Just a passing comment this week to write finis to the latest chapter in the history of racing in Northville. In voting unanimously to re-zone the St. Lawrence property for erection of stables for 300 horses, the City Commission ignored entirely the unanimous recommendation of the City Planning Board. The latter had sought to prevent the stabling of horses here the year 'round and to hold use of the property for racing purposes to a period starting 15 days prior to the racing meet and ending 15 days thereafter. It serves only in an "advisory" capacity, however, and its members must be wondering at this time how much its advice is worth. Nevertheless, the City Commission cannot be blamed for deciding as it did because not a single city resident appeared to support the Planning Commission's stand. The two or three city voices that were raised in protest at the meeting argued against the extension of racing itself, and it was a foregone conclusion that they would carry little weight because members of the City Commission believe that Northville residents want racing to continue.

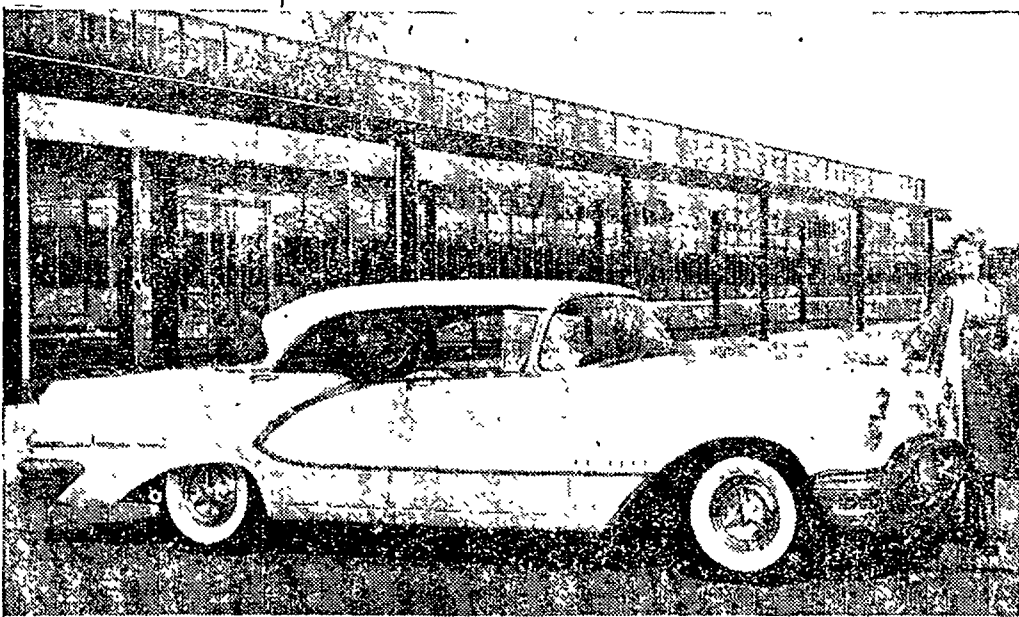

We confess to some skepticism concerning the City Commission's plan to compel Northville Downs by ordinance to maintain a high standard of sanitation on the new property. In theory it sounds fine but we have heard the mayor and various members of the city commission complain too often in the past about unsatisfactory sanitary conditions at the present barns—and then do nothing to correct them.

Maintenance of proper sanitary conditions is an integral part of good public relations. If an individual or an organization has a keen sense of public responsibility and a desire to so conduct its affairs that it will be a good neighbor, no ordinance is needed. If it lacks that innate sense of public responsibility, an ordinance could be useful provided the City Commission has a will to enforce it. Time alone will give the answer.

A happier and more encouraging note was struck this week at the dedication of the new Russell H. Amerman Elementary School, so named to honor a man who has been superintendent of Northville schools for 22 years and an administrative official in the school system for 28 years. Not only is the new building a beautiful structure throughout, designed in every respect to facilitate the work of its teaching staff; it also is a fine tribute to a man who has given the major portion of his working years to the betterment of education in our city. Russ Amerman needs no public commendation to know that he has carved a large niche for himself in the life of this community and in the hearts of its residents. Nevertheless, both he and Mrs. Amerman, to whom he publicly paid tribute as he was being honored Monday evening, must derive much inward satisfaction when they reflect that it was the wish of their many friends to name a school in his honor while he was still alive to enjoy the tribute. Congratulations, Russ. It couldn't have happened to a nicer fellow.

One thing should be pointed out and emphasized many times during the next month. It is that there were many good reasons for Northville becoming a city in addition to the fact that it will each year receive between $90,000 and $100,000 as its share of the state's tax on betting at Northville Downs. The Charter Commission has worked many months to draw up a good charter under which the new city can function far more efficiently than has been possible under the present antiquated village charter. This charter will be published completely next week in the Record, and a public meeting will be held shortly thereafter to explain it in detail. A special election will be held Dec. 13th to vote on the charter and to elect a city council and mayor. It is hoped that all voters will inform themselves fully about the charter and that they will turn out in large numbers to cast their ballots on election day.

'56 Oldsmobiles On Display At Rathburn's

OUT OF THIS WORLD in beauty and performance are the new Oldsmobiles for '56 with "Starfire Styling". And out of this world is exactly where the staff of this paper wished they could disappear when we discovered the wrong dealer's name had been placed beneath last week's Oldsmobile announcement ad. As the only authorized Oldsmobile agency for this area, Rathburn's, at 580 Plymouth Ave., features a complete line of Oldsmobiles for 1956. Entirely new front end styling, new color treatment, and many power improvements are featured in the "88" and "98" lines. More than 150 color combinations are offered. The interior features many new fabrics and colors, and a redesigned instrument panel, combining beauty with improved visibility. Under the hood is a more powerful 230 h.p. "Rocket" engine with many improvements that enhance performance and economy. Ken Rathburn, owner of the agency, has extended an invitation to all car owners in this area to stop in and see the new Oldsmobiles soon.

CITY RE-ZONES LAND FOR TRACK

Lightning Strikes Third Time For R.H. Amerman

Annexation Vote Tabled Until 1956

The city of Northville cannot annex the Yerkes subdivision on 8-Mile Rd., Novi township, in Oakland county, at the special charter election Dec. 13, this year.

Petitions for annexation have been filed with the secretary of state, however, since the city of Northville lies in both Wayne county and Oakland county, Thomas M. Kavanagh, attorney general for the state of Michigan, said, "When the territory to be affected by proposed annexation of territory to a city lies in more than one county, the question of such annexation must be presented to the electors at the next general election and may not be presented at a special election."

In the opinion of Kavanagh, "... the question of annexation in this case cannot be submitted sooner than the next November election."

Hundreds Attend Dedication Program

"Lightning has struck me three times," said Supt. of Schools Russell H. Amerman at the dedication of the Russell H. Amerman Elementary School Monday evening. "The first time was when my wife said 'yes'; the second time was four years ago when we celebrated 25 years in Northville, and now, tonight."

Following are some of the remarks made by Amerman:

"It makes one feel rather humble... I felt that way when I was first notified of the decision and I feel that way now... like I don't deserve it."

"The building is a tribute to the Board of Education, the architects, administrators and their staff, and to the folks that foot the bill, the taxpayers. These people are responsible for providing the best educational program for our boys and girls."

"In accepting the keys to this building I am aware of the responsibility attached. I am dedicated to something, to work with the boys and girls to help them become good citizens in this world."

"The people of Northville have placed confidence and faith in me and have honored me beyond words, they have also paid marvelous tribute to my profession."

At the conclusion of Mr. Amerman's speech the audience stood up and applauded. "I didn't know that they were standing for me," Amerman said, "I thought it was for the Benediction that was to follow."

Main Speaker

Russell Isbister, superintendent of Plymouth Schools, gave the program address. Mr. Isbister said in part, "... recognition comes to relatively few school men, especially superintendents. The program here tonight is an exception to the rule."

"The community is better because Russell Amerman served it and Russell Amerman is better because he has served Northville. Everytime he enters this school he will be reminded of how wonderful it to be an education leader here."

OKays Stabling Horses On Year 'Round Basis

The Northville City Commission this week gave Northville Downs everything it asked for with respect to re-zoning the St. Lawrence property for track use without a dissenting vote by any member.

In doing so, the Commission overruled the unanimous recommendation of its Planning Commission that use of the horse stables to be erected on the St. Lawrence property be restricted to a period beginning 15 days before the annual race meet and ending 15 days thereafter.

Running Races Planned

A backdrop for the City Commission's action was provided by a contingent of 25 Northville township residents, a couple of city residents who asked questions about the possible future detrimental effect of racing here, and announcement by Dr. L. W. Snow of plans to enlarge the local track so it can handle running races as well as harness racing (Dr. Snow is president of the Northville Driving club which owns the track).

In reply to a question whether the racing group might not again come to the City Commission for further re-zoning, Dr. Snow said "if we get running races we'll need a lot of additional space and if the State Racing Commission says we've got to provide more facilities we'll come in again and ask for it."

Will Pass Ordinance

As a "safeguard" to protect the public from undesirable aspects of horse stables—accumulations of manure, disagreeable odors, flies, etc.—the City Commission said it will pass an ordinance setting up standards that must be maintained. (The present City Commission will officially pass

(See Re-zoning, Page 8)

"There is a great deal of responsibility placed on the health officer," Dr. Chabut said, "and the work cannot be adequately performed in addition to my private practice. I would rather not do a job than do it poorly."

Monday evening the city commission told Chabut it would be his responsibility to inspect the new stables to be erected on the St. Lawrence property as often as necessary to guard against unsanitary health conditions.

Dr. Chabut said that his resignation was not influenced by the commission meeting Monday evening although the race track decision did mean an increase in duties.

The health officer is appointed by the city commission to make sanitary inspections of business places and enforce violations. The city had been paying the doctor $50 per month.

"The opening left by Dr. Chabut will not be an easy one to fill," said Mrs. Mary Alexander, city clerk, "and right now we have no replacement."

Phoenix Rd. Gets Name Changed

The Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners adopted a resolution Oct. 20 which officially changed the name of Phoenix Rd. to Five Mile Rd.

The change involves that property on Phoenix Rd. from its intersection with Northville Rd. westerly to its intersection with Napier Rd. at the Washtenaw-Wayne county line in the Township of Northville.

Reasons for the changes were that; that section of Phoenix Rd. has no direct relationship to the name Phoenix, but is actually a connection between two sections of highway known as Five Mile Rd. in both Washtenaw and Wayne counties; and the board believed that considerable confusion to the motoring public could be avoided by changing the name of Phoenix Rd. to Five Mile Rd.

School Employees To Share Bonus

Approximately 85 full time school employees in Northville are scheduled to share in a $13,700 bonus payment this year. The money will be forthcoming from the state in accordance with a new bill recently passed by the legislature to take care of excess sales tax funds.

Although Public Schools Superintendent Amerman has not been notified of the exact amount that Northville will receive, the approximate figure is $13,700, based on a $9 per student enrollment as of September 30, 1955.

The money will be sent to the school board and distribution will be at the board's discretion.

New School Bus

The school board voted to buy a 1956 Ford 60-passenger bus from Marr Taylor Ford Sales at a delivery price of $5,866. The bus will be delivered within 45 days.

Bids were also received from three other car dealers.

Milk Program

A letter from the P-TA was read announcing their recent resolution and urging the board to adopt the government milk program.

At the present time the schools pay 5 to 7 cents for milk and it is sold by teachers and students for a 1 cent profit. The money realized is used to replace school equipment and to purchase new athletic equipment and band instruments. If the government program is adopted, the schools will be able to purchase milk for 3 cents a bottle and will be allowed to charge 4 cents; however, all of the profit must be used for the promotion of drinking milk.

The board agreed to take the issue under advisement. A survey of the milk situation will be made and the three school principals will make a recommendation to

Fashions For The High School Girl

As part of the fashion project for the coming year the Record presents this article on teen-age fashions as the first of a series. In the future, look for holiday fashions, what's new for babies and pre-school tots, frocks for the club woman, career-girl styles, and the big change in male apparel.

Northville high school girls are very much like high school girls all over the world, they like clothes and they have a clothes budget. The latter is termed a "necessary evil", but the girls agree that it helps to make them conscientious shoppers.

Jumpers are the rage this season in every style, color and fabric. Shirley Mkoden and Barbara Archer know that their wardrobe would be incomplete if it did not include several. Shirley wears a blue rayon acetate jumper with princess lines that looks perfect with a three-quarter sleeve blouse. The material will make it easy to care for and the outfit is perfect for occasions ranging from club meetings to theatre dates. Barbara is wearing a gold pin-point corduroy jumper without a blouse. The wide belt, slightly flared skirt, and jewelry shows off this outfit as strictly Saturday date-bait.

Nancy Bowen doesn't usually sit on rugs in her party dresses, but this black taffeta dress has yards and yards of material in the skirt and this pose seemed like a good way to show off the fullness. The strapless dress is ideal for dances and if Nancy put on the bolero jacket that completes the ensemble, she would be all set for a dinner date.

Sportswear is something that teenagers demand. Blue jeans and sloppy shirts no longer get their nod... the girls want to have feminine appeal and yet be sporty.

Shirley and Barbara are wearing the latest in fireplace lounging fashions. Both the slacks and Bermuda shorts are made of acrilan and rayon. Barbara is wearing Black Watch plaid Bermudas and Shirley is wearing McDonald plaid slacks which are slightly pegged. Ever popular orlon sweaters complete their outfits.

Clothes for these fashions were loaned by the Villa Dress Shoppe in Northville.

The models are Northville high school seniors.

Singers Wanted for 'Messiah' Production

Plans are being made to present the "Messiah" by Handel at the Presbyterian church Dec. 18, at 8 p.m.

Leslie Lee, director, announced it is a non-sectarian community program and he is anxious to have all persons sing who have sung in recent years, or anyone interested in learning will be welcome. The first rehearsal will be Sunday, Nov. 13, 4 p.m., at the church house.

This will be the 21st time that the "Messiah" has been presented in Northville.

Miller-Wiley Vows Said In Paw Paw October 22

Miss Caroline Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller of Lawton, Mich. and James N. Wiley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto C. Wiley of Eight Mile Rd. were united in marriage Oct. 22 at a Mass in St. Mary's Catholic church at Paw Paw, Mich. Father Linus Ceru officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's waltz length gown was made of apple blossom lace over white satin. She carried a white orchid and white rosebuds on a white pearl covered Bible. The young couple were attended by Howard Miller, brother of the bride and Miss Betty Allen. Ushers were David Miller and Billy Wiley, brothers of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Miller, mother of the bride, chose a navy blue suit with pink accessories and Mrs. Wiley, the bridegroom's mother, wore a royal blue dress with pink accessories. Both wore pink corsages.

After a short honeymoon, the newlyweds will live in Portsmouth, Va. where James will attend the U.S. Naval hospital corpsmen school.

4 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup milk
1 cup raisins, cut small
1 cup walnut meats, crushed

Sift the first four ingredients

A Complete Meal From The Broiler

Here is a meal on a platter, easily prepared and attractive to the eye, as well as appealing to the appetite. It's all done in a few minutes in the broiler of your range, except for the peas and sweet potatoes, which can be prepared in advance and set aside until meal time.

This recipe, from the Pyrofax Gas test kitchen, is guaranteed to revive even the most jaded appetite.

Sizzling Platter

Prepare your own favorite mixture for meat balls. Form into balls about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Alternate with mushroom caps on skewers; brush with melted butter or margarine; broil, with surface of food about 3 inches below gas flame, for 7 minutes. Pour 3 cups cooked or canned peas into sizzling platter; place kabobs on top, with unbrowned side up. Place tomato halves, lightly topped with mayonnaise, on either side. Spoon hot sweet potato mixture around edge. Return to broiler. Broil 5 minutes longer or until potatoes are tipped with brown.

Sweet Potato Soufflé

To 4 cups mashed sweet potatoes, add 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, salt and pepper to taste. Beat 2 egg yolks; stir in. Beat egg whites; fold in.

Two Local Women To Head Xmas Seal Sale Here Nov. 16

William S. McNary, Seal Sale chairman of the Tuberculosis and Health Society appointed two Northville women this week to head the 49th annual Christmas Seal Sale here which begins on Nov. 16.

Mrs. Francis Wiesmyer, 18652 Sheldon Rd., and Mrs. W. L. Howard, 47787 Seven Mile Rd., will head committees which will raise money for the fight against tuberculosis in Wayne county.

The Seal Sale campaign continues to the end of the year.

This year the TB and Health Society and the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium have combined their fund-raising campaigns and all money raised from both the single bar cross seals of the sanatorium and the double bar cross seals of the TB Society will go into one fund to strengthen the TB control program.

The single bar cross seals, designed by Mel Birnkrant, features one of the Wise Men on a blue background with the cross in red in the background.

The double bar cross seals show happy children bearing gifts. While each seal is a design in itself, two of the seals make a complete picture. The dark blue and apple-green stamps were conceived by Jean Simpson of New York and are used by 3,000 TB organizations throughout the country.

Each week in Michigan 110 cases of TB are reported. In 1954 there were 3,745 new cases discovered in Wayne county. There were 303 deaths here from the disease. Tuberculosis is still the No. One killer among contagious diseases and is far from "licked".

Mich. State Police Will Interview Applicants

A Michigan State Police recruiting team will visit Detroit Nov. 14 to 19 to interview applicants in connection with the current drive to obtain 200 additional troopers authorized by the special session of the legislature. The team will be located at the Michigan State Police post, 7-Mile and Grand River 24 hours a day. Its members will be Sgt. Henry P. Kozowicz and Cpl. Robert Bilgen of the Detroit post.

Of particular interest to young men is a new salary increase approved by the State Civil Service Commission. Training school pay has been raised to equal that received the first year by a full fledged trooper and there is also a general increase covering all brackets.

To be eligible, a candidate must be between 21 and 29 years of age, inclusive, not less than five feet, nine inches in height and in good physical condition. He must be of good character and have a high school education or its equivalent. Married as well as single men are accepted.

Applications must be in by Nov. 30. If sent by mail to the Civil Service Commission in Lansing and postmarked by midnight of that date, they will still be accepted.

The recruits will be trained and put into service as quickly as possible. The legislature authorized more State Police manpower to combat the highway accident rate through increased traffic law enforcement.

Loss by fire of Niagara Falls' two excursion ships, the Maids of the Mist, leaves the famed honeymoon resort without water-borne transportation for the first time since 1846.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING DEDICATED NOVEMBER 14

State Highway Dept. Opens Bids

Two bridges and the first roadway project on the Brighton-Farmington expressway were awarded to two low bidders last week, the Michigan State Highway Dept. announced.

A bridge to carry 10-Mile Rd. over the expressway two miles west of Farmington was awarded to W. H. Harvie of Detroit for a low bid of $186,088.

This bridge will be reinforced-concrete and steel structure, approximately 246 feet long, with a clear roadway varying in width from 48 to 60 feet and with two sidewalks.

The project will also include the construction and removal of a temporary road to handle 10-Mile Rd. traffic during construction and about 154 feet of approach grading and concrete pavement. The completion for this project is July 15, 1956.

The other bridge, carrying Novi Rd. over the same expressway a quarter mile north of Novi went to Johnson-Green Co. of Ann Arbor for $161,331.

The bridge will be a reinforced-concrete and steel structure consisting of four rolled-beam spans totaling 244 feet in length, with a 48-foot-wide clear roadway and two sidewalks. The project will include the construction and removal of a temporary road and the completion date for the entire project is July 15, 1956.

Grading and drainage for a five and a half mile stretch of dual roadways on the expressway between 10- and 12-Mile roads went to Cross and White of Grand Rapids. Their bid was $671,087.

"Mr. Flannery has very generously offered the use of his printing equipment for one month free of charge, to print this Civic News", the editors said.

Novi Highlights

by Mrs. Luther Rix
Phone Northville 245-J

Mrs. Charles Trickey, Jr. underwent a major operation at St. Joseph hospital in Pontiac last Friday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crawford of South Lake Dr., had as supper guests Sunday evening, Mrs. Charles Schroder and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Davis and son, Gary, and daughter, Cathy, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Branch and the latter's mother, Mrs. Dan Linder, spent the week end at their cottage near Crystal Lake. Mrs. Linder stayed on for a few days to visit friends in the vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Fran Jennings entertained at a family gathering Sunday honoring Mrs. Jennings' father, C. W. Poulson, of Wixom on his 73rd birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rix spent Sunday at Flint with the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rix, and their daughter, Mrs. Ruth Watt.

The Novi Mothers' club served the dinner for the Board of Commerce last Thursday evening. The mothers also served refreshments at the Novi school open house Monday evening.

200 Attend School Opening Ceremonies

More than 200 people crowded the Novi Community Building Monday night to attend the dedication ceremonies for the new $200,000 10-room addition to Novi school.

Charles W. Lane, Ann Arbor architect, officially turned over the keys to the new building to Mrs. Louis A. Larson, representing the Novi Board of Education.

Police Handle Record Number of Calls in Oct.

The Novi police department handled more cases during the month of October than during any other month since its formation, Chief Lee BeGole announced Monday night. The total number of cases where a call for police assistance was received totaled 151 for the month, an increase of almost 50% over the previous month, BeGole noted.

According to the monthly report, hunters and vehicle accidents accounted for the greatest number of calls. Property damage auto accidents led the list.

The report also showed up some rather unusual cases. One attempted larceny case involved a covered wagon which a group of young people tried to steal twice in the same night.

Another case is listed simply as "molesting a real estate man."

In spite of the fact that the department handled a record number of cases, BeGole said his department was able to maintain its 24-hour service with a uniformed policeman on duty in a radio-equipped patrol car at all times. Two radio cars are on duty Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights.

BeGole also cited the help of police volunteers in making it possible to maintain the month's schedule.

Methodist WSCS Bazaar Nets $288

The WSCS of the Novi Methodist church will have their monthly meeting at the church Wednesday, Nov. 23. Bring your own table service and sandwich for the noon pot-luck. Mrs. Siame Lees and Mrs. Beryl Hines will act as hostesses.

The Methodist ladies wish to thank all those who helped to make their annual bazaar and luncheon a success. To date the profit amounted to $288.65.

Building Permits Total $681,700

A total of 69 building permits totaling $681,700 were issued in Novi township during the month of October.

Following the presentation of keys, Supt. William Medlyn introduced the speaker, Dr. Lester A. Anderson, professor of school administration at the University of Michigan.

Members of the Walled Lake high school girls' chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Ronald LaMontagne, furnished the music for the program.

Open House Held

An open house throughout the entire school was held just before the dedication. Parents and visitors were given a chance to examine first hand the many unusual features of the new building.

Each classroom in the new building has individual heating and ventilating controls. Lighting in the rooms is controlled by a special purple-hued low transmission glass, fluorescent lighting and skylights with light control louvers.

Fire Resistant Construction

Concrete and steel throughout, the building is of the latest fire resistant construction.

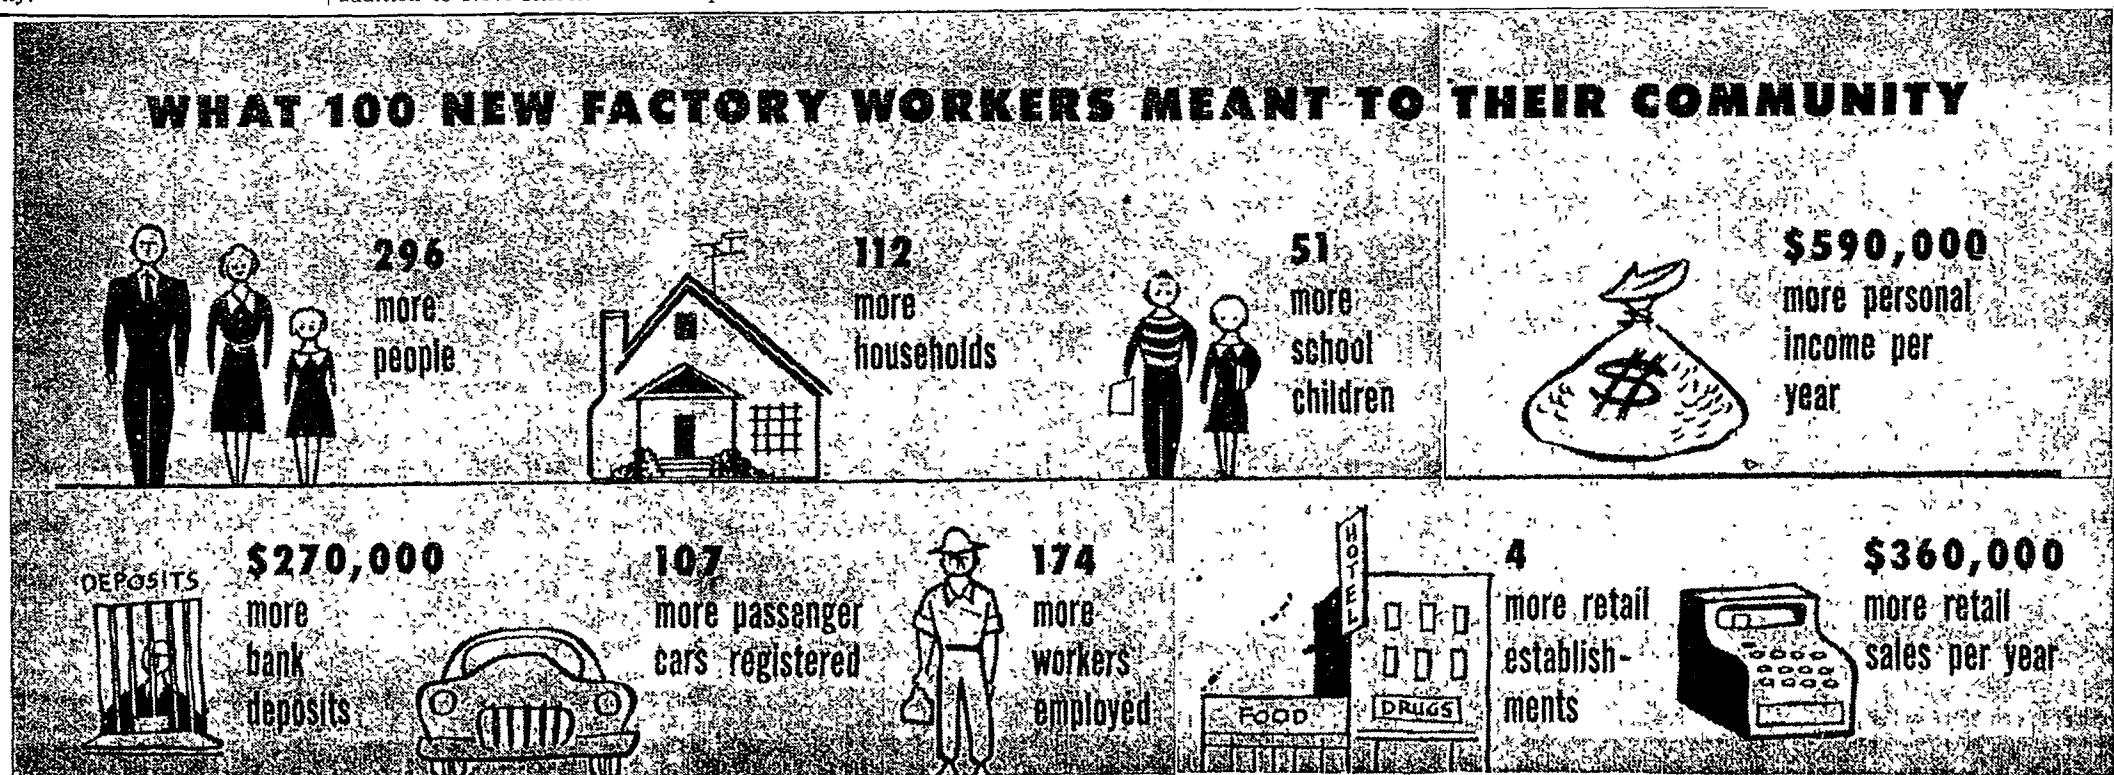

The school, which presently serves students through ninth grade from the Novi No. 8 and Putnam districts was financed by a special bond issue in September of 1954. The first contract was awarded on March 1st of this year. Wallace Construction Co. of Farmington was the general contractor.

Goodfellows To Plan Campaign Tonight

Members of the Novi Goodfellows organization will meet tonight in the township hall to plan their annual campaign to bring Christmas to the less fortunate families throughout Novi township.

The meeting, which will be held at eight o'clock, is open to all people who are interested in the Goodfellow work, according to Charles Trickey, Jr.

Last year was the first time Novi Township had its own Goodfellow organization and the group raised over $1,000 for needy people in the area.

This illustration taken from a national Chamber of Commerce magazine points out what a factory employing 100 people can do for a community. The new Lincoln plant at Wixom Rd. and Grand River will employ between 4,000 and 5,000 people.

FISH HATCHERY NOT CLOSED

OSCAR THOMPSON

Record Gets Run-Around, But Finally --- The Truth

Speaking of fish stories... Two weeks ago the retiring superintendent of the local government operated fish hatchery Cap Widmyer, told the Record that the hatchery would be closed when he left. The story was printed.

The day that the paper was published, Oscar Thompson phoned the Record office and reported that he was the new superintendent and that the hatchery was definitely open. In the meantime, Cap Widmyer had left town.

Believing that a circle is the longest distance to a point and that the old run-around is anything but fun, the Record decided to get to the bottom of the story by going to the top.

A letter was written to Ernest O. Rogers, Regional Supervisor of Game-fish and Fisheries, in Minneapolis, Minn. asking for the truth of the situation.

Mr. Rogers replied that "...there has been a drastic lowering of the water supply which makes it necessary to curtail trout production below an economical level. We would like to make clear that the hatchery is not being closed at this time. Negotiations have been under way with our Branch of Fishery Biology who will probably make use of a considerable part of the buildings in connection with their Great Lakes trout program.

"In other words, as of now it will simply mean a lessening of the fish-cultural activities and an increase in the use of the plant by the Branch of Fishery Biology, with the Branch of Game-fish and Fisheries under which it has operated retaining control so that it could be reopened for production on short order if the occasion demands," Rogers said.

"Regardless of which branch handles the administration of the hatchery," Rogers continued, "we can assure you that the grounds and buildings will be maintained in a manner which will not discredit the city of Northville."

In regards to Mr. Oscar Thompson's status, Rogers said that "...he is as of now our fishery representative or acting superintendent and has full authority in the operation of the station to the same degree as had Cap Widmyer. Who will control the station administratively after the Branch of Fishery Biology becomes more active, it is impossible to say at this time. Fish production will probably necessarily be at a maximum, but it is possible that some fish may be grown to the extent we are able to provide water."

THOMPSON'S SERVICE Oscar Thompson has been a government employee since 1909. At that time he was associated with the Bayfield Fish Hatchery in Wisconsin. He entered the army in 1917 and re-entered government service as a civilian in 1935 as a foreman in the wild life division in Crawford, Neb.

Thompson was transferred to the Northville station in 1947 where he has acted as the assistant superintendent until his recent promotion.

Choir Here On Goodwill Tour

The Wings Over Jordan choir will sing in Northville at the First Methodist church Monday, Nov. 14 at 7:30 p.m.

The original 37-voice, radio-famous Wings Over Jordan choir has been divided into three good-will choirs. This was done for two reasons: to give more people an opportunity to hear Negro music at its best; and, secondly, to create good will through fellowship among America's two dominant races.

The concert will be preceded by a pot-luck dinner in the Richards Fellowship hall at 6:30 p.m.

Everyone desiring to attend is asked to call the Methodist church office by Sunday, Nov. 13.

lowship among America's two dominant races.

The Wings Over Jordan choir in our community is being entertained by local citizens as a gesture of good will toward all races.

There will be no admission charge. A generous free-will offering will enable the choir to continue their work as ambassadors of good will.

The concert will be preceded by a pot-luck dinner in the Richards Fellowship hall at 6:30 p.m.

Everyone desiring to attend is asked to call the Methodist church office by Sunday, Nov. 13.

The nation's first regularly scheduled air passenger service originated in Michigan in 1926 when Stout Air Services began round trip flights daily between Detroit and Grand Rapids.

Carlson Receives Silver Beaver Award

Arthur C. Carlson, prominent Northville citizen and businessman, received Scouting's coveted Silver Beaver award at the Sunset District annual meeting last Thursday evening.

Local Council Executive board member Robert G. Jamieson presented the award on behalf of the national council. Jamieson explained that only 17 such awards were being made this year in the Detroit area council which has over 17,000 volunteer scout leaders in its present membership. Said Jamieson, "this means that only one in one thousand leaders can possibly be recognized in receiving a Silver Beaver."

The evening program, which followed dinner in the Scout Reservation dining hall, included an election of district officers for 1956 and various items of entertainment.

Carlson's Beaver is in recognition for his more than 20 years of service to the youth of his community. He was a pioneer in Cub Scouting when the program was first introduced in Northville in 1934. Boys who joined as Cubs in his Pack N-1, sponsored by Northville V.F.W., are today grown men of prominence and serving as adult leaders in many scouting capacities.

Besides his interest in youth, Mr. Carlson has been active in local veterans' affairs and has served for many years as Sunday School teacher at Northville Presbyterian church.

The citation read by Jamieson accompanying the award is as follows: "Devoted Churchman, Sunday School teacher and leader in civic activities, this gentleman has served youth in many ways. A pioneer in the Cubbing Program, he served as Cubmaster for many years and helped organize several Cub Scout Packs among the youth of his community."

"As a respected leader in ex-servicemen's organizations, he has interpreted Scouting to many fine people. His patience with parents, and understanding of boys, has made for Scouting hundreds of friends."

Hundreds Attend
Hundreds of Northville residents attended the dedication program to honor Mr. Amerman and to acquaint themselves with the school.

President of the Board of Education, Robert Coolman, expressed the hope that the community would use the school. "This is your school," he said, "and we hope that you will use it."

Robert Hart made the following acknowledgements of special recognition: Bob Williams and the high school band; Eberly Smith Associates, the architects; V.F.W. post and auxiliary for their donation of flags; American Legion for the flag pole; Mothers' club for the furniture in the faculty lounge; Northville Retail Merchants Assn. for the flowers; Garden club for the decorations; P-TA for the refreshments, and the dedication group for their planning. Inspired By Knights Of Yore

It's a long call from King Arthur's Round-Table Knights to today's mechanical products, but the similarity between them is more than just coincidence.

That's the opinion of Brooks Stevens, noted industrial stylist, who here points out the evolutionary design linking a modern outboard motor with the helmet worn by armored knights.

"Medieval artisans were experts in functional design," Stevens explains, "and this styling is being recaptured in today's industrial motifs. A typical example is Johnson's new thirty h.p. outboard, a chrome-trimmed custom-styled unit which, appropriately enough in view of its design origin, is called the 'Javelin'."

"We call it 'advanced' styling—but it's a modern adaptation of the art of the ancient craftsmen."

The Javelin is one of nine 1956 models in which the manufacturer places emphasis on style and color.

out of existence when Northville adopts its new charter Dec. 13. Commissioner Stubenvoll indicated that all present members who run for re-election are confident of winning.

Welch Talks Big

Interesting aspects of the Monday meeting were the assertion by Commissioner Ed Welch that neither John Carlos, Northville Downs nor the Driving club is running this city; Dr. Snow's statement that "I know Carlos' background and I know he goes ahead sometimes without waiting," and the Commission's subsequent ignoring of the recommendation of its Planning Commission, which was arrived at after hearings that lasted two evenings.

The suggestion that regulation of the use of the St. Lawrence property be handled by ordinance at a later date was made by Commissioner Earl Reed, who ten days ago tried to go over Mayor Claude N. Ely's head and call a special meeting of the City Commission at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Ely had called off such a meeting the previous afternoon because it would not give the public a chance to be present. The readiness with which other members of the City Commission accepted Reed's suggestion for a future ordinance caused comment afterward that the decision might have been reached privately before the Commission met formally Monday evening.

Dr. V. George Chabut, city health commissioner, asked who will be responsible for enforcing the ordinance and was told that it would be his responsibility, along with the police department. Chabut resigned at the close of the meeting. (See story on Page One.)

Walter Couse addressed the Commission at some length concerning his experience with the Northville Downs management, both as an owner of property on Cady St. which backed up to the race track, as head of a construction firm which has dealt with Carlo in the past, and as a community resident. Concerning past sanitary conditions and odors affording some indication of what may be expected in the future, Couse said: "Carlo and the Downs will go ahead as they damn please. They can't make me think it won't stink as much up on the St. Lawrence property as down in the present location."

After he had concluded he was told by Stubenvoll:

"You've brought up a lot of dirty linen about the track. People in the city want to receive the money from this race track. I think this body has spent a lot of time listening to people who don't live in Northville."

Couse replied that "legally, we (township residents) have no rights but it is a community problem you are deciding tonight. You must plan for yourselves and the area around you too."

Don St. Lawrence, owner of the property to be re-zoned agreed to specify in the lease that a high Cyclone fence be erected around the entire area to be used for track purposes.

the board at the December meeting.

Letter from Scout Committee
The Scout Building committee sent the board a letter asking for a $500 contribution for the maintenance of the Scout building. Attorney Littell said that the school board could not contribute money to something that is not owned by the schools.

Questions were raised about the legality of loaning school property for recreation purposes, such as school buses.

It was said that the school board could not justify school funds being used for recreation since adults profit from the program as well as students. In addition to the aforementioned it was the general feeling that the school board could not spend money to aid and benefit children outside of the school district, as is the case with the Scout building and recreation program.

"I didn't have any idea that the school board would receive this sort of solicitation," said Littell.

The matter was tabled for consideration.

Present at the meeting were Supt. of Schools R. H. Amerman; School Principals E. V. Ellison, Richard Kay and Harry Smith; Board members Eural Clark, Nelson Schrader, Mrs. Wagenschutz and Attorney Littell. Mr. Severance was absent.

Fifth Grade
Diane McCollum is absent from the fifth grade because of illness. Jimmy Jones, fifth grade pupil, took a trip to Spencer, S.D. last week end to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Burnham.

The fifth grade has made "My School Day" pamphlets for presentation to their parents during American Education Week. These booklets are a synopsis of a day's school work.

Fourth and Fifth Grade
The new pupil in the fourth grade section is Nora Jean Pence. The fourth and fifth graders have been making panoramas during the last half of October. The best ones were made by Sharon Gattrell, Diane Harrowood and Sharon LaFond.

Sixth Grade
The library with its new modernistic furnishings is ready for use in the new building. The sixth grade pupils have been cataloging and stamping 196 new books purchased by the Novi Mothers' club.

Two pupils have left the sixth grade. They are Clifford Bearden and Murrell McQueen.

The sixth graders are now nicely settled in their new room in the new addition to Novi school.

The sixth grade class made ceramic leaves which they will give to their fathers and mothers during Education Week.

The show case at the entrance of the new building is the work of the fifth and sixth grades.

Letter To The Editor

In your "Meet Your Merchants" column of Oct. 27, you omitted the fact that William Miller was originally married to the former Amelia Witt of Wixom. The couple had two sons, Howard and Harry. After Amelia Miller's death, William Miller remarried and had two more children.

GOD NOT A PAL

Because men know not God they often speak of Him in terms which indicate that they are not acquainted with His greatness. Pastor Francis Burrill of Chicago criticized the "increasing tendency to reduce God to the role of pal or big hearted buddy". God is not a big brother. He is God Almighty. When we consider God only as a pal, our churches become less and less the houses of worship and more and more the centers of community activity. Fellowship dinners in the parish hall then take precedence over the Lord's Supper. In Romans 1:21 we read, "Because when they knew God they glorified Him not as God, neither were they thankful; but became vain in their imaginations..."

Some reflection upon the attributes of God would probably cure this unholy intimacy. God is the powerful Creator who alone can create something out of nothing. God is everywhere present. He is all seeing, all hearing, all knowing. God is all powerful. He upholds the worlds by the word of His power. God's glory is so magnificent that no man can look upon Him and live. When the seraphims enter His presence they cover their faces and address Him "Holy, holy, holy is the Jehovah of hosts; the whole earth is full of His glory."

MUSTANGS WHIP BULLDOGS 13-0

Both Touchdowns Made In Second Quarter

By Thomas McGuire

Last Friday night on the Sloan Memorial Field in Brighton, the Mustangs played a stupendous game. They kept the Brighton Bulldogs from scoring throughout the entire game.

The first quarter found the Mustangs a little unsteady; however, they were successful in holding Brighton scoreless.

In the second quarter the Mustangs went for two touchdowns. One was made on a 30-yard pass from Roger Nieuwkoop to Bud Bell. Our attempt for the extra point was of no value, although it was a good try. The second touchdown was a pass from Bud Bell to Bill Yahne which was made 52 seconds before the end of the half. Bob Wagenschutz smashed across for the extra point making the score at the end of the half, Mustangs 13, Bulldogs 0.

It was a real fight for both teams during the third and fourth quarters as each team tried desperately to keep the other team from scoring. If it hadn't been for two penalties, the Mustangs would have had two more touchdowns. Regardless, the Mustangs were satisfied with the final score—Northville 13 and Brighton 0.

Holstein Record Given After 300 Days of Testing

Announcement has been received from The Holstein-Friesian Assn. of America of the completion of an official production record by a registered Holstein cow owned by the Wayne County Training school.

The Holstein cow, Wacots Femco K. B. Mabel, gave 17,559 pounds of milk and 561 pounds of butterfat during the 300 days of testing when it was milked three times a day. Average quarts daily: 27. Age when record began: six years, six months.

Michigan State university supervised the weighing and testing of the milk for this record and it is a part of the Herd Improvement Registry Department of The Holstein-Friesian Assn. of America in Brattleboro, Vt. This program is designed to give an official production record on every cow in the herd every year so that wise selection for increased efficiency can be made.

Michigan is the only state which permits a manufacturer the option of paying personal property tax on either the inventory value as of Dec. 31, or on the average value throughout the year.

Albino Crow Shot Here

An albino crow, a one in 500,000 specimen, was presented to the Guntzville Bros. Taxidermy collection and is on display.

play now in their showroom in Northville.

The albino crow was shot by Howard Bowring, 15805 Bradner Bowring sped what he thought was a pigeon flying into his farm pasture with a flock of everyday black crows. Heading out with his shotgun to chase the pesky birds away he noted that the "pigeon" was a white crow. He shot it.

Taking the bird to Guntzville Taxidermy, Bowring learned just how rare his catch was. The taxidermist told him that an albino occurs about once in every 500,000 times.

The taxidermist explained that it was the first he had ever seen, but added it was not a true albino. Although it was all white at quick glance, the bird had a brown bill, normal colored feet and normal eye tissue. A true albino is completely white, with pink or blue eyes.

Bowring, who works for the Wayne County Road Comm., learned further that the crow, a male, is old for its species. The taxidermist estimated that it was at least six or seven years of age.

N. J. H. Defeats Redford 6-0; Ends Season With 4-2 Record

By Philip Jerome

The Northville Junior High football club defeated Thurston of Redford 6-0. The game was played last Wednesday afternoon at Henry Ford field. It was the last game of the season for Northville. The victory gave them a 4-2 record.

Northville drove deep into Thurston territory late in the second quarter. They were still driving hard when the half ended. Northville came out strong in the third quarter. The drive started midway in the second half. Northville got the ball in their own territory on the 40-yard line. They then drove down to the Thurston 33-yard line. Joe Gotra then raced around end for the touchdown. The try for the extra point was missed. Thurston tried hard in the remaining period but couldn't overcome the deficit.

Thurston threw three passes, one of which was intercepted by Joe Gotra who ran it back to the Thurston 43-yard line. The game was played under a steady drizzle, which played a major part in the control of the ball and probably accounted for the seven fumbles.

Battling Young'uns Jar Your Nerves? U-M Offers Advice

Ann Arbor — Nerves kind of shaky because your children are always battling?

A sensible unemotional approach to a problem which is common to most families the country over is presented in a University of Michigan Extension Service pamphlet entitled, "So Your Kids Fuss and Fight", offered at five cents per copy.

Planned to help the parent get a sane perspective of the matter of quarreling, the pamphlet contains some of the reasons for wrangling and squabbling, a look at the kinds of scrapping and fussing that is going on, and ways in which parents have successfully handled the problem.

Other pamphlets for parents or parent groups available at the Extension Service are the magazine "Parents Exchange" (10c), which in its coming issue tells how one family handled the crisis that arose when the 17-year old son asserted his right to be treated as a young adult; "When There's Work To Do", (5c); "When Your Good Child Seems Bad", (5c); "Our Children and Sex", (20c).

THE BORROWED BOAT

It has often been said, "A borrower nor a lender be," and yet I have often wondered how much good has been accomplished by the friendly, neighborly co-operation of borrowing and lending. It is of course, true that we consider our possessions valuable and that we are concerned with who borrowed them, and what kind of a borrower that person might be.

There is an interesting observation by the Gospel writer Luke, as he witnesses to the Master in his teaching. It takes place by the sea side of Gennesaret while the multitudes were pressing around Christ. He looked around him until he found some boats parked by the lake. And Luke says the fisherman had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He observed the Master getting into one of the boats which was Simon's, and He asked him to put out a little from the land.

Here, in this instance, Christ became a "borrower" for He borrowed a boat. Now, it is conceivable that in Simon's mind, this possession of a boat was to be considered valuable, because it became a token of his employment. It was a part of his livelihood yet willingly and voluntarily, he allowed the Master to borrow the boat.

As a result, we begin to see the great principle of the living; that though we consider our possessions valuable, those things that we allow the Master to borrow and use, cease to become just mere prosaic possessions and they become precious. Here, for example, the boat was transformed into an altar; here the boat became the symbol of the Gospel being preached to the multitudes of the people; here the lake became a classroom. So we see, from the example of the Master, that what we possess is valuable, but what we let Him borrow becomes to us infinitely precious.

We are reminded of another illustration in our Scriptures that we might call, "The boy and his lunch." Again while Jesus was teaching, the disciples were asked to feed the multitude and they had no food, as into sight there came a boy, probably carrying his luncheon for the day, and Christ borrowed it. As a result of the willing, voluntary lending of the luncheon, Christ through His power transformed the meagerness of the lunch to a banquet for the people so that they all were filled and they gathered-up even the leavings, basketful. Yes, what we possess is, of course, valuable to us but what we allow Christ to borrow becomes infinitely precious.

Consider again, the valuable possession as it is illustrated in the woman who brought the ointment to anoint Jesus' feet. Her life was laden with sin, and she sought forgiveness; and while Jesus dined she put the precious ointment on His feet. The reaction of the disciples was quite according to human understanding. They considered it to have been wasteful and should have been sold and the money given to the poor; but Jesus saw something else. He saw as she was seeking forgiveness, and so He

Speaker Sees Big Opportunity for Future Teachers

That the teaching profession is both a challenge and an opportunity to mold the character of the nation's youth and to inspire it to seek better relationship between all races and nations was the theme of an address by the Rev. Dr. Charles Wesley Lowry last Sunday evening to Northville teachers and members of the local First Presbyterian church.

"The occasion for Dr. Lowry's talk was a reception given by the Presbyterian church to honor the teaching staff, administrators and board of education of the Northville Public Schools, and especially to welcome teachers who are starting their first year here. Dr. Lowry is currently serving as chairman of a newly organized Foundation for Religious Action in Washington, D.C.

As background for his statement that teachers occupy a unique and powerful position in shaping the thinking of boys and girls of school age, he pointed out that they have a natural monopoly on a large part of their pupils' time.

"We are living in one of the greatest transition periods in the history of mankind," he said. "The automobile, the airplane, radio, television, and now nuclear energy derived from fusion and fission of the atom have brought about a tremendous increase of communications between nations. They have made possible a person-to-person relationship between men and nations that becomes a great opportunity for the development of brotherhood of mankind."

The existence of this situation throughout the world, presents teachers with a challenge to shape the thinking of today's youth to understand the first principles of our civilization—a belief in God, a correct conception of the dignity of Man and his relationship to society as a whole. Dr. Lowry pointed out that the true Communist is dedicated to preaching the principles laid down by founders of the Communist ideology. He urged that America must show a like dedication to spreading the first principles of our civilization.

"Man is either going on into a better age, or he is going to destroy his civilization, and teachers can play a part in shaping the future," he said.

Approximately 175 teachers, members of the Presbyterian church and others attended the "Fellowship meeting," which is held alternately by the Methodist and Presbyterian churches each year.

"Borrowed Boat" becomes for us an example and a challenge today, to let Christ use our possessions. Perhaps it would be our voice that we would allow Him to use in singing some soul stirring anthem as a source of comfort to those who need comfort; and a source of challenge to those who need challenge. Or the skill of our hands, that we might be used in the guidance of young lives into the paths of righteousness. Or it might be some other possession that we consider quite valuable, but if we let our Christ borrow it, it becomes for us infinitely precious. Such suggestiveness is captured in the words of the familiar hymn that we sing so often.

"Take my life and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee.
Take my moments, and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise."

And so for us today there comes the challenge, that the things that we possess are valuable, but what we let our Christ borrow, become infinitely precious, in our world, in His Church and in the lives of people.

The spiritual basis of man's health and life will be emphasized at Christian Science services this Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mortals and Immortals."

Man's dominion over disease will be set forth in readings from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following passage (14:25): "Entirely separate from the belief and dream of material living, is the Life divine, revealing spiritual understanding and the consciousness of man's dominion over the whole earth."

Scriptural selections to be read from Matthew (15:30): "And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those who were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them."

Remodeling Program Highlights 40th Anniversary

Completion of an extensive re-decorating and remodeling program at the Casterline Funeral home was announced last week by R. J. Casterline and Fred Casterline, directors.

The year 1955 marks the 40th year of service to the people of this area," R. J. Casterline said, "and this remodeling program was planned as a tribute to our many friends who have been so good to us during these many years."

Highlight of the remodeling program is a new family room across the front of the building. The African mahogany walls of the room are enhanced by the beige gold-flecked drapes on each side of the thermopane picture windows. Sectional chairs, the davenport, and end tables in the room have a soft fruitwood finish.

The exterior of the new addition and the entire front of the first story have been finished with Briar Hill stone. Seventeen tons of stone were used across the front of the building. Two additional family rooms adjoining the new addition have been completely redecorated and outfitted with new leather upholstered pieces. The dove grey walls blend with the soft green Wilton embossed carpeting used throughout the home.

Modern fold sliding doors are used between the family rooms so that privacy can be arranged in any one of the rooms. Acoustical ceilings are used throughout, and the slumber room is decorated in green and gold.

The chapel carries out the grey and soft green color scheme and has been completely refurnished with new mahogany and leather chairs. A newly installed Summit Sound electric organ furnishes music for the services. The alcove off the chapel has red velvet drapes. The new family room, across from the chapel entrance, is arranged for maximum privacy of the family. Members of the family may attend the services without having to pass through the chapel.

The new addition was designed by Architect Charles Sawyer and Northville contractor Clifford B. Smith supervised construction. Smith also supervised the laying of the Briar Hill stone which Mike Allen ordered direct from the quarry in carload lots. Jack Pete and Clyde Dethloff did the decorating and the carpeting throughout the home was furnished by Blunks, Cadillac Drap-

New Phone Books Distributed Here

New telephone directories were scheduled to be delivered to Northville subscribers of the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. on Tuesday, Nov. 8.

The 1955 editions will appear in buff-colored covers, changing from the grey used for last year's books.

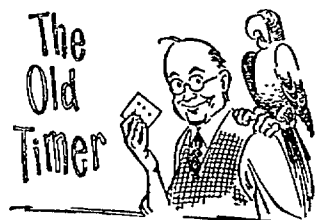

Robert D. Maurer, manager here for Michigan Bell, again reminded subscribers to make use of the emergency page in the new directory where large spaces are provided for writing in the numbers of the police and fire departments.

The manager also urged subscribers to destroy their old books after the new ones arrive, but to make certain valuable papers or notes are removed before the books are discarded.

4-H Club Members Have Hayride

Thirty-six boys and girls, members of the Lucky Horseshoe 4-H club, enjoyed a hayride Friday at the Lashbrooks in Redford.

At their regular meeting Wednesday they decided to work on a winter project which could be selected from the following subjects: ceramics, leatherwork, woodwork, beading, electric or photography. No kits are allowed.

Retarded Children's Week

Northville Training School Has Open House November 16

Pasquale Bueniconto, the medical superintendent at the Wayne County Training school, announced that in observance of National Retarded Children's Week, the WCTS has planned a dual program, one in the community and the other at the school.

Upon invitation, staff members will appear before interested groups to explain the school's purposes and activities. A single staff member or a panel will illustrate their presentation with colored slides.

Open house will be held at the school on Wednesday, Nov. 16 from 1:30 to 3:30. Plans provide for visiting school classes, shops, children's cottages, various service units and discussion sessions.

The Training school is located between Plymouth and Northville on Sheldon Rd., just south of Six Mile Rd., turning left at Sheldon Rd., which is just beyond Northville Rd., to the main entrance which will be well marked.

The public is invited to participate in these events and to become better acquainted with the Training school's many activities.

Endorsed By Eisenhower

The care and education of retarded children being given so much public notice in the State of Michigan the last few weeks has received special notice from President Eisenhower.

The President recovering from his own illness in Denver at the Army's Fitzsimmons General hospital, has taken the time to publicly endorse programs for the physical and mental well being of all American Children with special emphasis on National Retarded Children's Week, Nov. 13-23.

In a letter to Martin Papish, president of the National Assn. for Retarded Children, President Eisenhower expressed hope that the week "will emphasize the importance of such work and win for it widespread and warm-hearted support from your fellow citizens." "In our society," the President said, "such children like those more fortunate—have full rights to the pursuits of happiness, to a chance to develop their capabilities, and to the blessings of kindness and care."

With three out of every hundred children born mentally retarded, according to Papish, the President is bringing into public focus a serious and long standing national health problem.

In addition to the endorsements of President Eisenhower and Governor Williams, Retarded Children's Week has received personal and active public support from George Meany, president of the American Federation of Labor, from Thomas E. Dewey, former governor of the State of New York, from novelist Pearl Buck, and from entertainers Jack Benny, Eddie Fisher, Roy Rogers, Dale Evans, Sammy Kaye, May Heath and many others.

Michigan ranks first in the growth of tall corn. More than half of the entire U.S. corn crop is grown in the state.

The secretary took attendance and dues and then read the minutes from the last meeting. When we were through with the old and new business we had an investiture for Ann Pa. An Suse Whetlessey and Kathy Kellogg. Kathy was absent so she will get her pin at the next meeting.

Introducing a Big and Vital
General Motors "Automotive First!"

IT'S THE GREATEST THRILL IN HIGHWAY HISTORY!

If you've come to think of driving as just routine, it's high time you tried the tremendous "go" of this masterful new monarch of the highway.

Here's a car with such exhilarating drive—eager oil-smooth response and safe, secure handling—that even normally monotonous home-to-work driving becomes your finest hour!

And out on the open road, it comes alive with the heads-up alertness of a thoroughbred.

Its 227-h.p. Strato-Streak V-8, coupled with all-new silken smooth Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic Drive, thrives on challenges. The hill you see looming up virtually disappears before your eyes.

And at any legal speed, there's such a reserve of power that your engine literally loafs—ready at a touch to spring into the most thrilling, satisfying action that ever shortened a country mile.

Of course, this is only a hint of what's awaiting you. The difference in performance—in driving, smoothness, ride and control—is so terrific that it can only be appreciated when you sit at the wheel. So come in and take charge of one of these new beauties yourself. Choose your own test route and sample the greatest "go"—and enjoy the greatest safety ever built into a car. Then you'll know why the world's spreading—"They'll be a long time catching up to this one!"

567 TEENAGERS VOTE --- "TEEN TALK" IS THE WINNER

Five hundred and sixty-seven teenagers voted last Friday, in one of the most important elections of the season, to select a name for the teen page.

The largest number of votes was cast for "Teen Talk", making it the Records' official teen page name for the season. Nancy Bowen, NHS senior, submitted the winning entry. Next September teen-agers will again have the opportunity to submit new names and vote for a change. The teen page name last year was Orange and Black.

Following are complete election returns:

Teen Talk—125.
The Teen Scene—113.
Chicks and Chaps Chatter—83.
Bobby Sox On Parade—70.
Orange and Black—55.
The Mustangs—55.
What's Hep—33.
Ramblings from the Teens' Den—30.
Teen Type—12.
The School Bell—6.

NANCY BOWEN, 17, a senior at Northville high school, submitted the winning name in the Record's "name the teen page" contest.

"Teen Talk" is now the official name of the teen page this year.

When told that her entry received the majority vote, Nancy was bewildered to say the least. "I didn't think it would win," Nancy said, "but I'm glad that the kids voted for it." Nancy is taking a business course and plans to enroll after graduation next June in a business college.

The freshman class is sponsoring a dance after the West Bloomfield (Keego Harbor) football game Friday, Nov. 11. The theme of the dance is "Blue Moon" and everyone is invited to attend.

Club News

G.A.L.
Volleyball really started out with a bounce. There are six teams with nine girls on each team, so imagine how many girls are out for the sport. Tuesday, the girls had their first tournament games. The freshmen girls lost to a mixed team 13-27. The sophomores lost to the juniors 27-17, and the seniors won over the other junior team 41-17.

Bowling ended for this year with the high bowlers being Uppy Clark with 163, Janice Owens with 140, Pat Fagan with 135 and Mary MacDermid and Shirley Snow each with 120.

SPEECH
The speech classes took a trip to radio station WJR last week. The students ate lunch in the cafeteria in the Fisher building and then proceeded to the 21st floor where they were taken through the various studios of WJR. They were shown the music library, which has more than 45,000 selections on 45, 78 and Long Playing records. The trip was a great success.

PEP CLUB
Students who are interested in cheerleading will try out sometime during November. The chosen ones will cheer our basketball team to victory (we hope) this season.

F.T.A.
The Future Teachers of America held its third meeting of the year Wednesday morning. The possibility of boys wanting to be cadet teachers was discussed. Also it was decided that the last day for paying of dues would be advanced to this Friday instead of last as originally scheduled. During American Education week the F.T.A. members ushered in the grade school at the open house. Don't forget that you are still able to obtain Christmas cards from any member.

COLLEGE NIGHT
The juniors and seniors received lists of the colleges that will be in attendance at college night Nov. 8 at West Bloomfield high school. Their parents were also notified early this week. We hope that all of the students that are interested in going to college will be able to attend with their parents. A representative will also be there to talk to the boys interested in selective service. Don't forget College Night Nov. 8 at West Bloomfield.

STUDENT COUNCIL
There is now $233 in the treasury. At the last meeting all the basketball dances were chosen.

Girl Scouts Act Now for July Trip

Girl Scout Troop No. 8 presented three one-act comedies Tuesday, Nov. 1 at the Lutheran church auditorium.

The plays presented were: "The Ghost In The Green Gown", "The

An assembly with Rew the Magician was planned for Thursday, seventh hour. Also there was much discussion about the coming League Student Council meeting at Brighton, Nov. 16 will be the next date for vaccinations.

Amazing Arabella" and "Accent On Revenge".

Approximately $85 was added to their trip fund as a result of the large crowd in attendance.

About two-thirds of the girls, all high school juniors, have been in the scout troop since they were in the second grade.

The troop is planning to take a trip to Yellowstone Park next July. They are each going to pay $125 towards the trip and are hoping to raise an additional $500 through various projects.

Members of the play casts were Penny Niece, Brenda Wortman, Linda Smith, Roseanne Perrault, Wanda White, Lucille Pullen, Sally Ainsworth, Cookie Willis, Karen Bayless, Nancy Lawrence, Nancy Williams, Dorothy Welch, Janice Howarth, Barbara Weiss, Giannine Bertoni, Lois Rody, Cynthia Mellen, Janice Kimball and Martha Bloom.

Prompters were Kaye Houser, Deanna Millington, and Carolyn Smith.

Tickets were sold by Mary Palmer and Joan Sanders.

Mrs. Alex Lawrence acted as stage manager and Mrs. George Weiss directed the plays.

ARE YOU GOING?

Seniors are shouting that their play, "Mr. Barry's Etchings", is a must for every theater fan.

The seniors are busy with play practice every night and the casts are really getting down to business. Tickets are 40 cents for students and 60 cents for adults. The play will be presented Nov. 17 and 18.

For '56 New Sweep-ahead styling New Sizzle to match

The 1956 Buick SUPER 4-Door Riviera

WHAT YOU SEE pictured here is Buick for 1956—and from the gleam of that "V" grille to the sassy slant of the tail fins, you can see it has no equal for gorgeous good looks.

But what you see from the curb is more than matched by what you feel at the wheel—and that's gospel.

For this Buick gets its zoom from a mighty 322-cubic-inch V8 engine lofted to a new record high in power and compression—and from a spectacular new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

What's new in the '56 Dynaflo is this: in the first inch of pedal travel—and not with wide-open throttle—your Buick moves from standstill to cruise with silk-smooth, instant and certain getaway.

But comes a sudden need for safety-surge action to get out of a tight spot—and you floor the pedal to switch the pitch of this airplane-inspired transmission. Instantly and smoothly, you're at full-power acceleration—a thrill beyond words.

There's a lot more we could tell you about these great new Buicks—about brilliant new interiors, a superb new ride with a safer "sense of direction," and new safety features everywhere you look.

But the best way to get the whole story of the best Buick yet is right at the wheel of one of these '56 beauties. So drop in this week and do just that.

Best Buick yet

RECOGNIZE ME? I'm the kid from down the block, and I've just been elected President of the local Crib-Bangers, Toy-Busters and Anti-Play Pen Society.

I've been asked to tell you folks how we feel about the issues, so here goes. We like it fine here . . . we think this is a grand place. We're looking forward to growing up here, receiving our education in the schools of this community, enjoying the parks and playgrounds, benefiting from the protection of our police and fire department.

Now we know all these services cost money. This money comes from taxes. The taxes come from the folks who live here, who work here, who do business here. And we say what's fair is fair, and if we get the benefits, we should help out by doing our shopping right here in the local stores.

My own allowance doesn't amount to much, but Mom and Pop spend quite a few dollars, and I'm proud to tell you that they do all their shopping right here. Mom says the prices are just as low as anywhere else, so why should she spend hours away from home, fighting heavy traffic and crowds in the big-city stores? Pop says we actually save money by shopping close to home, because we're not putting a lot of mileage on the car, wasting gasoline and oil, and getting the fenders wrinkled in jammed-up parking lots.

Mom says shopping right in our own community is a pleasure . . . it's relaxing . . . she enjoys meeting her friends . . . and she enjoys the special courtesies and services the local businessmen offer their regular customers.

So take a tip from your small fry neighbors. Save money . . . save time . . . be a good neighbor. Shop in your own home town.
