Two weeks ago we expressed the hope in this column that when Election Day rolled around there would be more candidates for election to the Village Commission than there are vacancies to be filled. With eight candidates for the three four-year vacancies, and one for the two-year term, our wish has been amply fulfilled.

If the voters will only show as much interest in the election by turning out at the polls next Monday to vote for the candidates of their choice, it will be a mark of high civic interest of which Northville can be justly proud. If each of us will reflect upon the hours and days which each successful candidate will be called upon to give to the Village during his term of office, the little time required to cast a ballot would be trivial indeed.

Nor should Villagers fail to be appreciative of the services which the two retiring officials have given so freely in the past. We refer to Con Langfield, who has been Village President for the past six years, and a member of the Commission before then; also to Gerald C. Woodworth, who has served as Commissioner and as a member of the Finance Committee. Both men have given freely of their time and talents and the Village owes them a vote of thanks for their past services.

Enclosed with our last telephone bill was a one-page letter from the phone company containing a statement by the City of Detroit of the reasons it was opposing the phone company's application for higher rates. This unusual situation was brought about by an order of the Michigan Public Service Commission directing the company to give the City of Detroit space in the company's own letter to its customers to present arguments against the rate increase. This is an aftermath of the company's presentation of its side of the case to its customers in a similar letter last summer. It seems that Detroit objected to the company telling its customers why the increase was justified and asked the Public Utilities Commission to make the company give it equal space for rebuttal.

Regardless of whether or not the increase is justified, it seems to us that the phone company was entitled to tell its customers the reasons why it needs more revenue. Certainly any other business is accorded that right, and we do not believe the fact that the company is subject to regulation by the Public Utilities Commission gives that body any moral right to compel it to present the opposition's case.

Consider Bills to Boost Race Share

Legislation which would give the Village of Northville the same share of state racing revenue as now received by cities is under consideration in the State Legislature.

Amendments introduced in both the House of Representatives and the Senate provide that villages, as well as cities, shall receive 20 per cent of the money collected by the state from the various tracks.

Last year, the state's share of the pari-mutuel handle at Northville Downs amounted to $421,137. If the proposed amendment had been in effect in 1953, Northville would have received more than $80,000, about equal to the village tax roll.

ALLEN REPORTS

Commissioner Mike Allen, who went to Lansing last week with John Burkman and Nelson Schrader to check on progress of the legislation, reported on his trip to the Village Commission Monday night.

Allen said the House amendment had been introduced by Rep. Leonard Wood and had been attached to House Bill No. 400, which deals with horse breeding.

At the present time, the bill is in the State Affairs Committee and still "very much alive", according to Wood.

Allen also said he had been told by Rep. Kenneth Trucks, a personal friend, that if the breeder's bill gets out of committee, he (Trucks) guarantees the amendment will receive favorable action.

SENATE BILL

A similar amendment has been added to Senate Bill 1146, introduced by Sen. Perry Greene of Grand Rapids. Greene's bill would prohibit the establishment of any more pari-mutuel tracks in the state.

Allen said the Senate bill, with the amendment attached, was ready for a floor vote when it was tabled for further debate because of charges of "fraud" which allegedly occurred during hearings on the bill proper.

Rep. Woods said he would inform Allen when the House bill is to be acted upon. He suggested that a large delegation from Northville appear at the Capitol on that day to help insure passage.

The amendment, if passed, would be added to Senate Bill 1146, the statute which originally set up the plan whereby cities get a share of the state revenue.

Sen. George Higgins, sponsor of No. 1146 when it was originally introduced, said:

A WORD FROM THE CANDIDATES

MALCOLM ALLEN

Malcolm Allen, 39, has been a member of the Village Commission for the past two years. For the past four years, he has been in charge of the village-owned Rural Hill Cemetery and was one of the leaders in the move to create a veterans' plot at Rural Hill. While on the commission Allen has been fire commissioner and has worked on the committee to secure Ford Field and the committee to arrange the leasing of the Community Building to the school. He also is a member of the Municipal Garbage Authority, composed of representatives of various Wayne County communities, which is seeking ways to handle the growing problem of garbage and refuse disposal.

Allen is the owner of the Allen Monument Works here and the Milford Granite Works. A resident of Northville for 19 years, he is married and has two children.

He has done considerable work in political science, history and government. He has received various awards for public speaking and scholarship, including the representative student award presented by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

While residing in Northville, Mr. Facknitz has worked at Maybury Sanatorium as Director of Patient Education and as a rehabilitation counselor. Prior to this he worked as a personnel technician for the Detroit Civil Service Commission. He is presently employed by the Ford Motor Co. as a salary and classification analyst in the Ford Division Industrial Relations Department.

If elected, Mr. Facknitz intends to follow his five point program for Village improvement. This includes support of the plans for incorporation, improved paving and sidewalks, improvement of the Village water supply which will soften and purify our water, and a plan to re-evaluate our present Village financing to provide more opportunity for local improvements. Mr. Facknitz feels that the first and most important business of a Village or City is to provide for its citizens a good place to live and to maintain this condition in every way possible.

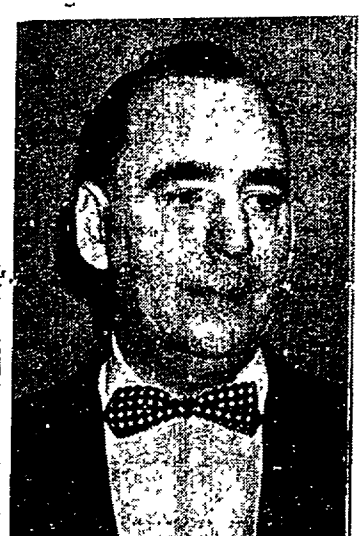

Mr. Facknitz is married to Julianne Frazier Facknitz and has three children of whom he is very proud and requested that we print their names: Ann, 5; Mark, 4; and Katherine, 8 months.

SYDNEY FRID

I came to Northville in 1925 and was married soon after to Louise Rudolph. Pat and Russell, the children, had their public schooling here. Cyril Frid, my brother, and I took over the bankrupt laundry and built it up to a successful business, which we sold in 1946. I served on the commission from 1944-1948 and took a leading part in securing property for and financing the Community Building. I was president of the Exchange Club when the Club installed, with community help, the Ford Field lights and I have always been interested in Northville. I think I can do a good job as councilman and so can the other men running. You have your choice.

Polls Open At Village Hall and Scout Building

Monday, March 8 is election day in Northville.

There will be no contest for five of the jobs.

Claude N. Ely, a member of the commission for the past 12 years, is the lone candidate for president, succeeding Conrad E. Langfield.

(Editor's Note: The Record invited the eight candidates for the three contested seats on the Village Commission to use our columns as a means of informing voters as to their background, qualifications and campaign promises. Each candidate was invited to submit up to 300 words. The statements in the adjoining column were written by the candidates themselves, not by Record staff members.)

Jack Stubenvoll, an incumbent whose four-year term expires this year, is unopposed for the two-year term, which went on the ballot when Ely resigned to run for president.

Other unopposed candidates are Clerk Mary Alexander, Treasurer A. Russell Clarke and Assessor E. M. Bogart.

Eight candidates will battle for the three four-year terms on the commission. They include incumbent Malcolm Allen, Conrad A. Facknitz, Sydney Frid, Earl Reed, Alfred Smith, Jr., Conrad Springer, Ed Welch and Monroe Weston.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday. First precinct voters will cast their ballots at the Village Hall while those in the second precinct will vote at the Boy Scout Building, corner of E. Dunlap and Hutton streets.

Harry German, Sr. Buried Tuesday at Carleton

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Baker Funeral Home in Carleton, Mich., for Harry S. German, Sr., former mayor of Northville, prominent banker and one of the best-known baseball figures in the state.

Mr. German, 78-years old, died of a heart attack Saturday evening while driving from his home to Monroe for an evening of bowling.

Police said Mr. German apparently had stopped his car in the right hand lane of Grafton Rd., near Monroe, when he felt the attack coming on. His automobile was struck and pushed into a ditch by another vehicle.

A post mortem performed Sunday determined that Mr. German had died of a heart attack and not of injuries suffered in the accident.

FUNERAL SERVICES

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Glover Louden of the Carleton Methodist Church and the Rev. Frederick L. Pohly of the Carleton Evangelical United Brethren Church. Burial, at Carleton Cemetery, was under the direction of members of Northville Lodge 186, of which Mr. German was a life member. He also was a member of the Northville Commandery.

Mr. German is survived by his wife, the former Grace Maxwell, whom he married in April, 1901; a daughter, Mrs. Leon Harvell of Carleton; two sons, Loyle and (Continued on Page 10)

Go to get this column started somehow, so will tell you of the customer in for a lubrication and check-up of his '54 Studebaker. Perhaps he was biased, but he told us the boy next door was the kind of a kid, his mother (the kid's) wouldn't want him to play with.

This is the time of year we feel we should warn the young swains that even though his girl tells him she gets her good looks from her father, she shouldn't jump to the conclusion that her old man owns a drug store.

You know spring is just around the corner and there is nothing like keeping one's spirits in tune with the season. The best way we know is to step into a beautiful new '54 Studebaker. You'll find its pace setting style and its ever-ready power puts you way out in front. Besides, it is so dog-gone economical that the fellow at your favorite gas station is going to think you don't like him anymore. Come on in and see it, we'll be glad to meet you.

Friend of ours who drives a large, fine Studebaker Land Cruiser and services it at regular intervals, was in the garage the other day. Told us of their maid, who recently lost her husband. About two weeks after the funeral our friend noticed a fellow waiting for the maid to get off work. Somewhat nettled, he asked, "how about it Nancy, here's a fellow waiting for you, and your husband dead but a couple of weeks."

"That's just it boss," said the maid. "It's William that's dead, not me."

This stretch of weather we've been having should serve as a gentle reminder to you folks who like to get out on the road come Sunday that it's time that you took your car in for service. You'll find that the old transportation system is at its best by having our experts give it a motor tune-up and complete lubrication. You'll be glad you did.

Well, got to get back to work again, but someone once told us that a man's best bet was to marry a homely girl. She may have the will to give him trouble, but doesn't have the means.

Yours,

BILL & WILL PETZ

Your Congressman Reports

By Representative CHARLES G. OAKMAN
17th District, Michigan

March 1, 1954
Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Bneson testified before the House Banking and Currency Committee last Thursday and Friday on a bill to increase the borrowing power of the Commodity Credit Corporation from $6,750,000,000 to $8,500,000,000. The CCC operates the farm price support program. I was struck by the forthrightness and obvious sincerity of Secretary Benson to improve conditions of agriculture. He has probably had as difficult a job as any cabinet member, and he has done it well. The committee takes up the bill this morning, in executive session, and will probably report the bill favorably.

The House Public Works Committee will complete work on the Federal Aid Highway Bill for fiscal 1956 and 1957 early this week, and hopes for action by the whole House early this month. In its present form, the measure provides about $875,000,000 in federal assistance to the states in each of the two fiscal years, about a 40 percent increase over the present amount. If anything, this amount will be increased before it leaves the committee. The present temperment of the Congress is such that there should be little opposition to the boost in highway appropriations. The Senate Public Works Committee started hearings of its own last Friday, on a bill to raise the Federal ante on roads.

It appears that the House Rules Committee will consider the St. Lawrence Seaway Bill this coming Wednesday. The definite time will be set at a meeting of the Republican leadership at the White House today. I don't anticipate last Wednesday. Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., was the guest and speaker. He gave an excellent report of the Justice Department's work during the first year of the new administration. An impressive record it is, too. My guests at this affair were Dr. Samuel M. Brownell, Commissioner of the Office of Education, and brother of the Attorney General, and Dr. Kenneth Little, vice-president of the University of Wisconsin.

Last Saturday afternoon, friends of Michigan's Senior Senator Homer Ferguson held an open house in honor of the Senator's 65th birthday—the Senator's lovely wife was the inimitable hostess at this Michigan gathering.

Visitors this week: D. A. Bodary of Owosso, Regina D. Hay, George W. Schudlich, Herbert Weil, David Wilkins, Harry J. Gold and David E. Goldman. We are delighted our colleague, Representative Kit Clardy is recovering from pneumonia and will be back in the House within two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. "Red" Kraemer and their two children from Detroit were Thursday evening guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dunaman of Farmington Rd. On hand was a beautiful birthday cake honoring Mrs. Dunaman.

Mr. and Mrs. George Throne of Ypsilanti were Sunday guests of Mrs. Throne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault of Brentwood Ave.

Mrs. Ed Grant of Farmington Rd. was much "under the weather" last week.

Honoring her 61st birthday, Mrs. Charles Hoff, Sr. was at her home on Mayfield Thursday accepting congratulations from her many relatives, friends and neighbors.

GONE GOOSE
Mrs. Walter Rehahn's old gander died Tuesday. He was well past 18 years old and during all that time had been looked upon with respect and caution by residents of what has been called the Folker Subdivision. Many tales are told with him as a central figure and involving not only boys and girls, but men and women as well. To Mrs. Rehahn, he took the place of a most faithful watch dog. Already the gander's mate, 17-year-old Bessie, greatly misses him.

Freda Ault of Norfolk Ave. called in Harper Hospital last Monday.

Bobby Wyman of Mayfield Ave. has been ill with an ear infection.

Ralph Voorheis of Shadyside Ave. is reported very much "under the weather".

Cpl. Alfred Schult, located in Korea, hopes that when June comes he will be returned to his home on Shadyside Ave.

Mrs. Ernest Tallman of Mayfield Ave. was reported on this sick list part of last week.

Mrs. Carson Baldwin, Farmington Rd., who has been critically ill with pneumonia, is reported slightly improved.

Mrs. John Varhol of Shadyside Ave. visited her daughter, Mrs. George Ring, in Detroit last Sunday.

Mrs. Cecil Willet of Mayfield Ave. was on the sick list the early part of this week.

Edward Brugman, formerly of Mayfield Ave., but now residing in Novi called at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Grace Simpson, Mayfield Ave., Wednesday.

Mr. Brugman's eldest son, Eddie, is very ill with chicken-pox.

Mrs. Harold Wulf of Brentwood Ave. and her four children, are visiting relatives in Rhineland.

David McMillan of Detroit was a Sunday guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Reddy, of Shadyside Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Paulson and their son, Rickey, of Detroit visited with the Reddys on Shadyside Ave. last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Griffith and their daughter, Cathie, of Dearborn were Friday evening guests of Mrs. Griffith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Stange, on Mayfield Ave. Mrs. Griffith and Cathie remained for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Hardy of Garden City were Friday evening callers at the home of Mr. Hardy's mother, Mrs. Walter Rehahn on Mayfield Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry McMillin of Detroit called in this neighborhood last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Read of South Lyon were recent dinner guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault, on Brentwood Ave.

A wave of virus pneumonia and severe colds seem sweeping over the community. Social affairs and gatherings are being interfered with generally. Also little visiting is being done.

HENRY TRAPP DIES
Henry Trapp, for many years a well-known resident of this community, died this week at the home of a son on Elmura Ave., Detroit. About two years ago he had sold the family home on Farmington Rd. to Austin Grant, who now occupies it. He was 83 years old. Surviving him are his wife, Anna, and the following sons and daughters: Adolph, Carl, Otto, Mrs. Clara Garschow, Henry, Jr., Eleanor, Mrs. Cora Gar-show, Arnold, Mrs. Louise Eno, Albert, Edward and Mrs. Loretta White. There are also 26 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren. Services were held at 3 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 27 in the Schmalzriedt Funeral Home on Grand River. Interment was at Glen Eden.

MAYHEW-STANFORD RITES

Saturday morning, Feb. 20 at 10 a.m. in the St. Raphael's Catholic Church on Merriman Rd., Garden City, the marriage of Nancy Mayhew and James Stanford was solemnized with Father Sampson officiating.

Nancy is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Mayhew of Merriman Rd., Livonia. James Stanford is the son of the Stanfords of Garden City.

The bride wore a gown of white Skinner satin, cut with a V-shaped neck and Queen Anne collar, trimmed with beads and Chantilly lace. Her fingertip nylon net veil was trimmed with double scalloped lace and held in place by a satin cap, bead trimmed. The dress had a long, flowing train. Her bouquet was white carnations intermingled with ivy.

Miss Geraldine Stanford, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She wore rose net over satin and carried pink carnations. Miss Stanford uses a wheel chair and was pushed down the aisle by her brother, Gerry Stanford.

Bridesmaids were girl friends of the bride. They were Alice Hergert in royal blue; Helen Broadbent in purple, and Sharon Byrnes in gold. All carried yellow carnations. The flower girl was Barbara Varhol, who wore shrump colored net over satin, and carried a straw basket filled with petals. The ring bearer was Master Rickey Milford, who wore a tuxedo and carried a white satin, lace trimmed pillow. Janie Mayhew, young sister of Nancy, acted as junior bridesmaid, and wore a baby blue net, carrying pink carnations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Mayhew chose to wear a gown of Grace lace over pink satin with a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Stanford wore blue lace over satin. Her flowers were pink carnations.

Mr. Mayhew gave his daughter away.

Gene Simajak was the groom's best man and ushers were Richard Varhol, Charles Mayhew and Roger Stanford.

Mrs. Charles W. Hall of Seven Mile Rd., Livonia, rendered two beautiful vocal selections.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Snow White dining room on Grand River. Places were laid for 23 members of the bridal party. At the same time the Mayhew home on Merriman was open to relatives and friends. About 40 were thus entertained. Mrs. Broadbent, Mrs. John Varhol and Mrs. Minnie Johnson acted as hostesses and served the guests.

The reception was held at Ford Rd. Hall in Garden City where 250 persons were present. An elaborate supper was served by caterers.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Stanford will reside in their new home on Joy Rd., Livonia.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding festivities included visitors from Flint and Chatham, Ontario. William Varhol, U.S.N., of Norfolk, Va., was also present.

Nancy Mayhew was a member of Bentley High School's 1953 graduating class. James Stanford graduated from Lowry School in Dearborn. The young couple are popular and have many friends in this section.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

Michigan Week, to be held May 2-8, may provide an answer to critics who charge that Michigan's tax structure is too high to hold present industry and to attract new factories.

The impressive list of plant expansion already scheduled for Michigan is headed by the General Motors three-fourths of a billion dollar program and includes many other sizable installations under way or about to get under way.

Voters may get a chance to decide on spending $500 million for highways during the next five years by bond issue. They may also get a chance to vote bonuses for veterans—an $80 million item which will probably be financed from cigarette taxes, subjects are under consideration in the legislature for reference to the people.

The state has already approved a bond issue of $99,800,000 to pay for the Mackinac Straits Bridge. This venture is to be paid back by revenue from toll charges.

State residents have an important job to do in addition to determining the tax structure under which industry must function, say ardent boosters of Michigan.

That's where Michigan Week comes in. Michigan Week is concerned with a healthy economic atmosphere that can be created by a general understanding of the state's economic machinery.

Importance of the "atmosphere" was outlined by Michigan Week's chairman Jay D. Runkel, when he introduced the program to a group of newspaper people. Now days when an industry is looking for a new location they check to see whether there is the proper type environment for their people and their plant. We want to help every community develop that kind of human atmosphere which will provide favorable conditions for economic growth."

Residents should hear about Michigan Week from local groups in this community. Organizations of every type are taking active part in the program. The list includes church, PTA, veteran, labor, business, industry and civic groups.

Schools will acquaint the state's youth with the observance through channels directed from the department of public instruction at Lansing.

Important point in the plan is to provide a state-wide opportunity for Michigan people to become more conscious and appreciative of the state's economic factors; its resources, industry and commerce; its problems and opportunities.

Some well known citizens are shaping the program.

Sponsor of Michigan Week is a non-profit corporation devoted to the state's improvement called Greater Michigan, Inc. The president is Walter L. Cislir, who is also president of Detroit Edison Co. Chairman of the Michigan Week Committee is Mr. Runkel, general manager of Detroit's Crowley Milner & Co. Serving with him are 28 civic leaders from every field of society, representing all parts of the state.

They hope to make every person living in Michigan a salesman for his area. Direct result, the hope is, will be the desired atmosphere in Michigan for economic development.

Celebrations will be controlled in your area by a committee now being set up on a county basis. Four to six people will act as a clearing point for plans coming out of the state committee. They will decide the best way to apply the general idea in their own communities.

In most cases the committee will consist of the county school superintendent, county agricultural agent, a chamber of commerce secretary and the newspaper publisher in the county.

Much of the work at the state level is handled through the Michigan Economic Development Department and its director, Don C. Weeks.

Theme for this year's promotion is "This Is Your Michigan" announced Mr. Cislir, who pointed out, "The success of the observance will depend largely upon the work and enthusiasm demonstrated by local committees." He emphasized that the program was state-wide—not a Detroit plan.

Specific promotions are suggested to fit the needs for every group from agricultural to youth organizations. They include programs, contests, pageants, displays, special editions of newspapers and recreational events.

Michigan is the second state to adopt the idea of a special week. "Pennsylvania has conducted a similar week for eight years—and with considerable success," says Mr. Cislir. An important difference is that Michigan's plan is financed privately, and Pennsylvania's promotion uses tax funds. Michigan's program is starting with a $20,000 budget set up by Greater Michigan, Inc. Local promotions, however, will be financed by the communities that support the idea.

From Germany

Exchange Student Returns to Village

When Ingeborg Rothenpieler of Heringen, Germany left Northville in the summer of 1952 after a year as an exchange student here, she cherished one hope above all others.

"I wanted to come back here to live," she recalled. "Even as I left for home I was thinking of how I might return."

On Feb. 26, thanks to her own determination and the help of the Lynn Sullivans of 405 Eaton Dr., that dream came true when she landed at Willow Run Airport after a flight from Frankfurt, Germany.

Ingeborg, now 20, was one of four German students who attended school here during the 1951-52 school year as part of a program in international understanding that is still being continued. Two German students are here this year.

LIVED WITH SULLIVANS

While in Northville, Ingeborg, or "Inga" as she prefers to be called, lived part of the time with the Sullivans.

"We corresponded after I went back to Germany and they knew how badly I wanted to return," Inga said. "Without their help, I couldn't have made it."

Aliens are required to have a sponsor and the Sullivans agreed to provide a home for Inga and help her find a job.

When asked what she liked most about the United States generally and Northville in particular, Inga said:

"It seemed to me that people were much more tolerant here than in Germany... the individual seems to have much more freedom. In Europe, young people are so bound by tradition... if your father is a mechanic, you must be a mechanic. Here, it is not like that. Your whole way of life appeals to me."

JOB HUNTING

Inga's first consideration right now is to find a job. She's skilled in secretarial work and also is qualified to work as a translator. She worked for two years at an Air Force base near her home. She also hopes to attend night school. In the meantime, she'll start proceedings to become a United States citizen.

"In Germany, I met a lot of students who attended school here. Many of them wanted to come back," Inga said. "I guess I'm one of the lucky ones."

Mrs. Carlson Re-elected as Red Cross Head

Mrs. A. C. Carlson was re-elected chairman of the Northville Red Cross branch at a meeting held last Monday in the Elementary School.

Other officers are Miss Evelyn Ware, co-chairman; Miss Bea Ware, secretary; Mrs. Samuel Geraci, treasurer; Mrs. William Forney, Blood Bank chairman; Mrs. H. G. Godfrey, first aid chairman; Miss Mary Hollis, home nursing chairman; Miss Ruth Knapp, Junior Red Cross chairman; Mrs. Edith McKenna, canteen chairman; Roy Stone, disaster chairman; Charles Carrington, disaster co-chairman and Mrs. Louise Cansfield, home service chairman.

Mrs. Emma Reid, Mrs. C. C. Winter and Miss Margaret Rager, were named to the Board of Directors.

The officers are faced with two big projects this year.

The first is the Red Cross fund drive which began March 1, under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. C. Winter. The group hopes not only to collect money but new members.

The second project is to complete the organization of a disaster group. The Red Cross chairman, Roy Stone, and his co-chairman, Charles Carrington, are working with Philip Ogilvie, Civil Defense Chief, and Con Springer, his assistant, on this project.

As soon as these plans are completed, they will be published in the Record.

Novi Civic Highlights

At a Novi Civil Defense meeting held Feb. 26 in the Township Hall, Chairman Ernest Pitchford introduced Louis Jarrendt of the County Organization. Veterans William Callan and Joe Ray represented the local AmVets post. Novi Director John Flannery and Civil Defense staff members discussed plans of organization and training. It was decided that emphasis be first placed upon first aid training. Medical Service Chief Duane Bell will present data on the training schedule at a public meeting to be held in the Community Hall on March 5 at 8 p.m.

According to Flannery, a township organization plan submitted by Bell will form the basis for local CD action. This form calls for a headquarters at Grand River and Novi Rd. and the designation of five zones.

Zone 1 will be enclosed by 14 Mile on the north, Meadowbrook on the east, 12 Mile on the south, to the Chesapeake R.R., and on the west by the railroad and West Lake Drive.

Zone 2 will be enclosed by 14 Mile on the north, Napier Rd. on the west, 12 Mile on the south and the railroad and West Lake Drive on the east.

Zone 3 is enclosed by 9 Mile on the north, Napier Rd. on the west, Meadowbrook on the east and 8 Mile on the south.

Zone 4 is enclosed by 11 Mile on the north, Haggerty Rd. on the east, 11 Mile on the south, Meadowbrook on the west. All other territory will be serviced from the headquarters unit.

Personnel are needed to man all phases of the work. Volunteers may phone Flannery at Market 4-1082 or Pitchford at Market 4-1430. If volunteers wish to work with particular services they may call Ken Basset at Northville 993-M12 who needs 20 wardens; Duane Bell at Market 4-1462 who needs 30 medical men including 10 nurses or doctors; Henry Turner at Northville 180-M11, who needs 20 additional policemen; Robert Skellinger who needs firemen to begin a 6-evolution training class, scheduled to begin shortly; Clair Hillyer at Northville 74-R11 who needs transportation workers; and Ed

Paige, Market 4-1909 who needs men trained in communications. Volunteers may sign up at the meeting to be held March 5 at 8 p.m. in the Novi Community

School District
Wayne, Oakland & Washtenaw Counties, Michigan
SCHOOL BUILDING BONDS

Dated March 1, 1954 Due April 1, as below

The School District, which includes the incorporated Village of Northville, covers an area of approximately 18 square miles, the major portion of which is located in the northwest corner of Wayne County 12 miles west of the Detroit city limits. Its boundaries extend slightly west into Washtenaw County and north into Oakland County. The district is definitely suburban in nature with most of the new residential growth occurring in the $25,000 home bracket and up. Also located in the district are several large public institutions such as a State mental hospital, Wayne County Training School, Detroit House of Correction, and the William H. Maybury Tuberculosis Sanatorium. Principal industrial taxpayers include the Ford Motor Company with a valuation of $400,372 who pay 10.68% of school taxes.

The electors of the District, by a majority vote of 354 to 83, have approved the issuance of these bonds and have authorized an increase of 5 1/2 mills in the taxing power for a period of 20 years. This increase is specifically earmarked for the purpose of paying principal and interest upon these bonds.

Principal and semi-annual interest (April 1 and October 1, first coupon October 1, 1954) payable at THE DETROIT TRUST COMPANY, Detroit, Michigan. Coupon bonds in denomination of $1,000 Bonds due 1960 to 1972 are callable in inverse, numerical order, on any interest payment date on or after April 1, 1959 at prices ranging downward from 102 1/4 to 100 1/2.

These bonds, in the opinion of counsel, are payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied upon all taxable property in the District, subject to constitutional limitations and the Michigan Property Tax Limitation Act.

Legal opinion of Messrs. Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, Detroit, Michigan (Descriptive circular upon request.)

WILD LIFE NOTES...

WILDLIFE BILL—

Senate Bill No. 1086 protecting hawks and owls has passed the Michigan Senate by a unanimous vote and is now under discussion in the House of Representatives Conservation Committee. Persons interested in seeing this measure pass should write the committee.

KILLDEER—

Seven killdeer were seen on Powell Rd., west of Plymouth, on Feb. 21. This is early for their appearance in the Northville area, since they were not observed last year until March 15. They are a member of the plover family and frequent muddy fields with short grass (or no grass). They are bizarrely streaked across the breast with two broad black bands, and have the odd, unexplained habit of suddenly dipping or pumping their whole body down and up every 10 or 15 seconds.

Similarly early this year are the Redwings (red-winged blackbirds), who were observed at Taylor's marsh on Ridge Rd. on Feb. 21 in a small flock of five males. In 1953 they arrived on March 10 and in 1952 on March 9.

SPRING HAS SPRUNG—

Certain mixed up spruce grouse in the upper peninsula don't seem to realize it's the middle of winter.

Spruce grouse are supposed to go into their act only in the springtime, but conservation field workers recently found a flock of the birds holding a ball in a snow-covered Luce County spruce thicket.

The female grouse were parked around in trees nearby to keep from getting trampled on while males provided the show. They would raise their plumage, lower their heads and then shake tail feathers rapidly back and forth to produce a "clicking" sound.

In the spring, this sort of dancing and courtship ritual entrances the female to the point where little spruce grouse result, but it's something of a wildlife question mark what it means in the middle of February.

Perhaps, like humans, they prefer to be occasionally inconsistent

REAL EEL—

A fisherman recently speared a herring that had a seven-inch lamprey eel attached to it, Brimley State Park Manager David Balbough reports.

The fish was caught in the park channel off Whitefish Bay, Lake Superior.

The herring was little bigger than the eel, a somewhat unusual situation, fisheries workers say.

Ordinarily, the parasitic lamprey attaches itself to bigger fish and, most commonly, to the lake trout.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Sam Pickard, a dear husband and father, who left us March 4, 1951:

He has left us a beautiful memory. A sorrow too great to be told. But to us who loved him and lost him, His memory will never grow old.

Buy Savings Bonds

Remove that question mark from your future! Even though the habit of spending money seems incredibly easy, the habit of saving money is easier. Far easier if you get into the habit of buying United States Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan. Once you've signed up, your Savings Bonds come to you regularly—automatically. Your employer does everything for you—puts your money aside from your paychecks—buys your Savings Bonds for you—even hands them to you. Ask your employer about the Payroll Savings Plan. You'll feel more secure tomorrow, if you invest in United States Savings Bonds today.

Jr. Police Checker, Ping-Pong Winners

Scout Swimming Resumes Tuesday

Swimming for Girl Scouts at the Wayne County Training School will resume Tuesday, March 9 and continue for 12 weeks. Girls who attended the sessions in the fall are still eligible. Those who have not attended before, should contact Mrs. Richard Kay, 585-W. The fee for the swimming is $2.40 (20¢ a week) payable in advance.

Del Campo, at the pool, stresses once more that no combs, bobby pins, hair pins or barrettes may be worn in the pool.

Transportation will be provided by the mothers of Scouts, each mother being called on an average of once a month.

Swimming fees should be paid to Mrs. Kay at the Scout Building before leaving for the pool.

"Man" Subject of Christian Science Lesson Sermon

That permanent peace and harmony are within the reach of mankind through the spiritual growth that reveals the true, spiritual nature of man in God's likeness will be emphasized in the Lesson Sermon entitled "Man," which will be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

Selections from the King James Version of the Bible include this citation from Romans: "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose" (8:28).

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

"Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual,—they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite,—in order that sin and mortality may be put off.

"This scientific sense of being, forsaking matter for Spirit, by no means suggests man's absorption into Deity and the loss of life of his identity, but confers upon man enlarged individuality, a wider sphere of thought and action, a more expansive love, a higher and more permanent peace" (285:5-15).

The Golden Text is from Psalms: "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace" (37:37).

IN MEMORIAM

To have, to love, and then to part is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.

The Weight of Public Opinion is Against the Excise Tax on Telephone Service

"Which Federal excise tax do you personally object to most?"

That question was asked recently in a public poll conducted by Opinion Research Corporation. They wanted to learn how people personally felt about Federal excise taxes. These were their findings: THE EXCISE TAX THAT INCURRED THE MOST RESENTMENT AND IRRITATION WAS THE TAX ON TELEPHONE SERVICE.

Of the people interviewed, 59% objected most to this tax. It was more objectionable than the Federal excise taxes on gasoline, automobiles, tires, railroad tickets, cigarettes, movie tickets, and many other things.

This high percentage of objection to telephone excise taxes is understandable. Each month they add 15% to your telephone bill for local service, and 25% to your bill for long distance calls costing 25¢ cents or more. For excise tax purposes, it's as though your telephone were a luxury, like jewelry or furs.

We recognize the Government's need for adequate income and for balancing the budget. But if Congress is to consider any excise tax reductions, we believe the excise taxes on telephone service should be among the first to get attention.

All the savings from a reduction or repeal of these taxes would go to telephone users—not to the telephone company.

German Funeral

Harry S. German, Jr., both of Northville, and a sister, Mrs. Gertrude M. Renshaw of Detroit. Also surviving are eight grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Mr. German was born Feb. 21, 1876, in Oakland County.

He attended high school in Northville and it was here that he first gained fame as a baseball player. His career on the diamond lasted for 53 years.

WORKED IN BANK

His first job here was as an assistant cashier at the bank. He later organized state banks in Belleville, Carleton, South Lyon and Maybee.

Mr. German lived in Carleton during most of the early 1900's but in 1918 he sold most of his interests there and moved to a farm near Northville.

He served as mayor here for two terms, from 1929 through 1932. He previously had been village president of Carleton.

Mr. German retired as a banker in 1942 after an operation for cataracts. He then entered the real estate field and specialized in the sale of farm properties.

His baseball career officially ended in 1941 when, at the age of 65, he pitched for a county all-star team against Pontiac and Saline.

After his retirement from baseball, he obtained the services of George Stark, Detroit News columnist, to help write memoirs of his more than 50 years in the game.

The result was a 46-page booklet titled "He Cut the Mustard" which gained wide distribution.

passed, said the failure to list both villages and cities as entitled to the money was entirely an oversight.

Thanks!

Dr. V. George Chabut has asked the Record to extend his thanks to all the volunteers who helped plan and administer last week's four-day visit of the Wayne County Health Department Mobile chest x-ray unit.

The program was termed a "great success" by Dr. Chabut. So far, no figures have been announced as to the number of Villagers who took advantage of the chance for a free x-ray.

The GREEN THUMB

by Paul Newton

Herbs fresh from your garden are quite different in flavor from those found in the grocery store package. Fresh herbs are not quite so potent as dried ones and so may be used more lavishly, especially in salads of mixed greens or with raw vegetable combinations.

The herbs which may help to vary the taste of pork are rosemary, sage, marjoram or dill. All are easy to grow in your garden this spring. Rosemary should be bought as a plant but marjoram, sage and dill can be grown from seed.

BEST FLAVORS

Fish and sea foods are best flavored with rosemary, thyme, savory or a little horse radish root. The latter is rarely thought of as an herb, but actually is a valuable one. It is easy to grow and has a far better flavor when dug from the garden. It also has a much more potent flavor than when poured from the bottle. Horse radish grated into the butter in a meat sandwich, puts the sandwich in a class by itself. Pieces of horse radish root are planted in rather rich soil, two feet deep and about three feet apart for it is rampant grower and needs careful control.

EGG DISHES

Egg dishes are improved by the addition of chervil, basil, thyme or tarragon. There are no flavoring rules except to go easy at first. Your family may not go all the way with you. Chervil and basil can be grown easily from seed but tarragon and thyme grow so slowly that a few plants are best to start and then increase the supply by making cuttings from these as they grow.

All herbs are best when cut back to promote the growth of new tender foliage which yields the best flavor. Tarragon likes partial shade and usually survives if given a little winter protection but rosemary must be taken indoors in winter.

No herb garden is complete without parsley and chives. Parsley is easily grown from seed but chives mature so slowly from seed that it is more desirable to plant the bulblets.

CUTTINGS NEXT FALL

Thyme, rosemary, sage and dill grow best in light sandy soil on the limey side in full sun, while parsley, chervil, basil, tarragon and marjoram prefer medium, rich soil.

Cuttings can be made next fall from the herb garden and planted in the pockets of a strawberry jar for your kitchen window garden during the winter. A plastic pipe is placed down the center of the jar and a thin layer of pebbles on the bottom for drainage. A mixture of equal parts of garden loam, sand and compost, with a small handful of lime added will give best results. Dill, marjoram, peppermint, geranium and rosemary are the best indoor growers. Chervil can be started from seed planted in the jar.

Herbs are natural in rock gardens. Raising them is no great undertaking because it can be done in a small scale. They can be combined with flowers and vegetables making pretty border and effective background massings.

HOW STRICT?

How strict shall a Church be about what they believe or about what they practice? We probably have as many degrees of strictness as we have denominations of the Christian Church. Certainly we cannot allow any man to be the judge for he would set the standard according to his particular tastes. There is only one standard that should be acceptable to all who own the name Christian, and that is the Bible. Our liberty in believing should be limited to the scope allowed in the Scriptures. Where the Word is plain and clear we must and will bow to the revelation of Divine wisdom. Where the Word is silent we must allow the influence of the scriptures to determine the degree of strictness. The same can be said as far as practice is concerned. The path of the Christian life is clearly outlined for us in the Word and the regenerated mind will have no trouble in following it. The difficulty of many people is that they want to be broadminded, according to the common use of the word, and to remain on the "broadway" and still go to heaven when they leave this life. It might be well to ponder these words of Jesus. Found in Matthew 7:13-14. Look it up now.

Mustangs Clinch League Title With Win Over Keego Harbor

Keego Harbor has a habit of blasting Northville dreams. The Presidents did it last fall when, on the strength of a single touchdown (and a questionable one at that), they ended Northville's hopes of a Wayne-Oakland County League football championship.

They almost pulled the same stunt last Friday night. This time the game was basketball and the stakes weren't quite as high. Northville had to win to hold undisputed first place. A loss would have left them with only a share of the title.

Keego was an inspired club, but the Mustangs weren't to be denied. Behind at the half, 32-30, they inched ahead in the third quarter, stretched their lead to 12 points in the fourth period, turned back a determined Keego rally and won 63-60.

12th WIN

The victory was Northville's 12th of the season against three losses. It gave the Mustangs an 10-2 league record.

Northville's big gun, as has been the case on most occasions, was Glenn Howarth.

Instructed by his father to score at least 30 points, Howarth came within one point of following orders. He poured in 29, his best effort of the year.

Ed Nash, the other half of Northville's twin scoring punch, couldn't buy a basket in the first half but rallied for seven field goals in the second half, a time when they were sorely needed. He had a total of 16 points.

Nash was a hero on another count. His field goal with only seconds left put Northville ahead 61-59 after Keego had rallied to tie the score. Darwin Teschka added an important insurance field goal seconds later.

TRAIL AT HALF

The Mustangs were below par the first half. Howarth's 19 points kept them in the ball game but his four teammates could manage only 11 points among them. The half-time score was 32-30 in favor of Keego.

With Nash hitting for eight points and Howarth for seven, Northville rallied for 14 points in the third quarter and held a 49-42 advantage as that period ended.

Northville stretched its lead to 12 points early in the last quarter but then came some anxious moments.

The Presidents chipped away at the Mustang edge and with one minute and 15 seconds remaining, Keego's Lloyd Law scored a field goal to tie the score 59-59.

Nash snapped back with a field goal with 45 seconds left to put Northville ahead 61-59 and then Teschka tipped in a rebound with 13 seconds left to make the score 63-59. Jerry O'Shaughnessy scored Keego's last point on a free throw and Northville had possession of the ball as the horn sounded.

Reserves Lose to Keego by 56-51 Score

The Northville High School reserve basketball season closed its season Friday night by dropping a close one to Keego Harbor on the Presidents' home court.

The score was 56-51. The loss was the eighth suffered this year by Coach Stan Johnston's charges. They've won seven.

A poor first half showing cost the Colts a chance for a win. They trailed at half-time, 33-20, but outscored the home club 31-23 in the third and fourth quarters.

The Colts' second half rally was sparked by Clarence Patterson, who poured in 15 points. He scored seven points in the first half to give him a game total of 22, high for both teams.

Carter to Defend Title in Friday Television Bout

Champion Jimmy Carter will try to keep Paddy DeMarco from taking over his lightweight crown in a scheduled 15-round title bout as the regular Friday evening, March 5 presentation on the Cavalcade of Sports.

Boxing fans coast-to-coast will have the opportunity to be in on all the ring doings of a bout considered by many to be one of the top matches of the year. The NBC television cameras and ABC radio microphones will be set up at ringside at 10 p.m.

Jimmy Carter will be appearing in his ninth title fight, his seventh as title-defender. During 1953, Tommy Collins, George Arango and Armand Savoie were kayoed in their attempts to displace Jimmy. Since turning pro in 1946, Carter has won 64 bouts, 26 of them by kayo.

Paddy DeMarco, a great TV favorite, gets the opportunity he has been striving for since turning pro in 1946. His January 2 upset against third ranking Ralph Dupas catapulted Paddy from ninth to third place rating in his division and won him this chance at the crown. DeMarco vows to work extra hard to become champ as a final tribute to his veteran manager, Jimmy Dixon, who died suddenly just before the Carter match was signed.

Sportscasters Jimmy Powers, Don Dunphy and Win Elliot will be at ringside to describe the action.

SOUTH AMERICAN REPORT

Our recent trip to Chile probing rumors of "fabulous" trout fishing in that country brought forth some startling facts about rainbows—actual descendants of Michigan rainbow trout planted there some 20 years ago. Chile—at least the central portion of that elongated republic—is in the same south latitude as Michigan is north. Theoretically the climate might well be the same (except that summers and winters are reversed on the calendar), and trout might be expected to prosper equally well in both Michigan and Chile.

If such were the fortunate case Michigan anglers would be catching 15 pound trout only 4 years old! That's how fast they grow in South America! Protected by the towering Andes on the east, and warmed by the Pacific Ocean on the west, Chile enjoys mild temperatures the year 'round. Rainbows apparently feed voraciously in both lakes and streams for the entire 12 months of the year.

Special Diet Helps

Their diet is extraordinarily rich in elements contributing to rapid growth—and the diet is mainly one dish: the pancora crab. Found along the rocky shores of lakes and rivers, the pancora looks like a cross between a crawfish and a standard crab. It occurs everywhere in Chile, and abundantly, in a size to please every trout! Small, soft-shelled pancoras, about the size of a dime, are consumed by the smaller fish while the adult rainbows feed on crabs up to two inches in diameter.

Might Grow in Michigan

Michigan fisheries research might well examine the possibility of transplanting the pancora to some of our streams. Water temperatures in Chilean rivers drop to around 40° in late winter and spring with the snow run-off from the Andes. If the crabs survive such temperatures they might also live in Michigan's Au Sable, Sturgeon, Manistee, Pigeon or numerous other trout streams.

Chile "World's Best"

To many sportsmen who have fished around the world, Chile is looked upon as the top spot for trout fishermen. Rapid rate of growth due largely to the pancora maintains a large population of big fish—and with our scientists swinging from the theory of planting trout to the idea that habitat improvement is the thing, the introduction of a new trout food in Michigan might be a step in the right direction!

It could have . . . and you might never know it. And as a result your fuel bills could be as much as 40% more than they need to be.
