Big Doings Planned For Michigan Week

Schools, Merchants, Service Clubs and Residents To Participate In Program

Michigan Week will officially begin in Northville Sunday, May 20 which is Spiritual Foundations Day, but the "big doings" will start out at 10:30 a.m. Monday morning according to Cy Frid, publicity director of the Northville Michigan Week committee. At that time the city will turn out at the Community Bldg. to greet its exchange mayor from Saline, Henry Leutheuser. The Northville high school band will play a few marches and council members will present the mayor-for-a-day with a key to the city. Mayor Leutheuser will then be taken on a tour of the State Hospital and through the city and parks of Northville.

Evening Banquet

A Michigan Week banquet will be held in the Community Bldg. Monday evening. The dinner will be open to the public and tickets may be purchased at Freydl Cleaners, G. T. Barry's real estate office, or The Northville Record.

The program will include an invocation by the Rev. Father Anthony Heraty; benediction by the Rev. John O. Taxis, and group singing directed by Bill Williams. Clifton Hill will be the toastmaster.

Judge Nathan J. Kaufman, Judge of Probate in charge of the Juvenile Court, will be the featured speaker for the evening. Judge Kaufman is a veteran of 25 years in the practice of law. He was promoted by Governor Williams to the position of Judge of Probate in charge of the Juvenile Court on April 10, 1954 from Judge of the Common Pleas Court, to which he had been previously appointed by the Governor in December 1953.

Judge N.J. Kaufman

Prior to his appointment to the Common Pleas Court, Judge Kaufman was an assistant prosecutor in Wayne county for seven years, where he was in charge of the civil rights and labor cases. During World War II he was a

Architects Say

Manning & Locklin Property Desirable High School Site

The Manning & Locklin property west of Oakwood subdivision and adjoining the site of Amerman Elementary school on the south and west has been recommended by Eberle M. Smith Associates, Inc., architects and engineers, as the most desirable of four suggested locations for the proposed new Northville high school.

The four possible sites, suggested earlier this year by the Citizens' Advisory Committee to the Board of Education, were rated by the Smith organization as to accessibility, suitability of terrain, convenience of utilities, proximity to school population, probable cost of development and favorable environment. On this basis, the following recommendations were made:

DESIRABLE: Manning-Locklin property; ACCEPTABLE: The Waldo Johnson North Center St. site and the Cass Benton park site; UNDESIRABLE: The Gerald St. area.

Lyndon Welsh, a representative from Eberle Smith, Inc., presented the report to the Northville Board of Education at the May 9 meeting. Board members agreed to arrange a future meeting with Welsh to revisit the sites before making a final decision. R. H. Amerman, school superintendent, said that it would be conceivable that while looking over the four sites the board might find other property that would be suitable.

OK Curriculum Committee
Approval was given to the Northville Curriculum Study Committee to evaluate future curriculum needs of Northville public schools. As additional committee members the board added Rev. John Taxis, Mrs. John W. Swain and Mrs. Richard N. Janes.

The board specifically asked that the committee consider the curriculum of grades 7-12 first. Tentative recommendations for the program for these grades will be needed by the board by Dec. 1, 1956.

The board also asked that a steering committee be appointed to act as a liaison between the advisory committee and the board, and to help plan the activities of the total committee. Monthly progress reports are

Random Notes

From "file 13"

In last week's column, we speculated that the folks at the City Hall might have trouble finding the six Democrats to serve on the election board. The mail brought us the following letter from which we quote:

"File 13 is always an interesting column. Please inform the folks at the City Hall that my last survey showed that the majority of the citizens in Northville were Democrats. . . . Having followed the local returns in recent election quite closely, the above information does come as a bit of a surprise."

With all the wind and hot air (see above) being tossed around by humans during this election year, last week end's tornadoes came as no surprise to some of us. It's just nature's way of striking back.

We're not much for heckling the younger generation. . . . we feel it's sort of like the pot calling the kettle black. . . . but we do have a comment to make which may prove constructive.

"May 9, 1956, marked a significant step in the life of the First Presbyterian church," said the Rev. John O. Taxis, pastor, this week. "On that date the mortgage held on the Presbyterian Manse was burned," he continued, "signifying the completion of another important project in the life and history of the church."

As in the history of most lands in the State of Michigan, this property was turned over by a land grant of the United States of America to its original owner, Alanson Aldrich. According to information in the Abstract of Title, he was the first owner of a large tract of land consisting of 73.66 acres.

This original land grant was attested to in the General Land Office at Washington, D.C. and was signed by the President of the United States, Warren G. Harding. The present property at 542 W. Main St. represents only a small portion of this original land grant and now has become the site of the Presbyterian Manse of the First Church.

The mortgage was contracted Sept. 1, 1950 and satisfied Apr. 24, 1956.

The "Manse", as it is affectionately known throughout the Presbyterian church, is a direct testimony to the Presbyterian heritage that comes from Scotland. It was in this land that the dwelling of the minister, received this name, making it a distinctive and unique appellation to the home of the Presbyterian church's pastor.

Since that time and down through history to the present day the home provided for the pastor of a Presbyterian church has been called "The Manse". The sacrifice, foresightedness and loyalty of many, many people of the past has now become a reality in the present life and history of the First Presbyterian church in its possession of a Manse. In future years, the care and oversight of the manse will be the immediate responsibility of the Trustees under the supervision of the Session.

Robert A. Shafer
Nelson C. Schrader
Martha A. Milne and
E. Jane Wagenschutz

Polling Place

The official polling place for all voters for the school election will be the lobby of the Community Bldg.

Absentee Ballots

Voters who plan to be absent from the city on the day of the election can make an application now at the board of education office for an absentee ballot.

The deadline for application is 2 p.m. Saturday, June 9.

Street Improvement At All Time High

Parking Lots, Alleys, Storm Sewers, Fire Engine Get Place On Budget

Northville's street improvement program this year will run in the neighborhood of $52,600 compared with $32,850 last year, according to tentative budget proposals presented by Budget Director A. Russell Clarke at the city council meeting May 7.

The larger figure is for the 16 months ending June 30, 1957, which is covered by a total property tax levy of $86,228. The smaller figure last year was for the 12 months ended Feb. 28, 1955, when the tax levy was $95,336.

Larger Cash Outlays

Other proposed increased cash outlays this year include $5,000 for welfare costs previously paid by Northville township, $5,000 for a down payment on a new fire engine, $20,000 for parking lots and alleys, $20,000 for storm sewers on Carlyle and Hill streets, $7,500 for the purchase of a street sweeper and $5,000 for the purchase of a quonset building to house street maintenance machinery.

The proposed increase in expenditures and the lower tax levy for the current 16 month period than for the 12 months ended Feb. 28 reflect the city's new income from racing at Northville Downs last year, which amounted to $89,463 on top of $16,000 which was the Downs' usual $500 per night payment to the city for water, police and other municipal services. The $89,463 came as a result of the village incorporating as a city. It gave the city a surplus of approximately $83,000 and made it

NHS Jazz Band To Present Concert

"Lean Baby", "Your Father's Mustache" and "Boogie Blues" will be among the selections to be played at the second annual NHS Jazz show May 25, 8 p.m., in the Community Building.

In addition, there will be trumpet, trombone and tenor saxophone solos.

Members of the band gave a preview of the show at Clarkston high school two weeks ago.

It is rumored that a famous jazz artist will be featured on the program, but his identity is being kept secret.

Tickets can be purchased from any band member or at the door.

$104,000 Race Revenue

The new budget anticipates receipt of a total of $104,000 from racing at Northville Downs this summer against $105,463 a year ago.

Streets To Be Paved

The $52,600 street improvement total includes $21,000 for paving Oakland, Rouge, Carpenter, Grace, Lake, Rayson, N. Rogers, Dubuar and Linden streets, which was delayed by the weather last fall, and $26,600 for curbs and gutters along Fairbrook, S. Wing and First streets. The latter three streets will be paved in the summer of 1957 according to present plans.

Approximately $10,000 is also being spent this summer for a new bridge on High St. north of Randolph to replace the existing masonry structure which is now deteriorating badly.

Reflects Higher Pay

The budget also reflects recent increases in pay of city employees and additional personnel, typical examples being $13,175 for administrative salaries vs. $11,175 last year, $34,340 for regular police salaries vs. $26,579 street personnel $28,000 vs. $25,593.

Budget Director Clarke said the $20,000 allocated for parking lots and alleys will not be sufficient to pay for the type of parking improvements that have been proposed. He estimated their cost at "more nearly $150,000, which would necessitate issuance of revenue bonds to be repaid from parking meter receipts."

He described the proposed budget as "very tight", with a possibility that some items may have to be reshuffled to take care of unforeseen costs.

After the tea, announcement was made of the presentation of awards of merit for outstanding achievement in the field of conservation and civic improvement to the Northville branch.

Following the business meeting annual reports of the officers and standing committees were read. The new president, Mrs. Glenn H. Cummings, then took the chair.

A contribution to the flag fund for the two new flags at the Community Bldg. was approved.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Cordukes, 87, who was the oldest mother present; Mrs. Ellen Hazlett, youngest mother; five months old Janet Lynn Moore, youngest daughter; Mrs. Betty Lonn with the most daughters, (4), and Mrs. W. A. Winger of California, mother coming the longest distance.

200 Attend Banquet For Mrs. Ida Cooke

Two hundred persons honored Mrs. Ida Cooke, retiring Northville teacher, at the banquet at St. Paul's Lutheran church May 8. Mrs. Cooke has taught school in Northville over 40 years.

Due to the large number of persons wishing to pay tribute to Mrs. Cooke, the gift presentation ceremonies following the banquet were held in the Community Bldg. where Scott Cole acted as master of ceremonies. Approximately 400 persons were present.

Mrs. Cooke was presented with gifts of cash from the Teachers' club, townspeople and former students and the junior and senior student councils. A framed portrait of Mrs. Cooke was presented to the school by an anonymous donor. The Teachers' club presented her with luggage and a scrap book containing telegrams and letters.

Miss Barber of Hillsdale college, head of the honorary sorority of which Mrs. Cooke is a member, was present and gave a short talk.

A roll call of Northville high school classes starting with 1916 brought many former students on the floor.

The largest representation of any class was that of 1935. They presented Mrs. Cooke with a large bouquet of red carnations.

Square Dance

The Couples club of the First Presbyterian church is sponsoring a square dance to be held in the parking lot next to the church May 26.

An ice cream social will start festivities at seven o'clock and Jack Worthington of Pontiac will start calling the square dance at eight o'clock.

Tickets are $1 and the public is invited.

What's Cooking?

(What's your favorite dish? If you will share it with other Northville housewives, please call The Northville Record's society editor, telephone 200.)

One of the most pleasant of bells is the one written about by Byron—"That all-soothing, overpowering knell, the Tocsin of the soul—the dinner bell". And especially pleasant it is when a turkey scallop casserole dish is steaming hot and fragrant on the dinner table.

One of Northville's newer residents, Mrs. Donald Hannabarger, has found this casserole a favorite with her family. It is a tasty way to use up the last of that turkey or chicken, too.

The Hannabargers, with their two sons, Gregory and Cress, bought the Adrian Willis home on N. Wing St. last year and were featured in a "Newcomer" article in the Record several months ago.

TURKEY SCALLOP

1 cup diced celery
½ cup water
¼ cup butter or margarine, melted
2½ cups ½" bread cubes, toasted
Milk
¼ cup butter or margarine
¼ cup enriched flour
½ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. poultry seasoning
½ tsp. pepper
1 cup diced turkey

Cook celery in water until just tender. Pour butter over toast cubes. Combine liquor from celery with enough milk to make two cups. Melt remaining butter and stir in flour.

Add 2 cups liquid and stir constantly until thick. Add seasonings.

U.S. Fortunes To Be Book Review Topic

Mrs. C. W. McLoughlin will review "The Age of the Moguls" by Stewart H. Holbrook at the May 25 meeting of the Northville Review club. Mrs. L. M. Eaton of 365 Eaton Dr. will be hostess.

The author has written a fascinating history of the vast fortunes in the United States accumulated during the last half of the 19th century. Rockefeller, Carnegie, Astor, Gould and Ford are some of the familiar fortunes written about by the author. "What Did They Do With It?" forms one of the most interesting chapters in the book.

Arrange turkey and celery in a layer over half the bread cubes in a shallow quart casserole. Pour sauce over top with remaining bread cubes and press down. Bake in a moderate oven at 350 degrees until heated through... about 20 to 25 minutes. Garnish with parsley. This recipe makes 4 servings.

The meaningful emblem of Body by Fisher

When you see "sterling" on silver you know what it means—solid silver, all the way through.

And when you see the medallion "Body by Fisher" on an automobile it means much the same thing—quality all the way through, in things unseen as well as on the visible, gleaming surface.

The significance of this emblem cannot be tested on the showroom floor. Its meaning was not built up in a day but only after long years in which owners learned that "Body by Fisher" was a veritable symbol of solid, enduring satisfaction.

Only one who has owned a Chevrolet for several years can fully know the deep sense of satisfaction this emblem pledges. It is the warranty of an inner soundness that your eye or your touch cannot test. And only Chevrolet in the low-price field is entitled to wear the small, proud plaque that proclaims "Body by Fisher."

3 NEW DISTRICTS URGED

Zoning Bd. Claims M-1 Inadequate

Proposed Districts Control Construction In Industrial Areas

In an effort to adequately control industrial construction in Novi township, the zoning board recommended creating 3 new industrial district classifications at their May 11 meeting.

In addition, the board recommended raising the standards of residential dwellings in the township by voting to increase the square footage requirements approximately 20%.

The new districts, which were recommended with the unanimous approval of the board, replace the former all-inclusive M-1 industrial district. As formerly set up, the M-1 district prohibited very few industries and attempted little control over the industries permitted.

The newly recommended districts, M-1, M-2 and M-3, allow a graduation of industrial uses. All three have provisions for greenbelts and adequate landscaping, but vary in usage and road-frontage requirements.

M-1, the most restrictive of the new classifications, requires a 25-foot front yard and the business must be wholly enclosed in the building erected.

M-2 districts require a 50-foot front yard and permit outside storage areas surrounded by fences and green belts.

M-3 will be the district with the broadest restrictions and will require a 100-foot or more setback from the road depending on the height of the building constructed.

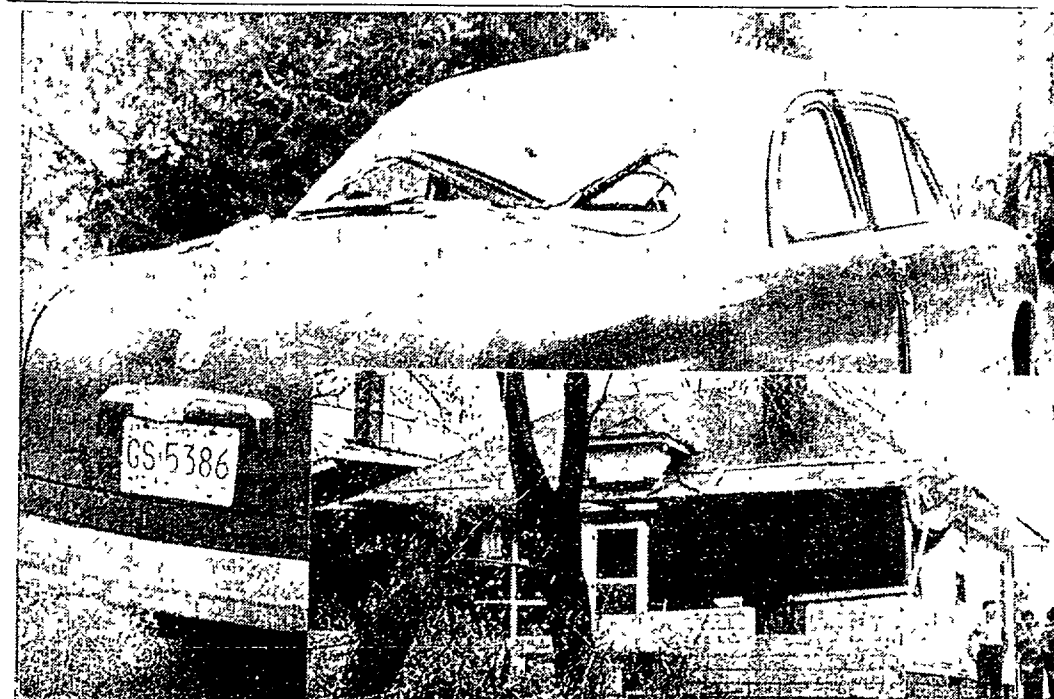

In addition to recommending the adoption of the new districts, the zoning board took action to two rezoning requests in the vicinity of the new Lincoln plant on Wixom Rd.

A 50-acre parcel southwest of Wixom Rd. and Grand River was recommended for change from R-1-F Small Farms to M-2 Industrial at the request of the E&L Transport Co. of Dearborn.

The firm hauls vehicles for the Lincoln division and asked that the site be rezoned for use as a

Farmington Twp. Board Rezones Area

Referendum Vote Opponents To Seek

An initial step toward the establishment of a harness racing track in Farmington township was taken by the township board Tuesday night when it passed a resolution rezoning a 224-acre site for track use.

The board's resolution changed the tract, located at 10-Mile Rd. east of Haggerty Rd., from a residential district to a commercial district, thus allowing establishment of a race track.

Tuesday night's board decision overruled previous action by the Farmington township zoning board in refusing to recommend approval of the rezoning request at the present time.

Opponents of the rezoning are expected to make the next move by petitioning the board for a referendum vote on the question. According to Supervisor Ward Eagle, the citizens objecting to the rezoning have 30 days from the date of adoption of the amendment to file referendum petitions.

Approximately 650 signatures, 10 per cent of the qualified voters of the township, are needed to put the issue up to a vote.

Announced promoters of the track are B. F. Gregorie, George Kovacs and Vreeland.

Gregorie, spokesman for the group, says his group plans a 5/8-mile track to rival anything in the country. Fully enclosed, the track will have a seating capacity of 12,000.

Gregorie was formerly associated with the Hazel Park track. Kovacs is a Novi plastics manufacturer and Vreeland is a Walled Lake beer distributor.

Michigan State Racing Commissioner James Inglis said that no application for a harness track license in the Farmington area had as yet been made to his office.

No tracks are allowed to operate in Michigan without securing such a license and racing dates which are also determined by the state.

Spruce Up That Old Mail Box, P.O. Dept. Says

Last week was designated as National Clean-Up Paint-Up Fix-Up Week and Novi Postmistress Marjorie Watson reminds residents that May 21-26 has been designated as Rural Mail Box Improvement Week.

So to all residents who included their mail boxes in their clean-up, paint-up, fix-up campaigns, Mrs. Watson and the rural carrier Bill Rackov wish to extend their thanks.

And for all residents who have neglected the battered but faithful old mail box out on the road, they have the following suggestions:

Names of box owners should be inscribed on the side visible to the carrier, and boxes and supports should be kept painted.

Weeds and debris should be cleared away from the road side of the box and the box should be at the proper height so the carrier can place mail in the box without difficulty.

Names should also be painted clearly and legibly on each box. Last but not least, make sure the door on the box closes so the mail will remain dry during wet weather.

Freak Storms Hit Novi Over Weekend

Effects of last week end's freak weather disturbances were felt throughout Novi township, according to Novi police.

More than 50 reports of property damage were received by police Saturday afternoon alone following a hail storm during which hail stones as large as a person's fist were reported coming to earth. Hardest hit in the Novi area by the falling stones was Bell's Greenhouse, 29100 Wixom Rd. Owner Raymond Bell estimated approximately 350 windows broken during the storm.

A small tornado struck the Walled Lake area late Saturday evening causing minor property damage on the northwest side of the lake. After veering across the lake, it came to shore at 1171 East Lake Dr. taking a portion of the roof off the Rudolph Rozek home and dropping it on a car in Rozek's back yard. In addition, the tornado uprooted several trees on his property. Adjoining property owners suffered relatively light damage from falling limbs.

Friday evening, as the result of a severe rain storm, most of the Willowbrook area was without light service and some telephones were reported out of order.

Northville City Commission Minutes

A regular meeting of the Northville City Commission was held at the City Hall Monday evening, May 7th, 1956 at 8:00 P.M.
Present: Mayor Claude N. Ely, Councilmen Allen, Canterbury, Reed and Stubenvoll.

Minutes of last regular meeting read and approved.

The following bills were presented for payment:

General Fund $13,141.79
Water Fund $3,229.35

Moved by Canterbury, seconded by Stubenvoll, that these bills be allowed and paid. Carried.

Moved by Stubenvoll, seconded by Reed, that the following resolution be adopted:

"WHEREAS, The Northville City Council has determined by unanimous resolution that no advantage to the city would result from competitive bidding for the purchase of voting machines, the requirement to advertise for sealed bids on such machines is hereby waived."

Motion was carried.

Moved by Allen, seconded by Canterbury that the highlights of regulations governing foodhandler's cards as set forth by the Wayne County Health Dept. (which also covers our local food-handling establishments since the Wayne Co. Health Dept. is acting in the capacity of Health Officer for the City of Northville) be published in the Northville Record. Motion was carried.

Communication was read from the Wayne Co. Road Commission establishing right-of-way width on Sheldon Rd. between Joy Rd. and Edward Hines Dr. as 120 ft. for all future development.

The monthly reports of Chief Jos. E. Denton and Fire Chief Wm. McGee were presented for April, 1956, and it was moved by Mayor Ely, seconded by Stubenvoll, that these reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

Moved by Allen, seconded by Stubenvoll, that City Dog Ordinance No. 130 be amended making the period of vaccination within one year preceding the application for license instead of sixty days as the ordinance now reads. Carried.

Public Works Dept. requested permission, either by bid or hiring someone, to put sewer across the creek to the new barns belonging to Northville Downs. Councilman Allen was authorized to get what bids he can on the job without delay, then call the Councilman reporting results, and formal action will be taken at the next regular meeting.

A resolution was introduced regarding the purchase of four Shoup Voting Machines at a cost of $6,692.00, the sum of $1,692.00

Tornado Strikes Five Miles From Northville

BY HAROLD S. HARTLEY

At quarter to eight Saturday night, May 12, a whirling cone of black cloud roared from the northwest to strike the farm of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Gale of 54280 W. 8-Mile Rd. near Chubb Rd. Its fury tore apart a big, solid, all-metal quonset barn; hurling its corrugated walls over fields, into trees and on the lawn of a house across the street. The heavy steel rafters and braces were a twisted heap on the ground.

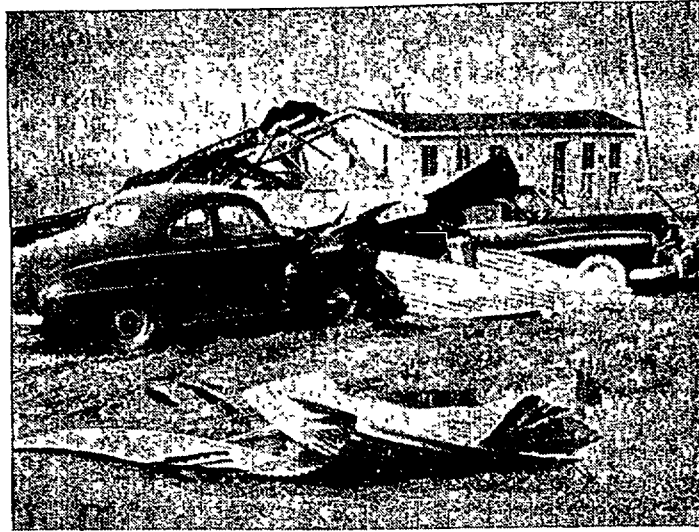

In singling out the quonset barn, the tornado cone left intact a large barn close to it on one side and a small shed on the other. Stated Mrs. Gale: "We saw it coming and ran into the cellar." Others in the family said the tornado rose and fell as it sped toward the farm.

A little over an hour earlier, at 6:20 p.m., another tornado had already wreaked even greater damage in South Lyon, almost totally destroying the cinder block factory of Henry Bashian & Sons at 28093 Pontiac Trail. The twister took the roof, lifted it high over trees across the road and scattered the pieces in the field. A barn nearby was also leveled.

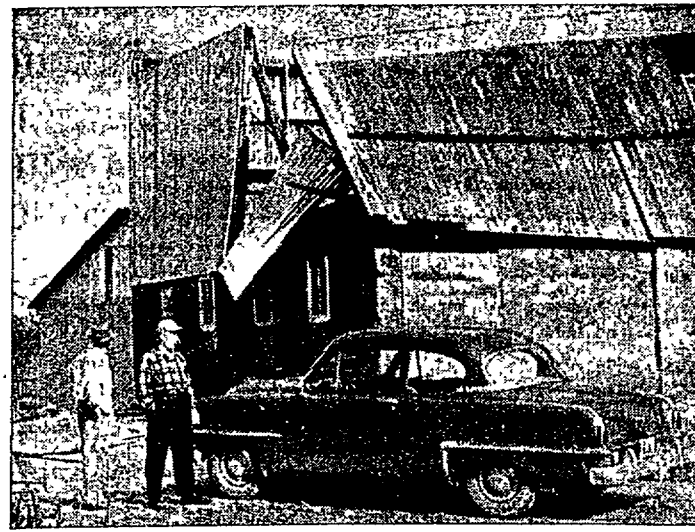

Farther south, on 11-Mile Rd., the tornado struck again, uprooting half the trees in an apple orchard, ripping off the end of a huge barn and tearing part of the house roof as well as shattering windows. Nearby, the home of another farmer lost every single window and the barn was partly destroyed.

The twister then made its last attack at the home of Darold Heidt of 25450 Pontiac Trail where it snapped off and rooted out five great evergreens, crumpled the barn roof and smashed two windows in the house. Surprisingly, trees on three sides of the house were torn down although the house itself suffered little damage.

SHEETS OF METAL were blown all over 8-Mile Rd. near Chubb when the tornado completely demolished a quonset hut. —Photo by H. Hartley, Jr.

ARE YOU INTERESTED?

An evangelist recounted how he courted a young lady for the 1st time. He said that after some time he carefully approached the subject of marriage "I'm very much interested in marriage," was her reply. A little later he talked with her again after they had become still better acquainted. "Are you still interested in marriage?" "Oh yes," she replied, "I'm still interested very much." Still later he asked her, "Are you interested in setting a date and clinching the matter?" "No, I'm not," she replied, "I'm interested in marriage but I don't intend to get tied up." The evangelist then found another young lady who was not only interested in marriage but quite ready to get married right away. As I thought about this, I thought of the number of people who seem to have an interest in becoming a Christian. They have faith to believe that Christ died for their sins and that He arose again. They believe that God offers forgiveness and life eternal if they will but enter into an agreement with Him. But, though they are interested they are not interested to the point that they will give up their sins and yield themselves to Him. Surely He, too, will turn elsewhere to those who will receive Him.

Elementary School Teachers End 16-Week Workshop

REPORT CARDS COMMITTEE . . . Pearl Hensch, Elsie Freydl, Cathie Cline, Ada Fritz, Leah Stormont, Joan Reimer, Irene Janckie and Margaret DeKett.

INDIVIDUAL DIFFERENCES COMMITTEE . . . Ruth Carter, Edna Huff, Betty Ann Watson, Helen T. Bradshaw, Ora Lee Carroll, Isabelle Spooner, Lenore Upthegrove, Grace Pollock, Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Hise and Eugene Alexander, psychologist.

Will Make Progress Report To Bd. of Education May 23

Northville elementary school teachers completed their 16-week workshop Friday, May 11.

They don't expect blue ribbons or merit badges for paying a tuition fee from their own salaries and spending over 40 hours in after-school classes; they don't expect anything, but you, as a taxpayer, should be interested in the facts of this unusual program.

Northville voters recently approved a millage increase for their schools which included a salary increase for the teachers. The increase brought the salaries up to the average wage scale in our area, but Northville elementary teachers are doing things that surpass the actions of the average teacher.

Richard Kay, principal of Amerman school, has placed the workshop enrollment at practically 100%. Of the 34 elementary school personnel possible for enrollment, 29 have attended the meetings. The five who were not in attendance were interested, but because of previous commitments involving school activities and for other legitimate reasons they could not enroll.

The important thing is that enrollment in these classes was not compulsory. The teachers then must have a genuine interest to improve their work and their schools. It would seem safe to assume that they're not just punching a time clock and they're not looking for praise.

They began their studies before their pay increase was decided and during the recent election they never made it an issue. They didn't mention their project because they didn't want to influence voters.

The idea of an elementary teachers' workshop began one year ago. According to Richard Kay, the teachers were required to attend a one-day meeting to discuss school problems. It was at that meeting that the teachers recognized the need for further study and made plans to initiate a more integrated and supervised program.

In December of last year they decided to arrange the special study and a few months later began their 16-week course in cooperation with Wayne university. The fact that the course drew close to 100% attendance was extremely gratifying to the group as a whole. As one teacher put it, "It's a great feeling to know that the group is pulling together, wanting only the best for their schools."

The course, "Local School Curriculum Planning", has been supervised by Carroll Munshaw, deputy superintendent of Wayne county schools who has had a vast amount of experience in directing off-campus courses. The teachers divided themselves into three groups to study their most pressing problems. They were:

1. Curriculum;
2. Marking report cards and parent-teacher relationships;
3. Individual differences in children.

Hundreds of books were made available to the teachers through Wayne university and the Wayne County office. The workshop also included visits by resource people, movies, conferences with parents, questionnaires and numerous hours of research and study.

Now the course is completed. The teachers will present their progress report to the board of education at a dinner-meeting May 23. They may also make certain recommendations for new ideas to be put into practice next year.

Whatever is said at the meeting and whatever conclusion the board of education arrives at, you can be sure of one thing... a great deal of thought and work and cooperation has been put into the composition of every word of the report... and who can deny that a contribution of time and thought and effort is anything but commendable and worthy of consideration.

The Scriptural readings will include Paul's statement to the Philippians (3:13, 14): "Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended; but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be read the following (203:13): "Spiritual perception brings out the possibilities of being, destroys reliance on aught but God, and so makes man the image of his Maker in deed and in truth."

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By the Reverend Ivan E. Hodgson
First Methodist Church of Northville

As I sit in my study wondering what rays of light emanating from this shrine would be most helpful to the readers of this article, I am tempted to do something that might appear quite unorthodox—the reporting of the General Conference of the Methodist Church. No one was ever more right than the Biblical writer who said that no man liveth or dieth to himself. This is true no less of the various denominations that make up what we call the professing church. What a denomination affirms as to its evangelical faith and social responsibility is germane to the work of all our churches. It was rumored that even the political parties were waiting the decisions of this largest Protestant Church.

It was the privilege of Mrs. Hodgson and myself to attend this Conference. This was made possible through the generosity of the local church and the fact that the meeting place was not too far away. It was a never to be forgotten experience, especially in view of the fact that leaders felt that this was the most crucial Conference in over a century—the issues were most pertinent. This law-making body of our church met in Minneapolis, Minn. April 25 through May 9. The legislative body was made up of 766 delegates; equally divided as to ministers and laymen, representing 30 countries and 132 conferences, 34 of them overseas, seated at tables on the floor of the Municipal Auditorium, with hundreds and at times thousands of visitors in the balcony. The Council of Bishops (75 members) were seated on the platform, with secretaries, members of the Judicial Council and the Press seated between them and the delegation. The meeting began with the service of Holy Communion with the bishops of the church urging the delegates in a statement to "pray that this will be a service in which each of you will be blessed and one that will create the spiritual atmosphere for this General Conference." The conference was immediately organized with every care for efficient operation—the delegation being reminded that it cost twelve dollars a minute to run the Conference. In characteristic legislative fashion the delegates were assigned to various committees with the responsibility of processing nearly five thousand memorials. It may appear that the Methodist Church, being a connectional church with an episcopal government, is not very democratic; yet the reverse is nearer the truth. Any conference, local church, or individual member can send in a request (called memorials) for a change in church policy. The record number of memorials indicated that the laymen were outspoken. These memorials were given the most prayerful consideration by sub-committee whose duty it was to report to the larger committee. One memorial even called for a change in the Apostles' Creed. The Methodist Church can do a lot of things but I think this order was too great for her. In all my experience in church matters, I have never seen a more conscientious group of delegates. After most careful study and approval by the various committees, they reported to the legislative body for approval, disapproval, or amending their report. Oftimes the law-making body went beyond the recommendation of the Bishops or committees.

There were more than several major accomplishments of the General Conference along these lines:

1. Desegregation. This was the most crucial issue which the church had to face in view of the fact that it is both a national and international church; nationalists might divide her but internationalists insisted that the church is one in Christ. After one of the most eloquent expressions of the work of the Holy Spirit, procedures were adopted permitting integration of the church's racially segregated as soon as possible. The Methodist Church is opposed to segregation.

2. Full clergy rights to women. The largest number of memorials was in this area. After much debate, the conference went farther than the recommendation of the Committee on the Ministry by granting them full clergy rights.

3. Theological Education. Two new theological seminaries are to be built and ten others to be expanded.

The Teens Speak Up

B. G.

CHARLENE

JIM

Teenagers this week confirmed our suspicion that "all work and no play makes for a dull day". A vacation from school they agree, is something that you have to have regularly to maintain that happy balance.

We asked the teens:

Are you looking forward to summer vacation?

What will you do?

Would you approve of a law requiring students to attend school 12 months of the year and graduate at 16?

JIM COWIE, 15, freshman, "Sure am looking forward to summer. No worries about school. I like to swim and play tennis." About the proposed law Jim said, "That wouldn't be too good. Kids would get bored with school and not learn much. They should have time for relaxation."

MARY MacDERMAID, 17, junior, said, "I sure am. I plan to get a job and save some money for college." Mary likes to roller skate and enter water-ski competition in the summer. "I don't think a person should graduate at 16," Mary said, "they're not mature enough to face life. They wouldn't get the full benefit of an education if they had to go to school 12 months of the year."

BEN MOSHER, 15, sophomore, said, "I'm looking forward to the vacation... anything to get out of school. What a relief! I might try to find a job this summer and I want to play baseball with the 1600 recreation team." Ben doesn't like the idea of 12 months of school. "The students need some relief," he said, "we work too hard. Besides the teachers enjoy the vacation as much as we do, if not more."

B. G. WILSON, 16, junior, said, "I'mmmmm, I love vacation time." B.G. is going to work and save some money for business school. "I'll do a lot of swimming, too," she said. "If we didn't have a vacation we'd take it in school," she said, "by not doing any

Dr. Harker Resigns As President of Alma College

Dr. Stanley Harker resigned as president of Alma college May 9 to accept the same position at his Alma Mater, Grove City college in Pennsylvania.

Dr. Harker has served Alma as president since January 1951.

Alma college is owned and operated by the Presbyterian Churches of Michigan, whose financial support of the colleges has more than doubled under Dr. Harker's administration.

Dr. Harker has personally visited almost all of the 250 Presbyterian churches in Michigan. As a result the percentage of Presbyterian students in the student body has risen from 32 percent to 51 percent during these five years.

Grove City college is also a Presbyterian college, about midway between Pittsburgh and Erie. Both Dr. and Mrs. Harker are graduates of the college, as is their oldest daughter, Ruth Harker Smith.

Mrs. Harker's father, Dr. A. J. Calderwood, also an alumnus of the college, was dean of the college for 32 years.

homework and just goofin' off. You have to feel free sometime."

RICHARD BUCKLEY, 15, sophomore, said, "Very much. I go out to Rifle lake and boat and water-ski for about 30 days. Students need a vacation during the summer," he said, "at least a month. They're like working people, they get tired of the same old grind week after week."

CHARLENE BOYD, 16, junior, said, "I sure do think about this coming vacation. It will be my last one because when I graduate next year I'll go to work." Charlene likes to swim and play tennis. "I wouldn't approve of graduation at 16," she said, "or going to school 12 months of the year. The kids would just fool around more and not learn as much."

Student Council Nominations In

Nine nominations have been made to fill three positions on the senior high student council.

A campaign assembly will be held May 25, according to Frederick Stefanski, assistant high school principal and sponsor of the council. Winners will be announced at the honors assembly May 29.

1st Grade Class Experiments With Business Projects

The boys and girls in Miss Margaret Sours' first grade class at Amerman school have been experimenting with two business projects: the grocery store and newspaper.

Following is a story that the class wrote about their enterprises:

Our Grocery Store

We wrote for cans of food. The canning company sent us posters and signs too. The janitor found us some orange boxes. We covered the boxes with crepe paper. We wrote thank you letters to the food companies. Now we play store every day. We have fun.

Our Newspaper

The class wrote a newspaper every day for one week. Following are some of the stories that went into the newspaper. The names of the boy and girl reporters are in dark type.

"We went for a ride to look for trailers and on the way back we saw an ambulance," by Jack Willis.

"My baby just started to pull hair," by Sandy Nairn.

"My sister came downstairs and asked my father if she could go to work," by Ann Gacknitz.

"I went to the race track and saw a little colt. It had curls all the way down to its tail," by Lynda Bogart.

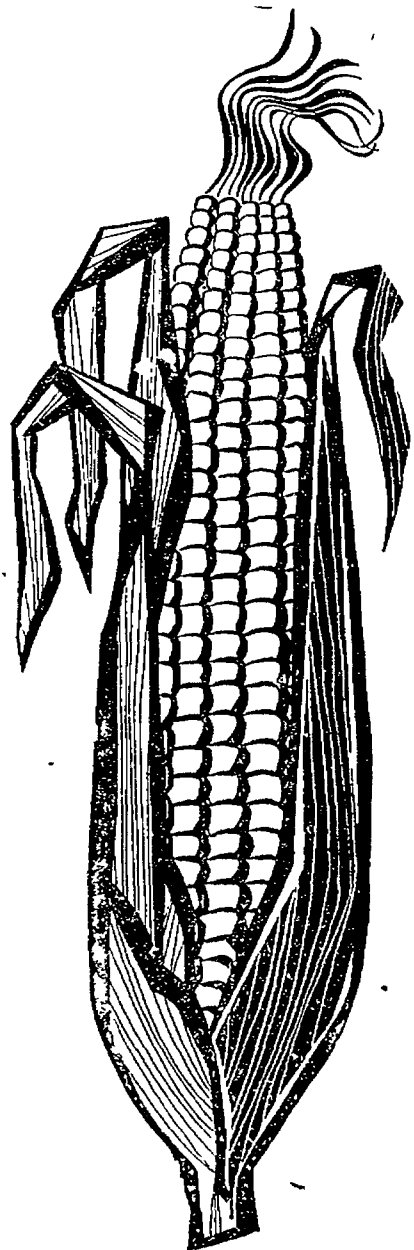

"My cat has been gone for two weeks," by Penny Newman.

"The baseball season is here," by David Wilder.

"I played baseball one day. I wasn't looking and Jerry threw the ball and I hit it," by Billy Forsyth.

World's most popular POWER STEERING?

Buick ROADMASTER 6-Passenger 4-Door Riviera

Right this way!

EVERY YEAR, more and more of the new cars sold are equipped with Power Steering. Many a man has bought it "for the wife"—then wondered how he ever got along without it.

And if you have in mind a new car with this increasingly popular feature, you ought to consider this fact:

Since the beginning of last year, Buick has sold far more new cars equipped with Power Steering* than any other car—over 20,000 more in 1955 alone.

That's the record—and the reasons for it are just as impressive.

Buick brings you In-Line Safety Power Steering. In addition to the one-finger ease of turning common to all such systems in varying degree, it has several distinct advantages.

It gives you surer, steadier, safer control at highway speeds—because it retains that good natural "feel" of the road. (That's something you really should compare.)

On the other hand, it gives you more power assist when you need it most—at crawl speeds and at full stop. For parking and other tight maneuvering, Buick's Power Steering makes wheel turning nearly twice as easy as other types of systems. (And that's by engineering computation.)

Add another plus: this Buick feature works through the new Buick front end—where a unique new geometry and steering linkage bring a sweet new response and a wonderfully easy handling and a surer "sense of direction" even to new Buicks not equipped with the power system.

So there you are—and here we are, waiting to prove it all to you.

Waiting, also, to let you try the new thrills to be had in Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo®—where getaway response and gas mileage both step up even before you switch the pitch.

And waiting to show you how the highest power yet, the sweetest ride yet and the boldest styling yet—all help to make this bright new beauty the Best Buick Yet.

Today is fine with us. How about you?

Police Chief Tells How To Keep The Burglar Away

Mayor Claude N. Ely recently proclaimed the week of May 6 through 12 as Burglary Prevention Week in Northville.

Chief of Police Joseph Denton pointed out that burglary is the one crime that always merits the attention of the police, department. Experienced burglars know when to invade a house. It's up to the home owner to fool him by creating the impression someone is home, though the house may be empty.

Many people leave their homes for an evening, week end or vacation and fail to take the simple precautions dictated by good common sense, Chief Denton said. These citizens wouldn't think of leaving the front door open or hanging up a sign reading "Burglars Welcome — Nobody Home Here", etc. they give all the indications necessary, such as newspapers piled at the front door, a totally dark house, or even worse, lights left burning 24 hours a day.

Preventive suggestions to follow according to Chief Denton are:

1. DO leave a lamp or two connected to an automatic timer or arrange with some friend to turn lights on and off regularly each evening. This makes the home "lived-in" and is your best protective measure.
2. DO cancel all deliveries including milk, newspapers, etc. Have the post office or a neighbor hold your mail until you return.

12 NHS Teachers To Attend Assembly At Clarkston

Twelve Northville high school teachers will attend the general spring assembly of the eight school league at Clarkston May 21.

Lee, Donald Van Ingen, Lemoyne Markham, Florence Panattoni, Ronald Schipper, Charles Yanne, Frederick Stefanski, Albert Jones and Merritt Meaker.

ADVERTISING Benefits YOU!

3. DO close and lock all windows and doors, including basement, porch and garage. Remove keys from inside of doors and use double locks wherever possible.
4. DO have your lawn mowed and sidewalk swept by a neighbor at least once a week.
5. DO tell one neighbor you are leaving. Have them check your house periodically and notify the police if they see anyone prowling around.
6. DO notify your local police officials as to the date you are leaving and when you will return.
7. DON'T close blinds or draw shades, leave them as you normally do when you're home.
8. DON'T leave valuables lying around the house. Place them in a safety deposit box.
9. DON'T tell friends, neighbors or work associates of the valuable possessions you have around the house.
10. DON'T advertise your departure with an item in the paper and don't broadcast the news to your whole neighborhood.

Deadline May 30

Recruits Wanted By State Police

Sergeant Henry P. Kozowicz, commanding officer of the Detroit Post of the Michigan State Police, has issued a reminder that young men desiring to become State Police officers have only until midnight of May 30 to file applications for the next training school.

Recruits are being sought to fill 168 new positions authorized at the 1956 session of the state legislature.

"A career in the Michigan State Police is now especially attractive because of higher pay and other benefits as well as occupation," Sgt. Kozowicz said. "Recruits begin earning a good salary right from the time they enter training school and increases follow regularly thereafter, with a high in the trooper rank alone of $5,800 a year. In addition, troopers receive $900 a year in subsistence pay, longevity pay, their uniforms, paid vacations and sick leave.

"Promotions carry substantial increases in pay and at the end of 25 years of service an officer is eligible for a pension of half his pay which goes to his widow in event of his death. She also receives the pension should he die because of a duty incurred illness or accident before he completes his 25 years.

To be eligible to apply, a man must be between 21 and 29 years of age, inclusive, not less than five feet, nine inches in height, in good health and of good character. He can be either married or single.

Applicants should go to the nearest State Police post, or talk to any State Police officer. They may also write to the State Civil Service Commission or the Michigan State Police in Lansing.

"Marriages may be made in heaven, but man is responsible for the maintenance work!"

Rain Washes Out Opening Program At Wolverine

Torrential downpours washed out the opening day program at Wolverine Raceway Wednesday, May 9. It was the first time since 1950 that a night of Wolverine racing had been cancelled on account of rain. The tradition of racing every night regardless of weather was established by Owen G. Owen, vice president and operational manager, waited until 7:45 Wednesday evening before he reluctantly called it off.

The elements were scarcely more favorable on the following night, but this time the trotters got the 1956 in Michigan under way to the delight of 7,193 loyal fans who wagered $291,779 on the nine races. Despite rain, mud and cold the program drew 390 more than had turned out a year ago when the weather was perfect.

Northville Owner Wins

The first winner of the year was Iva Blackstone, 4-year old chestnut pacing mare owned by Ernie Sworthwood of Northville. Driver Duane Hoose drove a smartly planned race to post the triumph. Ralph Sugg piloted Paul Scott to a triumph in the second race for a $70.80 daily double payoff.

Wolverine will have only horse races until Monday, May 21 when the runners will go to the post at Hazel Park. With a break in the weather, Wolverine's nightly handle may pass $300,000 for the first time. The present high is 1953's average handle of $297,657 per night.

In the event of rainy weather, the meeting will be held in the scout hall.

YMCA Offers Camp Program To Boys

The camp program stresses swimming for both beginners and advanced swimmers. Out-of-camp trips are also a large part of the program, especially canoe trips. Other camp activities include riflery, archery, handicraft, nature study and camp crafts.

Local boys may plan to go together in either the first or fourth period. The first period of 12 days starts June 24 and the fourth period starts Aug. 5. In addition two special 6-day sessions are open this year. One starts Aug. 5 and ends Aug. 11.

Inquiries about camp and camp registrations may be made with Arnet J. Cole, camp director, at the Ann Arbor YMCA.

At What Age Should SAVING Start?

Many, many First Federal customers have had savings accounts for their children, opened soon after the youngsters were born. They start with a small account for the new baby. Then, it's surprising how such savings grow with money gifts for Christmas and birthdays. Later, the child's own after-school earnings are added. Besides offering important training in thrift, this plan builds savings for college, or for a start in business. Savings here are insured to $10,000.

Former N'ville. Man Promoted By FCDA To Top Legal Post

Word was received from Albion, Mich. this week that Atty. Philip C. Baldwin, son of the late Richard T. Baldwin, former editor of the Record, was promoted to acting general legal counsel of the Federal Civil Defense Administration in Battle Creek recently.

Baldwin spent much of his youth in Northville. According to his mother, Mrs. Don Harrington of Battle Creek, Baldwin and Fred Casterline were great aviation enthusiasts. "They spent many hours making model airplanes," Mrs. Harrington said, "and once they gave a public exhibition of flying their planes from the roof of the present Record building."

Baldwin continues to reside in Albion with his wife and four children. Besides his mother he has a sister, Mrs. Russell M. Atchison of Northville.

Baldwin was a B-29 pilot during World War II and graduated from Albion college and the University of Michigan law school. He was city attorney in Albion for the years 1953-54 and was city civil defense director from 1950 until he took over the fulltime FCDA legal post in 1954.

7 Northville Residents Paint Pastor's Study ...

Five children's wards at Maybury Sanatorium have a completely new look, thanks to the efforts of seven Northville residents.

Mrs. Herman Hartley, Mrs. Joseph Sands, Mrs. Cy Frid, Mrs. Donald Sober, Dick Lobdell and Miss Sherrill Loutan, under the direction of Mrs. Sidney Junod, donated their time and labor for six days, the time required to complete the decorating project.

The annex next to the nurses' home was recently remodeled into wards for children. The walls and furnishings were drab in color and started Miss Ada Blucher, RN, in charge of the children's unit, thinking.

"I felt that something could be done to make the wards more interesting for the little bed patients," Miss Blucher said, "and with the advice of Mrs. George Chabut, the appointment of director in charge was given to Mrs. Junod.

Woodwork was revamped, walls and ceilings were painted light pastel shades and dark furniture was given a new color treatment.

Miss Loutan, an eighth grade student at Northville school, drew murals of birds, animals, flowers and nursery rhymes on the walls. Other members painted the figures and added some of their own.

When the young TB patients moved into their quarters recently they were delighted with the change and the happiness glowing in their eyes was all the payment that the Northville Samaritans could want.

5. Social Practices. The Conference confirmed the Council of Bishop's stand against legalized liquor traffic, gambling and the use of tobacco. It gave its official sanction to birth-control and postponed action on a move to liberalize the church's regulations on marriages of divorced persons. The Conference showed a great tendency to be conservative concerning social liberties and aggressive in the areas of spiritual responsibility. One of the high points of the conference was the prophetic utterance of Dr. Alan Walker, a Methodist Evangelist from Australia, who warned the audience that our churches may be half-empty in another generation, instead of being crowded as they are today, unless the Church is willing to take its stand and declare itself in Christian terms with reference to racism and war, and a stand against the evangel of the Whole Gospel for the Whole World".

May the fruitage of this General Conference make it more difficult for the exponents of evil and more reassuring for the advocates of right.
