

Supreme Court Denies Northville Annexation Appeal

A request by the city of Northville to appeal a decision by Judge Clark J. Adams in the Novi township annexation issue was denied last week by the state supreme court.

The high court rendered its denial "without prejudice," leaving the way open for a later appeal should Northville lose its case in the annexation of 82 acres surrounding Amerman school.

City Attorney Philip Ogilvie appealed a decision by the Oakland county circuit judge which interpreted the right of a township to bring suit against annexation as a "citizen's." The area in dispute was annexed to Northville in an election last August 7. Novi township filed suit claiming the election invalid. The suit maintains that all citizens of the township, and not just residents of the area involved, should be allowed to vote.

Ogilvie made his request for appeal in December. The case must now return to the circuit court for trial, probably within one month.

In still another Northville-Novi annexation suit brought by Warren Products against Northville no decision has been made. Briefs by attorneys of both sides have been filed following trial by the Oakland circuit court. The 100 acres involved include the site of the Warren Products plant and the proposed 200-home subdivision of the D & R Building company.

R. D. Merriam Heads Recreation Group

R. D. Merriam was named chairman of the newly-appointed Northville Recreation committee at the group's first meeting last Thursday. Mrs. Alex M. Lawrence was named secretary.

Meeting with Stan Johnston, recreation director, and John Robertson, city manager, the committee reviewed the program and discussed the committee's role in assisting Johnston. The group expressed approval of Johnston's program to date.

Other committee members are Mayor Claude Ely, Richard Kay and Clayton Myers. The next meeting is scheduled for Saturday, March 2, at 10 a.m. in the Community Building.

Teen-age Activities Come Under Study

How late should your teen-age daughter stay out? What sort of things should you allow your son to do? What can Northville do to help its youth enjoy its leisure time?

These and other questions pertaining to "High School Youth Social Activities" will be discussed next Tuesday by any Northville adults who care to take the time.

Occasion for the discussion is another in a series of P-TA-sponsored "Parents' Night" programs. It will begin at 8 p.m. Tuesday in the community building.

Unlike past discussion programs in which high school teachers did the talking, the panel Tuesday will be composed of those who know best: the parents. The audience, too, will participate.

On the panel will be moderator Dr. Philip Brown, M.D., Mrs. Anthony Bertoni, George Hill, Mrs. Karl Karg, Mrs. Nelson Schrader and Adrian Willis.

According to Northville high school principal Elroy Ellison, the panel represents a cross-section of opinion and should make for a varied and valuable discussion.

Northville ministers also have been invited to attend as members of the audience. Ellison said it hoped that certain questions concerning conflicts between church and school activities can be worked out during the discussion.

Ellison stressed that all Northville adults, whether parents or not, are welcome at the meeting. He added, however, that teenagers themselves have not been invited to the meeting. High school students discussed the same question themselves recently, he said.

Ellison said the topic was decided on after P-TA members heard of several U.S. communities which have set up programs of controlling and organizing teenage activities through cooperation among parents, youngsters and civic leaders.

Officers of Northville's Red Cross branch are: Mrs. Arthur Carlson, chairman; Mrs. C. C. Winter, co-chairman; Mrs. Richard Nash, Volunteer Service chairman; Mrs. Don Severance, secretary; Mrs. Samuel Geraci, treasurer; Charles Carrington, Disaster Chairman; A. E. Jones, co-chairman; Ruth Knapp, Junior Red Cross; Mrs. Edith McKenna, canteen; Mrs. Donald Secord, co-chairman; and Mrs. William Cansfield, home service.

Mrs. Emma Reid, Mrs. Clifford Turnbull and Mrs. J. R. Cunningham are members of the board of directors.

Home Construction Up In City, Township in '56

Construction of new homes in most of Wayne county fell off sharply in 1956, but showed minor increases in Northville and Northville township.

Figures released this week show that some 72 percent more were issued in Northville last year than in 1955 and about three percent more in Northville township.

In all of Wayne county, however, there was a staggering 35 percent drop in new construction. Specifically, Northville issued 19 permits last year as against eight in 1955. This compares with 22 in 1954, 12 in 1953 and 24 in 1952. Total for the 1951-1956 period was 110.

In Northville township, 39 permits were issued last year as against 38 in 1955. In 1954 the figure was 38 and in 1953 it was 34. Total for 1951-1956 was 220. Regardless of continued growth in the city and township, the overall figures for Wayne county showed that new permits dropped from 18,416 in 1955 to 14,334 last year.

Though Northville and Northville township both showed gains, they did not place high among county municipalities in actual numbers of permits. Northville township ranked 34th among the 46 municipalities, while Northville itself was 41st.

Biggest gainers were Dearborn (2,538), Detroit (2,106) and Nankin township (1,711). These three also led the entire metropolitan area.

Pool in High School Is Best Solution, Says State Official

"The best and most economical way for the citizens of the Northville community to enjoy the facilities of a public swimming pool would be to incorporate them into the new high school."

This is the opinion of Ernest V. Blohm, executive secretary of the Inter-Agency Council for Recreation, who addressed members of the Community Study Group at a public meeting Tuesday evening.

The Inter-Agency Council for Recreation, a state agency representing 19 different state departments which have some interest in recreation, functions as a coordinating council to insure maximum public use of experience and counseling available from the state government.

"Adding a pool to the high school would avoid duplicating such facilities as locker rooms, showers and plumbing," Blohm said, "and would be available for swimming the year round." He quoted a minimum cost for such a project at $70,000.

He also observed that in other communities the size of Northville and larger, indoor pools over 150 feet long or meeting Olympic requirements, 42x165 feet) have adequately served the needs of the community.

An outdoor pool, he said, would have a higher initial cost and would be available, at most, for 12 weeks of the year.

Present at the meeting was school board president Robert Coolman, who explained that the board of education was definitely not opposed to a swimming pool in the high school, but that the method of financing the school did not permit the incorporation of a pool into the building. "There are specific rules governing the use of money from a bond issue," he said.

The invitation to Blohm to speak to the study group was an effort on the part of the group to learn more on the subject of public swimming facilities. They pointed out that they are not attempting to sponsor or advocate a public swimming pool, but merely desired to learn more about the costs of such programs and their histories in other communities. Ed Welch served as chairman for the meeting.

Northville Discards Help Handicapped

Northville was given an inside look this week at the volume of business done by Goodwill Industries.

The organization's annual report said 277,242 Goodwill bags and 83,421 pieces of furniture were given by residents of the Detroit area in 1956.

In addition, 172,000 other items — including toys, small appliances and tools — were received. Goodwill Industries collects discarded which are renovated by physically handicapped employees and sold in the organization's own retail stores. Goodwill employed 705 handicapped people last year, 285 of whom were rehabilitated and found jobs in private industry.

In all, some 200,000 householders contributed discarded and nearly 500 women donated time and service.

The report said $931,328 was paid to the handicapped personnel.

Decision Awaited On Fall Race Dates

State racing commissioner James Inglis was scheduled yesterday to hear further reasons why Northville Downs should have additional harness racing dates this fall.

A hearing last Wednesday ended in "no decision" as it became involved with a number of other racing problems.

The request for 30 days of racing beginning October 7 has been made by two Michigan horsemen. The extra days would be in addition to the 38 spring nights of racing already granted to the Downs.

Primary Balloting Light As Voters Stay at Home

A TRIO OF GOOD CITIZENS — With George Washington's birthday coming up tomorrow, three Main Street school students were named by their classmates as most representative of the ideals set forth by the father of the U.S. Here are pictured Douglas Clark and Linda Green. Also named as a good citizen of the school was Robert Sproule.

Staman Wins in Novi Primary

Novi township Republicans gave supervisor Frazer Staman a strong vote of confidence Monday, but tempered it by naming four political opponents as his major running mates in the April township election.

Staman received nearly as many votes for supervisor nomination as his two competitors combined.

Elsewhere in the township primary Monday, Novi Democrats endorsed their unopposed slate and filled in several vacancies with write-in votes.

The record vote also saw the controversial "race track rezoning" gain public approval by a 382-351 margin.

Staman's personal victory was equaled by only one other major candidate on his slate, Frank Clark, long-time supervisor and trustee, led the field of seven candidates and gained nomination for a third term as trustee.

The remaining four major candidates were filled by a young group of township Republicans who campaigned vigorously against Staman's slate in pre-primary electioneering. They are: incumbent Hadley Bachert for clerk and newcomers Ray Harrison for treasurer, Stanley Barderson for justice of the peace. As a result of the primary, the Republican board — if elected in April, and if political wounds are not healed by then — would presumably be lined up 3-2 against Staman. This contrasts with recent months, in which Staman had a 3-2 board majority behind him.

Opposing the Republican slate April 1 will be a Democratic ticket composed of Herbert Koesler for supervisor, Mrs. Sylvia Klerkx for clerk, Kenneth DeHayes for treasurer, Eugene Martin and L. G. Biri for trustee and Joseph Ardito for justice of the peace.

Mrs. Klerkx was a write-in candidate with one vote. Clerk Hadley Bachert said the total turnout of 1,249 is believed to be the largest for any primary in Novi history. It represented about half of the registered voters.

In other communities, the turnout Monday ranged around the 15 percent mark. The defeat of incumbent justice of the peace Edmund Yerkes was regarded as the major surprise of the primary. Yerkes had served as Novi justice continuously since 1935 before being upset Monday by Anderson, a young attorney who had not held political office before.

Novi township supervisor Frazer Staman but had not arrived at an evaluation of the area. A committee composed of Councilmen Reed and Stubenvoll along with Ogilvie and Robertson recently worked with Northville township in the settlement of assets. They were directed by Mayor Ely to act for the city in the Novi division.

Robertson also reported that applications were now being considered by Chief Joseph Denton for a patrolman. The new man will replace Alex Funke, who resigned.

Before the meeting closed councilmen expressed the urgency of developing a new water well site. They directed the city manager to make arrangements with officials of the D & R building company for selection of a well site in their new subdivision area.

Councilman John Canterbury pointed to Detroit as a possible source for water. He urged examination of this potential as a future solution to Northville's growing need for water.

After reviewing the ordinance and amendments the council directed City Attorney Philip Ogilvie to inspect the amendments before the next meeting when adoption is expected.

Mayor Claude Ely directed the city manager to arrange a meeting with Novi township over the division of assets of Oakwood subdivision. The area, lying in Novi township, was a part of the village of Northville and incorporated into the city in 1955. Robertson reported to the council that he had met briefly with Less than 10 per cent of the registered voters in the city and township of Northville bothered to record their preference in a colorless primary election Monday.

The race for county auditor and eight circuit court judge nominations attracted 137 city and 109 township voters to the polls. The city has 1,938 registered voters and the township 1,641.

It was a marked contrast to the November presidential election which saw 1,783 and 1,341 township voters stream to the polls for a record turnout.

In the circuit court race both city and township voters selected the eight candidates who subsequently won county-wide support for nomination. Their top choice, however, was Judge George E. Bowles, Plymouth attorney, who led the 11 candidates with 96 votes in the city and 80 in the township. Bowles finished third in final county tabulations.

For auditor Republican Thomas Ledbetter, running as the lone nominee, topped most votes with 66 in the city and 62 in the township. Charles Edgcomb, who won county nomination on the Democratic ballot, received 32 votes in both the city and township.

An interesting sidelight to the primary, pointed out by City Clerk Mary Alexander, was the approximate cost of conducting the election to the city. On the basis of the number of votes cast, Northville paid about $2.00 per voter.

Local voters will go to the polls again on April 1 when interest will be stirred by a city council race. Also on the ballot will be the eight circuit court nominees who will vie for four bench posts and the Ledbetter-Edgcomb auditor contest. Township officials will be returned to office without competition, leaving only the circuit court and auditor positions to be decided.

No Sentence Yet For Mrs. Chauvin

County probation officials are still investigating the case of Mrs. Yvonne Chauvin, the elderly woman accused of swindling Northville residents of thousands of dollars.

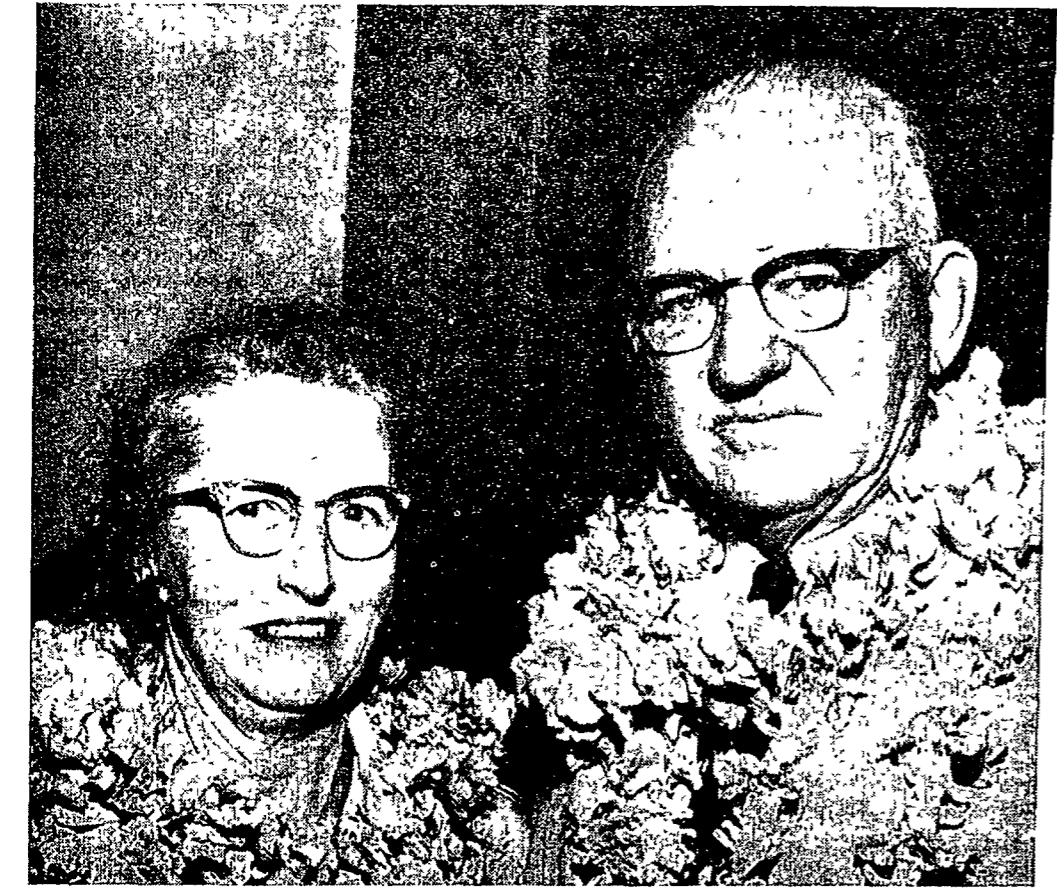

Mrs. Chauvin has pleaded guilty to the charge, but cannot be sentenced until the probation investigation is complete.

According to a spokesman at Wayne county circuit court, Mrs. Chauvin will be sentenced in the court of Judge Frank Fitzgerald. Meanwhile, Mrs. Chauvin is being held in Wayne county jail. She presumably will be returned to Detroit House of Correction to serve her sentence.

It was from DeHoCo that Mrs. Chauvin came to Northville in April last year. Upon her arrival, she admittedly began a "confidence game" that netted her at least $4,500 and possibly much more.

Novi Highlights

Robert Harold, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Orzechowski, was baptized in the Lutheran church at South Lyon Sunday. A dinner was held at the home of Robert Harold's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Miller, for 22 relatives after the services. The godparents are Russell Mair, Edna Miller and Pearl Ross. The dress Robert wore was made from his great-grandmother's wedding gown, and is about 68 years old.

Mrs. Harold Miller celebrated her birthday on Monday at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Erwin. Other guests were Mrs. David O'Leary and Mrs. Viola Seeley. In the evening the Harold Millers had dinner with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Orzechowski Sunday evening. Mrs. Miller's sister, Mildred Main, came in with a birthday cake.

Around 200 attended the golden wedding celebration for Mr. and Mrs. A. McCollum on Sunday. They came from Detroit, Mt. Clemens, Pontiac, Novi and Northville. The McCollums received congratulatory telegrams and flowers from New York and Florida.

Brownie leaders and committee members will also be selling, but Brownie scouts may not go door-to-door, but may accept orders from relatives and neighbors through their leaders.

Anyone desiring to purchase cookies who has not been called upon by a scout may order them through Mrs. Robert Skellinger, Northville 995-R12.

Novi firemen were commended this week for their quick action in saving a Walled Lake home from burning down Friday after it was at first believed doomed.

Only the second floor was burned in a house at 1929 West Lake Drive.

Owners of the home are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beebe. Mrs. Beebe and three children were home when the blaze broke out, but escaped safely.

Novi director of public safety Lee BeGole said bystanders assisted firemen until reinforcements arrived. They helped break out ladders, unfurl hose and get equipment into position.

The fire was caused by a defective chimney, according to a state fire marshal representative. It had been believed that spontaneous combustion caused it.

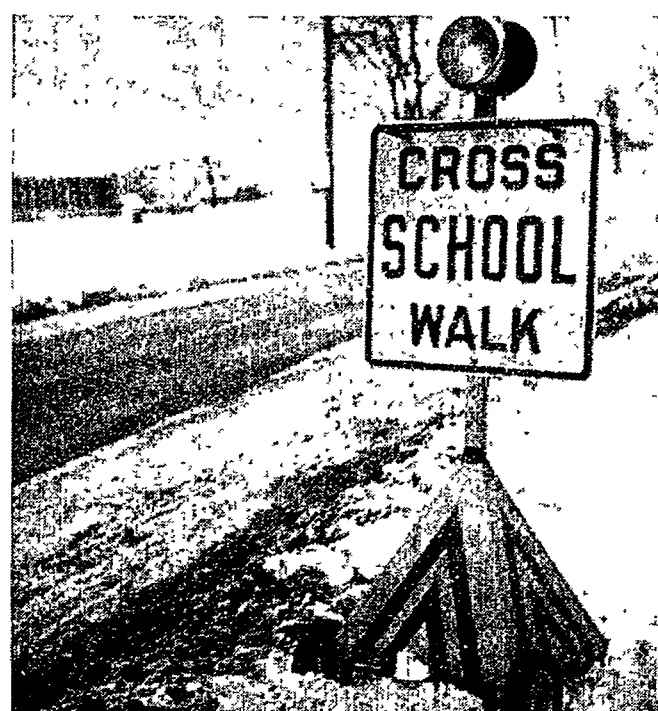

The fire marshal investigator and insurance adjusters were unanimous in their praise of the Novi department for stopping the blaze after it had enveloped the entire upper story.

District Governor at Exchange Induction

Eugene King was inducted into the Northville Exchange club last week in ceremonies presided over by district governor Fred Levely of Wyandotte.

Stan Balon Thanks the Voters of Novi

Your vote in the primary election of last Monday was your right to express a choice...the placing of your confidence in the person voted for and with this in mind I hasten to express my gratitude to the citizens of Novi Township for nominating me on the Republican ticket as one of your selections for Trustee on the April ballot.

STAN BALON

(Pd. Pol. Adv.)

A STATEMENT TO THE CITIZENS OF NOVI

I want to thank all the fine people who supported me in the primary. I do thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Now Novi has spoken, let's all take heed and get behind the winners and put them over in April. That is my idea of democracy in action.

I personally had a lot of fun and met a lot of fine neighbors; yes, I learned something, too. That is, that the guys and dolls of Novi ain't going to let some unbranded maverick jump the fence and get in their corral. That is the way it should be.

I wonder if Novi is ready to become a village? I wish all of you people would drop me a card and let me know how you feel about it. I think we should begin to plan something soon or we are going to be annexed. So please, send a card to Frank L. Davis, 22001 Beck road and frankly state your position. I would appreciate it a lot. Yours for a bigger and better Novi.

Notice Is Hereby Given That I Will Be at the Following Places on

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1957, from 2 to 5,
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1957 from 2 to 5,
FRIDAY, APRIL 1, 1957 from 2:00 to 5:00,

AND ON

Monday, March 4, 1957 — Last Day
The Thirtieth day preceding said Election

AS PROVIDED BY SECTION 498, ACT NO. 116, PUBLIC ACTS OF 1954

From 8 o'clock a.m. until 8 o'clock p.m. on each said day for the purpose of REVIEWING the REGISTRATION and REGISTERING such of the qualified electors in said TOWNSHIP, CITY or VILLAGE as SHALL PROPERLY apply therefor.

The name of no person but an ACTUAL RESIDENT of the precinct at the time of registration, and entitled under the constitution, if remaining such resident, to vote at the next election, shall be entered in the registration book.

Elector Unable To Make Personal Application, Procedure

SEC. 504. Any elector who is unable to make personal application for registration because of physical disability or absence from the Township, City or Village in which his legal residence is located may be registered prior to the close of registration before any election or primary election by securing from the Clerk of the Township, City or Village in which is located his legal residence, duplicate registration cards and executing in duplicate the registration affidavit before a notary public or other officer legally authorized to administer oaths and returning such registration cards to the Clerk of the Township, City or Village before the close of office hours on the last day of registration prior to any election or primary election. The notary public or other officer administering the oath shall sign his name on the line for the signature of the registration officer and designate his title.

Unregistered Persons Not Entitled To Vote

SEC. 491. The inspectors of election at any election or primary election in this State, or in any District, County, Township, City or Village thereof, shall not receive the vote of any person whose name is not registered in the registration book of the Township, Ward or Precinct in which he offers to vote. (As provided under Act 116, P.A. 1954.)

Transfer of Registration, Application, Time

SEC. 508. Any registered elector may upon change of residence within the Township, City or Village cause his registration to be transferred to his new address by sending to the Clerk a signed request, stating his present address, the date he moved thereto, and the address from which he was last registered, or by applying in person for a transfer. The Clerk shall strike through the last address, ward and precinct number and record the new address, ward and precinct number on the original and duplicate registration cards, and shall place the original registration card in proper precinct file. Such transfers shall not be made within the (30) days next preceding any election or primary election, (unless such 30th day shall fall on Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday in which event registration shall be accepted during the next full working day), provided that no such transfer shall permit any person to vote in any Township, City or Village in which he had not resided (30) days next preceding any election or primary election.

Transfer of Registration On Election Day

SEC. 507. Any registered elector who has removed from one election precinct of a Township, City or Village to another election precinct of the same Township, City or Village shall have the right to make application to have his registration transferred on any election or primary election day by executing a request over his or her signature for such transfer and presenting the same to the election board in the precinct in which he is registered. Upon receiving such request the inspector of election in charge of the registration records shall compare the signature thereon with the signature upon the applicant's registration record and if the signatures correspond then the inspector shall certify such fact upon said request and the applicant for transfer shall then be permitted to vote in such precinct for that election only. The application for transfer shall be filed with the Township, City or Village Clerk who shall transfer such voter's registration in accordance with the application. When the name of any street in a Township, City or Village has been changed, it shall be the duty of the Township, City or Village Clerk to make the change to show the proper name of street in the registration records, and it shall not be necessary for the elector to change his registration with respect thereto in order to be eligible to vote.

Exchange Club's Eye Examinations Aid 10 in 1956

Ten children of the Northville area were provided with eye examinations and glasses in 1956 by the local Exchange club.

The children, all of grade school age, received the attention through the club's visual rehabilitation program. In some cases the aid enabled them to see details of distant objects and provided normal sight at "black-board ranges." Others, who would not have received relief without the club's examination, had suffered from daily headaches and discomfort from close work.

For 15 years the Exchange club has underwritten the cost of eye examination service for needy children as a public service. All referrals through the Exchange club were cleared and authorized by Elroy Ellison and Merritt Meaker. Nurse Ruth Knapp examined specific reports of each child and expedited care.

Northville Schools Receive $7,878

Michigan Bell officials said this week that $7,878 of the company's tax payment to the state primary school fund went to Northville public schools.

According to district manager Robert Maurer, Michigan Bell paid out $9,792,322 in state property taxes — the largest amount in its history.

Bell, along with railroads and utilities, pays a primary school fund tax in lieu of other property taxes.

Schools throughout Wayne county, including those in Northville, received $3,291,547 from Michigan Bell's payment, Maurer said.

The payments were based on a school census of 1,467 in Northville and 612,971 in Wayne county, he added.

Divided by the state school census of 1,823,080, the tax amounted to $5.37 for each youngster in the state between the ages of five and 19, Maurer said.

Two Films Tonight At Camera Club

Two slide-and-tape recording presentations will be given at tonight's meeting of the Northville Adult Camera club at the library.

"Table Top Tricks" by LaVerne Bovair, FPSA, illustrates how Bovair creates realistic table tops in both black and white and color. A master in the art of deception, Bovair makes models seem like the real thing.

Each member or guest is invited to bring four slides of table top subjects to be shown.

LIFE'S SHORT DAY

Five persons were asked the following question by Chicago Tribune's Inquiring Camera girl, "Are you doing what you really want to do with your life?" A railroad rate clerk, a building engineer, a building owner & manager, a theater manager all answered "No".

A dress shop manager was the only one who said, "Yes, I am." I do not know if this would prove to be the average ratio, but we do not know that many people are forced through circumstances to accept positions which are not of their own choosing. It is regrettable that life's short day must be spent without being able to do with their lives what they really want to. But it is even more regrettable when one spends his entire life on earth without ever having rendered service for God and for eternity. We have seen the motto, "Only one life, 'twill soon be past, only what's done for Christ will last." In Colossians 3:23 we have this exhortation, "And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as unto the Lord, and unto men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance; for ye serve the Lord Christ." Our first service is to be a witness of the glorious gospel of Christ. Is this your aim in life?

Educator Says:

Hope for Better Education Lies with Aroused Public

Editor's Note: F. R. Sproule of West Six Mile road, recently attended the 18th annual Citizens' Conference on Education in Lansing. For residents of the area concerned with the problems of education, we publish his report of the meeting.

On February 5, a record crowd of delegates from every part of the state overflowed the auditorium and strained the facilities of Lansing's great civic center.

Before splitting into study groups the 1,200 delegates were welcomed by Gov. Williams and State School Superintendent Clair Taylor, who both said that such a large turnout indicated a heartening awareness of the vital importance of education in Michigan.

The Governor took time out of a busy day, with the Legislature in session, to talk at length about matters concerning education. He dwelt particularly on the fact that people must learn they have to pay if they are to have good schools. He pointed out that while the taxpayer's tab, today, for such services as education looks big, actually it amounts to a lower percentage of the citizens' income than 9 years ago. The inference was that perhaps if we were willing to devote as great a share of our income to education now as we did 9 years ago, the financial problem would be solved.

The theme of the meeting was "Town Meetings Today — Better Community Schools Tomorrow." Dr. Ernest O. Melby, Distinguished Visiting Professor, College of Education, Michigan State University, stirred the delegates by making an eloquent case for the power of an aroused citizenry as the only answer to the problems of education today, citing examples to prove his point. "All problems of education will never be solved by educators," Dr. Melby concluded.

This view was strongly supported by Dr. Wenge of Wayne State University, who said: "The quality of education in the schools of a community can never rise above the level of the desires of the citizens in that community. Even if we had all the buildings we could possibly use, all the finest equipment, all the qualified teachers and all the money we need, I would still be uneasy about the future of education in Michigan unless there was a high degree of citizen interest and participation in school affairs. It is not only the privilege, it is actually the duty of citizens to take a voice in school affairs and to determine what their children shall be taught." Mention was made, also, of the desirability of having a permanent citizens committee to advise the school board. Such a committee has been operating in Traverse City 9 years it was said, with obviously excellent results. Another point stressed was that good schools are a good investment, even for the childless taxpayer.

As expected, no great progress was made toward solving education's problems. Rather, the purpose was to discuss, and to carry home a knowledge of the problems and the method for solving them — that is, citizen participation, in an education-centered community.

On the subject of curriculum, which is the chief concern right now of our Northville citizens advisory group, conclusions were that the PTA should promote discussions between teachers and parents so that both could agree on purposes and methods; children should be consulted, but not allowed to decide what will be taught; a partial return to positive methods ("drill") so as to ensure a better grasp of the three R's; more specific science and math courses as against "general science" and "general math"; integrate character education with the curriculum (no need to change the curriculum for this); make sure the student understands our form of government, and the free enterprise economic system. One PTA representative reported successful use of a speaker from industry who is critical of the reading or other basic skills of a high school graduate. After he has had his say, teachers and parents join in a discussion and try to formulate an answer or a solution satisfactory to both groups.

As a fitting end piece we quote Cedric Foster, speaking over radio the same day as the Lansing conference: "We are in a great, world-wide struggle with Communism. In the last analysis education is the weapon that will win or lose it. The teachers are our first line of defense. Let's give them the position of honor they deserve."

$40,000 Needed In Easter Seals, Stubenvoll Says

Some $40,000 will be needed in 1957 if crippled children in the Wayne out-county area are to receive the care necessary for their rehabilitation.

Setting that amount as the goal for the annual Easter Seal campaign, John E. Stubenvoll, Northville campaign chairman, said crippled children and adults in the area depend upon the generosity of Easter Seal contributors to bring them care, treatment and other services.

"In 1957 more funds are needed to make possible growth and expansion to meet the demands for services created by increased numbers of crippled persons," Stubenvoll said.

Easter seals, which will be placed in the mail about March 15, symbolize 36 years of service to the crippled by the Easter Seal Societies nation-wide. Campaign contributions this year will support and maintain the following services to the handicapped: braces, crutches, wheelchairs, diagnostic clinic fees, occupational therapy to the homebound, day camp for crippled children, recreational program for teenagers and adults and educational assistance.

The 1957 appeal is scheduled March 15 to April 21.

Holly and Clarkston Lower Boom on Mustangs Tie for League Title Now Seems Likely

The Northville Mustangs will have to wait for another week before knowing how they will finish in the Wayne-Oakland league final standings, but the odds are that they will end up in a tie with Clarkston for the title.

The Mustangs play non-conference Thurston here tomorrow night, and will not play their finale with West Bloomfield until next Friday.

Meanwhile, surprising Clarkston will end its season tomorrow night against Holly. A win for the Wolves would assure them of a tie for the championship even if Northville wins the following week.

The league race, which had been a walkaway for the Mustangs until they fell apart and lost two successive games last week, is now deadlocked between the two clubs, each with 9-2 records.

The question bothering local cage fans this week — in addition to "What happened to the Mustangs?" — has been "Where did Clarkston come from?" The Wolves, behind at the start of the season, have suddenly developed into the hottest club in the league.

Paced by a transfer student from Oxford, the Wolves have not lost a game since their earlier 43-37 defeat by Northville. Their current six game winning streak includes four games in which they hit more than 70 points.

Northville, in the meantime, has had to work for every one of its victories in the second round of league play. The pressure apparently caught up with the Mustangs last week.

Holly Held to 1 Point As Colts Split Pair

The Northville Colts split their two games last week, and managed to hold the Holly junior varsity to a fantastic one point during the entire first half.

The Colts dumped Holly, 51-16, and then lost to the Clarkston junior varsity, 42-37.

Fred Schwarze topped Northville with 12 points against Holly. Nelson Schrader led the Colts against Clarkston with 12.

The win and loss give Coach Al Jones' squad an 8-5 record for the season.

damage to the Mustangs. They stopped Northville's win streak at 10, ruined the team's fifth-place rating in the state and deadlocked the first-place race in the Wayne-Oakland league.

Northville probably now will have to settle for a tie for the title with Clarkston. Each team has one remaining game.

Holly was the first to knock off the Mustangs, who hadn't been beaten since their opener with Plymouth. The Hollyites dropped a 66-61 defeat on the heads of Northville Tuesday night.

But the real blockbuster came at Clarkston Friday night, when the, miraculously improved Wolves ran Northville off its feet and came off the court with a startling 72-48 triumph.

In both games the Mustangs were unable to take the early lead that has been a key to their success through the season. They were down six and seven points at the half in each contest.

Against Holly, Northville put on a 19-point final period surge to come close to winning. But against Clarkston, the Mustangs spurred only in the second quarter. In the final half, it was the Wolves all the way.

The 24-point loss to Clarkston could be laid partially to the Mustangs' own inability to hit the basket — as they connected on only 25 percent of their shots, slipping to 16 percent in the last quarter.

Penalties played a big part in the Holly loss. By game's end, three starters — forward Charles Gow and guards Bud Bell and Mac Burns — had heard fifth whistles blown on them.

Most individual averages suffered in the two contests, although towering forward Jeff Goodrich managed to sink 19 and 11 points to lead his team both times. In the Clarkston game, Goodrich was the only Northville player to hit double figures.

Northville Coach Stan Johnston was forced to use more players in the games than he had used in previous contests. Eight entered the Holly game, and nine went against Clarkston. But even the short breath-catchers didn't put much pep into the Mustangs.

Clarkston used a tactic that had nearly brought victory to other Mustang opponents this season: trying to rush Northville dizzy. This time it worked, as the slow-moving and deliberate Mustangs were not able to keep pace with the whirling Wolves.

The question now is: what will these two giant-killers do when they meet each other head-on tomorrow night? Northville will be hoping that Holly can knock off another title-contender.

Lions to Appear on Court Here March 6

THE DETROIT LIONS will make a try at basketball in Northville next month when they meet a squad of NHS coaches and other local basketball stars in the Community Building. Among the Lions who will appear in the Exchange club event will be (left to right) Charlie Ane, Sonny Gandee, Dorne Dibble and Norm Swanson.

The Detroit Lions will be in Northville in a couple weeks — but they'll be here to show their basketball skills, not football.

The Lions will meet a squad of local cagers in the Northville Community Building on March 6.

Among the hulking Lion stars who will take to the court will be Jug Girard, Charlie Ane, Dorne Dibble, Sonny Gandee and Norm Swanson.

They will oppose a team made up of Northville high school coaches and other Northville personalities. The entire team will be announced later.

Sponsored by the Northville Exchange club, the event will provide funds for the club's charitable activities. Tickets may be purchased from Exchange club members or at the door.

"The Lions don't claim to be as expert at basketball as they are at football," said Doug Slessor, Exchange club chairman for the event. "But they all played basketball during their college days, and will be far from a pushover."

Slessor explained that the Lions' tour is part of their program of keeping in good physical shape during the off-season.

FEBRUARY THOUGHTS

"For who hath despised the day of small things?" The month of February is not a period of small things; although it is the smallest month of the year. Many of us can remember these lines which help us to keep our mental calendar straight:

"Thirty days hath September, April, June, and November, February has twenty eight alone, All the rest have thirty-one; Excepting leap year, — that's the time When February's days are twenty nine."

The second cycle of the moon around the earth in our calendar year is one sparkling with the thoughts of great things — Boy Scouts, Valentine's Day, Great Statesmen, Race Relations and Brotherhood. The ideals and virtues associated with these events form the theme of banquets, sermons and colorful pageantry.

The privilege of being a Boy Scout is second only to being born and reared in the country. Although, God speaks to us through conscience, the Bible, Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit; yet, we must confess that His footprints are in the sand and His sense of beauty in the starry heavens above and the landscape beneath. We often sense the majestic presence of God as we view the stars marching by. Teaching our boys the wonders of nature and reverence toward God and man will certainly lift their morals and develop an humanitarian spirit. The all-inclusive nature of scouting makes it religious but not especially Christian. Christianity is Christo-centric; Scouting is theocentric. Especially fortunate is the boy who has a man of unquestionable Christian character to lead him in ways of righteousness. May our churches furnish more leaders to this organization of which we can be proud.

A letter sent on Valentine's Day usually conveys the thought of high regard; but sometimes it is an expression of ridicule. The Day says to everyone of us, "Have a heart!" This virtue was beautifully exemplified by our President as he was host to King Saud of Saudi Arabia. The courtesy extended to the Prince in making arrangements for medical service at Walter Reed's Hospital reveals the heart of the great leader.

The world and especially these United States have had a difficult time in working out Lincoln's definition of a true democracy — "a government of the people, by the people and for the people." Another indispensable conviction of his which must be acquired by our world statesmen if our trouble seas are to be quieted, is "Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith, let us to the end, dare to do our duty, as we understand it." Lincoln, whose inauguration was witnessed by more living ex-presidents than at any time in our country's history, spoke and lived like the Man of Galilee "with malice toward none; with charity for all." May we remember that his birthday ushered in to the world a man who preserved the birthday of a nation.

Several years ago a census taker came to our door and asked me the ages of my children. When I came to my son, I replied, "He was born on George Washington's birthday." The census taker was embarrassed at his lack of knowledge of American history, for he didn't know. George Washington, dropping to his knees at Valley Forge and his insistence on having his slaves baptized, gives us an insight into his sense of dependence upon the Almighty and the value he placed upon the souls of his servants.

February is Brotherhood month. The influence of the Scout movement, the heart of Valentine's Day, and the contribution of America's two greatest statesmen — Abraham Lincoln and George Washington have done much to establish better race relations. Lincoln still "walks at midnight." Boys of different colored skin, earning merit badges together, should receive their God and Country awards at the same altar. "Have a heart" is the cry from many lands. As good Americans we are our "brother's keeper."

Our local church was greatly enriched on Race Relations Sunday when we exchanged pulpits and choirs with the Berea Methodist Church (colored), Highland Park. It was a privilege to minister to and clasp hands in Christian fellowship. We felt again the truth of John Oxenham's hymn:

"In Christ there is no East or West
In Him no South or North;
But one great fellowship of love
Throughout the whole wide earth;

Jo'n hands, then, brothers of the faith,
What-er your race may be,
Who serves my Father as a son
Is surely kin to me." AMEN

How can we expect another to keep our secret if we cannot keep it ourselves?

Let's Watch Our Manners

It is a well-known fact that conditions in our high school are crowded and extreme.

Too many people are crammed into too few spaces, and the halls are too narrow for the amount of foot traffic that continuously passes through them. But in spite of all this, students and teachers alike have not been unwilling to endure these hardships because of the general practice of good citizenship.

However, it seems a few students have failed to uphold our standards of courtesy. Most of our students realize the need for excellent manners, and as a result, travel as politely as the limited time permits.

But there exists in the minority a number of students who persist in disregarding the feelings of others. To such people, the bell is a signal to charge through the halls like chickens with their heads cut off. Even these rude actions might be overlooked if they were confined to the student body. But some of our teachers have been bumped, tripped and shoved, without so much as a passing "Excuse me."

An amusing incident is brought to mind of a teacher who taught one of her students an embarrassing and much-needed lesson. During one of the homeroom periods, a student bumped into the teacher so soundly, she was knocked to the floor. There, she was left to pick herself up as best she was able. With a gnashing of teeth, she resolved to teach that young upstart a lesson he would not forget. The ringing of the bell found our heroine firmly planted in the entrance to the classroom. Along came the offender and before he realized what was happening, he found himself neatly tripped and deposited upon the floor. Came the timely statement, "Young man, maybe next time you'll know enough to mind your manners."

It might be well to keep this thought in mind — better to keep one's friends and be late than to lose them for the sake of being early.

Orders Being Taken For "Palladium"

Have you bought your Palladium yet?

Charles Yahne, in cooperation with the Student Council members, has been busy taking orders. It is being done at this early date because a definite number of desired yearbooks has to be set before the final order can be sent to press.

The printing and distribution process will take about two and one-half months, which means the students will be receiving their copies sometime in May.

Driver Training Held After Hours

Driver training cars will now be seen around town after school as well as during school hours. This is an extra course since the daytime course is now too filled to accommodate more students.

Monday, February 11, the class started and 28 students are now enrolled. The classes will be held regularly and conducted as the other daytime class are. Al Jones and Mr. Hensch will be the instructors.

The classes will run from 4:30 to 5:30 after school and students will use two cars, switching off from one to the other to accustom themselves to automatic and regular shift.

Forensic Club Sees Play at Wayne

Last Thursday the Forensic club of Northville high school journeyed to Wayne State university to view a production of the play, "Theebs' Carnival", by Jean Anouilh.

The presentation of the play was given by Wayne students and it was enjoyed by the club, whose aim is to study, learn and appreciate drama.

"Hoof Prints"

"Mustang Hoof Prints" is prepared and written by the Northville high school students under the supervision of Miss Florence Panatoni.

Students Plan and Prepare Full Course Meal at School

Turkey and baked ham, plus all the trimmings! No, it wasn't Christmas, or Easter either.

About a week ago, the students of Miss Corrine Clark's Home Family Living class decided they would like to have a bit of experience in the process of planning and preparing a full course meal.

Since a bit of finance was involved, they sought and gained the permission to take the needed money from school funds rather than from their own pockets. This done, the class divided up into groups of six one boy and five girls to each. Each group took it upon themselves the responsibility for one phase of the dinner.

When the final day arrived, some of the students came to school early to start the meat cooking and to get the preliminary preparations under way. They spent their free periods throughout the day completing the last minute touches.

When seventh hour finally arrived, the class indulged themselves in a tempting display of the afore-mentioned meats, scalloped potatoes, vegetable salad, waldorf salad, French garlic bread and two types of cake.

Student Council Is Kept Busy

Revising the Student Council charter, enforcing laws, planning the sale of peanuts for polio and taking student pictures — this is some of the business that has been keeping the Northville high school student council busy.

The two main projects are the sale of peanuts and revising the charter. For two weeks student council members have been raising money for the polio drive by selling peanuts during the basketball games and during lunch hours.

A second major project is revision of the charter. Each member read the charter, and the student council then formed a committee to recommend necessary changes.

The policy of insurance so deposited shall contain a clause, obligating the company issuing the same to give ten (10) days written notice to the City Clerk before cancellation thereof. Whereupon after ten (10) days such license shall cease to operate or cause to be operated with the city of Northville such taxicab and the license therefor shall be automatically revoked and liability on such policy shall cease and terminate, provided that the liability of the insurance company thereon for any act or omission of the license occurring prior to the effective date of cancellation shall not be thereby discharged or impaired.

Action for Lindemer

A BIG TEST for the new Republican state chairman, Lawrence B. Lindemer, comes right on the heels of his election as Michigan's GOP chief.

April 1, the Republicans will muster all strength to prevent Democrats from capturing their last two seats on the state administrative board — Highway Commissioner and Superintendent of Public Instruction.

It's a tough assignment. The Democratic powerhouse led by Governor Williams has proven strength. Unlike the fall elections, the Democrats also have a natural offensive position. The Republicans hold the major offices up for election, and they must defend their administration of these offices.

Confident optimism seems to prevail in the GOP. Lindemer, 35, represents the "New Guard" Republicanism. His strategy is to bring Eisenhower concepts to the state and county level.

"It's a working theory of government which ties in the rights of the individual with responsibilities of the individual," he told party leaders at the Republican state convention.

Republican leaders agree that the party must be strongly organized from the grass root levels up. They believe Lindemer can do the job. Lindemer has strong faith in his own abilities.

Plans are under consideration to make Lindemer's chairmanship a full time position. (Former state chairman John Feikens was paid $75 a day, but only for the days he actually spent working.) A full time staff may be organized.

While the April 1 test is a big one, that election won't be a "true test" of Lindemer's ability. The time is too short to build a complete organization.

Lindemer recognizes that much of Williams' political success comes through campaign tactics waged between elections. Lindemer wants a permanent organization that can meet the governor on equal ground.

BESIDES TAXES, paychecks, education and tatonage are some of the many subjects covered in bills awaiting legislative action in Lansing. Some will pass. Most will never receive favorable committee action or come before the legislature as a whole.

Higher pay for state administrative offices are in a bill introduced by six members of the House of Representatives. Salaries of $17,500 are asked for the Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Highway Commissioner, the Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor General and Attorney General. Except for the first two, the increases would not take effect until 1959.

In addition, Rep. George Salade (R-An Arbor) is asking that the Highway Commissioner post be taken out of politics by creating an appointive commission of seven members. In turn, they would be empowered to appoint a Highway Commissioner. But it is so close to a new election that such a change will probably not take effect for another four years, even if it is approved now.

Community colleges receive a boost from eight senators in legislation granting the Superintendent of Public Instruction power to approve their formation.

Sen. Clyde Geerlings (R-Holland) wants the highway department to post signs along state trunklines to indicate the penalties for scattering litter and dumping rubbish.

A bill that would prohibit the sale of "alertness pills" except by prescription is supported by Senator Charles S. Blundy (D-Detroit).

Regulation of milk marketing is the object of a widespread proposal introduced by Bert J. Storey (R-Belding). His bill would authorize the licensing of milk dealers, establish marketing areas, regulate prices and trade practices, define the powers of the director of agriculture, and provide penalties for non-compliance.

Fire Insurance Stock Makes Sound Investment

Babson Park, Mass. — I have recently been quoted as follows: "I believe if Jesus were here today, instead of being a carpenter, he would be an insurance agent." My explanation of this is that I believe the insurance business is a clear illustration of applied Christianity. If someone's home burns, the company does not usually use its capital to pay the unfortunate persons. The insurance is paid from premiums contributed by the rest of us whose houses have not burned. If one of us dies and the wife receives insurance for $20,000, the rest of us, through our premiums, pay the wife these much-needed funds. Let me now give you some ideas as to my thoughts on insurance in general.

Many investors also fear the mutual stock fire companies. Of course, there are no stockholders in the mutual life companies; but certain stock fire insurance companies use a mutual system for premiums. They offer to save the buyer of insurance a good part of the commission now going to the agent. My own feeling is there will always be a field for both classes, each one keeping the other on its toes.

Diversification & Management

The sensible investor will classify fire insurance companies with the best investment trusts. By buying such fire insurance stocks an investor gets the advantage of the dividends and coupons paid on the securities held by the insurance company and, in addition, profits, if any, from the fire insurance business. This gives investors diversification of securities plus a cut in the fire insurance business. Can any mutual investment trust

Different Kinds of Insurance

The simplest insurance is life insurance. On these life company stocks I was very bullish a few years ago when they were cheap; but since then they have increased threefold in price and, hence, are not so attractive. The health, accident and automobile company stocks have never appealed to me; but some are OK. The surety and bonding companies I know nothing about. The fire insurance companies I have studied for years and have invested considerable money therein.

Many Disagree With Me

The investment trusts have been doing considerable selling of insurance stocks, especially those of the fire insurance companies. They feel that the present "agency system" is becoming obsolete. There may be radical changes in the selling organizations of the fire insurance stock companies; but their executives do not now admit it.

Scout Roundtables Planned Soon

Two monthly roundtables for adult scouts in the Sunset district will be held in Northville next month.

A roundtable for Cub Scout leaders will be held March 14 in the community center for all cubmasters, assistant cubmasters, den mothers and dads and pack committeemen.

A second roundtable for Boy Scout and Explorer leaders will be held March 21 at the First Presbyterian Church.

In addition to diversification, investors in fire insurance stocks have the advantage of excellent management. Fire insurance companies employ experts for the selection of their securities, which are also most carefully watched by an investment committee. The record of the investment holdings of these companies is very commendable.

The Premium Cycle

Over a period of years the income from fire insurance stocks has been excellent. There are cases, such as that of the Home Insurance Company, where this record extends over 100 years. There is, however, a cycle in the industry which I should mention. There will be a period of heavy losses and low profits, after which the companies get permission from the State Commissions to raise their premium rates. Then follows a period of good profits. After a few years, losses climb again, but the companies will again be allowed to increase premiums. In the long run, the State Commissions are fair with the insurance companies and allow them a reasonable average profit. Those who buy these stocks and consistently hold them should have safety, diversification, and good management, resulting over a long period in both capital gains and a fair income.

In addition, corporations such as the Gamewell Company are constantly at work installing fire alarms, sprinkler systems and other means of fire protection. Legislatures are constantly passing laws forcing fireproof construction. Dangerous gums which are breeders of fires are being constantly torn down. All of this works to the advantage of the insurance companies, their policyholders, and their stockholders. Just now the industry is in a period of heavy losses and most fire insurance stocks can be bought for much less than their book value. Hence, this seems to be the right time to buy good fire insurance stocks.

YOU REAP THE BENEFIT

Nowadays, manufacturing plants don't have to put up with the expense and inefficiency of keeping large inventories of materials and parts on hand.

Trucks and truck-trailers, by providing swift, direct, door-to-door transportation service, have made such costly procedure a thing of the past.

The modern assembly line extends, in effect, beyond the manufacturing plant itself to the commercial motor vehicles which continuously supply industry with round-the-clock shipments of materials and parts.

Yes, trucks and truck-trailers are indeed assembly lines on wheels, serving industry in a way that brings an ever-improving standard of living to all the people.
