

EXPECT 80% STUDENT INCREASE IN TEN YEARS

Council To Study City Mgr. Plan

Advisory Committee To Report Feb. 23

for the Record

by G. H. C.

The lead story in this week's Record deals with the school system that Northville must build over the next ten years. It is a story about the bricks and mortar that will be required to build such a school system, the cost of such bricks and mortar, and how this cost can be met by a moderate increase in taxes.

The story is based upon a report made by the Citizens Advisory School Committee to the Board of Education to assist the board in deciding future school policy. This report appears to have been carefully prepared by a group of conscientious citizens who must have devoted long hours to investigation and study of the local situation. These men and women deserve the thanks of the entire community for the effort they have made to be helpful. Above all, their recommendations warrant being considered most carefully by the Board of Education.

The report is quite explicit in its attempt to forecast growth of population in the school district, the type of school buildings that will be needed, where they should be built and how they can be paid for.

Its curriculum section is more subject to debate, not because it is less explicit than the others, but because there is room for a wide divergence of opinion as to the subjects that should be taught. The suggested curriculum is essentially that which many high schools have been teaching for years—college preparatory with a slight leaning of shop and other manual skills. The only NEW subjects suggested are these: typewriting for personal use, office practice, business machines, journalism, refresher mathematics, corrective gymnasium work, music appreciation, conservation, law for personal use, a guidance program (counseling, etc.).

Against this classical approach to education there is another viewpoint which emphasizes technical education to a far greater extent than ever before. If anyone doubts its validity, and the enormous demand for college graduates who have specialized in technical subjects, he has only to scan the classified ad. sections of the Detroit Sunday papers to find page after page of "help wanted" ads. in this category.

Probably the curriculum committee considered expansion of preparatory high school courses in this direction and discarded them for one reason or another. It would have been desirable, however, if the committee had attempted to show the far horizons and pin point how near or how far the Northville school system is from achieving them.

Unless the extent of the problem is shown in its entirety, together with the deficiencies that must be overcome if it is to be met, Northville voters and parents will not have the background knowledge necessary to judge the adequacy of the present curriculum.

One impressive thing in recent weeks has been the interest shown in our local high school curriculum by individuals who have written letters to the board of education and to the Northville Record about it. The writers have not been "crack-pots". To the contrary, they are highly intelligent individuals who are genuinely concerned lest the community fail to offer its youth the necessary educational background to cope with future problems which are vastly different from those of their fathers and mothers.

The one point that stands out in this situation is that Northville is at a cross road with respect to its school system and no one pretends to know all the answers. Under the circumstances it

Mayor Names 4 Councilmen To Committee

Report To Be Given At Future Meeting

Four councilmen were appointed by Mayor Claude Ely to study the advantages and disadvantages involved in hiring a city manager for the city of Northville.

Provisions were made in the recently voted city charter for a city manager and the city council has the power to employ such a person without submission to a public vote.

"Things are getting more complicated," Councilman Stubenvoll said, "and to act more efficiently we should hire such an individual. All of our leg-work could be done by the city manager. Since the charter commission saw fit to provide us with such an opportunity we should take advantage of it."

Councilman Canterbury mentioned that he had already collected a great deal of information on the subject and said that there were 36 city managers in Michigan. "A lot of pre-planning has to be done before recruiting such a man," Canterbury said, "and if we expect to have a manager in quite a few months we should start now."

Mayor Ely appointed Councilmen Allen, Canterbury, Reed and Stubenvoll to study the city manager position and make a report at their convenience.

Appointment

A resolution for the designation of a street administrator was made by Councilman Stubenvoll and Councilman Allen was appointed to represent Northville in all transactions with the state highway commissioner.

Budget

Treasurer A. Russell Clarke questioned the council about the city budget which was submitted at the last meeting. Since there were no changes to be made, the council adopted the budget in its entirety.

New Ordinance

A new ordinance, concerned with the purchase and sale of city property, was prepared by Councilman Canterbury and Reed and City Attorney Ogilvie. The ordinance was submitted to the council.

A few revisions are to be made

"THERE'S NO QUESTION NOW whose truck it is," said the Street Commissioner A. Malcolm Allen this week when he saw the newly painted city truck. The bright yellow truck body and fancy black lettering has caused more than just a mild stir among the people who have seen it along Main St. "It's different" they've exclaimed, but there is a question concerning the lettering . . . some say that it looks modern while others contend that it has a Chinese touch.

Waterloo Says, "We Are Building In Northville"

"There IS building going on in Northville," said Stanley Waterloo, Northville building inspector, in reference to a front page story in last week's Record, "although new residential building here is almost at a standstill."

"The great majority of our permits are house alterations and conversion of single dwelling units to two or three apartments," he said.

Stymied for Land

"We're stymied for land," Waterloo said. "There are very few lots available within the present confines of the city for new residential construction."

Explaining Northville's building situation, Waterloo said that even if the city were able to take in adjoining property their opportunities would be limited.

"To the east we have the gravel pit and the state mental hospital; to the south is Cass Benton

Ellison Named To Head Ed. Committee

Northville School Superintendent Russell H. Amerman appointed E. V. Ellison, high school principal, to head the newly organized Educational Specification committee.

Members of the committee include Harold Hartley, Diana Lance, Florence Panattoni, Martha Milne, Charles Yahnke, Anna Mae Frogner, Russell H. Amerman and Dr. Arthur Wohlers, school plant consultant, Wayne County Board of Education.

An organizational meeting was held last week at which Dr. Wohlers explained the responsibilities of the group.

According to Ellison, the committee will determine the kinds of activities which will take place in all classrooms and the equipment which will be in class use.

The completed report will be submitted to the architects of the newly proposed high school and they will plan room sizes accordingly.

The next meeting is scheduled for Feb. 29 at which time the committee will meet with high school faculty members.

Population Growth Forecast

Basic to the advisory committee's recommendations are the forecasts of Shafer's sub-committee on population, which did an exhaustive job of analyzing population trends for the area over the next ten years. The committee's conclusion was that Northville must prepare to handle 1,382 elementary school children and 1,015 junior and senior high school students in another 10 years, with a chance that these figures may prove to be ultra-conservative as the school

District Champs. . . . NHS Debate Team

The Northville high school debate team won first place honors in the district elimination tournament of the Michigan High School Forensic Assn. held at Royal Oak high school Thursday, Feb. 16.

Coached by Miss Florence Panattoni, the team consists of Ken Krezel, Lillian Zinnecker, Suzanne Dewsbury, Bernhard Mueller and Becky Coolman.

Schools in the district play-off were Birmingham, Redford Union, Southfield, Royal Oak, Walled Lake, Thurston, Northville and Mt. Morris.

The first school that Northville met in debate at the tournament was Mt. Morris. Northville took the affirmative point and won the first round. The second round found Northville taking the negative point against Walled Lake. The third and final debate was decided between Birmingham, negative, and Northville, affirmative. Northville won.

The question that was being debated was: "Resolved that the Federal Government should guarantee higher education to qualified high school graduates through grants to colleges and

Church Circles Sponsor Thrift Shop

At a meeting of the Women's Assn. of the First Presbyterian church it was decided to hold a Thrift Shop sale on the ground floor of the telephone building at the corner of N. Center and Main from Mar. 8 through 24.

Mrs. L. M. Eaton was appointed general chairman. Each of the six circles will be responsible for the collection of clothing and helping in the shop.

The store hours will be from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, and Fridays from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.

U. of M. Club To Meet March 4

Miss Elizabeth Beard, 41215 Base Line Rd., will be hostess to the University of Michigan club regularly scheduled "games" meeting Sunday, Mar. 4 at 4 p.m. Members are requested to bring pot-luck, dishes and games equipment.

25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Meyer, W. 8-Mile Rd., celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Tuesday with a family dinner.

A second celebration will take place in the Meyer household this week Thursday when their son, Howard, has his 22nd birthday.

In honor of the two occasions a Hi Fi radio is being installed in the Meyer home with speakers throughout the house. The installation of the radio is a project of the Meyer boys.

To Vacation In New Orleans

Mrs. Charles Walker of Ever-seal Farms, Mrs. Henry A. Grimshaw of Valley View, Farmington, and Mrs. Mabel Miller of Cambridge Rd. left Monday for Chicago where they will board the Panama Limited for New Orleans, La. They will be guests at the Roosevelt hotel in New Orleans for a ten day vacation.

Mrs. A. C. Carlson To Head Local R.C. Branch In 1956-57

The Northville branch of the American Red Cross held its annual election in the Teachers' Lounge Monday evening. Mrs. A. C. Carlson was re-elected branch chairman. Other officers are Mrs. Clifford Winter, co-chairman; Mrs. Donald Severance, secretary; Mrs. Samuel Geraci, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Nash, Mrs. Emma Reid and Charles Carrington, board of directors.

Blood Bank

Northville is one of the few small communities to have a blood bank. Such a bank for future needs is good business... whether it is money or blood credits. Every pint is given voluntarily and provided to the recipient without cost for the Red Cross part in the service. There are three on call at all times in Northville: Mrs. A. C. Carlson, phone 402; Mrs. C. Winters, phone 379, and Mrs. Emma Reid, 654-M.

Service Men

The Home Service chairman, Mrs. William Cansfield, reported service to several servicemen and their families. As long as there are soldiers in our country's service Red Cross stands ready to help, it is not just a wartime service. Northville people are as close to their servicemen as their local Red Cross chapter which stands ready to help in any emergency.

Disaster Staff

During the past year there was no major disaster in Northville, but Disaster Chairman Charles Carrington and his staff are prepared to serve if and when the local government requests this service.

Service Pins

The meeting was climaxed with the presentation of service pins for 15 years or more of continuous Red Cross work to Mrs. William Cansfield, Mrs. Claude Ely, Mrs. Samuel Geraci, Miss Ruth Knapp, Mrs. A. M. Lawrence, Mrs. L. J. Marcoux, Mrs. Edith McKenna, Mrs. N. J. Pattison, Mrs. Donald Secord and Mrs. Clifford Winter.

The Busy Homemaker

"I've Got A Hint..."

Mrs. C. M. Hammond and three year old Eddie herself notes or reminders to which she refers to when ready for another task.

A large refrigerator with freezing compartment adequately cares for the weekly marketing. Automatic laundry equipment with a load of washing a day answers the laundry problem. The old axiom—"A place for everything and everything in its place"—is practiced in the Hammond household and the children know that this is a rule which must be followed. With this rule in force and the children cooperating, keeping the house in order isn't too much of a problem.

The Hammond home is well designed for a large family with a large recreation room, two bedrooms, small kitchen and bath on the first ground level and living room, three bedrooms, kitchen and bath on the second level. With five acres of land surrounding the home, the children have their own hill for sliding, a pond for skating, swings and a great many things that children enjoy.

Two of the Hammond children are in college: Julie attends Michigan State Eastern at Ypsilanti and Peggy, 18, is a student at Albion. At home are James, 15, Crispin, 13, Gordon, 9, and Eddie, an energetic three.

JOAN SANDERS will model this afternoon ensemble at the BPW Style Show. This particular outfit is being supplied by the Villa Dress Shoppe.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Foor of Flint announce the birth of a daughter, Pamela Marie, Dec. 8. Mrs. Foor was formerly Patricia Johnston, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston of Northville.

An angel pie sounds delicious but a chocolate angel pie sounds still more delicious and so it is, according to Mrs. Carroll Mulligan who gave us this week's recipe. With a meringue pie shell it is a confection that literally melts in your mouth. It is especially nice for that dessert bridge or as a surprise treat for your family.

The Mulligans with their three children, Martha 15, Patsy 11, and David 9, live in a big rambling house at 42565 E. 8-Mile Rd.

CHOCOLATE ANGEL PIE
2 egg whites
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. cream of tartar
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 tsp. vanilla
Beat egg whites until foamy. Add salt and cream of tartar. Beat until it makes soft peaks. Add sugar gradually. Fold in nuts and vanilla. Turn into lightly greased pie tin. Bake at 300 degrees for 55 minutes. Cool.

-FILLING-
5 tbs. sugar
1/4 tsp. salt
1 oz. bitter chocolate
2 tbs. cream
1 cup whipping cream
1/2 tsp. vanilla
Mix the first four ingredients in double boiler. When melted and blended cover. Whip cream stiff; add vanilla and fold into the chocolate mixture. Fill pie shell and cool in refrigerator.

Mrs. Sober leaves soon for a trip to Switzerland, Italy, England and France.

"An Episode of Sparrows" Reviewed At Tues. Book Club

The Tuesday Book club met at the home of Mrs. Philip N. Brown on Haggerty Rd. "An Episode of Sparrows" by Rumer Godden was reviewed by Mrs. Theodore N. Kampf, Jr.

The story tells of the escapades of some of the London St. children called "Sparrows" by the rich English families who lived in the Square. It has depth of feeling combined with humor which is beyond the scope of most novelists practicing today. "You are making a mountain out of a molehill" said Angela. Olivia was suddenly inspired to answer, "A molehill can be a mountain to a sparrow."

Township Resident Attacks Police In Penny Post Card Campaign

Dear Mr. Citizen:

I believe the residents should be informed of police problems. I feel it my duty to bring this to your attention in the matter of public interest. Articles of this nature do not always appear in small-town papers, it stresses folksy items. Political squabbles are avoided. Recently I reported a bank holdup suspect to the Northville police wanted by the FBI, the officer on duty didn't investigate or apprehend the suspect. Because of this derelict of police duty, I requested a hearing, but it has been ignored by the Mayor, city clerk, and police. If this is controversial, then you are entitled to know what the controversy is about. I think this is a backward step when my ambition was to raise both the public and police sense of responsibility.

By Herbert Koester

Mr. Koester: You originally brought the matter to which you refer above to the Record's attention in a letter dated Dec. 20, 1955. Again on Jan. 19, 1956 you wrote another short letter to the Record on the same subject. On Feb. 13 you have sent us a post card about the same matter and we understand that you have been writing numerous post cards on the subject, some of them carrying the innuendo that the Northville Record is covering up for the police department.

The Record checked the authenticity of your original letter with responsible FBI officials in Detroit and was told that on the day you claim to have heard two FBI men describing a holdup suspect in a local bar the FBI did have its agents fanned out throughout the area broadcast just such a description. However, the FBI also said that there are many things to be considered in judging how far a local police officer should go in a situation such as you describe. These same FBI officials confirmed our first judgment that to publish your charges might do grave injustice to the officer concerned and in refraining from publishing your various letters to the editor we are following the FBI's advice as well as our own inclination under the circumstances.

You have been told the facts related above by a member of the Record staff on at least two occasions. Our reason for printing your latest "letter to the editor" is to set at rest your innuendos that the Record is covering up for the Northville Police Department. We do not believe the police department needs any one to cover up for it; in fact, we believe it is a pretty good police department in almost every respect.

IT'S A DOG'S LIFE, or at least this pooch owned by Bill Klaserner (center) thought so last Sunday when a team of Oakland county veterinarians visited Novi Township hall to give rabies shots to the canine population. The metal table-top didn't give much of a toe-hold and the huge needle held by the fellow in the white coat was anything but reassuring. On the other hand Novi Patrolman Dick Noble's German shepherd (lower photo) took a much calmer view of the situation and hardly even noticed when the needle struck. However, the dogs lived through it along with about 250 others who received their shots and licenses Sunday afternoon. Township officials estimate that at one time there were as many as 100 dogs waiting in line to be vaccinated. Because of these shots, Oakland County Health authorities say there have been no cases of rabies reported during the last year.

New Nursery School Planned for Area

A new children's nursery school is planned for the residents of the Willowbrook Village and surrounding areas. It is to be housed in the facilities of Dr. Goldberger's Day Camp at 47300 W. 12-Mile Rd., corner Beck, on an 11-acre site which has a number of buildings, ample modern sanitation and unusual indoor and outdoor facilities.

Limited pickup service, by station wagon, will be available. If there is sufficient demand, the nursery school will open in September, 1956 for five days weekly, September through June. Additional information may be obtained by calling Lincoln 5-1421.

4 Twp. Ordinances Revised & Adopted

2½ Hours . . . 50,000 Words Later . . . Hoarse Voices and Some Weary Spectators

A small but determined band of spectators sat through a two and one-half hour reading of ordinances at Monday night's township board meeting.

"The ordinances have been revised and adopted as read at the meeting," Supervisor Frazer Staman said, "to keep up with changes."

Ordinances thus revised and adopted were the building ordinance, electrical ordinance, heating ordinance and traffic ordinance.

Davis Leads Off Township Attorney Charles Davis started off the ordinance reading by going through Ordinance 25, the revised building code, with the rapid-fire ease of a tobacco auctioneer. The board unanimously approved the revised ordinance.

Davis followed with the revised Electrical Ordinance No. 26, and, after several changes, including the setting up of a three man examining board, the township board unanimously approved the new ordinance.

Trickey Takes Over Davis asked for relief at this point and Treasurer Charles Trickey, Jr. took over the job of reading to the group. Halfway through the heating ordinance, a 15,000 word affair, Trickey faltered and Trustee Harold Miller took over.

Miller struggled through another 5,000 words, and then Davis, refreshed by his interval of silence, rattled through the remainder of the ordinance. The ordinance, No. 27, was unanimously adopted.

Sighs of Relief Another 15,000 word traffic ordinance was next on the agenda but the board members assured Davis they were familiar with the contents of the ordinance. Davis then suggested they pass the ordinance as submitted in typewritten form, thus dispensing with the reading aloud.

Sighs of relief were heard from the board members and spectators alike.

Court Action Reliable sources report that the revision and adoption of the new heating code resulted from a recent court action involving William Ottwell, Plymouth heating contractor.

The board also voted to rezone a 30-acre parcel of land adjacent to the new Lincoln plant C.O. railway spur to an M-1, light industrial district.

The proposed zoning book also came up for more discussion but was tabled until the next meeting when additional bids will be presented.

A SITE WAS CLEARED last week for Novi's new post office. Several large trees were cut down by a local nursery in preparation for construction of the new building. When completed in late spring, the new building will house the area's postal facilities and the old post office (right) will be used for commercial purposes, Harry Watson, owner, said last week.

Random Notes

From "file 13"

Recently we made some rather derogatory remarks in this column about the hundreds of "press releases" that flood our desks every week.

Not so with a New Hampshire editor who had the following kind words to say for the press agents:

"It's only through the press agents that we learn a lot of things. Take eggs, for instance—just got a release from some egg people saying they've developed a system for selling eggs without shells by way of a mechanical jigger that cracks and shucks 'em and seals a dozen in plastic packets. This 'naked egg' stuff is the sort of thing you'd never pick up, first hand from a chicken."

And speaking about press releases, one that we look forward to comes our way from the Temperance Society. This week one of their tid-bits included advice to men who read certain advertisements: "One-half million alcoholics give tragic testimony that the product does not always insure its user of becoming a 'man of distinction'."

Would you call this going around in circles? One of the councilmen was overheard saying, "We (the council) have been so busy with various jobs that we haven't found time to set up qualifications and hire someone who could do some work for us."

One of our most enjoyable assignments comes under the heading of teen interviews, perhaps because once in awhile we find someone amusing with a good quote. We heard just the thing this week, but since identification might prove embarrassing we'll insert it in this anonymous fashion:

Us: At what age would you like to marry?

Boy: I want to be a bachelor. I don't want to get married.

Us (not thinking): How many children do you want?

Boy (not thinking): At least two.

With the snow falling, wind blowing, and winter still pretty much in evidence, we were surprised to receive an invitation this week to attend the water carnival in St. Clair, Mich. . . . then we noticed the dates July 12-15. Oh well, that's something to look forward to along with spring and convertible weather, convertible car weather that is.

Some members of the local Democratic club are asking, "Can the Republicans top this?"

It seems that an upper Michigan woman recently celebrated her 108th birthday and when asked to what she attributed her long life she replied, "I've been a Democrat all my life."

Extension Meeting Features Desserts

Leaders of Michigan State university Home Economics Extension groups in the Northville area will learn to make many new desserts at their training meeting Thursday, Feb. 23 at the Northville Methodist church.

The leaders will meet for an all day session and luncheon will be served at noon. Miss Roberta Hershey, Michigan State university extension specialist, foods and nutrition, will conduct the meeting in Northville.

Included in the desserts demonstrated will be dairy desserts, desserts for parties, medium-calorie desserts, and several using Michigan's many-hued fruits. A home-made pudding mix will be prepared and served with interesting variations in color and flavor.

Since recent surveys have shown the average American diet to be short in calcium, a feature of the meeting will be the checking of the "calcium count" of each person's everyday meals.

Publication of Proposed Ordinance City of Northville

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, That the following Ordinance has been presented to the Council of the City of Northville, and that action upon same is proposed to be taken, on Monday Eve., March 5th, 1956, at 8:00 P.M.

CITY OF NORTHVILLE

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE NECESSARY PROCEDURES FOR PURCHASE AND SALE OF CITY PROPERTY

The City of Northville Ordains:

SECTION 1. General Policy

1. a. All purchases shall be evidenced by a purchase order signed by the Purchasing Officer.

1. b. All sales of city property shall be evidenced by a written agreement or contract of sale.

1. c. No sale or purchase shall be divided for the purpose of circumventing the dollar value limitations contained in this ordinance.

SECTION 2. Purchases: Limitations on and Requirements Respecting

2. a. The Purchasing Agent is hereby authorized to make purchases on behalf of the City, without consent of the Council, where each such purchase shall not exceed the sum of $500.00.

2. b. All purchases in excess of $500.00 shall only be authorized and ordered by the City Council.

2. c. All of such purchases which do not exceed the sum of $1,000.00 may be authorized and ordered by the City Council without the necessity of advertising for sealed competitive bids.

2. d. Sealed bids shall be asked for in all transactions involving the expenditure of $1,000.00 or more and the transaction evidenced by written contract submitted to and approved by the Council; provided, however, that this requirement shall not extend to instances involving the employment of professional services, and that it may be waived in instances where the Council, by unanimous consent, deems it to be clearly to the City's advantage to contract without competitive bidding.

2. e. All open market purchases shall, wherever possible, be based on competitive bids which may be solicited by the Purchasing Officer via telephone or mail. The Purchasing Officer shall keep a record of all open market orders and the bids submitted in competition thereon; and such records shall also be open to public inspection.

2. f. Purchases from public utilities with which the city has a franchise shall not be governed by this ordinance.

SECTION 3. Notices

Inviting Sealed Bids

3. a. Notices inviting sealed competitive bids shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the city or in appropriate trade publications at least four (4) calendar days prior to the final date for submitting bids.

3. b. Such notice shall briefly designate the supplies, materials or equipment desired, or the construction project to be undertaken, the amount of the bid bond (corporate surety cash, certified check or cashier's check) required, and the date, time and place of filing and opening of bids. The right shall be reserved to reject any or all bids, or parts thereof.

3. c. The Purchasing Officer shall mail copies of the official notice to such qualified vendors or contractors as he may deem necessary to give actual notice to interested bidders and to obtain competitive bidding.

SECTION 4. Form of Bids

4. a. Bids submitted in response to such notice shall be sealed and be accompanied by the specified bid bond.

SECTION 5. Bids, Method of Handling

5. a. Sealed bids shall be opened by the Council in public at the time and place specified in the official notice. After opening the bids the Council may review the same and act thereon, or may refer them to an appropriate city official or employee for tabulation and/or recommendation before acting thereon.

5. b. Any competing bidder may examine the bids and the tabulation.

5. c. Upon reviewing the bids, together with any recommendations made with respect to same, the Council may reject the bids or determine the lowest responsible bidder or bidders and award the contract or contracts accordingly. Quality offered, delivery terms, and service reputation of the vendor may be taken into consideration in determining the successful bidder.

5. d. In case the Council determines that it is not possible to choose between two or more bidders to determine which one is the lowest responsible bidder, the successful bidder may be determined by lot, or the Council may authorize the Purchasing Officer to purchase the commodities in the open market at not to exceed the lowest bid price for each such commodity.

SECTION 6. Execution of Contract

6. a. After award of a contract as hereinbefore provided, the contract documents, together with a performance bond running to the City and a labor and material bond running to the People of the State of Michigan and complying with the provisions of Act 187, P.A. 105, as amended (C.L. 1948, Sections 570.101-570.105), each of said bonds to be in an amount not less than the total amount of the contract, shall be executed by the successful bidder and submitted to the City Attorney for approval and the Council for execution.

6. b. All bids, deposits of cash or certified or cashier's checks may be retained until the contract is awarded and signed. If any successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into the contract as herein provided, the deposit accompanying the bid shall be forfeited and the Council may, in its discretion, award the contract to the next lowest responsible bidder, or readvertise.

SECTION 7. Sale of Property

7. a. Whenever any city property, real or personal, is not needed for corporate public purposes, the same may be sold.

7. b. Personal property not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100.00) in value may be sold for cash by the Purchasing Officer for the best price obtainable or traded to the vendor of new equipment replacing it.

7. c. Personal property with a value in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) may be sold after advertising and receiving competitive bids, as provided in Sections 3 to 5, inclusive, of this ordinance, and after approval of the sale has been given by the City Council; or such personal property may be traded to the vendor of new equipment replacing it, upon approval of the City Council.

7. d. Real property shall be sold in the same manner as personal property over one hundred dollars ($100.00) in value unless the City Council shall unanimously determine that it is clearly to the City's advantage to sell such property without competitive bidding. The sale of land which shall have been approved by three-fifths (3/5) of the city electors voting thereon at any general or special election shall not be subject to the provisions of this article.

SECTION 8. Validity of Contracts

8. a. The foregoing provisions of this article, except Section 1 hereof, shall be deemed to establish, in general, the procedure to be followed, but shall not be held to be mandatory. Any contract approved by the Council and not prohibited by the laws of the State or the provisions of the Charter shall be valid even though one or more of the provisions of this article may not have been observed.

SECTION 9. Effective Date

9. a. That because of the urgent need for the purchase of certain supplies, materials and equipment, pursuant to the provisions of said ordinance, the same is deemed to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety of the City and the ten (10) day waiting period is hereby waived and this ordinance shall therefore take effect immediately.

Customers' Corner

Once upon a savings-time . . . Sound like a fairy tale? It isn't . . . it's true! Ninety-six years ago, George Huntington Hartford started a store that turned into a chain . . . and his basic thinking started a chain reaction that has benefited budgets ever since.

His idea: "Always do what is honest, fair and sincere and in the best interests of our customers."

Our idea: to continue to keep this policy active and operating for Founder's Week and every week, as long as there's an A&P!

SUBJECTIVE RELIGION!

There seems to be an emphasis upon religion today which is foreign to the Bible. Some folks are encouraged to attend church and become religious because of the subjective benefits of having some belief. It is what religion will do for them rather than a personal responsibility to the God of Heaven and earth. As one has said, "How many have embraced religion because it is psychologically therapeutic, or its offers and opportunities for self expression, or for the peace of mind?" This is using God as one would use a sedative! There is no question but that real Christians derive much coveted peace of mind, assurance, stability and hope for the future from their faith in Jesus Christ. But these benefits are only secondary to the greatest of all benefits that man's sins have been atoned for and man is reconciled to God. That he is given a new eternal life in his soul which is the fountain head of the new abundant life. The new life does not come by exposing ourselves to a sermon as a religious duty on Sunday morning before a day at the golf course or beach! Man must see that he needs to repent and put his faith in Jesus Christ to have eternal life. This is objective religion!

Chair Recognizes

Any ordinary, hard-working individual can get himself appointed to countless committee jobs, but it takes a pretty cool customer to avoid assignments altogether. Man and boy, I have been successfully dodging committee duties in the PTA, the Neighborhood Beautification Assn., etc., until I am now at the point where I feel competent to advise others.

1. Never take a front row seat at the meeting. On the other hand don't leap for a back row seat when the chairman calls the session to order. Swift, dramatic motions are eye-catching and can be fatal.

2. Should the president call for volunteers for a certain task, remain absolutely soundless. We have before us the pitiable example of the chap who, in the stillness following the call for volunteers, had the misfortune to give way to a sneeze. Before you could say Gezundheit he was placed in charge of ticket distribution.

3. Dress carefully for the meeting. Conservative, somewhat shabby tweeds are good, and solid, meaningless grays are even better. No bright ties or socks, please.

4. In voting, cast your "yea" or "nay" with the majority. Voting with a thin scattering of minority voices exposes one unnecessarily.

5. Try not to sit next to anyone who looks as if he may take an active part in the proceedings, lest you be identified with him.

6. If worst comes to worst and you are dead certain the chairman is on the verge of appointing you to the arrangements committee, resort to a coughing spasm and make your way to the corridor. You know what to do then.

In the event that these stratagems fail and you are appointed chairman of something, see my pamphlet entitled "How To Get Others To Do the Job." Naturally I had someone else write it.

Commercial Building Increased.
During the first six weeks of this year, commercial building permits in Northville totaled more than all the permits issued last year. The total during 1955 was $266,180. This year $282,800 in permits have been issued.

Most of the building is being done by the Ford Motor Co., Northville Downs and Depositors State Bank. Two new homes are under construction and five alterations permits have been issued.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE
Royal Remedies
Nowadays it's taken for granted that a sick person should be treated as carefully and tenderly as a woman being courted for the first time.

Not in days of yore, however. Through medical history, patient treatment has more often been a matter for the iron-fisted than the kid-gloved approach. Guaranteed to turn the strongest stomach or shatter the most robust constitution were some of the remedies favored in the past.

A fascinating and bizarre remedy, widely prescribed by top physicians for nervous or wasting diseases from the Middle Ages until well after the American Revolution, was a moss called Usnea. Usnea was no ordinary moss—it was moss scraped from the skull of a criminal who had been hanged in chains. And although patients benefited from it about as much as they would have from chewing grass, there were many enthusiastic testimonials to the relief it brought.

The average man in those days was in a far better position than the nobility to avoid these unpalatable remedies. For suffering royalty invariably called for a whole battery of eminent physicians—each with a favorite "cure-all" which he was only too eager to test on his blue-blooded victim.

One of the most drastic medical goings-over of this type ever given was that administered to the light-hearted bon vivant, King Charles II. Among other things, Charles was alternately bled and dosed with emetics and purgatives; his head was shaved and a blister raised on his scalp; a plaster was applied to his feet, and he was forced to inhale a special sneezing powder.

The results of this treatment are recorded with mournful surprise by Dr. Scarborough, one of the 14 physicians called in to treat the king: "Alas! After an ill-fated night his serene majesty's strength seemed exhausted to such a degree that the whole assembly of physicians lost all hope and became despondent..."

With good cause, too... for the king died shortly afterwards.

Waterloo said that to his knowledge there is only one residential unit in the city that could be termed sub-standard and which should be demolished.

"Other towns like ours are not interested in building as much as tearing down," Waterloo said. "We have no slum area here," he continued, "and we don't have to spend dollar after dollar to clean out slum areas like other municipalities." (Other municipalities referred to were Kalamazoo and Port Huron).

"Good Zoning Board of Appeals" Waterloo said that the lack of zoning violations in Northville was a result of their being "nipped in the bud."

"We have an excellent zoning board of appeals," Waterloo said, "and they are always willing to meet and give freely of their time to decide questions that I need help with. The board members are volunteers," Waterloo said, "and should be congratulated for their interpretation of ordinances to the best interests of the city."

district, grows. There were 882 elementary school children and 475 junior and senior high students in 1955.

Using the population sub-committee's forecast as a basis, the finance sub-committee, consisting of Mrs. Walter Couse and James E. Little, has recommended construction of a new senior high school for occupancy not later than the start of the 1957 fall semester, an addition to the Amerman school by 1959 to take care of elementary school needs until about 1965 and erection of a new elementary school in 1965 on a site purchased two years ago in the Waterford area.

High School, By 1957

Because of the pressing need for new high school facilities it is believed that the board of education will take immediate steps to implement the committee's senior high recommendation, which it is estimated will cost about $1,500,000. Four possible sites for a new high school are suggested: (1) 50 acres on the west side of Northville Rd., one-half mile south of the city; (2) 50 acres owned by Waldo Johnson on the east side of N. Center St., approximately 3/4 mile north of Base Line Rd.; (3) 45 acres between N. Center St. and Taft Rd., southwest of Amerman school, owned by Manning & Locklin; (4) 60 acres comprising the Gerald Ave. area north of Seven Mile Rd. and east of Northville Rd. and the C.O. Railroad.

Other School Construction
The committee assumes that the present high school will be used for junior high students, in the 7th, 8th and 9th grades and that it will be handling its maximum number of 400 students by 1959. At that time, the committee suggests, there should be an addition to the Amerman elementary school to accommodate another 300 elementary students.

This addition would cost approximately $200,000 and should be adequate until 1966, the committee believes.

Construction of a new elementary school of at least 10 rooms will be necessary by 1965, the committee believes. It suggests that the Waterford area will be a logical location of the new building, which might cost $275,000 at today's prices.

School Tax Outlook

The finance committee expresses a probable equalized valuation of $10,450,000 in 1957, $11,500,000 in 1959 and $14,650,000 in 1965 as a tax base to support the school construction program.

Merchants Write
A letter was received from the Retail Merchants Assn. asking for more available parking space. They suggested that the space could be secured by acquisition of additional city property. No action was taken.

Bids
The council passed a motion to advertise for bids for curbing and guttering in the north side alley.

BARBARA

ROSEANN

Last week, the Record asked a group of boys if they thought that high school boys should have part-time jobs. This week we gave the girls a chance. Here's what we asked:

Do you think that high school girls should have part-time jobs? How do you spend your money?

ROSEANN PERRAULT, 16, junior, thought that high school girls should work if "the job doesn't detract from their studies, if it's needed, and if they think that they should have one." Roseann doesn't have a job, but she said she works around the house and gets an allowance which she spends for entertainment and "special clothes".

PAT WHITE, 18, senior, was a little evasive. "I won't say if they should or shouldn't have jobs," she said, "it depends on what they want and if they need it." Pat works two days a week and spends her money on "shows, skirts and sweaters".

JANICE OWENS, 17, senior, thought that the decision was a problem for the individual girl to decide, "...but if she has time for a job then by all means she should take it," she said. Janice works during the summer and spends her money for "clothes and entertainment".

BARBARA RICHARDS, 17, junior, said, "Yes, they should work. Girls need extra spending money and many times they want things that their parents can't afford." Barbara works and her money is spent for clothes, school books and entertainment.

JANICE STANFORD, 16, junior, thought that working depended on the working hours and the grade standing of the girl. Barbara is not working now, but when she did she put most of her money in a Christmas Club fund and spent some for clothes.

RUTH CLARK, 15, sophomore, said, "Girls shouldn't work on school nights unless the money is needed in the family. Week nights should be reserved for homework. Ruth gets an allowance which she saves in the bank. She makes enough money baby-sitting to go to basketball games, the theatre and to buy some clothes.

Girl Scout Troop 14

At this week's meeting we started to learn how to knit. Friday night was our big dance. We got together with a seventh grade troop. We hired Mr. Carlson, a professional dance caller and instructor from Plymouth.

We did square dancing, the Polka, Bunny Hop and several others.

We enjoyed all kinds of cold pop and cookies for refreshments. Everyone had a wonderful time.

Star Review last Friday. The program was one of many-scheduled school assemblies planned by teachers and a pupil committee.

Top Talent Recruited For Amerman All-Star Review

"Talent, talent, have we got talent?" said James Madigan, fourth grade teacher at the Amerman school, "Let me tell you! The program committee was hard put to eliminate many of the hopefuls who auditioned for the Amerman All Star Review".

The review was staged in the multi-purpose room on Friday, Feb. 17. The program, under the direction of Mrs. Ann Chizmar, kindergarten teacher, and the Pupil Committee selected talent from each grade level. The program was as follows:

Mistress of Ceremonies, Sandra Ware.

First grade talent: Jimmy Long, Phillip Muller, Jerry Muns and Billy Forsyth singing "Smoky the Bear"; Bobby Marion, David Wilder and Linda Batrum doing acrobatics.

Second grade talent: Janice Dodd, tap dance; Steven Frobel, Penny Peterson, Tim Dickinson and Linda Nolte as acrobatic clowns; Kathy George, Suzanne LaRue sang "Sixteen Tons" and Suzanne played the Kazoo.

Third grade talent: Judy Greiger played the piano.

Fourth grade talent: Donald Dearing played the accordion; Ann Hembrey played the piano; Wanda Partridge and Elias Batzer presented a comedy act.

Fifth grade talent: Barbara

Marion sang; Patty Lemke played the piano.

Sixth grade talent: Rosemary Tetzloff, Barbara Wimmer, Sandra Carney and Lillian Rakov sang "He", and they were accompanied by Christine Muller on the guitar.

The stage manager was Charles Somers, assisted by Jim Juday. The ushers were Ann Hembrey, Patsy Riley, Henry Lamp and Walter Wittrick.

Mich. Art Students To Enter 12th AAA Poster Contest

The artistic talents of a Michigan boy or girl may help save the life of a schoolchild in South America.

Announcing a Mar. 3 deadline for entries in the 12th AAA national traffic safety poster contest, Automobile Club of Michigan said that prize winning posters would be entered in an international competition. Held at Santiago, Chile, under the sponsorship of the Federacion Interamericana de Automotiviles Clubs, the contest will feature posters from all Latin American countries.

Michigan school children from 3,000 schools will submit entries in the American contest to compete among 100,000 entries from 39 states and United States territories. Cash awards, totalling $3,625 are offered for the best 123 posters. Millions of reproductions of the 12 top prize winning posters are distributed by AAA clubs to elementary schools throughout the country each year.

Entries from Michigan this year will illustrate the safety themes, "Look All Ways Before Crossing" and "Play Away from Traffic". Students wishing to make a double entry may illustrate the slogan, "School's Open—Drive Carefully" or submit a poster on some phase of school bus safety.

Winners of the 1956 contest will be announced in April. Last year young Michigan artists won 12 cash awards.

EXPOSITION MASCOT "Tommy-Hawk" poses with John J. Cronin, left, exposition chairman. The mammoth scouting show will be held at the State Fair Grounds May 17-18-19.

Live "Tommy-Hawk" Chosen For Scouting Exposition

Members of the Scouting Exposition committee have chosen a cub scout to be their mascot, "Tommy Hawk".

Originally, "Tommy-Hawk" was a 'make-believe' Mohawk papoose whose picture will appear on all the publicity pertaining to the big show. In order to prepare a 'live' "Tommy-Hawk" model for TV and public appearances, one of the Council's Cub Scouts, dressed in appropriate costume, visited with Exposition General Chairman John J. Cronin, vice-president of General Motors Corp. Mr. Cronin and mascot

"Tommy-Hawk" posed in Mr. Cronin's office following a recent meeting of the Exposition committee.

The committee predicts that the 1956 show will be larger than the record-breaking 1954 Exposition which drew an attendance of 112,000 people. Over 500 indoor booths will be manned by 20,000 boys. An hour-long pageant will be presented at all three evening shows and on Saturday afternoon. Demonstrations and exhibits on camping and pioneering and other skills will be featured in the out-of-doors.

Exposition tickets will go on sale by the council's 56,000 cubs, scouts and explorers within the next few weeks. The show will be held at the State Fair Grounds May 17-18-19.

Hunting Trip Film Shown At Exchange Club Meet Feb. 8

At their Feb. 8 meeting the Exchange club members had an opportunity to see just where the venison came from that Harold Bloom provided at a meeting a few weeks ago.

Projected slides covered the hunting trip in good detail. Pictures of the rough terrain of South Dakota where the mule deer were hunted contrasted sharply with the ravine-seamed plains of Montana where the party enjoyed good luck in antelope hunting. Mr. Bloom provided a running commentary of the trip as he showed the slides.

Kenneth Rathburn brought Ralph Hay as his guest. Rusty Locke brought Ted Masters and Charles Lapham came with Harold Wagenschutz. Jim and David Mosher were guests from the NHS senior class.

Stepping Out...With His Two Loves!

It's the hour of twilight!

And what happier prospect could a man ask for a wonderful evening. For tonight he's stepping out with his two favorite companions—the lady in his life . . . and the car in his life!

And you can rest assured that the "car of cars" will make a contribution all of its own to his evening's enjoyment.

First of all, there will be the inner satisfaction a man always feels as he steps into his Cadillac and settles behind the wheel. All about him will be the inspiration of Cadillac's luxury . . . and beauty . . . and graciousness.

Then there will be the thrill of Cadillac's marvelous performance. Driving will be so easy and so effortless that every mile will be a mile of relaxation and pleasure.

There will be the contentment that comes with Cadillac's great safety . . . and the comforting knowledge that he—and his lady—are surrounded with every comfort and safeguard known to automotive science.

And, finally, there will be the joy of arriving in the "car of cars" . . . and of catching those glances of admiration that will come his way as he pulls to the curbstone at journey's end.

Little wonder, then, that Cadillac owners have so great an affection for their motor cars.

And their sentiments etch themselves all the more deeply in the light of Cadillac's great economy and practicality. For how wonderful it is to know that the satisfactions of Cadillac ownership are coming from motordom's soundest and wisest investment.

Why not come in soon—with your lady—and "step out" for an hour or so at the wheel of a 1956 Cadillac? The car is waiting for you . . . and we'll be delighted to do the honors!

Controversy Looms On School Plan

Letters to the Editor

The following letter to the Northville Board of Education is self-explanatory. The writer, F. R. Sproule, is associated with Wyandotte Chemical Corp. and wrote an article titled "What Shall We Teach?" It appeared in the January 26 issue of this paper.

Dear Sirs:

I want to second Mr. Schiefer's plea for a truly representative Citizens Advisory Committee on Education in Northville—see his Letter to the Editor, Northville Record, Feb. 9, 1956. Such Citizens Committee are doing excellent work elsewhere and they are recommended by prominent educators, laymen and organizations working for better schools.

I would suggest a committee of 15-20 representing the township geographically and by occupation-group, with men at least equal to women in number, and including an outstanding teen-ager and teacher or school principal. Qualification would be an avowed interest in better schools and willingness to donate time and effort. The committee to elect its own chairman and make its own rules. Members to be appointed by a group of three—say, the PTA president; a city councilman or other person chosen by the Council, and a township board member or other person chosen by the board.

As members dropped out, replacements would be appointed by the same group of three. If at the end of two years there had been a turnover of less than one-third, the committee would decide by lot who should drop out, so that every six years there would be a complete turnover of members. However, any person could be reappointed after an absence of two years. As you can see, I am thinking of a permanent committee, with new blood, new ideas coming in as time goes on.

I have expressed to you before my admiration for your devotion of time into the wee hours, and I know that Mr. Amerman gives devoted service far beyond what could be rightfully demanded of him. I think that you have been so busy and so close to the picture for so long that you would find it very helpful to get ideas from a group not even appointed by you or anyone connected with the schools, a group that would see the situation "as others see it", unhampered by the press of immediate crises and concerns, and free to make bold suggestions because those suggestions would have no authority and would not entail responsibility unless adopted by the board.

I think the initiative in setting up such a Citizens Committee should properly be yours.

F. R. Sproule

Dear Editor:

Enclosed is a copy of a letter sent to the Board of Education of the Northville School District, in response to the letter submitted to, and printed in, the Northville Record, Feb. 9 issue, by Mr. James Schiefer on the need for a long range curriculum study. You have our permission to print it as you see fit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Galli

Dear Sirs:

With dismay we read the minority-of-one report to the people of the Northville School District in the Northville Record, 2-9-56 issue by Mr. James Schiefer. We got the feeling that the majority of the members of the Citizen's Advisory Committee ended their assigned task with the attitude of "Well, let's get it over and be done with it."

We don't doubt that the task confronting the committee was a very difficult one involving the investment of much time and effort. Also, we don't doubt that they did, unselfishly, devote much of their time and abilities in the discharge of their obligation to report their findings as directed. But it is also evident that, as a group, they were less than fully cognizant of the very great responsibility they assumed when accepting the appointment on the committee.

Mr. Schiefer points out, in the third proposal he recommended for consideration by the Board of Education, the need for continuing curriculum study with the object of better affording our children the opportunity to equip themselves for living in an era of fast-moving, dynamic developments in the political, economic and social aspects of our society. Can we afford to do less than what Mr. Schiefer suggests?

It escapes us also how one could disagree with the first and second proposals submitted by Mr. Schiefer. It seems obvious that by increasing the membership of the Citizen's Advisory Committee, and by making it a continuing committee whose purpose would be to act as liaison between the Board of Education and the public, and vice versa; the public would be given greater space and encouragement for participation in the problem of giving our children the best possible of educational opportunities.

We are gravely concerned with the apparent lack of democratic procedure within the Citizen's Advisory Committee's deliberations. We gather from Mr. Schiefer's article that he and a few other members of this committee submitted the three proposals to the committee as a whole, in the belief that these three proposals would further the cause of good education in the Northville School District. The officers of the committee apparently did not see fit to honor the submitted proposals by allowing them to be voted upon by the members of the committee. This, gentlemen, is not acceptable democratic procedure!

As interested parents, we want to go on record recommending

Mrs. Jack Potts and her daughter, "Terry" (Teresa Guerin) are guests of Mrs. Potts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yerkes of Haggerty Rd. Mrs. Potts formerly lived in San Antonio, Texas and is planning to make her residence in Ypsilanti. "Terry" is a captivating little charmer who likes to have her photograph taken.

the three proposals, submitted by Mr. Schiefer and supported by a few other members of the Citizen's Advisory Committee, to the Board of Education of the Northville School District, with the hope that the members of the Board of Education will carefully study them and consider them important enough to adopt without qualifications.

Enclosed is a copy of a letter which I have been directed by the Northville Mothers Club to send to the school board.

As we believe it is a subject of general interest, we are submitting it to you for publication and comment from your readers.

MARGE A. DAVIS, Secretary, Northville Mothers Club

From time to time, Northville's lack of a swimming pool has been the subject of discussion in the Northville Mothers Club. We feel this is a conspicuous deficiency in the recreational life of the community; therefore, we strongly urge that a pool be included in the plans being formulated for the new high school.

We would like to know if anything has been or is being done along this line, and what our organization as well as other interested members of the community can do towards lending support to such an idea.

"I Get The Point, Pastor"

The Lenten season is a fine time to re-evaluate many things in our lives. It is also a special time to re-evaluate our personal relationship to the Church and what she stands for.

The matter, for example, of our attendance at Divine Worship in the church of our choice is one that could well warrant consideration. I am reminded of the advice given by Paul in his letter to the Hebrews 10:25, "Do not neglect the assembling of yourselves together". I believe this advice is as timely as tomorrow's news. A simple truth is illustrated regarding this matter by the experience of a Pastor who called one evening upon one of his prominent members who had neglected the services of the church for some weeks.

Sitting by the fireplace, the pastor took the tongs and removed a red hot coal from the center of the fire and then he placed it upon the hearth. Soon the coal became grey and cold. Silently the pastor and his parishioner watched as the coal lost its warmth and radiance. "I get the point, Pastor," said the host, "I'll see you in church Sunday." We need the fellowship with God's people to maintain our own spiritual glow.

This is not "preaching", but this is a fact that undergirds our living. We are not independent, but a part and parcel of the whole of society. When we "neglect the assembling of ourselves together," we neglect the very foundation of our faith.

Hospital administrator Erickson sees examples daily of patients who have inadequate hospitalization coverage. "Because Blue Cross benefits are service benefits -- with no dollar limits -- they always keep abreast of the times," he says.

"Doing my job, I find more and more reasons each day..."

Why your community hospitals sponsor Blue Cross

—says Mr. W. E. Erickson, Administrator, Three Rivers Hospital, Three Rivers, Michigan

"Yes, as a hospital administrator, it is my job to see to it that each patient gets the services prescribed by his doctor as well as the kind of modern general hospital care that will get him well in the shortest possible time.

"Day after day, I have to deal with patients whose insurance policies do not provide for this kind of modern hospital care. They have insurance policies with fixed dollar limits. Too often these dollar limits are pathetically low.

"Neither I nor any other hospital administrator can tell you in advance how much your hospital care, when you need it, will cost you. Since you are dealing with an unpredictable cost, why should you buy hospitalization coverages with prefixed dollar limits on any of the services?

"This is why your community hospitals in Michigan and throughout the country sponsor Blue Cross. Blue Cross gives you service benefits. This assures you the services you will need to get modern hospital care. And Blue Cross Comprehensive Contract benefits have no dollar limits. Moreover, these benefits always keep abreast of the times. They do the job for you. Blue Cross is your answer to the problem."

BY BOB MONTGOMERY

The Northville varsity basketball team downed the Clarkston five in a game stimulated by high spirited teams. The height of the Mustangs was a superior force that Clarkston could not overcome, even with their fine ball handling and passing.

The first half found Northville in complete control of the backboards and the scoreboard. Pethers of the Mustangs again played an unusually fine game as he netted 39 points to lead his teammates in the scoring column.

The second place Mustangs continued to outpoint their opponents during the last half. On many occasions the Mustangs lost the ball to the speedy Clarkston quintet who often times dribbled and passed the leather among themselves for minutes at a time. Even with this type of play they were still unable to keep the score from soaring.

Jr High Team Scores In Double Victory

By Philip Jerome

Joe Gotro uncorked a two pointer in the final period to enable the Northville eighth grade team to squeeze out a 34-32 victory over Wallaceville in a basketball game played last Wednesday on the loser's floor.

Northville piled up a terrific lead in the first half, but Wallaceville fought back in the second to make it a close contest.

Northville started off in a rush leaving Wallaceville far behind. All five Northville starters scored points as the team moved to an 18 to 5 lead. Roger Atchinson made the only Northville tally in the second quarter, but the team remained comfortably ahead as Wallaceville only got four points.

Coach Madigan gave his second string a chance in the last half. They did a good job for a time, but ran into trouble in the last quarter when Wallaceville started to hit consistently and tied up the score with only a few minutes remaining. The first team took the floor and slowed up the Wallaceville attack so that their rally fell short of victory. The basket by Gotro, was the only Northville score in the last quarter, but it was enough to win the game.

Roger Atchinson poured in 12 points to lead Northville in scoring. He was followed by Joe Gotro with six points. Jim Patterson, Larry Nitzel and Wade Deal each picked up four points. Bill Juday and Mike Eastland each got a single basket.

Friday Game

The Northville eighth grade team nosed out Clarenceville 28-26 last Friday on the local court. Roger Atchinson made the game winning basket late in the final quarter.

The game was the second of the season between the two clubs. Clarenceville defeated Northville in the opening game of the season.

Pethers Sets New Record In Lakers Game; Scores 42 Points

BY BOB MONTGOMERY

Valentine's Day proved a happy day as the Mustangs of Northville tangled with the Lakers of West Bloomfield and defeated them in an actively defensive game.

"Cap" Pethers outdid himself by scoring a staggering 42 points, a believed new record high for cagers of Northville in a single game.

Throughout the first half both teams played on an even keel with only seven points difference by the time the half ended.

As the second half opened Northville found the way to the Lakers basket and began dropping in the points that enabled them to maintain their lead and leave the court with an impressive victory.

300 Attend Annual Cub Scout Banquet

One of the highlights of Boy Scout Week was the pot-luck dinner attended by Northville cubs and their families at the VFW Hall recently. The Blue and Gold banquet which marks the birthday of cub scouting is the biggest event of the young scouts year.

Theme — Pirate Waters

Tables were decorated in the spirit of the evening with cakes, place cards, ships and favors all made by the boys at their Den meetings.

After dinner the pack meeting was held at which all ten dens paraded about the hall to the tune of nautical music. The boys were dressed in costumes which Den Mothers and parents had helped them make.

Skills

Den 6, consisting of Cubs Robert Bozak, Doug Clark, Dave Mulligan, Eric Peterson, Robert Steeper and Larry Parker, led by Den Mother Mildred Peterson presented their pirate ship and treasure chest.

Cubs Bobby Langtry, John Blackburn, Fred Williams, Gary Davis, James Ritchie, Kent Hunter and Jim Weidner of Den 7 presented a shadow story of Peter Pan. They were assisted by Den Chief Tom McTigue and Den Mother Jean Langtry.

Den 8, with Cubs Robert Ebert, Chris Gazlay, Richard Staman, Ken Myers, Michael Tibble and David Jerome, directed by Den Mother Biz Gazlay gave a skit about Blackbeard, the Pirate, in their own boy-sized Spanish Galeon.

Awards

More than 40 boys received awards for achievements which they had worked for over the past two months. These ranged from new Bobcats to Wolf and Bear awards. Several boys also received the Silver and Gold Arrows. All awards were presented by Cubmaster Fran Gazlay to the parents, who in turn pinned them on the boys.

This annual meeting marked the middle of the cubbing year with the Fall Den Mothers giving their dens over to the Spring Den Mothers. The recent Den Mothers were Elaine Chabut, Norma Stobbe, Juanita Vradenburg, Sonia Johnston, Kay Schmidt, Mildred Peterson, Jean Langtry, Biz Gazlay, Kay Hinman, Ruth Elwell, Helen Hay.

The new Den Mothers will be Betty Gibson, Nola Hykal, Doris Gillman, Rita Turnbull, Lucy Steeper, Verell Blackburn, Maxine Dethloff, Beatrice Earl, Ilene Boyd and Ella Thomas.

The Northville VFW sponsors Cub Pack N-1 which is headed by institutional representative Art Carlson, assisted by Chairman Bruce Turnbull and Committeemen Jim Mahoney, Rano Papini, Ed Angove, Al Vradenburg, Fred Casterline, Harold Schmidt. The boys are directed by Cubmaster Francis Gazlay and Assistant Bill Davis.

Sunday, Feb. 12, the Cubs attended the various church services as part of Boy Scout Sunday.

Fluoride Treatment Recommended for 2nd, 5th, 8th Grades

Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., school nurse, announced this week that notice has been received from the Michigan, Dept. of Health that the fluoride treatment program which was carried on the past summers will be made available again.

The treatment is recommended for children NOW in the 2nd, 5th and 8th grades of the Northville schools. This program is carried on with the approval and cooperation of the local dentists, the P.T.A. and Mothers' club.

The fluoride treatment will reduce the number of new cavities by 40 percent. There are four visits to the clinic over a one week period. The teeth are cleaned and a series of four applications of fluoride is made to the surface of the teeth. While it has no effect on decay already present, and is not a substitute for regular care by the dentist, it can be applied even though the child needs dental care at present.

Some equipment has been purchased and there will be a fee of $4 per child, payable before May 1, to cover the cost of supplies and the dental hygienist.

Parents who are interested in this program are asked to fill out the form their children bring home from school.

More information about the program will follow as soon as the dates are decided.

MICHIGAN BELL

ADDITIONAL TELEPHONES make life easier for the entire family. Telephones in the kitchen, the playroom, the bedroom—wherever they are needed—save time and steps. These additional telephones are especially important if you have a baby or two in the house. With a telephone at your finger tips, you don't have to leave your tots even for a minute when the phone rings. (And a minute is all they need for harm or mischief!) Why not ask about those additional phones today? They only cost a few pennies a day.

THERE SEEMS TO BE

no end to the value of the telephone! New uses for it are turning up almost every day. For instance, a supermarket recently requested Michigan Bell to install telephone outlets at the end of the shelves, with lines running to the stock room. As soon as the merchandise runs low, the shelves can be immediately replenished. So the chances are when you walk into this store, you'll find just what you're looking for, right where it belongs. The telephone does serve in so many ways, doesn't it?

DO YOU SAVE pieces of string? The telephone company is like that...only more so. Odds and ends of wire and worn parts are carefully collected because they have real value. Tons of this scrap are shipped each year to Western Electric, supply unit of the Bell System.

There they are fed into giant furnaces, melted and remade into wire and brand-new parts. This thrifty economy is important to all of us because it helps keep the cost of telephone service down.

5 Banquets Featured At Methodist Church For Lenten Season

The First Methodist church is featuring five banquets during the Lenten season beginning on Mar. 1 and concluding with the Maundy Thursday service of Holy Communion. Each of the four functional commissions of the church is responsible for sponsoring these banquets.

On Mar. 1, the Commission on Missions has secured Rev. Morris Saito, a returned missionary from Japan, as the speaker. Mr. Saito, a Japanese American, expects to return to the field of his calling this summer. He is now taking graduate work at the University of Michigan.

On Mar. 8, the Commission on Membership and Evangelism has secured the services of Dr. Jewel Smoot, pastor of the Strathmoor Methodist church, Detroit. Dr. Smoot is one of 15 ministers selected by the National Council of Churches to do evangelistic work in Hawaii. Dr. Smoot will report on his experience there as well as speak on "Evangelism—Everyone's Job".

On Mar. 15, the Commission on Christian Education will show the film, "Martin Luther".

On Mar. 22, the Commission on Finance will feature one of the great films on Christian Stewardship entitled "All That He Hath". It tells the story of a man considered insane because of his generosity only to put to shame his covetous accusers.

The series will conclude with the celebration of the Holy Communion on Maundy Thursday evening at 7:30.

These Lenten banquets are being served at 6:30 p.m. by the Woman's Society of Christian Service for a freewill offering.

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—Thursday, February 23, 1956—15

People are asked to bring their own table service. Nursery care will be provided for small children. Reservations may be made by calling the church office, 699-J. The public is cordially invited.

During the Lenten season chimes will be played over the church tower every week day at 12 noon. Likewise, the Chapel will be open each week day from 12 noon through 3 p.m. for prayer and meditation.

Operating on a shoestring is usually necessary on those mornings when you are in a hurry.

Pastor's Study ...

tions of society. I believe it is in the Bill of Rights, that in our land the genius of Democracy has been "spelled out" because it has been established that the people shall have the free right to assembly. If this is important in our governmental life, it is equally important in our religious life. The success of this foundation of life is solely dependent upon you as an individual. The consequences of continued neglect in this important "self-disciplinary" effort can lead and have led, to the weakening of our personal moral fiber. So, during Lent, re-evaluate your diligence in the matter of your church-going discipline. "Silently they watched as the coal lost its warmth and turned grey and cold." "I get the point, Pastor! I'll see you in church on Sunday!"
