Northville Operates Under Manager

Robertson Begins Job Thursday

Business of the City of Northville today became the responsibility of John C. Robertson.

The former Michigan Municipal League staff member began his duties today as city manager. He was chosen October 9 by the city council from a field of 30 applicants to become the city's first manager.

Robertson, who will be responsible to the council, will take over business management of the city. His duties will include personnel management, purchasing, budget preparation, financial reporting and preparation of reports for the council.

In addition Robertson will carry out the policy decisions of the council, coordinate activities of the various city departments, program municipal services and handle external relations of the city.

The new city manager's background makes him highly qualified for the new job. A graduate engineer from the University of Michigan, Robertson also holds a master's degree in public administration. He has served as sanitary engineer for the city of Kalamazoo and as public health engineer for the state of Washington. He also served as research assistant for the Institute of Public Administration at the University of Michigan.

Robertson comes to Northville from Ann Arbor where his duties with the Michigan Municipal League included managing municipal purchasing services and acting as staff engineer.

For a brief period Robertson was given leave of absence from the League to serve as city manager for East Ann Arbor. His performance of this duty brought high praise from officials of the community.

Robertson will attend his first council meeting Monday evening.

He plans to move to Northville with his wife and 1½-year-old daughter as soon as a residence can be found.

Here's How to Vote

Because voting machines are new to many persons in the area, instructions are printed here for registering your choice by machine. Election workers will be glad to demonstrate the proper method, but many voters will feel more assured if they know what to do in advance.

There will be three parts to your machine ballot, a red, a white and a blue section. Red is for the amendments, white for party candidates and blue for non-partisan candidates. Leaders of both political parties have urged that everyone vote all three parts.

The white part of the ballot is the only section in which party preference can be registered.

First step is to turn the switch lever (upper left hand corner) to the right and leave it there. This closes the curtain and unlocks the machine.

If you want to vote a straight ticket, turn down the lever of your party at the top of the machine.

To vote a split ticket, (a party ticket except for a few changes) turn down your party lever. Turn up the lever at the right of the name of any candidate you wish to eliminate, and then turn down the lever at the right of the name of the candidate you wish to substitute.

Remember that you cannot vote for a president of one party and a vice-president of another.

To vote a mixed ticket, do not turn any party lever. Turn down the lever at the right of any candidate you wish to vote for.

The party levers do not affect the non-partisan ballots. These must be voted separately.

After you are through, check your vote again. Make sure that you have voted for all offices and questions on which you wish to voice an opinion. DO NOT PUSH BACK ANY LEVERS.

Now go back to the lever at the upper left of the machine. Switch it to the left. This records your vote and opens the curtain.

Good luck. See you at the polls November 6.

For Voters

Special services for voters have been provided by a number of Northville merchants and organizations. Among them are:

Instruction in the use of voting machines will be offered by Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz at the Community building Friday night from 7:00 to 9:30 p.m.

Girl Scout Troop 10 will baby sit with children while parents vote. Children may be brought to the Scout building from 3:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Baby sitting and free rides to the polls are being offered by the Northville Young Republicans. Call Northville 402.

Free transportation to the polls are also offered by three merchants. Their names and telephones: G. E. Miller, Northville 890; Petz Bros., Northville 666; Marr Taylor, Northville 1320.

Responding to a standing commitment to be of service to Northville, Boy Scouts will distribute "Get Out The Vote" reminders this week end. Joining efforts with millions of scouts throughout the nation the local troops will canvas every residence in the community leaving a door-knob notice reminding all registered voters to cast their ballot in local, state and federal elections on Tuesday, November 6.

This project not only renders a service to the community, but also teaches a lesson in citizenship to the scouts. To minimize the loss of these reminders due to wind and weather, the scouts will ring the door bell or knock to get the resident's attention to this notice.

Plan Goodwill Pickup

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks to Northville is scheduled for next Tuesday. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill truck pick-up, call the local Goodwill representative, Miss Edith Sorenson, at Northville 571.

GOP Gains Clear Victory In Students' Mock Election

The first indication of how Northville may vote next Tuesday came this week when more than 900 students went to the polls and gave the Republican party a clear victory.

The GOP took all five offices, as 905 students from Amerman school, Main street school and Northville high school cast ballots Monday in a mock election designed to acquaint them with voting procedures and political issues.

President Dwight Eisenhower and Vice President Richard Nixon swept to a 5-2 margin over the Democratic team of Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver. The GOP was favored 645-260.

On the state level, Gov. G. Mennen Williams edged Mayor Albert Cobo 288-267 in the high school, but Cobo piled up sufficient votes in the grade schools to win 454-381.

Clarence Reid outdrew Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart for the lieutenant governor spot with a 3-2 margin. The vote was 317-205. Grade school students did not vote.

In the race for U.S. congressional representative from the 17th district, Republican George Smith gathered 278 votes to 243 for incumbent Martha Griffiths. Grade school students did not vote.

The mock election was carried out by Amerman government students under the supervision of Edward C. Mollima, who has organized the affair for nearly 20 years.

Maybury Is Calm After Food Protest Occurs Sunday

Things are quiet today at Maybury Sanatorium, where patients demonstrated last Sunday for better food.

Placards were carried by some 40 to 50 irate patients who gathered at the Seven Mile road entrance to the institution. Others carried trays with samples of food they said was inadequate.

All members of the Patients' Council, who organized the protest, have been removed from office by Dr. W. L. Howard, superintendent of the tuberculosis sanatorium.

Dr. Howard said hospital officials had met with the patients' food committee and have tried to remedy things they did not like, but explained that since menus are made up by the Board of Health dietitians, changes take time.

Dr. Howard blamed the protest on "a few agitators", and said that most adult patients did not participate in the demonstration.

Dads to be Guests At Mustang Game

Proud fathers will be guests of honor at the annual "Dad's Day" game between Northville and Brighton tomorrow night.

The dads will have choice seats on the sidelines and will be feted at a banquet after the game.

Athletic Director Al Jones has asked parents and friends to insure that every member of the team has a "dad" present at the game and after-game festivities.

Title-bent Northville rates as a favorite in the contest after its overwhelming 32-0 defeat of Holly last week. A victory would give the Mustangs the Wayne-Oakland championship.

Come and Get 'em

Pancakes will be the bill of fare at the annual "Pancake Supper" of the Presbyterian Men's club Friday evening.

Dinner will be served from 5:30 to 7:30. Tickets are available at the door or from any member of the Men's club.

Consolidation Wins In Novi

Novi township voters Monday overwhelmingly approved the consolidation of four township school districts into one.

The vote was 404 to 62.

Voters also passed proposals to assume one district's debts (365-69) and to raise school millage to retire the debts (377-88).

A temporary school board will be named next week. Permanent members will be elected in about two months.

Crusoe's Condition Reported Improved

Lewis D. Crusoe of West Nine Mile road was reported Wednesday to be "resting very satisfactorily" at Henry Ford hospital.

Crusoe is executive vice-president of Ford Motor company's car and truck division.

Firm to Display New Store Fronts In Northville

What Northville's Main street could look like with changes suggested by the Kawneer Architectural Products firm of Niles will be presented before a special dinner meeting of the Retail Merchants Tuesday evening.

Essi Nirider, president of the merchant's group, emphasized that complete pictures of Northville's business section have been taken and design changes with economy and beauty in mind have been recommended. Kawneer specializes in store front designs and has undertaken the Northville project at the request of the merchants.

The dinner will be held at the Methodist church and will begin at 7 p.m. Tickets are available at Sibley's, Altman's, Gamble's or Northville Hardware. Nirider urges all merchants and landlords to attend.

SERGEANT GIL GLASSON topped all entries to win $10 first prize in the weekly football contest. Glasson missed only the upsets of Michigan and Michigan State. Second place honors went to Jack Nitzel of 50495 West Six Mile road.

Northville Girl Scout News

Brownie Troop 3
Troop 3 is very proud of its 100 percent attendance record this week — all 23 members. Mrs. Nelson was out of town, so Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Crump taught the girls a "Do It Yourself" Halloween party. They made their own place favors, played some riotous team games, made paper decorations and had a party with cider and cookies. The meeting closed with the Indian sign version of "taps".

Brownie Troop 4
Diane Ambler has been chosen by the troop to keep the scrapbook. She will collect any news items printed about troop activities. Last week the troop hiked to the park to cook their dinner. They had some-mores and wieners. Games were played after dinner and then they hiked back to the scout building.

Girl Scout Troop 6
On October 24 troop officers were elected. Linda Solomon is the new president, Debbie Older, secretary; Ann Marie Riley, treasurer and Frances Hykal, scribe. Emalie Canterbury brought the treats.

Girl Scout Troop 10
The last meeting of Troop 10 was held at Stephanie Brown's house. Officers elected were Cece Newton, president; Carol Krezel, vice-president; Nancy Beard, secretary and Carol Tabor, treasurer. They discussed their election.

day baby sitting service and talked about the requirements of senior scouting.

Girl Scout Troop 14
After the opening business meeting, members worked on pot holder hats.

Girl Scout Troop 19
Troop 19 learned how to tie knots at their Wednesday meeting. Mrs. Jerome taught some songs and then they had the nibble brought by Christine Moose. Mrs. Jones, co-leader, taught a dance and then the meeting was closed with the friendship circle.

Step into the wonderful world of AUTODYNAMICS

A low-slung beauty with Flight-Sweep style: Swept-Wing '57 Dodge Custom Royal Lancer 2-Door.

It unleashes a hurricane of power
It breaks through the vibration barrier
It is swept-wing mastery of motion

SWEPT-WING '57 Dodge

How do you describe a car so daring in concept, so revolutionary in features and advances, so rewarding in beauty and performance?

How do you explain its newness when everything about it is new? On display today is just such a car—the Swept-Wing '57 Dodge that steps you into the wonderful world of Autodynamics.

What is this wonderful world of Autodynamics? It is a world where everything is new from road to roof to achieve absolute mastery of motion.

Here's what it does in the Swept-Wing Dodge:

- It unleashes a hurricane of power from a thundering new aircraft-type Super Red Ram V-8 engine that's a spitfire in action!
- It tames a tornado of torque with a new TorqueFlite Push-Button Drive for the greatest get-away on the road!

- It breaks through the vibration barrier with a revolutionary new rubber-mounted suspension system—Dodge Torsion-Aire—that features race car torsion-bars. You ride in a "Realm of Silence," isolated from vibration, noise and road shock.

- It is swept-wing mastery of motion in a sleek, low-slung beauty barely 4½ feet high that has no equal in the way it corners, handles and rides.

You have never seen, felt or owned any car that compared with this new Swept-Wing Dodge. See and drive it today . . . now at your Dodge dealer's!

Dr. George Crane's Answer

Dr. George Crane publishes a column found in many newspapers in our country under the title of "The Worry Clinic".

In response to an inquiry regarding life after death, Dr. Crane pointed out that there are possibly 100,000,000 other planets, and that they are either inhabited or at least inhabitable! Dr. Crane considers that those who die may go on to some other earth "better or worse than ours, depending on how the individual has lived here on the earth. I have read many of the Doctor's articles and enjoyed them but this one makes me wonder why the Doctor prefers to theorize about the life after death when by consulting the Bible he could have known the true facts directly from God's authoritative writings. From the Bible he could have found out (1) That there is life after death for all men. (2) There is a real place (call it another planet if you want to) called heaven. (3) There is another real place called hell. (4) Heaven is reserved for the children of the faith of Jesus Christ. (The O.T. saints looking forward to Calvary by faith—the N.T. saints looking backward by faith) God sincerely invites everyone to accept his offer to save them. (4) Hell is reserved for all who reject or neglect to receive God's invitation to salvation.

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 15, 1956

Dear George:

I have just learned that you are the Republican nominee for State Senator in the 18th District of Michigan. My heartiest congratulations!

The people in your District are fortunate to be in a position to elect a man of your capabilities to represent them in their State government.

It would seem to me that your excellent service over the years in the United States Secret Service, and your fine record as Police Commissioner in Detroit would illustrate your devotion to the public good. It is a record you can be proud of and I am sure the people of your district are also proud of it.

I hope, on November seventh, to find you have become part of our team.

My best wishes for your success at the polls.

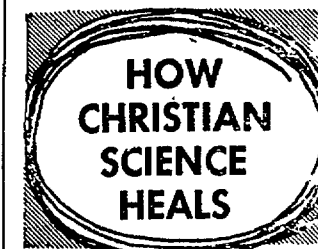

Sincerely,

Hapless Holly Wilts before Mustang Power

On the Rough Side . . .

In football, a game that thrives on bone-rattling tackles and stunning blocks, it's often difficult to tell where "hard" play ends and "dirty" play begins.

Most of the time.

Not so Friday night, however. As Northville was rolling up its 32-0 triumph over Holly, there could be little doubt that the Mustangs were being pommelled, punched and piled on.

There were too many bruised ribs and scratched faces to believe otherwise. Time and again, Northville players came off the field holding their stomachs, watering at the eyes, or spitting blood.

It wasn't that the Mustangs were "sissies" that night. Not once during the season have they gripped about hard play. They sat silently when teammate "Cap" Peithers writhed on the field with a broken leg after being hit with a hard — but clean — block by a Plymouth player.

But the Mustangs were unanimous Friday night in complaining about Holly play. One by one they repeated the same story: slugging, elbowing, piling on, clawing.

It must be pointed out, however, that some of it may have been accidental. Face guards make good "handles" when tackling; a scratched face can result. Some bruises are expected; they're part of the game.

Furthermore, the game's most serious injury — a dislocated shoulder suffered by Northville's Larry Clark — came when he was stepped on by his teammates while rushing for a fumble. Even so, there were those constant bruises, watering eyes, and bloody mouths. And the bitter — sometimes bewildered — complaints.

A lot of it was caught by the officials. Some of it wasn't. Officials warned against roughness four times. They said after the game that they could have called it off. But it would have been a black mark.

But a lot of it was missed. Possibly they didn't see it. Possibly they couldn't believe their eyes.

Even the penalties that were handed out don't tell the story. Northville had 10. Holly had six.

But six of Northville's were for offsides and illegal motion, in which no physical contact is involved. On the other hand, all of Holly's penalties were for physical-contact violations — including three personal fouls, which usually mean slugging.

Nor does the fact that Northville tackle Nelson Schrader was ejected from the game mean much. Whether he committed the violation is beside the point. But there was no doubt that he had not intended to. No one who saw the tears of bewilderment in his eyes would doubt that he felt — and possible was — wronged.

Whether Holly actually — and deliberately — played rougher than the rules allow cannot be proved. In fact, it would very likely be denied by Holly players, coaches and fans.

But to most of the several thousand fans who saw the game, it looked like it.

It's to the credit of the Northville team that they kept their tempers down and their hands to themselves. For all their anger and pain, they never lost the concept of sportsmanship that Coach Ron Schipper has instilled in them from season's beginning.

And it's equally to their credit that they could overlook the rough play and concentrate on football. Perhaps if the Holly gridders had done the same, they would have had a more respectable score to take home with them.

—Bob Webb

Northville Needs Win or Tie

With timely assists from West Bloomfield and Clarenceville, the Northville Mustangs all but sewed up the Wayne-Oakland league championship Friday night.

While Northville ground out a roaring 32-0 win over Holly, Clarenceville's defending champions jolted Brighton 25-12 and West Bloomfield dumped Milford 12-7.

The night's action left Northville with only a single tie on the debit side, while all other teams have at least two defeats.

The Mustangs now need only a win or tie to take the title. Brighton comes next, followed by West Bloomfield. Both have won two and lost two.

Holly, despite its loss to Northville, still remains in second place and has the best chance to beat the Mustangs to the championship.

The Northville Mustangs put on a devastating show of power Friday night as they ran roughshod over Holly, 32-0, and all but clinched the Wayne-Oakland championship.

A win or tie in their two remaining games will give the Mustangs the title.

In crushing Holly, Northville came up with its best game of the season. The Mustangs could hardly have played better football, either on offense or defense.

By way of contract, the heralded Holly squad seemed to be playing in the wrong league. Coming to Northville in hopes of taking the league lead from the Mustangs, Holly was completely inept in every respect.

While Northville was racking up 16 first downs and 428 yards on offense, Holly could hardly move the ball. Seldom in local annals has a team been defeated so thoroughly in every department. Holly's meager record for the game:

—a first half showing of one first down and three yards on offense.

—a total record of six first downs, four against second-stringers late in the fourth quarter.

—only 77 total offensive yards, 42 of which came in the fourth quarter with the score 32-0 against them.

—two completed passes in 10 attempts.

—possession of the ball for only 44 plays, while Northville ran 91 times.

Though the win was a team victory all the way, halfback Dick Biery and end Bill Yahne again led the Mustangs offensively.

Biery picked up 48 yards running, snared six passes for 146 yards, and went for two touchdowns. He played the last 20 minutes with scratched and badly-smarting eyes.

Yahne pulled down four passes for 76 yards, setting up two touchdowns.

Quarterback Bud Bell had his best passing night of the season, hitting on 13 of 22 attempts for 259 yards, and halfback Dave Adams entered the scoring column with two touchdowns.

Though pushing Holly up and down the field at will, Northville could score only once in the first half — a 57-yard drive featuring short gains by Biery and fullback Gary Holman. Holman finally scored from the 1.

A 68-yard drive in the second quarter ended abruptly when Bell fumbled inside the Holly 5.

The third quarter was all Northville, as the Mustangs banged to three successive touchdowns while Holly controlled the ball only six times and squeezed out a scant 15 yards.

Biery took a pass from Bell and went 57 yards for the first score. Adams plunged across from the 4 after a 54-yard drive for the second. And Bell again flipped to Biery for 25 yards and the third touchdown, after halfback Tom Andrews had set it up with a 41-yard dash.

Northville scored its fourth consecutive touchdown minutes after the fourth period opened with Adams going across from the 1. Bell passed to Yahne for 34 yards and to Biery for 29 to move the Mustangs in position.

From then on out, Holly banged away at the Mustang second team and moved to the Northville 4 before fumbling.

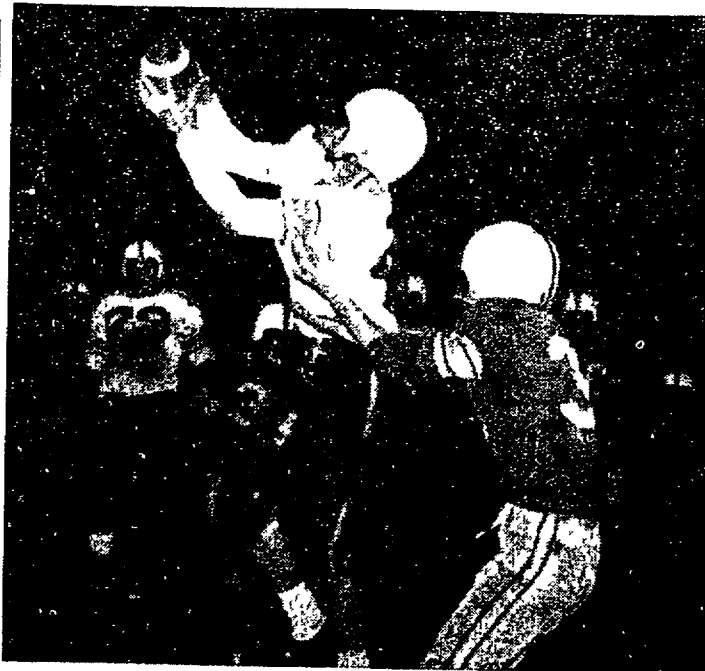

The game was marred throughout by penalties, with Northville receiving 10 for 90 yards and Holly six for 83. Officials halted play several times to warn against rough play.

Mitchell Paces Colts to 21-7 Victory

The Northville junior varsity now has a 4-2 record for the season.

The Northville junior varsity chalked up its fourth win of the season last week by dumping Clarkston, 21-7, after holding their opponents scoreless until the last three minutes.

Quarterback Joe Kritch, whose passing has sparked the Colts' attack, was held to "only" one touchdown throw — a toss to Larry Nitzel.

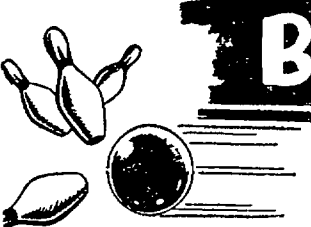

Fred Mitchell was the big gun for Northville, hitting pay dirt twice for the Colts. Kritch kicked all three conversions. Coach Stan Johnston's team

St. Paul's Church Plans Observance Of National Event

Members of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Northville, and the Rev. B. J. Pankow, pastor, will participate in a unique "Preaching, Teaching, Reaching" program of Christian evangelism during the week of November 11th to 15th.

Integrated into a national program of this year's "Venture of Faith" of the Lutheran church's Missouri Synod, the local effort is being sponsored by more than 60 Lutheran parishes in Greater Detroit.

Highlight of the entire effort will be the "Preaching" part of the program in connection with a schedule of informal worship services to be held in the individual churches each evening from Sunday through Thursday.

At St. Paul's Lutheran church services will begin at 8 p.m., and a series of informative and inspirational addresses will be given by the Rev. Martin Frenk, guest missionary from Joliet, Illinois.

The area-wide effort will get underway with a mass Rally Service in the new Henry Ford auditorium on Sunday, November 11th at 3 p.m.

The "Teaching" emphasis will consist of a daily school for pastors each morning in designated churches and a training period for laymen and women at the participating churches each evening preceding the service. At St. Paul's church these sessions will begin with a fellowship supper at 6 p.m.

A neighborhood canvass, followed by special invitation calls on the unchurched and interested prospects in the community is the immediate aim of the "Reaching" part of this "Crusade for Christ." Information classes on the teaching and practice of the Lutheran church will be held following the week's effort.

Rest for the Weary

The Bible is filled with gracious invitations to salvation — "gracious" because they have their source in the pure grace and love of God. One of the most beautiful of these invitations is recorded in Matthew 11:28, where Jesus, the Son of God Himself, entreats: "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest."

God is not obligated to invite us to salvation. Because of the multitude of our sins, He, according to His strict justice would be in the right to cast us off forever. But God is a merciful and loving God, and therefore sent His Son to pay the price of our sins and to remove the horrible burden of our sins. Jesus became the Burden-bearer. He took the heavy-burden of sin from us and placed it upon His own shoulders.

"Surely He hath borne our griefs and carried our sorrows... The Lord hath laid on Him the iniquity of us all... And He bare the sin of many." (Isaiah 53:4-6-12). Jesus carried the heavy load of the world's sin to the cross of Calvary and there atoned for the transgressions of all.

To whom does Christ now extend his saving invitation? To all. His invitation is just as all-inclusive as His work of redemption. How many "labor and are heavy laden?" All. "Come unto Me, ALL ye that labor and are heavy laden." Every single human being is in need of having the burden of sin removed. All need the rest that Christ has to offer. All the searching and the striving of the world after peace, contentment, happiness, rest and joy is fruitless unless it is aimed in the direction of the open arms of Christ. It is a laboring like that of so many slaves chained to the galleys.

But what shall we say of those who claim that they feel no burden of sin? The answer is contained in the following story. While an Indiana evangelist was preaching on a certain occasion, a flippant youth interrupted him: "You tell me about the burden of sin. I feel none. How heavy is it?" The preacher answered: "Tell me, if you laid a 500 pound weight on a corpse, would it feel the load?" The youth replied: "No, because it's dead." The preacher said: "And that spirit, too, is dead which feels no load of sin."

Those who, on the other hand, recognize their sins, repent of them, and look to Christ for forgiveness are promised rest. That is the relief that the weary most of all desire—REST. The laborer at the end of his day's toil wants nothing more than to completely extend his weary body in such a way that all of his muscles can relax and be at ease. And so in Christ the weary reclines and finds rest and repose. His sin-troubled heart, mind, and conscience find peace, sweet peace, and finally the peace and finally the peace and rest of heaven.

I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Come unto Me and rest;
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down,
Thy head upon My breast."

I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary and worn and sad;
I found in Him a resting place,
And He has made me glad.

You Voted for PEACE ... AND GOT IT!

Now Your Vote Is Needed To Protect It!

● President Eisenhower brought us peace. Ike brought us prosperity, too, without having American boys dying on foreign soil to pay for it! You can put your trust in President Eisenhower.

● But, can you trust the future of your children, your home, your job, your country to the Democratic Party that is advocating weakening of our defense? Can you? You be the judge on November 6th at the polls!

● Every man and woman in Michigan should read this editorial from the Detroit Free Press (October 23) before voting:

BACK IKE WITH MICHIGAN'S BEST

Excerpt from editorial in The Detroit Free Press, Oct. 23, 1956.

"By injecting his own ideas and preferences, Premier Bulganin (of Russia) took sides in the campaign. He currently endorsed Adlai Stevenson's position on the issue, if he did not endorse Mr. Stevenson. But any American is entitled to the opinion that he did.

"The President's reply to Bulganin was an equally well-deserved rebuke to Mr. Stevenson.

"The latter invited Russian interest by raising, in the heat of a political campaign, an issue which is so closely related to the defense of this Country that it has no proper place in politics.

"Bulganin took advantage of the opening which Mr. Stevenson provided him; it was as improper as if the Communist leader had offered his advice to the Democratic aspirant about any other phase of United States defense policy, including the size of the Air Force.

"It can hardly be thought that Bulganin's preferences in regard to H-bomb tests would not conform to Russia's interest.

"What Bulganin said in his letter, in effect, was that he would prefer to do business with Mr. Stevenson on the bomb issue, rather than with President Eisenhower.

"The implication of this should not be lost on the American voter. Twice before, at Yalta and Potsdam, the Russians dealt with heads of Democratic Administrations on matters which shaped the course of history to the Red's advantage. They have not done so well with the Eisenhower Administration. It is understandable that the Kremlin would be happier dealing again with Democrats in charge of our foreign policy."

A WORKSHOP file can be made from a length of 1/2" door spring fastened at each end to a wooden back or directly to the wall, according to The Home Craftsman. As illustrated, the spring provides a generous clip-type holder for sheets of sandpaper, small plans or blueprints, seed packets, photographs and similar items. This type of file may be used not only in a workshop but a garage, den or darkroom. Its advantage lies in its adaptability to various sizes and thicknesses of material placed in it. All are kept within full view and easy reach.

Extra Room Can Be Inexpensive

Would you like to add an attractive extra room to your present living space without spending a barrel of money? Then you'll be wise to check carefully into all the various Add-A-Room possibilities that are open to you.

Whether you're interested in adding a new bedroom, rumpus room, combination den-guest room, or something else, chances are you can find some space that's already under roof which you can use for the project.

These under-roof areas, at any rate, are the first you should consider, since it's generally much more economical to utilize such an area than build an entire new addition.

The cost of a particular Add-A-Room project depends of course on many factors such as the exact size of the new room, the building materials used, the nature of any plumbing and heating installations, etc., which may be necessary.

It is often possible to create an additional room in a basement or attic on a $400 budget, or to convert a garage or enclose a porch or breezeway for about $800 to $1,000.

If one consider the value of an added room, and what it can mean in increased comfort, convenience and pleasure, these figures are reasonable indeed.

It should be noted, moreover, that labor costs average up to 60 per cent of the cost of the complete job. So if you're at all handy with tools, there's no reason why you can't substantially reduce the cost of your project by doing all or part of the work yourself.

To secure expert advice and guidance, consult with your lumber or building materials dealer. Your contractor can build the entire room or just the shell of the addition, installing wiring and heating, and let you finish the job yourself.

Available today are many varieties of gypsum wallboard, pre-fabricated floor sections, packaged windows and doors which you can apply or install, yourself.

Almost always, a well-designed room adds far more to the value of a home than it costs. Home improvement loans for this purpose are easy to obtain from your bank or other lending institution.

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-378

DESIGN C378. A rectangular plan and gable roof assure the utmost economy in construction through labor savings and elimination of waste.

This is such a plan, consisting of three bedrooms, a bath, lavatory in front bedroom, kitchen-dinette, large living room and full basement.

Wide siding on the exterior is combined with shutters, brick planter and broken eave lines for a low, attractive house.

There are seven closets, including coat closets and linen cabinet.

The kitchen has cabinets on two walls and a large space for a dining table. Floor area is 1176 square feet and cubage is 22,344 cubic feet.

For further information about DESIGN C378, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minnesota.

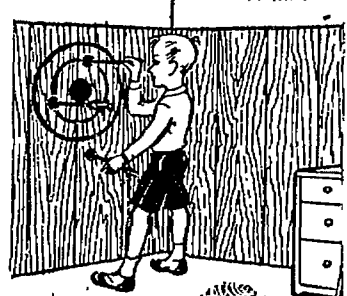

The ability of a material to stand up under intense heat for long periods of time is the true test of its fire safety, according to the National Lumber Manufacturers' association. The fact that wood is combustible, while steel is non-combustible, has led to the popular misconception that steel is safer, the lumbermen point out. Actual fire records prove that heavy timbers retain their load-carrying capacities long after unprotected steel members have collapsed.

As the size of families has increased in recent years, the need for storage space in the average home has grown more acute. To solve their storage problems, many improvement minded home owners are turning to wood built-ins and multi-tier room dividers. The National Lumber Manufacturers' association suggests that home owners consider installing a wood paneled wall at the same time they add cabinets and shelving, to give their rooms a whole new personality as well as greater utility.

Children Play Darts on Marlite Wainscot

IN a child's room, the lower wall area or wainscot is subject to a considerable beating which necessitates frequent redecorating. On the market is a wall material which is ideally suited for the wainscot. Known as Marlite, a decorated hardboard with a plastic surface, these panels never need redecorating.

Those shown are planks 16" wide. They are easy to put up, as they have tongue and groove edges and metal clips which enable even an amateur craftsman to put them up accurately. These particular planks have a wood-grain finish. Others come in pastel colors.

So durable are these planks, youngsters can play a target game drawn on them with a wax crayon. They use suction-cupped darts. Marks like the ones made for the target are removed with a damp cloth. The durable material under the plastic finish is lime-treated Masonite Preswood.

Of course, the wainscot may be full-width, 4' panels of Marlite. Recommended for the upper walls and ceiling are blocks, 16" square, which come in the same variety of patterns and shades as the planks. All are available at lumber yards.

Northville Sends 4 to U-M For Student Council Meet

Four Northville high school representatives joined with 1,200 other students and faculty advisors from lower Michigan Tuesday at the 12th annual Michigan Conference of Student Councils at the University of Michigan.

Attending from NHS were Assistant Principal Fred Stefanski, Student Council President Janice Howarth, Jim Hammond and Judy Junod.

Sponsored by the University of Michigan Bureau of School Services, this year's conference was on the theme, "Leaders Today and Tomorrow". Student government leaders from the U-M participated extensively in the program for the first time.

Headquarters in the Rackham Building, the conference opened with an address by Marie Rasey, professor of education at Wayne State University.

Following the general assembly, students participated in 12 discussion groups on different phases of student council activity, while faculty advisors met separately.

Following luncheon at the Michigan League Ballroom, the faculty advisers met again in the Rackham Amphitheatre.

Class Helps Change to NHS

In past years, many students have entered high school in a state of bewilderment — not knowing what subjects to take, how to act, or how to dress.

This year Northville has tried to remedy this situation by offering a high school planning class to eighth graders.

The class is led by Frederick Stefanski, assistant principal. It is primarily a discussion class with no text books used. Students discuss common problems such as dating, clothing and conduct.

graders learn that their classmates share the same problems they do. Mr. Stefanski has a tentative list of questions, but generally the topics of discussion rise from within in the class itself.

The class lasts for 10 weeks during which time one week is spent in library training. Various aptitude tests are also given to help the student decide on what subjects to take in high school.

The students have responded very favorably to this class. It gives them the opportunity to air their troubles among those who have experienced them also. They are helped to look into these problems sensibly, to discover an acceptable solution, rather than procrastinate.

This is the first year of the high school planning class, but they hope to continue it in the years to come, since it has had such promising results.

Library Prepares For "Book Week"

The NHS library is working to get ready for "Book Week" during the second week of November.

A shipment of new books arrived and will be available to the students. The librarian, Miss Ione B. Palmer, and her library staff are getting ready for this.

Miss Palmer and the staff have also devised a system for taking magazines out of the library. Students will sign magazines out on a special slip designed for the purpose. Magazines are allowed out for two days only and after 8:30 a.m. there will be a charge of five cents an hour. With this aid, more magazines will be in on time, and there will be more for everyone to read.

PTA Hears Views Of Student Panel

The PTA meeting last Thursday was one that was as different as it was interesting.

A special panel of teenagers was invited to act as representatives for the high school students. Panel members gave their views and opinions on any questions that were asked.

The reason for such a panel? The PTA feels that the citizens of Northville should show still more interest in activities of Northville youth. They feel something must be done about the situation.

Dr. Robert Yoder directed the panel which consisted of Janice Howarth, David Dahl, Dennis Fallen, Clair St. John and Sharon Louton. Also on the panel were Recreation Director Stan Johnston and Mrs. Pat Junod.

What has the PTA done so far about their problem? They sponsored a dance on October 20 and are planning more Saturday evening activities.

These activities are open to grades 9-12. Alumni, too, are invited providing they are accompanied by a present student.

Pep Club to Fete Orange and Black

Plans for an "Orange and Black Day" this Friday were made by the NHS Pep club after school last Thursday. A committee was chosen to paint a slogan sign for the Brighton game.

A second committee was selected to make bows of orange and black, which will be sold in school on Friday. A pep assembly Friday and bonfire next week were also discussed. The idea will be a big success since, nothing like it has ever been attempted before at Northville high school.

Student Directory On Sale at N.H.S.

The much publicized Student Directories went on sale for the first time last Thursday.

The directories are orange and black booklets which contain the address and phone number of every student and teacher in NHS, plus a calendar of important dates and events. Also, there are several pages for personal notations.

HOBBY HORSES — Jayne Hammond, a sophomore at NHS, finds that collecting miniature horses can be educational as well as fun.

Finds Miniature Horses Make an Interesting Hobby

Have you ever had a hobby? This is a question that Northville high school reporters will be asking fellow students, believing that every person young and old should have some type of hobby.

Jayne Hammond of 549 Grace street agrees wholeheartedly. She is 15 years old and a sophomore at NHS.

Her hobby may be a surprise to some. It seems that Jayne is a lover of horses. And since horses are quite expensive, she decided to collect miniature horse statues. She now has a collection of 16 from all over the country. She had a few more but they were accidentally broken.

Her collection started when she was eight, and she has let her hobby rest a little lately, but she claims it is a temporary rest. Jayne says that a hobby can be fun and still be very educational. She said it's even possible to know a good horse when she sees one after having such good miniature models.

Senior Dramatists Get First-Hand Tips On English Accents

The seniors have been receiving outside help in the preparation of their class play, "The Barretts of Wimpole Street".

Miss Panattoni, director, asked Mrs. Cliff Hill to coach the cast on imitating an authentic English accent.

Mrs. Hill began appearing at rehearsals two weeks ago in order to teach the cast members individually. She feels that everyone is coming along very nicely with the "imitation" accent.

Mrs. Hill was born and raised in Margate, in Kent, England. When asked if she remembered any special thing about her younger days in England, she replied that the young people enjoyed "tearing around" on horseback tremendously. She also remembers her experiences as a Girl Guide, which is similar to the Girl Scouts.

Mrs. Hill first arrived in the U.S. in 1948 and has remained here ever since, although she did visit her native land for a two-week period in April, 1955.

Voters Asked to Amend Constitution

A CLEAN BILL of health was accorded the State Liquor Control Commission at a recent Senate hearing held in Lansing.

Climaxing a three month investigation which drew charges of "politics" from Democratic leaders, the Republican staffed committee issued an interim report. It said the commission was a victim of "harmless and vicious" rumors.

Early Democratic outcries, calling the hearing a "GOP plot" to embarrass Gov. Williams' controlled Liquor Commission, proved completely off base. Hearings, headed by Senator John Minnema (R-Traverse City), dealt with the singular purpose of "clearing the air" of unproven charges leveled at the commission. Members of both parties expressed satisfaction with procedures.

Basically the investigation proved that allegations against the commission were unfounded. Perhaps of greater future value were recommendations for improving commission procedures.

One committee suggestion is to increase the commission from three to five members, with two of them assigned to judge liquor violation cases. This received the support of Commissioner Kenneth J. Daniels of Jackson. At present, hearings of violations are running about four months behind in some areas of the state. Under the proposed system, Daniels states, the offices of examiners could be abolished, with the number of appeals to the full commission effectively reduced. Work could be speeded up about 50 per cent.

Special licensing of real estate brokers who deal in bar sales also received committee support. According to Walter Nowack, head of the commission's enforcement division, there is much concern about the problem created by persons who claim they have influence to get an assignment of liquor licenses.

Direct supervision by the commission would wipe out this vicious racket, Nowack states.

VIRTUALLY ECLIPSED BY candidates and issues in the coming campaign is a proposition which may surprise voters who learn of it for the first time when they reach the polls.

Citizens will be expressing approval or disapproval of an amendment to the state Constitution. The proposal would set new qualifications for candidates seeking election as state Senator or Representative.

Initiated by the Legislature, the amendment requires that a candidate must be 21 years old and never convicted of subversion or of a felony involving a breach of the public trust.

Two considerations are involved in this single proposal. First—the age restriction. Second—the ban on persons convicted of certain felonies.

Present wording of the state Constitution states that a legislator must be "a qualified elector of the district he represents." This means he must be 21 years old.

The actual numerical age of "21" is proposed in anticipation of future actions which could lower the voting age to 18. In such an event, 18-year-olds would become qualified electors under the present constitutional provision and eligible to hold legislative seats.

The change in wording, would set a permanent age limit of 21 for legislators, even if the voting age limit is lowered.

Both houses have the right to seat any of their elected members. This power is much broader than the proposed constitutional change.

However, when they exercise that power there is apt to be considerable controversy. It happened in 1954 when the Senate refused to seat Anthony J. Wilkowski, a Hamtramck Democrat. He was convicted 20 years earlier on a vote fraud charge. When the Republican Senate refused to seat him after his re-election in 1954, Democrats charged that the move was strictly political.

Legislators would no longer decide the question. The court conviction would automatically bar such a person from being elected. There could be no recurrence of the 1954 fight with overtones of "politics".

MICHIGAN'S CENSORSHIP law banning "obscene books" will soon be tested in court to determine its validity. According to opponents of the law, it is too vague to be properly enforced.

The current problem stems from a Detroit police department action banning the sale of certain paper backed books from newsstands where they would be readily available to minors.

The present law reads that publication or sale of any book containing obscene, immoral, lewd or lascivious language tending to incite minors to violence or depraved or immoral acts is banned.

Much of the argument is concerned with an interpretation of the word "obscene". The difficulty arises when trying to define which specific books and under what specific conditions books can be described in this manner.

Behind the local conflict there are several basic issues. For example: How far can censorship go in a country that provides freedom of speech and yet must recognize social responsibility? What factors must be considered to determine if a book should be banned? Who shall have the power to ban books? How great will this power be? These are the real questions the courts must decide.

How Many Will Vote?

Next Tuesday millions of voters in the world's mightiest nation will decide whether their elected officials will remain in office for another term.

Our system of free enterprise and elections has never shown more brilliantly than now, when headlines blaze the story of peoples in Hungary who long to enjoy the privilege of freedom.

This alone should serve to remind us that our right to vote is a sacred privilege which SHOULD NOT BE IGNORED.

In Northville, Novi Township and Northville Township more than 6,000 residents have registered. This will mark the largest vote ever cast in our area... IF EACH PERSON WHO REGISTERED REMEMBERS TO VOTE!

It would seem worthless to bother to register and then not vote, yet records show that this occurs in hundreds of cases each election.

We hope that each and every qualified voter will take the few minutes required to visit the polls on Tuesday and cast his vote. Every effort is being made by various organizations throughout the area to making voting as easy as possible. Free transportation and baby sitting service has been arranged. All you must do is pull the levers of your choice.

Regardless of your party preference, as a stockholder in the largest business in the world, be sure you "share" in the responsibility which belongs to each of us. VOTE TUESDAY!
