

Mothers March to Climax Polio Campaign

CHRISTMAS FOR CAROL ANN was highlighted by the rocking horse given her by the Eagles Auxiliary. Even so, her puppy "Lucy", managed to steal quite a bit of time from his little mistress.

Rocking Horse Brightens Christmas for Carol Ann

It was a merry Christmas for Carol Ann Donnelly.

From the way her eyes beamed when she saw the Christmas tree, one would hardly guess the pretty little blonde is fighting leukemia.

And from the way she laughed as she rode her new rocking horse, one would not believe she must take daily doses of medicine to ward off the killing disease for the time being.

Carol Ann doesn't know it herself, of course. And so she enjoyed Christmas to the fullest—as any 3-year-old would.

Of all the gifts she received, her favorite was the rocking horse—sent to her by the Eagles Auxiliary, who have looked on Carol Ann with special fondness ever since the leukemia was discovered last summer.

A group of Detroit women who read about Carol Ann also helped make her Christmas happy. The Pythian Sisters, Club of Cadillac, sent a check to help buy the medicines that keep her alive.

And there were many other gifts from friends and strangers alike who wanted to do something for the smiling little girl.

Christmas really began Saturday night, when the Novi Girl Scouts sang carols outside while Carol Ann watched from her window.

She and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rene Donnelly of 45350 West Ten Mile road, spent Christmas Eve at home and went to visit friends for the celebration Christmas Day.

Still, there are the doctor's words... a matter of months... living from week to week.

But Carol Ann is very happy nowadays, her mother says, and Christmas was the happiest time of all.

Minister to Host College Students

Invitations went out this week to the college men and women of the First Presbyterian church of Northville to attend a holiday brunch tomorrow.

The Reverend and Mrs. John O. Taxis open their home annually for this informal morning get-together.

Students home for the holidays will also take part in an informal panel discussion for Christian Student Night December 30.

Parents and teen-agers are welcome to hear the discussion on the problems youth faces and take part in an open forum of questions to follow. The meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. at the church.

Sought Northville Officer's Aid

Nowicki Gets Another Escapee

Apprehending prison escapees, form, the stranded motorist became getting to be old stuff with Ramon Nowicki, Northville police officer.

And apparently he's careful not to let it interfere with his regular working hours.

No one knows this better than Paul Chase, 32, Nebraska State penitentiary escapee. His "Christmas vacation" was cut short by Nowicki at 12:20 a.m. Wednesday as the officer was returning to his Livonia home after duty that had ended at midnight.

Nowicki, driving west on Plymouth road just outside the city limits of Plymouth, stopped his car when hailed by a motorist who appeared to be injured. Behind Nowicki, in another car, was a neighbor, Edward Lupiesz, who also stopped.

The stranded motorist approached Lupiesz' car first and reported that he was out of gas. He was limping and had one shoe removed.

As Nowicki approached, in un-

OFFICER RAMON NOWICKI relates the details of how he apprehended a Nebraska penitentiary escapee Wednesday morning. Nowicki was returning home from duty here shortly after midnight when the incident occurred.

Bernard Orchard Appeals Decision

The Bernard Orchard company has gone to court to appeal a recent Northville township zoning board decision not to rezone a site for a trailer park.

Court date has not yet been set, but the trial is expected to be held in Wayne county circuit court sometime within the next two months.

The zoning board turned down on October 19 the company's request to rezone some 80 acres from agricultural to industrial usage, reportedly for a trailer park. The site is north of Six Mile road and east of the C&O railway right of way.

In denying the request, the township board ruled the proposed rezoning would be against the health and general welfare interests of the township. Board members also cited a potential traffic problem.

The hearings in October were marked by outspoken protests against the rezoning by property owners who felt the rezoning would affect property values and the community in general.

The Bernard Orchard company is appealing the decision on grounds that it is "unreasonable."

Mitchell to Preside Over School Board

A man with a long record of being president of school boards has been named to the same office again—this time for the newly-formed Novi community school district.

James Mitchell was elected president of the Novi board of education at a special meeting last Wednesday.

It's the third school board presidency for Mitchell. Previously he served in that office for the former Novi 8 school district, and later for the interim board of education of the Novi district.

In addition, Mitchell is a former superintendent of Novi school. Also named to office at the meeting Monday were: Mrs. Georgia Larson, secretary; Jack Crawford, treasurer; and Kenneth Bernard and Arthur Heslip, trustees.

All five members were elected from a field of 10 candidates on December 17 when the newly-formed district voted for its first permanent board of education.

Four of them—all but Crawford—had been members of the interim board which had served since four districts were consolidated by a public vote in October.

The interim board met early Wednesday night to canvass votes from the election Monday. Then, with Crawford taking a seat at the table, the new permanent board took over all duties and obligations of educating Novi's youth.

After electing officers, the board organized for the coming year and informally discussed problems which now face the school district.

On her birthday, Miss Tremper received flowers—and many welcome callers appeared to wish her well and take her picture.

Marks 90th Holiday Season

Celebrating her 90th "happy new year" next week will be Miss Grace Tremper, whose 90th birthday was last Sunday.

The clear voice and hair that's more golden in color than white are deceiving—for Miss Tremper surely doesn't look her 90 years.

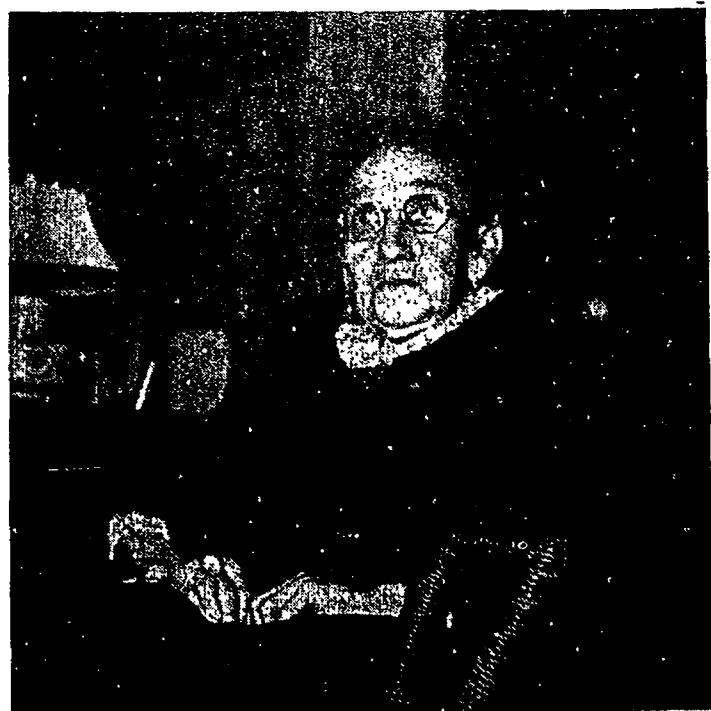

Born in 1886 in West Bloomfield, Miss Tremper moved to Northville with her mother in 1907 after the death of her father. For six years she set type for the Northville Record—and in those days, each letter had to be set by hand.

When her mother became invalided, Miss Tremper stopped working and began keeping house for her—which she did until her mother passed away at the age of 82.

One of the biggest thrills of her life came in 1907, when she was one of 39 winners of a Detroit Free Press contest, the prize being a two week trip to Quebec.

A member of the First Methodist church of Northville, Miss Tremper is the namesake of one of the women's circles—the "Grace Tremper" circle is named after her.

She now lives with Miss Ethel Seely on Dunlap street. Together they enjoyed Christmas festi-

Drive Against Disease Begins Next Tuesday

Plans for a three-way attack on polio in Northville throughout the month of January—highlighted by the annual Mother's March were announced this week by Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, local chairman.

Northville contributions will be received from the schools, from canister and card donations, and during the wind-up door-to-door campaign—which annually raises almost half of the total March of Dimes fund.

Heading the Mother's March will be Mrs. Edward Angove, in charge of the school drive is Fred Stefanski, and canister and card collections will be handled by Gill Glasson. Northville treasurer is Mrs. Fred Russell.

Volunteers are especially needed for the Mother's March, to be held from 7 to 8 p.m. January 31, reports Mrs. Angove. Even women who will be unable to participate can help by recruiting volunteers in their neighborhoods.

While county goals are never set, it is estimated that the national need is for $46,900,000. Most of this is to provide medical care and rehabilitation for 80,000 patients—16,000 of them 1956 victims—who are fighting to return to normal living.

Rehabilitation has a special budget of five million dollars in the estimated needs. Research on the causes and cure or prevention of polio will continue. This includes further research on perfecting the Salk vaccine.

The job is not yet finished—there were epidemics in Chicago this year and in Boston in 1955. And they can happen anywhere until every child—and adult—is protected by three shots of the Salk vaccine.

Wayne county health officer Dr. Howard Cadwell states that there is now an ample supply of vaccine in Northville for everyone and urges that all children aged 1-14 should begin the series of shots as soon as possible. Vaccine for this age group is paid for by the state from tax funds.

Dr. Cadwell also stated that supplies of vaccine are now adequate to treat persons through age 40, age being no immunity to the disease. The cost for material to persons over 14 is approximately one dollar per shot, he said.

So that there may be no case of anyone not able to have the vaccination because of financial reasons, the National Foundation has in its 1957 budget allotted ten million dollars to supply vaccine to such persons.

If the Salk vaccine is used between now and the spring, the Foundation has every reason to hope that paralytic polio will be abolished by December 31, 1957.

Ray J. Casterline Suffers Stroke

Northville Funeral Director Ray J. Casterline was taken to Sessions hospital Monday afternoon following a stroke which occurred while he was preparing to conduct a service.

Casterline, 64, was rushed to the hospital by his son, Fred. His condition was termed as serious.

A Busy Year

What were the top stories in Northville in 1956?

That's a matter of opinion, but The Record offers these as possibilities:

—Robertson Takes Over as City Manager"

—"Voters Approve $3,000,000 School Bond Issue"

—"Police Seek Woman for Swindling Northville Residents"

—"Mustangs Take Championship"

These, of course, are only a few of the many happenings that made news in Northville during the past year.

For others—as well as pictures of the things and events that filled our pages—turn to pages 8 and 9.

There you'll also find a round-up of the year's news in Novi township, where they had quite a struggle over a proposed race track and... well, you can see for yourself.

And we think you'll probably agree with the headline on the round-up:

"Backward Glance Shows 1956 was a Busy Year in Northville and Novi."

Merchants to Honor 1957's First Baby With Array of Gifts

The first baby born in 1957 to parents residing in Northville or Novi will be warm, healthy and well-dressed!

A royal welcome has been promised by eight Northville merchants who are sponsoring a special First Baby contest. They'll treat Mr. or Miss 1957 with clothes, food and accessories.

The contest, full details of which may be found on page 12, is limited to parents who have a mailing address of Northville or Novi.

Rules of the contest are simple. Parents must report the birth of their child to The Northville Record before 5 p.m. January 10. Exact time of birth must be verified by the attending physician.

It is not necessary that the baby be born in Northville or Novi, since many residents attend hospitals in Detroit or Ann Arbor.

All the prizes will be awarded to the baby born at the earliest hour following midnight, December 31, 1956.

The merchants sponsoring the contest and the prizes offered are: Freydl's Women's (bonnet and matching sweater); Lawrence Mayer, Florist (bouquet for mother); Tewksbury Jewelers (fork and spoon set); Stone's Gamble Store (baby scales); S.L. Brader's (blanket); Cloverdale Farms Dairy (15 half-gallons of milk); E.M.B. Food Market (case of baby food); and D & C Stores, Inc. (pair of shoes).

Local Mail Load Tops Other Years

Christmas mail poured through the Northville post office in record amounts this year reaching a peak day of 33,000 cancellations.

According to Postmaster Leland Smith, for 13 days prior to December 23, an average of 25,000 pieces of mail was sent through the local office. "Approximately 25 percent more mail also arrived at our office," Smith pointed out.

Previous high for one day's cancellations in Northville was 30,000. Smith reported that with added employees and constant deliveries, the office was able to keep up with the deluge.

He explained that much more mail is received than sent because of Maybury Sanatorium and the Training School, where numerous cards and packages are received.

Goodwill Pickup Planned Thursday

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks to Northville is scheduled for next Thursday.

Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pick-up, call the local Goodwill representative Miss Edith Sorenson, at Northville 571.

LISTENING TO A FAVORITE STORY from Nancy, 9, are the rest of the Donald Cook family of Willowbrook drive, Willowbrook Village—Doug, 4; Mrs. Cook and Don, 6 weeks; Mr. Cook and David, 5. Their new home saw its first Christmas Tuesday—they have only been there 3 weeks.

Spending the holidays in their new home of three weeks is the family of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Cook of Willowbrook drive, Willowbrook Village.

A former Wayne university student, Mr. Cook is the technical director of X-Ray, Incorporated of Detroit, a firm engaged in X-raying aircraft engines and missiles.

The Cooks lived in Detroit before moving to Willowbrook with their four children — Nancy, 9; David, 5; Doug, 4, and Don, six weeks old.

Mrs. Cook, whose home town is Reese, Michigan, enjoys playing golf with her husband, who likes outdoor activities, including fishing and hunting.

The entire family is also looking forward to ice skating on the community rink — if the weather will be obliging.

Though they have only been here a short time, the Cooks think they are going to like the village very much — "it's especially nice for the children," Mrs. Cook said.

Dance Funds Help Maybury Activities

Cinderella Ball funds are giving a big boost to the activities at Wm. H. Maybury Sanatorium these days.

On December 17 the Women's committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Society delivered to the children's unit at the sanatorium a truckload of toys, pajamas and other useful apparel gifts.

A $750 sum from their Cinderella Ball receipts is being used for patient, family and visitor education programs throughout the year.

In the recreational equipment line, the women this season have provided $1,000 worth of shuffleboards, television sets and pocket billiard tables.

Another $300 of their fund was dispatched to Maybury to provide patient manuals which help all admissions to better understand their disease and the hospital's facilities and services to help them regain their health.

The Women's committee Cinderella Ball is staged each November with a former TB patient in the role of Cinderella. The Women's committee is also aiding the current Christmas Seal Sale to raise funds for the TB and Health Society and the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium. These funds also aid in Maybury projects.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Tewksbury, Sr. were Christmas guests of the Otis Tewksbury, Jr.'s of North Center street.

What's Cooking?

(What's your favorite dish? If you will share it with other Northville housewives, please call The Northville Record's society editor, telephone 200.)

SICING THE BREAD — Boston Brown Bread — is Mrs. J. Bine Leavenworth of Randolph street. Waiting to get into the act are children, Carol, 11; Earl, 8, and Jay, 14, who will need no persuading. The Leavenworth's have another daughter, Lois, 16.

The holiday season is always accompanied by hearty meals — even those made with leftovers. And whether your dinner is a brand new one or consists of Christmas remnants, Mrs. J. Bine Leavenworth's Boston Brown Bread will be a handsome and tempting table addition.

Mr. and Mrs. Leavenworth live on Randolph street with their four children — Earl, 8; Carol, 11; Jay, 14, and Lois, 16.

BOSTON BROWN BREAD
1½ cups raisins
1½ cups water
1 tablespoon butter or oleo

1 teaspoon vanilla
2½ cups flour
1 cup sugar
2 teaspoons soda
1 egg
½ cup nutmeats
Simmer water and raisins 15 minutes. Add butter, and vanilla and cool. Put flour, sugar, salt, soda and egg in large bowl. Add raisins and water. Mix well. Add nuts and bake in well oiled and floured pan 45 to 60 minutes at 375 degrees.
For quick fruit cake, add ½ cup butter, 1 cup brown sugar, and plenty of mixed fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Koontz Have Canadian Honeymoon

At an evening ceremony December 15, May Marie Johnson and William Koontz were united in marriage at the Kingdom Hall in Plymouth by Del Ludwig of the congregation of Farmington Jehovah Witnesses.

The former Miss Johnson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Johnson of Elm Place, South Lyon. Mr. Koontz' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Lookie Koontz of Randolph street, Northville.

The hall was decorated with a large floral arrangement of pink and white gladioli, pink carnations and white mums, blueberry foliage and maiden hair ferns.

The bride wore a white floor-length gown of lace and net over satin and gold slippers. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. Her bouquet was of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. David Williams, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Her dress was of blue lace over taffeta with a bolero jacket. Her pink carnation headpiece matched the flowers of her bouquet.

David Williams was bestman, and ushering was Lee Willoughby.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Johnson wore a blue suit and white jeweled hat and a white rose corsage. Mrs. Koontz wore a cinnamon toned suit with matching hat and pink rose corsage.

Guests from surrounding communities, Detroit, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin joined the couple after the ceremony at the reception at the Grange Hall in South Lyon.

For her wedding trip into Canada, the new Mrs. Koontz wore an ice blue suit with gold accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds will make their home in Plymouth.

YOUR SILENT SERVANT

Gas Burns Up All
Garbage And Trash

A gas incinerator disposes of everything from vacuum cleaner sweepings to ham bones and work bench litter. The fine ash it leaves need only be disposed of once or twice a month and makes a good fertilizer.

There are more than a dozen manufacturers in the field. Basically, incinerators are of two efficient types: (1) Those with a clock control that sets off a high, hot flame. (2) Those with a steady pilot flame. Models are available for both inside and outside installation.

A gas incinerator costs no more than a sink disposer, yet does twice the work . . . And they operate for only a few cents a day.

Only GAS does so much, so well . . . the modern fuel for automatic cooking . . . refrigeration . . . water-heating . . . house-heating . . . air conditioning . . . clothes-drying . . . incineration.

Christ At The Door of Our Heart

In the course of our life many types of people have come to the doors of our homes, and we can recall the features of many of these. Some were vagrant beggars; some were unemployed, looking for work; others were agents and salesmen. And there before the entrance of our homes especially remember the happy faces of our friends and relatives arriving or reluctantly departing, some soon to return, others perhaps never.

Now there is One who has often approached our homes in the past, but whom, strange to say, we have never seen with our eyes.

To some He may be a total stranger, but in truth He is the greatest Friend of us all—none other than the dear Lord Jesus Christ Himself. It is He, our loving Redeemer, who again during this Yuletide stands at our door, entreating: "Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with Me" (Revelation 3:20).

There is a beautiful painting which many of us have seen. Jesus is standing at a door knocking. He is leaning forward with staff in hand and is shown with an anxious expression upon His countenance, as if expecting that the door will be opened to Him before long.

How Does Jesus Let Us Know Of His Presence?
Of course, it is no ordinary door at which the Savior stands. It is our heart's door. And it is no ordinary means that He uses when He knocks. He uses His Word. However, when Jesus knocks by means of His Word, He makes a definite distinction whether to use His Law or His Gospel.

At the door of the secure and self-righteous sinner Jesus first of all knock with His Law in all its severity. All passages in His Word like: "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23) and "For as many as are of the works of the Law are under the curse" (Galatians 3:10) and "The wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23) are hard knocks and heavy hammer-blows on the heart's door of individuals who think that they can do very well without Jesus Christ. They are blows that are aimed to jolt them out of their self-satisfied security and to bring them to repentance. Such passages show man his sin and the wrath of God. They threaten and condemn. They remind the sinner that there is nothing that he can do to save himself, even if he should conquer the world. It was just such stern preaching of the Law that troubled the consciences of the three thousand on the first Christian Pentecost and caused them to cry out in alarm to the Apostles: "Men and brethren, what shall we do?" (Acts 2:37).

Then at the door of such sin-conscious souls, who realize that they cannot find salvation in themselves or in other mortals or material means, the Savior comes with the gentle knocking of His Gospel. It is no longer the severe beating of the Law that the sinner feels within himself. Rather he hears the sweet and ringing promises of God's grace and goodness. He rejoices to hear: "Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for us" (Galatians 3:13). Like musical notes to his ears are each one of the words: "The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin" (1 John 1:7). Such passages show man his Savior and the grace of God. They promise, give, and seal unto him forgiveness, life and salvation.

Like A Doctor

And it is not only once or twice that the Savior by means of His Word knocks at our hearts. Again and again He reminds us of His gracious presence. If a doctor, working in a community afflicted with some deadly malady, would suddenly receive the priceless and long-awaited-for remedy, would he not immediately rush to the homes of the sick and knock until he gained admittance?

Jesus, too, knows He has a priceless remedy for us—the salvation of our souls, therefore, in the words of the poet, "He so loudly evermore knocketh at our heart's closed door." With the word "Behold" He calls special attention to Himself and makes His appeal all the more urgent and emphatic. He personally speaks to each one of us: "BEHOLD—it is I, Jesus, your Savior, who loves you. See the nail prints in my hand and feet and the mark of the wound in my side. I came to your sinful earth and died for you. I was wounded for your transgressions and bruised for your iniquities. The chastisement of your peace was upon Me, and with My stripes you are healed. Will you not open your heart's door and let me in?"

May our answer be: "Redeemer, come! I open wide My heart to Thee; here, Lord abide!

Let me Thy inner presence feel, Thy grace and love in me reveal."

Mustangs Alone at Top After Halting Brighton

Goodrich Sinks 25 Points As Northville Wins, 82-67

The Northville Mustangs had first place all to themselves in the Wayne-Oakland league this week after downing a strong Brighton team, 82-67, by putting on a near-perfect second half Friday night.

Pressed hard during the second quarter, and behind by two points at the half, the Mustangs played with close-order precision in the final half to overhaul and then soar ahead of the high-flying Brighton team.

It was Brighton's first loss in six games this season, and gave Northville a league record of 4-0. Giant Jeff Goodrich, the Mustangs' 6' 7" forward, came into his own in the contest as he dumped in 25 points and grabbed more than his share of rebounds.

But it was a team victory, throughout. All five Northville starters scored in double figures, and each contributed an offensive or defensive strongpoint to keep the pressure on Brighton from all sides.

Guard Bud Bell and forward Dick Biery stood out as play-makers, working the ball in steadily and strongly before passing off to Goodrich or center Bill Yahne.

Yahne, himself had 17 points and joined Goodrich in hawking the lion's share of rebounds. The Mustang center also handled the job of stopping Brighton's high-scoring center, holding him to six points in the second half after he had scored 20 in the first.

Guard Mac Burns pumped in 16 points, most of them via acrobatic drive-in shots. Later Burns began hitting from far out to shake up the Brighton defense in the closing minutes of the game.

Northville jumped off to a quick lead and led Brighton 20-10 at one point in the first quarter. But Brighton, sparked by the dead-eye hook shots of center Brian Watson, gradually wiped out the lead and went ahead shortly before the half ended.

Half-time score found Brighton on top, 40-38.

When the Mustangs came out for the second half, they were a rejuvenated team. Coach Stan Johnston scrapped his zone defense in favor of man-to-man and gave Yahne the job of guarding Watson.

The move worked. At the end of the third quarter, Northville had built up a 60-49 lead and was never headed.

The Mustangs kept up the hot scoring pace that has brought them victory their last four times out, hitting on 45 percent of their shots.

Ironically, the third quarter surge that put them ahead for keeps was done by hitting only 28 percent of the time. But the Mustangs made up for it by dumping in 10 points on free throws.

Fans who came in hopes of seeing a comic opera struggle between giant Goodrich and Brighton's 5' 4" Joe Collins were disappointed. The tiny blond guard stayed in back court most of the game, leaving it up to the taller members of his team to stop Goodrich.

Occasional rumblings from the crowd, as well as from the Brighton bench, could be heard at several whistles and at other times when Goodrich and Watson moved into each other under the basket.

But officials kept a close whistle for the most part, apparently allowing the two high scorers to struggle it out for themselves. If any calls were missed, they probably were divided evenly between the two teams.

It was an iron-clad game for both squads. The starting fives played without a substitution until the last few minutes of the game.

For Northville, Burns and Yahne came close to fouling out as four whistles were blown on them. Watson, for Brighton, also picked up four fouls.

Colts Drop Thriller After Being Ahead For Most of Game

After building up a six-point third-quarter lead, the Northville Colts suffered a final period lapse and allowed Brighton to squeak by with a 46-45 win.

It was the third loss in five starts for coach Al Jones' squad. Northville led 24-22 at the half and 38-32 at the third quarter, but Brighton outscored the Colts 14-7 in the final quarter to gain the narrow victory.

Guards Dennis Fallon and Fred Schwarze paced Northville with 12 points each, while center Bob Starnes bucketed eight.

HOT SHOT — Brian Watson, Brighton center, is bottled up by Northville's Bill Yahne (left) and Dick Biery in the second half. Watson, with 26 points, was high scorer in the game.

UP AND IN — Guard Mac Burns moves in with one of his near-acrobatic drives to score a basket against Brighton. Burns had 16 for the night, as all five starting Mustangs hit in double figures.

Cager of the Week

CENTER BILL YAHNE is playing his first season as a starting center, after winning a basketball letter last year. The 6' 3" 175-pound junior also has won two track and two football letters and was an all-league end on this year's championship grid squad. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yahne, 512 Eaton drive, Bill intends to go on to college after graduation.

Junior Rifle Club Meets In Novi

Several members of the Novi Sure Shots junior rifle club fired from a kneeling position for the first time at the December 10 meeting. No meetings will be held during the holidays, but members are reminded not to forget to attend January 8—so they may take their test. Visitors are welcome to attend at any time. At present, Willard Springer stands in first place with 81, second is Dennis Snow, 71; third, Gerry Coleman, 55; fourth, Ronald Loynes, 49; and fifth, Bill Trotter, 38.

W.O Teams Take Holiday Breather

The Wayne-Oakland league began a two-week vacation Friday night after the first month of conference play was wound up with three league games.

The Northville Mustangs will spend the holidays in undisputed possession of first place as a result of their sparkling 82-67 triumph over Brighton.

Elsewhere in the league Clarkston snapped Clarenceville's four-game winning streak with a last second 60-59 win, while defending champion Milford went down to its fourth straight defeat, 59-57, at the hands of Holly.

In a non-conference game, West Bloomfield was bombed by Rochester, 71-48 for its fourth straight loss.

All league teams will swing back into action January 8 with Northville again taking the limelight as the Mustangs meet Clarenceville on the Trojans home court. Clarenceville has a strong 4-1 season record, and was undefeated in league play until last Friday.

In other games, hapless West Bloomfield will attempt to pick up its first win of the season against Clarkston, and Brighton will tangle with Holly. Milford will look for its first win against Rochester in a non-conference tilt.

CITY PROCEEDINGS

he commended for the great effort they have put forth and the many things they have done and are doing to improve service in Northville, he still feels the City of Northville should draft a resolution to the Public Service Commission asking them to review that rate increase method proposed by the Telephone Co., to determine why it is necessary to increase the rate to the Northville users by 28 per cent. Councilmen Allen and Stubenvoll stated that they did not feel such a resolution should be sent to the Public Service Commission in view of the facts brought out by the representatives of the Mich. Bell Telephone Co., and their sincere efforts to improve telephone service in this area. Councilman Canterbury moved that a resolution be adopted embodying the following points: That the City of Northville is not questioning the need for additional revenue on the part of the Mich. Bell Telephone Co., but they merely want to request that careful attention be paid to the formula, which will be used in establishing the rates for this area. There being no second to the motion, same died for lack of support.

Edward Welch, who was in the audience, expressed his agreement with Mr. Canterbury that a resolution should be sent to the Mich. Public Service Commission, and stated that if the City does not do so, he will get signatures and send in a petition to the Commission as an individual.

Moved by Allen, supported by Stubenvoll, that the City of Northville rescind the action taken by them on Nov. 19th instructing Manager Robertson to attend the hearing at Lansing on Dec. 19, 1956, on the petition of the Mich. Bell Telephone Co., to raise rates, and also refrain from sending the resolution to the Public Service Commission regarding this matter. Yeas: Reed, Stubenvoll, Allen and Ely. Nays: Canterbury.

The next matter of old business to discuss was "Instructions to Manager relative to negotiation on Hills property. It was suggested that the City Manager, City attorney, Mr. Hills' attorney and the Mayor meet and try to arrive at some figure that would be agreeable to all parties concerned. However, Mayor Ely stated that Mr. Hills had called him last Friday and was opposed to such an arrangement; but preferred a meeting between himself, Mayor Ely and Councilman Reed only. Councilman Canterbury pointed out that while he had no objection to such a meeting being held, he did not believe the Council had made any provisions to purchase the property at this time, and he wanted to call attention to this fact. He was assured that the meeting would only be held to find out what sort of a deal could be made for the purchase of this property. It was agreed with the Council that Mayor Ely and Councilman Reed meet with Mr. Hills.

Mgr. Robertson stated, that in discussing the engineering of S. Wing, Fairbrook and First streets with Atwell-Hicks, Inc., he understood that the Council has instructed them to prepare bids for advertising this job around the first of Feb. He feels that no change in engineers should be made on the projects which have already been engineered by this firm and have been paid for by the City of Northville. However, in view of the fact that the facing season has been set to start about the middle of April and run until June 1st of this year, it is felt that these streets should not be torn up before June 1st and that the bids should state that the work is not to begin until June 1, 1957. It was agreed that the advertisement for bids should be published as planned with the stipulation that work is not to begin until June 1, 1957.

Treas. A. R. Clarke, in discussing the matter of the notes received from the American-LaFrance Corp., covering the installment payments on the new fire engine, (which it will be necessary to execute) called attention to the fact that it might be necessary to get approval of the Municipal Finance Commission to complete this transaction. Atty. Ogilvie was instructed to investigate this matter.

Moved by Stubenvoll, seconded by Reed that the following resolution regarding notes for fire engine be adopted:

WHEREAS, The City of Northville has contracted to purchase one fire engine for the total price of $23,400 and

WHEREAS, said fire engine has been delivered to and inspected by the proper officers of said City, and has been found to be in accordance with the terms of said contract and has been accepted on behalf of the City of Northville, and

WHEREAS, The City has cash available in the sum of $5,000 to pay against the purchase price of said fire engine, and

WHEREAS, it is necessary that additional funds be borrowed for the purpose of paying for the remainder of the purchase price of said fire engine, and

WHEREAS, the American-LaFrance Corp., has consented to purchase notes of the City in the amount of $18,400,

IT IS THEREFORE RESOLVED,

That notes of the City of Northville be issued to the American-LaFrance Corp., said certificates to be dated Dec. 31, 1956 and to be payable Three Thousand Six Hundred Eighty ($3,680.00) dollars per year beginning Dec. 31, 1957, together with interest not to exceed three percent (3%) per annum.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED That the said notes be signed by the Mayor and countersigned by the Clerk and have the Corporate Seal of the City affixed and that certificates be delivered to said American-LaFrance Corp. Carried unanimously.

Manager Robertson was instructed to contact owner of the real estate office which has been moved to the corner of Plymouth Ave., and the Seven Mile Cut-off to find out what he intends to do with it.

Councilman Reed called attention to the fact that some provision would have to be made to care for the old fire engine, which has had to be removed from the Fire Hall to accommodate the new engine. It was suggested by Atty. Ogilvie that perhaps some arrangement could be made with the Mich. Bell Telephone Co., to rent space in the Rathbun garage which they are using located at 124 W. Main St., to house this equipment. Mgr. Robertson will check into this possibility.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned at 11 p.m. (Signed) Mary Alexander, Clerk

Referendum Is Called As 485 Sign Petitions

The controversial Novi race track question will come to a head on February 18 when voters decide whether to bar it — and all heavy industry — from a site on Grand River.

The election was made necessary Monday when petitions were submitted demanding a public referendum on a recent zoning amendment which makes construction of the track possible. Township clerk Hadley Bachert said he scheduled the vote for February 18 to make it coincide with the township primary election on the same date.

The petitions and election procedure are now being studied by township attorney Archie Leonard to assure that the vote is legally in order.

Specifically, the question at stake is whether a site at Grand River and Meadowbrook road (the so-called Holcomb property) shall be rezoned from M-1 (light industry) to M-3 (heavy industry). The rezoning has been approved by the township zoning board and township board, and would have become law if the referendum had not been demanded.

The petitions submitted Monday contained 485 signatures — far more than the 171 required.

Herbert Koester president of the Novi Township Democratic club and a candidate for supervisor, submitted the petitions. But it was pointed out that the signatures represented a cross-section of the township regardless of political lines.

More than half the signatures were from residents of Willowbrook Village. Other petitions, circulated in Walled Lake and other areas, were not submitted because the necessary number had already been far surpassed. Behind the vote is a proposed $5,500,000 race track planned to be built at the Grand River-Meadowbrook location by Novi Raceways, a group headed by B. F. Gregorie and George Kovacs.

To build the track, the site must be rezoned from light industry to heavy industry in line with the township zoning ordinance.

After several months of discussion, during which plans for the track were gradually revealed, the rezoning was passed.

The township zoning board, following a stormy three-hour meeting attended by several hundred township residents, passed the rezoning on October 19.

By contrast, the township board okayed the amendment on December 3 with hardly a dissenting voice from the audience.

Petitions, prepared beforehand, were then circulated. Submission of the petitions Monday was the culmination of the public move against the track.

Elaborate plans for the multi-million dollar race track and sports center have been made public by backers of the project, and it is common knowledge that such a track would receive prime consideration for the site.

But those who favor the rezoning, including township supervisor Frazer Staman, have pointed out that denial of the rezoning request would not only kill the race track, but prohibit all heavy industry on the site.

Backward Glance Shows 1956 Was

In Northville

JANUARY...

—the school board granted $300 to a "pilot study group" of parents and teachers to study home and school conditions which tend to affect behavior of children.

—Northville Downs' earnings for 1956 were put at $103,045 for 1955, to top both the Hazel Park and Wolverine tracks. But it was a decline of 60 percent from the Downs' 1953 earnings of $256,496.

FEBRUARY...

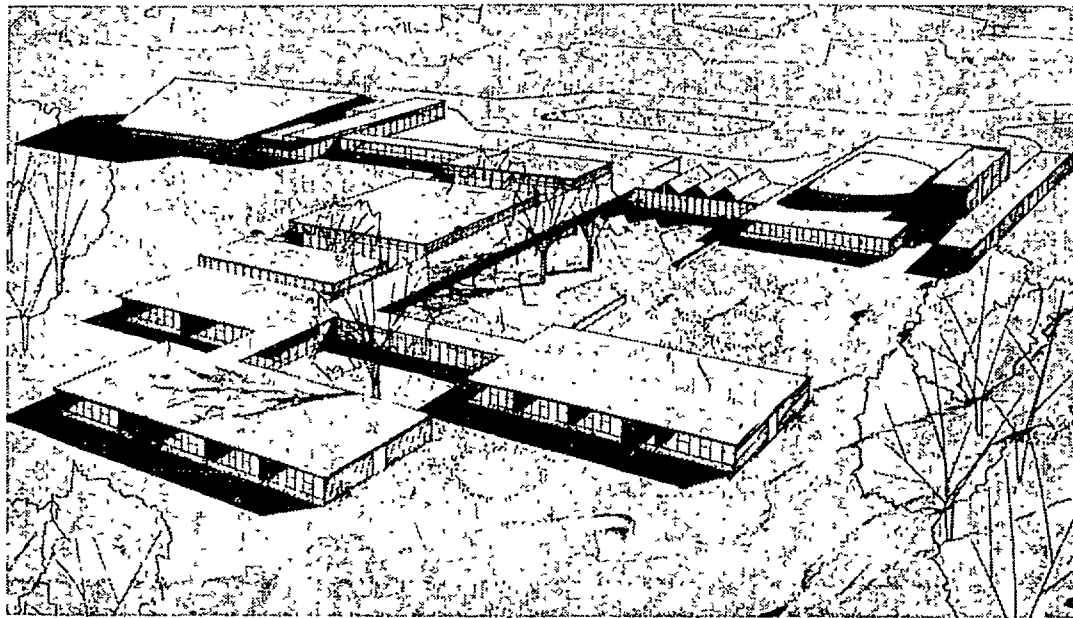

—the new Northville township offices were opened in the old Waterford school building.

—Austin Stecker was named new plant superintendent of the Ford valve plant, succeeding Edwin M. Flaherty who retired after 45 years of service.

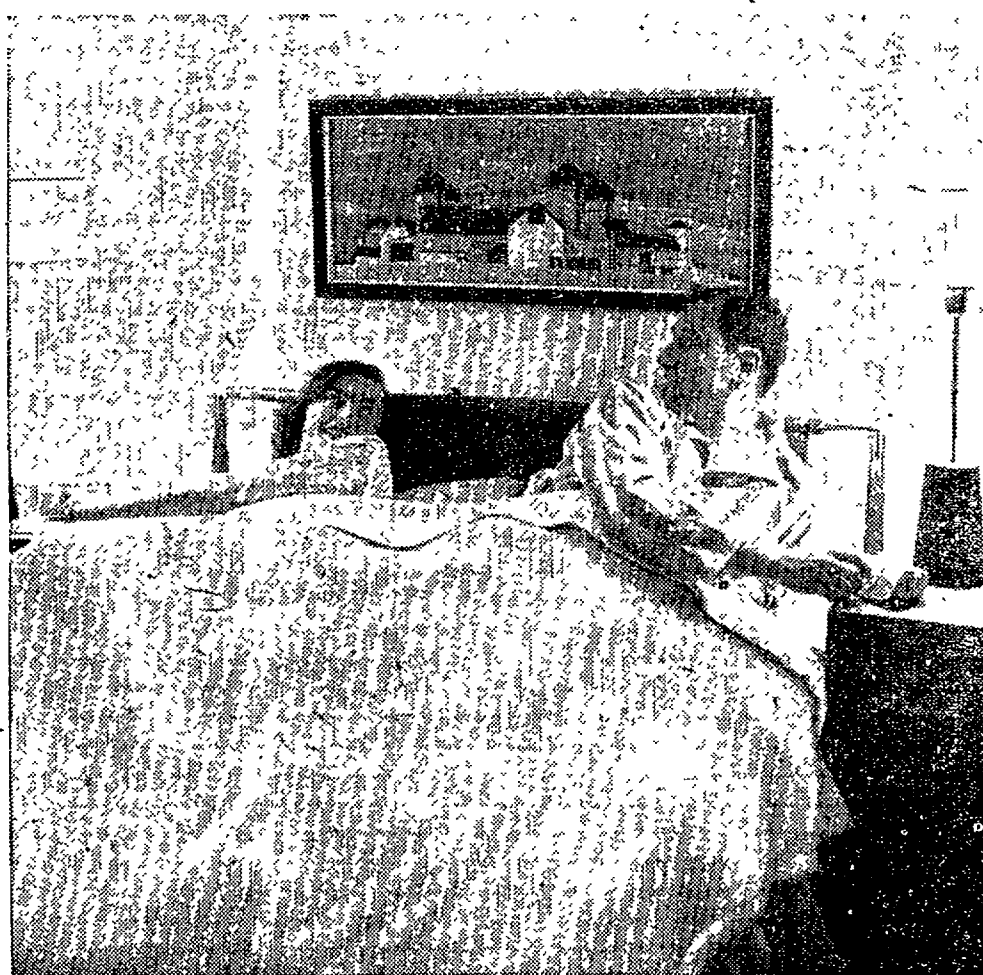

CITY MANAGER John Robertson began duties November 1, getting briefed by clerk Mark Alexander. The city manager ordinance was approved this summer.

NEW BARN AREA at Northville Downs answered the state racing commissioner's demand that the Downs must have permanent winter barns to keep operating this year.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRESS was marked by approval of this new high school and three other projects, costing a total of $3,000,000. Thus Northville answered a serious school shortage which many believed would soon threaten the community's standard of education.

NORTHVILLE

—racing dates from June 26 to August 4 were granted Northville Downs by the state racing commissioner pending construction of permanent barns before the start of the season on May 9.

—Donna Frisbie was named valedictorian and Kathleen Heatley, salutatorian of the 1956 Northville high school senior class.

MARCH...

—the school board granted teachers pay increases ranging from 15 percent for experienced teachers to 26 percent for beginners; the increases would total about $45,000 a year.

—the Northville township board, after several months of working on it, passed a zoning amendment allowing trailer parks at specified locations in the township.

—Northville voters approved by a 3-1 margin a school millage increase from six mills to 10 mills to be used for operating expenses.

—the worst snowfall of the winter blanketed Northville late in the month, snarling traffic and causing many minor accidents.

—Northville township voters okayed an increase in township taxes from one to two mills.

—the Northville Mustangs ended up in second place in the Wayne-Oakland league basketball standings with a 10-2 record. For the season, the cagers had a 12-5 showing.

APRIL...

—Mrs. Ida B. Cooke was honored at a banquet on her retirement after 38 years of teaching in the Northville school system.

—the city council renewed the license of the Northville Taxi company after a study indicated that the city was not large enough to support two taxi companies.

—Patrolman Eugene King assisted 10 FBI agents in capturing John Soto, Northville tree-trimmer, who was wanted for fleeing Wyoming to avoid prosecution for assault and armed robbery.

MAY...

—a flash rainstorm washed out the Main street sewer and flooded many Northville basements and streets.

—a tornado struck five miles from Northville, knocking down trees and ripping buildings apart.

—the city council approved a record budget of $275,560.

—mayor Claude Ely traded office with Milton Hartman, representing Saline Mayor Henry Leutheuser.

—Our Lady of Victory church began a $75,000 expansion program.

JUNE...

—Dr. L. W. Snow was named "Northville Citizen of the Year" by the local American Legion post.

—councilmen voted to buy a new $23,000 American LaFrance fire engine.

—Robert Shafer and Nelson Schrader were elected to the school board in a record vote of 770 persons.

—Northville Downs opened its 13th season with the shortest meet — 35 days — but one of the richest stakes in its history.

—the Yerkes Farm annexation was approved by an 8-1 margin and was immediately made the subject of a court test by Warren Products.

JULY...

—negotiations were started toward determining a site for the proposed new Northville high school.

—Rubin K. Caudle, 21, was killed in an auto accident nine days before he was to be married.

—the city council and Northville Downs signed a two-year contract whereby the city will provide services to the track for $27,500 a year instead of the previous $500 for each night of racing.

—William Sliger purchased the Northville Record from Glenn Cummings effective August 1.

AUGUST...

—councilmen voted to spend $13,000 for 25 offstreet parking places in the downtown area.

—voters approved annexation of 82 acres from Novi township, but Novi officials indicated they would take the matter to court to test its legality.

—more than $500 was received in a benefit dinner for Carol Ann Donnelly, pretty 3-year old leukemia victim.

SEPTEMBER...

—Northville schools were swamped by the return of 1,600 students — the largest enrollment in history.

—some 32 residents were honored at a citizenship dinner for new 21-year olds and newly-naturalized citizens.

—a scandal over a driver fixing races at Northville Downs was revealed, but the state racing commissioner said Downs' officials were not involved in it at all.

—"Cap" Pethers, one of Northville's most promising athletes, was put out of action with a broken leg in the Mustangs' football opener against Plymouth.

OCTOBER...

—John Robertson was named Northville's first city manager and was scheduled to begin duties November 1.

—plans for a 2,500-bed mental hospital south of Northville were revealed, with a hope that construction could start in the spring.

—some 40 patients at Maybury sanatorium protested against what they called inadequate food.

—more than $1,200 was donated by Northville residents at a dinner to fight cystic fibrosis, a child-killing disease.

NOVEMBER...

—city manager John Robertson began his duties of running Northville's official business.

—the Northville Mustangs won the Wayne-Oakland championship with a 5-0-1 league record and a 7-1-1 season record.

—Depositors State Bank announced plans to merge with Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, pending approval of stockholders.

—Bob Wagenschutz won all-state football honors, as he and four other Mustangs — Gary Holman, Bill Yahne, Dick Biery and Dave Adams were also named to the all-league team.

—councilmen voted to protest telephone rate increases and lack of natural gas in Northville.

DECEMBER...

—an elderly woman was sought for and later booked for swindling Northville residents of thousands of dollars during her stay in the city after her release from Detroit House of Correction in April.

—Northville Downs was given early racing dates next year — from April 19 through June 1 — instead of the traditional summer dates.

—Mayor Claude Ely and Councilman Early Reed indicated they will run for reelection next spring, but councilman John Stubenvoll said he will not seek his post again.

—Northville voters approved a $3,000,000 bond issue for a new high school and three other projects.

A Busy Year for Northville and Novi

. . In Novi . .

JANUARY

—post office officials announced plans for a new post office adjacent to the old one, and for a new rural route system providing delivery of mail to directly in front of most township homes.

—preliminary approval was given for a 383-home area to be called Meadowbrook Subdivision.

—Novi's new $20,000 fire engine arrived and was put into service.

FEBRUARY

—ordinances covering building, heating, traffic and electrical matters were revised and approved.

—three Detroit men were killed on icy Grand River in one of Novi's worst accidents of recent months.

MARCH

—Archie Leonard was named the Novi township attorney.

—contracts were awarded for the new multi-million dollar Lincoln plant, which upon completion would be world headquarters for the auto company.

—Hadley Bachert was named to replace ailing Earl Banks as Novi township clerk.

APRIL

—Earl Bank, who had served as township clerk for 36 consecutive years, died after a lingering illness.

—Novi residents approved an $82,500 township budget at the annual meeting.

—Lincoln revealed that its new plant in Novi would employ some 5,000 persons in all types of jobs.

MAY

—Novi temporarily blocked the Yerkes Farm election by claiming insufficient time for advertising the vote, but state school officials countered the move by rescheduling the election for June 21.

—the zoning board recommended creation of two new industrial classifications to control industrial expansion.

—National Bank of Detroit set up a branch office in less than 46 hours and was in business Monday morning, forestalling a move by Community National Bank to set up a Novi branch.

JUNE

—Lincoln revealed detailed plans for its new assembly plant and general offices in Novi.

—township attorney Leonard ended a short-lived dispute over treasurer Charles Trickley's status by opining that Trickley's appointment was legal and that an election was not necessary.

—the Yerkes Farm annexation was approved by a 8-1 margin, but faced a challenge by Warren Products Co. on grounds that it was illegal.

JULY

—Arthur Heslip was named president of the Durfee school board.

—first hints were made that a race track might be under consideration for Novi township.

—William Sliger purchased the Novi News from Glenn Cummings effective August 1.

AUGUST

—Voters approved a second annexation of Novi territory to Northville by 369 to 52, after a last-ditch attempt by the township to stop the election. Novi then moved to contest it.

—Wixom petitioned to incorporate as a village, with power to tax property including the new Lincoln plant.

—East Novi school district voted a millage increase to pay off back debts to Northville schools.

SEPTEMBER

—Novi won the first round of its annexation battle when circuit court denied a Northville motion to dismiss the township's bill of complaint.

—the township board reluctantly passed a stiff trailer park ordinance designed to regulate, but not completely bar, mobile homes.

—Novi school received a record enrollment of 335 students.

OCTOBER

—D. M. Parkinson began complaining about inadequate drainage that left his and neighbor's property flooded near the new expressway.

—a full-fledged controversy began developing over a proposed Novi township race track, after the zoning board approved a rezoning that would make the track possible.

—voters approved consolidation of four school districts by a vote of 404-62.

NOVEMBER

—Novi voters gave a decisive nod to Republican candidates in the general election, as a record 2,500 residents went to the polls.

—the Novi United Fund led all other Oakland county townships by reaching 150 percent of its $4,000 goal.

—a township sewerage system appeared feasible as engineers continued their studies.

—Novi won another annexation battle when circuit court upheld the legality of the township's contesting suit.

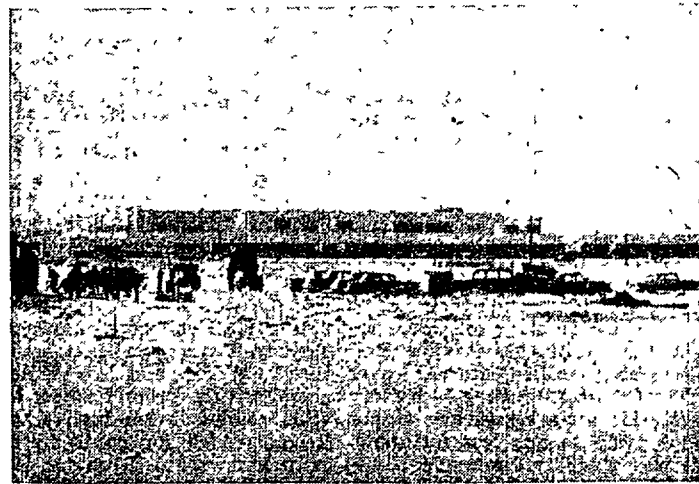

—a planning expert advised Novi to plan for the future and get sewerage system as soon as possible.

DECEMBER

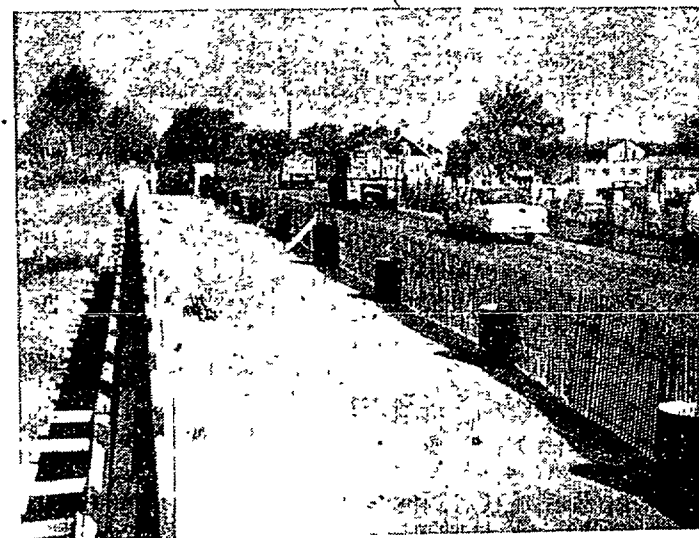

—the board passed the "race track rezoning" amendment, after which petitions were circulated for a special election on the matter.

—D. M. Parkinson was told his drainage problem would be corrected by the state.

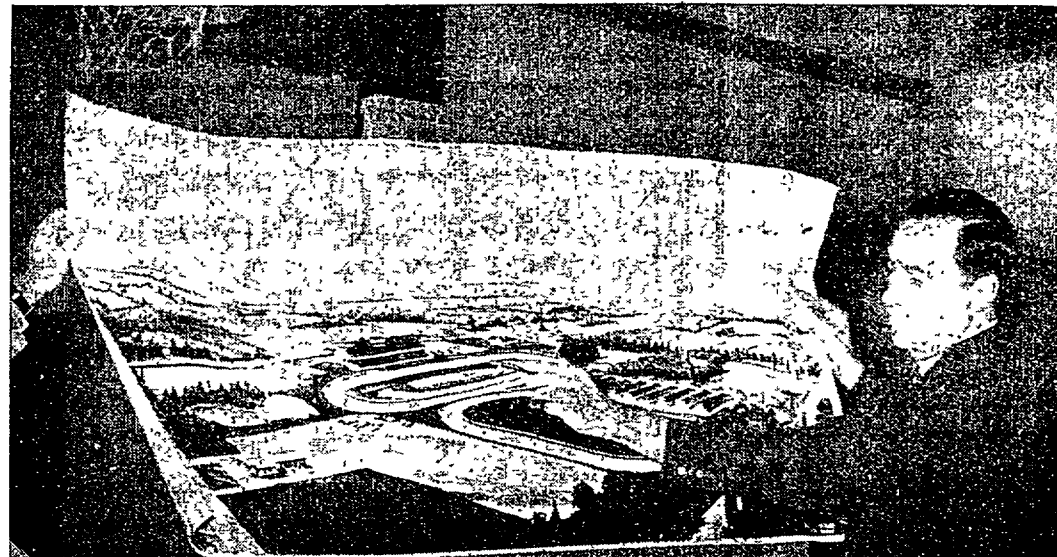

—voters elected a permanent board of education for the new Novi school district.

FROM FORMER FARMLAND rises the sprawling new Lincoln Plant, scheduled for completion in time for 1958 models. The multi-million dollar plant will be Novi's largest industry and a boon to its economy.

HIGHWAY PROGRESS in 1956 came in the form of the new Farmington-Brighton expressway and a series of bridges over it, like this one at Novi road. The new expressway is expected to be both an industrial and residential drawing card for the township.

MOST CONTROVERSIAL topic of the year was the proposed $5,500,000 race track at Grand River and Meadowbrook — the fate of which is still in doubt. In any case, the unborn race track made for a number of interesting and lively meetings in recent months.

From The Record Files

Every New Year Brings Hopes, Plans for Future

Happy New Year — said each year in the files of The Record in the same old way. Another number 13 flipped on the dated rubber stamp — and a change made in the paper's dateline.

But the same things were happening in Northville that have happened every December — and January and March and August — and Northville citizens, like citizens of all communities, looked forward to a good year, hoping for the best but sometimes accepting less.

One Year Ago ... school personnel looked forward to a more prosperous 1956 — a raise was in store for them beginning in January.

One young man found that his new year would be shorter by a month — and that the law pays little attention to holidays. He was fined $25 and sentenced to 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction by Judge Bogart for stealing an automobile tire.

The Seven Mile road cut-off, extending from Northville road to Hines drive was completed, promising a quieter year for residents whose ears echoed the rumbles of gravel trucks.

D. J. Stark had a new position beginning in 1956 — he was appointed township clerk to replace Fred W. Lyke, who resigned.

Five Years Ago ... the memories are a little dim, but events were much the same when people looked forward to 1952.

People still opened their hearts during the holiday season... employees of the Northville Bell Telephone office turned over their Christmas money — usually set aside for a big turkey dinner and party to one less fortunate. It was given to Jimmy McKindless, former employee who became paralyzed only one month after working in Northville.

There were still parties and celebrations — Mr. and Mrs. Percy Angove entertained Rotarians at a New Year's day breakfast.

Village parking meters had paid for themselves — and netted more than $10,000 profit — a fund to be used for parking improvements during the coming year.

Ten Years Ago ... and Babson reported in the final issue of the 1946 Record that 1947 business would reach higher levels than recorded in 1946 — and that politics would show increased foreign troubles. Important — even in a small town.

And the annual March of Dimes campaign was set to begin in Northville with Nelson Schrader as community chairman.

Fifteen Years Ago ... the last week of 1941... 26 more persons had registered for Civilian Defense service at the village hall bringing the total to 113 — there was a war on in Northville, too. The village carried the one-day defense bond and stamp drive over the top by purchasing stamps totaling $570 and turning over $20,536.75 in cash for bonds.

But war didn't mean an end to fun... the Northville high school girls' basketball team fought hard to win their second victory of the season against Redford Union — the score was 20-15.

1936... and all of a sudden it's Twenty Years Ago. Is it really that long? Yep, and five villagers completed the ground school aviation course at the high school. Recommended for credit by the instructor were A. Abrahams, Harry Richardson, Donald Armstrong, Paul B. Thompson and Harry Rattenbury.

An accident that almost happened — a head-on collision with two horses and a streetcar — when D. D. B. Henry's team ran away, going down Main street and following the D&R track to the bend near Cass Benton. The horses stumbled through a culvert. Coming 'round the bend was the streetcar — which stopped in time... 1936.

Forty-Five Years Ago ... Probably more horses than automobiles pulled up in front of the Penniman-Allen theater to wait for their owners... the management offered a free evening's entertainment to members of the newly-formed Northville Welfare committee.

And there was also discovery of "anti-welfare" committee — for three thugs were found who had filched a total of $108 from three Northville residents...

We'll stop there, but to end on a more pleasant note, make a few predictions for 1957: The Record will report weddings of those who announced engagements in 1956... we will welcome new arrivals and print the solemn news of departing... the growing pains of our still young city government... the crime and just accounts of justice done.

The same news will be made by different names and faces in 1957 — to be chronicled by The Record — perhaps to reappear one, five, ten — or maybe 20 years from now in "Events of the Past in Northville".

Books at a Glance

From Northville Wayne County Library

The relaxing break between Christmas and New Year's would be a good time to devote to some reading. May we suggest a walk to the library for any one of these enjoyable novels or timely non-fiction selections

FICTION

Merry Christmas, Mr. Baxter, by Edward Streeter. When the big day has come and gone, you'll be able to read about Mr. Baxter's carefully laid plans for Christmas — compare them with your own — and really laugh!

Sound of Waves, by Yukio Mishima. The poetic love story of two young people whose home is a Japanese fishing village.

Caleb, My Son, by Lucy Daniels. The daughter of Jonathan Daniels, publisher of The Raleigh News and Observer, the author writes not only of the clashes between the white and Negro but of conflicts within a Negro family.

The Nun's Story, by Kathryn Hulme. A story of the religious life of a woman who discovered that she was more nurse than nun — from her days as a novice to her mission in a hospital in the Belgian Congo.

NON-FICTION

The Three R's Plus, edited by Robert H. Beck. Thirty-one experts explain what today's schools are trying to do and why. They explain modern educational philosophy and describe methods of teaching. The final section of this book deals with discussions of the financial support of schools and other controversial problems.

An American In India, by Saunders Redding. Mr. Redding made a mission to India under the auspices of the Department of State. The author of several widely acclaimed books on the Negro problem in the United States, he found that the color of his skin provided an intimacy and directness with Indian officials, educators and intellectuals accessible to few visitors.

V-2, by Walter Dornberger. The inside story of Hitler's "secret weapon" is told by the man who was a general in the German army, a doctor of engineering, and head of Peenemunde, the German experimental rocket station.

Happy New Year

May the music and merriment of New Year's Eve carry over into a New Year full of happy days and the good things of life for you and your family.

CAREFUL STUDY AND OBSERVATION go into detecting character traits in handwriting by Mrs. Lucille McKinney of West Dunlap street. Mrs. McKinney is a certified grapho-analyst, having received her certificate in 1955. She will begin teaching adult education classes on the subject early next year in Plymouth and Wayne.

Northville Woman Is Grapho-Analyst

Just as our fingerprints are entirely our own and can be duplicated by no one else, our handwriting is perhaps the one non-physical thing about us that differs with every individual.

Northville's handwriting or "grapho"-analyst, Mrs. Lucille McKinney of Dunlap street, recently explained that character traits making up a personality can be easily detected in handwriting — by an expert.

The analyst is concerned only with six basic handwriting strokes, she said, which remain the same in the adult personality. They are the horizontal, vertical, slant, hook (as in the lower end of a "t"), the loop (an "o" or a "b"), and the "u" bar — the latter of which can be made 87 ways.

Mrs. McKinney, who received her training at the Flint Grapho-Analysis school, received her certificate in 1955.

She explained that handwriting analysis is used in courts, teenage counselling, for personnel work in industry and in police work.

Cases were cited by Mrs. McKinney of persons either charged with crime or released after conviction on the strength of an analyst's personality reading from handwriting. To aid police, Mrs. McKinney said, analysis can easily detect forgery.

Churches use analysis in counselling teen-agers, she said, and although the system is less accurate with children whose personalities are not fully developed, it can be helpful with problem children.

She also pointed out that banks and credit companies use handwriting to determine a good credit risk.

Mrs. McKinney has lectured before many clubs, church groups and organizations in surrounding communities.

In January she will begin teaching an eight week course in adult education in Wayne, Michigan, and in February an eight week course in Plymouth. She will also hold classes in her home for those interested in Northville.

Varsity Debaters Win Second Round

The NHS varsity debate team again scored a victory Tuesday, December 18 in the second round of debates against other schools in the league. The students met in Clarenceville high school to debate U.S. agricultural problems, specifically, whether or not the government should give 90 percent parity to farmers.

On the affirmative side for Northville were, Becky Coolman and Lillian Zinnecker and on the negative side were Bernhard Mueller and Sandy Straasen. Becky and Lillian debated against the Bloomfield Hills' team while Bernhard and Sandy debated against Clarkston.

These two schools are considered among the toughest teams to conquer in the league. The students are now preparing for the next round, which will take place in our own Northville high school.

NOMINALISM

This word has a variety of meanings but when applied to religion means that the person who professes faith is not affected by it. No word could express better the indifference that characterizes so many people today. In visitation, I am sure every Pastor has found as I have, so many who profess to believe the essential articles of the Christian faith. They believe the Bible they say, they believe in life beyond the grave, they believe in holy living. But — in spite of their professed faith, they live as if they do not believe what they say. Suppose my house should catch afire some night and some good neighbor bangs on my door to arouse me. I wake out of sleep, listen to the neighbor, thank him for his kindness and then go back to bed and pull the cover over my head. Foolish? Unreasonable? Unnatural? Sure it is — but that's exactly what a lot of people are doing with the Gospel and the warnings that accompany it. They listen patiently, even thank the preacher but they go right on living as if they have never heard. Such belief will end in tragedy! How terrible will be the memory of those who are lost for eternity to realize that they did believe but didn't do anything about it. The faith that counts is the faith that acts.

Obituaries

MRS. LOUISE CASTERLINE

Mrs. Louise Casterline of 327 Yerkes, died December 18 at University of Michigan-hospital in Ann Arbor. She was 86 years old, born January 13, 1870 in Waterloo, Ontario. Her husband was the late Fred Casterline, who died in 1939. Her sons are Clifford and Ray of Northville; Clyde of New Hudson; and daughters Ruth Briggs of Northville and Esther Dixon of Plymouth. Another son was the late Oren Casterline of Northville. Also surviving are four grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Mrs. Casterline was a member of the First Methodist church of Northville. She had been a resident of this area all her life, living in Northville, Plymouth and Canton township. Funeral services were held December 21 from the Casterline Funeral Home, Rev. Ivan Hodgson officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery Plymouth.

MRS. CAROLINE M. HALL

Mrs. Caroline Hall, of Detroit, died December 21 in Northville at the home of her son, Charles, of 228 Church street. She was born September 25, 1884 in Worth, Illinois, the son of John and Mary Osterman. Her husband was the late John Hall. Surviving are a son, Charles, of Northville, and two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Tudhope of Detroit, and Mrs. Roberta Webster of Denver, Colorado. Also surviving are sisters, Mrs. Hanna McCurdy, of Fort Meyers, Florida; Mrs. Elizabeth Brady, of South Bend, Indiana; and a brother, William Osterman of Michigan City, Illinois, and eight grandchildren. Mrs. Hall had lived in Detroit for 20 years and had formerly worked in Northville. Funeral services were held December 24 from the Casterline Funeral Home, Rev. John O. Taxis officiating. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

MRS. WILHELMINA SAUER

Funeral services were held in Kitchener, Ontario for Mrs. Wilhelmina Sauer, who died December 1 at her home, 25899 Clark street, Novi. Mrs. Sauer was born July 12, 1902 in Midway, Ontario, the daughter of John and Agnes Schill. She is survived by her husband, Henry, and five brothers and five sisters who live in Canada. She was a member of

Our Lady of Victory church. Rosary was said last Thursday, December 20 at the Casterline Funeral Home, Father John Wittstock officiating. Burial was in Kitchener, Ontario.

WILLIAM F. TUCHELSKI

William F. Tuchelski of 25 Lake street, died at his home December 25. He was born December 18, 1881 in Detroit, the son of Carl and Caroline Tuchelski. He is survived by his wife, Caroline, and daughters, Mrs. Eleanor Baroggi, of Detroit, and Mrs. Louise Cox, of Farmington.

Also surviving are sons, Herbert, of Flat Rock and Harold of Northville; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Tuchelski moved to Northville six years ago from Five Mile and Farmington roads, where they had made their home for many years. Mr. Tuchelski was a retired molder, a former employee of the Northville Foundry. Funeral services will be held tomorrow, December 28, at the Casterline Funeral Home. Rev. Peter Nieuwkoop will officiate. Burial will be in Glen Eden cemetery.
