

Novi School District Requests Expansion

The Novi school board has started action to increase the size of the Novi district by more than half and gain the right to levy school taxes on the new Lincoln plant.

The board's action was in the form of a petition to the county board of education last week.

The petition requested boundary alterations that would enlarge

Swimming Pool To Be Discussed By Study Group

A state recreation official will discuss the problems of building, financing and operating a public swimming pool at an open public meeting at the high school Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Ernest V. Blohm, executive secretary of the Inter-Agency Council for Recreation, has accepted the invitation of the Northville Community Study Group to address their monthly meeting to which all interested residents of this area are invited to attend.

The Inter-Agency Council for Recreation, of which Blohm is executive secretary, is a state agency representing 19 different state departments or offices which have some interest in recreation. It functions as a coordinating council to insure the maximum public use of the wealth of experience, and counseling which is available from the state government.

The Community Study Group felt that in view of the local interest in swimming facilities it would be desirable to obtain additional information on this subject from an authority in the field of recreation. The study group pointed out that they have no program for attempting to sponsor or even to advocate a public swimming pool but at this time are merely interested in learning more about the general financial magnitude of such a program and of the history of the development of swimming facilities in other communities.

In order to insure adequate room for all interested citizens, the meeting Tuesday night will be held in the high school study hall with Ed Welch, vice-president of the Community Study Group, serving as chairman.

Deadline Nearing For Tax Payments

City and township residents were reminded this week that they have until February 28 to pay their 1956 taxes to local treasurers.

After March 1, delinquent taxes must be paid at the Wayne county treasurer's office. City residents may pay taxes any day before February 28 at the city hall, according to treasurer A. Russell Clarke.

Northville township residents may pay theirs to township treasurer Roy Terrill at Manufacturers National Bank on February 15, 19, 21, 26 and 28.

Clarke said city payments reached about 87 percent of the total by the beginning of this week — or $141,197 of the $161,861 tax roll.

Township residents have paid $95,000 of the $123,000 due — or about 80 percent, according to Terrill. The township treasurer said collections have been slow the past few weeks.

Speeder Fined

the Novi district so that it extends between the east and west township boundaries, and from 13-Mile road on the north to 9½-Mile road (west of Novi road) on the south.

(East of Novi road, the boundary is now roughly Eight Mile road. It would stay that way under the request.)

Novi superintendent William Medlyn estimated the change would increase the district from 16 square miles to about 24 or 25 square miles.

At present, it would affect only some 100 children, he added.

The county school board has scheduled a public hearing on the request for July 18. Unless contested, its decision will be final. If contested, the decision will go for a final decision to the state board of education.

The action is complicated by the fact that it involves four other districts and four counties, Medlyn pointed out.

The change would mean that portions of the territory of four school districts — Farmington on the west, South Lyon on the east, Northville on the south, and Walled Lake on the north — would come into the Novi district.

In turn, Novi would turn over a small portion of its territory which lies in Farmington township to the Farmington district.

Strongest opposition to the plan is expected to center around the new Lincoln plant. It now is split between the South Lyon and Walled Lake districts.

Medlyn said the Novi board feels that it should have the right to tax that plant because it will be supplying most of the school facilities for the increased population that will result from the giant new plant.

School taxes from the new plant would amount to about $150,000 annually, he estimated.

Furthermore, Medlyn said, the boundary changes would correct a "jerry-mandering" situation in which the district's present boundaries have no logical relationship to the actual township boundaries. He pointed out that the Novi district boundary now zig-zags illogically on all sides, sometimes deep within the township lines, other times into other townships.

The requested change would make the school and township boundaries coincide — with only several exceptions on the north and south, he said.

A VALENTINE FOR MOMMY.— Today is the day for sweethearts. And Mrs. Phyllis Coulter's two little sweethearts — Garry, 5, and Cindy, 2, — haven't forgotten. From out of the closet, they brought a secret heart-shaped box of candy. And with faces beaming, they let her know that she was their sweetheart, too.

8-Mile Cutoff Route Decided

The Eight Mile road cutoff came back into the news this week with the announcement that a final decision on the new road's route apparently has been made.

Wayne County Road Commission officials also revealed they will soon go about acquiring land for the cutoff.

The road will follow the southernmost of two routes that had been under consideration, according to Bernard Nagle of the commission's land and legal division.

Specifically, it will begin at Base Line east of Griswold, angle northwest to a point directly in line with Carlyle street, and then cut due west to meet Carlyle. It will include all of Carlyle, which will be widened, then angle southwest to join again with Base Line near Taft road.

The decision brings to a close several years of indecision on the cutoff's eastern route. The commission has been asked to consider a route north of the now-decided path, but apparently has discarded the idea.

The $500,000 issue is the first block of an eventual $3,000,000 issue approved last December by Northville voters.

The $500,000 will be used for an addition to the Amerman school, purchase and development of a site for the new Northville high school, and purchase of a site for a future elementary school.

Special ensembles that recently participated in the district festival at Ypsilanti will be heard during the evening, including a clarinet quartet, saxophone sextet, and a trombone quartet.

Included in the program are: Old-Comrades — Tiekie Barber of Seville — Rossini Cathedral Canyon — Erickson Ballet Music from William Tell — Rossini

Excerpts from Carmen — Bizet Gardes Du Corps — Hall

Dude Ranch — Kleinsinger

The public is invited to attend the concert which begins at 8 p.m.

Optimists to Hear Michigan Bell Man

The Northville Optimist club will have as their guest speaker next Wednesday Pete Aubrey, of Michigan Bell Telephone company.

His subject will be "Solar Energy." It is known that the Bell system has under experiment telephone projects that receive power and energy from the sun.

Last night Mrs. Alex Lawrence was given the "Bouquet for the Living." This is the Optimist club way of honoring one who is deserving when they are present to enjoy this honor.

Nagle said appraisers and surveyors are beginning the work that eventually will lead to acquisition of necessary land.

Some land, already has been acquired or optioned, he said. The commission will attempt to buy the rest of the land outright, but will take condemnation action if necessary, he added.

The present section of Novi road south of the track will be sealed off on the northern end. Residents of the Warren Products area will have access to the new Eight Mile but will not be able to go straight through on Novi road as they now can.

Previous plans for a cloverleaf turn connecting the new Novi road with the new Eight Mile have been discarded, Lynch said. The amount of traffic using the roads will not warrant such an elaborate intersection, he added.

Jerry Stanick, commission bridge representative, said an overpass for the cutoff will be built over the C & O tracks west of the present Novi road.

No estimate of a starting date for construction was made by the commission representatives. One said, however, that acquisition of land and legal work usually takes from six months to a year.

The cutoff is expected to reduce greatly the amount of through traffic in Northville by rerouting it north of the city. The new road also will be part of an overall future route between Detroit and US-23, serving as a secondary approach to Lansing.

George Lynch, commission road division spokesman, said plans call for Novi road to swing west of the C & O railroad, paralleling the track as far as the new Eight Mile. Motorists would then turn down Novi street to come into Northville.

SEE SMALL VOTE AT POLLS MONDAY

Novi Primary Election Has Key Issues at Stake

In contrast with Northville, Novi township will have some red-hot issues to decide on when voters there go to the polls Monday after being faced with two months of determined electioneering.

Some 33 candidates have tossed their hats in the ring for the primary election Monday. All but eight are Republicans.

Voters will name candidates for supervisor, clerk, treasurer, trustee (two), justice of the peace, board of review, and constable (three). In addition, Republicans and Democrats each will endorse uncontested three-member township party committees as required by a recent state law.

Polling places will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Precinct 1 voters will cast their ballots at the Novi township hall. Those in Precinct 2 will vote at the Novi Community Building.

No candidates for state or county office will be on the ballot. They have been named by party convention, and will face the public in the general election April 1.

Novi clerk Hadley Bachert said a heavy turnout is expected. Most of the record 2,500 voters from the November election are still eligible, he added, and a large number of applications for absentee ballots has boosted the total still further.

In addition, the election campaign has been one of the most spirited in Novi history — especially among Republican ranks. Three separate GOP slates will vie for the right to represent their party in the April election.

Furthermore, the ballot will include a controversial proposition to rezone a Grand River-Meadowbrook road site from light industry to heavy industry.

The site has been under consideration for several months for a multi-million dollar race track and sports pavilion — a proposal which has drawn severe criticism from some sections of the township.

A public referendum on the rezoning — which has already been passed by the township board — was made necessary in December when petitions demanding the vote were submitted.

An election which seems doomed to attract few voters will take place in Northville and Northville township Monday.

Voters of Wayne county will nominate eight candidates for the circuit court. The top eight of 11 candidates in Monday's primary will compete in the April 1 election for four vacancies on the bench.

The only other race on the ballot is for county auditor. While the judicial contest is non-partisan, five Democrats and one Republican appear on the ballot for auditor. Democrat Charles F. Edgecomb, incumbent, will have competition from Bert F. Donlin, Stefan Gotowka, Dan Radnovich and John Skomski. Thomas D. Leadbetter is the lone Republican seeking nomination.

Four recent appointees to the circuit court will fight to keep their newly-won posts. Judges Victor J. Baum, George E. Bowles, Horace W. Gilmore and Joseph G. Rashid were appointed by Governor G. Mennen Williams to fill vacancies created by retirement in January.

Opposing the judges will be Ira G. Kaufman, Joseph A. Lewandowski, James H. Lincoln, James N. McNally, Louis Rabaut, John M. Wise and Robert J. Wojcinski.

The fact that Northville does not have a primary election for local candidates caused some confusion in filing of petitions for city council. Although the city charter calls for filing of petitions by March 1st for the April 1 election, a state law that petitions for the April 1 election must be filed by December 31 was followed. The state law demands early filing so that names may appear on the ballot for the primary. Because Northville has no primary, an informal ruling by the state reversed an earlier opinion making it necessary for local candidates to re-file petitions.

Clerk Mary Alexander reported Wednesday that all petitions had been refiled to date with the exception of Earl Reed and Sidney Frid, candidates for city council.

Polls for Monday's primary will open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Northville residents will vote at the Community Center where machines for both precinct one and two will be set up. Township residents in precinct one will vote in the kindergarten room of the Main Street grade school. Precinct two residents will vote at the township hall at 16860 Franklin road.

A decision on whether Northville Downs will have 30 belated days of harness racing this fall is expected soon from State Racing Commissioner James H. Inglis.

The request came up for a public hearing at the commissioner's office yesterday.

Inglis said he will announce his decision after weighing evidence presented yesterday on the request for a fall meet of 30 days beginning October 7. Hopes for the additional dates appeared slim.

The request was made in early January by George McIntyre and William Brown, well-known figures in harness racing circles, in the name of the Michigan Trotting club. The group has a lease on the track for the period.

The Downs so far has been awarded 38 nights of racing this year, to begin April 18 and end June 1. In past years, the track has had a late summer schedule.

Meanwhile, Inglis said there has been no further word from Detroit sportsman Mark Leach, whose request for thoroughbred racing dates this summer was turned down by the commission last fall. Leach had indicated that he might contest Inglis' decision in court.

Mary Lou Litsenberger Wed Last Saturday

Mrs. Robert Edward Barry

At a candle-light service last Saturday evening, Mary Lou Litsenberger and Robert Edward Barry were united in marriage by the Rev. Ivan E. Hodgson at the First Methodist church of Northville.

Miss Doris Somers played the organ and accompanied Charles Strautz, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer".

Mary Lou, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of lace and satin with a cathedral train. Her veil, which had been worn by her mother and sister, was of silk illusion, held in place by a cap trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs. Harold Dayton of South Lyon served as matron of honor; Mrs. H. Donn Westmann of Kalamazoo, Mrs. George Brusak of Fenton, and Miss Beatrice Jan-chick of Northville were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of white crepe and lace with red satin sashes. They carried heart-shaped bouquets of red carnations.

Carolyn Daton served as flower girl dressed in red and white nylon.

William Foerster of Palmyra, New Jersey was best man for Mr. Barry. Ushering were Harold Dayton, H. Donn Westmann and George Brusak.

The bride's mother, Mrs. John Litsenberger, wore a dress of teal blue and a corsage of pink carnations. A corsage was also presented to the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Carrie Litsenberger. A reception was held in the church house immediately following the ceremony. Assisting at pouring were Mrs. Dean Niedenhofer, Mrs. Leonard Howard, Jr., Mrs. Adrian Wilhelm and Mrs. Norman Hanscher.

Sponsored by the Plymouth Kiwanis, the play will be produced by Jeannine Dahlager of Plymouth and directed by William Merrill of Will-O-Way Playhouse.

Club Speaker Gives Tips On Care of House Plants

Many helpful pointers on the care of house plants were given at last Monday's meeting of the Northville branch of the Michigan Farm and Garden Association by Mrs. Frank Webb of Birmingham.

Mrs. Webb is an officer of the state board of the National Farm and Garden Association. She stated that it is necessary to watch house plants carefully for insects, spraying them when necessary. They ought to be fed, she said, and kept in a good light. Mrs. Webb feeds her plants by spraying the foliage with a small amount of plant food dissolved in water.

Members of the garden club

each brought a potted plant to the meeting, to be donated to the Northville State hospital for use in therapy work.

President Mrs. Glenn H. Cummings showed the group a number of spring flower catalogues and reminded members to start planning now for the fall flower show. Mrs. Edwin Mueller, chairman for the event, read the names of the new varieties of annuals she hoped members would plant in the spring.

Also reporting on future activities, Mrs. Louise Canfield named the committee members for the "Keep Northville Beautiful" campaign which will be carried out April 29 through May 4.

Employment Office Moves to New Home

The office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission serving the Northville area will be moved Friday, February 15 to a new building at 987 South Mill street, Plymouth, about half a mile southeast of the present site. The announcement was made by Max M. Horton, commission director.

Gordon Packard, manager of the office for the last four years, will be in charge of the new building. Packard has been with the commission since June, 1938. The Plymouth office serves the area between 14 Mile and Ford road and Telegraph and Pontiac road, with the exception of a small corner south of Joy road and west of Canton Center road, which is served out of Wayne.

Included in its service area are Plymouth, Livonia, Redford township, Northville, Novi, Farmington, Wixom, Walled Lake, New Hudson and South Lyon.

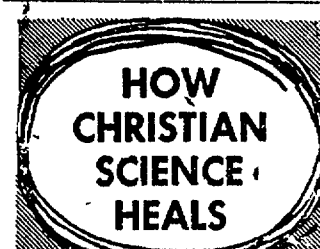

"The industrial growth of this area has been amazing," Horton told Packard yesterday. "So many big, new industries have come into the area, that we fully expect the office will be too small for our requirements within three or four years."

Merchants Seek Prayer Observance

A proposal that Northville observe World Day of Prayer on March 8 was passed by members of the Retail Merchants Association at their regular meeting Tuesday evening.

Although final details were left to be planned later Chairman Essie Nierder stated that clerks, customers and residents throughout the area will be asked to pause for a moment of silent prayer at the signal of a siren.

In other business the merchants discussed plans for a spring promotion in April. Details will be discussed at the March meeting. Paul Folino was appointed to meet with City Manager John Robertson to plan for permanent installation of street decoration wiring for the Christmas season.

Does jobs ordinary vehicles can't handle!

The Universal 'Jeep' takes ordinary jobs in stride. Then, for the tough ones, with the extra traction of its 4-wheel drive, and a special low gear range when needed, it takes personnel or cargo through mud, snow, sand or soft earth — on or off the road, in all kinds of weather. For travel at highway speeds it shifts into conventional 2-wheel drive. This versatile vehicle hauls heavily loaded trailers — and with power take-off operates a wide variety of mobile equipment.

STATEMENT BY FRANK DAVIS TO THE CITIZENS OF NOVI

I said in a previous statement that I would stop at nothing to prevent our township from being cut up like a pie at a Scotchman's picnic. Before I could turn around, a small group of eager beavers whose political ambitions exceed their knowledge of the annexation laws, started claiming a portion of our Northwest section. I want to advise them not to be in too big a hurry and let our courts decide whether a tie vote wins anything or not, for, I, Frank Davis, a citizen of Novi by choice, will file suit to stop this type of bamboozlement.

To get back to my campaign for trustee, I want everyone to know where I stand on the issues that are facing our township today. First, I wish to state that I am a Republican and believe in the principles of our systems of freedom of enterprise. The Commies and their bedfellows the ADA's (Associated Demogogs of America) claim that if you're enterprising enough to get a mirror then you are free to watch yourself starve. I disagree with that interpretation.

I believe it means you are free to get a job, free not to take it, free to go into business, free to make money, free to go broke, free to sell your business, free to try something else.

The way some people are talking in Washington, I'm getting worried about some of our freedoms. I am for sewers, all other civic improvements, shopping centers and factories. I am in favor of rezoning our Northeast section and let the future decide its use. Now as to the candidates, I wish I could vote for all Republicans, for they are all good men, and whoever is nominated, I'll fight like heck to elect them. As I can't vote for all, I must make a choice. I think the following men have done, or will do a good job for our township:

Supervisor — Frazer Staman

Treasurer — Harry Watson

Clerk — Arthur Heslip

Trustee — All good men — I would appreciate your support for this spot.

Justice of the Peace — Edmund P. Yerkes

Hoping you can vote for Frank Davis, but if you can't see him, then vote as you please, but please vote.

(Signed) FRANK DAVIS, 22001 Beck Road

TO THE CITIZENS OF NOVI

I came to Novi Township in 1906 as a farmer and operated a Fruit and Dairy farm until 1945 when I began subdividing the farm, developing a subdivision and attracting residents of whom I am proud.

I began selling some insurance about twenty-five years ago and my business is now insurance.

I served Novi Township as treasurer for two terms, 1922 to 1924, and was elected Supervisor in 1935 serving continuously until 1953 and as a Trustee since 1953.

During my eighteen years as a member of the Oakland County Board of Supervisors I served on several of the more important committees including four years as a member of the Ways and Means Committee, two of which were as chairman of the committee, also two years as chairman of the Board.

I believe my knowledge of Township affairs and my experience make me a valuable member of the Township Board.

I supported Mr. Staman for Supervisor in 1953 and 1955.

I believe he has done a good job and that his proposed program for the future is excellent.

As our representative on the Oakland County Board of Supervisors he is regarded with respect and confidence by his fellow members.

His committee assignments are extraordinary, though he is serving only his fourth year as a member of the Board.

I would like to work with him for the next two years in the furtherance of progress, economy and good government for all the people of Novi Township.

I will be a candidate on the Republican ticket for nomination for the office of Trustee, in the Primary Election to be held February 18, 1957.

Your support will be appreciated.

Readers Speak Up:

Seeks Members For Study Group

Dear Editor:
 In connection with next Tuesday's meeting of the Northville Community Study Group to which all citizens interested in recreation and swimming facilities are invited, I feel that a further description of this group is in order.

The Community Study Group was formed more than a year ago by a small group of citizens from among those who had been enrolled in college extension classes in Community Development held here for two years under sponsorship of the University of Michigan.

When we first organized we adopted a statement of purpose and some general rules or organization. The first paragraph of this statement, which is the essence of our purpose, is quoted in full as follows: "A voluntary association of citizens who are interested in learning more about their community and who desire for an experimental basis to seek to contribute toward its betterment through cooperative group activity."

Our little group has no official status. We do not claim to represent anyone other than 10 to 20 or so individuals who usually attend our monthly meetings. In fact in many cases even our little group in its informal discussion sessions fails to agree on many things. But we do feel we learn a lot from each other and from the guest speakers who have addressed us.

We have no desire to be a militant, action seeking group. In fact some of our original members lost interest in the group because they thought the majority of the membership was too cautious in approach — too willing to just learn and discuss rather than do more in the way of recommending and advocating community action programs.

Our membership is composed of residents of the city and the township — some are Catholics, some are Protestants — some are Republicans and some are Democrats. The only qualification for membership is to be seriously interested in the Northville area and its community activities and problems. We very much wish that more citizens would join our group — all are welcome.

Work Begins On Dial System For Plymouth

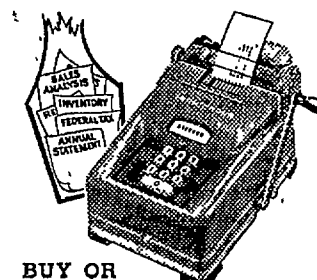

Michigan Bell Telephone company broke ground this week for a $500,000 central office building in Plymouth. The new structure will provide a $2,900,000 dial system for Plymouth in early 1958.

The building will be located on Ann Arbor road just east of Sheldon road. According to Area Manager Robert Maurer the building will be completed in August when installation of latest equipment will begin.

According to Maurer, the company is seeking a site in the Northville area to provide local dial service. Reported date for automatic service in the Northville- Novi area is August, 1958.

The new dial system in Plymouth will offer "direct distance dialing" which will make it possible for users to reach more than 25,000,000 telephones by direct dialing.

Library Reveals Varied Past

The Northville Record

SECOND OLDEST NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY—EST 1868— Thursday, February 14, 1957—9

A stroll past the dignified white frame building at 107 South Wing street in the year 1800 might have produced very "undignified" results.

For then it was the home of a group of religious outcasts who liked music with their prayers.

The average Northville adult or child who may visit this building daily is probably unaware of its interesting history, for today it stands as our public library.

It was built by a group of Presbyterians who broke away from their church because of a ban on music.

When the hymn-singers returned to their founders after the difficulties had been settled, the building served successively as a public school, the village opera house, a Salvation Army barracks, and as the "Young Men's Hall".

In 1889, Dr. Mary E. Lapham met with a group of women organized a village library association, which began and guided the village library. An annual fee of $1, and later fifty cents, was charged for the privilege of borrowing books.

A bronze tablet in the library pays tribute to Dr. Lapham, who bought the "Young Men's Hall" in 1889 and gave it to the library association with the understanding that it should always be available one day a week to the Northville Woman's club for their meetings.

Her request is still honored — each Friday the library is closed for their meetings. The building also provides a regular meeting place for the Northville Adult Camera club, and other organizations occasionally use the library for gatherings.

The association operated the library until 1926, when the state of Michigan passed legislation to make it legal for a township to assist in providing free library service.

In 1934, when Willard A. Ely was township supervisor, the library became a part of the Wayne County Library system. The church atmosphere still clung to the building — there were pews placed around the room facing the book shelves.

A decision to redecorate the library was made in 1946, when the Wayne County Library Board and the Northville Township Board cooperated in completely remodeling the interior.

Mrs. H. F. Wagenschutz, who has been on the board since 1943, explained that this decision put the library among the first "home" libraries in the country.

Softly colored walls, flowers, loveseats, an inviting walnut fireplace, draped windows — each contributes to giving the library a pleasant, homelike atmosphere.

A special section with small tables and chairs is reserved for little people — who come in on their own and with classes from Northville elementary schools.

The building houses between eight and nine thousand volumes, checked in and out and carefully cared for by Mrs. Charles Wilcox, head librarian, and Miss Kathleen Sprenger, library aid.

Circulation Shows Marked Increase At Local Library

Over 2,400 more books were checked out of Northville library last year than the previous year, which ended 1956 with a total circulation of 37,253.

Some of the most popular adult books were "Auntie Mame", "Andersonville", "Gift From the Sea" and "Marjorie Morningstar". "The Power of Positive Thinking" was still in steady demand, too.

Work with school classes continued with 17 groups from the Main Street school making regular visits. Some teachers at the Amerman school took book collections or arranged special trips for their classes by school bus. A class from the Clarenceville school also made a special trip to the library and the Novi Stone school took collections regularly.

Sixteen-millimeter films were also rented through the Wayne County library Audio-Visual center. A list of current films is kept on hand for the use of groups planning to use films for their programs.

The library is open from 11:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

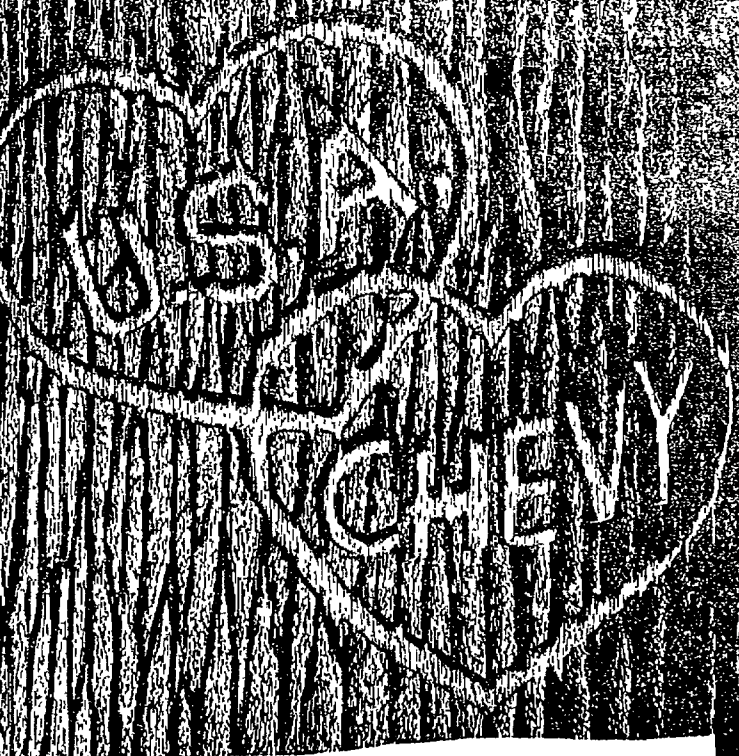

LEARNING AT THE LIBRARY is a regular thing for Main Street school students Tommy Wilson and Linda Dickinson, members of Miss Lucy Miller's second grade class. Students from Amerman school also make trips to get acquainted with the library.

ONE OF THE OLDEST VOLUMES in the Northville library, a "History of Detroit, Wayne County, and Early Michigan", published in 1890, is here being scanned by Mrs. Eliza Wagenschutz, a member of the Wayne County Library Board since 1941, and Mrs. Charles Wilcox, librarian.

COMFORTABLE CHAIRS AND A FIREPLACE help to make the library a pleasant place to spend time. The decision to decorate with soft colors and overstuffed furniture made the building one of the first "home" libraries in the country.

It's Upset Time

They drop to the south, they drop to the north... what about in between?

Local basketball fans were asking that question this week as another of the regional power houses was knocked off last week.

Walled Lake, which had sported an unbeaten record in basketball was finally dumped, 62-52 by Berkley. Walled Lake had been rated fourth in the state among Class B schools.

Meanwhile, Plymouth — another powerhouse in the area — lost its second straight after having gone through eight games without defeat.

The question worrying the Mustang fans: will the whirlwind of upsets finally land in the middle of Northville?

Football Trophy Comes Home

The Wayne-Oakland football championship trophy has finally found its spot in the Northville trophy case.

The glittering reward for the Mustangs' grid title last fall was presented (right) to coach Ron Schipper by Milford coach and athletic director Dick Yaeger between halves of the Milford-Northville game Friday night.

The trophy is emblematic of the Wayne-Oakland championship, won by the Mustangs in their most victorious season to date. Northville's record was blemished only by an opening non-conference loss to Plymouth and an early-season tie with Milford.

Meanwhile, NHS students are making a place for another trophy in the case — the W-O basketball championship prize which they have good reason to hope will soon be theirs.

Northville also has taken the Wayne-Oakland band and debate crowns this year, making it already one of the most successful competitive years in the school's history.

Bowlers Invited To Hamtramck Singles Tourney

Northville bowlers were advised this week that entries are now being taken for the Hamtramck Citizens singles tournament beginning next month and lasting through April.

The tourney, to be held at Plaxidium Recreation in Hamtramck, will run every week end from March 16 through April 28. Entry blanks can be obtained at any local bowling alley or by writing to Clarence A. Leebell, tournament manager at 11901 Jos. Campau, Detroit 12.

Major prizes, all guaranteed, are $1,500 first; $1,000 second and $500 third, with one of every four entrants sharing in the prize distribution estimated this year at $7,500.

The Citizen tournament has grown in the past six years from a meager 300 entries to a list of over 1200 participants last year in which more than $6,000 was distributed in prize money in addition to squad awards and individual efforts other than high scores.

Last year's meet, the largest of the six held, had entrants from 72 Michigan communities, seven states and also from Canada. Final date for filing entries is Saturday, March 9.

Milford Tries, But Northville Triumphs

Stars Shine As Mustangs Take Tenth

If the Northville Mustangs had their choice, they probably would just as soon meet Clarkston and Brighton every other week rather than play the weak sisters of the league.

The Mustangs have dumped the top contenders without much trouble this season, but when they have met the "pushovers", it's often been a different story.

Milford — boasting a 1-6 league record — was the latest soft touch to give the Mustangs a thrill, and for awhile Friday night it looked like the Redskins might have an upset in the making.

But as been their forte throughout the season, the Mustangs put on a second half surge of sharp shooting and determined defensive work to smother their opponents. The result: Northville took the contest, 65-56, for their 10th straight of the year, and gained an even stronger grasp on the Wayne-Oakland lead.

For awhile, it appeared that Northville might make an easy win of it. With forward Jeff Goodrich and Bill Yahne hitting under the basket, the Mustangs jumped off to an 18-11 first quarter lead.

But shortly after the second quarter began, Milford caught fire. And by the time Northville regained its breath, the Redskins had come back for a 29-29 count at half time.

Milford's success-story-in-the-making crumbled shortly after the third quarter began, however. Guard Mac Burns provided the morale-breaking blow as he connected on four straight shots from side court and blew the Redskin defense apart.

In the fourth quarter, it was a simple matter of plugging away at the basket. Northville and Milford matched each other shot for shot, and the Mustangs' nine-point advantage still held at the game's end.

Goodrich, a sophomore who is fast catching on to the ins and outs of the game, once again paced the Mustang offense. The 6' 7" forward dumped in 19 points for game honors and had things well under control under the basket.

But for all-round honors, guard Bud Bell probably rated the nod. Bell put on a strong offensive showing, as he sank 15 points and helped account for a dozen others with his fakes, passes, and play-making.

On defense, the veteran guard was a terror. In the first half in particular, Bell drove Milford dizzy as he slapped the ball away from advancing Redskins, intercepted passes, and generally hamstrung the Milford offense.

Other creditable performances came from Yahne, who totalled 12 points including six in the first quarter, and forward Charles Gow, who broke into the starting lineup after joining the team only the previous week.

SCORING
NORTHVILLE	18	11	20
Milford	11	18	25

Colts Win, 43-28, For Fourth Straight

The Northville Colts made it four in a row Friday night, but like their cousins on the varsity, they had to work for it.

Though the final score stood at 43-28 over Milford, the Colts were hard pressed to keep the lead for most of the game.

At halftime, the score favored Northville by only 19-18. But the Colts came on to outshoot the Milford squad 24-10 in the final minutes and wrap up the win.

In the last period, Northville held Milford to an embarrassing three points.

The victory gave coach Al Jones' team a 7-4 record for the season. With three games left, the Colts stand to make a good season of it.

Bob Starnes and Nelson Schrader led the Colts with 12 points each, while Fred Schwarze put in nine.

Tomorrow May Be 'It' For Mustangs

Tomorrow night will be "it" for the Northville Mustangs.

The championship-bent cagers will journey to Clarkston to do battle with the Wolves in a game that could see Northville take the Wayne-Oakland title.

At this writing (Tuesday), Clarkston still had a mathematical chance to take the championship — if they won their three remaining games and the Mustangs lost their three.

But if both teams won Tuesday night (see front page for actual results), Clarkston could hope only for a tie. And, it would take two wins by the Wolves and two losses by the Mustangs to do it.

Presuming that's how the standings shape up at game's beginning tomorrow night, the Mustangs could take the championship outright by dropping the Wolves.

If Clarkston should defeat Northville, however, the race would go right down the wire.

But Northville would still have the upper hand. In the final games for the clubs, Northville would have to lose to West Bloomfield and Clarkston would have to drop Holly.

Meanwhile, the rest of the league will be in action tomorrow night in games that count little in the W-O standings. West Bloomfield will be at Holly and Milford will meet Clarenceville. Brighton, which was eliminated from the title race by its loss to Clarkston last Friday, will be idle.

The Standard of Right and Wrong

Today we are faced with the problem of what is right and what is wrong in a number of matters. Such matters as mercy killings; divorce on any grounds; the proper observance of the Lord's Day; discipline in the homes and schools; the question of amusements; the matter of decent dress; when does literature become obscene, etc. These are very real problems that face this generation.

There seems to be a great deal of controversy with capable proponents of both sides of the question. How are we going to tell what is right and what is wrong? Is there a standard?

We Are Being Told — that truth is relative. By this they mean that circumstances determine whether a matter is right or whether it is wrong. They say that there is no absolute. By this we are to understand that there is no standard of conduct which is Universally right or Universally wrong. They point out what may be right in our American Culture may be wrong and immoral in the Oriental Culture. Then too, these Modern thinkers tell us that the standard changes from one generation to another, and yes, even within the same generation. This kind of thinking is being fed to our students in our colleges. It is almost being fed piece meal to the public through our magazines and newspapers. Gradually we are being indoctrinated by this sort of propaganda.

How It Works

For example, in the Doctrine of Karl Marx, a lie is justifiable if it furthers the end in view. Since the end in view is the domination of the world by Communism (which is right in their thinking), it is perfectly alright to lie, to deceive, to break agreements or to be "two faced". Is it any wonder that the United States has been embarrassed by the agreements of Yalta? But wait a moment, isn't that exactly the same thinking people use in "telling white lies"? Is it not an expedient to bring about the desired good end? It is no longer wrong then because it is related to good intentions and good end. This very standard of relativism is raising havoc in our generation. The divorce records, the increase in crime, the juvenile problems, the sex crime problems all have their roots in a generation who does that which is right in their own eyes.

What We Need —

We need to get back to the Bible standard of right and wrong. It is not as outdated as some would have us believe. It is not an Oriental handbook of morality. It is indeed the very Word of God for the whole world. The Psalmist says in Psalm 19:7-9, "The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes. Fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether." It was the Lord Jesus who said, "Thy Word is Truth" in John 17:17. In this book called the Bible, God has revealed what is right and what is wrong. When one becomes a Christian this Book becomes the lamp unto his feet and the light unto his path. It becomes the handbook for holy living.

What we need first is to be born again through the miracle of the Spirit of God. An unregenerated heart is not disposed to practice truth according to the Divine Standard. Because of the perverseness and rebellion of his human nature he loves darkness rather than light. Oh, he may pay lip service in complimenting Christianity for its standard, but he will be subject to it himself. One of the marks of a true Christian is that "They hear His voice and follow Him". They accept His standard of right and wrong and desire to live accordingly.

Senior Girls to Receive Letters from Local College

Some 56 Northville high school senior girls soon will receive letters inviting them to look into the possibility of attending Madonna college in Livonia.

It included a return postcard for making an appointment to visit the college and talk with officials.

The letter stressed that Madonna college can bring advanced education even to girls who have considered themselves financially unable to attend college. Tuition fee is $250 a year, it pointed out, or but $25 a month.

The letter also noted that Madonna, while conducted by Catholic Felician Sisters, serves all girls regardless of religious affiliation. Theology courses are not required of non-Catholic students, and extracurricular religious activities are on a voluntary basis.

Signed by director of public relations James A. Forner, the letter further stated Madonna's accreditations.

A four-year liberal arts college for women, Madonna is accredited by the Michigan Commission on College Accreditations and is approved by the State Board of Education, the letter said.

The college offers curricula in teaching, business, medical technology, home economics, pre-social science, art, vocal and instrumental and pre-journalism, leading to bachelor of arts and bachelor of science degrees.

The letter pointed out that a college-owned bus helps transport students to the campus, located on Schoolcraft just west of Farmington road. It is some four miles from Northville.

Teen Dances Evolve Into Club

Michigan Ski Slopes Call Austrian Exchange Student

By Hedi Trithart

Two weeks ago, I joined all the exchange students in Michigan who met in East Jordan to go skiing. There we stayed with different families.

Students Enjoy "The Matchmaker" At Detroit Theater

Last Thursday evening the 11th and 12th grade English and speech classes of Northville high school, sponsored by Clarence Mason, went to the Schubert theater in Detroit to see Ruth Gordon in "The Matchmaker".

The play was a hilarious comedy concerning a woman's desire to "recreate" the world to suit herself. She likened her world to an artist's picture. He exaggerates and makes more beautiful what he paints, and so does she in her way. She puts a hand in here, a hand in there, a word here and a word there, and in the end creates three happy couples.

There were boys and girls from all over the world — Austria, England, Israel, South Africa, Sweden, Denmark, Belgium, Austria and Cuba. We had a lot of fun talking to each other with our different accents.

Saturday, we left after lunch to go to Averbanch, a skiing place near Boyne Mountain. I borrowed ski slacks, boots and skis, since I could not bring my outfit with me. Finally I was to go skiing — I had wished to since it snowed!

After dinner in the evening, we went to a high school dance, which I enjoyed very much.

Sunday, we had to leave early in the afternoon to get back by night. It took us eight hours and I was very tired the next morning when I had to go to school. I will never forget my skiing in northern Michigan, which I liked very much.

Washington survived Brad-dock's notorious defeat only after two horses were shot from under him and four bullets pierced his clothing.

Something nice has occurred as a result of the PTA dances given every other Saturday night at the Northville Community Center — a teen club has been formed by a group of NHS students.

Members held a contest, choosing the name, "You and I Teen Club". Rules and regulations have been set up, and a decision to have membership cards was made.

Any school student may join the club. All he needs to do is contact the treasurer, Elsie Seddan, and pay 25 cents for a membership card. He is entitled to attend all affairs and meetings of the club.

Mrs. Sidney Junod and Stan Johnston will be advisors for the new group and will aid them in their work.

In addition to the teen dances, the club is considering a dance to which parents will be invited. They would have an opportunity to observe the school dance and band and enjoy themselves.

Used Clothes Asked For Needy Children

In response to the "Save the Children Federation" plea, the clothing drive for needy children got under way at Northville high school this week.

The purpose of this drive is to help war orphans, refugees, disaster victims and needy persons overseas, as well as children in the United States. Many need the bare essentials in clothing necessary for health and warmth. The need is as great in rural as in urban areas.

Students are asked to bring clean, wearable clothes not necessarily of the latest fashion, which are to be deposited in large bags placed in each homeroom. Everyone should make every effort to help fill the bags.

Jim Hammond Attends Science Day Youth Program

Jim Hammond, a junior at Northville high school, was one of some 140 students who attended a "Young Edison's" program for budding scientists in Detroit last week.

Jim lives at 47100 Timberlane and was a guest of the Ethyl corporation.

Occasion was the first annual National Science Day Youth program, held on Thomas Edison's 110th birthday anniversary February 11.

Designed to introduce students to opportunities in science and engineering, the program began with visits to the engineering facilities of many Detroit firms. Afterwards, students gathered at Greenfield Village and were welcomed by William Clay Ford, a member of the National Edison Birthday Committee.

The program concluded with addresses by Dr. Henry Gomberg, assistant director of the University of Michigan Phoenix Project, and Professor Ernest Boyce, head of the U-M civil engineering department.

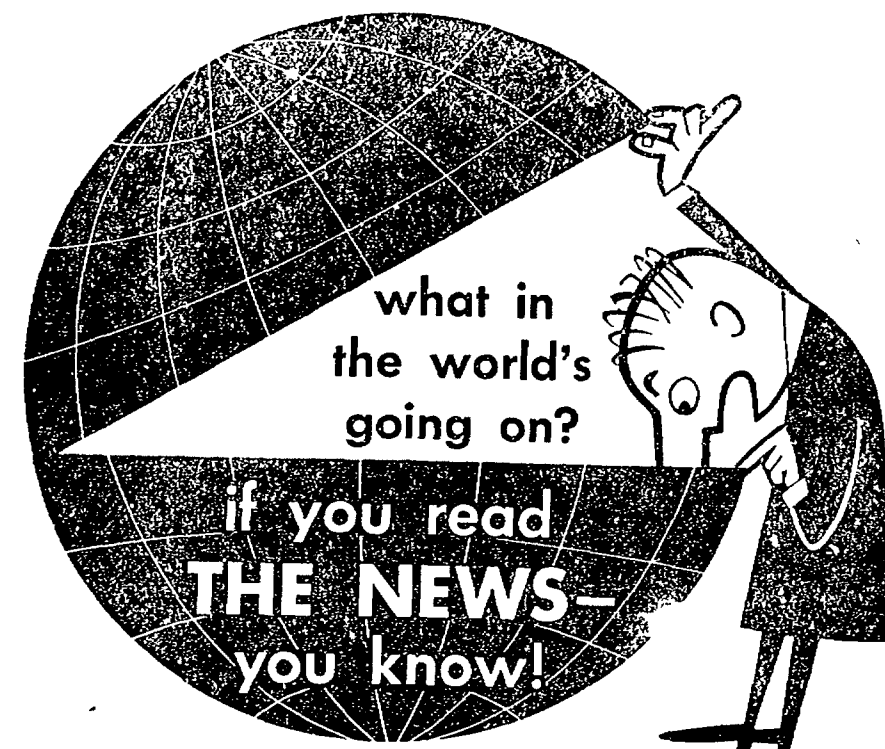

BIRD HOUSES for the Northville Garden Club Contest are being built in Northville high school woodshop classes by ninth graders Tim Scowden, Bairon Stader and Alan Herring, members of Mr. Renard's class.

Here's the bomb THAT BROKE THE "low-price" lineup!

This big high-stepping Chieftain started a revolution with a carload of "firsts" and an eye-popping price tag!

The low-price field never looked like this before! The handsome husky you see right here has the boat still rocking . . . with more power, more wheelbase, more room—and more sheer pride of ownership—than ever before possible on a well-trained budget! Just look at what they're making room for now in the low-price lineup: a strapping 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio Strato-Streak V-8 . . . a whopping, road-hugging 122 inches of wheelbase and an all-new suspension system for a Level-Line Ride that's next best thing to a magic carpet! And this streamlined beauty takes on the field with more than six dozen "firsts", all proved by 100,000 of the roughest, toughest test miles a group of facts-minded engineers could devise! If this sounds like a wonderful buy—it certainly is! Our advice is to stop dreaming and price it! At a cost less than a lot of the low-price jobs, this newcomer is making big-time buyers out of former "all-three" owners!

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

Last week we had coffee with Frank Clark and Frank Davis. Clark is the longtime Novi township trustee. Davis is an Oklahoma Will Rogers-type of philosopher and is running for trustee in the primary Monday.

We didn't talk about politics. Matter of fact, I doubt that either considered the other as an opponent. They were more interested in stories of the old West and early days around Novi.

Clark recalled that around the turn of the century there were up to 80 different brands registered for cattle in Novi township. According to Clark and Davis, the brands would usually be a clipped or notched ear, either right or left, with any number of notches to indicate the owner.

I suppose we should have known this, but we always thought brands were put on with a hot iron, with the cattle's hide suitably inscribed "Bar X", or something.

Fences weren't necessary to keep track of the critters. Even if a stray were sold, a check from the purchaser would often come to the rightful owner.

From cattle, the talk branched into welfare agencies and care of the needy. "Years ago neighbors always cared for anyone down on his luck," said Clark. He quoted a friend from the Dakotas as saying it's still handled that way in many far west states. "They had a way of enforcing the law too, without bothering law officers," said Davis.

We liked a story Clark related about a buyer at a horse auction at the farm of the late Sam Spencer many years ago. After listening to the auctioneer describe each animal as it came to the block, the buyer turned to Clark and asked, "why is it that a horse is never older than nine, and a woman more than 29?"

We had lunch last week with A. T. (Tony) Skover and Kenneth Gipp of the Howard T. Keating company. They're both high on Northville as a ideal location for suburban home development. They like it so well that Skover is already building here, and Gipp is interested. We suspect that Tony may have ulterior motives. A "scratch" golfer, he's building along the third fairway at Meadowbrook where he's a member and former president. His neighbors will be the Ernie Shaves, also golf enthusiasts, who will build in the spring.

New Roads, Less Business?

WHAT HAPPENS TO A TOWN when a major highway is routed around its limits instead of running "down the main street?"

This question will be raised with increasing frequency during the next three years when some 300 miles of new multiple-lane, divided highways are constructed across Michigan.

"Limited access" highways will form a large part of this construction program outlined last week by Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler. These roads offer unequaled safety with divided multiple lanes, a controlled number of entrances, and bypasses around many towns and cities.

But merchants and villages depending on transients for much of their business are already beginning to voice fears that a bypass would endanger their economic structure.

Fears may be unfounded. While Michigan's limited access highway program is still in its infancy, (there are 169 miles of fully limited controlled highways in the state,) other areas have made exhaustive studies on towns bypassed by major routes.

A survey made by the United States Chamber of Commerce suggests a town is improved in every way by having a highway routed around it rather than down the main street. Reports from California and Texas confirm the results.

Highway department experts point out that no new businesses can be built along roads having limited access. Motorists must turn off at some point to eat, find lodging and purchase gasoline.

An example of the added boom to business recently occurred in Sturgis when the Indiana Turnpike opened just south of the Michigan state line. According to officials, even though Sturgis was four miles away from the turnpike, motel and hotel business increased 25 percent from persons who had to drive off the main highway to find lodging for the night.

Other advantages accrue to the bypassed town. The reduction of motorists and truckers who are just "driving through" should eliminate many accidents. The "home town" folks find they can once again go shopping without facing congested traffic and the long hunt for a parking space.

The picture isn't completely glowing. Several towns in Michigan are now by-passed and report different experiences. On the one hand Parma lost 25 percent of its business when a highway bypassed it two years ago. On the other, Chelsea, bypassed some nine years ago, grew beyond the most optimistic hopes.

The biggest factor seems to be adjusting to the new situation. Planning ahead can ease the "shock" that accompanies any sudden change.

For example, in Chelsea, merchants worked as a group. "We decided we had to become as efficient as the new highway," says Chelsea president Anton Neilson. "Everybody decorated their restaurants and stores. Then when we were looking our best, we spent $1,600 a piece for two big signs out on the highway. We told people how to find us and what they would find."

Learning through experience, the residents of Parma now have a Community Improvement Group. To back up their plans they have the friendly advice of the Consumers Power Community Development Department headed by James Coates.

The highway of the future will probably by-pass many towns. Experts advise: if it's your town, the time to start planning is now.

MICHIGAN'S ONE-MAN grand jury may come in for some close scrutiny from the present state Legislature. Latest to urge repeal of the controversial statute vesting grand jury power in one man is Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh.

"The system itself is contrary to the original principles of justice in this country," Kavanagh recently told the state Legislature. "It concentrates in a single judge more power than was intended when we turned to English common law and the Bill of Rights as a foundation for our system."

Primary purpose of any grand jury is to obtain evidence and testimony that cannot be compiled under normal courtroom procedures.

The key to success lies in the power to grant immunity against prosecution to persons who testify. In many instances when it is hard to obtain evidence, a grand jury is the only means of reaching the "top men". Persons criminally involved only in a minor way can be granted immunity or "traded off" so that a strong case can be built against major offenders.

Michigan law provides for both one-man grand jury and also a panel of 23 citizens to sit as a grand jury. However, only the former is given the power to grant immunity.

Kavanagh suggests that the immunity power be vested in the multiple-man grand jury. He hopes that a system patterned after federal court procedure can be established. This would call for a citizens' panel to sit regularly four times each year.

Independent Merchant Challenged

Babson Park, Mass. — I am concerned about the facts of the independent retailer in today's highly competitive markets. He is not keeping pace with chain store operators who spend large sums of money or new equipment, new lighting, intensive advertising and promotion.

Costs Have Skyrocketed

Independent merchants must pay just as much as the large chain operators for advertising space in newspapers and magazines. Often they must pay more proportionately for goods they stock because they cannot buy in such large quantities as the chains. Also, independent retailers are faced with increasing demands for higher employee wages and greater fringe benefits after these concessions are obtained initially by employees of big stores. Too many independent retailers have already succumbed to these pressures.

These chains have helped mightily, however, in bringing down the total cost of distribution. Their savings in buying, in window dressing and display, they share with their customers. They have made and are making a great contribution to the betterment of the American way of life.

What Independent Retailers Can Now Do

The independent merchant who prefers waiting on customers to waiting for his turn at golf has little to worry about. There always will be a demand for this personal attention on the part of certain customers. They are willing to pay for this personal attention as well as for credit and delivery. Of course, the independent merchant must be willing to advertise and secure a good location with plenty of show windows, always kept attractive. To believe, however, that he is destined to be pushed out of business by department stores or chain stores or mail order houses is a mistaken idea.

Retailers can further be helped by the plans of the UNITED INFORMATION SERVICE, with headquarters at 6 Maiden Lane, New York City. This service enables consumers to learn quickly (any time between 6 a.m. and midnight) where they can get any desired merchandise. This shortens the time between the consumer's reading of an advertisement and his getting into a retail store. Cutting this time in half has the effect of doubling retail sales. Furthermore, it enables a group of merchants to save the expense of keeping open evenings by co-operating to concentrate evening inquiries through one channel.

Importance of Distribution

The rapid rise of our country to a position of world power and the simultaneous expansion of our industrial economy give ample evidence that we can produce above and beyond our needs. The war needs of ourselves and our allies provided a challenge in production. Wealth in abundance, in the form of goods and services, we have learned to produce.

However, we have been practically standing still in distribution, except for the development of the chain "5 and 10" variety stores, the chain supermarkets, and the chain drug stores. There, however, is much more to be done.

Selling Our Goods Abroad

In addition to making plans for easier and cheaper movement of our production into our domestic consumer channels, I forecast that we will also take steps to sell more American-made products abroad. These products are urgently needed in many parts of the world where disease is rampant because of food and other deficiencies. However, no plan has yet succeeded which would make surpluses in some nations available to needy people in other nations, without upsetting the economic balance between individual countries or groups of countries.

We must help solve the problem of the growing imbalance between the "have" and "have-not" nations. Communism has made great strides in Europe, Asia and Africa largely because Soviet leaders have been so successful in pointing to the "selfish and wasteful" living standards in the U.S. American movies shown abroad are largely responsible for this. Positive steps toward solving the problem of international distribution would thereby remove the greatest grievance upon which Communism feeds.

Cadillac

International Synonym for "Achievement"!

Mention the name "Cadillac" wherever you will—and in whatever part of the civilized world you might be—and you will find a common meeting-ground of understanding.

It is, in brief, a world-wide synonym for personal achievement!

And this is, we think, entirely logical. For over the years, the Cadillac car has played a vital role in the lives of so many of the leading citizens of every community where motor cars are seen.

Cadillac is, in fact, the almost predictable choice of those who choose without restriction.

This, of course, is not to say that a motorist need necessarily possess an abundance of this world's goods in order to enjoy the great and unduplicated satisfactions of Cadillac ownership.

Consider, for instance, the economy of buying a Cadillac. Several models are actually priced competitively with much smaller, lighter cars.

Consider the practical aspects of driving a Cadillac. The car is remarkably economical from a standpoint of both maintenance and operation.

And lastly, think of the wisdom of owning a Cadillac. Year after year, Cadillac returns a greater share of its owner's original investment than any other motor car in the land.

In other words, wisdom and practicality can lead you to the "car of cars" just as surely as prominence and prosperity.

We suggest that you come in soon—that you spend an hour at the wheel—and that you delay no longer in making the magic move to Cadillac. We'll be looking for you—soon.
