SCHOOL BOND ELECTION SET FOR JAN. 19

for the Record

by G. H. C.
"We Like Ike"

If there were some way to revive the presidential campaign slogan "We Like Ike", there could be no better time to do so than now. Any question concerning President Eisenhower's ability to provide sound leadership for a nation which is torn inwardly by doubts as to the road it is traveling, and how to discern its ending, must have been resolved by the events of the past ten days.

His masterful reply to Senator McCarthy, which firmly backed up Secretary Dulles' statement that the Senator's policies "attack the very heart of U.S. foreign policy" was stated in simple words whose truth cannot be denied. Said the President:

"The easiest thing to do with great power is to abuse it—to use it to excess. This most powerful of the free nations must not permit itself to grow weary of the processes of negotiation and adjustment that are fundamental to freedom. If it should turn impatiently to coercion of other free nations, our brand of coercion, so far as our friends are concerned, would be a mark of the imperialist rather than of the leader."

Again this week, speaking before the United Nations General Assembly immediately after the Big Three conference in Bermuda, the President set forth a program which carries new hope for turning the mightiest force ever devised into channels that will be a blessing instead of a threat to mankind. Prefacing his suggestion that all the atomic powers—Russia included—pool at least a part of their atomic resources for peaceful purposes, he warned sternly that the race for nuclear power threatens to wipe out civilization if it is not checked. Especially to be commended is his thought that the talks should be conducted privately. Presumably he was aware of the fact that public conferences more often than not frustrate rather than facilitate serious negotiation. It is hardly an exaggeration to say that whatever can be accomplished in the way of agreement at public conferences, whose participants are in gold fish bowl of world visibility, could be accomplished much more easily through normal diplomatic channels.

We like Ike today even more than last year when he was campaigning for the highest office in the power of Americans to bestow. Admittedly it is most difficult to combat the demagogic weapons which Senator McCarthy has been using in his fight to eradicate Communism from government. Nor can the Senator's objective be criticized. His methods, however, have raised serious doubts in the minds of thinking men and women as to whether in winning the battle against Communism, with McCarthy as a leader, the nation may not lose the essential freedoms which have been its birthright for nearly two centuries.

Some Republicans say that Communism, as a political issue, is to be given up by Republicans if Ike has his way. Perhaps this is true.

It is to be hoped, however, that the nation as a whole will recognize the President's constructive approach to the settlement of issues which today divide the world into two armed camps. If it rallies to his support on the sound program he is advocating, there is more hope for peace today than in many years.

Novi Fire Department Marks 25th Anniversary

The Novi Township Volunteer Fire Department—which answered its first alarm Christmas Day, 1928—will mark its 25th anniversary this Saturday night with a dance at the Novi Community Hall.

The affair begins at 9 p.m. There will be tables for those who would rather play cards than dance. An orchestra will be on hand to supply music for square and round dancing.

$1.00 PER PERSON

Tickets are $1.00 per person. They will be on sale at the door and can be purchased at most Novi business places or from any Novi fireman.

The high point of the evening's festivities will be the awarding of plaques to three 25-year veterans of the department—Walter Tuck, a former chief, who retired several months ago, Irwin Martin and L. J. Putnam.

The present department's chief is Glenn Salow.

According to Robert Skellenger, a member of the department, the Novi firemen have made a total of 588 runs from 1928, when records were first kept, through October of this year.

FALSE ALARM

That first run, incidentally—the one that interrupted the firemen's Christmas Day—turned out to be a false alarm, one of 11 the department has answered over the years.

Two hundred and twenty-six of the fires fought by the department have involved property damage while 276 others were grass fires. Seventy-one runs were made for various other reasons.

Eight fire deaths have occurred in the Township during the department's existence.

ORIGINAL MEMBERS

Original members of the department included Frank Martin, Archie Kent, Clyde Johnson, Phil Behrendt, Charles Trickey, Sr., L. L. Granzow, Putnam, Martin and Tuck.

Putnam and Martin are the only two charter members still on the department and both plan to retire in the near future.

Board Accepts Plan to Lease Community Building for 1 Year

The Northville School Board Monday night voted acceptance of a plan to lease the Community Building from the Village Commission for one year after it is completed.

The board acted upon the recommendation of President Robert Coolman and Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman, members of a joint board-commission committee named to work on the problem.

TO COST $1

Under the plan, the school board will lease the $208,000 structure for one year at a cost of $1. Maintenance costs will be paid by the board while the Village will provide water and handle insurance costs.

The board will have the option to either renew or cancel the lease after the one year period. Commission members already have informally agreed to the plan.

SPRING COMPLETION

Details of the lease are to be worked out in the near future with the board taking possession when the building is completed next spring.

In other actions Monday night, the Board:

Re-affirmed its stand against opening the high school gymnasium for Sunday basketball programs.

Voted to send Leslie Lee and Keith Burton, high school music teachers, to a music conference in Chicago Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The trip is expected to cost about $90.

Praised the staff and students of Wayne County Training School for their help in handling traffic and other problems connected with two performances of the senior class play at the W.C.T.S. auditorium. The Board instructed Robert Coolman and High School Principal Elroy Ellison to buy some sort of (edible) gift for the students who assisted.

Accepted a request from the staff at Northville State Hospital that the cast of the senior play, "Dear Ruth" give a performance for patients at the hospital next week.

Bad Check Passer Wanted Here Nabbed in Livonia

A man accused of passing two bad checks totalling $50 in Northville business places last Wednesday was arrested in Livonia this Tuesday.

Police said Benjamin Jordan, no permanent address, had passed at least $470 worth of bad checks in Detroit, Northville, Plymouth and other suburban areas.

They said Jordan, a beverage salesman, deposited $180 of his employer's money in two bank accounts several weeks ago and then began writing checks.

Village Police Chief Joe Denton said Jordan cashed a $25 check in the Kroger store and another for the same amount at the Center St. Market last week. Both were returned marked insufficient funds.

Jordan told Livonia police he "needed money for Christmas shopping."

He was arraigned Wednesday before Municipal Judge Leo Nye in Livonia.

In a letter to the Village Commission, Langfield said he had been ordered by his doctor to spend from four to six weeks down south.

The mayor has been ill in recent weeks.

It's June in January in Northville—or darn near, anyway. Robert Geraghty of Wing St. was uptown last Thursday exhibiting the strawberries he found ripening in his garden—on Dec. 3. Mr. and Mrs. Geraghty also gathered a bouquet of pansies which were taking advantage of the crazy, mixed-up weather. Cathy Rambeau of the Record staff inspects one of the berries to make sure it isn't made of wax (it wasn't) while Mrs. Jim Spagnuolo looks on.

Citizens Group Asks Beck Rd. Drain Study

The West Road Property Holders Association, a newly-formed citizens group, Monday night called on the Novi Township Board to make a study of drainage conditions on Beck and West roads.

In two other resolutions presented to the Township officials, the Association requested the Board to extend formal recognition to the citizen's group in order to facilitate the latter's work with the zoning board and the building inspector.

The Association also asked that the township clerk maintain regular voter registration facilities at the Township Hall.

ASSOCIATION RECOGNIZED

Township Clerk Earl Banks said the Board has formally recognized the Property Holders Association.

In regard to the drain study, Township Supervisor Frazer Staman explained that drain maintenance is a county function.

However, he promised to personally inspect, with Perry Paige, the Association's roads and drains committee, the conditions in the area mentioned.

Staman also pointed out that the Township has approximately $14,000 a year to use in road maintenance. He said the extent of road graveling is limited by the funds available.

PLAN IMPRACTICAL

Banks told the Association that the small number of daily registrations made impractical a plan to maintain regular registration facilities at the Township Hall. He pointed out that during the period immediately prior to an

V.F.W. Auxiliary Presents Flag to Village Rotary Club

The Ladies Auxiliary of Northville V.F.W. Post 4012 Tuesday night presented a large American flag to the Village Rotary Club.

The flag was given to Rotary President Philip Ogilvie by Miss Margaret Rager, president of the Auxiliary, at a Rotary meeting in the Presbyterian Church.

Miss Rager made the presentation after a short talk by Mrs. A. C. Carlson of the Auxiliary.

election, he does maintain a registration desk at the hall.

Banks did promise, however, to come into the Association's locality on a designated day to record registrations if the demand was great enough.

Another citizen asked the board about chances of an increase in police protection in the township.

Staman said under law, township taxes are limited to 15 mills. That limit has now been reached in Novi Township, he said, and further appropriations for additional police would have to be authorized by the County.

Nine-Year-Old Lands 110 Lb. and 180 Lb. Sailfish

Fishing in Michigan is going to seem like a pretty tame sport to nine-year old Laurie Chabut of Sheldon Rd.

On a short vacation trip to Acapulco, Mexico with her father, Dr. V. George Chabut, Laurie recently hooked and hauled in (with a little help) two sailfish, both bigger by far than she is.

"One waid (sic) 180 pounds and the other 110 pounds," Laurie wrote her mother.

Laurie tips the scales at 80 pounds.

The two fish were caught on the first day the youngster and her Dad tried their luck.

No word yet on whether the Doctor has been as successful.

Goodwill Industries Truck to Visit Here on December 17th

Trucks from Goodwill Industries will visit Northville and Plymouth on Thursday, Dec. 17.

Handicapped workers at Goodwill are especially interested in receiving broken dolls, discarded toys, trains, bikes and other toys in time to recondition them for sale before Christmas.

The toys are sold at Goodwill stores at a price within reach of the lowest income groups; thus giving "many" underprivileged children a chance for a merrier Christmas.

Any resident of Northville or Plymouth having a contribution should call the local Goodwill representative, Miss Edith Sorenson at Northville 571.

UAW's Childrens' Christmas Party Scheduled Dec. 23

Ford Local 896 of the CIO-United Auto Workers Union will hold its childrens' Christmas party at the Penniman-Allen Theatre on East Main St. Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 23.

Harry Lush, owner of the theatre, has generously agreed to open the building for the afternoon and provide a film.

Children in grades one through six are invited to the party. Besides the film, Santa Claus will be on hand to distribute gifts.

Vote Called on 5.5 Mill Tax Boost and $300,000 Bond Issue

Voters in the Northville school district will go to the polls Tuesday, Jan. 19, to make their decision on a proposed $300,000 bond issue to finance a new elementary school building.

A resolution calling the special election was passed unanimously by the school board Monday night.

Voters will ballot on two proposals.

One calls for a 5 1/2 mill tax increase to provide a debt retirement fund. The increase—amounting to $.55 per $1,000 of assessed valuation—would remain in effect from 1954 through 1973, inclusive.

SALE OF BONDS

The other proposal up for voter approval provides for the sale of $300,000 in bonds.

All general electors will be permitted to vote on the first proposal. However, only property owners are eligible to ballot on the second question.

Voting in the election will be residents living in the portions of Northville, Novi, Lyon and Salem Townships covered by the school district.

Polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. on the 19th and the Northville Village Hall.

REGISTRATION PLANS

Persons now registered with their township clerks as general electors will be eligible to vote without special registration. Others must register with their clerks before Jan. 8 if they wish to vote on the school issue.

Notice will be given later as to when the special registration period begins.

The proposed elementary school is to be built on a ten-acre site on the west side of North Center St. between Carlyle and Hill. It would provide classroom space for more than 250 children in grades one through six.

Negotiations for purchase of the site, now owned by Manning & Locklin Gravel Co., are nearly complete, it was reported at the meeting Monday.

Superintendent of Schools Russell Amerman said John Litsenberger has agreed to serve as chairman of the special election board. He will be assisted by Mrs. Clifford Rollings, Mrs. Claude Ely, Mrs. Ernest Miller and Mrs. Clifford Miller.

Amerman estimated that 2,500 persons in the school district are eligible to vote in the election.

Garden Club Plans Greens Market at Record Office Dec. 12

The Northville branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association will hold its first Christmas Greens Market at the Record office Saturday, Dec. 12.

The market will open at 10 a.m. Club members, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Glenn Cummings, have been busy gathering material and making special Christmas table centerpieces in preparation for the events.

For sale at the market will be trimmed and plain wreaths, garlands, swags, kissing rings, bunches of loose greens, candles and ribbons in bows or by the yard. Also offered for sale will be holiday specialties such as Aunt Caroline's Watermelon Pickles, jars of Lee's honey, and Christmas plants from the Jones Floral Shop.

On Dec. 14, the club will have its regular meeting and Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Paul Schulz, 48875 Seven Mile, at 12:30. Santa Claus will be there to welcome the Brownie troop sponsored by the club, and gifts will be exchanged. Members are asked to bring an exchange gift and a passing dish for the cooperative luncheon.

The O.L.V. Mother's Club held a regular meeting and Christmas party Tuesday, Dec. 8 at the home of Mrs. Marshall Huff on Seven Mile Rd. Refreshments were served by the fifth grade mothers.

"Last Chance For Seaway" - - - Dondero

U. S. Rep. George Dondero was the guest speaker at last Thursday's dinner-meeting of the Novi Board of Commerce. Novi residents took advantage of his visit to ask his help in establishing a rural delivery mail route, originating from the Novi post office. Here, Leo Harwood (center) presents Dondero with a petition signed by dozens of Novi area residents pointing out the need for the route. Board of Commerce President Howard Miller is seated at right. Dondero promised to do all he can to persuade Postmaster General Arthur Summerfield that the Novi area needs its own mailman.

The United States will have its "last chance" during the next session of Congress to participate with Canada in the construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway, U.S. Rep. George Dondero said last Thursday night.

In a speech before the Novi Board of Commerce, Dondero said Canada is waiting only for our decision.

"If Congress decides against it, Canada is ready to go ahead on its own," Dondero said.

The Royal Oak Republican, a strong advocate of the Seaway, said he was pessimistic over chances of U.S. participation.

"While a Senate committee has forwarded the bill to the floor for action, the counterpart bill in the House is still in committee," he said.

NOT ENOUGH VOTES

"I'm afraid we may not have enough votes to get it out," he said.

The committee to which Dondero referred is the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors, of which he is chairman.

He said many committee members were from "railroad states" and therefore opposed to the Seaway bill.

Dondero pointed out that building the Seaway would allow ocean-going vessels to travel to all Great Lakes ports and would directly affect 55,000,000 people in 17 mid-west states.

OPEN ORE FIELDS

Dondero also said the St. Lawrence Seaway would provide ready access to immense iron ore fields in Quebec and Labrador—fields reputed to hold some 4,000,000 tons of high-grade ore.

He pointed out that this point is made doubly important by the fact that the largest U.S. iron ore deposit, in Minnesota's Mesabi range, is running out.

In arguing for U.S. participation in the Seaway, Dondero pointed out that ships bound for U.S. ports would use the Seaway 80 per cent of the time.

He said if the U.S. decides to participate in its building, this country and Canada would share the cost equally.

TOLL CHARGES

While it would take a $100,000,000 appropriated by Congress for the U.S. share of construction costs, he said the Seaway would eventually pay for itself through tolls.

The dinner meeting of the Board was attended by some 50 members and guests at the Novi Community Building.

Dondero also was presented with a petition calling for the establishment of a rural mail route at the Novi Post Office.

He promised to do all he can to get one established.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

So up came last Saturday and a fellow dropped in and in-isted we sell him a fine new '54 Studebaker, which we did with commendable promptness and dispatch, because we never like to keep customers wait- especially customers with a substantial amount of govern-ment green on their per-sons. He paused long enough to tell us of a burglar that had plagued his neighborhood for some time and when caught, was tried for robbing the same house, twice. "It's a terrible thing, Judge, I'll admit," answered the culprit. "It must be the fault of this severe housing shortage!"

Well, we're happy to report, that at the moment there is no shortage of the finest of all motor cars, the Studebaker for 1954. We have coupes, and hardtops, and sedans and a most beautiful Station Wagon that is certainly the last word in Station Wagons no matter where you happen to be or happen to live. As a matter of fact, the entire line is such a stand-out this year that we're hard put to know exactly which Studebaker to recom-mend and suggest that you get here early to inspect them all.

Now a fellow stopped us on the street the other day to tell us this tale and if he weren't such a truthful Joe, we'd be inclined to doubt his word, but as he is known in these parts as honest John, we'll just re-port what he had to say, name-ly: a couple of pink elephants dropped in a local bar and af-ter looking around carefully, went up and asked the bar-terder a question. Our friend swears the bartender answered, "you'll just have to wait fellows, that lush hasn't come in yet!"

Then there are times we wonder we don't see pink ele-phants on our own, especially after we discover the condi-tion you permit that car of yours to get in. We'd just like to shout . . . bring that dog-gone car around for a com-plete lubrication and an expert motor tune-up. Enjoy finer, safer, surer driving! Own a car you're proud of! It's for your own good fellows . . . and besides, we're hoping you'll trade that jalopy of yours in on a brand new Stu-debaker. Take care of it.

Letters to Editor

The Record welcomes letters to the editor about matters of community interest. Anonymous communications will not be published, but in instances where the writer does not wish his or her name to appear, it will be held confidential.

Open letter to the citizens of Northville:

The accelerated population movement into northwestern Wayne County has produced many problems. One of the most urgent is the need for hospital facilities for this rapidly expanding community. All civic-minded citizens appreciate that the proposed St. Mary Hospital, to be located at Five Mile and Levan Road, will fill the requirements for such service in this area.

St. Mary Hospital will be well equipped to handle acci-dent cases, emergencies, heart attacks, etc., and it will provide excellent obstetrical care. The obstetrical needs for our community are frequently overlooked, despite the fact that expectant mothers and their infants comprise from 20% to 40% of the admissions in most general hospitals. These services are of vital importance to young families now living in this tri-city area as well as to the new families seeking residence here.

The equipment planned for the obstetrical dept. of the new St. Mary Hospital will make it one of the most modern in Michigan. Delivery rooms will have the latest facilities with every provision for the comfort, safety and convenience of patients and personnel. Modern laboratory services, X-ray units and a blood bank will assure first class obstetrical care. The nursery will have modern incubators, formula preparation facilities, laboratory and oxygen dispensing equipment. In addition, consultation ser-vices of specialists will be available when needed.

Constructing and equipping a modern hospital is a very ex-pensive undertaking. The following figures are given to illustrate the cost of some items that will be necessary in the obstetrical dept. Anesthesia machine, $860; resus-citator, $450; sterilizer, $2000. These are but a few of the many essentials.

To complete St. Mary Hospital will require the generous support and cooperation of all far-sighted and civic-minded individuals.

Every person in the area to be served by this community hos-pital will want to be counted among those who will make this project a memorial to our generation.

To the Editor:

This is an anniversary of the close of the Prohibition experi-ment, 1919-1933. We are deluged with ads like "fine beer, supreme, mellow, dry, expensive aging, matchless, etc." Why not tell its effects? "Principal source of the world's sorrows, sin and crime."

Only last week, four, including three mothers, were killed by seventy mile driving, in our vicinity. Cause—alcohol.

The wets spend millions in ad-vertising, so have no difficulty in getting their side of the argument in print.

Missouri went wet before Kan-sas. When there was an arrest for boot-legging in Kansas it ap-peared in bold type on the front page. But when Missouri, where there was three times the bootlegging: fine print in a corner.

Prohibition was not an en-tire failure as the wets would have us think. Reports show 60% less drinking, 117% in-crease in savings accounts, 64% increase in life insur-ance. Pres. Hoover reported 10% increase in industrial efficiency. Judge Grellner de-clared 92% of 10,000 peace disturbances on his docket were caused by too much al-cohol.

Non-enforcement was the cause of failure. President Harding (29th), of whom his neighbors said—"He might make a good president if he could stay sober long enough"—appointed wets to enforce the Prohibition laws. Result—little or no enforcement. Would you expect an avowed

Livonia Tax to Net Only 4 % of City's Income

Livonia's one mill tax—the low-est municipal tax rate in the state —will net the city only about four percent of its anticipated income for the current fiscal year.

Figures released this week by City Clerk Marie W. Clark show that the general city tax will provide Livonia with an estimated $36,000 for the fiscal year that be-gan Dec. 1.

Ninety-six percent of the city's income, some $860,000, will be re-alized from fees, fines, and per-centages of state taxes that will be returned to the city.

A cash surplus of over $389,000 from last year gives the city an estimated total of almost $1.3 million in working capital for the 1953-54 fiscal year.

The major portion of Livonia's income will be state taxes re-fund to the city. State agencies will hand over about $730,000 in highway fund, race track revenue, and sales tax diversion payments. Fees from permits, such as those required to erect or move a building, will bring in about $84,000. The sale of city licenses for dogs, bicycles, trades, etc., will net some $9,700.

The city's justice court is ex-pected to contribute about $21,000 from fines and fees.

Fees for birth and death cer-tificates, dumping, topsoil remov-al, etc., will be worth about $5,000. Sales of publications, delinquent tax collections, interest and other miscellaneous revenues will bring in over $10,000.

Communist, if appointed, to clean the subversives out of the government?

Below is a poem by Jessie Todd Hull—

"A Glass of Liquor"
What do you see in a glass of Liquor?
I see a picture of Hell,
Heartaches, pain and sorrow
And misery no tongue can tell.
I hear the report of a pistol
Held by a drunkard's hand,
A widow, and fatherless children,
And the body of a murdered man.
I hear the crash of cars—
A scream and all is still;
A mother has gone to eternity;
A drunkard was behind the wheel.
I see broken hearts and homes,
Children eating from a garbage can;
Our daddy is drinking whiskey—
The curse of our fair land.
So let us change the picture
And vote our country dry;
And make it a safer and better place
For every girl and boy.

THE VILLAGE --- AT WORK

A Visit With Your Neighbors On the Job

After the senior play, "Dear Ruth", was presented last week, two audiences totalling some 1,000 were intro-duced to Miss Florence Panatoni, who directed the two-act comedy. This is the 11th high school play she has di-rected since she came here five years ago.

Miss Pan, as she is known to her students, was born in Calumet, and attended schools there and in Highland Park and Ferndale. Upon graduation from Calumet High School, she attended the Northern Michigan College of Education where she received her B.A. degree. She then attended the University of Michigan, earning her M.A. de-gree. At present she is working for a Ph. D from Michigan

Miss Pan's first teaching job was in Marquette. She later taught at Manistique and Menominee High schools, establishing a speech department in each.

She has had plenty of experience in play-direction, working with both summer stock and Children's Theatres in Marquette and Menominee. She was an assistant director of dramatics during a summer session at the University of Michigan.

Miss Pan says of her job: "I know that I like teach-ing better than anything else. I've tried radio work, selling, and some personnel work, and none of these are compar-able with teaching."

Of her last play, "Dear Ruth", she commented: "Ev-erybody called this play a road show, because we practiced in so many different places. In previous years, we had practiced on the high school stage. But that's been con-verted into a classroom, and so we practiced in the Pres-byterian Church, the Scout Hall, the gymnasium, the grade school, and assorted classrooms."

The play was held in the Wayne County Training School—but each cast had only two rehearsals on that stage.

Miss Pan lives in Plymouth with her parents, and spends her free time reading and fishing—when she isn't busy attending plays.

Sports Car Show Planned at Henry Ford Museum

Many of the world's outstanding sports cars, some of which have never been exhibited in this country before, will be on public view at The Henry Ford Museum when "Sports Cars Unlimited," a new exhibition will open on Friday, Jan. 8, 1954.

More than 50 automobiles will chronicle the evolution of the sports car, beginning with a 1910 Hudson Speedster, through modern times to a 1954 Fiat V-8. The exhibition will stress future trends which will be dramatized by an Alfa Romeo "Disco Volante" and "Bat", and a host of plastic-bodied cars.

Modern sports cars featured in the exhibition will be the controversial Spanish Pegaso, a Mercedes 300SL, a 2.6 liter Ferrari, a 1954 Fiat V-8, the Jaguar XK-120 C which won the 1953 French LeMans Race, the experimental Ford XL-100 and an English Bristol with a Bertone body custom-built for the 1953 Paris Show. Other cars of interest include two Siata, 1100 and 1400 cc.; a Lancia V-6, the only car in the world with this unusual type of engine; an Osca, a competition car of 100 cc.; the new Austin Healey 100 and 1954 MG TF; and a Nash Healey, 1953 class winner of the LeMans race.

Older cars in the show, beginning with the Hudson, a 1910 Simplex and Packard, and a 1914 Chadwick, will point up the tinny type in contrast to the passenger car's emergence as a dissembler vehicle. Included will be a rare type 44 Bugatti, of 1929, and the first MG "Midget", the winner of the 1934 LeMans Race, a Lagonda, a 1919 Hispano Suiza, and numerous models will be displayed where the full-size prototype is unavailable.

Complementing the early Hudson Speedster will be its modern counterpart, the 1954 Hudson "Italia", an experimental sports car.

Theresa Duchesneau Sings in "Messiah"

Theresa Duchesneau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Duchesneau of Plymouth Ave., sang in the chorus of the "Messiah", presented by the University of Michigan and held in Hill Auditorium on Dec. 5 and 6.

Theresa, a freshman at the University, was the only Northville graduate singing in the large choral group.

Nearly three million retired workers over 65 are now getting old-age benefit payments under social security.

Joseph Shaw Wins Lieutenant's Bars

In ceremonies Tuesday, Dec. 1, at Fort Sill, Okla., Joseph H. Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Shaw, Route 1, Northville, was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Field Artillery Officer's Corps of the U. S. Army.

Lt. Shaw was a member of the 45th graduating class of the Artillery Officer Candidate School. The Officer Candidate School reopened in February, 1951, after having been closed since 1946.

School Band to Present Christmas Concert Dec. 16

Meet Brighton Tomorrow

Mustangs Drop Opener, 47-35

The Northville High School basketball team, 47-35 victims of a strong Plymouth High team in their first game, meets Brighton tomorrow night in the first of 14 Wayne-Oakland County League games.

Action starts at 7 p.m. in the N.H.S. gym with the Mustang reserves tangling with the Brighton Jayvees.

Opening night was a sad occasion for the Northville squad as the Plymouth sharpshooters overcame a short-lived Mustang lead and romped to an easy win.

LEADS SCORERS

Ken Kisabeth, with 15 points, led the Plymouth scoring parade while Glenn Howarth netted 11 to lead the Mustangs.

Big Ron Pagenkopf opened the scoring for Plymouth with a lay-up shot but Al Iversen quickly knotted the score with a set shot.

Another basket by Iversen, one by Ed Nash, two foul shots by Darwin Teschka and a bucket by Howarth gave Northville a 10-9 lead at the quarter but that was the last time the Mustangs were ahead.

HALF-TIME LEAD

Plymouth scored 16 points in the second quarter while Northville managed only five to take a 24-15 half-time advantage.

After chalking up only six points in the third quarter, Northville spurred for 14 in the final quarter with Teschka, a late choice to start in place of Buddy Bell, counting on three baskets.

Smith-Zulueta Battle Friday for Shot at Title

Lightweight King Jimmy Carter's next opponent will be decided Friday night, Dec. 11 when Wallace "Bud" Smith and Orlando Zulueta, ranked as the Nos. 1 and 2 challengers, meet at Madison Square Garden in a ten-round bout to be nationally telecast and broadcast on the Cavalcade of Sports.

The fight, on 100 NBC television stations and 320 ABC radio stations, goes on the air at 10 p.m., EST.

Each of these top-ranked fighters has had seven bouts this year. Each won five, lost one and had one draw. However, Smith won four of his five by knockouts, while Zulueta kayoed only one opponent.

Smith, who fights out of Cincinnati, has had a rush to the fore this year that is nothing short of sensational. Unranked as the year started, he moved into the position of Number One challenger, passing Zulueta who started the year ranking seventh, and climbed to second.

Among Zulueta's wins this year is a ten-round decision over Paday DeMarco. Numbered among Smith's four kayo victims is eighth ranked Arthur Smith.

The records of the two boys show them to be evenly matched, with Zulueta the boxer and Smith the puncher. Zulueta has won 46, lost 18, had eight draws and knocked out five. Smith has won 25, lost 8, had four draws and kayoed 14.

Wild Life Notes...

DEER COUNT

Southbound hunters had carried 10,294 deer south on the Straits of Mackinac ferries as of midnight Nov. 29, the conservation department reports.

That figure is well above the total of 8,522 brought south during the 1952 season, game workers note.

In addition, 306 bear, 21 coyotes, four wolves, 35 bobcats, and three foxes were carried south on the ferries.

Last year hunters brought more of those species into southern Michigan, but final totals for the entire 1953 season may yet alter this picture somewhat.

ROSIE THE RABBIT

Rosie been done in!

The aged matriarch bunny was loping along a railway near one of her favorite haunts at Rose Lake wildlife station early this week when a hunter flattened her with a 22-calibre pistol slug.

'Twas a sad, sad afternoon at the station when word of the old girl's demise flashed from worker to worker.

They had known and chuckled over the old rabbit's antics for more than three years, during which time she attained national prominence with her wildlife carryings-on.

Maybe it was fate that in this 53rd year of the century Rosie should be sacked, or maybe she was just tired of it all and quite willing to give up the ghost. In any case, a check of the records indicated she had been live-trapped exactly 53 times since first caught and tagged in June, 1950.

In the interim, the old girl had given birth to so many youngsters that station workers can no longer be sure just exactly how large her family really was.

She outlived the entire global conflict of Korea and—more important to her—several hunting seasons.

She overcame numerous ailments during her years and mixed up the wildlife schedules, which said emphatically that she should have died of old age years ago.

She provided more information about herself and her mates and gave wildlife researchers more clues to cover, habitat and range than any other bunny in history.

Fad she been able, she probably would have echoed the words of one writer who, before death, noted that in life there's a time for living, a time for working, and a time for going.

Rosie had seen the pageant. She went.

ILLEGAL KILL

Hunters illegally killed a 2½-year-old buck moose in northeast Alger County last week, the conservation department reports. The animal weighed about 1,000 pounds and was recovered by conservation officers for salvage. It was found near Beaver Lake, about 27 miles northeast of Munising.

Iversen, Nalley and Nash Honored by Detroit News

Three Northville High School football players were honored last week in Class B All-State team selections made by the Detroit News.

Guard Al Iversen made second team on the all-state squad while Bob Burgess at end and halfback Lamar Nalley received honorable mention.

The selection completes a full cycle of honors for Iversen.

He also has been named to the News' All-Suburban team and all-league team and was placed on the Class B All-State second team by the Detroit Times. Iversen also was named to the second team All-Suburban and first team All-League by the Times.

Reserves Lose to Plymouth Jayvee, 32-17

In a game which for a time threatened to be the first scoreless tie in the history of basketball, the Plymouth Reserve squad trounced the Northville Junior Varsity, 32-17, on the Rock floor last Friday night.

The Colts and the Pebbles managed to keep the ball out of the basket for seven minutes and 35 seconds of the first quarter.

Finally Paul Hamlin of Northville dumped in a field goal to give the Colts a 2-0 edge as the first quarter ended.

That marked the only time Northville was ahead. The Pebbles tallied 11 points in the second quarter and held an 11-8 half-time advantage. They matched that output in the third quarter and then scored ten more in the final quarter to take the victory.

Northville scored six points in the second quarter, seven in the third and only two in the fourth period.

Hamlin led the local squad in scoring with seven points while Roger Nieuwkoop contributed six to the losing cause.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of William Horsfall. We remember the patience and long suffering during the years of illness. May we too be as patient as we go into the weeks in the valley of care and shadow. Sabbath should be hills of light and joy in Gods presence. And as time rolls by, going on from mountain top to mountain top, till at last we, too, catch the glory of the gate and enter in, to go no more out, forever.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Buckles and grandchildren

James McNeiece.
"Bruce" Felker will narrate the Biblical passages.

Mrs. Richard Somers will accompany on the organ with Mrs. M. J. Willing at the piano.

The program is under the direction of Mrs. Ivan Hodgson.

Kindergarten Youngsters Buy Gifts for Children Overseas

Children of Mrs. Ann Chizmar's kindergarten class at Northville elementary school dug into their piggy banks and went on a shopping trip last week.

But the gifts they bought won't be found under Northville Christmas trees the morning of Dec. 25.

Instead, they'll add a touch of joy to the other-wise drab holiday season for dozens of less fortunate youngsters in lands across the sea.

The 35 children went to the D. & C. Store last Thursday to purchase items for Junior Red Cross packages to be sent overseas.

GIFTS FOR CHILDREN
They bought such things as pencils, crayons, small paper pads, soap, combs, tops, dolls, marbles, toy trucks, tops—anything they thought youngsters their own age might like.

Some of the children brought articles from home. Others brought money, which was divided among groups of four children each. The groups were provided with a list of useful items to purchase and were free to spend the rest of their money for toys and other "extras".

Later the items were put in boxes provided by the Red Cross. Each box was marked either "boy" or "girl" and also carried the notation that the gifts came from Northville. The 20 individual boxes will be sent to Red Cross headquarters and from there will go to Korea and other foreign countries.

SAMPLE BOX

A sample box included a wash cloth, a bar of soap, several pencils, a small bag of marbles and a toy wrist watch.

Old Red Barn Fading Fast from Michigan Farm Scene, U. of M. Professor Says

The old red barn, "she ain't what she used to be!" For architects at the University of Michigan are saying that the traditional American general-purpose barn is an architectural fossil. Along with the covered bridge, the one-hoss shay and the dodo bird, the old red barn is destined to become extinct, they feel.

That's what C. Theodore Larson, U-M professor of architecture, reports in a radio program prepared by the University Broadcasting Service for distribution to more than 20 stations throughout the state.

"Most architects, like myself, have a warm affection for the old red barn, which has been used to house all sorts of things," the professor declares. "It is a handsome feature on the American landscape. It was good in its day, but its functions are changing, and consequently all sorts of new requirements are being set up. These call for a new kind of farm architecture."

NEED LESSONS

Professor Larson points out that since farms are more mechanized now there is little need to have an old barn with a huge loft to take care of hay and grain for horses or oxen. He hastens to point out that in this respect he is talking about only the general-purpose barn, not those intended for special purposes, such as dairy barns.

"What we are really looking for," the professor explains, "is a low structure which is more or less like an umbrella in that it will protect this mechanical equipment from rain and snow. It also must provide storage for tools and other items necessary for maintenance of farm equipment."

Professor Larson says it is realized that other requirements may arise. "For instance, we can expect new types of farm equipment. This equipment may change radically in size and shape from the present machinery, and so it may be that the 'umbrella' itself will need to be adjusted in size and shape.

"We are going to need structures which can be remodeled and revamped or even made smaller," he declares. "It might be necessary to take them down and reassemble them somewhere else. This means that high salvage value is imperative."

NEW TYPE BARN

Explaining just how the architects are tackling these problems, Professor Larson says: "In collaboration with the U-M Engineering Research Institute we're working on a project called 'Unitrust'. Primarily we are seeking materials which are new, lightweight and easily assembled. The materials we are using are mainly steel and plastic. Parts can be pre-cut to size at the factory and delivered to the site. All the farmer would have to do would be to bolt them together. He would use no tools other than a screw driver and a wrench and would need no one to help him erect the structure other than his usual field workers," he said.

Judge Promises Stiff Penalties for Drunk Drivers

Judge E. M. Bogart today announced that the Northville Justice Court is cooperating with the State Liquor Control Commission, the State Safety Commission and the Associations of Chiefs of Police and Sheriffs to stamp out traffic accidents caused by drunk driving.

This concerted attack against the drunk driver will be conducted during December and early January to emphasize to the motorists of Michigan that drunk driving is disastrous at any time during the year—especially during the holiday season with its many celebrations.

According to Judge Bogart, any person who gets drunk and drives shows a complete disregard for the lives of other motorists and pedestrians. "The people of our community are entitled to protection against drunk driving and this court intends to serve the people of this area by giving advance notice to all motorists who may be tempted to drive while drunk that in the event of an accident they must expect serious consequences," the Judge added. "The Northville Justice Court is, therefore, adopting a policy of applying a minimum penalty of at least a few days in jail for any motorist found guilty of driving while drunk and causing an accident. It is my personal professional belief that the crime of causing an accident while driving drunk is such an atrocious offense against society that there could be no extenuating circumstances sufficiently compelling to exempt any person from not at least spending a few days in jail. It should be clearly understood that each case will be decided in court strictly upon its own merits and the amount of the penalty in terms of the number of days in jail will be fairly adjusted to the circumstances of each individual case," the Judge continued.

No. 8: Watch Out For That Umbrella

Motorists riding around in nice comfortable waterproof cars sometimes fail to appreciate what it's like to be a pedestrian walking on a wet street with the rain coming down. Holding an umbrella in the position where it will do the most good seems the most important thing to do at the time.

The fact that the umbrella makes it impossible for the pedestrian to see oncoming traffic is lost sight of in the urge to keep out of the rain. And if there is a high wind, keeping the umbrella from turning inside out is a full time job.

So on rainy days motorists can hardly expect pedestrians to do as good a job of looking out for themselves.

Today's local delivered price of the BUICK SPECIAL

2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan
Model 48D (illustrated)

$2,214⁸⁸

Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

WE feature the delivered price of the Buick pictured here to make a point about the big trade-in allowances we're giving today.

The price you pay for the car itself — the local delivered price — is the first thing to look for when you're bargain-hunting.

It's this figure less what you get on your trade-in that determines your real cost—the dollar difference you pay.

That means—keep your eye on the dollar difference. The more car it buys, the better deal you make.

So with our low delivered price and the high trade-in allowances we're giving right now—we think we have a whale of a buy for you.

And when you check into things, we believe you'll discover this:

You get more room and power for your money in this Buick than in any other car on the market.

You get hundreds of pounds more automobile here—more strength in the brawny frame, more durability in the heavier chassis, more safety in the thicker structural members—than in a long list of cars at this Buick's price or higher.

You also get a lot more in a Buick that the specifications don't show—more fun, more thrill, more comfort, more pride and pleasure.

But why waste another day—with time growing shorter, winter coming closer, and your present car getting older? If you're looking for a real automobile at a real buy in a real deal—come look at Buick right now.

Now Is Time to Get Car in Shape for Winter Driving

If any motorist in Northville has failed to get his automobile into condition for winter driving, the arrival of December should shock him into action, Chief of Police Joe Denton warned this week.

The season of hazardous driving is here or near, and we might as well face it," the chief said. "The time to make your car winter-safe is before the accident."

Denton offered the following rules for longevity, supplied by the National Safety Council:

1. Don't blame the weatherman for accidents. Be prepared.
2. Get the "feel" of the road when starting out on slippery mornings.
3. Keep the windshield clear of sleet, fog, and frost. And be sure the windshield wiper blades, defrosters, and all lights are in good condition.
4. When streets are covered with snow or ice, use tire chains, which cut stopping distances in half, and increase traction from 4 to 7 times. Remember, drive slow on ice or snow.
5. When you stop on ice, don't jam on your brakes. That is inviting a skid. "Pump" the brakes until the car comes to a halt.
6. Keep a safe distance between your car and the one ahead. You'll have a hard time explaining why you couldn't stop, if the car ahead was able to.

Just as an example of added winter safety, Denton said tests have shown that with reinforced tire chains, a car going 20 miles an hour can stop in about 77 feet on glare ice, and in 40 feet on hard packed snow. The same car, with so-called "winterized" tires, takes 188 feet to stop on glare ice, and about 60 to 70 feet to stop on hard packed snow.

The many handmade articles, including dollies, purses, aprons, toys and doll clothes, will be sold on Monday by Mrs. Funk's class, and Miss DeKett's room will sell on Tuesday.

The two classes are also making plans for a three or four-day camping trip scheduled for next May.

Newest Home Organ Has Chord Buttons

Today's emphasis on "do-it-yourself" activities is an old story to families who have been doing things around the house for years, but there's one thing even these handy men and women so skillful with tools and paintbrush have not thought they could tackle. That is, playing an organ. But, thanks to electronics, that's easy, too.

People who can only whistle "Turkey in the Straw" become "talented musicians" at the new electronic organ, without practice, and without being able to read music. You simply plug in the chord organ, and with two fingers, play beautiful music. One finger plays the melody, and one finger on a button produces lovely organ chords. Anyone can play a song that's good to listen to in less than half an hour.

This new little electronic organ with a button arrangement for chords will give you more personal satisfaction than all the things you ever built, and all the jells and doilies you ever made. Stop in and play it next time you pass your music store.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

Fighting words deny the status of "poor relative" for non-metropolitan areas of northern Michigan.

They were written by John W. Rice, publisher of the Houghton Daily Mining Gazette, in reply to the following statement of John S. Coleman, president of Detroit's Burroughs Adding Machine Co.: "We support all counties of northern Michigan out of Detroit and many of us suspect the area ought to be turned back into a game preserve and we should re-grow timber up there."

Efforts to lessen the bluntness of the comment did little to reduce the indignation of non-metropolitan people, particularly residents of the Upper Peninsula. Mr. Coleman's defenders claim he was quoted "out of context." Gov. Williams termed the statement "a slip of the tongue." Granting this possibility, U.P. people feel the sentiment to be accurately described.

"A great many Detroit industrialists are laboring under the theory that Detroit is being gyped to keep much of the rest of the state in the comforts of life," wrote Publisher Rice. "Behind this attitude is a clever and extremely candid campaign being conducted by certain large taxpayers for the sole purpose of securing a modification of the sales tax diversion amendment."

"For enlightening hot-shot executives from Detroit a little historical briefing would be apropos."

"At the time in Michigan history when Houghton County paid a lion's share of the state's total taxes, during the period when the northern Michigan copper mines were producing 25 per cent of all the copper produced in the world, there was no complaint from the Upper Peninsula that it was carrying more than its share of the load."

Untapped and about to be-tapped assets of the U.P. promise many economic benefits, stated Rice. He referred to reports of leading geologists: only 10 per cent of copper deposits in Michigan have been mined; the White Pine copper mine in Ontonagon County which will soon start production; the Ishpeming-Negaunee area where a huge body of iron ore is being worked.

Detroit's prosperity resulted from Upper Peninsula raw material, claimed the publisher: "Detroit, it must be remembered, produces nothing except the goods manufactured from the raw materials it imports."

"The oil, gas, coal and cement, as well as copper, iron and timber that have played such a part in the growth of Detroit and other down-state centers were not produced in those cities, but the use of those products of nature, along with those of the Upper Peninsula, are the things they have contributed materially to making Detroit great."

Other industrial centers received similar admonishing by Publisher Rice.

"The fact that manufacturers are concentrated in a comparatively few places in Lower Michigan does not necessarily make these cities the benefactors of the State."

Grand Rapids, with its pride in its furniture industry, was also a target. The "factories merely shape into merchantable form the products that come from the forests north of the Straits," Rice reminded.

"In conclusion we humbly suggest that you don't sell the Upper Peninsula short. None of us is self-sufficient but all of us are apt to minimize the contributions that our neighbors are making to promote the projects in which we are personally interested."

"As Mae West would say, 'Why don't you come up and see us sometime?' Maybe if we knew each other better, the future relationship would become less strained."

The "poor country cousin" role which non-metropolitan people, particularly in the far north, feel is assigned them, is an extremely touchy matter. That there are few denials about such an opinion by those in metropolitan districts does not help matters.

Sentiments of a different flavor than those often expressed in the heavily populated sections are provided for examination by the Houghton newspaper editorial. The argument that financial support received in one part of the state from another is not charity but a fair expenditure is supplied with some facts to support it.

If tax diversion changes are considered at the coming legislative session, study may result in a new attitude which will find more general acceptance by the people of Michigan.

It may be discovered, as it has when other "touchy" questions have been closely examined, that the accurate appraisal lays somewhere between the positions taken by opposing factions.

Farmers now are getting 45 cents of the consumer's dollar when you figure all foods together, Michigan State College economists point out. The other 55 cents goes for processing, packaging, transportation and retailing.

Milk prices during 1954 will depend upon the level at which they are supported by government purchases. If support prices are maintained at 90 per cent of parity, there will be little price change. Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson is empowered to set the support level anywhere between 75 and 90 per cent of parity.

Debeaking chickens may be necessary to prevent cannibalism in the flock, says Michigan State College poultry specialists. About one-half or slightly more of the length of the upper mandible is removed. That makes the chickens unable to grasp feathers or tissue but does not impair their ability to eat.

Two out of every five persons, aged 65 or over, are now getting social security monthly benefit payments under old-age and survivors insurance.
