LINCOLN ANNOUNCES EMPLOYMENT PLANS

for the Record

by G. H. C.

A story elsewhere on this page points out that 31 elm trees were killed in Northville last summer by Dutch elm disease. It also says that the city has again contracted with Green Ridge Nursery to spray all elm trees on city property twice this summer, and that few property owners are sufficiently concerned with the danger to their trees to have them protected.

From Farmington, only a few miles away, comes word that the city council there is considering an ordinance making it compulsory for private property owners to have their trees sprayed. The ordinance has already been discussed quite thoroughly at previous meetings of the Farmington council and is reported quite likely to be adopted.

At first thought it may seem that the city fathers in our neighboring city may be overstepping the boundary between proper governmental authority and the rights of private ownership. A little thought, however, should reveal that there is precedent for compelling individuals to protect the property rights and safety of others. Even the simple fact that dogs must be vaccinated against rabies, is an example of the right of government to force individuals to take steps to protect their neighbors. The state already has legislation compelling property owners to remove and destroy trees with Dutch elm disease.

The big lack in the present preventive program against the Dutch elm disease is that it is still a hit or miss affair. Northville sprays all trees on city property and many individuals have their own trees sprayed. But trees in the surrounding area are not sprayed and they can harbor the beetles that are the deadly killers. Many of these trees are in Cass Benton park, where spraying is done only after the infection starts. Others are on farms where the disease is likely to go undetected or unchecked. The elms along the country roadsides are under supervision of the Wayne and Oakland county road commissions and are not protected.

If Farmington adopts its proposed ordinance it will be a step in the right direction, and one that Northville might well consider. These would be only minor moves, however. There is need for a much broader program even to the point of the state even blocking off the entire area in southeastern Michigan where the disease is prevalent and compelling drastic steps by private and governmental owners to eradicate the disease by spraying. This would cost a lot of money, of course. The alternative, and apparently a very real danger within the next 10 years, is the loss of many thousands of the giant elms that beautify the land in lower Michigan.

The Frankenmuth (Mich.) News carried a story last week which indicated the possibility of a harness racing track being constructed between Flint and Saginaw, approximately 75 miles from Detroit. Those backing the project are talking about spending $2.5 millions for the racing plant, which is a lot of money if they can lay their hands on it, in advance, and is a heck of a lot more if they have to raise it by selling stock to the public.

Racing Commissioner James H. Inglis told the Record this week that the up-state people have indicated they would want

To Combat Dutch-Elm-Disease

250 Trees Sprayed In City Control Program

Northville took steps last week for the third successive year to protect the 250 elm trees on city property from Dutch elm disease which in recent years has killed thousands of stately elms in southwestern Michigan, including 31 in Northville alone last year. A crew from Green Ridge Nursery, working under a contract with the city and using the newest and most efficient equipment, sprayed all municipal elms and some on private property. Within the next few weeks Green Ridge will fulfill contracts to spray more than 10,000 elm trees in the Detroit metropolitan area, according to John M. Miller, owner of the nursery.

While the City of Northville is trying to preserve its elm trees by having them sprayed twice a year many trees in the area have never been treated and offer a ready target for the minute elm bark beetle. These are located on private property in the city, on country estates and farms in Northville and Novi townships, along the roads and in the vast network of county parks.

Miller says that only a small percentage of property owners are sufficiently aware of the danger of losing their shade trees to have them sprayed at the same time the city spraying is being done. The cost, which ranges from $3 to $5 a tree depending upon the location and size, is small in comparison with the $60 to $100 that it may cost to have a diseased tree cut down and burned.

Expensive Disease
No matter how a person decides to attempt to solve the Dutch elm disease problem, it is going to be expensive. Trees infected with the disease must be removed and burned. That is the law. Removing trees is costly. However, that isn't the whole story; removed trees will need to be replaced if shade is desired. It will be years before there is suitable shade from new trees.

TYPICAL APPEARANCE of branch pieces taken from a Dutch-elm-diseased tree. The discoloration appears as a ring of brown dots in the diagonal cross-sections, and as long brown streaks in the longitudinal sections. This brown discoloration is located in the wood just beneath the bark.

Miller is contracted to spray the 250 municipal elm trees in Northville; over 800 elm trees at Meadowbrook; 2,200 in Bloomfield Village; 6,500 in Garden City and many others in Farmington, Brighton and Grosse Ile.

Disease Is New Here

Dutch elm disease was first described by plant pathologists in the Netherlands. This disease came to the eastern United States from Europe about 1930. It is now found in 18 northeastern and central states where native elms are grown. The first elms known to die of Dutch elm disease in Michigan were found in Detroit during the summer of 1950. The first diseased elm in Northville is currently, discussing the adoption of such a total control program.

Spray Twice A Year
Elm trees should be sprayed twice a year according to Miller; in the spring before the leaves open and in the middle of summer.

"The weather has to be just right," Miller said, "about 40 degrees temperature, no wind, and no rain."

When adult bark beetles leave diseased elm trees (and they can travel as far as three miles from their origin) spores of the fungus are likely to be clinging to their bodies. These spores gain entrance to healthy trees through the feeding wounds made by the adult bark beetles. Such wounds are usually made in the crotches of two and three year old twigs of healthy elm trees.

The fungus may also pass through natural root grafts from diseased trees to nearby healthy trees.

Only Prevention Known

According to Russell R. Whitten, entomologist, U.S. Department of Agriculture, the only presently known method of Dutch elm disease control is to prevent the bark beetles from carrying the fungus from diseased trees to healthy trees. In order to accomplish this, two things are important: sanitation and

Proclamation

WHEREAS, cancer is the second leading cause of death in this community, and

WHEREAS, the number of patients whose lives are saved from this disease could be doubled if all persons were to recognize its earliest signs and obtain competent medical treatment in time, and

WHEREAS, this is particularly true of cancer of the breast among women, because many cases of breast cancer can be treated successfully with the advantage of minimum delay, and

WHEREAS, there has been arranged in this community a series of free showings of an American Cancer Society film, which teaches women how to guard against breast cancer between regular visits to their family physicians, and

WHEREAS, this is a film which already has helped to save thousands of lives and can contribute to the health and happiness of wives, mothers and other loved ones of this community,

NOW, THEREFORE, do I, Claude N. Ely, Mayor of Northville, proclaim April 17, 1956 as CANCER ALERTNESS DAY in Northville, and urge every woman to avail herself of the opportunity to see this important film during its showing here.

Republican Women to Have Kick-Off Luncheon April 18

A kick-off luncheon for Republican women will be held Wednesday, April 18, 1 p.m. at Black's White House for women in the Northville, Livonia and Plymouth area. Chairman for the buffet luncheon is Mrs. Richard L. Hackett (Northville 612).

The April 18 luncheon will be one of a series that will start the fund raising campaign. The aim of the Republican women this year is to increase the number of contributors by expanding the area organizations working on the drive. The campaign will culminate in a luncheon May 21 at the Sheraton-Cadillac hotel.

Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr. originated the plan in Wayne county of having women run a parallel campaign for funds, now this is

Women Invited To See Cancer Movie

Ladies, are you going shopping Tuesday, April 17? If so, you are invited to include a free movie in your shopping tour.

The movie will be shown at the P&A theatre at 2 p.m. The story has no plot and its star is unknown, but it may turn out to be the most important motion picture shown here this year.

Produced by the American Cancer Society in cooperation with the National Cancer Institute, the film teaches a simple method of self-examination which already has helped many women to detect early cases of cancer in themselves between regular check-up visits to family doctors.

Every woman in the community has been urged to see the film by Dr. R. M. Atchison, service chairman of the western Wayne unit of the American Cancer Society of the Northville branch. There will be no solicitation of funds at any time during the special program which

"The present employment openings are in existing Lincoln plants in the Dearborn area," the spokesman continued, "but employees from the Novi area joining Lincoln at this time will be only minutes away from their jobs when the new plants and office building are completed next year."

Random Notes

From "file 13"

Since we are now well into the month of April, we might as well give a rundown of the required special observances. At present, we are in the last days of National Boys Club and National Honey for Breakfast Week. Coming up this week end is National Sunday School Week. Do-It-Yourself Week starts on the 16th, followed by National Garden Week, National Baby Week and National Boys and Girls Week.

Incidentally, the week starting with April 17th has been set aside by the Internal Revenue Bureau as National Delinquent Income Tax Week.

With the coming of spring, a number of local housewives have encountered door-to-door solicitors selling everything from encyclopedias to water softeners. For the protection of Northville residents, out of town salesmen are required to get a permit from the city hall licensing them to make calls in the area. The majority of these salesmen are no doubt of the highest character and their merchandise is probably very good. Perhaps it is also worthy of note that in most cases, comparable or better merchandise is usually available in our own area from local merchants.

Another unsational medical discovery has come to our attention this week. Designed expressly for beachcombers, would-be south sea islanders, and redheads, a capsule containing a drug called "8-MethOxyPsoralen" may soon be on the market. It is designed to prevent sunburn and speed the process of tanning. Lolling on the beach, mowing the lawn, or sitting through a doubleheader in the bleachers may soon be much pleasanter for millions as a result of this inexpensive "sunburn pill".

Even the doctors who developed the drug have difficulty maneuvering their tongues to say "8-MethOxyPsoralen". They simply call it "8-MOP".

We were out looking for a spring hat the other day and the salesman said one of the snappy numbers we were trying on could be sat on, carried in a pocket, or shoved in a duffel bag. It would come out uncreased and would resume its present shape. "Let's sit on it right now," we said.

"Let's not," he said. Ever notice how your appetite changes with the weather? Ours does. We don't care for ice cream on a cold frosty winter day, but now that warm weather is here (at least part of the time) there's nothing we crave more than an ice-cream cone.

And while we're on the subject, it's nice to know that under Michigan's ice cream law no imitation flavor may be used except

Did you ever try a recipe because the name was intriguing? This Bavarian Guglhupf had such a weird name that Mrs. James Margin of Willowbrook Village was determined to find out what it was like. It turned out to be such a delicious chocolate dessert that her family called for repeats.

When Mrs. Margin served it for company, they all asked for the recipe so if you are curious too, cast all doubts aside and try it—you will be surprised and delighted with the result.

The Margins with Jerry 11 and Christine 9, live at 24420 Willow Lane in the new Willowbrook subdivision. Mr. Margin is a master carpenter and the cabinet work in the newly paneled kitchen is an outstanding example of his work and the envy of all who see it.

BAVARIAN GUGLHUPF
2 cups sifted flour
3 tps. double action baking powder
1 tsp. salt
1/3 cup Crisco
1/3 cup butter or oleo
1 cup sugar
4 unbeaten eggs
1/2 cup milk
1 tsp. vanilla
2 squares (2-oz.) grated bitter or semi-sweet chocolate Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Cream Crisco and butter and gradually add one cup sugar—creaming well. Add four unbeaten eggs one at a time, beating well after each one. Combine milk, vanilla and add alternately with dry ingredients to creamed mixture, beginning and ending with dry ingredients. Blend thoroughly after each addition. (With electric mixer use low speed.)

Grate two squares (2-oz.) bitter or semi-sweet chocolate. Spoon one-third of the batter into a pan. Cover with one-half of grated chocolate. Then spoon another one-third of batter, spreading carefully, and cover with remaining grated chocolate. Top with the final one-third of the batter.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 55 or 65 minutes. Let cool in pan 15 minutes. Turn out on wire rack and sprinkle with powdered sugar—cool thoroughly.

Directions call for making the cake in a 10-inch tube cake tin but Mrs. Margin uses a fluted tube pan which makes the cake more festive inasmuch as it does not need frosting.

Bridal Shower For M. Weiss

Marlene Weiss, a June bride-to-be, was feted April 5 at a shower at "Thistle Hill", home of Mrs. William B. Crump of Timberlane. Mrs. Frederick B. Hartt was co-hostess.

In recognition of Marlene's musical talent, a music theme was used in decorating the buffet luncheon table. An angel and small organ were placed against a backdrop of sheet music titled "O Promise Me". A bride doll and two angel choristers, flanked by white candles and decorated with waxed lily-of-the-valley, centered the table.

The twenty-four guests were seated at card tables which were decorated with flowers and candles.

The shower was miscellaneous and Marlene received many lovely gifts.

Guests were invited from Pleasant Ridge, Ferndale, Huntington Woods, Plymouth and Northville.

Marlene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss of Grace St., is a music major at the University of Michigan and will marry Shelby Harrington of Detroit June 23.

Mary Lovewell Gets Scholarship Prize At U. of Michigan

Mary Victoria Lovewell, daughter of Drs. Victoria and Paul L. Lovewell, 148 E. Main St., was one of 292 University of Michigan students to receive the Orono E. Scott Freshman Prize for outstanding scholarship.

This was the first year for these prizes to be awarded at U. of M. Dean Walter B. Rea, chairman of the committee on University Scholarships announced Sunday, Mar. 25.

Prize winners, ranking in the top 10 per cent academically of the freshman class, will have their choice of a book. They will also be recognized at the Honors Convocation in May.

The awards are financed from a fund set aside by the Orono E. Scott Foundation of St. Louis, Mo., established in 1950 by Orono E. Scott, who died Jan. 9, 1956.

Scott was an alumnus of U-M, having received the Bachelor of Laws degree in 1894. He operated a real estate and insurance firm in St. Louis from 1896 until his death at the age of 84. A philanthropist, he was noted for his leadership in religious activities and civic affairs.

GROOMING YOUR DOG by Bob Bartos Manager, Friskies Research Kennels

Grooming a dog takes only a few minutes of time and adds materially to your pet's cleanliness, health, comfort and appearance.

All dogs need daily brushing or gloving. Long-haired dogs should be brushed with a stiff bristle brush, and short-haired breeds rubbed with a mitt made for the purpose or with a piece of coarse cloth. This serves to clean the coat of dust and dirt, to ventilate the skin, and to add tone and condition to both coat and skin.

Don't overdo bathing your dog; once a month is often enough. Bathe the dog in a warm place, using a good bland soap. Keep water out of his eyes and ears. Lather and rinse well at least twice, and dry him thoroughly with rough towels, rubbing in the direction of the hair growth.

Dogs' nails, if not worn down naturally, should be trimmed frequently. Use clippers made for this purpose, and be careful not to cut into the pink portion, or quick. Smooth off rough edges with a file.

If wax accumulates in the ears, swab it out gently with an orange stick tipped with cotton and dipped in oil, alcohol or peroxide. Eyes that are irritated should be bathed in boric acid and treated with a good eye ointment. If you give your dog a large knuckle bone to chew every week or so, it will help keep the teeth clean.

U-M Glee Club To Present Concert In N'ville. May 3

The University of Michigan Men's Glee club will present a concert in the Northville Community Bldg. Thursday, May 3 at 8:30 p.m.

With 95 years of concert singing on the record books, the glee club ranks as the oldest musical organization on the Michigan campus and probably is among the earliest of college glee clubs.

The club was organized in 1859 and included musicians as well as singers. In fact, the club was known in the early 1900's as the University of Michigan Glee and Mandolin club.

In 1925, however, the club planned to compete in the annual contest of the Intercollegiate Glee clubs and so separated from the instrumental group. Membership since then has been composed solely of male vocalists.

This past summer the club made a four week tour of Europe, 15 concerts in the Netherlands, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, Italy and France. The members now hope to return for another visit during the summer of their centennial year, 1959.

Admission tickets to the show are $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

R.C. Blood Mobile Due Here April 27

The Northville Red Cross chapter will sponsor a blood bank at the Methodist Church April 27, from 2-8 p.m.

Volunteer workers will be accepting pledges, for one pint of blood, at Depositors State Bank Friday evenings, April 6, 13 and 20.

"Northville is one of the few small communities to have its own blood bank," said Mrs. A. C. Carlson, branch chairman. "Since last July over 50 pints of blood have been released to Northville residents or some member of their family."

In the past, the blood program was thought of mostly as an emergency during war, but today with automobile accidents mounting, the realization that blood transfusions are also needed in major operations and child birth, there can be not let up in keeping a good supply on hand," Mrs. Carlson said.

The local Red Cross chapter services the community within these boundaries: 8-Mile to Haggerty, to 5-Mile, to Napier and the part of Oakland county within its city limits as well as the city itself.

Three persons have authority to release blood in order that there is always one person available. A call to Mrs. A. C. Carlson, phone 402, starts the release immediately. Red Cross then arranges transportation of the proper type blood to the hospital. Mrs. Emma Reid 654-M and Mrs. C. C. Winter 379, are co-chairmen.

"There is no charge for the Red Cross blood," Mrs. Carlson said, "all that is asked is your co-operation to secure donors to replace same when the blood mobile comes to Northville. The pint you give now may later save your life, that of a loved one or maybe someone you don't even know, but it will be a life," she said.

FOR THE BUSY HOMEMAKER

"I've Got A Hint..."

Mrs. Ernest Black

Two homemaking hints this week — both of them unusual and clever. It was difficult to decide which to use so here they are — both of them.

Mrs. Grace Black, with her husband, Earnest, live at 26817 Beck Rd. and was a career woman in Detroit for many years.

With limited time at home for pressing blouses and dresses, she devised a little coat-hanger trick that kept her garments from wrinkling at the neck and shoulders. She found that those extra shoulder pads lying around could be pinned to each end of a hanger, instantly changing it to a expensive padded hanger. The extra padding in the hanger saved her much time in pressing otherwise wrinkled garments.

Mrs. Black loves to cook so naturally the second hint concerns that phase of housework. When she bakes a juicy fruit pie, and finds the juice oozing out, she immediately places a few soft bread crumbs over the opening and it stops instantly. It is a hint we never heard of and a good one. Mrs. Black says she has used it for years.

36th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Anderson, 50250 W. 8-Mile Rd., were honored at a dinner party on their 36th wedding anniversary Mar. 31 at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Anderson, 17373 Ridge Rd.

Attending the dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Whipple, Mr. and Mrs. Eural Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Gates and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Henning.

Mr. and Mrs. Black's main hobby, Mr. Black, who works in Detroit, finds gardening a fascinating hobby and a good part of their 15 acres is plotted to a vegetable garden. They have one married daughter who has three children, and a son who is not married.

Spring Beauty Salad From Florida

As sunny and glamorous as Florida itself are the big juicy Valencia oranges which are now rolling into markets all over the country. The seedless, sweeter Valencias will be shipped from Florida through June and they make this the time of year to get more of this vitamin C-goodness in your daily menus.

This salad features Valencias in slices—being seedless they're easy to slice or section, and lend themselves to all sorts of salad and fruit cup uses. Here they circle a mound of nutritious cottage cheese, colorfully set off with sliced strawberries. Serve with bowl of crisp salad greens and a choice of dressings, and watch sunny appetites develop round your table.

MR. PAUL MARTIN is Editor and Publisher of the 100-year-old State Journal, and past President of the Michigan State Associated Press Association.

we are greatly pleased with

BLUE CROSS · BLUE SHIELD"

... says Paul Martin, Editor and Publisher,
The State Journal, Lansing, Michigan

"And I am sure our employees are just as pleased with the way Blue Cross-Blue Shield protects them.

"Years ago it was something of a task to sell the hospital insurance program to an employee. The idea was new, and in many cases the restrictions were such that it was only natural for the individual to hesitate.

"That is all changed now, and the idea of hospital-medical coverage is generally accepted by folks in this organization. They want it, and are happy in it being made available at so moderate a cost.

"The protection given them and their dependents by Blue Cross-Blue Shield has afforded a feeling of security which they didn't have before. Such a feeling is conducive to happiness, thus greatly benefiting the relationship between them and management.

"One never knows when sickness or accident may strike. Blue Cross-Blue Shield recognizes just that, giving our employees that solid feeling of security for themselves and their families in an area about which they would otherwise feel quite insecure."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

Main and Dodge Streets
Plymouth, Michigan
The scientific unity of God and man, as taught by Christ Jesus, will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday.
Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement" is the Golden Text from John (3:17): "God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved."
The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:
"Atonement is the exemplification of man's unity with God, whereby man reflects divine Truth, Life and Love. Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage" (18:1-5).

Readings from the Bible will include the following (Luke 1:68)
"Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people."

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

First Methodist Church of Northville
By the Reverend Ivan E. Hodgson

The greatest demonstration of Divine Power, the most glorious appearance of the Eternal Son of God, was the GLOW of His resurrection. The appearance of Jesus Christ before the very eyes of "the faithful" during the forty days stay after the resurrection was the glow. St. Paul speaks of the glow in these words "And last of all he was seen of me also,
as of one born out of due season.
Although, we do not question the fact of the "Glow" — the doctrine of His resurrection; yet to us we must see it only in the

"after-glow."
What is it? A glow after a light has disappeared — the twilight after the sunset.
Those who believe in the living Christ, dwelling in the twilight, are assured of His presence but the color of his garments are not clear. "We see through a glass darkly," but we see. To St. Paul the "Glow" was a life-long experience. Under the blazing light of the Risen Christ on the Damascus Road, Paul entered into an experience of confinement which lasted over three years—trying to see the significance of it all—to him it was the foundation stone of our Christian Faith. The realization of it was the "Supreme Achievement." No where is it more gloriously expressed in terms of a positive religious faith than in the text: "That I may know Him..."

The Apostle Paul expresses it in a threefold ambition: First, he prays that he may win Christ.
This presupposes previous failure. To most people Paul's achievement would be the last round of success. "One almost senses a feeling of pride as he enumerates his relationship with the Jewish tradition and the noble place he occupied among the Hebrews. But something happened when he met the LIVING CHRIST; the sun shone so brightly that he had no use for the smoking lamp of earth. A vast difference from a Living Lord and the Stone Slabs from Mt.
Sinai; one was law, the other was life. "Dr. Calhoun tells of a university professor who hired a man to hit a log with the reverse side of an ax. He paid him more than the going wage. The man lasted half a day, then he gave up, explaining, "I must see the chips fly." At the time of Paul's writing the Philippian Letter, he had seen the chips fly—the Gospel had power to change men and society."

Secondly, Paul prays that he may be found in Him. He is expressing the secret of the doctrine of salvation — Justification by Faith. It is not an added outward possession, but a union with; not based upon human endeavor but the gift of God. Being found in Christ is the only shelter from the ravages of atomic war or the cracking up of our mortal frames in the crucible of death. Christ stands at the door of our resurrection and will not permit any one eternal foe to touch us. Let us rejoice in this new relationship for we are "accepted in the beloved."

Thirdly, Paul prays, that he may know HIM. It is Christ himself that Paul knows already but he has never graduated from that school, for he wants to know Him with increasing measure, the Glory of the empty cross and deserted tomb. Such an ambition is so true in the pursuit of love.
The life of Catherine Marshall, in her pursuit of the young preacher, is a pointed, illustration of this. She did her best to become a road-block. BUT Peter Marshall, like most wise men who see a good thing; stopped looked and listened. The Apostle is very specific in what he wants to achieve in Christ: (1) "The power of His resurrection." Paul imitation vanilla. Fruit ice cream must contain five percent fruit by actual weight and nut ice cream must contain two percent nuts by actual weight. Just a mere suggestion of these, like a whiff of violets on a spring breeze, won't do.

It's baseball season and something a little fellow said the other day reminded us of the children who have to sit at the piano practicing chords when they'd rather be throwing curves. "Gosh darn it, mommy," our little friend said as he plunked the piano keys, "I wish you hadn't been deprived of so many things as a child."

Pass the peace, pipe and blow us some smoke rings! If we had a pipe we'd enter the 8th annual pipe smoking contest in Flint this Saturday. It's just one of those good old fashioned contests, no entry fee, no box tops, no prizes, just a lot of fun and the chance to win the title of "1955 Pipe Smoking Champ". Each contestant furnishes only his pipe. He is then given 3.3 grams of contest tobacco and two kitchen matches. Contestants are given one minute to light their pipes. The contestant keeping his pipe going the longest wins the contest. Last year's champion smoked his pipe for one hour, 30 minutes and 15 seconds. We can't enter but we'd be happy to nominate two pipe smokers: Bob Shafer and Phil Ogilvie. The contest will be held April 14, 7:30 p.m. at 740 South Saginaw, Flint.

Something that puzzles us is how a small apartment and especially a house can absorb from one to fifty thousand dollars' worth of this-and-that without this-and-that showing.

You buy an electric blanket, a television set, a floor covering, drapes, a hundred books, 75 phonograph records, 10 magazine subscriptions, three oil paintings, two etchings, 20 bed sheets, eight lamps, two pressure cookers and 26 cookbooks. Each gets put in its place and you forget them.

Once in a lifetime somebody steps in and tells you this-and-that looks nice and you feel like falling on your knees and saying thanks.

A visitor to New Mexico was talking to a sun-browned native, and commented on the lack of rain. "Doesn't it ever rain here?" the tourist asked.

The native thought a moment and said, "Mister, do you remember the story of Noah and the Ark, and how it rained 40 days and 40 nights?"

"Sure I do," said the tourist. "Well," drawled the native, "we got a half-inch that time."

I always stop and ask myself, As into Spring we go, Where am I now, compared to where I was a year ago? The mortgage on my house is less, My car belongs to me, Last year we had two charge accounts And this year we have three. The fund committees all drop in Each time they make the rounds; Yes, I'm a bigger man this year (I've put on fifteen pounds).

Merchants Given Until 30th To Make Up Their Minds

"It's all up to the Northville merchants whether Northville has a team in the Inter-County league this year," said Joe Kritch, new manager for the team.

Kritch managed the Ellsworth baseball team in Garden City last year and qualified the team for the state finals in the American Baseball Congress tournament in Frankfort. Kritch said that he is also a scout for the New York Yankees.

Kritch told the Record this week that he will manage the Northville team only if all of the merchants cooperate by April 30. "I have known quite a few of them (merchants) for over eight years," Kritch said, "I know them to be a swell bunch of men and I feel certain that they will back the team this year."

Players on the Northville team will consist of members from the championship Garden City team and the following Northville men: Steve Folino, co-manager; Gary Hicks, Buddy Bell and Cap Pethers. Bell and Pethers are high school students and will join the Northville team when the school semester is over.

Zoning Board Studies New Industrial Zones

Consider New M-2 & M-3 Classifications for More Protection of Nearby Property

The rezoning requests of two auto transport companies and a possible re-classification of industrial districts highlighted an unpublished and sparsely attended meeting of the Novi Zoning Board Monday night.

A representative of Automobile Transport Co. of Dearborn, owner of 20 acres of frontage on Wixom Rd. opposite the Lincoln plant site, was told that the Oakland County Coordinating Council had refused to take any action on the firm's request for rezoning the area to a light industrial classification.

Delaying Action

The Coordinating Council's action resulted from the zoning board's action at their last meeting, Feb. 7.

Anxious to squelch the oratorical efforts of a smooth-talking Dearborn real estate man, the board had agreed to submit the rezoning request to the Coordinating Council — with neither their approval nor disapproval. As informed sources expected, the Coordinating Council went along with the game and sent request back — again neither approved nor disapproved.

One of the objects of this "delaying action" was to give the zoning board members a chance to review their industrial classifications and M-1 zoning requirements.

Two New Districts

This fact seems to be born out by the fact that much of the time at Monday night's meeting was spent discussing the possibility of two new industrial district classifications, M-2 and M-3 districts.

Designed to be more restrictive in uses of the industrial property, the new classifications would offer considerably more protection to adjacent property owners. Such items as landscaping, green belts, fencing, etc. would be required in certain instances under the new classifications.

Hearing In May

Representatives of the E & L Trucking Co., another auto haul-away company in Dearborn, requested rezoning of approximately 50 acres southwest of Wixom Rd. and Grand River for auto transport use.

After discussing these and several other miscellaneous requests, the zoning board agreed to hold a public hearing early in May, at which time they are expected to act on the requests.

Free Press Runs Series On Novi

The first in a series of articles dealing with growth problems in the Novi area was published by the Detroit Free Press early this week.

"How Novi proposes to solve the tricky problems brought about by the (rapid growth) should interest the entire Detroit area now facing, or about to face, similar problems," the article stated.

The first article briefly traced the history of the area from an early 19th century settlement on the Grand River Plank Road through the present day residential-industrial area recently chosen as the site for a new multi-million dollar automobile plant.

Schools, water, sewers and roads were among the problems mentioned which have resulted from this rapid growth.

competing dates with the Detroit-area tracks if they operate. While this should not offer serious competition to racing in Wayne county, the track might have difficulty in attracting sufficient patronage from the Detroit area to make it a paying proposition. The Jackson Raceway is located about equally distant from Detroit. Nearly half of its attendance and more than 50% of its betting comes from patrons living in Wayne county and its racing season is not competitive with the local tracks. Even so, it has not been a paying proposition.

We will hazard a guess that if the promoters of the up-state track must raise money through the public sale of securities they will never build the track.

Testing Trees
There is only one way to check trees possibly having Dutch elm disease according to authorities at Michigan State university. Diseased twigs and branches must be examined for the fungus by a plant pathologist using laboratory techniques. The examination can be had in the following way:

Cut six twigs or small stems approximately 7 inches long and 1/2 to 1 inch in diameter from the diseased branches of each tree. (See Fig. 1 for the appearance and description of Dutch-elm-diseased twigs and stems). The twigs or stems from each tree must be carefully marked. Wrap and bind them securely in a suitable cardboard box for mailing. Do not send material that has been dead for some time, or which does not show the discolored ring under the bark.

Where To Send Sample
Send all samples for Dutch elm disease determination to the "Dutch Elm Disease Identification Laboratory, Dept. of Botany and Plant Pathology, Natural Science Bldg., Michigan State university, East Lansing, Mich."

A report on the sample will be made to you in approximately 14 days.

If you have further questions on submitting samples for identification consult your county agricultural agent or other responsible agencies.

THE PRESIDENT VS. THE UMPIRE

I enjoy reading a note concerning our President that showed him to be of human temperament like the rest of us. President Eisenhower was watching the Senators play the Yankees. It was the fifth inning that a Yankee tagged a Senator in a close play. The umpire jerked his thumb and cried, "OUT". The President jumped to his feet and shouted "NO!" He wasn't pleased with the decision, yet even though he is the President of the U.S., his protest made no change in the umpire's decision. You know friend, that God has reserved the right to pass judgment and decisions upon every one of us. He is the umpire of all the earth who shall judge the living and the dead at His appearing. Since He is righteous, He must of necessity render justice to all and as we say in sports, "He must call them as he sees them." I'm not at all sure that we will want justice in our own case since we have sinned against Him so often. What we need will be mercy, not justice! How glad I am that God has appointed a mediator who became our Saviour and bore our sins upon Calvary to make it possible for God to show mercy and still be just.

FRIDAY the 13th

Unless you are scared of the world you probably are not worried because this Friday is that so-called "unlucky Friday the thirteenth".

But...if you look the other way when a black cat crosses your path; cringe with the thought of seven years bad luck when you break a mirror; walk in the street to escape from a stroll under a ladder; refuse to accept a sharp object as a gift without a penny; have hysterics because something new is laid on the bed, or any of a number of superstitious myths that have left their mark on our society... watch out!

According to Wilbert J. McKeachie, associate professor of psychology at the University of Michigan, "A person who is timid and anxious is more likely to be superstitious. It takes a certain amount of emotional stability to be able to tolerate uncertainty. 'It's the unsure person who refuses to blame himself but attributes his misfortune to that unlucky day on the calendar or the black cat that crossed his path first thing in the morning,' McKeachie said.

The psychologist also said that another reason superstitions die hard is that our memories and perceptions are highly selective. "We tend to remember those things which confirm our beliefs and disregard what does not bear them out. So if something unpleasant happens to us on Friday the thirteenth we are not surprised to find our convictions justified."

But what's behind the persistent idea that that particular day on the calendar is something to make you shudder?

According to the teaching of the astrologers of the middle ages Friday was unlucky because of the crucifixion of Christ on that day. Others advance the theory that Friday is regarded as an unlucky day because it was on Friday that Adam and Eve partook of the forbidden fruit.

As to the number 13, according to some, 13 is an unlucky number and according to others it is lucky, so you can take your choice. The superstitious dislike of being one of 13 at dinner is derived from the Last Supper of Christ with His 12 disciples.

When Friday falls on the 13th of the month, as is the case in April, don't worry, don't fret, don't think about it. Don't be like a certain fellow around town who decided not to leave his bed last Friday 13. He thought he'd be safe there, so what happened? His boss fired him, his wife went home to her mother, and a picture fell from the wall and hit him on the head while he was sleeping.

As far as we're concerned, one day is just as good as another. Confidentially, though, we're happy to see Friday roll along, 13th or otherwise, because that's the last day of the working week and we surely do enjoy our week ends. As far as 13 is concerned, we've got a sentimental attachment to it...that's the number of our special file.

"Save The Rug" Park Signs Are A Specialty

Park signs with a positive approach are a specialty of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority in its recreation areas in Wayne, Washtenaw, Livingston, Oakland and Macomb counties.

A new one at Kensington Metropolitan park this spring announces "Save The Rug!"

It continues: "Would you build a fire on your living room floor? ...Nature's carpeting is more inflammable, than your rugs. In this park, stoves are provided in picnic areas and there are fireplaces in the group camp site. Fires are prohibited in all other places."

A similar tack is taken in signs such as one that says "This area is 'resting' and goes on to explain why certain picnic areas must periodically be fenced off to give the grass and shrubs a chance to grow back.

There is a positive approach also in signs which note that the fifty dollars it costs per day to clean the park would have purchased two new picnic tables had visitors been more careful about litter.

SECOND OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY—EST. 1868—Thursday, April 12, 1956—11

READY TO MOVE to the next location, water drillers from the Dunbar Drilling & Supply Co. were packing their equipment Friday-afternoon after one week of drilling. Driller Russell Hofacre (left) said, "This isn't the first time that we drilled without hitting water, that's why they're called test wells." Hofacre's assistant, John Davenport (right) lifted his water jug, laughed, and said, "This is the only water here and we brought it with us." The crew started drilling on the J. Jones property, 8-Mile near Taft, Saturday, Mar. 31. The city and the drillers hoped to hit water at 100 feet; however, when they went 233 feet without success the engineer stopped them. In a telephone conversation with Councilman A. M. Allen, Monday morning, it was learned that permission was granted to begin drilling in the Wayne County park area, 200 feet east of Mr. Langfield's office. Drilling was scheduled to start Tuesday morning. According to the city's contract with the Dunbar Co., the company will drill not more than four 8-inch test wells, including one expanded 16-inch permanent well.

IT'S THAT TIME of year again. The baseball fans will scream "safe" and the umpire will bel- low, "out" and then the fun will begin. Practicing running bases on home ground this week were Larry Graham and Rollin Gaab, both contenders for first base playing position with the NHS team.

Writer Says Burning Weeds May Destroy Birds' Nests

By Harold S. Hartley

The time of the year has arrived when many householders are in the habit of burning off various sized areas of edge growth and fields. Conservation authorities state that in specific instances the burning may accomplish some good, but warn that in general, the burning of natural growth is harmful.

Meadowlarks, Song Sparrows, Horned Larks and other ground-nesting species of birds have already begun nests. Horned Lark eggs are almost ready to hatch. All of these birds eat thousands of insects and insect larvae of a type destructive to flowers and vegetables. Destruction of their nests, and thus their broods, can only result in an increase of insect pests, to say nothing of the loss to man of birds possessing great beauty in appearance and song.

In addition, indiscriminate burning of "weeds" (this may mean wildflowers) and natural ground litter deprives the soil of enriching mulch. Owners of large acreages, particularly, should consult conservation authorities before doing extensive burning.

Bluebird Houses

Those home owners living on the outskirts of Northville and Novi who wish to put up Bluebird houses, still have time, because, though these birds are already nesting, the female has at least two broods per season.

Boxes should be about 8 inches from floor to roof, 5 inches by 5 inches more or less in width and depth, and have a side hinged to facilitate cleanout between broods and seasons. The roof should slant and overhang sides to keep out the rain. The entrance hole should be about 6 inches from the floor and not more than 1½ inches in diameter. Either a few small holes should be drilled near the roof to provide ventilation, or else one side can be nailed a little below the roof to form a crack.

Place boxes on fenceposts from 2 to 6 feet above the ground in the OPEN and away from the house.

The proximity of meadows, orchards and water assists in attracting Bluebirds, and also Tree Swallows, a bird similarly beautiful and valuable.

"THE SHORT AND THE TALL OF IT". That's what Baseball Coach Al Jones calls his pitching staff. Left to right are NHS pitchers Jeff Goodrich, Aubrey Kinney, Clayton Pethers and Coach Jones. Kneeling in front is Benjamin Mosher, catcher. If you think that the boys look like they're in good condition, pat Coach Jones on the back. How does he do it? WHAT DO YOU MEAN, "JUST FACE LIFTING"?

EVERY NOW AND THEN, we run across someone who seems to think that 1956 cars do not offer anything really new—just a little face lifting from the year before.

We won't try to speak for the automobile industry. But we certainly can speak for Buick.

And let us announce in no uncertain terms—it's the newest thing on wheels.

The Styling is New

Sure; it looks like a Buick. But it has a new V-proved grille that says 1956 and no mistake. The hood's new—the fender ports are new—the sweepers are new—and it all adds up to a new sweep-ahead look that ends in a sassy new slant to the rear contours. But that, friends, is only the beginning.

The 1956 Dynaflo* is New

It introduces what the engineers call "double regeneration"—which means a double-action take-off. It gives you new, split-second response in the first inch of pedal travel—plus the "switch the pitch" at full acceleration, which no one else has yet approached.

The Ride is New

To coil springs on all four wheels, a brawny X-braced frame, and torque-tube drive, the engineers have added deep-oil shock absorbers to give new softness, new buoyancy, new comfort, and a brand-new "sense of direction" handling response.

The Power is New

All 1956 Buicks have new and mighty 322-cubic-inch V8's—with record highs in power and compression—with unique new double "Y" manifolding to step up efficiency —with new carburetor "deicing"—and a host of other new features to make owning a Buick pure pleasure.

The Thrill is New

And the surest way for you to find out how right we are, is to sample a 1956 Buick yourself.

As we said before, this is the best Buick yet—by a wide measure—and when you learn the prices we're quoting, you'll know why this Buick is one of the three best sellers in today's market.

It takes a lot more than face lifting to produce such a winner as this.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

The Teens Speak Up . . .

WAYNE

MARK

Inspired by a recent article in Life magazine devoted to "telephonitis" among teenagers, the Record decided to get the opinions of NHS students. The questions asked were:

Do you have a telephone?
How many calls do you make a day? How many do you receive?
How long do you talk?
What do you talk about?
Do your parents set a time limit for your calls?

CAROLYN BURKMAN, 17, senior, said that her week ends are busier than her week nights. "I make about two calls a day during the week and about seven on week end days," she said. The number of calls coming in are about the same. Carolyn said that her telephone conversations average 15-20 minutes and she talks about "everything." "Sometimes dad gets angry if I talk too long," Carolyn said, "but my parents are pretty lenient." There are three telephones in the Burkman home, "...and sometimes my little brother picks up one of the phones and listens in," Carolyn laughed.

MARK CARROLL, 15, sophomore, testifies to the fact that a telephone isn't really necessary. "We move so often," he said, "we don't have time to have one installed, but my social life doesn't suffer." Mark said he uses a neighbor's telephone perhaps once a week. "I make arrangements in person," he said, "I don't need a telephone."

WAYNE NASH, 16, freshman, said that he uses the telephone "once in a while." "I call boys mostly," he said, "and talk about 15 minutes." Wayne said that he makes about five calls a day and receives about two. "We boys talk about sports," he smiled, "but when I talk to girls it's about getting a date."

PAT FAGAN, 17, senior, said that she doesn't use the phone as much as she used to. "I make one or two calls a day and get three or four," she said. Pat mentioned that when she talks to girls the conversation last about 30 minutes, but with boys it's usually only ten minutes because "they don't like to talk too much," she said. Pat said that she talks about dates, boys, things that go on and anything. "My mother tells me to get off the telephone once in awhile," Pat said, "but not too often."

NANCY LEE, 18, senior, said, "I don't use the telephone too much because I work after school. I make about one call a day and get two or three." Nancy said that she only talks about ten minutes, because "...we're on a party line." "When I'm talking to my boyfriend we talk about what we will do," Nancy said, "and when I talk to my girlfriends we talk about what we have done. My folks don't object to my using the phone as

Ten $100 Nursing Scholarships Being Offered

Ten $100 scholarships are being offered by the Grant Hospital School of Nursing, Chicago, Ill. The scholarships will be awarded in a non-denominational basis to young women of good scholastic background and high moral character.

The Grant hospital school is one of good scholastic background as I don't hold it up for the neighbors.

BILL FROST, 16, junior, said that he makes three or four calls a day and gets one or two. "I usually call my buddies to see what they're going to do," Bill said, "and we talk about five to ten minutes. I don't call very many girls," Bill said that his folks don't say anything to him about using the telephone unless he monopolizes it.

Pastor's Study ...

is speaking of the "Afterglow" or the result of that power expressed in his own life. It brought victory over sin with the promise of immortality. (2) "The fellowship of His sufferings" is so closely linked with the power of his resurrection that one Greek article serves both. "We must travel the path of thorns rather than on 'Flowery beds of ease.'" (3) "Being conformed to His death." The disciple is a cross-bearer; BUT this pathway of thorns and broken rocks ends in dazzling beauty: "That by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead."

To be like Jesus is a costly achievement but it worth all the effort. Into a community there came at Commencement time a man of splendid presence and fine oratorical gifts. When, with one accord, the boys exclaimed, "That is the man I want to be," an old professor, said to them, "Boys, that is a fine ambition. There isn't a nobler man in the country than Mr. R., God bless him! But before you make up your minds to be like him let us count the cost. I have known your man from boyhood; he has suffered privations, thwartings, misunderstandings, losses, crosses, disappointments, and many failures. Boys, are you willing to pay the price for such manhood? If you are, it is yours."
