INTRODUCING the Willie Staffords, who recently moved to Northville from Illinois. Deborah and Pogy agree that Spring drive in Northville is as nice a place as their former home in Warrenville.

Because Northville is "just like home" — the small town of Warrenville, Illinois — the Willis Stafford family of Spring drive took it to their hearts immediately. The Staffords moved in on August 16 when Mr. Stafford was transferred to the Detroit home office of his company, Detroit Controls. He is with the sales department and does quite a bit of traveling. Deborah Stafford is the remaining child at home, both brothers being in other states. Deborah is 11 years old and is in the sixth grade at Main Street school.

One brother, Larry Dean Wing, 22, is a senior in forestry at the University of Idaho and will graduate next February. He plans to enter the Navy after graduation.

Laurence, 19, is employed with the Western Electric company in Illinois.

The whole family likes the outdoors and spends much of its time camping in the northwest during the summer months.

The Staffords have a bird named "Grundy" and an 11-year-old dog called "Pogy".

AUTUMN LEAVES are beautiful when you're looking at them, but they have a habit of piling up on your lawn. As did many Northville residents this week, Howard Sherman, 505 Grace, worked well into the evening before getting the last of the fall fallings raked into a fire. His son, Ronnie, 6, couldn't help wondering what he could run through and fall into, now that the lawn is barren again.

Blacks to Present Harvest Dinner

Black's White House on North Center street will donate their total receipts from the day's business next Sunday, November 10 to the Metropolitan Detroit Chapter of the National-Cystic Fibrosis Foundation Research Foundation.

A harvest smorgasbord, especially featuring Michigan harvest crops, will include a wide variety of relishes, appetizers, salads, hot fresh vegetables, roast stuffed turkey, fried chicken, baked ham, roast beef, hot breads, beverage and homemade pies.

Mrs. Ruth Black, executive secretary of the foundation and proprietor of Black's, will demonstrate the preparation of several of the foods to be served during Myrtle Labbitt's television program tomorrow on CKLW television, channel 9.

Reservations will be accepted for servings at hourly intervals, beginning at noon on Sunday. Persons may phone Northville 383 for early reservations to guarantee choice of time.

Nancy Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Lawrence of Meadbrook road returns this week to Earlham college in Richmond, Indiana after being home for several weeks because of illness.

Amerman Teachers Plan Special Projects

The first grade children of Mrs. Sow's room at Amerman school will have a "reading" party for their parents next Thursday, November 14 from 9 to 11 a.m.

Each reading group will take part. Parents will receive notices from the school regarding the time of his child's participation.

In observance of American Education Week, kindergarten teacher Mrs. Anne Chizmar will hold a meeting of parents and a discussion "Your Child and the Classroom" at the Amerman school.

Scout Leader Gets Committee Post

Recently named to the newly-created Huron Valley Girl Scout Development committee was Mrs. F. S. Jennings of 11 Mile road.

Mrs. Jennings is education chairman and volunteer leader chairman of the Northville Girl Scout Council and a troop leader.

The Huron Valley committee has been established to develop the necessary reorganization of existing girl scout councils and lone troops in western Wayne, Livingston and Washtenaw counties.

The committee will endeavor to give better service to existing troops and to provide an opportunity for all girls interested to become girl scouts.

A preliminary study of growth and population trends in this region was made last year by a committee of seven, including Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing of Plymouth. Mrs. Hulsing represented the Wayne County Association of school board members. Out of this study comes a recommendation for the establishment of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Development committee.

Is It Spring?

Fall leaves held a spring secret for Hurd Sutherland of 418 West Dunlap street this week.

While raking the deluge of leaves on his front lawn Tuesday Sutherland discovered a clump of purple violets in full bloom.

Frank E. Henderson

District Governor To Address Rotary

The Rotary club of Northville on Tuesday, November 12 will be host to Frank Henderson, governor of the 640th district of Rotary International next Tuesday. He will address the local club and confer with president Ed Devine, secretary John Taxis and committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities.

Henderson is co-owner of the Plymouth Plating Works and is a member and past president of the Rotary club of Plymouth. He was elected as a district governor of Rotary International for the 1957-58 fiscal year at Rotary's 48th convention in Lucerne, Switzerland, last May. He is one of 249 district governors supervising the activities of more than 9,500 Rotary clubs which have a membership of 446,000 business and professional executives in 102 countries throughout the free world.

Wherever Rotary clubs are located, president Devine asserted in discussing the governor's visit, their activities are similar to those of the Rotary clubs of the world because they are based on the same general objectives developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professions and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

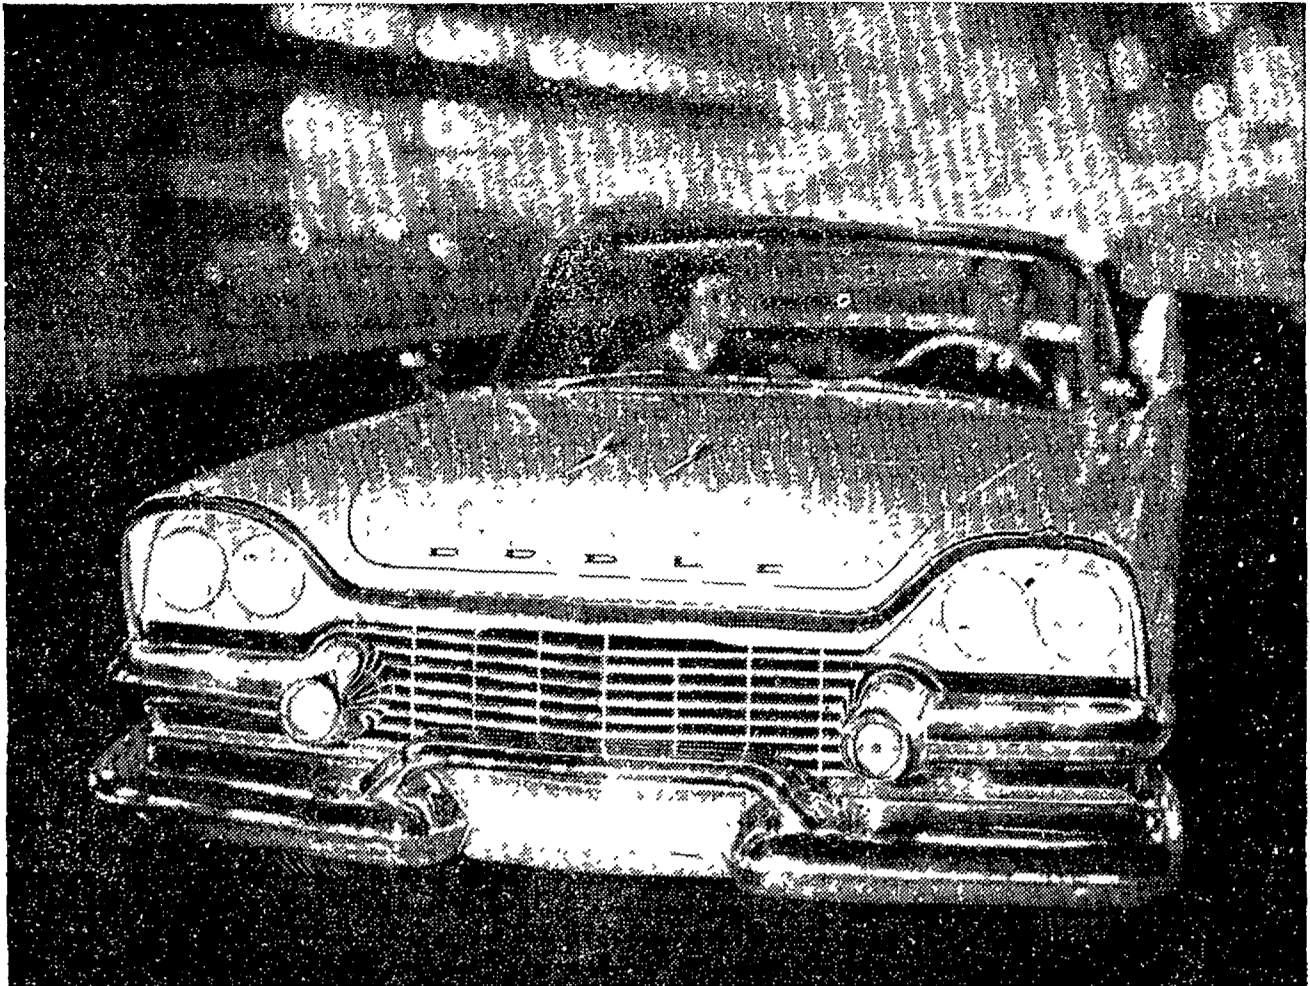

Offender Sentenced For Molesting Child

James M. Reed of Plymouth was fined a total of $75 or 90 days in the Detroit House of Correction for two charges last week before Judge E. M. Bogart.

Reed, 36, pleaded guilty to charges of being a disorderly person and molesting an eight-year-old child.

He was sentenced to 90 days for the first charge and 45 for the second, sentences to run concurrently.

Fourth graders who have been out of school with the flu are nearly all back in school again.

'Youth Appreciation Week' Salutes 5 Young Adults

HELPING THEIR FAMILY.— When their mother went in the hospital last year for treatment of spinal tuberculosis, Nella (left) and Virginia Lusk had to assume the adult-sized jobs of foster-mother, cook and all-round housekeeper for their four younger brothers and sisters. Happily, their new role will end soon, for after one more operation their mother will come home at last. Nella and Virginia are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lusk, 22301 Napier.

HELPING HIS COMMUNITY.— While most Northville residents are slumbering peacefully, Dennis Fallon is making his rounds with the morning paper — and picking up funds which eventually will help see him through college. Getting up at 5 a.m. and retiring early after homework, Dennis still maintains a B-plus average, finds time for varsity basketball and tennis, and manages to keep statistics at Northville football games. He is the son of the Henry Fallons, 496 Cady.

HELPING HIS SCHOOL.— Going on duty as safety boy at Grace and Base Line each day is one way Stuart Thomson serves Amerman school. His teachers also point to his qualities of responsibility, maturity and continuous improvement — shared by scores of other students — as perhaps even more important contributions to himself and eventually to Northville. A fifth-grader, Stuart will soon have more and more chances to demonstrate those qualities. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Thomson, 974 Grace.

HELPING HIS CHURCH.— Youth activities at St. Paul's Lutheran church, such as serving as treasurer of the Junior Waltham League or attending a young people's convention, have made Chris Krauter one of the church's most respected young men. When not involved with church activities, Chris likely is doing homework for his sophomore classes or honing up for a future in aeronautics. Chris is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Krauter, 373 Rayson.

FOOT-SAVING EDUCATION
By JIM HOUK

ARE SHOES THAT ARE OUTGROWN BY ONE CHILD SAFE FOR ANOTHER?

Yes and no. The accepted reason for not using handed-down shoes is that the foot defects of the first child can be inflicted on the second. This is true.

But if the first user had normal feet, isn't his good wear-pattern just as likely to encourage good foot function? It is.

When the budget is hurting it is a lot safer to use brother's cast-offs than to cramp feet in his own outgrown shoes.

It would be wise to go to your local shoe store and choose your new shoes for the family... while selections are at their best.

Use a Layaway Plan if your budget does not permit the purchase at this time, to avoid last-minute disappointment.

Is Apology Enough?

Some folks seem to think that if they apologize for their sins to God that this is all that is required! For those who take such a light view of their sins it would be well to investigate the doctrine of forgiveness found in the Scriptures. Sin is no light matter with God. His justice demands that the offender be punished for his crime. The very sentence of death is passed upon him by reason of the broken law. No apology, no admission of guilt, no confession of wrong doing will set that sentence of death aside. Is this not true in our standard of justice? Would my confession of robbing a bank set me free and absolve me of guilt? No, the penalty for breaking the law must be administered. God's plan for the forgiveness of sin is centered in the substitutionary death of Christ for the sinner's sin. When one places his personal faith in Jesus Christ, God counts his sin as paid for in the person of His substitute. He then is free to pardon the guilty. If we have no Saviour we remain under condemnation of death and our sins remain unforgiven even though we have confessed them. This Saviour offers to become your Saviour if you will but repent and turn to Him.

Parking a'Plenty, Says Survey

CHARLES I. WIXSON, Auto Club traffic research supervisor, and Essie Nirider (right), owner of Northville Hardware, measure the floor space in Nirider's hardware to determine the store's actual customer parking-space needs.

THE TOP CHART shows existing off-street parking lots and the number of cars accommodated.

THE LOWER CHART reveals the percentage of time that the spaces are occupied. Note that only street parking is occupied as much as 90 percent of the time.

Merchants who believed that Northville had a shortage of off-street parking spaces were disappointed by an official survey-report made by the Automobile Club of Michigan Wednesday night at the city hall.

The survey was conducted at the request of the city this summer. Charles I. Wixson, Auto Club traffic research supervisor, did not say that local parking conditions were entirely satisfactory, however.

Wixson recommended that all off-street parking lots be paved and properly lighted. He suggested that merchants should "clean-up" behind their stores and that city rubbish collection be improved in the business section to make parking more desirable.

The report pointed out that Northville is a trading center for 15,000 persons and that to maintain and improve this position in the future, a definite planning program should be undertaken.

The survey conclusions were reached by actually measuring the amount of rental floor space and determining the use of parking space during peak shopping periods.

While space deficiencies exist in some areas, they are offset by surplus spaces in other business blocks. More details of the survey are reported on page one.

Cancel Appearance Of MSU Professor

The appearance of a Michigan State university professor of agriculture before the Presbyterian Men's club next Thursday (Nov. 14) has been cancelled.

Professor Louis Wolfanger notified club officials last week that he would be unable to attend.

MAYOR Claude Ely and John Robertson, city manager, picked a Saturday morning to check the city parking lot at Main and Center streets. What they found concurred with the AAA report that "Northville has enough parking spaces."

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD—Thursday, November 7, 1957—11

Novi Gridders End Season Next Week With Dublin

Novi school gridders will play another "final" game next Tuesday. The five-game schedule this year marks Novi's return to football after a one-year absence. Perkins, despite the team's winless record in its first three outings, was pleased with what he saw.

Basketball practice at Novi school will begin shortly after the final football game, but no game is scheduled until after the first of the year.

Perkins said he hopes to have games against Northville, South Lyon, Dublin and Hartland junior high teams.

Though a contest against Dublin last night originally was to end Novi's season, coach Gail Perkins managed at the last minute to schedule one more contest for his young football squad.

As a result, Novi will kick over against Dublin Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. on the Novi gridiron.

The two schools have met once before this year, with Dublin taking a 20-6 decision over Novi in two other games, Novi has tumbled to Walled Lake.

194-Yard TD --Yep, 194-- Wraps Up 28-13 Victory

"It's getting pretty rough when you have to run 194 yards for a touchdown."

With that, coach Ron Schipper settled back in the fourth quarter Friday night and watched his Northville Mustangs wind up a hard-pressed 28-13 win over a mediocre Clarkston squad that has won only two games this season.

Schipper was referring to an electrifying 30 seconds of football that probably have few parallels in Northville history.

With their backs to the wall, and an early 21-0 lead all but vanished, the Mustangs lined up on their five yard line. Halfback Dick Biery took a handoff, cut across tackle, and went 95 yards for an apparent touchdown — only to have the play called back by an offsides penalty.

As the crowd fell silent, Biery again took the handoff. And to the unbelieving amazement of everyone from coach to waterboy, the fleet halfback retraced his footsteps for 99 yards and again crossed the Clarkston goal.

This time, there was no flag, and Northville had the game in the bag. Despite the sensational windup, Northville had come near being bumped from contention in the Wayne-Oakland league.

For the second straight week the Mustangs went dead in the second half and had to struggle uphill to protect their early lead.

During the last half, they ran a meager nine plays, rushed for 15 yards (except Biery's run), completed one pass for no yardage, and made one first down (via a penalty).

By contrast, Clarkston ran 36 plays, rushed for 146 yards, racked up 10 first downs, and came within three yards of knotting it at 21-21.

With the Mustangs leading 21-0, Clarkston hit first on a 73-yard punt return by Jim Jenson. Then, after intercepting a Northville pass, the relentless Wolves moved 46 yards in nine running plays and tallied on a 14-yard pass.

Minutes later, the Wolves drove 65 yards in 14 straight running plays and had a first down on the Northville 5. But the Mustang defense suddenly steeled, and Northville took over — setting the stage for Biery's one-for-the-price-of-two touchdowns.

Northville had had its bright moments in the first half, however. The first came when N. C. Schrader pounced on a Clarkston fumble on the Wolves' 38. Five plays later, fullback Spike Walker crashed across.

Then halfback Bob Starnes climaxed a 66-yard drive by ripping 23 yards on a reverse. Wade Deal, whose conversions have been right on the nose of late, made it 14-0.

The Mustangs had one more bright spot before the roof caved in. Taking the second half kickoff, Starnes stumbled momentarily, then found his spot, picked up crucial blocks at midfield, and went all the way for a 94-yard touchdown gallop.

From there on, Clarkston stole the show, and the Mustangs watched their 21-0 lead almost — but not quite — evaporate.

On defense, perhaps the Mustangs' biggest consolation was the work of diminutive linebacker Fred Schwarze who, despite his 130 pounds, was consistently the most difficult Mustang for the Wolves to run through.

SWEATING IT OUT — It was plenty cool Friday night if you were sitting in the stands. But down on the field the Northville Mustangs, captained by guard Dick Buckley (above), had to do plenty of sweating before they finally salvaged a 28-13 win over a fired-up Clarkston squad.

The Coach's Corner

by RON SCHIPPER
Northville High School Football Coach

This past week end once again demonstrated why many people feel football is our greatest sport.

Our own game on Friday night was filled with thrills. The U-M and MSU games Saturday were great games. And the Lion game Sunday put the frosting on a terrific football cake.

To the average fan the game is the thing, and he doesn't fully understand or realize the tremendous amount of work and preparation that preceded the game.

At NHS we have four practice sessions on the field before each game, beginning each day after school and lasting until 5 or 6 p.m. The plays and maneuvers are worked out on paper and must be perfected. Offensive and defensive plans of the week must be thoroughly reviewed, discussed and drilled so that each may be run to perfection in the game. Every minute must be carefully planned. This is where movies of the previous game and the scouting reports of our next opponent are such an important factor. They must be carefully studied and screened so that every small detail of play that might be helpful in our game is found.

Game movies are viewed by the players as well as the coaches, for it gives each boy an opportunity to see himself in action and to view every move he has made, both good and bad.

Scouting reports are the basis for our chalk talks with the players and also the greatest single factor in planning our game strategy. We attempt in scouting a team to determine its defensive strengths and weaknesses as well as the offense and the players who make it go.

These, of course, are just a few of the jobs that must be done before our team is ready to take to the field on Friday night. But these extra hours are part of what we like about football; they're part of what, for coaches and players alike, make football "the greatest".

Daleo, Hay Win Football Contest

Two contestants were far above all others last week in a Saturday of mild upsets. They easily took top honors in the weekly Football Contest.

First prize of $10 went to Michael Daleo of 48190 West Ten Mile road. Mike, a 12-year-old sports fan, only missed two games. Like everyone else, Mike failed to call the Michigan-Iowa tie, but he picked all other contests correct with the exception of Duke-Georgia Tech.

Second prize of $5 was won by Dave Hay, 46141 Sunset. A 14-year-old ninth grader, Dave missed three games. He's an active participant in school sports and has entered every weekly football contest.

This week's contest appears on page 14.

Football Ends For Hammond

Jim Hammond, senior end and linebacker for the Northville Mustangs, was back on his feet this week after suffering a ruptured kidney in the Northville-Milford game two weeks ago.

The injury ends his high school football days, however.

Hammond was rushed to University of Michigan hospital early in the morning after Northville's 20-14 win over Milford.

Hammond, president of the senior class, was captain of the team in its opener against Plymouth and was considered a bulwark of the Mustang defense.

Coach Ron Schipper put Jeff Goodrich in at end last Friday against Clarkston.

By The Reverend Paul M. Cargo,
First Methodist Church of Northville

The word "if" is a tiny, puny, diminutive, insignificant, Lilliputian word. Yet it may be raised to critical importance.

In our English language "if" is a conjunction. It introduces a condition. For instance, "If you love me, keep my commandments."

Let me tell of a few if's. The temptations to Jesus are persuaders. The tempter tries to persuade Jesus to embrace certain conditions.

Today, the conditions are put in this wise, "If you are a real he-man, show your stuff by pulling off a robbery with us."

What the unwise do is to fall into the trap that is set and agree with the condition. "That's right. In order to be a man I will have to rob, drink, swear and carouse around."

The practical availability of unlimited spiritual good will be the topic of a lecture to be given by Theodore Wallach of Chicago, Illinois.

temptations, "Away with you, Satan!" For all of your cleverness you speak foolishness.

There is the BARGAINING if, the third temptation that came to Jesus. "Everything there I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."

There is the THREATENING if. "When we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat." (II Thess. 3.10).

There is the CANDIDATING if! "If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work." (I Tim. 3.1).

There is the if of PERFECTION. "Finally whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things."

There is the if of PROMISE. "If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold all things are become new." (II Cor. 5.17).

News of Northville High School

Freshmen Look to Senior Trip

The freshman class at Northville high school is out to pay for its senior trip on its own.

Instead of bake sales, magazine sales and other fund-raising activities, the freshmen will rely on their own ability to save $1 every two weeks.

With cooperation of officials at Manufacturers National Bank, the entire class has joined in a savings program that should net them $80 apiece when their senior trip comes around in four years.

Each student has own bank account, and deposits $1 in it during "bank day" every two weeks. The money comes, for the most part, from their own allowances, from odd jobs, from "movie money" and occasionally from a parental hand-out if the going gets tough.

They'll be able to withdraw their savings in an emergency, but their sponsors advise against using it for, a new sweater or Elvis album.

The program is under the direction of their two advisors, Miss Patricia Dorrian and Jack VanHaren, in cooperation with bank officials. The bank has set up a special account to handle the students' savings.

Whether future classes will follow the freshmen's program depends on their success with it. Nothing like it has been tried in Northville before, and no one is certain that it will work out.

"But in any case," said Miss Dorrian, "it should help the students become familiar with banking and saving and make them realize that a bank isn't just some place for dad to go once a week."

National Honor Society Adds Ten New Members

The Hi "N" club of the National Honor Society held its second annual induction ceremony last Tuesday night in the Community center.

The chapter added ten new members to the society. These new members were chosen from the junior and senior classes.

Vice president Elsa Couse, acting in president Jim Hammond's place, welcomed members of the faculty, of the society and prospective members of the society.

Elroy Ellison and Russell Amerman spoke to the group, emphasizing the fact that prospective members were chosen for scholastic ability, citizenship and ability to keep up grades while participating in extra-curricular activities.

Bill Yahne, Judy Robinson, Elinor Kroger and Jean Smith were selected from the senior class.

Tucker Williams, Marianne King, Jayne Hammond, Carolyn Wolfrom, Myrl Douglas and Roger Cheeseman were selected from the junior class.

After the induction ceremony, which was led by the chapter secretary Julie Older, there was an informal tea at which punch and cookies were served by the members of the society.

Assembly Presents History of Art

Last week, Jack VanHaren, art teacher in the high school, presented an assembly dealing with the history of art.

Presenting reproductions of ancient works of art, he proved that creativity has been prevalent since the cave man era.

Through the cartoon character Dewey Do Thinker, Mr. VanHaren showed what a creative mind could accomplish. Dewey's opposite, Num No-Thinker, accomplished nothing, through lack of imagination.

The students were urged to use their minds for creative instead of destructive purposes.

Students' Parents To Attend School

Parents of Northville high school students will "attend classes" on November 14 as part of the observance of National Education Week.

The occasion will be "Know Your School" night. Parents of all students attending NHS will receive letters inviting them to attend. They will be given their own son's or daughter's schedule of studies and will go through a "day of school".

National Education Week will run from November 10 through 16.

Juniors Present Record Dance

The junior student council will sponsor a dance tomorrow evening, Friday, November 8.

Teacher chaperones will be Mrs. Bradford and Mrs. Fry.

Committee chairmen are Tom Daniel, refreshments; Vicki Junod, decorations, and Bob Hansen, records.

The dance will be held from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Seniors Now Rehearsing For Annual Play Production

Rehearsals for the senior play, "George Washington Slept Here," are now progressing under the direction of Miss Florence Panattoni.

Student Teacher In Art Department

Northville high school has a student teacher, Miss Peggy MacIver, working in some of the art classes in order to complete her teaching requirements at the University of Michigan.

After they are completed she wants to teach art, preferably at a high school level. When asked why she wanted to teach at a high school level she answered, "I feel they are serious about learning."

Miss MacIver lives in Southfield township. She has traveled to Scotland twice since 1948. While in Scotland she attended school for a year.

"Oil paintings and charcoals are my favorite projects," said Miss MacIver. Her feeling on modern art is that she thinks it gives people a chance to express their imagination.

Staff Begins Work On 1958 Paladium

Members of the Paladium staff are busy gathering information and pictures of current school activities.

Day Ends Early For Faculty Meeting

School closed Wednesday, November 6 at 2 p.m. for a teacher's meeting. The entire faculty attended. Teachers of the high school discussed counseling and testing ideas for the new high school. Dr. Kenneth McLeod was the guest speaker.

Elroy Ellison, principal, and Fred Stefanski, assistant principal, visited the University of Michigan this week for a principal-freshman conference day. The purpose of the day is to talk to recent graduates from Northville high school now attending the university.

A Michigan state policeman will be a special guest of the driver training classes on November 20. He will speak to the students and show a film to them.

It's Always A Busy Day In Grade Schools

From kindergarten through the grades, Northville's elementary schools are always buzzing with activity.

In observance of National Education Week, which begins next Sunday and runs through November 16, we print a report of some of their activities.

Kindergarten—

Enjoying autumn leaves to the fullest, Miss Grace Pollack's class has been learning some songs about leaves and made a "spatter-painted" leaf mural. The class is also making plans to hear an organ play in a church.

Mrs. Schermerhorn's afternoon class will hear the organ with Miss Pollock's class. They recently made a trip to the fire department and had a ride on the fire truck. Mrs. Schermerhorn's afternoon class will be moving to the Amerman addition soon. They recently made a trip to the store and saw the big refrigerator where the meat is kept. While there they bought some candy, crackers and cookies.

First Grade—

Members of Mrs. Carter's class have spent a lot of time on rhythms, ear training and sounds of letters. They are making a set of letter cards and play sound games with the cards. They also have a rhythm band and enjoy playing.

Second Grade—

Boys and girls in Mrs. Spooner's class have been reviewing sounds of letters, trying to train their ears to detect sounds which should help them with their spelling work. Mrs. Reng's class has enjoyed taping-recording some reading lessons and playing them back. They also took a science walk and brought back some cocoons, caterpillars and grasshoppers, as well as various kinds of leaves, weeds, seeds and nuts. Miss Keith's class at the Amerman school, has been studying transportation. They took a train ride to Detroit from Plymouth, and had a tour of the Bob-Lo boat. They will make a trip to Willow Run and go through a plane next week.

Mrs. Miller's second grade wrote a letter to Charles Miller, who was sick and missed their Halloween party. All the boys and girls signed the letter.

Third Grade—

Mrs. Uphergrove's class have learned much about Halloween, by reading stories, writing poetry and learning new Halloween songs. They decorated their rooms for Halloween and climaxed their activities with a party which was planned by Mrs. Joseph Malik, Mrs. Edwin Trombley and Mrs. John Canterbury.

Fourth Grade—

Mr. Madigan's fourth grade class has been writing poems about safety. Mrs. Funk's fourth grade class used a tape recorder to record their Friday class meeting recently. Their other activities include making scenes of places and people they visited in social studies, collecting different kinds of seeds, and making science booklets for clippings and science articles.

Fifth Grade—

A football team has been organized in Mrs. Bradshaw's class. If other groups would like to schedule games with them, they may contact Gregg Penn or David Schmidt. All the children are busy writing letters to the chambers of commerce of the various states for information.

SPEAKING for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

I think it can be generally said that most people reside in Northville because it is a "quiet little community — a nice place to live."

You might call it Northville's "reputation". It has stuck. Without a question, it's a reputation to wear proudly... if it is deserved.

But somehow it takes on a hollow sound when you look closely at the community.

Did you ever take a good look at our Main street? Would you as homemakers allow rubbish and papers to be strewn about as they are on the sidewalks, alleys and streets of our business section?

What about other conditions downtown?

In the past three weeks four cases of children being molested by characters of various descriptions have been reported to police. It's a good bet that other incidents have gone unreported and in some known instances, parents have failed to sign complaints.

Fortunately, none of the children was criminally hurt. One little girl was asked to disrobe, another urged to get into a car. Others were "hugged" and fed candy.

In every case the children were downtown during early daylight hours when it should be presumed that in a "quiet little community" they were safe.

Who is responsible for these conditions?

The answer is easy. The police, the court, the city council, parents, businessmen, the newspaper, ministers, school officials, and every single person who calls Northville "home".

The drifters come to Northville to do their heavy drinking. Other perennial trouble-makers are local "regulars". They're all well-known to police and the justice court. Perhaps that's the trouble. They are too well known. They're excused or lightly fined because "that's old Joe, he wouldn't hurt anybody."

We remind every merchant (including ourselves) that dirty, unkempt walks and alleys are conducive to shabby personal conduct. We remind bar owners that they are responsible to see that known trouble-makers do not over-indulge.

We remind residents who merely "sleep" in Northville and work elsewhere that their children live here all day long. They, too, have cause to take an active interest in the community.

We remind the court that because a character who habitually makes suggestive remarks to children and young women is well-known, that he is no less dangerous. We remind the police that the sight of habituals staggering down the street is not improved by the fact that it's just another harmless "binge".

And we haven't forgotten the city council. On their shoulders rests the responsibility for the welfare of our community.

If we want a "quiet little town and a nice place to live," let's make it that.

No one businessman, city official, minister, parent, bar-owner, retailer or what-have-you can be blamed for conditions. We have lowered our guard collectively and become accustomed to sleeping in a soiled bed.

Let's wake up, Northville. Even a quiet little community must be alert enough to detect decay.

Michigan Mirror

Colleges Feel Pinch

1958's STATE AG program was formulated when representatives of most of Michigan's farm industries met with members of the Agriculture Commission to decide the issues, and later the same day with Gov. G. Mennen Williams to present their ideas.

Greatest need, according to the group, seems to be for a law which has been proposed every session for nine years: The need for a method of grading and identifying top Michigan grades. This has been known as "Seal of Quality" bill or "Michigan's Best".

Farm representatives were unanimous in their support of the idea, and a little frustrated that its provisions have not become law long ago. They seemed to think that the bill failed in other years for lack of lively support rather than active opposition.

Person after person stated that they believe the seal of quality idea had almost solid, if unemonstrated, backing in their particular branch of agriculture. All joined in the hope that the bill can be passed this year without becoming involved in partisan politics.

Other important proposals include a law granting subpoena powers to the Director of Agriculture. At present a hearing can be called to investigate charges of dishonest or irregular proceedings and witnesses cannot be ordered to appear.

In several recent instances, the key witness in a case decided against testifying, and the whole issue had to be dropped.

Commercial sprayers would be brought under control by terms of another proposal. At present the Department of Agriculture cannot regulate those who for hire spread weed killer, insecticide or pesticide.

Other recommendations concern weights and measures; licensing improvements, cutting of Christmas trees, labeling and slaughter houses.

UNIVERSITIES and colleges are feeling the onslaught of a new flood of students loosed upon them by the expanding population and the demands that it be educated.

The problem of money and space for higher education to cover the demands will be top priority in the 1958 legislature.

Nobody is certain how many millions will be sought this year, but leading legislators who understand the situation believe the need will make a real problem.

Educators have been asked to present a united front to the legislature and Gov. Williams with its new organization of state university and college presidents and governing board members.

This group was organized after Williams asked them to come up with a total plan for higher education in Michigan.

The legislature has been studying the same subject for three years.

Another legislative plan has been to "decentralize higher education," providing two-year colleges at the local level — along the lines of the present community and junior colleges — and making the present four-year colleges into advanced study centers.

Michigan State university, governed by the state Board of Agriculture, was forced last fall to limit its enrollment to 22,500 because of overcrowding.

The University of Michigan stated that without more facilities and personnel it cannot do the kind of educational job it would like in the future.

National figures repeat the charge that the United States is turning out engineers and scientists at a rate slower than Russia. They said Russia's earth satellite was the result.

The situation revived the plan of Dr. Harlan H. Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, some years ago that the nation should develop a pool of brainpower — much like the armed services.

This group would be the warriors in the field of science and technology.

Foreign Investments Require Constant Study

Babson Park, Mass. — The devaluation of the French franc and the threat of currency devaluation in other European countries have caused considerable concern here in the U.S. I am asked if foreign investments are safe or wise at this time. Of course, there is no simple answer to such a question, but I will try to explain my position.

Good Investment Climate
Usually, I have advised people not to invest their hard-earned money abroad. I have done this not because it is impossible to make profits on foreign investments, but because their proper supervision takes more time and effort than most people are willing to give. Without close supervision, profits are unlikely and serious losses could occur. Sometimes I have advised against buying the securities of foreign companies because of tax complexities in the home country of the firm and in the U.S. However, I have never been against sound foreign investments in cases where the prospective investors were willing to work hard to protect their interests. Some foreign countries, — like Canada, and, to a lesser extent, Britain, France, Italy and Spain — provide a fairly good climate for American funds. Others, including some of our neighbors in Latin America, cling to restrictive laws which make it foolhardy for Americans to invest.

What To Look For
When you hear of an investment opportunity abroad, do not jump. Take time to investigate the company. Or if you are going to engage in a foreign business operation, study the laws of the country so that you will know where you stand and what your rights are. You can get expert help from U.S. consulates and from American officials of companies operating in foreign lands. Find out exactly what foreign taxes you will have to pay and what percentage of your earnings you will be able to take out of the country and deposit to your account here in the U.S.

If you do not know the language of the country, employ some trustworthy person who does know it so that you will not lose out through failure to understand contracts and other agreements. Obtain such concessions as you feel are justified and drive as hard a bargain as you can. You will be the better respected for it. Because of low labor costs, good profit margins are possible in some foreign countries, but business moves more slowly abroad and you must have patience.

The Canadian Market
Closest nation to us in time and in economic ties is Canada. As in the U.S., commerce between various sections flourishes because Canada has a uniform currency which commands the same value throughout the land. In Canada, the people also live and work under a system of private enterprise. Each province adheres to certain principles established in the Federal Law of Canada to foster private enterprise. Under such circumstances, investments of U.S. citizens have a good over-all chance of prospering. At least, they are not subject to some of the nonsensical restrictions enforced in many other foreign countries. Also, Canada has huge metals and minerals resources which can be developed more speedily and efficiently with the help of U.S. private capital. In my opinion, Canada is on the way up. There may be setbacks, but I foresee tremendous growth ahead. I unhesitatingly recommend Canada as a good place to direct your money and talents if you wish to invest outside the U.S.

American Companies Abroad
I am in favor of American companies extending their operations to foreign countries where this is practical. Such investment serves to offset the disadvantages flowing from heavy exports to America by giving us a share in the profits from such trade. Also, such foreign investment creates no sense of charity, but fosters better understanding between ourselves and other peoples.

Eventually, officials of the various Latin American countries will see the light.

LOCAL BUSINESS BRIEFS

John Miller's Green Ridge nursery has been awarded an agreement with the city of Lathrop Village to handle its forestry problems.

A $100 merchandise award in a nation-wide "All Star Dealer Sweepstakes" was won by Bob Shay, Northville Shell dealer. 25,000 Shell service station dealers in 37 states competed for the prizes. Judging was conducted on the basis of station appearances, cleanliness, service and sales results.

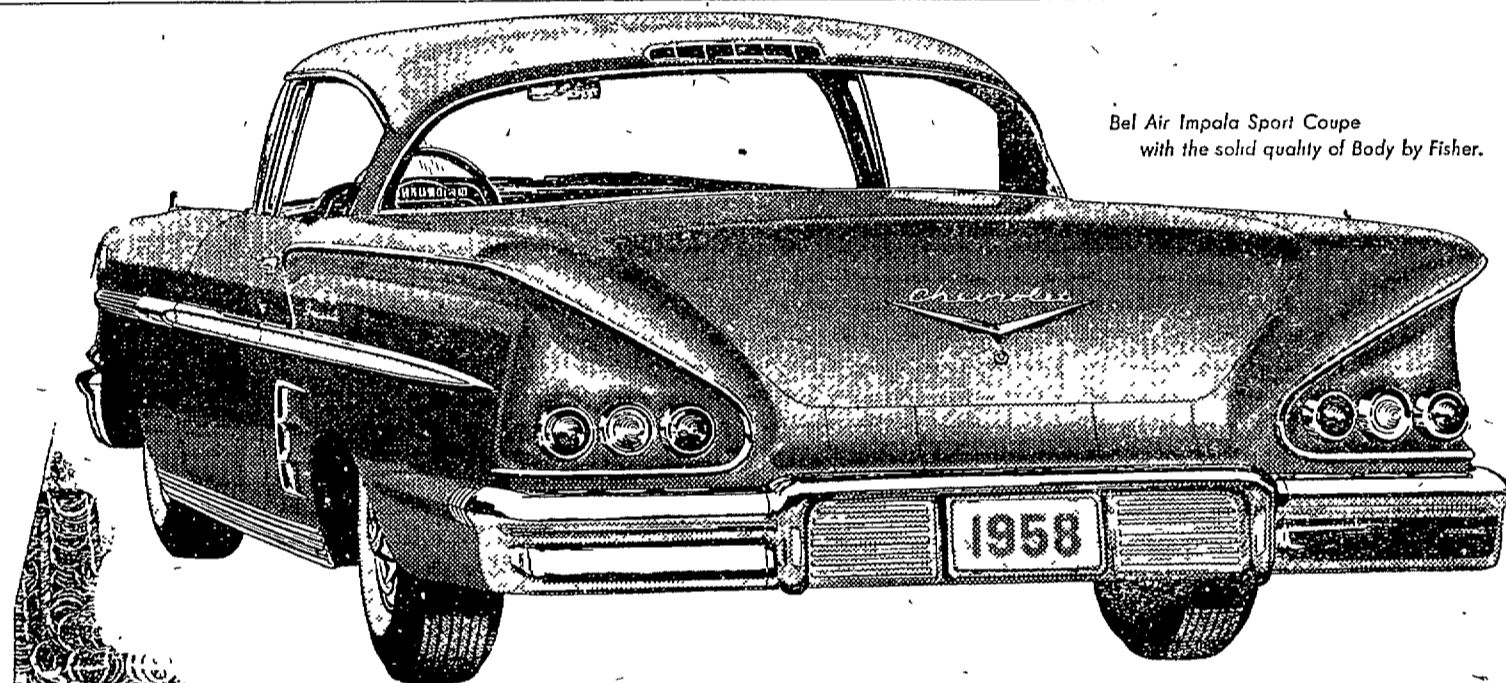

Now employed in a supervisory capacity at Green Ridge nursery on Napier road is John Proctor, who was recently discharged from the army. Prior to service, Proctor was employed at the nursery. He received a bachelor of science degree in ornamental horticulture from Michigan State university. Proctor resides in South Lyon, but plans to move to Northville in the near future.

the quickest combination on the road.

There's news in Chevrolet's two new rides. You have your choice of a Full Coil suspension and a real air ride*! These brilliant advances outdate, out-cushion anything you've known in the low-price field. Chevrolet's body-frame design is new, and the wheelbase is longer, for a wonderful new handling feel.

For an extra helping of pleasure, see Chevrolet's new super models, the Bel Air Impala Sport Coupe and Convertible. Never before has such distinction been offered in Chevrolet's field. See the giant step at your Chevrolet dealer's now!
