for the Record

by G. H. C.

When we return from a vacation there always is the feeling that the Great Lakes region has much to offer in the way of desirable living—fertile fields dotted with woods and lakes, pleasant villages like Northville, changing seasons to look forward to, friendly neighbors. Doubtless those from Montana, Wyoming and Arizona who spend their vacations in Michigan feel the same way when they return to their own home states, although it is hard for a native Michigander to understand why. Anyway, we're glad to be back on the job again and we look forward to a busy, interesting and happy year ahead.

We were most happy to have as guest columnists during our absence the supervisors of Northville and Novi townships and the president of the village of Northville. Everyone who read what they had to say must have been impressed by their interest in civic affairs and their desire to explain the problems of the townships and village so more people will be familiar with their work. To Mrs. Mollie Lawrence, supervisor of Northville township, and to Frazer Staman, Novi township supervisor and Claude Ely, village president, our sincere thanks—and best wishes for reelection as long as they are willing to serve.

Interesting—and about as expected—was the recommendation of Tom Carrington's committee that the village again put the proposition to become a city to a vote at the election next spring. This committee, composed of some men who were on the city incorporation committee two years ago, and some new members, profited by the admitted mistake of the first committee in trying to take in more territory than the voters would ratify. The present recommendation is that only the area now within the village be incorporated as a city. This should not be too hard to sell to the voters if the advantages of city government are pointed out, and the village certainly can use to good advantage the extra money it would receive from the state's "take" from betting at Northville Downs.

Disturbing to those familiar with the damage which Dutch elm disease can do to beautiful elm trees such as line Northville streets was the news earlier this month that an infected tree had been discovered on S. Center St. and destroyed immediately. This is the first time the disease has been discovered locally but it has been spreading in southeastern Michigan for several years. It is to be hoped that local property owners and the Wayne County Park Commission will join with the village next spring in having all trees in the area sprayed to prevent spread of the disease.

Considerable talk is heard by pedestrians about the difficulty of seeing when the new traffic lights at the corner of Main and Center streets are red and green. Consequently there is more jay-walking than usual. They can be seen all right by motorists approaching from a distance, but they are higher than the old lights and are so shielded as to make it extremely difficult for a near-by pedestrian to know whether to cross the street or stay on the curb. Many passers-by are heard to comment that the situation should be corrected before school starts.

Signs of progress in Northville — Carl Barton's modernization of the "telephone building" at Main and Center, new street lights in the business section, start of the 7-Mile cut-off, plans of the local merchants to stage a big "Home Town Bargain Day" once a month starting in October, revival of interest in city incorporation, progress on the new school house on North Center . . . And in Novi township, two and one-half miles northeast of the village, the ambitious new housing development now under way. Drive out and see the attractive modern homes nearing completion.

New Village Near Northville Now Under Construction

THE FIRST SECTION of the new Willow Brook Village, to be located between Nine and Ten Mile roads, near Haggerty, in Novi township, already is under construction. Builder Paul LeBost (right) and Building Supt. William Parker, discuss landscaping of the grounds of the initial block of houses now being completed just east of Meadowbrook on Ten Mile Rd. Not a building project, the "planned community" will contain 1,000 homes, shopping center, schools, churches at a cost of $15,000,000.

1,000 Homes To Be Built On Ten Mile, At Cost of $15,000,000

A new community of more than 3,000 persons will come into being two and a half miles northeast of Northville under plans announced this week by the president of the construction company, Paul LeBost, of Detroit. Cost of building alone, LeBost said, will exceed $15,000,000.

Already under construction the new community, to be known as Willow Brook Village, will be located on a 350-acre plot between Nine and Ten Mile roads, and between Meadowbrook and Haggerty.

LeBost, who termed himself a "builder and land developer", emphasized that the new village was in no sense a "project".

Planned Community

"This is to be a planned community," he stated Tuesday. "It will not be merely a collection of individual houses and other structures. There will be streets, parks, schools, churches, playgrounds and all the other portions of a well organized community, all laid out and planned for in advance."

He said Novi township already has taken an option on land for a new school on Ten Mile Rd., so that construction can be begun as soon as the need arises.

Plans for a shopping center and other commercial facilities are included in the layout of the new community. Approximately 1,000 homes are to be built, and if these house the customary average of three to a family, population of Willow Brook Village will be 3,000 when initially completed, LeBost declared. This is slightly less than the present population of Northville.

Three Finished Daily

Asked how long it would be before he expected this goal to be attained, LeBost said that by Sept. 10 his building crews will complete three new homes every day. Ten already are nearing completion, and others are in the initial stages of construction. At the rate stated, the estimated 1,000 homes would be built by next summer, assuming there is sufficient demand for them.

"Demand?" queried LeBost. "We've already gotten many orders, and when the word gets around we expect to be swamped. I don't think we'll be able to meet the demand, for there are thousands of families in the Detroit area seeking new homes."

His company already is completing two other land development areas, one at Schoolcraft and Telegraph roads, and the other in Ecorse.

Describing the homes to be built in Willow Brook Village, he said that lots will all be 100 feet wide, and that the houses will be 56 feet wide.

True Ranch Type

"These are of custom design, in the popular price range," he emphasized. "They will be of the true ranch type, not just something that is called a ranch house. They will be of three and four bedrooms, and will have one, two and three baths, and attached carports."

The prices, LeBost declared, would be from $13,490 to $15,990. Without extra cost, all will be equipped with a name-brand electric automatic washer, dryer, hot water, a germ-destroying lamp system, and an electronic "outside and inside" weather control system.

Willow Brook, he pointed out, will be the first new community to have such modern conveniences incorporated in the design.

All Strictly Modern

Several of the new houses now almost completed are of modernistic appearance, with sloping front windows. Others, however, are of the conventional straight wall design. All will be strictly modern and up-to-date.

LeBost, who has been in the home building business for 30 years, views the new community with considerable pride, as does William Parker, of Redford, his building superintendent and a graduate engineer.

Both are looking forward to the time, a year or so hence, when Willow Brook will attain its stature as a full-fledged community.

Caution Advised For Annual Labor Day Week-End

The annual Labor Day week-end vacationers, scramble to close up the summer cottage, stack their cars to the rooftop and breast the holiday traffic will result in hundreds of deaths and thousands of injuries, warns the Institute for Safer Living. Only by careful planning of the "closing up", sensible packing of the car, safe driving every mile of the way home, says the Institute, can serious accidents be avoided.

At least 400 highway deaths will happen over Labor Day week-end and thousands more will be injured in these crashes. Plus these, an untold number of vacationers will be injured by falling off ladders, falling down stairs, getting overtired and over-exercising in their mad rush to get the clearing chores done as quickly as possible.

All of these accidents are unnecessary says the Institute. The cause is in not allowing enough time—the cure is for vacationers to do the job leisurely, orderly and with all hands pitching in.

Keep these safety pointers in mind:

Don't try to cleanup, fix up and pack up in one day. Allow plenty of time to do these things safely.

If you're using a ladder for boarding up windows take your time, take it easy, do it safely.

Don't leave gasoline, oil or other flammables in the cottage during the winter.

Don't overload your car—it makes for poor steering, heavy handling in traffic and decreased visibility.

Don't wait until the last possible moment to start your trip home. Set a specific time to leave which allows you three hours for every 100 miles of driving. Don't try to beat your schedule.

In an 8:30 p.m. ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Roy M. Line, of Farmington, Lovinia Gentry and John Schroder, Jr. were united in marriage Tuesday, Aug. 17 by the Rev. Douglas R. Couch of Salem.

Lovinia is the daughter of Mrs. Hattie Gentry of Ferndale, and John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schroder, Sr. of W. Seven Mile Rd., Northville.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Lee Pearl, wore a white linen suit and hat. Her corsage was a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a diamond-studded wristwatch, a gift from the groom.

Evelyn Gentry, sister of the bride, was the only attendant. She wore a navy blue suit, pinning a corsage of pink roses on her shoulder.

Clifford Schroder served his brother as bestman.

Mrs. Gentry wore a blue-grey nylon dress. Both mothers wore an orchid corsage.

Following the reception for the immediate families and a few close friends, the young couple left on a honeymoon in northern Michigan.

Lovinia is a graduate of Lincoln High School, Ferndale, and John graduated from Northville High school in 1946.

The young couple plan to make their home in Ferndale.

Modern Methods Will Be Keynote of State Fair

"Modern Methods" will be the keynote for the free Homemakers' party classes to be held in the Whitehall building during the Michigan State Fair Sept. 3 through 12.

This year's program, sponsored by Westinghouse and Wrigley's Super markets, will feature Electro and Sparko, an all-mechanical robot and his dog. Thousands of dollars in gifts will be distributed during the daily shows which will begin at 2 and 6:30 p.m.

There will be no commercial exhibits in Whitehall this year. Because the Home Arts building has been condemned, and will be razed by fair time, the food displays from the Home Arts department will be on exhibit in Whitehall. Needlework will be displayed in the clubhouse of the grandstand and the art exhibit will be in the Coliseum.

Early morning visitors to the fair Sept. 3, 7, 8, 9 and 10 will be able to watch the television broadcast of "Charm Kitchen" with WXYZ's Lady of Charm, Edythe Fern Melrose from 10 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Each day the Lady of Charm will present something different and unusual in the way of cooking and preparing foods. Special foods from Hawaii will be flown in for Sept. 7, "Hawaiian Day" and Sept. 10 will be "Cook-off" Day and some lucky young lady will be given $75 back-to-school wardrobe for being the best "creative cook".

Aaron W. Olivers To Celebrate 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron W. Oliver, 40840 Eleven Mile Rd., east of Novi, will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary Sunday, Aug. 29, with an open house to which relatives and friends are invited.

Mr. Oliver has lived at the farm where his great-grandfather homesteaded since 1906, the same land taken up by Samuel Mulford, in 1829.

Now 73, he can remember when Grand River was a plank road from Clarenceville to Detroit, for he used to haul produce to market over it in the days before World War I.

Being far out in the country he and his wife, who is 65, enjoy television immensely. Once there was no electricity available, but now the Olivers have their home completely equipped electrically.

"Yes, we think television is wonderful for rural people," Oliver said. "It brings news of the world to us, and well, it brings city folks right into our homes."

The open house will be from 2 to 6 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron W. Oliver

Former Teacher Here Accepts New Post

The GREEN THUMB

by Paul Newton

The amateur gardener will find the iris an easy plant to grow if she will follow a few simple rules. Of course, it is one thing to get plants to grow, but quite another to get them to thrive so vigorously that they stand out as specimen plants. Any one planning to grow even a few irises should not be content to achieve merely indifferent results, especially when just a little more effort to provide the right conditions will bring forth such exquisite flowers.

Soil

A well drained medium loam supplied with humus is the ideal soil for growing irises. Heavy soil is inclined to be too wet, especially in a rainy season. Light, sandy soil has the advantage of thorough drainage, but here the food supply is quickly washed away.

Fertilizer

Cow manure or any fertilizer high in nitrogen is not good for iris. They produce a rich soft growth of foliage and a poor bloom. Bone meal mixed with burias and a generous quantity of wood ashes produces the best results. In this there is plenty of phosphoric acid and potash and not too much nitrogen. This should be worked into the soil before planting.

How and When to Plant

Bearded irises love the sun. While they will grow in heavy shade they will not bloom well. The roots of trees and shrubs rob the soil of moisture and plant food. Now is the time to plant irises while the rhizomes are in a semi-dormant state.

When setting a new rhizome, spread out the small roots and plant well down into the soil. Firm the soil about them, but have the rhizome itself just below the soil level, perhaps a half-inch to an inch. The latter depth is better when planting late in the season. If the plants are to be left in the same position for several seasons, they may be planted two feet apart. The clumps need to be divided every three years.

If the ground is dry at planting time pour enough water into the hole to settle the dirt about the roots. See that the surface does not cake after it dries off, then keep the plants well cultivated, lightly, just enough to retain moisture. Too much moisture will sometimes cause rot and in some instances will promote excessive growth before winter, which results in the bloom center being killed off by spring frosts. This is an explanation of some newly set irises failing to bloom the first spring but growing well enough otherwise. Another reason for failure to bloom is planting the rhizomes too deeply.

Next week Green Thumb will discuss insects and diseases which attack irises.

Miss Margaret Carpenter

Miss Margaret Carpenter, former grade school teacher here for nine years, has resigned from her position as director of Christian Education at the First Baptist church, Harvey, Ill., where she served for the past five years, to become a member of the faculty of the Grand Rapids Theological seminary and bible institute this fall. Besides teaching Christian Education classes, she will be the dean of women at the seminary.

She has a BS degree and Master of Religious Education degree.

Lucky Leaf 4-Hers Win Ribbons At County Fair

The Lucky Leaf 4-H club came home from the Oakland County fair at Pontiac very well pleased because it took third prize with the float, which carried out the slogan "Keep 'em Down On The Farm". The 4-Hers who won blue ribbons are as follows:

Ken Wimmer, pigs; Eugene Clark and Richard Miller, dairy; Marilyn Engel, yearling horse;

Robert Engel, rabbits; Sandra Stillwell, Marilyn Engel, poultry; and Eugene Clark and Fritz Smith, flowers.

Red ribbon winners at the fair were James Lyke, poultry; Robert Engel, rabbits; Dick Mitchell, beef; Don Wimmer, dairy; Butch Shoemaker, dairy, and Marilyn Engel, horsemanship.

White ribbons went to Marilyn Engel for horse and rabbit.

Priscilla Clark, who took "turkeys" to the fair, did not receive a ribbon because the judges did not know how to judge them.

Like most of the 4-H clubs in Oakland county the Lucky Leaf club has representatives going to the State 4-H show at East Lansing next week. These representatives are Eugene Clark, who is taking his registered brown Swiss heifer, "Connie"; Sandra Stillwell, who is taking her pen of three hens, and Jack Clemens who is taking chickens. Ken Wimmer will be at East Lansing showing his Berkshire pigs. Fritz Smith and Eugene Clark will have an exhibit of flowers.

Marilyn Engel was asked to show her yearling colt but due to the fact that he had not been gelded, Marilyn will not be able to attend.

The Junior Lucky Leaf club came back with all blue ribbons. This was the first time that any of them had shown at a 4-H fair. Dorothy and Henry Clark are the leaders of the Junior Lucky Leaf club, while Ruth and Jack Apple lead the Senior Lucky Leaf club.

The 16th and 17th of this month Marilyn Engel and James Lyke attended the 4-H judging elimination at East Lansing. They had practice judging in the afternoon and a talent program after dinner. After the talent program motion pictures were shown on 4-H youth and the trip of Michigan State college students to the Rose Bowl game. Next morning they started judging the finals at 8 a.m.

The Senior Lucky Leaf club is planning on ending the summer with an all day picnic at Lake Chemung at the cottage of Ken and Don Wimmer's aunt.

Dentons Return From Vacation

To most of us a vacation at Banff and Lake Louise is a very special trek, taken once or perhaps twice in a life time. But to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Denton it has become a yearly event, for they have vacationed there several years.

It was only by chance that they failed to meet some of their Northville friends, who also were at the Chateau Lake Louise on Sunday, Aug. 8; the Dentons attended church, the friends did not.

Mr. and Mrs. Denton have just returned and hope to have some splendid movies, taken around this area and the Canadian Rockies to show their friends.

NOTICE
The state treasury received a record $474,199 during the last fiscal year from sales of state forest timber, conservation department forecasters report.
The total was 56 percent above the total receipts of $303,000 taken in during the previous fiscal year.

The board-foot volume taken from public forests increased 57 percent — from about 45 million feet in 1952-53 to about 70 million feet in 1953-54. The number of sale permits jumped from 1561 to 2267.

Sales of resident fishing licenses appear to be lagging behind last year's all-time high, conservation department officials report.
At this date last year, slightly more than 600,000 had been reported sold. To date this year, 561,000 have been reported sold.

A special deer season in the northern lower peninsula involving hunting quotas and areas will be recommended to the conservation commission this year, game men report.
The recommendations for quotas and areas will be a change from last year, when 100,000 hunters took about 26,000 deer during a general one-day, any-deer season north of M-55.

For some unexplained reason, no rabid foxes have ever been reported found in Michigan, conservation department workers report.
Rabies has been discovered in foxes in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, but to date health authorities have no record of the disease in any Michigan fox.

News About Salem

YOUR CORRESPONDENT — MRS. CARLETON HARDESTY
PHONE NORTHVILLE 1410-M11

Two weeks from Sunday George Learned, missionary in Nigeria, West Africa, will be guest speaker at the Salem Federated church. He plans to bring with him a challenging missionary message plus slides of that country.

The 4-H club met Aug. 18 at the home of Mrs. Robert Wilson. They had their fourth meeting which was checking and adjusting front wheel fork pedal crank. The seventh lesson was safety rules for pedestrians.

Mrs. Glenn Hardesty and Mrs.

Don Tiffin attended a baby shower in honor of Mrs. Murray Lucas Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brow returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. Carleton Hardesty and Mrs. Ernst Evans of Plymouth spent three days in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Alter and Nancy spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Geda.

Mrs. George Bennett, Mrs. George Tanner, Sharon and Jimmy, were Thursday shoppers at Ann Arbor.

Your Congressman Reports

By Representative CHARLES G. OAKMAN
17th District, Michigan

ACCOMPLISHMENTS of the 83rd Congress — The Republican 83rd "Did Do" Congress has established an outstanding record of legislative achievement. President Eisenhower has said that he will be proud to go to the people with the record this Congress has made in advancing our interests, in protecting our country, and in making sure that we have a steady, sound prosperity widely shared. As your Representative in this 83rd Congress, here is my summary:

(1) For decades the St. Lawrence Seaway legislation languished in Congress. After these years of effort, in 16 months the 83rd Congress enacted this into law. The Seaway is on the road to becoming a reality. It will greatly aid business and employment in our area.

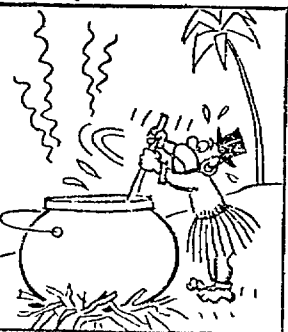

(2) For the first time, Congress appropriated an amount for highways equal to the Federal Motor fuel taxes. For over 20 years little was done for our roads and one-half of these federal motor fuel taxes were diverted to general purposes of government. The Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1954 was a splendid beginning as our highways have become obsolete, inadequate, congested and extravagant in loss of life and bodily injuries. The President will submit a 'grand plan' for the nation's highways to the Congress in January. This is a function in which the Federal Government has a legitimate interest because of the importance of a good highway system to the national economy and national defense.

Mrs. Charles Stacey spent Monday in Detroit.

Ruth Dyer of Ann Arbor spent Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Odycke. Saturday afternoon callers were M. Miot and W. Miot of Detroit.

The Salem Up and Down Saddle club met at the home of Mrs. Mary Ann Bock for their business meeting. Their discussion was about the 4-H show and afterwards ice cream and drinks were served.

ELECTRIC RANGE

Though Mrs. Robert Eddy is very active in numerous clubs, she loves to work around her very modern home. In fact, she, her husband, and daughter Cathy have done a large part of the landscaping. And, after a day's work in the yard, what could be more inviting than a casserole of piping hot chicken and yellow rice... right out of her electric oven.

There's nothing like electric cooking for saving time for other pursuits. With it, hot food... prepared to perfection... is ready when you want it. Your electric range gives you steady controlled heat without constant attention. That's the carefree way of cooking... electric cooking.

CHICKEN AND YELLOW RICE EN CASSEROLE

Temp.: 350° F.
1 stewing chicken, 3 to 4 lbs., cut in pieces
1 large onion
1 small garlic clove
1 1/2 cups uncooked rice
1 1/2 cups chicken broth
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup white pepper
Time: 45 min.
1/4 cup raw chicken fat
1/4 cup green pepper
1/4 cup onion
1/4 cup cold water
1/4 cup buttered bread crumbs or pinch Spanish saffron
Remove 1/4 cup raw fat from chicken; save. Cook chicken with 1/2 teaspoon salt until tender; cool, remove from bones and dice. Wash rice thoroughly. Place with wooden spoon. Cook 5 minutes on high heat, cover and turn to lowest heat and cook until light brown; remove from fat and drain on paper. Add diced onion, green pepper, garlic, 1/2 teaspoon salt and pepper to remaining fat, broth, and diced chicken. Place in greased 10-inch casserole. Sprinkle with buttered bread crumbs and paprika or toasted almonds. Bake. Serves 6 to 8.

(25) The 83rd Congress reduced expenditures by strict economy and elimination of waste.

(26) Enacted the Communist Control Act of 1954.

A number of observers in Washington look upon the international situation this way:

Communism, like early Christianity, is expanding on the basis of ideas and perhaps must be defeated with ideas. As force was ineffective against the spread of Christianity, force so far has been equally ineffective against Communism.

(11) Adopted a new security program and separated more than 2,200 security risks.

(12) Enacted a Housing program which provides for lower down payments, longer mortgages, stimulates home ownership, encourages remodeling, eliminates slums. The program emphasizes home ownership rather than public housing.

(13) Corrected the law to prevent any recurrence of abuses permitting 'windfall' profits in the Government Housing program or 'fleecing' of home owners in home improvement loans.

(14) The Atomic Energy Act of 1946 brought up to date and strengthened, permitting limited exchange with our Allies of information about our atomic weapons development. This will lay the groundwork for implementing the President's proposal for an international atomic pool for peaceful uses, and will permit development and use of atomic energy by private industry.

(15) Provided for additional research and study into the Nation's educational requirements.

(16) Provided for additional assistance in the construction of schools in critical areas.

(17) Passed 27 bills amending veterans' benefits and privileges.

(18) Authorized 23 additional Federal judgeships to relieve the congestion in our judicial system.

(19) Ended controls on wages, prices and materials.

(20) Provided for the sale of obsolete Government - operated synthetic rubber plants and took other steps to get the Government out of competition with private industry.

(21) Broadened Social Security Coverage.

(22) Expanded Hospital Construction.

(23) Provided for an expansion of the vocational rehabilitation program.

(24) Extended the Reciprocal Trade Agreements Act for one year.

Gulf Station Celebrates 13th Anniversary

The 13th anniversary celebration of the Atchinson Gulf service station, Wing and Main streets, will be held the balance of this month, Orson Atchinson, owner, announced Monday.

The station was built 13 years ago at a cost of $22,500, including $2,500 for equipment, and has been operated by Atchinson since that time except for a two-year period when the station was leased to Robert Lyke.

The celebration will be somewhat of a reenactment of the grand opening in 1941, with souvenirs and premiums for visitors and customers.

"Growing Old Is A Privilege Denied To Many"

When anyone wants to know about golf as it has been played around Meadowbrook during the past 37 years, they call upon William H. "Uncle Bill" Aston, 20170 Hagerly Rd.

For Uncle Bill, official historian of Meadowbrook Country club, admittedly knows more about what has gone on in golfing circles around Northville than anyone else.

Not only is he a life member of the club, he is also the oldest in term of membership, as well as having been a member of the board for 20 years.

Eleven days ago on Aug. 16, he celebrated his 84th birthday. Although he recently recovered from a serious operation, and has played little golf himself in recent years, he still maintains an active interest in the game and in club doings.

Remembers Hagen

Of all the famous names in golf, players who at one time or another have hacked their way along Meadowbrook's fairways, Aston remembers Walter Hagen, the old master of disconcerting methods—disconcerting to the opponent.

He recalls a match between Hagen and the fabulous Bobby Jones years ago, when Jones was in his heyday. Hagen was not the stroke master that Jones was, Aston says, but he had a way of putting pressure on his opponents that many times was unnerving.

Jones won the match, but when it was over he was nearly a nervous wreck. He indicated he didn't care whether he ever played Hagen again.

No Prestige?

Hagen was a professional in the years before such people attained social standing or prestige, Aston says. On an European tour, he played with King Edward of England, and found the monarch rather democratic. After a match, the king invited Hagen into the Royal golf club taproom for a drink, which was something unheard of in those days. While they were waiting, Hagen noticed an attendant pass a note to the king, and said:

"I know what that is. Maybe I'd better leave."

Whereat the king replied: "You stay right here, Walter. If I can't bring my friends in here for a drink, I'll make them take the word 'Royal' out of their name!"

During another match, when the two approached the green, Hagen was heard to say to the king: "Get the pin, Eddie."

Born In Canada

Aston was born in London, Ontario, and lived there until he was married 48 years ago. In Detroit he owned the Aston Print-

"GOTT MIT UNS"

During the last World War the people of Germany were fed all sorts of propaganda to bolster up their ego and their moral. Every German soldier had a belt buckle upon which was inscribed "Gott Mit Uns" which translated means "God is with us". Such a confidence would indeed be strengthening in the heat of battle! But there was one hitch—God was not with them and they suffered terrible defeat. They were disillusioned. As I thought about this, I thought about the many right here in the United States that are disillusioned about God being with them. Surely no one believes that God is present with everyone to bless all that they do regardless of what they believe or how they live. The plain truth as taught in God's Word is that only those who have Jesus as Saviour can truthfully say that God is with them. In John 14:23 we read this promise spoken by Jesus. "If a man love me, he will keep my words; and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, AND MAKE OUR ABODE WITH HIM." To those who have rejected or neglected the Saviour, their position is described in Eph. 2:12 as being "without hope and without God in this world." Is God truly with you?

Exchange Club Holds Golf Meet

The Northville Exchange club sponsored their annual golf party last week. Approximately 25 golfers vied for prizes and enjoyed dinner at Plymouth Country club. There were additional members and guests who came late and missed the golf but enjoyed the dinner and festivities. All told, there were about 35 people present.

Ray Hartner walked away with low medal score of 71 for which he was awarded first prize. Cec Rodgers followed with a 75 for second.

Other prize winners were J. D. Mahoney, low in the "kickers" (he kicked his ball better than the rest), followed by Bill Wiedner, Hugh Godfrey and Forrest Phillips, who proved no slouches at "kickers". Dick Ambler won closest to the hole on the No. 13 for 3 hole and Ken Rathburn was undisputed winner of high score.

Prizes for the tournament were donated by Atchinson Gulf Service, Brader's Dept. store, Clark's Hardware, Northville Drug and Northville Men's Shop.

Citizenship Banquet Registrations Asked

A second call for registrations for the annual Citizenship banquet in October was issued this week by the chairman, Mrs. William Cansfield. The banquet is sponsored by the Northville Coordinating council.

Honor guests at the banquet will be young people who have reached 21 years of age, or will be 21 by voting time.

All should register with either Mrs. Cansfield, phone 296, or Mrs. Samuel Geraci, phone 186.

ing Co. and remained in that business until he retired about 14 years ago.

He and Mrs. Aston have owned the cottage in which they now reside for 35 years. They used it as a summer home until they sold their Detroit home after he retired, and decided to live near Northville.

Although he doesn't play golf any more, and never claimed to be in the championship class, Uncle Bill didn't put his clubs away until three years ago.

Even then, he played in the 80s, which is something many a younger golfer would like to do.

Bible Comment:

We're Known By Fruits of Our Spirit

"By their fruits ye shall know them," said Jesus.

The illustration was of trees, but Jesus was speaking of people.

This statement is true not only of the hypocritically false and corrupt. It is true of all men.

And it is true, also, not only of the fruits of evil, but of the lack of the fruits of good. The fruitlessness of good is only one step removed from being fruitful of evil.

Jesus pronounced His bitterest words against the hypocrites who made a profession of religion but exploited and wronged their fellowmen. He did not condone the victims of temptation and sinful passions, though He treated them with compassion and forgiveness.

He was almost scornful of those whose lives were neither good nor evil, like a barren fig tree, with a show of life, but no fruit.

What does it mean to have a fruitful life? The source of all goodness, the New Testament makes plain, is love, the love of God the example of man.

In love, Paul declared, was the fulfilling of the law. "For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: 'Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.'"

In the very chapter in which Paul made this declaration, he proceeded to analyze and set forth in detail the meaning of such love.

Paul also set forth the fruit, or fruits, of the Spirit; that is, of the Spirit of Christ. These fruits he detailed with great precision.

"The fruit of the Spirit," Paul wrote, "is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance."

In any case it is not one, or some, of the fruits of the Spirit; that mark the well-ordered, well-rounded Christian life. It is the manifestation of all, and in so far as any one is lacking, to that extent one's life is unfruitful.

WED SIXTY YEARS

Philadelphia, Pa. — Among the letters and telegrams of congratulations received by Mr. and Mrs. Herbert T. Sycamore, who celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Mar. 27, was a letter of congratulations from Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower. The Sycamores have two children, seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Enrollment —

Center is completed next spring. This, Amerman said, will help alleviate the shortage of classrooms.

All of the present classrooms have been completely renovated, repainted and repaired, and the public is invited to inspect them. Band and choir activities, as well as physical education, will be housed in the new Community building.
