

Northville Students Serious, Shun Soft Touches

Dr. Kenneth McLeod

How does a graduate of Northville high school stack up in mathematical and scientific background to the average recent graduate in the United States?

Very well, says Dr. Kenneth McLeod, administrative assistant to the superintendent of schools, who recently completed a detailed study of the curriculum of the last three classes of Northville high school.

Dr. McLeod made the study at the request of high school principal E. V. Ellison to aid in carrying out the recommendations of the Northville curriculum committee, accepted by the board of education last spring for use in the new high school.

What he found — which was presented to the board of education last week and will be summarized here — will be gratifying to parents and school taxpayers who might have become especially concerned in recent times about the job Northville schools are doing preparing young people for this "atomic" era.

Dr. McLeod's study states, for example, that 28.7 percent of high school pupils in the United States had taken algebra in 1956, but —

- 93 percent of 1955 NHS graduates elected algebra;
- 73 percent of 1956 NHS graduates elected algebra, and
- 73 percent of 1957 NHS graduates elected algebra.

One year of mathematics is required for graduation from Northville high school, but Dr. McLeod found that 62 percent of the class of 1955 elected two or more years of mathematics, and 45 percent of both 1956 and 1957 graduates took two or more years of math.

(Mathematics courses offered include general math, algebra, advanced algebra, geometry, solid geometry and trigonometry.)

Four years of science are offered at NHS, including biology, general science, physics and chemistry. Dr. McLeod's study showed that although two years are the minimum required for graduation,

- 47 percent of the class of 1955 elected three or more years of science;
- 38 percent of the class of '56 elected three or more years;
- and 38 percent of the class of '57 elected three or more years.

McLeod said that lower percentages of students taking math and science courses in 1956 and 1957 are attributable to a lower intelligence test score average for those classes than in 1955.

"I'm amazed at these results," Dr. McLeod said. "In light of the national picture, it shows that Northville students are as well and in some cases better prepared than most students entering college today."

He added that emphasis placed on science and math in NHS was adequate, and that he would suggest no additional stress on the technical subjects.

What then, did his study show of the non-technical high school background of local students — in social studies and English for example?

Summarized, here are some of the findings:

- two and one-half years of social studies are required for graduation from NHS — but an average of 69 percent of the last three graduating classes from NHS elected three years or more of social studies;
- three years of English are required for graduation, but 85 percent of the class of '55 elected three and a half or more years of English, reading or speech, and 90 percent of both 1956 and 1957 classes elected three and a half or more years; — And another figure that astounded Dr. McLeod — 20 percent of the class of '57 elected the equivalent of five and a half years of English.

Dr. McLeod's report noted that there has been a slow growth in elective subjects, but that the numbers of students taking such classes as homemaking, industrial arts and other electives is high when compared to national figures.

In fact, in the case of business and commercial subjects, training facilities are being used to capacity. For the last three years, an average of 80 percent of graduating students have taken one or more years of commercial subjects.

"It would appear that the curriculum of Northville high might well be termed general education, with a strong tendency toward college preparatory," Dr. McLeod states in his conclusions.

"If the strong position of academic subjects is to be maintained," he adds, "elective subjects will have to be chosen by students in place of study hall. This situation indicates the need for efficient guidance and expert programming in order to plan the most worthwhile program for each pupil."

McLeod added recommendations for guidance and counseling to his report, endorsing the curriculum committee's suggestion for group as well as individual guidance. He also suggested that two or three group intelligence tests be given at the secondary school level rather than a single test.

He added finally that "the citizens of Northville have reason to be proud that those responsible for the administration of Northville high school have not been stampeded into dropping essential basic courses for easier elective courses. The Northville board of education, school administration and faculty are to be commended in providing an excellent basic curriculum for any graduate to build upon."

Background as Educator Prepares McLeod for Job

Well qualified to prepare and interpret the study reported here, Dr. Kenneth McLeod came to Northville with the following background:

— 17 years with Dearborn schools, finally as principal of Fordson high school;

— first dean of Henry Ford community college;

— three and a half years as personnel training officer with the navy;

— eight months conducting personnel tests for the Ford Motor company;

— one and a half years at the University of Michigan where he worked simultaneously on his doctor's degree, lectured in political science and was academic counselor to 200 freshmen and sophomores;

— work with the Wyandotte public schools, and — director of curriculum for Phoenix, Arizona high schools, where he set up a basic curriculum guide for teachers.

Dr. McLeod came back to Michigan and was in private business for three years before coming to Northville.

As "administrative assistant," his duties include handling child accounting, keeping personnel records, director of curriculum and "such other duties as may be assigned" for the entire school system.

Feeling that his job as director of curriculum is one of the most important right now with a new high school so near, he feels this study a basic step in examining present curriculum and fulfilling the local study committee's recommendations.

Dr. McLeod co-ordinated Wayne County Training school day school program, a cooperative effort by several area school-districts with administrative headquarters in Northville.

He is now examining Northville board of education minutes since 1930, preparing to codify all board policies into a set of by-laws, and also working on a centralized activity fund accounting system which will be required by the state beginning in June.

A monthly newsletter to teachers from the board of education office is also one of his projects. The first issue was circulated last month.

His tentative plans for the future include preparation of a curriculum guide for Northville teachers similar to the one now in use in Phoenix.

Annexation Hearing Set for Monday

Proceedings in the Warren Products-Northville annexation suit hit another snag this week. But Judge Clark J. Adams has scheduled oral arguments from attorneys on Northville's request for dismissal for Monday.

Warren's suit protests the November 19 election which saw 220 acres of Novi township, including the plant, annexed to Northville. Judge Adams is expected to render a decision on the city's claim that Northville is not the proper defendant. If upheld, the case would probably go to the State Supreme Court. If denied, a new hearing before Judge Adams' Oakland county circuit court will be scheduled.

Dates Are Set For Clean-up Drive

A nucleus committee of six members met last Thursday night at the city hall to discuss a community-wide "clean up" drive to be held in the spring and set a tentative period of April 1 through June 15 for the campaign.

Drawn from members of the Northville coordinating council, they were Mrs. Essie Nirider, Mrs. Arlo Hauger, Robert German, Joseph Crupi and John Canterbury. Another member, Leland Smith, was unable to be present because of illness.

Also present was Mrs. William Cansfield, president of the coordinating council.

Plans for types of improvements to be made in the community, organizational participation, and committee organization were discussed.

Named chairman of the committee was John Canterbury. Another meeting will be held this evening, (Thursday) after the regular coordinating council meeting at the city hall.

FAREWELL TO NORTHVILLE — William Noakes and his daughters, Barbara, two weeks, and Margaret, two, will soon leave for Vermont. Mrs. Noakes died in her sleep two weeks ago, and although many Northville residents have offered care for the girls during the day, their father feels they should be near their relatives back home.

PLANNING FOR P-TA PROGRAM. — Mrs. Chris Hammond, Northville P-TA program chairman, and Wayne State university's Dr. Chester McCormick make plans for his appearance before the P-TA next Thursday night. Dr. McCormick's address will begin a new series of programs on how students learn.

How Does Your Child Learn?

How do your children learn?

What are the current theories of mental development, and how are they applied to actual classroom situations?

Northville parents will get some of the answers next Thursday night (January 23) in the first of a new series of Northville P-TA programs designed to explore the background and application of current theories of education.

Dr. Chester McCormick, of Wayne State university's college of education, will conduct the program Thursday. Northville students will assist in several demonstrations.

P-TA president Kenneth Conley urged all parents to attend the first program, since it will set the stage for the entire series.

"We often hear parents say they're worried about our schools... that they're teaching 'differently' than they did 20 years ago," said Conley. "These programs will help parents understand why teaching methods are different, and what our educators are trying to do."

The series will cover such subjects as guidance programs, teaching methods, reading programs, pupil performance evaluation, and the role of the school psychologist.

The meeting Thursday will begin at 8 p.m. at the community building. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

THE YEAR'S FIRST — Little Sherry Coykendall, born January 5, doesn't know it, but she's probably the luckiest baby in the Northville-Novi area. As the year's first baby, she will receive baby goods from eight Northville merchants. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Coykendall, Novi township.

Downs Returns To Summer Dates

Northville Downs has received choice summer racing dates for 1958 but the meeting will be two days shorter than last year.

The Downs was granted 36 nights of racing this summer from June 30 to August 9.

The dates mean a return to mid-summer racing for the Downs after last year's 38-night spring meeting from April 18 to May 24.

Downs' officials could not be reached for comment, but were presumably pleased with the dates — even though they fell short of the number requested. The Downs had asked for 60 nights of racing, from June 2 through August 9.

The 1958 state harness schedule was increased to 156 nights, 10 more than last year. Jackson Raceway was the only track to get additional dates.

'March of Dimes' Gains Momentum

The 1958 March of Dimes proceeded quietly but steadily in Northville this week.

As canisters were set out on store counters and public buildings, volunteers went ahead with plans for the traditional Mothers' March later this month and for local participation in the second annual polio bowling tournament.

Meanwhile, a young Northville student who has good reason to appreciate the March of Dimes made his own unique contribution to the fight against polio.

In 1948, Ron Richardson — then just a little fellow — complained of a stiff hip. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Richardson, rushed him to the hospital after a spinal tap, doctors confirmed their fears: it was polio.

Fortunately, it was a mild attack, and it was caught early. Even so, Ron spent 15 days in the hospital, under constant treatment by doctors. Each day, a therapist came in to further the treatment.

When he left the hospital, Ron was cured. Today, as an eighth-grader in Northville, he has no after effects at all.

"Altogether, Ron's attack cost us just $2 — for a blood count," said his father this week. "The rest was taken care of by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis."

"But more important to us," he added, "was the knowledge that expert care was available, and that the foundation through the March of Dimes had found part of the answers to polio before it struck our family."

This week, Ron taped 86 dimes together and prepared to give them to the March of Dimes. They equalled his height — 5'1" — a height he may not have achieved had it not been for the March of Dimes.

In another March of Dimes development this week, Angie's Northville Lanes announced it is now accepting applicants for the second annual polio bowling tournament.

Meanwhile, Mrs. J. W. Reynolds worked on final plans for the annual Northville Mothers' March on January 29. At that time, scores of mothers will tour the city, stopping for contributions at all homes where a porch light shines.

All Night Parking Ends Friday in City

Motorists in the habit of parking their car on city streets overnight will have to change their ways beginning Friday.

That's when a new city ordinance banning parking between the hours of 2 a.m. and 6 a.m. goes into effect. Police will remind violators with "courtesy" tickets for approximately 10 days before issuing fines.

STRING OF DIMES for the March of Dimes — Ron Richardson, 814 West Main, who had polio himself, has taped together 86 dimes for the current March of Dimes drive. The '51" string is just as tall as he is. Here, Ron shows how tall he was when polio hit him in 1948.

Milford Tilt Rescheduled To Mustang Court Friday

The Northville Mustangs and their fans will not have to make the long journey to Milford tomorrow night. The Mustang-Redskin game, originally scheduled for the Milford court, will be played at Northville instead. Milford's new gym is not yet ready for use, school officials explained.

Game time tomorrow night will be 7 p.m. for the junior varsity and approximately 8 p.m. for the varsity.

The revised schedule gives the Mustangs a current home stand of five straight games, two of which are already in the record book. After tomorrow's encounter against Milford, Northville will take on league-leading Clarkston and then Brighton on successive Fridays.

On the other hand, the Mustangs now must play their final four games of the year on foreign courts.

Whether the prolonged "away" schedule will affect the Mustangs' performance is unpredictable. But for the record, the Mustangs have won all home games so far this year but have lost two out of three on the road.

Wixom Pair Choose New Year's Day for Rites

Mrs. Marvin Wagnitz

Patricia Ann Hopkins and Marvin A. Wagnitz, both of Wixom, were united in marriage on January 1 at the First Baptist church of Wixom, Reverend Edmund Caes performing the rites.

Patricia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Westervelt of Pontiac Trail. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagnitz of Wixom road.

Flowers, candelabra and hurricane lamps trimmed the church for the ceremony.

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over satin. It was fashioned with a high neckline and long, tapered sleeves.

She carried a white lace covered bible centered with a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Serving as maid of honor for her sister was Miss Mary E. Hopkins. Bridesmaids included Miss Barbara Clark of South Lyon and Miss Tille McGinnis of Pontiac. They wore similar gowns of white lace over turquoise fashioned with colonial style skirts designed by the bride. They carried small baskets of gold chrysanthemums and p o m p o m mums, the maid of honor carrying rose-colored flowers.

Flower girl was Sally Pickard, a niece of the bridegroom, who wore a turquoise nylon dress. She carried salmon-hued flowers.

Best man for Mr. Wagnitz was Calvin L. Hopkins of Wixom, brother of the bride. Showing guests to their seats were Don Wagnitz of Highland, and Gerald Wagnitz of Milford, both brothers of the bridegroom.

Ring-bearer was Timmy Wagnitz, nephew of the bridegroom from Highland.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Westervelt chose an ensemble of a beige brocade princess style dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Wagnitz chose a blue linen dress with a black design and black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of red roses centered with a blue iris.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore a beige sheath with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride attended Lyon township schools. Her husband attended Walled Lake consolidated schools.

MEET MR. AND MRS. E. A. WILSON, their daughter, Janet, and Butch, who have lived in Commemara Hills since October 21 when they moved to Northville from Detroit.

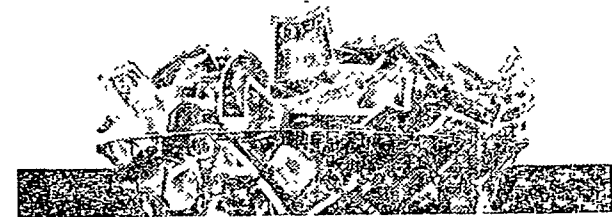

The "warmth of the people" is the major reason the E. A. Wilsons give for moving to Northville — people they had met while visiting Northville before deciding to buy a lot and build their own home here.

Mrs. Wilson is a first grade teacher with Redford Union schools and Mr. Wilson is assistant director of service for the DeSoto division of Chrysler corporation. Both are originally from Oklahoma.

Their daughter, Janet, is a sophomore at Northville high school and "loves every minute" of being in Northville. She formerly attended Redford high school.

Mrs. Wilson likes to call her hobby teaching — as she instructs weekly Sunday school in her church and conducts a church leadership training class in addition to her daily work.

Highlights of 1957 —Our Greatest Year of Growth

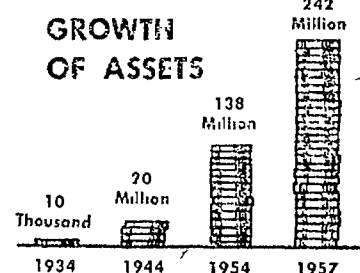

Savings accounts at First Federal increased over $40,000,000 last year after all withdrawals. This is the largest 12 months growth in our 23 year history.

Good liquidity is being maintained, with cash and government bonds exceeding $19,000,000. Since organization, it has been First Federal's policy and practice to pay all withdrawals on demand.

Earnings paid to savings customers during 1957, at 3½%, also reached a new high figure: $5,800,000.

First Federal's lending activity in 1957 helped to combat "tight money" conditions in the Detroit area. 9,323 home loans and home improvement loans, totaling over $17,000,000, were made last year.

First Federal is Michigan's largest savings association, and ranks 5th in total savings among 6,000 associations in the United States.

How Insured Savings Earn 3%* for You Here!

This is a mutual savings association. All assets belong to our savings customers. This fact, combined with the continuing good income from our investments in mortgage loans, home improvement loans and government securities, accounts for this good return on savings.

from the PASTOR'S STUDY

By the Rev. B. J. Pankow, Pastor
St. Paul's Lutheran Church of Northville

FOUR HANDS HEAVENWARD
"Four Hands Heavenward" is the title of an artist's drawing on the editorial page of a newspaper that just reached my desk. Two hands are lifted in prayer alongside of two hands of a clock that point upward to the hour of twelve.

The first two hands are an adaption of Albrecht Durer's famous "Praying Hands". Every detail in the hands is expressive. The prominent veins picture the pulsation of life. The hands are pressed together, as though every last need of body and soul were included in one supplication of prayer and thanksgiving. The fingertips taper toward heaven to indicate that help can come only from God. No face is seen. No furrowed brow, or expectant eyes, or joyful mouth — only hands that express everything, and chiefly this, that the prayer is proceeding from the heart.

Above the hands is a Bible verse: "I will, therefore, that men pray everywhere, lifting up holy hands . . ." (1 Tim. 2:8)

All of this is superimposed on the face of a clock, near to heavy black hands that tell the time of the world we are living in.

TIME IS RUNNING OUT. PRAY!
Once again we have stepped from an old year into a new one. It seems like only a few days ago, and here it is already the middle of the first month. So time marches and rushes on. But it is getting close to the end of the march. "The end of all things is at hand" is what God Himself reveals in His infallible Word. Every new minute, hour, day, year, is only by His grace. Let us look upon it as such. We are to make the most of the time that God is still giving to us. One way of doing that is by praying.

Some people think that prayer is a waste of time. They foolishly believe that they are too busy to pray, too busy to take time on a

Sunday morning to pray together with others in the house of God, too busy in their daily routine of life, too busy solving their own problems with their own puny and feeble reason to take time to pray — as though turning to the almighty and all-knowing God for help and counsel were a waste of time. God wants us to take time to pray everywhere, in all situations.

DOES GOD HEAR PRAYER?
Can we be sure that God will hear our prayers? Yes, but only if we pray with repentant hearts and with firm faith in Jesus. The passage we quoted before continues: "lifting up holy hands, WITHOUT WRATH AND DOUBTING." That means that our hearts must be free from bitterness, vengeance, hatred, and wrath. It also means that we must pray with firm trust that for Jesus' sake our prayer will be answered. God is disposed to hear our prayers only if we believe that Jesus is our Savior. Therefore, we are to pray in the name of Jesus. A previous passage in the same chapter of First Timothy reads: "There is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the Man Christ Jesus, who gave Himself a ransom for all." Since Christ is the only One who paid a satisfactory ransom for our sins, He is the only one who can be our Mediator in our prayers to God. The hands we lift up to God can be holy hands only because we believe in the cleansing blood of Christ, the "Lamb of God, which taketh away the sins of the world." (John 1:29)

There is one other important instruction God gives us concerning prayer. When praying for spiritual blessings we should ask unconditionally, but when praying for other gifts, we should ask that God grant them to us if it be His will.

Let us pray in the new year. The hands of time point upward. Do yours?

Madonna Senior Honored by Church

Evelyn Pikulski, a senior at Madonna college, Livonia, has received a special honorable mention in the competition for the Outstanding Catholic Youth of the Year 1957 sponsored by the National Catholic Welfare Conference. In his congratulatory letter, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph E. Schieder, Director of the National Council of Catholic Youth, termed this distinction a "glowing tribute" to the nominee and the college since the entire nation was competing.

Evelyn was singled out for this distinction because, through her activities, both curricular and co-curricular, she has shown herself able to cope with the situations encountered. Her interest has centered about several fields, namely, NFCCS, student government, journalism, CCD, public relations and various campus chairmanships. She was described as a well-rounded individual because of her ability to work in these projects while maintaining a good scholastic average. She has proved her devotion to Catholic Action by her active membership in the College Sodality and her frequent attendance at Mass and Holy Communion. With three years of theology in her past, she has also probed into the relationship of God and man and come to recognize the value of choosing those principles of action which will best enable her to reach her goal.

De-railing Holly a Habit with Mustangs

After last Friday night, Holly's Broncos probably have very few kind words for Northville.

In fact, the mere mention of their tangle with the Mustangs that night might be disastrous.

It was all too similar to a snowy night last fall when the Mustangs bumped the undefeated Broncos from the Wayne-Oakland football title and then went on to win it themselves.

No championship was at stake Friday night, but the Broncos did come to Northville undefeated and tied for first place. All that changed in 32 scoreless minutes, however, as the Mustangs sent Holly crashing to its first defeat of the season.

It was poetic justice in one respect. Last year, Holly was the team which snapped Northville's 10-game winning streak and nudged the Mustangs from undisputed possession of first place.

The final score — 61-53 — was bad enough for Holly. But even harder to swallow was the 18-point lead that Northville had two minutes before the game ended.

As Holly's coach put it, "That was the worst night yet."

For the Mustangs and the standing-room-only crowd at the community building, however, it was the best night yet.

"It wasn't just that we beat Holly," said happy coach Stan Johnston. "The big thing was that we looked like a ball club for the first time this year."

Examples were on every hand:

— Cap Pethers, after a wobbly start, glittered throughout the game. Even with 6-6 George McDaniel hovering around him, Pethers netted 22 points, gathered in 24 rebounds, and seldom let Holly have a second shot at the bucket.

— Bob Starnes busted up the Broncos' changing defense at several crucial points by snapping bullet-like passes into Pethers or Bill Yahne under the boards.

— Fred Schwarze gained a starting guard position by harassing the Holly offense into costly mistakes and outright fumbles.

— Yahne, Dan Howell and N. C. Schrader guarded Holly's McDaniel so effectively that the big center ended up with nine points for the game, and only two in the second half.

— Dick Biery broke down court time and again for easy lay-ups early in the second half, as the Mustangs padded their lead from three points to 18.

The Mustangs were unsteady at first, and Holly took an early lead. But late in the first quarter, Starnes swished a 20-footer to make it 11-10, and Northville never trailed again.

The Mustangs, led by the ball-stealing of Biery and Starnes, pushed their lead to 29-19 in the second quarter. But Holly stormed back to a 29-26 halftime margin.

In the first four minutes of the third quarter, Northville put in 12 points to Holly's 2, as the Mustangs' fast break went to work. One long pass from Pethers to Biery would have gone for a touchdown if it had been football instead of basketball.

By the middle of the fourth quarter, Holly was routed. With the score at 58-40, Johnston flooded the court with reserves. The Broncos popped in a quick 10 points, but the Mustangs were out of reach.

Mustangs On the Move But Wolves Still in First

The Clarkston Wolves are seldom happy to see Northville win, but they had reason to cheer the Mustangs Friday night.

Northville's decisive win over Holly gave Clarkston undisputed possession of first-place in the Wayne-Oakland league.

The night's action left Clarkston with the only unblemished record in the league, as the Wolves piled up their fifth straight win in conference play and seventh straight of the year.

Even so, Clarkston is still within reach of three other W-O clubs in the young conference race. Northville and Holly are only one game off the pace, and the hot-and-cold Brighton Bulldogs trail by only two. Clarkston found the going rough at first Friday night, but spurted for 37 points in the third quarter to blast West Bloomfield, 80-51. The Wolves' 5-7 ace Leroy Parks connected for 27 points and was backed up by big Bill Noles with 17.

Brighton pulled up to a 3-2 mark for the year with an easy 68-46 win over Clarenceville, as Brian Watson dumped in 27 points.

In the final W-O game — a battle of the winless — Milford downed Bloomfield Hills, 63-51, for its first league victory of the year.

BALLHAWK IN ACTION — Holly's George McDaniel had the height advantage, but Northville's Cap Pethers consistently outjumped and outshot the 6-7 Bronco under the boards Friday night. Pethers took 21 rebounds, as Holly seldom got more than one shot at the bucket. In addition, Cap tallied 22 points — the season's high for the Mustangs.

The Coach's Corner

by STAN JOHNSTON
Northville High School Basketball Coach

The boys undoubtedly played their best contest of the season last Friday night. The performance was encouraging to everybody and came at a time when it was most needed. When you meet a club that is previously unbeaten, no matter how tough the teams they have played, they are going to give you all they have in order to stay undefeated.

Holly meets Clarkston this Friday night and then we will have some stronger basis for comparison. I think Clarkston will stop them by 15 or 20 points.

The league race is pretty well divided now between four teams. Clarkston, of course, is the team which looks the strongest on the basis of competitive scores. They have four boys back from last year's team and it looks like they are much improved.

Holly and Brighton are two teams which could give Clarkston trouble. If Clarkston should have a bad night against either of these two teams it could change the picture considerably. It has been many years since a team in our league has gone undefeated in conference play and we hope this year is no exception, since it's not possible for us to finish with a clean league record.

As far as we are concerned we have nothing to worry about. All we have to do is win the rest of our league contests and we're in! That means we have to beat Clarkston both games and make sure that some other team does not pull one out from under us.

What I mean is — the pressure is on — the going will be real tough from here on in.

Our Lady of Victory Wins Its Second

Our Lady of Victory eagles won their second game of the year Sunday, defeating St. Robert Belima, 23-7.

In both games, OLV was paced by Robert O'Leary and Ken Skover. Others on the first team include D. Riley, R. Westerstrom and D. Jendersak.

Reserves consist of R. Turnbull, J. Bertoni, K. Madigan, P. Modos, J. McGuire, W. Klockie, D. Phillips, M. Abruzzo and R. Mitchell.

Our Lady of Victory will meet St. Mary's of Wayne this Sunday. Fans have been urged to turn out for the game.

Novi vs. Highland Next Wednesday

Next school, in the midst of its first basketball campaign in several years, will meet Highland on the Novi court next Wednesday after school.

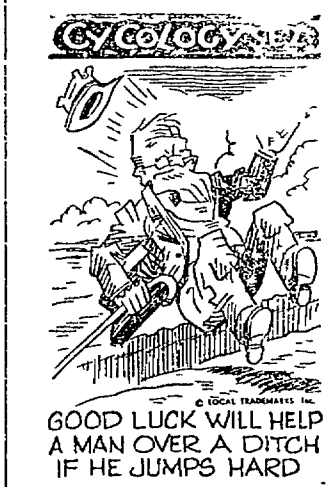

Novi was due to meet Dublin yesterday in its third game of a nine-game schedule.

Earlier this year, coach Gail Perkins' eagles lost to Northville eighth-graders, 38-30, and to Our Lady of Victory, 29-17.

Harbert Wins $975 In Crosby Tourney

Northville's Chick Harbert picked up some of Bing Crosby's money last week, $975 worth to be exact.

Harbert fired a 72-hole total of 287 to tie for sixth place in the Crosby golf tournament which closed Sunday at the Pebble Beach, California course. The Meadowbrook professional tied with Bob Rosburg, who skidded to an 81 on the final day after leading the field. Bill Casper was the winner.

Hi-Fi Extension Discusses Pictures

The Hi-Fi Extension Group held its monthly meeting on January 9 at the VFW Post 3952 hall. The topic for the lesson was "Pictures for the Home". It was presented by Mrs. Oscar Simmons, who gave highlights on selection of pictures, surveying pictures in rooms of the home, learning to know good pictures, appeal of a picture, the aesthetic appeal of artistic value in a picture, which picture to select, how to improve pictures in the home, picture frames and picture mats. She also explained that children enjoy abstract art more than adults because of their uninhibited imagination. Members of the extension brought pictures from their own homes and these were compared as to good and bad features. Mrs. Robert Merkle of Orland avenue was accepted as a new member of the group.

1—CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the Northville Lodge 186, Novi Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, Novi Methodist Church and especially Dr. Chabut, and the staff at Sessions hospital and all others who have sent cards and well wishes.

John Harnden

I wish to thank everyone who was so very nice to me while I was in the hospital. The entire staff at Sessions hospital, all of the Costerline family, Dr. Chabut and so many friends for gifts, flowers and cards. I am sincerely grateful to all.

Marvel Montgomery

Words cannot adequately express our deep appreciation for the many kind and sympathetic acts that came to us at the time of our recent bereavement. We especially appreciate those kind folks who offered a home to my children. However, I am moving back to Vermont with my family and therefore will not take advantage of the kindnesses offered. To all, my deepest gratitude and thanks.

Wilham Noaks and Family

Cub Pack 753 wishes to express its appreciation to the people of Northville for their cooperation with our Christmas tree project. Also special thanks to Northville Lanes and Alex Lyke for the use of his property.

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to all our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness at the time of the loss of my beloved husband, J. Woodrow "Roe" Harris. Special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Castlerline, Novi police department, Masonic Lodge and Rev. G. T. Nevin for his comforting words.

Florence E. Harris "Flo"

State Launches Campaign for New Industry

LAUDABLE HARMONY; government and industry are starting a joint campaign to sell Michigan to the world and each other.

It is part of a program to look on the other side of the state's economic climate, and the flight of business and industry to other states because of taxes and labor costs.

Dan Gerber, president of Gerber's Baby Products at Fremont and chairman of the Michigan Economic Development Commission, said the theme of the campaign is "Michigan Means Business."

"The need is for Michigan people to cooperate in solving their problems and to cooperate in selling their state," he said.

About 100 of the state's leading businessmen and industrialists have agreed to take part in a program as "Industrial Ambassadors" to carry the word of Michigan's attractions on their travels around the nation.

The campaign broadsides do not get into the controversy over taxes and labor costs which has raged over the past two years.

The in-state political impact of this battle between Republicans, who claim Williams' tax ideas are driving business and industry elsewhere, and Democrats who deny everything, is still unknown.

It can be gauged after the 1958 campaign when Democrats seek to extend their almost blanket control of state elective offices.

Gerber said 20 new industries located in Michigan in 1957.

If the selling campaign is successful, the GOP charge will lose some of its punch when the votes are counted next November.

The significance of the 1958 election is not lost by either party.

Democrats feel it is their last chance under Williams to take full control of state government. Republicans know they must start a comeback soon, or maybe never.

Democrats are aiming for a new foothold in the legislature, still dominated by Republicans.

In the January 4 inauguration, Democrats formally took over five seats on the Michigan Supreme Court bench, control of the state board of agriculture which governs Michigan State University and gained a 4 to 4 split on the University of Michigan Board of Regents. All top elective state officials are Democratic. Republicans hope to save their last top post with U.S. Senator Potter next fall.

FINANCIAL CRISES have a way of occurring every year for state government.

The 1959 crisis brought a turn-about by Williams, who in other years has preached the expanding needs of a growing state and demanded more money with a tax on corporate incomes.

Republicans held the line on the budget and have held off on further taxes whenever possible.

Williams took an economy tact this year. Opponents relate this effort for economy to the fall election.

First, he told state agencies their budgets would be slashed before they got to the legislature. Then, he told them to save all the money they could this year.

After declaring that the legislature was in no mood to raise new taxes this year, Williams recommended a doubling of the intangible tax.

The levy is on stocks, bonds and other intangibles — including annuities bought years ago by workers to make their lives more secure in their old age.

"It's a tax on thrift, let's face it," said Senator Edward Hutchinson (R-Fennville).

REPUBLICANS generally are wary of Williams' tax idea this year. They claim he lifted the intangibles tax plan from one preliminary report of a citizen group to a Republican study of the state's revenue structure.

Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the study, said Williams was "unfair" to run with the ball on a partial report.

Four foreign films are scheduled for showing in Plymouth within the next four months.

They will be a project of the women's committee of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra for funds to support the orchestra.

The other three films to be presented are "Beauty and the Beast," a French fantasy, Saturday, February 8; "Don Camillo," an Italian comedy, Saturday, March 21, and a Japanese film which will be announced later on Saturday, April 26. Tickets are available for the season or may be bought singly at the door. They may be bought at the Mayflower hotel, the high school, or from any one of the following persons: Margaret Hough, Phyllis Readman, Lenore Dunlap, Phyllis Kelley or Catherine Huber.

Co-chairmen of the project are Mrs. Eber Readman, Mrs. Grant Beglarian and Mrs. George Hudson.

1st Federal Enjoys Best Year in '57

Reporting the most successful 12 months in its 23-year history, Hans Gehrke, Jr., president of First Federal Savings of Detroit, says assets increased over $41,000,000 during 1957, bringing the year-end total to $242,753,000.

At the same time, the association reported payment of more than $5,800,000.00 in earnings on savings accounts during the year, also a record amount. Earnings payments were made at 3 percent.

The year also brought 27,512 new savings customers, with a total at year end of 111,344 with over $221,000,000 in their savings account. First Federal has 33,957 loan customers, and additional thousands using other First Federal services. A total of 9,323 new mortgage and home improvement loans was made, amounting to over $47,000,000.

First Federal has 10 offices in metropolitan Detroit, with a new office planned for St. Clair Shores. The association's headquarters is at Griswold and Lafayette, across from old City Hall. The Plymouth branch is managed by Perry Richwine, vice president.

Planners Schedule Rezoning Hearing

Northville's Planning Commission heard two requests for rezoning Tuesday evening and scheduled a public hearing on the requests for February 11.

The First Presbyterian church asked that a house adjoining on Church street be changed from R-2 to C-2, while the same zoning change for Lot 46 on Cady street was requested by Roy Stone and William Sliger.

Official notice of the request and hearing date will be published next week in The Record.

Hit was Herbert Rick, 63, of 588 South Main, who was taken to Wayne county general hospital for treatment of a broken left arm and shoulder.

Rick told police he was going east in the alleyway one block west of Hutton when a car hit him on the right side and knocked him to the pavement.

Ron Lahr of 816 Carpenter street, who saw the accident from about 150 feet away, reported it to the police.

Keep off the Grass, Skaters!

Skating is in full swing at the Northville fish hatchery, but it's not without its problems.

Recreation director Stan Johnston this week reminded skaters that:

— red flags at the ponds will mean no skating. If there are no flags, it's safe to skate.

— they should change skates on benches beside the pond, and should not walk on grassy areas with their skates.

They should not play hockey until another rink is cleared and nets are put up.

— speed skaters should take it easy until a separate pond is cleared off for them.

"It will take a while before everything is set up," Johnston said. "Permission to use it came only two weeks ago, and we can't do everything at once. But if skaters are patient, there'll be ponds for both hockey and speed skating."

Last week end, during perfect weather, more than 800 skaters used the single cleared pond.

Debaters Victorious In League Tourney

The third Wayne-Oakland league debate tournament was held at Northville high school last Tuesday.

Schools that participated were Clarkston, Holly, Brighton, Clarenceville, Milford and Northville. The Northville squad was victorious, thus gaining the league championship at present.

Due to the absence of Lillian Zinnecker, Sandy Strasen debated in both of Northville's matches. Sandy and Becky Coolman debated with Clarkston, Marianne King and Sandy debated against Brighton.

Next week Northville will journey to Brighton for another league tournament debate. Northville will have four new debaters participating. Julie Older and Bob Niemi will debate against Brighton, and Carol Tabor and Chuck Hix will debate against Milford.

Because Northville has won six out of six debates this year, they are eligible for regional tournaments.

Mrs. Carl Bryan of West Main attended a "bon voyage" luncheon and bridge party at Watkins' Lake Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Gels-ton Poole. Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Poole traveled to the Orient last year and joined in giving suggestions to several of the guests who are preparing to make overseas trips this year.

Mrs. Lucille McKinney of Rayson street recently accepted a teaching position with Cleary college at Ypsilanti, where she will instruct classes in grapho-analysis on Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights beginning January 6. Mrs. McKinney also teaches handicapped children during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Logeman of Grace street had as Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bell, Sr. and Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Keith Strong and children, formerly of Northville and now living in Dearborn, were afternoon callers.

CORRECTION

Three Residents Injured in Crash

Three Northville residents were injured in an accident in Southfield recently, two of them still under treatment in William Beaumont hospital.

Still hospitalized are Frank Knight of Thayer boulevard, and his 80-year-old mother-in-law, Mrs. Cora Johnson.

Mrs. Knight, also injured, has been released and is now staying at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Bryant of Royal Oak.

They were driving west on 12 Mile road when their car collided with one driven by Mrs. Mary Lachnisker of Birmingham, who was headed north on Lahser. Police lay part of the blame on a house close to the intersection which blocks full vision of oncoming traffic.

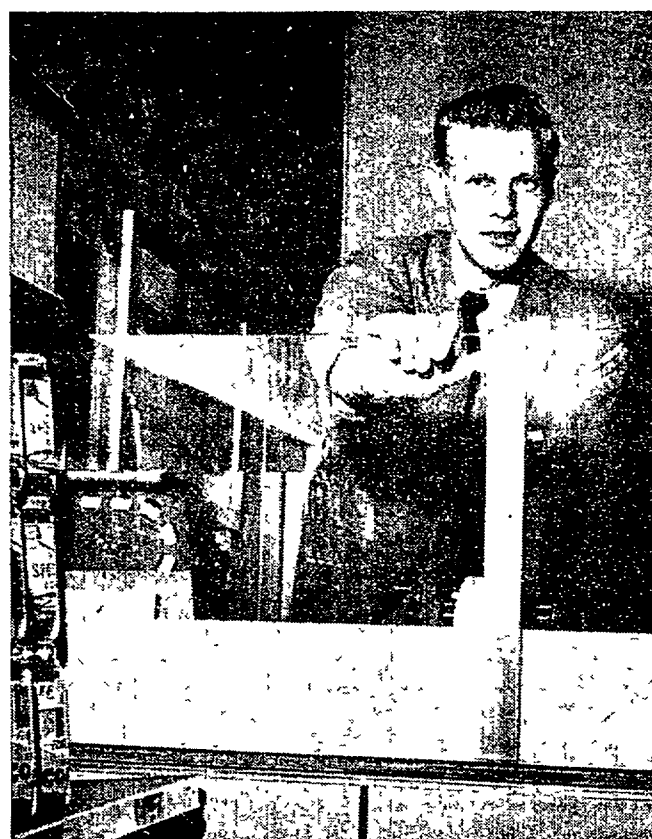

Knight suffered a concussion, fractured skull, five broken ribs and five fractures of the pelvis. Mrs. Knight suffered a fractured rib and cut nose. Mrs. Johnson was found to have a fractured left leg and cuts in the head and left foot.

Lucky "8" For Baby Sarah

Little Sarah Marie Baggett has a lucky number to guide her as she grows, because although she isn't aware of it yet —

—She was born January 8
—in the year 1958
—and weighed 8 pounds, 8 ounces
—and is the 8th child of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Baggett of Chubb road.

Oh, yes. She was born at 1:05 a.m. — but we think the clock was just being ornery.

Bad Checks Passed in Town

Two bad checks totaling $131.75 were reported to the Northville police department Tuesday by Shay's service station, 446 South Main.

Drawn by the Ann Arbor bank, they carried the name "Morris Delivery System" and were endorsed by "S. Metcalf" and "R. Spencer". The checks were returned to Shay's from the Ann Arbor bank marked "no account".

The Thursday night bridge club met at the home of Ann Holmes of East LeBost. June Anderson, a guest, won the first prize. The second prize went to Nancy Milliken, and Mitzi Olson won the consolation prize.

HAVE A LOOK AT 1899 PRICES

When the John M. Smyth Co.

of Chicago moved recently from 703 W. Madison St., to its new store at 12 N. Michigan Blvd., an 1899 catalog turned up.

What a revelation of the shopper's world of half a century ago it affords!

Bed springs sold for $1.50. Rocking chairs were $1.20 and up. Irish lace curtains went for 98 cents a pair. Clothes pins were a penny a dozen. Ham was a dime per pound.

Men's white shirts set grandpa back just 48 cents. Having bought himself a new shirt, he could get a new suit (with red piping on the lapels) for $3.90. Suspenders were nine cents. For a dollar, grandpa could buy a derby to top his ensemble.

For the small sum of $31.50 he could forget the woes of earning only $12 a week, and sit down to play his own parlor organ.

Such wages and prices may have gone forever, but there are two things which have remained the same, namely the wages of sin and the price of eternal life.

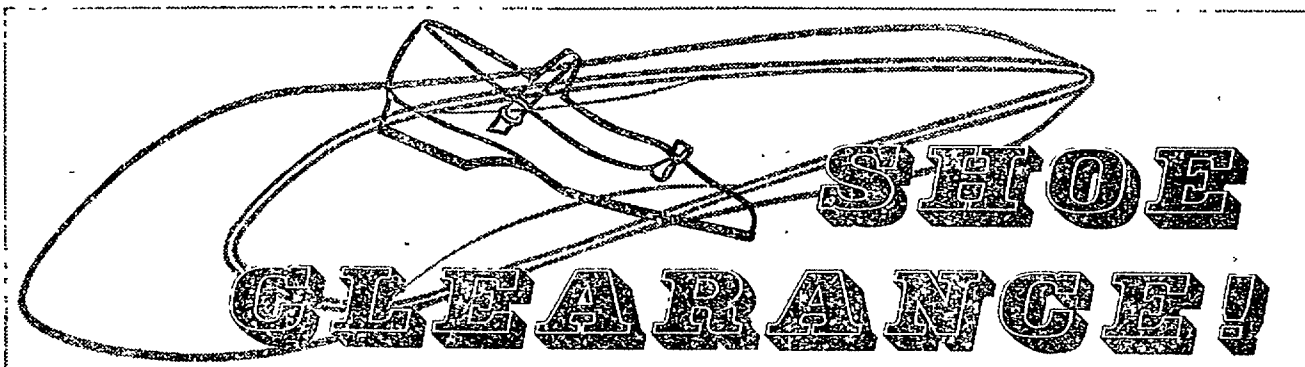

"For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." (Romans 6:23)
All have sinned, hence all deserve the wages of sin; but God's desire is that men should be saved.
