Reasons Why Northville Should Become A City

By Citizens Committee on City Incorporation

What has been the actual experience of Michigan communities which have changed from a village to a city form of government? Recently the Citizens Committee posed this question to some of the cities which have discarded the village form of government. City officials of Center Line, Grayling, Huntington Woods, Williamston, White-Cloud and Sylvan Lake already have returned our questionnaires. EVERY SINGLE COMMENT RECEIVED WAS FAVORABLE TO A CITY FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

We have summarized or quoted below the more significant information received. The complete questionnaires, signed by public officials of the respective cities, are available for examination by any local resident.

1. HAVE THE CITIZENS BEEN WELL SATISFIED WITH THE CHANGE? All said YES. Here are some of the comments: "Very much so"; "Yes, our citizens receive much better service than ever before at no extra cost to the taxpayer"; "Yes, more than pleased. Give people the facts and truth... There are no disadvantages in becoming a city."
2. HAVE TAXES BEEN INCREASED? Five replied NO. The other one said there had been no increase since 1945. Others said: "Taxes have been lowered"; "None whatsoever"; "Absolutely not"; "No, there has been no increase in taxes. That there would be an increase in taxes was one of the favorite arguments of those opposed to incorporation as a city... They were wrong."

List Many Advantages

3. WHAT ADVANTAGES HAVE RESULTED? All replies listed advantages too numerous and lengthy to

for the Record

By G.H.C.

What explanation can there be for the apathy of Northville residents toward the proposal to adopt a city form of government this month? Certainly the disinterest was unmistakable when only six private citizens showed up at the public meeting held Monday evening to give everyone an opportunity to discuss the advisability of the proposal.

The Northville Record has been printing a series of articles on the advantages of city incorporation in recent weeks. Essentially, they have been a re-write of the very excellent series written by James E. Littell two years ago when he was village attorney. They set forth factually and clearly the reasons why so many Michigan villages have changed over to a city form of government. After the articles had been written two years ago, and the then City Incorporation Committee came up with a proposal to include a considerable area of the township within the proposed city boundaries, Mr. Littell concluded that the expansion aspect of the deal was not in the best interest of Northville township, for which he was also acting as attorney. He therefore came out openly in opposition, and resigned as village attorney. No one could criticize his decision, or his resignation, at that time.

This week the Record is printing in full a letter signed by Mollie Lawrence, Northville township supervisor, in which she says: "I am emphatically opposed

Electors Advised On Registration For School Vote

Notice for registration of school electors for the Northville school district election Monday, June 13, has been announced by Mrs. Harry Wagenschütz, secretary of the district board. Electors are urged to register with the township clerk in the township in which they reside after making an appointment with the clerk according to Supt. of Schools Russell H. Amerman.

The clerks of the townships, with whom the appointments for registering are to be made are: Novi township, Earl Banks, 39700 E. Eleven Mile Rd.; Salem township, Grant Currie, 7670 Currie Rd., and Lyon township, F. Lyman Joslin, 54299 Nine Mile Rd.

Lyke will be at the Northville village hall until 5 p.m., June 3, the deadline for registration, and Currie will be at his residence until 5 p.m. the same day.

While registration must be made with the township clerk where residence is established, the election itself will be held in the Northville village hall. Further registration details are in an advertisement in this issue.

Contrary to a statement in the Record last week it is not necessary for an elector to be a property owner. A candidate, however, must be a taxpayer in the school district.

Bloodmobile In Northville May 31

On May 31, Northville citizens will again have the opportunity to donate blood to the Northville blood bank.

Through the efforts of Mrs. William Forney, chairman of the local Red Cross Blood bank, and her co-workers, Northville has been fortunate in having a supply of blood to its credit.

The Bloodmobile will be in Northville Tuesday, May 31 at the Methodist church. Hours are from 2 to 5 and 6 to 8. Reservations will be taken at the Depositors State Bank Friday evenings or call 353-M or 402.

New Wells Ready For More Tests In Coming Week

While Northville will have to wait until next week to learn more about the capacity of its newest oil discovery, the local area has been shifted to stress on natural gas production, with a new proration plan.

Supervisor of Wells Gerald E. Eddy said that a change in status recommended by the state advisory board places primary values in gas not oil, shifts responsibility of administration to the public service commission and permits a number of capped wells to be opened for production.

W. L. Daoust, chief of the geological survey division of the state conservation department, told the Northville Record this week that, on an economic basis, Northville wells are better able to produce gas than oil, but that

PTA Carnival Attracted 1,500

This year's annual Parent-Teacher Assn. Carnival at the Community Bldg. last Friday brought the highest attendance in the history of the affair. An estimated crowd of 1,500 persons swarmed the wide array of amusements and games that make the affair one of Northville's most popular events.

Competing for the greatest popularity were the pony rides, the midway, games of chances and cotton candy. Among other drawing cards were dancing, a state police safety movie and a police display.

Winners of top prizes, two bicycles, were Esther Bongiovanni and Kathryn Hodgson. In addition there were 28 other prizes.

Co-chairmen Leland V. Smith and Stanley Johnston, with other members of the committee wish to express their gratitude to all who made the carnival an outstanding success.

City Incorporation Is Favored By Five Members of the Northville Village Commission

All members of the Northville village commission came out emphatically this week in favor of city incorporation, except Mayor Claude N. Ely.

In statements to the Northville Record they listed facts and figures backing up their convictions that residents should vote in favor of a switch to a city-type government at a special election May 23.

The comments of Ely and the five other members of the commission follow.

BY MAYOR CLAUDE N. ELY

The residents of Northville who will vote on whether the village will become a city or not are old enough to vote and, therefore, should know what type of government they want. I further feel that no matter which way the election goes that persons who like to live in Northville will continue to stay here, accepting the wishes of the majority of the people.

I personally don't think that the village's switch to a city should be based on increased revenue from Northville Downs race track. That is money that can be taken away from us at any time.

Another consideration is that we don't know what the details are of the charter that will be in force, if the voters decide to forsake the present type of government.

Wide Interest Found In Bank's Photo Contest

Extensive interest in the Northville "Spring" photo contest, based on the number of entry blanks distributed to residents of this community and others several miles distant is reported by President A. Russell Clarke, of Depositors State Bank, sponsors of the competition.

One of the three judges, James Y. McFerran, of McFerran & Associates, landscape photographers, Detroit, was announced this week.

The contest, which closes June 1, is limited to shots of the spring. It is not necessary that the photos be taken during the contest, the bank said, adding that only restriction is that they must not have been used for publication.

Ten Candidates File for Charter Commission

Ten candidates have filed for election to the city charter commission that will be voted on May 23 at a special election to determine whether Northville will discard its village charter for a city-type government, according to Village Clerk Mrs. Mary Alexander.

The candidates are John Canterbury, A. Malcolm Allen, Earl Reed, Ed Welch, Harvey Ritchie, Lynn Sullivan, Thomas Carrington, Gerald Woodworth, John F. Stubenvoll and L. M. Eaton.

Petitions nominating three other candidates are anticipated by Friday, the deadline for filing.

Terrill Gaining From Injury

The condition of Township Treasurer Roy M. Terrill, who recently sustained left and right broken ankles in an accident is showing improvement.

He is at Sessions hospital. It is expected Terrill will be released from the hospital about June 1, but will be confined to his home for some time after that.

VFW 4th District Meets Here Sunday

Election of a district commander will highlight the convention of the fourth district of the Veterans of Foreign Wars here Sunday, May 15.

John Kulick, 7386 Edwards, Detroit, will succeed Lloyd L. Alexander, River Rouge, as commander. Joseph Varga, 1804 Central, Detroit, will probably be elevated to senior vice commander.

Northville Post No. 4012 will be host to the rally.

Other business will be election of two members of the steering committee members. The district is pressing for the election of Marine DeLee, of Detroit for state junior vice commander.

The ladies auxiliary will meet at the Pruss Szelong Post No. 5672, on Joy Rd., Detroit.

Should Northville vote to become a city it would be financially advantageous to both Northville township and the village, Robert E. Fryer, assistant director, Michigan Municipal League, told the handful of village residents who attended the "mass meeting" in the Community Bldg. Monday evening.

Only six persons who had no official connection with the Citizens Committee on City Incorporation, or with the present village administration, turned out to hear the discussion. They were Syd Frid, Leo Lawrence, Mrs. Drake Older, Mrs. W. E. McCarthy, Llewellyn Kingsley and one unidentified man.

No Change in Income

"There would be no change in the revenue received by the township from the state, and the township's loss of about $4,000 in property taxes paid by village residents would be more than offset by savings it would realize by no longer having to perform certain legal functions for the village," Fryer said.

Mrs. Lawrence, Township Supervisor, Opposes City Incorporation In Letter

To the residents of the Village of Northville:

So many of my friends and neighbors have asked me my opinion as to the proposal to incorporate the Village of Northville as a city that I feel it is necessary for me as your Supervisor to make my opinions known and to give them the widest possible publicity. This will enable you to have all the facts available to you so that you can exercise your best judgment when you vote upon this proposition.

I have been told that it has been publicly said that I was not opposed to the present proposal for city incorporation. This statement, if made by anyone, is wholly untrue and, on the contrary, I am emphatically opposed to the present proposal to incorporate the Village of Northville as a city for many reasons, each of which I believe are vital to the welfare of the residents of the village.

All arguments presented to date by those favoring city incorporation have been entirely superficial, a series of generalizations without any specific application to the Northville community. The proponents of city incorporation have avoided any attempt to be specific in respect to what benefits a city charter would confer upon the community, what type of government other than change in name only the residents would have and what specific services and improvements would be supplied that are not now being supplied.

To effect a change in name only at no small cost now and in the future seems to me to be wholly uneconomical and unwarranted.

Certain municipal functions that are presently being supplied to the residents of the village at the expense of all residents of the township would have to be assumed and paid for solely by the residents of the new city. The proponents of incorporation have argued that no additional costs would be incurred by city residents in having to supply these functions. This can be only wishful thinking, as we all know that increased municipal services require increased expenditures and the only source of revenue is the taxpayer.

In addition to assessing property for county and school purposes, collecting taxes therefor, supplying representation on the County Board of Supervisors, conducting county, state and national elections and providing a primary or justice court system, the township has supplied the residents of the village many other services which have become so common and so much a part of our day to day life that many of us forget how these services are supplied. Here are a few of them, which a new city would have to assume and pay for:

1. Welfare. A new city would have to assume and pay for all expenses chargeable to it by reason of public welfare requirements. During the last fiscal year of the township ending March 31, 1955, the township paid on behalf of welfare recipients the total sum of $10,038.90. Of this total sum, welfare recipients residing in the village cost the township $6,872.66, approximately 68% of the total welfare load. Should Northville incorporate as a city, this welfare obligation would necessarily be assumed solely by the taxpayers of the city and the amount expended annually would be in direct relation to economic conditions.

2. Library. The township owns the library building and land and during the last fiscal year paid $1,452.24 in maintenance and repairs. Should the village become a city and the library continued to be used by residents of the city, a proportionate charge would have to be made to the city in respect to annual maintenance and repair. Statistics show that approximately 65% of the use of the library during 1954 was made by residents of the village.

Twp. Dump Closed Due To Abuse; New Site Sought

Because of lack of cooperation by township residents, the Novi township dump at 40000 Nine Mile Rd. was closed to the public Saturday afternoon, according to Supervisor Frazer Staman.

Gus McCreedy, who leased the dump to the township, stated that it was the failure of the residents to make proper use of the dump that led to its closing. Despite signs and requests to the contrary, people would dump their refuse any place, including the middle of the road, McCreedy said.

Staman said immediate efforts are being made to secure a new dump for the township, and an announcement will be made as soon as a suitable place is found.

Area Parents Urged To Register Kindergarten

Parents of children of kindergarten age are urged to register prospective pupils for this grade at Northville Grade school Thursday, May 12 between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., Elementary School Principal C. T. Pregitzer, announced this week.

If parents cannot make arrangements on that date, they are asked to call the grade school principal's office so that an appointment can be made.

Children five years of age or older before Dec. 1, 1955, are eligible for school attendance next autumn. Registration is urged by Pregitzer to facilitate planning for the coming year.

May 23 there will be a meeting of parents of kindergarten children who will enter school for the first time next September. On the program at this session scheduled for 8 p.m. will be Supt. of Schools Russell H. Amerman, High School Principal Elroy Ellison and Pregitzer.

Board Studies Proposal For "Drag Strip"

A proposal by a Livonia businessman to construct a "drag strip" in the vicinity of Haggerty and Nine Mile Rds. was taken under advisement by the appeal board of the Novi Township Zoning board at its Thursday night meeting.

The "drag strip" representing expenditure of approximately $80,000, according to James L. Hagen of Livonia, is proposed for construction west of Haggerty Rd., between Eight and Nine Mile roads.

Hagen sought a special zoning board ruling and a 5-year permit to conduct hot rod trials in the area.

After an objection was raised by a local resident, the appeal board agreed to take the matter under advisement.

Methodists Plan Drive To Raise $30,200 In Year

Announcement has been made by the Rev. Ivan E. Hodgson, pastor of First Methodist church, that a campaign which will reach all members of the local congregation is now in progress.

The object of the campaign is two-fold: To better acquaint church members with the work of the Methodist denomination's World Service; and to give each one an opportunity to share regularly in kingdom work around the world as well as to support his church in its own local conference responsibilities.

Mailings are being made to all members. This is preliminary to "Loyalty Sunday" which the church will observe Sunday, May 15.

At this time the majority of the members and friends will present their pledges to underwrite the budget for the ensuing conference year which runs from June 1, through May 31, 1956.

Following that, each of those members who were not able to be present in church on Loyalty Sunday or failed to send in their pledge card, will be called on at home by one of the visitation teams which will be at work. The local church is endeavoring to underwrite a budget of $30,200.

Light reflected from a colored surface is modified by the color of the surface. In a room where considerable light is reflected from a greenish-yellow ceiling, flesh tones will have a sallow cast. An orange-yellow ceiling of the same reflection will give more flattering results, say MSC home economists.

They're not making the hills so high this year...

nor the bumps so rough!
At least that's how it seems with Ford's Trigger-Torque
Power and Angle-Poised Ride

Fairlane Town Sedan illustrated above

The hills are sure shrinking under Ford this year! With Trigger-Torque "zoomph" from either of two mighty Y-block V-8's or the also-more-powerful I-block Six, hill-climbing is a breeze. And that goes for passing, too.

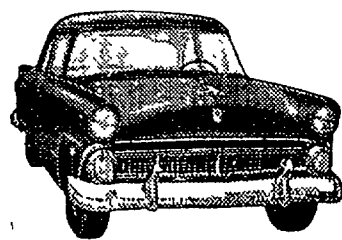

And that new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic! You get even quicker starts, even easier passing, while the touch of your toe does all the shifting. Its new automatic low gear lets you go from low, to intermediate, to high automatically with the drive selector still set at Drive (D)!

Ford's new Angle-Poised Ride cushions not only the up-and-down shock of bumps... but the head-on shock as well. Even the highways seem smoother!

It's got that Thunderbird "look" too! Ford's long-low silhouette, graceful lines... full wrap-around windshield... visored head lights... everything points to how closely the Thunderbird blueprint was followed in each of Ford's 16 new body styles. Visit your Ford Dealer's and take a Test Drive. You'll discover the many reasons (including the way Ford is built) why people who try Fords are keeping the keys.

Still doing the Black Bottom?

As you can see, we don't mean the flapper-day dance!... but a routine that's just as exhausting—scrubbing and scouring black-bottomed pots and pans.

Now that's something that an electric cook never has to do. You see, electric heat is clean as light. That's why kitchen walls and curtains stay clean longer, too.

Man's true selfhood as a spiritual child of God—possessing dominion over sin, sickness, and mortality—will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon "Mortals and Immortals."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following: "Immortal man was and is God's image or idea, even the infinite expression of infinite Mind, and immortal man is coexistent
and coeternal with that Mind.
... Immortal man is not and never was material, but always spiritual and eternal" (336:9-12,16).

Scriptural selections will include the following from Psalms (1:1,6): "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. ... For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish."

Air Reserves To Organize

Organization of an Air Reserve Flight with headquarters in Plymouth for the convenience of residents of Plymouth-Northville-Livonia and Wayne area is planned at a meeting in the Veterans Memorial in Plymouth May 17 at 7:30 p.m.

The purpose of the flight will be to assist reservists who have found it impossible to attend meetings in Ann Arbor or Dearborn.

Persons interested may obtain additional information from Larry Ransom, 1112 Hartsough, Plymouth, phone 1809-W. If meetings are not attended, reservists are subject to loss of commission or rank.

The air force is in the process of eliminating from reserve status persons who have not been active reservists, Ransom said. This applies to all branches. It is possible for reservists in other branches to be transferred to the air force reserve, he said.

Schools Russell H. Amerman will introduce Langfield. John Schwartz, sophomore, will speak on "The Meaning of Michigan Week". The Northville High school band will play at this ceremony.

Will Tour Village

At 10:45 Mayor Olsen will preside over a meeting of the village commission. At 11:15 there will be a tour of the Ford valve plant and then lunch at Northville state hospital, followed by a tour of that institution. Michigan Powdered Metal Products plant will be visited at 3:30. After a sight-seeing tour of the village, the day's activities will wind up with a buffet luncheon.

Olsen, starting his fourth term as mayor of Centerville, was with the state highway department for 10 years. He now operates Lowry's store, is a charter member of the Centerville Lions club and has been secretary for the last three years.

Olsen Is A Shriner

In addition, there are memberships in the Elks, Three Rivers; the Three Rivers commandery of Masons and Saladin shrine of Grand Rapids.

A graduate of Ball State Teachers college at Muncie, Ind., he taught school in that city for three years. Olsen is married and has one son, Kent, a second-year pre-medical student at University of Michigan.

Children of Northville Grade school are now acquainting themselves with the state flag which will fly beneath the U.S. flag during Michigan Week, May 16-20, Principal C. T. Pregitzer said.

Classrooms are bustling with activity, learning about the state and planning for parents who are to be invited. In the classrooms parents will rediscover many facts about the state. They will see Michigan as a vacation land, industrial and agricultural empire, having many natural resources. The study of Michigan is being "fused" with reading, writing, music and art.

Making Murals

There will be field trips, murals are in the first stages; product maps are taking shape; children are singing, drawing and writing their impressions of Michigan.

The theme for the week is "I'm Glad I Live In Michigan". It is an annual period of time during which citizens of the state turn their attention to and reflect upon the industrial, cultural and natural resources of the state, and examine thoughtfully the things which make it a good place in which to live and work, according to Greater Michigan, Inc., sponsor, in cooperation with the Michigan Department of Economic Development.

Directing the observance here is a committee headed by Langfield, with Nelson Schrader as assistant chairman, and Carl Johnson, Harry Smith, Donald Severance, Charles Bahnmler, Russell H. Amerman and Glenn H. Cummings.

Brownies Earn Train Trip To Detroit

Eighteen members of Brownie Troop No. 2 will leave May 17 from Plymouth by train for Detroit to visit the Veterans' Memorial Bldg. there. These seven years olds earned the money to finance this trip by selling corsages, which they made, and cookies at the Girl Scout Fair.

They will have lunch at the Memorial Bldg. and then visit the Detroit News radio station and later the Federal court while it is in session.

Mothers who will accompany the Brownies are Mrs. Robert Wetterstroem, Mrs. George C. Tegge, Mrs. Douglas Bolton, Mrs. Ray Gregersen and Mrs. Robert Flattery.

Any other mothers who desire to make this trip, will be welcome.

Past Matrons To Meet With Mrs. Norman Denne

Hatmaking at Home Easy; Wayne U. Professor Tells How to Do-It-Yourself

Elsa Koskinen, Wayne University home economics professor, explains to Laura Ellard (right), College of Nursing freshman from Flint, that an ordinary household pan can be used to make hats at home. Miss Koskinen demonstrates her technique in Wayne's educational film, "Hats For You."

If you need a new hat for that important party or club meeting, stop worrying and make it yourself, says Miss Elsa Koskinen, associate professor of home economics at Wayne University.

No special equipment is needed, she explains. Original chapeaux can be created on such common household items as pots and bowls. Scraps of leftover fabrics will convert Dad's old fishing hat into a stylish sailor for Mom.

Miss Koskinen advises beginners to start with classic designs, such as the pillbox and sailor, varying them in interpretation with fabric and trim.

She suggests the following types of basic materials for the amateur—an old felt or straw hat or a commercial hat frame made of buckram. The first step is the blocking of the hat.

If using an old felt or straw hat: Wash, then rinse in hot water.

Squeeze out excess moisture and pull over desired shape to dry. (Use bowl, pan or suitable form.)

Remove and cut base to desired contour.

Attach fine wire to edge with overcast stitch. Then bind with ribbon or bias strip of fabric.

Different preparations are involved when using a buckram base: Pass a 12-inch square of buckram through water quickly to avoid losing too much of the sizing.

Pull over desired shape to dry, twisting corners of square so that bias areas will absorb the fullness.

Secure the material to form with rubber band or other means and remove.

Cut base to desired contour; overcast wire to edge; bind with bias strip; and stretch covering fabric over frame, pinning in position. (Knitted or jersey-type fabrics cover the frame smoothly because they stretch easily.)

Bring covering fabric over edge and inside frame. Stitch in position.

Numerous covering or trimming materials are available for adding special interest, Miss Koskinen says. Commercial flowers, costume jewelry, beads, buttons, lace doilies, or cut-out felt flowers can all be used.

Materials may be obtained from department stores, dime stores, or mail order houses.

Wayne University's visual-auditory department has produced a 15-minute, 16-mm, color-sound film starring Miss Koskinen, entitled "Hats for You," which gives step-by-step instructions for hobbyist-milliners. Groups interested in renting the film may write the Visual-Auditory Utilization Department, Wayne University, Detroit, for information. Rental fee is $3.

Village Told Advantages of Incorporation

He also pointed out that the village assessor, village clerk and village treasurer would readily be able to handle the duties which the township would relinquish. Any additional cost from collecting county and school taxes would be paid for by the same 1% collection charge that now goes to the township treasurer. While the village would have to assume about $6,000 per year of the $10,000 welfare load paid by Northville township, $4,000 of this tax-ready comes out of village taxpayers' pockets through the $1 per $1,000 property tax which the township assesses," he said. "They would merely pay the $4,000 to the city instead of the township in the future."

The $2,000 difference, together with any incidental costs, would be more than offset by the more than $80,000 per year which the city of Northville would receive as its share of the state tax on pari-mutuel betting at Northville Downs, Fryer said.

Can't Overlook Race Income
Fryer did not comment on the added income from racing until questioned by one of the audience. He said then: "I didn't want to bring up the subject of racing revenue myself as an argument because I realize it is a highly controversial subject. However, it is difficult to overlook the $83,000 which would have come to a city last year from this source. Even if you only had the race track for five or ten years, you'd have enough additional revenue to pay any differences in cost for many years."

"I don't see why people don't get on the band wagon. You have a different situation than anywhere else in the state. You could do so much more in the way of public improvements without having to pay for them through taxes on local property."

Syd Frid commented that the small attendance at the meeting reflected the indifference of villagers, who figure that things are all right as they are and aren't interested in making any change. Frid added that he personally is in favor of Northville becoming a city.

"There is not now, and isn't going to be, any room for industry to come to Northville. The main source of income for the village will continue to be from taxes on real estate and personal property, unless we take steps to obtain the large amount that a city could have from the state's tax on betting at Northville Downs," Frid said.

Water Mains Are Old

Village Commissioner Ed Welch pointed out, in answer to a question, that the village faces the grave threat of having to replace old and rusted water mains on an extensive scale, and that under the present village policy, this would require either a substantial increase in taxes, or the issuance of bonds. The additional revenue that could come from the track, it was pointed out, would enable Northville as a city to handle the cost easily with no increase in taxes. Welch also pointed out that even as a village, Northville has had to increase its tax rate 6% in 1953-54, 19% in 1954-55, and 6% in 1955-56.

Fryer said 42% of all cities in Michigan have less than 3,000 population, and that Northville is the ninth village in size in the state. Four or five of the other eight villages are considering becoming cities, he stated.

City Incorporation Favored By Five On Village Comm.

have nothing better to offer the public.

Northville as a city can and will offer any services that Northville township now has and perform them better and more economically.

Hundreds of Northville citizens (taxpayers) still live on muddy or dusty streets. They will continue to live along muddy and dusty streets until increased sources of revenue can be had for local improvements. Locally, we have long needed paving and lots of it. We need drainage.

Our water system needs major expansion and improvement. We need extended street lighting and improvements. Our local employees need raises. They will get no raises until taxes are raised or until we secure added revenue.

Two years ago many people were urged to give up their share of the possible municipal improvements which a half million dollars would have provided in the past several years.

Now the same persons are urging that we continue this impossible pattern and give away the same possible revenue. Why?

These same people are urging that we keep away from the race track revenue, as they feel they have an "inside information." This unfounded rumor has been circulated since 1944—the first year that the track was in operation.

However, about $500,000 for improvement has slipped through the community's pocketbook and we still don't have the improvements.

If we can keep the track one year, let's put the revenue to work for us. If the track lasts ten years, good! If we can encourage the track to remain in Northville for years, better still. While I don't follow the horses, I can see nothing wrong with putting "horse earnings" to work for the community. The state laws were long ago prepared for this sort of situation. We need only vote yes for a city government.

BY EARL L. REED
Fire Commissioner

In support of city incorporation, I would like to clarify a couple ple of vicious rumors that are now being circulated.

1. Hot out of the County building: Racing will be barred in Northville next year. This rumor is false and is strictly propaganda.

In connection with my work I am in contact with the County building daily. I am personally acquainted with many of the clerks, department heads, officials and judges in that building. Not one of these friends has brought this matter to my attention.

Even if this rumor were true and the Northville track was no longer needed for racing, I am sure the owners of this valuable piece of acreage would not let it lay idle. They undoubtedly would subdivide said land into many parcels. What do you think it would then add to our tax rolls?

However, it is my personal belief that we will have racing in Northville for a good many years.

2. That the tax for the Middle Rouge Parkway Interceptor Drain will be materially increased to each property owner if we become a city.

The facts are that this tax has already been spread on our township tax rolls. This tax was based upon so much a parcel or lot. We, in the Village, are now paying that tax to the township. They, in turn, are paying the money to the county. Whether or not we become a city, our tax for this drain will remain the same.

Again, in connection with my work, I deal with this situation every day and know this to be a fact. This is another example of false propaganda.

The Northville Record is printing valuable information on city incorporation and I, as both your commissioner and as an individual, appeal to you to analyze this information thoroughly and not be swayed by unjust, unfounded and deplorable rumors.

BY ED WELCH
Drain Commissioner

It is difficult to state in a few words all the pros and cons of village vs. city. Briefly this is the picture as I see it.

To the average person the word "city" brings to mind a mental picture of a throbbing, dynamic metropolis with its noise and dirt and slums and higher taxes.

If we take a moment to consider and analyze our position geographically it becomes obvious that Northville can never be an industrial city for two basic reasons:

1. We are surrounded by state owned property.

2. The scarcity of building sites is not conducive to heavy industry.

There is no reason that Northville cannot remain, as a city, the quiet and desirable residential community that we now prize so highly.

While no one can predict the rise or decline of taxes, there is a far greater possibility of increased taxes as a village than as a city. Let's reason it out:

1. We now pay village and township taxes. As a city we pay one tax. The township tax is forever eliminated.

2. As a village we have:
A township treasurer and a village treasurer
A township clerk and a village clerk
A township assessor and a village assessor
A township board of review & a village board of review

3. As a city, we are no longer concerned with these township offices.

In addition we would have better representation on the Board of Supervisors. Whereas, we now have one supervisor, as a home rule city there would be three, thus providing the citizens a greater voice in county government.

Not to be overlooked is the fact that citizens would be required to register once and only in one place. A number of persons have lost their vote, not knowing they were required to register for both township and village.

Our present form of general law government dates back to 1895 and our charter has not been revised since 1927. Becoming a city necessitates the writing of a new charter which can be adapted to our present and future needs.

We cannot stop progress. It is impossible to stand still. We must either go forward or backward.

BY A. MALCOLM ALLEN
Commissioner of Public Works

As a member of the village commission I firmly believe that Northville should become a city. There are many advantages that would be beneficial in the matter of taxation, and other forms of revenues that a city would receive, that a village does not.

As commissioner of public works, I can see where Northville needs all of the extra money that it can get, to be used on streets and sidewalks.

Our water system is in drastic need of funds, as many people to the present proposal to incorporate ... as a city ...

Because we have a strong suspicion that Mr. Littell is the real author of the letter, and that it was written for Mrs. Lawrence in his capacity as township attorney, we smiled when we came to this sentence: "All arguments presented to date by those favoring city incorporation have been entirely superficial, a series of generalizations without any specific application to the Northville community."

We are quite certain that both Mrs. Lawrence and Mr. Littell know any specific changes which might be made if the village becomes a city can only be stated when the voters of such a city ratify a charter drawn to meet their wishes. Further, the present Citizens Committee has contended that Northville as a city does not have to be much different from the village, except that it would gain approximately $80,000 a year in additional income, and thus be able to keep taxes lower than the village can hope to do. Is Mrs. Lawrence criticizing the Citizens Committee for its effort NOT to try to change the way of life of Northville residents?

The main argument which Mrs. Lawrence advances against becoming a city is that such a city would have to assume the cost of certain legal duties now performed by the township. Her letter gives a list of them. However, if it is as bad as Mrs. Lawrence infers, we wonder why she wants the township to continue to assume this big financial burden if it can be got rid of by simply letting the village withdraw from the township. Either her business judgment in trying to keep the township saddled with this "sizeable financial burden," or her sincerity and frankness of her objectives in writing the letter, are open to question.

A more plausible reason for Mrs. Lawrence's opposition to Northville becoming a city might be that it would be to the personal disadvantages of those township officers who live in the village. Obviously, if Northville becomes a city, it withdraws from the township, and Mrs. Lawrence, Fred Lyke, Ralph Hay and Ed Bogart would have to move into the township if they continued in their township offices. Mr. Littell, who also is attorney for the Northville Board of Education, suggested to the board at its last meeting that the now vacant Waterford school house might be converted into a combination township hall and residence for Mr. Lyke if the vote favors becoming a city.

It should be said, however, that Mrs. Lawrence and her associate township officers have held their are aware of. This extra revenue would help to make more and better water available.

BY F. ALTON PETERS
Commissioner of Public Works

What are the advantages of a city vs. village government?

In my opinion, there are a number of real advantages to incorporating as a city. And, I do not see any disadvantages to the citizens from such a change.

The one I think as most important is the additional revenue that Northville would receive.

As assistant commissioner of the public works department I know there is a great need for improvement to our streets and water system. The added funds could be used for this purpose.

Also under the Michigan law there are numerous other advantages to a city as compared with a village form of government. This, of course, explains why so many villages in Michigan have voted to become cities. And also why none of them has ever decided to change back to a village status.

New Oil Wells ...

Owned By Pure, Taggart
W. C. Taggart of The Taggart Co., Big Rapids, said that his firm, which has operated in the local fields since the beginning of extensive oil drilling here early last year, owns half of the new development at Six Mile and Ridge. The new well flowed 174 barrels in a 4½-hour test, according to R. B. Kelly, a Pure Oil Co. vice president. Completion of reaming a hole down the well by the Taggart firm is expected next week to make possible further tests of the well's productivity.

The depth of the Niagara formation, Taggart pointed out, is 3,100 feet, compared with 4,000 for the Trenton deposits.

Some gas has been obtained from the LeMaster well, and two others in the Napier-Six Mile area and sold to Consumers Power Co.

Affects Trenton Layer
The new ruling removes restrictions on the Trenton layer. There have been none on the Niagara formation, Taggart said.

The new proration schedule replaces one in effect since Dec. 27, 1954.

"That no person, owner, or producer shall produce or cause to be produced more oil than can be recovered without exceeding a limit of 200,000 cubic feet of gas per well in any twenty-four hour day but not to exceed 200 barrels of oil per well in any twenty-four hour day. The amount of oil and gas produced shall be calculated on the basis of the daily average amount from such well."

"Wells producing gas only shall be temporarily limited to a daily production of 200,000 cubic feet, unless a greater amount is positions a long time and have served the township capably over the years. It would be ingratitude indeed, if township residents failed to reflect them in the future, and we don't think there is much chance that they would be affected except in having to move into the township. For them to be forced to move is inconvenient, to say the least, but it is not too large a price to pay if the village can secure more than $80,000 in additional income each year for badly needed improvements.

quote here. In general they included those we have explained in our previous letters to the Northville Record. One city official summarized as follows: "Good, efficient management of city affairs. Better municipal services to everyone." Other advantages cited included elimination of duplication, elimination of township tax, non-partisan government, more representation on County Board of Supervisors, state shared revenues, better control of traffic by city court, better control of government and improvements, greater prestige, better charter, etc.

4. DO YOU RECOMMEND THAT OTHER VILLAGES INCORPORATE AS CITIES? All said YES! Here is what they said: "Definitely"; "We recommend the effort"; "Yes, I think I can safely recommend any community to adopt the city form of government. It has been very successful here"; "Very much so"; "Yes—within the area of Detroit influence"; and as one official stated it, "Yes, if you are operating as a village it is obsolete ... Nearly fifty villages have changed to cities. Certainly they all couldn't be wrong."

Outlook Good For Northville "9", Folino Says

After sizing up his team in its early season forays, Steve Folino, manager of the Northville nine in the Inter-County league, predicts that it will give a good account of itself this year.

In the past four years Northville has been one to watch by other teams in the circuit. During that period the local lads have been runner-up for the title in the last two years and captured the flag in 1951.

While still looking for additional sponsors for this year's team, Folino said the list of backers now includes S. L. Brader's Dept. store, Cavalcade bar, Northville Electric, Schraders, C. R. Ely & Sons, Carrington Insurance agency, Famous store, G. E. Miller Sales & Service, Peanut's Restaurant, George Clark hardware, Pure Oil Service station, Ramsey's bar, Rathburn Chevrolet Sales Coach Ron Schipper's Northville High school golf team added another victory April 29 by winning over Milford at Milford, 167 to 191.

Mustangs Conquer Holly; Fall to Milford Nine, 4-2, In Second Round of Play

Aubrey King batted and pitched Northville to a 7-0 win over Holly Monday at Holly for the Mustangs' third league victory. This averaged an early season 10-1 loss to the same team. King allowed only five hits and collected three himself to lead the Mustang attack.

Bud Bell finally limbered up his bat and collected two hits, one a home run to lead off the sixth inning. The win gave the Mustangs a 3-4 record in the Wayne County league circuit at the beginning of the second round of play.

The next two varsity games will be at Cass Benton park today, Thursday, against Clarenceville and Monday, May 16 against Brighton. Both contests will begin at 4 p.m.

Milford High school's baseball team got off to a four run lead in the first inning Thursday and the Mustangs were never able to quite catch up although they out-hit the Milford boys, 7-6. Due to mental errors, the Mustangs threw away many chances to score. Also poor base running, on occasion, cost the Mustangs chances they otherwise might have had.

The local team tied the game in the sixth inning with a three-run surge, but Milford managed to squeeze in the winning run in the seventh.

SECRETS OF PIKE FISHING

At the recent "FISHERMAN'S CLINIC" for Michigan anglers, staged at the University of Michigan Yost Field House some remarkable facts were revealed by fish biologists which will undoubtedly make life more hazardous for several species of fish this season. Typical of the fine talks delivered to a large group of "student" anglers came from John E. Williams of the Institute for Fisheries Research. Williams ventured to offer a few methods of bettering your luck while pike fishing.

Strictly Daytime Feeders
The great northern pike, considered one of our most sought-after game fish in Michigan, does practically all of his feeding during daylight hours. At night he's sulking or sleeping deep in the weeds, and succulent minnows can swim inches from his pugnacious nose without danger of extermination. Come the dawn and he's on the prowl for food—food that must be obtained in large quantities, for the well-fed pike may grow as much as 20 inches in his first year of life!

The peak of his feeding activity may be almost at mid-day, according to Williams, when other fish seem to be only slightly interested in food or bait of any kind. Getting up before sunrise to fish for pike, or lingering in the lake after sunset is a waste of time, the biologist pointed out.

Method of Feeding

A hungry pike feeds viciously. While some fish will trail their prey for some distance in the chase before striking and taking it, tail first the pike delivers a lethal blow with a rush. He smashes at the escaping minnow or small fish from the side holding it crosswise in his mouth, crunching it with powerful teeth to kill it. The fish is then swallowed head first. The faster the small fish is moving the more vicious the strike—which is the tip-off for anglers to keep the lure skipping along at a good rate of speed if they're interested in pike.

Spoons Best Lures

Chrome-plated spoons have taken more than half of the really big fish in the pike family, according to contest records, and the hooks must be very sturdy. Because the pike probably has the spoon crosswise in its mouth at the moment of the strike, the angler must set the hooks with an extra hard surge of the rod tip. Often the hooks will be outside the pike's mouth, and penetration effective enough to hold a large fish is difficult.

Use these tips on pike fishing this season. Maybe you'll come up with a whopper in Michigan Outdoors!

MICHIGAN MIRROR

A REPORT FROM THE CAPITOL
By Elmer White

INDUSTRY IS READY to strut its stuff in the annual Michigan Week celebration May 15-21. Resort people, the state's agricultural industry and most important facets of the economy have marshalled their forces for the event.

Now, the busy factories have been urged to stage open houses and educational programs during the week. Harry Hirsch, president of the C. M. Hall Lamp Co., Detroit, is chairman.

Hirsch, calling upon "full cooperation from Michigan's 13,000 manufacturing plants," said: "We want the citizens of Michigan to know not only what is produced in our great industrial state, but how it is produced and what it means to each of us. "A favorable economic climate is the best asset for expanding payrolls that a community can offer."

Factories have been asked to organize tours and open houses for employees and their families as well as the general public.

POLITICIANS LOOKED WITH AWE at the spectacle of a man practicing to be governor of Michigan.

It's been a week now since the return of Gov. Williams from a tour of the Near East and the insiders are assessing the performance of Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart who was "acting chief executive" for three weeks.

Hart never missed a motion in taking over, though he insisted quite properly that he was just filling in. Democrats didn't want Michigan to love Hart to the point of forgetting Williams.

Hart presided over the Michigan Senate as lieutenant governor and, in spare moments, skipped into Williams' office for staff meetings, press conferences and other duties of office.

As acting governor, Hart signed legislative acts into law, but always in the shadow of Paul W. Weber, the Williams press secretary and Lawrence L. Farrell, executive secretary.

He got his share of publicity from signing the bill changing the name of Michigan State college to Michigan State university—all amid the clamor of reporters and the buzz of television cameras.

Hart also got his name in headlines with a message to the legislature from the governor, once removed—asking for a $2,000,000 appropriation to buy polio vaccine for all children under 10.

That one bore the Williams trademark, with a few touches of Weber and Farrell.

If the legislature cut the appropriation for any reason or held back because the vaccine would not be available in sufficient quantity for six months, Democrats could say the GOP hates children.

If the legislature came through with the $2,000,000 and bought all the vaccine in sight, Williams and/or Hart could say he and/or they asked for it.

Hart also turned away the political wrath of the Senate, exerting every caution to be impartial. He was bawled out on the floor once by Senator Elmer R. Porter (R-Blissfield) who charged bitterly that Hart refused to recognize him so he could make a speech.

Hart, taking the full charge without blinking said: "The only way I can soften the blow is to say that if it happened, it wasn't intentional."

Everyone agrees that Hart is gaining stature in the public eye, is getting political savvy from his native intelligence and help from Williams.

Said one Republican Senator, enviously: "This boy is going to be around a long time, I'm afraid."

Calls By Police Off To 92 In April

The Northville police department answered 92 calls in April, compared with 126 in the same month a year ago and collected $714 in fines, against $1,017 in April, 1954, according to Police Chief Joseph Denton.

No accidents were investigated in April, compared with four a year ago; traffic violations dropped to 132, whereas in April last year there were 169; there was one grand larceny case last month, none in the corresponding 1954 period; arrests declined to 13 from 15.

Court cases declined to 13 from 15, summons issued were off sharply to 127, against 166 last year. No vandalism cases were reported. In April last year there were three. No autos were recovered, compared with one in the same period a year ago. The total for persons bitten by dogs was the same for both months—three.

Taxis, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who visited it in 1951. At that time Rev. Taxis was educational minister of Bethesda Presbyterian church in Bethesda, Md.

The tract was presented to the Boy Scouts of America by Waite Phillips, Tulsa, Okla. oil man. Expeditions are made by burro pack, wagon trail cauleades, pack horse and back-pack.

In other cars, twisting forces due to wheel shock are transmitted to the frame with resulting pitch and bounce of passengers and wracking of car body and frame. With the new Packard these same twisting forces are transmitted along the new torsion bar system and absorbed before they can reach frame or passengers.
Distinctive, too, are Packard's new "free-breathing" V-8 engine, developing up to 275 horsepower... and the agile automatic response of Packard's two-in-one Twin Ultramatic Transmission.

TIMELY TIP ON NEW TREE CARE

After planting, cut back the branches to about one-third of their original length. But never trim the "leader"—the central tip or tips of the trunk.

PLAN before you plant a tree

What are some of the results of unplanned tree planting? You see them daily—heaved sidewalks, sewers clogged by tree roots—and sometimes interruptions to electric service.

Trees growing directly under or too close to power lines can and do break the lines or rub upon them and cause trouble. And you may not be the only one affected. Telephone, police and fire department signal lines are very often on the same poles as electric lines. Systematic trimming and removal will eliminate such service interruptions, as well as the potential hazard of having tree-climbing boys touch live wires.

We have prepared a colorful 16-page booklet to help you select the best trees for your home and community. Ask for "Planting for Permanent Beauty" at your Edison office, or write Detroit Edison, 2000 Second, Detroit 26, Michigan.

"OPERATION BRUSH CUT." An Edison Tree Control Program Designed to Guard Against Interruptions to Your Electric Service.

Six-man crews under trained foresters work constantly to keep 81,000 miles of lines in service, bringing electric power to you and your neighbors.

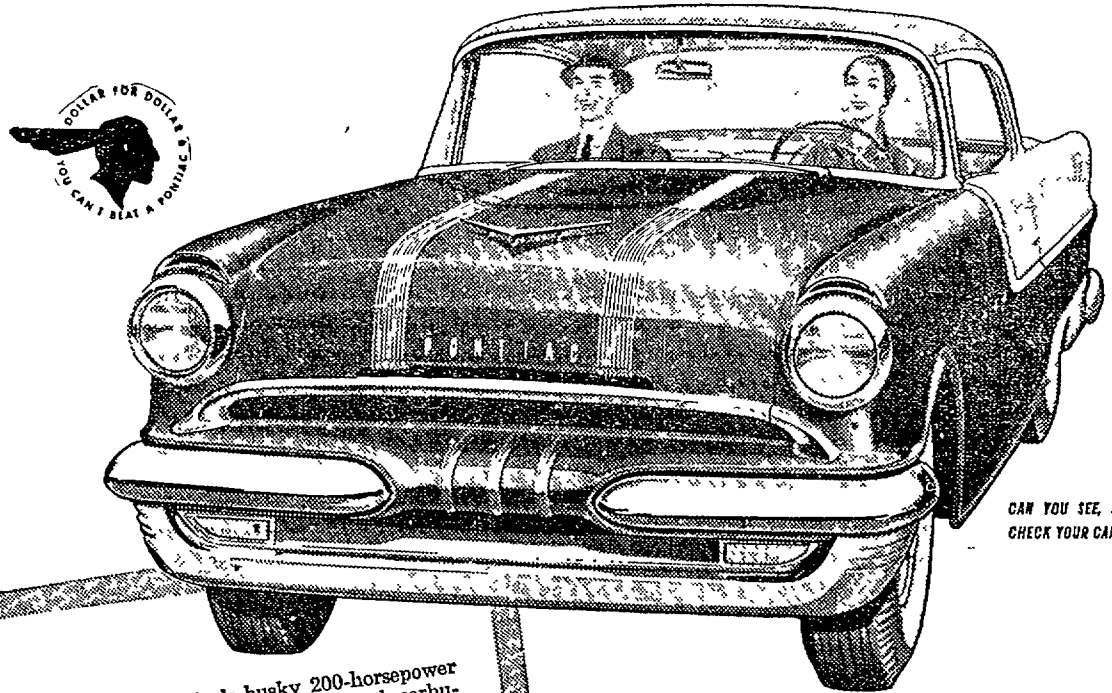

They systematically trim or remove problem trees growing under or near power lines.

Trained foresters maintain the beauty of the trees they trim.

When the "OPERATION BRUSH CUT" crew is in your neighborhood . . . if some of your trees near power lines need attention, your permission will be requested.

3. Interceptor Sewer. There was assessed to the township "at large" for its portion of the new interceptor sewer a total sum of $62,519.79, which is payable over a period of fifteen years beginning December, 1953 in annual installments of $4,167.99, together with interest in addition thereto at the rate of six per cent (6%) per year. The township has paid the 1953 and 1954 principal and interest installments. There is presently owing on this "at large" assessment the sum of $54,183.81, plus interest. The 1955 annual payment, including interest, due in December will require $7,419.02. Should the village incorporate as a city, the new city will have to assume its allocable proportion of this unpaid "at large" assessment. The formula for allocation is the ratio which the taxable property of the city bears to the taxable property of the township. Specifically, the new city will have to assume a principal liability for its share of this "at large" assessment of approximately thirty thousand dollars ($30,000.00), plus interest.

4. Other Services. The township contributed the sum of $3,000.00 during its last fiscal year to the recreation program of the village. $500.00 was contributed by the township to the School Band. $1,100.00 was paid to the village by the township for repairs to the fire hall. $1,800.00 is paid to the village annually as rent for a stall in the fire hall. All fire costs outside the village and in the township are paid for by the township. Had it not been for the public spiritedness of the members of the Township Board, the much needed Seven Mile Road cutoff would not now be in process of construction. This needed public improvement lies wholly within the Village of Northville and the Township Board initiated the program of the present construction and the township contributed $20,000.00 toward the cost chargeable to the village. Another road improvement needed and chargeable to the village was the pavement of West Main Street, to which the township contributed $2,000.00 to help the village defray its cost. The township paid $308.47 for repairs to the Boy Scout building.

The taxpayers of the village are assessed $1.00 per thousand dollars valuation for their township tax. Collectively, they pay into the township treasury approximately thirty-nine hundred dollars ($3,900.00) annually for township use. No other tax payment by village taxpayers is retained by the township. The township treasurer is merely the collecting agent for county and school taxes and city incorporation will have no effect one way or the other upon the amount of county and school taxes levied and collected. It is, therefore, readily apparent that the taxpayers of the village do not pay enough township tax to equal their portion of the welfare load, to say nothing of the cost of other township operation and services. It is also apparent that all monies expended by the township in the form of contributions for services and improvements for the specific benefit of village residents comes from other sources of township revenue, to which the residents and taxpayers of the village have made no contribution whatsoever. The main source of this other revenue is the sales tax rebate from the State of Michigan and the township's receipts from this source of revenue are based upon a population count of the township outside of the village. The population count of the village determines the amount of the sales tax rebate revenue received annually by the village.

To those village residents who are intrigued with the idea of added revenue from racing rebates, let me say that it is economically unwise to base future expenditures upon expected income, for which there is little or no guarantee of its permanence. Commitments made in anticipation of revenue which may suddenly be taken away through action of a higher authority still have to be paid for and when such revenue is lost the only alternative source is the real and personal property owners through normal taxation. Even in Livonia, with its present assessed valuation of $95,000,000.00 and with the large state rebate from racing, the city is proposing to increase its tax rate three or four mills so as to meet its cost of operation. Argument has been made by the proponents of city incorporation that the new city would attain its own representation on the County Board of Supervisors. The inference is that such representation would be an improvement over the present representation. In all of my years of service on the County Board of Supervisors, I do not know of one instance where I failed the residents of the village. I have always looked upon our Northville community as a closely knit one of home loving residents. I have felt that the interests of the residents of the village are so closely interwoven that there is little or no distinction between them in the matters important in creating a pleasant community. Rather than complicate our community problem by purposely dividing our community, it seems to me that all of us should be interested in bringing about an even more closely knit community.

Until the proponents of city incorporation come up with a concrete plan of specific proposals in respect to how a new city administration could be made more efficient, it seems to me that those who vote for incorporation are buying a pig in a poke. More services, more efficient administration through use of city manager form of government and other improvements will all cost the taxpayers more money and it is foolish to deny this fact.

Sincerely yours,
MOLLIE LAWRENCE,
Northville Twp. Supervisor

SUNDAY IN WRONG PLACE

The following is condensed from the Moody Monthly - "I'm sorry you made Sunday where you did, dear God. You chose a day that seems at the end of a hard week, and I get all tired out. You have chosen the day we sleep late. But then, this too, is the day of the week that we have our biggest meal and it takes all morning to prepare it. Church hour is fixed just when we are preparing dinner. Then too, you must think of John. He is cooped up in his job all week and Sunday morning is the only time he has to relax or get some diversion. He can tinker with his car or the lawn mower, or mow the lawn. God, you know Sunday is at such a bad time. Sunday is, in our viewpoint, a day of relaxation and also a day to catch up on work. Dear God, we hope you see our viewpoint, and that it is not our fault we skip the Sunday meetings. Two of them would take most of our day. Relatives and friends come to visit—and you know we visit sometimes too. You see, dear God, you have chosen the wrong day. If you would select another day, we would be glad to go to all the services."

IT'S ALL BUICK

for only 225188

delivered locally!

YOU certainly can throw out your chest and call this Buick yours.

Because—as comparison shows—the dollar difference between this brawny beauty and the well-known smaller cars is virtually erased.

So if you've been thinking a Buick was out of reach—let yourself go. You can afford a Buick if you can afford any new car—and the price we show here proves it.

Buick Sales Soaring To New Highs

That's a major reason for the phenomenal success of Buick today. So much so, that production and sales are hitting new peaks to move Buick more firmly into the tight circle of America's best sellers.

And a companion reason for this soaring popularity is Buick's full line of cars to give you a choice in any price class—the bedrock-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-roomy SUPER, and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

But pure and simple, it's all the car you get for your money that's winning so many new owners to Buick.

It's the extra pride you feel, the extra room you enjoy, the extra comfort you get, the extra safety you sense—from Buick styling, Buick size, Buick ride-engineering, Buick solidity of structure.

It's the extra lift and snap and ginger you get from Buick high-compression V8 power—and the fun and thrill of bossing such eager might.

As we said—if you can afford any new car, you can afford a Buick—even with the spectacular performance of Variable Pitch Dynaflo, at modest extra cost.

So why settle for anything less than a Buick? Drop in on us, take the wheel, press that pedal, and see for yourself what a whale of an automobile—and a whale of a buy—today's Buick really is.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series

*2-door, 6-passenger Buick SPECIAL Sedan, Model 48, illustrated. Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities. Even the factory-installed extras you may want are bargains, such as: Heater & Defroster—$81.70; Radio & Antenna—$92.50.

DID YOU KNOW—

- ★ — that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below any other car of 188 horsepower and 122-inch wheelbase?
- ★ — that the Buick SPECIAL is priced below some models of the three well-known smaller cars?
- ★ — that the Buick SPECIAL includes as standard equipment at no extra cost a long list of items usually charged for as "extras" by other cars—items such as direction signals, variable lighting of glove compartment, vacuum speed windshield wipers with vacuum booster, and so on?
- ★ — that the Buick SPECIAL gives you more pounds of automobile than any other car at its low price?
