Marianne Ratliff Reigns as NHS Homecoming Queen

Despite cold weather, Northville High school's "Homecoming" was a decided success last Friday and the varsity Mustangs topped Brighton in their annual football game, 7 to 6, to round out a day of parades, pep rallies, sports and general activities.

The parade Friday afternoon through the business district was led by the High school band, and included marching groups and a number of floats. The parade disbanded at the Community center, where judges awarded first prize for the most attractive float to the Senior class, second prize to the sophomores, and third to the freshmen. Honorable mention went to the Forensic club, the Science club and float 9.

Between halves of the football game, Miss Marianne Ratliff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ratliff, W. Eight Mile Rd., was crowned "Homecoming Queen" by Miss Winnifred, Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Welch, S. Wing St., who was last year's queen.

Following the parade, high school students and grade pupils gathered in the Community Center gymnasium for a program of sports which included pushball and speedball.

After the game, the annual "Homecoming Dance" was held in the Community Center, at which Miss Ratliff reigned.

School Study Group at Odds; Consolidation Is Disapproved By Board

Although they have worked closely together since last spring on a continuing survey of the school needs for the entire Northville-Nowi area, members of the Area Study committee of 36 do not see eye to eye, and the project will probably end in failure.

This was learned Monday as the Oakland County Superintendent of Schools released a resolution passed by the Northville Board of Education unanimously disapproving the establishment of a school district embracing the entire area which is being covered in the study.

The resolution does not close the door to expansion of the present Northville school district, but spokesmen for the committee declared it was not considered feasible to include any districts not now bordering on Northville.

Board Receptive

The resolution, in fact, said the board was receptive to the annexation of such adjoining districts as would signify such a desire, and mentioned Washtenaw county Northville at present has enrolled 20 students from the Salem district, immediately adjoining on the west, and there has been some previous discussion about Salem joining the Northville district.

Two other districts, the board is said to feel, would make a compact and natural consolidated district. These are the Chapman No. 7, in the Novi Rd. area, and Durfee No. 6, on E. Eight Mile, Novi No. 8, and East Novi No. 2 Fractional, together with Putnam No. 9 and possible part of Chapman north of Ten Mile Rd., would more appropriately fit into a Novi school district, it is believed by some members of the committee.

Resolution Given

The resolution passed by the Northville board follows: "WHEREAS, the Area Study Committee members from the Northville Public School District, Wayne, Oakland and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, have submitted to this Board the progress report and data collected by the Area Study Committee, and "WHEREAS, this Board has studied in detail the progress report and data collected as submitted,

"Now, therefore, BE IT RESOLVED, that it is the unanimous opinion of this Board that the progress report and data collected by the Area Study Committee discloses that a school district embracing the entire area involved in the said area study would not at this time be feasible, and, therefore, this Board unanimously disapproves of any attempt at this time to establish a school district embracing the entire area of the aforesaid study.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Board unanimously believes that an enlargement of the Northville Public Schools School District, Wayne, Oakland and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, to include those school districts immediately adjoining would result in a district entirely feasible in operation and administration and that, therefore, this Board declares itself receptive to the annexation of such adjoining districts as in their opinion desire to be so annexed.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this board extends its thanks and appreciation to the Area Steering Committee for having extended the invitation to this District to participate in the area study and further extend its thanks to all individual members of the Area Study Committee for having devoted their time and energy in the area study."

Despite the action of the Northville board, the feeling persists in some quarters that the Area Study committee should continue its work for the purpose of gathering all information it can on the needs of the entire area. It has completed the first phase of the study, and currently is working on Phase II "What Do We Want?"

Students Not Barred

Because of the extremely overcrowded condition of Northville High school, the only one in the area, it was the feeling of Northville committee members that the resolution was not necessary. It does not mean that tuition students from Novi and other sections will be refused in the immediate future.

Zoning Suit Is Filed Against Ralph Docksey

Suit has been filed in Wayne County Circuit court by Northville township against Ralph Docksey, 18418 Ridge road, charging violation of township zoning regulations.

Hearing on the suit, which was filed by James Littell, township attorney, will be held by Judge John V. Brennan at 2 p. m., Nov. 12.

Docksey is charged with failing to obtain a building permit for a multiple dwelling, and proceeding with construction of the building despite disapproval of his application by the township zoning board. He also is charged with failure to obtain a permit for a septic tank.

Summons was served on Docksey by Joseph E. Denton, Northville chief of police, acting as an affiant.

In a statement to The Record, Docksey denied that he is constructing a multiple dwelling, saying that he was building a home for a son. He also said that he did have a septic tank permit, contrary to the statement in the suit filed against him.

He said that since the township did not possess a building code, he intended to fight the suit, and stated that township officials who ordered the suit had "no actual facts" but have only been "listening to gossip."

"This thing is awfully onesided," he declared. "Others have built shacks around me and no one has done anything about it. The building inspector has never seen the house. He only drove by. They're just assuming things from gossip they've heard."

Historical Brochure On Northville Is Published By Eighth Grade Students

Did you know—

That the first folding desks and seats were invented and manufactured here?

The first condensed milk was made in Northville?

Northville's Ford factory was the first one built on an experiment to prove Mr. Ford's idea of decentralized business?

The Cottage Inn or Peanuts Place, was the town hall and jail long ago?

That two schools of Northville burned?

The dime store was once a howling alley?

The sidewalks were once planks and the streets pebbles and stones?

These and other facts highly interesting to Northville residents are set forth in a brochure published this week by Northville Junior High school students.

Available To Public

The brochure, containing old photographs and many historical notes on Northville's past, was created and written by students of the eighth grade social studies classes of 1954, and was printed by The Record.

It will be available to the public at the open house, which will be held in Northville schools on Thursday as part of the observance of American Education week.

Although not the polished work of experienced historians, the brochure is remarkable in its wide scope and the completeness of the research conducted by members of the social studies classes. Little attempt was made to change the phraseology of the youthful writers, since it was part of the class project that they be permitted to express themselves in their own words.

Relates History

The brochure relates the history of Northville and Michigan from the earliest days to the present: early settlements, establishment of government, founding of industries, and the growth of the area.

The research and writing, under the direction of Alvin P. Skow of the teaching staff, was by the following students: Karen Thibos, Bonnie Walker, Reba Beardon, Sharon Hill, Ruth Clarke, Elsa Couse, Tom Williams, Mary Hill, William Yahne and Becky Coolman.

Sources credited in the brochure are:

Northville High School Library, Northville Public Library, The Northville Record, Presbyterian Church Records; Methodist Church Records, Baptist Church Records, T. R. Carrington, Mrs. Ruth Burkman, Allan Buckley and Glenn Cummings.

'Bargain Days' Are Big Success

Shoppers of Northville and surrounding communities again took advantage of bargains offered by Northville Merchants Friday and Saturday in the second of a series of "Hometown Bargain Days."

Carl Johnson, president of the Retail Merchants Assn., said members of the group were highly pleased at the reception accorded the event, held this time in conjunction with the annual homecoming of Northville High school. He pronounced the affair a big success.

Those who won prizes at a drawing held in the Depositors State bank are:

Mary Slessor, 349 First street—electric frying pan.

H. W. Schmidt, 20117 Woodhill—electric clock.

J. Riley, 19821 Westhill—$25 basket of groceries.

Mrs. Philip Anderson, 50250 W. Eight Mile—Pendleton blanket.

Joyce LaPlante of the Depositors bank drew the lucky coupons.

Businessmen To Star in Rotary Variety Show 'You Can't Beat Fun,' Nov. 11, 12

Northville businessmen will have featured parts in the Northville Rotary club's variety show, "You Can't Beat Fun," which opens Thursday evening for a two-night run at the Community Center.

Among those who will participate will be Village Commissioner F. Malcom Allen, Clyde Dethloff, Fred Anderson, Art Schnute, and George Lockhart. Their parts are designed to produce countless laughs, according to Miss Sherry Eason, of Texas, who is here to produce the show for the benefit of the Rotary Community Service fund.

Everything Goes

Locale of the show is "The Hide-Ho Club" where everything goes and anything can happen. Only Northville talent is used, chorus girls, specialty acts and feature performers, including ten Northville business and professional men.

Their gags, jokes and hi-jinks include everything from "Hooray and Whoop De Do" number to old time "meller drama" of the silent movie days entitled "He Was Her Man But He Done Her Wrong."

In this skit, Clyde Dethloff will portray "Frankie," a Good woman; Fred Anderson will be "Johnnie," who does her wrong; Allen will appear as "Nellie Bligh," while Schnute will be seen as the bartender in a den of vice.

George Lockhart, as "Lucky Lamson," the master of ceremonies, will keep things moving by introducing the various acts.

A group of teenage Northville girls will appear in satin and taffeta costumes to do clever routines and sing songs.

Quiz Programs

A quiz program called "Playing Santa Claus" will allow the audience to get into the act and win prizes by answering questions. Accompanist for the show will be Mrs. Margaret Sours of Northville.

A tiny tot contest, which is being held in connection with the show, is now under way, and winners will be crowned and prizes awarded prior to Friday night's show. Voting jars have been placed in various Northville stores and these will be removed Thursday afternoon and placed in the Community Center where those who wish to may vote as they enter the auditorium.

An unusual contest will be an "Indoor Whisker Derby" where in three Northville men will participate for a prize offered by a shaving cream manufacturer. Girls in the chorus, wearing bell-hop costumes will hold mirrors for the contestants. The winner will be the one who first comes up clean shaven.

Plan J-Hop

Northville High school Juniors are sponsoring their J-Hop in the Community building this year on Nov. 26. Jimmy Stevenson's orchestra will play.

Northville Women Attend Conference

An officers' conference at the Presbyterian Westminster church on Outer drive, Detroit, was well represented when 14 women from the Northville church attended classes and workshops there.

The Northville women attended classes explaining the Presbyterian Women's organization work of the church, and workshops outlining the officer's duties for the coming year in planning better programs. Mrs. Maude Pinto and Mrs. D. Fleming were the leaders.

The theme of the conference was, "Christ is the Way."

Lucy Finkins Circle To Meet

The Lucy Finkins Circle of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Ivan Hodgson, 549 West Dunlap, Nov. 16 at 12:30 for a potluck luncheon and business meeting.

The Northville Board, said the group would cooperate to the utmost with the various districts. Some relief is expected in the not too distant future if Novi, which is fast becoming more heavily settled, begins next fall to take care of its own ninth graders upon the completion of its newly authorized ten-room school addition. In succeeding years, other classes could probably be absorbed, relieving Northville of the necessity of providing for them.

The study committee will meet again at the Northville Community Center at 8 p. m. Nov. 17 to discuss the situation further.

Clarke Named Head of Depositors Bank

A. Russell Clarke, executive vice president and cashier of the Depositors State bank, has been elected president to fill the vacancy created by the death of John A. Boyce, who died of a heart attack two weeks ago while driving to Novi.

Clarke, who resides at 720 Fairbrook, has been an employee of the bank for 19 years. Born in Sault Ste. Marie, he was graduated from the University of Michigan school of business administration in 1932, specializing in finance.

He joined the bank's staff in 1935 as clerk and teller, and the following year married Miss Ellen Reincke, Jonesville school teacher.

They have two children, John, 17, a senior in Northville High school, and Ruth Ann, 14, a NHS freshman.

What's Cooking?

(What's your favorite dish? If you will share it with other Northville housewives, please call The Record's society editor, Telephone 200.)

This recipe provides a rich, rich dessert and is especially nice for luncheons, but not advisable after a heavy meal. It would be excellent for a dessert bridge or that Sunday night supper. Easy to make, too.

Mrs. R. G. Nelson, of Napier Rd., makes it frequently and says she likes it because it can be made the night before you want to serve it. The Nelsons have three daughters, Arlene, who is a sophomore at Michigan State Normal at Ypsilanti; June, who lives in Detroit and eight year old Linda, who is shown above with her mother.

Chocolate Dessert

Cream 1/2 cup of butter and 1 cup powdered sugar. Add 3 egg yolks. 2 oz. chocolate melted. 3 stiffly beaten egg whites.

Line a refrigerator tray with wax paper and line this with crushed vanilla wafers. Pour in the butter, cover with more crumbs and freeze.

European Talks On DAR Agenda

An informal travalgue on Europe is on the program agenda for the Monday, Nov. 15, meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Hostess for the 1 p.m. gathering is Mrs. Del W. Hahn, 548 W. Main St., Northville.

Mrs. Harry Devo of Plymouth will describe to members her experiences while traveling on the continent, and Mrs. Sherwin Hill, who traveled throughout Spain, will give the highlights of her trip in that country.

Anyone needing transportation to this meeting should call Mrs. Sidney Strong of Plymouth or Mrs. Claude Crusee, Northville.

Health Officer Talks At Nursery Meeting

The monthly meeting of the Cooperative Nursery was held at the home of president, Mrs. Charles Hall on Church St., Friday. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Philip Ogilvie and Mrs. Helen Meyers. After a brief business meeting, Dr. V. George Chabut, Health Commissioner spoke on communicable diseases. A question and answer period followed. Or. Chabut is the medical representative on the Nursery school advisory board.

Miss Sherry Eason, who has charge of the Rotary musical revue and Tiny Tot popularity contest, presented her program to the group. Nursery mothers were instructed to send pictures for the contest to Mrs. R. D. Lorenz. Children between the ages of one and six and a half are eligible to participate in the Tiny Tot contest which will climax the crowning of the King and Queen on Nov. 11 in the Community building.

Two new members were introduced to the Nursery, Mrs. Peter Spagnuolo and son Peter, and Mrs. Audrey Gotts and son Brian. Coffee and cake were served before adjournment.

The Nursery has tickets for the Ladies' Day TV program on Nov. 19. Anyone interested in attending may call Mrs. Francis Clinton, 1326 J. The program is from 1:30 to 2:30 and anyone attending is urged to be there by 12:30. Tickets are $1.00.

Couples Club to Have Variety Program

The Couples club of the Presbyterian church will be entertained by a variety program to be presented by 24 children from the Recreation group of the Wayne County Training school, Sunday evening.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. and include skating and dancing and will be short enough to permit children attending the meeting to get home early.

Mrs. Chris Hammond, president of the club, announces that the meeting and program are open to the public. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Weiss of Grace Street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Marlene, to Shelby Harrington of Detroit. Marlene is a sophomore in the School of Music and Shelby a senior in the Engineering school at the University of Michigan. No date has been set for the wedding.

The world's greatest builder of V-8's presents THE TOTALLY NEW '55 FORD!

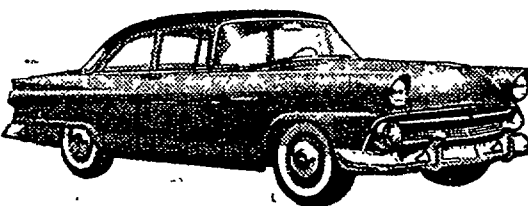

ON DISPLAY FRIDAY!

with styling inspired by the Ford THUNDERBIRD

New FAIRLANE Series . . . The new Club Sedan, like all six models in Ford's new Fairlane Series, features the new wrap-around windshield, new luxurious interiors and wide choice of stunningly new, single and two-tone exterior colors.

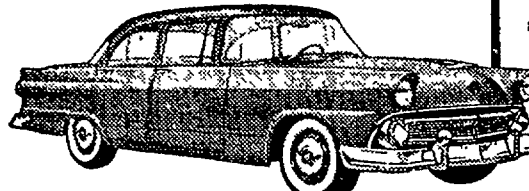

Longest, Lowest, Roomiest...most Powerful ever built!

New CUSTOMLINE Series . . . The Tudor Sedan (above) and Fordor offer a wide selection of new color and upholstery combinations. Like all '55 Fords, they have a new wider grille, new veined headlights and sturdier, extra-narrow pillar-posts for better visibility.

New STATION WAGON Series . . . The new 6-passenger, 4-door Country Sedan (above) is one of five new do-it-all beauties. There's also an 8-passenger Country Sedan, an 8-passenger Country Squire and a 2-door, 6-passenger Ranch Wagon and Custom Ranch Wagon.

New MAINLINE Series . . . Each of the three Mainline beauties offers the same engineering advancements, the same graceful contours and clean lines that distinguish all '55 Fords. Fordor Sedan is illustrated above.

We invite you to see for yourself. And we tell you in advance you'll be amazed. For this new Ford is totally new—outside, inside, and in thrillingly different performance.

The long, low lines of the Thunderbird were its styling inspiration. Inside, you'll be greeted by rich, roomy luxury . . . by fabrics never before offered in a motorcar.

Mighty engines, mightier than in any Ford before—supply its exciting power. And each of Ford's three new engines offers the safe, split-second response of Trigger-Torque Power.

Your ride will be up to 16% smoother. Best of all, you'll find your kind of car, for there are 16 body styles in four fresh new lines.

When you come in, don't be surprised if you tell yourself: why look farther—why delay—you just can't buy better than Ford.

Bitter Tea For The GOP

Sweeping Democratic victories across the nation in the Nov. 2 election have brought into prominence one important fact: Despite the often bitter criticism of the Roosevelt and Truman administrations — from Supreme Court "packing" to the controversial Brannan plan—the nation still is preponderantly Democratic.

Astute political observers have suspected this for many months. Now, the inescapable conclusion rears itself that the election of Dwight D. Eisenhower as President two years ago was far more a tribute to his personal popularity than it was to dissatisfaction of the voters with Democratic policies and principles.

A year before his election, we had predicted that Gen. Eisenhower would resign his NATO post, and win both the nomination and election—the first editor to do so, incidentally. We added that, his popularity being as it was, he could be elected on whatever ticket he ran. This was an opinion apparently shared by Harry S. Truman.

Eisenhower carried many Republicans into office with him. This year, however, running on their own, even veteran Republican members of Congress succumbed to a rising wave of discontent.

Created primarily by a natural leveling off of the national economy following termination of the Korean war, this wave nevertheless neared its crest at a time when Republicans were in power.

Thinner pay envelopes and lowered buying power evidently caused the majority of voters to "run scared" to a greater degree than the GOP candidates. It may be bitter tea for Republican stalwarts, but it is obvious most Americans—at least most of those who voted Nov. 2—feel that the Democratic party offers greater safeguards against future depression and economic instability.

And, unless the present administration does something to reverse that feeling, President Eisenhower may be "running scared" himself if he should seek reelection two years hence.

162,000,000 Americans

The Census Bureau estimates that the civilian population of the United States has already passed the 159,000,000 mark and that counting Americans in the Armed Forces—the total is already well above 162,000,000.

The civilian figure, as of July 1, was set at 159,084,000. This compares with the figure of 149,634,000 as of 1950. In other words, there has been a ten million population gain in the United States since the 1950 census, or a rate of growth of about 2,500,000 a year.

It is estimated that there are about 1,350,000 men and women in the armed services, so the total U. S. population as of July 1 was almost 162,500,000.

The only three states in the forty-eight which did not show population gains between 1950 and 1954 were West Virginia, Arkansas and New Hampshire. California's population is estimated at 12,213,000. Only New York, with 15,368,000, tops that total. Pennsylvania, the third-ranking state in population, was inhabited by 10,755,000 persons as of July 1st.

The rapidly increasing population of the United States is one of the primary reasons why the U. S. economy should continue to move forward. A growing country is always the scene of an expanding market, and possible expanded production. It is estimated that the market in this country will expand rapidly some time around 1960, when the crop of World War II babies begins to get out of school, and marry and form families.

There was a boom in baby production during World War II years and thus the increase in families starting about 1960 will be unusually large. The latest population report shows that the country is experiencing a very healthy growth and that if annual income continues to rise in the next decade or two, there will be a far greater demand for goods, and, therefore, ample room for new industry.

In other words, the day of opportunity has not passed. In other words, the day of opportunity has not passed, and there are many opportunities ahead for those who want to go after them.

Fall Memories

It's a clear, chill Saturday—a long, long day, week-long longed for—but far too short, ere sundown, for all the things that a boy can do.

There are, among other joys, nuts to be gathered in the leaf-strewn woods, harvested now against snow-bound Saturdays to come. Then there will be the hulling, the cracking, the eating with a sprinkle of salt—and goodies saved for cookies and cake.

What memories! The boy who was born and raised in Hometown America will always remember the excitement and fun, the stain on his hands, the ring of hammer on flat-iron—all on a homesick afternoon in the Fall.

Most people want to look up to someone and that human quality is what the smart showman, and the smart politician, keep in mind.

It is unfortunate that every citizen cannot be given a brief, impartial, and intelligent summary of the government's activities every day.

If you have a problem that is worrying you a lot, the best thing to do is to turn it over to time—which seems to take care of everything.

It's strange how otherwise intelligent men always fall for stories that the fish were biting better two hours ago, or yesterday, or just a little bit further out.

About Election Review

This morning, Nov. 3, with enough election returns to indicate Who's In and Who's Out, maybe Leonard Hall Chairman of the Republican National Committee, and Steven Mitchell Chairman of the Democratic National Committee met for a Patriots-All breakfast. Big crowd of party followers present. At the Speaker's Table this was said maybe):

Hall: "Remember, Old Pal, that fine meeting in Washington, last Sept. 14, when we top brass Republicans and Democrats agreed the Fall campaign would be way up above all former campaigns, no mud-slinging, no character assassination no lies or dirty inferences?"

Mitchell: "Yes, O yes! Of course I remember, and we shook hands on it, and the cohorts of both parties present cheered. And it is marvelous how we have lived up to the compact. We have had the cleanest campaign on record. Nobody has criticized the President or the vice-President or any Senators or Governors or candidates for any office. It has been a glorious exhibition of partisanship at its best." (They interrupt the soup, smile and shake hands.)

Hall: "Yes, you are right. We have never before given the country such a fine example of gentlemen in politics. No mean personalities. We only discussed seriously and calmly the Nation's business, the laws, critical problems. We Republicans gave your Democratic Congressmen great praise for the aid they gave to President Eisenhower. We had kind words for your party leaders. It was wonderful to see how we united the people of all parties in a common purpose to do the best for all."

Mitchell: "How True! And the results of the election clearly showed the great value of a political campaign waged on the high level of No Smut, No Smear, No Mud."

Hall: "E-r-r—yes!" (They smile, shake hands, embrace, smile and shake hands.)

The extent to which the nation's taxpayers have benefited under the economies effected by the present Administration in Washington is shown by President Eisenhower's recent announcement of the results of the operation of the government for the 1954 fiscal year, which ended June 30.

The showing was $245 million better than anticipated last January. At that time the deficit was estimated at $3,274,000,000, but by the end of the year it had been cut back to $3,029,000,000. Unfortunately, revenues fell off from $67.6 billion to $4.5 billion. If this had not happened, the government would have finished the fiscal year in the back.

The spending goal of the previous Administration was reduced by more than $10 billion. The Truman Administration had expected to spend $77.9 billion in 1954 but the present Administration cut this to $67.6 billion. This cut of $10 billion means a savings which would otherwise have been a burden to the taxpayers in the 48 states.

Here are a few examples of what this tax savings means. To the people in New York State in the amount of $1,486,000,000—$747,000,000 to Pennsylvanians—$883,000,000 to Californians, and $752,000,000 to the people of Illinois.

Rathburn Attends Planning Meeting

Kenneth Rathburn, Rathburn Chevrolet Sales, has returned from Detroit where he took part in a meeting of the Chevrolet Dealer Planning committee for this zone.

Rathburn was elected to the committee by fellow dealers under a nationwide program by which Chevrolet keeps in touch with retail selling problems. In his position he acted as spokesman for other Chevrolet dealers in this area.

The dealer committee system was pioneered in 1937 by Chevrolet.

Under the system, the more than 7,600 dealers in the company's 43 zones and branches first elect 20 committeemen for each area, or a total of 860. Zone committeemen meet and select representatives to serve on the eight regional committees. These 86 national committeemen then name 16 dealers from their group—two from each region—to meet with Chevrolet officials in Detroit as the National Dealer Planning committee.

It's got a "V" in its bonnet— or your choice of two new sixes!

The motoramic Chevrolet for '55

Great new 8

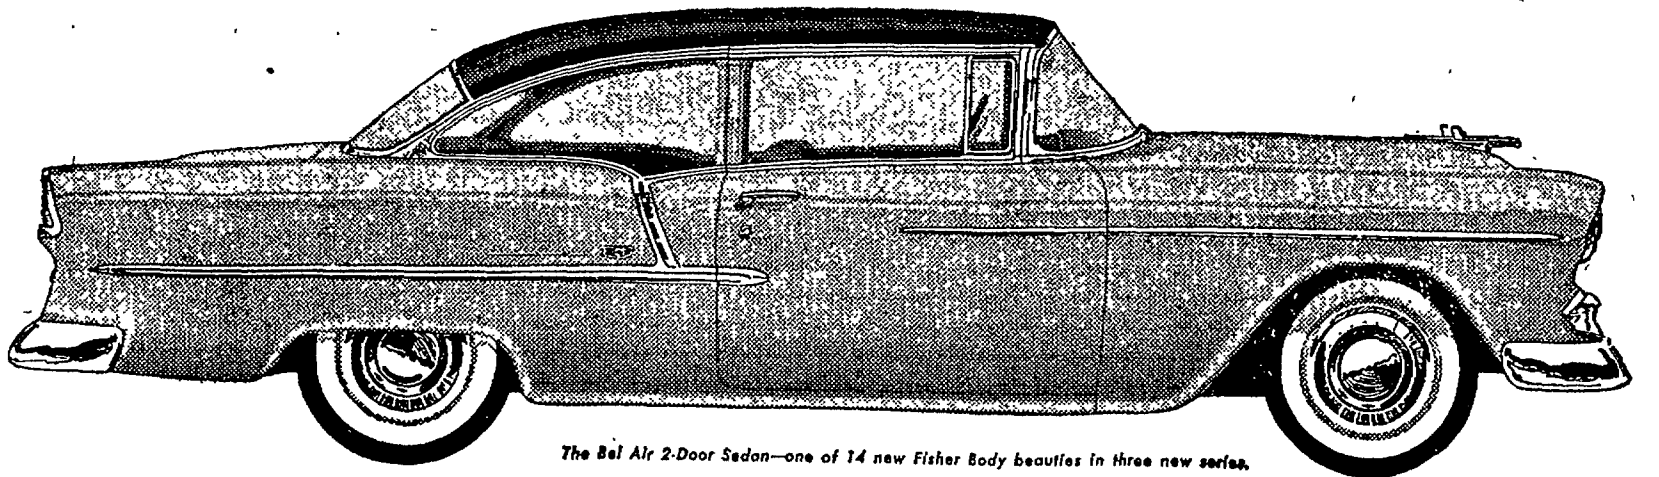

Two new 6's 6

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

You'd expect Chevrolet to out-V8 the field—and it has! Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" puts a brand-new kind of excitement under your foot. The excitement of 162 horsepower! The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible! The new "Turbo-Fire V8" is so wonderfully efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five or more. And it has the shortest piston stroke in the low-price field, for longer engine life. But we can't even begin to give you the whole story here. Come in and let the new "Turbo-Fire V8" speak for itself. You'll like what it has to say!

With enough new advances to fill a book!

Chevrolet offers two new highstepping sixes for 1955! There's the new "Blue-Flame 136" (teamed with Powerglide as an extra-cost option) and the new "Blue-Flame 123." Both bring you new, higher-rated power—the zippy, thrifty high-compression kind. Both have new, more efficient cooling and lubrication systems . . . new engine mounts that result in almost unbelievable smoothness. And, like the new "Turbo-Fire V8," both are sparked by a new 12-volt electrical system for finer performance and faster cold-weather starting. All in all, they're the liveliest, smoothest sixes Chevrolet ever put into a passenger car. As you know, that covers a lot of territory. And so will you—with either of these two new sixes!

The Bel Air 2-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series.

More than a new car . . . a new CONCEPT of low-cost motoring (and much too good to miss driving!)

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The spiritual basis for healthful, happy, abundant living will be dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals" is the Golden Text from John (3: 6): "That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit."

Selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy include the following

(76:22-26): "The sinless joy, - - the perfect harmony and immortality of Life, possessing unlimited divine beauty and goodness without a single bodily pleasure or pain,—constitutes the only veritable, indestructible man, whose being is spiritual."

From the Bible the following passage will be among those read (Romans 8:6): "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace."

Rev. Bernard Pankon To Be Installed As Pastor of Lutheran Church Nov. 14

In the Spring of 1944, Rev. Pankon accepted the call to Mexico City. He was asked to organize and serve an English-speaking congregation and also look into the possibility of beginning a small training school for Mexican pastors. Upon arriving in Mexico City he immediately instructed for church membership several young Mexican men who had expressed their desire to become Lutheran ministers. However, after thorough investigation it was recommended that the contemplated school be established at Monterey, some 600 miles closer to the United States border. Another American pastor was then called to head the little seminary.

Art Projects On Program of Northville Schools In Observing Education Week

An art program is helpful in presenting a visual product of what Northville children learn in school, instructors said this week. Children love displays and Education Week offered them a chance to display their creative art skills and their learning of school subjects. Since art is not an isolated activity but a vital part of the entire curriculum, it closely integrated with other subjects.

Here are a few projects which the children worked on: In Mrs. Carter's first grade room the children made a Thanksgiving mural out of colored paper. Trees were torn out of colored paper, to give the effect of leaves. Tepees were drawn, decorated and cut out. A few cabins were made, then the children drew and cut out Indians and Pilgrims. These were arranged on a background of sky and snow and made a colorful scene.

Community Spirit
The children of Mrs. Waterman's class showed a community spirit. They made large pictures of different areas of their community: their neighborhood, the school, the shopping district, their church etc.

Each child contributed a cut-out house to the neighborhood scene. Later on cars, people, trees, mailboxes, and telephone poles were added so that the observer is confronted with a humorous and busy street scene.

The pictures of the church, school and shopping districts were done with crayon on large sheets of newsprint. The children worked in groups on the floor and Mrs.

Waterman remarked that they cooperated nicely.

The first attempts at the pictures were a failure; therefore the pictures were placed on the blackboard so the children could see their pictures at a distance and study them. This helped them considerably because when they began again, their pictures were improved.

Study Farm
Mrs. Reng's and Miss Keith's second graders were studying the farm, so they decided they would like their room display to be a farm scene, but each room used a different approach. Mrs. Reng's class cut out horses, cows and pigs that stood up on the bookcase. Their background scene revealed a large red farm and a white house with fall colored trees, clouds, a haystack and even ducks on pond. Their efforts were well rewarded because their project turned out beautifully. Miss Keith's children visited a dairy farm in the morning and consequently were highly keyed to build their farm animals in clay that afternoon. There are horses, cows and pigs of different proportions, but the boys and girls, each in his or her own way, captured the feeling and form of the animals in their modeling. Their background was based on a sketch that one of the students made of the farm from memory.

Paint Mural
Mrs. Dickinson's third graders also have a farm scene but theirs was executed in poster paints. Stanley Hench, art teacher, gave a short demonstration on using the paint and brushes and the children were very conscientious about "thinking before doing." While painting the mural, they learned about mixing colors, making objects stand away from the background, getting a feeling of space in the mural, taking proper care of the paints and brushes and many other skills and concepts. Their large colorful mural contains every child's contribution.

PATROLMEN Ray Nowicki (left) and Eugene King of the Northville police department are attending two special police classes in Detroit as a means of increasing their efficiency and knowledge of police work. Under the sponsorship of Wayne university, the two officers are studying "The Police Officer and the Law" and "Criminal Interrogation". The classes run until May and are being held in the Detroit Police academy.

The boys and girls of Miss Fritz's fourth grade were divided into five committees to depict scenes of life from the Western Movement, and leaders were selected. William Klensort was in charge of making the interior of a log cabin; Rhonda Atchinson was the chairman for the covered wagon committee; Paul Wilson headed the Flatboat committee; the log cabin committee was led by Carol Budek; and Pamela Clark was in charge of the fort committee. Each group made a preliminary drawing on newsprint, then began their crayon mural on the back of wall paper. Special emphasis was placed on working brightly, gaining contrast and the blending of colors. After the murals were completed a class criticism was held to evaluate the picture.

Studying Indians
Since Mrs. Funk's class was studying about the woodland, Plains and Pueblo Indians, the children were divided into three groups and each group depicted a view of their tribes surrounding. Chairman for the three committees were Sandra Scheifer, Bill Parker and Dick Bathley. This involved research and planning on the part of the children. For example, each background had to be different because each tribe lived in different parts of the country; their houses were all different too. The Indians' mode of dress, their tools and the kinds of animals they hunted were taken into consideration. Clay was used by the Pueblo group to construct their cliff-dwelling and to make Indian Pottery. In this way, the children grew to understand the life and struggle of the Indians.

The boys and girls of Mrs. Huff's room made puppets of the early explorers, Columbus, Balboa, Cortez etc. As a help to their understanding of action and proportions a boy posed in class, assuming the attitude of an explorer. Then at home the children used all different types of materials to construct their puppets, and came up with remarkable results. Some of the children built early boats instead of puppets.

Egypt Is Subject
The class of Miss Martin was studying Egypt, so an art project was built around that country. The class made construction paper pictures of Egyptian life. Then the following week launched into a colored paper mural. The mural was broken up into three sections, the Past, the Transitional Period and the Present; but each part was held together by the flowing Nile River and dominated by huge pyramids.

In almost all these projects, the children were working together so that not only their own creative ability, skill and imagination was important but also those of the other students. In other words, they were sharing ideas, cooperating with one another as good citizens.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
by Gene Alleman

Michigan farm leaders issued a warning to reduce rural worry over the coming of the St. Lawrence Seaway.

They agreed that untold wealth will accompany the widening and deepening of the channel from the Atlantic to the Great Lakes, bringing more people, industry and world markets.

"But we'll still need land for farming to feed all these people," said George S. McIntyre, state director of agriculture.

He said that the expansion of industry and residential suburbs possible with the Seaway boom threatened to overrun some of the better farm lands near the border lakes.

Agriculture in Michigan will be called upon to grow more food and livestock to feed the state and also to take advantage of the world markets.

"We'll need the land we have now and more probably," McIntyre said.

Michigan State College is going to test the effectiveness of flu shots it has been providing free for several years.

Each fall when the students flock to the campus, they are offered the shots free when they complete registration. Doctors believe they do the trick and keep more students in classes instead of the infirmary, but they are going to make certain in tests this winter.

People will disagree over toll highways until they are completed and paid for, a period of time which may out-distance the life span of those who are building them.

The toll theory is that those who use the roads pay for them. Free roads are financed from tax money, which often forces payment from people who never receive direct benefit.

After years of controversy, the new Michigan Turnpike Authority is getting started on a toll road between Detroit and the Saginaw-Bay City area.

It is the second try. Monroe residents objected so strongly to the Authority taking over the Detroit-Toledo expressway, a free road now under construction, that plans were abandoned to make it a toll highway.

Already complaints are being heard about the proposed Detroit to Saginaw-Bay City toll road. Farmers do not want to eliminate farm-to-market roads; resort people want exit points nearby; gasoline dealers want stations on the superhighway.

The law is quite clear on most points, giving the Authority power to make contracts for gasoline service on the highways, to build the roads and sell revenue bonds to pay for them.

Public policy is expected to make certain in the legislature that farmers and resort owners, vacationists and "average" motorists are protected.

For instance, one clause in the law requires that free highways come close to paralleling the toll roads.

Michigan will get $551,000 in Federal money to improve airports in the state.

Beneficiaries will be Willow Run airport near Ann Arbor, Detroit-Wayne County airport, Capital City airport at Lansing, Bishop field at Flint, Kent county airport at Grand Rapids, and the Muskegon County airport at Muskegon.

This is the first year that southwestern Michigan fruit growers and other businessmen have received "an adequate share" for their air terminals at Muskegon and Grand Rapids.

"Many of them use the air for shipment and personal travel," said Brig. Gen. Lester J. Maitland, state aeronautics chief.

Another point in the increased Federal aid for the airports: employment which, especially around Muskegon and Detroit, has been at the crisis point for months.

Work is under way on two major prison buildings which are part of an emergency housing program. The inmate population is creeping toward an all-time record of 10,000.

Corrections Director Gus Harrison said that the new $250,000 dormitory at Ionia Reformatory for 230 more men and the $50,000 man farm housing unit at Southern Michigan Prison at Jackson will ease the situation for another two years.

"In addition we can shift around and get room for 270 more, which should ease the situation considerably," he said.

To make the picture even brighter, a new 600-man prison will be built at Ionia. It is expected to be ready within two years when the population reaches the desperation point again.

Depth Perception Fault May Lead To Accidents

Faulty depth perception and other eyesight problems account for a high proportion of home accidents involving "do-it-yourself" enthusiasts, according to Stuart F. Campbell, Northville optometrist.

He cited National Safety Council statistics pointing to a recent rise in self-injuries among home tinkers.

"Vision adequate to read a newspaper may be unsafe for tasks requiring hand and eye coordination," he said.

"When a man saws his finger it usually involves poor judgment of the distance and dimensions of the material at hand—poor depth perception.

"The ability to use the two eyes together as a team is particularly important in doing precision work involving sharp tools."

Dr. Campbell said that most visual problems which might cause accidents can be corrected, and the hobby fan can learn to compensate for difficulties that cannot be corrected. He also recommended safety glasses as protection against eye injuries from flying particles such as wood or metal chips.

Lovett's Injury Imperils Mustangs' Drive For Second Place

Northville Whips Brighton Team By 7 to 6 Score

It will be a matter of "fish or cut bait" for the Northville High school Mustangs Friday as they journey to Keego Harbor for the final game of the 1954 gridiron season.

With the Brighton contest safely past, though by a slim 7 to 6 margin, Northville will be shooting for second place in the Oakland-Wayne county conference Clarkston, which defeated the Mustangs 19 to 13 two weeks ago, already has clinched the championship with a 5 to 1 record, whipping Holly last week 19 to 6.

Northville can clinch second place by beating Keego Harbor, which has a 2-3-1 record, or if the Keego will take second with three victories, two losses and one tie, the latter with Brighton.

Never in the short history of the league has Northville finished lower than second but Head Coach Dick Kay got out the winning towel this week, afraid the tradition will be broken. Northville was champion four years ago, and runner-up the next two years.

Full back Bud Lovett, who has been on the injured list with a bad shoulder for the past two games, is a doubtful starter, and if he is unable to play the Mustangs' chances are not too good. This is especially true, Kay said, if the rest of the squad lets down as they did against Brighton. The latter team, which has only a tie with Holly to its credit and has lost its four other league contests, gave the Mustangs a terrific battle last Friday.

Following the kickoff to Brighton, the teams felt each other out for several minutes until Brighton fumbled and Northville recovered on the 20 yard stripe.

A spinner play and a quick-opener took the ball to the 18. Halfback Larry Meyer then tore off tackle on a wingback reverse and scampered 18 yards to score.

Paul Schulz' kick was bearily inside the uprights, but it counted, and Northville had all the points it needed to win.

The remainder of the half was a seesaw affair, with neither team being able to produce a scoring drive.

With two minutes remaining in the third quarter, Brighton took the ball on its own 27 and marched 73 yards to the Northville goal.

The drive took more than 10 minutes, but Brighton controlled the ball for the entire time.

KEEP MARCH ALIVE

Three times the visitors gambled on fourth down, and each time battered through for the Mustang line to keep the march alive. Fullback Bob Meeks, work-horse of the Brighton backfield, was thrown back three times from the two-yard line but on the fourth down battered through for the touchdown.

A pitchout to a halfback fell inches short on the try for an extra point. Northville then came to life again in an effort to tally an insurance touchdown. Bud Bell checked on two passes, and some fine running by Meyer worked the ball to the Brighton one yard line, but there a fumble which was recovered by Brighton ended the drive.

The league standings:

Team	W	L	Tie
Clarkston	5	1	0
Northville	3	2	0
Milford	3	3	0
Clarenceville	3	3	0
Keego Harbor	2	2	1
Holly	2	4	0
Brighton	0	4	1

YOU AIN'T GOIN' NO PLACE, BROTHER, says Northville's Vireil Houtz (14) as he wraps his arms around Brighton's Bob Meeks. Co-Capt. Joe Girardin lies sprawling in front of Meeks, while Dave Goss (3) comes in just in case the battering fullback breaks away.

THAT'S NOT A BOMB, fellers, just a football. Mustang Paul Schulz (5) looks a bit horrified as he gazes at a fumble in Friday's game with Brighton. Dave Biery (10) dashes in while two Brighton players try to decide what to do about it. Biery recovered to keep a Northville drive going.

Preaching and Practicing

There is an old story about a mother who had three sons, one was a minister another was a Doctor and the third was a lawyer. Whenever she was asked about the occupations of her three sons she would say, "I have one who preaches and two sons who practice." I'm sure all of us realize that preaching and practicing go together. An old saying credited to some ministers which says "Don't do as I do, do as I say" has certainly never received much approval in any congregation. Surely what we profess should be backed up with a life which is in agreement with our profession. As another has said, "What you do speaks so loud that I cannot hear what you said!" Titus 1: 16 says this of certain people, "They profess that they know God, but in their works they deny Him, being abominable and disobedient and unto every good work reprobate." Apostle James had this in mind about mere profession which does not result in corresponding works when he said "What doth it profit, my brethren, thought a man say he hath faith and have not works? can (that kind of) faith save him?" The answer is No! The faith that is true and saving results in sound practice as well.
