Ely Only Definite Candidate For Mayor

for the Record

by G. H. C.

Two interesting experiences came to us this week. One was the privilege of hearing a documentary recording of outstanding events in this country's history during the period from the beginning of the first World War through the close of World War II. The second was as a spectator viewing color television for the first time. Both will long remain vivid in our memory.

Those readers now in their fifties, who were still boys at the outbreak of World War I, and who lived through the roaring 20's and the fateful 1930's, would hear in the documentary recording many voices to recall events which made newspaper headlines of those years. Those which appealed to us were Woodrow Wilson's voice as he carried his plea to every corner of the United States for ratification of the League of Nations; President Harding's tragic words shortly before his death: "It is not my enemies whom I fear, but rather it is my friends"; Cal Coolidge's nasal voice giving his inaugural speech when he became president after Harding's death.

Others were the voices of radio announcers describing Lindbergh's arrival at LeBourget Airfield in France after flying the Atlantic; the "long count" in the seventh round of the Dempsey-Tunney fight when the Manassa Mauler lost his heavy weight crown; Tex Guinan's raucous "hello sucker," greeting to those who entered her night club during the hey-day of those roaring 20's.

Equally vivid, and perhaps more so, was the voice of the news broadcaster giving stock quotations on that fateful day in 1929 when the bottom dropped out of the stock market; also the voice of Richard Whitney, president of the New York Stock Exchange, when he walked to the center of the floor of the New York Stock Exchange on that same day and, as the representative of the Morgan and other banking houses, attempted to stop the panic with the words: "We bid $205 for 25,000 shares of U.S. Steel".

Three years later, perhaps the most reassuring words ever spoken in this country were: "The greatest thing we have to fear is fear itself". The speaker was Franklin Delano Roosevelt, upon becoming President of the United States. The depression was at its worst and confidence in the future of the nation was at its lowest ebb. Neither Republican, Democrat nor Communist can deny that Roosevelt's speech that day marked a turning point for the country. Though many came to disagree with Roosevelt as the years passed, his severest critics must agree that his voice that day carried reassurance into millions of hearts which had lost courage as the depression entered its fourth year.

Our preview of color television was a special broadcast in color of the Armstrong Cork show Tuesday in the WWJ-TV studio. Top NBC color television officials staged the show to give Detroit public relations people, especially those associated with the auto industry, a look at what they believe will be the advertising medium of the future. Even though the color TV receiving sets had only 14-inch screens, as compared with the usual 20-inch black-and-white receivers, the demonstration was outstandingly beautiful, with color reproduction apparently perfect.

Having heard only two days previously the transcription of Cal Coolidge's voice making his inaugural speech in 1923 (this was the first event we had ever heard over radio) the thought of how tremendous the potentialities of color television may be is difficult to banish. It is a far cry from the cat's whisker radio sets of Coolidge's day to 1954's universal acceptance of radio throughout the world. Television has grown mightily too—from 6,000 black-and-white sets before the war to over 27,000,000 today. Now, with color TV only in its infancy, it is difficult to envision where this growth will stop; also what its impact may ultimately be upon the entire civilized world.

Junior Police to Hold Bake Sale March 8 at Record Office

The Junior Police Club is planning a bake sale at the Northville Record office on Saturday, March 6, starting at 9:30 in the morning.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. Howard Meyer and members of her committee are Mrs. Russell Atchison, Mrs. William Milne, Mrs. W. Leonard Howard and Mrs. R. T. Martin.

The club, which has more than 200 active members, will use proceeds of the sale to buy tents and floor coverings for use on summer camping trips.

Recreation Director Wilson Funk said the Club hopes to raise enough money to buy at least four tents, providing shelter for 15 more boys on campouts.

O.E.S.-Northville Lodge Ball to Be Held This Friday

The annual ball sponsored by the Northville Lodge and Order of the Eastern Star will be held this Friday evening in the Northville High School gymnasium.

Dancing, both square and round, will start at 9 p.m. and continue until 1 a.m. Music will be furnished by a four-piece orchestra. Dress is optional.

Tickets cost $1.50 and may be obtained at the door or from officers of the two organizations. Tickets cover the cost of refreshments.

The Grand March at the ball will be led this year by Mrs. Mable Monroe, Worthy Matron of the O.E.S. and George Mairs, Worshipful Master of the Northville Lodge.

MARR TAYLOR

Marr Taylor Buys Owens Ford Agency

Marr Taylor of Detroit has purchased the Cy Owens Ford Agency in Northville, it was announced this week.

Owens will devote all his time to his new Ford agency in Pontiac.

Taylor, whose family has been in the auto business in Detroit for years, has been working at Taylor's, Inc.

He and his wife and four children now live in northwest Detroit but plan to move to Northville.

The agency will be called Marr Taylor-Ford Sales.

Oil Found on Wilson Farm on Seven Mile

Oil has been struck on the farm of Ralph Wilson at 10489 W. Seven Mile Rd.

It was learned that drillers for the W. C. Taggart Co. found oil in the Niagara formation at approximately 3270 feet.

Father and Son Dinner at Methodist Church on March 2

The Northville Methodist Church will hold its annual Father and Son banquet Tuesday, March 2.

The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Church House. Rev. William Richards will deliver the invocation.

Following the meal, Charles Strautz will introduce guests and Jim McNeiece will lead the group in singing.

Russell Clarke will deliver the welcome to the sons and John Clarke will welcome the fathers.

The "Sleepy Hollow Gang" will then present some musical selections followed by a film, "Sports Highlights of 1953".

Awards will be given to the oldest and youngest father, the father with the most sons and the youngest son present.

However, the flow was so slow—even after the well was acidized—it was decided to continue drilling in hopes that a more productive pool would be struck at a greater depth.

The theory was that if no oil is found at the deeper level, the well could be plugged back to the 3270 depth and attempts made to get the oil from the Niagara formation in paying quantities.

Oil was hit on the Roy LeMaster farm, a short distance from the Wilson property, at 4,397 feet in the Trenton foundation. The LeMaster well is an exceptionally good one and is rated at 5,000 barrels a day.

Meanwhile, it was reported that the Evaluation and Sales Co. of Mt Pleasant planned to drill on the William Gowans farm at 53666 W. Eight Mile Rd. and the Frank Whipple farm at 46001 W. Eight Mile. Both farms are near the LeMaster property.

Optimist Club Votes on Village Affairs

The Northville Optimist Club is planning a series of "rate your town" meetings for the next few weeks to study how Northville stacks up with other villages and cities of comparable size.

The first meeting of the series, held last Wednesday evening, divulged that the Club will poll its members for their answers to a series of 40 questions to get their composite opinion about various aspects of Village life and activities.

Optimist Club "Rating" Village

Nine questions were voted on at last week's meeting, with the results showing that local Optimist members believe the Village is okay in some respects and lacking in others.

On the statement "most high school graduates stay in town" Club members voted almost unanimously in the negative, "because there are not enough suitable employment opportunities".

The Club also voted unanimously that young couples have difficulty finding a place to live.

Subjects Voted On

Other subjects voted on were: "Getting a loan on a sound business venture is easy." Opinion was divided, with a majority voting "yes".

"The local paper constantly pushes civic improvement." The vote was "yes".

"There's a Chamber of Commerce with a live-wire manager." The vote was "no", although it was pointed out that the Retail Merchant's Association performs a few functions that a Chamber of Commerce might handle. Members conceded that a Chamber of Commerce could be more useful to the Village than the retail merchants group.

"Local speeders pay the same fines as out-of-towners." The vote, conceded to be only a matter of opinion and not necessarily based upon actual experience, was that local speeders are treated with more consideration than non-residents.

"There's a place to swim within easy reach." The vote was "no".

"Town entrances are free from junk, shacks and bill boards." The vote was "yes".

Future Questions

Indicative of the interest which may develop in future meetings is the type of questions on the agenda to be voted on. Samples picked at random are:

"Teachers' salaries are better than the state average.

"Newcomers quickly feel that they're part of the town.

"Fire insurance rates are low for your type of town.

"Well-stocked stores keep shoppers in town.

"The business section has a modern, prosperous look.

"There's a community council to guide town progress.

"There's a recreation center where young people can dance."

Optimist Club members who attended the first "rate your town" meeting were enthusiastic in their feeling that out of the Club's endeavor may come some constructive plan for eliminating or improving situations which are voted to be unsatisfactory. As an example, the Club deferred voting on the statement that "teachers' salaries are better than the state average" because members felt that even if this is true, the fact is of no special significance.

It was pointed out that the state average includes many small rural schools, whereas Northville teachers' salaries should be compared with those paid by Plymouth, Farmington and other metropolitan area cities.

Progress Under Langfield

James E. Littell served as moderator in conducting the meeting and taking the vote. Dr. L. W. Snow described the purpose of the discussion and discussed in behalf of Village President Langfield some of the program in which the village has made progress during his regime. Among the highlights of such progress, as cited by Langfield and discussed by Dr. Snow, have been paving, curb, gutter and surface drainage improvements, parking lots, the Community Building and the 7-Mile Road cut-off to beal schools, whereas Northville started this summer.

School Personnel Granted $200 Raise

The Northville Board of Education has voted a $200-a-year salary increase for members of the faculty and staff at the Northville schools.

The salary boosts approved last Wednesday night, will take effect next September for the 1954-55 school year. They will mean bigger paychecks for 47 teachers, three administrators, three secretaries and six maintenance men.

The board also agreed to continue the $170 annual increment provision of the salary schedule for teachers and the cost of living clause.

The increment feature provides an automatic $170 annual increase during the first ten years a teacher is on the staff. It will affect about half the faculty since many of the teachers have been on the faculty for at least ten years.

The cost of living clause will mean nothing extra next year since the cost of living rose less than three points this January, the base period on which any boost is computed.

However, the present c.o.l. allowance, which ranges from $50 to $70, will stay in effect.

At the present time, the starting salary for a Northville teacher is $3,000—a $2,950 base pay and $50 cost of living allowance. The new salary schedule will raise the starting pay to $3200 for teachers with a bachelor's degree and to $3400 for teachers with a masters.

N.H.S. Graduates Eligible for Nurses Scholarship

Applications are being accepted for a nurses training scholarship provided by the Northville-Plymouth Nurses Scholarship Committee, it was announced this week.

Eligible are girls from the class of 1954 at Northville High School. The scholarship fund was set up in 1950 from non-returnable funds collected during a hospital drive in that year.

Since then, one girl from both the Northville and Plymouth High School graduating classes has been selected for nurses training each year.

Scholarship recipients from Northville were Shirley Smith, Sally Merriam, Helen Stanford, Sylvia Hollis and Judith Tetzlaff.

While two '54 graduates from Northville have already applied for the scholarship, the Scholarship Committee is anxious to develop more interest in the program, especially since the local Optimist Club has agreed to underwrite a second girl for nurses' training should more than one be found eligible.

Application blanks can be obtained from Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., school nurse, or Walter Couse, 45875 W. Seven Mile Rd.

Red Cross Fund Drive to Start Here March 1st

Northville Red Cross fund-raisers will gather for tea and a pep talk today.

The tea will be held at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Clifford Winter, 230 N. Rogers. Attending will be more than a dozen "Captains" who will spearhead the fund drive, scheduled for the month of March.

Mrs. Winter said solicitation letters will be written to all Village merchants. In addition, the Captains and their volunteer workers will canvass Village homes for contributions.

Drive Captains are Mrs. Philip Ogilvie, Mrs. Joseph Denton, Mrs. George Price, Mrs. Richard Nash, Mrs. Matt Houser, Mrs. James McNeiece, Mrs. Carl Stephens, Mrs. Claude Ely, Mrs. Hugh Godfrey, Mrs. Walter Couse, Mrs. Charles Carrington and Mrs. Emma Reid.

Mrs. William Forney will head the business district phase of the drive while Miss Ruth Knapp R.N. will direct fund-raising activities at the elementary and high schools.

Four Eagle Scouts from Village Feted at Detroit Dinner

Four Northville boys were among a group of Wayne County Eagle Scouts honored at a banquet Monday night at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel in Detroit.

The Village Eagles are Jim Lapham, Don Atwood, Lance Molander and Jim Weston. All four received the Eagle badges last year.

Earlier in the day, the four boys met with adults representing the professions they hope to follow.

Jim Lapham, who is interested in mechanical engineering, toured the Chrysler plant while Don visited the Diesel Engine plant in Detroit.

Lance, who hopes to go into aeronautical engineering, visited Hudson Motor Car Co. and inspected their jet engine plant. Jim Weston visited with a member of the U.S. Forestry service.

Saturday Movie

This Saturday's Junior Police movie feature is "Tars and Spars". Also on the program is a travelogue on the Pacific Northwest and a sports feature. There will be a showing at 2:30 p.m. in the Presbyterian Church House and at 7:30 p.m. in the Scout Building.

Langfield Will Not Run Again

Fortunately, the lack of adequate financial compensation for serving as Village President and on the Village Commission is proving no obstacle to obtaining candidates for the vacancies to be filled at the spring election March 8.

Claude N. (Pete) Ely is the only announced candidate for Village President to succeed Conrad E. Langfield, who has stated that he will not seek re-election. This post pays the occupant $100 per year, and gives him the privilege of hearing the complaints of any Villager on matters ranging from trivial to important.

Candidate

CLAUDE ELY

Retiring

CONRAD E. LANGFIELD

DOREN UNCERTAIN

The only uncertainty in the foregoing list is Doren, whose petitions have been circulated by Ely. Doren has not yet given Ely the go-ahead to file for him, however, and may decide at the last minute not to make the race for personal reasons.

Reports earlier this week that Fred Van Atta would seek election as Village President were denied by both Mr. Van Atta and Frank E. Hills, who earlier had circulated a nominating petition in Van Atta's behalf. Mr. Van Atta's decision not to run was based in part upon considerations of age and health, it is understood.

Ely, who has been a member of the Village Commission for the past 12 years, was to resign at a special Commission meeting Wednesday evening, after the Record had gone to press. This was to clear the way for filing his nominating petition for president.

SURPRISE ENTRY

Ely's surprise entry into the local political arena this spring when he still had two more years of his present term of office as a Village Commissioner to serve, is understood to be in response to the urgent plea of Con Langfield and other local officials. Langfield has wished to retire after three successful terms as head of the Village, but has been actively seeking as his successor someone who is familiar with all phases of the Village's business. It was he who circulated Ely's nominating petition and prevailed on him to enter the race.

Jack Stubenvoll had been mentioned also as a logical candidate for the Village's highest office because he, too, had the intimate knowledge of Northville's background and problems. However, he refused to permit his name to be entered as a candidate despite the urging of Langfield, Ely and many other local residents.

Ely's original objection to becoming a candidate this year was based upon the fact that his present term as Village Commissioner still has two years to run. Until Tuesday he consistently took the position that his friends elected him to represent them for four years and that to resign in the middle of his term of office would not be fair to them. His decision to permit his name to be entered on the ballot on March 8 was made only after it became certain that neither Langfield nor Stubenvoll would run and that there probably would be no candidate.

Mustangs Battle Keego in Bid to Sew Up Loop Title

The Northville High School Mustangs will attempt to sew up the Wayne-Oakland County League basketball title in a game Friday night at Keego Harbor.

The Mustangs now hold first place in the league with a 9-2 record. Northville beat Keego last month in a game on the N.H.S. floor.

Meanwhile, the schedule for the district tournament was settled at a drawing at Walled Lake last Tuesday afternoon.

The four teams in the district are Northville, Walled Lake, Milford and Holly.

Northville Athletic Director Al Jones, taking a firm grip on his rabbit's foot, reached in the hat and drew Holly as a first round opponent. The Mustangs beat Holly last week, 71-36.

The two teams will play at 7 p.m. Friday, March 5, in the Walled Lake gym, followed by the Walled Lake-Milford clash. The winners of those two games will play Saturday at Walled Lake with the victor advancing to regional tourney at Pontiac.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

"No one can be more discerning than a child," says a school teacher friend of ours.

It seems that she was "sitting" with the 4-year old daughter of a friend, and during the course of the afternoon she played the piano while small fry hopped about in an effin-like dance. Our school teacher, who is no Dinah Shore, raised her voice in song as she played. At the sound of her voice the 4-year old paused momentarily in her dance and blurted: "Play, Ione, don't sing!"

Many of our customers are just as discriminating as that 4-year old, and that makes our work at this Studebaker emporium that much easier and pleasant. So many of them get right to the point—just as one fellow did the other day. "Never mind singing the praises of that sleek, beautiful new '54 Studebaker," he says, "with its package of surging power under the hood, its greater economy, its comfort and driving ease, whether on the highway or in city traffic. Never mind the vast range of beautiful colors and its luxurious fabrics... never mind all these things, just let me drive it." And that's the quickest way we know for you to sell yourself a new Studebaker. Why not drop in and try driving one yourself?

Like Washington and Lincoln, Thomas Alva Edison was born during February. They tell me that he dropped out of school after the third grade because he was thought to be a retarded youngster, and his mother assumed the role of tutoring him. By the time he was 12, young Tom was reading Shakespeare. We all know what happened to him in later years. Wonder what would have happened if he had been considered to be a bright youngster?

Which brings us to the conclusion that you'll be using the old noggin' if you bring in your car for a bit of tune-up, lubrication and other incidental services at which our mechanics are the best in the business. Incidentally, you'll be a lot happier with a perfectly conditioned car at your command.

And that's the quickest way we know women can talk on and on about things that left them speechless?

THE VILLAGE - - - AT WORK

A Visit With Your Neighbors On the Job

At least one candidate isn't the least bit concerned about the coming spring election.

She's Mrs. Mary Alexander, Village clerk, whose name has been on the ballot for nearly two decades.

Mrs. Alexander, clerk since 1934, has never lost an election and there's no chance she'll taste defeat for the first time this March 8th. She's running unopposed.

Mrs. Alexander, on the job five-and-a-half days a week, is the backbone of Village government.

She collects taxes and water bills, supervises elections, serves as secretary to the commission and, with the help of Treasurer Russ Clarke, keeps tab on Village finances.

She's also the Village's chief complaint taker. Fortunately, that function doesn't take too much of her time. Complaints are few and far between, most of them concerning sewers and paving.

This week's Villager at Work was born in the province of Posen, Germany, but came to the United States with her parents while still a young girl.

She spent most of her girlhood in Ypsilanti, coming to Northville in 1907. After graduating from high school, she attended Cleary College in Ypsilanti and then took a job here with the Simpson Scale Manufacturing Co. Later, she worked for five years with the C. C. Yerkes law firm. Following the death of her husband, Dr. Paul Alexander, in 1934, she was appointed Village clerk. She's held the job ever since.

Mrs. Alexander is a member of the Business and Professional Women's Club and the Presbyterian Church. She has two daughters, Mrs. Paul Bray of Boyne City, Mich., and Mrs. Edward Angove of Northville, and four grandchildren, Paul and Patsy Bray and Larry and Mary Lynn Angove.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

I am running in the forthcoming Village election, to be held March 8, for the office of Village Commissioner. It is my hope that you will print this letter explaining my five point program for Village improvement. I wish to present this program so that each voter may know where I stand upon the major problems confronting Northville, and upon the basis of my answers make his or her decision.

I. City Government:

Northville has been subjected to back seat psychology long enough; we need take a back seat for no one. We should become a city and if necessary widen our corporate limits.

II. Water Supply:

Our next major project should be to install an adequate filtration plant that will supply pure and softened water.

III. Paving and Sidewalks:

We should install consistent and regular programs of repair, replacement and new construction and take parts of the Village out of the neglected class as soon as possible.

IV. Financing:

Our present strait-jacket financing which allows for no other improvements in two years must go; if we are a one car family let's not try to drive two and suffer in the process.

V. Business:

Villagers have a responsibility to local merchants to buy locally and support local business in every way possible. This will make Northville attractive to new enterprises.

The above is respectfully submitted as my honest appraisal of the major problems confronting our Village.

Sincerely,

Konrad A. Facknitz

To the Editor:

As the secretary of the defunct Committee on City Incorporation I thought it might be interesting to the person spoken of in last week's Record as the (local political) personage familiar with Village needs and back-stage maneuvering) to know that at the time the committee was trying to get the people to see the advantages of Northville becoming a City we learned who on the commission was in favor and who against the proposal.

The Mayor co-operated, so did Mr. Allen, Mr. Stubenvoll and

Mess in Indochina

What will the United States do if the French announce they are "terminating" the war in Indochina?

When Great Britain said some years ago that she was pulling out of Greece, we took over that particular responsibility. We sent a United States mission headed by Gen. James Van Fleet and assumed the cost and burden of defeating the military action which repulsed the guerillas then menacing the national government.

It is almost certain that at some stage, France will pull out of Indochina. Are we prepared to cope with such a contingency?

The plain answer seems to be "No."

Our government lacks a coherent policy. It does not know the answer to a problem as large and involved as Indochina.

Actually, who does?

Presently, the United States is giving military and other aid to Indochina at the rate of $800 million a year. Despite this assistance, the French are losing the war against the Communists.

When the Korean armistice was signed, Secretary of State Dulles warned the Communists that the truce would be meaningless if the Reds increased their military efforts in Indochina.

That is precisely what they are doing now. Our answer so far has been to send bombers and 200 American technicians to help the French-led Vietnam forces.

Can we do more? Yes, but the risk of involvement in another full scale shooting war is causing great concern in Washington.

Our administration is saying it is critically important to the free world that Indochina is not permitted to fall to the Communists.

We can all agree that such a tragedy would mean the ultimate domination of Southeast Asia by the Chinese Reds.

But what are we prepared to do about it?

Moreover, what can we do without getting into "another Korea?"

Public opinion in this country is against sacrificing the youth of our Country in another "dead end" war.

The danger is that, little by little, we may be committed to a bitter and indecisive struggle at ultimate cost in blood and resources.

Mr. Woodworth, Mr. Peters did not really commit himself and Mr. Ely was against Northville becoming a city.

Out of 12 hard-work meetings of the City Incorporation Committee, according to the records, Mr. Stubenvoll and Mr. Woodworth only missed one meeting, Mr. Peters, who represented the commission, only attended four meetings.

If and when Northville becomes a city the man who would make a competent President because of his vision into the future, the belief that Northville should be a city, his know-how of financial matters and his fine service to the Village on the present Commission is JACK STUBENVOLL.

Now this is no reflection on the suggested candidate, Mr. Ely. "Pete" has been faithful and conscientious and served the Village well, but when and if a group again tries to sell the idea that Northville should become a city, on that issue it might be well, as Al Smith said, "to look at the record".

Best wishes to whoever runs for office this coming election. Win or lose, you did more than the rest of us, you tried, and to the rest of us, before we criticize let's attend commission meetings. It's one way to learn about Northville problems and also let the members of the Commission know what our needs are.

Sincerely,

(Mrs. A. C.) Bea Carlson

Girl Scout Fair to Be Held March 13

Plans are rapidly being made for the Girl Scout Fair to be held March 13 at the First Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Riley Allen, chairman, said this week.

The Fair will feature entertainment and displays of work done by more than 100 Scouts and Brownies belonging to 15 Northville troops.

The affair will get under way at 2 p.m. with an entertainment program in the Church House.

Youngsters from the different troops will sing songs of the various countries of the world. Mrs. William Williams will direct.

Guests will then adjourn to the Church Primary Room to view displays of Scout work. Also in the primary room will be booths, at which the Scouts will sell handicraft items and refreshments, with the proceeds going to finance various Scout activities.

Seaway Bill to Pass House

Representative Charles A. Halleck, Majority Leader of the U.S. House of Representatives, made the flat prediction at our 17th Congressional Republican Committee Lincoln Day banquet on Feb. 13 that the St. Lawrence Seaway Bill will pass the House—and soon. It was Representative Halleck's first public announcement on the Seaway, because, as he explained, he wanted to wait until he had sounded out sentiment in the House before making a positive forecast. That having been done, he declared: "After all these years and years of squabbles, at long last the Seaway will become a reality. I make the prediction without any question or reservation of any kind." This declaration, coming from a man whose job it is to guide the Administration's program through the House, is a true testimonial to the diligent work of President Eisenhower, in behalf of the Waterway. I have stressed in previous newsletters the tremendous role that the President has had in the success of the St. Lawrence legislation to date. I anticipate that the House will have passed the bill within a fortnight.

Livonia Post Office

It was indeed a real pleasure to be able to announce the Postmaster General's decision to establish a separate independent Post Office for the City of Livonia. The people of this fine community worked untiringly to obtain this post office. The residents of Livonia and their local public officials are to be congratulated on this accomplishment. My efforts to bring this about have been more than fully rewarded in seeing the project become a reality.

Federal Aid for Highways

Last week the House Public Works Committee conducted the final public hearings on the Federal-Aid Highway Bill introduced by Congressman J. Harry McGregor of Ohio, Chairman of the Subcommittee on Roads. As I reported then, the measure would increase the present $575,000,000 spent annually by the federal government on highways to about $875,000,000 for fiscal 1956 and 1957. However, there seems a strong possibility that the amount may be raised even higher to give States more aid to cope with the pressing highway problem under that matching fund program. The preponderance of testimony from roads experts appearing before the Committee was in favor of appropriating the entire revenue collected by the Federal Government in motor fuel taxes for purposes of highway construction. Last year, these taxes totaled some $910,000,000. In connection with this same general subject, the biennial White House conference on Highway Safety was held last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. This meeting of 3,000 civic leaders came up with excellent recommendations for reducing slaughter on our highways. The conference set a goal of cutting the annual traffic death toll of 38,000 by 40 percent. The saving in human lives would be 12,000.

President Watches Business

Contrary to the reckless charges of some pessimistic soothsayers, President Eisenhower made it crystal-clear last week that the Government is keeping a sensitive thumb on the pulse of the national economy. The President said that if the present business downturn shows signs of developing into a recession—and he didn't concede that it does now—he will bring the full resources of the government to bear to improve economic conditions. Shortly, he will have an additional guide in the report of the Joint Economic Committee of Congress, which concludes hearings this week.

The House Judiciary Committee has set March 1 for a public hearing on my bill, H. R. 3798 to rectify a glaring inequity in the Federal Bankruptcy Act. The bill would amend the Bankruptcy Act to make tax liens of States and their subdivisions valid against trustees in bankruptcy. This would benefit Detroit by opening up a source of revenue which it has, I believe, a moral right to collect.

Visitors, Lucas S. Miel, Jim Quello, Herbert Rhodes, Merlin D. Roe, Russell S. Hilbert, Paul Shoemaker, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bosta, Spencer N. Wright, Harry S. Benjamin, Jr., W. G. Kirby, Vivian Powell, Penninah Everett, Gus Christie and Carl Tohlen.

SUNSHINE SISTERS

Neighborhood Sunshine Sisters held their usual every-other-week get-together in the Neighborhood Church last Wednesday afternoon. Following suitable devotional exercises, the time was given over to a discussion of certain matters of local interest, such as the new hospital being planned, and results of the recent March of Dimes. During a social hour, refreshments were served. The next Sunshine meeting will be held in the church Wednesday, March 3, at 2 p.m.

Advertising pays. "Poncho", the five-month old Pekinese puppy, which wandered away from the Robert Melvin home on Parker Ave. a few weeks ago was returned by a man who picked it up, forlorn and frightened, and in constant danger of being run over near the intersection of Farmington and Eight Mile roads. After taking the dog home he read in the "lost" ad column in one of the local newspapers, and was glad to deliver it to the rightful owners. "Poncho" was a much beloved pet in the Melvin household, and in an effort to locate it, members of the family had made almost a house-to-house canvass of the entire neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Johnson and their four children are spending this week-end with the Johnson Porters in New London, O. Accompanying the Johnsons are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Teshko and their four sons of Redford.

Mrs. Kenneth Skow of Mayfield Ave. is suffering from painful leg burns received when she accidentally spilled a bowl of hot broth a week ago.

This last week-end Secret Pal Valentines were being delivered all over the neighborhood. A favorite method of delivery was to wait until nightfall and then place the article in the mail box of the one for whom it was intended. Afterward, by arrangement of the donor, some friend would call the Pal and notify her that a parcel was waiting in the mail box. Usually, those who actually mailed remembrances sent Valentines with dainty handkerchiefs enclosed.

David Buckingham, Norfolk Ave., is reported on the sick list.

Freda Ault, Norfolk Ave., was a guest at the Charles Haas home in Redford one evening early in the week. Mr. and Mrs. Haas, who formerly lived on Hubbard Ave., in this neighborhood, celebrated the first birthday of their adopted son, Charles, Jr., on St. Valentine's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. George Throne of Ypsilanti, were Sunday dinner guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault, on Brentwood Ave. Austin Ault was on the sick list most of the past week.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

If you want to make money, Michigan is a good place to seek your fortune.

There are several excellent reasons why the state's economic condition can be expected to boom. Very important in this rosy picture are three factors: Extensive industrial expansion, the Mackinac Straits Bridge, the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Kicked around politically for more than 20 years, the St. Lawrence Waterway seems finally within grasp. Best indications are that the United States Congress will approve the project this year. If they should not, the Canadian government, which has already served notice that she will dig the channel herself, can be expected to begin operations.

Main impact of the seaway will be felt in transportation and by industries which ship or use ore, grain, coal, etc.

Michigan with its good port cities and expanding industry is certain to benefit greatly.

Giant increases have been predicted for the tourist trade when the Mackinac Bridge is completed. The tourist industry already ranks among the state's top three. Substantial boosts in the business of resorts, gas stations, restaurants, motels, transportation and communication offices mean more money and jobs for Michigan residents.

Plant expansion in Michigan promises even more!

Biggest plan announced is that of General Motors, which expects to spend three quarters of a billion dollars within borders of the Wolverine state.

Other programs by other factories are already under way or have been announced recently. Included are: Ford Motor, $500 million of expansion, Packard Motor, $47 million plant near Utica; Dow Chemical, $300 million, mostly at Midland; Continental Motors, $2 million power plant at Muskegon.

Montague, a small city about 20 miles north of Muskegon, is the site of a new Hooker Electro Chemical plant, costing $12 million, a DuPont neoprene plant for $15 million and a "smaller" factory for Union Carbide Company, which will cost nearly $2 million.

Smaller plants will soon join communities in every part of the state. Mueller Brass invested $500,000 in a operation to make plastic pipe at Port Huron. Michigan Tool bought Marquette Iron Works to produce gears. Standard Cotton Products is spending a half a million near Flint for a new site. White Products plans a quarter million dollar addition at Middleville.

"About 80% of Michigan's growth is from 'within,'" says John Beukema, former secretary of the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce and an authority of industrial expansion. This is considered a healthy situation, but the movement of plants outside Michigan into the state is not to be overlooked.

Data from the Michigan Department of Economic Development lists 20 firms which moved into the state during 1953. They are:

American Bitumals & Asphalt, Howell; Bliss & Laughlin, Macomb; CBS-Hytrom, a division of Columbia Broadcasting System, making television tubes, Kalamazoo; Clinton Machine, Clinton; Guedon Co., Chelsea; Gunn Co., Grand Rapids; Photographic Industries, Harbor Springs; Truck Equipment, Norway; Stream Eze Tackle Co., Charlevoix; Alma Plastics, Alma; Dog Life Corp., Hamilton; American Colortype, Decatur; Frankfort Manufacturing, Frankfort; Negaunee Needlecraft Co., Negaunee; Bryan Manufacturing, Reading; Tesar Printers and Binders, Stevensville; Jolly Kids Togs, Onaway; Superior Plating, Howell; General Electric, Holland; Bridgeport Brass, Adrian.

Industrial expansion in Michigan is expected to be greater in Michigan than in any other state during 1954.

Since 1951 Michigan has ranked high. In that year only two states saw more money for new industry, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Those two states and Illinois exceeded the $608 million spent in Michigan in 1952. In 1953 Michigan was second only to Ohio.

Michigan continues to gain while other states expect an average of 15% less capital for expansion during 1954.

To the "average" citizen, all this invested money means opportunity. Opportunity for new jobs, for bigger power, for a higher standard of living.

A new factory in a community means a new source of taxes for the local government where it is located, and for the state. Added income from taxes paid by large industries in small communities has the advantage of reducing the amount each individual must pay. It supplies a source of money that can be used for local improvements.

The sizable capital investment made recently in Michigan makes it possible for a resident to watch first hand the working of the American economic system—and to share in its benefits.

Cadillac

Expect It to Be Copied!

The beautiful new 1954 Cadillac is now in our showroom—and this is an automobile that every American motorist should see . . . and inspect . . . and drive!

They should do this, first of all, because it will give them a better understanding of the things by which to judge the world's motor cars. And they should do this, too, because it will give them a revealing glimpse into the future of automotive design.

For it can be said, with the full support of historic precedent, that much of today's Cadillac will find its way into the cars of tomorrow.

Cadillac's sweeping new lines, its new proportions of glass and steel, and its many superlative new details of design will unquestionably have a profound influence on automotive stylists the world over.

The new roominess of Cadillac's interiors, the new beauty of its appointments, and the new richness of its fabrics and leathers will give the industry completely new standards of comfort and luxury.

And Cadillac's great new power and responsiveness, its wonderful new handling ease and its incredible smoothness of operation are certain to serve as engineering guideposts for years to come.

But imitation is one thing—duplication another. And no amount of imitation could ever produce Cadillac's happy combination of brilliant styling, extraordinary luxury and magnificent performance.

Nor could it bring to another motor car Cadillac's unprecedented acceptance among the world's motorists . . . the feeling of pride that comes to the man who sits behind its wheel . . . or its reputation as the Standard of the World.

These are Cadillac "exclusives"—hard won through decades of motor car leadership, and through unswerving adherence to the highest ideals of automotive production.

We repeat—you ought to come in and see the new 1954 Cadillac. For it is Cadillac's annual report to the nation on the progress of American motor car design—and the news has never been so exciting! You'll be most welcome at any time.

The GREEN THUMB

by Paul Newton

Small fruits received very little attention in most gardens in the spring. Strawberries really should be planted every year, allowed to fruit the following year, and then plowed under. However, a bed may be kept in fair condition for several years—most of them are—but only at the cost of constant weed pulling.

Planting Strawberry Bed

When a new strawberry bed is planted, fertilizing should be done shortly after the plants have taken root and started to grow. If all flowers are picked off the first season to prevent them from bearing fruit a good husky root and crown growth will develop for the next year's crop. If a strawberry bed is several years old, a fertilizer such as bone meal, which will not burn, can be broadcast over the plants early in the spring when they are still dormant.

Caring for Bush Fruits

Bush fruits usually remain productive for several years, but most varieties gradually become weakened or diseased. It is poor economy to allow decrepit bushes to take up valuable space when new and better varieties are on the market every year. Before ordering them from the glowing catalog descriptions, however, it would be well to ask our county agent Mr. Bebesheimer in Wayne, Mich. whether these new varieties are really suited to the locality. If your plants are healthy and of a good variety, it is just as well to transplant shoots from them as to buy new bushes from a nursery.

Where mulching material is plentiful, gardeners may substitute mulch for cultivation of bush fruits with good results. This also conserves moisture.

Fertilizing Raspberries

Bush fruits may be fertilized with sodium nitrate worked into the soil on each side of the row. If the area is already mulched, the fertilizer may be spread on top of the mulch. It will be carried down into the soil by the first heavy rain.

All dead canes should be removed at this time of year and the remaining good canes should be cut back to about four feet in height. Currants and gooseberries have perennial stems but they remain productive only about four years. Therefore, all canes over four years old should be removed, together with those which are weak or injured, or are so low that the fruit touches the ground.

Correction

Shrubs such as barberry, honeysuckle, lonicera, hydrangea, snowberry, viburnum (fruited varieties), which bloom in late summer and fall should be pruned now. Other shrubs which bloom in the spring and early summer should be pruned as soon as their flowers are dead. These include beauty bush, deutzia, lilac, mock orange, flowering quince, weigela and viburnum carlesii.

Through the omission of a line of type in last week's column it was made to appear that late blooming shrubs should be pruned in the fall.

Robert Shafer Heads Wayne Planning Council

Robert H. Shafer of Sheldon Rd., Northville, was elected president of the Northwest Wayne Planning Council at the monthly meeting held at the Northville Village Hall on Feb. 16. He succeeds T. R. Carrington as head of the Planning Council.

Other officers elected for the coming year were George Davis, Redford, vice-president; Carl Hartwick, Plymouth, treasurer, and Carl Benath, Redford, secretary.

Messrs. Edmonson, Reid and Rowden of the Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Board were present at the meeting to discuss development trends and prospects for future changes in the northwest Wayne County area, including Redford Township, Livonia, Canton Center, Plymouth and Northville.

The Northwest Wayne Planning Council will hold its next meeting at Livonia City Hall March 17.

Standardless Interpretation

One of the trends that is taking place in many of our Christian Institutions and Churches should well arouse every Bible believing Christian no matter what denomination he may belong to. This trend is referred to by President Colwell of the University of Chicago as "the vogue of standardless interpretation". By this means the practice of using orthodox terminology and placing his own private interpretation upon it. In this way he appears to give consent to the truth while at the same time hold a belief which may be direct in opposition to the truth. This is not only practiced in relation to doctrinal beliefs of their respective churches but also to interpretation of the scriptures themselves. Now due to our finite understanding that we as humans have there will always be some minor differences in the interpretation of some of the scriptures, however the practice of unlimited liberty of interpretation where by the plain meaning of the passage is changed into something else is certainly a form of intellectual dishonesty. The Book of Jude warns us concerning those who have "crept in unawares" who turn the grace of God into excesses and even deny the deity of the Lord Jesus. Christians—it is your job to see that your preacher stocks by the Book.

Two Parties to Have Campaign Themes Ready for Election

by STANLEY JAMES NORTHVILLE RECORD

Washington, Feb. 24—The two parties' major themes for the congressional election campaign this year are apparently clear now.

(1) The Republicans will hammer home the "Communists-in-Government" issue, claiming they cleaned the rascals out.

(2) The Democrats will play up the present "recession" and warn that the Republicans may let it grow into a depression by not taking the right counter-measures fast enough.

Each party knows that the other has hit a vital weakness, and is already trying to counter-attack.

Democrats, in Congress and out, are crying "unfair" over the "Red smear", as they call it. They are demanding a complete breakdown of the 2,200 names of government employees let out during the new administration.

Republicans are crying "unfair" over the "recession" talk, and implying that the Democrats are trying to undermine the people's confidence.

The G.O.P. campaign technique appeared at the Republican National Committee meeting here. Vice-President Richard M. Nixon made it clear that the administration, from the President on down, is backing the "anti-subversive" theme song. At a luncheon attended by cabinet members, Nixon went out of his way to praise Attorney General Herbert Brownell. He said: "I think Herb Brownell is to be congratulated for cleaning up the Justice Department and in particular for the job he did in the Harry Dexter White Case."

Nixon also warned the Republicans to "face up to the problem" of keeping prosperity in time of peace. If they fail, he said "the far left in the opposite party will undoubtedly come to power." Sherman Adams, the President's assistant, showed the White House uneasiness over the drop in employment in his speech accusing the Democrats of being "sadists" who want to promote a depression—or "Fear Deal," as his speech-writer phrased it.

At the right of the speaker's platform was a chart of front-page clippings about the recession—purveyors of "gloom and doom"—another favorite phrase of the G.O.P. The publications included the Nation, the New Republic, and—the Daily Worker.

Successful is the man who can get plenty of money without letting money get him.

Novi Civic Highlights

As a public service and through the cooperation of this newspaper and Novi Township officials, the West Rd. Property Holders Association, Inc., is conducting a series of articles on township government, offices and the duties that go with those offices.

TOWNSHIP SUPERVISOR
The township supervisor is the principal executive officer of the township. He acts as the agent of the township in all general business matters. As agent of the township he is named in all law suits against the township. He is charged with responsibility in case of riots and for the enforcement of quarantines. He is charged with the hiring of personnel to conduct township affairs and with the discharge of incompetent personnel. He presides at the meetings of the township board.

The supervisor is a member of the County Board of Supervisors and represents his locality in matters of county-wide interest that come before that Board.

He acts as liaison or contact man between the township and county welfare agencies. Although maintenance of roads is not a township function, the Novi supervisor brings out the County Roads Commission representative to examine complained-of conditions and requests remedial action. The township supervisor is empowered to administer oaths in matters affecting his office and in his capacity as supervisor. He determines the amounts of performance bonds and the number of sureties required of the township treasurer. He is also the township tax assessor.

As assessor he must make a survey of all the property in the township placing a valuation thereon for the determination of taxes for the coming year. The valuations MUST approximate the total township valuation set by the County Tax Equalization Board. If the Equalization Board finds that a certain individual's valuation (as set by the assessor) is low then the Equalization Board adds the difference to the total township valuation and, as a result, others in the township are paying taxes that the low-assessed individual should be paying. Hence the assessor, if he is to properly protect ALL TAXPAYERS, must assess EACH TAXPAYER as objectively and as honestly as possible.

For those taxpayers who disagree with the tax-valuation placed upon their property by the supervisor-assessor, there exists a Township Board of Review. This board examines the assessment rolls and has the authority to raise or lower the valuation set by the supervisor. The board meets during the first part of March of each year and hears all pertinent complaints brought before it.

Novi Civil Defense Council Formed

On Friday, Feb. 26, the Novi Civil Defense Council will hold its first meeting in the Novi Township Hall at 8 p.m. Ernest Pitchford will act as chairman.

The Council is composed of the Civil Defense organization staff (the chiefs of the service units). The Novi CD director feels that the advisory section of the Council will give the civic-minded citizens an opportunity to participate in the formation of the local defense program.

The CD staff is composed of the following chiefs of services: Ken Bassett, wardens; Duane Bell, medical; Clair Hellyer, transportation; Robert Skellinger, auxiliary firemen; Henry Turner, auxiliary police. Further additions will be made to the staff by CD Director Flannery.

The advisory representatives section of the Council is composed of delegates of local school groups, veterans groups, fraternal organizations and church groups. It is hoped that the advisory section will eventually embrace all local civic groups.

Help Asked for Village Family

A Northville mother and her three children need your help. The family has been having a run of bad luck recently, and needs most of all an oil or electric cooking stove, a heating stove, and double mattresses.

If you can lend a hand, contact Mrs. Oscar Hammond, rehabilitation chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary. She will see that your contributions reach this family.

Mrs. Hammond lives at 511 N. Center and her phone number is 897.

Thank You

Perez-Pep Battle on TV Friday Night

Lulu Perez' rapid rise in the ranks of the top featherweights reaches a climax when he comes up against ex-champ, Willie Pep, at Madison Square Garden on Friday, Feb. 26, on the weekly Cavalcade of Sports telecast and broadcast.

What promises to be one of the most interesting bouts in years in the 126-pound class will be seen over NBC coast-to-coast television and heard on the ABC radio network beginning at 10 p.m.

Willie Pep, twice world's featherweight champion, has one of the most fabulous records in ring history. Active as a pro since 1940, he has amassed a record of 187 wins while suffering only 5 losses against the finest of opposition. During this stretch Pep ran up two winning streaks of 62 and 73 fights, respectively.

Perez—both a clever boxer and good puncher—turned pro in 1951. With 25 wins in 27 starts Lulu is now ranked fifth among the featherweights. A series of TV appearances this season against Davey Gallardo has helped make Perez a great favorite among home audiences.

Lulu has had his sights on this match with Pep for some time and realizes how valuable a win over Willie can be for him. Only 20 years old, it could be that Perez will be challenging for Saddler's title before reaching voting age.

Funk Suggests Church Softball Loop

Recreation Director Wilson Funk has written to all Northville ministers, suggesting the formation of a church softball league for this summer.

The league would be open to men over 25 and games would be played on week-day evenings.

The ministers were asked to have church representatives attend a meeting March 3 at the Village Hall to make details of the proposed league.

Mustangs Clinch Share of Basketball Title With Holly Win

Northville assured itself of at least a share of the Wayne-Oakland County League basketball title Friday night by trouncing Holly, 71-36, on the Bronco court.

The win gave Northville a 9-2 league record, best in the loop. Only a loss to Keego Harbor this Friday night will prevent the Mustangs from winning the championship.

Holly, weakened by the loss of two regulars for disciplinary reasons, was no match for Mustangs, who rang up their second highest point total of the season.

Northville hit on 33 field goals—a season high—and added five foul shots for a 71 point total. Holly scored only 15 field goals and six charity points.

With all five starters hitting for at least two points, the Mustangs took a 15-7 first quarter lead and ran their lead to 35-15 at half-time.

During the third quarter, Holly managed 15 points to Northville's 17. However, the Braves wilted in the last period scoring only six points as Mustang second-stringers scored 19.

Glenn Howarth scored 18 points for Northville, followed closely by Ed Nash with 16. Al Iverson and Darwin Teschka each scored ten.

WILD LIFE NOTES...

RECORD PIKE—

The record-breaking 35-pound northern pike taken recently in the upper peninsula was lured in range of the fishing spear by a home-built wooden decoy made with eyes of glass taken from trinket earrings.

Leonard Durga, of Newberry, speared the big lunger through the ice of Millecoquin Lake near Engadine last week, the first time he had ever gone spear fishing.

Before Durga made his prize catch, Albert Kobe had held the record with a 32-pound, seven-ounce northern taken from Gratiot Lake in 1940.

Two other big northern were taken last week from northern lakes, each weighing 20 pounds.

One was taken from Black Lake in Onaway State Park, the other from Higgins Lake, near Higgins Lake State Park.

ABSENT OWLS—

Where are the snowy owls? The big white birds visit Michigan every fourth winter when food supplies are short in native arctic areas. This winter, according to schedule, they were due in the state.

To date, however, reports of the birds, have been received from only a few areas.

Three were reported in the Kal- amazoo area and others in the Alpena, Grand Rapids, Bad Axe and St. Joseph areas.

German Social Worker Visits State Hospital

Miss Annette Brinkmann, a social worker from the Department of Public Health, Youth and Welfare in Hohenlimburg, Germany, visited for four days last week at Northville State Hospital.

Miss Brinkmann has been enrolled since September, 1953 at the University of Michigan School of Social Work. Her schooling is provided through a National Public Welfare Assembly fellowship.

While in the United States, Miss Brinkmann is visiting hospitals and social agencies to gain practical experience in public health and welfare administration. In December and January, she visited agencies in Denver, Colorado, including the famous Santa Claus Club, the National Jewish Home and the Juvenile Court.

She plans to return home this May.

Miss Brinkmann is a registered nurse as well as a social worker. She graduated from Nursing School in Elberfeld, Westphalia, Germany and then entered the School of Social Work at Munster University, where she received her Master's Degree in Social Work. She was employed in Menden, Germany, before taking her present position in Hohenlimburg. She is assigned to a certain district in that city and is responsible for working with all general public health problems, such as tuberculosis, maternal and child care, welfare, as well as juvenile delinquency, neglected children and displaced persons.

1953 DEER KILL REPORT

The Michigan Department of Conservation has just released a preliminary report on the over-all deer kill for the 1953 season—and if it lives up to last year's experience it will prove to be very close to the final figures.

The total kill of bucks in Michigan was very close to the figure estimated in 1952—some 52,000 male animals taken each year. However, the kill in the lower peninsula dropped off about 4,000 while the hunting above the Straits was about 4,000 above the 1952 count, thus bringing the grand total on a par with the 1952 harvest.

Upper Peninsula More Popular

The report shows that about 10,000 more hunters chose the "Land of Hiawatha" in the upper peninsula last fall, according to a traffic survey, which obviously helps account for the extra kill. The hunting pressure in the lower peninsula dropped off by about 6,000, says the report. These figures all apply to the buck season only.

One Day, Any-Deer Kill Down

Back in 1952 when the controversial 3-day open season on any deer went into effect, hunters brought home 110,000 animals. Hunting was permitted above M-20. Last fall a one-day season was opened, and the hunting area restricted to the lower peninsula above M-55. About 250,000 hunters tried their luck during the 1952 season, when they had three days for a chance to fill their licenses. With only a single day last fall 160,000 were in the field. The total kill is now estimated at 18,000.

Hunters' Success Varies

The Department further estimates from traffic surveys, that about 27% of the hunters got a buck, doe or fawn in 1952, while only 11% were successful in the one-day special season last fall.

The kill on Drummond Island this past fall was more than twice as great as the figure for 1952. A total of 286 deer came from this area against 135 in 1952, and last fall 30% of Drummond Island hunters were successful.

Story Behind the Statistics

While all of these figures are a story in themselves—the real significance of the report is highlighted by the unusually large number of healthy yearling bucks taken in areas where winter food conditions were poor for many years. Two fairly open winters, plus the cropping of surplus animals is beginning to pay off in a more rapid growth and far less winter starvation.

In other words it's beginning to look as if the Conservation Department's planning for deer herd control is perfectly logical.

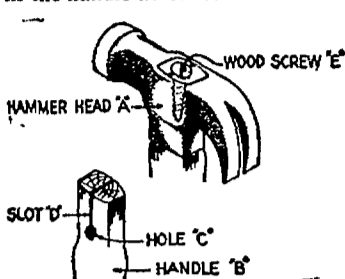

Some of us die-hards had better admit it!

Holds Hammer Head Tight

THERE are various ways of fastening a hammer head securely to the handle, but the method illustrated, which was shown in American Builder, "bible" of the building trades industry, is unusually effective.

First drill a quarter-inch hole in the handle at C. Now saw a slot through the top of the handle—D. Shape the handle so it fits the hammer head snugly.

By driving home a No. 10 or No. 12 screw at E, the handle end spreads and holds the hammer head tightly. If the wood dries and becomes loose, simply remove the wood screw and replace it with a number 12 or 14 wood screw.

New Figures Given on Novi Construction

A report of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Planning Commission, part of which was published in last week's Record, stated that 71 residential building permits were issued last year in Novi Township.

Flynn said the permits represented construction worth approximately $765,155. In 1952, 139 permits worth $671,910 were issued.

Council Visits Maybury San.

Dr. W. Leonard Howard, medical superintendent of Maybury Sanatorium, outlined some of the advances made in the fight against tuberculosis at a meeting of the Coordinating Council, held at Maybury last Thursday evening.

More than 20 council members were present.

Dr. Howard said that in 1945 and 1946 about 200 persons died of tuberculosis at Maybury. In 1953, thanks to the use of new wonder drugs and improved treatment techniques, only 53 deaths occurred. Some of these deaths were caused by heart disease or old age, Dr. Howard said.

In 25 years, if the present prevention program is continued, tuberculosis should be no more prevalent than diphtheria, he reported.

The doctor also pointed out that many cases of t.b. could be nipped in the bud if people would only take the time to have a chest X-ray. He also suggested that every patient should have a chest X-ray when they are admitted to a general hospital.
