Ask New Recreation Program

Revamping of the Northville recreation program was advised this week by a group of lay citizens who have studied the matter for nearly a year.

Primary suggestions of the group were to have outlying areas pay their share of recreation costs, and put administration of the program under the Northville board of education.

The suggestions were made in a report to officials of the city, Northville township and the school board by the Northville community study group.

In addition, the report suggested:

- reorganizing the city's recreation committee to make it more active in guiding policy.
- providing additional facilities, including land.
- correcting the present program, which it called "slightly overbalanced on the athletic side."
- expanding the program to include more adult activities.

The study group, composed of lay citizens and headed by Councilman John Canterbury, studied and analyzed the recreation program for nearly a year before making its recommendations.

Though noting that Northville's program "compares favorably with that in other communities" and that it has "a long and fine history," the report strongly called for the changes in administration and financing.

Major financial problem, it indicated, is that such areas as Willowbrook Village and parts of Novi, Salem and Plymouth townships use the Northville program to varying degrees but do not support it with funds.

"Some thought and attention should be directed to (directing and financing) the program in a

Now Mrs. Chauvin Says She's Guilty On Swindle Charge

Even Mrs. Yvonne Chauvin apparently isn't sure whether she is guilty of swindling Northville residents of some $5,000 and possibly more.

The elderly ex-convict first admitted the swindles, and then last week pleaded not guilty to charges of obtaining money under false pretenses.

But Monday, scheduled to appear for trial before Wayne county circuit court Judge Frank Fitzgerald, she again changed her mind and entered a plea of guilty.

The motherly-looking woman is now held in Wayne county jail. Investigators of the probation department are looking into her history, and will report to Judge Fitzgerald in several weeks. A psychiatric investigation may be included.

She then will be sentenced. Mrs. Chauvin is charged with swindling Northville residents of the money during a seven-months stay in the city, after which she fled to Parma Heights, Ohio. She was apprehended there in December.

She has a long criminal record and served off and on in the Detroit House of Correction from 1936 until last April. Police list 22 aliases for the woman.

Eaton Receives Top Lansing Post

State representative Sterling P. Eaton was named this week to the powerful state affairs committee of the state house of representatives.

Eaton, representing the 21st district, which includes Northville, also was appointed chairman of the mental health committee and a member of the public utilities and federal regulations committees.

The appointment to the affairs committee is considered unusual since freshman legislators are seldom given this recognition. Eaton was elected last November.

Eaton, a Republican, is a Plymouth resident and a former newspaper publisher there.

manner most equitable to all those receiving benefits of the program," it stated.

To administer such a program, the report suggested recreational activities be placed under the Northville school board.

"This, of course, is based on the fact that the school district and the area served by the recreation program are roughly the same," it added.

The report also suggested reworking the city's recreation committee to make it more "active and positive" in guiding and directing the program. It did not say whether the city committee should continue to exist if the school board took over the program.

Speaking of the city committee, the report said:

"While past and present members are to be commended for their excellent service, there should be a re-emphasis on the proper functions and importance of the committee."

It suggested that the committee should be representative by area, occupation and jurisdiction, and should "meet at frequent intervals and devote considerable time and thought" to the program.

The community study group meets regularly to discuss, analyze and attempt to solve problems of interest to Northville. The recreation study is its largest project to date.

Police Calls Total Less Than 1955

Northville police ended 1956 answering a total of 1,205 calls, 197 less than during 1955. Fines collected were less than those in 1955, totalling 9,077, compared to $9,756.50 for the previous year.

Following are the number of incidents recorded in police categories for 1956. The second figure is the 1955 total.

Accidents investigated, 118 (80); parking violations, 1,868 (457); traffic violations, 795 (1,156); summons issued, 772 (1,123).

Grand larceny, 7 (6); petty larceny, 39 (29); juvenile cases, 15 (20); vandalism, 13 (14); breaking and entering, 8 (4); prowler calls, 22 (24).

Dogs destroyed, 47 (38); dogs reclaimed, owners fined, 14 (20).

DYNAMITED SAFE at Nowels Lumber company is examined by assistant manager Bud Murray after it was blasted Monday night by safe-crackers. Though spotted by a Northville policeman, they made off in the darkness with the stolen cash. Police called it an amateur job.

Safe Robbed at Nowels Monday

Two amateur safe-crackers escaped in the darkness Monday night after blasting apart a safe at Nowels Lumber and Coal company on Baseline road.

Patrolman Leonard Mazuchowski, making a routine check of the area in a patrol car, saw two men in the lumber office. The bandits ran when they were discovered, and were lost in the darkness. Mazuchowski after he fired five shots. There was no evidence that either had been hit, police said.

Although company officials declined to state the exact amount stolen, reports indicate that several hundred dollars was taken from the safe.

The safe was blown open with a charge detonated from the outside of the building, police said.

Two separate power failures that coincidentally hit Northville and Novi at almost the same time left several hundred families in the area without electrical service for about four hours Monday afternoon.

The interruption of services hit Oakwood subdivision and east and west Eight Mile the hardest leaving residents without power from 4 to 8:20 p.m. Many were unable to cook meals that night, and most resorted to candles to light their homes.

The Warren Products plant, largest power user in the area, normally ceases operations at 4:30 p.m. and was affected for only 20 minutes.

According to Detroit Edison, the Northville power failure resulted from a burned or loose connection. It affected a 40,000 volt line and a 4,800 volt line.

Edison crews were sent out immediately to restore service in both areas.

The Novi failure left residents of Willowbrook Village and eastern Novi without power from 4:07 to 7:35. Edison spokesmen in Farmington said the cause was undetermined.

Entry was made forcibly through a window on the west side and the blast set off by a pump-type detonator placed outside the building.

Power Failures Hit at Same Time In Northville, Novi

Police said there was no evidence of an automobile at the scene. Investigation revealed no fingerprints, but impressions of a heavy-weave glove were found.

Marching with the Detroit Commandery No. 1 Knights Templar, were Al Hackett, 40141 8-Mile road, and Harry Rackham, 105 Linden street.

The commandery's white-plumed marchers formed a striking Passion Cross in the parade down Pennsylvania avenue. Observers reported they matched even the brilliant performances of crack military marching groups.

The commandery has won so many marching honors in recent years they have been taken out of Masonic marching competition.

According to police, the bandits used much more powder than necessary to open the safe. The force of the blast broke water lines, blew the combination lock off the safe, and threw one mangled safe door about 15 feet. The door left intact concealed company records.

Two Northville men were in the ranks of a famed Detroit marching group that stole the show in the Presidential Inaugural parade in Washington Monday afternoon.

Contract Will Assure Building of 200 Homes

A guarantee by the city of Northville to provide service for the sewer and water systems of the D & R Building company's proposed 200-home subdivision appeared certain Monday evening after councilmen wrestled with the problem for more than three hours.

Final decision will be made tonight (Thursday) at a special session called for 8:00 o'clock.

Because the 100-acre site north of Baseline and west of Novi road is not officially a part of the city, councilmen will be entering an agreement to furnish these facilities to non-city residents.

Although the area was annexed by an election last June, it has been protested by Warren Products company officials, whose plant lies within the area. A decision on whether the property belongs to Novi township or the city of Northville is expected from Oakland county circuit court soon.

A lengthy contract, which would provide the builders with the needed services, was reviewed by the council and R. P. Benecke of D & R. After making minor changes in the document, it appeared that both parties were satisfied with its contents and adoption of the revised copy would be certain.

Approval by the council would virtually pave the way for construction of the 200-home project to begin. After more than two years of delay, Benecke, partner in the building firm, indicated the company was anxious to start construction. He stated that approximately 50 homes would be constructed this year with building to begin in the spring.

In exchange for allowing use of its facilities, the city incorporated minimum requirements for the homes in the subdivision which must meet city building codes.

In a prepared memorandum the council gave the following reasons for favoring the contract arrangement with the building firm:

1. Although the Council in the past has taken the position that the City should not service areas outside the municipal limits with sewer and water, they feel in this particular case the D & R Building company has done everything within their power to bring the area in question within the municipal limits. In fact, an election has been held and the area has voted to become annexed to the city of Northville. This annexation has not become official because of litigation now pending in the Oakland Circuit Court.

2. The Council feels that if they do not permit municipal sewer and water facilities to serve the area, they will not be able to control the future growth of this subdivision which could become a detriment to the community if low cost development were permitted.

3. The Council feels that rates will have to be adjusted for outside water and sewer users so as to cover any additional expenses caused by serving residences outside the city limits. This is to insure that present tax payers in the city of Northville will not be called upon to carry the burden of serving outside areas with water and sewers.

4. It is felt that there is some advantage to the city in locating a well-site in this area, which has been agreed upon by the D & R Building company and the city of Northville, providing an adequate supply of water can be found.

5. The contract between the city of Northville and the D & R Building company provides that all improvements in the subdivision will be constructed and paid for by the subdivider — this includes water, sewer, sidewalks, paving, streets, curb and gutter and drainage.

6. This is a natural area of development and cooperation is required between the city and the developer to handle sewers and drainage problems within the present city limits of the city of Northville.

As the discussion closed, Mayor Claude Ely directed Councilman Earl Reed to seek another meeting with the township. "We cannot accept their offer of the library," he added.

Councilman John Stubenvoll suggested that the city might take the library from the township "for nothing" and pay maintenance costs. Councilman Malcolm Allen added that "they'd be getting rid of a dead horse if they gave it away."

Curriculum Study Receives Approval

Three University of Michigan educators recently praised work being done on a new curriculum for Northville high school by the Northville curriculum study group.

A review by the U-M team was requested by the study group in preparation for its final report to the Northville board of education.

The university team reportedly gave wholehearted approval to both the principles and actual curriculum suggestions in the report. It also advised further investigation of a curriculum for gifted students.

The three-man team represented the university accreditation committee. It was this committee which several years ago advised that Northville needed a new high school and a reorganized curriculum.

On the team which met with the curriculum study group were: Dr. Ray Kehoe, school visitation team member; Prof. Stanley Diamond, specialist in school studies, and Don Dolan, specialist in school administration.

The study group expects to submit its final recommendations to the Northville board of education in the near future. These and other suggestions will be used in setting up a curriculum for the new high school.

Stubenvoll Named Easter Seal Head

John F. Stubenvoll, a city councilman and member of the Northville Rotary club, will head the 1957 Easter Seal campaign to help crippled children and adults in the Northville area.

The appointment was announced by Cyril N. Frid, general Easter Seal chairman and a member of the board of directors of the Wayne Out-County chapter, Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc.

"Our goals have been set for service to the handicapped," Stubenvoll said, "they cannot be reached by one man or by one committee, but with the helping hands of all persons interested in the well-being of crippled children and adults. I fervently hope that these goals will be attained."

The 1957 Easter Seal campaign will run from March 15 through April 21.

STRATEGY SESSION FOR MOTHER'S MARCH—Mrs. Louise Angove (left) and her assistants make plans for the Northville Mother's March against polio on January 31, when dozens of local women will make door-to-door stops to collect funds in the current March of Dimes drive. With Mrs. Angove, the chairman, are (left to right): Mrs. Alice Kay, Mrs. Phyllis Coulter, Mrs. Jeanne Ambler, Mrs. Rebecca Robinson, Mrs. Norman Terry and Mrs. Marguerite Harner. Missing is Mrs. Marshall Huff.

City Refuses to Buy Library from Township

City councilmen turned thumbs down Monday evening on the proposal of Northville township that the city assume ownership of the public library.

The proposition arose last week as representatives of city and township met to discuss the division of assets between the governments. Township officials, faced with a debt of $20,817 based on an audit of the township's worth at the time of incorporation of the city, sought to sell the city its share in the library for $9,000.

According to Township Clerk D. J. Stank, the township placed an estimated value of $20,000 on the library. Under the 55 to 45 percent division of assets ratio this would make the township's share of the library approximately $9,000.

Councilmen listened to Walter Kaiser and Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz of the Wayne county library board explain the manner in which the county assesses local governments for the maintenance of the library. The city and township must pay all of the minor maintenance and care of building expense. They are charged proportionately to use for operation expense, Kaiser, referring to the situation as "a very sticky problem," said that residents of the county are entitled to use of the library. He inferred that charges by the county would continue in the same manner, regardless of ownership.

"You should bear in mind that growth in the township will eventually see principle use of the library coming from that area," he said. He stated that 28 percent of the present users came from the township.

Mrs. Wagenschutz, a member of the organization that originally deeded the library to the township, questioned whether it could be sold. City Attorney Philip Ogilvie said that, in his opinion, sale could be made if conditions of the deed were accepted by the buyer. A reverter clause in the deed left some doubt as to whether the building could ever be used for anything but a library.

Councilman John Stubenvoll suggested that the city might take the library from the township "for nothing" and pay maintenance costs. Councilman Malcolm Allen added that "they'd be getting rid of a dead horse if they gave it away."

After the discussion closed, Mayor Claude Ely directed Councilman Earl Reed to seek another meeting with the township. "We cannot accept their offer of the library," he added.

Speaking on "Grapho-Analysis in Business" to the Men's club of the Methodist Church in Plymouth will be Mrs. Lucille McKinney of West Dunlap street.

On January 21, Mrs. McKinney spoke at the Avondale school in Dearborn township on "The Use of Grapho-Analysis with School Children".

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith Make Home in Northville

Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Smith

White gladioli, palms and candles provided the setting for the December 29 wedding of Mildred Redd of Plymouth and Claude E. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Smith of Balden avenue, Northville.

The former Miss Redd's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Everett Redd of Plymouth.

Reverend John Walasky performed the evening ceremony at the Plymouth Assembly of God.

The bride's gown was of traditional white chantilly lace over slipper satin. It had a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a sabbina neckline embroidered pearls and iridescent sequins. The floor length skirt ended in a cathedral train. Her veil of illusion was held in place by a cap of lace edged with pearls, and she carried roses in a semi-cascade arrangement.

Joan Campbell, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was of ice pink, princess style, with a boat neckline, short sleeves and matching crownlet. She carried a semi-cascade arrangement of red carnations.

Miss Sharon Reader, cousin of the bride, and Miss Margie Baker, niece of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids in gowns identical to the matron of honor.

Debra Smith, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl. She wore a short red and white organza dress. Ring-bearer was Bobby Smith, nephew of the bridegroom.

Robert Smith, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushering were Bob and Edward Redd.

Mrs. Redd, mother of the bride, wore rose lace over pink-satin with matching accessories, and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Smith, wore a grey dress with a lace bodice, a pink inset at the yoke. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Approximately 160 guests from Northville, Plymouth, Detroit, Livonia and Grand Rapids attended the reception at the Odd Fellow's hall in Plymouth.

For her trip to Grayling, Michigan, the new Mrs. Smith wore a winter white knitted sheath dress with matching accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The couple is now making their home in Northville.

Art Club Plans Guest Speaker

WAFFLES AND COFFEE — and sausage or bacon will be a breakfast or lunch treat for the family even after warmer weather arrives. Mrs. Al Pritchard prepares to pour the batter — her special waffle recipe.

If you're one of the many whose time for making breakfast is all too short, here's a recipe for waffles that can be prepared two or three days before use.

Mrs. Al Pritchard of Novi road, says that part of the secret is in the mixing and in addition of vanilla. This recipe makes four large waffles — but even if it's not all used at once, the batter can be stored for the next morning.

WAFFLES

3 cups sifted all purpose flour
5 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons white sugar
4 large or 5 small eggs
2 1/4 cups sweet milk
2/3 cup butter (salaq oil or margarine may be used)
1 teaspoon vanilla, if desired
Melt butter or shortening to soft ball stage. Mix all dry ingredients in large bowl.

Beat eggs separately at high speed about two minutes. Add milk, vanilla and eggs to dry ingredients. Beat two minutes or until well blended. Add melted shortening and beat one minute.

A Jewish girl in hiding from the Nazis during World War II — and a cookney lass who became a lady — both were brought to life before last week's meeting of the Northville Woman's club by guest speaker Mrs. L. Hart Wright.

Mrs. Wright who has been director of little theater groups in Oklahoma City, Fenton, Michigan and Ann Arbor, read excerpts from the Broadway hit, "Diary of Anne Frank" and George Bernard Shaw's "Pygmalion", filling in the story line as she read.

The first play uses the actual diary of a girl whose family was in hiding for over two years during the Nazi purge, a contrast to the comedy of the second, on which the current musical, "My Fair Lady" is based.

Memberships Open In "Buxom Belles"

Buxom Belles, a state-wide non profit organization dedicated to helping overweight women, has a few more openings for membership.

Members have fun and win prizes while losing excess weight. For more information, call Winnie Harris, GREENleaf 4-0887, or group president Betty Peterson, GREENleaf 4-4850. The group meets on Thursday evenings from 7:30 to 10 p.m.

Bradshaw to Give Decorating Hints

"Decorating Highlights" will be the topic of Bruce B. Bradshaw, decorating consultant, when he visits the February meeting of the Northville Woman's club.

Presented by the J. L. Hudson company speakers' bureau, Mr. Bradshaw's entire presentation will be directed toward a better understanding on how to achieve attractive rooms through the application of good taste in selecting a style, floor covering, fabric or color scheme.

Mr. Bradshaw works with decorating materials when he talks and will demonstrate ways in which color scheme can be developed. Furniture arrangement will Bruce B. Bradshaw also is discussed. He will conclude his program by inviting questions from his listeners.

Mr. Bradshaw has been engaged in interior decorating for the past 25 years. At present, he is the training representative for the Home Furniture division of the J. L. Hudson company and a member of the speakers' bureau.

"BELIEVE" & "BELIEVE"

Most every person that has been exposed in any degree to Christianity knows that one is made right with God by believing. John 3:16 is one of the best known verses in the Bible which tells us "that whosoever believeth in Him, should not perish but have everlasting life!" Everything hinges upon that one word "believe". Surely this does not mean "just believe anything" as some so foolishly suppose. One must believe the "truth" if he is to be saved. If one rests his eternity on a lie, then he shall suffer eternal condemnation because of his following the false way. There is another sense in which people err, and is to be found by comparing the accounts in Acts 8:9-25 and Acts 16:30-34. In the first case of Simon the sorcerer, he believed and was baptized. But what follows shows that he was never saved for he was "still in the bond of iniquity". In the last account, the sheriff at Philippi believed and was able to rejoice in his new found salvation. Both believed—yet one was not saved, the other was. What was the difference? A careful study of the account with Simon indicated that there was no real repentance and therefore was not in position to exercise real faith in Christ.

Cadillac

Pride of the Neighborhood!

It is a happy occasion indeed when a new Cadillac first appears in the driveway of its happy owner.

As you would expect, it signals the most joyful of family celebrations—and occasions the heartfelt congratulations of friends and acquaintances.

But you might be surprised, we think, to learn of the widespread rejoicing which the arrival of a new Cadillac frequently inspires.

In fact, the car invariably becomes a source of genuine pride and satisfaction throughout the entire neighborhood in which it resides.

The neighborhood understandably delights in having a beautiful new Cadillac to grace its streets . . . and takes great pleasure in knowing that one of its own has been able to realize the dream that lives in the hearts of so many.

And we think you might also be surprised to learn that this happy event is currently taking place in a great many neighborhoods that have never before laid claim to a Cadillac car.

For there is an ever-growing awareness that Cadillac—with all its incomparable motoring virtues—is one of the soundest and wisest purchases a motorist can make.

From a standpoint of purchase price, maintenance, operation and resale value, the car represents a truly extraordinary investment.

Surely, in view of this, you should consider a Cadillac this year.

We will be happy to put you behind the wheel at any time for a personal demonstration.

In fact, why not come in and see us today?

News from Willowbrook

Eva Hollis, mother of Mrs. Bud Brines of Meadowbrook, has returned home to Chicago after a month's visit here.

Bob McKeon of Meadowbrook and Bob Coleman went rabbit hunting in Fenton. Luck wasn't with them for they came home empty handed.

The mothers of the Cub Scouts, Den One, met Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Clifford Hawley of McMahon. They made plans for the future activities of the scouts.

Jerry and Dolores Locker of Glen Ridge enjoyed a dinner party Sunday in Grosse Pointe at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Noonan.

A ninth birthday party was held Sunday for David Ames of Mooringside. Those who helped him celebrate were Teddy Bunk-Mr. Randy Calliguri, Charles Thackray, Craig Fownes and his brother Ralph Ames. They all enjoyed a show and then returned to the Ames' home for ice cream and cake.

Howard Swick of Meadowbrook spent a week in Lansing on business.

Mrs. P. V. Voelker's visit here will be one to remember. She enjoyed a trip to Northland Friday with her daughter, Louise Ranno, of McMahon. Sunday, she and the Rannos were treated to a dinner and show by the Ralph Redmonds of Birmingham. On Thursday the Don Fords are taking them out to dinner at the Grosse Pointe Yacht club and tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Elwood P. Engel are entertaining them at their Bloomfield Hill's home and a late dinner at Dearborn Inn.

Ethel and Robert Stover of Glen Ridge had a housewarming Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Kermit Nolte of Nine Mile organized the party. Twenty-one couples came from Northville, Dearborn, Detroit and Whitmore Lake.

Irene and Jim McCormick of McMahon spent the evening Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Doering of St. Clair Shores.

Marvin Bowen of 23960 Willowbrook drive are former residents of Detroit. They have one daughter, Nancy, who is 3½. Mr. Bowen is employed by the Crankshaft Form Tool company in Garden City. Gloria likes to sew while Marvin is a bowler. Together, they enjoy fishing. Saturday night, they had a housewarming. Forty people attended and enjoyed the music of a four piece orchestra.

Robert and Saralee Miller of 23940 Willowbrook, moved here from Oak Park. They are originally from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. Mr. Miller is a sales engineer for the Aluminum Company of America which is located in the New Center building, Detroit. Their interests include bridge, ice skating, golf and gardening.

Chris and Kay Bowman of 23920 Willowbrook are former residents of Redford township. They have three boys: Chris, 5; Timmie, 4, and Andy, who is almost three. Mr. Bowman is a designer for Efficient Engineering in Oak Park. They like to play bridge.

Ronald and Rose Barr of 23844 Willowbrook drive, are former residents of Birmingham. They have one child, Lynda, who is nine months old. Mr. Barr works for Koepfingler Bakery in Detroit. Rose is a former commercial artist and still likes to paint in her spare time. They both enjoy swimming and boating.

Clubs

Gladys Earl of Ten Mile held the Willowbrook Pinochle club at the Ten Mile road home of Aldean Carter. Kay Buck won the first prize Aldean Carter came in second and Alice Clemens won third. The booby prize went to Cecilia Beech. After playing, a luncheon was served. The next meeting will be at the home of Helen Waugh.

The Coffee club met Monday at the home of Ben Diem on Le-Bost. Those able to attend were Pat Pinner, Jackie Morse and Jean Radtke.

Novi Highlights

A miscellaneous shower honoring Mrs. James Killion (nee Nadine Hayes) was held at the home of Mrs. George Lien Friday evening. The 36 guests present came from Marine City, Detroit, Farmington and Novi. Mr. and Mrs. Killion were married December 30 and are now living on Virginia street in Plymouth.

Mrs. Harry Steele of 12 Mile road is ill at her home with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. John Power, recent newcomers to Novi, have a new baby son, born December 26. Mr. and Mrs. Power, formerly of California, have another son, Michael, one year old. Mrs. Power's mother, from California, is visiting them for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mandilk of Clarkston had Sunday dinner with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mandilk after which they all attended the Detroit auto show.

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Killeen of Beck road announce the birth of a son, Jeffery Simon Monday, January 7. Mrs. Killeen's mother, Mrs. Simon, came from Connecticut last week to be with her daughter for a few weeks.

Mrs. Edna Lang is now nursing at the Novi Convalescent Home.

Mrs. Clare Lockwood was very pleasantly surprised when 14 ladies in her bowling team came in last Tuesday evening for a housewarming at the Lockwood home on Shankin street, Wolverine lake. They brought in the dinner and presented Mrs. Lockwood with a beautiful clock. They spent the evening playing several different games.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship group had a roller skating party at the Riverside Arena last Thursday. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kirkwood, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Trotter and Mrs. Glen Schenimann.

Novi Girls 4-H Club

The Novi Country Slicks met at the home of their leader Mrs. Evelyn Cotter last Tuesday. Last Sunday afternoon the girls went bowling and they have planned a trip to Detroit for dinner and a show in the near future.

Perry Kenner Auxiliary News

Laree Bell, auxiliary president, and Doris Callen, child welfare director, visited the Capitol City Auxiliary in Lansing last week. The Lansing Auxiliary entertained at the Detroit meeting held in the New Civic Center building. After the business meeting they had a program ready for the district delegates. Miss Chetra Amersereker from Ceylon, who is studying at Michigan State university for her Ph.D., gave a very interesting talk. She enlightened one and all as to the differences with life in Ceylon and the United States.

Last Friday the Auxiliary took cake and ice cream to one of the wards at Northville State hospital. Plans are being made to make this visit regularly throughout the year.

Novi Girl Scouts

Intermediate Troop met in the basement of Novi school January 16. They made cookies towards their cooking badge. They named the cookies oatmeal cookies. They also turned in their posters which they had made for the Adult Girl Scout card party. Scribe, Virginia Early.

Intermediate Troop No. 491 reported that their meeting was called to order by vice-president Freda Angel in the absence of the president, Donna Lin, who was ill. Dues were received by the new treasurer, Sue Collins. Marian Slentz brought a record player and records. Virginia Pounders and Sharon LaFond brought treats, which were fudge and potato chips. Scribe, Shirley Coleman.

Brownie Troop No. 602 made plans to work on Tenderfoot requirements. The girls read Girl Scout laws and discussed them. Diana Harwood was the guest. Treats were brought by leaders. Closed with tunnel closing. Scribe Kay Gillette.

Brownie Troop No. 149 started sock puppet project. Ann Altstetter celebrated her birthday by bringing in cake and ice cream for the troop. Mrs. Altaffer was the special guest.

Intermediate Troop No. 493 worked on tallies for the card party. Reviewed flag ceremony procedure. Selected wild rose as troop crest. Started planning Valentine party.

Senior Troop met at the home of leader Pauline Bassett. They furnished score pads for Girl Scout card party. Planned special evening for the future. A new girl was a visitor, Martha Good-fellow. Jackie Bailey brought treats. The girls have been asked to help serve at the Board of Commerce dinner February 2.

There is still a need for Intermediate Girl Scout uniforms. If anyone has one, please notify leaders of Troop No. 492, Mrs. Ritter or Mrs. LaPlante. All Intermediate Girl Scouts and Brownies are asked to bring their uniforms to their next weekly meeting with their name on the sit-upon so they won't get mixed up when we meet in the Community building January 30 with Mrs. Jennings.

Novi School News

The Novi School Teachers club met Wednesday. The president, Ruth Wilcox, appointed committees to entertain the Mother's club in February.

Supt. William Medlyn and the principal, Mrs. Atkinson, attended a meeting of Oakland County Curriculum Planning group at Birmingham January 8.

Novi Sure Shots

Novi Sure Shots welcome visitors at their meetings held on Tuesdays from 6:30 to 9 p.m. High point man this week was Dennis Snow with a 79 out of a possible 100 score.

The purpose of the National Rifleman's association (N.R.A.) is to teach people how to handle firearms safely. Many children are being trained to handle firearms safely through the Junior Rifle Clubs of America, thus avoiding many accidents caused by careless use. The Novi Sure Shots, a branch of the N.R.A., has about 25 members who have finished the required training. After they have completed the training they are allowed to shoot on the range at Novi school.

Eighth Grade—

Mr. McMillan's eighth grade class is selling pop corn on Mondays and Wednesdays during the noon hour. This class is also going to have a bake sale to earn money for their trip to Lansing.

Seventh Grade—

Seventh grade teacher, Mr. Knodle, brought a tape recorder from the University of Michigan and interviewed all the pupils in the class. Most of the boys and girls sang songs, some quoted poetry and others made up stories. They took the recorder into Mr. Millan's room and read some letters and Mr. McMillan took down some of the conversations. The pupils didn't think their voices sounded natural.

Sixth Grade—

Mrs. Salow's sixth grade enjoyed making crayon etchings, which they made by coloring designs on cardboard, and then covering them a second coat of black crayon, then etching the pictures. The pupils who are reading "Beautiful America" made a bulletin board display on the USA. Dickie Geer was general chairman and on the committee are Sharon LaFond, in charge of pictures for commerce; Claude Earl, agriculture; David Mazel, scenery; and Ivan Fisher, manufacturing.

Gary Spencer and Wallace White, who were ill last week, are back in school.

The class has been experimenting with a tape recorder in view of buying it with their magazine money.

Mrs. Penhale's sixth graders have elected the following officers for the remainder of the year: president, Sharon White; vice-president, Lynda Johns; secretary, John Walters; treasurer, Richard Shoemaker, and reporter, Diana Harwood.

Fifth Grade—

Mrs. Maloney's room has decorated the bulletin board with Valentines made to represent a flower garden.

Fourth and Fifth Grades—

Mrs. French's fourth and fifth grades met for their regular business meeting January 17. The program committee represented a contest called TioTadDough. Ron Rice won first prize. President Diane Eby appointed a new program committee. They are Suzanne MacGillivray, Regina Ferguson and Chuckie Trickey.

The children in Mrs. French's room who will decorate the lunch room for February are: general committee chairman, Christine Martin and Diane Eby, June Lynes and Tommy Doan. Door committee chairman Steve, Chismark, Nancy Cook, Peter Wharton and Patty Hildenbrand. Black-board chairman Leola Neely, and Violet McQueen; shelf chairman Judy Dye, and Gilbert VanSickle.

Mrs. Wilcox's fourth grade class sent $2.50 to "Ernie Ford's Operation Penny Drop". They are also making a winter scene for their bulletin board.

Bill Jansen is spending the next few weeks in Florida with his parents.

Second Grade—

The second grade children have been making movies of some of the stories in their readers.

After talking about Antartica, Jack Crawford and Lynn McCormick brought interesting reports for us from encyclopedias at home. They have a world globe to help them locate this country so cold and far away.

First Grade—

Mrs. Hart's kindergarten children have enjoyed seeing some of the new Christmas toys such as an Indian headdress, many dolls and toy animals.

Church Plans Revival Meeting

There will be a series of revival meetings beginning January 27 at the Church of Jesus Christ, corner of Canton Center and Cherry Hill at 7 p.m. nightly. Guest speakers will be brother Artell Garrigus of Plymouth and Brother Ed J. Smith of Garden City. Everyone is welcome.

A baptismal service will be held January 27 at 10:30 a.m. at Christ Temple church, Salem.

FREE TREATS

Knowing how to pick the right score of the high school basketball games has resulted in free malts, sodas and banana splits for many Northville high students. Here's the list of latest winners in Paul's Sweet Shop weekly contest: Gloria Hollis, Keith Steinhelb, Jim Burrell, William Smith, Bob Allen, Fred Schwarze, Mike Myers, Rusty Weston, Jackie Riley, Steve Juday, Harry Sedon, Jeff Goodrich, Larry Angove, Priscilla Hilton, Bob Bake, Dave Ryder and Dick Biery.

Legion to Honor Former Officers

Northville American Legionnaires soon will honor their past presidents and past commanders with a special dinner-dance program.

Lloyd H. Green Post 147 will sponsor the annual event February 9 at 7 p.m. in the Legion Memorial Home.

Members promise a "completely new and different act" along with the traditional dinner and dance. Good food, refreshments and fellowship also are on order. Tickets may be purchased from post and auxiliary members. More than half the places already have been spoken for.

Seven new members were officially inducted last night by the Northville Optimist club in ceremonies presided over by the Optimists' lieutenant governor.

Inducted were Ray W. Doeksen, Robert L. Hart, Russell R. Reimer, Donald Van Ingen, M. Foster Howell, Ron Schipper and Otis Tewksbury.

Color photography enthusiasts of the area will have an opportunity to win cash prizes for their efforts.

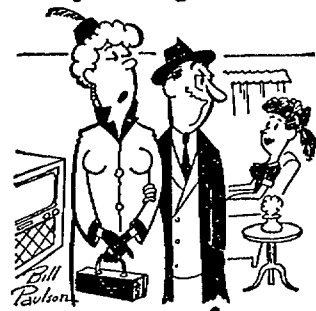

Johnson's Jewelry & Gift Shop of Northville announced this week a contest for best color scenes taken of this area. Carl Johnson stated that contestants may enter as many color prints as they wish, but entry blanks must accompany each print.

Scenes of Northville, its business firms or streets, churches, buildings, track, horses, etc., taken in either winter or summer are requested. The contest will begin February 1 and continue until June 1. Entries may be obtained at Johnson's. Full details of the contest are on page two.

A STATEMENT BY FRANK DAVIS

TO THE CITIZENS OF NOVI

First, I want to thank each and everyone of you who signed petitions for me to be a candidate on the board of trustees.

I am extremely interested in our township government, but had no intention of entering local politics until a group of people, whose friendship I hold dear, had circulated the petitions and I was in politics. Bless your hearts! I am a Republican and therefore not running against any other Republican. I know all of them to be gentlemen and scholars and casual observation will convince anyone that they are judges of pretty women, and if you can't see me as a trustee vote as you please, but please vote.

I'll be the first to congratulate the winner. See next week's issue for my platform.

Guest Speaker Scheduled for PTA

Dr. Lore Hirsch director of outpatient service at Northville state hospital, will speak on "Some Manifestations of Emotional Problem in Everyday Life" at tonight's meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Dr. Hirsch is an assistant professor of psychiatry at Wayne State university. She is a graduate of the medical school of Heidelberg university in Germany and received psychiatric training at Bellevue hospital in New York.

Her experience includes serving as senior psychiatrist for the department of hospitals, chief of New York, and section chief in the psychiatric division, U.S. Veterans' Administration in the Bronx, New York. In 1954 and 1955, she was clinical director of psychiatry at Wayne County General hospital, at Eloise.

Dr. Hirsch is a frequent speaker on mental health topics. The PTA program committee feels that this program is an outstanding one for the 1956-57 year and hopes for a record attendance. Tonight's meeting begins at 8 o'clock in the Community building.

T/Sgt. William Richardson Marine, T/Sgt. William Richardson is serving as a clerk in the electronics section of All Weather Fighter Squadron 513, a unit of the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing at the U.S. Naval Air Station, Alameda, Japan.

Richardson is the son of Mrs. Clara Richardson of Novi road, Northville, and husband of the former Miss Cecile M. Tackett of Stamping Grounds, Kentucky.

"I've been standing on Harold's shoulders for almost five minutes. Isn't that some kind of a record?"

Auxiliary Reviews Christmas Work At Last Meeting

Rehabilitation and child welfare activities were reported at the regular meeting of the local American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 147 last Wednesday. Each year the Christmas season brings heavy demands of service for families, hospital patients and local needy veterans.

Mrs. C. Oscar Hammond, Maybury hospital chairman for the auxiliary, reported the supervision and distribution of Christmas gifts and personal items for 132 patients at Maybury Sanatorium, Eastlawn Rest Haven, Whitehall Rest Home and Livonia Home. On Sunday, December 23, about 25 members of the Legion and Auxiliary gathered at the Legion home and personally visited each veteran and presented the gifts. Posts and auxiliaries came from Farmington, Redford township, Livonia, Plymouth and Northville to assist in this project. Many local needy families and children were supplied with food, clothing and toys by the local organization.

Earlier in the month the ladies worked on the Gift Shop program at the Dearborn and Ann Arbor VA hospitals, where each veteran selects gifts, without cost, for the members of his family. The gifts are gaily wrapped and mailed to his family. This program is carried out by the ladies auxiliary each year throughout the United States in all VA hospitals.

The local post and ladies also remembered their own children earlier in the month, when a Christmas party was held December 19. About 50 attended the program of movies, games, refreshments. Santa presented a gift and candy to each child.

The coming months will be busy ones with programs on legislation, national security, community service, child welfare, poppy days and choosing Girls' State delegates.

Members are urged to come to the next regular meeting which will be held at the Memorial home next Wednesday evening January 23 at 8 p.m.

Immunization Clinic In Salem Tuesday

A clinic to provide immunization against diphtheria and tetanus (lockjaw) and smallpox vaccinations will be held Tuesday, January 29 at Salem Union school under the auspices of the Washtenaw county medical society, announced Dr. Frank Bethell, president.

Parents can assure that their children will receive these protective measures by signing a simple request slip which will be sent home by the school. A separate request must be signed for diphtheria-tetanus and smallpox vaccinations. No child will be given the immunization unless he has a signed request slip at the time the clinic is held.

Shots given at Salem Union will be for children from South Salem Union, Lapham's Corners, Wash Oak, Free Church, Frain's Lake, Geer and Superior Townships.

The truly illustrious are they who do not court the praise of the world, but perform the actions which deserve it.

ALYCE M. FISHER

Mrs. Alyce M. Fisher of 515 Novi avenue died January 18 at University of Michigan hospital in Ann Arbor. She was born May 14, 1913 in Souris, North Dakota to William and Mary Mankman. Surviving are her husband, Walter, of Novi avenue, and her parents, who live in Costa Mesa, California. Mrs. Fisher had lived in Northville since 1942 and was a registered nurse at Maybury Sanatorium. She was a member of the American Nurses Association. Funeral services were held January 21 at the Casterline Funeral Home, Rev. John O. Taxis officiating. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

WARREN A. HOWARD

Funeral services were held on Tuesday for Mr. Howard, who died January 19 from injuries sustained in an automobile-train collision in Plymouth. He lived at 240 North Mill street, Plymouth. He was born September 26, 1906 in Bay City, the son of Harry S. and Hilma Howard. Surviving are his wife, Leota; a son, Roger Wilson, and a brother, George, of Bay City. Mr. Howard had lived in Plymouth for 19 years. He was supervisor of the second yard department, Dunn Steel division, Townsend Products corporation. He was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Bay City, and a charter member of the Elks lodge, Plymouth. Services were held from the Casterline Funeral Home, Rev. Henry Walsh of the First Presbyterian church, Plymouth, officiating. The body was cremated yesterday, January 23.

New Adult Classes Set In Plymouth

Eleven new courses have been added to the list of subjects offered by the Plymouth Recreation department during the second semester of the adult education program. Six old classes have been discontinued.

The new additions include: flower arranging taught by Mrs. A. T. M. Petersen; handwriting analysis by Mrs. Lucille McKinney; creative poetry by Harold Hantley; camera club by Mrs. Robert Dearing; household mechanics by Bob Erdelyi; home gardening and landscaping by Bill Saxton; modern philosophy by Dr. Henry Walsh; parent and child behavior by Leo Subotik, PhD; Americanization - Citizenship and basic English for the New American by Mrs. Florence Krause; successful speaking and persuasion; and interpretive dancing by Aleta Christie.

Those classes discontinued are: child development; reading, writing and arithmetic; silk screening; enameled jewelry; plastic workshop; and chair caning.

Registration for the second semester will begin the third week in January. Classes get underway the week of February 4. For further information call the recreation office, Plymouth 895; extension 4 or 23.

Rotary-Exchange Hosts Ex-resident Now Dow Executive

A former Northville man, Gene Perrin, will be guest speaker at next Wednesday's combined meeting of the Northville Rotary and Exchange club at the Methodist church.

Perrin was recently promoted to staff assistant with the Dow Chemical company. He was a member of the Northville high school class of 1931, and is a graduate of Michigan State university. Perrin now lives in Midland with his family.

His father, E. E. Perrin of Northville in the early 1940's. The Rotary and Exchange clubs combine their meetings four times a year, alternating as hosts.

Northville Schools Cited by Red Cross

The two Northville elementary schools recently received recognition in the American Junior Red Cross magazine for their part in holiday charitable activities.

According to Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., Northville school nurse, the magazine noted the activities of three rooms in the schools.

Mrs. Edna Huff's fourth grade room at Main Street school was cited for making Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas favors for patients at Atchison Memorial and Sessions hospitals.

The second grade at Main Street school, under Mrs. Isabell Spooner, was recognized for providing special holiday favors for East Lawn Convalescent Home.

Kindergarten students at Amman school, under Mrs. Ann Chismar, were cited for filling 30 overseas boxes to be sent where needed by the Junior Red Cross.

Men's Club to See Slides of Missions

The Men's club of the First Methodist church will meet in the Fellowship hall at 6:30 p.m. next Monday, January 28 for dinner and a slide showing by Rev. Ivan Hodgson.

The pictures were taken by Rev. Hodgson last summer during a trip with a contingent of young people, visiting many of the home missions in the south and southwest United States. The group slept and ate in churches, parsonages, mission schools and similar institutions obtaining much knowledge of the workings of the missions and conditions in mission areas.

Dinner will begin at 6:45.

Hot Rodders Ask for a Break

The Northville Record

SECOND OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY—EST 1868— Thursday, January 24, 1957—9

To many a mechanically-minded young man, there is no beauty like the beauty of a sleek and powerful automobile — especially if it has been designed and built by himself.

It is the beauty of a faultless machine . . . of a mass of metal functioning as near to perfection as he can make it . . . of controlled power ready to do his bidding.

But to many parents and neighbors, these young men — who in another decade may be designing the nation's autos — often are regarded as irresponsible hellions of the road. And to them is given, therefore, the overworked and oft-disgraced name of "hot-rodder."

Northville has a small group of "hot-rodders", and they too must face this uphill struggle to be recognized as sincere young mechanics and designers, rather than as upstarts who endanger lives and burn up the highways in a search for thrills.

The Northville Modified Auto Club, with 18 active members, is fully sanctioned by the Exchange club and the Northville Recreation Department. And working with the boys is officer Eugene King of the Northville Police Department. The club is no haphazard group.

Faced with growing pains the past few years, the club is not yet fully in operation. There has been no organized competition, and only two cars are ready to roll.

But the club has made progress. Members meet twice a month in the Scout Hall. A set of by-laws (violation of which means expulsion from the club) has been drawn up. Officers of other near-by clubs visit with the Northville boys, explaining how they might conquer problems that face them.

And whenever a club member sees a motorist in trouble on a Northville street or highway, he is duty-bound to stop, show his identification cards and do what he can to get the stranded driver moving again.

Meanwhile, club members are working on their cars — "souping" up motors, "leading in" the bodies, "chroming" the engines, and turning chugging has-beens into perfectly tuned machines.

The day will come, they hope, when they can enter competition. But it won't be a drag-race down a Northville side street, or a maniacal joy-ride out on a highway. Instead, it will be a well-controlled test of auto against auto on a course that won't interfere with other drivers or cause mothers to gather their children off the streets.

The spirit of competition will be the same that thrills the flower-grower or the photographer, and — with its safeguards — will not be any more dangerous.

Says Officer King, their adviser: "All they need is a chance to show that they can and will live up to the true principles of hot-rodding. Those who race around city streets are only hot-rodders by name, not in principle."

Auto Clubbers to Sponsor "Poker Run"

A "poker run" will be sponsored Saturday by the Northville Modified Auto Club.

With four persons to a car, contestants will drive a supervised course, picking up playing cards at each of several stops. At the finish, the best poker hand will win.

Refreshments will be served afterwards.

Those interested are to meet at the scout hall at 7 p.m., with warm clothes, flashlight, compass, crow bar and boots.

TRIM LINES AND POTENT ENGINE of one of the Northville Modified Auto Club's cars are examined by three members and Officer Eugene King, the club's adviser. Left to right are King, Ken Beyer (owner of the car), Dave Dahl (pointing) and Vic Miller. By comparing notes experimenting, club members learn how best to improve their own cars.

SAFETY IS STRESSED in all club activities, for members realize that their cars could be dangerous unless properly controlled and supervised. Here, Officer King goes over some pointers with Miller, Dahl and Beyer.

UNDER THE HOOD, Ken Beyer adjusts one of the two carburetors that add punch to his modified auto. Many of the engine parts are chrome-plated, not only for looks but also for durability and cleanliness. Modifying an engine is the most time-consuming job facing a hot-rodder.

NO WONDER Most Guesses are Hundreds Too High!

If you think this Chieftain Pontiac looks out of place in the low-price field, you've got plenty of company. But there it stands . . . in solidly with the so-called low-priced three—a big, bold, beautiful eye-opener with not a thing to remind you of its very modest cost. Start with looks. Here's the distinction of clean, unfrenzied, straight-to-the-point Star Flight lines that are built in, not improvised. But it's in the performance department that the price guesses really run wild! Drive it and see for yourself. Pontiac's big 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio V-8 doesn't know what strain is, no matter what you demand of it. New precision-touch handling makes "driving effort" a term only for your memory book. And the Chieftain's 122-inch-wheelbase Level-Line Ride is so smooth that only the passing road signs remind you that you're earth-bound. In fact, nothing in the low-price field even comes close to matching the Chieftain in power, wheelbase or features! But if you think all this is beyond your reach, a visit to your Pontiac dealer for a talk about price will put you in that wonderful club of new-car owners who have discovered that Pontiac's rewriting the book in the low-price field!

Blades to Flash at Skating Races Sunday

Speed skaters in Northville will keep anxious eyes on the skies and thermometers this week end as time nears for them to show their skills in the annual Northville skating races this Sunday.

The yearly event, one of the most popular of the year, will be gin at 1 p.m. at the Northville mill pond.

Co-sponsored by the Northville Optimist club and the Northville recreation department, the races will draw skaters beginning in age at six years.

In all some 40 races will be skated off — three races in each of seven age groups for both boys and girls. Lengths of the races have been set up to meet the abilities of each of the age groups. Skaters will need a break from the weatherman, however. Spring like thaws and rainstorms earlier this week melted surface ice at the mill pond and made it far from a desirable rink. But there were hopes that lower temperatures would turn the pond into an ideal skating surface — slick and fast.

Prizes will be awarded in each of the 14 age groups for boys and girls. First place winners will receive handsome trophies, and second and third place skaters will be given inscribed medals.

Last year, a record field of some 80 contestants turned out for the races.

"We hope we can do even better this year," said recreation director Stan Johnston. "There's a chance that we could reach the 100 mark this Sunday, providing Northville skaters show as much interest as they did last year."

Johnston also noted that skating races made good entertainment for even the non-skaters.

"Speed skating is one of the fastest and most spirited sports known," Johnston said. "Anyone who wants a few thrills and even some dramatic moments will find them at the mill pond Sunday."

Each contestant's score will be determined by how he places in the three races in his age group. A first place gives 50 points, second gives 30 and third gives 10.

Thus a boy taking a first and two thirds would have a total of 70 points. This total would be matched against others in his age group to determine the winner.

NELSON SCHRADER holds down a center spot on the high-flying Mustang basketball squad this year. Standing 6' 4" and weighing 210, "N.C." also was a standout at tackle on the championship Northville football team last fall. Only a sophomore, Schrader will have two more full years of athletic competition in Northville before going on to Michigan State University. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Schrader, Jr., 116 Orchard drive.

Keep Off the Ice!

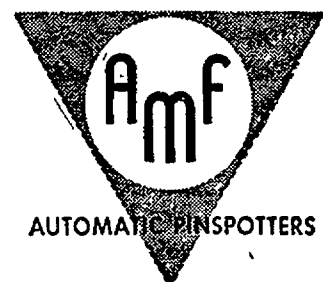

Skaters have been asked not to use the mill pond until Sunday's skating races so as to allow it to harden after the warm weather earlier this week.

Recreation director Stan Johnston had hopes that the melted surface would refreeze "like glass" but noted that premature use of the pond would be likely to ruin it for the races.

Mustangs Bump Clarkston In Sluggish 43-37 Contest

In some respects it was their worst game of the season, and in others it was their best.

But the net result of Northville's 43-37 win over Clarkston Friday night was the same as it has been after each of their league games so far this season: another stride toward the Wayne-Oakland championship.

With it, Northville became the odds-on favorite for the title, and only a major disaster now seems capable of stopping them.

Colts Split Two For 500 Mark At Mid-Season

Paced by forward Bob Starnes, the Northville Colts brought their season record up to an even 500 Friday night by rolling over the Clarkston junior varsity, 45-27.

Starnes, a consistent high-scorer for the Colts, tallied 16 points in leading Northville to its fourth win against four defeats.

The Colts won the game by getting off to an early start and then holding their own in the second half. They were ahead 8-4 at the quarter and then zoomed to a 23-6 halftime lead. From then on, Northville and Clarkston played on even terms.

Coach Al Jones called the performance "very pleasing" and "one of their best games yet," noting that the Colts ended the game with a 60 percent scoring average for the contest.

Aside from Starnes, highest scorers were Fred Schwarze (8), Dennis Fallon (7) and Ed Wittenberg (6).

The previous week, Class A Thurston's reserve put on a third quarter spurt to win a tight game, 49-41.

The two teams played neck and neck for most of the game, but crucial baskets by Thurston's Walkowicz wrapped up the game for the host team.

Schwarze, with 14, and Starnes, with 12, again led the Colts.

Scoring for the games:
NORTHVILLE 8 15 8 14—45
Clarkston 4 2 7 14—27

NORTHVILLE 9 9 8 15—41
Thurston 10 13 13 13—49

SOMETIMES THEY JUMP — as they are doing here, with Northville forward Jeff Goodrich and a Clarkston cager going up for the ball in the game last Friday, won by the Mustangs.

AND SOMETIMES THEY DON'T — as they are doing here. But the reason wasn't discouragement or lack of hard play. Instead, the final buzzer had just blown, giving Northville its 7th straight victory and a firmer-than-ever grasp on first place.

Now for the Second Round

The Northville Mustangs will dig into the second half of the current basketball season Friday with good reason to believe that they will end it the same way they are going into it — solidly in first place.

Though there are still six games left to play — and though anything can happen in that time — Northville definitely has the favorite's role.

Main reason is that the rest of the league is so well-balanced that no other team can be counted on to win all of its games. Throughout the season, W-O teams have upset each other regularly, so that the standings have changed almost every week.

Except for Northville, that is. The Mustangs have played each team once and have shown they

Frosh Take Third Without a Defeat

Northville freshmen cagers took their third win without a loss last Wednesday by walking over Brighton, 61-29.

Paced by Jim Patterson with 14 and Roger Atchinson with 12, the freshman squad moved out to a 15-4 first quarter lead and a 30-6 halftime margin.

The starting five played less than half the game, as coach Don VanIngen substituted freely in the second half.

Statistics for the three games show Northville has averaged 54 points while holding opponents to an average of 38. Patterson leaders with 41 points, followed by Atchinson with 33, Joe Gotro with 30, Wade Deal with 19, John Early with 18 and Larry Nitzel with 12.

LOOK!

...more than a car
...more than a truck

LOOK again! IT'S THE NEW FORD RANCHERO

HAULS LIKE A TRUCK! No need to hold back on load. Pile it on—the Ranchero packs a greater payload than many standard pickups! Power, plenty, too—Short Stroke 144-hp Six or either of two Short Stroke V-8's, up to 212 hp, Fordomatic or Overdrive at extra cost.

HANDLES LIKE A CAR! Ball-joint front suspension—first time on any pickup—gives true passenger-car ride. Cab interior is exactly like that of the '57 Ford Ranch Wagon. Power steering, power brakes, power seat and power windows available at extra cost.

Looking at the boldly-modern styling of the new Ford Ranchero, you may find it hard to believe that it's actually a man-sized truck. But, you'll find there's a lot of heft behind the glamour.

It carries more than half a ton. That's more capacity than many standard pickup trucks offer you. Loading height is less than any pickup. No matter how you look at it, the new Ford Ranchero is a real workhorse.

And it's a show pony, too! The Ranchero looks, rides and handles like a passenger car. Its low, crisp lines have a wonderful way of saying how progressive you and your company are.

The new Ford Ranchero is surprising in many ways. Never has so much style and luxury been packed into so rugged a vehicle at such a low price.

See 'em soon!

Seniors Compete For Scholarship

Preliminary examinations in connection with the Sixteenth Annual Science Talent Search were held Wednesday, December 26 at Northville high school under the supervision of E. V. Ellison, principal.

Students taking the science ap-pitude test were Bernhard Mueller, Gary Holman, Murray Lyke and John Schwartz.

Forty boys and girls who lead in the preliminary examinations will be given all-expense-paid trips to Washington to attend the Science Talent Institute for five days early next spring and take the final examinations for the scholarships. One contestant will be selected by a board of judges to receive a Westinghouse Grand Science Scholarship of $2,800 ($700 per year for four years). One other contestant will receive a Westinghouse Grand Science Scholarship of $2,000 ($500 per year for four years). Eight more contestants will receive Westinghouse Scholarships of $400 ($100 a year for four years) and $3000 additional in scholarships will be awarded.

Madonna Students To Attend Retreat

"A time of quiet, a time to communicate with God, to find one's rightful place with Him"— this is the description of the retreat to be given to the students at Madonna college, Livonia, January 28-30.

Father Valentine Leitsch, CP, a member of the mission band at St. Paul's monastery of the Passionist Fathers, Detroit, will conduct the retreat.

Extending his definition of a retreat, Father Valentine notes "We all have a dream in life, but we should not forget that God has a dream for us too. Our dream must harmonize with God's dream. Retreat is the time to find out again of what God's dream is made;
what we are trying to do in life;
and why we are failing."

"To concentrate on how to make this dream come true and to try to be the person God wants, should be a lasting effect of a successful retreat."

Christian Science Lecture Scheduled

How spiritual understanding of God brings freedom from sin, disease, and discord of every kind will be the topic of a lecture on Christian Science to be given Thursday evening, January 31 by Louise S. Karpen of New York City.

Open to the public without charge the lecture will be sponsored by the members of Fourth
Church of Christ, Scientist, 5240
West Chicago Boulevard at 8 o'clock. Her subject will be "Christian Science: Its Message of Freedom."

Mrs. Karpen is currently on extended tour as a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Prior to entering the public practice of Christian Science healing, she was engaged in the teaching profession for many years. She is an authorized teacher of Christian Science.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By the Reverend Ivan E. Hodgson
First Methodist Church of Northville

AS I LISTENED...

Along with millions of other people, I witnessed the recent inauguration of our President.
The simplicity of this ceremony often belies the depth of its significance. At times it seems almost perfunctory. Yet, there is a real thrill and exaltation as we witness it.

Perhaps the part that thrills me most is the simple, yet powerful statement of supplication,
"So Help Me God." Recently,
I read an article about the historical origin of this phrase, and as I read I learned that it was not a part of the oath of office, but was added by our first President...not in a mandatory way...but as a prayer of supplication.

Each of us can sense the emotional implications of this prayer... "So help me God". In it we see and feel our own feeling of inequity and dependence...

our own need for constant Divine oversight and strength. It is thus, not by "accident" that these words have been uttered, but, I believe, as a result of Divine Providence...for it is the inevitable supplication of Man confronted with tremendous forces and powers that causes him to make such a prayer. It is no less the case of our Presidents.

Significantly also we have witnessed another addition of words, this time to our flag salute (where many of us find it hard to remember them after so many years!) the words "under God"

...and I cannot help but feel that each of these are vibrant testimony that America and her Leaders are striving to do God's Will in their tasks of leadership.
Surely there is no other Nation that has even made this much official progress.

Together with these I would add one final thought, that the "order" of things on Inauguration day, seemed right. I am thinking of the fact that after the prayer of supplication, the pomp and ceremony of the parade followed. This seems to me quite suggestive, for "it is true that when we are seeking and striving to do God's Will— Individually and collectively— then and only then, does the joy and "fun" of life take on its proper perspective and such joy and happiness makes for a fuller life, because the people themselves are "richer" within them.

I trust then that each of you will add a whispered "amen" to the prayer of our President when he said... "So Help Me God!"

200,000 Teachers Needed Each Year, Says U-M Educator

Northville is not alone in its school problems, it appears.

"Schools will have to enlarge their teaching staff more in the next 10 years than in the previous 35-if they are to maintain present pupil-teacher ratios," says Francis W. Dalton, associate professor of vocational education at the University of Michigan.

"To find an adequate supply of teachers involves a task that will tax our wisdom and our means, but it most certainly will not exceed our powers," he says.

"Colleges and universities will have to add more teachers in the next 15 years than in all previous history combined. There will need to be one-half million more school teachers on the job in 1965 than today.

"But it is more than just recruiting about 50,000 teachers annually to replace those that leave."

Where are the schools to get the teachers of tomorrow?

Professor Dalton says, "They must come from three main sources— those we now have, the young people coming up through our schools and colleges, and the adults in our community.
We are especially concerned at this time with encouraging capable young people to consider teaching as a career and to remove roadblocks in their way."

It's Circus Time at Plymouth Concert

The Plymouth Symphony will present its annual Family Concert Sunday, January 27 at 4 p.m. in the Plymouth high school auditorium. Always one of the most popular offerings of the year, the concert will be the performance of the Carnival of the Animals with Evelyn Woods and Loretta Petrofsky as the featured pianists.
Other music to be played will be the Dance of the Clowns by Smetana, Clouds and Festivals by Debussy and the Stars and Stripes Forever.

In developing the circus theme,
the Symphony will take its listeners to a day at the circus, from dawn on the great day, the welcoming of the circus train, the circus parade, the menagerie, and to the big show itself. The concert is open to the public without charge, as are all the performances by the Plymouth Symphony. Children of all ages are urged to attend.

A Report to the People

EDITOR'S NOTE: It is the general practice of most elected officials to send regular newsletters to newspapers in the areas of their constituents. As these items of state and national affairs are received by The Record, they will be published under the general heading of "A Report to the People".

A HEFTY SLICE of federal rivers and harbors money is tagged "Michigan". Last week when President Eisenhower sent his Budget Message to Congress, I was glad to note that our efforts for more improvements have been successful. I counted no less than 40 projects for our state, costing $21,605,900. Smallest item is an investigation at the Augres River costing $4,600. Largest is $13,000,000 for construction at the Great Lakes connecting channels. Other projects span the State from Keeweenaw to River Rouge and from South Haven to Au Sable. The sums proposed by the President of course, are subject to Congressional approval and you'll be hearing more about individual Michigan projects as we take them up in the Appropriations Committee.

U.S. Senator
Charles E. Potter
Republican

PARRED-DOWN SURPLUSES . . . a rise in farm income . . . and a higher standard of living . . . are the aims of a farm bill which I am co-sponsoring. We are proposing a scientific study and research program to develop new industrial uses for farm products. The exciting possibilities here are almost limitless. Frozen foods, soy bean adaptations, and other new processes are only the beginning. New and more original concepts will follow proper research.

A PROMISE KEPT — Recently I announced that one of my initial efforts in the 85th Congress would be establishment of a standing Senate Committee on Veterans Affairs. I introduced a resolution to accomplish that last week. Did you know that our 22 million veterans, their families and dependents constitute almost half the population? Surely we owe this large segment of our nation prompt and full consideration of its problems. Too often in the past veterans' matters have been pushed aside or neglected for lack of an appropriate Senate Committee. The permanent body I have in mind would devote itself exclusively to veterans' matters — pensions, life insurance, compensation, vocational rehabilitation, hospitals.

INVESTIGATE! — That's what I've asked the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce to do. I am urging a public hearing on the latest price hike by the newsprint industry. Within the past few years the price of newsprint has tripled. Profits of Canadian companies, who supply 80 percent of our newsprint, have in some cases jumped 50 percent this past year.

American newspapers, especially smaller ones, face a serious financial problem because of rising newsprint costs. Small businesses are being forced to curtail advertising. The Federal Trade Commission, at my request, is checking the situation. When a date is set for a Senate hearing, we intend to find out once and for all whether these outrageous prices and zooming profits are engineered by an international newsprint cartel.

TAX REBATE — When Uncle Sam moves into a community, local citizens usually are proud as punch. But when budget time rolls around, Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer discover that distinguished company can be costly. Federal property is tax-exempt and that places a bigger share of the cost of local and state government on individuals and businesses. For some time I have been concerned over the amount of federal property which has been removed from local tax rolls in Michigan. The answer, I hope, lies in passage of a bill I co-sponsored last week. It provides for local governments to receive certain payments "in lieu of taxes" on federal property. Each case would be carefully screened, of course, but the net result should be relief for Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer.

Goodwill Pick-up Scheduled Tuesday

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks to Northville is scheduled for Tuesday, January 29. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pick-up, call the local Goodwill representative, Miss Edith Sorenson, telephone number 571.

Plan Testimonial Dinner To Honor Judge Bowles

Invitations were being extended this week to civic leaders in Western Wayne county communities to attend a testimonial dinner in Plymouth for Judge George E. Bowles of the Wayne Circuit Court.

The dinner, slated for Tuesday, February 5 at the Mayflower hotel, will honor Bowles as the only outcounty resident serving on the Wayne Circuit Court.

The program, under the direction of Nat Sibbold of Plymouth, will feature the Honorable Talbot J. Smith, justice of the state supreme court, as speaker.

Invitations, limited to 125 for the dinner, will be extended to representatives of civic, educational, fraternal, religious, service and veteran organizations of Plymouth, Livonia, Northville, Belleville, Redford, Canton, Nankin and Wayne. According to Sibbold, accommodations for nearly 200 will be available following the seven o'clock dinner.

Bowles, a resident of Plymouth, was recently appointed to the circuit court by Governor G. Mennen Williams. Bowles has served as state chairman for the Labor Mediation Board since 1951. His experience in mediating labor disputes dates back to 1942. He has engaged in general law practice in Detroit and Plymouth since 1945 and was associated with the law firm of Prentiss M. Brown until 1947.

Bowles won wide recognition for his ability as a mediator and his appointment to the circuit court brought wide approval from the metropolitan newspapers.

Let's see the decisive factors in the '57 Inner Ford

They show you why the new kind of Ford is worth more when you buy it, worth more when you sell it!

The secret of Ford's nationwide success is this: it's a new kind of Ford . . . new from the wheels up . . . more than a last year's model with a few "face lift" changes. In a Ford the chassis, engine and body are individually engineered into one spacious, rock-solid unit. That's why, when you examine the new Inner Ford, you find a car that's new . . . clear through!

If you're a careful car-buyer with whom features count, count the new features of the '57 Ford. Then drive it! There's only one conclusion: the loveliest, liveliest car in the low-price field is the completely new Ford. For the decisive facts, see your Ford Dealer.

Students Are Guests At Rotary Meetings

Many might be interested to learn that among the community's organizations, the Northville Rotary club, as well as other Rotary clubs throughout the state, has a student present at each meeting to give him the opportunity of learning the group's purpose.

This plan of having a student present at every meeting originated in the Plymouth club. There, it became so popular that Rotary headquarters suggested all the clubs follow the practice.

Since its beginning, Northville was in favor of the idea. The "Community Service" platform selects an outstanding senior boy to attend the meetings for one month. The purpose of this is to familiarize him with the duties of a Rotarian.

Casting Begins For Junior Play

The junior class play was chosen by a committee of four juniors and Mr. Skow. The play they chose was "One Foot in Heaven" by Hartzell Spence which is about a minister and his family and the problems they encounter when they move into a new community.

Tuesday night, the 15th of January there was a meeting of those girls wanting to try out for the play.

Thursday, January 17, Mr. Skow held try-outs for some of the girl's parts in the play. Three of these parts were cast, those of the mother, Mrs. Sandow and Molly.

American farmer. The program was broadcast on Saturday, January 12. On Thursday, January 17, Bernhard Muller, who debated negative on the farm issue, received the following letter from a farmer in Delhi, Iowa:

"Attention to 'Junior Town Meeting and Bernhard Muller: I am an Iowa farmer and by accident heard your debate on the Farm Price Support Program and Soil Bank, and want to compliment the high school students that took part; first for the very capable way they put the questions; and second the general knowledge of the subject was

Plenty of Laughs At N-Club Initiation

Strange creatures invaded the halls of the high school last Thursday and Friday. No, they weren't from outer space — they were just some of our athletes being initiated into the N-Club. Dressed in burlap underclothes, shirt, trousers and tie all on backwards, unmatched socks and shoes, they carried sacks containing candy gum, onions, garlic and shoe polish.

They had to do whatever the present members of the club told them to do, such as transporting books from place to place, walking on hand and knees, chewing bites of onion or garlic, polishing shoes, washing backboards, and a bit of kissing and proposing to girls (only as a joke).

The climax came between games Friday when they appeared before the crowd dressed as women, and amid the laughter, performed various stunts and impersonations. When it was all over, they began planning what they would do next year for revenge.

equal to or above the boys and girls in our Iowa State College that are taking a special economics course.

My question is 'how did and where did you get all this knowledge in a city school?' (write and let me know briefly). I was very much impressed with the facts right at the end of the talk as given by scholar and student Muller. He had the true and 'American Way' approach to this problem. I wish all politicians in Washington had the same convictions — we would soon get rid of the mess that should have been dropped in 1945 when the war was over.

By way of introduction I suppose I am classed as one of your 'efficient' small farm farmers and you, Muller did a very good job of defending efficient farming as to inefficient. I own and operate a 110-acre farm and have a large livestock program equal to a 160-acre farm. Our net income was down last year, 1955, at $6,000 because of the livestock cycle, but the year just finished, 1956, it was nearly $14,000 net.

Mr. Muller, your thinking is along the line of Ted Schultz, a professor at Chicago university. Have you been reading his books to get your sound foundation for free enterprise? You know I would be delighted and thrilled to meet a chap like you. If you ever travel West, I live 45 miles west of Dubuque, Iowa, just off No. 20, 2 miles. Stop for a visit.

Let your good work go on. Your thinking thrills all good Americans and you're just as popular in their sight as Presley is in the sight of certain teen agers.

These lines are not for flattery but for encouragement."

Very sincerely,
Lyle Sutton

Council Plans Exchange Day

The Northville Senior student council held a meeting Tuesday, to plan the first of this year's "exchange days" for the end of February.

Brighton representatives will visit Northville, while the representatives from Northville, will journey to Bloomfield Hills. The exchange days occur twice a year for the purpose of observing a typical school day in the other schools in the league. Through this method students become better acquainted with the way in which other schools solve their problems and thus are better able to cope with their own.

Students Given Tour Of Radio Station

Last Friday afternoon, January 18, four Northville boys, Gary Holman, Murray Lyke, Bernhard Muller and Mike Petz, visited the studios of radio station WJR, in the Fisher building, Detroit. Being interested in electronics, they were taken through the taping, recording and power supply rooms, which are the "nerve centers" of any radio station. After the tour, which proved both interesting and educational, a 45-minute, on the air, production of Bud Guest's "Guest House" was viewed from the control room with an engineer.

Many Scholarships Available To Reduce College Expenses

About this time of year, prospective college students begin to seriously ponder over the matter of what school to choose for the furtherment of their education. In the course of their planning, a big item enters the picture; expense and how to reduce it.

Lots of young people have found a scholarship to be the answer to such weighty problems. Although scholarships do vary from the entire cost of an education to a minimum of fifty dollars, none are too "petty" to be considered.

The State of Michigan offers a large number of scholarships to students planning to major in teaching. The most rigid requirement? Only those who will attend college in Michigan are eligible.

Miss C. Kay Clark, home economics teacher, recently received some application blanks for home economics scholarships to Michigan State university.

The widely-known Ford scholarship can also be considered by NHS students whose parents are employees of Ford Motor company.

Michigan State university, "University of Michigan and Wayne State university applications are available in the high school office all the time. Their scholarships, by the way, are very substantial and might prove worthwhile to look into.

The American Legion is sponsoring scholarships for boys only. The race for scholarships will really get under way in March when the local scholarships will appear. The locals are partially sponsored by women's clubs and projects, and by other larger administrations in the area.

E. V. Ellison, high school principal, would like to drop a hint to the young people.

Due to the varying reasons, colleges and universities do not always send their scholarship applications to high schools. Therefore, students may obtain fast results by simply addressing a letter to the registrar of the college of their choice. The contents should state a desire for a list of all available scholarships. Within a few days, the desired information will be returned.

New Books Available in Library

What is going on in the school library? For one thing, new books are coming in, some of which have already arrived. Miss Ione B. Palmer, head librarian, has given the student library staff members permission to be the first to read them. Quite a number are now ready for students' use.

At the staff meeting Tuesday, a deadline was set for a contest that is to be held in the library. Each librarian is to compete against the others in the design of a new decorative book mark. After the winning book mark is selected, it will be mimeographed and passed out to the students for their personal use.

Teachers Offered Study Opportunity

Northville high school teachers and all other Michigan high school teachers of science and mathematics are being offered the opportunity to spend the 1957-58 academic year at the University of Michigan in the Rackham School of Graduate Studies.

Sponsored by the National Science Foundation, the Academic Year Institute will provide stipends of $3,000 plus dependents' allowances, tuition, travel and book allowances for its participants. Each participant will be given careful guidance in the selection of the program best fitted to his professional needs and interests.

A maximum of 50 teachers will be selected from the applicants for admission to the Institute. Deadline for applications is February 21, 1957. Many positions are still open, however.

Prof. Freeman D. Miller of the Astronomy Department is in charge of the Institute program

Commercial Club Plans Field Trips

The Commercial club has been very active this past year. A journey to Depositors State Bank held many interests for the members. New things were explained and general business procedures were shown.

A dance, the "Santa Claus Hop", was held by the club on December 21, 1956 and was enjoyed by everyone.

The club is planning more trips in the near future.

DAVID L. LOUTON

Pvt. David L. Louton, son of Mrs. Marjorie Louton of 504½ Plymouth avenue, Northville, is participating in "Operation Ski-Jump" with the 1st Marine Division during the period January 7-23.

"Ski-Jump", a large scale maneuver utilizing land, sea and air forces of the Marine Corps and Navy, is taking place at Camp Pendleton California, and at sea, employing over 50,000 men, and more than 100 ships.

The 1st Marine Division, supported by the 3rd Marine Aircraft Wing, has been storming the beaches of the Camp Pendleton reservation since January 17 and will continue to maneuver ashore until January 23.

Both conventional landing craft and the Marine conception of "vertical envelopment" by the use of transport helicopters are being utilized.

Practically all versions of modern warfare are being put into use: naval bombardment, amphibious landing, close air support, sea-borne invasion, and mass evacuation and replacement.

HAROLD D. CULP

Munich—Specialist Third Class Harold D. Culp, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Frost, 1283 Farmington road, Livonia, recently participated with the 11th Airborne Division in "War Hawk", a field training exercise in Germany.

Specialist Culp is a cook in Battery C of the division's 89th Field Artillery Battalion. He entered the Army in August 1954, was last stationed at Fort Chaffee, Arkansas and arrived in Europe in March 1956.

The 20-year-old soldier attended Bentley high school.

ROBERT C. AMMONS

Munich — Army Specialist 3rd Class Robert C. Ammons, whose wife, Janet, lives at 205 Hill Craft drive, Walled Lake, recently participated with the 11th Airborne Division in "War Hawk", a field training exercise in Germany.

Specialist Ammons is a rifleman in Company E of the division's 503rd Infantry Regiment. He entered the army in May 1955, was last stationed at Fort Chaffee, Arkansas and arrived in Europe in January 1956.

The 21-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Ammons Sr., 28473 Fairfax street, Royal Oak, is a 1953 graduate of Berkley high school.

Readers Speak Up: WANTS POLICE AT CROSSING

To the Editor:

In reference to your recent article concerning school crossing at the corner of Grand River and Novi roads: It is being acted on by the Mother's club headed by Mrs. Royal Snow, president, with considerable lack of cooperation from our township officials.

One must not look far to see that this intersection is dangerous and should never have been allowed to go unprotected while children are going to and from school. Certainly this is one of the main duties of a police department — the protection of life and property.

I suggest without any loss of time, that the police officer and the fireman on duty go together in a radio police car and protect the crossing during school hours. One man should remain in the car to receive radio emergency messages, while the other directs the children safely across the intersection. Further, there should be safety patrol boys on all four corners to assist. But at no time should this crossing be unprotected by either a police officer, fireman or a school guard. I might add that speed control through Novi would be helpful.

SPEAKING for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

Probably one of Eisenhower's biggest boosters for re-election last fall was Charles Trickey, III. His father, Novi township treasurer, promised him a trip to the inauguration if Ike won. Young Chuck wasn't disappointed.

* * *

If you hear strains of Hawaiian music when you pass Northville Refrigeration these days, it's because Owner Chuck Hall is conditioning himself for a visit to the islands. His salesmanship won an all-expenses' paid trip for he and his wife in a contest sponsored by a national appliance manufacturer. The Halls leave February 1.

* * *

Since its first tumble to Plymouth, Northville's cagers have failed to lose a contest. It appears the local lads will march easily to the Wayne-Oakland league title. Meanwhile, Plymouth is also leading its league, and should finish on top. A return game between these two friendly rivals seems like a natural for some worthy charity. Perhaps a banquet for the teams could climax the game.

What's more, if we are inclined to place a small wager, we'd bet that Coach Stan Johnston's boys would vindicate themselves for their season opening "off-night"!

Employees of Northville's downtown area who are tired of feeding nickles into meters every hour or so can look for relief. Councilmen have decided to install a number of all-day meters (the 25c variety) at lots on Dunlap and on Center at Dunlap.

C. N. Dickey of Five Mile road was surprised one recent evening when he answered the door to find a teen-age boy, fighting back tears, holding a dead dog in his arms. The boy had struck the dog while driving past the Dickey residence. It turned out to be a neighbor's pet, but, said Dickey, "it proved to me that all teen-age drivers are not irresponsible, as we are sometimes led to believe."

Births Lead Deaths 3 to 1 in Michigan

DO YOU HAVE more neighbors now than you did 15 years ago? It's entirely probable according to statistics released by Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner.

Michigan's population passed the 7½ million mark in 1956, says Dr. Heustis. What's more, the 8 million mark should be reached by 1960.

More births — less deaths are the biggest factors in the state's spectacular population increase. For each recorded death there are now more than three new babies entering the world in Michigan.

In 1956 the birth rate was approximately 27 for every 1,000 residents. At the same time deaths continued below nine per 1,000.

The birth rate continues to grow according to Dr. Heustis' report. "In 1941," the report states, "births surpassed 100,000 for the first time."

Medical advances continue to make inroads in the death rate. Maternity deaths decreased 90 percent in the past 30 years. The death rate for newborn infants is down 55.8 percent.

Among adults, heart disease and cancer continue as the No. 1 and 2 killers.

The "ups-and-downs" of medicine's fight against disease are recorded in the report. On the "good" side of the ledger the fight against infantile paralysis makes the most dramatic showing.

With the first full year of immunization shots now past, poliomyelitis cases are not expected to go much higher than 600 for 1956. This is approximately half of the 1,177 cases reported in 1955.

Tuberculosis deaths are apparently leveling off. Last year's deaths are expected to number 500. Some 5,488 new cases were reported.

On the "bad" side, increases in typhoid fever and diphtheria are noted. The number of diphtheria cases is expected to exceed 300, although only 59 cases were reported in 1955. Typhoid's 50 cases are more than double the 1955 figure of 24.

A PERMANENT residence for the governor will be discussed by lawmakers this year as one of the less "knotty" problems requiring their attention. Michigan remains one of the few states without a Governor's mansion.

A site survey report presented to the joint legislative state office buildings committee lists among others, the novel proposal for a penthouse apartment on top of a new state office building as a possible solution.

While a penthouse differs from the conventional concept of a state mansion, it possesses some important advantages, says James W. Miller state controller. "It is the only way a residence can be built adjacent to the capitol without the expenditure of approximately $350,000 for land," Miller states.

The proposed mansion would be used to provide facilities for visitors and rooms for official functions as well as living quarters for Michigan's Governor and his family.

"PAY-AS-YOU-PLAY" proposals to find additional revenue for the upkeep and improvement of state parks and recreational areas are gaining adherents both in the legislature and among sportsmen.

Several proposals, outlined in Michigan Mirror several weeks ago, now seem destined to be placed before the legislature early in the present session. Basically, the Michigan Conservation Commission wants to levy an admittance fee to state parks or sell year-long stickers to park-users. All fees would be used exclusively on park expansion and upkeep.

Opponents of the idea charge that a fee program would be an unfair levy on a few persons.

To check the attitude of the people most affected if the plan becomes law — the park patrons themselves — the Conservation Department asked Michigan State University researchers to conduct an extensive survey. The MSU study showed that 85 percent of the users were willing to pay a fee.

Yearlong stickers are finding the most favor within the Conservation Commission. Wayland Osgood, deputy director of the Commission states that stickers would entail less administrative costs. Individual fees would require that collectors be on hand at all state parks.

The Automobile Club of Michigan was one of the first groups to support the Conservation Department on their fee program for improvement. The Michigan United Conservation clubs also are backing any plan the legislature adopts.

Jammed playground areas are forcing a decision. Park attendance swelled alarmingly after World War II and now reaches 18 million patrons yearly.

18.17 miles per gallon on North America's toughest truck run!

That's the gas mileage reported by the Cameo Carrier after covering the entire length of the Alcan Highway in less than 45 hours! All six new Task-Force trucks that made the run turned in top scores for performance and economy!

Supervised and certified by the AAA.

New Task-Force 57 Chevrolet Trucks

Six heavily loaded Chevy trucks ran all the way up the rugged Alcan Highway in less than 45 hours! That's cutting more than a full day off the normal running time! They ran right around the clock, stopping only to refuel.

But the important fact about this run was that it proved new Chevy trucks through and through. The Alcan Highway is a supreme test of every truck component. Engines had to prove their power up high-climbing grades and through washouts. Frames and suspensions flexed their muscles over axle-deep ruts and miles of pounding gravel. "And not a single truck turned back or dropped out due to mechanical failure," states the official AAA report of the test. Every model proved its over-all economy by its ironclad ability to stay on the job! Stop by; we'll talk about it.

Choose your model from among Chevrolet's famous economy-proved Alcan Champs! Short-stroke V8's are standard in all heavyweight truck models and in many of the middleweights. They're loaded with modern features and built to take it!

Proved on the Alcan Highway
Champs of every weight class!
