These Eight Men Are Candidates For Office In The First City Of Northville Election

GROUND BROKEN FOR LINCOLN PLANT

by G. H. C.

Be A Good Citizen — Vote Next Tuesday

The fact that only seven out of approximately 1,500 qualified Northville electors attended the meeting Nov. 28 of the Charter Commission to explain the proposed new city charter prompts use of the above heading for this editorial. The slight turnout was a timely demonstration of the apathy with which voters everywhere approach public business. Nevertheless, it is a good charter that comes up for approval next Tuesday. It deserved more than the "don't care" attitude evidenced by the public, and it is to be hoped that it will be adopted by a wide margin.

* * * *

It is not the policy of the paper under normal circumstances to take sides in local elections because the city is small enough so most candidates for public office are usually fairly well known. The situation is somewhat different this year, however, because all five members of the present village commission are running for election to four positions on the new city council — plus John S. Canterbury, who has lived here too briefly (5 years) to be widely known, but who is recognized by those who have worked with him on village projects as capable and possessing a broad background in government activities outside of Northville.

* * * *

There can be no argument that Mike Allen, Jack Stubenvoll, Alton Peters, Earl Reed and Ed Welch, all members of the expiring village commission, have not given unstintingly of their time and effort to the village's business to the best of their individual ability. Each is deserving of credit to the extent that he has contributed to the city's welfare.

* * * *

There are, however, some respects in which the present village commission as a whole has failed to deal with matters that should concern it. One of these is long-range planning with respect to paving, sewers, and other public improvements, which have been dealt with on a year-to-year basis until the last few weeks, when a citizens' advisory committee was set up.

Another is the establishment of the city's water department on a sound financial basis so that some day the city will not awake with a rude jolt to find that it has established no financial reserve to cover large outlays for replacements.

A third is to deal realistically with inequities in the assessment of city property that in effect favor some taxpayers at the expense of others. No one knows how extensive such abuses may be, but informed sources feel that a study and appraisal by an independent outside firm might reveal many "interesting" situations.

A fourth is the enactment of a new and modern building code for the city, to protect against sub-standard housing and other construction projects, and legalize the use of modern structural materials and designs.

* * * *

Each of these things has been talked about informally by the present village commission but somehow they have been postponed until a more opportune time. Another criticism that can be leveled with considerable justice at the present commission is its lack of attention to such little details as strict observance of the village's ordinances.

Specifically, we refer to its "tacit acquiescence" all last summer to use of the St. Lawrence property, which was zoned residential, for tent stables of Northville Downs, and its inability to cope with the health and fire hazard condition which state officials charge existed there. We also refer to its "tacit acquiescence" to construction of barns on the St. Lawrence property in November before the recent change in zoning became effective.

* * * *

We admit to being old fashioned enough to believe that laws and ordinances that are enacted should be lived

Commission Finds Rezoning Illegal

The Northville Village Commission on the occasion of its last official meeting Monday evening announced publicly that its recent rezoning of the St. Lawrence property for track use had unwittingly violated the village charter, and therefore was probably illegal.

Simultaneously, it revoked its rezoning action of Nov. 7, thus reverting the property to its original residential status.

Court Action Against City

The commission's action came as a result of being named co-defendant with Northville Downs and Donald G. St. Lawrence in an injunctive legal action initiated in Wayne county circuit court on Nov. 28 by Charles G. Mummery, Irving J. and Dorothy M. Shoenberger, John and Frieda Haller, and F. D. Sober. The plaintiff's bill of complaint alleged:

1. That on Oct. 25, 1955 the Planning Commission recommended to the Northville City Commission that the St. Lawrence property be rezoned, subject to certain restrictions;

2. That the Northville City Commission at a meeting Nov. 7, 1955, of which there was no notice and publication as required by law, passed an amendment to the city zoning ordinance rezoning the property to T-1 (track) without any of the limitations recommended by the Planning Commission except that the property revert back to R-1 when there is no longer a race track in Northville;

3. That the City Commission's rezoning action was invalid because there was not 15 days notice of the time and place of public hearing on the proposed amendment to said zoning ordinance published in an official paper or paper of general circulation in Northville;

4. That the amendment rezoning the property was arbitrary and unreasonable and not in keeping with a plan of zoning as required by Act 207, Public Acts of 1921, as amended.

Predict Trailer Camp

Another section of the bill of complaint says the plaintiffs are informed and believe the truth to be that Northville Downs intends to build barns to house 300 horses in the area, some the year around, and that Northville Downs intends to put a trailer camp on said property.

Circuit Judge Joseph A. Moynihan on Nov. 28 issued an order to the defendants to show cause on Dec. 9 why an injunction should not be issued to stop the construction of barns until the suit could be decided in court. Revocation of the rezoning by the city commission, together with its instructions to City Attorney Philip Ogilvie not to uphold the validity of the rezoning will nullify further court action.

No Referendum Vote Now
It also brings to an end the possibility of a referendum vote on limiting the stabling of horses on the St. Lawrence property to a period starting 15 days prior to the summer race meet and ending 15 days thereafter, as recommended by the Planning Commission, or year-around stabling (Continued on Page 4) up to by everyone, and we have the feeling that it should be a function of the city council to insist that this be done.

If this objective is desirable, and if Northville electors are interested in a fresh approach to getting at some of the important matters mentioned above, they should turn to the Canterbury advertisement on Page 3, which was paid for by his friends, and to the reprint of an article at the end of this column, which the Northville Record carried in its issue of April 2, 1953. Canterbury at that time was a successful candidate for the charter commission that never got under way because the move to become a city in 1953 failed.

We repeat the article because it should give electors some basis for judging how Canterbury might fit into our local government.

* * * *

Scuttlebutt has it that the political powers who have a financial interest in racing locally don't feel that Ed Welch is a "safe" candidate to back, and are throwing their political weight elsewhere. Several observers of the way the local political pot boils think this may be a good break for Ed, who has worked hard during his first term in office as a village commissioner and has done a good job.

In his statement to the voters, we also noticed that Ed, in addition to favoring the conduct of racing on "as high a plane as possible," has gone on record as being in favor of "the reappraisal of all property in the city in or" (Continued on Page 4)

About The Candidates . . .

(Editor's Note: The Record invited six candidates for the four contested seats on the City Council to use our columns as a means of informing voters as to their background, qualifications and campaign promises. Each candidate was invited to submit up to 300 words. The following statements were written by the candidates themselves, not by Record staff members.)

JOHN S. CANTERBURY

Although we have lived here only five years, Northville is our permanent home and our interest in the welfare of the community and pride in our town could hardly be greater. I am a candidate for the City Council because I sincerely feel that I can contribute toward the solution of the many difficult problems which our local government now faces. For this reason I accepted the challenge to run for office despite the obvious disadvantages of being a comparative newcomer and of running against incumbents.

My wife and I were born and reared in Ohio. After graduating from college I took my advanced training in both business administration and government management. I have had 15 years experience in administrative and management work much of which required the analysis of problems and the development of solutions. For some time I was a member of a consulting firm whose business it is to provide professional advice and assistance to cities and other units of government. During World War II I served in the United States Navy as a Lt. (JG). I have been employed by the Ford Division of Ford Motor Company since 1951.

In Northville, I have been active in the Methodist Church, the PTA, Optimist club, Community Development Courses and served on the Committee for City Incorporation. I have followed local governmental affairs very closely and have made it a practice to attend a great many sessions of our Council.

We (wife Kathryn and children Emily and John) recently moved to 204 Randolph St. from Wing Ct. where we had lived since moving to Northville.

F. ALTON PETERS

I have lived in the city of Northville for 35 years, I am married and have one daughter. I have been a council member for the past eight years, served on the recreation committee and now I am chairman of the Northville Community Center, also assistant commissioner of the public works department.

I am a past commander of the Lloyd H. Green Post 147, of the American Legion, member of the Methodist Church and the Northville Rotary club.

I have been a representative for the Prudential Insurance Company of America in the Northville and Plymouth area for the past 27 years.

JOHN F. STUBENVOLL

Incumbent, age 37, lives at 875 Grace St., married, two children, resident 35 years. Graduated Northville Public schools 1936. Post Graduate 1937, attended Lawrence Institute of Technology, Detroit 1938. Associated with Depositors State Bank since 1939. Member of the Northville Rotary club. Entered Army 1941, overseas four years South Pacific with Military Police, member active Enlisted Reserve Corps for seven years.

Elected to the Village Commission 1946, served as Chairman Finance Committee nine years and Assistant Police Commissioner three years. Early advocate of City Incorporation and elected to recent Charter Commission.

EARL L. REED

To the Citizens of Northville:
It has been a pleasure to have served you as your Commissioner. For that opportunity I thank you one and all.

I believe, that during my term of office, I have justified your confidence in me to represent you.

On many occasions, through my connections with the Abstract and Title Guaranty Company, and the various offices of the County Building, I have been called upon by the Mayor to utilize those connections for your benefit. Those duties I performed to the best of my ability, and at a great saving of expense to the community.

One of the first duties assigned to me by the Mayor was to complete the acquisition of title for the alley on the north side of Main street. This was accomplished. Those of you who gave that title to Northville, will be interested to know that we now have the money to improve it as promised.

As a member of the Finance Committee, and your Commissioner of the Fire Department, I believe that I have handled those two important offices with efficiency and with the respect of the men with whom I have worked.

I have had the confidence of the Mayor, Commission, City Attorney and other officials of the Government as to my ability, integrity and honesty in the handling of any given situation.

If re-elected, I will continue to serve you in the future, as I have in the past.

Again I thank you for allowing me to be an integral part of your government.

A. M. (MIKE) ALLEN

To the Citizens of Northville, I wish to take this occasion to thank you for the opportunity to serve in the public interest as Commissioner for the past two terms.

As one of your Northville business men, I have tried to conduct civic affairs in the same manner as my own private business.

Commissioner of public works is perhaps the hardest Commission to fulfill. I have tried to use

Additional Details of New Plant Are Disclosed

Staman Welcomes Ford Motor Company; Lincoln Representatives To Novi Township

It's official now. They've started work. Details of a multi-million dollar "modern, efficient plant, to meet a growing demand for Lincoln automobiles," were disclosed in Novi Dec. 2 during ground-breaking ceremonies for the new national headquarters and plant of the Lincoln Division of Ford Motor Company.

Gathered in a 25x40 foot tent, put up to shelter guests from the wind and cold of a typical snowy winter day, were executives from the Ford, Mercury and Lincoln divisions of Ford Motor Company; Novi Township officials, railroad officials, members of the press, and school children invited to the ceremony.

Speakers Introduced

John Mayhew, director of the Lincoln public relations department, welcomed the guests and introduced the speakers. The first speaker to face the group of spectators, motion picture camera, and the barrage of flashbulbs, was Frazer Staman, Novi Township supervisor.

"Regardless of the weather," Staman said, "I'm extremely happy to be here. I would like to welcome the Ford Motor Co. to Novi Township and wish them continued success in their new venture. I am confident that the Lincoln headquarters here will be a definite asset to our community."

"Good Neighbors"

Following Staman's talk, Ben D. Mills, Ford vice-president and Lincoln general manager, was introduced. Mills said the new plant would employ the latest mass production techniques for the manufacture of "the finest car in its field." Mills also said that actual construction of the new plant would begin "shortly after the first of the year," with completion expected within 18 months.

He said the need for such new and expanded facilities was "clearly evident" in the rising demand for the Lincoln automobile.

my best business ability in administering this department.

It has been very hard to please everyone due to a limited budget, but in no instance has any complaint been overlooked by me or my department, if it was at all possible to accomplish what was requested of us. Bud Hartner, as superintendent of the public works and his men have incorporated 100% in doing what ever was asked of them to do, and always seemed more than willing to perform the duties of the department.

The Rural Hill cemetery has come under my jurisdiction and the improvement and development that has been accomplished here has been recognized by many people in the community.

The Mayor appointed me a member of a committee to find much needed water sites. Through a great deal of time and effort we have found those possible sites. One of the test wells will be started in the very near future. Water is a must in any civic development and I will not be satisfied until Northville has more and better water.

If I am re-elected I will continue to serve the residents of Northville to the best of my ability.

ED WELCH

Ed Welch has been a resident in Northville for 12 years. He was born in Detroit in 1911.

His home is at 222 S. Wing St. where he lives with his wife, Sheila, and daughters, Dorothy and Mary. Another daughter, Winifred, attends Hillsdale college at Hillsdale, Mich.

He is a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Northville and of Northville Lodge No. 186, F.&A.M.

Ed was elected a Village Commissioner in March 1954. At the recent special election when the people of Northville voted in favor of becoming a city he was elected to the Charter Commission.

As a member of that body he helped to draft the proposed city charter. In his opinion, this charter is designed to meet Northville's present and future needs and is worthy of the support of the people of Northville.

He is vice-president of the Michigan Municipal League, an officer of the Northville Community Development group, vice-president of the Coordinating Council and a member of the Boy Scout Bldg. committee.

Ed is currently employed as an advertising consultant representing Brown & Bigelow of St. Paul, Minn. He was formerly associated with the Ford Division of the Ford Motor Co. as a cost analyst.

On the subject of racing in Northville, he feels that the majority of the people favor racing and the revenue it affords. Therefore, it is the council's responsibility to keep racing on as high a plane as possible.

He proposes for Northville, when economically feasible, that all streets be paved, all sidewalks repaired, and consideration be given to the construction of a municipal water softening system.

He recommends the reappraisal of all property in the city in order to establish more equitable assessments.

Soloists Named for "The Messiah"

Leslie Lee, director of the presentation of the "Messiah" at the First Presbyterian church, has announced the soloists for this annual event.

All four are University of Michigan School of Music students and they are Hildred Kronloken, soprano, Alice Dutcher, alto; Dan Pressley, tenor, and Wendell Orr, bass. The "Messiah" will be presented the evening of Dec. 18.

Heather Flown from Scotland for Campbell-Angell Wedding

An impressive candlelight wedding was solemnized in the First Methodist church Saturday evening at 7:30. The double ring service was performed by the Rev. Ivan E. Hodgson uniting Margaret Jean Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell of Wing Court, and John S. Angell, son of Mrs. Russell Angell of W. Cady St., and the late Mr. Angell.

The altar was banked with mums, candelabra and palms. Margaret Jean was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore a floor-length gown of bridal satin with nylon tulle which featured a redingote of chantilly lace with queen Anne collar and leg of mutton sleeves ending in a point over her wrists. Her queen's crown of seed pearls held her finger tip French illusion veil which was edged with chantilly lace. A rainbow Bible with two orchids, stephanotis and a sprig of white heather and ivy formed her bouquet.

Jean Polley of Plymouth, maid of honor, wore pale pink satin with nylon tulle over the skirt and a satin headpiece with nose-tip veil. She carried a basket of pink mums.

Donna Campbell, sister-in-law of the bride, and Betty Nagy of Livonia were bridesmaids and were gowned alike in pale blue and carried baskets of pale pink mums.

Joyce and Raymond Stuckey of Indiana, cousins of the bridegroom, were ring bearers. Joyce wore a yellow taffeta and nylon tulle frock.

Thomas Campbell was best man and Robert Campbell and Leslie Nagy seated the guests.

Miriam Stelzer, Patricia Barwinski and Mary Joe Searls, college classmates of the bride, poured the punch, coffee and tea.

The traditional wedding music was played by Mrs. Sommers. Carl Farquhar of Detroit sang "Because", "Through the Years" and "I'll Walk With God".

Mrs. Campbell wore a silver grey lace dress over rose satin with white accessories. Mrs. Angell wore a blue lace dress over blue satin with white accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

A reception for over 200 guests was held in the church parlors.

Merchants Treat Children To Xmas Movie December 22

Northville Retail Merchants have made plans to treat all of the Northville grade school children to a movie at the P & A Theatre Thursday, Dec. 22.

Santa Claus will make a visit to the Main St. elementary school about 2 p.m. that day and lead the parade of children to the theatre.

Russell Amerman, superintendent of schools, said that the children will be released from school at 2:15 p.m. to attend the special program.

Santa will distribute candy to the children when they arrive at the theatre.

Grade school children from both the public and parochial schools are invited according to Carl Johnson, chairman of the merchants theatre-party project.

The movie has not yet been announced, but Johnson said that it would be a Christmas picture.

during which the soloist sang "Annie Laurie" and "Suddenly There's A Valley".

For going away, Mrs. Angell chose a two-tone suit of brown and beige with matching accessories. The couple are spending two weeks in Florida.

The bridal cake was decorated with white heather which was flown from Scotland for the wedding.

"Best car manufactured in America today"

Mr. Floyd Clymer

That's what Floyd Clymer, famous automobile authority, said about Chrysler in Popular Mechanics (October)

"I have tested many fine automobiles over all kinds of terrain," writes Mr. Clymer, "and in my judgment Chrysler is the best automobile manufactured in America today."

When you compare this Chrysler with the other two major cars in its price class, you will be in for an electrifying awakening. Because this is power driving as it was meant to be.

You push the "D" on the Pushbutton PowerLite Drive and a mighty airplane-type engine whisks you away in an instant. There's a new, wonderfully easy feel-of-the-road with full-time PowerPilot Steering... a straight, sure, velvety sense of safety in the stops you get with PowerSmooth Brakes... a world of authority in the tremendous response of Chrysler's exclusive airplane-type Fire-Power V-8 engine!

Just one look at this car tells you the power's there. You see it in the flaring "PowerStyle" lines... in the light-swept look of its rear deck and fenders. Let us put you behind the wheel of the "PowerStyle" Chrysler for just 15 minutes this week. Compare its all-around performance with its two price competitors. Then you'll know why "the best car manufactured in America" is your best buy! Come in or call us today!

THE BRAKES GAVE OUT. The driver of a 1955 dump truck, loaded with salt, found himself in a predicament last week Thursday when his brakes failed to work. Donald O'Toole, driver for the Joe Morris Transportation Co., 33463 W. 7-Mile Rd., was driving west on 7-Mile Rd. As he approached Northville Rd. he applied his brakes, but was unable to stop. . . no air pressure. O'Toole said that he pumped the brake pedal, but the truck didn't stop until it cleared the intersection, turned right on Northville Rd. and completely demolished a 1953 car parked on private property. The car was owned by Jack Marr, 580 Plymouth Ave. Damage to the truck is estimated at approximately $500 damage. Police officers noted that the truck left skid marks measuring 100 feet.

 der to establish more equitable assessments." As we said earlier, we feel that this reappraisal is a highly desirable objective for the new council.

(Editor's Note: The following article appeared on Page 1 of the April 2, 1953 Northville Record, when Mr. Canterbury successfully sought election to the charter commission after living here only two years.)
 "Four candidates for election to the City Charter Commission that will draw up a new charter for Northville if it becomes a city have asked The Record to draw the attention of its readers to the candidacy of Mr. John S. Canterbury, whom they feel is entitled to universal support by reason of his outstanding qualifications for the job, but may not be elected because he has lived in Northville only two years and is comparatively unknown to the public at large.

"Because we too, respect Mr. Canterbury's broad background in municipal and governmental affairs and his objective approach to the problems that will confront a new city government, we deem it both a pleasure and a public service to list his qualifications.

"Mr. Canterbury, a graduate of Ohio Northern University, was a teaching fellow in the graduate school of business administration at the University of North Carolina in 1938-39. Later he studied government management for two years at the University of Denver as a fellow of the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, whose purpose was to train men to objectively appraise governmental activities from the outside.

"Following this training, he became a staff associate with J. L. Jacobs & Co. of Chicago, one of the foremost consulting firms in the country on matters of public administration and finance. He also became consultant to the management division of the U. S. Bureau of the Budget, and in 1949 was named chairman of a joint committee set up by the Cleveland Citizens' League and the Mayor of Cleveland to improve financial administration of the city. He was also director of management for the Navy Finance Center in Cleveland, and later, director of the organization and management division of the Economic Cooperation Administration. For the past two years, Mr. Canterbury has been connected with the Ford division of the Ford Motor Company, at Plymouth and Middlebelt roads."

 as asked by Northville Downs. Petitions for such a referendum signed by 144 electors had been filed Nov. 28.

Text Repealing Ordinance
 The repealing resolution read as follows:

"Whereas it has been discovered that the legal requirements regarding publication of notices of hearing on said ordinance was not given in accordance with the statute in such case made and provided, and,

"Whereas by reason of the failure to conform with said statutory requirement, the said ordinance has been challenged as being invalid, and,

"Whereas, the commission for the City of Northville does believe this ordinance to be invalid by reason of the failure to give proper notice as above specified, and,

"Whereas a referendum petition has been filed with the Village Clerk protesting the enactment of the above ordinance and requesting its repeal or submission to the voters, with certain amendments,

"Now therefore it is hereby resolved that the commission by reason of the failure to conform with the statutory requirement regarding publication of notices of hearing on said ordinances, hereby nullifies and cancels its action of Nov. 7 with regards to this invalid ordinance.

"It is further resolved that in response to the petition filed protesting the enactment of the ordinance, that the said ordinance is hereby repealed.

"It is further resolved that the building inspector for the Village of Northville is directed to revoke and cancel the building permit which he issued under this invalid ordinance."

Those who have followed the behind-the-scenes maneuvering by local racing interests to get the rezoning through fast, and watched the increasing momentum of the public protest against giving Northville Downs the "green light" on unlimited winter stabling of horses in a new area agree that the city commission's action accomplished three things:

1. It gives the Downs management a new chance to ask that the St. Lawrence property be rezoned in a manner that will conform fully with the legal requirements of the city charter;
2. It gives the new city commission an opportunity to insist on safeguards to protect adjacent property owners;
3. It illustrates the need for greater attention on the part of the city commission and other city officials to conducting their business in strict conformity with the law.

After listening to two or three eye-witnesses of an accident, you may begin to wonder about history.

Strangers—with a Mutual Friend!

Anyone who owns and drives a Cadillac will find this a familiar scene.

For it is not at all unusual for Cadillac owners to salute one another as they pass on the highway . . . or to exchange approving nods as they wait at the traffic light.

Cadillac owners, you see, know that they have at least one mutual friend . . . in the Cadillac car.

And the chances are that if they were to meet, they would find they had a great deal more in common than just their affection for the "car of cars."

For Cadillac owners, taking them by and large, are people who share a keen appreciation for the finer things in life.

And, generally speaking, they are people of sound judgment and unusual practical wisdom.

They have learned, for instance, how reasonable a new Cadillac can be insofar as original cost is concerned.

They have seen for themselves how economical a Cadillac is to operate through the miles . . . and how dependable it is through the months.

And they have savored that final reward for choosing the "car of cars"—Cadillac's extraordinary resale value.

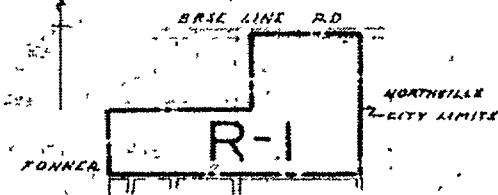

Perhaps, in view of these remarkable facts, the time has come for you to meet this wonderful friend of America's most demanding motorists.

We'll be delighted to introduce you at any time you find convenient—and to supervise a personal demonstration on the highway.

Why not come in today?

Heated Debates Mark Monday's Township Meeting

Tempers Flare As Residents Take Floor In Monday Night's Twp. Board Meeting

Voices were raised and tempers flared Monday night when spectators decided to take an active part in the bi-monthly township board meeting at the Novi Township Hall.

Attendance, which had been declining for the past several meetings, took a sharp turn upward with approximately 30 township residents crowding the board room.

While not identifying themselves with any group or cause, a large number of the spectators were from the southern Walled Lake area, which came in for considerable zoning and building requirement discussion during the evening.

Letter Starts Fireworks

A letter to township board members from Ernest C. Pitchford of 1367 E. Walled Lake Dr., started off the "fireworks". Pitchford's letter stated that he had been refused a building permit on a piece of property platted in 1913, a 30-foot wide lot in Chapman subdivision near Pitchford's present home.

The Oakland County board of health officer had refused Pitch-

Mr. and Mrs. W. Pontius of Grand River spent a few days in their lodge at Rose City but were forced to return early because of the snow storm last week. The lodge is used as a fresh air camp in the summer for underprivileged children from various church and school organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyce Ward of Beck Rd. are the parents of a daughter, Kathleen Joy, born at Providence hospital in Detroit.

Pitchford Writes Open Letter

The township board received the following letter from Ernest Pitchford Tuesday morning, the day following the meeting:

"To the Novi Township Board: After what happened at the December 5th board meeting, I feel I can no longer act as chairman of the distribution committee of the Goodfellows or as a trustee. Also I resign as chairman of the civil defense which I have held for four years and eight months.

Ernest C. Pitchford"

ford a permit for construction of a sewage system because the 30-foot wide lot was too small to conform with state health requirements.

Township Risk?

However, the health officer had told Pitchford that the township board could approve the system if it was willing to assume the risk in case of complaints or an epidemic caused by an improper sewage system.

"I don't see why zoning laws have anything to do with a piece of property platted 35 years ago," Pitchford said vehemently.

"I talked to the guys who made the ordinances up," he added, "and they said the ordinances applied only to new subdivisions. After all, we ought to live and let live," he shouted.

Take Stand Somewhere

"Ernie, we've got to take a stand somewhere or else our ordinances are of no use and we might as well throw them all out the window," Supervisor Frazer Staman retorted.

"I've been told that you guys have no right to refuse me a building permit," Pitchford snapped back.

"That's right," Staman countered, "but we do have the right to refuse you an occupancy permit if the septic tank system does not meet health requirements."

Harwood To Sue

At this point, Novi businessman Leo Harwood, who had recently entered the room, stood up and cited to spectators and board members the misunderstandings and difficulties which he had experienced during his recent building program.

Blaming certain officials for a distortion of facts and a lack of cooperation, Harwood emphatically warned the board that "you guys are going to be sued . . ."

Novi Bldg. Permits Set New Record

Building permits for construction totaling nearly three and one-half million dollars were issued in Novi Township during the first 11 months of the year, according to Cameron Lodge, building inspector. During the month of November alone, permits totaling $448,900 were issued. The total for the 11 months was $3,432,029.

Mrs. Belle Walter will be leaving Novi soon to spend the winter months with her brother, William McCowan in Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy and their two sons and daughters have purchased the home of Mrs. Belle Walter on W. Grand River and will be residents in Novi in the near future.

Permission Denied

Staman asked if he might inject a word of explanation at this point, but was denied the chance until several minutes later when Harwood relinquished the floor. Charles Trickey, Jr., treasurer, reminded the board members that "it was Ernie's case, not Leo's, that we were talking about."

Upon the advice of Township Attorney Charles Davis, Staman advised Pitchford that the proper place to take his problem was the Zoning Board of Appeals.

Won't Get Anywhere

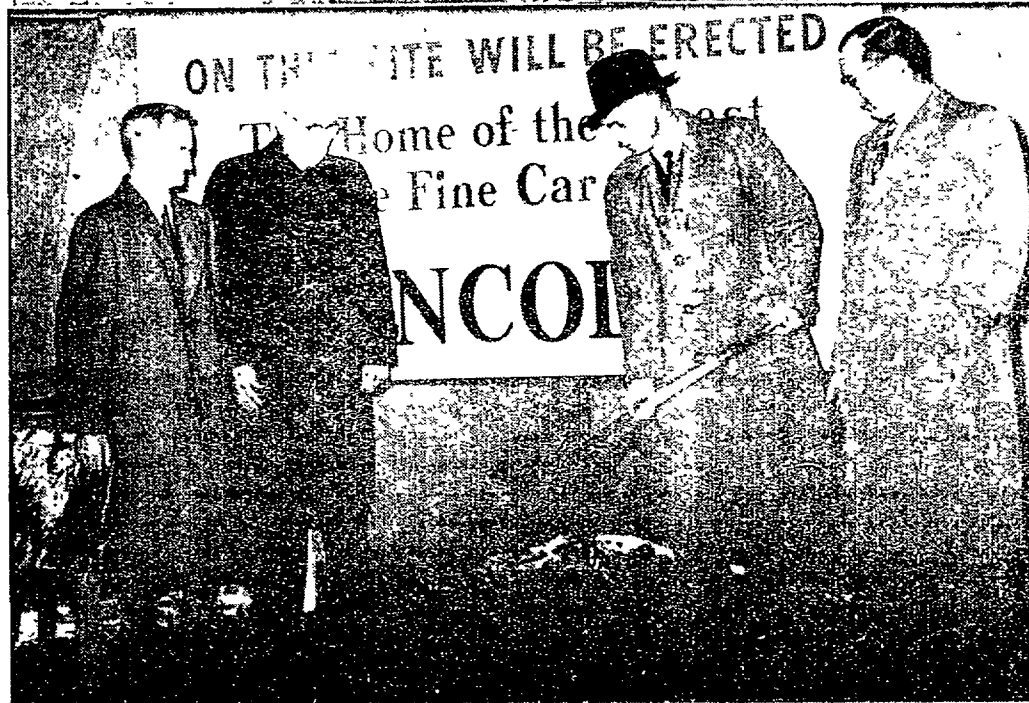

"You won't get anywhere with the appeal board. I can assure you of that," Harwood quickly and loudly advised Pitchford.

No more discussion on the subject followed.

The problem of establishing a water board and taking over the Willowbrook water system was next discussed by board members. They agreed to meet with Paul LeBost at Attorney Davis' office in Pontiac. Trickey suggested that a representative from Willowbrook be invited to sit in on the discussions.

Asks New Election Board

Harwood again asked for the floor and publicly requested that a new election board be appointed for the 1957 elections.

IT WAS A BIG DAY for Novi Township Friday morning when representatives of Ford Motor Company, Lincoln, and Novi took part in ground-breaking ceremonies for the new multi-million dollar Lincoln plant and headquarters on Wixom Rd. just north of Grand River.

ed for the 1957 elections.

"This is no reflection on any individual's," he said. "I realize we'll all be old some day, but this last election was a sore spot . . . and a new election board should be appointed with younger men."

Staman said the election board is appointed by the township clerk.

Harwood said he was making his request at this time so that the board would have plenty of time for action and unnecessary misunderstandings would be avoided in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Weiss of Mooring-side Dr. attended their pinocle club last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Doran of Detroit.

DEGERMINATED CHRISTIANITY!

Recent tests made by the University of Minnesota caused nutritionists to sit up and take notice. Cattle were fed grain that had been degerminated like the commercial flours used in our modern baking. They gained in weight, appeared to be in good health, but soon began to drop dead, one by one with heart failure. They reasoned, could this be one answer to why so many are dying of heart disease? Then too, I wonder if the anemic type of Christianity evidenced by worldly, prayerless, lip service professing Christians is not due to the degerminated adulterated preaching from so many pulpits today. So many have taken our repentance, restitution, eternal punishment for sin, and even "salvation" is in little evidence in their preaching. Their religion is 99% horizontal and about 1% vertical! They give their congregations a mess of psychology, a serving of politics, a luncheon on social theory but the Words of life are strangely missing. We need preaching of men like the apostle Paul whose theme was "Repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ". (Acts 20:21). Oh that it might be plainly preached, that to become a Christian one must be turned about (converted), from a life of sin to a life where Jesus Christ is the exalted Lord and Saviour.

4-H Girl Tells of Trip To Chicago Nat'l. Convention

The Novi 4-H girls held their regular monthly business meeting at the home of Patty Robertson on 11-Mile Rd. Marilyn Sharpe gave a talk on her trip to the 4-H club national convention in Chicago last week.

The new schedule lists sewing projects on the second and fourth Tuesday; and handicraft the third Tuesday. Meetings are at the home of their leader, Mrs. James Wimmer on 11-Mile Rd.

Methodist Churches Combine Choirs for Special Program

The combined choirs of the Novi and Brighton Methodist churches will have a Christmas cantata Sunday, Dec. 18.

Two programs are scheduled: the morning program will be held in Brighton at 11 a.m. and the evening program will be given in Novi at 8 p.m.

Novi School Notes

Junior High

The boys and girls in junior high went to Cranbrook Institute of Science Wednesday, Nov. 30.

Eighth Grade

Pupils in the eighth grade are working on projects in their science class. The projects are on trees, leaves, insects, animals, fish and the human heart.

Sixth Grade

The sixth grade 4 plus 2 club had treats at their Thanksgiving party. A pleasant surprise occurred when Michael Ross, a former classmate, visited the class that afternoon.

Larry Snow received his trophy for high salesmanship in the magazine sales this year.

Fourth and Fifth Grade

The fourth and fifth graders made Thanksgiving favors for the Novi Convalescent home. They also made trees with black paper and white chalk.

Rickie Pantalone is a new pupil in the fifth grade.

Fifth Grade

The Junior Red cross membership drive in Novi school netted $32.70. Jeff Crawford and Kenneth Hayes were in charge of the collection.

Third Grade

Ronnie Ward gave a birthday party for his classmates Friday afternoon.

Bonnie Hunt, third grade pupil, has moved with her family to Rockwood. The latest project of the third grade has been to put a bird feeder on one of the window sills so that the birds may be seen at close range.

Kindergarten

The Novi school kindergarten pupils who have had perfect attendance so far this year are Gay Ann Bingham, Billy MacDeimaid, David Rippey, Patty Ann Trotter, Mary Lynn VanSickle, Tommy Young, Danny Groves and Steven Krogg.

The ladies of the Methodist church will honor Mrs. Vernon Martin, the former Harriet Angel, at a post bridal miscellaneous shower Friday evening, Dec. 9. Mrs. Martin was married in September.

Board Meeting - with a plat map showing an additional 160-acres to be divided into 135 building sites.

The property, part of the L.D. Crusoe estate northwest of Nine Mile and Novi roads, is located to the north and west of Crusoe's home. Crusoe has retained 27 acres immediately surrounding his home.

Earlier this year, Blackwood purchased and began developing another 20-acre portion of the Crusoe estate.

The complete subdivision will be known as Brookland Farms. The township board gave Blackwood the temporary approval he had requested on a 60-lot portion of the 160 acres.

Board Again Berated

A request for a resort liquor license by Bob-O-Link Golf course was quickly and unanimously turned down by the board. Having gone on record several months ago as opposed to granting any additional liquor licenses during 1955, the board members reaffirmed this policy.

Harwood jumped to his feet and verbally berated the board members for denying the request "without taking time to even study the matter."

"You should at least appoint a committee or something," he said. Trickey said that a study had been made earlier this year and had resulted in the board's earlier decision to issue no more licenses.

Out of Order?

Harwood replied that he couldn't see what harm it would do to grant a license to the golf course since it was two miles from town, but that "if a study has been made, I'm out of order and will withdraw my motion."

"You definitely are," Staman shot back.

A motion was made and seconded to pay the bills and the meeting was adjourned.

Novi Girl Scouts

Intermediate Troop No. 492 met in the basement of the school. New officers elected were: president, Ginger Cheeseman; vice-president, Leola Neely; secretary, Sharon White; treasurer, Barbara Wallace, and sergeant-at-arms, Pam Harnden. Names were exchanged for Christmas. Rita Crawford and Brenda Coburn brought treats as they were working on cooking badges. They closed the meeting with the friendship circle.

Secretary, Sharon White

Brownie Troop No. 602 made Christmas decorations for the Goodfellows. Bonnie Hunt, who is moving to Rockwood, Mich., received her new year pin—Leader Mrs. Whittington brought candy and apples for treats. Velma Pounders brought a birthday cake and Diane Ramsey also brought treats.

Brownie Troop No. 493 discussed Christmas activities. President Holly Fox presented pins to three new girls: Gail Hendrick, Kathy Probst and Karen Ross.

Intermediate Troop No. 491 girls are working on red baskets. Treats were brought by Frenda Angel and Sharon LaFond.

Ground-Breaking - the first 20 days of November, Lincoln dealers delivered 70% more cars to the fine car buyer than they did in a similar period a year ago. "Firm orders are running well ahead of production," he said.

Mills expressed the hope that the Lincoln division and Novi township would be good neighbors. "We will really try," Mills said.

Executives Introduced

Mayhew then introduced Henry Ford II, president of the Ford Motor Co.; L. D. Crusoe, executive vice-president of car and truck divisions; D. S. Harder, executive vice-president of basic manufacturing divisions, and Henry Clay Ford, vice-president of the Lincoln division.

At the conclusion of the introductions, Mr. Mills turned the first shovelful of earth on the 325-acre site with a chromium-plated shovel.

Township Officials Attend

Novi Township officials attending the ceremony and buffet luncheon afterwards at Botsford Inn were Frazer Staman, supervisor, Earl Banks, clerk; Charles Trickey, Jr., treasurer; Harold Miller, trustee, and Frank Clark, trustee.

Members of the zoning commission in attendance were James Irwin, George Lien, Harry Watson and George Simmons.

Other Novi people at the ground-breaking were Cameron Lodge, electrical inspector; Leo Harwood, president of the Board of Commerce and Jack Crawford.

To Employ Over 5,000

The new headquarters, to be located on Wixom Rd., one-half mile north of Grand River Ave., includes a three-story, 200,000 square foot office building and a one-story assembly plant covering more than 1,300,000 square feet.

The plant will have an annual payroll of between $25,000,000 and $30,000,000, a capacity of 90,000 cars a year on a straight time basis and employ more than 5,000 persons.

Modern Facilities

Included in the facilities are three cafeterias, a fully-staffed hospital, an 800-line telephone switchboard and complete teletype and duplicating system.

The lift-slab method of construction will be employed in the office building. In this method, pre-formed slabs of concrete will be raised by hydraulic jacks to provide roof and floor sections of the building.

The Lincoln division, separated from the former Lincoln-Mercury division in April, is now housed in the Riverfront offices of Ford Motor Company's Rouge plant in Dearborn.

Lodges Have Supper

The Rebekahs and Oddfellows had a combined pot-luck supper at the hall Monday evening. Pot-luck suppers have become monthly affairs during the winter months.

Mrs. Ed Branch entertained the Rebekah club at her home on E. Eleven Mile Rd. Wednesday of this week. A pot-luck luncheon at noon was followed by the annual Christmas party.

ALLEN MONUMENT BUSINESS SECOND LARGEST IN MICHIGAN

Think of diamonds, travel and art, and what comes into your mind? You probably don't think of the monument business, but the fact is that these things are as much an integral part of the business as granite and sand-blasting.

The monument dealer travels to select granite and marble; uses diamonds to cut the stone, and employs his artistic talents in sketching drawings for the marker.

The monument business incorporates a variety of skills and offers an escape from boredom since no two jobs or names are ever identical. Commenting on this fact, A. Malcolm (Mike) Allen, local monument dealer, said that a monument is very much like a tailor-made dress; it is made to fit the individual.

Allen 2nd Largest Dealer In Mich. Allen is the second largest monument dealer in the state of Michigan and travels to several states during the year to order granite and marble.

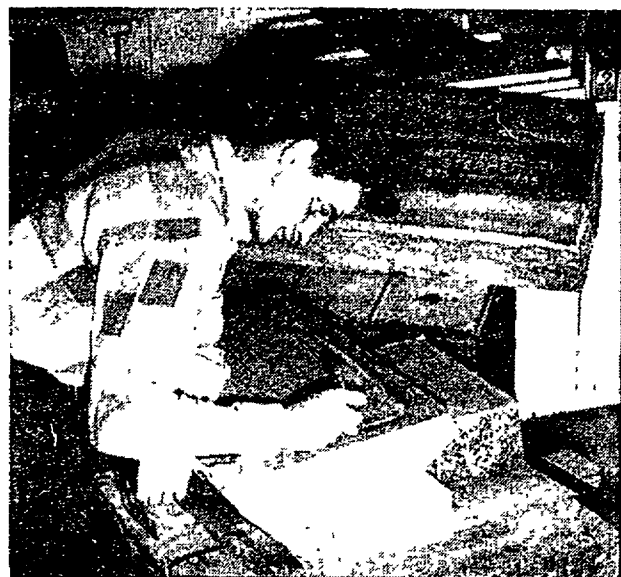

Most of the granite that Allen buys comes from quarries in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Georgia and Barre, Ver. Tennessee and North Carolina are the marble centers.

Blocks of the stone ranging in size from 100 pounds to 20 tons are shipped to Allen who has the stone cut to size in his factory.

Many of the monuments are 50 DIAMONDS PER INCH are in the wheel cutting the granite stone in half. Watching the water spray the dust and cool the diamonds is Herman Connors. In the picture on the right, Jerome Allen, brother of A. M. Allen, trims away parts of the rubber stencil which masks the monument for blasting purposes.

displayed in the front and rear of the business buildings "I don't have a storage problem," Allen said, "nobody walks away with my merchandise and the weather doesn't affect them."

Largest Monument—20 Tons
The largest monument that Allen was ever commissioned to finish was a 20-ton solid unit.

The stone is reported to be the largest in Michigan and was dedicated to the heroic services of the War Dog, which included all of the dogs who served this country during World Wars I and II. The monument is at the Happy Hunting Ground cemetery, a canine cemetery in New Hudson. Right now Allen is working on another unusual monument, a five foot by four foot stone upon which will be the picture of Jesus Blessing Little Children. As far as Allen knows, this will be the first time for this religious drawing to appear on a monument.

Diamond Saw Cuts Granite
Granite is cut with a diamond saw. The saw has no teeth, but there are 50 diamonds per inch in the wheel. As the saw cuts through the stone, water continually sprays to wash away the dust and cool the diamonds. A stone 24 in. by 24 in. by 12 in. can be cut in half in two hours.

Under the old process of using a surface machine to cut off rough pieces and a chisel to beat it down, the job would involve two days work.

Drawing—Free Hand
After the stone's surface is smoothed it is then prepared for the lettering and drawings.

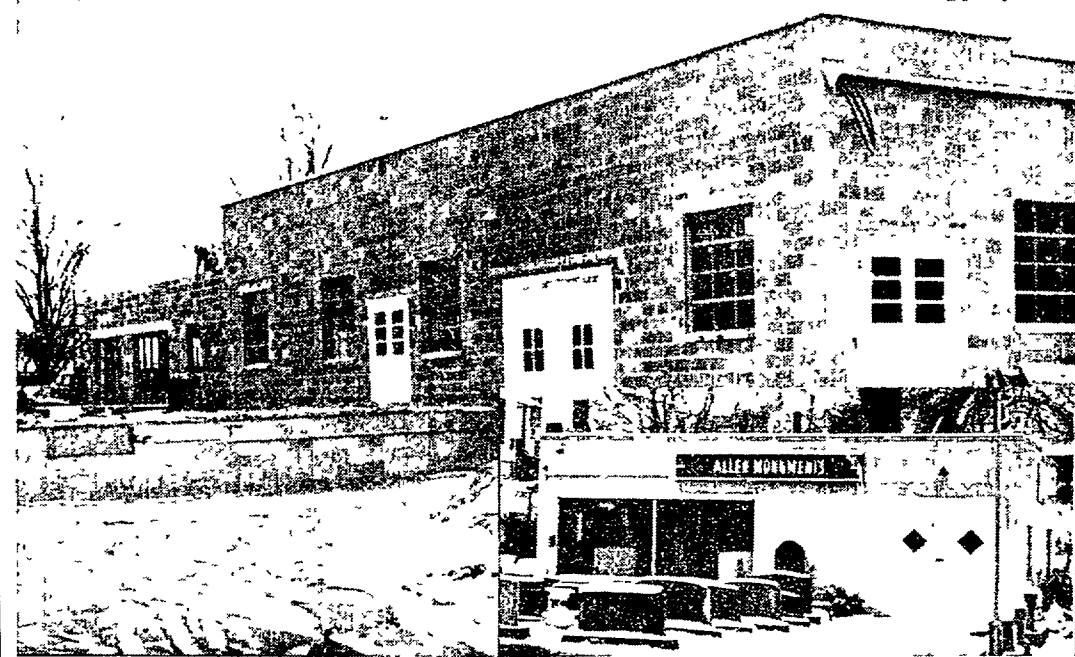

The days of the long-bearded stone cutter with a hammer and chisel are past, Allen says. Most of the present day inscriptions and artwork are done by sand-blasting or with pneumatic chisels.

A free-hand sketch is made at the drawing board in the exact size to be used on the stone. The drawing is then transferred to a rubber stencil which covers the stone. The portions of the stencil

Christmas Star Is Still A Mystery

The mystery of the Christmas star brings popular interest in astronomy to a peak in December, says University of Michigan associate professor Hazel M. Losh. And it's a mystery astronomers haven't solved yet.

"The narrative about the star is too incomplete, the date of the appearance of the star too uncertain, the early calendar too unreliable to lead us to any definite conclusions," she states. One explanation advanced is that the "star" reported to have guided the shepherds may have been a conjunction of bright planets.

The Sun will reach its southernmost point this month, the winter solstice, as it is called. The Sun will then swing in its shortest daily arc across the southern hemisphere sky. We will have our shortest day and longest night, about nine and 15 hours, respectively, Professor Losh points out.

At this time of the year the earth is closer to the Sun than during our summer which tends to make our winter a little milder and the southern summer a little hotter. In spite of the fact that we are closer to the Sun than we are in the summer the Sun's rays now hit us obliquely which lessens their force, the astronomy professor explains.

Venus, after its long appearance during the summer and early fall as an evening planet, is now the "morning star". And Mars will be the bright orange object in the southwestern sky.

During December evenings some of the most beautiful and colorful stars in all the heavens light up the eastern horizon. Professor Losh says, citing Orion, the giant huntsman, as an example. He moves across the southern sky during the course of the night.

And turning to the northwestern horizon at Christmas time, the Northern Cross, Cygnus, stands in an upright position with the bright star Deneb marking the top, a fitting symbol for the season, she concludes.

Letter to the Editor

To The Editor:

At one time or another most of us have said, "if I had only known, it would have made a difference."

On Tuesday, Dec. 13th all qualified voters of Northville have several important decisions to make, among them the selection of a City Council. A new name will appear on the ballot this time—John S. Canterbury.

Many have not had the pleasure of meeting John nor the privilege of working with him on various civic and church committees. He and his family have only lived in Northville about five years, but it didn't take long to find out he is a man who can contribute much to our community because of his qualifications.

He not only has the position of Manager of Organization Department, Ford Division of the Ford Motor Company, but previous to that he served our Federal Government as Director of Management, Economical Co-operation Administration.

He is the man who spent countless hours of research and wrote the fine articles that appeared in The Northville Record last spring on "Why Northville Should Become a City". He has been very active in the Northville Adult Education Group, compiling much of the material for a brochure on the research made by the class which was sent all over the State to adult education groups by the University of Michigan as an example on adult education. He is now chairman of this study group.

Because I have had the privilege of working on these committees with John Canterbury, I felt this would be the best way to tell everyone about his qualifications that I am familiar with, that he is co-operative, pleasant to work with and should be a valuable man in our City Government.

It is not only good that new people come to Northville to live, but better still, that someone like John Canterbury is willing to give of his talents as well.

(Mrs. A. C.) Bea Carlson

Local College Girl Starts Practice-Teaching In Paw Paw

Miss Mary Lou Litsenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Litsenberger, 132 Dunlap, Northville, is doing her practice teaching during the fall semester. A senior at Western Michigan college in Kalamazoo, she is teaching second grade at the Paw Paw school.

One semester of practice teaching is a graduation requirement for anyone enrolled in either of the education curricula. It consists of observing and instructing in a classroom under the supervision of a teacher.

Christmas Books for Children Should Include The Old As Well As The New

This is the second in a series of articles prepared by Mrs. Mary Griffin Newton for The Detroit Free Press and reprinted with her permission.

The books listed may be obtained from your bookstore or by visiting Mrs. Newton's private book shop at 4095 W. Buena Vista, Detroit. If time does not permit, they can also be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Newton at WDster 3-8408.

Last week the Record printed a list of books for children from the Toddler stage to 6 years old.

By Mary Griffin Newton
Christmas booklists for children, like weddings, should include something old as well as something new. The child who misses the best of the old is surely bereft of his priceless heritage. Most of the titles on this list are of choice 1955 books, but treat the old timers with respect since they are greatly loved.

covering the areas of the stone to be engraved are carved away with a sharp knife.

The stone is then wheeled into a special enclosed sand-blasting room where fine particles of carboumdum are pneumatically sprayed over the exposed portions of the stone at a pressure of 110 pounds per square inch.

The terrific pressure of these particles striking the stone literally eats away the surface of the stone to the required depth. Parts of the stone covered by the rubber stencil are unaffected by the sand-blasting operation. It takes about three hours to blast a stone three feet long.

Allen's factory includes a suction device which eliminates the possibility of workers becoming ill from breathing dust.

30% Population Order Monuments In Advance

When asked what per cent of the population makes monuments plans in advance, Allen said, "About 30% of the people feel a pre-need A tombstone and cemetery lot are actually good insurance. You can have a home and money and everything that you want while you're living, but when you die you will still need two things: a place to be buried and a grave marker.

"It's security," Allen continued, "and it is also good business sense. Many times I have seen family members walking around the cemetery in bad weather, performing the task of picking a lot and later choosing a marker. It would be much easier if they prepared for it and sheltered their loved ones from having to perform that duty while under a mental strain."

Allen's monuments range in price from $25 to $5,000.

About The Owner
Mike Allen began his career as an apprentice in Flint when he was 18 years old.

After serving a four year apprenticeship the business went bankrupt and Allen acquired part of the business equipment in lieu of back wages. Allen stored the machinery and went to work in Detroit.

After six months in the big city, Allen opened his monument business in Northville and bought a half-interest in the business in Milford. Twelve years later, in 1948, Allen bought the other half of the business and also established a monument shop in Flint. Last year Allen opened his fourth shop in Vassar, Mich.

All of the stone is processed in Milford; however, Allen is having a new factory built in Northville. His equipment will be transferred from Milford and the change completed about Feb. 1.

Allen was elected president of the Michigan Monument Dealers Assn. for the year 1955-56.

Basketball Season Opens Friday Night

Reserved season basketball tickets are now on sale for $5, it was announced by Al Jones this week. The regular price for each of the seven home games is one dollar. The seats will be on the stage in back of the players and will be held only after the first quarter of the varsity game.

Student tickets may be purchased the day of the game and are 25 cents for grade school and 35 cents for high school students. They will be on sale at all of the Northville schools including the Catholic school. No student tickets will be sold at the door.

By the Rev. B. J. Pankow, Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Northville

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16)

Children everywhere are again memorizing this passage in preparation for the Christmas services. Why do these words, once spoken at night by Jesus to Nicodemus, continue to act as a power that grips both young and old, high and low, rich and poor, intelligent and simple? Why does this passage tenderly touch our hearts as we read it again? Because it tells of God's great love, a love that expressed itself in a Supreme Gift for all mankind.

GOD'S SUPREME GIFT
Christmas is a time of giving, when one manifests his love toward the other through presents. But all true giving has its source in God, who gave the best and the most, when on the first Christmas Eve, some nineteen and a half centuries ago, He gave to the world His only begotten Son—His SUPREME GIFT.

Such a Supreme Gift was necessary for the world's salvation. All people because of sin, without exception, deserved to perish. The Bible states: "For ALL have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23). The guilt of sin was on all. Not one was more just than the other. All had gone aside. All had become God's enemies. The same applies today. Man by nature is sinful, ruined in body and soul, and under the sentence of condemnation. "The wages of sin is death." (Romans 6:23). This comprises spiritual death, temporal death, and eternal death. The horrible sentence of death was hanging heavily over all. There was nothing anyone could do to escape it, nothing that mortals could do to bring themselves back to God.

But despite man's rebellion God LOVED MAN, God wanted everyone to be saved. "As I live, saith the Lord God, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked." (Ezekiel 33:11). Yes, God SO loved the world, that He GAVE HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON, the only One who has ever been begotten by the Father from all eternity, the most lovable Son, a part of God Himself, in the most intimate union imaginable. This beloved Son God GAVE, gave Him to become a man, to be born as a poor, lowly Child, gave Him to suffer a life of privation here upon earth, gave Him to suffer shamefully as though He were a criminal, gave Him to die the ignominious death on the cross to pay for our sins. Yes, God SO loved the world, SO tenderly, SO unspeakably, SO everlastingly. This Christmas our dear children will again sing:

"God's Son for a GIFT
Has been sent you this night,
To be your Redeemer,
Your Joy and Delight."
What a Gift! What a Supreme Gift! It is an eternal, incomprehensible Gift, even as the Giver and His love are incomprehensible.

ACCEPT GOD'S GIFT
Who would now not accept this great Gift of God? Who could now be so ungrateful as to reject God's love? Would someone who is perishing at sea or in a conflagration be so unthankful as to refuse the helping hand of one who has gone to his utmost to effect the rescue? Who at Christmas time would refuse to accept a good gift from a dear friend? No one.

During this Advent and Christmas season God again with all earnestness offers His Supreme Gift. He invites all to hear about this priceless Gift in the church services at this time. He asks all to accept His Son by BELIEVING IN HIM. And those who accept God's Supreme Gift will most assuredly NOT PERISH, that is, they will not be lost forever, will not be consigned to eternal misery; because God's Son suffered all of this for us. He came "to seek and to save that which was lost." (Luke 19:10).

EVERLASTING LIFE
Instead of everlasting death we are promised the opposite EVERLASTING LIFE, an endless life in heaven, in a place of entrancing beauty, of matchless splendor, of ineffable glory. What human tongue can adequately describe it? In heaven there will be none of the pains and heartaches and sorrows to which man is subject here in this vale of tears—no weeping, no sorrow, no suffering, no hunger, no thirst, and above all no death—only eternal life, life in its fullest sense, life with God.

John 3:16 has been called the "Little Bible," because it is a summary of the whole teaching of salvation. In a nutshell it tells us what God did to save us. In half a sentence it tells us how and how only we come into possession of this salvation.

It is possible for all to have this everlasting life. "God so loved the WORLD . . . that WHOSEVER . . ." The word "world" and the word "whosoever" include everyone. God in His grace gives everyone the right to apply this beautiful verse to himself in the following manner: "God so loved the world, God so loved ME, that He gave to ME His only begotten Son, that by believing in Him, I should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Methodist Choirs To Present Christmas Vespers Dec. 11

The Harmony Choir will also participate singing "Lullaby, Little Jesus" and "Ring Bells of Christmas" by Magney.

MUSTANGS LOSE OPENER 42 - 26

"Both Teams Played Dull, Inconsistently," Says Coach

The Mustangs opened their 1955-56 basketball season with a disappointing loss to Plymouth by the score of 42-26.

Plymouth opened the game in the first quarter with four quick baskets and Northville did not present any threat for the remainder of the game.

"It was a dull ballgame all the way," said Coach Stanley Johnston. "Both teams played inconsistent basketball with Northville hitting only 10 baskets out of approximately 55 to 60 shots."

It is hoped that the local lads will find their shooting eye this Friday night against Keego Harbor, now called West Bloomfield. This game will be played at Northville. The reserve game starts at 7 p.m.

Gas Mileage goes up AGAIN

And so does the thrill - with Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo!

WITH ALL the big excitement of Buick's 1956 styling and power and ride and handling - it's easy to overlook this fact:

Gas mileage in the '56 Buicks takes a big step upward.

One reason, of course, is the new power plant itself.

Every new Buick cradles an advanced 322-cubic-inch V8 engine with the highest horsepower, Series for Series, in all Buick history. Yet every engine delivers more efficiency, and more usable power to the rear wheels—because each one has a new double "Y" manifold, and a new high in compression ratio.

But the major reason for the happy news in gas mileage—and for the new step-up in safety and thrills—is Buick's latest version of Variable Pitch Dynaflo.

In this airplane-principled transmission, you always had a gas-saving cruising range—and, at a switch of the pitch, a full-power getaway range.

Now Buick engineers have brought to this cruising range what they call "double regeneration." It simply means a new way to make flowing oil add to its own velocity to build up driving force.

So now, you merely nudge the pedal to part throttle and get new breakaway getaway. And since you get this quicker, safer response in your normal cruising range—where you don't use full power—you get plenty more miles from every tankful of gas.

But when you do need sudden safety-surge for emergencies, you just floor the pedal to switch the pitch. Instantly, you're at full-power acceleration—and it's the most thrilling safety measure in the land.

How about coming in to try the most modern transmission yet? The absolute smoothness of this new Dynaflo is worth a visit in itself. So you can be sure you're in for a wealth of wonderful surprises—for that's just the start of the best Buick yet. Can you make it this week?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

SOME OF US GIRLS have been talking, Mom, and we all agree that the way you're going about this Christmas shopping just isn't smart at all.

WHAT'S THE POINT of driving 15 or 20 miles through heavy traffic to Detroit shopping centers to buy items that are for sale right here in our Northville stores.

WHY WEAR YOURSELF OUT — why waste money on gas, oil, parking — when Northville merchants already stock the items you want right in their friendly, nearby stores.

YOU'RE DOLLARS AHEAD at the end of the month if you shop right here in your own community. Prices in Northville's stores are just as low as anywhere else — and the money you're wasting on gas and oil for the car could buy me a nice permanent. (Well, maybe new shoes would be more practical).

YOU'LL HAVE LOTS MORE TIME at home with me . . . and you'll be lots better company for Dad when he comes home . . . and you'll have time to fix him a good dinner, even on the days you've done a lot of shopping.

That's what us girls think, Mom. And we also think you'll get better service from Northville merchants than you could ever get from a big city store where you're just another charge account number in a whole mob of customers.

So shop the SMART way, Mom. Shop the RIGHT way. For your sake, and for mine. Shop in Northville, with the businessmen whose taxes pay for our schools and streets, our police and fire departments, and all the other services that help to make Northville a swell place to live.

P. S. Don't forget, Mom, that most of our Northville stores are open every evening until 9 o'clock from now until Christmas.
