A pick-up service has been arranged for the convenience of those unable to bring their items to the Parish House.

The following persons are accepting pick-up requests.

Northville area—Fred Sterner, Sr., Northville 927-J2.

Plymouth area—Edward Drews, Plymouth 489-J.

Also at St. Paul's, the Ladies Aid is sponsoring a Father and Son banquet to be held on the evening of Feb. 12, starting at 6:30 p.m. Mrs. Clara Janetzke is ticket chairman; Mrs. Lena Newton, dinner chairman; Mrs. Vera Heidt, dining room chairman; and Mrs. Estella Heidt, program chairman.

The fourth anniversary of the dedication of St. Paul's will be observed on Feb. 21 in services at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. There will be guest speakers and the keynote of the observance will be "Gratitude to God for All His Goodness". The anniversary committee is composed of Fred Sterner, Sr., Victor Miller, Adolph Neuman and Edward Drews.

Carlo Asks Inglis to Reconsider Cut in Racing Meet

General Manager John Carlo of Northville Downs has asked Racing Commissioner James Inglis to reconsider his slash in racing dates at the local track. It was disclosed this week.

Inglis announced last week that the Downs would have only 39 days of racing this summer as compared to 48 days last year. The other nine days were given to Hazel Park and the Wolverine Raceway, giving all three tracks 39 days of harness racing.

SIX MORE DAYS

Carlo has asked Inglis to grant Northville an additional six days—three at the start of the meet and three at the end. He said these dates are now open.

Under the Inglis plan, the meet would start here June 17 and end July 31. Carlo hopes to have racing here also on June 14, 15 and 16 and Aug. 2, 3 and 4.

The Downs manager said Inglis had promised him last year there would be no cuts in dates here if certain improvements were made to the physical plant.

IMPROVEMENTS MADE

These improvements have either been made or are in progress, Carlo said.

The date cut was not a punitive action. It was made because the other two tracks bring in more revenue than Northville.

Inglis was out of town and could not be reached for comment on the Carlo appeal.

The cut in racing dates will mean a loss of $4500 to the Village government, since the track pays $500 a night for fire and police protection.

Optimist Club Skating Meet to Be Held Sunday

This Sunday promises to be a red-letter day for local skating enthusiasts.

Some 200 of Michigan's outstanding skaters are expected to be on hand for the first Northville Optimist Club Speed Skating Championships.

The meet will start at 1 p.m. on the Village Mill Pond.

While out-of-town skaters will provide most of the action, Villagers are welcome to compete in the races.

Roy Helminski, president of the Michigan Skating Association, which is supervising the event, said novice events for local skaters also will be staged.

There will be competition in 15 classifications—Senior Men's Class A & B, Senior Women, Intermediate boys and girls, Junior boys and girls, Juvenile boys and girls and toddlers.

Cups and medals for first, second and third place finishers will be provided by the Optimist Club. Bob Snyder, Senior Men's Class A champion and Terry Brown, former Senior Men's titleholder, are expected to compete.

So are Barbara Marchetti Deschepper, state, national and North American indoor and outdoor women's champion, and Jean Renshaw and Nancy Winn, co-champions in the Girl's Intermediate class.

(Schedule of events listed on sports page.)

Sixty-four members of the Meadowbrook bowling team bowled at Ambassador Recreation in Detroit Sunday, Jan. 24.

Gunman Fires At Twp. Resident

Union Official Target of Blast From Shotgun

A Northville Township man narrowly escaped death or serious injury early Wednesday morning when a gunman shot at him through a French door of his home at 42780 W. Eight Mile Rd.

Target for the attack was Herbert Koester, 49, a truck driver for Commercial Carriers, Inc. in Detroit and reported to be an enemy of James Hoffa, president of the AFL Teamsters Union.

Koester told police he believed his opposition to Hoffa was the reason for the attack.

State Police Lt. James Van Langan said his men are investigating that angle.

The shooting occurred shortly after 2 a.m. Wednesday.

Koester told police he had just arrived home when the phone rang.

"I went to the phone (in the kitchen near the French doors) and a second after I passed the doors the shot went off."

Koester said he dropped to the floor and then got up and answered the phone. The operator asked him to excuse the ring.

State police troopers William Simmons and Michael Fitzgibbons said they found a clear set of prints in the snow leading from the garage to a point outside the French doors.

Judging from the footprints, they estimated the shot was fired from a point about 21 feet from the house.

The shot entered the house only a few feet above the floor, indicating the gunman hoped to wound Koester, not kill him.

The shot missed Koester by about 18 inches, police said.

Koester told police that he felt the shooting was the climax of a series of threats which began last Thursday when four men in a black Cadillac followed him home from his place of employment.

Then Sunday night, he said he received a call warning him not to report for work.

Koester said he had not been at work since last week.

He said he had been an outspoken critic of Hoffa and had been told several times to "keep my mouth shut."

Koester is a former member of the Detroit police force. He retired in 1949.

He was home alone at the time of the attack. His wife is out of town, attending a funeral.

Work on 7-Mile Cut-Off to Begin This Summer

Work on the Seven Mile Cut-off will not begin until this summer, Village Clerk Mary Alexander was informed last week in a letter from the Wayne County Road Commission.

The project was originally to have gotten under way last fall or this spring at the latest. No reason was given for the delay.

The cut-off will extend from a point near the junction of West Seven Mile and Plymouth Rd. to a spot about 600 feet east of Sheldon Rd. on Edward Hines Drive, near the Northville Downs. It will mean the end of heavy truck traffic through the Village.

The Village and Northville Township are contributing $57,500 toward the cost of construction.

Northville Women's Club The Northville Women's Club will meet at 2 p.m. this Friday at the Village Library. Dr. L. LaMond Okey will present dramatic readings and Lucien Lovell will play the piano.

Five of the six youths charged with breaking into the Ray Richardson home at 800 W. Main St. last week appeared for pre-trial examination before Judge E. M. Bogart Monday. The sixth youth is held at the Juvenile Home in Detroit.

Left to right: Don Henchbacker, 17, of Redford Township; Stanley Mentusky, 20, of Detroit; Bill Maynard, 20, of Livonia; Don Tyson and Gerald Walker, both 19 and of Redford. All the youths were bound over to Circuit Court for trial on charges of breaking and entering in the night-time with intent to commit larceny. They are lodged in Wayne County Jail after failing to post $1500 bond. The youths confessed breaking into the Richardson home and stealing a safe and a pair of binoculars, later recovered. State Police said the quintet also confessed to 17 other break-ins in the Redford-Livonia area.

Meeting to Discuss Incinerator Plan

Several Northville officials led by Village Commissioner Claude R. Ely will meet with officials of other municipalities and townships in this area at the Livonia City Hall next Monday evening to discuss cooperative construction of an incinerator to burn garbage and rubbish.

Representatives of Northville Township and Livonia also will attend the meeting. Robert Schaffer will represent Northville Township.

The meeting has been called by Robert H. Stellanwagen, who has been retained by municipalities and townships in western Wayne County to survey the garbage disposal situation now and in the future, and make recommendations for meeting the problem. His plan calls for the eventual construction of three incinerators.

One would be for joint use of Northville, Livonia, Plymouth, Northville and Plymouth townships.

It would cost approximately $864,000 and would be financed by issuance of revenue bonds by a "garbage authority" formed under state law. Its location has been tentatively selected for the area near Haggerty Rd. and Five Mile Rd., which is central to the entire district to be served.

Groupings of other municipalities under the master plan for the western portion of the county place Dearborn Township, Inkster, Garden City, Wayne and Nankin together. Allen Park and Melvindale would be together in another group.

Commissioner Ely explained to the Village Commission that the incinerator under discussion would handle not only garbage, but all kinds of rubbish as well. This includes tin cans and miscellaneous articles now collected by the Village and taken to the dump.

The meeting scheduled for next Monday evening is for discussion purposes only. It will give those present some background knowledge of how other cities have handled similar problems.

Mother's March Nets $1348 to Aid Polio Fight

Northville mothers collected $1348.83 in their march on polo last Thursday night, Mrs. Eldon Biery, local March of Dimes chairman, reported this week.

School children also helped swell the local fund.

Miss Ruth Knapp, school nurse, reported that elementary school children contributed $197.52 while high school students gave a total of $71.13. Students at Our Lady of Victory School contributed $45.38.

A complete report on collections will be given next week.

Special Course in Teaching to Start Monday, Feb. 8

A special course to prepare qualified men and women of Northville to teach in Michigan schools will be offered by Wayne University's College of Education in Dearborn, Pontiac and Roseville starting Feb. 8, it was announced this week.

School Superintendent Russell Amerman is the local enrollment officer. Information on the courses and application blanks may be obtained from him at the Board of Education office.

The teacher-preparation program has been organized by the College of Education in cooperation with local superintendents of schools. The plan offers men and women interested in entering the teaching field an opportunity to complete the required courses, workshops, and in-school directed teaching during the spring and summer months in order to qualify for teaching positions by September.

The program received its impetus from a number of school superintendents in smaller communities who felt there were many persons in or near their school district who already had three or more years of college work but who had not had the professional preparation needed for employment in the teaching field.

The plan calls for both daytime and evening work, starting in February and continuing into June, to be followed by a summer session to begin on June 21.

Scouts to Mark 44th Birthday of Scout Movement

Northville Boy Scouts will mark the 44th birthday of Scouting next week.

They'll join 3,300,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers and their leaders in observing Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7 to 13.

Local observance of Boy Scout Week will begin this Sunday when Village troops attend church services.

The Cub Scout, Troop N-1 and Explorer Troop N-1 will attend the Methodist Church. Scoutmaster Monroe Weston said the group would meet in front of the Scout Building at 10:30 a.m.

Troop N-5 will usher at morning services at the First Presbyterian Church.

On Monday evening, Troop 5 will attend the Father and Son dinner sponsored by the Men's Club of the First Presbyterian Church.

Speakers will be C. Bob Carlson, Sunset District Commissioner, and George Muller, Northville area commissioner. Chairman and toastmaster of the affair will be Joseph Petrock of Bradner Rd. Group singing will be led by William G. Williams.

The dinner is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. Tickets may be obtained from C. M. Hammond of the troop committee and officers of the Men's Club.

Weston said members of Troop 1 are planning a wildlife display, which is to be shown in the window of Roy Stone's Gamble Store on E. Main St.

Still Not Too Late To Sign Up As Blood Donor

The Northville Red Cross Chapter appealed again this week for donors to register for the Feb. 12 visit of the Bloodmobile.

The local group hopes to have at least 200 donors registered by next Monday.

Anyone who has not yet signed up may do so by calling Mrs. William Forney at 353-M or Mrs. A. C. Carlson at 402.

The Bloodmobile will be at the Methodist Church House from 2-5 p.m. and 6-8 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 12.

Increase Would Be Effective Next Sept.

The Northville Teacher's Club, representing some 48 faculty members in the two Village schools, Monday night asked the Board of Education for a flat $500 across the board salary increase for the 1954-55 school year.

The group also asked continuation of the present $170 annual increment and the cost of living allowance, which amounts to from $50 to $70 annually, depending on the base salary.

The Club's recommendations were presented to the board by Robert Sherrard, chairman of the group's salary committee.

MEETING SET

The salary issue will be tackled in earnest at a special meeting of the Board of Education Jan. 17.

Earlier Monday evening, Superintendent Russell Amerman gave board members a written summary of the salary situation.

He submitted three salary plans for discussion purposes.

The first provided a $500 annual increase for 48 teachers and 12 staff members but omitted the cost of living boost and the $170 increment.

The second called for a lesser increase of perhaps $250 and then applying the other features of the salary schedule (cost of living and regular increments.)

THIRD PLAN

The third plan would adhere to the present schedule in every detail, meaning teachers would receive their increment and cost of living boost but no general raise.

Amerman estimated the first plan would cost $30,000, the second $28,000 and the third $20,000.

The Teacher's Club plan would cost in excess of $35,000, if the 12 non-teaching staff members are included.

Amerman said the increase in teacher's salaries plus the cost of two additional elementary school teachers and two or three new maintenance men will amount to between $40,000- and $50,000 next year.

He said he hoped the money could be raised through an increase in state aid, a boost in the school district tax base and budget adjustments.

AGREE ON NEED

There was general agreement by board members that salaries should be raised.

The minimum for Northville teachers is $2950 a year and the maximum after ten years is $4650 for faculty members with a bachelor's degree and $4850 for those with a master's.

It was pointed out by both Amerman and Sherrard that teachers in surrounding communities are being paid minimums ranging from $3400 to $3800.

Sherrard said a survey indicated that 80 percent of the teachers here depended either on outside jobs or their spouses' income to make ends meet.

The teacher's group also suggested that a community-wide committee be set up to study all phases of the school system and make long-range recommendations.

In other actions Monday, the Board:

Decided to forego participation in the Detroit News spelling bee.

Approved plans for the Senior Class trip to Washington next May.

Gave its okay to plays for a five-day outing by fifth graders at a state park near Caseville, Mich. next May.

Put itself in accord with sentiment throughout the Wayne-Oakland County League to discontinue Tuesday night basketball games next year.

Pfc. William Stanford and Mrs. Stanford have returned to El Paso, Tex. after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanford of Dubuque St. for ten days.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Well some guys have all the luck, and this friend of ours who comes in for complete lubrication for his car seems to have a goodly share. While we've been touring the frozen roads, he's been touring the sunny south. Tells us that while the bathing beaches in Florida aren't crowded, he's pleased to report that the bathing suits are.

Of course, we are unable to say the '54 Studebaker is crowded because we must be truthful at all times and there's lots of room in its beautiful interior. But we're pleased to say it looks even better than a bathing beauty, all things being equal and has world's of power and its upkeep is much more economical. We suggest that you drive the '54 Studebaker as soon as you possibly can. You'll be convinced that it's the car for you.

Friends of ours report they went skiing on some hills of an out-state farm. We're having a lot of fun too when a vicious bull vaulted a fence and started their way. However the farmer quickly went to another gate and let an oldish sort of cow into the pasture and the bull stopped in its tracks, turned and went back where he belonged. "How come," asked our friends, when they had recovered their breath.

"Nothing to it," said the farmer, "That's the bull's mother-in-law."

Now when you tell us that car of yours doesn't need a bit of expert attention on occasion we know you aren't sticking to facts but are merely shooting the breeze and it's about time you came over for a motor tune-up. The wonderful performance of your car when our mechanics get through checking that motor makes the stop well worth while. And of course it will need an oil change and some lubrication. They're as necessary as vitamins.

That's that, but we read a help wanted ad that said, "Waitress wanted for winter resort. Must be respectable, till April."

Yours,
BILL & WILL PETZ

Your Congressman Reports

By Representative CHARLES G. OAKMAN
17th District, Michigan

February 1, 1954
President Celal Bayar of Turkey, one of America's warmest friends, addressed a Joint Session of Congress last Friday, expressing the gratitude of his 21,000,000 countrymen for the material and moral aid this country has given them. The Turkish President and Madame Bayar then set out on a month-long tour of the United States. President Bayar is his country's first Chief Executive to visit here and his tour is sure to cement already excellent relations between our nations. He represents a people whose devotion to freedom is as profound as our own, a country which is a strong bulwark of democracy in the Middle East. Turkey is building a well-trained army and a sound domestic economy. President Bayar made it crystal clear that Turkey stands beside us against World Communism.

The President's economic message to the Congress was a monumental document, voicing confidence in our ability to switch from war to a partial peacetime economy without serious interruption in our economic growth. Devastating wars and inflation have forced our economy to run at a forced draft for more than a decade. We are now going through a transition which has brought us to the threshold of the best period in our history—an era of economic stability. The President reported: "Our approach to a position of military preparedness now makes it possible to turn the productive potentialities of the economy increasingly to peaceful purposes." Pointing out that 1953—when the gross national product reached a record $387,000,000,000—was the biggest in our history, the President declared: "Our economy today is marvelously prosperous. Employment is high, prices are steady and wages and profits are generally satisfactory." Reductions in abnormal inventories late last year, he said, caused a slight contraction in business, leading to unemployment in some areas. But he expressed confidence that the decline has about spent itself and that our economic growth will resume this year. The Administration is ready to assist in this adjustment. Reduced federal expenditures already have resulted in a $5,000,000,000 tax cut, increasing purchasing power. The President has ordered a continuous inventory of sound public works projects which can be pushed if need arises. The government is being divested of functions which can be performed more efficiently by private enterprise. The President said a continued rise in State and local expenditures can be expected. He added: "Our financial institutions are fully capable of meeting all reasonable demands and are in condition to withstand successfully any strains to which they may be exposed."

The President's message to the Congress on the Administration's housing program was equally significant in its scope. It recommends improving the existing supply of homes and the elimination and prevention of slums. An unprecedented lease-purchase arrangement would make it possible for low-income families to buy homes. The program facilitates repairs to existing housing, liberalizes federally insured mortgage terms, provided for 35,000 new public housing units, and envisions a sound secondary mortgage market Federal local co-operation to clean out and redevelop slum areas is one of the outstanding features of this comprehensive program. Chairman Dondero has called a meeting of the House Public

THE VILLAGE --- AT WORK

A Visit With Your Neighbors On the Job

Harry German, Jr. has no idea how many pairs of shoes he's worn out in 26 years as a letter-carrier at the Northville Post Office.

But he does know this: In that time he's walked nearly 100,000 miles, equivalent to four times around the earth. He also estimates he's carried close to 230 tons of mail. German was the first man to carry the newly established city route and he's held the job since 1928. The postmaster in that year was Frank S. Neal, former publisher of the Record.

Born in Carleton, Mich., German moved to Northville while still in his teens and was graduated from high school here. He was quite a baseball player then, pitching four years for the high school team and later playing for the Schrader-Haggerty team in the Downriver League.

After graduation, German worked with his father at German and Sons Car Sales, then located in the space now occupied by Zayti Trucking. Leaving there in 1928, he joined the staff at the post office, where he's worked ever since.

German and his wife, the former Bernice Nirider, have two children, Mrs. Ray Curtis of Indiana, and a son, Harry, living in Belding. He has two grandsons, Dale and Harry David, of Belding.

Mrs. Rebecca Fuerst Passes at Age of 93

Mrs. Rebecca Fuerst, who had lived on a farm at 24000 Taft Rd. for the past 34 years, passed away at her home Sunday at the age of 93.

Funeral services for Mrs. Fuerst were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at her home. The Rev. Ivan Hodgson officiated. Burial was in Grandlawn Cemetery.

Mrs. Fuerst was born Aug. 5, 1860, in Greenfield Township, the daughter of John and Elizabeth Rupp. She lived in that section until 1920, when, with her husband, Jacob, she moved to the Taft Rd. farm.

Mr. Fuerst died in April of 1941. The deceased is survived by three daughters, Misses Iva and Ruby Fuerst of Northville, and Mrs. Ella Klawunder of Detroit. Also surviving are a foster daughter, Mrs. Viola Heacock of Alma, Mich., and two foster sons, Laurence and Jack Fuerst of Northville.

Michigan Mirror

by Gene Alleman

NEW PROTECTION for Michigan citizens is the aim of several bills concerning driver responsibility now under consideration by the Legislature.

Important among these are several proposals to set a state speed limit. Senator Robert E. Faulkner (R-Coloma) claims 19 co-sponsors for his bill to limit vehicle speed at night to 55; during the day to 65 miles per hour. Since only 17 votes are required to pass a bill in the Senate, the proposal should have little trouble in securing approval there.

"SLOWPOKES" ON THE highway are also receiving attention.

A bill proposed by Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) calls for a 50 mile an hour minimum speed during the day; 40 at night. Sen. Morris expects difficulty in passing this bill. But he believes public sentiment favors some action to keep slow drivers off main highways. "I've received more popular support for this than any other proposal I've ever made," he reports.

LOSS OF HIS AUTOMOBILE faces the owner of a car involved in an accident causing death, injury or damage of more than $50 if a proposal of Rep. Willard I. Bowerman, Lansing attorney, becomes law.

This bill requires all drivers to carry a "financial responsibility" card issued by the Secretary of State's office. A driver involved in a serious accident who cannot produce such a card will have his auto impounded until the case is settled or he can demonstrate his ability to pay damages.

Responsibility cards could be issued by auto insurance companies, with the approval of the Secretary of State, under a specification of the measure.

DRIVERS UNDER 21 would be required to produce evidence that they are covered by public liability insurance under another of Rep. Bowerman's proposals.

"I think both of these bills stand excellent chance to become law," said the representative. "Both will make a driver more conscious of his responsibility and both provide means of paying for damage should an accident occur."

ABOUT 650 SEPARATE bills are expected to be introduced by the Feb. 10 deadline.

This is a far cry from predictions made last fall when this session was described as a "short" one. Many of the measures introduced are worthy of careful consideration. Others are controversial and require "delicate treatment."

MATTERS LIKE A LARGE state police force, increases in unemployment and workmen's compensation, new prison facilities, a fair employment practice law, etc., takes time.

In an election year when every lawmaker is anxious that his actions be understood and approved by the voters, lawmakers are especially careful.

THIS IS PARTICULARLY true at this session because of redistricting which takes place before the next election. Reapportionment means that many people will be voting in different districts than previously. They are likely to be less familiar with candidates. Incumbents are anxious to gain as much advantage as possible during the legislative term.

Reapportionment is expected to benefit the Republican party according to Senator Charles S. Blundy, Detroit Democrat. Districts in Wayne County were arranged in such a manner, he claims, as to reduce the number of Democrats that can be elected, he points out, while other traditionally Republican sections were joined to borderline Democratic areas.

OFFICIAL FIGURES from the Auditor General's office show that Michigan's income for the fiscal year ending June 30 was $735,992,517. Expenditures amounted to $710,865,595. Surplus in the general fund was $34,003,691. Applied against the previous deficit of $65,341,209, the state is left owing $31,337,518. This is expected to be paid off by the end of this year from returns from the business receipts tax.

BIGGEST PORTIONS of the budget were spent for education; 34% or $244.5 million; for highways; 22% or $152.8 million; for welfare; 15% or $107 million.

Only 2 per cent was required to operate the state government; 8 per cent was returned to local units of government. Expenditures for mental health took 7 per cent or $49.8 million.

Safety and corrections with 4 per cent, public health with 2 per cent, conservation and agriculture with 2 per cent, took up most of the remaining portion of the budget.

DISASTER PLANS to care for thousands who would be left homeless should Detroit ever suffer enemy air attack are now being made in Livonia, a suburb of the metropolis. All Livonia homes and commercial buildings have been surveyed as to suitability for emergency shelters, and plans have been made to convert a new high school into an emergency hospital.

The Michigan Office of Civil Defense reports that 700 Livonians have been trained as auxiliary police, fire and medical assistants, and that Livonia air raid alarm instruments will soon be connected directly with those of Detroit.

"UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS of Michigan's tourist business in 1953 means an even greater selling effort will be necessary in 1954 if the state's vacation business is to continue to prosper," said Robert W. Budd, chairman of the Michigan Tourist Council.

"The trend toward a 'buyers' market, with increased competition from other states, makes it imperative that we re-examine out advertising and promotion program," he continued.

Plans for 1954's promotion are already laid out and include a series of movies featuring Michigan's spring, summer, fall and winter attractions. Films will be made available to television stations, service clubs, etc., according to Robert Furlong, executive secretary of the Council.

More Answers to Social Security Queries

Many inquiries concerning social security for the self-employed are made each day at the Social Security offices. The self-employment social security tax return is due March 15 along with the Federal income tax return. A few of these more important questions are answered below:

Question 1: Does the self-employed person need a social security number?

Answer: Yes. The self-employed person will need a social security number for his income tax and social security report. He can get the social security card at any social security office.

Question 2: What amount of earnings must a self-employed person have in order to be covered by the social security law?

Answer: If net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more in any one year the person is covered by the law. His self-employment income will count toward social security payments.

Question 3: Does a self-employed person report income from investments?

Answer: No. Income from stocks and bonds will not be credited for social security purposes, unless the person is a dealer in securities. Rentals from real estate held for investment purposes will not count towards social security benefits unless the person is a real estate dealer.

Question 4: When a joint income tax return for a husband and wife is filed, are both names shown on the Schedule C—social security report of self-employment income?

Answer: No. Only the names of the self-employed person is entered on the report. However, if the business is a partnership and the husband and wife are partners in the business, then each partner must file a separate Schedule C. In such cases, each partner needs a social security number.

More information about social security for the self-employed may be obtained by getting in touch with any social security office. The Detroit-Northwest office is located at 14600 Grand River, corner of Hubbell, Detroit 27, Mich. The telephone number is BRoadway 3-1717.

(For the convenience of Plymouth and Northville residents, a representative of the Social Security office is at the Plymouth Post Office on the second and fourth Thursday of each month between 9 a.m. and 12 noon.)

Livonia Water Consumption Up

Livonia's rapidly growing water department pumped three times as much water to its customers in 1953 as it did in 1950, the year the city was incorporated.

Some 201,066,500 cubic feet of water was used in the city last year. In 1950 the water department sold 65,416,000 cubic feet.

Since one cubic foot of water contains almost 7.5 gallons, the department's 6,100 customers purchased over 14 trillion gallons of water in 1953.

That's enough water to form a lake a mile long, a half-mile wide, and 14 feet deep.

Or it is literally enough water to float a dozen 45,000-ton battleships.

Total collections for water, including customer meter charges, and for the retirement of water main bonds was $268,185.39 last year.

Those two items brought $100,591.28 in 1950.

The GREEN THUMB

by Paul Newton

Are you saving your wood ashes from the fireplace to sprinkle over your garden? If not, you should be, and now is a good time to sprinkle them lightly on top of the snow covering the garden. Then, when the snow melts, they will be carried down into the soil to serve as plant food. Spread ashes heavily over that part of the garden which seemed to be hard and unproductive last summer. Spread them sparingly over the lily bed, as they tend to make the soil alkaline and lilies like a slightly acid soil. (pH 6)

Condition of Soil

This brings up the question of the condition of the soil in your garden. Is it acid, alkaline or neutral? Its condition is described technically by the term "pH", just as the outside temperature is described in terms of "degrees above or below zero". At a pH value of 7.0 the soil is neutral. All values above pH 7.0 are alkaline; those below are acid.

(This column next week will tell how and where to send samples of garden soil for analysis.)

If your soil shows a pH 6.7 to pH 6.2 value, it is only slightly acid and most plants will thrive in it. When soil reaches pH 5.0, however, it is time to take corrective action to reduce its acidity. This can be done by sprinkling it with agricultural lime. Very little soil in Wayne County is too acid. In soil as acid as pH 5.0 azaleas, rhododendron and huckleberry can be grown without adding aluminum sulphate at the rate of one-half pound per square yard.

Soil that tests pH 7.3 is slightly alkaline. At pH 7.8 it is very alkaline. Carrots, asparagus, cabbage, celery, cucumbers, lettuce and strawberries will grow best in soil that is on the alkaline side—above pH 7.0.

Snow as Fertilizer

Gardeners often call snow the poor man's manure because it absorbs ammonia from the air and prevents the escape of nitrogen from the ground. It also contains small quantities of nitric acid. These elements, combined with the sun's rays, act much like a coating of manure. So sit back and enjoy the February snow. We gardeners ordered it.

And when the snow is gone, your beauty bush, honeysuckle and lilacs will benefit by having about one-half pound of agricultural lime sprinkled in a circle about three feet from their trunks.

Final Rites Held for Mrs. Marlborough

Rev. Father Anthony Heraty officiated Monday at funeral services for Mrs. Catherine Marlborough of 17460 Beck Rd., who died Friday at Atchison Memorial Hospital.

Interment was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery at Royal Oak. The funeral service was held at Our Lady of Victory Church.

Mrs. Marlborough, a resident of Northville for 15 years, died Saturday at the age of 90.

The deceased is survived by two sons, Frank and Harold Marlborough, both of Detroit, and a daughter, Ruth Marlborough of Beck Rd.

Mrs. Marlborough was born Oct. 7, 1863, in Guelph, Ontario, the daughter of James and Mary Hannon. Her husband, John, died in 1904.

She was a long-time member of the Maccabees organization.

Girl Scout Troop 8 Holds Investiture at Plymouth

The members of Girl Scout Troop No. 8 climaxed a two-day stay at the Plymouth Cabin with their Senior Investiture last Thursday evening, Jan. 28.

supper which was followed by a traditional candlelight ceremony presided over by the four officers of the troop: Giannine Ber-toni, president; Janice Kimball, vice-president; Nancy Lawrence, secretary; and Dorothy Welch, treasurer.

Following this, Mrs. Alex Law-

Lawrence, Penny Niece, Jay Page,
Mary Palmer, Lucille Pullen, Lois

A light touch was added to the program by a humorous pantomime in which Janice Tuchelski played the role of taxi-driver and Lois Rody was the elderly passenger. The rest of the troop drifted through the skit as pedestrians of one sort and another.
Mrs. Maxwell S. Austin, who acted as co-leader with Mrs. Lawrence for the outing, coached the production.

The troop committee, of which
Mrs. Harold Bloom is chairman, assisted with arrangements for the pot-luck supper. Others on the committee include Mrs. Gar-nard Niece, Mrs. Joseph Page,
Mrs. George Lien and Mrs. Matt
Houser. Co-leaders with Mrs.
Lawrence are Mrs. James Howarth and Mrs. George Weiss.

The girls arrived at the Plymouth Girl Scout Cabin about 5 o'clock Wednesday evening,
Jan. 27, and stayed until Friday noon, Jan. 29. Activities included as cooking, dishwashing, sweeping and talking.

Predict 2,000 Michigan Traffic Deaths in 1954

If all the residents of Richmond, Mich., (population about 2,000) were killed, and all the residents of Bay City (population about 57,000) were injured, that would be the equivalent of the predicted traffic toll for Michigan in 1954.

These figures were brought out at the second annual Michigan Highway Safety seminar at Michigan State College's Kellogg Center for Continuing Education.

The safety seminar, attended by about 100 persons from over the state, is investigating possible ways to reduce traffic deaths.

F. Granger Weil, executive vice president of the Port Huron Times-Herald and chairman of the seminar, declared that if some tragedy were to kill every person in Richmond and injure every resident of Bay City "there would be bold headlines in every newspaper in the country, television and movie cameras would move to the scene, help from relief agencies would pour into the district, congress would likely have a special session and emissaries of the President would be on hand to investigate."

But in traffic accidents, he continued, "catastrophe has come upon us so gradually that it is all taken for granted. You get in your car and hope you'll get where you're going."

Weil said that recommendations will be made by the seminar to the state legislature. "Democrats and Republicans alike are in agreement that the traffic toll must be stopped," he said.

Weil explained that recommendations of the seminar will be helpful to state lawmakers because few legislators consider themselves safety authorities. "They will need the support of recommendations to make effective legislation for accident prevention," he said.

Success in life is a matter not so much of talent or opportunity as of concentration and perseverance.

MILTON BERLE
STARS FOR BUICK
See the
Buick-Berle Show
Tuesday Evenings

As you look at it, you can see a lot of what makes this new 1954 Buick SPECIAL so sensational.

You can see the long, low, sleek and ultra-glamorous lines that add up to the biggest automotive styling change in years.

You can see the remarkable new windshield with the back-swept corners—greatest visibility improvement since closed cars came on the market.

And of course you can see the price—the local delivered price—which is headline news, too.

For that, as a shopping tour will tell you, is just a few dollars more than those of the so-called "low-price three."

But what you can't see is the rest of the sensational automobile that's yours for the low price shown here.

The spectacular power of this SPECIAL's brand-new V8 engine. The honest six-passenger roominess. The truly modern interior luxury. The superb new handling ease. The sublime comfort of Buick's famed Million Dollar Ride—now steadied even more by a newly developed front-end geometry.

Fact is, there's so much that's terrific about this new glamor car, you ought to drop in and give it a really thorough study and sampling.

That way you'll prove to yourself that the buy—and the thrill—of the year is Buick. Come in this week, won't you?

Presbyterian Church News

REMODELING PROGRESSING
The century-old sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church is undergoing extensive repairs in preparation for the 125th anniversary of the founding of the church in the spring of the year. Work bees conducted by the men of the church have been held each Saturday under the leadership of Ray VanValkenburgh, William Duguid and John W. Blackburn. In preparation for a new reinforced concrete floor in the church proper, the old wooden floors have been removed. Members of the high school youth fellowship are assisting this Saturday morning in further work on the flooring.

The lovely old Moller organ installed in 1914 has been sent back to the factory to be restored and enlarged. A new memorial console will be dedicated for the organ. An enlarged choir loft is planned to allow for both the church choir and the youth choir. Additional Sunday School rooms will be built in the undercroft of the church proper.

YOUTH SUNDAY

Sunday, Jan. 31 was Westminster Fellowship Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church. The officers of the Senior High Westminster Fellowship, Robert Burgess, Lila Lea Skow, Jerry Davis, Marcia Doeksen and Charles Rogers, conducted the morning worship service. Richard W. Kay, the advisor for the Senior High group, gave a very interesting and impressive presentation of "Answer To A Letter". The Carol Choir sang and the Bell Ringing Choir played during the service. Assisting the ushers during the service were: Lynn Matzen, Paul Schulz, Darwin Teshka and Henry Fisher. The planning and preparation of the program was done by Ruth Croll, Marcia Doeksen and Miss Ann Katzenmeyer, Director of Christian Education at the Presbyterian Church. To conclude the day's activities, a snow virtue of Act 283 of the Public Acts of 1909, as amended.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand at Detroit, Michigan, this 15th day of January, A.D. 1954.

The first meeting of these two boys last November proved to be one of the most interesting and bruising contests of 1953 with Giardello edging out a decision. This time, fans throughout the county will have the opportunity to be at ringside through the combined facilities of the NBC Television and ABC Radio networks, starting at 10 p.m. EST.

Northville Shades Brighton, 49-44

Rangy Glenn Howarth, the big factor in recent Northville High School basketball victories, continued his torrid scoring pace Friday night as the Mustangs beat Brighton, 49-44 on the Bulldogs' home floor.

Howarth netted 11 field goals and scored three times from the foul line.

The victory was Northville's sixth in Wayne-Oakland County League competition and gave them a 7-2 overall record for the season.

The Mustangs jumped to a 13-6 lead in the first quarter but the home club rallied in the second period and trailed by only two points, 23-21, at half-time.

Brighton narrowed that margin to one point in the third quarter, and the final period started with Northville ahead 38-37.

Detroit Edison to Brighten Village Business District

For $10.67 per month the Detroit Edison Co. will illuminate the Northville business district four times as brightly as it now is.

This proposition was made to the Village Commission Monday evening by the Edison company and promptly accepted by the Commission.

The Edison proposal calls for new and higher light poles on Center St. between Dunlap and Cady and on Main St. from Wing to Hutton, and new lights that will give greater illumination.

MORE TIME TO THINK

Mr. Bernard M. Shanley, special counsel to President Eisenhower, tells that the President does not give him enough time to think.

"Just imagine the President with the problems he has on his mind, having to beg for an hour's time during the day to think," Are you in the same predicament? We are living at such a rapid pace. Some people have two jobs, others work overtime, others have their spare time filled with odd jobs and communal responsibilities. Always some pressing matter before them. Perhaps this explains the reason why so many people live seemingly oblivious to the matters of the eternal welfare of their souls. It is not that they are unbelievers in the sense that they do not believe in God, the Bible, or the work of Christ on the cross for them. They are just too busy and do not take the time to think upon these serious matters. Friend, if this is your case, let me say to you, "You are too busy." Let me paraphrase a well known Bible verse into saying, "What shall it profit a man though he finishes every task and loses his own soul?" Since you will live somewhere in eternity, it behooves us to think about and accept the offer of salvation now.

Mustangs Beat South Lyon

The Northville High School Mustangs chalked up their eighth basketball win of the season Tuesday night with an easy 57-42 victory over South Lyon.

The win marked Northville's second this year over the Lions. Both victories have been walk-aways.

Coach Dick Kay cleaned his bench during the second half after the Mustang regulars ran up a 32-17 half-time lead.

South Lyon got rolling in the final quarter against the Northville second stringers—the only time they made a game of it.

They finished the game with a 20 point spurt while Northville could manage only ten counters.

Eddie Nash was high man for Northville with 16 points while Jim Hock also scored 16 for the visitors. Darwin Teschka scored 11 points for Northville and Glenn Howarth contributed 10 to the Mustang cause.

The score at the end of the first quarter was 12-5 and the Mustangs led 47-22 at the end of the third period.

Northville is idle this Friday night. The next home game comes next Tuesday with Clarenceville furnishing the opposition.

Wild Life Notes...

ICE FISHING—
Harvest time is here again, at least for the ice fishermen, claims Karl F. Lagler, chairman of the University of Michigan Department of Fisheries.

By helping to restore nature's balance in many panfish lakes, he points out, the ice fisherman stands "a good chance of benefiting summer fishing."

He explains that studies by U-M scientists and the Institute for Fisheries Research in Ann Arbor show that such "fish harvesting" may retard overpopulation of ponds and lakes and its resulting underdeveloped and stunted fish.

Best tackle for winter panfishing, he points out, is a rod, the rough equivalent of a fly rod tip, and monofilament line, such as advocated by spin fishermen.

"This should be no heavier than four-pound test," he says, "and a 4X tippet may be used at the end to secure the hook." A monofilament line also will resist freezing more than a braided one, he adds.

He warns ice fishermen not to rely on finding bait at the fishing spot, and instead to take plenty of natural or artificial kinds along in the tackle box.

Drop-offs or edges of weed beds are good spots for initial fishing holes, Dr. Lagler explains. "In winter fish don't move much, so if they don't come quickly to the first hole, chop another," he urges.

In chopping these holes, he advises the use of a beveled ice chisel or spud. Tightly held lines should be used, and best results will come from fishing about one foot off the bottom, he states. A bobber often is used, he adds, but "if your touch is delicate, you won't need one."

Professor Lagler advises the use of lake maps to find the best spots. These are available at the Institute of Fisheries Research, Museums Annex, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. County names for lakes must be used in inquiries.

VANISHING WOLVES—
Michigan wolves—at least the four-legged kind—are disappearing rapidly!

According to Prof. Warren W. Chase, chairman of the University of Michigan wildlife management department, "there are, approximately, only six wolf families in Michigan's Upper Peninsula, with none known in the lower."

This small population is scattered over seven counties: Gogebic, Iron, Ontonagon, Schoolcraft, Chippewa, Luce and Alger. In addition, there are a couple believed living on Isle Royale.

Professor Chase points out that the average litter of wolves is seven pups, "which gives an average annual birth rate of only about 40 for the state." Almost this same number is lost annually—a few through accidents and disease, but more through the bounty system and hunting.

One of the first ten laws passed by Michigan, the bounty pays $15 for each male wolf and $20 for each female. Since passed in 1836, the law has caused over $161,510 to be paid out.

During the last 15 years, Professor Chase states, an average of 31 wolves have been bountied each year, the record being 100 in 1921. Twenty-seven were turned in for 1951-52, he adds, "giving evidence of the rapidly decreasing population."

OUR HIBERNATING POPULATION

As winter closes in on Michigan outdoors quite a few of our animals cut down the cost of living enormously by crawling into a hole and virtually pulling the hole in after them for a few months! The small matter of self preservation is involved, too, for by hibernating they also automatically remove themselves from exposure to most natural enemies.

Bear Typical

The Michigan Black Bear is an outstanding example of complete hibernation in a mammal. They do not merely become torpid like a woodchuck, but simply den up underground—perhaps under a huge stump, where they sleep quietly, subsisting on accumulated fat to sustain life. During the long winter retirement which begins with the coming of the first heavy snows, the black bear's cubs are born naked and blind. They weigh little more than a half pound apiece, and they develop very slowly. Even while the mother is still in hibernation the cubs nurse and grow although their rate of growth is slow.

Semi-Hibernation Common

While some animals, such as the bobcat and fox, range their territory all winter, others take a deep breath and remain almost in suspended animation when severe cold spells hit the state. The raccoon is typical of this category. Beginning early in the fall the 'coon eats just about twice his normal intake of food, building up a heavy layer of fat. This serves a double purpose—keeps him warm and supplies energies for those cold waves during which he chooses to find a comfortable den and remain curled up in a furry ball. However, once the sun comes out and the air temperature rises above freezing he'll be on the move again in search of an ear or two of corn forgotten by the farmer.

These days the raccoon is moving into suburban areas, too—and city dwellers report seeing more and more of the "masked bandit" in the hours after dark.

Squirrels fall into a similar classification, "hibernating" only for a day or two at a time. Folks who believe those commodious nests high in hardwood trees harbor squirrels in the winter are wrong—for these animals move about thruout the winter. Unfortunately they suffer severe casualties in population during a hard winter. But they are a prolific mammal—so chances are we'll be seeing black, grey and fox squirrels around Michigan for many moons to come!

Colts Squeeze By South Lyon 68-21

As one of the referees said when it was all over:

"Now I've seen everything!"

He had just finished officiating what was probably the wildest basketball (if that's the word) game ever played on the local floor.

The final score was Northville Junior Varsity, 68, South Lyon Junior Varsity, 21.

In all sincerity, it must be said that the Lion reserves tried.

The details are these:

The score at the end of the first quarter was Northville 17, South Lyon 2. The half-time count was Northville 32, South Lyon 2. The score at the end of the third quarter was Northville 52, South Lyon 6.

The visitors scored on two free throws in the first quarter and didn't manage another point until three and one-half minutes were gone in the third quarter. Then they connected for two quick field goals to make it 42-6. In the final period, they hit for 15 points.

Northville Coach Stan Johnson did his best to hold the score down. He started his second stringers. In the second period, he ordered his charges to lay back and give the visitors a chance to at least work the ball to mid-floor.

All this was to little avail. The Lions simply couldn't make baskets.

John Funk led Northville in scoring with 17 points while Max Hollis hit for 15.

Sanitary Sewer Plan Approved

Immediate construction of a sanitary sewer from Grace St. to Carpenter St. and from Carpenter St. to Hill St. was approved by the Village Commission. Work will be started as soon as an easement can be secured from Harold Church, who owns property that the sewer will cross.

Cost of the sewer was estimated at approximately $900 by Herman Hartner, Jr., superintendent of public works. Most of the job will be handled by regular Village employees this month, Hartner told the Commission.
