Council Candidates Must File Again

State Opinion Rules Petitions Due March 1st

Northville learned this week that it was just two months early in filing its petitions for city council.

The development, brought about by an informal opinion by the secretary of state's office, means that all petitions filed last December for city council must be re-filed. It also means that any new hopefuls wishing to run for mayor or councilman have until March 1 to file petitions.

According to City Manager John Robertson the confusion arises from the fact that Northville does not have a primary election and under the city's charter petitions are to be filed "not earlier than February 1st or later than March 1st."

City Seeks Bids For Fairbrook-Wing Sewer Project

The Northville city council was ready to take a second try Monday evening at undertaking the long-awaited storm sewer and curb and gutter project for Wing, First and Fairbrook streets.

Advertisements for bids for the projects were placed this week. It marks the second time in less than a year that the city has been ready to undertake the program. Last August, because county requirements were not clear and errors arose in bids, the project was tabled.

Specifications for the work were presented by Mr. Hall of Atwell-Hicks engineering firm. He stated that the project was estimated at $49,500. The contract stipulates that work cannot begin until after June 1, when the racing season ends locally. Work must be completed by August 31. Bids will be opened at the March 4 council meeting.

In other business the council leased the city's old fire engine to the Northville Driving Club for one year. The lease states that the Driving club will pay the city $75 a year for use of the engine and will house it at the track. The city must maintain the apparatus, but has full use of the equipment in case of local emergency. A new home was needed for the old engine when the new engine was acquired recently.

A representative of the Michigan Sports Service, caterers handling service of food and drinks at Northville Downs, asked the council to consider a request for service of liquor by the glass during the racing season. He pointed out that MRA and Hazel Park tracks now have liquor licenses. He added that he believed the earlier racing dates at Northville this year would mean that evenings at the track would be cooler. "We believe the person who drinks will be inclined to want liquor instead of beer on cooler nights," he stated. "If it is not served, they may bring it to the track on their person. This makes our job of supervision more difficult," he concluded.

The commission tabled the matter for consideration. City Attorney Philip Ogilvie said that it was his opinion that the request should first go to the state liquor commission.

In final business the council moved to have parking meters enforced until 8 p.m. on Friday evenings to provide better traffic control for local stores; tabled a request for a 15-minute parking from Paul Folino; and passed an amendment to the local tax ordinance.

Name 5-Member Recreation Group

Northville and Northville township this week confirmed appointments to the five-member joint city-township recreation committee.

Tabled at Monday's meeting was discussion of a report of the Community Development organization in Northville with recommendations as to administration and content of the Northville recreation program.

The report advises that the recreation department come under the jurisdiction of the school board.

Robertson stated that candidates who have already filed may obtain their petitions from Clerk Mary Alexander and re-file the same petition. "Legally, she could not accept them before, so they may be filed now," he explained.

Five candidates filed before December 31 for councilman. They are: Incumbent Earl Reed, Sidney Frid, C. A. Hoffman, Harvey Ritknie and E. C. Welch. Mayor Claude Ely alone filed for the two-year mayor post.

Councilman John Stubenvoll, only other councilman besides Reed whose term expires April 1, did not file for re-election. He told the Record this week that the new opportunity to file had not changed his mind. He will definitely retire from the council.

"Mrs. Lawrence has been with her present troop of Girl Scouts since they started as Brownies in the second grade. Most will graduate from high school this year. Two School Boards Discuss Boundaries At Joint Meeting

Superintendent of schools Russell Amerman has reported that the Northville and Plymouth boards of education met jointly on January 28 to consider changing school district boundaries.

For some time, both have felt that the proposed boundary, which would fall between Five and Six Mile roads, would expedite bus transportation and aid in planning of future school buildings.

Concerning property at the southeast corner of Northville township, north of Five Mile road and west of Haggerty, the change would increase the area of the Northville district.

It was decided that the Wayne county board of education will be asked to contact persons living in the area as to their preference. The report will then be returned to both boards for further consideration.

City, Township Reach Agreement On Assets Division

Representatives of the city of Northville and the township agreed last week upon a division of assets settlement of $21,100.24.

The figure was approved by the governing bodies of both groups at meetings held Monday and Tuesday evenings.

The settlement ended last ties between the city and township. The problem of division of assets resulted from the incorporation election in 1955.

Earlier discussions between the groups had brought a proposal from the township that the city purchase the township's share in the library. For discussion purposes only, a value of $20,000 was placed on the library.

The ratio of ownership of all assets between the city and township is approximately 55 to 45 per cent.

An audit of the township's worth at the time of incorporation indicated that the township would owe the city $26,817. In their discussions last week representatives agreed that tangible assets, plus other details of the division, should be revised. Final settlement pared this estimated amount by approximately $5,500.

In dropping the proposal to sell the library the groups instead agreed to form a four-member committee to oversee the maintenance program of the library. Expense of maintenance will be shared on the basis of ownership.

Representing the township at the meeting were James Littell, Alex Lawrence, D. J. Stark and Roy Terrill. The city was represented by John Robertson, Philip Ogilvie, John Stubenvoll and Earl Reed.

Optimists to Hear Traffic Judge Watts

Judge John D. Watts, well-known Detroit traffic court judge, will address the Presbyterian Men's Fellowship next Thursday.

The monthly meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall.

Judge Watts has gained national fame for his conduct of traffic court in Detroit and for his re-enactment of actual court cases on television.

He has served as Detroit traffic court judge since 1946.

Local Man Injured In 2-Car Accident

A Northville man was injured slightly in a two-car accident at Sheldon and Phoenix roads early Tuesday evening.

Clarence Carter, 9820 Phoenix, and Douglas Sanback, of Mount Pleasant, were treated and released from Wayne County General hospital, according to the Wayne County Sheriff's Department.

Police said cause of the accident was undetermined as of Wednesday morning.

Boy Scouts Mark 47th Year

Northville, Boy Scouts this week are joining some four million other young men throughout the country in observing national Boy Scout Week.

The week-long celebration, which began yesterday and will last through Tuesday, marks the 47th anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scouts of America.

In Northville, Scouts will observe the "Onward for God and My Country" theme of Boy Scout Week by attending church in uniform this Sunday.

In addition, Tom McTigue of Troop 5 will receive the Catholic Ad Altare Dei award in Detroit for his adherence to the 12th Scout law — "A Scout is reverent." The award, one of Scouting's three "God and Country" awards, is considered among the highest honors a Scout can receive.

Three other Troop 5 boys have received the award — Max Dillenback, Frank Bosak and Denny Madigan. The troop is believed to have one of the highest standings for the award of any troop in the area.

Northville has two Boy Scout troops with a combined membership of some 60-70 boys.

Troop 5, sponsored by the First Presbyterian church, is led by Scoutmaster Earl Collins and committee chairman Joseph Petrock.

School Not Eligible For Tax Exemption

The Northville township board was advised Monday night that a new Catholic girls school cannot be granted tax exemption unless it is incorporated under Michigan laws. The board voted to inform the Archdiocese of Detroit that St. Mary of Providence School cannot now be granted exemption from township property taxes.

The school, sponsored by Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, is on a 40-acre site on Beck road between Phoenix and Six Mile roads.

Township attorney James Littell advised the board that the tax exemption cannot be given because the school is presently incorporated under Illinois law. It is registered in Michigan as a "foreign corporation."

Littell said that if the school incorporates under Michigan law, it would be eligible for exemption. In the meantime, it must go on tax rolls and pay current taxes.

BEST DRIVER AWARD — Essie Nirider, Retail Merchants Association president (left) and Ed Welch go over details of the group's new "Best Driver of the Month" program. Each best driver will receive a safety flasher, held here by Welch.

Retail Merchants to Honor "Best Driver of the Month"

The good driver — whose only reward is usually a lack of traffic tickets — is about to get some recognition in Northville.

The Retail Merchants Association announced plans this week for a "Best Driver of the Month" program, in honor of Northville motorists who go out of their way to be careful and courteous.

The program will begin later this month and last a year, according to Retail Merchants Association president Essie Nirider.

Each best driver will receive an inscribed portable trouble light and will have his "best driving" deed reported in The Record. The Northville police department will determine each best driver, based on daily observations in the city. But other residents may report incidents of good driving to the police for consideration in the judging.

Meritorious deeds might include anything from skilfully avoiding a hazardous condition to helping a stranded motorist, Nirider said. Drivers of all ages will be considered, he added. Main emphasis, however, will be on motorists who live in Northville.

"It's usually only the bad driver who gets attention," said Northville police chief Joseph Denton. "But through the Retail Merchants' program, attention will also be focused on the driver who is courteous, skilful or thoughtful."

The trouble light, used both as a red blinker to warn approaching cars and as a white light for seeing in the dark, will be awarded through Brown and Bigelow company representative Ed Welch, a member of the Retail Merchants.

Welch said the program has met with success and enthusiasm in other parts of the country and is now being expanded to include the area around Detroit.

Polio Fund Stands At Over $1,500

Though final results of the Northville polio drive haven't been tallied, the $1,581.33 so far computed looks toward a promising final figure.

Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, drive chairman, announced that $1343.69 was turned in by members of the Northville Mothers' club who marched against the disease last Thursday night.

"The total is down about $40 from last year's collection, she said," but added "that the reception was better than expected! We had thought that the existence of the Salk vaccine would cause apathy and cut the amount even more."

As yet, amounts from the polio dance sponsored by the Northville JayCees, school collections, and the peanut sale conducted by the high school student council are not in. Canister collections, with some yet to be collected, stand at $237.64.

Bel-Nor Open New Bel-Nor Drive-In

The Bel-Nor Drive-In opened its brand new doors last week at the corner of Plymouth avenue and Seven Mile road cutoff.

Owned by Dr. and Mrs. Belasco of Northville, the drive-in features lunches and sandwiches. Ample parking space is provided. A grand opening is planned in the near future.

He will discuss business and investments, jobs and wages, land and building, living costs and retail trade, inflation and taxes and other topics of the day. His first column appears on page 16 of this edition.

He founded a Midwest Institute of Business Administration, located in Eureka, Kansas, the center of the United States. He has been active also in the establishment of other mediums of service to the public, such as the Gravity Research Foundation, located at New Boston, New Hampshire.

Superintendent of schools Russell Amerman explained that as soon as final plans have been approved, advertising for construction bids will be placed. It is hoped that the addition will be open for classes next fall.

Digging through a packed agenda, board members took action on other issues that presented themselves.

A communication from the high school athletic board was read by Al Jones, athletic director of Northville high school. He requested a statement of policy from the board of education regarding the authority of coaches.

Roger W. Babson, a pioneer in the field of business and financial statistics, becomes a columnist for the Northville Record with this edition.

Babson's weekly releases are used by more than 400 newspapers and his financial reports by 20,000 corporations and estates. His research work is carried by a large staff of experts.

Babson founded Babson Institute with the late Mrs. Babson, developer of Babson College for Women — both nationally known institutions. Here young men and women may concentrate on the fundamentals of honest and efficient business administration. Later, he founded a Midwest Institute of Business Administration, located in Eureka, Kansas, the center of the United States. A communication from the high school athletic board was read by Al Jones, athletic director of Northville high school. He requested a statement of policy from the board of education regarding the authority of coaches.

Plans Okayed for Amerman School Addition

The request arose as the result of an argument between Robert Coolman, school board president, and Stan Johnston, basketball coach. The incident occurred following a recent game at Brighton.

At this point, Coolman asked Nelson Schrader, board vice-president, to preside during discussion of the matter.

The board clarified its policy, unanimously agreeing that "the responsibility of coaching an athletic team rests solely in the hands of the coach during all games, practice sessions, and trips."

The athletic board's letter said, "We strongly feel that interference or personal abuse by school officials during these times is unwarranted."

The matter was concluded by chairman Schrader, who stated, "Mr. Coolman has made an apology, the board has stated its policy, and we should consider the matter closed."

In other action, the board adopted a formal resolution for qualification of the entire three million dollar bond issue.

"Qualification," or approval, by the state department of public instruction, insures availability of state loans to the school system.

Members also decided to retire bonds from a $45,000 issue floated in 1949 to finance the addition to the elementary school.

Superintendent Amerman met with bond attorney Fred Thrun in Lansing on Tuesday, and it was decided that $26,000 of the total issue will be redeemed on April 1 of this year. The remaining $19,000 will be called in October, when it is felt there will be sufficient funds to redeem them.

The board also decided that the Northville driver education program during the school year would be made available to students out of the school district and who did not pay tuition only if they could be comfortably accommodated.

Since February 1, the program must be available to all students in the district under 18 years of age who desire driver training.

Parochial school students in the district and tuition students who do not live in the district will still be able to take driver training in the Northville school.

Superintendent Amerman announced that he had had a communication from the Wayne County Road Commission regarding acquisition of property from the school district for the proposed Eight Mile road cut-off.

Members discussed safety measures for protection of children at the Amerman and proposed high schools if and when the road should go through. Attorney James Littell was instructed to conduct negotiations with the road commission.

Arthur Wohlers of the Wayne County Board of Education, presented a yet unfinished report of recommendations of the high school faculty for types of services to be available in the new high school. Architects will use the final report as a guide in designing the building. Plans will then go to the board for final approval.

Tabled at Monday's meeting was discussion of a report of the Community Development organization in Northville with recommendations as to administration and content of the Northville recreation program.

The report advises that the recreation department come under the jurisdiction of the school board.

BOTH SIDES OF THE STAIRWAY at Mrs. Fred Carter's Sunset avenue home are lined with samples of her button collection, just a small part of more than 10,000 buttons she has classified and framed on trays.

You've seen stories told with pictures — but did you ever see one told with buttons?

Mrs. Fred Carter of Sunset avenue has told the story of the bible with them, for she has illustrated every book of that work — all 66 of them — with buttons from her collection.

Of course, Mrs. Carter has a wide selection from which to choose — nearly 10,000 buttons. She has been collecting for some years now, ever since she and her husband retired from their farm at Whitmore Lake in 1950 and moved into Northville.

"I just do it for fun," she said, noting that the hobby filled many hours — sorting, cleaning and classifying the buttons so they could be displayed.

Mrs. Carter has arranged them into trays, which her husband makes, sorting them according to subject matter or material, they are mounted on a cardboard mat and put into a frame much like that of a picture. Mrs. Carter has completed over 150 trays, many of which line the walls of her staircase.

The varieties are endless — buttons made of carved pearl, colored glass, jet, silver, plastic, cloth, cut steel, china, pewter, celluloid and wood — buttons large and small — buttons with pictures of stars, bugs, bees, birds, buildings, crowns, animals, fruits, nuts, hearts, cupids, dragons — well, it just seems that every subject known to man — real or mythical — has been represented on a button.

Mrs. Carter has never entered her collection in a national show, although she has attended them. And she admits that she doesn't spend as much money as some do on their collections. "I have fun just swapping them," she said, and explained that people aware of her collection have given her some very nice specimens.

The Carters have four children and 14 grandchildren — and are about to become great-grandparents.

Prospects 'Good' For Texas-Type Sewerage System

Prospects for a Novi township sewerage system appeared "good" this week, according to supervisor Frazer Staman after a look-see last week at a new type of system in Texas.

Staman said nothing is certain at this point, but the system looks promising.

The supervisor flew to Texas last week with Delos Hamlin, chairman of Oakland county board of supervisors, and Farmington township supervisor Elvert Gain.

The group looked at the new "Hayes" sewerage system at a number of army bases and other locations in Texas to see how it would fit into their own problems.

Staman said that the results are encouraging, but that approval must come first from the state board of health.

He added that Monroe is the first Michigan municipality to have the system, although it has been tried successfully in Windsor, Ontario.

Even if approval is given by the state, Staman said, a number of financial and technical problems must be solved before a sewerage system becomes a reality in Novi.

Says JP May Owe For Secretary Help

A quiet bombshell was tossed at the Novi township board Monday night when it was suggested that a justice of the peace might owe the township money for some three years' worth of secretarial service.

The suggestion came from treasurer Charles Trickey, Jr. It was later labeled "politics" by supervisor Frazer Staman.

Trickey claimed that Justice Edmund P. Yerkes has had his secretarial work done for three years by the township receptionist, Mrs. Matthew Staman, instead of providing his own secretary.

He said his own investigations indicate that most justices have their own secretaries, and that the Novi practice might be "out of line."

Trickey said the board should consider requesting Yerkes to reimburse the township for Mrs. Staman's services. He did not indicate how much money might be involved.

The suggestion was referred to township attorney Archie Leonard for investigation. A report is not expected until the next board meeting on March 4.

Contacted afterwards by The Novi News, Yerkes said he had no comment other than that Trickey "is not fully aware of the background."

Yerkes indicated that he would wait until the next board meeting before deciding what reply to make or what action to take.

Supervisor Staman defended the present set-up as being necessary for close coordination of police and law enforcement activities.

"If some one from, say, Bay City gets a ticket here and comes in to pay it, should we say, 'Sorry, you'll have to look up Justice Yerkes' and pay him?" Staman said. "It's more sensible to collect the fine on the spot, and let the fellow be on his way."

Staman also indicated that the justice job probably does not pay enough to provide a full-time secretary at the township hall.

(Trickey claimed afterward that secretarial help was an expense Yerkes should have been prepared to accept when he first became a candidate for justice.)

"All jobs have responsibilities," he said. "This is one of the justice's responsibilities."

In an otherwise quiet meeting that was in marked contrast with the stormy special meeting the week before, the board also, (see separate stories):

Tabled approval of the Yerkes Farm subdivision pending an investigation by attorney Leonard to see whether approval can legally be given. Main stumbling block was that tentative approval had been given two years ago, but the township's new zoning code requires larger lots. Leonard is to determine whether final approval can be given on the basis of the tentative approval.

Agreed that Staman and clerk Hadley Bachert should decide among three applicants for the soon-to-be vacated job of township receptionist. The applicants are: Mrs. Russell Woodworth, Miss Ione Holmes and Mrs. Helen Hallaman. William Hansor, formerly under consideration, was reported no longer interested in job.

Discussed inconclusively a plan to transfer township park funds into a building fund for a new fire hall and precinct building near Walled Lake, after setting aside part of the park fund for electrical work at the park. Bids for the electrical work are to be sought before the building fund is set up.

Heard Trickey ask whether a $10 constable payment should be withheld from patrolman-constable Vernon Loeffler because Loeffler had performed constable duties in uniform and while on police duty. Trickey felt Loeffler should not collect constable pay while on police duty. Attorney Leonard disagreed and said Loeffler should be paid.

Zoning Dilemma Prevents Approval Of Yerkes Farm

Construction of a new subdivision in southern Novi township is currently being held up by a unique dilemma involving the township zoning ordinance.

The problem is:

The township board can legally approve original subdivision plans even though most lots are too small for the zoning code, but may not be able to approve revised plans even though they call for several larger lots.

Involved is the Yerkes Farm subdivision in southern Novi on the Northville border. The site is currently the center of an annexation dispute between the city and township.

Representatives of the D & R Building company appeared at the board meeting Monday night to ask tentative approval of revised plans for the subdivision, explaining that the original plans had been tentatively approved two years ago.

But board members pointed out that although the original approval would have to be honored, they might not be able to approve revised plans because most lots are too small for the township's new zoning ordinance.

The D & R representatives replied that the revised plans actually call for several larger lots and thus come closer to meeting the code than the original plans. If the board could accept the original, they asked, could they not accept the revisions?

Township attorney Archie Leonard is looking into the legal aspects of the question and will report to the board at its next meeting.

Polio Collection More Than $1,000

About 40 Novi mothers who marched on polio last Thursday evening — members of both the Novi Mothers' club and the Novi Rebekahs — collected $506 during the annual highlight of the January drive for funds.

According to Mrs. Royal Snow, president of the Mothers' club, the total beats previous years' collections, which have usually been near $400.

In addition to funds from the march, a check for $500 was donated to the drive by the Novi Community Fund bringing the grand total to $1006.

Mothers worked from 7 p.m. to nearly 9 p.m. canvassing porches in homes in the township. They gathered at the school library to turn in collections and enjoy refreshments of coffee and do-nuts.

NEW LOOK IN POST OFFICES — One of the first customers at the newly-remodeled Novi post office was Hyarthol Harsh, helped here by clerk Mrs. Rudolph Wendland. The Novi branch is one of the first to have the new post office design that will be used eventually throughout the country.

Post Office a Model for U.S.

A four year evolution of the Novi post office was completed last week when the finishing touches were put on a dazzling new interior.

The Novi branch now boasts of being one of the most modern in the country, and will serve as a model for other branches across the nation.

The "bank type" construction, featuring open counters with formica tops, will be used in all new and remodeled post offices in the nation.

Postmaster Marjorie Watson said she knows of only a few other branches in the country with the new interiors.

Besides its sparkling appearance, the Novi branch, has at last received regulation post office equipment — ranging from filing cabinets and sorting tables to desks and mail boxes.

Gone will be "call boxes" which took up much of the time of clerks. Mrs. Irene Wendland and Mrs. Signa Mitchell. Instead, all mail delivered at the office will come through combination boxes — with new combinations.

The remodeling ends a four year transition period in which the Novi branch grew from makeshift headquarters on Grand River to a site near the township hall, and then finally into its sparkling new quarters.

The need for new quarters, Mrs. Watson said, is reflected by the amount of mail that passes through it — as much as 10,000 pieces a day. And when Lincoln finally makes its move to Novi, she added, the volume will soar as it never has before.

The Novi branch grew from makeshift headquarters on Grand River to a site near the township hall, and then finally into its sparkling new quarters.

Plans are now on the drawing boards for an office of permanent construction in Novi. Charles T. Fisher, Jr., president of the National Bank of Detroit told members of his area advisory committee last week.

Speaking at a meeting of key executives of the Livonia-Plymouth- Novi area held at the Mayflower hotel in Plymouth, Fisher reviewed the progress of the National Bank since moving into the area four years ago.

"The real evidence of growth in the Plymouth-Livonia- Novi area is shown on the deposit side of the ledger," he pointed out. "Since 1952 the number of depositors has increased 88 per cent and the deposits are up 136 per cent."

Staman Replies to Charges

Novi township supervisor Frazer Staman replied this week to charges that he "railroaded" township business and played "politics" at a special board meeting last week.

The charges were made by treasurer Charles Trickey, Jr. during and after a meeting on January 28.

Staman left on a trip the following morning and could not be reached for comment by the Novi News until this week. In reply to Trickey, Staman commented on four charges:

1) That he had "railroaded" approval of a board resolution setting board salaries at their present rate for the coming year.

Staman said the resolution had to be passed that night because it was the last chance to do so under a new state law that prohibits salary increases within 60 days of a regular election. If the board had waited, he said, it could not have raised salaries even if it wanted to do so.

The supervisor also denied Trickey's claim that salaries had previously been set at annual meetings instead of by the board. Staman said the only difference between this year and past years is that salaries formerly could be set by the board anytime before the meeting whereas they must now be set at least 60 days before.

2) That he had played "politics" by keeping salaries low and thus gaining good campaign material.

Staman said his main interest was simply in not overspending. He pointed out that the township will probably not receive the $21,000 in building permits fees that it did in 1956 and that some way must be found for cutting expenses.

He added that Novi probably would lose some $3,000 in sales and intangible taxes through the Wixom incorporation.

"Not only will we have less money," he said, "but we'll have more expenses, such as policemen to handle traffic at the Lincoln plant."

"Altogether," he added, "we'll take in about $20,000 to $25,000 less than we did last year, and I simply don't think we can afford higher salaries."

3) That he also had played politics with the job of township receptionist by disregarding William Hansor for the job.

Staman said Mrs. Hansor had told him previously that her husband could not handle the job because of his physical disability, and that he therefore considered the matter closed.

4) That he had brought slight errors in township primary notices to the board's attention only to make clerk Hadley Bachert "look stupid."

Staman said he has been criticized in the past for trying to settle such matters behind the scenes, and that henceforth all problems will be taken to the board for consideration.

Meanwhile, Trickey reiterated and expanded upon his criticism of Staman. Several discrepancies between the two versions were apparent.

"My main complaint about setting the salaries at that meeting was that Bachert and I had no prior knowledge of the matter," Trickey said. "Staman knew three or four weeks before that the question would arise, and he should have told us so we could have discussed it and taken a look at our financial situation."

The treasurer said he might have asked for certain changes — including making the clerk job full time — if he had time to study the matter.

Trickey repeated his claim that salaries had previously been set at the annual township meeting, with the board only making recommendations beforehand. This conflicted directly with Staman's statement.

"At least the people had a voice then," he said. "But this year, with the new state law, the matter is now closed and the people can't do a thing about raising salaries at the annual meeting."

Commenting on Novi's loss of revenue next year, Trickey said there would also be fewer expenses to worry about — such as the purchase this year of township office equipment.

Speaking of the township receptionist job, Trickey said Hansor told him he would have taken the job if it had been offered to him, but that he no longer was interested.

(Hansor told The Novi News that he would have taken the job before last week's meeting, but now wants "no part of it because of all the bickering.")

Also Name Commission For Charter

Wixom became the newest village in the state Tuesday. Voters approved incorporation of their crossroads community by 253-166 in a lighter turnout than had been expected.

With the incorporation, Wixom gained not only the responsibilities of home rule but also the right to tax the multi-million dollar Lincoln plant and all other new industry that will be constructed there.

For Novi, it meant that the area eventually will be lost as a tax source if Wixom should ever become a city.

Wixom, covering some ten square miles, straddles the Novi-Commerce township border. It extends from 12-Mile road on the south to Loon Lake road on the north, and from Beck road on the east to what would be an extension of Napier road on the west.

The more populous Commerce side of the community carried the election, as Novi voters cast an equal number of votes for and against the incorporation.

The totals:

Novi: Yes, 64; No, 64.

Commerce: Yes, 189; No, 102.

Totals: Yes, 253; No, 166.

Voters also named a five-man charter commission that will draw up a governmental charter for the new village. A tie resulted for the fifth position and will be resolved later.

The winners:

Ken Rucker—261

Everett Pearsall—226

Herbert Abrams—201

William Richards—166

Jesse Birchard—182

R. W. Lahli—182

The turnout of votes had been expected to be higher. Commerce had some 400-500 registered voters as against Novi's 185. But only 419 of the 600-700 voters went to the polls.

Meanwhile, Novi township supervisor said the township probably will not contest the election. He indicated there appeared to be no legal grounds for it.

Staman corrected Detroit newspaper stories which quoted him as saying Novi would fight the election "up through the state supreme court."

"What I did say," Staman commented, "was that a federal court — if the election somehow should get that far — probably would rule against the incorporation. State courts, of course, have set a precedent of ruling in favor of them, there's little that we could do."

Staman said it seems unfair for a township's territory and assets to be taken away without giving the entire township a right to vote on it. He has stated the same opinion in reference to two pending annexations of Novi territory to the city of Northville.

Meanwhile, Wixom is awaiting completion of the legal work by which their community will be approved as a village. It will be the end of a six-month effort to have their own local government and capture the rich industrial tax plum in their backyard.

Young Replaces Bell In Civil Defense Post

Novi township has a new civil defense director.

D'Arcy Young was named Monday night to succeed Duane Bell in the position after Bell resigned because of limited time for civil defense activities.

Young, a township policeman, will take over civil defense duties immediately.

Novi AMVETS Rank Fifth in Membership

Michigan AMVET headquarters has announced that the Perry Kenner Post of Novi now ranks fifth in membership in the state.

Post membership in the veterans organizations was approximately 170 at last count.

Membership chairman for the Novi post is Gordon Promo.

The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the School District. Each bidder shall state in his bid the interest cost to the School District, computed in the manner above specified. No proposal for the purchase of less than all the bonds or at a price less than 100% of their par value will be considered.

The bonds are to be issued pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 12, Part II, Act 269, Public Acts of Michigan, 1955, and the School District is authorized and required by law to levy upon all taxable property therein such ad valorem taxes as may be necessary to pay these bonds and the interest thereon, without limitation as to rate or amount.

A certified or cashier's check in an amount of $10,000.00, drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the School District, must accompany each bid as a guarantee of good faith on the part of the bidder, to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid be accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, Attorneys, Penobscot Building, Detroit, Michigan, which opinion will be furnished, without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof, approving the legality of the bonds. The purchaser shall furnish bonds ready for execution at his expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser at a place to be designated by the purchaser.

Inquiries with respect to the details of the issue should be addressed to Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, 525 Hollister Building, Lansing 8, Michigan, Attorneys for the School District. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds".

Secretary,
Board of Education

Notice is further given that the Michigan Superintendent of Public Instruction has issued his certificate, qualifying the above advertised Series "A" bond issue to the extent of 100%, under the provisions of Act 151, Public Acts of 1955.

Clothes Donations Cleaned and Packed Free of Charge

Two Northville merchants, John McAllister and Orson Atchinson, and Rev. John O. Taxis are working together on a mercy mission—collecting clothing for Hungarian relief.

Citizens who wish to give used clothing to be sent to Hungary won't have to worry about cleaning or packing them.

The only effort required will be to leave the clothes at the Atchinson Gulf station on West Main. Perfection Dry Cleaners, owned and operated by John McAllister, will clean the clothes free of charge.

The cleaned clothes will be delivered directly to the Presbyterian church in Northville, where they will be packed by an inter-faith interest group of young people.

Clothes should be taken to the station before February 22, the last day of collection.

CLOTHES FOR HUNGARIAN RELIEF are appraised by Orson Atchinson, John McAllister and Rev. John O. Taxis, who are working cooperatively on the receiving, cleaning and packing of donations. Clothes may be left at the station until February 22, the last day of collections.

Seefeldts Leave On Caribbean Trip

Two officials of Northville State hospital will be off to the Caribbean tomorrow for a month long journey combining both business and pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold E. Seefeldt will visit Panama, Haiti and other areas of the Caribbean before returning for a conference in Chicago.

Mrs. Seefeldt is director of social service at Northville State hospital, while her husband is in charge of refrigeration.

Sailing from New York tomorrow on the S. S. Ancon, they will spend two days in the Panama Canal Zone and a week at Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

It is the Seefeldts' second trip to Haiti. As before, they will stay at a hotel operated by a U.S. Navy commander who uses proceeds to assist a local orphanage.

In Haiti, they will spend a day at the Albert Schweitzer hospital at Saint Marc. The hospital is named in honor of the 1956 Nobel Prize winner, who has his own hospital in East Africa.

On March 3, Mrs. Seefeldt will go to Chicago for the general meeting of the Annual American Orthopsychiatric Conference. She will represent the directors of social services at the 13 state hospitals in Michigan.

In Chicago, she also will meet with social work consultants from Illinois, Ohio and Wisconsin as well as representatives of the U.S. Department of Health, Welfare and Education. They will discuss plans for a proposed regional social work institute for psychiatric workers from the Great Lakes region.

Methodists to Host Guest Minister At Sunday Service

The annual race relations service at the First Methodist church of Northville, this Sunday at 11 a.m. will feature an exchange of pulpits and choirs.

At the request of the Commission on Missions, M. Marby, Sr. and the adult choir of the Berea Methodist church in Highland Park.

The local church will use the accustomed service of worship at the Berea church and the guest church will bring its service here.

Rev. Marby was born in Alabama and was educated at Tuskegee Institute and Phelps Hall Bible training school. He studied also at Albion and Oberlin colleges. He has served the Lexington conference of the Methodist church for 36 years.

Mrs. Fleming is president of the Michigan Synodical and an experienced teacher in the area of women's work in the Presbyterian church.

A coffee hour will begin at 10 a.m., followed by discussions at 10:30, luncheon at 12:30 and the regular meeting which will close at 3 p.m.

Mrs. H. S. Atwood will receive at the door.

STATEMENT BY FRANK DAVIS TO CITIZENS OF NOVI

Last week I got tangled up in a lot of history and didn't have room to fully explain my reasons for a 19-man committee to work out our Sewer Problem.

Why 19 men? We would really need 4 different committees out of the one large one: an engineering committee, right-of-way committee, finance committee and construction committee.

Let them all meet as a committee of the whole under the leadership of our capable Supervisor, Frazer Staman, to bring all details before us citizens of Novi for our approval or rejection. We must get started on this P.D.G.

There are so many Good Men running for the office of trustee that I wonder why I am here. (Looks like I should have quit when I was ahead!)

But don't forget to vote as you please... BUT PLEASE VOTE.

A Report to the People

Sterling Eaton
State Representative

So many people have asked when the legislature meets I thought it might be interesting to state the definite hours now in effect. The session of both the House and Senate is always called at 8 p.m. on Monday night, and 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and 10 a.m. on Friday. The purpose of this is to give legislators an opportunity to go home week ends in all parts of the state.

At the present time the sessions are short but will lengthen in duration as more bills start arriving on the floor. Mornings are kept free for committee meetings and time for legislative research.
Our State Affairs Committee
meets regularly every Wednesday at 10 a.m.

I am afraid I had no idea how much work there can actually be connected with this kind of a job.
It isn't necessary, however, and one could sit through a whole session and do nothing, but if you are sincere in serving the people of your district it takes long hours if intensive work and study.
As an example, I am enrolled in classes at Michigan State university conducted expressly for legislators who want to know the infinite details of subjects concerning the State. The most interesting and intricate subject with which I am now struggling as a student is Michigan's Unemployment Compensation act. I am many years away from school and it isn't easy to sit and listen to a professor explain the workings of a subject so complicated.

The major subject of conversation between the Republican lawmakers is that of the budget as submitted by the Governor.
According to taxation chairman,
Rep. Rollo Conlin, the Governor has over-estimated the state's income as badly as he under-estimated its expenditures. There seems to be no question but that the tangled financial mess is the greatest headache in front of the session this year. I don't think at this writing anyone in Lansing has any idea just what the final outcome will be.

One thing I have learned is that there are many demands on members of legislature other than working on legislative matters.
Last week President Hatcher of the University of Michigan and John Bugas of Ford Motor had us as dinner guests to explain and show movies of the Fair Lane gift. Almost any night there is some sort of a dinner meeting which you must attend. So far this week I already have four definite evening meetings and now I can readily see how involved this whole process can become. So far it is most interesting and knowing so little about the many details I should probably confess at this time I am most confused. However, they say time will straighten out that situation and soon I'll know my way around like everyone else.

Dealers is G. E. Miller (right), Northville Dodge-Plymouth
the Plymouth automobile firm. At center is S. Guenther, who attended the convention with Miller.

Amendment to the Taxicab Ordinance

Section 3. Liability Insurance. It shall be unlawful to operate a taxicab or permit the same to be operated, nor shall any license be issued hereunder, until and unless the applicant for license deposit with the City Clerk a pre-paid policy of liability insurance for each taxicab for which a license is sought, or a blanket policy covering all of his cabs, said policy to be acceptable and approved by the City Attorney and issued by a company authorized to do business in the State of Michigan, indemnifying the applicant in the sum of at least twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars for injury to one person or fifty thousand ($50,000) dollars for injury to more than one person, and ten thousand ($10,000) dollars property damage in any one accident, through the operation of the taxicab of the applicant. The policy of insurance so deposited shall contain a clause, obligating the company issuing the same to give ten (10) days written notice to the City Clerk before a cancellation thereof. Whereupon after ten (10) days such license shall cease to operate or cause to be operated with the city of Northville such taxicab and the license therefor shall be automatically revoked and liability on such policy shall cease and terminate, provided that the liability of the insurance company thereon for any act or omission of the license occurring prior to the effective date of cancella-

Legion Offers a Hand to Ill in Northville

HOME CARE FOR PATIENTS in Northville has been made easier by local American Legion members, who offer two hospital beds, a wheelchair, and crutches for use by anyone in the community. Here are (left to right): Mrs. Bertha Kerr, Mrs. Clarence King, John Chedrick, Dave McElravy, Claude Ely, Oscar Hammond and Ray Altenberg.

Those who have wondered where to find a hospital bed for home use, or perhaps a wheelchair or even a pair of crutches, need only look to the Northville American Legion Memorial home.

There they will find the equipment they need — the recent gift of the Lloyd H. Green Post, American Legion, to anyone in Northville who needs them. The two beds, wheelchairs and crutches will be kept in readiness at all times. They will be delivered, set up and removed when the need is over by post members.

To have use of the equipment, it is necessary only to call Ray Altenberg, post service officer, at Northville 3057.

"Use of these beds makes home care of the patient much easier and more efficient," Altenberg said.

"Change of position, so necessary in many cases, can be done quickly with the crank-handles," he added, "and the patient can be made far more comfortable than in any other type of bed."

WCTS Principal Attends Workshop

Mrs. Marcella Douglas, school principal of the Wayne County Training school, recently attended an Educational Workshop on Mental Retardation held at Lincoln (Illinois) State school.

The two-day workshop brought together principals and educational directors from schools for the mentally retarded in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Ohio and Wisconsin.

Special sessions explored problems in connection with selection of school populations, plans of administrative organization, services for those with multiple handicaps and the roles of special teachers, curriculum planning, vocational and occupational training, evaluation, rehabilitation, selection of teachers and inservice training.

Michigan Alumni To See Hockey Game

Northville members of the University of Michigan club have been invited by the Plymouth club to join them in a trip to Ann Arbor on February 23 to see the University of Michigan - Michigan State hockey game.

A University bus will pick up members in front of the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth at 7 p.m. The bus will return at 11.

Tickets, which include the cost of transportation, a reserved seat at the game and a snack between periods are available by calling Wendell S. Miller at Plymouth 2814.

YOUNGEST COMPETITOR — Jackie Jones smiles with his trophy, three days after he had first put on a pair of skates.

Despite almost too warm weather, a record field of competitors turned out Sunday for the annual Northville skating races.

According to recreation director Stan Johnston, some 100 young skaters flashed along the course at the Northville Mill Pond — while another 100 or more spectators cheered them on from the sidelines.

Boys and girls from six years through 18 and older competed in the 42 races, each skating in three races of varying distances. Winners were determined by point totals of all three races.

Sponsored by the Northville Optimist club and the recreation department, the races are one of the most popular winter events in the city.

First place winners received handsome trophies, while second and third place winners were awarded medals.

The races, originally scheduled the week before, came near being cancelled again because of warm weather. But though the ice was soft in spots, it did not noticeably slow down the skaters.

Boys winners:

- 6-7 years: Jim Beager, Jack Jones, Eddie Horsfall.
- 8-9 years: Butch Pethers, Dick Lessway, Earl Leavenworth.
- 10-11 years: Dennis Marshall, Jim Juday, Eric Peterson.
- 12-13 years: Fred Steeper, Steve Juday, Mike Meyers.
- 14-15 years: Joe Gotro, Jack Bailey, Bob Niemi.
- 16-17 years: Dick Stuber.
- 18 and Over: Jim MacDermaid, Dan MacDermaid.

Girls winners:

- 6-7 years: Jackie Shoner, Jane Jerome, Susan Zerbel.
- 8-9 years: Barbara Zerbel, Penny Peterson, Judith Insland.
- 10-11 years: Patsy Riley, Judy Shoner, Susan Hubbard.
- 12-13 years: Connie Shoner and Joann Smith (tie), Sue Cowie.
- 14-15 years: no contestants.
- 16-17 years: Hedi Tritthart.
- 18-over: no contestants.

STARTER — Stan Johnston, Northville recreation supervisor, loads a starting pistol at Sunday's races. The races are sponsored annually by the Northville Optimist club.

VETERAN ON ICE — Hedi Tritthart, Northville exchange student, took honors in the 17-18-year-old girls' races. A resident of Austria, Hedi is right at home on ice skates.

Wittenberg Lost, Gow Joins Varsity, Pethers Mending

The title-bent Northville Mustangs underwent a couple more personnel changes last week as a slight rash of injuries continued to plague the cagers.

Ed Wittenberg, who had just moved up from the junior varsity the week before, took an elbow in the nose during practice and was put out of commission for about two weeks.

Though broken, his nose is expected to heal quickly.

On the happier side, Charles Gow, who stands 5' 11" and can go at both forward and guard, was placed on the eligible list after missing the first semester because he was not in school last spring.

Coach Stan Johnston said he will use Gow primarily when the Mustangs go into a full court press against opponents' stalling tactics.

Meanwhile, forward Dick Biery is still laid up with a bad cartilage in his knee. Biery is expected to miss several more games.

Johnston also is keeping a happy eye on all-league "Cap" Pethers, who has missed the entire season so far because of a broken leg suffered in football last fall.

Pethers, one of the most highly-regarded basketball players in recent Northville history, is off his crutches now and has been working to limber up his ankle.

Whether he will see any basketball action this year remains to be seen, Johnston said.

Red-Hot Clarenceville Comes Close

Mustangs Down Trojans In Final Period, 62-50

The Northville Mustangs had their fans in anguish for nearly three quarters Friday night, but proved in the last period there was nothing to worry about.

Spectators had to sit through some 25 minutes of heart-pounding basketball before the Mustangs finally caught up with a red-hot Clarenceville squad and ground them into a 62-50 defeat.

It was Northville's 9th straight victory — their 8th in a row over league opponents — and left them alone at the top of the standings.

For awhile Friday night it looked like the Mustangs might not make it.

Clarenceville jumped off to an early lead and held it solidly until midway through the third quarter. At one point, the Trojans led by eight points.

Time and again Clarenceville fought off Northville surges and moved back into the lead — despite the Mustangs' continued pressure and clutch baskets, which ordinarily have broken their opponents' spirit this season.

But in the end, Northville's superior size, teamwork and all-around skill won out over Clarenceville's plucky determination.

"They started to tire and we started to hit," said Coach Stan Johnston. "And that was about it."

The Trojans' were far from tired at the start of the game, however, and moved to a 15-13 first quarter lead. That was increased to 28-25 at the half, and to 37-29 in the third quarter.

But then Clarenceville fell apart. The over-anxious Trojans came up with enough careless mistakes to last a season — steps, fouls, sloppy shots, and even a few passes into the stands.

Northville took advantage of the lag and began pouring on the steam. Bell put the Mustangs ahead at 46-44, and by the time Clarenceville scored again, it was 53-44 against them.

The Mustangs outscored Clarenceville 20-8 in the final period to wrap up the game.

It was a team victory all the way, but there were plenty of sparkling individual performances. Among them:

—the work of Bud Bell who proved himself one of the best guards in the league. Bell, Northville's leading playmaker, led both teams with 20 points. In addition, he gave Clarenceville its most severe morale-breaking blow when he stole an in-bounds pass early in the fourth quarter and spun quickly for the basket that gave Northville the lead for the first time.

—the under-the-basket play of towering Jeff Goodrich. Despite Clarenceville's hard and aggressive rebounding, Goodrich took 16 of them, scored 17 points and made a number of key tip-ins.

—the play of Joe Kritch and Charles Gow, filling in for injured Dick Biery. Gow, seeing action for the first time this year, took to the Mustangs' style of play like a year-long veteran.

—the steady, back court work of guard Mac Burns who helped shake up Clarenceville with three consecutive long shots in the Mustangs' hot fourth quarter.

—the play of Dan Howell, filling in for Bill Yahne who picked up three fouls in the first eight minutes and was pulled from the lineup until the second half.

Colts Coast Easily To Third in a Row

The Northville Colts took their third straight win in easy style Friday night, dropping the Clarenceville junior varsity, 60-44.

The victory gave Coach Al Jones' squad a 6-4 season's record.

The Colts got off to an early lead and had a 30-19 advantage at halftime. They held Clarenceville to three points during the second quarter.

The Colts played Clarenceville on even terms during the second half, content to maintain their lead and not risk throwing the game away.

Northville was paced again by Fred Schwarze with 16 points, while Bob Starnes had 13. Nelson Schrader, playing with the junior varsity for the first time, scored 11.

Know thyself, and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil. —Mary Baker Eddy ANGUISHED FANS cheer the Mustangs to victory over Clarenceville Friday night for their ninth straight win. Spectators sweated through nearly three full quarters before the Mustangs regained the lead and went on to swamp the Trojans in the final period.

Lesson from Plymouth

Coach Stan Johnston looked about four miles to the south this week and gulped.

Reason for his dismay was that Plymouth — one of the region's powerhouses — was knocked off Friday for the first time this year.

And the team that did it: unheralded Belleville, which had lost eight straight before bowling over the Rocks.

"That's what happens," Johnston said. "No matter how good a team is, it can't have the breaks all the time."

"I hope Northville fans keep this in mind — just in case something goes wrong," he added. "They're out for our scalps. And they could get it — as Belleville proved."

All Eyes Will Be on Clarkston

The Northville Mustangs will play Milford at home tomorrow night but their eyes will probably be turned toward Clarkston.

The reason for their interest: Clarkston and Brighton will tangle in the "game of the night" — a game that could all but sew up the Wayne-Oakland championship for the Mustangs.

Clarkston and Brighton are currently in second and third place and both must win to keep up with the pace-setting Mustangs.

But this can't be, of course, and one or the other will face a gloomy night.

Northville will be rooting for Brighton, for a loss by Clarkston would put the Wolves three games back of Northville with only three games left to play. Brighton would have the same record — and the same somewhat hopeless prospect of catching up with the Mustangs in the last three games of the season.

Both Clarkston and Brighton kept pace with the unbeaten Mustangs by winning their contests Friday night, but the victories meant nothing as far as closing up on the winning Northville.

Clarkston walked over West Bloomfield, 69-49, while Brighton squeezed by Holly, 71-68, in overtime. Meanwhile, Northville was downing Clarenceville, 62-50. Milford was idle.

Six of the seven W-O league teams will be in action again next Tuesday — the first mid-week encounters in more than a month.

Northville will face Holly in the Mustangs' third straight game at home, while Brighton will meet West Bloomfield and Clarkston takes on Milford.

By then, unless a major catastrophe hits Northville over the head, the Mustangs should have the championship wrapped up and a place made for the new trophy.

Selections from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (182:32-4): "The law of Christ, or Truth, makes all things possible to Spirit; but the so-called laws of matter would render Spirit or no avail, and demand obedience to materialistic codes, thus departing from the basis of one God, one lawmaker."

Madonna to Present Show at Hospital

Patients at Northville State hospital will be treated to a variety show tonight, sponsored by the apostolic committee of the Sodality of Madonna college. Patients will see such acts as monologues, pantomimes, instrumental and dance and song renditions.

Janet M. Peterson, O.T.R., director of occupational therapy at the hospital, commended the Madonnites entertainment during the Christmas season.

She stated in a letter to Joan Makowski, chairman of the affair, that "the patients have always liked anything your college (Madonna) has brought to them, and I know they will be very pleased to hear you are going to give them a chance to see your varieties of 1957!"

IMPORTANCE OF PRAYER

Everything has an appointed end, seeks only that end, rents only in that end. So, too, it is with man. His end is God. But, strange, isn't it? While one would expect that man, endowed with reason, ought to go more directly to his end than any other creature, he is the only one who deviates from his last end at even the slightest attraction. Any shiny little trinket — the world and its vanities — suffice to stop man from tending towards God.

I'll never forget an incident that I witnessed one bright Sunday afternoon. It took place at a busy intersection of the city. I was seated at the driving wheel of my car waiting for the red signal light to turn green. It did but none of the cars moved. Horns were blasting loudly, as an intoxicated fellow was in the middle of the intersection trying to cross. He came close to my car after zigging and zagging his way across the intersection, and I could hear him say, "Well, where do I go from here?"

That is the picture of man, always putting some obstacle, like excessive drink or some other sinful attachment, in the way of tending toward his goal.

There is the law of gravity. Always following the law of nature. A river does not change its course nor does it stop its onward way because of the inspiring scenery along its banks. It flows right on, away to the sea, its only home, its goal. Man alone lets other things entice him from his final end.

People who lead prayerful lives in their daily actions tend more directly to God. Prayer, we all know, is the lifting up of our minds and hearts to God to adore Him, to thank Him for His benefits, to ask His forgiveness, to beg of Him all the helps we need, whether for soul or body. Continual prayer is necessary for man that he may one day enter heaven. It is necessary in order to live a virtuous life.

The Divine Master, Jesus Christ, tells us in Holy Scripture that we ought always to pray. St. Paul says, "Whether you eat or drink, or whatsoever you do, do all for the glory of God."

We ought to pray with attention, confidence and perseverance. All these elements are necessary if we want prayer to be effective in our lives. All of us are daily seeking for peace of soul. Prayer contributes much to this end. May our daily attitude be, "O Lord, help us gain peace of soul, for our hearts are not at rest, unless they rest in Thee."

Saga of "Four Chaplains" To be Observed Tonight

Behind the impressive "Back to God" ceremonies conducted annually by the American Legion on "Four Chaplains Day" lies a dramatic story of spiritual and patriotic sacrifice.

Probably no incident in World War II stirred the nation more deeply than the story of the immortal Four Chaplains who went down with the torpedoed USS Dorchester off Greenland, on February 3, 1943.

These four — a Jewish rabbi, a Roman Catholic priest and two Protestant ministers, all first lieutenants — gave their lifebelts to 4 American soldiers and stood calmly on the sinking transport, arms around one another's shoulders and heads bowed in prayer.

The four chaplains of three faiths who stood united in prayer as they went down to their death on the Dorchester symbolizes for all Americans and for all time the unity of this nation, founded upon the Fatherhood of one God.

That their loyalty even in death might inspire all Americans to a deeper sense of brotherhood, the 33rd national convention of The American Legion in 1954 adopted a resolution creating the organization's Back to God movement, calling for a continuing program of regular public worship, daily family prayer and Scripture reading, and the religious education of children.

The Miami resolution also mandated "that either the Sunday preceding or following the date of February 3rd, in recognition of the historic, tragic and inspiring event occurring on that date in 1943, be observed each year throughout the nation and in all freedom-loving countries as 'Go to Church' Sunday, in worship and prayer and everlasting peace."

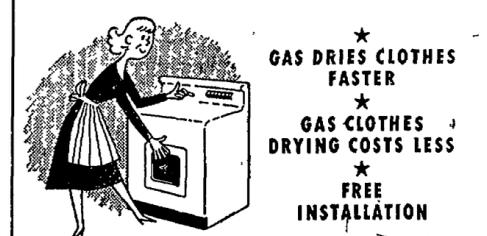

The 17th District Association of The American Legion will hold a Four Chaplains Day program tonight (Thursday) at the Myron Beals Post No. 32 Hall on Newburg road in Livonia. The program will begin at 8:30 p.m.

Four clergymen of all three faiths to be present. The general public is invited.

NHS Debaters League Champs

Northville emerged in first place in Wayne-Oakland debate standings as the league season drew to a close January 29. The topic of this season is, "Resolved: that the federal government should sustain the prices of major agricultural products at not less than 90 percent of parity."

The Northville negative, represented by Sandra Strasen and Bernhard Muller, defeated Bloomfield Hills for the seventh win of the season. The affirmative represented by Lillian Zinnecker and Chuck Hix were not so fortunate, however, and lost to Clarkston for their first loss.

At the end of the season the league stood this way:

	W	L
Northville	7	1
Holly	6	2
Clarkston	5	3
West Bloomfield	4	4
Brighton	2	6
Clarenceville	0	8

From now on, all debates will be sudden-death. The next round to face Northville and Holly are the regionals. There will be eight regional contests in Michigan consisting of eight schools each.

During the three rounds of the regional contests, to be held between February 8 and 23, the 64 remaining schools will be narrowed to eight, one from each regional. The eight remaining schools will be narrowed to four in the quarter-finals. The two teams left after the semi-finals will battle it out for the state championship some time in March. Last year Northville made it to the quarter finals, but were eliminated by Ann Arbor high school.

Band Begins Work On Festival Music

Now that All-League Band try-outs are over, the band members and directors are busy working on Festival Music. The required number this year is "Cathedral Canyon" by Ericson.

The selected numbers are: "Barber of Seville", and a march, "Old Comrades".

The District Festival of Bands, ordinarily held in Ypsilanti, is being held this year in Plymouth February 23.

All bands receiving a "one" rating will go to Lansing to compete in the State Festival. Individuals and groups are preparing selections for Solo and Ensemble Festival competition to be held at a later date.

Forensic Activity Begins for Students

Spring forensic activities have again started at Northville high school. There are six divisions in which a student may participate—dramatic, humorous or interpretive readings, and oratory, declamation or extemporaneous speeches.

Miss Florence Panatoni and Alvin Skow are the advisors of these contests. At present there are over a hundred students who have shown an interest.

Dramatic, humorous and interpretive readings are to last not over eight minutes and rules state that each contestant must hold a script to avoid memorization. Grades nine through 12 may participate.

Declamation is open to ninth and tenth graders only. This involves memorizing an eight minute prepared speech.

A student must prepare and deliver a 1500 word speech for the oratorical contest, which is open to grades nine through 12.

The extemporaneous division involves speaking for six minutes on any of six phases of the Constitution.

"N" Club Members Receive New Jackets

The colors of Northville high school are very noticeable nowadays as the "N" club members received their varsity jackets. They are in traditional orange and black colors with a new attractive cream leather sleeve replacing the wool sleeves of other years.

The lettering across the back has been changed from "Varsity Club" to "Mustangs". On the front where once circular insignia adorned the left side there is a 6-inch letter "N".

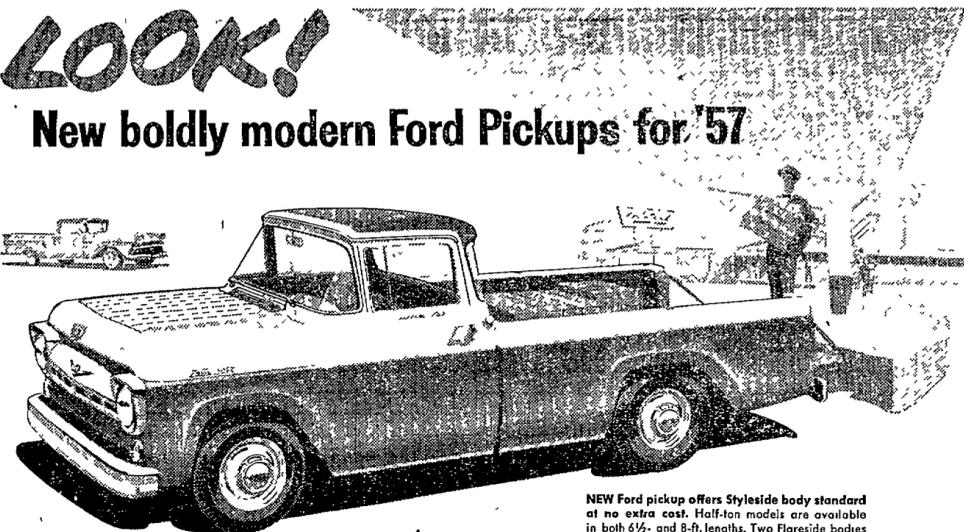

Dance Band Presents Concert

The NHS Dance band presented a jazz concert at Bloomfield Hills high school January 17.

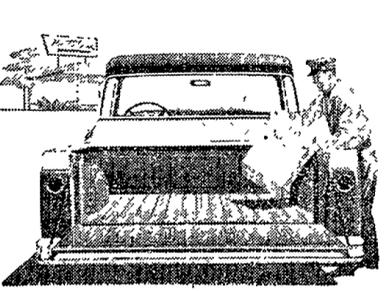

Solo features were Mike Willis, trombone, in "Night Train"; Sandy Walters, sax, in "Harlem Nocturne"; Judy Leavenworth, cornet, in "Boogie Blues"; John Wortman, trombone, in "Collaboration"; Richard Drew, piano, and Jeff Schoof, cornet, in "I've Got My Love To Keep Me Warm".

Other selections were "String of Pearls", "Jump for Joe", "Bop-titude Test", "Dream", "Intermission Riff", "Safranski" and "Minor Riff".

The dance band is working on new music and is preparing for the annual jazz concert to be held in April. The date will be announced later.

"LET'S GET THE FAMILY TOGETHER if the weather's good." That "if" used to be a mighty big one. But now you can get the family together no matter what the weather or how far apart all of you live. A Conference Call will do it. You just give the operator the names and addresses or telephone numbers of the members of your family. She'll get them all on the line at the same time, whenever you want. Call the Long Distance operator soon and have her arrange a Conference Call. It'll be fun.

HERE'S A WONDERFUL IDEA for you folks with a son or daughter stationed with the armed forces in Europe. Why not enjoy a telephone visit with them over the new overseas telephone cable. After 6 p.m. or all day Sunday you can call just about any place for as little as nine dollars, plus the 10 per cent federal tax. Would be quite a thrill to talk to loved ones across the ocean, wouldn't it? Lots of people are doing it. More than 15,000 made overseas calls during the first month the cable was in use. And the number is growing every day. To place your call to Europe, just call Long Distance and ask for the "Overseas Operator."

Roger Babson

Education was Better Fifty Years Ago

Babson Park, Mass. — Two basic financial problems are facing every city and town today. (1) Higher interest rates must be paid for all money borrowed, including that for new schools, and there is a shortage of money at any cost. (2) Higher salaries are being demanded by teachers, and there is a shortage of teachers at any wage.

Why Teachers Get No More Pay

Almost all other groups of workers have increased production as their wages have risen; but the carpenters use electric tools; the painters spray, instead of using hand brushes; the doctors make quicker "calls" by telephone; while stores are fast adopting "self-service". Even the blond typist uses an electric typewriter; while her boss uses a Soundscripter. The housewife herself has cut down her work so as to make it unnecessary to employ maids and laundries; and, in fact, she can even earn money by an outside part-time job.

With the faithful school teacher, the results are often the opposite. It is true that she has been given more "things" to teach and to talk about. These have been forced upon her school superintendent by high-pressure textbook salesmen and politicians. These outside "things" take the teacher's time and strength. I greatly sympathize with all school teachers in their predicament.

School Teaching Very Inefficient

But the fact is that her product does not increase in efficiency and usefulness as her salary is increased. The good women now teaching my grandchild get more than double the pay which the teachers received when I was in school. I, however, am convinced that these children do not get the training that I had 50 years ago. Moreover, every employer will say that the product of our schools is not as good as it formerly was. Furthermore, we employers are not allowed to "return the goods and get our money back" when the work of a graduate is inefficient and careless.

Basically, the job of a school teacher is to help her pupils develop their brains. If this has been properly accomplished, the other needs — character, health, posture and personality — will naturally follow. Yet, our public school students are not taught anything today about their brain. They, utterly fail to realize its marvelous powers, how it works, and its tremendous unused possibilities. In fact, only in the past year did I get interested in my own brain through Dr. George Russell Harrison, the wonderful M.I.T. Dean of Science. Write him for a copy of his article in a recent Atlantic Monthly. (Please enclose needed return postage).

Now here is a suggestion which those responsible for the cost of the teaching of your children should seriously consider. Begin in the lower grades to interest the children in their brains. Instead of giving them "CAT" as the first word to spell, give them "BRAINS" to spell! Have at the top of every Report Card these words: "Report On How Your Brain Is Working." Constantly keep the children conscious of their brains and its marvelous possibilities.

Recently, I asked some boys what kind of reading interested them most? One replied "Airplane Engines"; another said, "Space Flying"; while a third said, "To understand how a TV works". Then when I began to tell them of the marvelous machinery inside their own heads, they were fascinated. I gave them only one illustration of what happens when they see an object, and how the light waves reflected therefrom are changed to electrical impulses which in turn are registered and stored in a minute memory compartment of their brain to be taken out and used years later.

My point is this: Psychologists tell us that we are using our brains at only 3 percent capacity. If so, think what it would mean to our future and the future of the nation to increase this 3 percent to only 6 percent. It could not only double the efficiency of every public school graduate but it could double our standard of living and it could make every one of us better, healthier, and happier. Then every teacher would gladly be given double her present salary, and more!

State Seeks to Strengthen Poultry Inspection Law

ELIMINATION OF diseased poultry from Michigan Markets is the aim of a program underway in the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

At present there are no Federal laws requiring inspection of poultry. Many of the chickens and turkeys eaten in Michigan come from Southern States where there are few quality controls.

To combat the problem, the agriculture department is offering Michigan poultry producers an inspection service which guarantees the consumer that the "chicken in the pot" is entirely wholesome and free from disease.

It is voluntary — for the farmer — and its success can only be insured if "Mrs. Housewife" demands the protection.

Any producer can avail himself of the service. He contacts the department of agriculture, which sets the machinery in motion. A veterinarian (usually local) is hired by the department to inspect the birds during processing for market.

The inspector removes diseased birds and assures that the processing is conducted under sanitary conditions.

The healthy poultry is tagged by the veterinarian with a special green and white metal wing clip provided by the Agriculture Department guaranteeing the wholesomeness of the produce. This clip identifies the inspected birds in the markets and grocery stores.

The producer's only cost is payment for the veterinarian's time. However, many poultry men are reluctant to add to their costs when they must compete with cheap, uninspected poultry coming from Southern states.

The key to the success of the program is consumer "demand". If the consumers want a better product, they can have it. Unless they do, it is easier and cheaper to provide uninspected poultry.

HERE'S A KNOTTY PROBLEM:

design a hollow metal ball capable of being shot 300 miles through space; able to attain speeds of 18,000 miles per hour without disintegrating; strong enough to withstand the pressures of outer space, and light enough to carry delicate measuring equipment without harm.

Brooks and Perkins, a Michigan metal fabricating company located in Detroit, is now working on this problem. Last July the firm was awarded the government contract to manufacture the "earth satellite" sphere which the United States hopes to launch as its part in the international Geophysical year, beginning July, 1957.

Part of the ultimate success or failure of the proposed earth satellite weigh on the shoulders of this Michigan company.

"Perfection is our primary problem," says E. Howard Perkins, president of the company. Personnel connected with the project can only estimate some of the difficulties that may arise when the launching is accomplished.

The sphere is made from magnesium, a metal known for its combined lightness and strength. The manufacturing process includes machining the hollow globe to a three-hundredths of an inch thickness. The outside is then polished to perfection to minimize possible friction. Finally the globe is taken to the firm's Livonia plant where a gold plating is applied to deflect the sun's heat rays and keep the recording instruments cool.

Five spheres are already completed. Plans are now scheduled for a launching sometime after January, 1958 from a Florida site.

And what does the firm, of Brooks and Perkins think about the role they are playing in the history-making event? They couldn't be happier. As they point out, before the satellite contract came to Michigan, they were practically unknown in Detroit. The contract changed that and brought them a host of new friends.

IF MICHIGAN were suddenly cut off from the rest of the country for food supplies how well would we eat?

Michigan's diversified agricultural economy provides a pleasant "bump" of satisfaction in answer to this question once each year at an annual "All-Michigan Dinner".

This unique banquet is sponsored by the Michigan Department of Agriculture and Michigan Press Association every January for newspapermen from all parts of the state. Purpose: to show that Michigan food products lead the way in quality and "tastefulness," that Michigan's farms produce many different kinds of crops. Only Michigan food is served. And from the variety presented, no one should expect more.

This year's menu included such tasty items as half of a "golden fryer", spiced tomato juice, fresh rhubarb pie and cheese, buttered peas and mushrooms, fresh lettuce and cottage cheese, whipped

ELECTRICITY--AND YOU

You use electricity in increasing amounts to do the monotonous, the tiresome, the time-consuming household tasks. It makes life more enjoyable. But there is a problem related to this growing trend.
