

New Race Track North of City Now a Possibility

The possibility of another race track within ten miles of Northville loomed large this week as the Novi township board approved a controversial rezoning that would make construction of the track possible.

The approval came Friday night after an angry public hearing in which residents hurled charges of "manipulation", "evasiveness" and "the run-around" at zoning board members.

The decision came less than ten minutes after the end of a public hearing in which almost 200 township residents argued for and against the proposed track.

The huge crowd, which caused adjournment of the hearing from the packed township hall chambers to the Novi Community building, was near-unanimous in its opposition to the project.

Though officially deciding only on a request for rezoning a 600-acre site at Grand River and Meadowbrook from "light industry" to "heavy industry", the board in effect gave its approval of the track. Without the approved rezoning, the track would have been stymied.

For more than an hour, residents failed to gain admission that a race track was the prime consideration at the Grand River site. Board members denied official knowledge of track plans, saying they had heard only "hearsay". A spokesman for Dr. August Holcomb, owner of the property, said only that "various" heavy industries were being considered for the site.

It was then that angry citizens rose to their feet and charged "evasiveness", "manipulation" and "the run-around".

The ice was broken when James Wheaton, 40309 11 Mile road, addressed questions to George Kovacs, Walled Lake industrialist and a member of the syndicate backing the proposed track.

Wheaton asked Kovacs if he or a group of which he is a member has an option on the Holcomb property. Kovacs refused to answer.

Wheaton then asked if Kovacs was ready to give the zoning board plans and specification for a proposed race track and to answer questions concerning it.

Kovacs replied, "That depends on what the questions are," but would say no more.

Tempers became still hotter as half a dozen residents rose to condemn any possibility of a race track.

Kovacs said, "We're not going to expose anything until we're sure of this deal going through." He then sat down.

B. F. Gregoric, a partner of Kovacs, rose next and went to considerable length explaining certain details of the proposed track.

"We've been working on this since 1949," he said, "and at the time there was no opposition. We had to stop our planning during and after the Korean situation because of a shortage of materials."

"Now we're ready to go again and suddenly we find that half the township is opposed to a track. Well, if Novi doesn't want it, we'll go elsewhere. I know of at least two other communities that would love to have it."

Gregoric's last remark brought sarcastic applause.

Gregoric said further that his group hopes to bring polo, professional football and other sports to the track in addition to harness racing.

One resident then rose and said angrily:

"Why is it that no one would even admit until now that there is a plan for a race track at that site? After we argue ourselves blue for an hour, it finally comes out that there are very elaborate plans for a race track after all."

From there on, the meeting turned into an angry denunciation of the track and a wandering discussion of whether the group should be polled.

John Flannery, president of the Novi Civic Association, rose repeatedly to demand a poll of the residents present but his request went unanswered.

Shortly before 11 p.m., Board Chairman James Irwin accepted a motion to adjourn, asked for a vote of members and called the meeting to a close. Minutes later, as residents filed out, board members voted to rezone the site.

Though Irwin consistently denied official knowledge of race track plans and said the board was considering only a rezoning of the site and not future use of it, he requested Township Attorney Archie Leonard's opinion on what recourse township residents have if they continue to disapprove the rezoning.

Leonard explained that opponents of the rezoning may petition for a township-wide vote within 30 days after the rezoning is adopted by the township board. The adoption can come only after county agencies have approved it, however.

Leonard further explained that if a race track eventually is constructed and proves to be a "nuisance", residents can file with circuit court for a bill of relief.

Supervisor Frazer Staman, attending as a resident, appealed to those present to consider the beneficial aspects of a race track.

"Two leading public utilities call Novi township the hottest spot in the state," Staman said. "But the township simply can't realize its potential unless there is a good solid tax base. And something like this $5,500,000 race track would go a long way toward answering some of our problems where funds are concerned."

On the other hand, one resident drew applause when he said:

"My family knows what a race track means, and it isn't pleasant. We moved from Livonia to get away from it. When you can hear the night noises of racing, the roar of traffic to and from the track, and the sounds of horses being shot, it's far from a desirable location."

Unless the rezoning is invalidated by a public vote, the fate of the race track now apparently lies with the state racing commission and the financial backers of the project. What the next step will be was not indicated.

Chief Announces Disciplinary Action Against Patrolman

Disciplinary action taken against a Northville patrolman was announced this week by Chief of Police Joseph Denton.

A two weeks' suspension without pay followed by a 60-day probationary period was given Officer Roman Nowicki.

According to Chief Denton, the action took place following an incident of October 13 in which Nowicki was accused of "fighting on the street and in public places and using profanity in public." Denton reported that Nowicki had injured Robert Burton of 109 North Rogers. He allegedly sought out Burton after he was off duty on the morning of the 13th. Burton received treatment at Atchison Memorial hospital after his back was scalded when Nowicki was said to have pushed him against a stove in a local restaurant. Nowicki and Burton were taken to the police station where, according to Denton, Nowicki continued to attack Burton.

Chief Denton stated that Nowicki had become enraged at Burton after it was reported that the latter had made "uncomplimentary remarks" following the issuance of a ticket by Nowicki.

Nowicki's suspension will terminate October 31.

Lodge Honors Long Time Members

Seven members of the Northville Lodge No. 186, F. & A. M., were honored Monday evening for their long-standing membership records. Past Masters also conferred third degree to eligible members in the ceremonies at the local lodge.

Those honored with certificates and emblems for 50 year memberships were Clyde Van Atta and Fred A. Fry; for 40 years, Conrad E. Langfield, Carl H. Bryan, Carl R. Ely, Clifton Nutter and Clyde Schoultz.

PUMPKIN PALS! Perched high atop this mountain of pumpkins 15-month-old Edwin Moore, Jr. and Gary Lee Cockrum, 5, made a first hand inspection before choosing their Halloween jack-o-lantern! While Gary seems quite happy with his choice, there's a look of indecision remaining with Edwin. Gary's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Stan Cockrum of Novi. Mr. and Mrs. Moore reside on Butler in Northville.

Turkey Dinner to Strike at 'CF'

A growing campaign against a recently discovered children's disease will come to Northville this Saturday.

The local drive will take the form of a turkey smorgasbord at the Northville Community building.

Turkey will be served 20 different ways from 5 to 9 p.m. The $2.50 donation will include dancing from 8 p.m. to midnight. Tickets may be obtained at Black's White House.

The disease is cystic fibrosis, commonly known as "C-F". Little has been known of the child-killer until recently when medical research indicated it is so widespread that one of every 600 children is afflicted.

Even today, no cure is known. Many children are kept living for months, but it is usually only a matter of time before they die. Doctors once mistook CF for heart disease, anemia or infant pneumonia, but many now believe it begins as a disease of the pancreas, a large organ near the stomach whose work is necessary for proper assimilation of food.

Children with CF do not digest food properly and literally starve to death, a national magazine has explained. Their stomachs swell with undigested food, limbs grow thin, bronchitis may set in, and the heart often becomes strained.

Mr. and Mrs. William Black of Northville, members of the Michigan Cystic Fibrosis Association, have been working several months to bring the disease to the attention of local residents. They and a committee plan an increased campaign in Northville.

The Black's 2-year-old granddaughter died of the disease two years ago.

Plans now include making movies available to local groups, selling fund-raising Christmas cards and working hand-in-hand with medical consultants in the area.

During the past month, those favoring consolidation have taken the issue to the public, informing them of what the consolidation would mean, how much it would cost, what facilities it would provide and what needs it would meet.

In the meantime, little strong opposition to the consolidation has been met.

Essentially, the question at stake is whether the following school districts should be consolidated: Novi No. 8, East Novi No. 2, Durfee and Putnam.

In addition, two other proposals will be voted on:

1) If the consolidation goes through, should the new district assume Novi No. 8's two school debts for $33,000 and $193,000; and

2) If the consolidation goes through and the debt is assumed, shall the school taxes be raised by nine mills from 1956 to 1966 and by 4 1/2 mills from 1967 to 1974 to retire the debt.

Novi to Cast Votes On Consolidation

The long-standing question of consolidation of four Novi township school districts will go before the public next Tuesday.

Voters in the four districts — Novi 8, East Novi 2, Durfee and Putnam — will then decide whether to unite into a single district serving children in a 15-square mile area.

The vote was called last month by the Oakland county superintendent of schools after proponents of the consolidation finally gathered necessary signatures on petitions. It thus brings to a head many months of working toward the goal — which many feel is the only answer to school problems which have been developing as the township has grown.

During the past month, those favoring consolidation have taken the issue to the public, informing them of what the consolidation would mean, how much it would cost, what facilities it would provide and what needs it would meet.

In the meantime, little strong opposition to the consolidation has been met.

Essentially, the question at stake is whether the following school districts should be consolidated: Novi No. 8, East Novi No. 2, Durfee and Putnam.

Northville Plans Safe Halloween

While goblins and witches have their annual night out next Wednesday, Northville children of all ages will be invited to a full round of Halloween activities.

Hoping to avoid accidents and to cut down on overly-impish pranks, the Northville Optimists and the Northville Recreation department will co-sponsor a program of Halloween doings that will begin after school and continue until 10:30.

The festivities will begin with two hours of free movies at the P&A theater under the sponsorship of the Retail Merchants Association. Beginning at 4 p.m., the movies will continue until 6.

Grade school children then will be invited to a costume party at the community buildings. The party will begin at 6:30 and last until 8:30. Candy, doughnuts, cider and other Halloween refreshments will be offered.

A variety of prizes will be offered for the best costumes in a number of categories, according to Recreation Supervisor Stan Johnston.

The Community building will then be turned over to high school students for a special Halloween dance from 8:30 to 10:30.

High schoolers too will find free refreshments and costume prizes for those who choose to dress up.

Meanwhile, some 45 jack-o-lanterns began heralding Halloween in Northville schoolrooms this week. The pumpkins were given to the schools by John Cockrum, Novi township fruit and vegetable dealer.

Plymouth Woman Killed in Accident

An automobile accident at Gotfredson and Ford roads in Canton township Monday took the life of Mrs. Violet Marie Paulger, 51, of 15119 Northville road, Plymouth, and injured her son, Donald, 16, a student at Plymouth high school.

According to witnesses, a car driven by Howard Millard Hassett, 58, of Fremont, Indiana, ran a stop sign on Gotfredson and struck the left side of Mrs. Paulger's car.

The Paulger car turned end over end and came to rest bottom side up, witnesses said.

Hassett admitted running the stop sign and was held for investigation on charges of negligent homicide. The matter has been referred to the prosecuting attorney's office.

Mrs. Paulger was the daughter of Mrs. Mabel Monroe and the late Hanford Monroe. Surviving are her husband, Harold Paulger, of Plymouth; her mother, Mrs. Mabel Monroe of Detroit; daughter, Mrs. Charlene Knope, and sons, Robert and Donald, all of Plymouth.

Two surviving are sisters, Cleodith and Gladys Monroe; and brothers, Erwin and Darrell, all of Detroit.

Mrs. Paulger had lived in Plymouth with her husband since their marriage May 21, 1929. She was a member of the Newburg Methodist church in Livonia.

Funeral services will be Friday, October 26 at 1 p.m. from the Castlerline Funeral Home with the Rev. Richards of the Newburg Methodist church officiating. Interment will be in River-

A WINNER — Clarence Probst of Northville points to the winning score that gave him a share in last week's football contest. Probst and Clarence Iverson of Plymouth tied for first place. Iverson was not available for a photograph.

Near Identical Entries Split Football Prizes

It took "Clarence" to master last week's football quiz. As a matter of fact, two "Clarences" with identical entries tied for top honors thus splitting the $15 prize.

Clarence Probst, 43635 Twelve Mile, Northville, and Clarence Iverson, 14401 Eckles road, Plymouth, each missed three games and had the same point spread in their prediction of the Detroit Lions-San Francisco score.

In a week of upsets, both winners actually missed but one game, the fall of Ohio State to Penn State. Their other two mistakes were tie games between Georgia and Miami and Purdue and Wisconsin. Both "Clarences" liked Purdue over Wisconsin, but Iverson saw Georgia stopping Miami, while Probst picked Miami.

Not one of the entries predicted the Ohio State upset. Many others missed the Army-Syracuse and Indiana-Nebraska conflicts.

Northville and Holly Meet Friday Night In Key W-O Game

The championship of the Wayne-Oakland League may be decided this Friday when Northville and Holly clash on the Mustangs' home ground.

Northville and Holly stand one-two in the league, and a victory for either team would all but clinch the league title.

If Northville wins, it would have a 3-0-1 record with two games left to play. Its nearest rival would probably then be Brighton with a 3-1-1 record.

If Holly wins, it will have a 4-1-0 record with only one game left. It would take another loss to keep Holly from the title.

If comparative scores mean anything, Northville should have the edge. The Mustangs dropped Clarenceville 25-6 while Holly had to settle for a 27-25 win. On the other hand, Holly drubbed Milford 18-0, while Northville managed only a 7-7 tie in its poorest game to date.

MORE VIEWS ON DRAINAGE

Dear Sir:
In regards to my drainage problem, it is very simple. Put in another tube and put the other two up where they belong. Even I can see that they are laid with the TOP of the tubes at creek bed level. I was told last spring that they were put low because the drain commission told them to do so, so that they could dredge. (Another tax for the taxpayer.)

They all have pictures of the height of the water on the north side of the new road. If it can't get through, it sure can't get away.

Seems odd to me that the drain commission keeps entering the picture, as I've been told by phone, in letters and in the drain commissioner's office that they have nothing to do with drains south of 12 Mile road.

Last spring when a neighbor and I were in the office of the supervisor of Novi township, we were told "you wouldn't expect them to dig up the expressway just to put in culverts, would you?" At that time, it would have been a lot cheaper on the tax budget.

We had no trouble like this until the new highway came through.

Thank you,
D. M. Parkinson

Dear Sir:

We are receiving your paper and feel that we will be able to use many of the educational items that you are now running in your paper. Personally I enjoyed the high school page that you have in each issue. It would be nice if all the papers in the county would follow such a worthwhile trend. Keep up the excellent work and let us know if there is anything we can do for you.

Local Church Starts Book of Month Club

A Book of the Month club is being sponsored by the First Methodist church of Northville.

A book of the Bible will be designated for the month — the first one being the Gospel of St. Mark.

A Bible Guide will be given to everyone who registers. The guide is not intended as a substitute for Bible reading but rather a stimulant, serving as a guide and giving the origin, background, purpose and outline of each book.

It is expected that this "Book of the Month" will be read carefully several times during the month—using all the helps available to make the Bible more living.

The Northville Business and Professional Women's Club and Mrs. Mabel Stenson, president, wish to thank the local merchants of Northville for their assistance and generosity in loaning furniture and accessories which were used in the staging of their recent fashion show presented by the club. Also those who allowed poster advertising of the show to be placed on display in their place of business.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of our dear son and brother, T/Sgt. Ralph A. Coykendall, who went to be with our Lord, one year ago, October 24, 1955. The days are long and lonely without you, as only those who have lost a loved one can understand, but we thank our God for the assurance He has given us in our hearts, that you are safe in our Lord's care and some glad day we will be together again in that land where there cometh no sorrow or night and where His word tells us that He Himself will wipe away all our tears. So we mourn not those who have no hope, but look forward with assurance to the day of our glad reunion with you and our Lord. Mother, Dad, Sister and Brothers.

Board of Education NOTICE OF SALE

At a special meeting of the Board of Education of Northville Public Schools School District, County of Wayne, Michigan, held on the 10th day of October, 1956 at 8:00 o'clock p.m.,

Present: Mr. R. F. Coolman, Mr. Eural F. Clark, Mr. Robert H. Shafer, Mr. D. B. Severance and Mr. Nelson C. Schrader.
Absent: None.

The following resolution was offered by D. B. Severance seconded by N. C. Schrader:

WHEREAS, it is hereby determined that it is necessary to borrow the sum of $65,000 in anticipation of the collection of the unpaid OPERATING TAXES for the CURRENT FISCAL YEAR ending June 30, 1957 which tax is first due and payable on December 15, 1956, for the purpose of obtaining funds to meet current general fund expenses; and

WHEREAS, Act No. 202 of the Public Acts of 1943 authorizes the borrowing of money in anticipation of the collection of the unpaid operating taxes for the current fiscal year in an amount not to exceed 50 percent of the operating tax levy for the preceding fiscal year when the taxes for the current fiscal year are not as yet due and payable;

NOW BE IT RESOLVED, that such notes be sold at public sale, the notice thereof to be in substantially the following form and that a copy be submitted to the Municipal Finance Commission for approval before publication:

NOTICE OF SALE

(1) $65,000
(2) Wayne, Oakland, Washtenaw Counties, Michigan

NOTES

Sealed bids for the purchase of tax anticipation notes of (3) Northville Public Schools School District, Michigan, of the par value of (4) $65,000 will be received by the undersigned at (5) the Board of Education, office, Northville, Michigan until (6) 8:00 o'clock (7) p.m. (8) Eastern Standard Time, on the (9) 5th day of (10) November, 1956; (11), at which time and place they will be publicly opened and read.

The notes will be dated (12) November 10, 1956, will mature (13) May 1, 1957 and will bear interest at a rate or rates not exceeding (14) 5 percent per annum. Both principal and interest will be payable at the (15) such place as may be agreed upon by the purchaser. Denominations and form of notes to be at the option of the purchaser. Accrued interest to date of delivery of such notes must be paid by the purchaser at the time of delivery.

For the purpose of awarding the notes the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining, at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the notes from (16) December 1, 1956 to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The notes will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the (17) Northville Public Schools School District. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the notes or at a price less than their par value will be considered.

The loan is in anticipation of the (18) 1956 tax.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Notes".

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of 2 percent of the par value of the notes, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of (19) Northville Public Schools School District must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder. Checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of the purchaser's attorney approving the legality of the notes, to be secured at the purchaser's expense. The purchaser shall furnish notes ready for execution at his expense. Notes will be delivered at (20) Northville Board of Education, 501 West Main Street, Northville, Michigan.

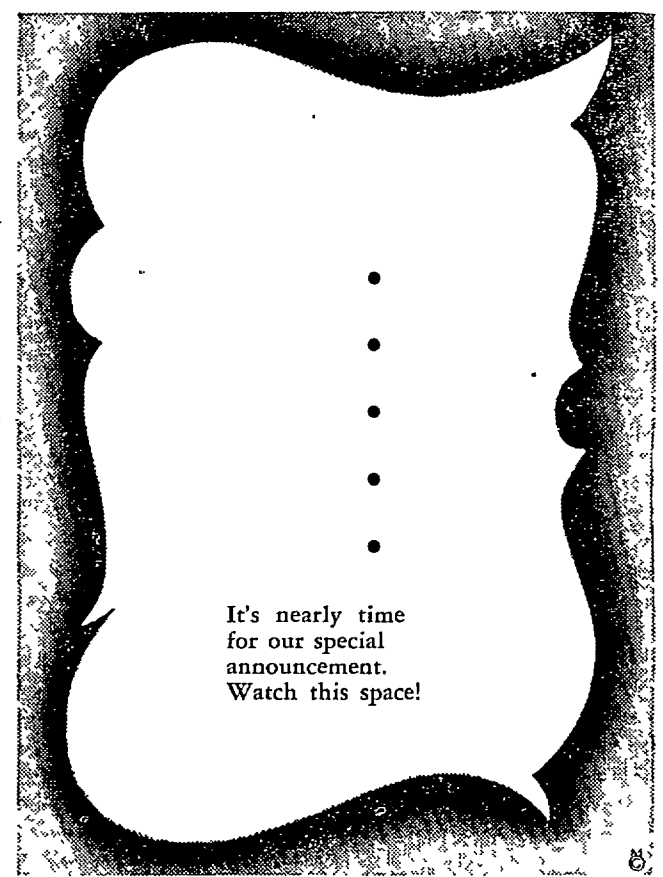

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

The Atheist's Challenge

Once when the great evangelist Moody was holding a street meeting in a city on the west coast, he was approached by a gentleman who Moody recognized as one of the brilliant speakers of his time. This man was also a confirmed atheist and daily addressed large groups in a hall down the street from where Moody was preaching.

He had been listening to Moody preach, and after the sermon, he challenged the evangelist to a debate to be held one week from that day. Moody accepted, but only under the condition that the atheist would consent to a proposal of his own. The man agreed and listened to what Moody had to say; whereupon he left the meeting and abandoned the plan.

What were the conditions? Merely that he believed that they should assure themselves that a sufficiently large crowd would be on hand to listen to their arguments and, to this end, he said that he would bring 100 ex-drunkards, ex-thieves and ex-delinquents, whom Christ had saved and reconstructed, for every five such men the atheist could muster, who would testify that they had been delivered from their sins through the power of his unbelieving philosophy. For once, the eloquent atheist was at a complete loss for words.

Rotary Entertains Newcomers to Area

A crowd of more than 150 Rotarians of the Northville area filled the auditorium of the First Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at the Rotary club's Rural-Urban dinner meeting.

The event is held annually to welcome newcomers to the community. After introductions by Rotarians of all present, the Reverend E. E. Rossow of Saginaw spoke to the group. Rev. Rossow is the former pastor of Northville's St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church. Rev. Rossow's humorous description of fictional experiences of his youth set a light note for the evening and kept listeners in a constant state of laughter. His speech, delivered in complete deadpan manner, carried the unrelated title of "Educational Trends".

Music was provided by Terrell Kelley, tenor, who is a new resident of Northville. Rotary President L. V. Smith presented the club's welcome and the Rev. John Taxis acted as toastmaster.

Expect 400 Guests At Scout Meeting

Northville will play host to some 400 adult scouts and their wives at the annual Sunset District meeting next Thursday.

Following a buffet dinner at 6:30 p.m., scouts will hear annual reports of district scouting activities in the past year and will review plans for the coming year.

Program committee for the meeting includes Chairman Chris Hammond, Philip Ogilvie, E. J. McClendon and Joseph Petrock.

The Northville high school dance band directed by Robert Williams, will play during the dinner.

Ford Triumphs Over Junior High

Northville's junior high grid-ders dropped a close 13-9 contest to Dearborn Ford last Wednesday in a game that saw only one pass thrown.

Kent Frid dashed 75 yards for Northville's lone touchdown, and punted 30 yards into the Ford end zone to set up a safety. The Ford safety man was hauled down by David Hay and Bob Earhart.

Ford rolled up 247 yards on the ground, while Northville had 143 rushing and eight in the air.

Where Huntsmen Sported:

A New Community Grows

NEAR COMPLETION, these new ranch homes soon will be occupied. Another 19 will be ready in the spring. In all, some 150 homes are planned. Graded streets await blacktopping and will curve gracefully over the rolling land.

On gentle countryside north-west of Northville, where huntsmen and hounds once sported, a new community of comfortable modern homes is growing rapidly.

It is Northville Estates, one of the first large-scale home developments to come to the Northville area.

Unlike many subdivisions, Northville Estates features a selection of ranch homes so varied and plush that when completed it will hardly have the appearance of a planned community. In all, 25 different models are offered, ranging in price from $25,000 to $39,000.

Price-wise, they thus rank within the top six percent of new homes being constructed in the U.S.

Covering 125 acres at Beck road and Base Line, the Estates will include 150 ranch homes on half to two-thirds of an acre each. The size is adequate enough that several owners have indicated they even plan swimming pools.

Several miles of blacktopped streets and cul-de-sacs will curve through Northville Estates. But none will be a through street, thus reducing the amount of unnecessary traffic in the community.

Designed by Ranch Homes, Inc. of Birmingham, the houses offer three and four bedrooms, tri-level construction, family rooms and adequate work and play space for all members of the family.

Designers have kept an eye toward the woman of the house, and each home features an all-electric kitchen especially designed to save steps and energy.

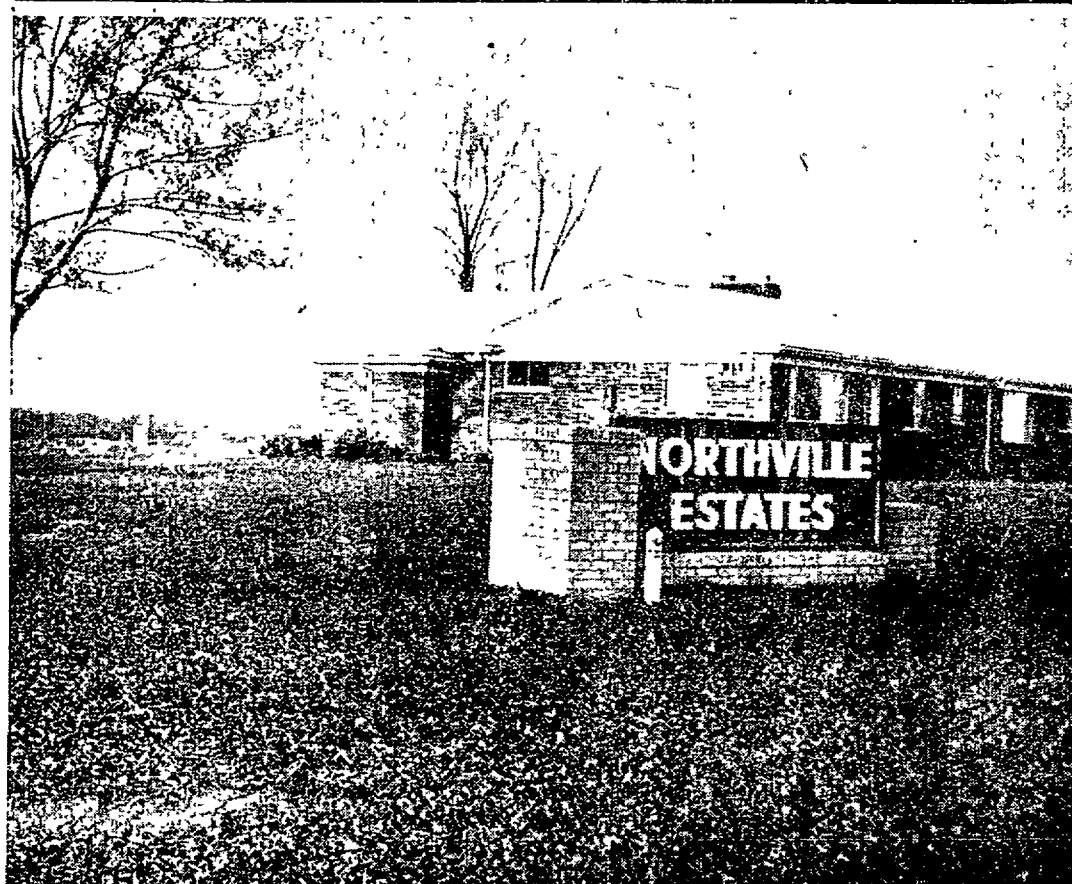

Among the models offered are the tri-component "Hillcrest", the southern-styled "Georgian", the "Statesman" with its unique country kitchen, and the early American "New Englander".

Three homes are now occupied, with 10 more scheduled for occupancy within the next few weeks. By spring, another 19 are expected to be ready.

Northville Estates is the fourth subdivision to be built by the Macksey Realty company of Birmingham, all featuring the same variety of ranch homes. The first three such communities were constructed near Farmington, Birmingham and Rochester.

The Northville Record

SECOND OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY—EST 1868— Thursday, October 25, 1956—9

AN ATTRACTIVE SIGN welcomes visitors to Northville Estates, newest development in the Northville area. In the background is one of three homes now occupied. The community is located at Beck and Base Line roads and covers 120 acres.

NORTHVILLE BANDSMEN had a soggy time of it last Saturday as rain poured down on the gigantic University of Michigan stadium. But the skies cleared in time for the Mustang musicians — and 10,500 other high school bandmen — to take part in the massed-band half-time show that featured the eighth annual U-M Band Day

Mustangs Hold W-O Lead, But Holly Moves Up Fast

Northville took a solid grip on first place in the Wayne-Oakland league by throttling Clarkston last Friday, but a tough Holly team came up strong right behind the Mustangs.

The two teams will meet this Friday in the game that could decide the league championship.

Only Brighton still has much of a chance for the title, despite a surprising 12-12 tie with Milford last week.

U. of M. to Present Tumbling Show

Tumbling and trampolines will be the order of the evening when the University of Michigan gymnastic team presents an exhibition at the Community Building on November 7 at 8 p.m.

The Wolverines, national collegiate champions, boast a member who leaves soon for Melbourne, Australia, where he will represent Canada in the Olympics.

Proceeds of the show will be used for support of American Indian schools, a project of the Children of the American Revolution, sponsors of the show, and to help send the Michigan team to the NCAA contest in Florida, where they will defend their title.

Clarkston Tumbles to Mustangs, 24-0

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—Thursday, October 25, 1956—11

RECOVERED FUMBLE — Northville center Bob Wagenschutz pounces on a Clarkston fumble last Friday night. Fumbles plagued both teams, as Northville threw the ball away five times and Clarkston four.

GOING NOWHERE — The stubborn Northville defense stiffens to meet a Clarkston play in Friday night's contest won by the Mustangs 24-0. Time and again the Northville defense dumped the Wolves, while the Mustang offense was piling up its game-winning total.

Phenomenal Kritch Passes Northville To 48-0 Victory

Quarterback Joe Kritch put on a dazzling passing show last week as the Northville junior varsity blasted a weak Oak Park team 48-0.

Kritch passed for six touchdowns and booted five extra points as the Colts hopelessly outclassed the Oak Park squad.

The fancy passing display gave Kritch a total of 12 touchdown tosses in the five games to date. Two passes went to Joe Gotro—the seventh and eighth that the combination has scored this

| NORTHVILLE | 6 | 6 | 0 | 12-24 |

A smattering of brilliant football in an otherwise sloppy game gave the Northville Mustangs an easy 24-0 victory over a weak Clarkston squad last Friday night.

Clarkston was behind from the start as Northville scored the first time it had the ball and consistently bottled up the Wolves' drives.

Though Northville won easily, the score could easily have been much higher. But the Mustangs hampered themselves throughout the contest, losing the ball three times on fumbles and collecting 70 yards in penalties.

Northville end Bill Yahne, who always plays a strong game, put on a fine display of pass-catching as he snagged six tosses for 116 yards. Two passes went for touchdowns, one for 41 yards and the other for 27.

Northville coach shook up his lineup for the game, moving Bud Bell from quarterback to end and leaving Ed Wittenberg at the pivot spot. Nevertheless, Bell was the Mustangs' leading passer, connecting on six of 11 passes for 121 yards.

The Mustangs scored first after tackle Jim Burrell recovered a Clarkston fumble on the Clarkston 17. After six plays that included two penalties, two passes to Yahne and a fumble, Wittenberg scored from the 2.

The second quarter was a nightmare of fumbles, penalties and incomplete passes until Northville center Bob Wagenschutz crashed through to block a Clarkston punt. End Jeff Goodrich grabbed the pigskin and dashed 15 yards for Northville's second tally.

Sluggish play again marked the third quarter. Only a stunning 62-yard run by a Clarkston halfback brought the crowd to its feet.

But in the fourth quarter, Northville — led by Yahne — banged to two solid touchdowns.

The first drive, covering 67 yards, saw Bell hit Yahne with three passes — for 14, 11 and finally 41 yards. Moments later, the Mustangs capped a 78-yard drive as Bell threw to Yahne for 27 yards and the last Northville touchdown.

While neither team showed a steady offensive — Northville totaled 224 yards on offense, and Clarkston 161 — the difference in the teams was found in de-

FORD TRUCKS COST LESS

...less to own ... less to run ... last longer, too!

• Before you buy your next truck, look at both sides of Ford's story of value. You'll like what you see.

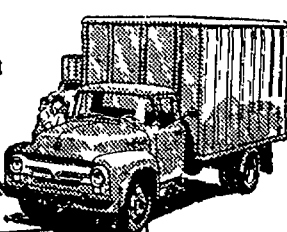

Look at costs. Ford's first cost is low. Resale value is high. Modern Short Stroke engines—V-8 or Six—are designed for less friction, less wear, lower running costs. Maintenance costs are lower, too, because Ford trucks are built stronger for rugged long life.

Look at what you get and you'll see you get more for your money in a Ford. For example, only Ford gives you modern, gas-saving Short Stroke power in every truck, V-8 or Six. More comfort with a Driverized Cab. More safety with Ford's exclusive Lifeguard features.

Look carefully ... consider everything. You'll agree Ford trucks cost less, give you more. If you want a great deal—a great deal more for your money—see your Ford Dealer.

How spiritual understanding of God's goodness overcomes evil will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" will include the following selection from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (571:15): "At all times and under all circumstances overcome evil with good. Know thyself and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil."

Among the passages to be read from the King James Version of the Bible is the following (Isa. 35:10): "And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with songs and everlasting joy upon their heads: they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away."

The Golden Text is from Lamentations (3:39,40): "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

The Problem of the Alcoholic

The estimate of total alcoholics in our country is four millions, including not just the more obvious Skid Row derelicts, but all who have found that alcohol creates a problem in their lives which they cannot manage. There is still too much complacency in exploring the problem and suiting one's attitude and approach and parishioners that nothing is wrong. She protects Charlie all she can. She stays alert to ferret out a hidden bottle. She pours its contents down the sink when she finds it. She felt good about the fact that Charlie promised to lay off the strong stuff and stick to an occasional glass of beer.

Katie wonders where she has failed old Charlie. She wonders if perhaps her nagging may contribute to his drinking or if those bills, a pile of them — are driving Charlie to drink. She comforts good hubby and tries to save him from a sense of shame after his alcoholic bouts. When Charlie's boss, a courageous soul, told Charlie it was about time he stood back and took a good look at himself, Charlie brought his bruised ego home to his honey who kissed it and made it well.

Let's go back now and see where Katie, good intentions not with standing, made it easier for Charlie to ride the whiskey wagon. She used the Pull-Yourself-Together approach. So did Charlie's pastor when he witnessed the pledge that Charlie took. The boss' observation was closer to the right thing but Katie diminished its value by comforting Charlie.

Katie blamed herself and domestic problems for Charlie's drinking. Really nobody is driven to drink by external problems. A nagging wife, intolerable worries — these constitute an excuse rather than an incentive to the alcoholic.

Kate permitted Charlie to monopolize the center of the stage at all times. She pampered his whims. She strengthened his belief that he was misunderstood, poor boy! Scolding or consoling she made him always the object of attention. Childishness is a characteristic of the alcohol. Katie helped this childishness.

In pouring the liquor down the sewer, Katie only intensified Charlie's desire for it and made getting it a challenging battle of wits. She forced Charlie to secrete drinking and to detect and dishonestly. Again, this compounded his sense of shame and increased his obsessive need for drink. Katie also forgot that the alcoholic cannot drink just a little and stop. Beer satisfies the to its demands in the light of up-to-date knowledge. There has been a deplorable failure, I think to synthesize the moral factors of alcoholism with the scientific findings of such organizations as the Yale School of Alcohol Studies, despite the fact that morality and science can synthesize with complete compatibility. To exemplify the situation let me give you a true story where wrong attitudes and approach worsened the condition of the alcoholic.

Charlie is a good worker, even a good church and civic-minded man — when he's sober. Until the last few years, he was sober most of the time, often going for months without taking a drink. When he did take one though, on boy — he kept his tongue wet and burning until the bottle was empty. Lately Charlie has started drinking oftener and longer.

His wife, Katie, is a nervous wreck everytime he leaves the house. Katie alternately pleads, begs, scolds, cries, consoles and appeals to Charlie's finer nature. She sometimes loses patience and lashes out at him, calling him cruel, selfish and no good. Katie, however, pretends to her family, neighbors, friends and alcoholic's obsessive need and is just as conducive as whiskey is to uncontrolled drinking.

In protecting Charlie, she kept him from the salutary experience of having to face the consequences of his drinking and social censure is one of these consequences.

Basically, each alcoholic must have a sincere desire to help himself with help from others. I'm a firm believer in group therapy for the alcoholic. This instrument has been very valuable. If an alcoholic approached me, I would not exact of him the pledge. Rather, I would tell him about Alcoholic Anonymous, urge him to join and in the meantime I would pray for him.

In Planning House, Think of Your Lot, Budget and Needs

Plan hunting is much like house hunting. In both cases you are looking for a suitable home for your family. The type of plan you are looking for will depend on your building budget, family needs and your lot.

Early in your search you must decide on the general arrangements, number of bedrooms required, whether or not you will want separate dining room, breezeway and attached garage. This will narrow the field and reduce the number of plans you will want to study.

In any house certain fundamental principles will make the operation of a household simpler and easier. Foremost of these is free circulation between rooms, the ability to reach any room without first passing through another room. This may call for a little more hall, but is well worth it.

The kitchen, if properly planned, is the place where most of the drudgery of housekeeping can be eliminated. Refrigerator, sink and range should be located so a natural sequence is set up in the movement of food from storage to preparation to cooking. Space for eating in the kitchen is a must.

A small bathroom is normal for a small house but a recessed tub away from the window is a most desirable feature.

Bedroom sizes depend on personal preference and the amount of furniture to be used. Check wall space for beds. You may want two possible bed-rooms to provide for the almost inevitable shifting of furniture.

The success of a plan depends a great deal on the closet space available; "a place to put things". One of the most important closets is one near the side or rear entrance where family traffic is heaviest. Do not overlook linen, storage and bedroom closets.

Use of picture window, or window wall, depends on the degree of privacy you want and the location or facing of your lot. Your living room should comfortably care for family and guests. Be sure to consider the idea of including a fireplace. It adds much to the livability of your room at relatively small cost.

Choose your plan carefully. You may have to live with it a long time.

Painting Is Easier With Right Brushes

For painting inside and outside use good quality brushes — they will do better work and last longer. They will hold more paint, carry it better without messy dripping, apply it without spattering, put on an even, smoother coat and cut a cleaner edge.

For wall painting, inside and out, use a flat straight-edge wall brush. This type ranges from 3 to 5 inches in width.

For window frames, spindles, scrollwork, etc., use a sash brush. Sash brushes range from 1 to 2 inches in width for painting narrow areas.

For varnishing and enameling, a flat varnish brush is ordinarily used. Most of these made with chiseled or tapered edges to permit easier flow.

High quality paint rollers are also available for the application of most interior wall paints. They will not paint into corners so a brush is also needed.

Wood Most Adaptable to Changes

Because it can be easily painted and is available in so many variations, wood siding fulfills the desire of most women to own "something different", adaptable to frequent color change.

Students Invited to PTA Program

A group of Northville high school students will take part in the PTA meeting at the Amerman school tonight at 8 p.m.

Three adults and six high school students will conduct the panel on youth recreation problems. Stan Johnston, Patricia Junod and Dr. Robert Yoder, who will act as moderator, will represent the adults.

The six high school students on the panel will be Janice Howarth and David Dahl — seniors; Claire St. John and Harry Sedan — juniors, and Sherrill Louton and Dennis Fallon — sophomores.

Each person on the panel will give a slight idea of what he is like and what activities he is in to exemplify what the normal teenager is like.

This meeting and others, to be held monthly, will deal mainly with teenagers.

All Northville teenagers are invited to attend this meeting and to express their opinions on the various topics.

All education should contribute to moral and physical strength and freedom.

—Mary Baker Eddy

... A Place to Go ...

By Phyllis Buoniconti

Last Saturday night, Northville teenagers, thanks to the PTA, had somewhere to go.

After hearing many complaints from students about having nothing to do on Saturday evenings, the PTA got to work and came up with the idea of having a get-together for teenagers on Saturday nights.

Last week was the first, and the results were quite favorable. Music for dancing was provided by the NHS dance band. At intermission, refreshments of hot dogs, "sloppy joes", cider and pop were served.

A floor show, starring students in school, followed. Impersonations of celebrities were done by Lois Rody, Martha Bloom, Lucille Pullen, Giannine Bertoni and Dave Dahl. Other entertainers included Cynthia Mellen, Richard Drew, teachers, Stan Johnston, and LaGene Quay. Many students attending included former NHS'ers.

How do you feel about it? Do you think there should be more Saturday night get-togethers? Why not attend the PTA meeting October 25th and give your opinion. If you have any complaints or suggestions, let them know. If the students will back the PTA, chances are we'll be having many more evenings like last Saturday.

Kids, it's up to you.

'Taming of the Shoe' Presented by Band

Friday evening, the NHS band traveled to Clarkston to present "The Taming of the Shoe". The idea for the show was taken from a story whose title is obvious.

The show was dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams and their new daughter. Mr. Leslie Lee took the director's stand at the last minute due to Mr. Williams' absence.

Senior Play Challenges Students' Acting Ability

This year the seniors of Northville high school plan to present a play that will challenge their acting abilities.

Rather than choose a run-of-the-mill comedy, they scouted around to find something new and interesting. Their final choice was "The Barretts of Whimble Street", a dramatic comedy in three acts.

The theme revolves around the life of one Miss Elizabeth Barrett, a well-known poetess, who lived in the days of the house and carriage.

Miss Browning is an invalid, whose life and vigor is restored through the efforts of Robert Browning, the man she loves. A dominating figure throughout the play is Mr. Barrett, her stern and relentless father, who rules his large family with an iron hand.

A dash of spice is added by the antics of Bella, the Barrett's niece; Oocy, one of the seven brothers, and the winsome manners of Wilson, a proper English maid.

Miss Florence Panattoni, the director, makes the prediction that a few scenes will be stolen from the actors by a loveable little cocker spaniel named Flush. Several dogs tried out for the part, but the victor was a wiggly black, little dog who answers to the name of "Cindy".

The play has been double-cast because it will have a two-night run. Playing the lead are Emile Seguin and Susie Dewsbury, with Dave Adams, Brody Humphries, Tom Slavens and Bernhard Muller as supporting actors.

The rest of the cast includes: Giannine Bertoni, Judy Junod, Martha Bloom, Janice Howarth, Dinnie Millington, Dorothy Welch, Joe Early, Roger Rathburn, Jerry Schnute, Bog Wagenschutz, Delano Skow, Dave Dahl, Victor Miller, Mac Burns, Rick Atchinson, John Schwartz, Roseanne Perrault, Lois Rody and "Cindy".

Three student directors share the job of direction. They are B. G. Wilson, Mary Palmer and Nancy Lawrence.

New Reading Class Helps Individual

Mrs. Rosella Lee, one of the NHS English teachers, has started a new reading class.

This is the first year a class of this type has been attempted in the high school. The faculty feels this is a great step forward in the school system. This class brings about great increases of reading ability because of the aid it gives to the individual student.

Its purpose is to build up the morale of the student. A student is more likely to develop more confidence in reading when reading individually rather than before a class.

Because reading abilities vary so much at the seventh and eighth grade levels, individual help is necessary for many students.

Students Get Lost But Finally Arrive At Library Meet

Have you ever gone on an out-of-town trip with a specific destination in mind, only to find yourself arriving at the wrong place?

That's what five senior girls, accompanied by the school librarian, Miss Ione Palmer, accomplished a week ago last Friday.

On October 12, Roseanne Perrault, Penny Niece, Mary Palmer, Linda Smith, Nancy Lawrence and Miss Palmer visited Western Michigan College in Kalamazoo for the annual Michigan Librarianship Day. But, however, before they reached Western Michigan, they erroneously landed on the Kalamazoo College campus first. They were finally directed to the correct adjoining campus.

The purpose of Librarianship Day was to interest high school senior girls in librarianship as a career, for the U.S. is sorely in need of qualified people trained in this profession. Girls from all over the state attended the meeting.

The group first heard from librarians who had spent a number of years in various branches of the profession. Then the girls were taken on an informative tour of the campus. The group later returned to the library for farewell refreshments.

'Parents Night' Features Panel on School Affairs

The place was filled to the brim with 200 parents. The reason for this mass assembly? It was Parents' Night, an evening whose purpose was to enlighten parents concerning matters pertaining to their children's school life and education.

A panel discussion moderated by Mr. E. V. Ellison was the evening's keynote. Panel members included Donald Van Ingen, Robert Williams, Superintendent Russell Amerman, Fred Stefanski, Miss Patricia Dorrian and Leslie Lee.

The main topics of discussion were the new high school, its location and finances, vocational education and school philosophy.

Another Parents' Night will be held Wednesday, November 7 at 8 p.m. in the high school. Mr. Ellison would like it to be known that anyone interested in high school affairs is invited.

Next week, parents of children who enrolled just recently will receive letters inviting them to attend the next meeting.

Mr. Ellison emphasizes this fact: one does not have to be a parent to attend the meeting. Pure interest or even curiosity will serve equally well as a calling card.

Junior Class Nets Total of $2,400 In Magazine Drive

The juniors had reason to smile this week.

Their magazine drive, which ended last week, brought in a total of $2,400 in subscriptions of which the juniors will receive 35 percent.

The annual magazine drive itself is a major event. However, behind the scenes there is always a high sense of competition for all those who participate.

The three junior homerooms endeavored to outsell each other. Goals of $750 per room were set up. Two of the homerooms, Mr. Meritt Meaker's and Mr. Charles Yahnke's, easily surpassed the amount.

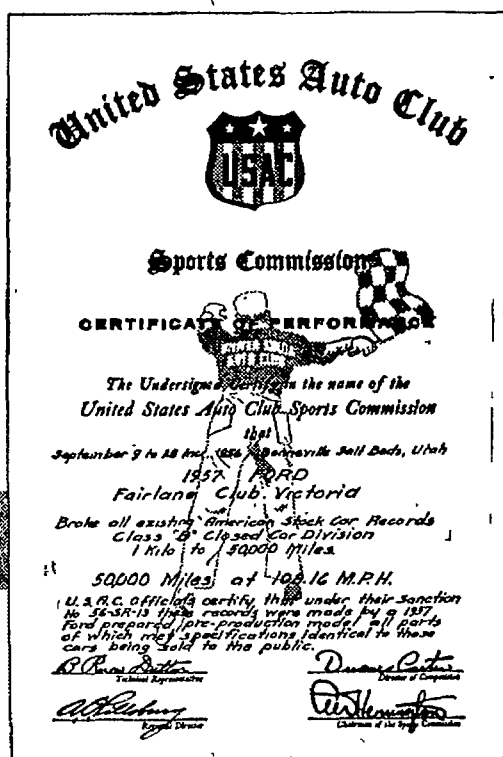

Individuals, too, are recognized for their accomplishments. A wrist watch will be awarded to the highest salesman. If the juniors surpass the amount their predecessors sold, two wrist watches will be awarded instead of one.

Also, certificates of merit will be awarded to all those who sold more than $100 worth of magazines.

An announcement of decisive importance to anyone about to buy a new automobile

The most exhaustive endurance test ever given an automobile has just been completed by two stock '57 Fords—identical in every respect with cars now being offered by Ford Dealers.

Under supervision of the United States Auto Club and the Federation Internationale de Automobile, each of these two '57 Fords traveled 50,000 miles in less than 20 days. Ford No. 1 averaged 108.16 mph for the entire run . . . Ford No. 2, over 107 mph. These averages include time for all pit stops.

In all, the '57 Ford smashed 458 national and international records.

This test was run on the Bonneville Salt Flats in Utah... it was the longest left turn in history.

A car, like a man, is known by its deeds, not words.

That is why, we at Ford, despite our confidence in our '57 cars, let their deeds of accomplishment speak for themselves.

We wanted them to prove to you—in action—the stamina and performance we had built into them. No words of ours could speak with equal conviction.

Therefore, we engaged an independent engineering organization to test our '57 cars more thoroughly than any other cars have ever been tested before—in this country or abroad.

We provided them with '57 Fords—cars identical with those now offered by Ford Dealers. The rest we left up to them.

Here is what they did:

They took these cars to the Salt Flats at Bonneville, Utah.

Here, twelve of the world's greatest drivers took over.

In relays they drove these cars night and day for a distance greater than twice around the world . . . a distance equal to 5 years of normal driving.

Not in all history has a man-built machine traveled so far in so short a time—by land or sea!

But this was not a test of speed—but of endurance of the "Inner Ford." A trial to take the measure of Thunderbird V-8 power without qualification of any kind. A test of running gear—of brakes, of materials in body and chassis. Of steering and roadability, yes, and comfort, too!

A test, indeed, such as no cars have ever undergone, let alone successfully concluded.

We feel that by their deeds, you shall know the '57 Ford cars.

Surely they have told you, in decisive terms, that they are worth more when you buy . . . and when you sell!

Your Ford Dealer will gladly place at your disposal the new kind of Ford that means a new kind of value for your car-buying dollar—the greatest the world has ever seen.

210 Children Inoculated With Toxoid

Some 210 young Northville children received first and "booster" dosages of multi-purpose toxoids last week.

Administered by Miss Ruth Knapp, RN, Northville school nurse, the inoculations will act against typhoid, whooping cough and diphtheria.

Each child receives a series of three inoculations.

Of the 187 children who received booster shots, 85 were from Amermah school, 81 from Main Street school, 19 from Our Lady of Victory school and two of pre-school age.

Twenty-three children received a dosage for the first time. Two were pre-school children.

The program will continue on November 9 when the 23 will receive booster shots. At the same time, some 200 elementary students will be given smallpox vaccinations.

Seventh through 12th graders also may receive vaccinations then upon request.

Highway Commissioner Post Makes Good Target for Campaigning Politicos

A LOOK AT THE RECORD, as politicians like to say, enables anyone to distinguish the smoke from the fire in the hot spot occupied by Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler.

Ziegler has been under constant attack by Governor G. Mennen Williams and other Democrats for some five years. Since criticism seemed to increase before every election, many voters thought Ziegler was running for re-election. The fact is that he was not. His term lasts for four years; next contest is in the spring.

Despite attentions of both gubernatorial candidates to highway matters, there is little a governor has to do with the road situation. Apparently, it makes good campaign material.

Behind the smoke screen of charges laid down by Democrats to confuse the issue, there are many facts that play important roles in determining Michigan's highway program.

Here's the background: A depression and World War II established a 15 year period when it was impossible to build new highways. In fact it was difficult to maintain the existing road system. In the early post-war years, only limited funds were made available to the State Highway Department by the Michigan Legislature.

Experts estimate that $3.5 billion backlog of needed modern highways developed during the war years.

Little cooperation was given the Highway Department to meet this $3.5 billion need. In the early years after the war the Highway Commission usually received an annual $23 million appropriation from the Legislature for new construction.

But the Legislature began to awaken to the need in 1951 when they passed a "good roads" bill. This became law over the determined opposition and veto of Governor Williams.

Much talk of "patchwork" road system was heard. Anything other than this would have been impossible under terms of the law which existed until 1951. It was required by the Legislature that 25 percent of highway money be spent in the northern peninsula; 25 percent in the lower peninsula above the Muskegon-Bay City line.

The remaining 50 percent was left to build roads in the southern part of the state where 87 percent of the people and 87.8 percent of the vehicles are located.

How was the money used by the Highway Department? During the past 10 years a total of $659 million was allocated by the Legislature to the department for all types of work.

Some $359,600,000 went for new road construction. Another $80 million was spent for right-of-way purchases. Nearly $165 million had to go for maintenance of old roads. Bonding and miscellaneous expenses cost $34 million and administration accounted for $10 million.

What was accomplished with these funds? Some 2,144 miles of new highways are already on the record to Ziegler's credit. An additional 2,812 miles of roads were resurfaced, widened or improved during the last decade.

And to the Commissioner's credit is a bureau study showing that the State Highway Department constructed roads at a cost of 15 percent less than comparable neighboring states.

"We've always spent every penny we could for construction," says Ziegler. "If we didn't build fast enough the answer was simple—we didn't have the money."

Things are looking better now. The new federal interstate highway program, plus a second Michigan "good roads" law passed in 1955 will open a new era of construction. The Highway Department will have the resources to do a bigger job.

"For the first time, the backlog of highway needs is being reduced, not increased," says Ziegler. "We're going places. And we're just as glad about it as Michigan drivers will be when the new roads are completed."

THE TRADING STAMP craze goes in cycles — and right now Michigan is near the top or just past the peak of such a cycle, says Richard O. Cook, of the Michigan Retailer's Association.

"Trading stamps are blessed by some, cursed by others and noticed by nearly everyone," Cook comments.

Behind these varied opinions certain economic facts are apparent! Trading stamps add approximately two percent to the cost of doing business. In other words, for every dollar a merchant takes in, two cents of it pays for the trading stamps.

Someone must pay the two percent cost. It can be the consumer in the form of higher prices. Again, it may be the retailer who absorbs the cost and hopes to make up for it with increased volume. Finally, other means of advertising may be omitted or reduced to pay the bill.

Quarter Million Paychecks!

Besides performing its basic job of serving the transportation needs of Michigan's farmers, industrialists, businessmen and general consumers, our Motor Transport Industry plays a most important part in providing employment for a major percentage of Michigan's breadwinners — a quarter of a million, as a matter of fact.

Yes, Michigan's trucks are responsible for one out of every ten Wolverine paychecks — and the total of all these paychecks amounts to well over one billion dollars annually!

That's a lot of money — and it provides those on trucking's payroll with an enormous purchasing power that benefits every phase of Michigan's economy.

Motor transport's paychecks are substantial and they buy lots of food, clothing, appliances, cars and other products whose sales mean paychecks for others.

So, you see . . . Michigan's motor transport industry not only serves all other business activities — it is one of the most important customers for the products of all these other businesses.
