Some interesting points of view on the part of two members of the Northville Board of Education came to light at the board's regular monthly meeting this week. One involved the extent to which the board should attempt to control the number of public members of a new curriculum study committee which it asked the Parent-Teachers Ass'n. last month to aid in setting up, and whether the board should attempt to say who might represent the public, and who would be unacceptable.

The other arose from the statement by one board member that the Northville Record should censor "letters to the editor" and refuse to publish some letters.

It is difficult to discuss these issues editorially in a small town without treading on someone's toes — in this case those of board members Robert Coolman and Nelson Schrader. In justice to both men it should be said at the outset that each has rendered valuable services to the Northville public schools for many years. Each tries, we are sure, to exercise good judgment in handling school affairs. We believe that in general they have succeeded in doing a constructive job for the community.

None of us are infallible, however, and there are times when we question their judgment, just as they undoubtedly question ours. If there is any important difference between their approach to public business and ours, it is that the Northville Record maintains an open door policy which welcomes criticism of its editorial position. Things that were said at the last school board meeting cause us to wonder if Mr. Coolman and Mr. Schrader also welcome public criticism.

Specifically, we wondered as we left the board meeting at 11:30 Monday evening why Coolman would make an issue of whether there be 30 public members on the new curriculum study committee, or 15 to 20 suggested by Supt. Amerman when the board decided last month to set up the curriculum committee. Coolman's question, "are we sure all the members of this committee can do the job?" indicated that he suspected that some of the proposed members will lose interest and fall by the wayside. Certainly they will. There seldom is a committee of any size whose every member turns out to be a hard worker and fully competent. Quite likely this fact is responsible for the original committee being somewhat larger than the board of education had contemplated, if it had given any real consideration to the point.

More basic to Coolman's opposition to the 30-member committee, we suspect is fear that what he called a "self-appointed" curriculum study group will become active in school affairs. This inference may be drawn from two statements which he made. James W. Schiefer, temporary chairman of the 30-member committee. The first was that the committee had "gone a long way farther than the board's original resolution had indicated." The second was his remark that "first thing you know we'll have a self-appointed group that think they're running our schools."

Township Officers Support Tax Hike At Annual Meeting

A motion was made and passed at the Northville Township annual meeting to raise the township tax rate to two mills. The previous rate was one mill.

Trustee A. Lawrence proposed a four mill hike, saying, "Another two mills won't matter, then we would be covered. If we get an equitable adjustment we could propose a reduction next year." Lawrence asked the other township officers if they didn't agree. "No, I don't," said D. J. Stark and Trustee Merriam simultaneously.

"We shouldn't be bankers for the taxpayers," Stark said. "If an emergency should arise we can take care of it, even if we come up with a deficit. Why levy an additional two mills just for the purpose of possible expenditures we don't foresee right now. With the school tax set at 10 mills, the taxpayers just won't care to have any excess."

Trustee Merriam agreed with Stark.

Roy Terrill, treasurer, said "I don't like this two mill hike I pay over $500 a year in taxes now, but I know that we have to have it. A four mill levy is out of the question."

Terrill said the present one mill levy is netting the township approximately $3,300. "The tax roll will be $10,000 less this year," Terrill said, "because half of our sales tax rebate will be going to Maybury, House of Correction and the Training School."

Terrill said that the $10,000 loss will be offset with a gain of about $6,000 on the care of the poor, and about $3,000 on their collections. "We'll be about $1,000 off," he said.

The proposed two mill tax levy will be sent to the county treasurer for consideration.

Treasurer's Report
The following treasurer's report was approved and filed. Roy Terrill reported that April 5, 1955 there was $28,704.45 in the treasury. At the end of the fiscal year, April 1, 1956, there was a balance of $28,756.93.

Investments in April 1955 totaled $34,568.90. April 1956 the balance was $29,533.96, a decrease of almost $5,000.

The 1954 tax roll had a deficit of $10,181.27. The 1955 tax deficit is $7,235.06.

Drivers Licenses To Be Issued Here To Residents Only

People living outside the city of Northville can no longer apply for drivers licenses in Northville according to a statement from Police Chief Joseph Denton this week.

Residents of Northville township will have to make their application at the Dearborn Township hall on Michigan Ave. across from the Inkster police station. That office is open daily from 9:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Tuesday from 9:30 a.m.-7 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m.-12 noon.

Persons living in Novi township will have to make their applications at Farmington Township hall, Middlebelt and Grand River. That office is open on Monday only, between 1 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Washtenaw county residents must apply at their sheriff's office in Ann Arbor.

School Board Considers Annexation

Annexation of a portion of the Duffee school district and all of the Salem school district was considered at the monthly meeting of the Northville Board of Education Monday evening, with the Northville board signifying its willingness to take them in if it is formally asked to do so.

During the past month, Supt. Amerman and Nelson Schrader, representing the Northville Board of Education, met with representatives of the Salem school board to discuss annexation. Schrader reported that the Salem district has a good potential for industry along the Chesapeake and Ohio track running through the district and that most residents in the area wish to have their children attend Northville schools, except those in the lower grades who can go to the present Salem school. Amerman reported the Salem district's equalized valuation as $629,721. Both favored annexation.

Police Answer 111 Calls In March

The Northville police department answered 111 calls during March, 35 more than the same period last year, but their collection of fines is almost $200 less than last year.

A breakdown of the report, given by Police Chief Joseph Denton at the April 2 council meeting follows. Numbers in brackets are March 1955 comparisons:

Police calls answered 111 (76), accidents investigated 10 (8), traffic violations 81 (86), summons issued 77 (92), grand larceny 1 (1), petty larceny 5 (1).

Where Do You Vote?

Definite voting places were established at the April 2 city council meeting. An ordinance establishing the boundaries of the three precincts will be adopted at the April 16 meeting.

Although there are three precincts, there will be only two voting places: Those voters living north of Baseline Rd., in Oakland county, will vote in Glenn Long's garage, 411 Baseline Rd. All other Northville city residents will vote in the Community Bldg.

According to City Clerk Mrs. Mary Alexander, those persons whose precinct is changed will be notified by mail.

Random Notes

From "file 13"

We see where one of the leading drug companies has come out with a new all-purpose home medication called "First Aid Cream", which provides antiseptic action in treatment of cuts, abrasions, burns, chapping, sunburn and insect bites. (Probably good for flavoring cakes and stopping squeaking of rusty doors, too).

Now that the Presbyterian ladies have successfully completed their annual Thrift Shop rummage sale, it is safe to tell how ladies in other parts of the country go about it.

A weekly paper in Wildwood-by-the-Sea, New Jersey, carried the following ad: "RUMMAGE SALE, Ladies' Auxiliary, having cast off clothes, now invite inspection."

This is truly the machine age. Electronic brains such as the widely publicized Univac may soon be as common as automatic washing machines. These machines will do all our thinking while lower mentality machines will do all our physical work. There is, however, the ever constant danger that these man-made brains will eventually outsmart their human creators.

To illustrate the point, we print herewith some remarks from an eastern newspaper on the subject:

"They were trying out a new penny weighing machine in the Greyhound bus station the other day, a remarkable machine with an electronic brain."

"A man dropped a penny in and out came a card which read: 'You weigh 167 pounds. You are a commuter. You are catching the 6:30 bus to Suffolk.' The man was so amazed he dropped in another penny and got the same kind of card."

"Then he spied an Indian in full regalia and asked him to try the machine. His card read: 'You weigh 200 pounds. You are an Indian. You are catching the 7 o'clock bus to New York.' This was too much. So the man borrowed the Indian's head-dress, put it on and stepped on the scale. Out dropped a card with this message: 'You weigh 167. You are a commuter. You've fooled around so much you've missed the 6:30 bus to Suffolk.'"

When we ran the pictorial feature page on SPRINGTIME last week, we had our misgivings, wondering if spring was really here or if it was just a lull between snows. This week, however, we are convinced spring is finally here. Boys are appearing on the street in their shirt sleeves, bright cotton dresses are replacing the girls' sweaters and skirts. Stalls On Curriculum Committee "Go Ahead"

The curriculum study committee which was initiated a month ago as a cooperative project of the Northville Board of Education and the local Parent-Teachers Ass'n. to study the community's educational needs is getting off to a slower start than the committee had planned.

Clark Heads Mich. Week Committee

Members of the Michigan Week Committee elected Geo. Clark as the chairman this week. Other officers include Mrs. Mable Stenson, secretary; Jack Stubenvoll, mayor's day; Harold Wagenschutz, education day; Cy Frid, publicity, and Don Hamilton, club contacts.

At the April 2 city council meeting $200 was appropriated for flags, staffs, placards, banners, stickers and buttons.

Cy Frid said that several events are being discussed for the Michigan Week celebration in Northville including a banquet in the Community Bldg., special awards for contests that the committee will decide on, a street dance on Friday or Saturday of that week, and a display of merchant activities, including produce and manufactured goods produced in the community.

Michigan Week will be celebrated May 20-26.

Mayors Exchange Day will find the mayor of Saline in Northville and Mayor Ely in Saline.

Mayor Ely said that he just passed through Saline once, but he is happy that he is going there. "I wanted to go to a small town," he said.

Accompanying the mayor to Saline will be Mrs. Ely and one of the councilmen and his wife.

In the meantime, the two cities will be working together on Mayors Exchange Day plans.

Reluctance of certain members of the board of education, notably Robert Coolman, president, and Nelson Schrader, to approve a committee with 30 members representing the public is the ostensible cause of the delay. (The board's plan had proposed 15 to 20 public members.)

Coolman - Schrader Antagonistic
Remarks by Coolman and Schrader following the reading of a letter addressed to the board and signed by James W. Schiefer, temporary chairman of the 30-member committee, made it difficult to escape the conclusion that an additional important factor in Coolman's and Schrader's reluctance to approve the 30-member committee was their personal objections to certain proposed committee members.

Coolman asked Schiefer if a committee had been set up that was to be independent of the board of education; then added: "First thing you know we'll have a self-appointed group that think they're running our schools." He also asked: "Are we sure all the members of this committee can do the job?"

Schrader Criticizes Committee
Schrader criticized the proposed committee's membership, saying: "You've got people on this committee that are not good workers." He did not specify who might fall into this category. He added that "the committee should be approved by the board."

Coolman suggested to Schiefer that the committee should hold no more meetings until April 18 when representatives of the U. of M. Bureau of School Services will be here at the board's invitation to discuss Northville curriculum needs. Under this plan, the board of education will not formally establish a curriculum committee until its next meeting May 7, if then.

He also told Schiefer that the committee had "gone a long way farther than the board's original resolution had indicated." Asked Coolman: "Are you setting up (Continued on Page 10)

Taxi Service and Complaints Make Twp. Meeting Lively

One of the liveliest and best attended Northville Township Board meetings took place Tuesday evening. Taxi cabs, complaints and an unexpected gift enlivened an otherwise routine meeting.

Taxi Service
Quentin R. Biddle, owner of the Northville Coach Line, made an application to the board for a taxi cab permit. At the present time there is no taxi ordinance in the township and taxi cabs from Northville, Novi and Plymouth service the area.

"The township is not receiving good service," Biddle said. "The township waits while the other areas are serviced first."

Biddle explained his situation with the use of a wall map. "All of the taxi services in surrounding cities have exclusive permits," he said, "and it's not fair. We want to bust up these exclusive permits."

Biddle suggested that if his company were to receive an exclusive permit in the township it would be easy for cab owners in the surrounding areas to be cooperative.

"If we got a call from a place close to Plymouth we would give it to a Plymouth cab company," Biddle said, "likewise to other cab companies and they would do the same for us. The cab company that was able to do it the cheapest and fastest would get the business and everyone would have better service."

The township board agreed to think about it.

A resident, Mr. Derwood, 1900 Northville Rd., stood up and said that the local taxi service charged him 3.33 cab fare to go to the Ford plant on Plymouth Rd. from his home, "and that's a lot of money," he said.

Biddle said that if the exclusive permit was broken it would be cheaper for most people to ride cabs because they could be picked up by taxi services closer to their destination.

Another township resident voiced the same complaint. "You see sirs," he said, "sometimes my car doesn't start and I have to take a taxi. I make about $14 a day and after income tax, social security, other expenses and $6 a day for taxi service, I'm broke."

The clerk asked the man his name and he replied, "Yes sir, I'm Grady Thompson. I'm the 'dog' they wrote about."

Thompson said that he pays $3 cab fare to go a distance of 5 1/2 miles.

The taxi business ended there, but Thompson started another discussion.

Property Condemned
"By the way," Attorney Littell asked, "did you sell your property?"

"I'm still living there," Thompson replied, "but I sold it. I had to. Now let me explain that to you."

"There's no reason to," Treasurer Terrill interrupted. "Could I explain it?" Thompson repeated.

FOR THE BUSY HOMEMAKER

"I've Got A Hint . . ."

Mrs. P. Folino pulls out her spice box. She's got a system . . . and a working hint!

"Where is the thyme?" "Where did I put that can of cherries?" "Oh, has that oil spilled in the cupboard again?" Do you ask yourself these questions?

There is an easy solution and Mrs. Paul Folino of 350 E. Cady St. has found it! Her solution is our homemaking hint for this week.

Mrs. Folino saves covers of boxes — approximately 14 by 18. In one corner she places her spices — layered so the labels are easily read. Another corner contains cans of soups and vegetables; another holds canned fruits. A long, low pan lined with aluminum foil contains shortenings, salad oil and anything that might drip. The foil can be changed easily when necessary. Mrs. Folino knows where everything is and just pulls out the cover holding the desired pan or jar.

Mrs. D. C. McMackin of Orrinda, Calif. arrived in Willow Run by plane Tuesday to spend a week with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hammond of Timberlane. The McMackins will drive a new Buick back to California.

But as I see it, the first line of defense against need or worry is having cash in the bank. It's safe...it's handy...it's convenient...it's profitable."

Sixty-nine and a half million Americans evidently feel that way. Their banked savings now average around a thousand dollars and total well over seventy-three billions the largest reserve for personal security ever accumulated anywhere.

Women who are interested in knowing more about the activities being carried on in the local home demonstration groups are invited to attend this open meeting.

Mr. Biebesheimer will discuss methods of establishing new lawns and give recommendations on caring for an established lawn. He will discuss weed and insect control. There will also be a discussion on making garden soils more productive.

Mr. Biebesheimer will be glad to answer individual questions and to explain the operation of the soil testing laboratory.

The meetings are being sponsored by the Redford schools and the Wayne Out-County Chapter, Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

The first program scheduled for April 10 at 8 p.m. in Redford Union high school will deal with "How the Handicapped Child Grows".

Clay Lafferty, of the Wayne County Public schools, principal speaker for the evening, which will be followed by an open forum question and answer period.

Mary Blair, Consultant on Special Education, Dept. of Public Instruction, Lansing, will address the audience at the 8 p.m. April 17 program. Her topic will deal with what part special education plays in the community for the benefit of crippled children.

Returning for the final program April 24 at 8 p.m., Mr. Lafferty will discuss problems encountered by both parents and child in the handicapped way of life.

"Although the programs will deal in the main with problems of the handicapped field, all meetings are open to the public," said Mr. Shoemaker.

The three meetings were planned by agencies mutually interested in the services of the handicapped child in Wayne County and representatives from both state and local educational departments.

Redford Union high school where all three programs are to be held is located on Puritan Ave., between 5- and 6-Mile Rds.

For a new topping on chocolate cup cakes, try putting two marshmallows, cut in half, on top of each cake. Set the cup cakes under the broiler, using low heat, until the marshmallows are puffy and golden-brown. Serve them while the topping is still warm.

At What Age Should

Start?

Many, many First Federal customers have had savings accounts for their children, opened soon after the youngsters were born. They start with a small account for the new baby. Then, it's surprising how such savings grow with money gifts for Christmas and birthdays. Later, the child's own after-school earnings are added. Besides offering important training in thrift, this plan builds savings for college, or for a start in business. Savings here are insured to $10,000.

Current 2 1/2% Rate

Earnings start the 1st on accounts opened by the 10th of the month.

The Mysteries of Death

I have never preached a sermon on the subject of Death. I have never heard of a book written upon that subject,
though there may
be. I have on file
two articles which have been taken from secular magazines in the past five years. The one entitled "How does it feel to die" by Kate Holliday in Ladies Home Journal. The other
"Lifting the Darknes of Death" by Margaret Blair Johnstone in the Coronet Magazine. Generally, people do not like to think about Death nor do they care to discuss it. Perhaps the majority will not have the heart even to finish this article. There may be a few brave souls who find themselves of an inquiring mind as I do this morning and will spend a few moments considering this unpleasant subject. After all, my friend, we should be interested for God's word declares that it is "appointed unto man once to die" and the only hope of escaping that appointment is the possibility that Jesus Christ will return while we are still living upon earth.

What Is Death?

Death is the separation of the soul and spirit from the body. In Eccl. 12:7 "Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was; and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it". The Bible speaks of some who will die a second time. After the resurrection of the body, those who have refused the mercies of God through Jesus Christ will die again. This is a separation between the sinner and God for all eternity.

(Cf Rev. 20; 14-15-21:8).

How Does It Feel To Die?

Since one cannot speak from personal experience we must rely upon the experiences and information written by others. Several years ago, I read of a young man who wanted to make an experiment. He mixed a portion of poison for a slow but painless death.
Then lying down with a pad beside him proceeded to write his thoughts and experience. Unfortunately he could not take us very far into the valley of the shadow, he lost consciousness and was gone. Those who have remained conscious to the last moments have often spoken of being tired and wanting to go to sleep.
Some victorious Christians have professed in the closing moments to be able to see the Lord Jesus.
Others have called out the names of loved ones which have preceded them. Some have expressed the hearing of pleasant music.

It is natural to fear going through an experience that is new to us. The fear of pain and misery give people most of their concern. Myron Prinzmetal, M.D., attending physician, Cedars Hospital, Los Angeles, says, "Few people know they are going to die. No matter whether the end comes through cancer, pneumonia, tuberculosis or any other cause, the patient usually goes into shock as death approaches.
He becomes more and more mentally withdrawn, slipping through various stages until the end."

What Comes After Death?

"Very few people believe that death ends existence. Even among the uneducated and the uncivilized the heathen have a belief in existence in some form after leaving this life. There have been a number of ideas, theories and superstitions on this subject.

However, there is a book, supernatural in origin which claims itself to be "The Word of God".
A revelation of God Almighty in which He sets forth certain facts which cannot be found out by man's searching and experimentation. He tells us about events which occurred before the creation of this world. About the Creation itself. He tells us about the angels, about the spirit world both the good and the bad. He relates future events with such preciseness that it actually is History written in advance. He tells us about the coming resurrection of the bodies of all men. (John 5:28-29). He tells us that every human being must stand in the judgment to give an account of his earthly life. (Romans 14:10-Hebrews 9:27). He speaks of two places which are eternal, namely Heaven and Hell.

The Most Important Question

Then —
Is not "When am I going to die?" nor "How am I going to die?" but "Am I ready to die?"
Briefly, the Gospel of the saving grace of the Lord Jesus Christ prepares one to die. It is through personal faith in Christ that we receive the forgiveness of sins, the imputation of a perfect righteous standing and are thereby reconciled to God. A person is declared free from condemnation and as a gift from God he is assured of eternal life in Heaven.
Therefore death for the Christian is an entrance into a new life of eternal joy.

suits you best!

You listen to me for a change!

I'VE BEEN mighty patient with you, Mom. Haven't caused the sitters any trouble when you leave. And I've been a good kid when you dragged me along. But it's time I spoke up—and it's time you listened to ME for a change. I'm talking about the way you do the buying for this family

Why do you go miles away to buy things you can get right here in our own community? Sure, I've heard you say you're trying to save money by going to those far-away sales. But you're not really saving at all. Remember how Dad screamed about the extra-big car expenses last month? And the day you paid the sitter $1.75, and still didn't find what you wanted at the big-city store? That's just the money side of it. Then there's the valuable time you're always wasting—valuable to me, that is—because it's time that you and I should be spending together at home.

And here's the punch line, Mom. You can find what you want—at just as good a price—right here among the merchants of our own community. And you'll be doing business with neighbors—you'll be getting personal attention. You'll be dealing with the folks who pay for the schools and parks I'll be using soon.

Instead of coming home all tired out from fighting traffic and crowds, you can do all your shopping right close to home, and still have plenty of pep to enjoy your family.

1,000 Officers Face Loss of Commissions

Northville residents who are reserve officers of the armed services face loss of their commissions under the new Reserve Officer Promotion Act passed by Congress, according to Capt. Larry Ransom, commander of the Plymouth Air Reserve flight which serves this area.

The new law specifies that in order to retain their commissions or qualify for promotion, reserve officers must accumulate a minimum of 50 points per year by attending meetings and participating in reserve activities. Points so obtained, Capt. Ransom said, not only qualify the reserve officer for promotion, but count toward an increased pension at 60, the retirement age for reservists.

Failure to obtain the necessary points for a satisfactory year will result in loss of an officer's commission, under the law. "Approximately 1,000 officers of all the services now residing in the Farmington to Wayne, and South Lyon to Livonia and Redford area are listed in this category," Capt. Ransom said. "Unless they act soon to put themselves in good standing they will endanger their commissions."

Plymouth Flight A, for all reservists in the area regardless of branch of service, will meet at 7:30 p.m. April 10 in the Veterans Memorial hall in Plymouth to consider applications.

Publication of Proposed Ordinance

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, That the following ordinance has been presented to the Council for the City of Northville, and that action upon same is proposed to be taken Monday evening, April 16th, 1956, at 8:00 P.M. The text of the ordinance is as follows:

AMENDMENT TO BUILDING CODE ORDINANCE CITY OF NORTHVILLE

The City of Northville ordains:

That Section 1.09, Board of Appeals of the Building Code Ordinance for the City of Northville shall be amended to read as follows:

There shall be a Board of Building Appeals consisting of not less than five (5) members appointed by the City Council. No member of this Board shall hold any elective office and that all serve without pay. The members of the Board of Appeals shall be appointed for a term of three (3) years, provided that appointments for the first year shall be for a period of one, two and three years respectively so as nearly as may be to provide for the appointment of an equal number each year, depending on the number of members; thereafter each member shall hold office for the full three (3) year term and serve until their successors have been duly appointed.

The Board of Appeals shall have the power to make such rules and regulations concerning the administration of their duties as they deem satisfactory.

In case of dissatisfaction with any decision of the Inspector of Buildings, except as to dangerous structures and the management of the department, including the dismissal of employees, an appeal may be made to the Board of Appeals as herein provided, but if no such appeal is made, the decision of the Inspector of Buildings shall be final and conclusive.

All appeals shall be filed in writing with the City Clerk, who shall bring said appeal before the Board of Appeals within thirty (30) days after the filing of such appeal.

Mary Alexander, City Clerk

Lively Meeting ...

"Please," Thompson insisted. "Everyone is aware of the facts," Attorney Littell said. "Pretty please," Thompson pleaded.

The board agreed to listen after they discussed some business. City Council Next?

The board began a discussion concerning a phone inquiry about an interceptor sewer when Derwood stood up and said, "Now that's where I come in. This fellow (pointing to Thompson) has a main line and everyone taps water from him. Now what about me?"

The board was evidently stunned by this quick change in subject from sewers to water mains because nobody said a word.

"He (Derwood) lives across the road from me," Thompson said, "but I don't know him."

The board told Derwood that he would have to take the matter up with the city council in Northville.

Switching the subject back to sewers, Attorney Littell said that the Wayne County Road Commission has jurisdiction over the sewer and not the township board.

Back to Condemnation Attorney Littell reviewed Thompson's case. He said that the township board had issued a complaint to the Wayne County Board of Health last year relative to the unsanitary conditions on Thompson's property. Thompson was tried before the justice of the peace in Plymouth, fined $50 and ordered to vacate his property.

"Now let me tell you," Thompson started.

"If you don't sit down I'll have someone take you by the seat of your pants and put you out," Stark threatened.

"Yes sir," Thompson replied. "Wait your turn," Stark said. "Thank you sir," Thompson answered.

Attorney Littell said that he would have the premises condemned for occupancy and also notify the building inspector and health officer to post condemnation notices on the property.

"I'm just a cheap little..." Thompson said, "but I'm not any more guilty than my neighbors. I could have pleaded not guilty, but I didn't have enough money to pay a lawyer... boy! they cost money. It was cheaper for me to pay the $50 fine."

"You see, sirs," he said, "they (board of health) came around and worried me and worried me. They gave me 30 days to put in a septic tank. I couldn't afford it. They gave me 30 more days, but I didn't have the money. I had a busted elbow and four vertebrae out of my back... you can ask my doctor. My neighbor has the same thing going on and nothing happens to him. Nothing. Why, sirs, he has a quarter of a million dollars and lots of property and nobody bothers him."

"What is your neighbor's name?" the board asked. Thompson said that he didn't know.

Derwood, sitting on the sideline, mentioned a name and Thompson said, "I don't know you and you don't know me so don't say nothing. I can take care of my own business."

Clerk Stark said, "I think we should continue what we started. If Attorney Littell follows this through we will do the community a service by enforcing the condemnation of this property."

"This neighbor has a quarter Established 1868 THE NORTHVILLE RECORD of a million dollars," Thompson said, "and his septic tank is running in his driveway."

"That's right," Derwood chimed in.

"You keep out of my business," Thompson retorted.

Trustee Merriam said, "We're proceeding against you and against other people in your neighborhood too."

And that ended that.

Tree Hazard A township resident asked the board if they could do something about "...that hazard of a tree on Bradner Rd."

The tree is a large elm on Bradner between Franklin Rd. and Elk Rd.

Trustee Merriam said that he would report it to the proper authorities.

Request for Signs

A request was made by the owner of Northville Acres for county signs to be erected on Haggerty Rd. between 7- and 8-Mile roads, restricting people from using that property for dumping trash. Trustee Merriam said he would contact the county officials.

Township Gets Donation

A letter was received from Mrs. M. Northrup stating that the Northville Township Improvement Ass'n. (not an agency of the township) was disbanding and since there were some funds left in the treasury, the group wished to donate the entire sum, $4.15, to the township.

The board said that they would be happy to accept the money; however, Attorney Littell suggested that they ask the group for a written statement for the files.

Other Business

Other business of the evening included the adoption of an amendment to the dog ordinance reducing the license rates for unsexed dogs; and a motion to purchase gravel to improve the township hall driveway.

Meeting Adjourned... But

After the meeting adjourned, Thompson again approached the "Surviving Banks are his wife, Floy, and a son, Russell, of the same address. A brother, Dr. Rush Banks, lives in Seattle; a sister, Mrs. Della Thornton, lives in Livonia, and another sister, Mrs. Edna Bogart, lives in Pontiac.

The Banks have four grandchildren, Albert, Howard, David and Dorothy, and one great-grandson, Danny Banks.

In addition to serving on the township board, Banks served as treasurer of the Novi Baptist church and was a member of the East Novi school board.

Funeral services are scheduled for 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon at Casterline Funeral home in Northville.

Support Tax Hike... Novi Twp. Board ...

1955 was $7,241,000. The assessed valuation, for 1956 is $3,288,000. Due to Northville Village becoming a city, the township lost about half of their tax base.

Terrill said that the valuation will probably increase to $3,500,000 because of the new homes being built in the township.

The township supervisor Mrs. Mollie Lawrence was out of town. It is supposed that a proposed budget for 1956 will be submitted upon her return.

None of the board members knew of any ordinance regulating airports, and Supervisor Staman suggested that Harrawood secure approval of adjacent property owners and then take his request to the Zoning Appeals Board for approval.

Trustee Harold Miller seconded Mr. Trickey's earlier adjournment motion and the meeting was adjourned.

TOWNSHIP CLERK EARL BANKS DIES

Novi Township Holds Annual Meeting Succumbs Monday After Long Illness

Proposed Budget of $82,500 Approved

Treasurer's Report Receives Approval, Board Seeks Additional 1/2 Mill Tax Levy

A proposed budget of $82,500 for the fiscal year 1956-57 was unanimously approved by Novi residents at the annual township meeting Monday afternoon.

In addition to the budget, they approved the treasurer's report listing expenses and income for the past year. An additional 1/2 mill tax levy was proposed, bringing the total township tax to 1 mill.

Proposed Budget

Included in the proposed budget were the following items:

Salaries (administrative)	$14,400
Salaries (public safety)	28,300
General Expense	24,500
Street Lighting	2,000
Cemetery Fund	600
Welfare	200
Road Maintenance	8,000
Election expense	1,500
New Voting Machines (2)	3,000

Just An Estimate

"This budget is just an estimate," Supervisor Frazer Staman emphasized. "Some items listed will undoubtedly be high, others low."

"The additional two election machines are needed," Staman added, "to bring the total number of machines to six, three for each precinct."

The township will be split into two precincts with 11-Mile Rd. the dividing line. The residents living north of 11-Mile will vote at the Community Bldg. and those south of 11-Mile will vote at Township Hall.

Questions Asked

A number of questions were put to the board by the spectators present.

"What do the expenses for the department of public safety include?" Mrs. Virginia Noble asked.

"The salaries of the police and fire personnel and commissions for the heating, electrical and building inspectors are included in this category," Staman replied.

Also brought out was the fact that the township park on the southwest shore of Walled Lake is now self-supporting. A new restroom and additional playground equipment have been added in the last few years.

Sales Tax
An explanation of the $30,080 in receipts from sales tax was requested and Staman outlined the basis on which the money is given.

The sales tax is distributed to townships on the basis of population in the 1950 census. It goes into the general fund and is used for miscellaneous township expenses, he said.

The questions of township roads was also brought up by a spectator. Staman said the township is allotted $16,406 annually for all township roads, excluding county roads and state highways.

Need Additional Money

"It's not an awful lot of money," he said, "and each year we need additional money. We took the road grader off last summer because we ran out of money. Later we put an additional $6,000 into the road fund from the general fund to carry us over."

An increase of $1,371,110 over the 1955 total assessment was reported. "This figure may seem contradictory," Staman said, "because we had an increase of $1,438,085 in four of our school districts alone. However, we lost much taxable land when Oakwood subdivision became part of the city of Northville. We also lost tax assessments on the land condemned for the new Grand River expressway."

THIS OLD HOUSE, formerly owned by J. A. Applehof, is left high and dry as work progresses at the new Lincoln plant. Now being used as a field office for engineers and surveyors, the house is scheduled for eventual demolition.

Oddfellows Sponsor Pot-Luck Dinner

The Novi Oddfellows will sponsor a pot-luck supper at I.O.O.F. hall April 9. Second and third degree work will be presented at the dinner.

Twelve club members took their candidates for first degree work. Mathew Staman, Jack Kahrl and Laurence Schardt, to a meeting at Clyde Mar. 24.

The I.O.O.F. reports that the teen-age dance they sponsored Saturday was well attended. The chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Salow, Sr.

Democrats Meet Next Monday

The Novi Township Democratic club will meet April 9 at 8 p.m. at Novi Union hall.

At this time, the group's charter will be presented by Willis Brewer, former chairman of the Oakland County committee. Election of a new vice-president will take place at this meeting.

Monday Night Board Meeting Moves Swiftly

A fast working township board took care of the business on hand, answered several spectator inquiries, and voted to adjourn in slightly less than 56 minutes Monday night.

Such routine matters as police calls, building permits, fire hose and finances were handled by the board in record time.

The meeting went so fast, in fact, that Treasurer Charles Trickey, Jr. had already made a motion to adjourn before spectator Leo Harwood realized what was happening and jumped to his feet saying "Hold everything... I've got something for you guys!"

Used Car Lot

Harwood's request proved simple enough. He said he was planning to erect a small concrete block office on his vacant lot east of the service station. The lot will be black-topped, flood-lighted and used for selling used cars. The building will be used as an office, he said.

Supervisor Frazer Staman told Harwood that the township board had no jurisdiction over the problem and that a building permit for the structure could be secured without difficulty.

Harwood, visibly surprised by the board's stand, sat down.

Asphalt Plant?

Walled Lake Publisher John Flannery then raised a question about the proposed asphalt plant southwest of Novi Rd. and Grand River.

Flannery told the board he understood the property had been sold and that a cement, batching plant was now considering use of the property.

Firemen Quell Blaze Unassisted

Novi's fire fighting equipment was turned out in full force last Friday night to extinguish an automobile fire.

The fire, which occurred at 46077 Grand River in front of Rosewood Restaurant, caused approximately $300 damage to a late model car owned by R. E. Brooks of Farmington.

Defective wiring in the ignition system was believed to have been the cause.

The new American LaFrance fire engine, the pumper, and the tanker answered the call. "The three engines were able to quell the blaze without additional assistance," Police Chief Lee Be-Gole reported.

attending two meetings of the township board in his 36 years (Continued on Page 6)

tion, Staman said, "...there have been no concessions made... none were asked. Their land is now taxed but we won't be able to tax the plant until it is completed."

"We are very lucky to have a plant of this size and nature located here," he added, "because many areas make a practice of granting tax and land concessions to secure industry. In that light, your rumor doesn't sound so wild."

Not In The Book

Harwood then raised another question. He asked the board who to see or what to do to build a private airport in the township. "About 10 local fellows are in on this," Harwood said, "and they want an airport for their own planes. We had a meeting and we find nothing in your (zoning) book covering an air- (Continued on Page 6)

Veterans, Children and Scouts Are Few Novi Am Vet Projects

The AMVET Auxiliary No. 76 of Novi, sent a carton of nuts to the Veterans Facilities at Grand Rapids last month and received a note of appreciation stating that the nuts were used for the Spring Holiday parties.

Pres. Laree Bell and Senior Vice-President Daun Bailey visited Oakland County Sanatorium Good Friday and presented the veterans and children with cupcakes. The auxiliary has previously visited the sanatorium at the Christmas season, but decided on Easter this year because the veterans and children receive much attention at Christmas time.

At the annual Blue and Gold banquet held recently, the auxiliary renewed the charter to sponsor to Cub Scouts for another year. Child Welfare Chairman Doris Callen presented Year pins to Den Mothers and Scoutmasters during the program.

A group of auxiliary members will visit the Capitol City Auxiliary in Lansing April 9 for the District 3 meeting.

The oldest senator in the 84th Congress is 87-year old Democrat Senator Theodore Francis Green of Rhode Island.

WORK IS PROCEEDING on schedule at the new Novi post office. Builder Harry Watson reports. Electrical and heating work is being done this week and employees of Les Reimer, Walled Lake contractor, are finishing the masonry work (in the above picture). The building is scheduled for completion late this month and will be occupied in May, Watson stated. At that time, the present post office will be vacated and used for commercial purposes.

Sixth Graders Complete Study of Novi's History

Sixth grade students in Mrs. Rowena Salow's class at Novi school have been busy doing research work to complete a unit of study about Novi.

They collected information from the town's citizens for their reports and reproduced old buildings in miniature. The building was done with cardboard and construction paper.

The project originally included only a history of Novi schools, but the students became so interested that they continued until the exhibit now also includes the first store, church and railroad.

Many people have visited the classroom and some of the "old timers" gave the students additional information to add to their collection.

Reports were given by the following students: Carol Moody, introduction and early education in Novi; Donna Mae Lien, the first school; Freda Angel, the second school; Philip R. Simen-ton, the present school; Catherine Noble, the first store; James Frisbie, the first church; and Gregory Larson, the first railroad.

According to Mrs. Salow the children spent three weeks on the project; interviewing, writing and building. They are now working to put the information in book form, with sketches. A copy will be presented to the school library.

Some interesting facts taken from the reports include: When Novi was first settled there were no schools. Mothers taught their children at home.

The first school was built in District 8. The children were taught reading, writing and arithmetic. The children did not pass from one grade to another, but from one reader to another.

The second school was built in 1864. Everyone wrote on slates.

There were no janitors and children and teachers cleaned the rooms.

Punishment for children included "a darn good licking" and sometimes the teacher scraped a child's neck with a ruler. This school burned, was abandoned and then redecoreated. It is now the Novi Convalescent home.

The present school was built in 1928. Annex one was added in 1951 and annex two was added last year.

It is not known exactly where the first store was located, but one Novi resident had an old tin type picture of it which the children used to make their reproduction.

The first church was built in 1846, the Baptist church. In 1875 the church was torn down and another built. Stalls were built for horses. In 1913 fire destroyed the church, but it was rebuilt in 1914. The stalls were torn down in 1923.

The railroad station is almost the same as it was when it was built in 1859. At that time eight mail or passenger trains stopped in Novi daily.

READIN', WRITIN' and 'RITHMETIC were taught in the old Novi grade school, according to a study project recently completed by Mrs. Rowena Salow's sixth graders. Now remodeled and used as the Novi Convalescent Home, the old school was directly across and about a hundred feet south of the present school. Sixth grader Richard Ramsey is shown above with a model of the old school which was built in 1864. Punishment in those days, the study reports, was "a darn good lickin'".

Cancer Film To Be Shown April 17

Northville, Salem, Novi, Wall Lake and South Lyon women will have an opportunity to participate in a mass showing throughout Southeastern Michigan of a life-saving American Cancer Society film, "Breast Self-Examination", it was announced today.

Dr. R. M. Atchison, Service chairman of the Western Wayne unit of the Society, said that in cooperation with local theater manager and projectionist, two free local showings have been arranged for April 17 at the P&A Theatre from 2 to 3 p.m. The film runs approximately 16 minutes and will be followed by a question and answer period conducted by a local physician.

The showing will be supplemented in the Methodist church house at 8 p.m. Tuesday, April 17 for the benefit of those who work and cannot attend the afternoon showing.

The showings in Northville are being sponsored as part of an intensive program to alert a half million women in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties to the part they can play in bringing about earlier detection of cancer of the breast, Dr. R. M. Atchison, MD, said. It is hoped that at least one thousand women will see the film while it is showing here.

He explained that "Breast Self-Examination" demonstrates how every woman can guard herself against cancer of the breast by making simple tests in the privacy of her own home.

"The movie," he said, "is one of the best weapons yet devised in the fight against a form of cancer which responds most successfully to treatment.

Its importance can readily be understood when one considers that while 35 per cent of cancer of the breast is now being cured the rate would be closer to 70 per cent if every woman could learn the lesson of this film.

School Board ...

to be independent of the board?" Schiefer: "No. We have tried to set up a committee that would be representative of every area of the Northville school district and of the various business, professional and income groups comprising the district's population. Following the initial organization meeting at which Supt. Amerman outlined the board's request for a curriculum study committee we invited Dr. Arthur Wohlers, school plan consultant of the Wayne County Board of Education and Delmo Della Dora, consultant to the Wayne County board on secondary curriculum, to meet with us and help formulate our long range program. These two gentlemen have attended two of our committee's three meetings."

Wants Controllable Committee.
Coolman: "They (the U. of M. Bureau of School Services) are a little concerned about the way we're handling it. They think committees should be held down because they don't accomplish as much if they are large. We have definitely adopted a plan for a certain size curriculum committee if they are to work for the board and not on their own. First thing you know, we'll have a self-appointed group that think they're running our schools."

Schrader Criticizes Dr. Yoder.
Schrader then remarked that "the committee should be approved by the board." He added: "You've got people on this committee that are not good workers." Although he failed to specify who might fall in this category, his opposition to Dr. Robert R. Yoder of the Northville State hospital staff was apparent when he remarked: "The letter of Dr. Yoder (in the Mar. 8 issue of the Northville Record) lacked a large element of factual material and was confusing..."

(Yoder's letter was critical of Coolman, Schrader and Severance as board members but had praised Mrs. Eliza Wagenschutz and Eural Clark.)
Schrader also criticized the Northville Record for publishing Dr. Yoder's letter, saying to the school board meeting: "You should refuse to publish letters that are not correct." He also said the published information in the Northville Record has been of a nature that could be controversial."

(For a statement of the Record's position see "For the Record" on Page 1).

Handbills "Not Entirely Truthful"

Schrader also criticized the handbills distributed in behalf of the teachers' salary increases prior to the recent election, saying: "The pamphlets were not entirely truthful."

For the Record ...

Schrader seconded Coolman's criticism with the remark, "you've got people on this committee that are not good workers" and the further statement that the committee's membership should be approved by the board. He then made it apparent that he might oppose Dr. Robert R. Yoder of the Northville State hospital as a committee member, by criticizing the Northville Record for having recently printed a letter written by Dr. Yoder which was critical of all board of education members except Mrs. Eliza Wagenschutz and Eural Clark. Schrader expressed the opinion that the Northville Record should not publish letters which might be controversial.

It seems to us that a couple of basic points should be made against Coolman's and Schrader's position. First, the board of education is lucky to find a group of 30 private individuals who are willing to undertake an 18-month curriculum study. Coolman's fear of a self-appointed committee seems slightly ridiculous unless he wants to have a committee that will be subservient to and a creature of the board of education — a committee whose recommendations will conform to his own particular pattern of thinking.

Their desire to have the board of education exercise the right of vetoing certain committee members if it wishes is understandable, perhaps, but also rather questionable in our opinion. Not only does this veto power hold the implication that the board seeks to control the committee's findings, but it also can bring needless criticism of the board because in the final analysis the committee is to be only of an advisory nature.

Schrader's criticism of the public's right to have its letters to the editor on matters of public interest published in the Northville Record without censorship except as to slanderous and libelous statements is something that we cannot understand. If the Record had refused to print Dr. Yoder's criticism of the school board, except Mrs. Wagenschutz and Eural Clark, it would have been a clear suppression of the right of an individual to criticize public officials. If the Record were to refuse to print letters on controversial subjects of public interest, or with which its editor might disagree personally, it would quickly lose its integrity as a quasi-public institution. At the same time, it would take away from its readers the right to a public forum where they may air their grievances or otherwise comment on subjects that are of importance to the community.

We hope that both Mr. Coolman and Mr. Schrader will conclude after more mature consideration that their apparent fear of public participation in school affairs and other matters of general interest is unwarranted. To us, it is a healthy manifestation of civic interest that can only result in maintenance of a good and progressive school system.

Following the criticism of the curriculum committee by Coolman and Schrader, Schiefer indicated that the committee will meet Thursday, April 5 in the Community Bldg. as planned so he can report the attitude of the school board. He will also tell the committee of the plan for the April 18 meeting with the U. of M. committee and ask them to attend the meeting.

Committee Members Named.
The curriculum study committee membership had been worked out on the basis of the population forecast for the Northville school district over the next 10 years. Its membership as submitted to the board of education for approval included Schiefer as temporary chairman; Dr. Robert Yoder, Francis Gazlay, Robert Hart, Kenneth Conley, F. R. Sproule, Alfred P. Galli, Mrs. Hinman, Mrs. Lawrence Hahn, Mrs. Bell McColl and John Gibson.

Also Mrs. Theo Budek, Mrs. Jack Willis, William Crump, William Templeton, Francis A. Clinton, Ray Gregerson, Gary Niece,

4500 MILES AND A LIFE

In Austria an eight year old boy lay dying of the dreaded hemophilia. Constant transfusions were of no help. The only way the life could be saved was by a special anti-hemophilic plasma. No such plasma could be found in all Europe.

The word was received in this country and immediately a package was prepared and sent on a fast plane to Germany. Then the last eighty miles over blizzard blocked roads in a Jeep station wagon. They arrived in time. It was administered to the dying boy and his life was saved. How thrilling it is to hear that no money or effort was too much to save the life of this eight year old lad. Yet, I wonder if we are not being a bit inconsistent when we make such an effort to spare a life for 60-80 years more or less when we do so little to see that souls are spared for all eternity. The dread disease of sin which has infected every human soul can only be cured by the prescription recorded in the Gospel. Yet, so few seem to care whether the souls of men are rescued or not. My Christian friend, let me ask you, "Do you care?" If so, what are you doing about it?

Annexation ...

to consolidate attended the Northville board meeting to discuss the matter and to hear the decision of the Durfee district board on what portion of that district should be annexed to Northville. Paul Beard, a Durfee board member said there is no question but that Durfee district residents south of 8-Mile Rd. are practically unanimous in their desire to be brought into the Northville district. He said there is now a division of opinion among residents in the first one-half mile north of 8-Mile Rd. because of their fear that their school tax will be higher if they come with Northville. Edmund P. Yerkes seconded Beard's statement about the area north of 8-Mile Rd.

After considerable discussion Durfee members decided to defer taking definite action on splitting the district until they could study the situation further and perhaps hold a public meeting of residents in the affected area. William Medlyn, superintendent of Novi district No. 8 schools, suggested to the Northville board that it might be mutually beneficial if certain irregular border situations were to be straightened out at the time of the Novi consolidation.

The board also approved permitting James Morris, Northville safety patrol captain, to attend the 1956 National School Safety Patrol Assembly in Washington May 4 and 5 as a guest of the Automobile Club of Michigan. The Auto Club is inviting 135 Michigan safety patrol captains from different towns and cities to make the free all-expense tour to the nation's capitol.

Approval also was given to renewal of insurance policies in the aggregate amount of $253,145 which expire this year and for which the Carrington Agency is broker. A tabulation of all school insurance policies presented to the board by Supt. Amerman showed the Carrington agency having school policies totaling $658,605, Bloom agency $292,440 and Lanning agency $48,000.

Contract for Gas

Approval was given for the city to enter into a contract with Standard Oil Co. for a 1,000 gallon gas tank and pump. Gas and oil will be sold to the city at wholesale cost. The council said that the savings to the city would be approximately 14 cents per gallon including the 8 cents tax discount and 6 cents wholesale discount.

Taxi Cabs
Councilman Allen asked the mayor for an extension of two weeks for the taxi cab problem. "We need more time to work it out," he said. Mayor Ely agreed to the time extension.

File 13...

The convertibles are on the streets in full force, and even the policemen seem to have a new spring in their step as they eagerly issue their parking tickets.

Speaking of parking, Chief Joe Denton presented the city council with some very thoughtful suggestions regarding the parking meter problem. Joe has made quite a thorough survey of the problem in neighboring communities and we were sorry to see the apparent lack of interest with which council members listened to Joe's suggestions.

P & A Theatre Gets "The Treatment"

The P & A Theatre, Northville's only movie house, is getting the treatment these days much to the enjoyment of its patrons. A complete job of redecorating is under way according to owners, Edward Hohler and Ralph Ruben.

"We've had the theatre a year and a half," Hohler said, "and we know that Northville deserves better accommodations so that's what we aim to do...give the community a better theatre. The revamp job is for their comfort. We want our customers to be satisfied."

Everything Gets Painted

The former drab color, (remember that "icky" brown?) has been changed to light, bright, eye-appealing shades.

The ceiling and arches have been painted beige; the walls are chartreuse; and the da-do and radiator screens are now Kelly green. By the way, it took three men eight days to paint the 24-foot ceiling.

The lobby will be painted several different colors and the lounges will be painted to complement the lobby color themes.

Arrangements have been made to clean, varnish and recushion the seats.

With the light, clean, new look, even the screen looks bigger, Manager Charles Pickeral has said.

"The entire purpose is to make the theatre a cozy place," said decorator, Pierre Del Montier.

The redecorating job, estimated at between $4,000 and $5,000, is being done by the Farmington Roofing and Maintenance Co. Completion is scheduled in a few weeks.

"Movies are better than ever," Hohler said, "and we hope that an increasing number of Northville folks will drop in to see us."

Greenfield Village, Dearborn. Terry Secord, president, and Helen Mayers, vice-president, attended this meeting.

For Rural Service

Mich. Bell Plans
$3,500,000 Program

The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. will spend approximately $3,500,000 to expand and improve rural service in 1956, Hans P. Andreasen, the company's farm telephone manager, announced this week.

Expenditures this year will raise the company's total outlay for service in rural areas during the postwar period to $31,500,000.

High on the list of improvements scheduled for this year is the conversion of five of the remaining eight magneto or "crank type" exchanges to dial operation. The remaining three are scheduled to be changed over to dial next year.

A new development, called a "rural carrier system" — so called because one pair of wires can be used to provide four different circuits — will be inaugurated this year. The equipment has been thoroughly tested in field trials and will be utilized to extend telephone service to more farm families throughout Michigan Bell's territory.

Andreasen pointed out that 75 per cent of rural establishments in the company's territory now have telephone service compared with 66 per cent at the beginning of 1950. The relative telephone gain in rural areas in 1955, he said, actually exceeded that of many urban communities.

Michigan Bell now serves 2,400,000 telephone throughout its territory and currently is gaining more than 12,000 telephones a month.

A nine-year old boy narrowly escaped death Saturday afternoon while playing in his grandfather's barn.

John Gibson, Jr. was swinging on a rope that carries hay bales into the barn when a 30-pound wheel came off the track above and hit him, tearing half of his scalp.

John had 50 stitches taken in his head and is presently convalescing in Atchison hospital.

John is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson, 44420 6-Mile Rd., and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carlson.

2 N'ville. Patrol Boys To Be Chosen for Trip to Wash.

A vigorous 1955-56 campaign on "School Crossing Safety" by Russell H. Amerman and Wayne County Training schools will send two Northville safety patrol members to Washington, D.C., May 3-6. The patrol members will receive a four-day, all expense trip to the Capital city as the guests of Automobile Club of Michigan.

The schools were chosen to send representatives to the 20th AAA National Safety Patrol rally because of the effectiveness of their overall safety program. The Northville delegates, to be selected from safety patrol ranks in the next two weeks, will join 140 Michigan patrol members in Detroit May 3 to entrain for Washington.

Their arrival in the Capital will set off two full days of meeting government officials and seeing famous and historic sights, climaxed by a march down Constitution Ave. with over 30,000 other patrol members from all over the United States and Canada. After the parade, the largest held annually in Washington, they will return by train May 6.

Republican Essay Contest Opens for 17-25 Age Group

An expense paid trip to the Republican National Convention in San Francisco this August may be the prize for some talented young Michigan resident, according to plans just announced by the Young Republican National Federation for a nationwide essay contest.

The contest is open to all American citizens who are between the age of 17 and 25, as of November 6, 1956 (Election Day). The subject for the essay is "Why I Am A Republican", and entries are limited to 300 words or less.

All entries must be submitted by May 15, 1956 to Arthur Bartfay, Essay Contest Chairman, Michigan Federation of YR's, 400 Capitol Ave., Lansing 3, Mich. A prize winning essay will be chosen by the Michigan Republican organization. A suitable prize award will be made to the winning Michigan essayist.

The national winner will be chosen from the prize winners of the various states. The national prize winning essay will be selected before July 15 by a committee of prominent Republican leaders under the supervision of a YR National Essay Contest committee headed by Gordon Heuser, Colorado Springs, Colo. Essays will be judged on the basis of clarity of thought, originality and interest.

In announcing the contest in Michigan, Young Republican State Chairman James Schoener of Muskegon stated, "This essay contest will give the young people of Michigan a fine opportunity to express their political convictions and perhaps a chance to take part in one of the most interesting parts of political life—a national political convention. Entry blanks can be obtained by writing Arthur Bartfay."

$25,000 Is Added To Awards Made In Model Car Program

Annual awards in the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car competition have been increased to $115,000, a jump of $25,000 over last year's awards.

Eight university scholarships formerly worth $20,000 have been raised to $28,000 and ten additional scholarships worth $1,000 each have been added in a new judging classification based on "styling" merits.

Other awards including cash to state winners and expense-free trips for regional winners to the Guild's annual convention have been increased to $77,000.

The increase in awards is effective immediately and applies to entrants in this year's competition which ends June 1, James P. Wines, secretary of the Guild, announced today.

Since 1930, the Fisher Body competition has awarded 140 university scholarships valued at $441,500 to national winners.

The Fisher Body model car competition has become nationally famous as one of industry's most successful talent sources. A survey of former winners revealed that the same dreams that help a boy design and build an award-winning model car helped most of them to become prize-winning adults, too.

Any boy in the United States between the ages of 12 through 19 is eligible to enter the competition, and may obtain an enrollment card by writing to the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild, General Motors Corp., Detroit 2, Mich.

Awards for the best models entered in the Guild competition include eight university scholarships for the national winners of the Junior (12 through 15 years old) and Senior (16 through 19) Divisions of the competition. In each age group, the awards will be: 1st—$5,000 scholarship; 2nd—$4,000; 3rd—$3,000; 4th—$2,000.

Sons of General Motors employees (including dealers and their employees) are eligible to enter the competition. Duplicate awards are made if the son of a GM employee wins.
