saturday afternoon from 1-5. The leagues are open to boys from both the public and parochial schools. Interested youngsters should sign up with Coach Al Jones at the school.

USE RECORD CLASSIFIEDS

Dick Mitchell, only 14 years old, had never been deer hunting before this season, but he performed like a veteran. On his first shot—at a distance of more than 200 yards—Dick bagged a four-point 170-pound buck near Hubbard Lake in Alcona County. With Dick is his father, M. P. Mitchell. They reside on Fry Rd.

MORE DEER SEASONS AHEAD?

Many of you may have seen the "Michigan Outdoors" TV show recently, with Conservation Department game chief Harry Ruhl as an impressive guest. If so, you now realize that management of our Michigan deer herd is no small problem, and that in the years ahead the legalized killing of does and fawns must continue.

Mr. Ruhl, well-equipped with statistics to back up his statements, said that the present Michigan range could adequately support a herd of about 500,000 deer if they were properly distributed. He further stated that, to maintain the herd at that figure so that winter starvation would be avoided, we could and should "harvest" up to one-third of the deer annually, including does.

There is no arguing with biological facts. This writer will go along with game experts who have declared the peak deer populations should be around the half million mark. But when it comes to arranging that deer herd so that the animals are properly distributed over the state assuring plenty of food to go around—we'll have to ask how the present deer law is answering that problem!

Sectional Shooting Needed

It would appear that the only sensible method of control in the future, once the size of the herd is pared down by present regulations, is to specify areas where the deer population is too large and open a special season in those problem territories. Involved and complicated? Certainly! But so is the whole business of deer herd management.

Half-way measures will always bring strong censure from the public. Open "any deer" seasons will always result in an erratic harvest of animals with over-kill in some places and under-kill in others.

It seems to this writer that the distribution of hunters is just as important as distribution of the deer in our herd control project.

Ifversen, Nash, Girardin Honored on News, Times All-Star Grid Teams

The list of honors is growing for Northville's Al Ifversen. The squat, 170-pound guard, captain of the N.H.S. squad for two years and a first stringer for four, has been named to a raft of "all" teams by Detroit newspapers.

The Detroit News picked Al for its "All-Suburban" team, an honor made all the more noteworthy by the fact that the squad is composed of players from both Class A and B schools.

The News also named Ifversen, and Nash and back Joe Girardin to its Wayne-Oakland County League honor eleven.

Ifversen and Nash also were honored by the Detroit Times. Both were named to the all-league team while Ifversen placed on the third team All-State and

ALWAYS A CHRISTIAN

A Pastor was visiting in a home and in the course of the conversation asked the lady of the house if she was a Christian. She replied that she was. Then the Pastor asked her "When did you become a Christian?" She said, "Why Pastor, I've always been a Christian. I was brought up in a Christian home, I never have known of a time that I did not love the Lord." The Pastor then opened his Bible and turned to Ephesians 2:3 emphasizing the last sentence "And were by nature the CHILDREN OF WRATH EVEN AS OTHERS." Then he asked her, "Now who do you suppose Paul was referring to? Just to the Ephesians, or does he include us as well?" She had to admit after due consideration that she too was a "Child of wrath even as others" even though she was born in a Christian family and brought up under Christian influence. There will come a time, even with such a person, when they must face the truth set forth by a multitude of scriptures, that they too are sinners and need a Saviour. There is only one way for the terrible sinner and the moral sinner to get right with God and that is by repentance and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Mustangs Set For Plymouth Opener; 3 Co-Captains Named

Ed Nash, Glenn Howarth and Lamar Nalley have been elected co-captains of the 1953-54 Northville High School basketball team, which opens its season tomorrow night at Plymouth.

The three co-captains, all seniors, will take turns as acting game captains. All played first string last year. Tomorrow night's program will get under way at 7 p.m., when the Mustang reserves tangle with the Plymouth junior varsity. The varsity game follows.

ONE FRESHMAN

Coach Dick Kay plans a starting quintet of four seniors and one freshman for tomorrow night's lid lifter.

Besides Nash, Howarth and Nalley, Al Ifversen and Mark Bell will line up for the opening whistle.

Kay has been pleased with the progress shown by the squad during three weeks of pre-season drills.

HIGH ON HOWARTH
"We should be a good team, but it's really too early to tell how good," he said. Kay is especially high on Howarth, a lanky pivot man who led the Mustangs in scoring last year.

Rounding out the varsity squad are John Clarke, Darwin Teschka, Jim Mitchell, Gene Rebitzke, Walter Palmer, Bruce Felker, Bill Tierney and Paul Schulz.
