FAVORITE RECIPES OF NORTHVILLE HOMEMAKERS

Little Sharlene Holloman lends a helping hand to her mother, Mrs. R. D. Holloman, who contributed this week's recipe for "Apple Sauce Squares".

For a between-meal snack with milk, or for the kids when they come home from school a little hungry—these Apple Sauce Squares are just the thing.

The recipe is contributed this week by Mrs. R. D. Holloman, who lives at 320 Orchard drive. She says that son, Daryl, seven, makes them disappear fast—as does daughter, Sharlene, two.

APPLE SAUCE SQUARES

Cream together:
1 cup sugar
¼ cup butter
Add:
1 teaspoon soda to 1 cup apple sauce
Sift together:
1½ cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground cloves

Add apple sauce and flour mixture alternately to creamed mixture and blend. Add ½ cup chopped nuts or ½ cup raisins if desired. Divide into two 8-inch pans, well greased and dusted with flour. Bake at 350 degrees 25 to 30 minutes. Cut into squares when cool.

DAR Delegates Return From Continental Congress

Two Northville women joined approximately 4,000 members of the Daughters of the American Revolution who attended the 66th DAR Continental Congress in Washington, D.C. between April 15 and 19.

From the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, Mrs. Claude Cruse, Regent, and Mrs. Ernest Shave attended the meeting. They are happy to report that the DAR project of approved schools received more money per member from the Michigan chapters than from any other state.

Among the resolutions voted on at the conference, were the following: to block transfer of American troops to the United Nations command; to withhold contribution to UNESCO; opposition to the admission of Red China to the United Nations; reduction of the federal budget, and rejection of all civil rights legislation.

At the meeting held Monday, April 15, the Honorable William F. Knowland, Republican leader of the Senate, Senator Richard B. Russell of Georgia, chairman of the armed services committee, and Mrs. Frederick A. Groves, president general of the DAR, addressed the convention on "Our Goody Heritage".

Miss Elaine Whitelaw, director of women's activities of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, presented a special award to the society for cooperation on the national Salk polio vaccine program.

Her maid of honor, Miss Marlene Coykendall of West Seven Mile road, wore a gown of blue crystal and a hat of tiny blue rosebuds. Her flowers were white carnations and yellow roses.

Al Iversen was best man for his brother. Ushering were Don Blair of West Seven Mile road and Martin Flavin, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a gray and yellow print silk dress, with flowers of yellow roses. Mrs. Iversen, the bridegroom's mother, wore a pink lace dress with flowers of pink roses.

For their wedding trip, the young couple motored to New York state. They will make their home at 314 Griswold street in Northville.

The new Mrs. Iversen graduated from Northville high school in 1956. Her husband, a 1952 graduate of NHS, is employed with the Wayne county engineers.

Open House Shows 'New Awareness'

Nearly 1,400 people toured the grounds and buildings of Northville State Hospital Sunday, as the hospital joined with scores of other institutions throughout the country in observing National Mental Health Week.

The hospital's history — walked the corridors and sidewalks in small groups, seeing the facilities and talking to the staff members which make Northville the most modern mental hospital in the state.

The large turnout of visitors was satisfying in itself, but Dr. Philip Brown, medical superintendent of the hospital, found another factor even more significant.

"The questions which the visitors asked were much more sophisticated — and showed more awareness — than they have been in the past," he said enthusiastically. "It shows that people are becoming more understanding of what we are trying to do in our work here."

Each tour lasted close to an hour, during which visitors were shown hospital facilities ranging from occupational therapy equipment to gleaming cafeterias. They also saw facilities which they may not have associated with mental hospitals — gymnasiums, snack bars, a library and a beauty shop.

Many of the hospital's more than 2,000 patients were on week end vacation, yet there were enough present to give the visitor an idea that a mental hospital no longer is a musty dungeon of raving lunatics.

Instead, the visitors saw sparkling quarters, where three or four patients live together in friendship and where they can watch television in their leisure time. They saw handicraft rooms, where occupational therapists help patients back to health by giving them genuine meaningful work to do.

In a gymnasium, they watched youngsters play basketball, and learned that Northville State Hospital has recently joined an athletic league with other hospitals and institutions.

Beyond the eight-story central building, they rode in a bus past other buildings where the aged — or perhaps the violent — live in equally spotless quarters.

They learned, perhaps surprisingly, that Northville State Hospital — far from the fearsome "madhouse" of history — does not have a single bar on its windows, and that no patient is strapped down in a straightjacket.

The visitors were offered statistics — one fourth of the patients have freedom of the grounds; nearly 15 per cent are there of their own accord; the discharge rate, though difficult to determine, is gratifyingly high.

They learned that Northville State Hospital is not an isolated institution, but one which depends on outside help. In addition to its large professional staff of psychiatrists and therapists, the hospital is aided by Gray Ladies, by a Family Care program and by its Citizens' Auxiliary committee.

OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY workshop is explained to a touring group by Miss Catherine MacDonald, a therapist at the hospital. Through such programs, patients are helped back to a normal life by acquiring a feeling of worthwhileness and responsibility. The tour was managed by Mrs. Isobel Partridge and Miss Tikvah Haggai under the direction of Mrs. Carolyn Seefeldt, director of social services.

J. Austin Oil Co. of Wayne, Mich. and Shell Oil Company
Announce a New Grade of Gasoline,
the Successor to Shell Premium

Super Shell
with TCP

It is the most powerful gasoline any car can use

The automobile industry is producing the most powerful cars ever offered the American public . . . cars with higher compression engines that require a more powerful gasoline in order to deliver full performance.

What's more, cars with still higher compression ratios, even more power, are planned for the years to come.

Clearly then, a more powerful grade of gasoline had to be made.

An entirely new grade of gasoline
The Shell Oil Company now introduces an entirely new grade of gasoline, Super Shell with TCP*. This gasoline not only meets the critical power needs of the highest compression automobiles—but, at the same time will give cars which have used premium-grade gasolines better performance than ever.

Super Shell with TCP is higher than high test, even more powerful than Shell Premium Gasoline which it replaces.

It is, in fact, the most powerful gasoline any car can use.

Super Shell has a built-in "power pack"
Here's how this is possible. Shell is America's largest maker of gasoline for commercial aviation. Aviation gasoline contains special power ingredients such as benzene, xylene, toluene. They pack more energy into a gallon of gasoline than anything else you can use. A high concentration of these aromatics gives Super Shell its built-in "power pack."

What can Super Shell do for you?
Super Shell instantly and automatically supplies any engine with the full octane value required for knock-free power under every driving condition.

This means you get full knock-free power for maximum acceleration . . . from a standing start or for safe passing at highway speeds. And, when you're cruising along, Super Shell's extra energy is converted to extra miles per gallon.

TCP unleashes the full power of high octane
Today's powerful engines build up harmful engine deposits within a few thousand miles of driving. These deposits can cause substantial loss of power.

This is why Super Shell contains TCP additive . . . to neutralize harmful deposits and unleash the full power of high octane. Super Shell with TCP enables a car to deliver and keep on delivering its full power.

For a new gasoline—a new pump
When you drive into your local Shell station you'll find Super Shell with TCP in a new white pump. It's a bargain in quality—a bargain in price . . . Super Shell is the most powerful gasoline any car can use!

*Shell's Trademark for this unique gasoline additive developed by Shell Research. Patent applied for.

IF RUGS and carpets are to wear well and stay attractive they must be kept clean. Dirt on the surface dulls the color of the rug. Embedded grit wears and cuts the fibers. Damage from clothes moths and carpet beetles is less likely to occur when rugs are kept clean. The time to spray rugs against these insects is after they have been thoroughly cleaned.

READ ON,
READ ON!

One of the first rules one should learn in Bible interpretation is to consider what goes before and what comes after a verse or subject. To pick a single verse or phrase from the scriptures without considering the context is often to miss the meaning and even change the thought entirely. As an example of this, recently I read as a proof text for the existence of purgatory a reference to I. Cor. 3:15. The thought expressed stopped in the middle of that verse which made it read like this, "If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer". See, says the teacher, there is a suffering for believers whose works are not as they ought to be. However, if the rest of the text had been read the thought would have been entirely different. The full text says, "If any man's works shall be burned, he shall suffer loss" which is an entirely different matter. It's one thing to suffer personally, it's another to suffer loss. For example, if my house burns I may suffer loss of my household goods without suffering in my body. So when considering a passage of scripture remember this valuable rule "READ ON, READ ON, READ ON, READ ON! If you will do this you are sure to get the correct meaning."

Litter-bug Sign Prizes Awarded

SETTING THE RIGHT EXAMPLE — Doing their bit during "Keep Northville Beautiful" week were Mrs. Glenn Cummings, garden club president, and Mrs. William Cansfield, chairman of the week-long campaign against litter. The drive is sponsored by the garden club and ends Saturday.

Northville citizens are being reminded this week that "a war is going on" — a fight against litter and trash, being waged by the Northville Garden club.

Brightly painted litter cans can be seen on the main corners, and signs reminding you to "fight litter-bugs" during "Keep Northville Beautiful" week are posted in local shop windows.

The Garden club recently awarded cash prizes to creators of the best posters contributed by elementary school students in Northville. They agreed that it was pretty hard to judge, since so many good ones were turned in.

Students from the Main Street school worked under the direction of Jack Van Haren, elementary school art teacher, and students at Our Lady of Victory were directed by Sister Anita Marie.

The first prize winner was Susie Eastland (grade six). Second went to Constance Tegge, fourth grader at Our Lady of Victory; Connie Shoner (grade six), placed third; Cynthia Anderson (grade four), fourth; Christ Gazley (grade six), fifth, and Gail Luchtman (grade four), sixth.

Honorable mention from Our Lady of Victory school included Robert Bosak, Mary Wetterstroem, Diane Manica, Patty Rahaley, Antoinette Alexander and Diane Geraghty.

From the Main Street school, honorable mentions went to Dan Biery, Charles Johnson, Tom Swiss, Rhonda Atchison, Gary Loulin, Patricia Haywood, Carol Budek, Carol Klopfenstein, Douglas Clark and Robert Ziegler.

The list continues with Marta Schiefer, Lynne Dickey, Barbara Forsyth, Donna Williams, Kay Dickerson, Carol Leavenworth, Eddie Austin, Bruce Willis, Bonnie Rorbacher, Jeannie Burrell, Lynn Johnson, Connie Crump, Roselyn Budek, William Templeton, Carol Yahne, Sue Hicks, Linda Hall, Garrett Davis and Donna Clark.

Didn't It Rain!

For nearly a week, the rains that lashed the Detroit area missed Northville and Novi somehow. Other communities were drenched, but in these parts it was dry and balmy.

All that suddenly ended Thursday . . . and Thursday night . . . and Friday.

Torrents of rain, driven in sheets by snapping gusts, swept through Northville and parts of Novi. They were short squalls, lasting less than an hour, but they wetted down the area more than an all-day spring drizzle ever could have.

Lightning accompanied the first storm, and two blocks in Northville were blacked out for more than an hour.

In the streets, small rivers formed rapidly. Storekeepers rushed out to clear sewers, and the rivers quickly swirled into them like miniature whirlpools.

Even so, the streets were clogged with high water. Trucks and cars splashed through them, creating foot-high waves.

Shoppers and school children waited in doorways as long as they could then bravely dashed out into the pelting rain. By the time they got across the street, their courage had faded, and they huddled up in another doorway.

Fortunately, there were no accidents. The lightning stayed away from people, and the people stayed away from their cars—for the most part at least. Neither Northville nor Novi reported any auto accidents as a result of the storm.

For farmers and fruit growers in the area, the rain was almost heaven-sent. It hadn't been a particularly dry spring, but even so the rain was needed.

The first storm was almost playful in one respect, because it kept pretending it was ready to stop. But it didn't — not until it had hurled its last angry drop at Northville and Novi.

Then, gathering up its great gray clouds, it trudged cross-country for awhile, smiting Livonia, Redford, and other communities before moving in for a coup de grace against Detroit.

And by that time, Northville and Novi were gleaming in sunlight again and their people were walking about, saying "Quite a storm" to one another. And on the sidewalks, the last few puddles were quickly drying up in the afternoon heat.

FIGHTING CANCER — Dropping her contribution into the canister last Friday, Cancer Tag Day, was Mrs. Clifford Rollings, who bought her tag from Northville Cancer Crusade chairman Mrs. William Wiley. To wind up Cancer Crusade Month, 28 volunteers sold tags under the direction of Mrs. Richard Martin.

Funeral Director Gets New Appointment

The appointment of the Dempsey B. Ebert funeral home of West Main street has been announced by the Associated Funeral Directors Service of St. Louis, Missouri.

The organization is international, with a membership of 1,800 funeral firms. Its basic purpose is to assure high standards of service on cases where death takes place away from home.

OFF FOR WASHINGTON — John Manica, 13, a safety patrol boy at Our Lady of Victory school in Northville, leaves today for the 21st annual Safety Patrol Rally in Washington, D.C. Here, he says goodbye to his family and leaves for Detroit where 100 other safety boys from Michigan will gather. His four-day stay in Washington will include a giant parade down Constitution avenue — the largest parade held annually in the Capital.

SWIRLING waters rushing into Northville sewers were commonplace last week when the spring rains finally came to the Northville- Novi area after somehow avoiding the region for more than a week. The storms, which came and went over a four-day period, were welcomed by farmers and fruit growers, but for the man-on-the-street they were none to pleasant. Fortunately, both Northville and Novi police reported that no accidents were caused as a result of the rains.

Rain Ruins Mustang Schedules

BRAVE BLOOMFIELD BASE-RUNNER — With two out and two strikes on the batter, this runner took a chance on getting the horsehide down his throat by heading for home in the midst of "Cap" Pethers' wind-up. But just as the base-runner was some 15 feet from the plate, the batter swung and missed the third strike. Northville won in the last minute, 2-1 after Bloomfield Hills seemingly had the game won.

With 2 Out in Ninth:

Never-Say-Die Mustangs Win

Bloomfield Hills counted its chickens too soon Monday afternoon as the Northville Mustangs put on a two-run rally with two out in the last inning to take their third straight victory.

Northville made its game-winning challenge with no one on base and with no apparent hopes of salvaging the contest from the weak Bloomfield team.

But after Wade Deal had walked and was advanced to third on a single by John White, Gary Morgan lifted a single to right field. Deal scored easily, and while Bloomfield outfielders and infielders scrambled for the ball, White came across with the winning tally.

It was the third consecutive one-run victory for coach Al Jones' squad, who are undefeated in the young season.

For most of the game, Northville could not put together a consistent drive. The Mustangs connected for only three hits previous to their stretch surge.

On the pitching mound, Northville got an off-again-on-again performance from starter "Cap" Pethers and a brilliant relief job from Aubrey King.

Pethers allowed only two hits in five innings and struck out seven, but walked five and hit two batters to stay in trouble throughout.

King came on in the sixth and immediately allowed two hits and a walk to fill the bases. But King settled down and forced the next man to fly out, then fanned the next five men to end Bloomfield's chances.

Northville had its best scoring chance — before its seventh inning rally — in the fourth when Pethers singled to right field. Deal hit a solid double to right, advancing Pethers to third.

But the umpire ruled that Deal had overrun second and had been tagged out. The play ended the inning and Northville's hopes until the seventh.

Northville now has a 2-0 record in Wayne-Oakland league play and is tied for first place in its division.

The Mustangs were scheduled to meet non-conference Plymouth yesterday and will take on Milford today at Cass Benton park. Game time is 4 p.m.

Seven Contests On Schedule

The spring sports schedule at Northville high school will be heavy again next week, with all varsity Mustang teams due to see action at least once.

In all, seven events are scheduled.

Junior high and junior varsity squads will engage in another three contests.

The Mustang golf, tennis and baseball teams will take part in three events each, while the track squad has a single meet. Only three of the seven contests are league affairs.

With the end of play next week, most of the Northville teams will have completed half their spring schedules. Several events have been rescheduled, however, after having been rained out earlier in the season.

The complete varsity schedule for the coming week:

- Baseball—
- Milford here today
- at Clarenceville Monday
- Tennis—
- at Oak Park Friday
- at Bentley here Monday
- Golf—
- at Plymouth today
- Clarenceville here Tuesday
- Track—
- at Thurston Friday

Teams Have Eight on Tap; Three Played

The rains came last week and all but washed Northville's athletic squads off the fields and courts.

Eight contests were scheduled for the last part of last week, but only three of them were completed. Several got underway only to be drizzled out minutes later.

The Mustang baseball team was hardest hit, as it watched the dark skies cancel games both Thursday and Friday. The Northville nine has now seen three of its six games rained out.

Mustang trackmen were no better off. Their meet with non-league Oak Park was cancelled by the same rains Friday. They were not scheduled again until tomorrow — nearly a three week layoff for the cinder team.

To make matters worse, coach Charles Yahne's squad will face its regional tests next week. That means Northville will have faced competition only once in the month before that key meet.

Northville tennis players had the same hard luck as their baseball and track brothers. The netters were rained out twice — against Oak Park and Birmingham. It was the second time that the Oak Park match has been cancelled.

Nevertheless, the tennis team did manage to get in one match — and took it easily for its first win against no losses.

The Mustang golf squad was the only one to weather the weather. Coach Merritt Meaker's players squeezed two matches in between thunderstorms and have yet to be rained out this season.

Meanwhile, athletic director Al Jones is going about the problem of rescheduling the cancelled contests — a major problem, since all four Northville teams already face heavy cards for the remainder of the season.

JayCees to Stage Teen Golf Tourney

A golf tournament for boys 18 years old and under will be sponsored by the Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce as part of the annual national Jaycee tournament.

The tournament, an 18-hole affair, will be staged at Brae-Burn Golf club on June 12. Winner of the event will be presented with a trophy and will represent Northville in the district meet at Grand Rapids.

Chairmen Bob German and Bill Gaab are urging all young Northville golfers to compete. The winner, if successful, could go all the way to the national Jaycee tourney.

German and Gaab report that a committee meeting will be held to complete plans this evening and that more details on the tourney will be published next week.

The mistake of Mike Regan

Patrolman Michael Regan sees his friend, Harry Sharp, getting into a parked car and taps him on the shoulder.

"What did I do?" asks Harry. "I think maybe you stole this new Ford," Mike grins—"don't you always drive a medium-priced car?" "I bought this Ford Fairlane 500," Harry replies, "and it's the BEST car I ever bought. I got this big, good-looking automobile, plus automatic transmission, radio, heater, whitewalls, two-tone—the works—for lots less than I'd have paid for a stripped-down medium-priced car." "Sure and you're not as dumb as you look—I'll have to let you go," says Mike.

"You'll get a Ford Fairlane 500, too, unless you're as dumb as you look," Harry tells him. All kidding aside, a Ford with all the Luxury extras is really the steal of the year!

SEED TIME

This is the time of year when we are sowing. Every seed distributor leaves us in no doubt as to the season of the year. The Bible, speaking of the dependability of God, mentions "seedtime and harvest." A seed is a dynamite of power; it contains the germ of life. With a proper environment, it reproduces itself many fold. Every part of God's kingdom began with a little seed—from the white lily of Easter, the fleeting fawn, the little blond girl playing in the street, to the Christian with a shining face.

The fruitfulness of the seed depends upon so many things. In the parable of the Sower, our Lord pictures the Word of God as the good seed. The failure to bring forth fruit was not the fault of the seed but the environment in which it was placed. The power of evil often takes the good seed away. The pains and struggles of persecution intimidates the weak soul. The deceitfulness of pride, possessions and power robs the wanton soul of the Word of life. But in the fertile ground of spiritual understanding the seed multiplies many fold.

By the fruit the seed is known. The wheat and the darnels looked very much alike during the period of growth, but in the Parable of the Tares, our Lord reminds us that all seed will have its ultimate test at the time of harvest.

*"We scatter seeds with careless hand
And dream we're shall see them more,
But for a thousand years
Their fruit appears,
In weeds that mar the land,
Or beautiful shore."*

*"The deeds we do, the words we say—
Into still air they seem to fleet,
We count them ever past,
But they shall last—
In the dread judgment they
And we shall meet."*

*"I charge thee by the years gone by,
For the love's sake of brethren dear,
Keep thou the one true way,
In work and play,
Lest in that world their cry
"Of woe thou bear."*

—John Keble

Rotarians Readiyng Plans For Benefit Building Show

More than 180 exhibits from builders, suppliers, manufacturers and home furnishing companies are now on the books for the huge building exposition to be sponsored this month by Northville Rotarians and their brothers from 18 other Rotary clubs in western Wayne county.

Proceeds of the event — to be held May 23-26 at the Detroit Race Course — will go for a new crippled children's home on Michigan and Middlebelt road.

Local chairman of the exposition is Art Schnute. He will be assisted by Gil Glasson, Carl Johnson, Leonard Smith, Lee Eaton and Charles Carrington.

Here's Some Tips Now That It's Time For Landscaping

It's easy to plant the home property from a plan and, in the long run, it is more economical. A good plan will tell you what and where to plant so you are certain, when the planting is completed, to have a far more beautiful and valuable property, providing more gracious living than ever.

There are five steps to be taken in assuring top grade landscaping, according to the American Association of Nurserymen. Here they are:

1. Many people will have their own ideas about landscaping. If you are building a new house, however, it is better to consult with your landscape nurseryman before you even start to build. He can tell you where to locate the house so you can take advantage of every opportunity for better living from a landscape viewpoint. Whether you are building anew, or have to make the best of what you already have, start with a plan.

With respect to older homes, whose landscaping is overgrown, such a plan is just as necessary as with a new home. Oftentimes, sound planning of re-landscaping can save many overgrown plants by transferring them to locations where they will serve a definite purpose. This first step, planning, is very important. Also sit down with whoever does the planning and discuss with him what you like best in plant life, that expresses your own personality.

2. Once you have a good plan, the rest is much easier. First comes the planting of one or more shade or flowering trees, depending on the size of your property. Trees take longer to grow than lawn grass, for instance, and you save valuable growing time by planting them at the earliest possible time.

3. Third, make a good lawn. Your nurseryman will advise open lawns for several reasons, mainly because open lawns are more attractive and they are easier to mow.
4. The foundation planting comes next. If your planting has become scraggly and out-moded it may be better for ultimate effect to tear it out and start all over. If an old or new planting, modern practice prescribes curved lines for the overall design. Plants should not be higher than the bottom of ground floor windows. Larger plants at the corners are "tied together" by planting low-growing plants between them.

5. Specimen plants and special gardens — outdoor living can be combined with specimen plants and a special garden that will provide a gracious, lovely outdoor living space. Roses are a must somewhere in this space. Perennials, flowering trees and shrubs should be planted to give a long blooming season, something in flower all the time. Use the very best plants available for this purpose. Dwarf fruit trees can be mighty attractive when in flower and in fruit.

6. Special problem plantings come next. Perhaps you have an undesirable view of somebody's back yard — you can use plants to shut it off at the same time providing beauty.

Traffic noises can be screened off by certain plants that are sound barriers.

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—Thursday, May 2, 1957—13

Wood Windows Make Tighter Fit

Home builders have long insisted upon wood windows for their own homes because the wood frames provide a tighter fit and do a better job of insulating than metal frames.

Even glass noted as a poor insulator against heat and cold, is superior in this respect to aluminum and steel. Heat or cold will pass through steel about 57 times faster than through glass of the same thickness; through aluminum, about 260 times faster, according to data published by the American Society of Heating and Air Conditioning Engineers.

Quiet	Yes

Completely new, completely different, the electric water heaters for 1957 are not only the safest kind you can buy—they're the most practical, too. Built to Detroit Edison's own rigid specifications, dollar for dollar these new electric water heaters last longer than any other heater you can buy.

higher wattage heating units that operate completely automatically. As your hot water supply goes down, one unit automatically goes on—quickly heating up more water for you to use when you need it. No waiting, no worries. There's always plenty of hot water on tap. And because of this unique new design, you can get more hot water than ever before from the same size heater. Then, too, since it's built to Edison's own specifications, you know you can rely on the quality and depend on it to operate better, last longer.

Safer... no flame, no fume. There's automatic safety always built into an electric water heater. No flame, no fume. FOOT-SAVING EDUCATION

My son's shoes smell to high heaven. Is it a common problem? Can it be corrected? It is rather common.

It is rather common. If you remember, before schools were air-conditioned teachers always spotted their desks between the door and the window...

Most every boy who has asked me about this embarrassing condition was wearing shoes that were much too short for his feet.

Shoes are designed to fit the heel of the foot and the arch while leaving air space in front of the toes and around them.

Practically all of the work and the perspiring done by the toes. Crowding them into the fronts of short shoes seals in the perspiration until it acquires an odor.
