"COME OUTSIDE AND SAY THAT"

It is said with a great deal of truth that most individuals get their news about important matters by scanning newspaper headlines or listening to their favorite radio or television announcer. Clever politicians know this is true. They often sound off in a manner that they know will give them headlines in the papers and over the air to create a definite impression on the public mind.

This appears to have been Sen. McCarthy's intent when he leveled serious charges against Assistant Defense Secretary Hensel on the eve of the current investigation involving himself and Messrs. Cohn and Schine vs. top Army officials. It was patently an attempt to prejudice the Army's case in the public's mind, as also was his later statement characterizing the hearing as a "red minnow" and saying that the Army was neglecting more pressing affairs to engage in the controversy with his committee.

Hensel has challenged McCarthy to repeat his charges "without the protection of senatorial immunity". He told the senator he would guarantee him "a lawsuit which he will not be able to drop" if he would repeat the same things in the open.

However, the privileged status given by the Constitution to utterances by members of Congress in the performance of their duties has been so liberally interpreted by the courts that it is difficult to call them to account even for things said outside the halls of Congress.

Even if a member of Congress agrees to surrender his immunity, a slander suit against him is likely to be wasted effort. Rep. Tinkham (R., Mass.) in 1930 repeated off the floor charges he had made against Bishop Cannon. But when Cannon sued for libel, the case was dismissed on the ground that the Bishop had invited publication of Tinkham's derogatory remarks.

Whether Hensel would run up against the same difficulty, if McCarthy opened the way to filing of a suit, is uncertain. Further light on the question whether a legislator can forego his immunity might have been given if the Wisconsin senator had not recently abandoned his two-year-old libel action against former Sen. Benton (D., Conn.). The suit largely involved privileged material and Benton had said he would not invoke his immunity. However, in that case McCarthy, unlike Cannon, had not invited publication of the alleged libel.

School Board Election Is Set for June 14

Two vacancies on the Northville Board of Education are to be filled this year, and nominating petitions must be in by May 15, Supt. of Schools R. H. Amerman announced this week.

The terms of Robert Coolman, president of the board, and Don Severance, secretary, will expire June 13. An election will be held at the Village hall June 14.

Both Coolman and Severance have stated they will seek reelection, Amerman said. Others who may want to enter the contest are advised that petitions bearing a minimum of 50 and a maximum of 75 signatures of qualified voters must be filed with the board secretary by May 15.

Amerman said any citizen may run for the office provided he or she is a property owner, or their spouse are, and live within the district.

Citizens registered with the township clerk and who live within the school district are eligible to vote in the election. Those who are not registered may do so at a date to be announced later. Petitions for candidates may be obtained at the Board of Education office, Amerman said.

The board has five members. The three whose terms have some time to run are Eural Clark and Nelson Schrader, one year; and Mrs. Luza Wagenschutz, two years.

Record Office Is Burglarized

(Picture on Page 8)

Burglars who last Friday night ransacked the office of The Record and took approximately $30 in cash are being sought by Northville police, assisted by detectives of the Michigan State Police from the post at Seven Mile Rd. and Grand River.

The burglary was discovered Saturday morning by Glenn H. Cummings, editor and publisher of The Record, but it was not until an investigation was held Monday morning that the extent of the robbery was known.

Chief of Police Joseph Denton, assisted by Trooper Calvin Lepien, state police fingerprint expert, and Detective Frank Barkman, examined a desk safe and drawer that had been forced open either with a crowbar or a screwdriver. Fingerprints found on the desk were taken, and are being studied by state police.

A back door was found open, but there was no damage to windows or the front door, indicating that the intruders either had used the back door to gain admittance or had a key to the front entrance.

Following a checkup, Mrs. Mary Donovan, office manager, reported that currency had been taken from the cash box, plus a small amount of coins, but that an additional amount in silver and petty cash had been overlooked.

Pre-Registration for 5-Year-Olds Planned May 13

The pre-registration program for parents of children entering kindergarten in September is being held Thursday, May 13, at 1:30 P.M. in the Northville grade school, announces Mr. Pregitzer, grade school principal. Children are not to come with their parents this day.

An informal program is planned which will give the teachers and parents an opportunity to meet and establish understandings pertinent to a successful kindergarten program. The children's birth certificate or christening certificate is required at this time. State ruling requires a child to be five years of age on or before December 1, 1954 to qualify for kindergarten entrance this coming fall.

Orientation day for the children is planned on Friday, May 14 and this gives the children an opportunity to participate in a school experience and become acquainted with the kindergarten.

NORTHVILLE'S OWN field artillery battery, or at least one unit of it, was dedicated here last week when one of the huge 41-ton self-propelled guns, largest in the world, was displayed on the Community building grounds. In the top photograph, members of the crew pose with two Northville High school seniors, Robert Burgess and Glen Howarth, while a few boys edge into the picture at right.

JUNIOR HIGH and grade school "small fry" swarmed over the big field piece put on display here by members of Battery B, 979th FA Bn. First Sgt. William Martin, of Seven Mile Rd., Northville, and Sgt. 1st Lt. C. Johnston, also of Northville, (bottom, center) explained the functions of the huge weapon to interested visitors.

Annual Northville Smelt Expedition Flops, But Party Returns Safely

Northville's perennial smelt fishermen, who made their annual trek north last Wednesday, came home nearly empty handed for the first time in years.

But, according to Leland Smith, one of the leaders of the party of 19 professional and businessmen who made the trip to Au Gres, south of Tawas, a good time was had by all—which was what they went for anyhow.

The party stopped at Franken-

muth for dinner, according to custom. There, John Stark discovered that three of the party were acting pretty snooty—wearing ties—so he borrowed a knife and cut off the cravats of all three at the dinner table—

Art Schnute, D. J. Stark, and Leland Smith. Considerable hilarity accompanied the ceremony. The party reached the fishing grounds about midnight, only to discover that the smelt had not

Anglers Report Success As Trout Season Opens

Northville anglers, accompanied by innumerable devotees of the bent-pin and home-made pole school of fishing, were out in force Saturday as the 1954 trout season got under way, and were still at it Sunday, Monday and Tuesday when free time presented itself.

Streams and lakes around Northville were lined with fishermen shortly after dawn on opening day, despite poor weather conditions. Many Detroiters, out from the city for a holiday, waded up and down the Rouge river, seeking spots where trout could be enticed to strike at any of a number of types of bait. By 8 a.m., a number reported catching the limit.

Youngsters Out Too

Northville youngsters, too, were stationed at various points along the Rouge from the U.S. Fish hatchery down through the park areas. Many of them, unable to obtain manufactured fishing equipment, were seen trying their luck with home-made pole and angletworms for bait. Some reported having good results, and at least one angler from the Big City, carrying an expensive rod and reel, was seen enviously eyeing a string of trout caught by a nine-year-old boy, while he himself had been able to hook only one small fish.

Meanwhile, throughout the state, an estimated 100,000 or so are preparing for the opening of the Bass season on June 19.

Check Regulations

State fisheries specialists said that they are checking the present bass and pike regulations as they did panfish regulations a number of years ago to see if angling rules can be liberalized or whether they should be tightened to protect the species.

Walled Lake Man Serving in Korea

24th Div., Korea—Pfc James E. Sayre, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence N. Sayre, 821 Alberton Rd., Walled Lake, is serving in Korea with the 24th Infantry Div.

The "Victory" division first landed in Korea during July 1950 and spent 19 months in combat before going to Japan for security duty. It returned to the peninsula shortly before the cease-fire.

An ammunition bearer in the 19th Regiment's Co. C, Sayre entered the Army in February, 1953, and arrived in Korea last December.

"Northville's Own" Field Artillery On Display Here

Northville acquired a field artillery battery this week.

Four huge self-propelled field pieces, each weighing 41 tons and described as the world's largest, together with personnel, vehicles and pertinent paraphernalia, henceforth will be known as "Northville's Own".

This was made clear in a letter from the commanding officer of Battery "B", 979th Field Artillery Bn., of the Michigan National Guard, following a visit of personnel and one of the huge guns to the Village last week.

A party led by Lt. Joseph G. Mathewson, and 1st Sgt. William F. Martin of Northville, brought the gun to Northville and exhibited it to curious high school seniors and a complement of "small fry" who clambered all over the equipment at the Northville Community building grounds.

Impressed by the big weapon and the possibility of a two-week vacation with the battalion during summer maneuvers of the Michigan National Guard at Camp Grayling, six Northville youths enlisted in the outfit.

They are: August Ritt, Glenn Campbell, Bill Lessway, Clarence Patterson, Bill Dietz and Larry Graham. Several others are said to be considering signing up.

The letter from headquarters of the battery follows: "We, the members of the 979th Field Artillery Battalion, Battery "B" wish to express our deepest thanks to the City Council, school superintendent and principal, chief of police and police department and all the citizens of the Village of Northville for the fine and heartwarming welcome and consideration we received when we visited the city on the 22nd of April, 1954, with our field pieces and vehicles.

"Our mission of recruiting was a success and we would like to dedicate our Battery as 'B' Battery of Northville, Mich., from this time on, to carry the flag of Northville and its environs to Camp Grayling or wherever our superior officers deem necessary for us to go forth.

"We would appreciate from one and all your cooperation in helping us obtain new men from the Northville area so we may carry on as Northville 'B' Battery. "At any time, if anyone from child to the oldest civil war veteran would like to pay a visit to us we welcome you.

"Again, feel free to call on us for any ceremony, parade or civic affair that we can help you with and are free to do so, and we will be more than willing to help.

"Thanking you again, we remain

Walled Lake Man In Army Maneuver

Fort Lewis, Wash. — Army Cpl. John R. Seifert, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Seifert, 7908 Bywater St., Route 1, Walled Lake, Mich., will move to the Yakima (Wash.) Training Center in May when the 44th Infantry Division participates in Exercise Hill Top.

Seifert is a mail clerk in the 129th Regiment of the division stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash. Before entering the Army in April 1953, he was employed by Pontiac Motors Division.

Overcrowding of Novi School Now Serious

That something must be done to alleviate overcrowding of Novi schools was indicated Wednesday by Mrs. Mary Ann Atkinson, superintendent. The situation is being viewed by educational authorities with increasing seriousness.

Already there are 35 more pupils in the grade school than there were in 1953, and almost as many additional children are expected to enroll next year, Supt. Atkinson declared.

60 Sent to Northville
"Our high school students, of course, are being cared for in other schools," she said. "Sixty students are being sent to Northville High school at present, four to Walled Lake, and one to Farmington. How many more there will be next year is anybody's guess."

Plans for an addition to the present school are under way, the superintendent stated, and a new teacher will be added to the staff for next year.

The situation is one that will undergo prolonged study by the new Arca School Study committee of 36 citizens of six districts in Novi and Northville townships. However, since the survey will take more than a year to complete, no tangible action can be expected before that time except from other quarters.

Meeting Scheduled

The committee will hold its next meeting at the Northville school, according to Mrs. William Milne, publicity chairman. "At that time the committee will discuss the progress made by the various subcommittees to date.

Claude M. Elmore, assistant superintendent of Oakland county schools, said the population subcommittee is ready to work on a map which will show the location of all the students in the area. Members of the building subcommittee are working on forms on which they will record conditions of school houses and the number of rooms available, and other pertinent data.

New member of the committee is Larry Wood, 43641 W. Nine Mile Rd., in the Chapman district, who will replace Walter Ross. He will serve on the Auxiliary subcommittee replacing William Templeton, who will transfer to the post Ross held on the finance subcommittee.

Novi Students Seek To Beautify Area

Novi eighth grade class members have undertaken a town beautification program, and hope to enlist the aid of their parents and other citizens in improving the appearance of the community.

The program at first will concentrate on planting flowers and shrubs on vacant lots and fence rows from Northville to the Walled Lake park area. The flowers and shrubs to be planted will include the following: lilacs, forsythia, weeping willows, violets, iris, sunflowers, tiger lilies and hollyhocks. If anyone should have any of these flowers they are asked to contact the school or any member of the eighth grade class.

Wayne County TB Cases Show Decline

Wayne county had over half of all the new cases of tuberculosis found in Michigan during 1953, creating a problem which every resident must face continually, the annual report of the Tuberculosis and Health Society revealed Wednesday.

During the year 3,928 people in Detroit and the county were found to have TB — a five and a half per cent decrease over the 1952 figures. The report will be released at the annual meeting of the Society which will be held Friday, April 30, at noon at the Central Branch YMCA in Detroit.

The number of deaths from TB in the country dropped sharply from 444 in 1952 to 357 last year.

Mrs. Flora Maloin and Mrs. Ida Cook spent a day in Plymouth last week visiting Mrs. Eric Nielson.

State Hospital To Hold Open House May 2-4

Residents of the Northville area have been invited to attend open house at the Northville State hospital on Seven Mile Rd. The invitation was extended Tuesday by Dr. Philip N. Brown, medical superintendent of the hospital.

Dates for the open house have been set as May 2 and 3, from 1 to 4 p.m., and May 4 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tours of the hospital and lectures by staff members are planned in observance of National Mental Health week, May 2-9.

Dr. Brown also announced that the Patients Representative council of the hospital has elected Mrs. Laura Woody, of Wayne, as the "Psychiatric Aide of the Year", and has presented her with a defense bond in token of her service. In addition, she has been presented with an Achievement Certificate by Dr. Brown.

Following her election by the patients council, the hospital staff submitted Mrs. Woody as a candidate for the annual award of the National Assn. for Mental Health. Dr. Brown has received notice of approval by the awards committee, and Mrs. Woody will be one of 94 persons in the nation to share recognition during National Mental Health Week.

PTA Carnival Plans Complete; Set for May 7

Northville merchants and others have contributed generously to the annual PTA carnival which will be held the evening of May 7, and the committee in charge is very much gratified, Chairman Charles Bahnmiller said Wednesday. Plans are now complete and everything will be in readiness early next week.

An additional attraction will be a target range sponsored by Wilson Funk and the recreation department of Northville, to be set up on the high school grounds. A cotton candy booth, and pony rides are among the activities planned for small children, while older children will have a chance to ride big horses in a separate ring.

Northville Leatherneck Proves That Marines Aren't Tough, After All

"Babies and dogs"—sure fire subjects for news stories, according to newspaper tradition.

Mrs. Earl Fitzpatrick, of 17981 Beck Rd., brought one of the canine variety to The Record Friday. It concerns her son, Cpl. W. Fitzpatrick, who care for Lady, "Leatherneck" who — although Leathernecks are supposed to be "tough hombres"—apparently is fond of dogs and has a tender feeling where they are concerned.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick forgot to say where her son is stationed, but here is the story:

LADY'S FAUX PAS EARN HER DOGHOUSE

First Ordnance Bn. — "Lady" evidently didn't get the word or it came too late. She woofed the detail.

Lady is a white, pure-bred bar-barian canine mamasan currently maintaining "authorized" residence in this battalion CP. Her claim to fame came recently when she enlarged the ordnance unit's dog population by 13—later reduced to nine—in her first experience with the stock.

Wrong Time

Although the blessed event was on a definite schedule, it occurred at the wrong time. The battalion is presently campaigning to rid the area of stray dogs and minimize the canine census.

To top it off, she commenced delivery during a battalion fire drill.

Four Die

It took about eight hours—from midnight to 0800—to bring the puppies, 11 black, one brown and one white, into the world. TSgt. C. E. Donaldson and Cpl. W. L. Fitzpatrick, who care for Lady, stood by nervously like expectant fathers.

Four of the black ones died shortly after birth and were carefully separated from the others by the mother.

Something Missing

Lieutenant Colonel W. R. Barnes, battalion commander, visited the new family shortly after its organization and assured anxious Leathernecks that the pups could maintain temporary residence during their weaning period. Afterwards, they will be given away. Most of them have already been spoken for.

There's only one thing missing — papasan. He remains anonymous.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

Fireworks could result from hearings of the House Un-American Activities committee which will hold sessions in three Michigan cities beginning May 3.

Kit Clardy, representative from Michigan's Sixth Congressional district, (Ingham, Genesee and Washtenaw counties) will preside at the hearings. Also present as members of the sub-committee will be Cong. Gordon Scherer (R-Ohio) and Morgan Moulder (D-Missouri) as well as staff attorneys. Similar hearings on Un-American activities will be held in other parts of the country by other subcommittees.

Some 89 witnesses are scheduled to appear before this committee. Current plans call for a week in Detroit; meetings in Lansing May 10-12; in Flint for several days more.

"This is chapter two for Michigan in our two-year investigation into un-American activities," explained Kit Clardy. "During our first investigations here, several years ago, we alerted the American people how Communist union organizations and education. Part of the job this time," he continued, "is to determine if situations exposed previously had been corrected since. We are sure we blunted Communist effectiveness, but we want to see how much," he said.

Proceedings will be televised. Rep. Clardy stated that any witness who did not want to be televised need only say so—"the committee considers the choice an individual right." He also reminded that all witnesses will be notified that they have a right to bring legal counsel with them, if they choose.

Arguing that investigation committees do not usually get a fair break from the nation's newspaper columnists, the congressman said he was anxious to have as many people possible watch the proceedings. "Our operation is a good example of how investigation committees function," he stated.

Discussing the parallel Senate committee, with controversial

Joseph McCarthy as chairman, Rep. Clardy said, "The objective of McCarthy's committee and ours is the same—but I would say we do some things differently."

Refuge in the fifth amendment can be taken by any witness who considers answering questions will provide evidence that can be used against him in court. Clardy said that no witness is ever asked the $64 question: "Are you now, or have you ever been a member of the Communist party?" without evidence that the answer should be affirmative. Out of some 400 witnesses examined, 144 have refused to answer this question on grounds of self incrimination.

Called off several times for one reason or another, Rep. Clardy is sure that this time the hearings will take place as scheduled. Originally set for Oct. 26 last year, they were cancelled because it was considered they might jeopardize a Communist conspiracy trial then in progress in Detroit.

The hearings were then scheduled for Feb. 9 but had to be postponed because Rep. Clardy suffered a physical collapse. Cause of his difficulty was first thought to be a heart attack. However, the congressman said that complete examination showed he had suffered a severe case of virus pneumonia.

Clardy, whose flowing white hair makes him look debonair, claims to feel fit as a fiddle now and ready to assume his strenuous tasks as a presiding officer at the sub-committee hearings.

"Strange" Mayors will be controlling more than 400 Michigan cities and villages Wednesday, May 5.

The number one citizen of these municipalities agreed to swap places with each other as a feature of Michigan Week, which lasts from May 2 to 8. The "Exchange of Mayors Day" soon proved to be the best publicity angle to the week long promotion.

Who would change with whom was determined by a "legal" lottery held at Michigan State college. Nearly 300 people who have been working on Michigan Week were present to watch Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Lt. Gov. Clarence A. Reid and Speaker of the House Wade Van Valkenberg draw names.

The results made good news. In some instances, very small localities must exchange with very large ones. Detroit and Brighton, a village of 500, provided an excellent example.

Longest distance to be traveled exists for the mayors of Morenci, near the south border of the state, and Ironwood. These men must journey about 650 miles each way. Should they elect to travel around the west edge of Lake Michigan, they would pass through portions of three other states: Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. Greyhound bus lines offered to transport the mayors free of charge.

Towns are urged to drag out the red carpet when the visiting mayor shows up. He will be taken on a tour of the city, presented with a miniature display of products his "temporary" city is proud of, and he'll be given time to make a booster talk about the virtues of his regular community.

EXPERIENCED FIRE CHIEF

Edenton, N. C. — Edenton has what it believes to be the oldest active fire chief in America in the person of Captain Dick Hall, 88. Capt. Hall remembers when he had to pay to belong to the volunteer fire department and when manpower supplied the horse-power in pulling the fire cart.

The head-like object held in the lap of poet Wallace Havelock Robb, Abbey Dawn Museum of Archeology, near Kingston, Ontario, has so far baffled experts. That it has been 'worked' is agreed but how and by what primeval race they do not know. Any person with a theory to advance is invited to contact the Ontario Department of Travel and Publicity, Toronto, or poet Robb himself.

Walled Lake Casino Will Open Saturday

Top orchestras will provide music for dancing at the Walled Lake Casino ballroom, which will open for the 1954 season Saturday. Paul LaVoie and Leonard Stanley and their orchestras will be first on the schedule.

There will be dancing on Saturday nights only until the Memorial Day week-end, when a policy of Friday through Sunday dancing will become effective.

The season lineup of bands includes Sammy Kaye, Ralph Marterie, Ralph Flanagan, Johnny Long, Jan Garber, Charlie Spivak, Buddy Morrow and Shep Fields.

Ken Krezel Wins Oratorical Contest

Eight Northville high school students competed in the Optimist club's oratorical contest held recently.

After the official tabulations were checked, Ken Krezel was announced as the winner, and will take part in a similar contest at Saginaw May 21 and 22.

Others participating were Jim Rambeau, Conrad Doan (second place), George Hawes, Elvin Newton, David Dahl (third place), Anthony Olivitch, Richard Krafve and Ken Krezel. George Clark, Cliff Hill and Doc Holcomb acted as judges.

The mayor exchange brought home to thousands of people, better perhaps than anything else, the fact that the first Michigan Week in history is about to take place. Executives of Michigan Economic Development Dept., the strongest guiding force in making Michigan Week a success, considers the mayor-swapping plan one of the best ideas to come out of the promotion.

We'll Gain A Friend

More than 400 Michigan mayors will have new jobs next Wednesday when they embark on the annual exchange of mayors as part of the observance of Michigan Week.

Our own Village President, Claude Ely, will be out of the state, but Mayor Pro Tem John F. Stubenvoll will exchange places with Mayor Thomas S. Welsh of St. Clair Shores. Elsewhere, mayors from big towns will go to little towns, and from little to big in the luck of the draw. Grand Rapids, for example, will swap with Elkton, population 559.

It should be an eye-opener for most of the mayors. They will find familiar problems, and possibly some better answers than they thought they would get.

If it were possible, wouldn't it be a good thing if not only mayors, but all the residents as well could swap towns for a day? Some might appreciate their own more. Some might want to stay in their town-for-a-day. But they would understand one another better, and be better neighbors.

Having a great deal of faith in Northville, we think our Village will gain a friend when Mayor Welsh visits us and has a chance to see what makes us tick.

Building Sets Record

Recent figures show that construction during the first three months of 1954 set an all-time record. Figures from the Department of Labor and Commerce show that more than $7,300,000,000 was expended in this period.

This amount is slightly above the $7,175,000,000 total expended in the first three months of 1953. The 1953 expenditure was the all-time record until last year.

While no sectional figures are available, housing authorities believe that the Wayne county area, especially that part which includes Livonia, Redford, Plymouth and Farmington, shows growth above that of many comparable regions.

Construction is obviously running ahead of predictions and most of the increase is reflected in the expansion of private housing and public utility construction. Also involved is an increase in highway construction.

The latest figures show that private commercial building is leading the field of increases and is responsible for much of the over-all increase.

This news is significant in view of the fact that the nation's economy has been experiencing a recession in most fields. They show a general business optimism and explain why the prices of building materials have failed to come down as had been predicted. They are one of the significant and encouraging signs of 1954.

Grass Roots Opinion

Indianapolis, Ind., Times: "Whole sections of the United States are getting electric power for less than it costs to make it—with the government paying the difference."

New Egypt, N.J. Press: "The other day I read what J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, states is his creed of life. It is so good, honest, and so definitely what all Americans should follow that we give it here: 'Believe in God and the inherent dignity of man. Trust in our democratic principles, and be confident that truth will overcome the menace of dictatorship which today seeks to destroy our freedoms. Strive always to do your best. Make your life purposeful. If each of us in a spirit of self-dedication, will do his share, we can create a better world. That must be the spirit of 1954—the spirit of love, humility and justice.'"

Hardin, Montana, Tribune-Herald: "We're not trying to prove there isn't unemployment at the present time, or that it is not a serious problem, but it does seem that some groups—for obvious reasons—are overemphasizing the situation. These same groups often are the first to advocate more government spending as a means of curbing unemployment and assuring prosperity. The federal government cannot forever operate with a deficit, increase spending, and then cut taxes. It isn't in the cards."

With the Senate considering proposals which would increase personal income tax exemptions from the present $600 to $800 or even $1,000, members on both sides of the aisle are thinking over President Eisenhower's recent observation on the subject. Ike said that he favors cutting taxes when they can be cut—but that he does not believe the way to make the cut is to excuse millions of Americans from paying any income tax at all.

But this, it is pointed out, is exactly what would happen if some of the current proposals before the Senate are not defeated, as they were in the House of Representatives.

The alarming (to a Treasurer already in the red) fact is that an increase in the personal income tax exemption to $1,000 would excuse one taxpayer out of every three from any Federal income tax payment whatever.

Increasing the exemption to $1,000 would knock the Treasury out of about $9,000,000,000. It could only make up for this loss of revenue by borrowing more money—by increasing the national debt which already stands at $275,000,000,000.

That would mean increasing the money supply—which would mean decreasing the value of all the money that much more. And that would mean chipping more from the value of everybody's paycheck, everybody's savings, insurance, pension.

Government Forum Scheduled at MSC

East Lansing—More than 100 of Michigan's political and academic figures will discuss current problems of government during the ninth annual Summer Forum in State and Local Government July 6-23 at Michigan State college.

As a special feature of the 1954 forum, afternoon sessions will be devoted to discussions of party organization, nominations and elections. Taking part will be state, national and local officials of the two major political parties and a number of interested group leaders.

The forum, which has gained national recognition since its beginning in 1946, is designed to bridge the gap between theory and practice in politics. The forum is offered for graduate and undergraduate credit by the departments of secondary education and political science at MSC.

Babson

Says . . .

Roger W. Babson

BABSON DISCUSSES REASON FOR LAYOFFS

Washington—I am convinced that the present figures on unemployment are very misleading. With retail sales holding up reasonably well, these figures surely are not due to any so-called "Business Depression." The public must learn that we can now have both unemployment and reasonable prosperity at the same time.

VITAMIN PILLS AND GOVERNMENT FIGURES

The basic reasons for the present number of unemployed are: (1) our increased population; (2) the large number of women employed; and (3) the constantly increasing number of able-bodied persons over 65 years of age. It can honestly be said that many in this older-age group are listed in the "unemployed" category who would not have been so classified some years ago. The vitamin pills taken by older people undoubtedly keep them in the "employable" ranks longer. There are about 7,000,000 more of these people than there were 25 years ago! The constant introduction of new automatic machinery results in both unemployment and continued prosperity. One of my associates just visited a chemical plant where three men are now doing the work of eighty men. Fertilizing plowed fields has been done by hauling fertilizer in bags to the field, opening the bags and sprinkling the fertilizer by hand. Now an airplane loads with fertilizer at the factory and carries it in bulk to the fields, where it is sprayed on the ground from the air. No manual labor, no bags, and better results.

OFFSETTING HIGH LABOR COSTS

The rapid increase in self-service stores and coin machines is another illustration of how greater sales are handled with fewer clerks. This also reduces chances of loss to the stores from dishonest clerks who do not ring up sales properly. The practice followed by most modern supermarkets will be adopted by many stores in other lines. All these changes have been forced upon manufacturers and merchants by union labor leaders. And the resultant unemployment is due to prosperity—not to depression.

All these plans for saving labor were gradually building up throughout the Truman Administration. The labor leaders demanded higher wages; the consumers resisted higher prices; so there was only one thing for the manufacturer and merchant to do—namely, introduce automatic machinery both for producing and for selling goods. To hold one's job in the future one must take a greater interest and do better work at the bench and at the counter.

WHAT ARE THE FACTS?

The above facts are why I say that 1954 can be a fair year notwithstanding an increase in the number of unemployed. The following figures are interesting and important. At the top of the last big boom in 1928-1929, 1 per cent of the population was unemployed. In 1932, at the depth of the depression, 9 per cent of the population was unemployed. Today, with a population of 161,000,000 people, only 2 per cent is unemployed. There will not be much unemployment when spring building gets into full swing.

WHAT IS THE SOLUTION?

Readers will say: "But these unemployed people cannot buy goods unless they have wages. And, unless more goods are bought, unemployment will continue." But Washington has a solution, which is (1) an increase in the minimum wage for those who are employed; (2) a reduction in the legal hours for a working week. This would mean reducing the 40-hour week to 35 or 37½ hours.

My forecast is that there is no permanent solution of the problem. It will always be a race between the labor leaders, for higher wages or shorter hours—and the employers, for more automatic machinery. Sometimes labor will be ahead; other times the employers. Labor has been on top the past 20 years. Now the employers are having their turn. So it goes! Let us hope the employers will not overreach for at least 20 years.

Wayne University Students Get Set For Michigan Week Observance, May 2-8

Two Wayne University football stars assist four of Wayne's pretty College of Nursing coeds in giving a special kick-off to the campaign for Michigan Week, May 2-8. Rosemary Hagan of Traverse City holds the banner on the car while Jack Goggins of Flint wields the tape. Joan Levely of Pontiac, Ned Kramer, Traverse City, Donna Larime, Ferndale, and Barbara Cosgrove, Marysville, look on. The University's Science Hall is on the left.

Wayne President Clarence B. Hilberry is chairman of the Wayne County Committee for Michigan Week.

Letters to Editor

The Record welcomes letters to the editor about matters of community interest. Anonymous communications will not be published, but in instances where the writer does not wish his or her name to appear, it will be held confidential.

Dear Editor:

The writer has made numerous trips to the points of interests in the south and west, such as Grand Canyon, Catalina Islands, Columbia Highway and Mt. Hood, Yellowstone Natl. Park, etc. So why not see some of the man made wonders in the east? Why not go to the greatest capital in the world, in the greatest country in the world? So Hi, O. for Washington, D.C. First, why did they paint the White House WHITE?

They say the British didn't like ish troops burned the residence us very well in 1814 and the Brit of Pres. John Adams. Nothing but the walls remained standing. The government rebuilt it and painted it white to hide the scars—hence the White House.

By the way, some of the British don't like us any to well yet. We are dishing out gifts totaling Billions to them yearly and when our backs are turned some thumb their noses at us.

My wife and I took in the East (social) wing of the White House, including the main dining room, Green Room, Blue Room and main foyer. President Truman spent millions remodeling the building and has a large plaque installed there to his memory.

If you travel by train you will land in the new Union Station, which was built by the United States, the Pa. and B & O railroads. The cost of the land, building, and terminal improvements was $18,000,000. The structure is the finest railway station in the world. The building of white granite is 760 feet in length and 343 feet in width.

But, what about the Capitol? The main Capitol building (there are dozens of others) is set on a height overlooking the amphitheater of the Potomac, and is one of the largest and stateliest buildings in the world. It is 751 feet in length, and 350 feet in width. Covers three and a half acres. The statue of Freedom, on the dome towers 307 feet above the esplanade. We sat in each Chamber a few minutes to listen. Only less than one-quarter of the seats were occupied. We sat in the balcony almost exactly from where the recent shooting blasts were fired.

The Library of Congress and the annex built later, cost $15,366,340. Together they hold 15,000,000 volumes.

The Washington monument, a stupendous shaft of granite 555 feet 5 1-8 inches in height is 35 feet square at the base, 34 at the top and terminates in a pyramid of aluminum. The foundation of rock and cement is 36 ft deep, 126 ft square.

Oh yes, The Japanese cherry blossoms were beautiful—but they don't ripen into cherries?

President Lincoln did a great job freeing the slaves, and to show their appreciation hundreds of colored ladies are really making money by the million for uncle Sam. This is in the Bureau of Engraving and printing, a branch of the U.S. Treasury. The most interesting part of its work is keeping the Nation supplied with money. The main Treasury building is still larger and a culmination of architectural achievement of the day. Then there is the building for income taxes. You better keep on friendly terms with this for close by, are the Department of Justice, and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Also the Supreme Court building. (This 300 by 400.) The above are only a few of the seventy-five musts listed in the Gray Line of Washington sight seeing tours.

Some of the tours are strenuous. If you have a weak heart or arthritis knees I advise trying a short trip first.

Success Story Climaxed by New Division Opening

Officially opened this week at 80000 Ford Road near the O & O railroad was the Transit Mix Division of the National Block Company of Belleville.

Costing $70,000, the new enterprise represents a local success story that began in 1946 when four partners first went to the RMC to borrow the money that built the National Block facility at 44500 Palmer Road.

George Eisenstein, Harry Valek, George Valek and Joseph Kovar started with a dream and a bank loan eight years ago, building their business into one of the foremost concrete block producers in Western Wayne County.

Although the company was organized in June of 1948, it was in April that the partners began full scale production, and so this is a special month for the expansion program.

Meeting new business demands caused the expansion into the new division, which will serve a fifteen mile radius reaching into Northville on the North, New Boston on the South, Ypsilanti on the West and Dearborn on the East.

The new plant will have a 750 yard per day production capacity. Both company trucks and private haulers will be available to customers.

Construction needs of both contractors and individuals are being considered in planning to meet the new market. No job will be too small for the partners to take under consideration.

started running in that area. They returned with only a dozen or so per man, whereas last year they obtained several tubfuls.

On the way back, Charles Hall, driver of one car, took the wrong turn at Bay City while his passengers—including John Stark and Dr. Kenneth Eastland—were asleep, and wound up at Owosso, miles out of the way. There Stark took over and navigated successfully back to Northville.

A movement is reported afoot to buy Hall a compass, or else restrict him to the back seat on future jaunts.

At Sault Ste. Marie on June 14, 1871, Simon Francois Daumont, Sieur de Saint Lussion, took possession of all the interior of North America for Louis XIV of France. Indians from fourteen tribes attended the ceremony which is called the Pageant of the Sault.

The Ann Arbor Railroad in 1892 began to operate the first car ferries used on Lake Michigan.

The Walk-in-the-Water was the first steamboat on the Upper Lakes. Under the command of Captain Job Fishs it docked at Detroit on August 27, 1818.

Special Census Is Conducted In State

Detroit—Michigan was one of the 11 states in which special federal censuses were conducted last year, according to Supervisor Edward T. St. Arnold of the U.S. Census Bureau's district office at Detroit. Altogether, 130 special censuses were taken in the United States during 1953.

The chief reason for these special censuses is to establish new population bases for allotments of tax funds collected by the states and distributed to local communities on a per capita basis. In other instances, special censuses are taken because of municipal annexations or in order to establish official population figures for municipalities which are incorporated from unorganized areas after an official census has been taken.

Legislature Invites President to Move White House to Mackinac

STATE OF MICHIGAN
MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 50
Offered by Lt. Gov. Fred in behalf of members of the Senate and Speaker Van Valkenburg in behalf of members of the House.

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION EXTENDING TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, A CORDIAL WELCOME AND INVITATION TO ESTABLISH A SUMMER WHITE HOUSE AT MACKINAC ISLAND, STATE OF MICHIGAN, IN THE SUMMER OF 1955.

WHEREAS, Arrangements and plans for the summer White House of the President of the United States must be planned well in advance by the White House staff, so that all proper facilities may be arranged and will be organized; and

WHEREAS, Mackinac Island is one of the most unique and historically prominent places in the United States, possessing, as we believe, the geographical and physical facilities sufficient to meet the requirements of those responsible for planning the summer White House; and

WHEREAS, The state of Michigan will in the year 1955, be celebrating the centennial year of the construction of St. Mary's Falls Ship Canal, now known as the Soo Locks, an event of great significance, justifying in the great vision and courage of those who contributed to the event; and

WHEREAS, The construction of the Soo Locks made it possible for the nation from one season to the next to have the finest of the world's shipping lanes to be made available to the Armed Services of our country, and the development of the great lumbering industry and paper mills, all of which have contributed so tremendously to the growth and development of the great Middle West of our country; and

WHEREAS, The Michigan State Legislature, speaking in behalf of the people of the state of Michigan, are desirous and anxious to extend an invitation and a cordial welcome to the President of the United States to be the guest of the state of Michigan, with the summer White House to be established at Mackinac Island; now therefore be it

RESOLVED BY THE SENATE (The House of Representatives concurring), That there be hereby created a committee of six, consisting of three members of the Senate to be appointed in such number as such committee are appointed, and three members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to present to the President of the United States, in such manner as shall be proper, an official resolution adopted by the Michigan State Legislature, extending to him an invitation and cordial welcome to establish the summer White House at Mackinac Island in 1955, as the guest of the people of the state of Michigan; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the members of the committee shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to actual and necessary traveling and other expenses incurred in the performance of official duties, the expenses of the committee to be paid from the appropriation in the Senate and the expenses of the members of the House to be paid from the appropriation in the House of Representatives.

Adopted by the Senate, April 6, 1954.
Adopted by the House, April 6, 1954.

Frederick L. Phillips
Speaker of the House of Representatives

Dwight D. Eisenhower
President of the United States

The eyes of the world will be focused on Michigan next year if the invitation extended to President Eisenhower to bring the summer White House to Michigan in 1955 is accepted. A delegation headed by Lt. Gov. Reid and Speaker of the House Van Valkenburg have arranged through U.S. Senators Ferguson and Potter to present the invitation next month. Two Republican and one Democratic members of the State Senate and House of Representatives will make the official presentation.

Since only one President in the nation's history has visited the Upper Peninsula, it is hoped that Eisenhower will accept the invitation. The world-famous Soo Locks will be 100 years old in 1955 and the President's visit would emphasize their importance to the state which has often been called the Arsenal of Democracy.

The GREEN THUMB

by Paul Newton

Just as bulbs planted last fall have produced a riot of color in your garden now, seeds planted now will give color and life to your garden in mid-August. In between, there are some periods when the flower bed is rather drab. One of these periods comes in June and July, but it is not too late to avoid this drab spell if garden roses which come in far paper pots are planted now. They suffer very little shock in transplanting, but will bloom in June if planted immediately.

Climbing roses may take the second or third year to show much bloom, but floribunda or hybrid teas planted now will give a wealth of color this summer. Four or five of one color will give a much more satisfactory showing than one each of five different species.

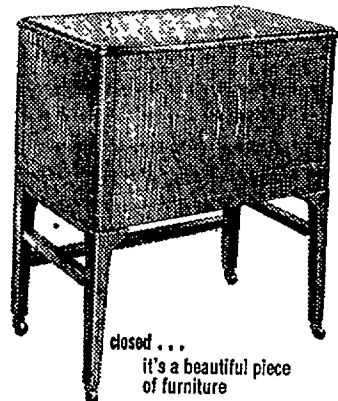

Delphinium, columbine, coral bells, early phlox, platycodon, foxglove and Canterbury bell can also be purchased in tar paper pots from your nurseryman to give bloom for the June-July period. Delphinium will have a second and sometimes a third period of bloom if the old stem from the first spike is cut down to the ground as soon as the new growth appears at the base about the middle of May to give your garden a boost until seeds just planted bring forth their flowers. Ageratum, verbenas and petunias planted in groups along the border will bloom from May to frost provided the old blossoms are picked before they go to seed. Sweet alyssum germinates quickly from seed sown in the open ground along the front edge of the border. If sheared back after its first bloom it will flower until the first frost.

The following shrubs also will flower in June and July - mock orange, viburnum carlesii, weigela and butterfly bushes. P.S. - The foliage on daffodils, tulips and all spring flowering bulbs should not be removed until it is brown and dry. The bulbs receive their food for next year's bloom through this foliage.

Spring Tea Held at D. H. Clark Home

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. David Hurd Clark, East Seven Mile Rd., was the scene of a colorful affair Monday afternoon when approximately 175 of Mrs. Clark's friends came to tea.

Yellow roses and purple stock, with yellow candles and yellow and white paper napkins on the tea table carried out the color scheme for the decorations of her home that day. The table was set in front of two corner wall size picture windows which provided one of the most impressive views of the countryside around Northville.

Assisting at the tea table were Mrs. Riley Allen, Mrs. Alex Lawrence, Mrs. Joseph Denton, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. Paul Schulz, Mrs. M. L. Hoysradt, Mrs. R. D. Merriam, Mrs. W. L. Howard, Mrs. J. R. McCall and Mrs. Glenn H. Cummings.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

When you choose an interfacing for a particular fabric and garment design this Spring, decide first whether the garment is to be dry-cleaned or washed. Emma DuBord, home demonstration agent for Wayne county, says the heavier interfacings are best in garments that are to be dry cleaned. Linen, cotton and bonded interfacings are suited for those that are to be washed.

Among the heavier group of interfacings you will find mixtures or blends of wool, mohair and cotton. Wool is resilient and shapes well, and mohair is even more so. Hence the combination of the two makes a very resilient, pliable interfacing. Cotton mixtures are somewhat less resilient but sometimes give just the effect you need. A comparatively new interfacing is a bonded, unwoven material called Pellon. Because it has no grainline, it can be cut with little waste. It can be laundered or dry cleaned. Although it can be purchased in various weights, it does have a papery texture that is not desirable for all fabrics when interfacings are needed. It is available in black and white, but various other colors have been promised by the manufacturer.

Before you use a washable interfacing of the woven type, be sure the material is thoroughly shrunk and all the sizing removed. Some woven interfacings on the market have been preshrunk - others have not.

Mrs. Marjorie Owen and Painting

Although she has suffered a broken hip twice in the past three years, Mrs. Marjorie Owen, a resident of Northville for 28 years, has allowed neither injury nor pain to deter her in following her hobby of painting and sculpture.

Now director of the Occupational Therapy department at Maybury sanatorium, Mrs. Owen finds an intense interest in the creative arts. Some years ago two students in Occupational Therapy heard of a class being conducted by Mrs. Donald Sober, of Sheldon Rd., Northville. They had no car, so Mrs. Owen joined the class with them so they could attend. The two students completed the ten-week course, but promptly lost interest.

Mrs. Owen, however, found she liked painting, so she since has taken two additional courses, one in water colors, and another in oil painting.

Her painting of the Northville depot and spring, pictured above, was so well done that it was accepted for showing at the Creative Arts exhibit in Plymouth last week-end.

Three years ago she broke a hip. Before the injury was completely healed, she fell downstairs while on crutches and broke it again. Nevertheless, while she was convalescing, she took up clay sculpture and modeled some 30 cats and dogs.

A son graduated from the University of Michigan, in 1952, and now is an art student in Greenwich Village, New York city.

HOW IT IS DONE

Many people would agree that Jesus Christ is the foundation of any hope for eternal life. They would agree further with the Apostle Paul when he said "For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. (1 Cor. 3:11). However many people seem to have a false notion in regard to how to get on the foundation. Some think by completing a course in Bible and Church Doctrines followed by confirmation will surely put them safely upon the foundation. Others think if they are baptized with water and join a church that it will put them securely upon the foundation. Still others believe if they try to be respectful and lead reasonably moral lives this will put them in favor with God with a good possibility for Heaven. I fear that many professing Christians are placing their hopes upon things of a religious nature which they have done. If you happen to be such, would you mind looking upon just three passages of scripture? (John 3:16-Romans 5:1-Eph 2:8-9). From these verses you can plainly see that you can get on the foundation Christ Jesus, by expressing faith in Him. Believing that He died for you, accepting Him as your personal Saviour and putting your confidence in Him is the faith required of God.

New Light On A Gift Problem

Not to be outshone by any other is the gift of table linens shimmering with lustrous metallic yarns. Their gleam is picked up by sunshine or candlelight, and they enhance a terrace luncheon or a more elegant indoor dinner party. And they're practical, for linens woven with Luxex are as washable and easy to care for as they would be without the metallic, and they are infinitely more lovely with it.

Such a present will delight any hostess, whether it's for a special occasion, or just for a spontaneous gift. Down through the ages metallic have been woven in the most beautiful fabrics, but no longer is their possession the prerogative of princes. Now everyone can enjoy them and they don't tarnish, have no odor and are just as easy as can be to launder.

Guide To Good Shopping

by Pamela Morrison

Purchasing the blanket that will fit her bed correctly has been a problem to the lady shopper for quite some time now. Actually, the problem is not really the shopper's for she knows that she wants a blanket to fit a twin or double bed properly but rarely thinks of buying a blanket in terms of inches. Now inches has been the way in which blanket manufacturers marked the size of their blankets, and there were so many combinations to choose from that it left a wide margin for mistake.

Too often the lady found that the blanket she thought would fit was either too narrow or too wide. Obviously, there was a need for blanket size standardization—and that's what the Quality Blanket Manufacturers Association has put into effect. Under this plan, quality blankets will be offered in two sizes—Twin and Double. Months of research disclosed the measurements that would guarantee proper fit when twin or double sizes were asked for—Twin, not less than 64" in width and not more than 67", and double, not less than 77" or more than 82" in width.

With this new blanket size standardization program, which incidentally is in keeping with similar sizing adopted by the sheet, mattress and other bedding industries, a lady can now ask for a twin or double size blanket and rest assured it will fit her bed.

Right Methods for Pressing Are Important

When you press clothing, remember that the fabric makes a difference, Marjorie Eastman, Michigan State college extension clothing specialist, advises women in the Northville area.

And remember also that pressing is different from ironing. Most pressing should be done by lowering and lifting the iron—rather than by moving it over the cloth as in ironing.

Miss Eastman offers these pressing pointers:

Use the light touch for silk. Avoid high heat in excess moisture. Press on the wrong side. Use dry cheesecloth or tissue paper between the silk and the moist pressing cloth to protect silk from heat and to prevent water spotting.

Cottons can generally stand a fairly hot iron. But cottons treated with special finishes may be more easily harmed by high heat.

Press cottons on the right side for a smooth or shiny finish; on the wrong side for a dull finish, or to bring out the texture of the fabric. You can use a steam iron directly on the fabric or you can supply moisture with a medium or lightweight pressing cloth. Press until completely dry.

Linen requires a hot iron and considerable moisture. Press on the right side for a smooth surface. Or, if you want to bring out the linen texture, press on the wrong side.

Be cautious with acetates. They are melted or permanently glazed by a hot iron. Use the lowest temperature setting on your iron. Supply moisture with a slightly dampened cheese cloth or non-woven rayon pressing cloth.

Rayons are not softened by heat but they will scorch with too hot an iron. Press rayons from the wrong side, using a medium or lightweight pressing cloth. Press crepe textures over a turkish towel, using little moisture.

If you press rayons on the right side, protect the fabric with a piece of self fabric or a soft wool pressing cloth. For mixtures of rayon and acetate, reduce the heat of the iron and test on seam edge.

Nylons need less pressing than many other fabrics, but wrinkles are difficult to smooth out. A low rayon setting of the iron is advised. Or a steam iron may be used. Use damp or dry pressing, depending on the texture of the fabric.

Gracious Living

BY LYNN SCOTT

Director, Plakon Home Arts Council

How often have you heard a radio or television guest admit, with embarrassment, "I'm a housekeeper?" Why be embarrassed about the proudest, most artistic job in the world: the art of making a home? Here are a few ideas about home arts that prove it takes skill, imagination and a flair for self-expression to be a homemaker.

With spring in mind, refreshing new table settings can be made with daffodils, tulips and accents of pussy-willows used with a clear yellow or pearl gray cloth. Shades of yellow, gray and brown serve as perfect color harmony for the new melamine dinnerware designed by Colorlyte in lush, mottled tones of mist gray, glade green, spray lime, and copertone. Melamine dinnerware is now an outstanding favorite with homemakers who want to combine beauty of design and color with practicality, for this type of dinnerware is virtually unbreakable, chip-proof, can be used in an automatic dishwasher, and is of solid color throughout.

And, now that spring is calling, many a homemaker has her little paint brush swinging madly. Here is an idea from "Paint It Yourself," a new book by the noted color engineer, Howard Ketchum, which shows the American homemaker how to paint everything from interesting folk designs on provincial furniture to modern monograms on glass. One of the many good ideas found in this book is the suggestion of painting colorful brushwork designs on showing stair-risers (steps) to lessen the danger of mis-steps and falls, besides lending a cheery note to this generally drab feature in many homes.

If winter moisture has loosened the veneer of one of your favorite pieces of furniture, you can easily repair it by use of Weldwood glue. Simply remove the old glue with light scraping, mix the glue and apply to the loose veneer. Press into position and then remove the excess glue with a damp cloth. Place waxed paper over the work and apply pressure for several hours or overnight under a pile of books or other heavy objects. A generous application of furniture polish over the entire piece of furniture will have it looking like new again.

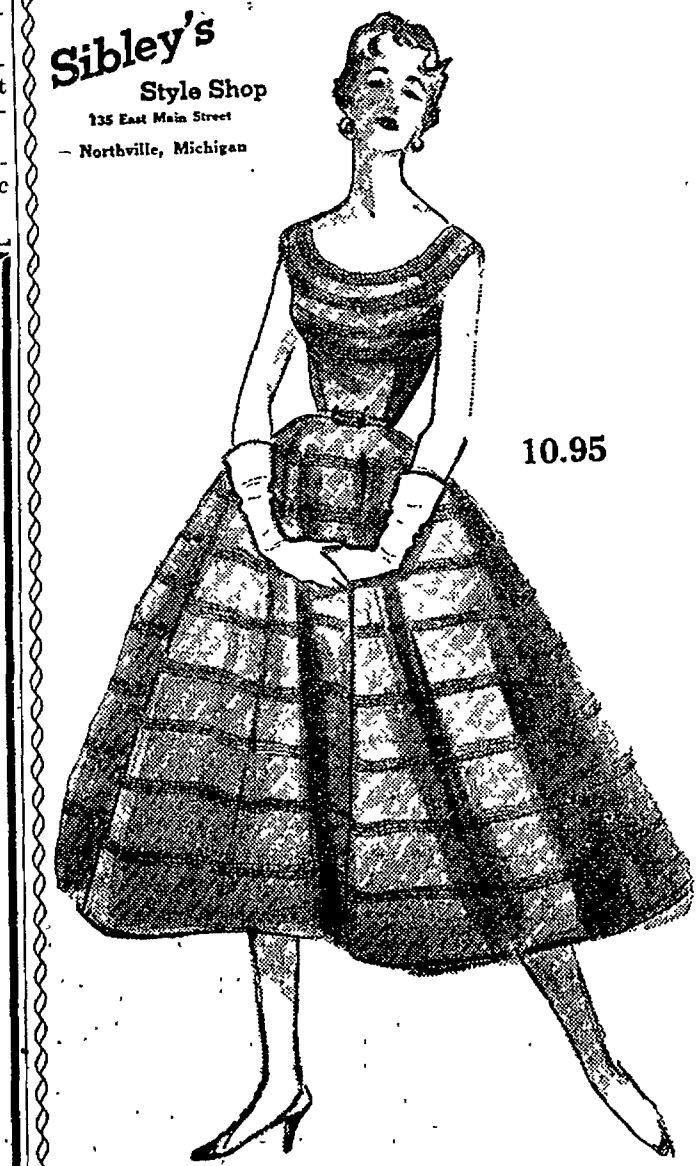

John Gerald, one of America's top decorators, is finding wide acceptance of his use of pastel colors for basic walls. As perennial a favorite as dark green has been, it, too, is taking on a lighter, soft, everal hue. Decorators are also finding wide acceptance of fire resistant urea plastic wall plates and outlet plugs that are available in pastel tones to match the walls, rather than the brass plates of yesteryear. Although pastel colors seem to be leading the field for wall colors and upholstery fabrics because of their restful, airy and spacious qualities, the vivid, dominant colors are much in evidence for accents throughout the home.

TCP Re-powers Your Engine

TCP*, a Shell-discovered additive blended into Shell Premium Gasoline, sets free the captive power formerly locked in by lead and carbon deposits. It's the greatest gasoline development in 31 years.

Acts so fast it re-powers your engine before you've finished your second tankful.

Did you know that up to 15% of your engine's power is actually trapped... that you are paying for power you aren't getting?

The reason is this: Every gasoline sold today contains deposit-forming compounds. And, as gasoline is burned, lead and carbon deposits form on the walls of the combustion chamber and on the tips of the spark plugs. In the combustion chamber these deposits become "red hot," especially when you are accelerating, and "set off" the gasoline-air mixture before the piston reaches its proper firing position. Power works against you, not for you. This condition is called pre-ignition and it not only wastes power and fuel—it is also responsible for a most severe kind of knock—engineers call it "wild ping."

These deposits also cause power loss by short-circuiting spark plugs, causing them to misfire when you need power most.

Now, however, there is a way to release the imprisoned power in your engine—and quickly!

It's Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP, the greatest gasoline development since tetraethyl lead. TCP additive actually re-powers your engine by changing the character of the lead and carbon deposits. In the combustion chamber it "fireproofs" them so they cannot glow and cause pre-ignition. And, because it makes the deposits non-conductors of electricity, spark plugs no longer short-circuit—they fire on time. Power works for you—not against you.

By the time you have finished your second tankful, you'll be getting up to 15% more power. But remember—because these deposits are constantly building up, continued use of Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP is essential to retain its full benefits.

Shell Premium Gasoline with TCP is available only at Shell dealers.

*Shell's Trademark for this unique gasoline additive developed by Shell Research. Patent applied for.

America's lowest priced low-friction SIX!

FORD'S NEW I-BLOCK SIX IS THE MOST MODERN SIX IN THE INDUSTRY... THE ONLY LOW-FRICTION SIX IN ITS FIELD!

Why are more and more folks who like sixes swinging to Ford's 115-h.p. I-block Six? Because they're getting the most modern six in the industry... and for less money than practically any other six in America. Ford's short-stroke, low-friction design means less gas waste, less wear and longer engine life. The extra-deep, "I-shaped" block means a more rigid, quieter engine. And the new high-turbulence combustion chambers, teamed with Ford's exclusive Automatic Power Pilot, bring you even more "GO" per gallon.

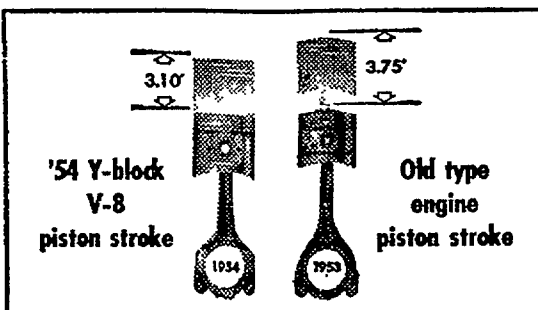

ONLY FORD OFFERS BOTH A V-8 AND SIX IN THE LOW-PRICE FIELD!

Ford is still the only low-priced car to bring you V-8 power. And this year, Ford's Y-block V-8, with its new deep-block, low-friction design, is the most modern "eight" in the industry. Both new Ford engines are available with Fordomatic,* Overdrive* or Conventional Drive—the finest choice of drives in the low-price field. *at extra cost

HERE'S WHAT FORD'S LOW-FRICTION DESIGN MEANS TO YOU

LONGER ENGINE LIFE. Both new Ford engines are of short-stroke design. This means pistons travel less distance. Naturally, there is less friction and less wear. In both engines overhead valves have a free-turning feature which allows them to rotate to cut down wear.

MORE POWER. Because there is less friction to overcome in moving pistons up and down, there is more energy available to move the car. And because combustion chambers are wedge-shaped, fuel burns more completely... for even more power and less gas waste.

MORE "GO" PER GALLON. In addition to this gas-saving, low-friction design, Ford engines bring you the Automatic Power Pilot which squeezes the last ounce of power out of every drop of gas. You won't find any of the modern advances on this page in any other low-priced car.

Worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it!

My recipe for

always successful in my

ELECTRIC RANGE

Mrs. Fred Black is active in 4-H Club work and church activities. Her pet hobby is collecting cookbooks. Honey-Rhubarb Pie is one of her specialties that you'll enjoy serving. You'll enjoy baking it, too, with the help of a modern electric range.

It's easy to make cooking a pleasant practice instead of a chore—just switch to electric cookery, as 345,000 of your neighbors have. With electric cooking you never guess about temperatures... need not scour smoke-blackened utensils... and you wash down kitchen walls less often.

HONEY-RHUBARB PIE

Temp: 425°F. Time: 40-45 min.
2 eggs 1 teaspoon grated orange rind (optional)
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup strained honey 3 1/2 cups diced rhubarb
9-inch unbaked pastry shell

Beat eggs; add flour, salt, honey and orange rind. Pour honey mixture over diced rhubarb. Mix well. Place in pastry shell. Cover with lattice of pastry strips. Bake.

May 1 Is Loyalty Day

Loyalty Day, celebrated each year on May 1, was originated several decades ago by members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars along the eastern seaboard as a counter to the annual May Day demonstrations of Communists—loyalty as opposed to disloyalty. The idea caught on, grew and spread until in 1950 the observance was inaugurated by the VFW on a nationwide basis, not only as a successful counter to Communism but to afford an opportunity on a specific day each year when all loyal Americans could stand up and be counted.

Box To Play Role In Straits Bridge Ceremony May 7

ST. IGNACE, Mich.—A small metal box, partitioned across its center to represent the two peninsulas of Michigan, and containing articles symbolical of the two great areas of a single state, the Mackinac bridge will unite, will play a sentimental role in the bridge groundbreaking celebration here and in Mackinaw City May 7 and 8. Following its display throughout the state, the box and its contents will be placed in the bridge's administration building here in St. Ignace. Mrs. Nancy Williams, wife of Michigan's governor, has been appointed custodian of the cornerstone container by the inter-peninsula committee arranging the two-day Straits bridge celebration. The bottom of that section of the box representing the Lower Peninsula will be covered by soil from the Upper Peninsula, while the part symbolical of the Upper Peninsula will receive soil from the Lower.

MICHIGAN ANGLING RECORDS

As we begin another year of fishing in Michigan Outdoors there'll be many a "monster" hooked and landed to challenge existing records and to set in other years. Just in case YOU are the lucky one, here's the official list of the biggest game fish on record caught on hook and line in Michigan through the close of 1953. All have been verified and confirmed by the Michigan Department of Conservation. Better clip this out and file it away to settle all arguments!

Bass Oldest Challenger
I'll probably be a long time before a Michigan small mouth bass bigger than the one caught in 1904 will be reported. That one holds the record today with a weight of 9 pounds, 4 ounces! The big boy was 27 1/4" long with a girth of 16 1/2", and was caught in Long Lake, Cheboygan county.

The largest large mouth bass on the Michigan books went 11 pounds, 15 ounces, was 27" long and 25 1/4" in girth when taken from Big Pine Island Lake in Kent county in the summer of 1934.

Pike and Muskie Winners
The largest great northern pike ever caught in Michigan came from Gratiot Lake in Keweenaw county in 1944. It was weighed in officially at 32 pounds, 7 ounces. Percy Haver's 62 1/2-pound muskie, caught in Lake St. Clair back in 1940 is still on top. It went 59" in length and 32" in girth.

1937 Lake Trout Still Biggest
Up in Lake Superior they're still shooting at a lake trout record set back in 1937 when a 68-pound, 8-ounce whopper was brought in, weighed and witnessed. Years ago a 110-pound trout was reported caught, but the record is not official. Two fairly recent record fish have been taken—a walleye pike weighing 17 pounds, 8 ounces is Michigan's best on the books. It was taken thru the ice with hook and line in the Pine River near Wellston in 1951. During the same year, 1951, a yellow perch was caught in Lake Huron at Harbor Beach weighing 2 pounds, 10 ounces. This record perch was 16 1/2" long and 12 3/4" in girth. A claim of a 3-pound, 12-ounce perch caught in Lake Independence in Marquette county was not verified back in 1947, so the Harbor Beach record still stands.

Bluegill Record
Biggest bluegill on Michigan's record books was caught by Ferd Brook of Birmingham, in Silver Lake, Cheboygan county, in 1945. It was exactly a foot long and weighed 2 pounds, 10 ounces! There are the records. Can you top them in 1954? Good luck!

State Forest Lands Are Swept By Fire

LANSING—Nearly 650 acres of state forests and grasslands were burned last week in 111 fires, conservation department fire fighters report. The weekly total more than doubled the yearly damage loss: to date, 1217 acres have been swept by fire.

SUN WORSHIPPER—Looking cool as ice on a summer day, this Gantner swimsuit is styled with half skirt and ruffled top in Dan River. Wrinkled cotton, diamond shirred for texture interest. Swimmers pick cotton for its youthful looking appearance and for its comfort in and out of the water, National Cotton Council fashionists say.

Doe, Twin Fawns Spotted In Woods

LANSING—A fire tower operator near Traverse City has reported seeing a doe with twin spotted fawns about three miles west of Fife lake. The report, made late last week, was first of the season for the northern area. Game men say fawn-dropping time in the north generally does not get under way until about June 1. But while one bit of wildlife was rushing the season, another would apparently as soon see winter continue awhile longer. Lumber operators in an upper peninsula woodlot cut down a giant white pine last week and after the tree hit the ground, a bear scurried out of the top, walked across a creek, went 150 yards into the woods and went back to sleep. Bears generally hibernate underground, biologists say, but this bruin's den was more than 50 feet up in a hollow of the tree.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

How the selfishness and egotism which would impede man's spiritual progress can be overcome through obedience to God, divine Love, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.
The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" includes the following verses from the King James Version of the Bible:
"As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me" (Revelation 3:19,20).
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following passage will also be read:
"In patient obedience to a patient God, let us labor to dissolve with the universal solvent of Love the adamant of error—self-will, self-justification, and self-love—which wars against spirituality and is the law of sin and death" (242:15).
The Golden Text is from Job: "Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more" (34:31).
