$2.50 Per Year in Advance

for the Record

by G. H. C.

Regardless of what any of us may think personally about Senator McCarthy, anyone who has followed the hearings conducted by the Watkins committee on charges brought against the Senator must have been impressed by the business-like and impartial manner in which its investigation has been conducted. Senator Watkins and other committee members held the proceedings on a completely judicial level from start to finish, and this fact made more damning the committee's unanimous recommendation that the Senate censure McCarthy on two of the five charges made against him. The committee, composed of three Republicans and three Democrats, also criticized in strong language McCarthy's conduct in connection with the three other charges, but said his actions did not warrant censure on these three charges.

While we would have urged a few weeks ago that the Senate meet before election to accept or reject the Watkins committee report so voters might know where their respective senators stood on McCarthyism, we rather like the idea of postponing such a vote to eliminate in so far as possible the chance that pre-election political pressure might sway the decision. We hope (but don't expect) the whole Senate will conduct its discussion of the McCarthy dispute on the same high level that characterized the Watkins committee's hearings. Then, if it accepts the committee's recommendation that the Wisconsin senator be censured, McCarthy will have been forced down the road to political oblivion in an atmosphere that, even his staunchest supporters cannot say was dictated by party considerations.

Equally as important as the recommendation that McCarthy be censured is the Watkins Committee's recommendations that the Senate at once adopt new rules providing for the presence of two senators at every hearing, for orderly and responsible questioning of witnesses, and giving committees—not chairmen or individual senators—control of publicity and expenditures. If Senator McCarthy's actions have demonstrated any one thing in particular it has been the need for a set of ground rules to prevent Congressional hearings from getting out of hand and being used for the personal advantage of members of Congress.

Our readers will note that the Record this week is an 18-page paper, and that it is filled with the advertisements of Northville's "Home Town Bargain Day" by local merchants. So far as we can determine, this sales event is the largest ever sponsored by our local merchants, for it has the backing of 47 individual stores and service establishments, each cooperating to draw the attention of residents in the surrounding countryside to the fact that Northville is a friendly place in which to shop and that its stores are well stocked with attractively priced merchandise.

Not only is the village-wide sale tomorrow (Friday) significant as the first of a series of such sales to be held monthly, it typifies a progressive trend among local business men toward effective cooperation to prevent the village from being overshadowed by rapidly growing communities to the south and north. Plymouth has been booming for several years and is today a bustling small city. To the north, the population of Novi township is expanding rapidly, with the new Willow Brook housing development there, likely to bring from three to five thousand persons into its area within the next two or three years. Willow Brook is only two to three miles from Northville, and any such increase in population inevitably will have a big impact locally. One of its first effects should be to speed expansion and improvement in the business section, of which the series of Home Town Bargain Days is perhaps the first manifestation.

The writer read proof on the Bargain Day ads and in so doing became familiar with the specials each merchant is offering. There are excellent buys listed in almost every line, as you will readily see when you look at the prices.

First Hometown Bargain Day Is Set For Tomorrow

Thousands of bargains will be available to shoppers in the Northville area Friday, Oct. 1, when the first of a series of "Hometown Bargain Days" will be held.

A total of 41 of Northville's better and most completely stocked stores will cooperate in the event, which will be sponsored by the Northville Retail Merchants Ass'n.

"We want to show housewives and other shoppers residing in this and nearby communities that we have as fine a selection of consumer goods as can be found anywhere," said Carl Johnson, president of the association.

"Furthermore, those who visit our stores next Friday will find that the bargains are real, and that the prices are comparable to or lower than those in shopping centers at greater distances."

Shoppers who receive The Record Shopping Guide, distributed to every home in the area this week, will find a lucky number in the upper left hand corner of Page 1. This number is to be clipped and deposited in boxes, which will be provided in each of the cooperating stores any time during Friday.

A lucky number also is printed at the top of the regular edition, above.

Saturday morning there will be a drawing of the numbers deposited, and those holding the winning ones will be notified by letter, and will receive a prize in value as high as $25.

One of the prizes is a card table with matching chairs. Another is a stainless steel canister set with matching breadbox. An RCA Table model radio will be given. There will be other prizes, and Johnson emphasized that winners DO NOT have to be present at the time of the drawing.

All that is required is that the shopper deposit his number, together with name and address, some time during shopping hours Friday. Notification will be sent out when the winning numbers are determined. Names will later be posted in the Northville Record window.

Items available during the special Hometown Bargain Day include the following: Electrical appliances, furniture, hardware, gifts, clothing, groceries, jewelry, candy, and many others.

"We're sure that shoppers in the area will find many things that they want and need, and at prices appealing to all," Johnson declared.

$1,000 Platinum Ring Recovered

A platinum ring valued at $1000 was reported stolen or lost by Mrs. Elmer Wilson, 860 Main St., Friday.

Mrs. Wilson told police she could not remember whether she had worn the ring when she went shopping, or whether she had left it home in which event she believed it had been stolen.

However, police reported later that the ring had been found in a beauty parlor where Mrs. Wilson presumably had left it.

Novi Driver Pays $30 Fine Here

Nelson R. Proffitt, of Novi, was fined $30 and costs of $5 when arraigned before Justice Ed. M. Bogart, Monday on a charge of reckless driving.

He was arrested Saturday night by Patrolman F. Heinz while traveling more than 50 miles per hour on Plymouth Ave., Main Street and Griswold Street.

The car he was driving was registered to Jacqueline A. Graves of Wixom.

REMEMBER WHEN gas jets were in common use to light homes? But not quite as big as the one above, blasting approximately 75 feet into the air from a gas well brought in Saturday night on the Carl Ely farm west of Chubb Rd. on the south side of Eight Mile. The small cone at the base of the center flame actually is about six feet in length to the point of ignition, and the gas is under a pressure of approximately 1800 pounds. At lower right a horizontal jet also is burning, while the huge steel derrick is silhouetted at left.

These annual banquets are sponsored by the Coordinating Council.

Dr. Howard S. McClusky of the University of Michigan will be the principal speaker.

Community Center Regulations Are Approved By Village Commission

Regulations for the use of the Northville Community Center were promulgated last week by a joint committee composed of Malcolm Allen, Alton Peters, Robert Coolman and Russell Amerman.

The regulations were presented to the Village commission and were approved after considerable discussion about the use of the building.

Mayor Claude N. Ely emphasized that the center was designed for the use of the people of Northville, and declared he wanted as few restrictions as possible placed upon it. Certain charges must be made, however, for cleanup and other maintenance, and out of town organizations must pay double, the committee decided.

The regulations include: Policy: Intoxicating liquors prohibited; No smoking in the gymnasium; No meals or liquids are to be served in the gymnasium, except on special authorization for banquets, etc.; Activities which are illegal, questionable or offensive are prohibited. (Examples: subversive, bingo, raffles, gambling); Breakage or damage to building or contents due to carelessness or wilfulness will be charged to the renter; Permission to use the Community Center shall be granted to responsible individuals and organizations only.

$200,000 School Bond Issue In Novi Is Approved

Novi voters in School Dist. No. 8 overwhelmingly approved a $200,000 bond issue for the construction of ten new school class rooms at the special election held Monday.

Although the turnout was small, with only 174 property owners going to the polls, only 27 voted against the proposal, while 147 were in favor of it.

The same number favored increasing the tax limitation eight tenths of one per cent for a period of 20 years starting in 1955. Twenty votes were cast in opposition.

Tizzard Death Is Officially Suicide

The recent death of James A. Tizzard, 70, of 580 Plymouth Ave. has been officially pronounced a suicide, Chief of Police Joseph E. Denton said Tuesday.

Notice of the findings of an autopsy and the resultant investigation was received here from Wayne County Coroner Edmund Knobloch of Detroit. Asphyxiation by carbon monoxide gas was given as the cause of death.

Chief Denton said the autopsy showed .15 percent of alcohol in the brain blood, and 80 percent alcohol in the body blood stream.

While there were certain puzzling aspects about the case, Chief Denton said a conference of physicians and Village and county officials decided "that lacking proof to the contrary, a verdict of suicide was the only one applicable."

The case, therefore, has been officially closed, Denton said.

Rotary Auction Begins Friday

A two day auction and rummage sale, sponsored by the Northville Rotary club, will be held Friday and Saturday at Northville Downs.

The auction will begin at 9 a.m., and will continue until 9 p.m. each day, according to the committee in charge. The event will take place in the grandstand, rain or shine.

All sorts of items will be included—furniture, clothing, appliances, supplies of all kinds, including fruits and vegetables—which have been donated by Northville residents. Others desiring to donate are asked to call 1405-J2.

Northville Soldier Leaves For Hawaii

KOREA—Army PFC Jack L. Mayo, 23, son of Mrs. Cora Belle Redwine, 633 Randolph St., Northville, Mich., has been transferred from the 5th Regimental Combat Team to the 25th Infantry Division, which is now in the process of leaving Korea for Schofield Barracks, Hawaii.

The 25th Tropic Lightning Division, which has seen more combat in Korea than any other American unit, arrived on the peninsula in July 1950, shortly after the Communist invasion.

Mayo, a radio operator, entered the Army in March, 1953, and has been in Korea since last January.

Newcomers in Northville are Richard Murray and his bride Patricia Urmel from Zion, Illinois. Richard was formerly a resident of Wadsworth, Ill. The young couple are living at 395 North Rogers.

School Study Group to Make First Report on Northville-Novu Needs

A 45-page report covering the first phase of the Northville-Novu School Study group's activities will be made public at a meeting to be held at the Community Center Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, according to Mrs. Martha Milne, publicity chairman.

The report now is being prepared in the office of county schools in Pontiac, and should be ready in time for the meeting, Mrs. Milne said.

The study committee, composed of 36 residents of the Northville and Novi school districts, will meet in session at 7:30, to discuss various aspects of the report, and then will meet with members of various school boards in the interested districts at 9 p.m.

Statistics Collected Only the first phase of the study will be made public at this time, Mrs. Milne said. The population and finance sections of the full committee have been meeting at various times throughout the summer since the study was initiated last spring. Both have a "mass of statistics" to incorporate in the report.

These statistics provide for a projection of population and financial figures well into the future, in an effort to anticipate the needs of the area for some years to come.

Complete Record The buildings committee has compiled a complete record of all school buildings in the areas under consideration, and the program section had a record of all the educational programs of the various schools involved.

While no conclusions or recommendations are to be offered at this stage of the study, Mrs. Milne emphasized, the figures presented should be a valuable guide to future work by the group.

Northville Supt. Russell H. Amerman is assisting Elmore in the preparation of the report.

Walled Lake Man Now In 25th Div.

25th Div., Korea—Army Cpl. Charles E. Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Marshall, 8887 Edgewood Dr., Walled Lake, was recently transferred from the 24th Division to the 25th Infantry Div. which is now in the process of leaving Korea for Schofield Barracks, Hawaii.

The 25th "Tropic Lightning" Division, which has seen more combat in Korea than any other American unit, arrived on the peninsula in July 1950, shortly after the Communist invasion.

Cpl. Marshall, a clerk-typist, entered the Army in March 1953 and arrived in Korea the following September.

Put Down That Brick!

A Northville reader writes thusly anent our dissertation on legal license:

"To obtain a flying license, etc., the applicant must first pass a mental test to prove he is not ignorant of laws made for the protection of the populace. He must pass a physical in so far as proving he can see well, is not color blind and can hear. Licenses are printed on paper, paper costs money, printers need salaries—these are only two of a long list of expenses required to produce a license. Therefore it is logical they can not be issued free of charge.

"I hope the law will protect me from a color blind person who zooms through a red light when I am driving through on green, especially if this person is also deaf and cannot hear me honk my horn.

"Another wish of mine is to be protected from aviators in planes in bosun's chairs or in wax covered feather wings who are not aware of restrictions placed on fliers for the protection of the people as a whole. These laws are as much for the man who lands his craft and then walks uptown for lunch as for the man who travels via the Northville Coach Line.

"What price adventure? You might go so far as to ask a thrill killer—if you want to.—Carrel Gilmore."

Where's your License?

You can put down that brickbat, lady. We'll apologise!

But we think you missed the point.

We were simply bemoaning the fact that the spirit of adventure—which led the inventive young man we wrote about to manufacture a flying machine out of weather balloons and a bosun's chair and go sailing above the Hudson—is being shackled and strangled by legal regulations.

No longer, said we, can a man adventure into science, business or the professions without paying a fee. That strikes us as lamentable.

Where would the world be today had some minion of the law stepped up to Columbus, or Orville Wright, or Alexander Graham Bell and demanded: "Where's your license, bub?"

We're as much a stickler for law and order as the next man. Still, we cannot help decrying a system which makes it mandatory to have a license for everything you do. Only the naive would believe that all licenses are good—too many are merely for the purpose of raising funds.

Some communities license children's bicycles, but no one ever comes around to see if the child can ride. Merchants pay license fees to operate their stores—purely money raising. Doctors must pay to practice medicine, dentists to drill molars, barbers to cut hair—yet all are graduates of accredited schools which certify their ability. Does lack of a license prevent quacks from operating, or the possession of one guarantee a cure?

Licenses which are definitely for the public good we approve; those designed to extract tribute we abhor. We think the young man with the balloons should have been feted and applauded, instead of being thrown in jail. That's what our pioneer forefathers would have done.

With the spirit of adventure still in our heart, we've been secretly helping our 12-year-old son build a space ship in our back yard. Almost ready for a trip to the moon.

We've had to abandon the project, though.

No license.

Northville State Hospital Seeks Gray Lady Service Volunteers

Representatives of the American Red Cross Gray Lady Service will be at the Northville State Hospital, 41001 Seven Mile Road, for three days; Tuesday, October 5, Thursday, Oct. 12, between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m., to interview women who would like to serve as Gray Ladies at the hospital. Anyone between the ages of 25 and 55, with a high school education or its equivalent and who can volunteer 150 hours a year is eligible to serve as a Gray Lady.

Following the recruitment drive there will be a three day training course for those applicants who have enlisted. The training course will be given on Oct. 22, Oct. 26 and Oct. 28.

The Gray Lady service is an important part of the hospital's program of patient care and treatment. The Gray Ladies work directly with patients assisting staff personnel with recreational activities and other types of projects. These would include such activities as dances, bingo, card games, and ward parties. Many of these patient activities would not be possible without the 22 Gray Ladies who are now serving the hospital. More volunteers are needed now because the patient population is increasing rapidly.

For prospective volunteers whose schedules do not permit joining the Gray Lady service, the hospital is also seeking volunteers who can assist on weekends in recreational activities. Both men and women who could spend 2 to 4 hours on Saturday or Sunday are urgently requested to contact Mrs. Carolyn Seefeldt, director of social service, either by coming to the hospital or phoning Northville 1290 the week of Oct. 4 between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Monday, Oct. 4 has been designated as volunteer day at the hospital. All of the individuals and groups who have volunteered during the past year will be honored.

The program will begin with an invitational noon luncheon at the hospital at which time Mrs. G. Mennen Williams will be guest of honor.

Beginning at 1:30 p.m. in the hospital's auditorium, there will be a program for all the members of local organizations as well as others participating in the volunteer program. Miss G. Evangeline Scheibley, Wayne university school of Social Work, will speak. There will be certificate of merit awards given for volunteers. After the award ceremony a tea will be held at 3 p.m.

One of the groups being honored is the American Red Cross Gray Lady service of which, Mrs. Marvin Patridge of Eight Mile road has been a member since the group was started in September, 1952. Other individual volunteers who have been invited are: Mrs. Ruth D. Starkweather, 48265 W. Seven Mile road, Mrs. Alfred Millington, 46870 W. Seven Mile, Mrs. L. D. Rambeau, 40100 Eight Mile, Mrs. S. H. Robinson, 895 Grace, Mrs. Arthur Verschaeve, 19759 Clement, Miss Margaret De Kett, 118 Linden and Mrs. Robert G. Yerkes, 20178 Haggerty Highway.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Christian Science Churches . . . The infinite allness of God, good, and the consequent un-reality of sickness and discord will be stressed at Christian Science services Sunday.

Readings from the King James Version of the Bible and correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy comprise the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Unreality."

That real dominion and power are derived from God is brought out in the Scriptural passages to be read, including the following statement by Paul (II Timothy 1:7): "For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and love, and of a sound mind."

From Science and Health the following selections will be among those read (414:21-23): "The Scripture declares, 'The Lord He is God (good); there is none else beside Him.' Even so, harmony is universal, and discord is unreal."

The Golden Text is from Matthew (7:18,19): "A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into fire."

Presbyterian News

To open the observation of Christian Education Week as proclaimed by the National Council of Churches of Christ, the Church school of the First Presbyterian church will hold an "Open House" during the Church school hour this Sunday. Letters of invitation have been sent to all Church school parents and friends.

A special dedication service during the morning worship service at 11 a.m. will honor the church school teachers, officers, and superintendents. Philip A. Fisher is Church school superintendent this year. Assisting him are: Mr. Ronald Schipper, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Philip Chase, secretary; Mrs. Joseph A. Petrock and Mrs. Frank Defina, nursery department; Mrs. Philip A. Fisher and Mrs. Robert L. Hart, kindergarten; Mrs. Edwin Langtry, superintendent; Mrs. William G. Williams, Mrs. James Cowie, Mrs. Ronald Anderson, Miss Roberta Mallot, William E. Davis, Tom Curl, and Crispin M. Hammond, primary department; Mrs. Joseph R. Plunkett, superintendent; Mrs. Rolf Batzer, Mrs. Hurd Sutherland, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Charles Bahnmiller, Charles Carrington, junior department; Mrs. George Weiss and Philip Ogilvie, junior high department; Mrs. V. G. George Chabut, senior high department; and Mrs. C. M. Chase, and Robert L. Hart, adults.

The Senior High Westminster Fellowship of the First Presbyterian Church met last Sunday evening in the church social rooms to elect officers for this coming year. Thirty senior high boys and girls elected Peggy Hammond to lead them as Moderator, Friscilla Blackburn as Vice Moderator, Mary Hill as Stated Clerk, and Dorothy Welch as Treasurer. These officers will be installed at a special installation and dedication service on Oct. 4.

Lamar Nalley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oren Nalley of Orchard Dr. and Doug Bennett of Randolph St. have been their 13 day leave in Northville with their parents. Both boys are at Camp Gordon.

Woman's Club Meet

In Ann Arbor Friday

Members of the Northville Woman's Club open their fall season tomorrow (Friday) with a 12:30 luncheon in the U of M Union ballroom. Dr. Marian Magoon of Michigan State Normal College will be the guest speaker at the luncheon meeting which honors past presidents and life members. The Union building is on State St. across Angell Hall and clubmembers are requested to use the side entrance because the front door is for men only. Parking space in front of the Union will be very limited, so club president Ruth Mary Atchison suggests that members park in the city lot on Maynard St. next to the East India Shop.

Women's Club treasurer Mrs. Emmetta Worth will be at the Union to accept dues and distribute year books before the meeting. Anyone needing transportation to Ann Arbor may call Mrs. Douglas Bathey, chairman of that committee at 348.

TEST YOURSELF

Many magazines and papers have tests in them so one can see where he stands on certain issues. Today e would like to have you test yourself to see whether you are a "believer" according to the standard of the New Testament. The first question is—"Have you received the Lord Jesus Christ as your Redeemer and Substitute? Are you fully trusting in which "He" has done for you and not on what you have done or are doing? Is Christ as your Saviour the only hope of eternal life? Do you realize that your best efforts fall far short of pleasing God and by no means could merit you eternal life? Are you in agreement with God's Word that says that you are saved by faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and by Him alone? (Eph 2:8-9 Rom. 11:6, Titus 3:5) Do you understand that Church membership, Baptism, the Partaking of the Lord's Supper are for people who are already saved and not a means of salvation? If you can say "Amen" to all these questions then you are a "Believer" according to the Bible. Roms. 3:30 says "Seeing it is one God which shall justify (Forgiveness of sins and make us righteous) the circumcision (Jews) by FAITH, and the uncircumcision (Gentiles) through Faith.

Northville Girl Studying In Paris Writes Of Vivid Impressions Of France

What are the impressions of a young American girl in Paris?

Miss Gay Duerson, 20-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Duerson of Northville, is in Paris with two other American girls for a year's study at the Sorbonne.

The following letter to her parents graphically pictures her emotions and impressions.

I can't believe I'm in Paris. It is simply magnificent—every bit of it. What a wonderful time we shall have!

The day we landed at Le Havre we had to get up at 5 o'clock, eat breakfast at 5:30 and be off the ship by 6. As it was early, we had no band to play "Auf Wiedersehen" but we had our dearest friends wave. We all felt much emotion when leaving the ship. We watched the Italia leave Le Havre and the three of us stood on the pier with all the Frenchmen and cried and cried. I've never felt so empty. Only 49 passengers debarked at La Havre. We went through customs and did not have to open a suitcase—others did—but I guess we looked young and innocent and the customs man trusted us.

With only two hours of sleep and many happy memories behind us, we boarded the train for Paris an hour later. Mr. Georgeovitch, part owner of the Home Line, and simply a riotous man, his wife, Dick Grande and a Mr. Claus boarded the train too. There were nine people in our compartment including two children. Such turmoil! Besides everyone being dead tired.

I could write so much just about my first impressions of the trip itself, but that takes too much stationary and too much money. The first letter I mailed home cost 60c. I'll never use heavy paper again!

The town of Le Havre was my first acquaintance with France. The buildings are all narrow and reasonably high. There are many vivid colors—greens, yellows, red and blues trimming the houses and every bit of the ground has some use—mostly for vegetable gardens. It is hard to understand why there should be tiny, irregular shaped plots, but when you think how many people live in such a crowded area, you begin to understand. While waiting at the station we saw many women washing the sides of the trains. An amazing thing to see which was very depressing. We had our first cup of "cafe" there which nearly knocked us off our feet.

The next town was Rouen—a very large place built up in a valley surrounded by mountains. The whole side of a large hill or foothill was plotted for growing things and there was a river running through it. From what I could see, there was much industry there. That is the town in which Jeanne d'Arc was burned—also there are many beautiful cathedrals there.

After that we hit Paris and received somewhat after seeing the Eiffel Tower in the distance. Paris is simply huge—I've never seen so many buildings. Every street is filled with stores and more stores. One thing that interested me, the outside of the inside—or back of the stores—are homes with little patios or courts. There is no separate business or residential district in the town itself. Very nice residential areas may be in back of some restaurants. It was gloomy out. The first cloudy day we had since leaving New York.

Believe me, at 12 o'clock, with only a little breakfast at 5:30 and two hours sleep we were exhausted. But you would be so proud of us all. No mishaps, or bribes, or chisling. We carried on just beautifully. After our luggage was taken care of, we hunted for a taxi and drove to our hotel. On the way I caught a glimpse of the Arc De Triumphant—the Louvre and Notre Dame and many other places.

Our hotel was simply out of this world. Of course it was old but really beautiful. The lobby was all marble with oriental rugs and our room was wonderful—on the first floor. It was quite large with a marble fireplace and huge mirror framed in beautiful carved wood. Our closet was a huge piece of furniture—I don't know what you call them. They almost reach the ceiling. The bathroom was as long as the room, with an enormous bathtub. I could almost swim in it. The beds were comfortable and we had a marvelous view overlooking a Parisienne street. I love it so much. The atmosphere seeps in more and more. From the moment we left

A Magnifying Mirror Is a Real Beauty Aid for You

As final check on the smoothness of her make-up, actress Virginia Mayo makes use of a magnifying mirror. It's also a reliable measure of her skin care.

BY EDNA MILES

THE advantages of a magnifying mirror as a beauty aid are many. Though first glance into one is always somewhat upsetting, a second glance can be both educational and rewarding, beauty-wise.

This second glance may reveal to you flaws you didn't know you had, but flaws that others have noticed. Many women fall into the poor beauty habit of taking themselves and the way they look for granted. But that's not the way observers see you; the flaws are clearly visible to them.

A magnifying mirror is, therefore, of first importance to you in learning the truth about your skin. If there are tiny blackheads, imperfections or blemishes that you thought were well concealed by make-up, the mirror will show them to you. And to good purpose. Once you're aware of them, you can correct them.

It will also provide an indisputable check on your browline, revealing to you stragglers you'd not noticed. It will tell you a complete story about the dry and oily areas of your skin, giving you a chance to treat each separately.

And finally, it's the last word on the smoothness of your make-up, telling you if you've worked well and with an expert hand.

the boat we started speaking French—asking for various things. We finally set out for Madame Da Rosa's where we are to live. We just love the place. She is simply marvelous but speaks very little English, consequently Lisa and I speak French the whole time. Ann is learning rapidly too.

Our home is strictly a French home and we adore it. Madame Da Rosa is a widow but has a daughter living in Cairo, Egypt. She has traveled all over Europe as a concert singer but stopped when the war broke out and never sings any more. There is so much I want to say but I cannot write fast enough.

We returned to the hotel, fell into bed and slept 14 hours. We just felt drained. Today we moved out of the hotel and with ten pieces of luggage, came here where we shall live. Tomorrow we have to get our trunks. I do not know where on earth we will put them. But more about our new home. Madame is a wonderful cook and she serves three meals a day and very nourishing, typical French meals. We have butter only for breakfast. The bathtub is a riot. It is very tiny and deep. You sit in it and put something which looks like a spray around your neck and take a shower. The water can be heated when we want it by lighting something and it becomes hot immediately. Quite a gadget.

Madame calls us her "trois cheries". She thinks we will all be able to speak French quite well in three months.

Our room is adorable. Every piece of furniture is an antique and I do mean old. You would love it. There is a marble fireplace, darling desk, table in front of a window, two beds, one single and one double which can be used as sofas, another table by the fireplace and four comfortable chairs. We have another room where we can study.

It is quite something to be in a foreign country and now I know what people coming to our country must feel. It is almost terrifying to be so lonely, yet so exciting because it is lonely. Very hard to describe. As soon as we found Madame Da Rosa we felt very secure and wanted. Every French person we have spoken to has been wonderful to us and I think it is because we have spoken French and have been polite and eager.

Tomorrow we have to go to the Embassy and American Express and register. More later. I am still rocking from the boat.

JV's Win One; Lose To Keego

Playing heads-up football on defense, the Northville High school reserves beat the Plymouth reserves last week 13 to 0.

Taking advantage of a bad pass from center by their opponents in the third quarter the Colts picked up six points on a quarterback sneak by Ben Mosher. Later, in the fourth quarter, Earl White scampered 60 yards when he intercepted a Plymouth pass.

The boys played good ball for their first game and improvement will come with each contest. Keith Steinhilbe, Dick Buckley, Bill Yahne, Earl White, Ben Mosher, Bill Slentz, Harold Moore, Joe Hays, and David O'Neil were standouts on defense.

Last Tuesday night, the Colts almost had victory in their grasp with 4 minutes to go in the last quarter. Down on the Keego Harbor 9 yard line, the Colts appeared about to score. Then a Keego back intercepted a pass and ran 95 yards to beat the Colts, 7 to 0.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Hair Conditioner
Will Bring Life
To Drab, Dull Hair

ONE of the items on every woman's list of things to do currently is "something for the hair." The season is a new one and calls for something special in the way of a hairdress. Perhaps it should be shortened, perhaps just shaped. A new permanent? Perhaps.

At any rate, hair during the Fall and Winter is not just one of those things you let fly around aimlessly. There are holidays and festi-

Your hair can be shimmering, soft and lovely in just a few minutes thanks to a lanolin discovery which conditions and beautifies at the same time. To use it, you simply spray it on and brush.

Activities which have no place in them for hair that looks as though it just came out of a clothes dryer.

Abrosier Lanolin

Hair may have become dry from being out in the sun or because of harsh treatment, wind, rain, bleaches or just simply not proper care. When such things happened formerly, it usually took months for the hair to return to its natural sheen and manageability.

Now you can spray on a hair conditioner after shampoos and when you groom the hair daily to turn it truly into your crowning glory. The ingredient that makes this preparation so good for the hair is lanolin, and lanolin in a form that can be absorbed by the skin so it does the most good. There is no greasy residue left on the hair.

This preparation is not a dye but it will intensify and heighten the natural color of the hair. You can carry the container in your hand bag as well as keeping it on the dressing table because it's applied inconspicuously, just by spraying from a pressure container and quickly brushing through the hair.

Groomed Look Important

Though prevailing styles have the hair fairly short and casual, good-looking heads look well groomed. Some of the styles bear some resemblance to the Italian cut, but they're modified and no longer look messy or helter-skelter.

Keep Cookie Jar
Full of Surprises

Cookie jars as well as lunch boxes packed with cookies should occasionally be completely new and surprising. Cookies are delightful tidbits and give enchantment to many an otherwise dull day. Why not try something new?

SPICY PRUNE COCONUT SQUARES

(Makes about 16 squares)
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup brown sugar, packed
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup chopped, cooked prunes
1/2 cup shredded coconut
Melt shortening, stir in sugar, add beaten egg and vanilla and beat until well blended. Sift flour with baking powder, salt and cinnamon. Blend into first mixture. Turn into greased 9-inch square pan and sprinkle with coconut. Bake in a moderately hot (375°F.) oven about 25 minutes. Cool in pan then cut in squares.

PRALINE COOKIES

1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk
1/2 cup brown sugar
2 tablespoons butter
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup flour
1 cup chopped nut meats
1/2 teaspoon maple flavoring
Place sweetened condensed milk in top of double boiler. Cook over rapidly boiling water until thick, from 4 to 8 minutes. Remove from heat. Stir in butter, blending well. Cool slightly then gradually stir in beaten egg, flour, nutmeats and flavoring, mixing well. Drop by spoonfuls on a greased cookie sheet, about 2 inches apart, and spread into 2-inch circles. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven until edges are a golden brown, about 15 minutes. Remove quickly from baking sheet.

Barbara Fair - William Kleaserner
Wed in Milford September 4

Candlelight, and white gladioli made an impressive setting for the wedding of Barbara Fair and William Kleaserner in the Milford Presbyterian church at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 4. The Rev. Chas. Richey officiated.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fair of Wixom and William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Kleaserner of Novi Rd., Novi.

The bride wore a white lace and nylon tulle and satin ballerina length gown. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet lace cap which was trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a white satin Bible and corsage of white tea roses and carnations. Lois Erickson of Wixom, her maid of honor, wore shrimp colored lace over satin and carried white and yellow Spider Mums. Her sister Carolyn and cousin Patricia Lewan wore identical gowns. Carolyn's was French blue lace over satin and her flowers pink Spider Mums. Patricia wore fall green lace over satin and carried yellow Spider Mums. A niece of the bride, Linda Madison was flower girl and wore a frock of yellow organdy and carried an old fashioned nosegay.

John Kleaserner Jr., brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Ushers were Harold Tuck of Novi and Walter Madison of Milford.

Mrs. Fair chose fall blue silk taffeta trimmed with rhinestones for her daughter's wedding. She wore a corsage of flaming pink Spider Mums. Mrs. Kleaserner was gown in slate blue crepe trimmed in taffeta with pink accessories and her corsage was pink Spider Mums.

Following a reception for 200 guests at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. Madison of Milford, the young couple drove to northern Michigan for a two weeks honeymoon. They are at home now at 26445 Novi Rd.

A Hole In Our Head?

We've got a hole in our head. Some people may have suspected it, and some have been unkind enough to remark about it.

Naturally, we mean the hole in our masthead, up there in the left hand corner where you see that little four-line ditty.

Budding Northville poets who can throw together a clever sonnet or couple a couple of couplets are invited to help fill the void.

Frankly, we swiped the idea from The Arizona Sun, which had a similar problem, but we'll stand for no further plagiarism. Contributions must be original—none of that old "Mary had a little lamb" stuff.

It's just a small hole, so make your verse exactly four lines—no more, no less.

Address them to "Hole In The Head" Editor, The Record.

Mrs. Floyd Kupsky, who is a member of the Windy City Post Card collectors club in Chicago, has the entries in their coming exhibit Oct. 2 and 3 in Chicago. A similar club is being organized in Detroit and persons interested may contact Mrs. Kupsky at 318 Yerkes Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Blake returned this week from a two weeks vacation trip in northern Michigan. They visited Mackinaw City, Charlevoix, Petoskey and Boyne City and catloped on relatives and friends en route.

THUMB

Don't Burn Your Leaves!!!

The smell of burning leaves is as much a part of fall as the shocks of corn and the yellow pumpkins in the fields. To gardeners, however, the burning of leaves is just so much fertilizer going up in smoke. Leaves make the best compost and are "for free". The rich black leaf mold which comes from the compost heap is far superior to peat moss and buckwheat hulls purchased for $4.00 and $5.00 per bale. An inclosure of chicken wire can be filled with alternate layers of leaves, active, and soil. The center should be left in form of a hollow where the moisture can be retained. In the spring this decomposed leaf mold can be worked into the flower beds as a soil conditioner of the finest grade.

With the new attachments for rotary mowers, the leaves can be pulverized and left on the lawn as a mulching material. Eventually they break down and add organic value to the lawn.

There are lawn sweepers, rotary mulchers, and folding wire baskets which can be attached to metal wheelbarrows. These wire baskets will enable an ordinary wheelbarrow to carry 17 1/2 bushels of leaves.

Oak leaves are the best for use as a winter mulch in the flower border. Maple leaves are not good, because they pack and are apt to smother the plants. A winter mulch should never be applied until the ground is frozen. The purpose of a winter mulch is to keep the alternate thawing and freezing which causes the ground to crack and heave around the roots of the perennials and shrubs. These leaves can then be worked into the soil in spring.

First Grade Wins
Attendance Award

Mrs. Carter's first grade room won the $2.00 award for having the most parents in attendance at the PTA meeting September 23.

All parents are urged to attend and invite boys who intend to be clubs.

Brownie Scout News

Brownie and Girl Scout leaders are needed in Northville. Any woman who feels that she would like to devote a small amount of time each week to caring for a troop, please contact Mrs. Helen McCarthy, phone 849-J. Only by being part of a troop, can you experience that wonderful feeling that comes from devoting time to scouting.

Gub Scouting - Parents Rally. Den Mothers and the executive committee invite parents and cubs to come to the first pack meeting of the year to be held at the VFW hall, Wednesday evening Oct. 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Rana Papini states that this get-together will acquaint parents with their son's weekly activities in the den meetings and also explain the reasons for the monthly pack meeting.

Fingerprints Are No Problem

For this smiling mother, Junior's dirty finger marks no longer add many minutes of scrubbing to her already busy day, for she's discovered the secret of latex paints.

Only a few years ago, handwriting on the wall left by crayons in tiny hands, spots of grease in the kitchen, fingerprints on walls and woodwork made short work of Mother's nerves, more work for her hands. Today mothers are finding that problems like these can be "hassened" when walls and woodwork are painted with the new quick-drying, interior paints based on synthetic latex, developed through cooperation of the chemical industry and the paint manufacturers.

Why? Because as this paint dries, it forms a tough film on the wall which binds the color in, seals stains out. Color can't be scrubbed off as with old-fashioned paints; neither are stains absorbed. Only a light wiping with soap and water is necessary to restore that clean, freshly painted look.

Budget-conscious homemakers daily are taking paint brush in hand to give their homes these easy-to-clean walls. Latex paints, available in a wide range of colors in flat, gloss and many specialty finishes, are so easy to apply even an amateur can do an expert job. Paint goes on evenly; brush or lap marks do not show. Brushes or rollers wash clean quickly in ordinary tap water—no smelly brush cleaners.

These paints dry to the touch within an hour; furnishings can be back in place almost immediately. Whether family project or professional job, it doesn't take a major disruption of the household for Mother to enjoy the ease of cleaning that comes with latex-painted walls.

"GROWING OLD IS A PRIVILEGE DENIED TO MANY"

The guns of the Civil War had just ceased firing in 1865 when Mrs. Elizabeth Thayer, one of this area's best known residents, was born.

Mrs. Thayer remembers when her father shipped apples to Chicago and down the Mississippi river to New Orleans. She was just a small child then for that was back in 1878. Her father, Sylvester Sober, was a prosperous farmer in Washtenaw county and farmed on a large scale and was considered extremely modern in his methods in those days.

The farm was an original land grant from the U. S. Government and was established by her grandfather who came here from New York state in 1826.

When her grandfather settled in Washtenaw county, there were few farmers in that area for it was marshy, wet and unhealthy. Malaria was prevalent. It remained that way for many years until tiling and drainage made the land tillable and the region more healthful. Mrs. Thayer spoke of her great-great-grandfather, James Sober, who carried on a coastal shipping trade on the Atlantic coast.

Mrs. Thayer was born on her father's farm on Nov. 28, 1865, and has always lived in or near Northville. On December 23, 1890, she married William Thayer. They lived in Detroit for a time and then in 1911 moved to Northville where Thayer was superintendent of the Fish Hatchery here.

They lived in the Hatchery house for 19 years, until 1930. Thayer was also superintendent of Fisheries in Caro, in government work in Detroit and in charge of Federal hatcheries in Michigan.

While her husband was living, the Thayers traveled considerably and she said two of the most interesting and memorable trips were to Panama and Cuba. Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Thayer has spent several winters in St. Petersburg and Lakeland, Florida.

She resides with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bryan of 726 Main St.

September 14 to the Robert Flacks, 16825 Haggerty, Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers of Northville are the parents of a baby girl born September 16. The baby was named Jackie Lee and weighed eight pounds and two ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Ireland of Plymouth announce the birth of a son, Bruce Allen. He was born September 19 and weighed six pounds and seven ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wendell of Northville are the parents of an eight pound and three ounce son. The baby was named Richard Martin and was born September 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Iler Deen of Plymouth are the parents of a seven pound 15 ounce baby boy born September 20. The baby has been named Randall B.

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. —(Psalm 46:1.)

There are times when even the most aggressive, forceful, self-assured among us must know, in their secret hearts, that their human strength is not enough—that God alone can help them in their trouble. Those who humbly, truly, live within Him "will not fear, though the earth be removed."

Bible Comment:

Paul Forged Spiritual Armor For Christians

THE Apostle Paul, who was a Christian in a Roman pagan world dominated by power and Roman conquering armies, did not hesitate to draw effective illustrations for Christian life and conduct from the details of happenings in that Roman world.

He compared the Christian life to a race, and he laid great stress upon running to win.

In imperial Rome, with its dominance of the world, he saw the material realization of a similar dream of imperialism, but his dream was of a spiritual imperialism of a world completely conquered by Christ and His gospel.

In that sense Paul was an imperialist, and the dream enshrined in the Lord's Prayer, "Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven," is still the prayer of Christians, though it is still far from fulfillment.

That Roman world was one of action, war, and conquest; and in his spiritual world Paul saw the Christian life and Christian duty, individual and collective, as demanding action, war, and conquest.

The Christian's warfare was against inward evils, temptations and weaknesses from which Paul, himself, was not immune.

But the foes of the Christian were not all inward.

Against the forces of evil, within and without, Paul called for Christians, strong and well-prepared.

What the Christian world of today lacks is the Pauline sense of the Christian warfare. We tend to think of Christianity too exclusively in terms of personal character and conduct. What we need is aroused and awakened Christians, following a Son of God, Who goes forth to war, and fully equipped with all the available spiritual weapons for offense and defense.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

TOO MUCH MONEY in government can be quite a bother.

Among administrators to appreciate this fact was former Gov. Harry F. Kelly. His point was that the instant a state treasury shows a surplus, everyone starts devising ways to spend the unappropriated money. So long as there is a deficit, officials have a sound argument to use when approached by people with ideas that cost money.

THE surplus proved a pitfall for Gov. G. Mennen Williams in an entirely different way. And he is still digging his way out of the rubble.

In a recent press release the governor said something to the effect that: "We have now eliminated the deficit and will have a surplus."

The statement made a wonderful target for his opponents. Several newspapers as well, were quick to inquire about the "we". Columnists and editorials pointed out that the governor should be careful about claiming credit for surplus. Republicans stated that the surplus resulted "not because of Soapy, but in spite of him."

FACTS were on their side. Two major accomplishments are considered responsible for the fact that Michigan finally beat its financial problem.

One is the Business Receipts tax. This law is responsible for an increase of some $30 million per year. When it passed through the legislature in the final hectic days of the 1953 session and with the masterful, if high pressure, maneuvering of Sen. George Higgins, the governor refused to sign it!

Williams wanted a plain corporations profits tax and would settle for nothing less. But he couldn't veto the proposed tax without forcing a special session of the legislature which might override him anyway. So he made sure people knew he didn't like it; permitted it to become law without his name.

Second reason the budget balances is that appropriations were greatly reduced from what the governor requested in his message.

NOW that the surplus exists, Republicans, who passed the tax and reduced his recommendations, ask, "How come Soapy is claiming credit for this?"

IN an effort to calm the storm, the governor was quick to explain that his reference to "we" was meant in the sense "we" the people of Michigan, not "we" the Democratic party. He was ready and willing, he said "to give credit to administration heads who effected economies in state operation and to legislators who worked out the program."

But the governor said that he felt that he too had played an integral part in the activity and is responsible for some of the credit for the accomplishment.

A KNOTTY Problem for the Highway Department is developing as a by product of the Strait's Bridge. It's the matter of a four lane north-south highway to enable people to drive to Mackinac with less difficulty.

Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler has little quarrel with the idea if someone could figure out a way to finance it without disrupting long range plans his department has painstakingly worked out.

Root of the trouble lies in the fact that alert communities see the super highway as a future project that will come sooner or later. They are anxious to have it come sooner—and in their own vicinity.

PROPOSED routes receiving support at present are US 131, running through Grand Rapids, Cadillac and Kalkaska; US 27 from Coldwater through Marshall, Charlotte, Lansing, St. Johns and straight north; one running north from Battle Creek to M66; one from Detroit, along much of US 23 through Dearborn, Pontiac, Flint and Saginaw.

AT present there are no plans in the Highway Department for a four lane highway along any of these routes all the way to the Straits. Indications are that Commissioner Ziegler will continue his previous policy of spreading uniformly highway improvements with an eye to emergent needs caused by congested traffic conditions.

The problem of how to spend the money is not an easy one. Ziegler considers that it is better to attempt to improve roads in the many areas that supply the financing than it is to build enormous, highways at great expenses that will benefit a limited number of drivers.

DESPITE the dramatic appeal of the north-south highway, routine car counts show that there are many places in the state that are in much more serious need of attention. These include areas in central and southern Michigan.

Zeigler says he is aware of the traffic projections of experts. If estimates prove to be correct, he will adjust his plans accordingly. But before his department spends millions of dollars on a four lane highway, he wants to be sure the road is built where actual experience proves it will do the most good.

COST of county government has increased $2 per person in the state. John E. Martin Jr., auditor general, said that it costs the "average" individual $28.78 for county services in 1953 compared with $24.97 in 1952.

Martin said there is a wide range of costs when counties are considered separately. It costs $19.91 to service a resident of Bay County, compared to $90.01 in Keweenaw. If costs of operating parks were deducted from the total, the cost there would be only $68.96 per person.

ADMINISTRATIVE expense for county court houses also vary according to Martin's report. It runs as low as $3.04 per day in Delta to $10.28 in Keweenaw.

Lowest per capita costs for medical assistance, health and wealth was found to be Ionia County with $3.52; highest was $16.55 in Keweenaw.

Northville Tackles Milford After Beating South Lyon, 25 to 13

Mustangs Come From Behind To Win Game, 25-13

Northville High school's grid-iron followers will be pointing toward Milford Friday night as the Mustangs seek to notch their second victory of the 1954 season.

Following Milford's trouncing of Clarenceville last Friday, however, Coach Dick Kay got out the crying towel again and wept copiously over his "poor Mustangs" chances of defeating this week's opponent on Milford's home grounds.

"They're loaded this year," he wailed, tears as big as horse chestnuts rolling down his cheeks. "They'd like nothing better than to dine on horse meat—Mustangs meat."

A look at the record doesn't exactly substantiate the coach's apprehension.

Records Identical

Milford lost to Oxford, 12 to 0, in the season's opener while Plymouth was taking the measure of Northville, 19 to 6.

Last Friday, Milford mopped up on Clarenceville, 25 to 7, and Northville took South Lyon into camp, 25 to 13.

Thus, on the record, there is little to choose between the two squads, but Coach Kay fears the worst.

South Lyon gave the Mustangs quite a scare before they settled down in the second quarter and began to play football. Somewhat anxious to get revenge for last year's 33 to 7 licking, the visitors took command in the first quarter as though they had little respect for Northville.

A 40 yard run by Fullback Bill McKiley put the ball on Northville's 30 following a 14 yard pass. Van Born, at right half, got five on an end run, but Quarterback Jim Hock was swarmed under for a ten yard loss on the next play.

McCrory Scores

Bob McCrory then took a hand-off, squirmed through right tackle, and went all the way to put South Lyon ahead. Hock's kick was made, and the visitors led, 6 to 0.

Unnerved by the touchdown, Northville was unable to collect itself in spite of a 12 yard dash by Fullback Bud Lovett. Following an exchange of punts in the second quarter, Co-Capt. Joe Girardin took charge, and with the aid of some good blocking reeled off 36 yards before he was wrestled to the ground by pursuing tacklers.

Lovett got 13 at right end, and Houtz added one on an off tackle slant. With the ball on the nine yard line, Girardin swung around left end and went over standing up.

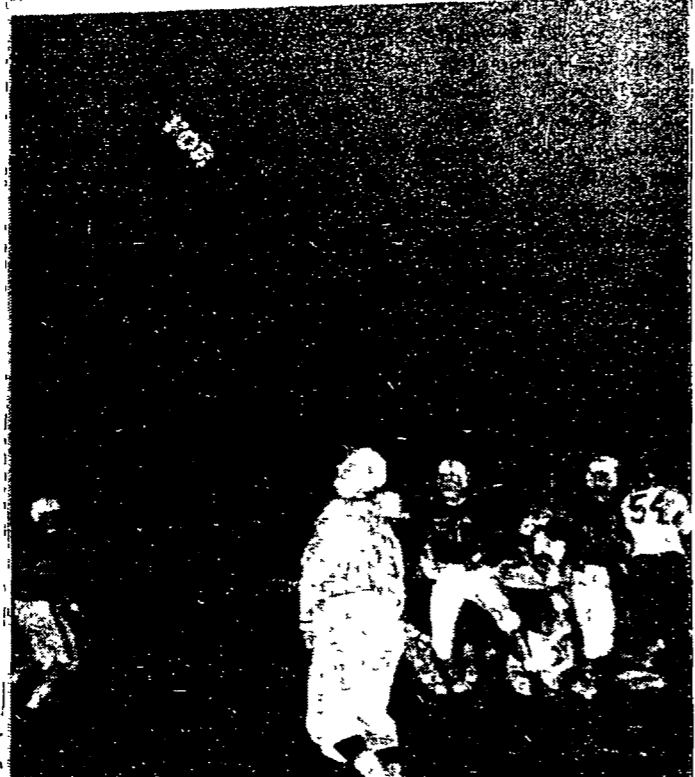

Kick Is Good

Co-Capt. Paul Hamlin's kick for the extra point was just inside the uprights, and Northville led at the half, 7 to 6.

In the third quarter, Girardin reeled off two sparkling 26 yard runs, and some shorter ones by PRECEDDED by three blockers, Co-Capt. Joe Girardin (top, center) dashes around right end to score the first of his touchdowns against South Lyon Friday night at Ford field. (Bottom) The referee and players of both teams watch as Paul Hamlin's kick for the extra point is good, putting Northville ahead to stay.

Quarterback Bud Bell, Lovett and Houtz worked the ball to the three yard stripe before Houtz went in for the second Mustang touchdown. Hamlin's kick was missed, as were all his other attempts except the first.

Girardin scored again from the two in the fourth quarter to make it 19 to 6, and Dave Biery brought the spectators to their feet late in the quarter by intercepting a pass on the South Lyon 41 and hotfooted it into the endzone.

South Lyon was not done, however. Following Biery's score, Hock passed 20 yards to end Bob Lewis for 20 yards, a run got five, another pass gained 11, and then a desperation toss to End Bob Weinburger caught the Mustangs flatfooted.

Weinburger, behind the secondary, snared the toss and romped 39 yards to score. Lewis' kick was good, as the game ended.

Merchants Seek League Title In Sunday Games

It's all or nothing for the Northville Merchants baseball team next Sunday.

Following a bye last Sunday, the Northville squad will face Wyandotte at Cass Benton park this week. The game will start at 12 noon, and Mgr. Steve Folino hopes that there will be a larger number of Northville rooters out to cheer his team on.

Should Northville trounce Wyandotte, the team will play Detroit Auto club at Riverside park in Plymouth at 3 p.m. At the same time Northville is playing Wyandotte, Auto club will tackle River Rouge at Plymouth.

"If the Auto club wins and we win," Folino said, "then we will play Auto club for the Inter-County league championship." Last year, Folino recalled, Northville played the same team for the title, but was nosed out. This year he hopes to reach the finals so that his team can take revenge for last year's defeat.

As the league now stands, Auto club is in first place in the playoffs with five victories and no defeats. Northville, River Rouge and Wyandotte have identical records of four wins and one loss.

Not since the days of John McGraw, has the nation been so Giant conscious as it has been this year. The New Yorkers rate among the great thrill teams of all time. In 1953, the club was second division. No one but the most rabid Giant fans could hope for much as this year opened. Yet here they are, on the top of the league and fighting for a world championship.

The Giants have had color this year. They had the ability to come from behind in the late innings on timely hits, some of them home runs by their brilliant Say Hey Kid, Willie Mays, or Dusty Rhodes, or some obscure pinch-hitter, such as Hoot Evers, Bill Taylor or Bobby Hofman.

The Cleveland Indians, champions in the American League, also are a club that fires the imagination. A few bold writers picked them to take the flag this year. But what brave soul would have had the temerity to predict not only that Cleveland would wreck Casey Stengel's pennant monopoly, but also would threaten the 110-victory mark set by Miller Huggins' Yankee team in 1927?

The feats of these 1954 champions, particularly the Giants, bring to mind some of the stand-out clubs of the past. The famous old Orioles of the 1890's rate a place as one of the most picturesque of them all. Ned Hanlon's club of 1894 through 1896 was so colorful that writers and players even today speak of it as though it played only yesterday. Hanlon himself was a master strategist, and he had such brainy youngsters as John McGraw, Willie Keeler, Hugh Jennings, Wilbert Robinson and Kid Gleason. These old Orioles invented inside baseball. They could hit, run, field and steal, bases.

The 1914 Braves must, of course be listed because of their sensational drive from last place on July 19 to the pennant, and then capped that by beating the great Athletics four straight in the World's Series.

Tops in color were the Yankees of the Babe Ruth-Lou Gehrig era, and the Cardinals' Gashouse Gang. Never has the game ever seen such a one-two punch as provided by Ruth and Gehrig in 1927. The Babe that year hit 60 home runs, scored 158 runs, drove in 164 and had a batting average of .356. Gehrig hit 47 homers, scored 149 runs and drove in 175, and wound up with a terrific .378 batting mark.

The Athletics wrecked the great run of the Yankees of those years by winning three straight league pennants. But then came another color team, the Gashouse Gang of the Cardinals, who stopped the Athletics' drive for a third straight pennant. One of the brashers of the Gashouses was Pepper Martin, who in the Series defeat of the Athletics hit 500 and stole five bases. He had the fans talking about him all that following winter. They still talk about him.

The World's Series this year is being heard around the world, on the most extensive broadcasting setup in history. More than 650 stations in the United States, Hawaii and Alaska are broadcasting the play by play. In addition, the games are heard throughout Canada and in Central and South American, and over armed forces radios in all parts of the globe.

Looking back over the 50 World's Series since 1903, it would appear that the odds favor managers who have had previous experience in the fall classic. Of the 41 men who have led their clubs into the Series, 19 won championships in their first appearance. Some of the greatest—Connie Mack, Miller Huggins and Joe McCarthy—failed in their first tries.

One of the reasons Pitcher Sal Maglie of the Giants made a fine comeback this season was an elevated heel. Buffalo chiropractor last winter advised Maglie to wear a three-eighths of an inch lift on the heel of his right shoe, to correct a spinal ailment. Maglie had the heel raised, and with it

When The Sporting News took a poll among writers last spring on how they figured the 1954 pennant race would end, 197 writers or broadcasters took part. Only one of the 197 hit the nail on the head. He was Jay Grayson of the Jewish Daily Forward in Brooklyn. Only 24 writers picked the Indians for first place, and the Giants were worse off than that. They were picked by six. The Yankees got 119 votes for first, and the Dodgers got 153 votes.

Let us design a one or two-color letterhead you will be proud to use in your business. Best quality; reasonable prices. The Northville Record.

U. of D. Titans Face Quantico Marines

Detroit—The luckless University of Detroit Titans, who battled their way to the goal line in the final minutes of two straight games only to have their drive stopped, are wondering what fate has against them.

In two losses thus far, each by only one touchdown, the Titans outplayed their opponents down to the wire but found ultimate victory side-stepping them on the goal line.

Friday night an all-star array of ex-college stars playing for the Quantico Marines will invade U. of D. stadium.

A host of All-Americans and nationally known football greats are listed on the Quantico roster. Such All-Americans are full-back Billy Tate of Illinois, Steve Eisenhauer, a guard from Navy, Don Penza an end from Notre Dame, and tackle Wayne Fran-son, a Detroit product from the University of Michigan will be with the Marines.

No college team has been able to beat the Marines since 1951. Cy. Owens Ford did the trick by a mere 6-0 margin, and thus far this year Quantico has racked up three straight victories including a 27-0 win over Xavier.

Wild Life Notes...

LANSING — More Michigan ducks for Michigan hunters is the goal of a marsh flooding project under way in Roscommon county, reports, the conservation department.

Completion of a dam this month across Denton creek east of Houghton lake will result in the flooding of a 270-acre tract which has been especially prepared as a duck nesting and feeding area.

The project will give conservation game workers an opportunity to observe the results of a number of experiments.

Three methods of destroying old grasses in the area to be flooded were tried by the Department. In one, the grass was sprayed with an herbicide. In the second method, called "scalping", grass was removed by a bulldozer. In the third, the grass was plowed under. Purpose of all three is to hasten the growth of duck food plants. The relative merits of each will be carefully observed.

In other experiments, holes, or pockets, were dug in the marsh bottom. Because the water in the flooded area will be generally shallow—about two to three feet deep—these holes were dug to give ducks a number of open-water resting places. Dirt removed was piled into tiny islands to create secluded nesting sites.

The work is being done under the supervision of the department's Houghton Lake Wildlife Experiment station. Cost of the dam is financed with Pittman-Robertson funds. This is federal money made available to Michigan from an excise tax on sporting arms and ammunition.

Michigan's Great Lakes waters in 1953 produced 25,012,789 pounds of fish at a total value to commercial fishermen of $3,314,696, according to figures released by the conservation department.

The 1953 total was down somewhat from the 29,231,823 pounds taken in 1952. Total value that year was estimated at $4,161,836. Men in the conservation department's fish division are of the opinion that this year's take will not vary greatly from that of 1953.

The report for last year shows Lake Michigan as the most productive with 15,874,756 pounds of fish. Lake Huron was second with 6,118,079 pounds, followed by Lake Superior with 5,843,715 and Lake Erie, 1,395,273.

Conservation law violators contributed $25,974 to libraries in Michigan during the seven-month period ending July 31, reports the conservation department.

This money represents fines paid in connection with 2,808 arrests made by conservation officers during the period.

By law, fines paid by conservation law violators remain in the county in which the arrests were made for use by libraries in that county.

Largest single group of contributors to the library fund were those who fished without licenses.

They numbered 959. Fishermen who thought they could get away with undersized fish made another sizeable contribution. There were 106 of these violators.

Forty-two nonresidents helped defray library expenses by telling license dealers they lived in Michigan.

The long list of arrests covers a variety of violations. To name a few: careless operation of a motorboat, killing protected song birds, loaning fishing license to another, depositing rubbish on state land, hunting on lands of another without written consent of the owner, taking and possessing a skunk.

Social Security Payments Raised

Over 90,000 people in Wayne county, including residents of Plymouth and Northville, who get social security payments will receive a higher rate early in October.

Harry Baltuck, manager of the Detroit-Northwest Social Security office at 15600 Grand River, said the increased amount is due to the recent change in the Social Security law. It is not necessary for persons now getting old-age and survivor's payments to call or come to the social security office. The benefit amounts are now being refigured and the checks in October will automatically include the increase.

Every retired worker will receive at least $5 more a month. Some may receive an increase up to $13.50. The amount of the increase depends upon the rate of the worker's original payment.

Increases for dependents and survivors will be less than those for retired workers. The payment to family groups will also be raised a minimum of $5 and a number of families may find their monthly payments increased.

Good News For Coffee Drinkers

Coffee drinkers, who have seen prices moving upward steadily for some months now, are in for some good news. The New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange has experienced a heavy decline in coffee prices for some days now, and on a recent day the price of coffee dropped five and a half cents.

The price of green coffee dropped eight cents on one day in late August, and such reductions in stock market prices are sure to be reflected in retail prices in the future. Meanwhile, coffee-trading on the Exchange in New York City came to a standstill in late August.

No one is exactly sure of the reason for the drop in coffee prices, although not to be discounted is the fact that the higher-and-higher coffee prices have begun to increase the consumption of other beverages in the country, notably tea. As the price of coffee rose recently to well over the dollar-per-pound mark, consumption of tea showed an increase, and the consumption of coffee showed a corresponding decrease.

Now that coffee prices are declining, consumption may again rise, although some permanent damage to the coffee market may have been done in the recent price spiral. One of the main results of the lowering coffee prices should be to keep the price of a cup of coffee in most restaurants at current levels, and in some cases, to drop them back to a nickel.

Penetrate Last Ice Barrier

The Navy has announced that two ice-breakers have penetrated the last major ice barrier in the path of a north-west passage from the east coast to the west coast of Canada. Explorers have tried for centuries to find a northern route connecting the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, but in vain.

The naval announcement does not mean that sea transportation between the eastern and western oceans will now be feasible. In fact, the Navy admitted that the icebreakers were favored by good luck, since melting conditions in late August were better than average and helped the expedition considerably.

What may be of major importance, however, is the fact that the Navy is opening up a route, having taken the first soundings ever recorded in the McClure Strait, for possible passage of submarines (under the ice) from east to west, or the reverse, in a region very close to the USSR.

The icebreakers forced their way through ice as thick as ten feet at some points to make the successful passage of McClure Strait. The strait leads into the Arctic Ocean, going east to west, not far from the North Pole. It is a good five hundred miles above the Arctic Circle.

The long-range planning of several of the world's navies has long taken into consideration the fact that atomic-powered submarines would be able to slip quietly under thick ice on the surface of such straits and cross from western Canadian shores to eastern in a short period of time.

It is estimated that the U.S. Navy's first atomic-powered sub, Nautilus, might well be able to perform such a mission in the near future. This is the significance of the discovery of new routes at the top of the globe — in an area where experts say a possible war between this country and the Soviet Union may well be decided.

Two Northville Youths Return After Ten Week Tour Through Scandinavia

After visiting seven counties in a 10-week tour of Scandinavia, Dave Lee and Charles Ely, have returned from their long trip. They made many new friends, had the warmest weather in the most northern part of the places they visited, no mishaps and came home full of happy memories and interesting experiences. Excluding their fare, they spent approximately $200 apiece in the ten weeks.

Flying from New York city to Bremen, Germany, where they remained three days, they boarded a train for Hamburg. After two days there, they flew to Copenhagen for five wonderful days and nominated that city as the one they would most like to re-visit and one no tourist should omit in their itinerary. The friendliness of the people and the beauty of the city made a lasting impression.

A train across Sweden to Stockholm and a boat across the sea to Turku brought them to their destination—Finland. Here they met the Harkke family, whose son Dave had met when he was an exchange student in 1951. Turku was the focal point of their trip at this point for it was here they remained for a week while supplies were collected for their three week journey to Lapland.

Sleeping bags, tents, and food, were packed in the car and Ava Mia and Eskamata Harkke, Dave and Charles left for Lapland, driving around the western coast of Finland.

On the way, they were joined by a friend of Ava Mia's, who accompanied them on the trip. They crossed the Arctic circle at one point on their way to Lapland. Another time they stood at a point where three countries, Norway, Sweden and Finland meet—a place called Kilpisjärvi. From here they crossed into Norway which they found had the most beautiful scenery they had witnessed.

It was here too that they had sunshine and daylight for the week and a half they were there. When they retired to their tents about midnight, the sun would be brightly shining. It was by far the most delightful weather they had on the entire trip.

Following a visit to Tromso, the capital of the northern part of Norway, and Homerfest, the most northern city in the world, they drove back through central Finland and the southern lake region, touching within a mile of the Russian border—which was as close as they cared to be. They felt Helsinki, capital of Finland and a beautiful city, was well worth visiting.

Returning to Turku, Eskamata

Harkke's father presented a cycle to each of the boys, which was an unexpected pleasure. Dave shipped his home but Charles sold his upon completing his cycling tour.

In return for the cycles, they were to take pictures of their trip with the cycles in the foreground and they started this tour the 9th of August from Stockholm. Traveling across Sweden to Soteborg, they encountered rainy weather five and a half days out of the eight days, a contrast to the bright, sunny days in Lapland.

From Soteborg, they crossed over to the northern tip of Denmark. Here they looked up friends of the Martin Sorenson's of 248 Lunden and feel that the wonderful time they enjoyed in

by A. M. Smith

There are economists and sociologists who claim it is an inherent law of human life and social experience that the Ups and Downs, Ahead and Back, alternate with the regularity of a pendulum or ocean tides.

Indeed, the "cycles" of Nature, the regularly alternating seasons, growth of verdure and its decadence to brown, heat of summer and snows of winter—these inevitable changing aspects of the world are often cited as supporting proof that human affairs, economics, politics, art, religion must have their regular and "natural" periods of alternating progress and recession. The rule of Nature is also the rule of Life, they say.

There are the fixed physiological cycles of life, between birth and death. But does this offer a shield of proof that the economic and social life of Mankind cannot escape the set pattern of back and fill, up and down, progress and retrogression?

The heavy curse overshadowing international relations is the obsession that "in the nature of things, including human beings," nations must live in cycles of friendship and hatred, slipping down from the high plateau of peace into suspicion, envy, hatred and War. France is plagued today by this old obsession. Frenchmen tremble in psychotic fear that if Germany, is rearmcd Germany is bound to attack France, sooner or later. The old cycle of war that has devastated Europe since its first recorded history.

The blank hiatus in this kind of thinking is the failure to realize that men can, and do constantly upset the cycles, forces and processes of Nature and put their wills to work on environment making it yield progress. Life in this world has had a long-term up-trend, good will put into action. The world—men and women—are vastly advanced over their condition of 2,000 years ago. Men and nations are NOT compelled by Nature to hate each other. War is NOT inevitable.

GETTING MARRIED? Then you'll want the finest wedding invitations. See us for best quality thermographed announcements and reception cards. The Northville Record.

You'll always be glad you bought a Chevrolet
(and now's a great time to buy one)

Isn't it great to hum along the highway in a car fresh out of the showroom? But how long will that new car pride and pleasure last? This is why it lasts longer if you buy a new Chevrolet . . . and why right now is such a smart time to buy one.

You'll stay proud of Chevrolet's lasting good looks. You won't find another low-priced car with the look of quality you see in Chevrolet. And if you like Chevrolet's looks now, you'll like its looks always. For there's fine design in those clean and smoothly curved lines (nothing "boxy" about Chevrolet!). Fine design like this, you know, always wears well—never really goes out of style.

You'll enjoy exclusive features for finer motoring. Chevrolet quality runs deep. There's more pride for you in the only low-priced car with the finer materials and workmanship of Body by Fisher. There's more fun for you in the highest-compression power of any leading low-priced car. (Higher compression means more ginger in the going and more miles out of the gas.) There's more safety for you in the biggest brakes and the only full-length box-girder frame in the low-price field. And there's more comfort for you in Chevrolet's smoother, softer Unitized Knee-Action ride. Down to the last detail, Chevrolet's more finely built . . . it's even the only car in its field with Safety Plate Glass in all windows of sedans and coupes!

You save when you buy and when you trade. Even so, Chevrolet is priced below all other lines of cars. (That's possible because Chevrolet builds the most, and can build 'em better to sell for less.) And at trade-in time, you'll be ahead again from Chevrolet's traditionally higher resale value.

You'll get a special deal right now. Right now, we're in a position to give you the deal of the year on a new Chevrolet. Come in and let us show you how much you'll gain by buying now!

Now's the time to buy!

Here is how the Eisenhower Administration's appropriations record looks now:

Requests for new appropriations were reduced about $12.5 billion and actual expenditures about $7 billion below the total presented in the last Truman budget. The 1954 deficit, as contrasted with the last Truman deficit of $10 billion, has been cut to approximately $3 billion.

The budget for the fiscal year 1955 proposes expenditures of $65.5 billion, receipts of $62.5 billion, with a resultant deficit of $3 billion. This means that Mr. Eisenhower reduced the requests for new spending authority by $15.5 billion, from $71.8 billion to $56.3 billion. Further, actual expenditures of money previously appropriated during the Truman Administration have been reduced by $12.3 billion.

This is the greatest reduction in proposed government expenditures in history—about a 20 percent reduction in the cost of government. Applied to the individual, it means that your share of expenditures has been reduced on an average from $486 per year to $404—a reduction of $82 per person.

On top of this, the Administration has reduced the annual taxes paid by individuals and corporations by slightly more than $7 billion.

Defense spending is being stepped up to pick business up a bit as fall approaches. The Administration—some weeks ago—urged departments to spend money faster to spur business, and this added to the prospect that defense spending might have to be increased—might help create an upturn by November.

The only trouble with such a policy is that a reaction could result next year—if defenses appropriations aren't increased. If the Republicans should ride to victory on a business upturn this fall, which petered out in a few months, the voter might register his disgust in 1956. But right now, all eyes are on 1954. The big drive is to get business perking up in the next sixty days.

Bolt Sets Off Blast
Panama — Lightning touched off five small dynamite charges along the banks of the Panama Canal recently, injuring four workmen. The men were stringing the dynamite along the canal's damaged Gaillard Cut when the bolt struck.

Pests Work In Shifts
Clifton, Ill. — Art Hansen's 40-acre field of corn is ruined. Cutworms, working around the clock did the damage. The glossy worms chewed away at the corn during the night and another species — the black cutworm — took over the day shift.

Home Demonstration Agent's Column

Is your kitchen a "take it easy kitchen?" It is if it's a pleasant, safe, and convenient work center, explains Emma DuBord, home demonstration agent for Wayne County.

For comfort, windows and doors should give cross ventilation, but to remove odors and heat caused by cooking, a good ventilating fan will do a speedy job of changing the air. A pleasant kitchen also uses light color paint for the most reflection. You will want to guard against using excessive glare. This glare can result in unnecessary eyestrain and eye fatigue.

The sink center provides space for cleaning vegetables and other foods and for washing dishes. The range center is for cooking and serving food. The mixing and food storage center is between the sink and the refrigerator where foods are prepared for cooking, chilling or freezing.

Shoes Important
"If the shoe fits" is more than just an expression — it is good advice to mothers who are outfitting the children with new shoes for school. The selection of proper foot wear is important. Nearly one-fourth of all the bones in the body are in the feet, and the immature foot of childhood and the teen years are easily misshapen, she points out. Although children seldom complain of a foot ache or pain in the 15 or 20 years while foot bones are developing fully, lasting damage is often done then to the feet. You should remember these points when selecting shoes for your children: Both feet should be measured while the child is standing, buy shoes to fit the larger foot, of course. Proper length is generally one-half to one-inch longer than the longest toe. You want the widest part of the shoe to come at the widest part of the foot. The boxing should be soft — and high enough to give plenty of room for the thickness of toes. The vamp needs to be long enough and high enough for the foot. Have shoe size rechecked at regular intervals. Shoes that fit properly are comfortable from the start.

Happiest Homecoming of the Year!

The longed-for day has come at last. He has taken delivery of the car of his dreams... he has enjoyed his first wonderful ride behind the wheel... and now — he's coming home!

And what a proud and happy man he is as he turns into that familiar driveway and presses against the horn rim to signal his arrival!

For this—as any Cadillac owner can testify—is a very happy homecoming!

It would be difficult to imagine a more thrilling or a more delightful family gathering than that which heralds the arrival of a new Cadillac. It is a truly memorable and exciting and joy-filled occasion.

And then, there are those admiring friends and neighbors who usually drop by to welcome a new Cadillac to its new home—and to get a personally conducted "tour" of the car from its owner.

But, perhaps best of all, there's the deep personal thrill that comes to a man when he first contemplates his own Cadillac in his own driveway.

It gives him a genuine sense of satisfaction to realize that he possesses one of the world's most sought-after products—and a feeling of gratitude to know he has been able to provide his family with Cadillac's great comfort and luxury and safety.

Yes, it's a unique and wonderful experience to bring a new Cadillac home.

And we honestly feel that the motorist who is privileged to enjoy this experience in 1954 is in for a very special treat. For the car is now more wonderful to drive... and more beautiful to behold... and more inspiring to own than ever before.

Why not stop in soon—and let us show you what we mean? One hour behind the wheel, and we think you'll be looking forward, with great anticipation, to your own "Cadillac homecoming"!
