Northville Downs starts its racing season tonight and the Village has been taking on its annual "racing look", with many new faces and some old ones wandering up and down Main and Center streets, or loafing at the main corner while visiting with friends. House trailers dot the area near the park, and their occupants have been picking up the threads of friendships with local people which have grown over the years.

The Downs has made some needed additions and improvements, too, with a new mutuels building and black-topping of a good portion of its large parking lot off Center street. Only fly in the ointment, it appears, is the reduction in racing dates to 39 nights compared with 48 last year. Why the track which initiated night harness racing in Michigan should be cut back, and the lost dates be given to the other tracks, has not been satisfactorily explained by the State Racing Commission. To attribute it to the "older racing plant" here is to give an excuse but not a reason. From an outsider's viewpoint, it looks like the other harness racing groups in Detroit have "out-sold" Northville Downs in their dealing with state officials.

The perennial problem of downtown parking space moves a step toward solution with completion of the Northville Community Center. Now the Village can proceed with an all-day free parking lot between the Community Center and the Fire Hall to provide space for the cars of persons employed downtown. These now are parked with impunity in restricted 2-hour parking zones and no one attempts to enforce the law either because the police department doesn't have the necessary personnel or because there is no demand by the public for its enforcement. Another reason, perhaps, has been the lack of a proper all-day parking lot such as now can be provided near the Community Center. Local merchants are understandably concerned over the use of downtown parking space by their own employees, but until the Village provides an all-day parking lot there hasn't been much they could do about the matter. If the Community Center lot is made available there can be no legitimate kick by motorists who get ticketed for over-parking in restricted areas.

Those who are interested in Northville becoming a city will be gratified by the appointment of a new committee to investigate the matter and make recommendations to the Village Commission at an early date. Especially fortunate is the selection of Tom Carrington as its chairman, because he is genuinely interested in what is best for the Village. Equally important, he is a native son who has lived in Northville 67 years, and his recommendation that we adopt a city charter (if his committee so recommends) may influence other old residents who have been reluctant to face up to the need for modern government.

Best news of the week: The State Highway Department is taking bids for construction of the 7-Mile Road cut-off, with the proviso that work must be completed by Dec. 18.

This long-awaited and badly needed improvement will eliminate the heavy traffic by gravel trucks which has made life miserable for homeowners along Rogers and Main streets for years and added to traffic congestion downtown.

Parking Meter Makes Violator of Driver With 450,000 Mile Record

It took a parking meter and an improper turn to make a traffic law violator of John Haray, 10434 W. Seven Mile Rd.

What makes his brush with the law so noteworthy is that Haray, now 75 years old, has driven nearly 450,000 miles in the period from 1910 to 1954, and has never had an accident. Nor, except for the parking meter episode and the time another driver stopped suddenly in front of him, necessitating an improper turn, has he ever received a traffic ticket in all that time.

Haray started driving in the days when a White Steamer coupe was the smartest thing on wheels. That was in Cleveland in 1910. Since that time he has covered a distance in various makes of cars equal to 18 times around the world.

He still has his license plates from cars in 1911 and 1914. Both are made of copper and heavily enameled.

Haray doesn't think much of modern drivers. Too much in a hurry to get some place, he thinks.

His advice to the young driver: "Take it easy, and maybe you'll live as long as I have."

Handicapped Levy Carries In Novi

Novi school district voters approved an additional levy of half a mill on property within the district at an election Monday.

The vote was 23 to 3. The additional revenue will be used to aid the education of handicapped children.

Coolman, Severance Are Re-elected To Board of Education

Robert Coolman and Donald Severance were re-elected to the Northville Board of Education Monday.

Both Coolman, president of the board, and Severance, secretary, were unopposed, and therefore the election was a mere formality.

Special Session Called To Settle Property Dispute

A special session of the Village commission was scheduled to be held last night at the Village hall to discuss problems arising from the sale of lots in the Fairbrook Ct. area. Mayor Claude N. Ely said he had notified property owners involved in a dispute over an easement to be present.

The problems came up at the last commission meeting when Mrs. Donald Severance appeared to complain that because a strip of land permitting entry to their property had not been deeded to the Village, she and her husband were not able to obtain needed loans.

At that time, property owners in the area agreed to deed the land to the Village, but legal difficulties developed and the meeting was called in an effort to settle them.

100th Anniversary of GOP To Be Held July 4-10

Jackson — Covered wagons, horses and oxen will carry Michigan Young Republicans to the birthplace of their party, Jackson, during this city's Freedom week, July 4 to 10, which commemorates the 100th anniversary of the founding of the GOP.

Plans for the overland journeys from several cities and an annual picnic already have been made by State Young Republicans.

Don't be surprised if, while driving along Michigan highways early in July, you happen upon part of the 24 covered wagons, their horses and oxen, and some 100 horseback riders. They're headed for Jackson where they plan to arrive on July 6, the exact date on which their forefathers 100 years ago held the first Republican convention and carved out the destiny of a new political party.

Forty persons expect to set out from Saginaw on horseback.

Detroit will send 10 covered wagons for the historic event and Ypsilanti will dispatch a wagon, a survey and six riders.

Twelve covered wagons, one drawn by oxen and 20 persons on horseback will come from Kalamazoo.

The wagon trains and horseback parties will rough it during their ride just as their ancestors who journeyed to Jackson 100 years ago from Michigan and northern Ohio and Indiana did for the first Republican convention.

Durfee District Votes Against Half-Mill Levy

Voters in Durfee School District No. 6 Fractional, Novi township, turned thumbs down Monday on the proposition to levy a half-mill tax for the aid of handicapped children.

Twenty-one property owners voted, five in favor of the proposal, and 16 against.

Putnam School Proposal Carries

Only 12 voters turned out at the special school election in Putnam School Dist. No. 9, Novi township, Monday to ballot on the proposition to levy a half mill tax on property owners for the aid of handicapped children.

The 12 gave the proposition a margin of 11 to 1, however, and funds raised by the new tax will be used to provide educational facilities for youngsters who are crippled or otherwise handicapped.

In keeping with our usual custom, the offices of The Record will be closed Saturdays beginning June 19 and until Labor Day.

"Great Gorilla Scare" at Novi Just Case of Mistaken Identity

Novi housewives were breathing easier this week after the "Great Gorilla Scare" turned out to be just a case of mistaken identity.

Sup. Frazer Staman received complaints last Thursday that a gorilla was being kept in a basement at 28989 Novi Rd., and that it had been creating such a disturbance they were afraid it would break loose and possibly attack passing children.

"Inhuman" screams, and the sounds of breaking glass and wood were cited as evidence that it was a "wild" gorilla, and undoubtedly dangerous. Mothers herded their children away from the vicinity. Strong men trembled and refused to go near the place where the animal was reported to be.

Oakland county sheriff's deputies and humane officials were called. They found that Chi-Chi, a chimpanzee of the "Giant" variety and a distant relative of J. Fred Muggs, was chained in the basement of the C. R. Rock home, awaiting the return of its master, Foss C. Rock, a Harrison, Mich. animal trainer, and brother of C. R. Rock.

Foss Rock and his brother appeared while officers and newspapermen were talking to Mrs. C. R. Rock. Chi-Chi's owner readily admitted that Chi-Chi had screamed, had broken down a furnace heating shaft, had torn water pipes loose and bent them, kicked out a window or two, and in general had made himself obnoxious.

"But he's just lonesome," Rock protested to officers. "Why, that chimpanzee is as tame as a kitten. He's trained, you see, and he can put on a two hour show—ride a bicycle, do anything you want—and never do the same thing twice."

The animal man said that he had been given the chimpanzee in the Philippines while serving in the army there. He had paid a Detroit animal man $600 to bring Chi-Chi to Harrison after the Australian government had shipped him to San Francisco. At Harrison, however, Chi-Chi created such a fuss that doctors said Rock's father was in danger of becoming excited and having a heart attack, so Rock brought the animal to Novi while attempting to sell him to a circus or other customer.

"Very loving," said Rock, putting an arm around Chi-Chi's neck and receiving a kiss on the cheek. "Just wants company. Here, shake hands with him."

Chi-Chi, calmed down and contented now that he was no longer alone, shook hands solemnly all around and posed nonchalantly for a photograph.

"What do you think of the McCarthy-Army squabble?" a reporter asked.

Chi-Chi puffed placidly on a cigarette his master gave him, held it up between two fingers while he exhaled slowly, appeared to

Northville Downs Opens 39-Night Race Schedule

Northville Downs takes over today where Hazel Park finished Saturday in the harness racing field, and 39 nights of racing will follow.

It will be the 11th year for Michigan's pioneer pari-mutuel harness track. The meet will continue through July 31.

There'll be some surprises for fans, racing officials said. Northville Downs has taken steps to make things more comfortable and enjoyable for both patrons and horsemen. The five-year improvement program started two years ago is now well under way.

Capacity Increased

Improvements have been made to the grandstand, increasing the seating capacity and an additional area has been added at the east end of the grandstand for those who desire to watch the field come around the turn into the stretch.

The barn, located at the head of the stretch, has been removed and replaced by an administration office building. The area in front, near the track, has been covered with asphalt at a gradual elevation so that patrons can stand and still not bother persons in the rear.

At the south end of the new administration building, 52 mutuel windows have been added. The lavatory facilities have been improved at both ends of the grandstand and additional rest rooms placed at the far ends of the spectators' area. There also is a brand new building housing a modern kitchen and cafeteria.

Modern Barn Built

More than that, the track operators have constructed a new barn in the stable area which is probably the most modern in this section, including all the newest developments for the betterment of the horses, grooms, drivers and trainers. Plans call for building two more barns at the end of the 1954 season.

John J. Carlo, Northville Downs partner and executive manager, has directed the improvement program.

173 Northville, Novi Telephones Out of Order

A large number of telephones in the Northville-Novi area were put out of service by a severe thunderstorm which struck southeast Michigan Saturday, officials of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. at Plymouth reported.

A total of 50 lines, covering 173 installations, suffered from lightning, falling trees, dampness and other causes, the company stated. However, all lines have now been repaired, and service fully restored.

be considering the question—then decided to make no comment.

Authorities gave Rock a few days to get rid of Chi-Chi, or else take him back to Harrison.

School Overcrowding Now Serious Problem, Supt. Amerman Reports

Serious overcrowding of Northville High school, and the need for greater financial support are two of the most pressing problems of the Northville school district, Supt. of Schools Russell H. Amerman reported at the district's annual meeting Monday.

Dropping of tuition students was cited as a possibility unless a new high school or an addition to the present one are authorized. A third and critical problem, Amerman said, is the diminishing supply of classroom teachers.

"Many areas already are hard hit," he declared, "and we may be next. We have been most fortunate in the low percentage of staff changes and in our ability to find replacements.

It is encouraging to notice that individuals and groups are recognizing this situation and are doing something towards the recruitment of young people for the profession. For several years our local Parent Teacher Assn. has granted a scholarship to a graduate who has elected to enroll in a teacher training program. And now the local junior high school is doing the same. Only through constant encouragement can we hope to train and hold an adequate supply of teachers.

Problem Still Present Amerman said that the problem of what to teach school children is still present, but that certain basic principles of education have become generally acceptable throughout the nation.

Among these recognized goals are:

1. The practical aspect—to prepare the individual to make a living and to progress in his vocation.
2. Personal—to prepare the individual to meet his responsibilities as an adult member of society—personal, family, social and civic living.
3. Cultural—to increase one's appreciation for arts, science, his cultural heritage, etc.

Must Be Alert "The Northville schools have subscribed generously to these aims," the superintendent asserted, "and are ever striving to implement them through quality and quantity of the course of instruction, class size, professional competence of the staff, adequate financial support, community approval of the methods and techniques used, and many others. It is the responsibility of the Board of Education and the staff to be ever alert to educational needs of the community and to shape the educational program accordingly."

In living up to this responsibility, at least in some measure, Amerman said, "one can find evidence of good faith in noting that: 1. The staff has been enlarged to keep pace with student population."

12 Scholarships Are Awarded Here

Twelve scholarships have been awarded to graduates of Northville High school, according to Prin. E. V. Ellison. Most of the awards were grants of money, permitting the students to select any college.

Recipients are: Barbara Prunty, valedictorian, the William H. Cansfield scholarship from the Northville Exchange club.

Winnie Welch, E. C. Stephenson scholarship.

Eddie Nash, Northville Driving club scholarship.

Bruce Felker, the Northville Athletic club Tunis Biddle scholarship.

Ronald Birtles, University of Michigan club scholarship.

Jean Nieuwkoop, salutatorian, MSC Alumni scholarship.

Mary Lou Ware and Sharon Teshka, Future Teachers club scholarships, with assistance of Junior Student council.

Sharon Teshka, PTA scholarship.

James Mitchell, Northville Woman's club scholarship.

Jean Campbell and Mary Lou Ware, State Board of Education scholarships from Michigan Normal college.

George Rambeau, $400 scholarship from Kenyon college, Ohio.

State police authorities are attempting to locate a relative of Richard P. Neil, 41480 Seven Mile Rd., who committed suicide Sunday afternoon in his car by running a hose from the exhaust pipe and shutting himself in the automobile.

Police Chief Joseph Denton said he had received a call from a neighbor, Fred Fry, 41320 Seven Mile, who reported that Neil had called him at 1 p.m. asking him to come over. Fry said he was unable to do so until 2:30 p.m., and that when he arrived, Neil was slumped over in his car, and that the motor was running.

Denton and Sgt. Gil Glasson found the motor still running when they arrived, and a physician pronounced Neil dead from carbon monoxide fumes. The man is said to have been despondent since the death of his wife several weeks ago. A letter was found on the body, bequeathing all belongings to a Mrs. Revitzer of Livonia, a friend.

State police are trying to locate a son, and other relatives. Pending their arrival, the body is at the Casterline Funeral home in Northville.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

The Michigan Legislature will take a new look at chain store taxes in 1955.

A Senate Study Committee appointed by Lieut. Gov. Reid to inquire into alleged inequities and to bring punitive tax measures into focus will hold hearings in the fall. The committee consists of Senators Carlton Morris of Kalamazoo; Harry F. Hittle, Lansing; Charles T. Prescott, Prescott; Clyde Geerlings, Holland; and Robert Haggerty of Detroit.

A similar committee one year ago recommended elimination of certain nuisance taxes. Among those who will ask to be heard are chain stores through their state organization, the Michigan Chain Stores Bureau. Briefs and arguments are in process of preparation to substantiate their claim that the chain store tax is not only punitive, but costly to the state, unsound economically and detrimental to a large segment of the retail business.

"Our industry feels and rightly so that chain store retailing is of sufficient importance to the economy of Michigan that any punitive tax constitutes a backward step and is not in the best public interest," said W. F. Doyle, chain store spokesman.

He pointed to the facts that chains last year did in excess of one billion dollars of retail business, and also returned to the state's economy a like amount. "They paid $64,750,000 in 1951 state, federal and local taxes," said Doyle. "They bought $712,756,000 worth of merchandise from Michigan manufacturers, processors and farmers and paid out $81,000,000 to Michigan landlords. They spent in excess of $20,000,000 advertising their wares in newspapers and other media."

Chain stores pay the state handsomely under the new "business receipts tax", currently producing $83,000,000 in state revenue. The revised corporation franchise tax which yielded $8,500,000 in 1947 now brings in $38,000,000 to the general fund.

Major chains are sizeable taxpayers by virtue of their interstate operations. Because of this fact, they believe the time is ripe for the legislature to give serious consideration to elimination of the anti-chain tax. Also affected are 7,736 retail stores and 1,997 chain store companies in all parts of Michigan.

Under Michigan tax law any retailer with more than one outlet is defined as a chain. It is by no means a "big business" tax as evidenced by the fact that 95% of all the companies paying the chain store tax operate less than 10 stores. So the "little fellow" as well as the "giant" is affected. Among them are 352 automobile retailers, motion picture theatre concessions, cigar stands and tombstone retailers, only to mention a few. The tax ranges from $10 per store for the second unit to $250 per store for all over 25 in one chain.

Michigan, like the rest of the nation, need not worry about domination of big business when it learns that in 1929 big corporations got 6.1% of the national income and only 5.3% in 1948. Brookings Institution in Washington reports that unincorporated business enjoyed 15.9% of the nation's business in 1929 and 17.8% in 1948.

The history of chain store taxation is revealing. The whole subject came to life in the early 30's when many small retailers entertained the fear that chains would run them out of business. It didn't happen. Whereas the chains did 24.8 per cent of the national retail business in 1935, they did only 20.7 per cent in 1950.

Selling techniques of chain and independents are much alike today. Both strive to please the consumer in time and money saving devices.

In the field of food retailing, Michigan chains and independents find much in common. As early as 1940 under the inspiration of the Michigan Press Association the Michigan Retail Food Dealers Association and the Michigan Chain Stores Bureau established high marks in harmonious trade relations.

The three groups formed the Michigan Food Council. An immediate achievement was the successful sponsorship of "Michigan Days" to promote sale of Michigan-grown food. The campaign made national history.

Times have changed radically in the relations of chains and independents here in the past 20 years. Little or no bickering any longer exists. Neither seeks punitive action against the other.

Statistics show the small operator is more than holding his own. That is one of the reasons the Michigan legislature will take a new look at chain store taxes in 1955.

Swimming Ends for Girl Scouts

The girl scouts swimming session, which has been held at the Wayne County Training school for several months, has ended.

The sessions were well attended and the girls are most grateful to the Training school for the use of the facilities of the pool and to Del Campo, the very capable swimming instructor, under whose tutelage they made great progress.

Babson Says . . .

Roger W. Babson

BABSON DISCUSSES VACANT LAND

Babson Park, Mass.—Old houses may now be a sale. Women have gone crazy both over one-story houses (ranch type) and over ultra-wide skirts. There is a style in houses, like styles in dresses. Well-built and well-located large houses are now out of style. How long it will be before women get sensible and buy such houses again is anyone's guess.

FEAR OF WORLD WAR III
But one thing will always be in style, and that is vacant land—whether small city lots that can be used for parking, or fringe acreage just outside cities and towns. Thus far people have not taken seriously the fear of World War III, but now, with these "Evacuation Days", they are beginning to give up their rented city houses and buy in the suburbs.

If World War III should really look threatening, you will see a big boom in suburban property twenty miles out. Unless the price of land is frozen, it could double in value in a few weeks. Well-drained and well-located vacant land should not now be sold.

SOME THINGS BEING OVERDONE

If World War III threatens, farms outside big cities which cannot now be sold at a fair price may again come into demand. I, however, am not bullish on all commercial farm land. This especially applies to many citrus groves, apple, peach, and other fruit orchards.

With the new big Federal power and irrigation projects, there may be a surplus of high-priced irrigated lands. Irrigation can be overdone, the same as the building of motels and the manufacturing of automobiles. We may be approaching a time when there will be too many filling stations and automobile agencies. More consolidations will be witnessed.

WHAT ABOUT INFLATION?
In view of what is happening in Indo-China, it now seems as if more inflation is inevitable. This may be hard on the housewife and those with fixed incomes, but it should help well-located vacant land and certain other real estate. In view of the preferred treatment received during World War II by the owners of business property, some vacant business property may now be a good purchase.

Inflation should also help farm crop prices and aid merchants. I am especially bullish on the market prices of the securities of the drug and variety chains. Many of these stocks now yield from 5% to 10% and should benefit from mild inflation. Too much inflation can harm everybody except the stock brokers, who are foolishly urging inflation along.

TAFT-HARTLEY AND INFLATION

I forecast that the proposed legislation to amend the Taft-Hartley Bill will remain buried until after the November elections. If it had passed Congress as President Eisenhower wanted, it would have made your dollar worth more. If it had passed amended as certain labor leaders wanted, it would have made your dollar worth less. As any action has now been delayed, its present effect on inflation will be nil.

Scout Troop N-5 Attends Exposition

Scout Troop No. 5 had a very interesting and helpful display at the scout exposition at the State Fairgrounds in Detroit the latter part of May. Their subject was bluebirds.

The boys made bird houses and explained the judging of bird-houses to the spectators.

With the backing of the Presbyterian Men's club, many things have been accomplished this year.

On June 5 and 6 the scouts held their camp-out on a field on the Malley farm. Parents and friends visited the scouts on Saturday night to observe the camping procedure. This was followed by a scout ceremony. On Sunday the boys went to the horse show and ushered.

New engine power! New operating economy!

New Chevrolet Trucks . . . do more work per day . . . more work per dollar!

You save hours on the road. Thanks to new high-compression engine power, you can maintain faster schedules without driving at higher maximum road speeds. Increased acceleration and hill-climbing ability cut your time per trip.

You save extra trips. That's because of extra load space. New pickup bodies are deeper, new stake and platform bodies wider and longer. Also, they're set lower to the ground to make loading and unloading faster and easier.

You save time on deliveries. With new truck Hydra-Matic transmission, you can forget about clutching and shifting—for good! This proved, economical automatic transmission is optional at extra cost on 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton models.

You save on operating costs. The "Thrifmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235" and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost), deliver greater horsepower plus increased operating economy.

You save with lower upkeep, too. New Chevrolet trucks are built stronger to last longer. For example, there are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models, bigger clutches in light- and heavy-duty models, stronger frames in all models.

And your savings start the day you buy. In fact, they start with the low price you pay—and they never stop as long as you own a Chevrolet truck. Chevrolet, you know, is America's lowest-priced line of trucks.

Come in and see all the wonderful new things you get in America's number one truck. We'll be glad to give you all the money-saving facts.

Blue Star Mothers Top Last Year's Fund

Novi Blue Star Mothers raised and disbursed over $2,000 during the past year. An achievement that represents a great deal of hard work for a membership of only 35. The chapter draws membership from Novi, Wixom and Walled Lake.

The money was earned through monthly card parties, bake sales and other events. Benefitting from the funds raised were the Flint Tornado Relief, rehabilitation for veterans, Red Cross, Torch Drive, Civil Defense (Novi), Care packages, gifts to veterans' children, overseas boxes, needy veterans' families, and the Maybury San.

Mrs. Earl Ward is president and Mrs. Joseph Gardella is hospital chairman.

Sixth Graders Visit Observatories

Miss Gertrude Martin's sixth grade class recently made two trips to the observatories at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

The first trip was to the student's observatory in Angell hall where the pupils heard an illustrated lecture about the eclipse of the sun which will occur on June 30.

Following the lecture the class was happy to find that the sky had cleared enough to see the planets Saturn and Venus.

The daytime trip was to the main observatory June 3. This observatory is not open to visitors at night because at that time it is used for research but during the day visitors may see the different telescopes and other exhibits.

Success Story

— AND A GOOD TIP FOR YOU

WHEN it comes to sales, every car maker aspires to be up at the top of his price class.

Which is only natural. Popularity like that means success.

We know, because for years Buick has held such an envied position — the unquestioned sales leader in its class. And with good reasons in styling, room, power, value.

But today, folks like you have pushed Buick success even beyond such bounds.

Today, the top sales standings of a full generation have been changed.

Today, latest sales figures for the first four months of 1954 reveal this phenomenal fact:

In total national volume, regardless of price class, Buick is outselling all cars in America except two of the so-called "low-price three."

That's a tip too good to pass up.

That's the tip-off that Buick must have the hottest styling of the times and the sweetest performance of the year.

More important, that's the tip-off that Buick prices are well within the reach of more and more people — and that such prices buy a lot more automobile per dollar.

So why not look into the tomorrow-styled Buick that puts you so far ahead today?

Come in, or phone us this week for a demonstration. Then you can judge for yourself that Buick really is the beautiful buy — by far.

HOME-HOW-TO'S

Install Your Own New Floor

Homemakers young and old are discovering just how much money they can save by doing their own redecorating and remodeling. And beside the money they save, there is also the joy of being able to say, "I did it myself." Today, anybody who is handy around the house can get a big kick out of working on one of countless "do-it-yourself" projects. For example, for those who want to put down a new floor in the kitchen, dining room or bath, Congoleum-Nairn, Inc. has gotten together a kit that contains all the tools that are required. A complete instruction booklet has also been made up.

To stimulate interest in tile floors, Congoleum-Nairn is holding a special kitchen of the year contest this spring. Prizes up to $5,000 will be awarded to consumers who install a new tile floor in their kitchen. Local dealers have full contest details.

If you're interested in a new look for your own kitchen this year, a tile floor could well be the right answer for you. It is one of the easiest of floors to maintain and is one of the brightest, most colorful floors that money can buy. Tiles come in a wide selection of materials—linoleum, vinyl, rubber, asphalt, and cork.

The photos below show the easy steps in laying a tile floor.

Start by finding mid point of end wall and snap a chalk line between these points. Repeat operation for side walls. This gives you the center of the room.

Tiles are laid starting from the center of the room. Cover a quarter of the room at a time. Spread paste evenly, smoothly.

Always work from uncovered portion of the floor. Place tiles in position, don't slide them. This prevents paste from oozing up between tile joints.

Here is your new floor—one that will make your kitchen sparkle for years. The tile is linoleum in the Jackstraw design.

Gail Blackburn to Wed Robert Scheffer

Following commencement on Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Blackburn announced the engagement of their daughter, Gail, to Robert E. Scheffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Scheffer of Farmington.

Friends and relatives of both families were gathered at the Blackburn home, 456 Orchard Dr., Northville, to honor the two young people who were both members of the graduating class of Northville High school.

No date for the wedding has been set.

Day of Opportunity Dawning

To those college graduates, and all young men and women in the world today, who are setting out to earn a living, we would like to refute the many claims that the day of opportunity is past. It is frequently heard that the current high tax structure in this country, and in most countries, discourages initiative and drive, and that the day of individual fortunes is past.

All the facts and figures available refute this as complete nonsense. In almost every community in this great country there are wealthy business men who have made every penny of their fortunes since World War II.

The nation is growing in population by 1,500,000 a year, the long-term trend is toward a higher and higher standard of living, and free enterprise system is still respected and protected in these United States.

That is all any ambitious, and talented, young person needs today. While it is true that taxes will take a greater proportion of income than they took twenty or thirty years ago, it is also true that there are many advantages for the youth of today which were not enjoyed by the generation which preceded him.

For one thing, there is a larger national market. For another, the standard of living is higher and wages and salaries are higher. For another, there is better transportation, communication and innumerable scientific advances which can be taken advantage of in industrial fields.

In addition to these advantages, we believe that the dawn of the world's most adventurous era is now arriving. Far more thrilling than the discovery of America will be the first trip to the moon, or Mars, or a nearby planet. During the life-time of many of this country's present youth this trip will probably be successfully completed.

As the heavens reveal their secrets and as outer space is conquered, the age of real adventure will only be the beginning. Therefore, far from being pessimistic about opportunities afforded youth today, we believe the young people of today have the brightest future of any generation yet spawned in this country. From the economic standpoint, they also enjoy many safeguards with their forefathers did not enjoy and for which they paid heavily in periods of depression.

Visibility Good

The evidence mounts that our nation's economy is accomplishing a smooth transition from production for destruction—war—to production for plenty—peace.

There is every indication, say those who study the economic trends and the facts and figure, that this will be on the whole a good year for everybody—exceeded only by 1953, which was a record year.

Despite the outlandish schemes of the socialistic and political spenders for throwing the economy off course, despite the depression howlers, the signals are set for Full Speed Ahead!

The fate of the Republican party in this fall's election hangs on what Congress accomplishes in the next two months.

Contrary to what some radio oracles hold, the world will not fall apart at the seams if the Reds win most of Indo-China.

"Competition" and "competence" have a great deal in common as vital factors in making our economic system the best in the world where human as well as other values are concerned. Both words come from the Latin root, "competere", which means "to seek". The word "competent", which describes respected businessmen and craftsmen alike, comes from the Latin "competens", which means "to strive after together, to be qualified."

CLEAR THE DECK!

Bids Are Asked for Seven Mile Cutoff

Sealed proposals for construction of a bridge and for 482 of a mile pavement for the Seven Mile Rd. cutoff from Northville Rd. west to Sheldon Rd. were asked this week by the State Highway Dept.

The bridge is to carry the extension of Seven Mile Rd. over the River Rouge. It is to be completed Nov. 15, 1954, and the paving is to be completed by Dec. 18.

Contractors eligible to do the work are asked to submit bids before 11 a.m., June 30.

Northville Man Gets Safety Award

Henry M. Wick, of Yerkes Ave., Northville, has been presented with the Courteous Driving award of the Safety and Traffic Committee of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

Wick was honored for leaving his car and assisting a blind man across 12th St. Wick, at the time, was waiting at a red light. This act of motoring courtesy was witnessed by Patrolman Eugene Kozziel, of Bethune Station, who reported the license number of the car to the Committee and Auto club and recommended that the award be made.

The award is in the form of a dashboard sticker in blue and gold, upon which are written the words, "I Take My Manners Motoring". A citation attesting to the courteous act was also presented.

In his letter to Wick, Committee Chairman Jan Schmiedding said, "Such acts of courtesy as yours often make the difference between pleasant motoring and death. Your act brings to mind Lord Tennyson's line, 'The greater man, the greater courtesy.'"

"On behalf of the members of the Safety and Traffic committee, may I offer my heartiest congratulations."

The courtesy campaign in the Detroit area is to continue indefinitely.

Merchants Swamp Detroit Cubs, 13-2

The Northville Merchants baseball team swamped the Detroit Cubs of the Inter-County league Sunday at Cass Benton park.

In a game that was marked by almost errorless ball and no less than 20 hits on the part of the visitors, the Northville team rolled up a total of 13 runs while holding the Cubs to two, and five hits.

Lee Venditti was the winning pitcher.

By virtue of its victory Sunday, the Northville team is now in a tie for third place in the league, with a record of five victories against three defeats.

Northville's Favorite Recipes

(What's your favorite dish? If you will share it with other Northville housewives, please call The Record's society editor, Telephone 200.)

This Shrimp Creole — one of the favorites in the James McNeiece family — is a good hot weather dish. Served with a tossed or molded salad and a light dessert it forms the basis of a substantial and appetizing meal.

Mrs. McNeiece has changed the recipe to suit her own tastes and that of her family. Frozen, fresh shrimp and other sea foods are available all the year around and are quickly and easily prepared. Mrs. McNeiece recommends the fresh frozen rather than the canned.

The McNeiece's reside at 325 N. Center and are the parents of three lively youngsters; Donna, aged six; Kathie, who is four and a half, and Jimmy, just two and a half.

Here is the Shrimp Creole recipe:

- | | |
|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| 4 tablespoons butter | 1 tablespoon sugar |
| 3 tablespoons flour | 1/4 teaspoon salt |
| 1 lb. fresh cooked shrimp | 1/2 teaspoon onion juice |
| 1 tall can tomatoes | 1 cup water |

Cook 1 pound of fresh shrimp in boiling water eight minutes. Cool and shell and remove veins. Melt butter in a frying pan and add the flour to make the paste. Add the tomatoes and water, cut shrimp in half or chunks and add. Add seasonings. Cover and simmer slowly until thickened—about 20 minutes.

Serve over cooked rice.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Young Circus Fans Will Be Delighted With These Cookies

SMALL fry circus fans will love these gaily decorated animal cookies with their rich chocolate frosting. They spell "party" the instant you serve them, and yet they take only a short time to make, they're so easy.

Delight the children? You bet! Much of the appeal is hidden in the crunchy oatmeal cookie used as a base. Children who are old enough to manipulate a knife or spoon can help frost the cookies with chocolate, and even the youngest can then top them with animals.

Isn't it about time the circus came to your house? Then do it easily with these wholesome cookies for a party, a special luncheon or mid-afternoon snack:

Animal Cookies (Makes 4 dozen)

- 1 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup granulated sugar
- 1/2 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup shortening, soft
- 1 egg, unbeaten
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 1 cup rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned)
- 1 6-ounce package semi-sweet chocolate pieces, melted
- 4 dozen animal cookies

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and granulated sugar into bowl. Add brown sugar, shortening, egg and vanilla. Beat until smooth, about 2 minutes. Blend in rolled oats (Dough will be quite Shouts of delight will greet you when you bring in a platter of these enchanting animal cookies made with a tasty oatmeal base topped with chocolate, and animal crackers. Served with milk, they're a wonderful party or special snack.

(Stiff.) Form dough into small balls and place on greased cookie sheets. Flatten with bottom of a glass covered with waxed paper. Bake in a moderate (375°F.) for 12 to 15 minutes. Remove from cookie sheet immediately and cool thoroughly. Frost top of cookies with melted chocolate and place an animal cracker in the center of each cookie. Allow chocolate to set before storing cookies.

How to Take Care Of Your Furniture

Entertaining at home is always fun, often work and sometimes it may leave your furniture in less desirable condition.

Beverages spilled on coffee tables, cigarette burns on end tables, water rings on radio, phonograph or television set are some of the mishaps which can spoil the evening for a hostess who is proud of her possessions.

A bit of first-aid knowledge for furniture can help minimize the effects of many of these accidents.

Use Polish or Wax
Marks left by alcohol, be this from a beverage or spilled perfume, can frequently be reduced by an application of liquid cleaning and polishing wax. If the mark is stubborn, rub with a small amount silver polish or moistened cigar ash. A quick application of ammonia may also be effective.

White rings may also be rubbed with a cloth moistened in camphorated oil. Follow immediately by rubbing with a clean, dry cloth.

Use the camphorated oil treatment for milk stains, burns or heat marks which aren't too deep.

Blot Ink Spots
Ink spots on wood furniture should be blotted immediately to prevent permanent and unsightly stains. What remains can usually be removed by patting the area with a damp cloth. However, it's wise to avoid rubbing; do keep turning the cloth to an unsold area, repeating this as often as necessary.

Whatever remedy you use for furniture stains, plan to re wax immediately, not only for the sake of appearance but also for practicality.

"2. The salary schedule has been elevated with the ability of the District resources, and thus has made it possible for us to keep an excellent staff on the job. Beginning salaries are now $3200 and the top $5050, for regular teaching.

"3. Classrooms have been added and a new 10-room elementary school is now under construction.

"4. The original school district has annexed the several primary districts of the township in accordance with State and County advice, which results in better educational facilities for all children.

"5. Transportation of all children outside the Village limits and within the school district has been provided.

"6. New and revised courses in the high school, such as driver training, accelerated reading, physical science, speech, and others.

"7. The elementary program is under constant scrutiny by the staff, new teaching materials and techniques are being investigated, and there is satisfactory professional growth by members of the staff.

"8. Area Study: It was mentioned in my report of last year that a survey of the future educational needs of the area was most important. It is my pleasure to report that such a survey is now being conducted in Northville and Novi Townships. A committee of 36 people is interested in finding the answers to population growth and concentration, schoolroom facilities and needs, the total school program, finances, transportation, health, recreation, cafeterias, adult education, educational trends. A year from now this committee should be ready with its findings and recommendations in these areas and possibly others."

Forever Feline

The great surge of leopard fashions goes on and on, running the gamut from negligees, pajamas, lingerie, dresses and playclothes, even to bed sheets. Pictured above is a sea-going leopard, a two-piece swimmer by Cole of California. Those beautiful black-and-tawny markings will keep their brilliance after many ocean plunges. That's because the cotton is precision-printed for perfect colorfastness by Cranston! For a summer-long suit that will stay fresh looking in spite of sun and salt water, here is your best investment, a sure thing at only eleven dollars! The girl in THIS leopard suit is certain to be an all-summer siren!

Muriel Jean Fagan Weds George L. Gyde May 29

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Gyde

A white satin and lace gown was dressed in pink. They all carried carnations to harmonize with their dresses.

Donald Nagel of Salem was best man. Ushers were Gerald and Billy Gyde of Plymouth, Arthur Dechart of Novi and Raymond Fagan of Springport, Mich.

Following the reception for 225 guests at the IOOF hall in Plymouth, the couple left for a motor trip through the northern part of Michigan.

Democrats To Hear Stevenson

Democrats from five counties will participate in the reception for Adlai Stevenson at 7:30 to 8:00 p.m. at the Detroit Masonic Temple.

Plans for Stevenson's visit were made by Democrats from Fagan, the bride's sister, chose the counties of Macomb, Monroe, yellow and orchid for their bridesmaid's dresses. Darlene Noll, Stevenson will speak briefly at the reception and then mingle with the anticipated audience of bridesmaids, wore blue and pink 2,000, according to the arrangement. Little Susan Noll of Detroit was the flower girl and amon, Detroit.

Houk-Griswold Rites Read at Salem Church June 13

Miss Bertha Lee Griswold and Richard Houk repeated their nuptial vows Saturday, June 13 before the Rev. C. M. Pennell, a former pastor of Salem Federated church, and assisted by Douglas R. Couch in a 7 o'clock double ring ceremony in the Salem Federated church.

Bertha is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Griswold, Sr. of S. Salem Rd. and Mr. and Mrs. William Houk of Cherry Hill Rd. are the bridegroom's parents.

Bouquets of white gladioli, large majestic daisies and small mums adorned the altar. Mary Lou Hartwick of Plymouth was the soloist. She sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always."

Bertha wore a ballerina length gown of white lace and nylon net over satin. Her lace-edged veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli and feathered white carnations with a shower of stephanotis and white ribbon.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Salem Town hall and the gifts had to be opened by candlelight because the electricity was off on account of the storm. Guests came from Trenton, Detroit, Northville, Plymouth and Ypsilanti.

Following a honeymoon at Niagara Falls the couple will reside with Mrs. Anna Griswold at 6667 South Salem Rd.

Handy Jim's FIX-UP TIPS For Farm and Home

Brighten the Laundry
ANY laundry room can look as modern as the kitchen, even though it's tucked away in a basement. Covering the stationary tubs is a good start toward improving the home laundry.

For convenience, a table-and-cabinet on wheels can be built to cover the tubs when they are not in use. On wash day, the table simply is moved away and used for a sorting table. Easily constructed of lumber and covered with long-wearing Masonite Tempered Presdwood, this combination in itself will make a great improvement in the laundry's appearance. An exposed water heater can be covered in a similar manner. As illustrated, it is located in the corner, next to the tubs. For ventilation, use a small Masonite "Peg-Board" panel. A door on one side of the heater cabinet hides a fold-down ironing board, and there's a shelf, too, for laundry supplies. The entire cabinet may be moved out readily if heater repairs are required. The wheel-out table may be seen at the right in the illustration. To brighten the drab walls, fur them with lumber and apply panels of an all-wood, easily painted and long-wearing material, Masonite Tempered Presdwood.

STRICTLY FRESH

CITY fathers of Manchester, England, have a new way to remove paint "splashes" when redecorating. They've hired a boatman to retrieve splattering painters who fall in the river.

There's a prisoner in Fairview, Mo., who won't be able to "come clean." Police have removed all soap from his cell, as once before he soaped himself and slipped through the bars.

Fellow in Arrhus, Denmark, dug for treasure in his garden and unearthed a 50-year-old cask of beer. It was suds a disappointment. He thought pirates drank rum.

A new watch, being tested by the Bureau of Standards, is hermetically sealed. It's said to never need cleaning or oiling. But is it impervious to the curiosity of a small boy with a hammer?

Austrians may construct a dam across Lake Neusiedler, half of which is in Communist Hungary, to keep fish in Austria's end of the lake. They feel the Reds have enough fishy tales as it is.

"Let's see, now — what did I come out here to worry about?"

94 Exhibits Entered In Flower Show

A total of 94 exhibits was entered in the 15th annual flower show held by the Northville branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Assn. Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr.

Warm summer weather brought a great many flowers into bloom, and added to the success of the show. Visitors were treated to a tour of the Walker home, where each room was devoted to several flower arrangements.

Refreshments were served at the picnic house during the show to the 200 women and two men who attended.

Those who won awards are:
Mrs. Merner Eilber, 2 firsts, 1 second; Mrs. Paul Schulz, 1 first; Mrs. H. N. Frogner, 1 first; Mrs. W. B. Chase, 1 third, 1 honorable mention; Dr. Irene Sparling, 3 firsts; Mrs. Roy Matheson, 3 firsts, 2 seconds, 1 third; Mrs. R. D. Light Chores
For light chores, there are slacks in stripes, houndstooth checks, and smartly tailored denims. To go with slacks is a cotton "putterer's" vest, complete with strategic pockets.

Borrowing an idea from the man of the family, the lady of the house is adopting cotton coveralls for practical workwear. Her coveralls add a feminine touch, however. Some are made of bright red sail cloth with a polka dot collar and sash. They are designed in a zip-front sleeveless style with leg-flattering matador trousers. Another style is designed in faded blue Sanforized denim, to be worn either with or without a blouse.

Sanforized terry cloth is used for one style. These terry cloth coveralls have an elasticized waist and cuffed knee-length trousers. They are smart for beach wear, as well as household jobs.

New Fashion Group Results From "Do It Yourself" Trend

The "do it yourself" trend among homeowners today has made carpenters, paper hangers, painters and plumbers out of many businessmen and homemakers.

This "do it yourself" trend has resulted in an entire new group of fashions for men and women. Now instead of wearing bedraggled, worn out clothing, the "do it yourself" gang is donning cotton clothes designed especially for this purpose. These are trim, work-sportswear garments, comfortable and easy to wash.

Popular Fabrics
Denims, dark fabrics, dungarees, twills, and chambrays are among the popular Sanforized fabrics used in the new fashions, for they are comfortable and wash well.

One of the versatile outfits designed for men is appropriate either for fisherman or workman. It is a pair of overalls designed with 16 pockets to hold screwdrivers, measuring sticks, pencils and other tools, or a fisherman's gear.

For the man turned garbage emptier, babysitter, and dishwasher, a khaki colored denim coat will eliminate the need for a husband to don frilly aprons.

Northville Man Completes Flying Course

(Special to the Record)
Richard K. Somers, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Somers, 777 Grace St., Northville, having successfully completed the initial phase of his aviation cadet training program, has been graduated from the USAF Pre-Flight school, Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex.

The graduation was marked at a parade and assembly of the USAF Pre-Flight school. This organization conducts the introductory course for all students enrolled in both pilot or aircraft observer training. The program constitutes a major mission of Lackland, the Gateway of the Air Force base, commanded by Maj. Gen. John H. McCormick.

Having completed the 12-week pre-flight course, he will enter the first flying training phases of the program at bases of the Flying Training Air Force. Many of the pre-flight graduates will receive delays enroute to their new assignments which will enable them to take a brief home leave.

The graduating class included a number of students enrolled as members of South American, European and Asiatic nations as well as United States cadets. They are engaged in the training either under provisions of the Mutual Defense Assistance program or under agreements presently in force between their home countries and the United States.

Prowler Sentenced To 30-Day Jail Term

Donald H. Raetz, of Livonia, was sentenced to 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction last Thursday after he was arrested at 3:30 a.m. upon complaint of William Higgins, 384 S. Wing, that he was prowling around the Higgins home.

Officer Eugene E. King, an-wering a call from Higgins, reported that he had found Raetz on the front steps in a befuddled condition. King said the man told him he was trying to find a girl, but did not seem to know just where to look.

He was taken to the Plymouth jail, and later was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Ed Bogart, who fined him $25 and $5 costs on a charge of being a disorderly person and disturbing the peace. Unable to pay the fine, he was taken to the House of Correction.

PERPLEXED?

Well, I can hardly blame you with the clamor of voices in religion which call out different directions, all claiming to believe the Bible, all claiming to be the church, all claiming to present the truth. Since you do not know a great deal about the Bible how can you know who is right? Perhaps I can be of help to you by showing you that when the Bible makes a statement on any subject, then all the other verses in the Bible about this subject must be in harmony with that one verse or the Bible would contradict itself. Rest assured, the Bible never contradicts itself. So then if you want to know about salvation find any verse on salvation, study it—believe it and you have it. In Acts 10:43 the Apostle Peter said, "To Him (Jesus) give all the prophets witness, that through His name WHOEVER BELIEVETH IN HIM should receive the forgiveness of sins." Now all the true prophets of that day agreed on this method of getting right with God. Through the name of Jesus means that those who will trust in what His name stands for (See Matt. 1:21) and put their confidence in Him by claiming Him as their Saviour would receive the forgiveness of sins.

Big-Car Luxury and Performance at the Lowest Price of all

The closer you compare values the more certainly you'll see that Pontiac is the standard buy on automobile row.

In size and weight alone Pontiac offers you more car per dollar than a like amount ever bought before. And that's important, because that long wheelbase is the reason for comfort, riding ease and roadability unapproached within hundreds of dollars of its modest price.

And along with these big-car features you get remarkable savings. Operating and upkeep economy are, of course, exceptional. First cost is the least for any big, luxury automobile—within a few dollars of the lowest-priced cars. Our trade-in appraisals are notably large and Pontiac's resale value is among the highest in the industry. Come in for the facts about today's most entering value.

THE VILLAGE --- AT WORK

A Visit With Your Neighbors On the Job

James Madigan, fourth grade teacher in Northville grade school, (left) and Mrs. Robert Coolman, secretary to School Principal C. T. Pregitzer, discuss student financial matters.

Although she is a busy housewife and mother, Mrs. Robert Coolman still has time to act as secretary to the grade school principal, C. T. Pregitzer, a position which she has held for the past two years.

Mrs. Coolman is well qualified for the position she holds. Following her graduation from Northville High school, she attended Detroit Business university. Until she took over her present duties, she was an active member of the Northville Woman's club, and the Northville Review club, besides taking an active part in affairs of the Presbyterian church.

Her work in the principal's office consists of many things—among them are bookkeeping, filing, child accounting and census compilation. Others are making programs for school affairs, tickets for the milk program, forms used in the health clinic and clerical work for the pre-registration of kindergarten children. Information on lost and found articles is obtained in her office. When children miss the school bus, which they often do to the despair of the parents, parents have to be contacted and a way home provided.

Mr. Coolman, a graduate of Michigan State college, is in charge of heating and refrigeration maintenance at the Wayne County Training school, a position he has held for the past 24 years.

The Coolmans have two children, a son Dick, who will graduate from Michigan State college next fall, and a daughter Becky, who will enter high school next fall.

The Coolmans reside at 542 W. Dunlap St.

The GREEN THUMB

by Paul Newton

The flower show of the Northville Branch of the National Farm and Garden Assn., was a credit to the flower growers in our community. The home of Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr. provided the backdrop for the display. The show started as soon as guest's cars were parked. A walk through the grounds of "Happy Acres" was an exhibit in its own right.

The flower arrangements inside the home were placed to give the guests a feeling that each was made especially for its particular setting. Many of the flowers blended so perfectly with the colors in the room that it seemed the exhibitor had that particular place in mind for her display. One such arrangement was done in a sea shell with plum foliage, coral bells and copper tinted roses, which was placed on a coffee table in front of a love seat of the same coppery plum colors. Another blue-ribbon winner carried out the Flag Day theme in a red, white and blue manner.

Having the flower show in a home of one of the members was another "first" for the club this year. It was an important experiment which proved very successful.

Casual observation brought the realization that flower arranging has become an exact science based on design, scale, balance, harmony, etc.

The judges were rather lenient with our club members this year and, instead of disqualifying us, wrote helpful comments on the cards as follows—Water line must be to the top of the container, stems should not cross each other, all side buds should be cut from flowers such as peonies, roses, etc. In a display of roses and peonies, the larger flowers such as peonies should be placed low in the arrangement. In a specimen flower of large size the stem should be long to carry out proper proportion. If the schedule calls for three vegetables, or two small and one large, we must follow directions or be disqualified.

This seems to be a necessary evil part of flower shows. How, otherwise can a judge be fair in her awards? But at heart, I guess I am a gardener and not an arranger. When we come to fine points such as having an open space, or too few leaves on one side, or the wrong color-tone in our flower of an otherwise beautiful display, or no focal point, it makes us wonder if we aren't losing our focal point?

We can only say that without flower arrangements there would be no flower shows. Without a flower show we could not help a student through the horticultural course of college, which is our real purpose and the course for which the late Mrs. Henry Ford created the organization.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

Gardening and other work on the home grounds at this busy season often calls out the whole family. For this reason and because more chemicals and power-driven machines are being used, often by beginning gardeners, you will want to be alert against accidents, cautions Emma DuBord, home demonstration agent for Wayne county. Miss DuBord passes on this advice from Extension Specialist, Dr. Royal J. Haskell. For safety with insecticides, read all the print on the container to know whether dust or spray is toxic, and, if so, how to use it safely as well as effectively. Label containers of toxic materials plainly. Keep them out of reach of children and pets. Sprayers and dusters, used to apply these chemicals, also should be put out of reach of youngsters promptly after use. Any containers, such as a pail, used in mixing insecticides, should be thoroughly washed with hot soapsuds afterwards. The "washings" or any leftover insecticides to be disposed of, should be flushed down a sewer or dumped into a hole. The hole should be so well covered with earth that children, pets, birds and chickens won't get to the discarded materials.

A still day is the safest and most effective time to dust or spray. If there is a breeze, stand with your back to it so the spray or dust blows away from you. Avoid breathing these materials. If any happens to get on the skin, wash it off thoroughly.

Safety measurers with power lawn mowers or garden tractors may seem obvious, but they account for an increasing number of accidents each year as more people use them. Children often are chief sufferers, either because they want to try out the machines or get in their way. Many rotary-type mowers now have guards to protect against flying bits of metal, if the fast-whirling blades are nicked by hitting a stone, for example, but all power machines need to be used with care.

Other familiar accident hazards are worth nothing, too, says Miss DuBord. If garden tools are put away promptly after use, no one will fall over an upturned rake, for example. Some smart gardeners paint tool handles red for convenience and safety. Garden stakes should also be made conspicuous to prevent accidents. Bits of cloth can be tied as safety flags on stretched wire or cord. Thinking ahead of safety is good insurance for the whole family.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday.

Man's dominion over all materiality is stressed in the readings from the King James Version of the Bible as well as those from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. The Scriptural selections include the account as given in Matthew (14:22-32) of how Christ Jesus and Peter walked on the sea.

Readings from Science and Health include the following:
"In proportion as matter loses to human sense all entity as man, in that proportion does man become its master. He enters into a diviner sense of the facts, and comprehends the theology of Jesus as demonstrated in healing the sick, raising the dead, and walking over the wave. All these deeds manifested Jesus' control over the belief that matter is substance, that it can be the arbiter of life or the constructor of any form of existence" (389:5).
The Golden Text is from Psalms: "God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God" (62:11).

Woodchuck Curiosity Plague to Fishermen

Lansing—Curiosity killed the cat, but it only gave the woodchuck a haircut.

And maybe took a little skin, too. This particular woodchuck lives in a forest area in the western upper peninsula.

One day last week he found some expensive fishing rods leaning against an automobile. Guided by a dietary craving, known only to woodchucks, he ate all the cork off the handles.

Exploring further, he found the underside of the vehicle a maze of wonderful hiding places. He climbed and scamped in these. Suddenly, while he was leaning against a fan-like arrangement and viewing the dim interior, a whir started and woodchuck's rump was neatly scraped of hair.

The car owners, a man and wife fishing team, returned from exploring the woods, found their chewed-up fishing rods and started the engine.

Woodchuck jumped out from under the hood and headed for deep woods. For awhile, he will sleep on his snout and eat standing up.
