Seek New Hotel for Northville; Need Is Urgent

Plans for a new hotel in Northville will be discussed at the next meeting of the Retail Merchants Assn., President Carl Johnson intimated this week.

Northville has had no hotel worthy of the name since the old Park House burned down about 1929 or 1930, and the demands for a well appointed hostelry and dining room now are growing steadily, Johnson said.

"At present rooms cannot be had in Northville for love, or money," he declared. "Salesmen and visitors who come here say that it is almost impossible to obtain overnight accommodations, and Plymouth is just as bad. The need for a new hotel is urgent."

Those seeking rooms must go to Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor or Detroit to find accommodation, he said. This tends to drive business away and even before the Northville Downs races began it was extremely difficult to obtain lodgings anywhere in the area.

Harry Hummelstein, co-owner of the property at Center and Main where the old Park House once stood, indicated he might be receptive to the idea of selling the property to some group that would institute action. At present the land is being used as a

Mrs. Paul Burnham American Legion Auxiliary President

Mrs. Paul Burnham was elected president of the American Legion Auxiliary for the coming year at a meeting held June 8.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Irving Becker, vice-president; Mrs. John Steimal, secretary; Mrs. Milo Chapman, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Bahnmiller, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Clarence King, chaplain, and Mrs. Lisle Alexander, historian.

Mrs. Charles Schultz, Mrs. Merrill Sweet and Mrs. John Chedrick were elected to the executive board. Mrs. Robin Corey is the retiring president.

The Auxiliary will hold but two meetings in July and August, July 27 and Aug. 24.

Blue Star Picnic Monday, July 12

The Blue Star Mothers will hold their annual pot-luck picnic July 12 at the "Willows", Northville and Six Mile roads. The national past president, Florence Brown, of Pontiac, and the Blue Star Mothers of Novi will be guests for that day.

Members are requested to bring table service. If weather does not permit, the picnic will meet at the American Legion hall at six o'clock.

No Fourth of July Program Planned for Northville

For the first time in years, there will be no Fourth of July program in Northville, representatives of veterans organizations, Village officials and the Retail Merchants Assn. indicated Wednesday.

This year, with national observance of Independence Day scheduled for Monday, July 5, the extra day of the week-end gives people a longer holiday than normally. Therefore, believing that a large number of residents will be away on vacation trips spokesmen for the various organizations said the effort and expense of putting on the traditional fireworks and a program would be virtually wasted.

Plymouth, however, will have a fireworks display, a parade, beauty contest at which "Miss Plymouth of 1954" will be selected, an aerial exhibition, and an amateur show.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams and two television stars, "Soppy" Sales and Cowboy Colt, also will be on hand.

Summer Union Church Services Start Sunday

Continuing a tradition of more than 25 years duration, the First Methodist church and the First Presbyterian church again unite in the Summer Union Church services. As initiated last year, services for the summer time will be held at 9 a.m. with Sunday School following in each of the respective churches at 10 a.m.

The First Presbyterian church will be host to the services starting on July 4 and continuing for five weeks until Aug. 1. Music will be provided by William G. Williams, the choirmaster, and Mrs. Bart Connors at the organ. Ushering will be in charge of Robert F. Coolman of the Presbyterian church assisted by men from the Methodist church under the direction of Harry B. Smith. Preaching during the first five weeks will be the Rev. Ivan E. Hodgson.

During the period from Aug. 8 until Labor Day Sunday, services will be held at the First Methodist church. Mrs. Richard Somers will be at the organ console and vocal music will be provided by Mrs. Ivan E. Hodgson. Representatives of both churches will assist with the ushering and the Rev. Dr. Harold F. Fredsell will preach.

Dorothy Whipple Back from Formosa

Dorothy Whipple returned to Northville from Taipei, Formosa, where she has spent the past year as chief cultural officer with the United States Information Agency. She will be the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harvey Whipple, of W. Main St. for a few days, and then plans to visit other friends and relatives in the United States. She expects to return to Taipei at the end of August for another two years.

Miss Whipple was an instructor in English in Northville, and later was a Detroit high school teacher. Through the war years she was chief of the employee relations branch of the U. S. Army's chemical warfare service. Afterwards she served for two years as placement officer with UNRRA, China. She joined the Department of State in 1949 and was serving in Korea when the Korean war started. Later she was stationed in Tokyo.

The U.S. Information Agency with which she is now connected conducts the U.S. overseas information program which supports and explains American policy abroad and combats communist propaganda.

U of M Alumni Picnic July 22

Five Northville Youths Participate In Wolverine Boys' State Conclave

Five Northville youths were among the more than 1,000 from Michigan high schools who last week completed an eight-day session of the Wolverine Boys' State at East Lansing.

The five—James Allen, David Goss, Joel Soule, Eddie Mollena and James Mosher—were sponsored by the American Legion, the Blue lodge, and the Rotary, Optimist and Exchange clubs. The annual event is sponsored by the American Legion, department of Michigan.

Form Political Parties

Two of the Northville boys were elected to offices in the mythical state. They were Joel Soule, chosen member of the house of representatives, and Edward Mollena, coroner and county supervisor.

The high school lads, chosen for their qualities of leadership and good citizenship, were formed into two political parties upon their arrival at the campus.

They set up city and county groups and established a mythical "49th State" patterned after Michigan's constitutional form of government.

Youths attending were from all 18 Congressional districts and represented every type of community and school.

Gov. G. Mennen Williams; Michigan State college secretary, Karl H. McDonel; State Legion Commander Billy R. Wickens of Midland; national Americanism Chairman J. Addington Wagner, Battle Creek, and leading government and college officials opened Boys' State with brief addresses.

Government services a new class discussion topic included in this year's schedule, has taken the interest of a majority of the 1,000 youths who received a preliminary survey weeks ago.

Choose Topic.

Asked to choose a topic they most wished to discuss and have clarified, more than 75 per cent picked juvenile delinquency from six other subjects which included highways, conservation, traffic safety programs and citizenship.

George R. Simmons, of Northville, was one of the Legionnaires who devoted much time to preparations for the event.

For the fifth consecutive year Wolverine Boys' State invited the State Bar of Michigan to stage a mock trial.

Always well received by the boys who get a valuable lesson in the conduct of a trial, this practical demonstration of the American system of justice offered something that is not readily available to the average high school student. Its purpose is educational as it portrays a typical American courtroom scene in which the actors are true to their parts.

Jury of Boys

Staged by practicing lawyers, and with a circuit judge presiding, the trial was conducted before a jury composed of boys selected by lot from those in attendance at the Boys' State meeting.

The 1954 "trial" was directed by Lansing lawyer Benjamin F. Watson. The case called was one involving a charge of robbery armed—"The People versus Pete Newman and Percy Hughes."

NORTHVILLE ROTARIANS and Exchangeites were treated to a 45-minute film at a joint meeting Tuesday noon when Mgr. Jack Adams of the Detroit Red Wings and News-caster Al Nagler addressed the two clubs at the Presbyterian chapel. Nagler complimented Adams as the greatest figure in hockey, and said the entire state evidencing almost as much interest in the exploits of the Red Wings as they are those of the Detroit Tigers. The film depicted the Stanley Cup playoffs which the Red Wings won for the sixth time.

Nixon To Speak July 6 at Jackson Freedom Festival

Jackson—Vice-President Richard M. Nixon will speak here July 6, the third day of Jackson's week-long Freedom Festival.

The Vice-President will appear as a representative of President Eisenhower who was unable to accept an invitation to speak on the "Under the Oaks Day" of the Centennial observance of the founding of the Republican party here on July 6, 1854.

Mr. Nixon will be among several distinguished guests to visit Jackson during the festival week.

Dr. Ralph Bunche, 1950 Nobel Peace Prize winner and chairman of the United Nations Trusteeship committee, will speak on "International Good Neighbor Day", July 9, which is the sixth day of the festival.

The week of celebration will begin July 4 with "Freedom of Religion Day". Dr. Louis Evans, minister at large of the board of national missions of the Presbyterian church, will speak.

Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, first Secretary of the Department of Health, Welfare and Education, will address Jacksonians and Freedom Festival visitors on "Agriculture and Education Day", July 8.

Visitors to Jackson during the festival will see a sight already familiar to residents here—the world's largest sign. The sign, spelling out the words "Freedom Festival" is painted down 1,551 feet of Jackson's main street.

Another highlight of festival week will be the nightly presentation of a mammoth historical pageant by a cast of 1,700.

Assault Case Is Investigated Here

Police are investigating a Detroit woman's complaint that she was assaulted early Saturday morning or shortly before midnight Friday while returning from the races at Northville Downs.

She told police at 1:30 a.m. Saturday that a man sitting behind her at the races kept trying to engage her in conversation, and that when she left he followed her up Center St. to Cady. There he seized her and forced her into a truck behind the Guernsey dairy, she said, threatening to kill her if she screamed. He then grabbed her purse, containing her return bus tickets, and she followed him to a car in a parking lot across from Paul's Sweet shop on Main St.

She said when she reached into the car to get her purse, the man knocked her unconscious, and when she came to, he was gone. So was the purse.

State police are helping in the investigation.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Larkins have lived in Northville all their lives.

Dog Bites Girl, 10, Delivering Papers

May McGuire, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McGuire, 240 Orchard Dr., is recovering from a wound inflicted by a dog last week while she was delivering papers.

Police said the child was attacked by a dog belonging to Mrs. Fred McKernan, 210 S. Rogers, and was bitten so severely on the left leg below the knee that several stitches had to be taken in the wound. She was treated by Dr. O. J. Robinson at Atchinson Memorial hospital.

The dog was taken to a Plymouth veterinarian by Police Chief Joseph Denton for a rabies test.

Northville Golfers In Pro-Am Tourney

Four Northville golfers were among those who paired off yesterday in the Motor City Pro-Amateur golf tourney as a prelude to the Motor City Open, which gets under way today at Meadowbrook Country Club on W. Eight Mile Rd.

C. W. Rodgers and Dr. Cary Middlecoff defending champion of the Motor City Open, were paired against Freddie Haas and Hilton Grier.

Gunsell Is Director of Depositors Bank

Election of M. C. Gunsell to the board of directors of the Depositors State Bank was announced by John Boyce, president. He will succeed L. C. Stewart, who resigned recently to move to Florida.

Gunsell has been in business in Northville for many years and is the proprietor of Gunsell's Drug store.

Construction of New Elementary School Is Begun

Work on Northville's new elementary school has been begun by the Wallace Construction Co., and levelling of the site on N. Center St. is virtually completed. The school, to be of brick construction, will have ten class rooms, and will have a capacity of 300 pupils, R. H. Amerman, superintendent of Northville schools, said Tuesday.

The site is a ten-acre plot on the west side of Center St. Playground facilities will be limited for a time, it was indicated, until the surrounding terrain can be cleared of trees and brush, and levelled off.

In addition to the ten classrooms, plans call for the usual office space, utility rooms, and a large assembly-recreation room. The school is to be completed within 290 days from the start of construction.

The work is being done by the Wallace Construction Co., which last spring completed Northville's new $200,000 Community Center.

21st Oil Well Begun On Fred Balko Farm

Oil and gas well activity in the Northville area settled down this week to routine moving of rigs and miscellaneous work.

A new well was started on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Balko, Napier Rd., about 2 1/2 miles north of the LeMaster discovery well. The drill rig already has been set up, and operations are well under way. This is the 21st well to be begun in this area.

The W. C. Taggart Co., which brought in the LeMaster No. 1 well last December, started an offset well last week on the Moroc farm at the southwest corner of Beck and Nine Mile roads.

Elsewhere the field is reported generally quiet.

If you want to be sure your family gets needed hospital care... without financial risk to you...

Get protection that pays HOSPITAL SERVICES rather than limited cash!

Unlike plans that give you limited cash to pay your hospital bill (with no assurance that you'll get enough cash!), BLUE CROSS pays in hospital services themselves!

With 1 in 3 families facing hospital bills each year, you can easily see the importance of having hospital bill protection! And it's just as important to have enough protection! But what kind provides enough?

Is it the kind that pays limited dollars... with no guarantee that the dollars you get will cover the hospital services you need? (You seldom know in advance which services you'll need, or how much they'll cost!)

Or is enough protection the kind that pays in hospital services themselves? This is the whole idea of Blue Cross!

How Blue Cross protects you

When you have to go to a hospital, just present your Blue Cross - Blue Shield Identification Card. It's an A-1 credit rating at any Blue Cross participating hospital, good for all the basic hospital services you need. And every enrolled member in your family is protected equally... at over 200 Blue Cross participating hospitals in Michigan, with 99% of the general hospital beds in the state.

How to get Blue Cross - Blue Shield

Ask your employer, your union representative, your Farm Bureau or Grange how you can get low-cost group enrollment. A company with as few as five employees may qualify as a group. And small groups can have just as much protection as large groups, at the same low cost... mere pennies a day! Write or phone your nearest Blue Cross - Blue Shield office.

How Blue Shield protects you

Rarely would you have a hospital bill without having a doctor bill. Ask your doctor ahead of time what his charge will be. Almost always, he can tell you. Still, protection against doctor bills is an important safeguard for your savings... and here is where Blue Shield comes in.

Blue Shield offers two basic plans—one, a straight surgical plan, the other, a medical-surgical plan. Under either plan, Blue Shield pays generous specific amounts directly to your doctor for thousands of surgical procedures. And, in non-surgical cases, under the medical-surgical plan, Blue Shield pays liberal amounts for your doctor's visits to you in the hospital. Often the doctor's full bill is covered.

Your Congressman Reports

By Representative CHARLES G. OAKMAN
17th District, Michigan

TRUCK RECIPROcity — I have introduced the bill I discussed last week to withhold Federal-aid highway funds from any state imposing discriminatory taxes against motor trucks engaged in interstate commerce. The amount to be deducted from the State's allocation, beginning in fiscal 1956, would equal the amount of tax collected on load weight or mileage by the State and would be distributed among the non-offending States under the usual formula.

Everyone understands that the ability to produce is a vital factor in our economy and that production goes hand-in-hand with the cost-of-living. Equally important, but perhaps not equally appreciated, is our transportation system. Any threat to the efficiency of this system should demand the attention of all of us. Freedom of movement between the States is an underlying principle recognized in the formation of the Union and its very Constitution.

The first Federal-aid Highway Act of 1916 proclaimed as its purpose "to accomplish several of the objects indicated by the farmers of our Constitution — establish post roads, regulate commerce, provide for the common defense, and promote the general welfare." The States themselves have historically encouraged freedom of movement between the States through reciprocity agreements. Passenger cars properly licensed in their home States can go into any other state, and even Canada and Mexico, without additional fees or charges. Reciprocity also has applied to trucks, but now that system is in real jeopardy because certain states have seen fit to get around the reciprocity agreements by imposing special "third structure" taxes over and above license and registration fees. Consequently, a number of other States have retaliated with levies against trucks from those States which have violated reciprocity agreements. In 1953 twenty out of forty-four State Legislatures considered such taxes. A dozen or more States already are charging the so-called "ton-mile" taxes in one form or another. This simply adds to the burden on the trucking industry, a cost which is ultimately borne by the consumer — or every single American.

For the first time in history Congress earmarked money — $26 million a year — for the Federal interstate highway system for the fiscal years ending June 30, 1954 and June 30, 1955. The new 1954 Highway Act, providing funds for fiscal 1954-57, increases interstate aid to $75 million annually — a 700% boost — and changes the 50/50 formula to provide for 60 per cent Federal participation. Individual State allocations far exceed revenue available from special truck taxes. This bill does not involve States' rights, but Federal rights as set forth in the Constitution. It does not affect toll roads, for which no Federal funds are ex-

MARINE BARRACKS — This heart of the U. S. Marine Corps is a point of interest within a stone's throw of the Capitol often missed by visitors to Washington. Colorful as the Marine tradition, the Barracks was established in 1801 after President Jefferson rode on horseback around the hills of Washington in search of a suitable location. The Commandant's house — now occupied by General Lemuel C. Shepherd — retains most of its original construction and is said to be the oldest public building in use as such in the Capital. It was here that John Philip Sousa wrote many of his stirring marches, and from here that United States Marines have been sent into every war since the inception of the Corps. Visitors should plan on viewing the daily full-dress parade of the Post contingent when in Washington.

Events Of The Past In Northville

ONE YEAR AGO—

Police Chief Joseph Denton was incensed at a driver who crashed into his car parked in front of the Village hall, and then sped away. The chief went in hot pursuit, and the driver paid a fine of $25 and costs on a hit and run charge. Northville Merchants contributed $416 for a Fourth of July fireworks display. Gene Keller, co-owner of the Northville Taxi Co., earned the gratitude of a Missouri woman by returning a billfold found near the taxi stand.

FIVE YEARS AGO—

Alex Serra was named sexton of Rural Hill cemetery. Wilson Funk reported to Northville police that the Boy Scout building at Hutton and Dunlap had been broken into. Investigators found lockers broken open and contents strewn about, and a box containing $10 missing. George Clark, new president of the Exchange club appointed committees for the coming club year.

TEN YEARS AGO—

The premiere showing of "Buffalo Bill" at the Northville theatre featured a war bond rally put on by Northville Lodge No. 186, F. & A.M. in an attempt to fill the $318,000 quota. M. J. Koldyke was elected president of the Exchange club. Henry Clark and Paul Nitzel were ordered to report for induction into the armed forces.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Flaherty and daughter, Anna Jean, were hosts to the Rainbow Girls at their cottage on Strawberry lake.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO—

Northville is to have another big fair. James Huff is to be director. Miss Grace Barber and Earl Stanbro, both of Northville, were married by the Rev. F. M. Field. Mr. and Mrs. P. Barley of Center St. were making plans to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

Cardinals Invite Baseball Players To Tryouts June 30

Northville young men interested in a professional baseball career have been invited to Monroe June 30 and July 1 for tryouts by the St. Louis Cardinals.

Players on those dates will be invited to attend trial sessions conducted by the St. Louis National leaguers and those selected at the end of the two-day sessions will be offered a professional contract to play in the Red Birds' famed minor league system.

"Any young player between 17 and 23 who has ever dreamed of a professional baseball career can't afford to miss these trial sessions," Joe Mathes, Cardinal chief scout and minor league director said.

"This is a golden opportunity for the amateur players in the southern Michigan area," Mathes, a veteran of 44-years in professional baseball said.

"All who attend will be given the opportunity to work out before experienced major league scouts who are capable of accurately judging young player talent. Red Bird Scouts Bill Maughn and Jack Sturdy will supervise the workouts each day."

Equipment Furnished
Many present Cardinal stars, including Harvey Haddix, Al Schoendienst, Del Rice and Wilmer "Vinegar Bend" Mizell, were signed to their first Cardinal minor league contract as a result of attending a tryout camp exactly like the one to be held at Monroe.

Players who attend need bring only shoes, a glove and a uniform, if they have one. The Cardinals will furnish plenty of good bats, balls and two sets of catching equipment. In addition, those signed to a contract will be refunded expenses incurred as a result of attending the workouts.

Walled Lake Boy in Bayonet Division

7th Div., Korea — Pfc. Robert Wilson, Jr., 21, whose parents live at 440 Sprak Lane, Walled Lake, is serving with the 7th Infantry Division in Korea.

Men of the "Bayonet" division are receiving intensive training to maintain the peak combat efficiency displayed by the unit from Pusan to the Yalu river.

Wilson, in Korea 11 months, is serving with the 32d Regiment's Heavy Mortar Company. He entered the Army in January 1953 and completed basic training at Camp Atterbury, Ind.

Rededication On The Fourth

The Declaration of Independence was passed by the Continental Congress on July 4th, 1776, but the historic document was not actually signed until later.

Now, after many years, the people of the United States appreciate the significance of the action taken many years ago, when the delegates of the colonies went on record in favor of the proposition that all men "are endowed with certain inalienable rights" and that "among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

The rights of the individual, so long accepted by the world, are now under challenge from those who do not agree with our famous declaration that governments derive "their just powers from the consent of the governed."

The world of 1954 is far removed from that of 1776 but, in one respect, there is little difference. Again the liberty of men requires courageous action on the part of liberty-loving people. Our rights as free men are not now being questioned by planes, guns and motorized equipment, but there is still lacking an adequate assurance that the issue will not soon be joined.

We should all take time enough to read carefully the Declaration of Independence. July 4th, the anniversary of its passage, is a good day to dedicate to this ceremony. Afterwards, inspired to support the ideals of freedom, may we not, as Americans, "pledge to each other our lives, our fortunes, and our sacred honor."

Reds Shoot Alleged U.S. Spy

The Russians announced recently they had caught, and executed by firing squad, a U.S. spy in the Ukraine. The announcement was brief, and mentioned only that the spy had been caught and executed a short time ago.

This reminds us of the wall raised by many Americans in this country after convicted atomic energy spies, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, were sentenced to death. Although these spies had the benefit of full and exhaustive trial, and appeal, they were nevertheless found guilty and put to death.

On the contrary, the Russians went through no such lengthy process and simply executed the alleged U.S. spy by the firing squad method in short order. The executed man was probably not even a U.S. spy, and the Russians perhaps paid off a little political account in liquidating the Ukraine.

The Russian announcement, therefore, is probably a propaganda announcement. In all probability, the Russians have executed some hundred thousand "U.S. spies" in recent years. That is, of course, a greater number of spies than this country has ever been able to afford, or will be able to afford in the foreseeable future.

Grass Root Opinion

MEDFORD, MASS., MERCURY: "... all of us need to be more wary and on the lookout for improper solicitations because the demands and needs of established services and charitable agencies and research groups are greater than ever and warrant more intelligent support than ever. Who, therefore, can afford to throw away cash on sob stories which will not bear the light of fair and impartial investigations?"

GREENVILLE, TEXAS, BANNER: "This nation," Richard L. Bowditch, a Boston ship executive ... declared, "was conceived and rose to world leadership on the ideas of non-conformists and freewheelers, of men and women of integrity and wide vision, of individuals with bold far-reaching minds, who insisted on crossing the frontiers of the unknown." Mr. Bowditch is merely restating the principles upon which this nation was founded and has grown great ..."

NEW HAVEN, MO., LEADER: "Because enough Americans saved their money and invested it in our factories, our economy and our jobs, our standard of living, our products, are what they are today."

Big Labor bosses and affiliated New Deal propaganda groups have embarked on a campaign to wreck the Eisenhower economy budget.

Their first move was to try to persuade Congress to adopt huge spending programs "to combat unemployment" — even though unemployment is decreasing. They held a self-styled "Full Employment" conference here, and hundreds of professional "bleeding hearts" filled the halls of Congress with their lobbying.

They began by plumping for boosting the personal income tax exemption from the present $600 to at least $800. Then they went on to demand an increase in the minimum wage from 75 cents to $1.25 an hour; a general increase in all wages; more liberal unemployment compensation payments an expanded Federal Housing Program, and $3 billion more for public works construction.

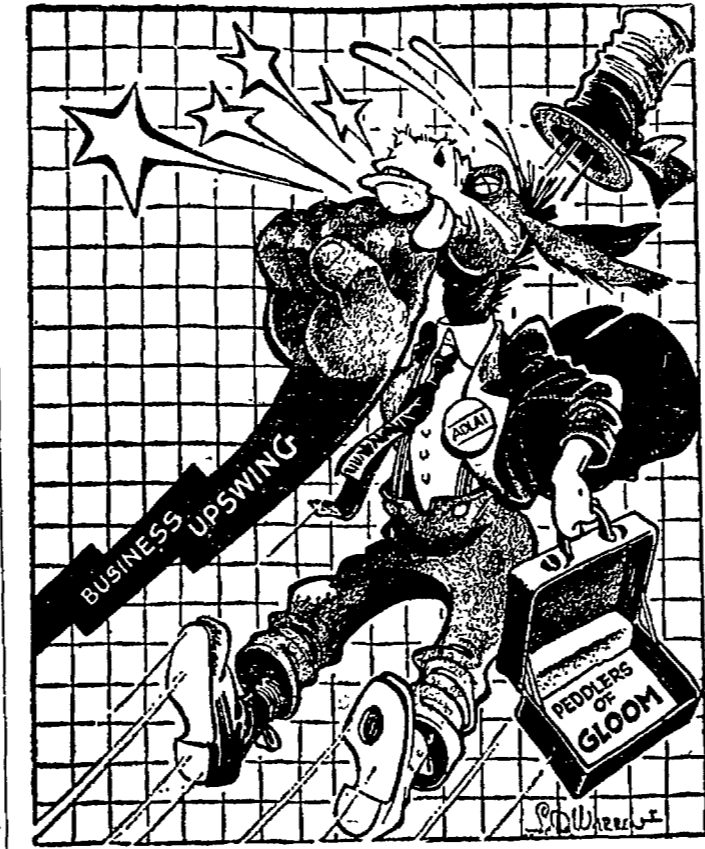

Their program would entail expenditures or tax losses totaling at least $10 billion.

Under the Administration's present fiscal-tax programs, the deficit next year is expected to be around $2.9 billion. The Big Labor-New Deal program would boost the deficit to around $12 billion. It would wreck completely President Eisenhower's successful efforts to stabilize the dollar, arrest inflation, and curtail government spending so that there can be even more tax reductions than the approximately $7.4 billion already voted or pending in Congress.

IN ANOTHER'S SHOES

In the earliest days of our country, there was a custom among the Sioux Indians that we might remember today.

Before he left his tribe to travel in the domain of another, a Sioux, on the night before his departure, would offer this prayer, "Great Spirit, help me never to judge another man until I have walked two weeks in his moccasins."

MICHIGAN MIRROR A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL by Gene Alleman

Michigan citizens will see engineers and businessmen do what chemists have tried to accomplish for many years: make gold out of seawater.

Perhaps the comparison is a trifle figurative. The feat will be achieved with dredges, barges and construction equipment; not elaborate chemical apparatus.

Approval of the St. Lawrence waterway by Congress this year ended a 40 year battle with interests which argued that such a project would mean financial ruin for them. Waterway supporters by no means agreed that these gloomy predictions would come to pass for opponents. But they are sure that the channel will do much to develop this part of the nation.

How much will Michigan benefit from the seaway? Several people have made predictions on this subject. One of the best qualified is John Beukema, chairman of the Transportation Advisory Committee of the Michigan Economic Development Commission. Beukema was for years the secretary of the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce. He knows the seaway subject extremely well since Muskegon, as a port city, has an intense natural interest in seeing the channel become a reality. "The seaway will have as great an effect on Michigan's economy as the invention of the automobile, but it will take time. Beukema told Economic Development Commission members at a recent meeting. "What we must look for is an evolution rather than a revolution."

Beukema dwelled on the time factor. He pointed out that it will take about six years before the seaway is finished. Industries now using railroads and trucks will not change overnight to using ships, he remarked. "It takes time to build up a commerce — and the shipper has to be sold on the benefits of water travel."

Major benefits were divided in two groups by Beukema: commercial and industrial. He predicted that Chicago and Milwaukee will gain most because they are natural supply points for foreign trade to the entire area from water's edge to the Rockies.

Detroit, Saginaw and Muskegon, he predicted, will be "sharply competitive" to supply Michigan.

Michigan people, Beukema thinks, have a limited appreciation of foreign trade, even though it means much to the state even now.

A Detroit Board of Commerce survey shows more than 900 leading industries and establishments in Michigan engaged in import or export trade.

Most of this, according to Beukema, moves by rail to New York or some eastern seaport. "Shippers are often surprised," he stated, "to find that the rail rate to New York is as high or higher than the ocean rate to north European ports. They don't realize that much of this cost is due to expense of rail-to-ship transfer at the harbor."

Importance of commerce to a city can be well illustrated by the late Mayor LaGuardia, who once stated that New York's greatness depended on three things: its port and waterborne commerce — its 300,000 visitors and the trade they produced — its manufacturers. He listed them in that order. And he further said that without the port, New York would be a second class city. Intercoastal shipping is even more important than foreign, says Beukema. "What is it going to mean to Michigan manufacturers when he can save a third of this freight cost by shipping direct waterhaul through the Panama canal to warehouses in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle?"

Prices on bananas, pineapple and other tropical products should also drop sharply for Michigan consumers when these things can be shipped in by water.

Michigan's industrial supremacy has faced a threat for some time, according to Beukema's views. The trend has been, he says, for steel producing factories to move east — where they can take advantage of low priced Labrador, African and South American ores.

The seaway reduces this factor and will permit diversification of industry. Many products that are made near seacoasts because of their dependence on raw materials can be attracted to this part of the country. The chemical industry, in particular, is expected to grow even more rapidly than it has.

This development may take as long as a generation, says John Beukema, though his rosy predictions makes the wait seem worth while.

In the meantime improvement of port facilities by cities is a must for any area hoping to reap benefits of shipping.

"It takes money to make money," the old saying goes.

Faced with the need for expenditures, municipalities are looking into what needs to be done.

A Port of Detroit Commission was formed some time ago. Almost immediately it locked horns with Wayne County supervisors over finances, charging such "penny-pinching" that proper operations were impossible. The salary ceiling set by supervisors for a port director was so low, said commissioners, that competitive offers were expected to lure best men to other cities.

Other Michigan cities face similar problems. Although they are smaller in dollars and cents, they are just as big proportionally. The Alpena News, for instance, felt it necessary to point out editorially that more foresight should be shown where the seaway is concerned when planning in suburban areas. It urged that city fathers do some serious thinking at this time and to set up zoning areas that will make for maximum efficiency in developing city property and adjoining areas.

Improved docks are needed almost everywhere. Beukema predicted year-round lake traffic between Detroit and ports of Lake Erie, Huron and Michigan. The St. Lawrence, he thinks, will be open only about 7 1/2 months each year.

If conclusions of this man who has studied for years the significance of the seaway turn out to be accurate, Michigan will develop into an even more prosperous state.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Ault, Brentwood Ave., spent last week-end again at the Reade farm near South Lyon.

At the last meeting of the Sunshine Sisters, held in Neighborhood Church, Wednesday afternoon, the 23rd, an article on "Getting Along With People," by Norman Vincent Peale was read and discussed. As usual prayer was offered for the sick and troubled of the community. Scripture references used were all on the subject of "Helping One-another." Contributions to the program were made by Mrs. O. R. Ault, Mrs. John Varhol and Freda Ault. Mrs. Emerson Ault interestingly described Colorado Springs and the Black Hills, which she visited in a recent vacation trip. Birthday greetings were sung for Alice Varhol. The customary cake and tea were served. The next Sunshine meeting will be held in Neighborhood Church Wednesday afternoon, July 7th, at 2 p. m.

At a special Father's Day service conducted by Neighborhood Bible School, a group of girls each gave a short speech on the subject: "Some Good, Fine Things About My Father." Those taking part were Pauline Varhol, Mary and Jeanie Allen and Shirley

BABSON SPEAKS TO EMPLOYERS

Babson Park, Mass — Some of my young friends feel that a recent pessimistic column of mine will handicap them in getting a good position. Hence, they wish me to tell the optimistic side of the story. There is much newspaper talk about the delinquency of juveniles, the carelessness of youth, and the lowering of school and college standards.

Of course, the destruction of school or any property should be given the severest criticism; but some feel these crimes are only a natural reaction from the moral letdown that always has accompanied periods of great wars. So much has been written by me regarding the pessimistic side of the "modern youth" problem that I really should pass along some optimistic words, especially now at graduation time.

WHAT IS PALEONTOLOGY?

Paleontology is the science of ancient life. Recently, Doctor Barnum Brown, Curator Emeritus of the American Museum of Natural History, a leading paleontologist, told me that the facts prove conclusively every normal generation is able to surpass its predecessor. The new generation may do things which we oldsters do not like; but it has other qualities which more than offset our objections. This improvement, he claims, is due to many factors—one of which is the better diet which each generation has—more protein, more fruits and vegetables, and especially a greater variety of food.

When I attended high school, I despised such subjects as Latin, Greek and certain higher mathematics. (When I would tell the teacher that I would never use these subjects, the teacher would reply, "These are taught to help you develop your brain.") Yet, today psychologists tell me that driving automobiles through traffic does far more to develop the brain of modern youth than did any of those high-school subjects which were taught us. In fact, it may be that automobiles are today doing more to sharpen high-school brains than many of the text-books which I studied.

HOURS AND WAGES

Stores are having some trouble from stealing by employees; but this has been due partly to the store's carelessness. When it comes to the industry, initiative and loyalty of the honest ones, I must admit that the high-school graduates today may possess some good traits to a greater extent than any previous generation. Modern youth may wish to work fewer hours; but with telephones, calculating machines and dictaphones, they may accomplish more in a 40-hour week than I did when working 50 hours per week. They claim five times as much!

Now as to wages: On the wall of a store adjoining my Wellesley office is a tin sign dated 1904 reading:

"THE BOSTON HERALD PRICE ONE CENT"

One of the leading newspapers of New England, THE BOSTON HERALD now sells for five cents. We employees are disturbed at the wages which "modern youth" ask; but are these wages more than five times what we paid high-school graduates fifty years ago?

AUTOMOBILES AS TEACHERS

I am scared stiff when riding with one of my grandchildren. The way he drives "in and out" of traffic astounds me. Yet, he never has an accident. The automobile may make the present generation superior to the pre-automobile generation to which I belonged. Furthermore, instead of urging youth to drive slower we should perhaps be content to urge "careful driving." The best brains are said to be developed by alert, careful driving.

Therefore, I should say that 1954 graduates—who avoid liquor and excessive smoking—may be the best we have ever had an Village parking lot, on lease from the owners. It is approximately 84 by 135 feet.

Johnson said the structure he had in mind would be approximately the size of the Hotel Mayflower in Plymouth, which usually is full and turns away many patrons. A good dining room, ballroom and meeting hall also would be assets of any such building, he declared.
Most of those he has broached the idea to are highly in favor of the proposed venture, Johnson said. At the next meeting of the merchants association, it is expected that the possibility of interesting hotel men and persons with sufficient capital will be discussed.

Boy Scout Camp Opens July 31

The Boy Scout summer camp at East Tawas will open the 1954 season July 31 and close Aug. 10. All newly registered boy scouts interested in going should be at the Scout building on July 15 to register. All costs for the entire camping period are covered by a fee of $22.50 per boy.

Three adult leaders will be in charge at all times and the boys will be well supervised. Explorer Post No. 738 will leave a day in advance in order to set up the tents and lay in a supply of provisions. The rest of the campers will leave on July 31 at 7 o'clock in the morning from the Scout building.

Included in the activities will be a visit to the Oscoda air base and a trip up the Tawas river. Also, a softball game between the Oscoda and Tawas scouts and a visit to the lumberman's monument.

Petz Bros. to Handle Packard Cars

When the proposed Studebaker-Packard merger goes through, Petz Bros. will take on the Packard franchise for Northville along with the Studebaker franchise which it has held since 1939, according to Wilbert Petz, partner.

Petz explained that top Packard and Studebaker officials are planning dual dealerships in communities where only one car is represented by a dealer. The Packard management believes there may be as many as 1,000 marketing points in the country where Studebaker dealers may increase their business also by selling Packards. They reason that this will constitute a new market for Packards, while not taking sales away from present Packard dealers.

Strange Thankfulness

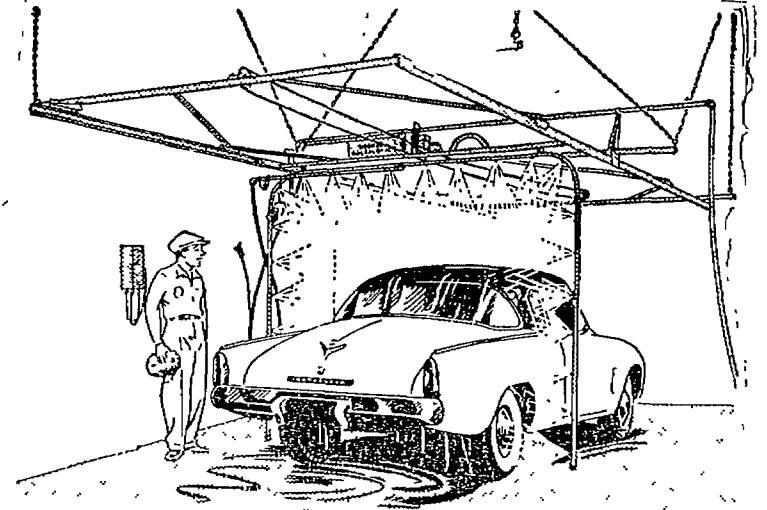

What do paratroopers think about one minute before they jump? Here is what one paratrooper said. "Each time I promise God that if he will spare me through the ordeal then I would serve Him. However, after the jump proves successful, having landed safely, I find myself heading for town and to the nearest bar to celebrate my successful landing." Then he would forget all about God until the next jump in which the process would be repeated. This young man certainly should get himself a Bible and start getting a Bible education. In the first place he would find that God does not exchange "good intentions" for salvation. Should one of his jumping jaunts be "unsuccessful" and his spirit depart from his crumpled body, he would discover that "God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap." God is willing to save sinners, but they must be saved upon God's own terms and not upon man's fickle intentions. The second mistake this young man made is to treat the merciful and kind God in this way. Oh the depravity of the human heart that would deliberately sin against a God who is so good. The goodness of God should lead every person to repentance, faith and thankfulness.
