

Competition Close In Battle for Votes

The vote battle is on! Today's standings show the overall leaders and the district leaders for more than $3,500 in prizes and commissions offered in The Northville Record and The Novi News contest.

The first count of votes polled by contestants was made after last week's reports. This count includes all votes credited for $30 clubs of subscriptions and the 500 free vote coupons. The published vote is not all the votes issued to contestants, but it shows their ACTUAL POSITIONS for the new Ford, the other prizes and the district prizes. This brings contestants up to date on what position they hold in the contest. Future standings will show who is making the best Wednesday and Saturday vote reports and changes in positions.

Race Just Starting for Real Campaigners

The race is just starting for the contestants who have confidence in their own ability and the courage and determination to try to win. It's already finished for those who knew that they couldn't win when they entered. It's also finished for those who are easily discouraged, and for those who offer reasons for their failure to make progress.

Wishing won't win, but campaigning will. Your friends can't help you unless you ask them. Contestants who pick others whom they think have some advantage over them can't hope to win. The leaders of today may be trailing when the final votes are counted. The only difference between new entrants and contestants with the highest votes in just a matter of starting a real campaign to win.

County Prepares to Fight Outbreak of 'Asiatic Flu'

Plans are being developed to combat a possible outbreak of "Asiatic flu" in Wayne county — including the Northville area.

The Wayne county health department, the Wayne county medical society, and private physicians are now working to protect county citizens against the disease which is threatening to spread across the country this fall.

The announcement came this week from Dr. Edwin Marcus, communicable disease control director for the county health department.

"Asiatic flu is not very serious for any one individual," said Dr. Marcus, "since it is no different from the other kinds of 'flu' or 'grippe' with which we are familiar."

Dr. Marcus said many drug companies have been induced to provide a vaccine to protect individuals against the disease.

Motorcycles to Compete At Downs on Labor Day

Motorcycle racing — one of the most dare-devilish sports ever devised — will come to Northville on Labor Day.

A three-star championship race will be run at Northville Downs as part of the September 2 national holiday, with at least 30 top riders expected to take part.

The race is being staged by promoter Mel Larson, of Plymouth, who brought auto-racing back to the Downs on July 4 with the first running of the Northville '100'.

The motorcycle competition will be sanctioned by the American Motorcycle Association, Larson said, and will follow the standard pattern of time trials, six 10-lap heat races, and two 10-lap feature events.

Time trials will begin at 12:30 p.m. and the first event will get underway promptly at 2:30 p.m.

Larson has cleared the race through the Northville city council and officials of Northville Downs and the Northville Driving club.

He said Betty Wilson, chosen queen of the Northville '100' and 'Miss Novi AMVET', may be on hand to present prize money to the winning riders.

Larson, who will not compete as he did in the '100', said the Northville race will be the first motorcycle competition on a half-mile track in the Detroit area in many years.

He called the clay surface of the Downs oval "ideal" for motorcycle competition.

Larson added that, although motorcycle racing ranks with bobsledding as one of the world's most spectacular sports, it will be completely safe for spectators. The track's retaining walls will be reinforced and other precautions will be taken to insure the safety of all fans.

Dan Van Vleet, Michigan referee for the AMA, said entry blanks are now in the mail and at least 30 riders should be on hand for the Labor Day classic.

Larson also announced that negotiations are underway for two special auto events to follow the motorcycle competition that day.

In the event of rain, the race will be held the following Saturday, September 7.

Tickets will go on sale at the Downs at 11:30 a.m. on the day of the race.

A special admission plan will be offered for reserved and box seats. For reservations or further information, call Plymouth 1892-W2 or Northville 1140.

Dogs on Loose Face Cooked Goose

Northville and Northville township are "manning" "catch-up" for its "hot dogs".

That was township dog warden Roy Utley's way of saying this week that dogs running at large will be picked up.

Utley said local residents have complained of dogs running loose "and barking in their night-time travels."

Apprehended dogs will be held for 36 hours, Utley said, and owners must pay a fine and board bill. If unclaimed in 36 hours, they will be destroyed.

If the current drive fails to correct the situation, he added, more drastic measures will be used.

Crash Victims "Making Progress" At U-M Hospital

Three Northville men who were injured in an automobile accident August 5 are all said to be "progressing well" at University of Michigan hospital in Ann Arbor.

Glen Howarth, who was in a coma following the crash, is now fully conscious although still suffering a concussion.

X-rays have shown that Richard Alkire suffers a crushed vertebra, a cracked collar bone and a torn ligament and muscle in his left knee. He will be in a cast for six weeks.

Bruce Rose, driver of the car, has been walking and is reported improving. He suffered minor bone breaks and multiple lacerations of the hands and scalp.

The crash occurred when Rose's car crashed into a tree when he was driving south on Northville road Monday evening.

Howarth, a senior at Alma college, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Howarth of Seven Mile road. Rose, a junior at the same school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rose of Meadowbrook road. Alkire, discharged from the armed services in May, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Olen Alkire of Fry road.

Merchants Sponsor Shop At Home Ads

Twenty-six local merchants began a 13-week series of full-page advertisements this week to promote shopping in Northville.

The campaign will feature two local stores each week and relate the variety of merchandise available to shoppers in Northville. It will emphasize the convenience of shopping locally as well as the reliability of home-town merchants.

Stone's Gamble store and Northville Drug company are the first two stores featured in this week's page. Other sponsors of the campaign are: Brader's, D. & C. Stores, E.M.B. Market, Famous Stores, Freydl Cleaners, Freydl's Women's Wear, G. E. Miller Sales & Service, Gunsell Drugs, Glenn Long Plumbing & Heating, Johnson's Gift Shop, Lawrence Mayer Florist, Lila's Flowers & Gifts, Marr Taylor Ford Sales, Northville Electric, Northville Hardware, Northville Men's Shop, Northville Refrigeration, Nowels Lumber & Coal, Rathburn Chevrolet Sales, Ritchie Bros. Laundromat, Schrader's Home Furnishings, Sibley's, Tewksbury Jewelers and Villa Dress Shoppe.

City Taxes Nearly One-Half Collected

With two weeks remaining before a four per cent penalty is imposed Northville city taxpayers have paid $44,190 of the $95,000 collectable on real estate and personal property.

August 31 is the last day that city taxes may be paid without the penalty, John Robertson reminded taxpayers this week. The city manager stated that individual collections had been normal and that many of the larger accounts still unpaid would bring the total up considerably.

Taxes may be paid to the clerk in the city hall from 8:30 to 5:00 daily, and Saturday mornings.

Downs Studies Improvements at Track

Eye Larger Grandstand, Wider Track, Tote Board

Major improvements at Northville Downs are now being considered by officials of the Downs and the Northville Driving club.

Though negotiations are still far from complete, Downs general manager John Carlo said this week that three undertakings are being studied:

- enlarging and remodeling the grandstand
- widening the track itself
- and installing a new tote board.

In addition, Carlo announced that two new permanent barns are near completion at the winter barn complex on the St. Lawrence property. Downs and Driving club officials met Tuesday night to discuss the improvements, but Carlo said no definite decisions were reached. Further discussions will be held at future meetings of the two groups.

"We're still weighing the question of finances against the time element," Carlo said. "And, of course, there are many other factors to consider before we definitely know what our plans will be."

One other key to the improvements is the proposed sale of River street property to the track.

The Downs wants the property — now owned by Wayne county — for use as an entrance and exit, but until recently the sale has been blocked by the Northville city council on grounds that it would be detrimental to nearby property.

An agreement between the city and track authorities on use of the land appears near, however.

Carlo did not say how much the grandstand would be enlarged, nor did he indicate what remodeling steps are under consideration.

The track itself would presumably be widened enough to allow eight horses to race abreast, instead of six abreast and two trailing as has been necessary until now.

The tote board would be the type which flashes the total amounts wagered on each horse as betting proceeds. At present, only the odds are flashed.

But Carlo pointed out that the Downs is not yet required to have that type of board.

"It's required after a track has had an average daily handle of over $250,000 for three out of five years," he said. "We passed that mark in 1955 and 1956, but fell short of it by just a few dollars this year."

"So we could go at least another year without putting it in," he said.

Carlo also noted that a new tote board cannot be installed until the grandstand is remodeled, so as to provide a new tote room for the board's bulky tabulating equipment.

The two new barns on the St. Lawrence property bring that barn area's capacity to 300 horses, as required by state racing commissioner James H. Inglis in 1955.

Construction began early this summer. The barns are completed except for a small amount of finish work and cleaning up. All are winter barns constructed of masonry.

The area includes a laundry, shoeing facilities, toilets and a small track kitchen.

Presumably most of the present wooden barns in the track area will be torn down eventually. And if the track is widened, they will definitely be removed, it was said.

Hearing Set On Fall Dates

A court hearing on the request for additional racing dates at Northville Downs this fall has been adjourned.

The Wayne county circuit court hearing was originally scheduled for last Monday but was adjourned until September 16 at the request of attorneys for the Michigan Horseman's Racing Association.

The association has requested racing dates at the Downs from October 7 to November 2. When state racing commissioner James H. Inglis turned down the bid earlier this year, the association appealed to circuit court.

Wilbur DeYoung, attorney for Inglis, said he is doubtful that circuit court will grant the dates. If so, there would not be time for an appeal to the state supreme court, he added.

Northville 'E' Team Wins in Tourney; Midgets Eliminated

One Northville team got past its first challenge and a second squad was eliminated in Michigan Recreation Tournament play this week.

The Northville Class E team squeezed past Dearborn township, 3-2, in an extra-inning thriller, but the midget Northville Braves tumbled, 7-6, to Wallaceville and were ousted from further competition.

The Class E squad pushed across its winning run when Bill Juday rifled a bases-loaded single with two out in the eighth. Earlier in the inning, an attempted steal and an attempted squeeze play went amiss.

Northville had knotted the score at 2-2 in the sixth when Joe Kritch walked, Bob Starnes doubled, and Randy Egloff singled.

"You should have seen Starnes fly home," said coach Ken Conley.

Egloff, on the mound for Northville, allowed only five well-spaced hits. But runs against him were unearned.

The Class E team was to play again Wednesday night. If the squad gets through the district elimination, it will go on for a crack at the state MRA title.

Current games are played at Lev-agoed field in West Dearborn.

The midget Braves pounded out 10 hits — including doubles by Mike Zayti and Jim Juday — but a last-inning mixup allowed Wallaceville to push across the winning marker. The Braves were champs of the Livonia midget league.

Northville Winning Battle Against Dutch Elm Disease

Northville's battle to preserve its elm trees gave definite indications of success following a recent inspection of city trees by members of the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

According to John Miller of Green Ridge Nursery, Northville's control program has stamped out Dutch elm disease within the control area surrounding the city. "While the disease has definitely taken over in areas where spraying and inspection is not practiced, Northville is relatively free of the infection."

Miller, whose firm handles the control program for Northville, hastened to point out, however, that it is a continuing process and that treatment cannot end in the foreseeable future.

Samples from several suspect trees in the area were tagged by the state officials during their inspection here. Miller said the results from the tests will be sent to city and it is possible that some trees may have to be removed.

The city control program covers all property, private and public, within the city and the surrounding area. Miller noted that more than 100 trees have been removed in the new high school vicinity during the past year because of Dutch elm infection.

Miller emphasized that the Dutch elm disease control program is considered imperative to saving the species of trees. "In many non-control areas the state has given up the fight," he said. Miller's firm was recently awarded a contract to handle the control program for 14 state parks in southeastern Michigan.

FIRE'S AFTERMATH — The Northville division of Allied Products Corporation—the city's second largest industry until a week ago — was in almost total ruin this week. While wrecking crews dismantled the remains, company officials discussed the plant's future. See other pictures on page 8.

Fate of Allied Plant in Doubt

The fate of the razed Northville division of Allied Products Corporation and of its 65 employees remained in doubt this week.

The Allied Products board of directors was to meet in Detroit yesterday to discuss rebuilding the plant, destroyed last week in a spectacular $1,000,000 fire.

It was the second largest industrial firm in the city, ranking only behind the Northville Ford valve plant.

Meanwhile, wreckers and a handful of employees this week began the immense task of tearing down the plant and attempting to salvage undamaged or repairable equipment.

John J. Roberts, manager of the Northville powdered metal parts division, said the building appears to be a total loss and will almost certainly have to be leveled.

"If the board of directors decides to rebuild," he said, "it will have to be a completely new plant from the ground up."

Roberts estimated that at best it would take seven months to a year to build a new plant.

Though no official damage figure has yet been determined, Roberts said the original $1,000,000 estimate should not be far off.

Company officials were heartened

Jobs Offered To Allied Wives

A Detroit employment firm has offered wives of idled Allied Products workers "first call" on temporary office jobs.

The Russell Kelly Office Service said it will attempt to find jobs for women if they can identify themselves as wives of Allied workers and if they have some basic ability in work connected with a business office.

DELIVERY SERVICE — A. Russell Clarke, vice president of Northville's Manufacturers National Bank office, didn't have to leave his desk to purchase tickets to the "Summer Festival". The event is being sponsored by members of the local Modified Auto club and will be held this Saturday evening in the parking area next to the First Presbyterian church. Dancing, music and refreshments will be provided and adults as well as youngsters are invited to join in the fun. Above Officer Eugene King, club director, looks on as Victor Miller sells Clarke his tickets.

FAVORITE RECIPES OF NORTHVILLE HOMEMAKERS

A SINGLE BOWL and a ring mold are practically the only utensils necessary to prepare Mrs. Paul Cargo's Cucumber Salad, a quickly prepared salad whose appearance does honor to any table.

With four active children and a new baby, Mrs. Paul M. Cargo of West Dunlap street likes dishes that are quickly and easily prepared — especially when guests are expected.

Such a recipe is this one for "Cucumber Salad", submitted by Mrs. Cargo, the mother of Sarah, 3; Elizabeth Lou, 5; Cynthia, 8; William, 10, and Paul, Jr., two months old.

CUCUMBER SALAD

Combine one package of lime-flavored gelatin with one cup hot water. Let stand until mixture starts to jell. Then add:

½ pint heavy cream, whipped
1 cucumber, grated
2 teaspoons grated onion
1 box cottage cheese

Let set in ring mold. Serve on lettuce leaves, filling the center with a bowl of salad dressing.

Frank Clark: A Quarter Century of Helping Novi

He Read of Novi's Growth and Was Happy

A flag flew at half-mast in Novi last week. It flew over the Novi township hall, heart of the government into which Frank D. Clark, at 79, had poured his energies for more than a quarter of a century.

It flew at a time when Novi was at last beginning to realize the future that Frank Clark had envisioned ever since he came to Novi from the wheat fields of the west.

This week, as the first shock of Frank Clark's passing ebbed somewhat, five of his closest friends and associates looked into the past and commented on the qualities which, in their minds and the minds of many, made him one of the most eminent and respected political figures of his time.

"You could disagree with his philosophy," said Judge Clark J. Adams of the Oakland county circuit court, "but you could never quarrel with his sincerity of purpose. He was the finest type of public servant."

"When Frank Clark died," said Novi supervisor Frazer Staman, "Novi lost not only a friend but a remarkable leader. If anyone was, Frank was the brains of the township government."

"He was a grand man," said Mrs. James Lapham, 24350. Haggerty, a close friend for many years. "They don't come any better, and seldom as good."

"Everything he did was for the good of Novi," said Mrs. R. H. Johnson, 316 South Wing, a long-time friend and travelling companion with him and his wife.

"He was a foster father to me," said Carl J. Watts of Plymouth. "And there were many other people he helped when they hardly knew which way to turn."

Throughout their recollections, certain words and phrases occurred over and over again: "kindly", "a true gentleman", "he had his own convictions, but was broad-minded", "up-right", "sincere", "the type of man you love."

And above all, one thought was expressed each time: Frank Clark had only one interest as far as Novi was concerned — to make it as fine a place to live as possible.

"He was a strong leader, but not a demagogue," said Staman. "He was in government for more than 25 years, and thoroughly knew the problems facing Novi and the solutions that would work out the best."

Staman also gives Frank Clark credit for introducing him to the inroads of Oakland county politics and government after turning the supervisor's gavel over to him at the end of his own 18 years in that office.

"It is no easy job to learn the ins and outs of township and county government," he said. "Without Frank's help, it would have been like entering a lion cage. But everyone in Pontiac was Frank's friend, and Novi is all the better for it."

Staman noted that Frank Clark remained keen of mind until the end.

"His last letter was written to friends in Pontiac," said Staman. "He said: 'I'll soon be back in my old haunts at the county building, and when I am, I'll drop in to see you.'"

"And at board meetings," he added, "he could always be counted on as a voice of experience... a person who could rely on years of dealing with governmental problems and who could warn against pitfalls that might lie beneath the surface."

Judge Adams noted that Frank Clark was "the type of man a person could not help admiring and loving."

"He was an able administrator," he said, "but more than that, he was dedicated to Novi. And in all of his dealings, whether he agreed with you or not, he was a gentleman."

Judge Adams, who knew him for many years both as a friend and as a legal associate, pointed to Frank Clark's unsung advice and assistance — particularly to needy young people — as an indication of his personality.

"He was kindly and honest and worked for the good of all," he said. "Like many others, I thought a great deal of Frank."

Mrs. Johnson, a distant relative but a closer friend, praised him for his devotion to Novi.

"I don't live in Novi, and I didn't always agree with him on politics," she said, "but I know whatever he did, it was always for the benefit of Novi."

Mrs. Johnson recalled that he liked to take trips with his wife, herself, and her husband.

"He was a good family man too," she said. "He didn't have any children, but he treated his wife — and his 'foster' children — as good as any man ever did."

Mrs. Lapham recalled many evenings when she and her husband played cards with the Clarks.

"He was always a story-teller," she said. "He would tell about his days on a wheat ranch out west, and about traveling down the old plank road to Detroit to carry his produce to market. He liked sports, but a farmer didn't have much time to himself in those days."

Watts, who lived with the Clarks for four years after his own parents died, looked on Frank Clark as a father.

"He helped me whenever I needed it — which was often," he said. "And his advice was always good. I don't know what would have happened without him."

"And I wasn't alone," he said. "He helped out many other young people. Maybe it was because he didn't have any children of his own. But in any case, he was a better father than many real fathers are."

Frank Clark's five friends had much more to say about him. But essentially, it came down to one fact: whether a foster father, a farmer, a governmental leader, or a pinochle friend, Frank Clark was admired by those who knew him.

Shortly before he died, he wrote:

"A young man lives on his dreams; an old man lives on his memories."

If those memories were as vivid as those of his friends, Frank Clark must have died contented.

It was moved by Welch, supported by Reed, that the resolution presented by George Clark, of the Clark Insurance Agency, requesting that the City of Northville furnish fire protection to the territory embraced within the Township of Northville be adopted. Penn, a partner in the engineering firm of LaPorte & Penn, do hereby agree to supply engineering services to the City of Northville under the nominal retainer of $250.00 per year, beginning July 1st, 1957. Reference is made to my letter of September 28, 1956, in which is outlined the charges which will be made for engineering services and field work.

The Chase and Manning & Locklin properties involved in the development of a new well for the City of Northville is also to be included in this appraisal. Motion was carried.

Mgr. Robertson presented a resolution for adoption for the City Council favoring the proposed relocation of the Eight-Mile cut-off on the present site of Carlyle St. and offering its cooperation and assistance to both the Wayne and Oakland County Road Commissions in order to expedite the construction of the relocated Eight-Mile Road along the proposed Carlyle St. route. It was moved by Reed, supported by Welch, that this resolution be adopted. Carried.

Councilman Reed presented a resolution that the dedications of property in Fairbrook Court for highway and public utilities easement, the first of which was dated Sept. 30th, 1953, and the second dated Oct. 22nd, 1956, be declared null and void and that the acceptance of these dedications be revoked and declared vacated, because of an error in property description. Moved by Reed, supported by Ely, that this resolution be adopted.

A new resolution was then presented correcting the errors contained in the previous dedications, and it was moved by Reed, supported by Welch, that same be adopted. Carried.

No further business appearing; meeting was adjourned at 10:45 p.m. (Signed)

Mary Alexander, City Clerk

EMPTY FOURTH LANE — This scene is typical of Grand River nowadays. State officials are finding that the new fourth lane (foreground) is offering its share of problems, and are now studying ways of informing drivers of the correct way to use it. When the new Farmington-Brighton expressway is opened, the fourth lane will be abandoned.

State Is Keeping Wary Eye On New US-16 Fourth Lane

State and local police are beginning to wonder whether the new fourth lane on Grand River is a boon or a bust.

Though officials were reluctant to make hard-and-fast statements this week, they admitted that the new lane has turned up a number of problems.

They also hinted it may have figured in a few accidents since it was opened two weeks ago.

A spokesman for the state highway department said officials are constantly studying current traffic conditions and comparing them with pre-fourth lane conditions.

He said the study indicates so far that traffic is flowing more smoothly and week end congestion has been reduced — the two goals which the new lane was designed to reach.

A representative of the Redford state police post noted that motorists are still not used to the additional lane — a fact obvious to anyone driving along Grand River.

The lane looks more like the road shoulder than a right-of-way, especially to an unfamiliar driver, he said. In addition, signs reading "special lane" tend to discourage use of the lane, rather than encourage it.

Motorists are also confused, he said, by lane stripes. Both white and yellow stripes have remained unchanged, and drivers are uncertain as to which lanes to use.

Some drivers, he said, seem fearful of using the new outside lane to pass trucks on the right. Others, however, have no qualms about driving along what is now the third lane and running into oncoming traffic.

Novi police could not definitely attribute any accidents to the new fourth lane. But they are tagging all mishaps which could be even remotely connected with it. All such reports are being compiled by the Redford state police post.

State highway officials are studying new ways of phrasing directions so that motorists may understand them immediately and clearly. There is a possibility that overhead signs may be installed.

"In the meantime," said one, "we're keeping our fingers crossed until the new expressway is opened this fall."

Landowners to Meet

The newly-formed "Novi township Farmers and Landowners Association" will meet tonight (Thursday) to discuss the effects of the proposed incorporation of Novi as a village.

Officers will be elected at the meeting.

The group will meet at the Novi community building at 8 p.m.

The association has been organized by a group of Novi landowners under Herbert Koester.

WIXOM FACES COURT TEST

Five Are Injured In Novi Accidents Sunday Afternoon

Two serious accidents snarled traffic in Novi Sunday and sent five persons to the hospital with a variety of injuries.

Injured Sunday were —Mrs. Ora Barlow, 49, of Detroit, internal injuries.

—Charles Barlow, 52, of Detroit, fractured skull.

—Mrs. Isabel Barlow, 35, of Detroit, fractured leg.

—Mrs. Annie Fernandez, 33, of Romulus, fractured leg.

—Mrs. Anna Palmer, 69, of Detroit, lacerations of the arm.

All but Mrs. Palmer were injured in a four-car accident Sunday afternoon at Novi road and the new expressway viaduct.

According to Novi police chief Lee BeGole, a car driven by Burnett Barlow, 35, of Detroit, smashed into a line of stopped cars, resulting in a four-car pileup. Three of the injured were riding with him.

The other three cars were driven by: Mrs. Joanne Ambrozewicz, 35, Detroit; Bennie Smith, 35, Detroit, and Raymond Fernandez, 31, of Romulus.

BeGole said Barlow had been drinking.

In a second accident Sunday, a car driven by Albert Gillison of St. Johns struck a second car at Grand River and Wixom roads, causing a major traffic jam for half an hour.

Mrs. Palmer was a passenger in his car and was sent to Ford hospital, at her request, for treatment.

The driver of the second car, Mrs. Patricia Cluckey, 2087 Wixom road, had stopped to make a left turn when Gillison's car struck hers in the rear, BeGole said. Neither she nor her passenger, Miss Joanne Fitzpatrick, of Brighton, was injured.

New Doctor, Dentist Begin Novi Practice

A new doctor and dentist will set up shop in Novi this week.

Dr. Lyle L. Fetting, D.O. and Dr. Richard M. Henderson, D.D.S., will open their clinic at 43230 Grand River, former home of Charles Trickey, Sr.

Dr. Fetting is a native of Detroit and received a bachelor of science degree from Wayne State university. His D.O. degree was awarded by the Des Moines Still College of Osteopathy and Surgery.

He interned at Detroit Osteopathic hospital and practiced in Howell for a year before coming to Novi.

Dr. Henderson is also a native of Detroit. After flying combat missions over Europe in World War II, he entered and graduated from University of Detroit school of dentistry.

He practiced in Detroit for six years.

MAKING IT OFFICIAL — Wixom's newly appointed treasurer, clerk and attorney were sworn in Monday evening by Joseph Stadnik, village president, making the council's first three appointments official. Stadnik (second from left) reads the oath of office to Everett Pearsall, treasurer, while Mrs. Jesse Byrd, clerk, and David E. Utley, attorney, look on.

Patrolman's Suspension To Come before Board

The Novi township board will take up several items of unfinished business Monday night that should make for an interesting — to say the least — meeting.

The same matters led to several aroused discussions at the last meeting, as charges and counter-charges were hurled back and forth among board members.

Foremost topic is expected to be the proposed 90-day suspension of patrolman Vernon Loeffler for allegedly engaging in political activities while on duty.

The suspension will take effect Monday unless Loeffler convinces three board members of his innocence. Loeffler said Tuesday that he had not yet been informed of the charges and therefore could not say what form his appeal will take.

In other business, the board is expected to take the often-discussed question of whether Novi justices of the peace should pay for services provided by the township.

A third topic may well be a proposed reduction in the police budget, although supervisor Frazer Staman and attorney Anthony Renne agreed at the last meeting that such action would likely be illegal.

Wixom Picks News As Official Paper

The Novi News became the official newspaper of the village of Wixom Monday evening.

By a unanimous vote of the council The News, published by the Northville Record, Inc., was named as the publication to carry all legal notices of the village.

Since incorporation proceedings and the village election, The News has provided intense coverage of Wixom activities. In keeping with this policy The News will continue to report the happenings of the area and keep pace with its growth.

Marked readership gains have been made through the efforts of an area circulation contest, which is scheduled to continue until September 21. The News also presents for the first time this week a column of Wixom activities by its correspondent, Mrs. Charles Ware, on page seven.

The village of Wixom, barely one month old, found itself involved in a legal suit this week.

The suit, brought by James P. and Mildred R. Walden and Dick B. Roach, Inc., was filed in the circuit court of Oakland county. It brought vehement reaction from Joseph Stadnik, village president.

In essence it will test the legality of the village charter adopted by the voters on July 15.

David E. Utley, village attorney, told council members he had been served with the suit officially last Friday. He explained that the plaintiffs are questioning the authority of Wixom to subject land to zoning regulations which existed under township rule until the village prepares its own zoning rules.

Specifically, the plaintiffs propose to build a gasoline station on a Wixom road site across from the Lincoln plant formerly designated M-1 (light industry) under Novi township zoning. Section 7.1 of chapter 7 of the village charter states that all ordinances and regulations of the townships will continue in force until new regulations are enacted by the village. This section has been challenged as invalid by the plaintiffs.

Word that actual construction of footings for the station had begun brought strong action from Stadnik. With council approval he ordered Utley to serve an injunction on the builders to stop construction until the suit can be settled.

In their suit the plaintiffs charged that they would suffer financial loss and a "desirable lease with a major oil company" if immediate steps were not taken.

Counsel for the plaintiffs had urged council members last week to zone the area commercial to allow construction of the station. He emphasized the need for prompt action and warned that a suit might result. Stadnik had requested that the matter be discussed with Utley before any decision was made. Utley told the council that he was informed of the intention to bring suit on the day following the council meeting.

Stadnik pointed out that the construction had begun without a building permit. "They're telling us our laws are no good," he charged. "This is a very crucial time in the village of Wixom, we should decide now whether we're wide open or not."

In other business the council took prompt action as a result of the suit by passing an emergency building code. Utley advised the council to give immediate attention to building and zoning matters.

The council also hurried the appointment of a building inspector by choosing two applicants on a temporary basis. They are Ed Wendt and Fred Thayer.

By a vote of three to two the council adopted a resolution to bring the 8-mill limitation amendment to (Continued on Page 8)

Contest Club Votes Drop in Value End of Week

At the end of this week, the greatest club vote offer of The Northville Record and The Novi News' $3,500 Subscription Contest will end.

Votes issued for each $30 worth of new and renewal subscriptions will start dropping in value and will continue to drop 25,000 each week for the next three weeks. Contestants have until 9 o'clock Saturday night to take advantage of this club vote offer.

Everywhere contestants should be working fast — gathering subscriptions and promises of subscriptions in a supreme effort to poll as many votes as possible while they yield the most credit. This is the greatest voting opportunity of the entire contest. All contestants who have hopes of being numbered among the prize winners will make the most of it.

Contestants who realize that the time to get the winning votes is NOW will make it a point to get as many $30 clubs of subscriptions as possible to get the high club vote credit.

Help Favorites

Subscribers and readers of The Northville Record and The Novi News can help their favorite contestants reach their goals and give the most vote credit on their subscription payments now. Those who wait until next week to give subscriptions will give their favorites fewer votes.

Among the men and women who are striving to win the new Ford, the $500 cash or one of the other prizes, the consensus of opinion is that getting all the votes possible under the present offer is the main stepping stone to final success.

Each Subscription Counts

The thousands of additional votes to be gained on subscriptions secured NOW may make victory possible for the hardest campaigner in the contest. One extra $30 club turned in now could mean the difference between winning or losing the grand prize.

All contestants who have it within them to make an effort to win will get as many $30 clubs of subscriptions as possible to get the high club vote credit.

Readers of this newspaper can help contestants complete $30 clubs by giving subscriptions now instead of later on during the contest. Each club is worth 25,000 more votes than it will be worth next week.

Best Time For Work

Contestants who put forth their best efforts during the remaining days of the first vote period will find it an excellent time to get subscriptions.

People who have favorites in the race will want to give subscriptions while they yield the most credit. Contestants who realize this will not lag along. They will get busy now and become real contenders for the biggest prizes.

Any contestant who has been accepting promises of subscriptions who will "go after" all promises will find the next few days real productive in the matter of votes.

Just Getting Started

The contest is just getting a good start. People are watching the race shape up and are speculating on which of the contestants have it within them to battle the hardest for the winning votes.

The majority of entrants in one of these contests can find some reason for being unable to accomplish anything. But the real reason is that they do not make an earnest effort. Some people can accomplish more in hours than others can accomplish in days. It all depends on the individual. No matter how busy you are, you may accomplish enough to win by trying. You have all to gain, nothing to lose.

Live-Wires Invited

The preliminaries of the contest are over. But there is still plenty of room for real, live-wire contestants. No one has a vote lead that could not be overcome in a short time by a hard-hitting campaigner. If you are not easily discouraged and have the will to make an effort, you can ENTER NOW and soon overcome other entrants. The only difference between the ones now entered and a new entrant is just a matter of seeing your friends and acquaintances and getting them to give you their subscriptions. Nearly everybody is still a prospect for subscriptions. If anyone has given a subscription for one or two years, he can extend his time and proper credit will be given.

Some contestants may start with a few subscriptions from their friends and then fail to keep on hammering toward the goal. Others may see a few people and then say that there are not any more prospects for subscriptions. A few contestants have talked to a few people who subscribed and got the idea that "everybody has been seen". There are more than 6,000 prospective new and renewal subscriptions available in this area. The contest offers an unlimited opportunity for the man or woman who can realize that only a small number of these will be asked to subscribe during the contest.

All that is required to win is to get interested and make some effort, then battle it through to the finish regardless of rumors, discouragement and your competitors. The contestant that you think might do the most, may do the least.

No entrant loses. Everybody gets a prize, bonus or commission according to the contest rules. Enter NOW and give it a trial.

In Willowbrook:

Dancing Classes Planned

By Mrs. John Parent — Greenleaf 4-2060

Some of the girls in Willowbrook are hoping to start an interpretive dancing class for children. They have an excellent teacher, Nancy Sparrow of Detroit, lined up if they can create enough interest for a class. The lessons would be a dollar a child and would probably be held in the community hall. Galah Fried of Holly Dale would appreciate anyone interested calling her at GR-4-8834. Any child over three is eligible. If the project works out, they would like to start an adult class to keep the mothers in shape while they are waiting for the young ones. If you are interested please call Mrs. Fried right away.

Congratulations go to the John Browers of East LeBost who had a seven pound, seven ounce boy named John. The baby was born August 6 in Mt. Carmel hospital.

A lovely baby shower was given for Mary Zavaric by Mary Chismark last Thursday. A green and yellow color scheme was carried out in the decorations. The table centerpiece was a green rosette with tiny baby shoes hanging from it. The guests played bonko and prizes were given for the winners. The guest list included Mrs. Gordon Promo, Mrs. Vince Miklas, Mrs. Robert McKeon, Mrs. Robert Flattery, Mrs. James McCormick, Mrs. R. Richards, Mrs. Bernard Weisberger, Mrs. Robert Nelson, Mrs. J. Brower, Mrs. Jack Tam, Mrs. William Dean, Mrs. William Gallagher, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. J. Zavaric, Sr., Mrs. George Barker, Mrs. Charles McClosky, Mrs. Frank Cucchetti, Mrs. Roy Divetta, Mrs. Gilbert Alter, Mrs. Colin Kennedy, Mrs. Clifton Pate, Mrs. Charles Faybik, Mrs. Alan Faybik, Mrs. Dick Isaac, Mrs. Bernard Roy, Mrs. Carl Zavaric and Mrs. W. Kalicki.

Mickey Green of Meadowbrook was five years old August 7. He had a lawn party to celebrate the event. The dog show in Northville fell on his birthday and he entered his dalmation, "Roxo". His best present was when his dog won first prize. The guests at his birthday party were Karen McMahon, Cathy Kalmar, Babbie Love, Bobbie Zielasko, Cindy and Heather Campbell and Billy Greene.

Tom and Fay Dukes of Malott entertained former Willowbrook residents, Don and Billy Golbey, of Pittsburg recently.

Michael Gerald Laub was christened on Sunday at Our Lady of Sorrows church in Farmington. His sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Brennan of Detroit. His parents, the Gerald Laubs of McMahon had a party afterwards for 25 of the family.

The Tom Needhams of McMahon had as their house guests over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Harry Needham and Sharon Miller of Escanaba and Paul Miller of Pittsburg. The guests kept busy shopping and sight-seeing.

Ethel Stover of Glen Ridge gave a baby shower Wednesday night for her sister-in-law, Janet Fowler.

The cub scouts of Den One were entertained recently by Mr. and Mrs. Jansen and their son, Billy, of Grand River. The boys enjoyed all the hamburgs, pop and ice cream and candy they could eat. The scouts were Jim and Don Needham, Dick Beniley, Jimmy Barnes, Gary Moborak and Charles Van Avery. Mrs. Thomas Needham and her girls, Melinda and Harriet, were invited as guests.

The Ralph Morse family of Mooringside have returned from a ten day vacation at their cottage on Lake George. Their youngest daughter, Suzie, caught a ten inch bass.

The Michael Brondstetters of LeBost are home again after spending two weeks at a cottage near Reed City.

The Clifford Brodersons of Meadowbrook spent Sunday boating at Silver Lake with Bud and Betty Smith of Redford.

Thursday night, the Bill Crowells of Meadowbrook attended the graduation party of North Carey of Pontiac from G.M. Tech. Friday night they went to the house-warming of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Leach of Detroit.

Dottie Flattery of LeBost was hostess to her bridge club Wednesday night. The winners were Marty Ames and Agnes Driscoll. Zan Brondstetter won the consolation prize. Fay Dukes was a guest for the evening.

We are glad to hear Mrs. William Gallagher of Ten Mile is home from the hospital.

The first blood transfusion, according to record, was given to Pope Innocent VIII in 1492.

DOWN IT COMES — Wreckers begin demolishing what is left of the Allied Products division in Northville. Shown here is one of the most severely damaged areas, where the fire was so intense that the quenest shell buckled and collapsed like a deflated balloon. Operations were halted this week while insurance investigators completed their survey.

a vote. The amendment has been requested prior to the charter election by the Wixom Civic Association. It was opposed by Councilmen Jesse Birchard and Walter Tuck on the grounds that sufficient information was not available to the council concerning the budget and assessed valuation of the village. Other council members argued that the amendment was a mandate of the people and that the resolution would allow the voters to decide whether or not they favored the limitation.

The council also voted to rent the Abrams' home at 131 Wixom road for a village hall. Actual occupancy will probably be delayed by repairs until September.

LITTLE FAITH IN ACTION

I'm sure that most of my readers are familiar with the account given in the Bible about Gideon (Judges 6 and 7). His picture also hangs in the gallery of the heroes of faith. Actually he was a man of little faith. When God first called him, Gideon doubted that God was with him. When God sent him, Gideon had to keep a sign that God would keep His word. So God sent fire from the rock to accommodate him. He then tested God twice with the fleece, making two opposite conditions. Still later he had to eavesdrop in a conversation of the Midianites before he had strength to go against them. Why then was a man like Gideon, a man of little faith, exalted in the Scriptures? I believe it was because he used the faith that he had. Friend, listen, there may be many questions in your mind about the why's and wherefore's of our God as recorded in the scriptures. But if you sincerely believe that Jesus Christ died for your sins on Calvary and that He arose again, why not use that faith by repenting and receiving Christ as your Saviour. After making your personal surrender to Him, you will discover that you will be given more faith to believe all that is written.

Readers Like the Local Touch

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, August 15, 1957—9

With all the attention focused on readers of The Record and Novi News by our $3,500 circulation contest, we took pencil, paper and camera this week to find out who reads a weekly newspaper and why!

We learned that the average subscriber reads his weekly paper much more thoroughly than the daily paper. Basically, the community newspaper reader wants to know what's going on in his town of residence. One subscriber went so far as to say that it was the "duty" of every resident to read the community paper. "They should know what's going on and what decisions have been made by their elected governing bodies," the reader exclaimed.

To a great extent, men, women and children look for different things in their community paper. Social news and advertisements find women as their most avid readers. Men look to the area developments, read the ads and check the sports and editorial page.

The school pages, sports and pictures hold interest for teen readers.

But even among these divisions there are some exceptions. Retail merchants like to see what other merchants are advertising. "Locals" are read by both men and women who are interested in what the Joneses are doing.

Many readers have boys and girls in the service and find the hometown paper is an excellent means of keeping them in touch.

All parents are intently interested in the activities of their children. They follow the "little leagues", scouts and recreation programs through the pages of the newspaper.

Beyond this the community newspaper serves as a source of information for officials of the area. Northville, Novi and Wixom leaders compare notes and learn by the experience of their neighbors. Public relations officials in area industries keep informed of community happenings.

As one reader put it, "the hometown paper is the best, and only, source of communication between all residents of a common area." It takes over where its "big city brother" leaves off — right at the local level.

PART OF THEIR LIFE — Robert Shafer has to keep up with many developments in his two roles as a member of the Northville board of education and as the Northville township zoning board chairman. While he scans the news columns, Mrs. Shafer goes through the ads and plans her budget.

DOUBLE-DUTY — In Wixom, Bill Abrams finds that The Novi News serves him well whether he is acting as a real estate dealer or a village councilman. Above, he discusses the sale of a house with Mr. and Mrs. George Goslin, using the News as an indication of real estate activity. At other times, he reads The News' accounts of how Novi and Northville face governmental problems which will soon face him as a councilman.

SPORTS SCORES — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Calliguri, of Willowbrook Village, have two Little Leaguers — Ralph and Randy — to follow and they find reports of each game in The Record-News. Sports activities — whether athletics at Northville high school or the summer recreation program which serves both communities — involve almost every family in the area.

BUSINESS ACTIVITIES in Northville and Novi are reviewed by Bruce McAllister, who will soon supplement his "Decorator" store in Novi with a furniture-refinishing workshop in Northville. By using The Record and News, Northville and Novi businessmen not only get their advertising messages to thousands of readers, but pick up new ideas for improving their own businesses.

OVERSEAS READER — When Mr. and Mrs. C. Noble Dahlgren, 839 Grace, read The Record, they know their son, Stanley, is keeping up with events in his home town, too. Due to return from Korea soon, Stan has received The Record throughout his tour of duty.

READING THE RECORD has been a habit for Charles Shipley, 677 West Dunlap, for nearly 61 years — ever since he came to Northville as a young man. The ever-changing scene in Northville still fascinates him.

GET-TOGETHER AT LINCOLN — James L. Crow (left), industrial relations manager for Lincoln, goes over a file of clippings from The Novi News with public relations staffer William Geary. Lincoln officials are aware that their firm plays a huge part in the area's life, and depend on the paper to keep informed of what is happening around nearby communities.

Girl's Death Prompts Polio Warning

The tragic death of a 17-year-old girl after a two-day onset of polio last week should draw attention to the urgent need for inoculation with the Salk vaccine, Detroit health commissioner Dr. Joseph G. Molner said last week.

The young woman had not been vaccinated. Had she received her Salk shots it is possible she would now be living and this needless tragedy averted, he said.

On Thursday she had complained of a headache and pains in her shoulder and back. Saturday the disease had completed its toll.

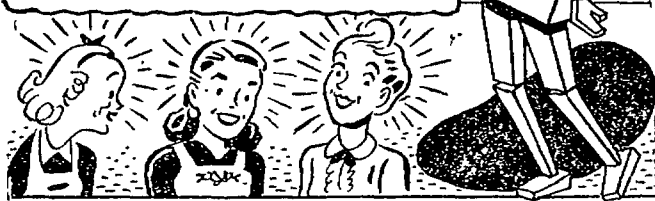

There is no need at this height of the polio season for anyone not receiving the Salk vaccine, Dr. Molner said. Stepped-up production of the serum is now coming in from drug companies, and commercial supplies are available to physicians through the druggists of the metropolitan area.

There are currently 70,000 doses on hand for general use and some of this may spoil because of lack of demand and public apathy. Some druggists are already refusing further orders from the laboratories. Plentiful supply of the vaccine time enables those over 14 years of age to avail themselves of the shots. The Salk vaccine distributed by the State Health Department is limited to children ranging from one to 14 years of age.

Polio spreads its ravages among adults as well as children, he said, and the index of such cases has been gradually increasing during recent years.

Water Carnival Ends Program

Scores of Northville and Novi boys and girls will dive for watermelons, chase balloons and swim against the clock tomorrow afternoon in the annual Northville recreation department water carnival.

The carnival is the last event in the jam-packed summer recreation program.

It will last most of the day, and will feature events for boys and girls from seven years on up.

Buses will leave the Northville Community building at 9:15 a.m. and will return about 4 p.m. The carnival itself will be held at Whitmore lake's Groomer's beach — scene of daily swimming trips sponsored by the recreation department this summer.

Recreation director Stan Johnston has announced the following schedule of events:

Canoe Races (teams of two):

—Boys: 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, 17 and over.

—Girls: 12-13, 14-15, 16 and over.

Canoe Boxing (teams of two):

—Boys: 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, 17 and over.

—Girls: 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, 17 and over.

Swimming Races:

—Boys and girls: 7-8, 9-10, 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, 17 and over.

Balloon Chase (with pennies in balloons):

—for younger boys and girls

Wading Races:

—Boys and girls 7-8, or those who do not swim.

Relays:

—for younger boys and girls.

Diving for Greased Watermelons:

—Boys and girls: 11-12, 13-14, 15-16, 17 and over.

With the end of the water carnival, Johnston and his staff will close up shop for another summer.

All other activities — including the day camp — ended this week.

At its peak this summer, the recreation program drew more than 800 children.

The program was the most extensive ever held in Northville. Its special events — Detroit Tiger ball game, trips to the Detroit Zoo, pet and doll show, turtle race — were well attended, and its baseball program was the most successful ever.

OFF TO THE BALL GAME — Northville youngsters make a dash for the buses that took them to the Detroit-Cleveland ball game last week. Unfortunately, their favorites were on the short end of a 3-1 score. The trip was sponsored by the Northville recreation department. Ten fathers went along as supervisors. (See "Speaking for the Record", page 16.)

Little League Title to Paragon

The Paragon Steelers have clinched the first championship of the Novi Little League.

The Steelers turned back a last-minute bid by the Fiberglass Sluggers Monday night, winning the title with two games remaining in the regular season.

Meanwhile, league officials announced tentative plans for a Little League "World Series" — a round of playoff games scheduled for next week.

Paragon scotched Fiberglass' last hopes Monday night when the Steelers downed the Sluggers, 13-9. With Jim Mazel hurling a four-hitter, the Steelers collected 10 hits and wrapped up the game with an eight-run rally in the fourth.

Fiberglass had jumped ahead with seven runs in the second, but couldn't hold on to the lead. Fiberglass' Ron Bearden had the longest hit of the game and perhaps of the season — booming a bases-empty home run that soared far out into the outfield.

Fiberglass' hopes were dimmed earlier when the Sluggers lost to the up-and-coming Young Door Tigers, 12-9. Dennis Marshall took the victory, allowing only four hits and striking out 12.

Young Door won again Friday, downing National Bank, 9-4. The Tigers banged out 12 hits while registering their fourth win in their last six starts. It was National Bank's 11th straight loss.

The standings:

Paragon	12	4
Fiberglass	10	7
Young Door	6	10
National Bank	4	11

Fleas and Monkeys Steal Pet Show

A batch of fleas and a monkey named "Skippy" gained momentary fame with the younger set here last week.

They were named the "smallest pets" and the "most original pet" in the annual pet and doll show sponsored by the Northville recreation department.

Upwards of 70 boys and girls had all variety of animals and dolls out for the showing, and most of them walked off with prizes. In fact, where there was no category to cover an entry, recreation director Stan Johnston created one on the spot.

Thus it was, for example, that David Cook's "Danny" was named the "homeliest dog" and Bobby Bates' "Bow" had the dubious distinction of being the "meanest dog".

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—Thursday, August 15, 1957—11

Champion Northville 9's Enter Recreation Tournaments

The state-wide Michigan Recreation Association baseball tournament got underway Monday with two of Northville's four teams carrying the colors of their league.

Both the midget Northville Braves and the Class E Northville team were entered in the district elimination tourney at West Dearborn this week. (See front page for results).

But a third team — the Northville Class F squad — was ruled out of the Wyandotte Inter-City tournament on a draw of straws.

Northville Braves

The midget Braves completed an outstanding season last week by taking two shut-out victories for a 14-1 record. They thereby gained the championship of the Livonia recreation midget league, composed of 16 midget teams in two divisions.

Coach Ken Conley's National League team tied for the league lead by dropping Wilcox, 4-0, and won the title by defeating Livonia Center — champs of the American League — in a 6-0 contest.

Against Wilcox, Danny Brown — who had tossed two no-hitters — allowed only one hit in the crucial game. His mates punched out seven safeties and gave him a 2-0 first inning lead.

In the title-deciding game, pitcher Craig Bell allowed the previously-unbeaten Livonia Center team a skimpy three hits. Jim Juday slammed out three of Northville's six hits, including a booming double.

Class E

Northville put the finishing touches on a perfect 8-0 season last week by dropping Ford Civic, 4-2.

Pitcher Joe Kritch allowed but four hits against Ford, and paced his team at the plate with a two-run double.

Northville collected only one other hit, but was aided by seven walks and three Ford errors.

Class F
Second place Northville was squeezed out of the Inter-City tournament when league officials decided to send Livonia Police instead.

Customarily, the second-place team goes into the tourney. But though Northville was tied with Livonia for second — and was a favorite to take the second spot outright in its final two games — the nod went to Livonia.

Northville officials surmised that the decision was based on the fact that Northville is already represented in post-season play by two teams.

The Class F squad made it 8-2 for the season last week by dumping Clarenceville, 8-4, on "Butch" Willing's seven-hitter. Steve Juday riddled a bases-loaded single in the fourth inning for Northville's big blow.

3 Bowling Leagues To Meet Next Week

Three Northville bowling leagues will hold organizational meetings next week.

The Monday night men's league at Royal Recreation will meet next Monday at 8 p.m. at the bowling alley.

The Tuesday night women's league at Royal Recreation will meet there next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The Thursday night women's league at Angie's Northville Lanes will meet there next Thursday (August 22) at 7:30 p.m.

No Change Expected In Waterfowl Dates

Northville and Novi hunters can expect no major changes in waterfowl seasons in Michigan this year, if basic federal regulations are the same as in 1956.

The state conservation commission will establish Michigan seasons and bag limits later this month.

In 1956, Michigan hunters had the maximum 70-day waterfowl season—October 1—December 9—and a daily bag limit of four ducks. It is not expected that any major curtailment will be made this year, unless it is found that waterfowl production this year dropped more than 20 percent below last year's level.

An angry man is Sylvester T. Bty,
Who today was sold a piece of "blue sky."
He'd stepped in a showroom—out of the rain,
Was sold a new car before he could explain!
How he hated the styling—so high and square
And in new features it was really bare.
"I got a real bargain—the buy of my life—
But how do I ever convince my own wife?"

Moral: You're paying for a new car... make sure you get one!

When you buy a new car, put your money on tomorrow—not yesterday. Swept-Wing Dodge actually obsoletes other cars in its field. Should you invest in high, boxy styling when Dodge offers the low, low look of tomorrow? Should you invest in outmoded coil springs when Dodge offers new Torsion-Aire Ride? Should you invest in an old-fashioned lever-type transmission when Dodge offers the ease of Push-Button Driving? In other things, too—engines, brakes, interiors—Dodge is years ahead. So put your money on tomorrow. See your Dodge dealer. Join the swing to the Swept-Wing Dodge!

Teachers Engage In Goodwill Work
Helping to entertain handicapped employees of Goodwill Industries last week were Mrs. Martha Egge and Miss Ruth N. Knapp, recently retired teachers of the Northville school system.
They joined 14 other members of the Women's Association of Goodwill Industries to treat 78 employees to a luncheon and birthday party at the main building, Brush and Grand River, last Tuesday.
Under the direction of Mrs. A. Warren Brock, and Miss Amelia Moeller, president, the group gives a similar party and special luncheon each month, including gifts.
Mrs. Egge and Miss Knapp, still busy even though retired, are also active members of the International Institute.

Trees

A tree is a marvelous creation of God. "Only God can make a tree" is a truth we appreciate when we enjoy the maples of southern Michigan or the pines and birches of the north. We cannot think of a beautiful landscape that does not have in it the presence of trees.

How quietly the work was done. No sound attends the birth of a tree. Growth is silent. The new leaf comes forth in spring and only the summer's breeze of autumn's wind brings sound. Quietly the falling leaves trace their slanting course to the ground. How quietly the work is done.

A familiar hymn says, "God works in a mysterious way His wonders to perform." Quietly, without fanfare, God makes a tree—graceful, useful, a part of God's plan for the world.

Three trees once prayed in a forest for the things they wanted to be. One wanted to be a palace; another wanted to sail the seas, and the third asked to be left to grow in the forest and point a finger to God in prayer. It happened that when that when the first tree was cut it became a manger stall to cradle a babe, the fairest of them all. The second tree thirty years later became a small boat on the Sea of Galilee from which the young man preached and taught the people who crowded the shore. The third tree was cut and fashioned into a cross on which the young man was nailed. Yet the cross points the way to God. Our petitions are answered in unforeseen ways, like those of the three trees. Quietly, God can work in you. Anderson M. Scruggs observes that Man spends his noisy days in search of gain. While trees find God in sunlight, soil and rain

While it may be said that we need to have gain and to earn our living and even to live in a noisy day, nevertheless there is a ministry of silence, a therapy in inward calm and peace. "In quietness and confidence shall be your strength."

Is anything happening within? Are the rare quiet times a dead vacuum, or do you feel that the quiet work of God is being done within you in ways unforeseen. Begin the Lord's Prayer. Like this: "Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done . . ." in me.

CLOSE CALL — Northville firemen attack a barn fire at 40033 Eight Mile last Thursday. Arriving only minutes after the blaze broke out, firemen confined it to a small attached shed and part of the roof.

Boy Plays with Matches, Sets Parents' Barn Afire

A family tragedy nearly resulted last Thursday when an eight-year-old Northville boy disregarded his parents' warnings about playing with matches.

As it was, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Sterling escaped with only $200-$300 damage to a barn behind their home at 40033 Eight Mile road.

"We are only renting this home," said Mrs. Sterling. "And we just bought an expensive new home the other side of Northville last week. When I saw those flames, I thought it was our future going up in smoke."

Mrs. Sterling said the fire was apparently caused by her young son, Dale, playing with matches near the barn — some 100 feet from the house.

"If he had called out right away, I could have doused it with a garden hose," she said. "But he must have become frightened. It wasn't until our six-year-old daughter, Kay, screamed that the barn was on fire that I knew anything about it."

A prompt phone call brought Northville firemen rushing to the home. Within minutes, the blaze was out. Only a small adjoining shed and part of the barn's roof was damaged.

Mrs. Sterling had words of praise for the Northville fire department. "I heard the siren wailing as soon as I hung up the phone," she said. "And just a couple of minutes later, they were there and fighting the fire. I don't know what we would have done without them."

The Sterlings moved to Northville from Cincinnati in December. They also have a 16-year-old daughter, Linda.

Plan Polio Survey In Oakland County

A countrywide survey to discover the rehabilitation needs of post-polio patients will be conducted this month by the Oakland County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The local survey is part of a nationwide project by the foundation to compile a roster of polio cases of all ages and degree of disability, regardless of date of onset.

The canvass here is to be completed by September 1.

The roster is to be made in close cooperation with the Oakland county medical society and member physicians, and the Oakland county health department.

Information sought from each patient includes whether he is employed or attends school, if he can climb stairs and dress himself, whether he receives regular treatment and if he uses a respiratory aid.

All persons who have ever had polio — whether disabled or not — have been asked to send their names and addresses directly to the Oakland County Chapter office, National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, 75 West Huron Street, Pontiac, Michigan.

If you reside in Northville or Novi Townships or the nearby area served by The Record and Novi News, you are invited to enter the $3,500 contest. See the ad in this paper. You can't lose.

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

The fact that Detroit lost to the Cleveland Indians 3 to 1 wasn't half as cruel a blow to 100 Northville youngsters in the left field stands last Thursday as another development.

The vendors chose that day to go on strike.

Imagine a ball game without peanuts, popcorn, hot dogs, ice cream or pop! And multiply the disappointment of the Northville lads by contingents from about six or seven other communities.

A hot day, a ball game and thousands of little pockets burning with money and no place to spend it!

Actually, that's all the ingredients you need for a first class riot. But it didn't happen. As a matter of fact, the youngsters displayed wonderful restraint and managed to let off their steam vocally when Reno Bertoia slammed a home run just a few rows below their section.

One youngster, excited by the massiveness of Briggs Stadium and the first hand view of the game, exclaimed "boy, all this and no commercials!"

On the way back some of the disappointment was erased by an order for ice cream bars for everyone, including the fathers, a group just as disappointed by the lack of refreshments as the youngsters.

Ken Conley, assistant to Stan Johnston in the recreation program, directed the two busloads. And others who helped herd the troops from bus to stands and to various other places were Frank Swiss, Bruce Turnbull, Lester Johnston, Otis Tewksbury, Jerry Freydl, Mike Willing, Jim LaRue and Hank Fallon.

After seeing the game, we're more convinced than ever that the Tigers have lost their teeth and claws. They acted like nine men going through the motions of playing baseball. Bertoia missed first base after hitting a double; Kuenn made a simple grounder look like a sensational play and then pulled Boone off the bag with his throw; Tuttle dropped a fly ball after having it in his glove. Like most Tiger teams of recent years, they set their sights for the first division, fall short and wait for next year. Meanwhile, the Yankees point for first place and if they come in second the manager is fired.

Mayor "Pete" Ely is back from his vacation and a fisherman's paradise. Pete said he still-fished daily until dark when he could no longer see the bobber disappear, then hauled in bass with rod and reel.

Early Campaigners

HOT WEATHER politics in this off-year is creating as much stir this early in the season as the urgent kind of campaigning when an election is a few months away.

Republicans are uncertain what political direction they took with House Speaker George M. Van Peursem.

Legislators thought it would be a good idea to send him on a speaking tour around the state to describe the virtues and accomplishments of the House and Senate.

The key word is money.

Gov. Williams, contending that people want to pay more for more services and to handle the increased population load of existing services, continues to seek higher budgets.

Republicans, insisting the people want less spending and lower taxes, want to maintain present services, take care of the increased loads and keep the budgets down.

Van Peursem insisted when he started the tour in mid-July that he wanted only to work with the legislature; that he was not seeking a higher office.

Reports indicate he has been well-received around the state and that Republicans look to him as a candidate for governor in 1958 or 1960.

He is the second legislator to cast covetous eyes on the governor's chair for his party.

The other, who said "I might be a candidate," is Rep. George Salade (R-Ann Arbor) who in two two-year terms in the house has made his presence felt as a leader of the "Young Turks", a group of young members who rebel against the majority occasionally.

Van Peursem is a young lawyer who cut his teeth in the legislature as chairman of the house labor committee, which started the campaign against Gov. Williams two years ago.

From this committee came the charge that Williams' tax proposals were frightening industries out of Michigan.

The campaign was revived last spring and Democrats are quoted by the experts as admitting it has hurt Williams and the Democrats politically.

He is as liberal as most younger party members require and as conservative as most Republicans demand.

The strategy of timing will decide whether Van Peursem's star rises next year or in 1960 — and the timing is being computed by Williams.

If Williams runs for another term, Republicans may be dissuaded from running Van Peursem. If Williams goes for the U. S. Senate against Senator Potter, they might urge him to run.

In the background is Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, the personable full-time officeholder.

At the Governor's Conference in June, Williams said Hart would "fill in for me" by running for whichever office Williams does not run for in 1958.

That leaves Van Peursem with his tour for the legislature, the Republicans only academically concerned about a candidate this early; and Democrats with one, maybe two. The timing can be as important in politics as in a symphony.

For the first time in years, it may be the last moment before either party knows who will carry its standard in the 1958 — or the 1960 — election.

FARMERS WHOSE CROPS were damaged in the heavy storms during the first two weeks in July are getting relief.

The Farmers Home Administration has asked that 12 counties in central and southeastern Michigan be designated to receive emergency production loans at a low interest rate.

The loans will be made to individual farmers after they make their application through a county committee to the state office in Lansing.

Stories came in from the affected counties to a state conference of federal, state and local officials, telling of the damage of the storms and heavy rains.

They told of up to 70 per cent of the bean crop wiped out, 50 per cent of the hay in many counties, oats, barley, corn and hay were all damaged.

Liability Protection

Babson Park, Mass. — A friend of mine has a small retail store with two or three clerks. He has worked hard and accumulated a working capital of $15,000. Recently a customer suffered a peculiar accident in the store. A jury awarded the customer $20,000 damages. This not only wiped out the savings of a lifetime, but it put the owner into debt which may result in bankruptcy.

Insurance Agents

We are solicited continually by life insurance agents. And if we have a mortgage on our store, or owe the bank anything, we must show in our statement how much fire insurance we carry. In fact, both life insurance and fire insurance are recognized by every retailer and home owner as "musts". The only question seems to be as to the friend to whom we will give the business and the amount which we carry.

I especially recommend what is known as the "comprehensive" policy. This includes most casualty risks other than life insurance. Unfortunately, less than 10 per cent of the people use these comprehensive policies. My appeal today, therefore, is for every retailer to take out a liability policy and to make it large enough.

Stores Vs. Wives

Not only should retailers take out liability insurance for their stores, but also for their wives and children. A woman neighbor of mine had a hat with a protruding feather which put out the eye of another woman during a crowded retail sale. The jury awarded the woman $25,000 and tried to involve the retailer. In another case, a parent was awarded $10,000 because his boy got hurt by running into a person while sliding down a hill in winter. A milkman who stepped on a broken board collected $5,000. I could give scores of similar illustrations!

The point I especially want to make is that you will probably have to ask for such insurance. Telephone your agent today for prices and a sample policy. Read this policy carefully, especially the fine print. If the price seems too high, ask another agent to submit his price and a sample. Life insurance premiums are very competitive and vary little; fire insurance premiums are fixed by State Commissions at very low rates; but liability rates vary considerably.

Insurance Stocks As Investments

Stocks of life insurance companies are most popular and have had a great rise in price during the past few years. Stocks of most fire insurance companies are selling below their book values. Owing to the tendency of State Commissions to hold down rates (perhaps unfairly sometimes) they are not making the money they should. However, they have excellent management and ample reserves and I believe will some day be treated fairly. For this reason I am now buying fire insurance stocks while they are cheap. I have never liked accident insurance stocks.

Juries and Gravity

Probably the most money might be made (or lost) from the stocks of casualty companies. Their gross business will continue to grow. While thus far we have hated to sue our friends and neighbors, it is fast becoming the thing to do! Most lawyers will take such suits on a retainer basis, perhaps for a two-hundred-dollar fee but with the understanding they are to receive 25 percent if they win the case. Juries are becoming constantly more generous in their awards, due to the rise in the cost of living, increased wages, and the depreciation of the dollar.

There is little argument about life insurance awards; a person is either dead or not dead. Damage from fire can also be fairly well ascertained. Moreover, "wonder drugs", new hospitals and better doctors are constantly working to help life insurance profits; and sprinkler companies, fire-alarm companies such as Gamewell, and others are working to prevent fire losses. Furthermore, the Gravity Research Foundation, in New Hampshire, is working to prevent accidents, 80 percent of which come from falls. Occupational accidents are generally covered by compulsory insurance with fixed standard rates and compensations.

If you reside in Northville or Novi townships or the nearby area served by The Record and Novi News, you are invited to enter the $3,500 contest. See the ad in this paper. You can't lose.

DO YOU USUALLY ASK PEOPLE to "speak a little louder, please" during phone conversations? Perhaps you haven't heard of the new volume control telephone. It's like other phones, but it has a small knob that lets you control the volume of the voice you're listening to. Volume control phones are invaluable for those with a hearing loss, and they're just the thing for use in places where there are distracting noises. If you need some help to hear "loud and clear" on the phone, ask for a volume control set when you order an extension.

A TELEPHONE MAN said years ago, "Nobody ever goes into telephone work unless he really likes people." Surely anyone who's talked with telephone people realizes the truth of that statement. That applies off the job as well as on it. You can tell by the number of telephone people who work with such groups as the Boy Scouts, fund-raising campaigns, and many Service Clubs. This liking for people helps explain why it's people who make your telephone service so good.
