What is going to happen to the Northville theater (?) when the present lessor's lease expires next October?

Several persons have investigated the possibility of taking over the building. Some have had in mind re-opening it for movies despite the present poor patronage of all movies. Others have thought about converting the building for some other business use, probably as a chain store.

Latest investigation was made during the past week, reportedly by a representative of interests who are thinking about a movie, and at the same time wondering what they might do with the building in case the movie doesn't pay. It is said that they approached A & P to find out if the chain store company might lease it from them if the movie flops.

Speaking of A & P, this outfit is reported preparing to open two large, modern supermarkets hereabouts. One will be at Walled Lake, on a main road just northeast of the city limits. Construction of this market is already under way, on a large plot of land for which a price of $40,000 is reported to have been paid. The second market is to be on South Main St. in Plymouth, where a sizable piece of real estate has been acquired. The present A & P store in Plymouth is to be closed when construction of the new store is completed.

Have you noticed the two new signs erected on Northville's Main St.? Brader's Department Store has just put up a large illuminated flasher sign. Freydl Cleaners followed suit a few days later with an attractive blue neon sign.

Less Gripping, More Attendance At Council Meetings Is Urged

Mayor Claude N. Ely is no little miffed at Northville residents who "gripe" about conditions or services and make unreasonable demands on the Village, but rarely attend commission meetings to see how village affairs are conducted.

"Some people won't like this," he told fellow commissioners Monday night, "but I'm going to say it anyway. Every one of you commissioners know that every time you walk down the street somebody buttonholes you to gripe about streets, gutters, taxes or whatnot. Yet they never come to commission meetings to see what is being done."

Doing Nothing? Hah! The mayor's statement was occasioned by a complaint reported by one of the group that residents along S. Center St. thought the Village council was doing nothing about a petition submitted two years ago calling for improvements to drainage ditches and the roadway.

Village Clerk Mary Alexander produced correspondence to show that the petition and an accompanying letter had been sent to the Wayne County Road Commission, requesting that action be taken. Replies showed that an estimate of necessary work had been made, and costs figured, but that the county reported the budget already had been made out and no funds had been allotted in time to make them available to start improvement work.

Cost $57,500 Figures cited were $57,500 for the completed task of cleaning ditches, grading, filling for a sidewalk laying the walk, and other work, half to be defrayed by the Village. Possibility of assessment to the property owners involved was discussed, and it was determined that the cost per owner would be around $2,000. However, it was pointed out that costs undoubtedly are higher now, with a resultant increase over the original figure. Comm. Stubbenvoll estimated that it

Richard Ambler Joins Staff of Northville Record

Richard Ambler is now associated with the Northville Record as advertising manager. Dick has been a resident of this community most of his lifetime and is a graduate of Northville High school. He presently lives in Northville with his wife, Jeanne, and three children, Diane Nancy and Rickie.

Prior to joining The Record staff he had spent 14 years in industry in varying capacities except for the past three months when he was with a retail establishment in Plymouth.

Commissioners Approve City Status Committee

Approval of the committee to determine whether Northville should make another attempt to obtain incorporation as a city was given unanimously Monday evening by the Village commission.

Selection of the committee was made last week by a joint group of members of the commission and of the Retail Merchants Assn. As approved Monday night, it consists of Thomas R. Carrington, chairman; Levi Eaton, Cy Frid, John Canterbury and Robert B. Coolman.

Report In August

At the suggestion of Comm. John Stubbenvoll, the committee was given until the second meeting in August to prepare its report. At that time the commission will hold its regular meeting in the Community building, so that all interested citizens may attend and voice objections or approval, or make suggestions.

Following the report, if the recommendation is to start a campaign for city incorporation, a new committee will be formed to lay appropriate plans, hold public meetings if deemed advisable, and to disseminate information to the public. It was indicated that this group would probably be the same as the Carrington committee, unless some members asked to be replaced. In that event, other members would be chosen.

Stubbenvoll said there would be insufficient time to prepare a campaign and bring the issue before the voters at the fall elections, and that therefore it should be planned for the spring of 1955.

Cites Bad Situation

Dr. V. George Chabot, Village health officer, suggested that the committee consider taking in the Gerald Ave. section, so that the Village could take action to clear up a bad sanitation situation which he said constitutes a menace to the Village proper. He reported that a semi-naked child, racked with whooping cough, had been allowed to run around in the open in the area, but that he was powerless to do anything about it and that Wayne county health authorities were ignoring it.

It was pointed out that while sentiment appears to be in favor of limiting the area to be included in the city incorporation plan to that of the present village, it will up to the committee to decide just what the boundaries will be.

In other action, the commission

Received a quit claim deed from Herman W. and Anne Bakhaus to a 12 foot strip of land along the alley in rear of the old Record office, to permit widening of the alley.

Received the report of Dr. V. George Chabot, Village health officer, who reported that a mild epidemic of red measles occurred during the past month. Sixty cases were involved, bringing to 107 the number of cases of communicable diseases for the year. There were seven cases of pneumonia, 12 of chickenpox, one of tuberculosis, and two of whooping cough last month.

The first stop will be Bremen, Germany, where they are to stay for six days. From there they will fly to Hamburg for two days and then to Copenhagen, Denmark.

About July 1 they will leave Copenhagen and travel through Denmark and Sweden by boat and train to Finland where they will meet a Finnish boy Dave stayed with when he was an exchange student two years ago. Dave's friend has planned a trip for the three boys which will take them to Lapland. Following this trip the boys will purchase bicycles and tour the Scandinavian countries for a month.

A plane will take them from Copenhagen to Glasgow, Scotland where they will spend the final week of their tour bicycling through Scotland. They expect to return home in September—just in time to start school. Dave attends Michigan State college, and Clancy the Ferris Institute at Big Rapids.

Northville's Mary Lovewell Chosen Governor of Wolverine Girls' State

Five Northville High school girls who attended the annual Wolverine Girls' State at the University of Michigan, which ended yesterday, were back home today with many enthusiastic comments concerning their experiences during the nine-day meeting.

Highest honor at the conclave went to Northville's Miss Mary Lovewell, daughter of Drs. Paul and Victoria Lovewell, 148 E. Main St. Her election marked the second time in three years that a Northville girl has been chosen governor of Girls' State. Mrs. Stan Schaefer (Andrea Owen) was elected to that position three years ago.

Miss Gayle Ashburn, also of Northville, also was highly honored by being chosen justice of the supreme court of Girls' State.

A total of 300 girls from high schools throughout the state were present for the sessions, sponsored primarily by the American Legion Auxiliary.

105 PERSONS CONVICTED OF CONSERVATION VIOLATIONS

Lansing — Reports of 105 convictions of conservation law violators arrived in conservation department headquarters here this week, officers say.

All but nine of the convictions were for fish law violations. Of the total, 47 were convicted for fishing without a license and 13 for possessing black bass during the closed season. The remainder were convicted for various infractions.

Red Wing Manager, Sportscaster To Speak Here, Show Hockey Films

Jack Adams, general manager of the Detroit Red Wing Hockey team and Al Nagler, radio sportscaster of the Red Wing games, will make a personal appearance before the Rotary and Exchange clubs of Northville, First Presbyterian church, Tuesday, noon, June 29.

The program will include film highlights of the 1954 Detroit Red Wing Stanley Cup playoff games, plus interesting sidelights of hockey by each of the two personalities present. A round-table discussion will be held following the presentation.

Watch Rubbish, Commissioners Warn Residents

Collections of rubbish in Northville are getting so heavy that the Village may be divided into two parts, with collections being made every other week the Village commission indicated at its regular fortnightly meeting Monday evening.

If the plan is put into effect, the dividing line should be Main St. Comm. John Stubbenvoll said, with collections being made on the north side one week and on the south side the next.

Hear Complaints

Demands on the collection crews have been growing, the commission was informed, and some citizens have complained because trash and debris not covered in the applicable ordinance has not been hauled away by Village crews. Discussion on this subject centered around the complaint of one resident who, it was said, expected the village to haul away sections of a huge tree he had cut down and dumped in an alley.

Mayor Claude N. Ely pointed out that the ordinance provides that citizens themselves are responsible for disposing of wood, broken concrete and other items too large for easy handling. At his direction, Village Atty. Philip Ogilvie read portions of the ordinance which specify that brush and limbs, must be cut into lengths not longer than four feet, and tied into compact bundles, that trash should be kept separate from garbage, and that containers should not be so large that they cannot be easily and speedily handled. Ely said it was unreasonable to expect the collection crews to hoist huge 55-gallon drums loaded with heavy debris, as some residents have done.

Liable to Fines

Although leaves, grass cuttings and paper may be burned in back yards, commission members brought out, burning is prohibited if smoke and odors are such that they prove objectionable to neighbors. Those who do not conform to the provisions of the ordinance are liable to court action, Ogilvie said.

Mayor Ely appointed Comm. John Stubbenvoll as chairman of a committee to publish pertinent parts of the ordinance, and to set a date when strict enforcement will begin.

Driver Pays $25 Fine In Mishap

Two accidents were reported to police Sunday, but no one was injured in either.

Richard LeClair, 18, of Dearborn, paid a $25 fine and costs in Justice Edward Bogart's court for running a red light at Center and Dunlap and striking the car of Gerald McFarland, 32, of Wayne. He was found guilty of reckless operation of a motor vehicle.

In the second mishap, Darrell Anne Laks, 30, of Detroit, parked in front of an oil station at Wing and Main streets while she went to a restaurant. Her car coasted backward while she was gone, ran diagonally across the street and crashed into a car owned by Peter J. Harnick, 52, of Ferndale.

Harnick's car was damaged to the extent of a $100, and the woman's about $50, police reported. No complaint was filed, however, the Detroit driver stating her insurance would take care of both cars.

Rathburn Sales Burglar Sought

Northville police are seeking a burglar who broke into the Rathburn Chevrolet Sales, 560 Plymouth, Sunday night, by breaking a rear window with a discarded car axle.

Robert Stoinoff, an employee, reported to police that he found the window broken when he went to work at 7:10 Monday morning. State police were called to assist in the investigation, and a checkup revealed that cabinets had been broken open, and that two tires, a lighter, and $14 in cash had been taken.

Voter Registration Notice Is Issued

Registration of voters for the primary election to be held Tuesday Aug. 3 will be taken now and the 30th day preceding the election, Township Clerk Fred W. Lyke announced Wednesday. The registrations will be received at his home, 430 E. Main St.

Lyke also gave notice that he will be at the Northville Village hall June 25 and 26, and July 3 and 6, for the purpose of reviewing registrations and registering any voters who apply to him.

Novi voters also have until July 6 to register. They are to do so at the Novi Town hall, according to Earl Banks, township clerk.

Your Children's Pictures To Be Published Free

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our nation, and community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. This being true, the publishers of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders".

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures—they must all be of uniform size and quality—we have invited the United Studios of Elkhart, Ind., nationally known children's photographers, to take special pictures for us.

An expert children's photographer, with the finest modern equipment, including the new "speed" lights which eliminate all movement and flood light glare, will be here July 14 and 15. A special studio will be set up at the Northville Community Center and will be open from 12 noon to 7 p.m.

These special lights, incidentally, enable us to obtain natural expressions on children who are ordinarily frightened of bright lights.

No Charge to Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is a bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain these by arrangement with the Studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The More Pictures, the Better

The Record simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more the better. So the mothers and fathers of the community should remember the date July 14-15, and not fail to bring their children to the studio, located in the Northville Community Center.

You will be mighty glad afterwards if you did and very, very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have much fun, and both Mother and Dad—and the youngsters, too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later.

FOREST FIRES IN STATE BURN NEARLY 3000 ACRES

Lansing — Twenty reported fires burned 42 acres of state forests and grasslands last week, raising the year's damage total to 2997 acres.

Last year at this date, 4932 acres had been damaged and to the same date in 1951, when a record all-time low annual loss was counted, 3449 acres had been damaged.

Although interest in oil well activity in the Northville area has dwindled in recent weeks, work of drilling new wells is continuing at a fast pace. The Record was informed Wednesday.

State geologists report that oil has been found in another well not far from the original LeMaster No. 1, which set off a flurry of excitement last December. Known as LeMaster No. 3, it is being drilled by the William Taggart Co., which brought in the original well. LeMaster No. 1 is now producing approximately 650 barrels of oil per day, state conservation officers said.

No Figures

Work on LeMaster No. 3 is being completed; no figures on potential production have yet been made available. The well is one-eighth of a mile west of the original discovery well, and about five miles west of Northville.

Elsewhere in the Northville field, oil has been found in one other well and gas in two. Operations are continuing on Franfield No. 1 on the J. P. Malley farm, to bring the well into production. On the Leone farm, south of Ten Mile Rd., between Beck and Garfield, the Basin Oil Co. of Lansing well is down to about 900 feet. Ferguson & Ferguson are the drillers.

Drills "Offset Well"

The Taggart Co. also is reported drilling an "offset" well west of Franfield No. 1 on the Ramshaw farm.

Despite the fact that activity in the field still continues, geologists point out that a number of dry holes have been drilled, including one near Salem.

To date, about 20 wells have either been completed, scheduled or are now being drilled in the area.

Spring Area To Be Improved Soon

The Northville spring, most noted landmark in this area, is to receive greater care and attention if a plan submitted at the Village council meeting Monday night bears fruit.

The Northville Rotary club, which has been caring for the spring, habitually has assigned members to make sure that the area was clean, and that repairs were made. However, it was suggested that the area between the road and the spring should be blacktopped, and other improvements made at a cost of approximately $600. This was too large a sum for the club to bear alone, and Comms. Peters and Allen were asked by Mayor Ely to work with the club to see whether a cost-sharing program could be worked out.

Northville Man Rutgers Graduate

Dale F. Bray, Youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Starr D. Bray of N. Rogers St., received a PHD degree at the 188th commencement exercises of Rutgers University, New Jersey, June 9. His parents were present at the exercises.

Dale is a graduate of Northville High School class of 1939 and of Michigan State college in 1947. His college course was interrupted by two years' service in the Army, much of that time being spent in the South Pacific.

Upon receiving his discharge, Dale resumed his studies at M. S. C. receiving a Master's which was accompanied by Fellowship to Rutgers in 1949.

He has since served on the faculty of the University of Delaware as Professor of Entomology since 1949.

Dale was married to Pauline Moehlman of Muskegon Heights, Michigan in June, 1947. She is also a graduate of M. S. C. They have two children, a daughter and a son, and reside in Newark, Del.

New Softball League Formed

Like to play softball, but think you're getting along in years and might not be able to keep pace with younger men?

If you do and are then Stanley Johnston, director of the Northville "Summer of Fun" program thinks he has the solution.

Dir. Johnston issued an invitation Tuesday to Northville men over 30 to join a new softball league which will be composed of four teams and will start operation July 7.

Those who are past their 30th birthday, but still feel they'd like to play, are asked to call Johnston at 1257-J. Games will be played at Ford field on Wednesday evenings, beginning at 7:30. "This isn't an old man's league," Johnston pointed out. "But we don't care how old he is just so he's spry and likes to play. Men who have begun to slow down and know they can't keep up with fleshy youngsters. And we'll play for fun, not blood; we'll just have a good time and maybe get a little needed exercise along with it."

There will be ten men on a team instead of the usual nine, Johnston said.

Bear Gives Assist to Game Officer

Marquette — Conservation officer Leslie Walstrom got an assist from a rambling black bear while checking a suspicious fisherman recently.

Walstrom wanted to check the angler's creel but had to stay hidden until the man waded ashore.

While waiting a full-grown black bear ambled past the officer, continued downstream and around a bend toward the suspected angler. Suddenly, Walstrom heard a loud yell and the fisherman burst white-faced out of the stream and raced toward the officer.

The bear had walked up quietly behind the man before being discovered. Walstrom had no difficulty checking the man's creel.

Golf Contest Will Highlight Program

A golf contest for two groups will highlight this week's "Summer of Fun" recreation program, Director Stanley Johnston announced Monday.

Youthful players from 12 to 15 years will compete in the first contest at Ford Field Saturday. Another group of players from 16 to 21 will participate in the second contest.

Prizes will be awarded, Dir. Johnston said. Players are to bring their own golf balls and clubs. There will be six approach shots for accuracy. An extra fee of 25c is to be charged each contestant.

"There's no red tape to go through," Johnston said. "Just come down and enter the contest."

The time for the contest has been set for 9:30 Saturday morning.

Shorts from the Sporting News

Bill Tuttle, the Tigers' new outfield phenom, does not scare easily. Shortly after he joined the Buffalo (International) Bisons, he was forced to hit the dirt twice on successive pitches to get out of the way of dusters. On the third pitch, Bill smashed a home run.

Wally Moon, who was so impressive in spring training that the St. Louis Cardinals traded Enos Slaughter to the Yankees so the youngster would have every opportunity to strut the ability he has shown with his Louisville Slugger, has a master's degree in education from Texas A&M.

Following appearance of a recent story that two teen-age boys from Rochester, N.Y., had purchased stock in the Wichita (Western) club, Swede Larson, general manager of the Indians, received an order from a man in Illinois for five shares.

The Cincinnati Redlegs get quite a kick out of a story they tell on Ted Kluszewski. It seems that Big Klu was coming out of a movie when he spied a spectator sitting on the aisle whom he thought was Harry Perkowski, his teammate, because of the extra large nose. Klu playfully tweaked the spectator's nose, said "Beep, beep," and walked back to his hotel. As Ted entered the lobby, the first person he saw was Perkowski, sitting in a big comfortable chair. "Hey!" said Kluszewski. "How long have you been sitting here?" "All day," replied Perkowski.

The honeymoon can end quickly in Milwaukee if the Braves fail to maintain their interesting pace of last year. At a recent game, when Owner Lou Perini stepped to the plate to make a speech, a leather-lunged fan yelled: "G'wan back to Boston—and take them Bums with you!"

Bobo Newsom, now a TV man with the Orioles, doubles as Baltimore's batting practice pitcher when the team is at home.

This is a quote from Joe Adcock: "You can talk about all the good ball players who are around these days but for my money, Gus Bell is likely to be hailed at the end of the season as the greatest in our league. What a sweetheart of a player and guy that Red centerfielder is."

Northville Golfers In Motor City Open

Four Northville golfers will participate in the Motor City Open Pro-Amateur tournament on June 30. Each of the 80 amateur participants will draw for a professional as a partner. The professionals will vie for cash prizes from $400 first place down to $25 for 7th and the prizes for amateurs range from luggage to golf balls.

The names and starting times assigned to local golfers follow: William B. Walker, Jr., 8 a.m.; C. W. Rodgers, 8:24 a.m.; Henry Grimshaw, 8:48 a.m., and Don Yerkes, 1:04 p.m.

The Motor City Open tournament for professionals and $17,500 in prizes will start July 1 and run through July 4. This tournament will be headed by such outstanding golfers as the local professional "Chick" Harbert, Wally Burkemo and many others. Harbert stated that Andy Bertoni, the golf course superintendent at Meadowbrook, has the course in the finest condition ever. Bertoni, who is a Northville resident, is a member of the Greens section committee of the USGA and director of the Golf Course Superintendent's Assn. of America.

The Little Misses Kathleen and Helen Cooke of Albion Ave., spent three days of last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Ault on Shadyside Ave.

J. C. Dunamon of Farmington Rd. recently visited at Pontiac General hospital.

"Killer" Speed Exacts Biggest Toll in Summer

"Slow down and live longer. Drive too fast and die that much sooner."

That's the message of Sergeant Henry P. Kozowicz, commanding officer of the Detroit post of the Michigan State Police, in pointing out that June, July and August are the months when speed, the No. 1 public enemy on the highway, takes its greatest toll.

Michigan law enforcement agencies are now cooperating in a state-wide campaign to make motorists more speed conscious.

"Last year 45 per cent of the traffic violations reported in fatal accidents were for speeding or driving too fast for conditions," Sergeant Kozowicz said in Northville Friday. "Safety appeals are meant for all. If drivers will gear their speed to existing conditions, such as traffic and weather, it will definitely cut down the number of fatalities."

In 1953 there were more than 1,900 persons killed and nearly 58,000 injured in 184,000 accidents in Michigan. This was an increase over 1952 of nine per cent in deaths, 18 per cent in injuries and 15 per cent in accidents.

Ran-off-roadway accidents, the type most commonly attributed to driving too fast for conditions, accounted for 435 of the deaths.

Motor vehicle travel in Michigan during the summer months will jump from the daily average of 71,000,000 miles to 80 million.

"This means greater exposure to accidents," Sgt. Kozowicz said. "The state law does not set a specific speed limit, but it does require that speeds be no greater than conditions justify. In other words, be sensible and use good judgement at the wheel. Avoid that accident. It's possible."

Coordinating Program Planned

Plans for the fall "Twenty-one-ers" banquet were formed at the Coordinating council meeting which was held Thursday night at the Village hall.

Mrs. Samuel Geraci, president, stated that the ground work for the citizenship banquet has to be laid early in the summer in order to allow time for the committee to get all the names of young men and women who became 21 since Oct. 21, 1953, and all those who will reach that age by Oct. 1, 1954.

Wheeling, W. Va. — Police Clerk William Thomas' memory clicked when a Pittsburgh driver was talking his way out of paying a $1 traffic fine by declaring that a parking meter was broken and wouldn't take his nickel. Thomas glanced at the license number on the ticket as the man walked away, leafed through his files to find sixteen old tickets bearing the same number. The red-faced visitor paid $16 in back fines.

CUSTOM NOTE: Twin-Turbine Dynaflo and Safety Power Steering are standard equipment on every Buick ROADMASTER at no extra cost.

It makes you feel like the man you are

YOU must know, of course, that a fine car is more than merely a means of fine travel.

It is, as the psychologists tell us, an extension of a man's own personality.

It reflects what you feel, what you like, what you are.

So we ask you to take the wheel of a Buick ROADMASTER like the one shown here—for it is, we have found, the automobile chosen more and more by those who are definitely moving ahead in the world.

You will find it a car that fairly breathes success.

From its size and its breadth and the magnificent modernity of its styling, you know it is a car of custom stature—and so does the watching world.

The wondrous windshield is a pride in itself. You don't just see the view—you command it.

You will find it, too, a car of luxurious obedience.

From the moment you ease your foot down on the pedal, you take immediate mastery of the road and of distance.

And you know it—in the silken whip of Twin-Turbine Dynaflo, the might of Buick's greatest horsepower, the magic cushioning of coil springs on all four wheels, the exhilarating ease of Buick Safety Power Steering at your hand.

But with all this, you buy with prudence when you buy a ROADMASTER.

For—though it is, and looks, custom production—it sells for the lowest price-per-pound in the fine-car field. And so wise an investment makes you feel even more like the man you are.

Drop in, or phone us this week, and we'll gladly arrange a demonstration.

BUICK SALES ARE SOARING!

Latest figures for the first four months of 1954 show Buick now outselling every other car in America except two of the so-called "low-price three." Better look into Buick if you want the beauty and the buy of the year.

You Can't Do Business Etc.

Two months ago we predicted in these columns that the Geneva conference, like many another attempt to get together with Soviet emissaries, was foredoomed to failure. It took no crystal ball or supernatural insight to forecast such a result. All too many times in the past have efforts to negotiate even trifling matters with the Russians come to naught.

Of course, in the interest of preventing another shooting war, it was America's duty to try. The history of the conference thus far has paralleled that of practically every other such meeting. The Russians have used them as a means to spread propaganda, and to prevent any constructive result.

The moral, if any, is that the rest of the world just cannot do business with Russia.

United We Go Forward!

It is easy to imagine the jubilation in Moscow over what the Red rulers are calling our "jitters". Hearing the voice of a prophet of gloom and doom on radio and TV, the Kremlin's U.S. correspondents gleefully cable home a description of an America disunited, fearful, falling apart at the seams.

We know better, of course, and the Reds ought to, by now. Sure, we've had some spotty unemployment, some lay-offs here and there. But we are coming out of it, and economists agree that the feared "recession" will be over and forgotten by next fall or sooner.

The number of people working today, as a matter of fact, is close to an all-time high. Wages are high, too — average hourly earnings of factory workers are at record levels. This year may well be the second most prosperous in our history.

We got where we are as a nation on unity of purpose, confidence in ourselves, faith in our future. United we will go forward.

Deathless Record

The thousands of country weekly and smaller city daily newspapers in the United States stand in a unique position.

Absolutely nothing takes the place of the hometown paper. It leaves a printed record of community life and activity that can be found nowhere else.

For an example, take the Reese River Reveille of Austin, Nev., published in the geographical center of the state having a population of less than 2 persons to each of its 19,000 square miles or area.

The Reveille has been published continuously since May 16, 1863, two years after the first telegraph line across Nevada replaced the Pony Express.

The files of the Reveille, preserved in the courthouse vault, are said to be the only complete files of any Nevada newspaper dating back to territorial days.

All of which points up the fact that the local newspapers in every corner of our country furnish a deathless record of the people and the area they serve.

Local history is recorded and preserved by the country press of the nation—hopes, aspirations, facts, drama, marriages, births, deaths, political events, legal records—the whole chain of human activity.

A town without a local newspaper is like a phonograph without a record.

Pain in the Neck

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

Michigan is a key state this year in the nation's political picture. Campaigns for the fall election will be watched with considerable interest by the country's political dopesters in hope they can predict national trends from what happens in the Wolverine state.

Much is at stake. If Michigan stays in the Republican camp or goes Democratic it will have great national significance. Huge sums of money will be spent by both parties. More delicate maneuvering will be planned; harder fighting can be expected.

Big danger for both sides is a possible split in party ranks.

Republicans are sure that controversy between GOP candidates in previous primaries produced wounds too deep to heal by general election time. They attribute Williams' victories in past campaigns to such intra-party fights.

They are taking great pains this year that candidates campaign against the Democrats in the primary — not each other.

While GOP leaders hold their breaths hoping that their candidates will stick to what they call "an understanding" not to fight among themselves, Democrat leaders are holding their heads in fear that James Hoffa will lead a rebellion against the Williams leadership.

Hoffa, Detroit AFL labor leader who is described as being unhappy with what he considers CIO domination of the Democratic party, has taken some positive steps that worry the Williams administration more than a little.

The challenge to leadership of the Williams faction leaves the governor's group wondering what manner of "enemy" they have within their ranks — and how far he will go to have his way. Williams is reported to feel that the appearance of George S. Fitzgerald, former national committeeman and affiliate of Hoffa, is an attempt by the teamster leader to "establish a crown prince of his own" in what might be a Democratic year. Fitzgerald filed petitions as Democratic candidate for Lt. Governor.

Republicans will make what happy use they can out of this discord. They can be expected to remind voters of the "AFL-CIO fight for control of the Democratic party".

John Feikens, GOP State Committeeman, has already announced that he recalls Fitzgerald's remarks after a Democratic county convention — he had "just seen socialism, using Communism's method, take over Michigan Democratic party". This refers to an old intra-party fight. It also shows that hard feeling has existed for a long time.

"Fourth terms" is an expression that's apt to pop up in the campaign. It will be used, in the words of Feikens, "to stress the fact that Williams is seeking the same position too often for the interests of good government."

Other Republican campaign arguments will favor a "tremendous highway program, intelligently planned and financed"; improved aid for schools; general tax revision.

"Michigan taxpayers spend one billion dollars a year for state and local taxes," says Feikens. We want to see that taxes are collected on a fair basis and that the money is spent with maximum efficiency."

Democrats have a few weapons of their own. They hope to hit hard with several points.

The present economic condition will be described as an "overall loss of prosperity"—and it will be blamed on Republican policies.

They will refer to their highway building program as "Tomorrow's Road Today" and are expected to make hay over recent scandals involving Highway Department funds.

Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler will become a target of marked importance. Democratic spokesmen have often charged that Ziegler runs the Highway Department "like a kingdom unto itself". They point to Route 43, "a road supposed to extend from Lansing to Grand Rapids, which dies in a cornfield". "This road is being built so slowly," they claim, "that the Lansing end will be worn out before the Grand Rapids end is paved."

"Is this," they intend to ask, "an example of Republican intelligent road programing?"

Both parties will claim credit for popular legislation; blame the rest upon the opposition. There is always some justification for this since, in the final analysis, both Legislature and Governor must agree if bills become law with the chief executive's signature.

When the significance of the Aug. 3 primary is studied by party officials, and the state conventions, held soon after, are adjourned, the chips will be down for the big battle of the general election in November.

Regards of the outcome, it will be a fascinating contest to anyone who wants to watch it develop.

Washington Snapshots

When the Truman Administration was stoking the fires of post-war inflation by heavy spending and mounting deficits, the nation's labor union leadership demanded constant wage increases "to maintain consumer purchasing power."

Business warned that wages were the main element of cost, in most manufactured articles, and that continually rising industrial wage rates without corresponding increases in productivity inevitably would bring prices to the point where many people would be squeezed out of the market for many products.

Now the symptoms of what business warned against are beginning to appear. Postwar demand caused by shortages — a sellers' market — has been supplanted by a buyers' market. Nevertheless, union leaders are demanding wage boosts on the theory that they will "put more purchasing power in the hands of consumers."

All of us would like to have our purchasing power boosted. Yet, as economists point out, purchasing power depends not only on how much money we have in our pockets, but also on the prices we have to pay for what we want. If industrial wages go up, prices will go up proportionately. None of us will have any more purchasing power than we had before, and a lot of us will have less.

Strawberry Festival To Be Held June 25

Mrs. Marshall Huff has announced her committee for the annual Strawberry Festival staged by the Ladies of the Altar Society of Our Lady of Victory church. This year's affair will be held at the church grounds on Friday, June 25 from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. This date has been chosen as it coincides with the height of the strawberry season when the berries are at the peak of perfection.

Women serving on Mrs. Huff's committee are Mrs. J. Gill, Mrs. Arthur Heslop, Mrs. Frank Jentgen, Mrs. Martin Kaiser, Mrs. H. G. Marburger, Mrs. Carroll Mulligan, Mrs. Ward Riley and Mrs. Roy Terrill and Mrs. Claude Cru-soe.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The vital importance of understanding the inspired Word of the Bible spiritually will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" includes the following selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:
"The Scriptures are very sacred. Our aim must be to have them understood spiritually, for only by this understanding can truth be gained. It is this spiritual perception of Scripture, which lifts humanity out of disease and death and inspires faith" (547:23-25, 31-32).

From the King James Version of the Bible the following passages will also be read:

"For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. . . O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. . . Thy testimonies have I taken as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart" (Psalms 119:89, 97, 111).
The Golden Text is from Isaiah: "Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city" (52:1).

St. Paul's To Show Family Worship Film Next Sunday

The congregation, Sunday school and guests of St. Paul's Lutheran church are especially invited to see the Synod's sound film, "Faith of Our Families", which is to be shown in the parish hall Sunday, June 27 at 11:15 a.m.

The film shows how to conduct family devotions and, according to Rev. Rossow, it is the first "how-to" film of family worship ever produced. It attempts to answer these questions: (1) What do I do? (2) When is the best time? (3) What if there's a baby in the family? (4) What if ages are widely spread? (5) What about conflicting time schedules? (6) What if I live alone?

No 3 DONT PASS AT INTERSECTIONS

Passing at an intersection is like the old parlor game of trying to pat your head with one hand, rub your stomach with the other and dance a jig at the same time. It's hard to do because you have to keep your mind on so many things at the same time.

The car you're passing may turn left.

The car you're passing may hide car coming from right.

The car you're passing may hide pedestrian coming from right.

The car coming from your left may start up.

The car you're passing may dodge left to avoid car on right.

It's smarter to slow down and pass beyond the intersection, or speed up to pass before reaching the intersection.

News Around Northville

The Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Rossow returned last week from a 10-day trip to Winfield, Kans. to attend the graduation of their twin children, Carl and Lois, from St. John's college. Afterward, they and the children visited another son, Edwin, at Elk City, Okla., where he is serving his vicarage this year. The boys plan to attend Concordia Seminary at St. Louis, Mo. together this fall, Carl as a first year divinity student, and Edwin as a senior. Lois will start her teaching career this fall in the Christian Day School of Trinity Lutheran church at Utica, Mich. This week, Rev. Rossow is attending the four-day Michigan District convention at Trinity church St. Joseph, Mich.

Mrs. Robert Ellis and daughter, Carol of St. Petersburg, Florida have been house guests of Mrs. M. R. Schaeffer of 835 W. Main St., for the past week.

Mrs. J. W. Cheetham of West Main entertained Mrs. Harold Fredsell at a farewell luncheon on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gael Downer of Frederick St., attended their high school alumni banquet in Ovid, Mich., June 12. Mrs. Downer and her two daughters, Ann and Jean spent last week visiting friends and relatives near Ovid.

Leona Parmalee, Assistant Cashier of Depositors State Bank, attended a meeting Saturday evening of the Michigan group, Association of Bank Women, held at the Statler Hotel, Detroit. Mrs. Leota Ambler of 113 West St. accompanied her as a guest.

B. Cavell on East Seven Mile Rd. for the past three weeks. There were many parties and picnics for Marilyn and a renewal of old friendships as well as family reunions. The Casady's young son, Brook, was baptized in the Presbyterian church while they were here.

Mrs. Ross Dusenberry (Grace Yerkes) of Tryon, N. C. was the house guest of Mrs. T. J. Knapp last week. Mrs. Dusenberry came to attend graduation exercises at the University of Michigan. While she was here Mrs. Knapp invited some of Mrs. Dusenberry's friends in on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Gearn, Jr., announce the birth of a daughter, Nancy Joanne, June 13 at Garden City Hospital. Mrs. Gearn is the former Joanne Rowe.

The Claude Cruse home on Nine Mile Rd. was the scene of the annual DAR picnic and co-operative luncheon on Monday. Mrs. Lawrence Mack presided in the absence of the Regent, Mrs. Harry Deyo who is traveling in Europe.

Miss Ruth Knapp and Miss Florence Keith entertained ten guests at luncheon Tuesday and 12 were invited to another luncheon on Wednesday.

The Eagle or the Oyster?

Now comes the season of the year when the Red, White and Blue is glorified in oratory throughout the land. Platitudes flow. Washington, Lincoln, Franklin, Patrick Henry, and Jefferson are quoted. For speakers bold enough to break with this tradition, we suggest the examination of a speech written by Merle Thorpe, editor of SERVICE Magazine, for the July issue. Theme—"The Eagle or the Oyster?"

For a people . . . who elect opportunism rather than opportunity, who dream of security rather than success; who believe political charity is a virtue; who mock the frugal and plunder the thrifty; who adopt the rule that if I don't succeed you are to blame, that what you have is as much mine as yours; who contend that property is a shameful sign of success; who whimper that failure is the nobler cause; well-being is wicked; prudence, out-of-date; sacrifice silly—for such a people a fitting emblem is the Oyster.

For a people . . . who faced nature in the raw, with privation the rule and hardihood a virtue; who endured defeat, disease and disaster for a hundred years in order to get a foothold on the Eastern Seaboard, the while with one eye on the interior, a no-man's land, a cockpit for settling international rivalries and private grudges, disputed by wild animals and wilder redmen; who sacrificed thus for a belief in the worth and dignity of the individual; who believed that economic freedom was as important as political freedom; who substituted "In God We Trust," for the Old World motto "In Government We Trust"; for a nation built by men who dedicated their lives to achieve the realization of these beliefs, I give you, fellow citizens—the Eagle!

CHRYSLER BREAKS WORLD STOCK CAR RECORD

World speed and endurance records for stock cars were broken when a 1954 Chrysler FirePower 235-horsepower V-8 completed a 24-hour continuous run with an average speed of 118.18 miles per hour for 2836.42 miles. Picture shows American Automobile Association official Bill Vanderwater giving AAA champion Tony Bettenhausen the checkered flag ending the successful run at the Chrysler proving ground track at Chelsea, Michigan. Only 26 pit stops were made.

DREAM TRAIN—Looking like something out of this world, which it soon will be, this ancient tank-type engine puffs its way out of the station at Enghien Les Bains, France. It is nearing the end of its journey from the 1890's to oblivion, and during all of its 64 years has shuttled commuters from Enghien to Montmorency. Buses will replace the locomotive and its three double-deck passenger cars.

HOW DOLLAR GOES
Taking the nationwide average in manufacturing industry, for every dollar received from the sales of its product a firm will spend 49 cents for materials and supplies; 29 cents for wages, salaries and other employee benefits; nine cents for taxes; six cents for repairs, replacements, etc., three cents for research and promotion—keeping four cents out of each dollar as profit.

Miss Liberty Again Voted Most Popular Attraction

The Statue of Liberty continues to remain one of New York's biggest tourist attractions — a rather large order in the city which is the Visitor Capital of the World. The New York Convention and Visitors Bureau predicts that this 4th of July more people than ever will visit the Statue or see her from a yacht trip around the island or the Staten Island Ferry. Reasons for the predictions of a greater number of visitors are that this July 4th marks the 70th birthday of Miss Liberty and thousands of letters are already pouring in requesting data on the three-day holiday weekend.

In addition to the Statue, visitors will be coming to see many other interesting historical attractions and to enjoy the countless entertainment attractions the city offers during the summer.

Off Hand - - - - - - And Casual Like

By John Stone, H.F.*

HOW SILLY CAN YOU GET?
We've always had a great deal of respect for the Germans.

Some of the world's greatest composers, artists and physicians have been of the Teutonic race. There have been great statesmen, and brilliant scientists such as Einstein. The Germans have been great in many other ways, too. True, at times they have shown a propensity to imagine themselves a "master race", and twice in this century have come a cropper trying to whip the world—like the bully who vowed he could lick any man in seven states, only to be soundly trounced by a little guy who said he'd taken in too much territory.

Yes, the Germans have produced many a brilliant man, but occasionally they bring forth one who—like Der Fuehrer—is off his rocker, lacks about three staves of being round.

Now comes a noted German crackpot—pardon, scholar—who labors painfully and long, burning the midnight oil, and all that sort of stuff, to deliver himself of the dire prediction that an awful lot of us are going to get side-tracked on our way to Heaven.

The reason? Well, according to his figures, Heaven is just about full up. There's room for only 475 more, and no standees will be permitted!

Hah! How silly can you get, eh? Remember years ago when every now and then some self-styled "Prophet of Doom" predicted the end of the world was at hand? Remember how many weak-minded believers sold their homes and other belongings (not believing, though, that you can't take money with you into the beyond) and gathered on hilltops to await the cataclysm?

Yeah, how silly can you get? We've checked and rechecked this particular prophet's figures, and have come to the solemn conclusion that, like others, he's off his rocker too for making such an absurd claim. And we've done a little figuring ourselves in an attempt to set you straight.

Only room for 475 more, indeed!

By our figures, arrived at only after exhaustive study, the number should be 673

THAT PARKING METER RACKET

Most people of our acquaintance are staunch defenders of law and order, and equally staunch respectors of the law. No one we know would embezzle funds from a bank, take pennies from a dead man's eyes, or even push little ducks in the water.

Yet, ever since the advent of that "invention of the Devil"—the parking meter—we've noticed a growing disrespect for all law, just as Prohibition brought forth such a feeling.

Take the case of John Haray, 75, of 10434 W. Seven Mile Rd. John has driven nearly 450,000 miles without an accident of any kind. A more law-abiding citizen and safe driver would be hard to find. Then he was late getting back to his car at a parking meter on Grand River, in Detroit—and became a law violator.

Somehow, we just cannot bring ourselves to class such a man with bank robbers, burglars, molesters of women, or other kinds of criminals. But that was the view of the Detroit traffic court judges. Instead of being commended for his exemplary record, John had to pay a fine into the yawning court coffers.

We'll candidly admit that our interest in the matter was stirred by our own experience at probably the same spot, in Redford. Two days after the wife and I arrived in Michigan, we parked near a drug store while we asked directions. A rainstorm descended and when it was over, we found our parking meter time had run out. So also had a policeman—rain or no rain—to make sure that tribute was exacted.

"Tempering Justice with mercy" is an empty phrase so far as the average traffic judge is concerned. Detroit courts are not at all interested in whether you're a good driver or bad. If you doubt that, wait 'till you get a crisply worded demand to send in three bucks—or else. Don't bother to come in—just send the money.

However you slice it, that boloney about the purpose of the parking meter being to benefit the public is still boloney. In many communities—and Detroit in particular—the parking meter law is primarily a legalized racket to gouge the public of thousands of dollars every year.

Don't be surprised if some day you have to carry a meter around with you to measure the air you breathe—at so much per cubic foot. Or the water you drink. In this Land of the Free there is very little that is indeed free.

Why, give 'em time, our lawmakers, seeking other ways to wring a few more nickels from the untwary citizen; probably will even put a tax on Love!

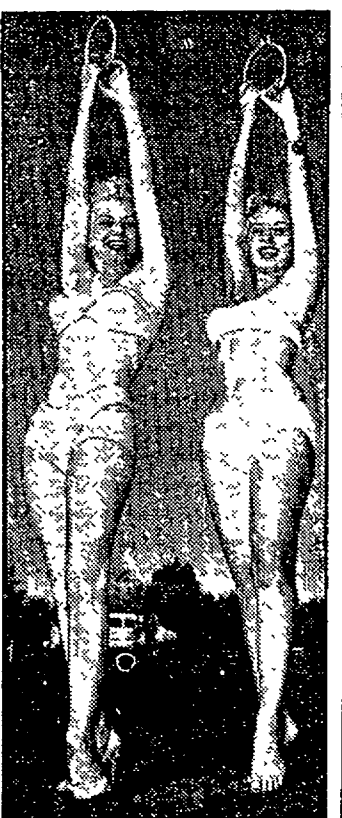

Silly us! They have already! ("Holder of the Fort")

WHEN JESUS COMES AGAIN

The coming of Jesus Christ to this earth is a literal promise that will yet be fulfilled at some moment in the future.

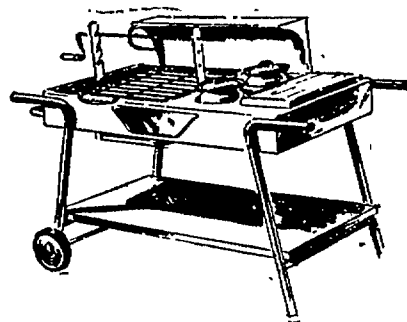

Should anyone say that Christ's second coming is a spiritual coming at conversion or at death, then he should listen carefully to the words of the angels on the day of ascension when they said:—this same Jesus which is taken up from you into heaven, shall come in LIKE MANNER as ye have seen Him go into heaven". He went into the clouds. He is coming again in the clouds. (I Thess 4:16-17). He went up in bodily form. He is going to return in the body. It is true that sincere Christians have been expecting the return of the Lord for a long time without having their hopes fulfilled. It is true that some who have erred have set dates and made some rash statements and predictions about His coming which are contrary to scripture. But those who remain silent about the personal bodily return of our Lord are making a far greater mistake by their silence! There are more than 300 references to the personal return of the Lord in the New Testament. Can anyone say that His coming is unimportant? Will you be glad when He comes?

Knoxville, Tenn. — In granting Mrs. Edna Hunt Tankersley's twelfth divorce, Domestic Relations Judge Richard Douglass said that, as far as he's concerned, it's her "final final decree." Her eleventh divorce, granted on September 29, was from the same man. The couple remarried November 6.

NEW PRISON BEDDING
Cincinnati, Ohio — When Sheriff Dan Tehan announced that Hamilton County prisoners were to get foam-rubber mattresses, citizens immediately thought he was "coddling" the prisoners. The reason for such mattresses, however, is that they are not only highly sanitary but they do not allow a place for hiding anything.

Achievement Night Friday, June 25

Presbyterian Church School
Attendance during the Vacation Church school at the First Presbyterian church has been between 60 and 70 boys and girls. Eleven teachers and five junior and senior high girls have been teaching the boys and girls more about the church—both past, present and future.
The Junior department have been making model churches and International date clocks. The Primary department children have been making scrapbooks of things of interest around their church and the church of the world. The kindergarten department youngsters have made many varied projects which they will show to their parents on Achievement Night.
Achievement Night exercises for the two week school will be held Friday evening, June 25, in the Church house auditorium at 7 p.m. Songs and lessons learned during the two week's school will be presented by the three departments. Displays of the various handicraft made will also be shown. Parents and friends are cordially invited to attend this "open house".
Thursday morning the Junior department boys and girls enjoyed their annual outing at Kensington park. Parents of the group provided the transportation. The Primary and kindergarten departments will have their closing picnic at Cass Benton park on Friday morning.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank all my friends and neighbors for their cards and flowers and kindness to me during my illness at home and in the Atchison Memorial hospital.
Mrs. C. Ray Litchfield

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear son who left us June 22, 1933: His memory is as dear today as in the hour he passed away. To have, to hold, and then to part is the greatest sorrow of our heart.
Mr. and Mrs. Peter Keller and family

GOOD INVESTMENT

Using $6.50 worth of scrap metal and a lot of good old American ingenuity, a mine foreman in Tennessee invented a device for shifting heavy coal conveyor pans, thus making the miners' work safer and easier. The company rewarded him with $1,000.

Bible Comment:

Godliness Must Be a Way of Daily Life

WHEN we speak of a man as being "a godly man," what do we mean? We are sure that he is essentially a reverent man, with a true sense of holiness.

He is probably a good churchman, who manifests good moral living.

But is that all there is to godliness? We know from very high authority that it is not.

We have the story of the rich young man, who came to Jesus, inquiring how he might inherit eternal life. He was probably more correct in his way of life than even most men of conventional godliness.

Yet he lacked the one most essential thing.

"Where your treasure is," said Jesus, "there will your heart be also."

The young man's supreme attachment was to his great possessions, which in his ultimate decision he chose rather than companionship with Jesus, and the possibility of becoming the twelfth Apostle, when Judas Iscariot failed.

But godliness consists in what comes after acceptance of God as the treasure of the heart.

When one reads with insight the account of the early Christian church, in the New Testament, and especially in the Epistles, an apparent and surprising discovery is that so many accepted God and the Christian way, without any clear comprehension of all that it meant.

For those of that early Christian time, and for loveless, professing Christians of today, the beloved Apostle leaves no doubt about godliness in daily life.

His plain, strong words are: "If a man love not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?" "If a man say, 'I love God,' and hateth his brother, he is a liar; for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?"

30 OF 34 DOGS TAKEN

St. Louis, Mo. — Until recently Mr. and Mrs. John Driscoll lived in a two-room house with 34 dogs. However, officers, acting on the complaint of neighbors, took 30 of the dogs away from the Driscolls. The Driscolls said they couldn't bear the thought of dogs being used for medical research so they opened their home to any strays they found.

Crowds Throng To State Parks

Lansing — The busiest portion of the state park year has arrived, managers report.

Each week now brings new experiences, new laughs, new headaches.

An old lady, for example, was surprised to see a state parks crew busy one morning cleaning the beach at Warren Dunes state park near St. Joseph. She thought the lake came in every night and swept the debris away.

During the weekend at Sterling state park near Monroe, one small boy was not very fortunate while another was. The first was struck and cut by a flying motorboat that had somehow lost its driver. A short distance away, another boy escaped serious injury when the nudge given by a passing auto was enough to bounce him out of the way of the wheels.

At Grand Haven, a series of events took place — all in a day's work for the parks crew. First, a woman burned her fingers on a frying pan and required first aid, then somebody ate somebody else's picnic lunch, there were two auto collisions and several lost children had to be tracked down and put back in place.

At Rochester-Utica recreation area, harried parks workers spent the weekend unsnarling traffic jams and trying to keep up with the flood of visitors. Then, as usual on Monday morning, they expected a quiet day when the litter from the weekend could be cleaned up. Instead, by noon, 37 busloads of visitors had arrived for an outing.

The Warren Dunes park experienced its "heaviest day ever" last weekend and hundreds of carloads of visitors had to be turned away because of lack of parking space.

The 44-acre Holland state park has already entertained more than 320,000 visitors this year, well ahead of its 1953 pace, and most other parks appear headed for a year of record attendance. During these times, parks crews have to be on duty at all hours of the day and night and catch their rest periods when they can. They appreciate all the help the public can give in keeping state parks and recreation areas clean and in good order.

Ex-Downs Employee Gets 30 Days in Jail

John Combs, 42, a former employee of Northville Downs, will spend the next 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction as the result of an unsteady condition caused, police said, from drunkenness.

Combs was reported to police by George Clark, of Clark's Hardware store on N. Center, after Combs fell against a store window and broke it. The man cut his wrist, but suffered no other injuries. He was found guilty of being drunk and disorderly by Justice Edward Bogart, and was remanded to the House of Correction when he was unable to pay a $25 fine.

Grand Haven Girl To Wed Jerry Burns

Mr. and Mrs. Bert McLean of Grand Haven, Michigan announce the engagement of their daughter, Flora Jane to Jerry Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald M. Burns of Northville. Both families are former residents of Manistique, Mich.

BURIED IN SAND, REVIVED

Baltimore, Md. — The quick action of two workmen is credited by police with saving the life of Thomas Williams, 12, who was buried for an hour and a half in a sand bin of a paving company. One of the workmen began digging from the bottom of the bin and the other from the top. Firemen used two bottles of oxygen in reviving the unconscious child, who was taken to a hospital for treatment of suffocation and shock.

OFFERED 4 SCHOLARSHIPS

Tiverton, R. I. — John P. Mooney, 17, is finding that being a smart fellow has its complications. An honor student at De Lasalle Academy, Newport, Mooney won a naval ROTC scholarship entitling him to choose from 52 colleges, with tuition and books paid and $50-a-month subsistence. So he filed applications at Brown, Harvard, Yale and Princeton. He has received replies from all four—offering him full scholarships. The choice is now up to him.

NO BACKSEAT DRIVER.

Milford, Conn. — Things began to happen when Mrs. Phillis White moved over to let her husband drive the car. She accidentally stepped on the accelerator. Her husband was thrown out, injuring his leg. The car roared across the street, narrowly missing other cars, bounded on a nearby lawn, smashed through a concrete block and stucco garage and tore down two doors before stopping. Mrs. White wasn't scratched.

Scottie for House Number

A TIME TRIED method of displaying a house number in an attractive manner is illustrated. Either the Scottie-dog cutout or some other animal will serve the purpose. Set in a parkway, on the lawn or at the curb, the jaunty puppy, with its sparkling eyes, will prove to be an attractive addition. Scottie is 15 inches long and his height is 11 1/2 inches. Cut him from two pieces of Masonite 3/16"

Tempered Presdwood, holding the panels, screen sides together, with C-clamps and following a pattern with a coping, keyhole or band saw. Slightly round the edges with a file or sandblock. Reflector-type bolts used for car licenses serve as eyes and reflect the light from passing cars. The numbers are sawed from the Tempered Presdwood and glued to each side of the cutout. Two wooden stakes, shaped from 1 by 2-inch lumber, are laid between the two cutouts and fastened with screws applied through holes drilled in the hardboard. Paint Scottie in appropriate colors, first using a primer. Push the stakes into the ground, and your new house number will be in service. All the materials needed are avail-

A Visit With Your Neighbors On the Job

By Lillian Duerson

The old saying—"One can always find time to do the things one WANTS to do" could easily apply to Mrs. A. C. Carlson of 201 Fairbrook St. We have always thought we humans find time for the pleasant, easy duties but the difficult, time-consuming jobs are put off until some other tomorrow, like Scarlet O'Hara, or referred to someone else. Mrs. Carlson finds time for everything and no matter what it is she is full of enthusiasm for it—particularly if it is for the betterment of the community in which she lives.

The Carlsons have lived in Northville for 19 years, having come here from St. Paul, Minn. A short time after they moved here Carlson was instrumental in organizing the cub scouts in Northville and Mrs. Carlson received an orchid from the late Tom Brennaman for assisting her husband in this work for 17 years.

In her youth, Mrs. Carlson planned on becoming a medical missionary and took two years pre-college religious education. However, upon the accidental death of her father she gave up this dream to help support her mother and two younger brothers.

When the Carlsons first came to Northville, Rev. Whitfield was pastor of the First Presbyterian church and upon his suggestion she organized the Junior Christian Endeavor. She taught Sunday school in St. Paul, Minn., South Lyon, where they lived for a time, and in Northville for 25 years. While living in South Lyon, Mrs. Carlson wrote a column for the South Lyon Herald, a casual column of poetry and humorous bits under the name of "Susie Snoop".

Mrs. Carlson was the first woman to be hired in the Northville Ford plant where she was appointed as counselor during the war.

The Business and Professional Woman's club, which has been in existence for six years, was organized by Mrs. Carlson and she became its first president. She was also president of the community concert which was a project of the Business and Professional Woman's club. Last year she was chairman of the American Red Cross drive.

Eight years ago she joined her husband in the Carlson Health studio which they operate at 201 Fairbrook. Besides this she keeps house, gardens and enjoys her four married daughters and six grandchildren, her son who just graduated from high school, and grandmother and grandfather Carlson—all who live within a few blocks of the Carlson family home.

Boredom and idleness are said to be most tiring to the mind and body and creators of real and fancied illnesses. They will never catch Mrs. Carlson for she is always several jumps ahead of such things.

Teresa Spagnuolo Married in Lansing Rites Sunday Evening

Mrs. Charles Falsetta

Gowned in white satin and lace, Miss Teresa Spagnuolo became the bride of Charles Falsetta at 5 p.m. on Sunday, June 20 in Lansing.

Teresa is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Spagnuolo of Northville.

The bride's gown had a fitted bodice of lace with boat neckline edged with nylon tulle and a bouffant floor length skirt of white satin edged with side panniers of lace. Her waist length tulle veil hung from a pearl beaded Juliet cap. She wore elbow length gloves of lace, and carried white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Lulu Tuca of Fenton, cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid and was Teresa's only attendant. She wore a melon colored satin and tulle frock and carried yellow roses.

The GREEN THUMB

by Paul Newton

June can well be called the month of roses for there can be no greater pleasure than raising some of the All-American rose selections in your own yard. The amateur gardener can grow as fine specimens as the professional gardener if he will follow a regular dusting or spraying program at 7 to 10-day intervals.

Spraying and Dusting

There are all-purpose sprays and dusts on the market now which do not harm the foliage on rose plants. A sulphur spray burns the foliage when used at temperatures 85° and above; strong coppers, as found in Bordeaux Mixture sometimes cause defoliation when used in cool, cloudy weather. Most rose growers find that "Tri-ogen" spray is safe and efficient in temperatures above 55°, also "End-O-Pest" rose dust. Any spray or dust is a preventive rather than a curative.

In order to combat black spot, mildew, brown canker, aphids, rose scale, etc., the spraying program should have been started last month, but these diseases are more rampant in the hot, humid weather such as we are now having. Spraying should be done before a rain instead of after. If a spraying program is carried out there will be enough protection for the next rainy spell. The ground should be sprayed as well as the plants.

All watering should be done early in the day, so that the foliage will be dry before night. All spotted leaves should be removed from the plants and off the ground and burned.

Mulches

Mulching with ground corn cobs, buckwheat hulls or pine needles conserves moisture, keeps the ground cool and cuts down the weeding problem. The rose bed should be in a location where there is good drainage, plenty of sunshine and ample circulation of air, also away from roots of trees.

Pruning

The time to prune climbers is immediately after flowering. The chief purpose of pruning is to cut away all dead wood and to make the plant grow and shape it as you wish it to grow. If you picture it in a certain location and cut the canes to carry out this pattern you will have no problem of pruning. All old blossoms must be cut off.

The ramblers already have new shoots several feet long. These shoots will produce next year's crop of flowers. So it is desirable to cut the old branches off at the surface of the soil and let the strength go into the growing new shoots.

The All-American rose selections for 1954 were Lilibet, a dawn pink floribunda, and the hybrid tea Mojave.

Northville Girl To Enter Smith College

Miss Virginia Beeks, 690 Thayer Blvd., Northville, will be among the more than 600 freshmen who will enter Smith college, Northampton, Mass., in September as members of the class of 1958. Members of the incoming class represent 37 states, the District of Columbia, Canada, England and Denmark. Fourteen will enter from Michigan.

They will register for the college's 80th academic year on Sept. 18, and have a brief orientation period before the required full college assembly Sept. 21, and the beginning of classes Sept. 22.

Approximately 20 per cent of the class of 1958 have been awarded Smith college scholarships totaling more than $90,000. Seven members of the new freshman class have been awarded Smith regional scholarships, totalling $7400, and will represent the areas of New England, New York, North Central Atlantic states, South, North Central states, South West, and one from the country at large.

Alvin Skow NEA Delegate in N. Y.

Alvin Skow, social studies teacher in Northville schools, will leave Saturday to attend the National Education Assn. meeting in New York City. Skow is a delegate from the North-Wayne district.

Following the New York meeting, which will last from June 26 to July 3, Skow will take a NEA tour of the East.

Haze Bennett to MC Talent Show

Haze Bennett will be master of ceremonies at the "Hometown Saturday Night" show to be presented at the Community Center Saturday night.

Local and professional talent will be on hand to give the public an evening of interesting and varied entertainment. All proceeds from the show will be turned over to the Community Center fund committee. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Texture Interest,

Linens Loom High On Fashion List

TEXTURE is the important fashion story in this season's cottons. You'll choose the fabrics as much by feel as for eye appeal.

Embroidered effects being shown are most interesting. These range from breathtakingly lovely embroidered linens in pastels that look good enough to eat to those popular-priced denims stocked in motifs that simulate embroidery.

Flocking is a method of creating a pattern on fabric by "pasting" to the cloth tiny clumps of fibers in motif arrangement.

Linens Important

Linens are fashion's favorite this year. The embroidered novelties being shown are among the most attractive seen. One of the linens seen embroiders nubby colorful lines to affect an open check pattern. Sometimes lace bits are embroidered to the linen in open-spaced array.

It's clever strategy to take basic patterns and personalize them with trimming ideas of your own. It helps achieve that custom-made look as illustrated by this dress and accessories. Two Irish linen fabrics were combined and underscored the joining with eyelet embroidery trim.

Sheaths, suits and even coats are shown in linen, and many of these will be party-going clothes because of their decorative motif. They are luxuries, to be sure, so you should always buy them saner for to assure you of fit after the first laundering.

Cord Theme Popular

For those who like a crisp, neat look even during the most wilting days, cords will be popular. One of the most newsworthy of these is a wide cord alternating a bright colored stripe with a white one. Color combinations in cord follow roman stripe, the bold barber pole and the peppermint stylings. Hairline cords are popular for suits and even prints are pencil striped to simulate cording.

Pique is another version of the cord theme which is good for summer. You may choose from printed or plain types.

Strawberry Glaze Is Special Treat

Brides will wear "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue," but for something lovely to serve a bride at a small reception, there's a heavenly concoction of meringues with ice cream and strawberries.

But whether you're interested this season in weddings or not, you'll want to tuck away or even use immediately this delectable recipe. It's wonderful for party refreshments or as a dessert for special dinners.

Make the meringues ahead of time, have ice cream and strawberries ready in the refrigerator, and dessert's practically on the table! It's that simple.

Strawberry Meringue Glaze (Serves 6-8)

3 egg whites
¼ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons vinegar
1¼ cups sugar
¼ teaspoon vanilla
1 quart strawberry or vanilla ice cream
1 pint sliced or crushed sweetened strawberries

Beat egg whites until frothy and continue to beat with rotary or electric beater until mixture will stand in soft peaks. Add sugar, a tablespoon at a time, alternately with vinegar, beating thoroughly after each addition. Continue to beat after all is added until mixture is stiff and dry. Add vanilla and blend. Pile meringue lightly on a greased baking sheet in six or eight piles, making an indentation in the top of each with the rounded side of a large spoon. Bake in a slow (275°F.) oven for one to one and a quarter hour or until crisp crustured but not browned. Remove from baking sheet and cool. (Meringues should be soft inside.) To serve, pile ice cream in the center of cooled meringues and top with sweetened strawberries.

New Powderpuff Asters Make Brilliant Show

There is a brand new annual aster called Powderpuff on the market so prolific in bloom that over half the flowers in a bed may be plucked for bouquets leaving no vacancies in the garden display.

Here is the trick: space the plants four inches apart. Although these Powderpuff plants are two feet high, they are so erect that they take less than one square foot of space each.

Over 20 cut flowers bloom at the top of the plant. The earliest ones can be picked without hurting the others. The flowers are dainty three-inch puffs crested with tiny quills, so there is no big yellow "eye" even in hot weather. They keep very well in water and are a good size for arrangement.

The Powderpuffs are easy to grow and make a brilliant show in the garden.

Gardeners cramped for space will like these Powderpuffs asters. Best location for them is in the full sun. Since all the color is at the top, Powderpuffs would be especially picturesque behind a low stone wall. In place of a wall the gardener might want to use an edging plant such as the new cupid marigold, which is very dwarf but bears big chrysanthemum-type flowers, for its dwarfness.

Be sure to space your Powder-puff plants very close together though. They grow fine this way and neighbors will be surprised at the amount of color per square foot that radiates from your Powderpuff flower bed.

Northville's Favorite Recipes

(What's your favorite dish? If you will share it with other Northville housewives, please call The Record's society editor, Telephone 200.)

Strawberry cream icing on a chiffon cake sounds like a party cake, but with the ease with which the cake is prepared, you should treat your family to this delicious confection right now while strawberries are in season.

Mrs. Carl Stephens and her family claim it as their favorite cake. Her one bit of advice is to beat the egg whites until they can't stand any more beating.

The Stephens, with their two children, Carl Denton, four years old and Mary Elizabeth, 14 months old, reside at 46064 Norton St.

Mrs. Stephens was formerly Pearl Denton, the daughter of Chief of Police and Mrs. Joseph Denton.

Here is the chiffon cake:

- Time: 1 hour at 325° and 10 minutes at 350°.
- | | |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| 1 cup egg whites
(7 or 8 eggs) | 1 tsp. vanilla |
| 1/2 tsp. cream of tartar | 3 tsp. baking powder
(double action) |
| 2 cups sifted enriched
flour | 1 tsp. salt |
| 1 1/2 cups sifted granulated sugar | 7 unbeaten egg yolks |
| | 3/4 cup water |
| | 2 tsp. grated lemon rind |

1. Preheat oven to 325°.
2. Beat egg whites and cream of tartar until very stiff peaks are formed. (Must be stiffer than for Angel Food cake.)
3. Sift flour, sugar, salt and baking powder into a large mixing bowl.
4. Make a well in the center of the flour, add the oil, egg yolks, water, vanilla and lemon rind.
5. Beat with a wooden spoon until smooth.
6. Gradually pour egg yolk mixture over whipped egg whites, folding gently with a rubber scraper just until blended. Do not stir.
7. Pour into an ungreased 10-inch aluminum tubed cake pan at once. Bake. Immediately turn pan upside down to cool. When cool, cut cake from sides and tube of pan, lift out cake by the tube and invert on plate.

Strawberry Cream Icing
3 tablespoons butter 2 cups confectioners sugar
Mix together and add 1/4 cup of crushed strawberries and blend. Add more berries if necessary. Garnish with whole berries. Another method is to frost the cake with the crushed berries and whipped cream.

Services Held for Mrs. Harry Smith

Mrs. Harry Smith (June Ellen) died at Atchison Memorial hospital early Sunday morning after an illness of two weeks. She was born June 26, 1907 the daughter of John and Ellen Berry, in Vanderbilt, Mich.

Mrs. Smith is survived by her husband, Harry, and one son, Roger. Also surviving are two brothers of Gaylord, Mich., John Berry and Dr. William H. Berry.

Mrs. Smith was very well liked by everyone who knew her. She took a deep interest in all community affairs although she was not always able to take an active part. She was a member of the Northville Woman's club, the Mother's club and the Wesleyan Service guild of the Methodist church. The Smiths have resided in Northville for the past 17 years.

Recipe for a Husband

(Prepared by Anonymous; Served by Mrs. A. C. Carlson 201 Fairbrook)

A good many husbands are utterly spoiled by mismanagement. Some women go about as if their husbands were bladders and blow them up—others keep them constantly in hot water. Others let them freeze by their carelessness and indifference.

Some keep them in a stew by irritating ways and words. Others roast them. Some keep them in a pickle all their lives. It cannot be supposed that any husband will be tender and well managed in this way. But they are truly delicious when properly treated.

In selecting your husband you should not be guided by the silvery appearance as in buying a mackerel nor by the golden tint as if you wanted a salmon. Be sure to select him yourself as tastes differ. Do not go to market for him as the best are always brought to your door. It is better to have none unless you learn how to care for him.

A preserving kettle of finest porcelain is the best but if you have nothing but enamelware, it will do with care.

See that the linen in which you wrap him is nicely washed and mended with the required number of buttons and strings tied and sewed on.

Tie him in the kettle with a strong silk cord, but consider his comfort.

Make a grate fire consisting of love, kindness and cheerfulness. Set him as near this as seems to agree with him. If he sputters and fizzes, do not be anxious—some husbands do this until they are quite done. Add a little sugar in the form of what confectioners call kisses—but no vinegar or pepper on any account.

A little spice improves him but it must be used with judgment. Do not stick any sharp instruments into him to see if he is becoming tender.

Stir him gently, watching the while lest he lie too flat and close to the kettle and so become useless. You cannot fail to know when he is done. As thus treated, you will find him very reasonable agreeing nicely with you and the children and he will keep always unless you become careless and put him in a cool place.

Kroger Testing Techniques Featured In Collier's Magazine Picture Story

Ever test the bite resistance of a jelly bean? Or the crumb potential of a cookie? Those are just two of the hundreds of thousands of quality-control tests carried on each year by the Kroger Food foundation in Cincinnati, says a picture feature article in the June 25 issue of Collier's magazine.

Products sold in Kroger stores go through an elaborate testing operation at the Food foundation. More than 600,000 sample lots of food are tested each year in the laboratories, the test kitchen, and by a taste panel. Two hundred pounds of tin cans, alone, are emptied in tests each day.

Modern food manufacturers and distributors, the article explains, make certain food is pure enough to eat, tasty enough to enjoy, and stable enough to travel well and live a long life on the pantry shelf.

In addition to the "cookie-snapper" and the jelly-bean buster, the article describes such intriguing gadgets as a "jam-spreader" which measures the thickness of jam so it will not drip on Junior's shirt and a "macaroni-meter" which checks the diameter and wall-thickness of spaghetti and macaroni to insure uniform cooking time.

Atchinson Again To Operate Gulf Station

Orson Atchinson

Ownership of the Gulf Service station at the corner of Main and Wing streets has been resumed by Orson Atchinson, Chrysler-Plymouth dealer for Northville.

Atchinson operated the station from September, 1941, until February, 1952, when he leased it to Robert Lyke. However, he continued to operate the automobile agency at the same address, and this will be no stranger to the station's customers.

He will continue to operate both the agency and the service station, which Lyke returned to him effective June 1.

Water Fluoridation Good for Teeth, Says U-M Dentist

Ann Arbor — "In my opinion there is no scientific dispute over fluoridation. The opposition is confined to a very articulate but small group of non-professionals."

So says Dr. Philip Jay, professor of dentistry at the University of Michigan's School of Dentistry.

Yet, recognizing that widespread social change is slow and difficult to bring about, Dr. Jay sticks closely to his statistics and research.

In a question-and-answer session on fluoridation, Dr. Jay said blandly, but with scientific objectivity:

"All the facts involved in the fluoridation research program conducted here at the University and innumerable other centers can be substantiated by consulting the extensive scientific literature compiled during the past 40 years."

He added: "It (the literature) is available in any university library."

When tallied up, what do the past 40 years of research on fluoridation amount to? Dr. Jay directed his attention to those questions which seem to puzzle the public the most. For example:

1) Isn't fluoride poisonous? No, replied Dr. Jay, not the dilute kind used in domestic water supplies.

2) Even though non-poisonous, isn't it bad to keep storing up the fluorides in the body? Not enough to worry about, replied Dr. Jay, for in addition to the 96 per cent naturally excreted from the body, the hot weather brings out even more in the form of perspiration.

3) What about those who suffer from kidney disease and are not able to excrete the chemical? There is no difference, says the doctor, between the death rates of kidney sufferers in or out of a fluoride water community.

4) Tooth discoloration is the price one pays for fluoride protection, and it is too high a price to pay. It needn't be, replied Dr. Jay, if the amount of fluoride is kept at constant and low level of concentration.

Even more specifically, Dr. Jay allays certain anxieties about fluorine. Your bones don't get brittle because of it; studies show that there is no increase in cancer in areas using it; and while fluorine does not arrest dental decay it does prevent it—significantly.
