Expect Decision Today On Fall Racing at Downs

Novi Begins Population Census

Volunteer census-takers began counting noses in Novi township this week as the move toward incorporation as a village gathered momentum.

Some 25 volunteers will survey all homes within the proposed village boundaries, taking names of every resident of the homes.

It will be Novi's first census since the federal head-count in 1950. The township's population is now estimated at 8,000.

Petitions for an incorporation election are nearly complete, and will be filed as soon as the census is complete. Novi incorporation committee members still hope for an election late this year, or possibly early next year.

A group opposing incorporation — the Novi Township Farmers and Landowners Protective Association under chairman Herbert Koester — is reportedly ready to take an active stand against the movement. The group is said to represent 500 Novi residents.

The fate of a 24-night harness racing meet this fall at Northville Downs rested in the hands of the state supreme court Wednesday.

A "writ of prohibition" sought by James Inglis, state racing commissioner, could bust the racing balloon if granted. Specifically, Inglis has asked the court to prohibit the ruling of Frank Fitzgerald, Wayne county circuit judge, to issue a racing license for the requested dates. Fitzgerald ruled last week that Inglis "abused his discretion in denying application and in failing to grant a license" to the Michigan Horseman's Racing Club, Inc.

If Inglis' writ is granted, then a full supreme court hearing on Fitzgerald's decision would undoubtedly be scheduled. The delay of an appeal would probably make the staging of a meet this year impossible. Both Inglis and Wilbur DeYoung, assistant attorney general, are anxious for a ruling on who has the power to set racing dates.

If the court denies Inglis' request, then the trotters will be "off and running" next Monday night at the Downs.

Arrangements for the meet are already well underway. William Dee, chairman of the Michigan Horseman's association, said Wednesday that applications for more than 650 horses already had been received. Track conditioning work was also in progress as "racing fever" climbed to a high pitch locally.

City fathers eyed the possibility of a second meet in Northville this year without comment. An additional $50,000 in tax revenue loomed as a prize plum, however, as growing sewer and street improvement problems overlapped an already tight budget.

The 38-night spring season brought $87,000 in tax revenues from the state.

The Horseman's Racing Club is an off-shoot of the Harness Horseman's association. All its officers are members and directors of the parent group. The meet would be conducted by the Racing Club under a lease agreement with the Downs.

2 Novi Tots Die In Home Blaze

Novi township extended its heart this week to a hard-working mother who saw two of her children burn to death in a sudden house fire last week.

Peggy, 3, and Robert Shunatona, 5, lost their lives Thursday morning when a fire flashed through their small cottage at 2465 Shawwood, near Walled Lake.

Mrs. Shunatona was in University hospital in Ann Arbor this week, suffering from third degree burns over 25 percent of her body.

Two older children — Ellen, 10, and Pat, 8 — were in class at Novi school when the fire broke out. They and another daughter, Beth, 9 months, are staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Whiteside of Milford.

According to Novi police chief, Lee BeGole, Mrs. Shunatona returned from her job as a waitress at a Novi bar about 5 a.m. and awakened about 8 a.m. to find the house full of smoke.

"I got up and walked over to the stove. I never felt anything so hot," she told BeGole. "I went outside to see what was happening and suddenly the whole roof blazed up from the draft."

"I went around to the bedroom window, and my children were jumping up and down on the bed, calling 'Mommy, mommy,'" she continued.

BeGole said Mrs. Shunatona broke the window with her arms and tried to pull the children out, but the window was too high off the ground. She tried to re-enter the house, but flames forced her away.

INVITATION TO WASHINGTON—A subpoena signed by Senator William McClellan was Joe Kritch's round-trip ticket to the nation's capitol last week. What he told the Senate investigating committee about the Sun Valley real estate project made headlines Sunday.

Salesman Joe Kritch Goes to Washington

Joe Kritch went to Washington, D.C. last week and his name and picture hit all the big newspapers, radio and television stations in the country.

Joe, who lives in Northville and sells used cars in Livonia, gets around, knows a lot of people and is a top flight salesman.

He proved his sales' ability only last week by winning $550 as a contestant in The Record and Novi News subscription contest.

It was Joe's salesmanship that landed him in Washington, subpoenaed by Senator William McClellan to appear before his investigating committee. The Senator wanted to ask Joe a few questions about the lots he used to sell for the Teamster-backed Sun Valley, Florida real estate project.

Joe said the subpoena was handed him two weeks ago while he was at work at Victory Motor Sales. "It came as a complete surprise to me," Kritch related. "I was told to appear on such a date and to contact a Mrs. Ruth Watt, clerk of the Senate committee, for travel arrangements and accommodations and to say nothing to no one," he continued.

Naturally, Joe complied. What else could he do? As a matter of fact he combined pleasure with business by taking in two Washington Senators-Baltimore Orioles ball games during his three-day stay in the nation's capitol.

His one hour and forty-five minutes on the stand were nerve wracking, Joe admits. "I never saw anything like it — bulbs flashing, television cameras, senators and reporters all over the place." He brought a roar of laughter to the chambers with his reply to the customary question of whether or not he desired legal counsel. "No, I'm here to tell the truth," Joe retorted.

His testimony is old news now. Joe related his initial enthusiasm over the Sun Valley lots, then his disillusionment when he discovered that gnomes collected from their sale was not being used for improvements.

Joe explained this week why he's glad he had to testify. "I don't care anything about the Teamsters or who they elect as president, but I do care about the friends and relatives who bought lots from me in good faith," he stated.

Joe revealed that he sold 446 lots at from $445 to $545 each. "I saw the location of Sun Valley and was convinced it had terrific possibilities," he pointed out. "I still believe that if the improvements were made and homes built as originally planned, it would be a good deal."

Joe opened his little black book and pointed to page after page of names — buyers of Sun Valley lots. "I sold 122 lots to residents of Northville," he said sadly.

"When some of them went to Florida last year and returned with pictures proving that nothing was being done to improve the project, I stopped selling."

Joe boarded a plane in Washington Saturday night and was back in Northville Sunday morning. The ordeal was over, but the excitement flared anew as he read the Detroit newspaper headlines. He'd probably save the clippings and a "command performance" subpoena — mementos of his days as a real estate salesman.

Presbyterian Men to Hear Astronomer from MSU

A Michigan State university astronomer will be the speaker before the Presbyterian Men's club next Thursday evening.

Adults May Enroll In Driver Training

Driver education classes will be offered to Northville area adults again this fall.

Classes and on-the-road introduction will be held in the evening and on Saturdays, Northville high school principal E. V. Ellison said this week.

Further information concerning exact time, cost and duration of the program may be obtained by calling the high school office at Northville 1130.

He is William Mathis, who will speak on "The Geophysical Year", for the second in a series of 1957-58 dinner programs.

Reservations for the meeting, which begins at 6:30 p.m., may be made by calling E. R. Langtry at Northville 1419. It is an open affair and all members and others are invited to bring guests.

The Men's club is also making plans for its second annual pancake supper preceding the homecoming football game October 25.

The supper will be served in the Fellowship Hall of the church between 5 and 7 p.m. Tickets will be available from members of the Men's club, or by calling W. Williams, 1326-W; E. Sprunk, 89, or E. Langtry, 1419.

AUTOMATIC WASHER, 1900 style! This ancient "1900 Cataract" washing machine caught the eye of Rolf Batzer and his daughter, Joan, last week at the Rotary club's annual rummage sale. Mrs. Wally Westerfield, wife of the chairman of the event, demonstrates to Batzer how the machine works. It was donated to the club by Edmund S. Beard and is still in working condition. The three-day sale at the Downs attracted good crowds and $700 for the Northville club's charitable activities. A handmade rug made and donated to the club by Mrs. Sam Geraci was won by Richard Keen, 221 North Rogers street.

City Readies for Torch Drive

Northville civic leaders began making final plans this week for the coming United Foundation Torch Drive which will open a week from Tuesday.

A goal of $5,950 has been set for Northville, divided into five categories through which the funds will be solicited.

Chairmen of the five categories are: residential and small businesses—city councilman Ed Welch; commercial and professional—Manufacturers National Bank vice president A. Russell Clarke; schools—

Northville high school teacher William Hensch; government — city manager John Robertson; and industrial (for Northville and Livonia jointly)—Deaborn Ford assembly plant manager William Luneburg.

The residential and small business campaign under Welch has a $2,100 goal. The other four are aiming for a total of $3,850.

The residential drive will feature door-to-door solicitation by Northville women. The others will be conducted in Northville schools, public buildings, stores and industrial shops.

Northville will participate in the October 15 - November 7 drive for the first time this year, after agreeing last spring to join with the Detroit Metropolitan United Foundation.

United Foundation officials explained this week that their organization covers the Detroit metropolitan area and its community services, whereas the Michigan United Fund is a state-wide organization.

United Fund serves state and national services, such as the cancer research institutes and leader dog schools, whereas the Detroit UF serves local agencies in Wayne county and the Detroit area in general.

The required lot area will be reduced from 8,500 to 7,500 square feet. The total side lot minimum will be lowered from 25 to 20 feet with the provision that each side width will not be less than eight feet. New subdivisions must have a distance between houses of 20 feet.

T. R. Carrington, chairman of the planning commission, said the nine-member committee favored the change. It brings Northville requirements into line with neighboring communities, he added.

Following the hearing, Raye Eastman, city planning director for Ann Arbor, will discuss planning and subdivision ordinances with the commission.

To avoid conflicting drives, however, United Fund is included as part of the United Foundation drive.

Though most money collected in the Torch Drive will go directly to the service agencies for their work in local communities, Northville will receive some $1,125 for distribution to boy scouts, girl scouts, King's Daughters and the Northville recreation committee and other groups.

Further plans for the Northville Torch Drive will begin next week.

Voters of the city of Northville and in 220 acres of Novi township will go to the polls November 19 to decide if the Novi township area will become part of the city.

Notice of the election date was received Tuesday by Philip Ogilvie, Northville city attorney.

Petitions requesting the annexation were filed with the secretary of state on September 6. An election on the question was not expected before December.

It will mark the second time that part of the area has been up for annexation to Northville. Warren Products, a plant located in the 220 acres, opposed an attempt last year and won a reversal of the election in court on the grounds that the vote was fraudulent.

Officials of Warren Products have declared that they will again oppose the annexation if inequities in property taxes are not corrected. Because the plant is located in Oakland county, its property value will be equalized higher than Wayne county sections of the city.

This problem is currently under study by John Robertson, Northville city manager, who is optimistic that a solution to the differential will be reached with tax officials of Wayne and Oakland early this month.

According to Ogilvie every qualified voting resident of the proposed area to be annexed signed the petitions for the election. Incorporation leaders in Novi township have also indicated that they will not oppose the move. Their proposed boundaries for a village of Novi exclude the 220 acres.

Voters in both the city and the area to be annexed must approve the proposal for the area to become a part of the city. In addition to Warren Products the area includes the new D & R subdivision, already under construction. Specifically, the area extends northward to the 8½-mile line and from Novi road westward to a line 1,000 feet west of Taft road.

Approximately nine families reside in the area that surrounds a section of the city already extending northward almost to the 8½-mile line. This "city finger" includes the Amerman elementary school and new high school site. The proposed annexation will surround it on three sides and square-off city boundaries.

Mustangs to Begin Defense of Title

The Northville Mustangs will make the long journey to Brighton tomorrow night to begin a seven-game league schedule against an undefeated Brighton squad.

It will be the second of three consecutive away games for the Mustangs, who will not return to Ford Field until October 18. Game time is 8 p.m.

Brighton, though a winner in its two starts this year, is not considered a contender in the Wayne-Oakland league this year.

Both opponents — South Lyon (6-0) and Clarenceville (19-6) — fielded weak teams against Brighton, yet put up a struggle before going down to defeat.

Last year, Northville downed Brighton, 25-7, in the game that gave the Mustangs the W-O championship. Northville rolled to 434 yards on offense in the game.

Hoping for a repeat performance, coach Ron Schipper this week worked to sharpen the Mustang attack, which was far from perfect in Northville's 21-0 win over Thurston Friday night. On the other hand, Schipper could hardly ask for a better defensive show than his squad put on against the Purple and White.

Laff-O-Rama Parade Is Planned

A gala parade Saturday, with Northville dignitaries riding flatbed trucks and tossing balloons to the crowds, will herald the performance next week or two fun-filled "Laff-O-Rama" shows.

The parade will come down Main street at 2:30 p.m. with local members of the "Laff-O-Rama" cast decked out in their show costumes.

The show itself will be presented next Thursday and Saturday at the Northville Community building under sponsorship of the Northville Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Proceeds will go for youth work and a Christmas tree lighting program.

Among those in the cast will be police chief Joseph Denton, fire chief William McGee, councilman Mile Allen, principal Richard Kay and police sergeant Gil Glasson, who will perform as "Bareback Beauties" in bright satin and nylon net ballet dresses.

Mayor Claude Ely will serve as ring-master of the show.

Miss Barbara Mitchell arrived in Northville this week to direct and coordinate the show for the JCC.

Clarks Honeymoon in Cleveland

Miss Theresa Duchesneau and Wilson E. Clark were joined in marriage in a nuptial mass Saturday, September 14 in Our Lady of Victory church, Northville.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Duchesneau of Plymouth avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson J. Clark of Cady street.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

She wore a ballerina length gown of imported lace and nylon tulle fashioned with an Italian slit neckline, basque bodice and long sleeves ending in points over the wrists. A crown of pearls held her applied finger-tip veil in place. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Shirley Allan, and bridesmaid Diana Hunt, both of Northville, wore full-skirted ballerina length dresses of apricot taffeta with cummerbunds of a deeper shade. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Allan Maltby of Northville as best man and Kenneth Dario, a brother-in-law from Cleveland, Ohio. Ushers were Larry Clark, brother of the bridegroom and George O'Neil, a brother-in-law from Rochester, Indiana.

Mrs. Duchesneau, mother of the bride, chose a gown of blue lace over taffeta with blue accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs.

Clark, wore a navy blue dress with coral accessories and a corsage of white roses.

A breakfast at Black's White House was held after the ceremony.

The reception was held at the American Legion Hall Saturday evening for approximately 250 guests. Out-of-town guests were from Cleveland, Ohio; Rochester, Indiana, Detroit and Grand Rapids.

The couple flew to Cleveland for their honeymoon. They will make their home in Ypsilanti where the bridegroom will attend Eastern Michigan college and the new Mrs. Clark will work on her master's degree.

Newcomer's Corner

"I look upon every day to be lost, in which I do not make a new acquaintance."

—Samuel Johnson

NEWCOMERS SINCE APRIL are Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilkie, daughter Janice and dachshund Penny. They make their home on Cotisford drive in Brookland Farms subdivision.

The Norman Wilkies moved to Northville's Brookland Farms subdivision from the busy northwest section of Detroit last April — and are finding the quiet, relaxed atmosphere of suburban living most pleasant.

Their daughter, Janice, a tenth grader at Northville high school, also likes attending a smaller school where she has a chance to know more of the students.

The Wilkies also have a son, Ronald, who lives in Detroit with his family — he's the father of the Wilkies' little granddaughter, Laurie.

The family's main hobby for the past several summers has been the building of a cottage on Strawberry lake near Brighton, where they

Legion to be Host To District Group

Lloyd H. Green Post 147 of the American Legion will be host tonight to the 17th district Legion and Auxiliary.

The meeting will begin at 8:30. In addition to the regular monthly business, reports will be given by delegates to the national convention.

Plans for the coming fall conference of post and unit officers at Lansing October 11 and 12 will be discussed. Plans for the coming membership drive will also be outlined.

Post Commander James Madigan and Unit President Hazel Wright are hoping for a good attendance of local members to welcome the visitors from other posts and units.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fry and Miss Jessie Hutton attended the funeral of Mrs. Kathrine Shafer at Redford Thursday.

Couple Plans November Wedding

Shirley M. Place

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Place of Canton Center road, Plymouth, announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley, to George M. Gardner of Wing court, Northville.

He is the son of Mrs. James Gardner and the late Mr. Gardner of Wigtown, Scotland.

A November wedding is being planned.

Sub-Ettes Given Attendance Awards

Engraved bracelets have been awarded to 10 members of the Wixom Sub-ettes for their excellence in attendance and cooperation during the past year.

The girls, members of the club formed 14 months ago to teach crafts, elementary parliamentary procedure, etiquette, sewing, outdoor-cooking and play-and-learn relationship between mother and daughter, meet twice monthly at the VFW post in Hickory Hills subdivision. They range in age from 10 to 12.

Those honored with bracelets are: Carole Bourgeois, Kathleen Jadzinski, Betty Keenan, Gayle Lahti, Jane Lindsay, Pat Lindsay, Jane Madigan, Nancy Millar, Lois Mustonen and Betty Kay Welfare.

Highlights of the summer's activities were an excursion boat ride and nature hike at Kensington state park, an afternoon of riding horses at the Ivory polo grounds and a two-day overnight camping trip.

New members to the Sub-ettes are Martha Salo, Susan McNulty and Pat Moore.

The girls rotate as officers, and no one may serve in any one office more than once until all the girls have had an opportunity. Every three months elections are held. At present the officers are: Kathleen Jadzinski, president; Gayle Lahti, vice president; Nancy Millar, secretary; Pat Lindsay, treasurer, and Carole Bourgeois, roll call.

Palette and Brush Schedules Exhibition

The Palette and Brush club will have an exhibition and sale of paintings at Northland Center on October 4 through 6, next Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

There will also be painting demonstrations by club members.

Altar Society Plans Rummage Sale

A rummage sale will be held next week by the Altar Society of Our Lady of Victory church in the church basement.

The sale will be held October 9 through 11, Wednesday through Friday, from 9 to 5:30 p.m. each day.

Readers Speak Up:

SEE GOOD IN DO-GOODERS

Dear Editor:

After reading the commendable letter written by Mr. Harold Hartley in your September 19 issue, I was disturbed, but not surprised, to read the letter the following week that so aptly depicts the racial attitude of Northville.

Summarized, this attitude says: "Be nice to Negroes in Northville for the sake of property but under no circumstances let them remain as residents." Of course, this attitude entirely misses the crux of the racial situation.

Negroes want more than politeness; they want a decent place to live. They want more than kindness; they want equal opportunity to enjoy life. They want more than tolerance—they want equality.

It is strange that in this freedom loving country, we in Northville can sit back and condemn the Southerners for their stand on school integration when we want no part of sharing our city with Negro families. We say that we are polite and kind but we are brutal in forcing the Negro to live in certain cramped areas of metropolitan Detroit because our pure white suburb does not want to have a "racial situation".

Northville doesn't need an agitator to create a racial situation. The race problem is as present in Northville as in Little Rock, Arkansas, whether we want to recognize it or not. It is present in our attitudes, our comments, our overwatchfulness to keep racial agitators in their place, and our eagerness to rise up in revolt at anyone who would suggest opening Northville to Negroes.

Personally, I would like to see more "do-gooder" whites. The trouble with "do-gooders" is that they always cause unrest. The world manages to take care of most of them, however. Socrates was given hemlock, Jesus was crucified and Ghandi was assassinated. Yet the "do-gooders" are always with us—speaking for freedom, equality and the rights of men.

FOOT-SAVING EDUCATION

By JIM
HOUK

Why are children's shoes so expensive?

The correct answer to this question amuses some people, angers others and doesn't help the budget a bit. It might save a pair of feet if Mom can use it to convince Dad that shoe prices are not bad.

The real reason that shoes are expensive is because we have to have TWO of them. When we look at a pair of eight dollar shoes, we should think of them individually as four dollars each. That is how the manufacturer must look at them when he figures his cost of material and labor.

A single shoe at three, four or five dollars is a far better value than a hat, a purse or a necktie at the same price. The shoe must withstand grinding on sandstone and yet not blister on little feet. It wades through puddles, kicks cans, shinies up trees and comes up smiling with a little polish.

With the exception of glasses nothing that we buy for a child can affect his future happiness as much as the footwear that protects the very foundation of body health.

SAD, BUT TRUE—

$2,500 in a car —
plus 3 yrs. adds up to $500.00.

$2,500 in a home —
plus 3 yrs. adds up to $4,300.00

That's it, folks. A home is a wise investment. It increases in value as you live in it. You save your rent and build up your profits. You enjoy security and take much pride in being a home owner.

Invest the same amount in a home as you do in a car — and you can see the difference.

I have several homes priced on a "Buyers Market", some with small down payments and all that will make you a proud and profitable home owner.

Call or stop in and see me today. Happy to serve you. Tell me your needs and let me take it from there.

SOMETHING for NOTHING?

● No, but here is a 3-family apt. that will show a net return of 13% (or 11% should you choose to occupy one of the apartments.) 2 apartments are fully furnished. Heat is gas, hot water. Complete water softener system. Well located and on a 91 ft. lot. Only $15,000 but substantial down payment required.

HILLTOP HOME

● On a nearly square 5 acres. Combination block-frame, one floor, 5 rooms (3 bedrooms). Oil forced warm air furnace. 1 1/2 car attached garage. The price is low — only $11,800. Why? Because owner's illness has prevented completion of interior. However, it is livable "as is". An opportunity for country-minded, especially for man with some carpentry skill.

Notice of Public Hearing on Proposed Amendments To Zoning Ordinance
of the Township of Northville

Please take notice that the Northville Township Zoning Board will hold a public hearing on Tuesday evening, October 8, 1957 at 8:00
P.M. in the Northville Township
Hall for the purpose of considering the following proposed amendments:

I. That the Zoning Ordinance of the Township of Northville is hereby amended by amending paragraph 4 of (a) of Section 13.01, Article XIII
to read as follows:

4. That the area of the tract in any R-1 and R-2 district, excluding street area, but including the area to be devoted to parks, parkways and other open spaces will provide the minimum lot area per family, counting all families to be housed under the Unit Development Plan, which is required for the most intensive use normally permitted in the R-1 and R-2 districts.

In the area of the tract in an R-1-E district, a variation of the lot area may be permitted, but in no case shall such variation decrease the area of any lot to less than sixty (60%) per cent of the lot area as specified in the District Regulations.

II. That the Zoning Ordinance of the Township of Northville is hereby amended by amending paragraph (f) of Section 10.01
Article X to include the following paragraph:

7. Uses permitted in an R-2
District.

This notice is given pursuant to Act
184 of Public Acts of 1943 as amended.

Wards Surprised by Farewell Party

When Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ward walked into a Novi restaurant last week, there seemed to be an unusual number of their friends and relatives present.

It took them several minutes to realize that they were being honored with a farewell party, a final goodbye before they were to leave for Florida.

The Wards, whose small, friendly market on Grand River near Beck road has seen many a change in Novi, will live for awhile in New Port Richey and will make their permanent home in Largo.

Their store, long a landmark along the highway, is now "Black's Market". On Tuesday, the Wards turned the keys over to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Black, who live around the corner on Beck road.

"When we came here," he said, "we had the only gas station, grocery and snack bar between Farmington and Brighton, and travelers used to look forward to seeing our lights glowing at night."

Since then the Wards have closed up the restaurant and turned their expanded gas station over to their sons, Doyce and Lester.

"In 1929, this was really out in the country," said Mrs. Ward. "But the city has moved out now, and in a couple years we probably won't be able to find our old store."

While her husband has preferred to take life easy, Mrs. Ward has been very active in many Novi organizations, including the Novi Methodist church, Rebekahs, Blue Star Mothers and United Fund work. She has held high office in most of them.

Before coming to Novi, the Wards lived in Arkansas where they ran a general store while Mrs. Ward taught school. Moving to Detroit, they stayed for a year until the wanderlust carried them to Novi for good.

The Blacks are optimistic about their new business and Novi's future. Though they plan to keep it a grocery for now, they aren't forgetting that changing times may bring about a change in the type of business best suited for that location.

In any case, if the Ward's experience is any indication, the Blacks might well look toward 28 years of their own in Novi.

Hartner with Band At MSU This Year

David Hartner, son of Herman Hartner, 416 South Main street, Northville, is a member of the 125-piece Michigan State university marching band, directed for the 31st consecutive year by Prof. Leonard Falcone.

Musicians from 14 states are part of the band, but almost three-quarters of the total are from Michigan. The band will march and play at eight of Michigan State's nine football games this fall, missing only the west coast-played California contest Saturday.

The extended right arm of the Statue of Liberty is forty-two feet long.

Mrs. Roosevelt Is First Speaker In Town Hall Series

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who recently returned from a trip to Soviet Russia will be the first guest speaker of the Redford township Town Hall series.

The lectures will be given at Thurston high school, 26255 Schoolcraft at 8 p.m.

Other speakers scheduled for the season include:

November 30 — Helen and Frank Schreider, who will narrate and show a color film of their "Impossible Tour" made in the Arctic by amphibious jeep.

January 11 — William Clauson singing folk songs and ballads from all over the world in different languages.

February 1 — Captain Robert Fabian, describing picture of Scotland Yard, detailing the complex and modern police system. Fabian injects, throughout his talk, anecdotes of some of his own hair-raising experiences.

March 8 — Marion Mill Premerger, who will deliver an inside picture of Dr. Albert Schweitzer. Since 1950, Mrs. Premerger has worked half of each year with the selfless humanitarian in his jungle leper colony in East Equatorial Africa.

Winding up the season April 11 on a musical note will be Stan Freeman, radio, TV and recording star. Tickets for each performance may be bought at Thurston's box office.

Three Accidents Reported to Police

Three accidents which resulted in damages to automobiles, but no injuries to their drivers were reported to Northville police last week.

One occurred on North Center street near Lake last Thursday when Edna Marie Mitchell, 510 North Center, backed into a car parked on North Center street. Driver of the second car was Ruth Ross Sheller of 714 Spring drive, who told police she had stopped to pick up her children. Mrs. Mitchell told police the car was not parked when she started to pack up.

In another accident Thursday, a car driven by Mrs. Paul Folino of East Cady hit the rear end of an auto parked in the lot adjacent to the Presbyterian church. The second car is owned by Mrs. Ethelwyn Mulpot and was unoccupied at the time. Mrs. Folino told police her attention was distracted when the rear door of her car flew open.

An accident occurred Monday on West Main near West street when a car driven by Roland Dolon Roux, 26, of Livonia, hit a car driven by June Ann Ashby, 16, of 19476 Maxwell. Roux told police the car ahead signalled for a left turn, and as he began to pass, made a right turn toward the Community building parking lot. Roux' car suffered $197 damages, and the second car, $175.

Originally the dollar was subdivided into halves, dimes and cents; there were no quarters.

Children of God

Everyone likes to think of himself as being a child of God. For this reason the man made doctrine of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of man finds a ready response in present day thinking. However, the truth that is declared in Scripture is that God has rejected man by right of creation because of his sin. He disowns him and he must live in this world without God. Yet, through the Gospel we are told of a way whereby man may be reconciled to God and be born into this sought after relationship in the family of God. In Galatians 3:26 the Apostle Paul speaking to the Christians at Galatia and applicable to Christians everywhere says, "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus." Not everyone has the right to say this. John 1:12 "But to as many as received Him (Christ) to them gave He the power (the right) to become the sons of God". Many people have assumed this right of calling themselves children of God even though they have not acknowledged the Saviour. God will not honor their claims unless they come in the appointed way. You may become a genuine child of God by surrendering yourself to Jesus Christ.

For Novi, a School with Style

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, October 3, 1957—9.

The forthcoming new Novi elementary school had its first showing last week — on paper, at least.

Anyone expecting it to resemble preliminary plans is in for a start, for the new building will be as different from those plans as a McGuffey reader is from a progressive education manual.

If all goes well, school officials hope to break ground around the first of the year and have at least a few classrooms — those for kindergarten and lower grades — open by next fall.

Some 360 students, primarily from the Willowbrook area, will attend the completed school. Its eventual capacity will reach 540, when another six-room unit is added.

The plans, designed by Charles Lane and Associates of Ann Arbor, bear little resemblance to original drawings presented several months ago.

Instead of a traditional solid unit, the new school will be a "cluster" or campus of three buildings connected by ramps. In design, it will be similar to the proposed new Northville high school.

"The main reason for the change," said superintendent William Medlyn, "was that our architects felt a cluster of buildings would fit into the rolling landscape better than a solid unit would."

Medlyn also pointed out that the cluster arrangement will make for a "residential" atmosphere, since students will attend classes in small, intimate buildings instead of one large overwhelming unit.

"We feel it will help them have the feeling of belonging to smaller groups, and will allow smaller children to be together in one unit and older children in another," he said.

The new building has more space than the former plans called for, and all space in general is put to better use, he noted. Best of all, it will be somewhat less expensive than had been expected, he added.

"The building itself will cost close to $480,000," he said. "Of course, there are extra expenses of the site, attorney and architect fees, equipment, site improvement, and the like. They add up."

Medlyn noted that the revised plans did not cost the Novi school district anything extra.

"Our preliminary plans were exactly that — preliminary," he said. "It gave us and the architects something to go on, and the cost of the revision is included in our original architecture fees."

The school will be located southwest of 10 Mile and Meadowbrook roads, near Willowbrook Village. It will be nestled on rolling countryside, surrounded by a number of apple orchards.

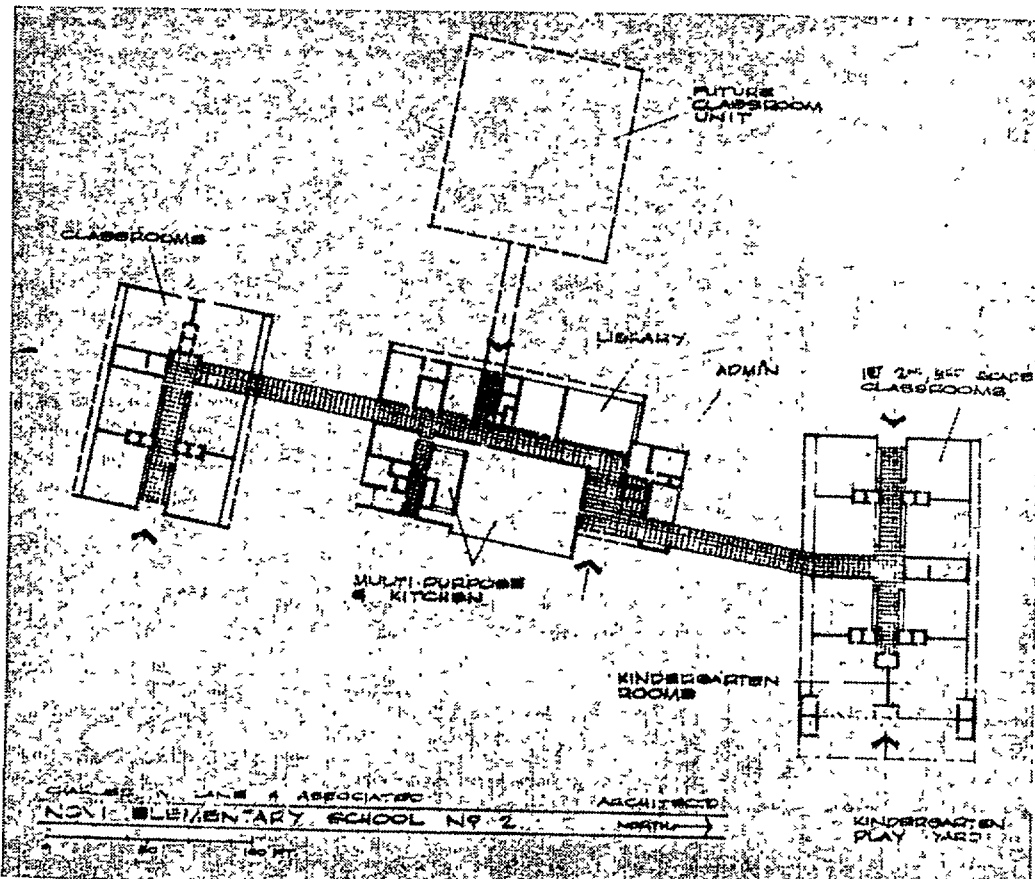

To make full use of the site, and keep building costs down, each unit has been carefully worked into the contours of the landscape. Gently-sloping ramps will connect the four units.

Three buildings will be built at first. They will provide 12 classrooms, two kindergarten rooms with separate entrances, a multi-purpose room (that will triple as a cafeteria, gymnasium and auditorium, a kitchen, library, health room, offices and a sound-protected room for speech correction, music classes and the like.

A fourth unit containing six more classrooms will be added if needed.

School plans and financial statements from the Novi district are now in the hands of the state Municipal Finance Commission and the Department of Public Instruction. After their okay is given, the school district can begin selling bonds and advertising for construction bids.

When that is done, it will be only a matter of time before the new structure starts to rise.

ARCHITECT'S VIEW — This is how planners see the new school, with its four-building cluster. The center unit of offices and miscellaneous rooms is not yet completely designed, but will be approximately as shown. The unit at right will be the first to be constructed.

10—Thursday, October 3, 1957—THE NORTHVILLE RECORD

THE WINNER! Taking a happy look at his entry and $10 check for first prize is E. Ivan Ely, winner of the season's first football contest. Ely missed three of the 11 selections. Second place went to Jim Tuck, 14, who also missed but three games but didn't predict the Lions-Colts score as close as Ely.

Picking Winners Tough In Opening Grid Contest

Usually the opening games of the football season are "easy pickings" for contestants in the Record's annual football contest. Not so, this year, however.

Only four contestants selected as many as eight winners in the field of 11 games last week end. They were E. Ivan Ely, James A. Tuck, Richard Willing and Dale Sommers. Ely and Tuck finished one-two with Ely taking $10 and Tuck $5. Ely predicted the final score of the Lions-Colts game closer than the other contestants and Tuck's score was next. Willing really finished third because Sommers picked the Lions to win.

Most often missed games by contestants were the Lions-Colts, UCLA-Illinois, Stanford-Northwestern and Ohio State-Texas Christian. Every-one failed to predict the Georgia Tech-SMU tie.

Ely came right down to The Record to receive his check upon being notified he had won. "No one will believe me at the office so I'll have to show them the check for proof," he related. Ely is one of the owners of the C. R. Ely and Sons oil and coal business in Northville.

Young Jim Tuck, 46620 Stratford court, is a member of the junior varsity football squad. He was practicing when telephoned about his good fortune, but brother, 10, yelled "hot dog" when told of the outcome. "I get half," he exclaimed. There's another contest this week and $15 in prizes. Just like last week when we picked Purdue to defeat Notre Dame, we'll give you an inside tip on this week's games: Penn State to trip Army, and Purdue (we're sticking with the Boiler-makers) to bounce powerful Minnesota!

Novi Golfer Wins Plymouth Tourney

A Novi man came in with a sizzling last round last week to take top honors in the Plymouth City Golf tournament.

William Benjamin, 24466 LeBost, Willowbrook village, recorded a near-perfect 73 in his final round for a three-over-par 147 in the two-day tournament.

His 73 was the top round shot in the tourney at Hilltop golf course. His 74 of the day before was second best.

For his showing, Benjamin was awarded the F. A. Volbracht trophy, which will go annually to the tournament winner.

Mustangs' Defense Triumphs

GET THAT BALL — From all appearances, almost anyone could have grabbed the pigskin on this play between Northville and Thurston Friday. Actually, however, the ball was far from floating. It turned out to be a lob pass that went for 45 yards, Thurston's longest gain of the day. It was soon nullified when the Mustangs pushed Thurston back 33 yards in three plays.

Thurston Nets 37 Yards As Northville Wins, 21-0

The Northville Mustangs' defense rose to near perfection Friday, combining with a slipshod offense to give the Mustangs their initial victory of the season.

Playing their first afternoon contest in four years, the Mustangs racked up a 21-0 whitewash of a hapless Thurston squad.

Northville's defensive unit was so thoroughly effective that if Thurston hadn't connected on a 45-yard pass in the third quarter, the Purple and White would have had a net offensive showing of minus-8 yards for the day.

As it was, Thurston managed only 37 yards on offense — including 60 in the air and a minus-23 on the ground.

In the second half, with big N. C. Schrader, Jeff Goodrich and the Mustang line in general crashing through, Thurston recorded an embarrassing minus-54 yards rushing.

Thurston barged to a first down on its first series of the game — and that was that. The Mustangs never again allowed a first down by rushing.

In all, Thurston recorded only three first downs — including one on that 45-yard "it shouldn't have happened" pass in the third quarter. While the Mustangs' defensive showing was a marvel, the same lineup on offense still lacked the polish needed for a championship year.

Against as weak a team as Thurston, the Mustangs could net only 242 yards and 10 first downs. Their passing attack resulted in a meager seven completions in 25 attempts, and three of the 25 fell into Thurston hands.

Yet there were bright spots. Northville divided its yardage well, moving for 107 on the ground, 135 in the air, and keeping Thurston on the jump. And the Mustangs had little trouble controlling the ball, running 74 plays against 58 for Thurston.

Northville drew first blood late in the first quarter when halfback Dick Biery scampered across from the 8 to climax a 55-yard drive, after Ed Wittenberg hit Bob Starnes with a 46-yard pass to the 9. Wade Deal's conversion was good.

The Mustangs made it 9-0 late in the fourth quarter when Starnes crashed through to trip up a Thurston passer in the end zone.

After a scoreless third quarter, Northville surged back when a short Thurston punt went dead on its own 20. Seven plays later, quarterback Pete Gross dashed across from the 8.

Minutes before the game ended, Northville hit again when Gross dumped a perfect seven-yard pass into end Bill Yabne's hands.

Northville had two other good scoring chances. In one, the Mustangs moved to the THS 15 before Gross' jump pass was intercepted. In another, Northville made it to the Thurston 13, but Biery lost Gross' perfect pass in the late afternoon sun as he moved into the end zone.

Thurston put on only one drive, and one play was the extent of it. A pass to the left flat went for 45 yards to the Northville 20. But Schrader with help from Goodrich and the rest of the line, jumped in to push Thurston back 15, 14 and 4 yards in succession to the Thurston 47.

Walled Lake Wins In Lifeless Contest

Walled Lake took an unimpressive 18-0 win from weak West Bloomfield Friday for the Vikings' second victory of the season and 10th in a row over two years.

Walled Lake scored three times in the first quarter and then coasted through a dull, lifeless second half to keep its win string intact.

Merchants Take Championship

Another baseball championship was brought home to Northville Sunday.

The Northville Merchants became the fourth title team from the city this year when they captured the Inter-City playoffs by rolling over Romulus, 11-7, in the series final.

It was the first crown since 1950 for the Merchants, and came after an uphill battle from last to second place in regular season play.

The Merchants finished with an 11-6 record during the season and compiled a 5-1 record during the playoffs.

Northville and Romulus, entering the finals by eliminating three other teams, split their first two series games before going for the big one Sunday.

The Merchants lost no time, blasting Romulus for six runs in the first inning, on three walks and three hits, and three in the second, on Ariston Luzod's booming home run. They added single runs in the seventh and eighth.

Both teams slammed out 12 safeties in the free-hitting contest, but the Merchants made their count.

Jim McIntyre started on the mound for Northville and went to the outfield in the fifth when Ken Kisabeth took over. McIntyre returned in the eighth to finish the game. Romulus, picking up one run in the second, came to life for four big ones in the fourth and two in the seventh. But the effort wasn't quite enough.

Manager Steve Folino this week expressed the team's appreciation to the following businesses which backed the Merchants this year:

Brader's Department store, Schrader's Home Furnishings, Glen Long Plumbing and Heating, Angle's Northville Lanes, Carrington Insurance, Bel-Nor Drive-Inn, Northville Electric, Cavalcade Inn, Northville Bar, Ramsey's Bar and Rathburn Chevrolet.

The Coach's Corner

by RON SCHIPPER
Northville High School Football Coach

When beginning this column it was hoped that the fans of Northville high school — who we think are some of the best — would have many questions to ask concerning our football program. After our 13-12 loss to Plymouth there were none, but now after we have won our first ball game we were pleased to find some interest in this column. I hope that many other fans who have a question on football, on our game or on the players will submit them to us for our consideration.

Q. In your first column, you said the defensive quarterback has a very important job. On what basis do you determine what sort of defense to use against a given opponent. S.A.L.

From our scouting reports we attempt to determine the basic offensive patterns of our opponents, their strongest running play, their best ball carrier, their favorite pass pattern and pass receiver and what plays they like to run in a given situation — such as third down and four yards to go on the right side of the field. This may appear to be complicated but if you would study very closely most football teams you will find that many times they will call the same play each time a given situation comes up. If the defense can be ready for this play it certainly is in a better position to stop the play. Sometimes the defensive QB is wrong and the offense is successful but the more he knows about the opponent's offense the better he can call the defense that will stop them.

Q. What do the Mustangs do between the time school gets out Friday and the start of the game that night? Interested, mother.

This year we have started a new plan of serving dinner to the varsity football team at school the day of a football game. This program was started for two reasons. First of all, we know that some of the boys were not eating the proper food which would enable them to digest it properly and play a good football game at night. Second, we are trying to develop a feeling of team unity and spirit. This spirit, if developed, can play a very important part in the success of the team. We were pleased with the first dinner and are convinced that after all the little problems are worked out it will be of great value to our football program.

Thank you again for your interest. Feel free to fire away. Your questions indicate interest and that's what we want in football here at NHS.

(Questions should be submitted to The Record by Monday morning after each game. They should be addressed to "The Coach's Corner" and may be slipped through The Record's front door at night or over the week end.)

Milford Kicks Way Into W-O Top Spot

The trained toe of a Milford quarterback has given the Redskins the lead in the Wayne-Oakland league.

Milford won its second straight loop game Friday, dropping Clarkston, 7-6 on Pat Kelly's extra point in the first quarter.

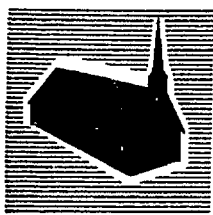

Elsewhere in the league, Brighton won over Clarenceville for the first time in five years, handing the Trojans their second consecutive league loss, 19-6.

Holly, shaping up as one of the league powers, bombed Bloomfield Hills, 20-0 and West Bloomfield was stung with an 18-0 defeat at the hand of powerful Walled Lake.

Northville, yet to play a league game, walked over Thurston 21-0.

FREEDOM

When I was a boy I resented the discipline of my parents. I wanted to do as I pleased. Then one day my uncle took me out on a high hill to fly a kite. We had a strong wind and a very long string. High in the sky the kite pulled and tugged at the string with every gust of wind. The kite seemed to be asking us to let go of the string so it could be free. "Let me go, so I can go up into the sky. This string is holding me down." Then a hard gust of wind broke the string! For a moment the kite seemed to rise up into the wind—but just for a moment—then down it plunged into the ground, torn and broken it would never fly again.

I have pondered this experience many times and now I know that the string that held the kite down was also the force that held it up.

It may seem to us that the discipline of honesty, purity, obedience and right living cramp our style. We may decide to break free from home, church and school; and be free to rise to the sky out in the world doing as we please.

The truth is that once the cord of discipline and obedience is broken; once we begin to do as we please, our lives do not rise at all—they fall and are broken. It is true then, the discipline that seems to hold us down and cramp our style is really the force that holds us up!

TORCH-DRIVE QUOTA SET—Cities and townships of western Wayne county have been assigned a quota of $299,219 for the 1957 United Foundation Torch Drive, October 15 - November 7. Here, general chairman Henry Beam (left) and women's chairman Mrs. Mary Kramer accept the quota from Reed D. Andrew, chairman of the advisory council. The western Wayne county region includes the cities of Northville, Livonia, Inkster, Garden City and Wayne, and the townships of Redford, Nankin, Dearborn and Canton.

Area to Get More Money In Coming Torch Drive

The Northville-Nowi-Wixom area will receive nearly 50 percent more money for community services this year than last year, United Foundation officials said this week.

Both Northville and Novi will participate in the United Foundation's Torch Drive this year for the first time, after deciding within the past year to join with the organization in its annual "give-ance-for-all" drive.

The Torch Drive campaign will begin October 15 and end November 7. Western Wayne county's goal is $299,219 while Oakland county townships will strive for $24,483. Residents will be spared additional

SHOP IN NORTHVILLE

Freydl's Cleaners and Men's Wear has more than one service to offer its customers. Men and boys can find such famous names as Rugby, Bolany, Samsonite, Coopers and Tom Sawyer plus many more in apparel and accessories. Prompt and expert dry cleaning is another convenient service of Freydl's. Above Charles Freydl, Jr. is shown taking a dry cleaning order from Mrs. Roy Matheson, 322 North Rogers.

There's more than one reason why it pays to do your shopping locally:

• CONVENIENCE

It's so easy to shop in Northville, only a few minutes from your home and parking right near the stores.

• QUALITY

All the nationally known brands you prefer are available right in Northville.

• RELIABILITY

Your local merchant is also your neighbor.

• ECONOMY

Prices must be competitive! And actually you save by not having to drive miles for your "bargains"

• SELECTION

Northville's variety of stores can supply all your needs.

• POLICY

Your local merchant helps support your community and schools. He deserves your support!

The Mayor

Dick Stuber Serves as Mayor of NHS Student Council

The reins of student government at Northville high school are back in masculine hands this year.

The school's top government post—mayor of the student council—has gone to Dick Stuber, a senior who is no stranger to high offices at NHS.

With Dick's appointment, the position is returned to the male faction of the school, officially ending the one-year reign of Janice Howarth as Northville first "lady mayor" in the memory of most faculty members.

An honor student and all-round athlete, Dick has held a variety of offices during his years at Northville.

Starting as vice president of his sophomore class, he moved up to become president of his junior class last year. At the same time, he served as treasurer of the National Honor Society.

Earlier, he represented NHS at Wolverine Boys' State.

Though he missed football last year, Dick is back on the gridiron this year, buttressing the Mustangs' defensive unit as a linebacker. As a sophomore reserve, he was named "most valuable defensive player".

Last year, he earned a varsity letter as a broad jumper of the Mustang track squad.

As for the future, Dick has two things in mind: the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy or a degree in naval architecture at Webb Institute of Technology in New York. In either case, it looks as if the sea is in his blood.

Dick is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith. Smith is principal of Main Street elementary school.

Other student council officers this year are Elsa Couse, who will handle the paperwork as secretary, and Ray Dahl, who will look over the group's finances as treasurer.

The complete list of student council members: Janet Malott, Mary Hill, Ardyece Atwood, Mike Willis, Bob Bradshaw, Doug Ware, Bob Neimi, Dennis Fallon, Bob Hilton, Bob Trombley, Wade Deal, Dave

Nash, Dave LaFond, Linda McKinney, Karl Karg, Steve Willis, Sharon Hensch, Corine Bertoni, Tom Slaterly, Vickie Junod, Mike Meyers, Sandra Ware, Dick Pubarz, Jim Juday, Charles Baily and Susan Eastland.

News of Northville High School

'Hoof Prints' Starts New Year

The halls of Northville high school are alive with activity again.

To keep up with the busy pace of more than 700 students, The Record-News this week resumes "Mustang Hoof Prints"—a weekly page of news covering the goings-on at NHS.

As last year, "Hoof Prints" will be primarily a responsibility of the students. They will dig out the stories, write them, line up and take photos, and to a certain extent edit their own work.

The staff of the Record-News will assist the student staff in the final details.

This year, "Hoof Prints" will be under the guidance of Jesse Hise, a new teacher at NHS who has had training in journalism himself. Last year, Miss Florence Panatoni was faculty adviser.

Hise plans not only to help his staff put out material for "Hoof Prints", but also to conduct after-school training periods in journalism for those who wish.

The "Hoof Prints" staff is being selected this week and will be announced by Hise next week.

The staff will consist of a number of reporters with specific "beats" to cover each week, as well as several students to make assignments, handle editorial functions and perform special duties.

Students Offered Chance to Compete For Scholarships

High school seniors throughout the United States and its possessions were invited this week to compete for more than 400 General Motors four-year college scholarships under GM's $5,000,000 a year program of support to higher education.

Booklets describing GM's two scholarship plans have been sent to more than 40,000 secondary school and college officials as well as state and local school administrative authorities.

All male and female senior students who are United States citizens are eligible to seek the 1958-59 school year awards.

The scholarships are awarded under two plans. Some 300 are awarded directly by 178 public and private colleges in all 48 states and the District of Columbia. More than 100 are awarded through competitive examinations.

Awards under both plans range from $200 to $2,000 a year, depending on the student's need. The average award during the first two years of the program was $949 annually.

Northville Student Earns BS at MSU

A Northville student at Michigan State University was one of 630 students who received degrees from the university this summer.

He is Larry F. Gots, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gots, 836 North Center, who was awarded a bachelor's degree in social science.

Of the 630 graduates, 450 were from Michigan and the rest from other states of foreign countries.

Roger Nieuwkoop At Wheaton College

Roger Nieuwkoop, son of Rev. and Mrs. Peter F. Nieuwkoop, 217 Wing street, Northville, has enrolled as a sophomore student at Wheaton college in Illinois.

He attended Northville high school. Located in suburban Wheaton, 25 miles west of Chicago, Wheaton college attracts students from all over the country as well as an average of 36 foreign countries who lend a cosmopolitan atmosphere to the attractive campus.

Class Officers Named As School Year Begins

Four class presidents and their junior officers have settled down to another year of activity at Northville high school.

The quartet of presidents and vice presidents, secretary and treasurer for each class were elected by their fellow students earlier this semester.

Though the school year is only several weeks old, the officers already are planning activities ranging from bake sales to graduation, with a junior play, senior prom and a host of other events sandwiched in between.

Heading the seniors will be president Jim Hammond. Assisting him will be vice president Mike Willis, secretary Mary Hill and treasurer Ed Wittenberg. Al Jones and Don Van Ingen will serve as faculty advisers.

The NHS juniors have elected Bob Starnes as president. He will be aided by vice president Fred Schwarze, treasurer Jim Strange and secretary Diane Luchtmann. The class has Alvin Skow and Ms. Jean Fitzgerald as faculty advisers.

Presiding over the sophomore class will be president Chris Krauter. Other officers are vice president Bob Trombley, secretary Jay Ann Wittenberg and treasurer Bob Hilton. Faculty advisers are Russell Reimer and Bob Williams.

President Karen Hill will head the freshman class. She will be assisted by vice president Kathy Dawson, treasurer Fred Steeper and secretary Sarah Schrader. Miss Patricia Dorrian and Jack Van Haren will serve as faculty advisers.

NHS One of 112 Schools To Get 'Decency' Award

"Juvenile decency" scored a whopping victory over "juvenile delinquency" in Northville this week as the second national Denim Council Juvenile Decency Award was presented to the student council at Northville high school.

The honor was awarded to 112 top schools from all over the nation, given for outstanding community-service work.

Northville high school won on the basis of outstanding work done in the community by its student council in a polio fund campaign last year.

An impressive "Juvenile Decency" certificate, inscribed with the school's name, was awarded.

It was presented to the student council by The Denim Council, representing the entire U.S. blue-jean industry, and the National Association of Student Council, representing over 7,300 high school student councils in every state in the country.

This year's awards mark the second important annual competition to be run by both organizations during every school year.

The competition, with its award, originated to help the nation's young people to constructive and rewarding use of their leisure hours, to help point the way to a better way of life, and to aid in the great fight against juvenile delinquency and for juvenile decency.

Madonna's Paper Takes High Honors

For the fifth time the Madonna Herald, campus newspaper of Madonna college, has received the Newspaper of Distinction rating from the Catholic School Press Association of Marquette university in Milwaukee.

Three staff members also were awarded for previously published articles in the college division of the CSP's annual writing contest.

The highest individual achievement award went to Sister M. Timothy, CSSF, Madonna sophomore, who took first place in news reporting.

Former Herald editor, Evelyn Piskulski, received two honorable mentions for her editorials.

Carol Ann Butcher, present Herald editor, was awarded an honorable mention in the feature division.

Also selected among the ten best was a feature by Ann Clor, Herald page editor last year and news bureau representative this year.

To Give Lecture On Christian Science

The healing influence of the Christ in present experience will be the theme of a Christian Science lecture to be given next Sunday, October 6 by Ralph E. Wagers of Chicago, Illinois.

Mr. Wagers has lectured extensively in this country as well as in many foreign countries. He will speak locally at the invitation of Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist in the church edifice, 5240 West Chicago boulevard at 3 p.m. His subject will be "Christian Science: A Spiritual Discovery." Roger Babson Discusses 30 Ways to Relax Babson Park, Mass. — During my recent summer vacation, I studied hobbies — in other words, my hobby was hobbies! I now list 30 of these. As "food for one is poison for another," I will list these in alphabetical order without showing any preference. However, my choice would be Antique Furniture, about which I will write one or two weeks hence.

(1) ART and PAINTING. The most expensive of all hobbies is the buying of valuable paintings and other art collections. Furthermore, many prominent men, such as President Eisenhower and Winston Churchill, adopt amateur painting as their hobbies.

(2) BICYCLING and ROLLER SKATING. In Europe, the bicycle is as important a means of transportation as the motor car is here; but in this country the bicycle is used mostly as a hobby for taking trips. Roller skating is no longer popular on our streets and sidewalks; but the rinks are becoming more crowded every year.

(3) BOATING. The outboard motor and the congested highways have brought boating back as an important hobby. Sailboats are again being revived.

(4) CERAMICS. The making of plates, tiles and other household utilities have always been popular. The person making them usually sends them out to have them baked.

(5) COLLECTIONS. STAMPS, SMALL RELICS, ROCKS, SHELLS and BUTTERFLIES. Collecting is an old hobby.

(6) COOKING. Some men enjoy cooking, both indoors and outdoors, as a hobby.

(7) ENAMELING. This is usually done on copper, and some amateurs do very beautiful enameling of dishes, plaques and other mementos.

(8) ETCHING ON GLASSWARE. This is being done by some parents to pass down valuable items to their children. It is a pleasant and permanent hobby.

(9) FLY-TYING. Most fishermen purchase flies; but some fishermen believe they get the best results from flies of their own making, in competition with those of friends.

(10) GLASS PAINTING. This is sometimes practiced by those who cannot enamel well. There, however, is a trick to painting on the reverse side of glass. The results are very permanent.

(11) HOOKED and BRAIDED RUGS and PATCHWORK QUILTS. This is a very popular hobby with invalids and older people. Children appreciate such products made by their grandmothers.

(12) LEATHERCRAFT. The carving and burning of leather is a most interesting hobby for those who wish to make their own wedding presents or Christmas gifts.

(13) MANUSCRIPT and AUTOGRAPH COLLECTING. Both of these are interesting and profitable hobbies.

(14) MINIATURES. These are very small "models" made to represent animals, soldiers, and dolls, etc. Such work requires both skill and patience.

(15) MODEL BUILDING. Fathers interest their children by making ships, airplanes and even doll houses.

(16) MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. Many busy executives have kept from having a nervous breakdown by learning to play some musical instrument and perhaps joining some local band. The collection of phonograph records and tapes are hobbies for some, as well as the collecting of books.

(17) NATURE STUDY. The raising and appreciation of flowers and birds, and even enjoyment of scenery is a hobby. I feel, however, that one must inherit this love and be "born" with it.

(18) PAPER WORK. Many women secure most excellent results by making paper flowers, paper favors and paper table pieces. These can be used, or given to friends, or sold.

(19) PHOTOGRAPHY. The taking of pictures, developing and printing of films, and enlarging of prints is very popular.

(20) RADIO ELECTRONICS. This is a hobby which often secures excellent positions for both men and women.

(21) RADIO HAMS. Transmitting and receiving messages by the shortwaves reserved for amateurs is a popular hobby for boys mechanically-minded; it often leads to good jobs.

(22) SEWING, KNITTING and EMBROIDERING. These are very old hobbies.

(23) SHELL PAINTING and DESIGNING. This is a marvelous hobby for many women by the seaside. A remarkable example is Mary Wetherell of Rockport, Mass.

(24) SILVER WORKING. This includes the making of jewelry, hammered trays, and even tableware. It can become a profitable profession.

(25) SPORTS. The enjoyment of sports and reading of the results is an excellent hobby for busy executives. One should avoid betting, however.

(26) SPORTS TOURNAMENTS. This is a hobby for some; but it soon becomes a business.

(27) TOYS — (RADIO-CONTROLLED)—such as cars, planes, ships, balloons, etc.

(28) WEAVING. The weaving of baskets and other household trays is a useful hobby for those who are convalescing from an illness, either physical or mental.

(29) WOOD BURNING. This hobby involves the making of plaques and pictures. Designs can be traced on the wood. The burning is usually done with an electric point.

(30) WOODWORKING. This involves carving, which may develop into a profession.

CONCLUSION: You may be surprised that I am writing on hobbies as I am supposed to confine myself to business, real estate, and investment; but I believe that in this rushing age hobbies can be a real investment toward better health and better judgment, and possibly an economic insurance. Anything which improves our physical or mental health helps our business judgment and promotions, and contributes to success.

Lull Before Tax Storm

TAXPAYERS GET A BREAK this year, partly because of the coincidence of time. Experts in every political camp are predicting there will be no increase in existing taxes or the birth of new ones during the year.

State government, they said, will be content to operate on a "Manageable deficit."

This is the election-year machinery which allows both major parties to campaign on a record of economy and displaying past achievements when money was available.

But next year more money will be needed from citizens to pay off the even-year deficit; to buy the extra services people demand and expand those now offered to handle a booming population.

The signs are all here.

Legislators are studying Michigan's entire tax structure.

Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the tax study committee, has named a 19-member panel of economic experts to help and has hired a University of Michigan man as study director.

As the fall of 1957 gets started, there have been two major meetings of the committee. The study may take until late in 1958 to complete to the point of showing a financial trend.

If so, taxpayers cannot possibly know the result — the prospects of new increased taxes and the need for them until after the 1958 election.

Another committee is studying the needs of the schools and its members are fearing the $25,000,000 "temporary" tax increase on cigarettes and liquor will have to remain for an extra year.

This will carry it at least until June 30, 1959 — six months after those elected in 1958 take office.

Another time factor has a special significance in 1958.

It is the 10th year in the schedule which places on the ballot the proposal to call a constitutional convention to re-write the basic law of the state last rewritten in 1909.

There are those among legislators who believe a convention, in re-writing the constitution, could come up with a financial reform, thus eliminating the need for immediate tax changes.

Democrats and some Republicans do not want a constitutional convention under present methods of selecting the delegates.

Under the present laws, three delegates are selected from each state senatorial district.

Though no member of the legislature may be a delegate, politicians feel the convention would reflect the partisanship of the districts which select the delegates.

Democrats, who have 11 Senators, and the Republicans, who have 23, figure any new constitution would be written by Republicans despite the 60 percent voting edge by Democrats in the past three elections.

Republicans fear that a constitutional convention might upset the 1952 reapportionment system that gave them what Democrats brand as "perpetual control of the senate."

Legislators are expected to come back to Lansing in January with the same theories that angered educators and others with pressing financial needs last year.

They predict another hold-the-line year financially with the big push for taxes coming in 1958.

STUDY GROUPS are beginning to crowd each other for space.

In addition to dozens of legislative studies — ranging from taxes to education to mental health, Gov. Williams is working to find his own facts on a variety of subjects.

Williams' special commission on the effects of automation and other forms of technology in industry is seeking to determine whether state government can help.

Major problems are the workers displaced by science and, conversely, the plight of workers who have extra leisure time thrust on them.

Edward Cushman, vice president of American Motors, is the chairman. The group is balanced between industrial and labor representatives.

"This is not going to be a bargaining session for the 35-hour week," Cushman said. "We're trying to find facts."

The governor is also going to work with a special commission to set up an industrial safety system.
