

DEATH IN THE COLD — Northville patrolmen Frank Heintz and Leonard Mazuchowski stand by white Dr. R. R. Barber examines the body of John J. Amore, found along a stream midway between the Northville well and the Ford plant Monday morning. Amore apparently suffered a heart attack.

John Amore Liked Our Milk and Water; His Last Trip Ended Quietly Near Well

A Dearborn township man who often came to Northville for milk and water was found dead Monday morning along a stream less than 200 feet from the city's popular well.

He was identified as John J. Amore, 63, of 7205 Reuter, Dearborn township.

Police theorize he died from a heart attack and had been there nearly 24 hours before he was found.

According to his brother, Ben Amore, 5598 Pennsylvania, Detroit, Amore had left his home early Sunday morning and probably arrived in Northville before noon.

He said his brother made regular trips to Northville to get well water and goat's milk which he believed was good for his stomach.

The theory that he had been dead nearly a full day before discovered was upheld by reports from many Northville residents that they had seen Amore's car, a 1952 tan and brown Chevrolet, sitting beside the well since early Sunday.

Patrolman Ray Nowicki had reported the car early Monday morning but a check with the Wayne county sheriff's office revealed nothing.

Apparently Amore had parked his car, climbed down to the stream and walked along the slippery bank to the spot where he was found. The task is an arduous one, even for a young man.

The body could be seen from the well and from South Main street. But unless a person happened to look that way, he probably would not have noticed it. Trees and Amore's dark clothing tended to obscure it.

The body was found Monday morning by Bill Weeks, of Northville. Northville police investigated and called Dr. R. R. Barber of Plymouth, who pronounced him dead at 12:30 p.m. A mortuary wagon arrived an hour later.

Police chief Joseph Denton went to the Wayne county morgue Tuesday, and took a statement from Amore's brother.

A preliminary post-mortem showed no indication of violence but an autopsy will be performed later this week.

A single man, Amore had his own shoe repair shop at the same Dearborn township address. His brother said Amore was born in Italy and that all other relatives are still living in that country.

Center Street Becomes Thorn To City Fathers

A meeting of the city council and the school board has been called for Wednesday evening to discuss the knotty North Center street problem.

Council members proposed the meeting at a special session last Thursday. Councilmen have not hidden their concern over the cost of paving North Center from Baseline to the high school. Specifically, they wonder how to pay for the project.

Improving the street has become imperative with the proposed high school plan and Amerman elementary school. It also appears to be the logical main artery into Northville from Novi when the new Eight Mile cut-off is completed.

Thus the concern over North Center, at least from Baseline to Carlyle, has become three-pronged. School authorities want the improvement for adequate and safe passage to and from the school for pupils, both on foot and in buses. The street is within the city limits and therefore a responsibility of the city. The county-planned cut-off will channel traffic from Novi road along the cut-off to North Center, creating a county obligation, also.

To date school officials have stood adamant in their conviction that they will not sell school property for a cut-off right-away unless North Center street is improved by the county (Wayne). This eventuality would naturally win city support by getting the city off the financial hook, but some fear has arisen that the school board's game might result in costly delay. Councilmen point-out that the improvement in North Center street must be made next year. Delaying the county's cut-off project will not delay the construction of the high school and the need for an improved Center street, they claim.

Added interest in the improvement of North Center street comes from subdividers north of the Amerman school. Streets will be paved within their project and they would prefer a paved entrance, also. City councilmen have taken the attitude that North Center street would be far down the list of streets to be considered for improvement if it were not for the new high school. Therefore, they are looking for financial help from either one or all of the interested parties.

Mustangs to Meet Brighton Tomorrow

The Northville Mustangs will go on the second leg of a three-game road trip tomorrow night when they journey to Brighton for a league encounter with the Bulldogs.

The Mustangs will not return to their home court until after New Years. A week from tomorrow they head to Clarenceville, then have a holiday layoff until January 7 when Bloomfield Hills comes to the community building.

Though Brighton lost its opener to co-champion Clarkston last Friday, 56-37, all-league Brian Watson sunk 18 points for the Bulldogs. Last year, Watson proved a headache for Northville in both games, although the Mustangs managed to come out on top.

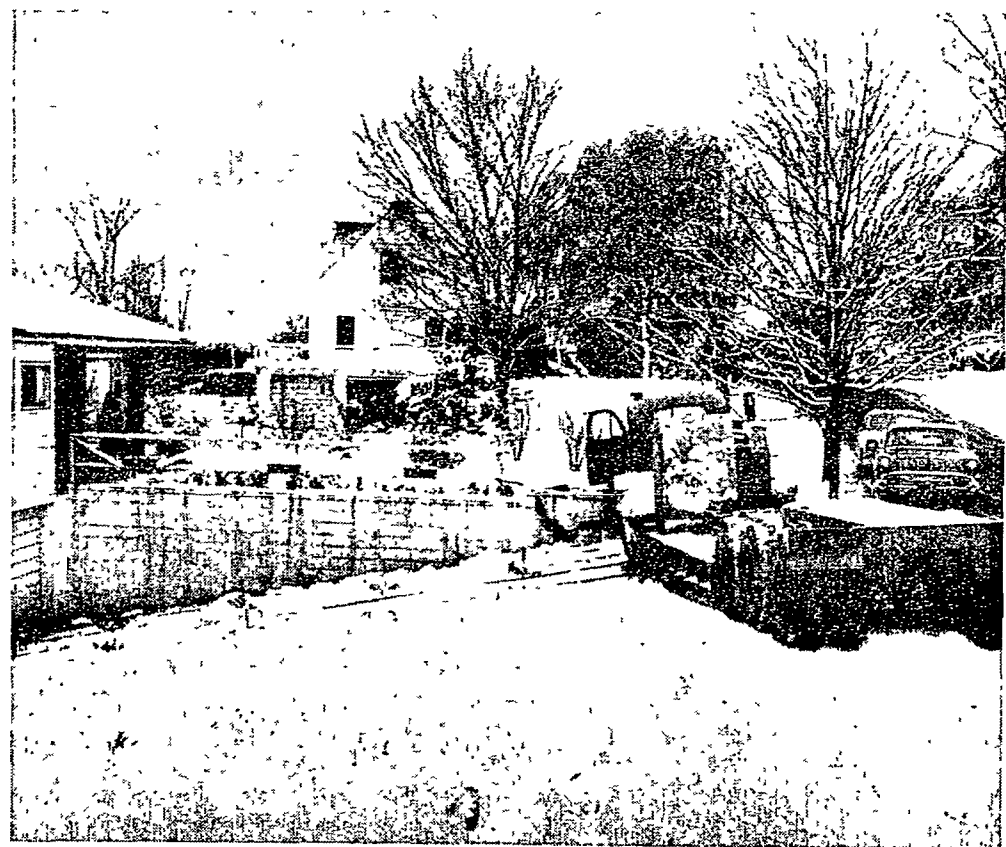

Jolted by their surprising 46-23 loss to Plymouth Saturday night, the Mustangs put in intensive practice sessions this week.

Coach Stan Johnston did not indicate this week whether he would juggle his lineup tomorrow night. Chances were that, since the entire team flopped rather than just one or two players, the starters would retain their jobs.

Game time is 7 p.m. for the JV game and about 8 p.m. for the varsity game.

Calendar

Saturday, December 14

6:30 p.m. — Business and Professional Women, at Presbyterian church house.

UNWELCOME CALLER — Mrs. Charles Altman, Jr. heard a peculiar noise in front of her house at 866 Grace Monday afternoon, and discovered that a huge truck smashed against the driveway wall. The wall was broken apart, flower boxes were crushed, and a fence was knocked apart. But no one was hurt. The truck, parked up the street, began rolling when its brakes slipped. Last year, another runaway truck had slammed into the home of John Stubenvoll across the street.

Expressway Opens to Traffic

Tomorrow is another milestone for Northville and Novi. The multi-million dollar Farmington-Brighton expressway, the newest thoroughfare in the state, will be officially opened to traffic.

Ribbon-cutting and dedication ceremonies at both ends of the 23-mile route will mark the occasion. In between, a caravan of state, county and local officials will stop in both Novi and Wixom to honor the two communities.

The expressway, started in November, 1955, extends from Brighton to the Farmington cutoff and gives Novi and Wixom motorists non-stop driving past Kensington park on one end and almost to Detroit on the other.

Eventually, the expressway will be part of a 200-mile superhighway from the Ambassador Bridge in Detroit to Lake Michigan at Muskegon.

The expressway cost $13,000,000, including $10,477,000 for construction, and has 16 bridges up and down its length. Some 6,400,000 cubic yards of earth was moved, and 443,000 square yards of concrete was poured. A total of 6,400 tons of steel went into its bridges.

According to plans recently revealed by the state highway department, the Farmington-Brighton route is only the first of three expressways which very likely will intersect in Novi.

The second is the 11 Mile expressway to James C. Ozens highway, and the third is a north-south belt-line connecting the Monroe county area with the US-10 expressway to the Straits.

But the new route will not be without its drawbacks. Some Novi merchants, especially those whose trade depends on transient traffic, expect a decline in their business.

Training School To Present Pageant

Children of the Wayne County Training school will again present their annual Christmas pageant, "The Story of the Nativity" in the training school auditorium next Sunday, December 15.

The junior choir will present "Christmas Greeting Cards" with carols.

Augmenting the pageant will be the voices of the senior choir. The program will be presented at 2 p.m. Family visiting will be held at the cottages after the program and will continue until 4 p.m.

Children unable to spend Christmas in their own homes will have a full, happy day provided for them at the training school. Each cottage will be attractively decorated and gifts will be distributed around the tree on Christmas morning.

Family visiting will be held on Christmas day from 1:30 to 3:30 in the afternoon.

Drive Nets $52 To Fight Disease

Some 11 volunteers braved the cold last Thursday night and collected $52 for the fight against muscular dystrophy.

The Northville campaign was part of a county-wide drive in which 20,000 volunteers collected more than $20,000.

Mrs. Kenneth Conley, chairman of the Northville drive, said the contributions will be used both for research and for direct aid to victims of the disease.

Canisters will stay in stores and public buildings until next Sunday when the drive officially ends.

Assisting Mrs. Conley were her husband, Harold Hartley, Jesse Hise, Mrs. Richard Ambler, Mrs. Chester Lipa, Mrs. William Wiley, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Hurd Sutherland and Mrs. Charles Hall.

Hunter Killed By Accidental Shot

A hunting accident Sunday in Walled Lake resulted in the death of William Stamper of 620 North Center street.

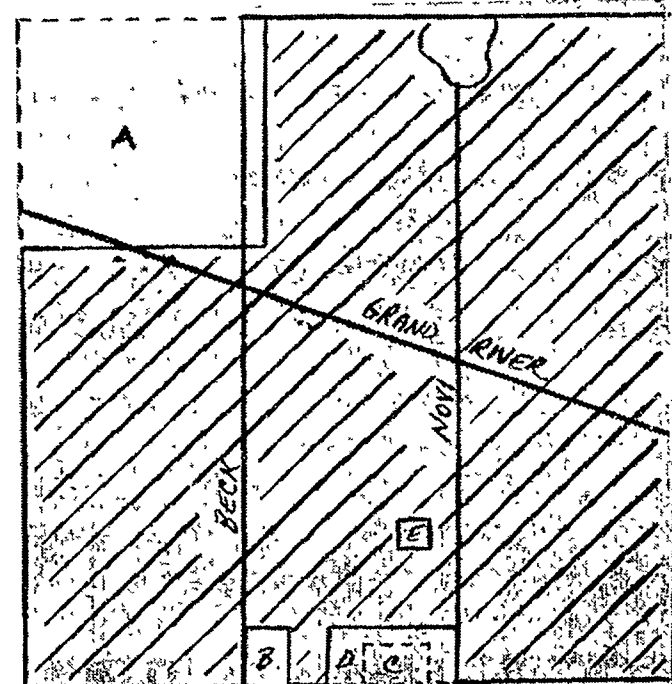

Stamper, 23, was shot in the neck when the gun of his companion, Russell D. Morris, 27, of Walled Lake, accidentally went off.

Stamper is survived by his wife, Ruth Ann, and an infant daughter, Beverly Ann. He was employed by the Young Door company in Novi. A complete obituary will be found on page 5.

No Licenses

Drivers licenses will not be issued at the Northville Township hall next Monday, December 16.

They will be issued again the following Monday and each Monday thereafter.

PROPOSED VILLAGE OF NOVI — Shown here are the approximate boundaries which Novi will have if incorporation is approved. The village would include some 31 square miles (shaded area). Excluded are: Wixom (A), Northville Estates (B), the city of Northville (C) and a new section recently annexed to Northville (D), and Brookland Farms No. 1 (E).

School Stamp Sales Now Underway

Sales of United States savings stamps in the Northville public schools got underway last Thursday, December 5.

This program, sponsored by the Northville P-TA, affords opportunity for students in all grades to save systematically by purchasing the stamps in 10 and 25 cent denominations. The stamps are exchangeable at any time for cash and for U.S. Savings bonds.

An important part in the program is played by the committee of volunteer women who will sell the stamps on Thursdays at each of Northville's schools.

It is made possible through the cooperation of postmaster Leland Smith, superintendent of schools Russell Amerman and school principals Elroy Ellison, Harry Smith and Richard Kay.

Find Girl...Lose Councilman

A nine-year-old girl was the object of a frantic search last Wednesday that ended at 10:45 p.m. across the street from where the hunt began.

Bonnie Bradford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bradford of 211 West Dunlap, was reported missing at 9:30 p.m. She had not returned home from school, and efforts by her parents to locate her failed.

Two policemen, the mayor, a city councilman and the city manager joined in the search. She was found at 10:45 p.m. playing with a girl friend in a residence across from the city hall.

Officer Eugene King and the city manager found Bonnie after operators of the taxi stand reported they had last seen her with another child and a bicycle. The bicycle was discovered by King and led to Bonnie's discovery.

A humorous note was added to the search. After Bonnie was located the hunt turned to Canterbury and Glasson. One hour later they returned to learn Bonnie had been found. Canterbury described a trail through business and residential areas with Glasson that he "never knew existed before." Cold, exhausted and shivering, Canterbury seemed unconvinced when Mayor Ely explained that they had been attempting to locate searchers and report the child safe.

The Ralph Eklund residence at the intersection of Evona and Lyonia streets in the Detroit Finnish camp was destroyed by fire during the early morning hours of Sunday, December 8. The residence was unoccupied. Defective electrical wiring seems to have been the cause of the fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Purl Farley of Lake-ride avenue, Loon lake, will spend the winter in Florida. Mr. Farley retired from the Pontiac Motor company last summer, and since that time has been on a continuous tour of the United States.

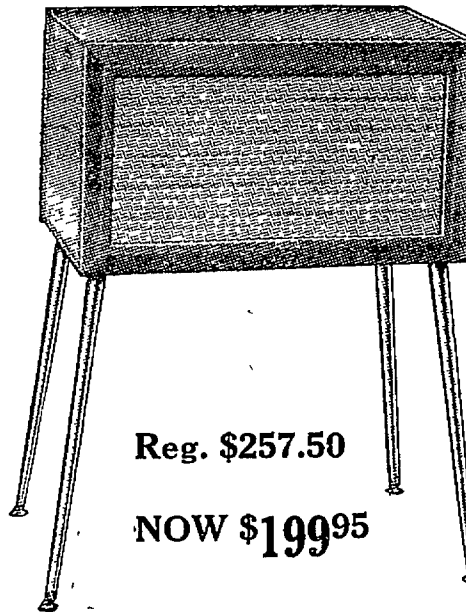

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gutherie of Lakeridge avenue are moving to Wisconsin.

LEARNING THE FUNDAMENTALS of sketching and drawing are Ellen Thomas, Fern Mitchell and Betty Kinnamon, all members of a Monday evening art class sponsored by the Northville recreation department. All Night Parking, Snowy Walks to Bring Fines

Northville residents had better watch out or they may be ticketed

Children Warned Of Thin Ice Danger

Chief of police Joseph Denton urged parents this week to warn their children of the danger of playing on thin ice at the mill pond and other nearby bodies of water.

At the recommendation of the Northville recreation committee, there will be no skating on the mill pond. City manager John Robertson and recreation director Stan Johnston are investigating two alternate possibilities for public skating, the fish hatcheries on Seven Mile road and the infield of Northville Downs race track.

AMVET AUXILIARY
The Novi AmVet Auxiliary will have their annual Christmas party next Tuesday, December 17 at the home of Mrs. Charles Trickey, Sr., East Lake drive, Walled Lake. Mrs. Duane Bell and Mrs. Trickey will act as hostesses.

Mrs. H. C. Duerson of West Dunlap street returned home Monday from St. Petersburg, Florida. She was called south due to the death of an aunt, Mrs. Edward Smith.

for snowy walks . . . or parking on the street.

Both conditions are punishable and will be enforced this year by the council. Policemen are already giving "courtesy reminders" to property owners whose sidewalks have not been cleared of snow.

The ban against all-night parking will be adopted officially Monday by the council. The motion to stop parking on any city street between 2 and 6 a.m. has already been adopted by the council. An ordinance will be presented for approval Monday.

The sidewalk ordinance has been on the books right along, but not enforced. The council has decided that every walk should be clean and safe for pedestrians within 24 hours of a snowfall. They consider the ordinance important to the appearance and public safety of the community.

No parking at night has been encouraged by councilmen to allow public works employees to properly clear the streets of snow and debris. Parked cars delay street sweepers and also prevent them from making a "clean sweep".

Undue hardships which may be imposed upon residents without driveways must be directed to the city council. After the ordinance is adopted, no exceptions will be made and cars parked on the streets will be ticketed, the council has warned.

Do You Have "Half Faith"?

A letter came to my desk this morning with a quotation of

D. L. Moody printed across the bottom of the stationery. It said, "Oh, the foolishness of a 'half faith'! What did this mean? Simply this, a faith that believes but not to the extent of doing something about it. For example, a man who sees the warning on TV that a hurricane is approaching his area, he hears the blast of local warning system, but does nothing about it. How foolish is this man's 'half faith'. Now it appears to me that a good many people have 'half faith' concerning Christianity. If you ask them if they believe the Bible, or if they believe that Jesus Christ died for them that they might be saved, or that He arose from the dead, or in the reality of heaven and hell, to all of this they would answer — surely I do. But the sad part of it — they have only a 'half faith' — because they do not put their faith into action whereby they receive the Lord Jesus as Saviour and take their stand on His side. Such 'half faith' is no better than no faith at all unless it is acted upon by obedience to God's command, "Call upon the name of the Lord."

Pity the Poor City Councilman! He, Too, Underpaid Study Shows

Salary is not a major factor to candidates for council in Michigan cities, but almost half feel they are underpaid for their services to the community.

These are the findings of a survey recently conducted in both mayor-council and council-manager cities above 4,000 population in the state by The University of Michigan.

Questioned on whether they thought salary an inducement for seeking office, only three percent voiced agreement compared to 68 percent who did not consider it a major factor.

What, then, does attract men to council posts?

About 90 percent of those polled checked the desire to help people and to render a public service.

Other reasons: Persuasion from friends and neighbors (50 percent); interest in politics (46 percent); desire to support a specific program (34 percent), and desire to bolster representation of their own attitudes or political parties on their councils (20 percent).

The U-M researchers also found that very few persons considered political careers, business and social contacts, and prestige or self-expression as motivations for running for council.

The main reason for desiring an increase, according to the 51 council men (41 percent of the total) who favored a raise, is because of the fact that their present salaries do not recognize time spent outside of regular meetings.

Percentage-wise, the average suggested raise amounted to 219 percent. This would mean a jump from an average in the cities polled of $442 annually to $1,045.

Cars Damaged In Accident

Damages amounting to $35 were done to a parked automobile belonging to Dale Richmond of 423 Beal street on November 29.

Richmond's car was parked on Orchard drive when Harry D. Kleinstiver of Port Huron backed into it from a driveway across the street. Damages to Kleinstiver's car totaled $80.02.

King's Daughters Seek Needy Families

The Mizpah Circle of the King's Daughters is asking help of Northville residents in seeking out needy families for Christmas food baskets.

Names may be given to Mrs. Clifford Winter, Northville 379; Mrs. Nelson Schrader, 515.

The CAR Christmas meeting and party will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Gemperline, regent of the DAR, at 4747 Territorial road, Plymouth. New junior members are also invited to attend.

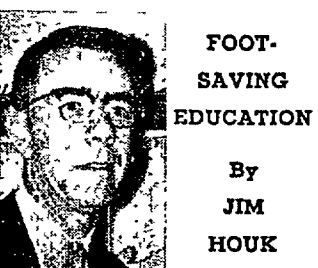

Four members and three adults of the Plymouth Corners Society of the Children of the American Revolution attended the CAR board meeting in Lansing last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Foreman, Jr. of West Seven Mile road returned home last Thursday from Grand Rapids where they attended the Michigan State Horticultural convention, which lasted four days.

FOOT- SAVING EDUCATION
By JIM HOUK

My baby draws up her toes when I try to put her shoes on. Any suggestions?

I have heard of one "sure cure." It works — sometimes. Holding the leg straight by grasping the knee, your fingers behind the knee cause the foot to relax in much the same way as placing your finger under your nose stops a sneeze. That doesn't always work either.

In the store we find that most shoe-fighting babies stop fighting when we put on larger shoes. It is not the shoes that babies dislike but the smallness of them. Your baby can't explain reasons for disliking her shoes but they are her feet and she is probably a good authority on the question of whether or not her toes are cramped.

"Dear Santa Claus: I'd Like..."

The Northville Record

THE OLDEST WEEKLY NEWSPAPER IN WAYNE COUNTY — EST. 1868 Thursday, December 12, 1957—9

JUST TO MAKE SURE — Many Northville and Novi tots made certain that their requests reached Santa by taking them directly to him themselves. Here, Tracey and Linwood Snow double-check their lists with Santa during his stop-over at the Gamble store in Northville last Saturday night.

In Northville and Novi this week, scores of little children bit the end of their pencils, thought hard, and carefully wrote down their heart's dreams.

Then they tucked their letters into envelopes and sent them off to Santa — usually in care of "North Pole, U.S.A."

In their own way, the letters are masterpieces — whether they ask for a gun, a doll, lined corduroy jeans, or even a doll "with layette and a tele with a 5 stories."

Dear Santa,

I am in the second grade and am 7 years old. My father said I was good this year. I would like the following things. PLEASE. Dump truck, STEAM SHOVEL, gun set, fire engine, SHIRT, and I would like this best a camera, GAS STATION, good shoes, a wagon — Give to Gary Raymor, Northville.

Dear Santa Claus,

I have been a good little girl and for Christmas I would like a Tiny Tear doll and a horse. I will leave some milk and cookies on Christmas Eve. I am four years old.

—Teresa Gattrell, Novi

Dear Santa Claus,

I have been a good girl too and are two years old. For Christmas I'd like a gun and horse. I will leave you some oranges.

—Karen Gattrell, Novi

Dear Santa Claus,

I want a tiny tears doll, a bride doll, and a musical teddy bear. Some unbreakable dishes and whatever else you want to bring me.

—Love, Adele Brown, Northville

Dear Santa Claus,

I would like a Betsy Wetsy doll with a layette and a tele with a 5 stories.

—From Claire Wilson, Northville

Dear Santa,

I would like a flash camera, and I would like some blocks, and I would like some skis, and I am 7 years old, and my mommy would like a cheese cutter, and my daddy would like a pool table, and my baby sister would like a pull toy, and my sister Linda would like a nurse kit.

—From Frank Wilson, Northville

MEANWHILE, OUT IN THE SNOW — While the Christmas season was a time of hoping and dreaming for the children, their parents had to face up to the realities of ice and cold. Despite the first big snow of the year, shoppers trudging along the streets of Northville managed to come up with a warm smile of season's greetings for one another.

IT IS OFTEN SAID that the best gifts you can give are those you'd like to receive yourself. Wouldn't you like to receive, as a Christmas present, a bedroom or kitchen phone, or a phone for the den or workshop? Then wouldn't they make great gifts for Mother, Dad or the teenagers in your family? Extension telephones (in any of nine decorator colors) cost only about $1 a month after a one-time installation charge. So order your gift telephones now. It's easy: just call our Business Office.

CHRISTMAS IS GETTING

closer and closer and you probably have a hundred and one things to do — presents to buy, holiday parties to plan, and lots of errands to run. Just the spot for your telephone to come to the rescue. You can shop around by phone and find out if certain items are still available and what they cost. And for planning holiday get-togethers, there's no faster, easier way than doing it by phone. Holidays and every day, there's just no end to your telephone's usefulness.

NEWLY-DESIGNED

equipment is being used to bring telephone service more quickly to fast-growing sections of town. Called Cable Concentrator, it lets as few as 16 pairs of telephone cable wires do the work of 58. In a new and heavily built-up area, where the Cable Concentrator is most useful, it means more phones can be installed without waiting for additional lines to be built. And it means more people there can have single or two-party lines. The development of these concentrators is one more milestone in Michigan Bell's continuing program to bring you more and better phone service.

Tips for Mailing Holiday Packages

Christmas packages will reach their destination safely, on time, and in perfect condition if a few simple suggestions are followed.

1. Use a sturdy container with a 2-inch clearance all around the gift.
2. Tear old newspapers into 2-inch strips and then fluff and crinkle them.
3. Stuff 2" of the material on the bottom, sides and top of the gift — firm — but not too tight.
4. Double pack very fragile gifts. Several small packages can be mailed at no greater cost than a single package of the same total weight.

Double strands of twine should be looped around the length and girth of the package, and should be knotted securely where the strands cross on top and bottom.

"From" and "to" addresses should be hand-printed on the top of the package and repeated on one side. Black crayon or heavy pencil are best to use.

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan—brimming with bold new beauty!

Come try the quickest combination on the road!

CHEVY'S TURBO-THRUST V8 WITH TURBOGLIDE

The Bel Air Impala Sport Coupe — one of two new super sport models!

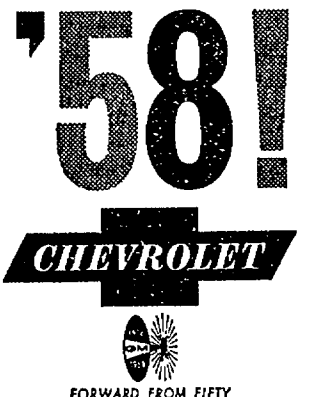

Chevrolet's radical new Turbo-Thrust V8 and honey-smooth Turboglide* automatic drive form a performance team that spells action. At all speeds, under all driving conditions, they give you the quickest, smoothest response of anything going.

There's never been an engine-drive combination like this one! Chevrolet's Turbo-Thrust V8* introduces a radical new slant on engine efficiency. The combustion chambers are located in the block rather than in the head, and chamber surfaces are precision machined. The result is a wonderfully smooth and even flow of power.

Turboglide*—the other half of the team—is the first and only triple-turbine automatic drive in Chevy's field. It takes you from a standstill through cruising in one continuous sweep of motion, without even a hint of a shift or lag. Harness these triple turbines to a 250-h.p. Turbo-Thrust V8—or the 280-h.p. Super Turbo-Thrust*—and you step out instantly in any speed range. Nothing else on the road turns your touch into action so quickly, so smoothly. Your Chevrolet dealer has the combination!

Kensington Offers Studies of Nature

Both indoor and outdoor opportunities to study nature at first hand are available at Kensington Metropolitan park, six miles west of Novi, where as many as 600 persons visit the nature center building on Sundays.

The nature center is open daily and is featuring exhibits appropriate to the changing seasons.

Currently on view are mounted ducks typical of those migrating through the park, an exhibit of bird portraits by Reuel Kenyon, and a 50-gallon aquarium containing small specimens of the fish inhabiting Kent lake in the park.

Going up soon are a display of bird nests to be seen during the winter, a pictorial demonstration of how to build a winter bird feeding station, and an exhibit of animal tracks in plaster of paris.

Naturalists Bill Hopkins and Charles Damm, keep the nature center open from 2 to 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturdays, and from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sundays. It is open by appointment from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Mondays through Fridays.

It's Official: Biery's All-State

The last of the all-state football ratings came in this week, and Northville's Dick Biery was officially listed as an all-state half-back.

Biery, named all-league, all-suburban, and all-state in other ratings last week, was chosen to the Detroit Free Press' Class B second team — the same ranking earned by center Bob Wagenschutz last year.

The Free Press teams, chosen by a poll of some 675 state high school coaches, are generally considered official.

Somewhat, the Associated Press all-state ratings completely overlooked the Mustangs even though four other Wayne-Oakland league players were cited. The AP gave first-team, second-team and honorable mention ratings, but nowhere in the 150-odd names was there a Mustang.

The four W-O players were Milford and Terry Anderson, West Bloomfield quarterback John Lucadam, Holly tackle Phil Tinsman, and Holly back Bob Letson. All received honorable mention.

Rocks Tarnish Mustangs' 'Golden Year'

46-23 Rout Staggers Northville

As did a certain well-publicized rocket last week, Northville's "perfect" season fizzled Saturday night almost before it got off the ground.

The Mustangs fell completely dead, victims of their own pressure, and watched helplessly while the arch-rival Plymouth Rocks joyously ground out a 46-23 victory.

The stunning collapse of the heralded Mustangs brought many a post-mortem. Most fans agreed that Northville simply had buckled under the weeks of pressure that normally goes with a Northville-Plymouth game in any sport.

"They clutched," said one fan succinctly. "They're still going to have a great year but when you clutch, a heads-up team like Plymouth is going to slaughter you."

What would have happened if Northville had been "up" for the game is hard to say.

The Mustangs, according to pre-game dope, could have won and might even have been the favorite. They had the height of a college team, were experienced, and knew their basketball.

Plymouth, despite its opening 60-40 loss to Ypsilanti, showed itself to be well practiced, aggressive and cocksure. And the Rocks had a spitfire named Hubbert who will prove a headache to many more teams this season.

On paper, it should have been a good, fast ballgame.

But from the start, Northville was unsure of itself while Plymouth became steadier with each play. Against the Rocks' increasing confidence, the Mustangs' nervousness turned into a 15-man inferiority complex.

Seizing on this, the Rocks contented themselves with ball control in the first period and settled for a meager 8-3 lead.

Then in the second quarter, with Northville waiting for some formula to make them start clicking, the Rocks took to the offense. Ken Knipschild drove in for three quick buckets, and by halftime Plymouth had soared to a 26-8 lead.

After the half, the Rocks quickly squelched a brief Northville spurt by again going after the ball. With Hubbert dribbling, feinting and stalling like a veteran Harlem Globetrotter, and with Dave Walasky bottling up Northville drives before they crossed mid-court, the Rocks destroyed any poise that the Mustangs had left.

By the fourth quarter, Northville was routed. Even experienced players began diving for the ball. They threw it out of bounds. One free throw missed the rim and net completely. Backboard control was gone, and passes were tossed obligingly into Plymouth hands.

Coach Stan Johnston, whose bag of tricks was empty, sadly turned the game over to the second-stringers. At the final buzzer the Mustangs' starting lineup of six-footers had been replaced by a squad on which not one player stood over five-eight.

For Northville, it was admittedly a miserable way to lose "the big one." For the Rocks, it was a thorough, well done job of continuing their jinx-like mastery over the Mustangs.

With that out of the way, Northville can get down to business again. That's one consolation.

END OF THE AFFAIR — So stunned were the Mustangs by their complete collapse against Plymouth Saturday night that many of them hardly noticed the final seconds ticking off. Even as coach Stan Johnston got up sadly to offer congratulations to Plymouth officials, the Mustangs continued staring glumly at the floor, wondering what had gone wrong.

No Surprises in W-O Openers

The 1957-58 Wayne-Oakland basketball season got underway last Friday and things went pretty much as expected.

Co-champions Northville and Clarkston each picked up where they left off, and Holly kept pace by breezing to its first win.

Only Milford failed to make the grade, losing to Clarenceville for the Redskins' second defeat of the season.

While Northville was polishing off West Bloomfield, 56-37, Clarkston managed to get by Brighton, 67-58. All-league Leroy Parks had 29 for the winners, while Brian Watson sunk 18 for Northville's next foe.

Holly, with George McDaniel's 23 points leading the way, warmed up against Bloomfield Hills, 70-49. The Hills is playing in the conference for the first time this year.

Milford, despite Pat Kelley's 16 points, fell victim to an under-rated Clarenceville squad. Scrappy all-league guard Larry Andrews had 11 for the Trojans.

But at Least They Beat The Lakers

Northville started its current basketball campaign last Friday exactly as it finished its regular schedule last year—by dropping West Bloomfield after spotting the Lakers an early lead.

The Mustangs saw Bloomfield build up a 9-0 lead before forward Cap Pethers sunk a 30-footer, then went on to defeat the Lakers easily, 56-35.

It was a hot and cold night for Northville. At times, the Mustangs were completely out-dazzled by West Bloomfield, and at other times they worked with the precision of a pro club.

West Bloomfield jumped off to its early lead on the strength of some sharp shooting by all-league John Lucadam. But once the Mustangs struck, they moved quickly. By quarter's end, the 9-0 score had become 13-12 in their favor. From then on out, they had little trouble.

Pethers took charge of the pivot spot, sinking enough shots to show that he didn't lose his eye during last year's lay-off. Bill Yahne took near-complete control of the backboards and came through with a series of tip-ins and lay-ups that brought a hearty round of applause when he finally left the court.

West Bloomfield, with little material other than Lucadam, was spent after the first quarter. Had not Northville offered an assist in the form of 19 fouls (good for 15 Laker points), the contest could have been a rout.

The Coach's Corner

by STAN JOHNSTON
Northville High School Basketball Coach

I experienced about every emotion possible last Saturday night — frustration, anger and disappointment, just to mention a few. I hardly can remember any of the things I said to the boys during time outs and at half-time.

I kept telling myself, "This can't last. The boys will come back and win this game." It never happened. Plymouth 46, Northville 23. We netted eight points in the first half. We were completely out-played and out-hustled by a smaller and more organized ball club.

After such a dismal performance it's difficult to believe that we did win over West Bloomfield the night before. Of course, this was the game that really counted. The Plymouth game was a blow to our prestige.

All is not lost. We WILL come back and defend our league championship. A bad contest is out of our system, and in the long run it might be the thing to set straight our attitude in our drive for the league title.

We journey to Brighton this Friday for our second league game. Brighton has veteran Brian Watson to lead their team in scoring. If he has a good night they will be tough. Many of the Brighton coaches and team members saw our game with Plymouth. I'm sure they found out that we could be beaten.

Little was said about the Plymouth game at practice this week. The boys didn't have to be told how badly they performed. We didn't have time to mourn over our mistakes. All used the time in trying to correct them.

Our loyal Northville fans turned out in good numbers last week. The coach and team appreciate this more than you realize. We need your continued support whether we win or lose.

Game Time

Unless otherwise stated, game time for Northville varsity and junior varsity games will be 7 p.m. on week ends and 6:30 p.m. during the week, both home and away.

The JV game will begin promptly at those times, and the varsity game will follow immediately. That means that week night varsity games will start around 7:30 p.m. and week end varsity games will begin shortly after 8 p.m. As the Colt-Mustang schedule now stands, all games this year will follow this pattern. Changes if made, will be announced later.

Deal Dunks 46 As Colts Split 2 Hair-Raisers

Northville fans had little to cheer about this week when it came to their Mustangs, but they could find some consolation in the work of a scrappy, spirited junior varsity squad.

The Colts, thanks to dazzling work by guard Wade Deal, came through with a 1-1 record for the week end.

Both went down to the wire, with the winning goals coming in the last few seconds.

Against West Bloomfield, the Colts see-sawed in and out of the lead as Deal put in 21 points. But, leading 41-40 with seconds to go, the Colts saw a Laker sink a 20-footer just as the final buzzer went off. Final score: West Bloomfield 42, Northville 41.

The Colts' fortunes took a turn for the good against Plymouth the next night, when Deal tallied 25 points and held the squad together just as it seemed out of contention.

Behind 47-35 at the start of the fourth quarter, the Colts came to life. Deal intercepted a Plymouth pass for the tying count, then took a long pass from Joe Gotro to give Northville a final 55-53 score with :05 left to play.

CHRISTONIC POWER

With the successful launching of Sputnik I and II, there arose in the minds of a great many people a wave of restlessness. Indeed, one might say a forboding! Many questions challenged our minds and occupied our thoughts—What does this portend? Are we in danger of annihilation? Do we in our nation have the same "know-how"? What about the future of our homes, our nation? And many others. All of which adds up to a rather unsettling experience in our lives.

Of course these events were accepted with mixed emotions and mixed ideas—but to one very large and important group of people—the Christians of this world—it served to prompt us to re-evaluate the "powers" available through the Christ.

I like to think of this power as "Christonic Power"—the power of the spirit which flows out of this affirmation of the Master when He said, "All power hath been given unto me in Heaven and on earth . . . and Lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the world."

This power, I submit, is greater than the power of the atom, it supersedes the power of nuclear fission; surpasses the "thrill" of a Sputnik—because the power released by the Christ in His Life and Death is a power that will transform death into life.

Until the Christonic Power was released, man was, is, and will be unable to empower mankind to create life. This Power is God's!

Now then, for our needs, amid the experiences of today's "Power Age" we must place these two in proper relation. Man has released new energy—but God has released a greater energy. Today, man's achievement, for the most part, represented a threat to life—whereas God's "Christonic Power" is completely directed toward overcoming death. If the claim of the Master has any validity, surely it in this realm of the Balance of Power—God is still supreme through Christ.

Thus the invitation to "come unto me" is an invitation to us to find the real peace of soul, and of heart, and of mind that will dispell our anxiety and fear. "Christonic Power" is all-powerful—enabling man to overcome death; to overcome evil-doing, to clear his perspective and to create a common bond of fellowship between man and man.

OUT OF THE PAST

ONE YEAR AGO . . .
Elections were in the news as voters were readying themselves to go to the polls to elect the first permanent board of education for the newly formed Novi Community school district.

...and the fate of the proposed new Northville high school was to be decided on December 18 when voters were to cast ballots for or against a $3 million bond issue.

With election date more than three months away, Northville's city and township elected officials and prospective candidates were picking up petitions that were to be filed by December 31.

Stockholders of the Depositors State bank of Northville and Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit gave approval to the proposed merger of the two institutions.

FIVE YEARS AGO . . .
Arrangements for moving the Northville Record into larger quarters in a three story building at the corner of Main and Center streets were completed and moving day scheduled to be as soon after Christmas as possible.

Besides nurses, doctors and attendants, it took a large crew of volunteer workers to handle the crowd of 142 persons who donated blood when the Red Cross bloodmobile visited the village.

The Northville Mustangs were scheduled to play their first Wayne-Oakland league game against Milford on the home court on December 12, 1952.

Shirley Snow of Novi was named as one of four senior Girl Scouts in the state to represent Michigan at the All-States encampment at Buffalo Bill youth camp near Cody, Wyoming in August of 1953.

TEN YEARS AGO . . .
Mrs. Hans Tetzlaff, a German refugee, and her family of four children arrived recently directly from a refugee camp in Copenhagen, Denmark. The family lived temporarily at the home of the Alfred Glassers with the hope that a home might be built for them later.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO . . .
With brief but appropriate ceremony the employees of the Northville Ford valve plant were presented with the coveted Bull's Eye flag on the anniversary of Pearl Harbor.

Funeral services for Rev. Howard Chapman, pastor of the Northville Baptist church, were held in Northville.

Julius Nagy spent three days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Nagy of Baseline road on leave from duty aboard a destroyer.

E. C. Mollema of the high school faculty spoke before the Rotary club on the history and development of tools.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie G. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Sherill Ambler and Mrs. Jean Cole attended the annual Christmas concert of the Michigan State Normal college choir. In the choir at the time were three Northville girls: Evelyn Ambler, Mary Louise Boyden and Edith Farley.

Mrs. Charles F. Murphy was honored at the American Legion Auxiliary banquet as the first Michigan American Legion Auxiliary president.

The Harvey Cole house on First street was destroyed by fire.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO . . .
The newly organized Service league held a bake sale at Freydl's store.

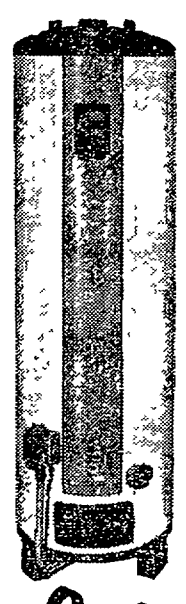

Floyd Salow and his wife were Sunday visitors at the home of their mother, Mrs. Carl Salow.

Freddie Casterline brought a bunch of violets picked in his own back yard to the Record office.

Forty Years Ago . . .
F. P. Summers and son, Arthur were at Camp Custer to visit George, who was on duty during their entire stay. They managed to have only a few minutes with him.

Charles D. Lanning returned to duty on the U.S.S. Michigan after a visit with his family there.

State Parks Eye More Campsites

Michigan State park officials are looking for a place to pitch a tent.

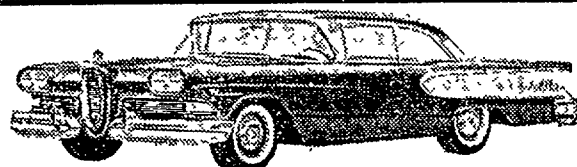

In fact, they are looking for hundreds of camp sites to accommodate the growing army of resident and tourist campers.

A record number of campers used state park facilities during 1957, amassing a total of more than 1,750,000 camper-days of use.

This total compares with 1,400,000 camper-days of use in 1956 and 1,200,000 in 1955.

In addition, an estimated 36,000 persons had to be turned away at state parks where camping areas and sanitary facilities were at capacity use.

Rixes Visit Washington D.C.

Editor's Note: Mrs. Luther Rix, who writes the news from Novi, has become our "Washington" correspondent for this week and here tells the story of a recent vacation trip she and her husband made to Washington, D.C.

We made one of our many trips to Washington, D.C. for the Thanksgiving holiday by automobile. Only ten hours actual driving time via the Ohio and Pennsylvania Turnpikes to the home of our son's family in the historic town of Falls Church, Virginia, just across the Potomac river from Washington.

We have visited during our trips to Washington, D.C. most all of our national governmental buildings and sites, including the Capitol, Mt. Vernon, FBI building, Supreme Court building, Library of Congress, Washington monument, Lincoln and Jefferson memorials and Arlington cemetery.

This year, we concentrated on the wonderful Smithsonian Institute and we visited the National Art Gallery where we saw the Gubbenkian collection of Egyptian Sculpture and the Blake collection of paintings now on exhibition at the gallery. We also saw the Salvador Dali painting of the "Sacrament of the Last Supper", considered one of the few religious paintings by a twentieth century artist.

However, the principal reason for our journey to Washington was to spend the Thanksgiving season with our son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rix, and our grandchildren, Leon, 15 years old, and Beth Elaine, 10 years old, and to attend the first of a series of concerts given by the "Young Artists Trio". The trio includes David Brewster, 21, violinist; Sally Stretton, 19, pianist, and our grandson, Leon, cellist. We would have traveled many many miles for this thrilling experience.

Hazardous driving conditions greeted us on the Ohio Turnpike on our return trip. Our next trip to Washington will take place when the weather conditions are not so unpredictable.

College Students Attain "B" Averages

Two students from Northville at Central Michigan college in Mt. Pleasant were among 365 students who received a B average or better during the last spring semester. They are Kathleen Heatley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Heatley of West Dunlap street, and Carol Sparling, daughter of Dr. L.L. Sparling of East Main street.

Future Drivers See Safety Films

Last Wednesday the students of Al Jones' driver education classes were visited by two state troopers who showed them the film, "Death on the Highway." The movie was shown to try to teach the future drivers what could happen if they were not careful.

Principals Visit Students at MSU

Northville and Walled Lake high school principals last week interviewed 10 former students now attending Michigan State university. Purpose of the 21st annual MSU high school-junior college follow-up conference was to improve the understanding, cooperation and articulation between high schools, junior colleges and senior colleges.

Northville high school principal E. V. Ellison interviewed Philip Hazlett, Barbara Archer, Karl Hoffman, Susie Dewsbury, Judy Junod and Priscilla Blackburn.

Former Walled Lake students interviewed by principal E. V. Ayres were Karen Nelson, Sally Parent, Patricia Mercer and Dawn Menton.

SPEAKING

for the Record

By BILL SLIGER

Northville and Warren Products will meet in court again next week for the second time in a year. Last time out Warren's attorneys won a reversal of the election that annexed the plant to the city.

In the first suit the judge upheld a charge by Warren that vote fraud existed.

His decision, whether fraud existed or not, was necessary to prove that the court cannot "wink" at any agreement that might permit the sale of a vote with an acre of land.

This time there is no charge of fraud or other irregularities. It is clearly a test of the law that has brought thousands of acres of unincorporated land into cities throughout the state. It indicates that the Warren officials have concluded that they will fight annexation into Northville at any cost.

It appears that the cost will be considerably more than any additional taxes the company would have to pay in the city. Taxpayers will probably have upwards of $5,000 invested when the newest suit is concluded. Oddly enough, Warren officials are paying on both sides. As homeowners and residents of the city, their taxes also help pay for the city's court costs.

More than casual interest will be centered on the outcome of the Warren suit. The position maintained by Warren attorneys is that the whole township should vote when a portion within its boundaries is annexed by a city (under 15,000 population).

If the supreme court upholds this interpretation, hundreds of previous annexations would have been completed illegally. A nearby example: the new Western Electric plant on Sheldon road in Plymouth.

Northville's Coordinating Council is currently organizing a steering committee for a super clean-up campaign in the spring. Plans call for the project to go far beyond the usual "clean-up, paint-up" observance and encourage all businesses, residents, the city and schools to take part. Every organization in the area will be asked to participate. Councilman John Canterbury is chairman of the drive.

It's a good thing Roy Terrill, township treasurer, isn't superstitious. He starts collecting taxes on Friday the 13th and his new 1958 license plates are 1313!

Seek Swainson's Seat

REPUBLICANS will fight to keep their last elective stronghold, the Michigan legislature.

A special committee has been set up to concentrate a 1958 campaign in the "swing" districts, those where the Democratic - Republican vote was 20 percent apart, or less.

Main concentration will be to keep the 59 Republican House seats. Democrats now have 51, enough to block two-thirds votes on some major issues.

Republicans are less fearful that the Democrats will take over the Senate, where they hold a 23 to 11 edge.

The committee, however, has singled out the 18th district of Senator John E. Swainson (D-Detroit), minority leader, for special attention along with other close Detroit districts.

Superimposed over the contests is the automatic vote in 1958 on a proposal to call a constitutional convention.

Technically, a convention could re-write the entire state constitution — last re-written in 1908 — and upset the 1952 reapportionment of the legislature now in effect.

Republicans contend that present reapportionment plans create "a balanced legislature," basing House membership on population of the state and the Senate on geographical areas.

Democrats contend that the plan was devised especially to keep the House in rural Republican hands. They would like to change this. GOP leaders fear a new plan would permit Wayne and Oakland county to control the entire state.

The issue has split the parties with Republicans opposed to a convention which could upset present apportionment; Democrats favoring a convention for the same reason.

Under present law, the convention membership has three members from each senatorial district. This maintains the ratio of senatorial votes each party has in the legislature.

UNIVERSITIES and colleges, facing their biggest financial crisis in years, will go before the legislature again with a plan to finance construction with student fees.

The fees were increased 10 percent last year at legislative insistence but a last-minute maneuver killed a plan to use the money for bond issues to finance new buildings.

Financial experts in Lansing predict the plan will again clash head-on with a Republican pledge to hold the line on spending for another year to wait for completion of two tax studies.

ANOTHER attempt will be made to tag the state's farm products with a "seal of quality" or a "Michigan's Best" label this year.

Most major farm groups already have supported the idea, which has been offered annually since 1949.

It will be part of a big farm program to be presented to the 1958 legislature, following a series of conferences with agricultural leaders.

CONTROVERSY from a number of new sources is worrying Democrats as 1957 nears its end.

Gov. Williams replaced the state labor commissioner, John Reid, with a UAW official from Lansing, Russell White. Reid immediately charged the UAW forced his resignation.

He charged that the union wanted to use the department to harass employers. Two weeks after replacing Reid and a week after Reid made his charges, Williams still had not answered them.

Still another controversy involves a letter written by Alfred Fitt, the governor's legal advisor, to the state parole board asking that Pete Mahoney, prison inmate be released.

The letter argued that Mahoney, sentenced for armed robbery, was given a stiff term — 25 to 40 years — because officials felt he knew something about the murder of former State Senator Warren G. Hooper.

Michigan's Growth Is Second in U.S.

Michigan, the second-fastest growing state since 1950, is expected to have a population of 10,260,000 by 1970.

Dr. John F. Thaden, a Michigan State university population expert, says the 1970 figure "is not a prediction, but a projection of growth based on the average ratio of Michigan's increase to that of the entire country."

Present Michigan population, estimated at 7,694,000 in 1956 is about 4.575 percent of the total U.S. population.

California is the only state which has exceeded Michigan in both total and percentage population increase since 1950, Dr. Thaden said. Texas had a larger total increase, but trailed the Wolverine state in percentage of gain.

Michigan's rapid population growth is due to both a high rate of births over deaths and extensive immigration, Dr. Thaden figures.

"Michigan is experiencing a healthy and well-balanced growth," he stated. "It is not like any of the five states — Arizona, California, Delaware, Florida and Nevada — in which migration contributed more than natural increase to the state's growth."

This he attributes to Michigan's balanced industrial and agricultural economy and its available large consuming markets.

The bulk of Michigan's growth, the demographer predicts, will be in the metropolitan areas and primarily in the South Central and Southeastern parts of the state.

"Those countries which have shown a decline over the past decade or two probably will continue to do so," he added.

Bank Loans Depend On Your Deposits

Babson Park, Mass. — During the past two weeks there has been much in the newspapers commending the Federal Reserve for reducing its rediscount rate from 3 1/2 percent to 3 percent. Now you wonder how much this helps your local bank.

What The Reserve Rate Does

First, let me explain just what this "reduction" means. Your local bank may need temporary extra funds certain times of the year to loan to some local industries. These are those which must borrow seasonally to buy raw materials or merchandise but which are out of debt most of the year. To secure such extra funds your local bank must borrow of the nearest big city bank where it carries its main account.

Upon the same principle, there are times when this big city bank may need extra funds. It then either sells government bonds or uses such government bonds as collateral to borrow from its District Federal Reserve Bank. There are 12 of these — one for each of the 12 federal districts into which the U.S. is divided.

Don't Expect A Reduction On Your Loan

If one of the District Federal Reserve Banks is temporarily short of funds, it borrows of the Central "Feds", located at New York and Chicago. It is the Federal Reserve System which has lowered the rate from 3 1/2 percent to 3 percent on loans made NOT TO YOUR BANK, or to you, but to one or more of the district banks mentioned above. These district banks, in turn, loan to the big city banks, which then may loan to your local bank. So you see it is a long time before this 1/2 percent reduction filters through to your local bank, if any of it gets through. Certainly no reader can expect a reduction in local interest rates on account of this small reduction by the Central Federal Reserve.

More Deposits Needed

Every reader of this column should realize that, in the long run, a bank can loan to customers only what it receives in deposits.

When next in your local bank, ask for its last printed statement. You will quickly see that the bank's own money (shown by Capital and Surplus) is relatively small. The money which you borrow is not the bank's money, but it is your neighbors' money. When too many "neighbors" reduce their deposits, then the bank should reduce its loans.

Banks, therefore, should work harder for deposits. The simplest way is to increase the interest rate on deposits. Another way is to spend more on advertising. To benefit from a higher rate on deposits or to make extra advertising pull, banks should "get off their high horse." Banks need lessons in public relations. Bank employees should be more courteous and be "salesmen" for their banks. They may need to keep their banks open longer hours and perhaps Friday or Saturday nights. Depositors facetiously remark that the bank charges interest just the same whether open for business or not!

Many investors who read this column noted how the stock market jumped up when the Federal Reserve rate was reduced. When, however, people began to think through and see that this reduction would not help their community, the stock market fell off again. In other words, this reduction will not cause consumers to buy more goods or manufacturers to employ more help. Therefore, wise investors are not buying more stocks now on the small reduction in interest rates by the "Fed."

The U.S. Government could, however, do three things which might help the stock market: (1) Lower the required margin which brokers are now forced to demand of speculators; (2) buy more governments from the banks, giving them more free money to loan; and (3) reduce the reserves which banks are required to carry. In an emergency, one or more of these could be done. However, no emergency now exists which would justify these steps. Of course, reducing interest rates has already caused bonds to go up.

"ALMOST, BUT NOT ENOUGH" is our verdict on how close competitive cars have come to matching the Swept-Wing 58. Take style. Other new cars are "almost" as low in inches, but still seem high and boxy in looks. Some of them are "almost" going to fins, but not enough to really make a difference. Then take performance. None of the other 1958 cars have anything to match the sway-free, dip-free, vibration-free ride of Torsion-Aire. (It's standard equipment.) Most of them still don't even have push-button driving! So after you've seen the "almost" cars, come in and drive a Swept-Wing 58. You'll see why we say: They're catching on, but they can't catch up.
