for the Record

by G. H. C.

There is an old saying to the effect that everybody talks about the weather but no one does anything about it. Until this week, the adage might well have been paraphrased to apply to the Northville Record's coverage of news about the rapidly growing Novi area. We have talked about the need for more comprehensive coverage for a long time, but until now we haven't done much about it. The fact that this week we have moved to remedy this deficiency—see Pages 2 and 3—is in itself news which we hope will be welcomed by our large number of subscribers in the Novi area.

The widely read weekly column which Mrs. Luther Rix has written so ably for many years, is to be supplemented henceforth by the efforts of a new member of the Record staff, Mrs. Ruth D. Clarke, who worked for the Record several years ago and then went on to larger metropolitan papers. After taking time off to rear her children to school age, Mrs. Clarke rejoins our staff next week for the specific purpose of developing as much news as possible about the doings of Novi civic organizations, and township agencies, as well as personal items that will be of interest in the Novi community. Mrs. Rix will continue to write her own weekly column as in the past, and will expand it as much as time permits. Tom Cummings, of the Record staff, will be available to take pictures of current interest.

We shall appreciate the help of our subscribers in gathering as much Novi news as possible. Phone calls to Mrs. Rix (245-J), or the Northville Record (200 or 1101) will insure that your news gets in the paper.

Zoning Ordinance Nears Approval

Northville township's proposed new zoning ordinance will be forwarded to the Wayne County Coordinating committee, for approval as soon as minor changes can be made by the township zoning board, according to Robert H. Shaffer, board chairman.

A series of public meetings have been held by the zoning board to explain provisions of the new ordinance to residents. According to Shaffer only a comparatively small number of individuals have attended the meetings. Those who have come, he said, have asked for clarification of certain points, but in general have expressed satisfaction with its aim to safeguard property values and health conditions. Shaffer said the purpose of the improved ordinance is to insure that the township's future growth will be on an orderly basis, and to establish certain areas for commercial and light industry use. The latter is regarded as of paramount importance if the township is to gradually build up its assessed valuation to a point that will keep down the tax rate on residential property.

After the Wayne County Coordinating committee approves the ordinance as drawn, it will be submitted to the township board for adoption. A 30-day period must elapse after adoption before it becomes effective. If, during this period, petitions for an election should be filed by eight percent of the total number of voters at the last gubernatorial election, such an election would be ordered by the township board.

Co-ordinating Council To Meet Thursday Evening

The first meeting in 1955 of the Co-ordinating council will be held tonight (Thursday) at the Village hall at 8 p.m.

All regular members are urged to be present and those unable to attend are requested to send a substitute.

Skaters, Parents Warned About Mill Pond Ice

The ice on the Mill pond is from five to six inches thick, but skaters are warned to stay away from the inlet on the south side and edges bordering the dam, said Stanley, Johnston, recreation director.

All skaters are urged to use common sense when skating on the pond. Parents should not allow the younger children to skate alone.

The ice will be checked daily for thickness and danger spots, he said.

43% of Twp. Taxes Paid Since Dec. 17

Northville Township Treasurer Roy M. Terrill reports that tax collections for the first three weeks have reached $82,210, or 43 percent of the total levy of approximately $219,000.

This is a good record for payment of the township, Terrill said. Collections started Dec. 17 and are above the rate of a year ago.

Parking Meters Pay Northville $50,088 In 5 Years

Since parking meters were installed in Northville five years ago, collections have totaled $50,088, according to Village Clerk Mary Alexander. This sum has provided for payments on the cost of the meters and improvements to Village parking facilities.

In addition to the revenue to the Village, merchants point out two other advantages. The main one is that shoppers find it convenient to park. This is in contrast to previous years when unrestricted parking encouraged the use of spaces for several hours, or all day.

The more rapid turnover on downtown streets resulting from metered time has been a stimulant to business, they assert. Northville has 152 meters on streets and 97 in the two city parking lots.

Lifts Truck To Save Driver At R.R. Crossing

Benjamin Bryant, age 21, of Salem, lifted an overturned panel truck on the C. & O. railway track alone to free the driver, Henry LaMont, minutes before a freight train, traveling at high speed, threw the truck from the track.

The rescue occurred Dec. 28 at the railroad crossing at Five Mile Rd., near Ridge, when LaMont's truck slid on the icy pavement and collided with the C. & O. flasher signal, overturning to pin the driver's leg underneath.

Bryant, who works for Dewey M. Burrell, came along with his truck in time to see LaMont struggling to extricate his leg. Although LaMont was not on the track he could have been seriously injured when the freight train collided with the truck. Bryant was able to lift the truck sufficiently for LaMont to pull his leg free. After the train passed Bryant took LaMont to Atchison Memorial hospital, Northville.

Optimist Club Youth Programs Attract Nearly 1,000 Boys And Girls In 1954

Nearly a thousand boys and girls participated last year in the many projects sponsored by the Northville Optimist club and implemented by the various members who gave fully of their time and efforts to make these activities a success.

The Northville Optimists take this creed, "Friend of the Boy", seriously, and give generously with funds, and more important, time. Many evenings and weekends are spent by these men to operate and assist at sponsored events to make these affairs a success.

Starting the year 1954 last January, the club was host to the Wyandotte Skating club and, under the guidance of Max Austin, put on one of the most successful skating meets of the season. About 200 champion skaters and contestants from all over the state competed on the Mill pond for the Optimist's trophies.

To represent the local community in a nation-wide oratorical contest sponsored by Optimist International, Dr. J. K. Eastland and Max Austin guided members of the high school Forensic club to a state-wide victory, and finally took 16-year-old Kenneth Krezel to Houston, Tex. for the finals to represent the Northville Optimist club.

Sponsor Horse Show

U-M Glee Club To Give Concert Here On Jan. 29

The University of Michigan Men's Glee club will give a concert at the Northville Community building Jan. 29 at 8:30 under the sponsorship of the U-M Alumni club of Northville.

A feature of the program will be the Novelaires. This group became the glee club's top quartet in 1947, and each successive year, despite changing personnel, has become increasingly popular with audiences.

Second Oldest in US With 96 years of concert singing on the record books, the glee club ranks as the oldest musical organization on the Michigan campus and is the second oldest men's glee club in America.

The club has sung coast to coast, under the sponsorship of alumni clubs, concert organizations, civic and service groups, and school music departments.

It has been featured in a movie short by RKO-Pathé, "Songs of the Campus," has appeared on Ed Sullivan's "Toast of the Town" and has sung in New York City's Town hall. This last year, the group recorded college songs for Decca.

A traditional tribute to the U-M "Laudes Atque Carmina" will be the opening song of the concert.

DAR To Celebrate 28th Birthday

Celebrating their 28th birthday this Monday is the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Plymouth and Northville. Members will gather in honor of the event at 1 p.m. in the Mayflower hotel, Plymouth, for the organization's annual luncheon.

Present for the occasion will be regents of the various DAR chapters in Royal Oak, Birmingham, Pontiac, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor and Detroit.

The special program will feature the Rev. Robert D. Richards as guest speaker. His topic will be "An American's Creed".

Reservations for the luncheon should be made with Mrs. Lawrence E. Mack by Friday, Jan. 14.

D. J. Stark Starts 32nd Year In Local Post Office

Present day Northville residents may find it a bit difficult to think of the local post office as a "one horse" office, but that is exactly what it was when Daniel (D.J.) Stark started work there in 1924.

Villagers called for their mail at the office. Rural residents were

Stark joined the post office during the Harding administration, and has served under six presidents. Stamp sales afford a measure of how the post office has grown during his tenure. They were $14,730 in 1924 and approximately $150,000 last year. All types of post office business have served by two carriers, one driving a horse and buggy, the other an auto. The tempo of life was a lot more leisurely than it is now.

Now Assistant Postmaster "D.J." will be starting his 32nd year of service in the local post office Jan. 15. Not far behind in point of service are Art Schnute, with 30 years service, and Fred Wendt and Harry German, who joined the staff 28 years ago when city delivery service was started. All are career men, known to hundreds of Villagers whom they have been serving for many years.

grown from $55,000 to more than $500,000 annually.

Looking back over the 31-year span, Stark considers the designation of Detroit as a district office as the most important development affecting postal service in Northville. Since then it has been possible to handle most post office problems in a matter of minutes, whereas it was often necessary to wait six months for an answer when problems had to be referred to Washington.

Litsenberger Given Auto License Bureau

John Litsenberger has been appointed Northville representative of the office of Secretary of State James M. Hare for distribution of vehicle license plates in the Village of Northville and Northville township. Litsenberger was notified of his appointment by Lee Richardson, director of the driver and vehicle services division.

Litsenberger will operate the Northville branch from the Center St. Shell filling station at 340 N. Center St. which he owns and operates.

Transfer of the license plate bureau from the T. R. Carrington insurance agency to Litsenberger is expected to take place this week.

Litsenberger has lived here 44 years; is a past master of Northville Lodge No. 186, Royal Arch Masons, and a past master of the chapter. He is married and has two daughters.

Special Meeting Set To Consider New Subdivision

The Village Commission will hold a special meeting Thursday, Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. to hear a report of the committee appointed at its last meeting to study the proposal for subdividing the Yerkes farm.

Claude N. Ely, Village president, called the special meeting as a measure of cooperation with Messrs. Beneicke and Krue, of Detroit, to enable them to expedite their development plans. These are contingent, in considerable degree, upon reaching agreement with the Village about extension of water and sewer service to the edge of the subdivision. The promoters plan to stand all expense of sewers, water, and roads inside the subdivided area.

It is understood that Village Attorney Philip R. Ogilvie will present to the commission a tentative agreement covering these matters.

After Thursday night's briefing by the committee the commission will further analyze the proposal for the $3,500,000 subdivision and the tentative agreement drafted by Ogilvie.

As planned now, the Village may ask for a $200 water connection fee for each residence, with a refund of $100, if the subdivision should be included within the corporate limits of the Village at a later date.

No Decision Now No decision is expected to be reached at the Thursday session, which will be the first time the matter has come before the commission in a formal meeting since Richard Beneicke and Robert Krue appeared before it Jan. 3 "to lay their plans on the table, so everyone may know what they propose to do and how they propose to do it."

The plan could add an addition of 1,000 persons to Northville's population.

Beneicke at that time said "if it is not feasible for our property to be annexed to the Village and placed on its tax roll before the vote on becoming a city takes place, it is our wish that it be done as soon as possible after Northville decides whether it will become a city, or remain a village."

Village Has Restricted Services For the past two years, the Village has decided against any further extension of its municipal services outside the Village limits. Cooperation with the subdividers will mean reversal of this policy.

Village water mains now extend to within a short distance of the boundaries of the area which adjoins the northeast corner of Northville. A 40-home project would be the start on the construction program that could mean a substantial addition to the Village and school district tax roll.

Members of the special committee of the Village commission which met with Beneicke and Lorenz to investigate the proposal were Commissioners John F. Stubenvoll, A. Malcolm Allen and E. C. Welch.

Lee BeGole, Novi police officer, was appointed director of public safety for Novi township, effective Jan. 1, according to Frazer Staman, safety commissioner.

With the appointment of BeGole, the residents of Novi township now have their own 24-hour law enforcement protection. The Public Safety department's headquarters will remain in the Novi township hall at 25850 Novi Rd., just south of Grand River.

BeGole, 30, a native Detroit, came to this post with an outstanding background and qualifications for the job, according to Commissioner Staman. BeGole first joined the Novi department of public safety in October, 1954, as a patrolman. Prior to that time he served the City of Plymouth as assistant city attorney, and earlier as city clerk.

Law School Graduate

A graduate of the University of Detroit Law school, BeGole was admitted to the bar in 1952. Before entering U of D, he served five years with the U.S. Army in the African and Mediterranean campaigns and took part in the invasions of Sicily and Italy. Entering the Army early in the war as a private, BeGole now holds the rank of first lieutenant in the Michigan National Guard.

During his early days in college, he also served two years in the Wayne county sheriff's patrol. BeGole is single and maintains living quarters at Novi Township hall.

Assisting BeGole in his new duties will be three part-time volunteers. While primarily working on police duties and traffic safety, new members of the department will also receive training in latest fire fighting methods. In case of emergency, they will be fully qualified to assist the regular volunteer fire fighting force.

Two new committees were appointed by Harrawood for the coming year. The membership drive committee is headed by Gerald Trotter and Frazer Staman. The sickness committee will be under the leadership of Ernie Pitchford and Charles Trickey, Sr.

Novi Township Adds New Patrol Car; Now Has 24-Hour Police Protection

They're both new—and good. Standing beside the new Novi township police patrol car above is Novi Township Safety Director Lee BeGole, whose appointment became effective Jan. 1. The patrol car went into service the same day.

The Chevrolet is equipped with the newly developed V-8 engine and overdrive. "With this combination," BeGole says, "nothing gets away." A beacon ray light has been installed on the roof of the vehicle for night work on heavily traveled arteries such as Grand River and Novi Rd. A 12 volt wiring system operates the siren and spotlight.

Painted on each side of the vehicle in bright gold, and occupying a space of not less than five square feet is the Novi township identification. This bright emblem by day, plus the beacon ray light by night, will serve not only as a warning to wrongdoers, but as a source of pride to Novi residents in having achieved 24-hour police protection operated solely by and for the benefit of citizens of Novi township.

In addition to the above patrol car, all vehicles of the department of safety will soon be equipped with 2-way short wave radio communication equipment. At this writing, the assignment of frequency is still pending in Lansing.

This 2-way system, designed by Motorola, Inc., will enable all vehicles of the department to be in instant touch with each other. In case of fire, patrol cars can be summoned if needed. In case of a serious automobile accident resulting in fire, the fire fighting equipment can be immediately radioed to the scene.

Fast "Remodeling" For Al's Market

A large unidentified truck took part in a remodeling program at Al's Quality Market, Grand River at Novi Rd., early last Friday morning, Jan. 7, according to Al Harnden, owner.

The mishap, which tore out all of the show windows on the east side of the store and did considerable structural damage, is believed to have occurred between five and seven in the morning.

The damage was discovered by Harnden's daughter, Susan, while on her way to school shortly after seven o'clock. Broken glass and timbers covered a wide area in front of the store.

The only clue to the identity of the truck was a pair of indistinct tire tracks, oddly enough, headed on about a 45 degree angle in the direction of Lansing.

Director of Safety Lee BeGole says that, judging from the tire tracks and type of damage done to the building, the truck backed into the market. After seeing what damage he had done, the driver evidently departed in haste for other parts.

There is a strong possibility, however, that the upper left rear corner of the truck, either a large van or semi-trailer type, will have several traces of aluminum paint which was scraped from Harnden's store, according to BeGole. Harnden estimated the damage at approximately $1,500. It was partly covered by insurance.

Novi Mothers' Club To See School Plans

The Novi Mothers' club will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Novi Community building this coming Monday night, Jan. 17.

Featured speaker for the evening will be Charles Lane, architect, who will discuss the new $200,000 10-room addition to the grade school. He will also show plans and a detailed model of the new structure.

Plans will also be made at this meeting for the coming Polio Porch Light drive which is conducted by the Mothers' club. A date for the drive will be set and detailed arrangements will be made, according to Mrs. Royal Snow, president.

Standing in front of what he claims is the most effective commercial ventilating system ever installed in Novi township, is Al Harnden, owner of Al's Quality Market, at Grand River and Novi Rd. A large unidentified truck tore out half the front windows and structural supports early last Friday morning. Standing next to Harnden is one of his daughters, Lynda. A customer, Mrs. Lillian DeFrain, formerly Lillian Neely, is shown leaving the store.

Novi Fire Dept. Is Represented At Plymouth Meeting

Members of the Plymouth township fire department, hosts at the Jan. 6 meeting of the Fire Departments' Mutual Aid Assn., ran out on their guests abruptly during last week's meeting at the Plymouth Township hall.

The reason—a fire at the Perfection laundry in Plymouth. The fire did little damage, however, and the meeting was soon re-convened. Representing the Novi township fire department were Bob Skelenger, Homer Kent and Fred Loynes.

Using water wisely and methods of fog fire fighting were discussed by the group. Featured speaker was Emmett Fox, Chicago authority on fog fire fighting methods. Color films of the latest fire fighting techniques were shown.

The purpose of this Mutual Aid Assn. and its monthly meetings, according to Frazer Staman, Novi's commissioner of safety, is to encourage the member townships to pool their knowledge of the latest fire fighting techniques, and, in case of emergency, to pool their available equipment and manpower.

Commerce Board Directors Meet

The new board of directors of the Novi Board of Commerce will hold its first meeting of the year tonight, Jan. 13 at the Novi Community building. Plans for the coming year will be discussed, according to Leo Harwood, president.

The real purpose of the meeting, according to Harwood, is to give the new directors a worm's eye view of next month's program. Overalls will be the order of the evening. Scrub brushes and paint brushes will be wielded by the directors with an eye toward a spotless community building for Ladies Night, Feb. 12.

Much of the board's planning for the coming year will be centered around civic improvement projects in the township. President Harwood plans to invite representatives of various public utilities, the highway commission, and local industries to speak before the Novi Board of Commerce about the future development of Novi township.

Novi Taxpayers "Flush" This Year

An optimistic note on the economic outlook in Novi township was sounded last Monday morning by Russell Woodworth, township treasurer.

The good news (as far as Woodworth is concerned) is that taxes for the township are coming in much faster than last year at this same date.

Woodworth, who holds forth at the Township hall in hopeful expectation every Monday, Wednesday and Friday this month can offer only one explanation for this relative increase in his popularity—Novi residents evidently have more money.

The Universe Of Ours

A recent series of articles in Life magazines, we think, given an excellent and thought-provoking insight into the mysteries of our universe. In a recent article, it was explained how infinitesimal this world is and how infinite the vast areas of the universe are.

One of the best cures we know for the well-known big head, and one of the most sobering reflections man can make, is a study of the universe and the vastness of space and material which surrounds this tiny earth. We are but a speck, flying around the sun, and we are only a very minor body in our group of stars and planets.

However, there are so many other groups, and such an infinitesimal number of similar suns and their surrounding planets that it staggers the imagination. For instance, we are described as only a tiny speck in the gigantic Milky Way, which early astronomers had assumed to be very far away.

Also of interest is the fact that the light of many stars we see is millions of years old. This means that light, which travels at almost unbelievable speed, requires millions of years to reach this earth from these stars. If one of these stars were to explode and its light disappear, we would not know about it for millions of years.

Astronomers are still discovering that the vastness of the universe is greater than they had ever imagined. In our lifetime, the best estimates of the distance involved in the universe have been revised several times and astronomers are fast coming to the conclusion that perhaps this universe of ours is infinite. That is a term we on earth do not understand, but which will have greater and more significant meaning in the years to come.

Celebrating Holiday Season

So much has been written on traffic accidents that we hesitate to say anything about the subject—lest we sound trite and repetitious. However, it is worth calling the attention of the reader to the fact that the recent holiday season took a record toll of lives on U.S. highways.

In other words, hundreds of Americans celebrated the recent holiday by killing themselves in head-on smashups on the highways, in running off the roads and crashing into obstructions, and in running over unsuspecting pedestrians. Others were involved in accidents which were traceable to intoxicating beverages, and still others were highway victims for various reasons.

This occurred only a few days after the President's national Highway Safety Day, when highway deaths were cut down, but not eliminated—even for a day. We are now talking about highway deaths, and not injuries resulting from highway accidents. In the matter of deaths alone, more than 500 Americans are erased from this earth every week in the United States. The rate during the holiday season was higher than that.

There is no one answer, although it is clear that the main answer is greater safety and carefulness on the highways. But also needed is a new highway construction program, something like that which is to be proposed by the President. One of the crying needs today is for greatly expanded highway facilities, safer highways, more overpasses, better markings and new safety enforcement regulations. No one improvement is the answer to the number of highway deaths now occurring on our highways.

The Tax Deadline

There is some confusion about tax deadlines because of the fact that a major wire service reported erroneously on the deadlines recently, and because of the fact that this year citizens will have until April 15th to file their final tax returns, rather than March 15th.

The deadline for persons who should have filed quarterly estimates in 1954 is still January 15th and farmers who should have filed such estimates face a deadline of January 31st. Although the tax law adopted in 1954 changed these deadlines—to January 31st and February 15th, respectively, these changes do not take effect until payments are made in 1956.

The final classic effort for the bedraggled taxpayer, however, is changed this year. This last-gasp desperation push—which it is to so many millions—will not be necessary until midnight of April 15th, 1955. In other words, the average citizen is getting a 13-month spread this time, having completed his final returns by March 15th, 1954, and having another month before such action is necessary this year.

THE BEST YEAR YET!

Faith In The Future

As we enter into 1955, our faith in the future of our country and our economy can make this "the best year yet."

We must have an atmosphere which encourages confidence and that faith... an atmosphere in which men are inspired to try and try again, secure in the knowledge that they will not be despoiled of the fruits of success either by confiscatory taxation or by the more insidious method of monetary inflation.

A greater understanding of how our free economy operates is essential in order to overcome the economic fallacies which beset the nation and to promote the acceptance of sound, proven economic principles which are necessary for making 1955 "the best year yet."

Justice Revokes Permit for 90 Days

Mrs. Bonnie E. Schooley, 21383 Chubb Rd., pleaded guilty Wednesday before Justice E. M. Bogart to a charge of driving under the influence of liquor. Mrs. Schooley was fined $50 and costs and her driver's permit was revoked for 90 days.

Police said she struck a utility pole at Randolph and High Sts. Jan. 3 at 3:30 p.m. The arrest was made by Sgt. G. M. Glasson. Mrs. Schooley was treated for bruises and cuts on the right leg and knee at Atchison hospital.

Mr. Jose Hernandez

Dearborn auto worker says, "No family should risk being without Blue Cross-Blue Shield!"

"If every family knew what we know about Blue Cross-Blue Shield," says Mr. Hernandez, "no one would be without it. It's just that good! Look what happened to us this year. Our 10-year-old son, Peter, had a terrible accident in the backyard. He had burns all over his legs. He was in one hospital for 83 days, and then in another for 82. Our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract covered the entire hospital bill—all but sixty cents in phone calls. And Blue Shield paid $300 to our doctor. We would have been out $3,000 if we hadn't had Blue Cross-Blue Shield!"

Your family could be the 1 in 8 that will have an unexpected hospital bill in 1955! If so, how would you pay it? Wouldn't you be a lot safer with protection like the kind that saved over $3,000 for Mr. Hernandez?

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL

by Gene Alleman

REPUBLICANS ARE CLEARING AWAY the shambles of defeat in the November election and making ready to live with Democrats in control of the state administration.

Bitterness has been replaced by a determined move in the House to outshine the Democrats.

House Speaker Wade VanValkenberg (R-Kalamazoo) is the chief sounding board of the new theory. Following a caucus of Republicans, he said:

"We've got to stop being anti-Democratic and be more pro-public. We're interested in developing a better program."

Signs multiplied as legislators gathered for the 1955 session that Republican majority leaders would take a close look at Gov. Williams' recommendations, then draft their own goals.

Already, one Republican senator is working up a highway bond issue proposal, grabbing the ball back after Williams intercepted it during the 1954 campaign.

Senator Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) has sponsored a proposed constitutional amendment for a $500,000,000 bond issue for highway construction.

The controversy started last year when Senator Joseph A. Cloon (R-Wakefield) sponsored the idea. After it was kicked around, Williams pleaded for its passage on the last day of the session.

Republicans ignored him to await a complete survey of Michigan's highway needs, the first since 1947. Williams made it a campaign issue on a "do-it-now" platform and the issue remains.

Republicans are still determined to wait for the survey now being made by the Automotive Safety Foundation. Williams still wants immediate action.

Senator Creighton R. Coleman

(R-Battle Creek), majority caucus chairman, said immediate action is impossible and insists on a detailed plan to finance the bond issue.

"Without a financing plan, it's a fraud on the public," he said.

FOOD FOR THE NEEDY in Michigan has been flowing into the state from Federal surplus commodity warehouses for the past five months.

Official figures show the market value of the free food has reached $2,185,161.

"The food goes to the people who need it most—those on the relief rolls," said a state official. The program was started as a means to prevent spoilage and deterioration of Federal surpluses and to improve the diet of those getting public assistance anyway.

In the shipments of the first five months, the state has received 835,200 pounds of print butter; 455,585 pounds of bulk butter; 304,000 cans of beef and gravy; 540,000 pounds of process cheese and 206,386 pounds of natural cheese.

Welfare officials are jubilant about the program, which improves their services to the needy without additional loads on the taxpayer.

The taxpayer? He's happy, too, to know that surpluses from the farm price support program are not going to waste.

ANOTHER BOON for welfare clients is in the making as the legislature meets for the 1955 session.

Already drafted is a bill which would increase the maximum Old Age Assistance checks from $70 to $80 a month, the first increase since a $10 boost in 1952.

"Some of these people just can't live on $70 a month," said Welfare Director W. J. Maxey.

The maximum goes to those over 65 years old who have no other income, and Maxey said, the increasing costs of rent and medical care make the increase "only close to adequate."

In addition, the increase for old age recipients is a forerunner of a general increase for those receiving aid to the blind and aid to the disabled.

The cost to the state is expected to reach $2,500,000 a year. The Federal government contributes the first $35 to $55 of the present $70 a month maximum grant.

IT HAPPENS at least once every year, the flag flies over the Capitol upside down.

It's never planned that way, though. Some sleepy custodian makes a mistake and all sorts of bad jokes are made—because the upside-down flag is an international signal of distress. Ask any sailor.

It happened again, just two days after the Nov. 2 election. "Maybe the Republicans were in distress, but it was still a mistake," said one Capitol employee.

Reckless Driving Brings $25 Fine

John J. Brose, 24, of 40707 Five Mile Rd., was fined $25 and costs and promised to make $75 restitution for damage to the property of the Northville plant of the Ford Motor Co. on East Main St. when arraigned before Justice of the Peace E. M. Bogart on a charge of reckless driving.

Brose struck a tree and a utility pole Jan. 3 at 12:30 a.m. He was thrown from the car, the police report showed, but suffered only slight injuries, Frank J. Heintz was the arresting officer.

"The Dollmaker", "Desiree", "Bless This House" and "Not As A Stranger" were some of the most popular books at the Northville library during the past year. Circulation for the year ended Nov. 30, 1954, was 33,760, reports Miss Rhea Lyon, branch librarian. This compares with 32,149 in the preceding year.

ture and fashion magazines. Due to the popularity of home handicraft, a number of Do-It-Yourself books have been purchased.

Besides serving adult patrons, the library cooperates with the schools. Classes from the Northville Public grade school regularly visit the library, withdrawing books for personal reading and for special class projects. Book collections are also supplied to Our Lady of Victory school, Clarenceville and Novi Stone schools.

A film service has been established by Wayne County library during the past year. Films may be obtained for use by groups, organizations and schools in Wayne county. There is a small service charge which varies according to type of film. A catalog of the film is available at the library.

In addition to its primary service the library also serves as a meeting place. Various public and civic organizations use the Kitty Harmon room which was furnished for such purposes.

Stark

Post Office Moves
While Stark is impressed with this reversal of policy because it means better service by the post office, he is not unkind of the progress in other ways.

When he entered the postal service in 1924, the office was on the Center St. side of the telephone building. Later it was expanded to include the space now occupied by Shipley's barber shop. There was another moving day in 1927 to the present site, where increasing business forced another expansion program about two years ago.

Postmasters during Stark's tenure have been the late Frank S. Neal, Mrs. Frank S. Neal (acting postmaster), Thomas R. Carrington, Fred Van Atta and Leland V. Smith, now serving.

Until 1928 Northville residents had come to the post office to get their mail. Either they had access to their own boxes or received mail through a window from a clerk who had taken it from the individual's numbered slot.

When proposals were made for residential delivery, business firms opposed the plan vigorously because they thought trade would suffer if persons were relieved of the chore of making periodic visits downtown to pick up the mail. Stark said, After heated discussions home delivery was started.

There were two rural free delivery routes covering 47 miles to serve 125 patrons when the assistant postmaster started to work for Uncle Sam. Today there are two routes stretching over 125 miles with 1,300 recipients.

During the intervening years the post office staff has increased from 4 to 15.

Machines Take Over
In three other instances "D.J." has seen changes in post office operations resulting from the output of inventive minds.

1. Mechanization of many inside operations. Among the most important of these was the replacement of manual cancellation of stamps by machines.

2. Dependence on motorized equipment for speed and efficiency in delivering mail.

3. Widespread and increasing use of air mail.

Compared with the past, when Northville mail was received and sent on two trains each way through here daily, the Village now has three terminals reached by truck—Plymouth, Livonia and Detroit.

While Stark has a long, meritorious record in the postal system, his achievement stands as a challenge to another Stark, "D.J.'s" son, John, who has been with the local post office for the last ten years.

FRIEND IN NEED

Ever have your car break down on the highway in the dead of night, miles from the nearest town or service station?

If you have, the odds are heavy that it was a truck driver who came to your rescue. For up and down this great State of ours, with its miles upon miles of fine roads, the truck driver has rightfully earned a reputation as the gentleman of the highway. He brings you all the things you eat, wear, and use, yes—but he also serves as your friend in need when trouble catches up with you on the road.

He stops when others pass you by.

How spiritual understanding of God as divine life opens the door to healthier, happier living will be set forth in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Life" at Christian Science services Sunday.
Selections to be read from the King James Version of the Bible will include the following from Psalms (68:8,9): "O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard: Which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.
From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selection will be among those read (487:27): "The understanding that Life is God, Spirit, lengthens our days by strengthening our trust in the deathless reality of Life, its almightiness and immortality."
The Golden Text is from John (17:3): "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."

Prof. Suggitt, MSC Dept. Head, Speaks Jan. 20

Associate Professor Frank W. Suggitt, head of the department of land and water conservation at Michigan State college, will speak in the Northville Community building Jan. 20 at 8 p.m. His subject will be "Our Land and You."
Associated with MSC in land use work even before he graduated from college, Suggitt has headed the school's land and water conservation department since Oct. 15, 1952.

A land type surveyor for the MSC conservation institute in 1941, he obtained his BS degree at MSC in 1942. He served as an air force captain in photo intelligence in Europe from 1942 to 1945.
Suggitt has a master's degree in public administration from Harvard. In addition to being a land use consultant for the Detroit metropolitan area, he is an advisor to the Michigan Tourist Council.
Tickets for the lecture are 75 cents. They may be obtained from any member of the Coordinating Council or at the door, according to Mrs. Samuel Geraci, council president.
The proceeds from the program will go to the Community Building fund.

Best Sellers In New Titles At Library

Two books among the titles received at the Northville library during the last two weeks are on the "best seller" list of the New York Times, according to Rhea Lyon, librarian.

"Blue Hurricane" by F. Van Wyck Brooks is a novel about the Union Navy in its crucial war in the West. "My Brother's Keeper" is the other book in the Times' tabulation. Its author is Marcia Davenport.

Other fiction titles are "He Went for a Walk", the portrayal of an 8-year-old boy's trek from London to Yorkshire by Dorothy Evelyn Smith, and "The View from the Parsonage" by Sheila Kaye-Smith, "This the Blessed Land", is a story of New Amsterdam in the days of Peter Stuyvesant, when 23 Jews who had escaped from Spanish pirates on the high seas, arrived to settle in the New World. The author is Louis Zara.

Famous Names In Non-Fiction
Several widely known writers authored the new volumes of non-fiction. "Lights Along the Shore" is a group of inspirational stories by Fulton Oursler, author of "The Greatest Story Ever Told."

Also reflecting the resurgence of firmer faith and higher ideals throughout the nation is the second and place volume of Edward R. Murrow's "This I Believe". This latest from the popular radio commentator's compilation has 100 selections.

"Management in the Home" is offered, says the jacket blurb, "for happier living through saving time and energy." It has three authors, best known of whom is Lillian Gilbreth, mother of 12 and author of the popular "Cheaper by the Dozen", an outstanding engineer and teacher in several colleges.

Associated with her were Orpha Mae Thomas, home economics teacher at Columbia university, and Eleanor Clymer, who wrote "Management in the Home."

"The Practice of Management" is by Peter F. Drucker, professor of management at the Graduate School of Business, New York university.

When you want to Go - You're gonna Go!

No ifs, ands or buts about it.

When you give the gun to a 1955 Buick with Dynaflo Drive,* you move.

In the instant you push down the pedal, you get the action you've called for—immediate getaway from a standing start, or immediate safety-surge out of a tight spot on the highway.

It's not magic, this thrilling and pulse-quicken response—though it feels like the closest thing to it.

It's a principle of the modern airplane, brought for the first time to an automotive transmission.

Twenty "variable pitch propellers" inside the Dynaflo unit itself can change their angle—like the propeller of the airliner can change its pitch from take-off position to cruising position.

And what this brings to you—at the wheel of a 1955 Buick—is the nearest thing to flight on wheels. Far better gas mileage in your normal driving and cruising. Spectacular new response when you want it for extra quick getaway or emergency acceleration.

But all this, mind you, with the absolute smoothness that is constant in Dynaflo Drive.

Surely, a demonstration of Variable Pitch Dynaflo is a Buick must this year. We'll be happy to do the honors—and show you, in the doing, what a whale of a buy you make here. Drop in this week, won't you?

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Dearborn housewife says, "Be without Blue Cross-Blue Shield? Not my family!"

"After our recent experience," says Mrs. Pebley, "my husband and I know that the best investment our family can make is Blue Cross - Blue Shield. I went to the hospital last September. Stayed for 27 days. You have no idea how quickly the costs can run up. Our Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract covered almost $1,300 in hospital bills, and all we had to pay was around $50. Blue Shield paid $340 to my doctor, too. The costs would have been a terrific blow to us if we hadn't had Blue Cross - Blue Shield."

It could happen to your family! In fact, 1 in every 3 Michigan families will have an unexpected hospital bill in 1955! That's why it's so important to be protected against the cost of hospital and doctor care! And, for the little it costs you, there's none finer than Blue Cross - Blue Shield.

Join the over 3 million Michigan people who have Blue Cross - Blue Shield. Ask your employer or your union representative how you can get low-cost group coverage. A company with as few as 5 employees may qualify as a group. Call or write:

the nation's leading junior shows. The opening series of the Optimist-sponsored Junior Equestrian team competition started with the Northville Junior show and continued at Bloomfield, Metamora, Franfield Farm in Northville, and the final 3-day International trial, also at Northville, in September. The final competition saw 80 junior equestrians, from Michigan and Canada compete for the international trophies.

This project is managed by J. P. Malley, assisted by Dr. Waldo Johnson, Dr. J. K. Eastland and Robert Coolman.

The Aeroneers, a group of juniors interested in model airplanes, was sponsored by the Optimists and was directed by Fred Casterline and Alvin Skow.

An Optimist sponsored baseball team took to the field under the direction of Max Austin.

Over 50 youngsters were guests of the Optimists at a Detroit Tiger baseball game last August. The guiding hand of President Don Severance made this outing a successful project of the Northville club.

Another Nurse Scholarship In 1954, as in preceding years, a Student Nursing scholarship was awarded under the direction of Walter Couse. Last year's recipient was Miss Lila Skow. The Northville Explorer Scout troop is sponsored by the club. It was organized in 1954 by a committee consisting of J. P. Malley, Dr. Eastland, Dr. Johnson, A. M. Lawrence, Max Austin and Emmett Wirth.

The year's activities also included many other sponsorships such as Boys' and Girls' State, Maybury Sanatorium, basketball, donations to Scout work and the high school band.

Two evening dinner events concluded the season. The first was the Equestrian Awards dinner, at which over 50 youngsters were the guests of the Optimists to receive a n n u a l championship awards. Fifty-two out-of-town adult guests joined the Optimists in applauding the winners.

The final project of the year was the annual children's Christmas party. Managed by Fred Casterline, Emmett Wirth and William Milne, it was a fitting climax to a year of many worthwhile youth projects sponsored by the Northville Optimists and activated by the club members.

Present officers of the club are Don Severance, president; William Milne, first vice-president; Max Austin, second vice-president; Alvin Skow, secretary; Harry Richardson, treasurer; Harry Richardson, sergeant-at-arms, and Dr. J. K. Eastland, immediate past president.

WINTER WONDERLAND CALLS

There's little excuse for those who love Michigan Outdoors to go into semi-hibernation in the winter time! Each month is filled with thrills in the snow country of the north as well as the lake country of the south where ice fishermen make a holiday of their sport. Even those who concentrate on hunting need take no respite when the snow flies. Bobcats, cottontails and snowshoe rabbits are widely hunted, and coyotes and foxes are legal game the whole year through.

Slit Resorts Widespread Resorts catering to winter sports enthusiasts have mushroomed into activity over the last few years. Today almost every part of Michigan boasts a well-equipped winter-sports area within easy drive of every community. Many of these winter holiday centers offer skiing, skating and tobogganing close to comfortable hotels and motels, making it easy to plan an entire week end or more enjoying the wholesome, invigorating air that goes with our winter wonderland.

Hunters Follow Hounds This looks like the year of the "big snow," with an early fall of soft, powdery tracking snow made to order for coyote, fox and bobcat hunters. Coyote hunts are held regularly on Beaver Island where huge drives keep these predators stirring until they eventually get into the line of fire. Elsewhere specially trained hounds are used for tracking. Wildcats are hunted by still another classification of hound that owners have trained to be "rabbit and fox proof." This development of a specialized nose is a proud triumph with any hunter! Around Drummond Island a group of hunters combines a strange mechanical gadget with a pack of hounds to trail coyotes. Huge propeller driven sleds carrying hounds and hunters circle the big island on the winter ice. Once a coyote track is spotted on the ice, the party calls a halt, inspects the track, and if the coyote is headed into the island from the mainland the hounds are loosed for the chase. Another sled speeds around the island waiting for the coyote to emerge on the other side. Scores of coyotes are killed each winter through such teamwork, and thus the partridge and rabbit populations of Drummond Island are given some additional protection from these potential predators.

It's all part of the winter sports parade in Michigan Outdoors.

Three Basketball Teams Entered In New League

The Recreation Department entered three teams in a basketball league set up by the Northville, Plymouth and Training school recreation departments.

In the league for boys 16 years and under, the Optimist club is sponsoring Explorer Post 738 with Monroe Weston as coach and supervisor.

Another team is being sponsored by Stone's Hardware in the same age group and league, under the supervision of Bob Williams.

In the 14 and under league, Atchinson's Gulf service is the sponsor of a 10-man team. A coach and supervisor is needed for these boys and it is hoped that some adult who likes boys and is interested in athletics would volunteer to take charge of this group. Two or three more teams are still to be organized for any of the boys in the community who are interested in playing basketball. See Mr. Johnston for information.

Under Eighty? Here's Chance To Flex Muscles

For three Wednesday nights—Jan. 19, 26 and Feb. 2, the Recreation Department will hold "adult nights" in the Community building.

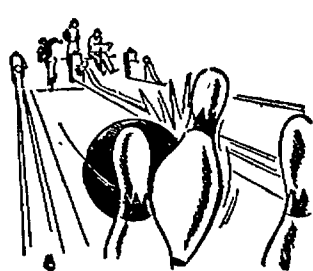

It is hoped that the adults in the community will take advantage of this opportunity to relax with an evening of healthful play, states Stanley Johnston, recreation director.

Some of the games are volleyball, badminton, shuffleboard, handball, table tennis and basketball. Mats are available for those who like to indulge in the more strenuous activities such as wrestling and boxing.

If there are enough people interested, teams and tournaments may be formed for competition in the lighter activities.

If you have any questions concerning these evenings and activities, phone Stan Johnston, 687-R.

Readheads Ire Trips Local '5' To Tune of 48-39

With "Butch" Moore hitting the hoop with amazing accuracy for 26 points, the All-American Redheads "powdered" the local men's team by a score of 48 to 39 here recently.

Although the game was marked with comedy and trick antics by the Redheads, they displayed a serious side which showed their remarkable ability to dribble, pass and shoot.

A capacity crowd of over 700 roared with laughter as a local teacher was accused of pinching little "Butch". The teacher was overheard to remark later, "I'm through with basketball for life."

The Redheads are a touring group of all-girl basketball players who play men teams under men's rules. Their appearance here was sponsored by the High School Athletic department.

Skate Meet Set For Village, Twp. Youths Only

Another skating meet sponsored by the Northville Optimist club and the Recreation Department will be held Jan. 30 at 2 p.m.

The meet will be on the local Mill pond.

Only youngsters from Northville and Northville township will be permitted to enter the contest.

Because of the length of the meet last Saturday some of the youngsters became tired of waiting for their part of the program to start, and as a result, they went home or became disinterested.

The Optimist club and the Recreation Department would like to give the boys and girls another chance to have their fun, and so a full program of races and events will be offered. Trophies for first place winners and medals for second and third place contestants will be the prizes.

Races will be held for the senior 18 years and over boys and girls down to the seven year and under toddler, also for both boys and girls.

A complete schedule of races and events for each age group will appear in the next issue of the Northville Record.

Mustangs Win 69-50; Tackle Milford Friday

Friday the Northville Mustangs defeated Clarenceville in the first home league tilt of the season, 69-50.

Coach 'Kay's starting quintet composed of Mac Burns and Pat Patterson, forwards; Paul Schulz and Bud Bell, guards, and John Clarke at pivot, got the game off to a quick pace by scoring 21 points in the first quarter to Clarenceville's 3.

The score continued to climb and midway in the second quarter Coach Kay began to substitute freely. Before half time, every member of the team had entered the game. The half ended with the score standing at 36-23.

At the beginning of the third quarter an inspired and determined Clarenceville team led by Glenn Reed outscored the Mustangs 15-10.

The Mustangs, however, kept their poise and quelled the Trojan rally to go on to outscore Clarenceville 23-12 in the final quarter.

The high scorer for Northville was Pat Patterson with 13 points. Paul Schulz, the captain for the evening, and John Clarke both hit for 12 points apiece for the home team.

For Clarenceville, Dave Hanford, the high scorer of the game, tallied 14 while Glenn Reed collected 11.

In other league activities Friday night Clarkston pulled an upset in beating Keego Harbor by the close margin of 66-64. Milford set a school scoring record in downing Brighton by 50 points, 88-38.

Northville's game with Milford Friday night promises to be a thriller. Basketball fans in the area will recognize names like Davidson and Baker, who will be representing Milford. Milford, up to this, point, has been the top team in the league. Northville will have an uphill battle all the way, but promises to be ready for the Redskins.

200 Skaters Try For State Titles On Mill Pond

The Northville Mill pond was the scene of the Central Michigan Skating championships last Saturday as 200 skaters from the state competed in 24 racing classes. Skaters from Bay City, Saginaw, Alpena and Detroit represented their respective clubs.

George Omelenchuk won only one race but he walked off with the Senior Men's Class A championship. The Wyandotte veteran was second in the 220 and 440 and finished third in the 880 for a total of 80 points. Henry Ghesquire, who won the 220 and 880, was second with 70 points.

There was no competition in Senior Women's Division because the only girl to appear was Jeanne Robinson. Barbara Marchetti, who usually furnishes the competition for Jeanne, was ill with a virus condition.

In the races for the Northville youngsters the following were the results:

15-16 Yr. (Boys) 220 Yards—

1. Nick Spewack
2. Tom Slavens
3. Dave O'Neil

1955 Packards and Clippers Offer New Ride — Highest Power

THIS CONSTELLATION is the powerful star of Studebaker-Packard Corporation's line of 1955 model Clipper cars. In addition to its sleek two-tone styling, the Clipper Constellation features "Torsion-Level" ride, a dramatic new suspension system which eliminates customary coil and leaf springs, but instead uses long torsion bars interconnecting the front and rear wheels. The Clipper Constellation is powered by a new 245-horsepower V-8 engine. Packard models, in the luxury field, have a new V-8 engine with 260 horsepower. Both the new Packard and Clipper lines will have their public announcement at Petz Bros. show rooms in Northville the week of Jan. 24th.

Laundry Rules Suggested for New Fabrics

The holidays are over and one problem the homemaker faces is the task of putting clothing wardrobes, back into shape. Eleanor Mullikin, Wayne County Home agent, gives these suggestions.

If your new skirt is labeled "permanently pleated" and "washable," do not hesitate to launder it—yet take a few precautions:

When an automatic washer is used, remove the skirt before the spin dry cycle. Then, simply press the pleats into place with your fingers and hang the skirt up straight to dry in the air.

Finger Press the Pleats
If the skirt is washed by hand or in a non-automatic washer, do not wring wrinkles into it. Instead, hang it up to drip-dry and finger press the pleats after some of the moisture has dripped out.

You may want to first lay the skirt flat on a towel and pat out excess water before hanging to dry. This hastens drying and also prevents the weight of the water from stretching or pulling the skirt out of shape.

If you have an acetate taffeta petticoat use the same treatment. Squeezing and wringing tend to "craze" the surface of any crisp fabric. Drip-drying eliminates the danger of setting in fine creases which tend to disfigure a stiff fabric permanently.

Our new man-made fabrics have completely changed our methods of ironing—as far as those fabrics are concerned Nylon, orlon and dacron may not need ironing at all. If they do, the new method of ironing devised for acetate will work equally well with them.

This method of easier ironing of new fabrics differs from ironing cotton, linen, or rayon in that ## much less effort is required. Just iron the new fabrics to smooth them—with a low temperature iron and almost no pressure required. The weight of your iron will smooth out the wrinkles.

Moisture Problem Solved
Ironing the garment before it is completely dry is preferable. However, if this is not convenient, you may sprinkle it. The fabric must be evenly damp, which will mean dampening several hours in advance.

Ironing on the wrong side will protect the surface of the fabric and keep it looking new longer. You will have to touch up pockets, collars and such on the right side. So use a dry press cloth about the weight of muslin. This will prevent any glaze or shine.

For the final touch, hang the garment on a hanger in the air—so it can dry and complete the ironing job. It is true that the steam left in the fabric will steam out the wrinkles as the fabric dries and will help to reduce any shine caused by the ironing.

Let those gathers at the cuff of a long sleeved blouse finish their own ironing as the garment hangs to dry after your ironing.

ALIENS

MAKE GOOD

America is a good place to live. Many thousands in other countries would like to migrate to the United States. Some have even slipped into this country by illegal means. But, no matter how well they behave themselves nor how successful they may be, they never can become citizens of the United States by merely acting like a citizen. Yet—you know some folks are trying to get citizenship in Heaven and heirship in the family of God by acting like Christians. They form religious habits of worship and their conduct is beyond human reproach. But, they will never become citizens of Heaven by acting like a Christian any more than an alien can become a citizen in that way. Jesus said in John 3 that the only way to see Heaven is to enter into Heaven. There will be no naturalized citizens in heaven—they will all be native citizens. This new birth is not a resolution to be more religious. It is an entire new life imparted by God to the soul of every human being who puts their trust in the Lord Jesus. Then just as they once received life for their bodies they then receive spiritual life for their souls.
